2004 COLORADO FOOTBALL: GAME 11 — NEBRASKA

Friday, November 26 at Lincoln (10:11 a.m. MST; ABC National)

RELEASE NUMBER 11 (November 22, 2004)

QUICKLY The Colorado Buffaloes (6-4, 3-4 Big 12) close out the regular season by traveling to the northeast to face the Nebraska Cornhuskers (5-5, 3-4 Big 12) in a pivotal Big 12 North Division game this Friday, November 26 in a 10:11 a.m. mountain kickoff at Memorial Stadium/Tom Osborne Field... ABC will televise the game nationally, with Terry Gannon, Tim Brant, Terry Bowden and Suzy Schuster to call the action... Westwood One will also be on hand to send the game across the nation on radio, and possibly around the globe as well with John Tautges and Dan Sileo behind the mikes... This game will mark the 400th consecutive worked by CU senior associate AD Jon Burianek (home, road and neutral; his string started with a 49-19 win over Air Force in 1970 and he's worked everyone since)... Colorado, bowl eligible, will play in the postseason for the 16th time in the last 20 seasons (staying home only in 1987, 1997, 2000 and 2003)... The Buffs take a 16-3 record into this game since 2001 against Big 12 North Division teams (Nebraska is 11-8)... Dating back to 1985, Colorado is 65-12 against teams with three or more losses; CU is also 46-16-1 in its last 63 games played in November (trailing only this week's foe, Nebraska, by 8-4-1)... The Buffs last won both their season opener and regular season finale in 1995 but can do so this year... Colorado is currently playing the nation's 36th toughest schedule according to NCAA calculations; 11 Big 12 schools are currently in the top 50 (seven in the top 20, including Texas A&M at No. 1 and Baylor at No. 2); the other, Missouri, is No. 85 (Nebraska is in at No. 50)... CU's website, www.CUBuffs.com features game day updates and live stats for all games, home and road. DEPTH CHART ON PAGE 50

IN-THE-POLLS CU was unranked in both the Associated Press (media) and USA Today/ESPN (coaches) polls of Sunday, November 20, receiving one vote in the coaches' poll (CU had climbed to No. 27 in the coaches and No. 30 in the AP before the loss to Missouri). The Buffs were last ranked on September 7 of last year, having risen to No. 17 in both after opening 2-0, and prior to the 47-26 loss to Washington State. Dating back to the preseason 1989 polls, CU has been ranked in 182 of the last 260 polls (AP; 70%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (82), trailing Florida (89), Florida State (86) and Michigan (85).

STAT OF THE WEEK Colorado has led the Big 12 Conference from wire-to-wire in Red Zone defense; however, the numbers college computer programs utilize do no match how it is tracked in the NFL or at Colorado. First, the 20-yard line is not in the zone, but the college systems recognize it as such; second, CU acknowledges possessions inside-the-20 that end with the team running out the clock not attempting to score (in the original calculations, created here in 1981). So, while the league has CU on top at 64.1, the actual number is 67.6; regardless, the figure could crack the top 10 in school history. The top 10 marks in the last 40 seasons are 47.6 (1967), 55.2 (1966), 56.3 (1991), 62.5 (1977), 63.2 (1971), 63.6 (1965), 65.7 (1969, 1978) and 66.7 (1968, 1992).

OBSCURER NOTE OF THE WEEK Without doing an ounce of research, it is safe to assume that Colorado has the all-time NCAA lead in 64-yard touchdown passes in the final seconds to win a game. That was the distance of the pass between Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh in CU's 38-31 win on November 13; Monteilh caught the ball at the KSU 23, eluding two would-be tacklers and scored with five seconds left in the game. Exactly 10 years earlier, 64 yards was the measure in Ann Arbor, Mich., when Kordell Stewart hooked up with Michael Westbrook, via Blake Anderson tip, to defeat Michigan 27-26 after time expired. That play became known both as "The Catch" as well as "The Miracle In Michigan." This year's feat does not have a special tag as of yet.

MEDIA SERVICES

- Coach Gary Barnett holds a Tuesday press luncheon in the Dal Ward Athletic Center, starting at 11:30 a.m. with lunch, followed by Barnett beginning the interview session promptly at Noon. This year's dates: Sept. 7-14-28, Oct. 5-12-19-26, Nov. 2-9-22 (Monday)-30, Dec.TBA (bowl). NOTE that there are no organized press luncheons on Sept. 21 and Nov. 16 (Tuesdays of bye weeks).
- The press conference portion of the luncheon is streamed live on www.CUBuffs.com (in the Buffs Backstage Pass area); media can watch and listen by contacting David Plati in advance for free access codes (david.plati@colorado.edu).
- Barnett can be heard Mondays on the Big 12 Football Teleconference Call at 10:40 a.m. mountain time. All coaches participate weekly; please call 913/981-5507 for access (this number is intended for media only). The teleconference is replayed later in the day, and is available by calling 402/222-9912 after 3 p.m. mountain time.
- Video highlights of CU football games are available Tuesdays on the Big 12 Conference's satellite highlights package, which can be found at Galaxy 3C, Transponder 2 (C-band), 4100 MHz vertical, standard audio 6.2-6.8 MHz between 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. MT from Aug. 31 through Dec. 7 (trouble number: 972/868-1861 or 1446). Special requests can also be made through CU's BuffVision (303-735-3637).
- The Colorado lockerroom (home and road) is closed to all members of the media after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be made available (a list of players will be solicited immediately following the game).
- Colorado's regular season football practices will be closed to the public and media in 2004, however, every preseason practice between August 10 and 27 are open to all. The first 20 minutes of practice are open for photography (video) needs from the end zones and sidelines.
- This year's tentative meeting/practice schedule (mountain time, pre-time change): Sunday (off); Monday (2:00-3:30; 3:30-6:00); Tuesday (2:15-3:30/3:30-6:00), Wednesday (2:15-3:30/3:30-6:00), Thursday (2:15-3:30/3:30-5:30), Friday (5:30-6:00, evening meetings).
- Interviews with Colorado players are allowed both pre- and post-practice on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays (the cutoff moves up to post-Tuesday practice for Friday games). Phone interviews with out-of-town media are allowed all three days in both time slots. Interviews on Sundays are at the discretion of the player, as it being the standard player day off (no meetings/practice), CU can't arrange due to NCAA rules.

CU ON THE INTERNET

- Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Log on to the official site for CU athletics at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes and broadcasts of press conferences. Buffs Backstage Pass offers the opportunity to listen to press conferences live, as well as to listen and/or watch live game action of several CU athletic teams.

ON-THE-AIR

- KOA-Radio in Denver (850 AM) originates the 14-station CU Football Network, with sports director Mark Johnson in his first year as the play-by-play voice of the Buffs. Larry Zimmer will handle the analysis duties, as he is in his 31st season broadcasting Colorado football (he handle play-by-play from 1971-81 and 1985-2003). Former CU All-American Bobby Anderson in his 28th season on the broadcasts, doing pre- and postgame shows and providing coverage from the sidelines. Wednesdays at 7 p.m., the Gary Barnett Show originates from The Millennium Harvest House Hotel in Boulder, with Johnson and Zimmer hosting the program (NOTE: the Oct. 13 show has been moved to Oct. 12.)
- FOX Sports Rocky Mountain is the television home of the Buffaloes, as "The Buffalo Stampede" will be seen in the six-state FSN area every Friday night at 7:00 p.m. New FSN college reporter Dave Benz is the host of the program; the first show airs September 3 and it will run weekly through the week following the end of basketball season for the men and/or women.

BUFFS STILL ALIVE FOR BIG 12 NORTH TITLE

The Big 12 North Division race is down to two schools, Iowa State and Colorado, and there's no mystery to how it will be decided: Iowa State controls its destiny regardless of the outcome of CU-Nebraska, as a win over Missouri this Saturday would guarantee the Cyclones a 5-3 division record and the berth opposite Oklahoma in the Big12 Championship game in Kansas City on December 4. For Colorado to win its third division title in four years, it needs to defeat Nebraska this Friday and have Missouri deal the Cyclones a loss in Ames the following day. If that happens, then Colorado and Iowa State tie for the division lead with 4-4 marks, but the Buffaloes get the nod by virtue of their 19-14 win over ISU in Boulder on October 16.

This will mark the first time in the nine-year history of the league that a record below 6-2 in league play will win a division; of the 17 division titles, including Oklahoma's this season, six have gone 8-0, five 7-1 and six 6-2. However, the team that has gone 8-0 has only won the league championship game on two of the previous five occasions, Nebraska in 1997 and Oklahoma in 2000; both went on to win national championships. Both division have produced four league titlists from the eight games heading into this year.

The current state of the North Division:

Team	W	L	Pct.	NU	MU	ISU	CU	KU	KSU	DIV	Notes

Iowa State.....	4	4	.500	1-0	3-2
Nebraska .....	4	4	.500	0-1	3-2

If NU beats CU and ISU beats MU: IOWA STATE wins the division, as the standings would look like this:

Team	W	L	Pct.	H-To-H	DIV
Iowa State.....	5	3	.625	1-0	4-1

CONFERENCE TIEBREAKERS

Here's a quick breakdown of Big 12 Conference football tiebreaker procedures from 2004 Big 12 Football Game Procedures and the Dr Pepper Championship Guide (Article 9.18):

- (a) If two teams are tied, the winner of the head-to-head game between the two teams will be the representative;
- (b) If three or more teams are tied, steps 1-7 will be followed until a determination is made; if only two teams remain tied after any step, the winner of the game between the two tied teams shall be the representative:
  - (1) The record of the teams will be compared against each other;
  - (2) The record of the teams within their division;
  - (3) The record of the teams will be compared against the next highest placed teams in their division in order of finish (if three teams, against 4, 5 and then 6; if four teams, then against 5 and then 6, etc.).
  - (4) The record of the teams will be compared against all common conference opponents;
  - (5) If the teams remain tied, then the representative will be the highest-ranked team in the first Bowl Championship Series poll following the completion of Big 12 regular-season (intra-) conference play shall be the representative;
  - (6) If the teams remain tied, then the team with the best overall winning percentage (excluding exempted games - e.g. 12th games, so-called preseason classics or at Hawaii, etc.); shall be the representative;
  - (7) The representative will be chosen by draw.

INJURY UPDATE

CU suffered mainly the usual assortment of game day injuries against Kansas State, but everyone banged up is probable for the Nebraska game. Here's the report as of November 22 (a.m.) and the status for Nebraska:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status: Nebraska
OG	Terrance Barreau	ankle (sprain)	suffered against Kansas State, but returned and played	PROBABLE
ILB	Jordon Dizon	concussion	suffered against Kansas State, but returned and played	PROBABLE
OT	Edwin Harrison	ankle (sprain)	suffered against Kansas State, but returned and played	PROBABLE
DE	Matt McChesney	elbow (sprain)	suffered against Kansas State, but returned and played	PROBABLE
OT	Clint O'Neal	concussion	suffered against Kansas State	PROBABLE
TB	Bobby Purify	knee (sprain)	slight sprain suffered late in KSU game	PROBABLE
CB	Lorenzo Sims	concussion	suffered against Kansas State, but returned and played	PROBABLE
WR	Dusty Sprague	fractured clavicle	suffered against Texas, out 2-4 weeks, could return for a bowl game	OUT
TE	Quinn Sypniewski	ankle/lower leg (break)	suffered in practice on September 24, will try to be ready for Nebraska	DAY-TO-DAY

OUT FOR THE SEASON: ILB Jason Ackermann (knee injury; surgery Nov. 18 or 19); FS J.J. Billingsley (Oct. 12 knee surgery); TB Brandon Caesar (surgery, both knees); DT Nick Clement (torn pec muscle); OLB Chad Cusworth (torn ACL); PK J.T. Eberly (torn Achilles); ILB Chris Hollis (spinal cord contusion); CB Vance Washington (shoulder surgery); SS Ryan Walters (broken thumb, surgery); WR Patrick Williams (two broken hands (rehab/no surgery)).

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY or PROBABLE. Injuries will be updated in-game, post-game, the Sunday or Monday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

CU vs. NEBRASKA Nebraska leads the all-time series by a 44-16-2 count, which includes a 23-7 advantage in Lincoln where CU won the last meeting by 28-13 in 2002; the two first met in 1898, making it the second oldest rivalry in CU's books (the Colorado State series began in 1893). The winner of the CU-Nebraska game, even though not at the end of the year, wound up deciding the Big Eight champion in the conference's last seven years of existence, with CU winning the league crown in 1989 and 1990. The two shared the title in 1991 and Nebraska captured the last four (1992-95). Thus, it was only fitting that the pair met to determine the Big 12's first North Division champ in 1996 (Nebraska won, 17-12 in Lincoln). CU has faced Nebraska 18 times when the Huskers were either undefeated or had just one loss (nine times each); CU's had zero or just one loss on eight occasions, and both schools were ranked in the top 25 in every meeting from 1988 through 1996, as they were again in 2001. Gary Barnett is 2-3 against Nebraska; Bill Callahan is 0-0 against Colorado.

➔ This is the first time since 1981 that neither team enters the game ranked (and just the fourth time at least one is not in the AP Top 10).

Series Did You Know—Nebraska last six wins in the series have been by a combined 24 points; Colorado last two by a total of 41 points. However, eight of the last 15 have been decided by six points or less, and the loser has scored 31 or more four of the last five outings.

CU-NEBRASKA BY THE NUMBERS Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia in the Colorado-Nebraska series:

- 8 The wind chill factor at kickoff of the November 2, 1991 game, which ended in a 19-19 tie.
- 0 The number of first downs CU allowed NU on November 18, 1961, an NCAA record, in the Buffs' 7-0 victory.
- 3.0 The average margin of victory for Nebraska in the first five games of the series in Big 12 play (1996-2000; outscoring CU, 132-117).
- 5 The number of times Nebraska has passed for 200 or more yards against CU in its history (1965, 1966, 1967, 1989, 1995, going 3-2).
- 11 The combined distance of four Eric Bieniemy touchdown runs (all in the fourth quarter) in CU's 27-12 win at Lincoln in 1990.
- 16 The number of tackles CU's Butkus Award winning linebacker Matt Russell had in the '96 Nebraska game.
- 20.5 The average margin of victory for Colorado in its two wins over the Huskers in Big 12 play (2001-02; outscoring NU, 90-49).
- 31 The total offense by Nebraska in the November 18, 1961 game in Boulder, won by CU, 7-0 (on 35 offensive plays).
- 31 The number of players on CU's roster for the 1994 Nebraska game who went on to play in the NFL.
- 44.4 The average game time temperature of the last 14 games in the series between CU and Nebraska (31 last year).
- 57 The length in yards of a field goal made by CU's Dave DeLine on October 25, 1986, the third longest field goal in school history.
- 70 The yards covered on the famous pitch from Darian Hagan to J.J. Flannigan that tied the 1989 game at 7-7 in the first quarter.
- 71 The combined distance of six Chris Brown touchdown runs (three in each half) in CU's 62-36 win in Boulder in 2001.
- 85 The yards Greg Biekert returned a blocked extra point in the 1991 game in Boulder, the only defensive PAT in CU history.
- 165 The rushing yards by Rashaan Salaam against Nebraska in 1993, the second most yards rushing by a Buff in the history of the series.
- 198 The rushing yards by Chris Brown against Nebraska in 2001, the most yards rushing by a Buff in the history of the series.
- 404 The number of rushing yards CU earned in the 1957 game, its most in the series.
- 582 The number of total yards CU earned in the 2001 game, its most in the series.
- 867.0 The average yards of total offense in this game in the last five meetings (CU has averaged 449.0, Nebraska 418.0).

THE SET-UP Colorado needs a win to remain in the hunt for the Big 12 North Division title, while Nebraska is in need of a win to also stay in the race as well as to become bowl eligible and avoid its first losing season since 1961. One situation is reversed for the first time: in 1997 and 2003, Colorado was in need of a win against the Huskers to become bowl eligible, but Nebraska ended CU's season both times with verdicts of 27-24 in '97 and 31-22 last year.

NU LAST TIME OUT Nebraska dropped a 30-3 decision at Oklahoma on November 13, the long-time rivals' first meeting since NU's 20-10 win in 2001 that snapped the Sooners' 20-game winning streak. Jason White threw for 383 yards and three touchdowns to pace OU, completing 29-of-35 passes including 18 in a row at one point. Cory Ross was the star for Nebraska rushing 30 times for 130 yards before leaving the game with an injury in the fourth quarter. The Sooner broke open a 3-0 game with three second quarter touchdowns to take a 23-0 lead at halftime, with the Huskers getting on the board on the game's final play on a 39-yard field goal by David Dyches, extending NU's scoring streak to 112 consecutive games, second longest in the conference behind Colorado's 194. OU had 511 total yards (413 pass/98 rush), while NU had 274 (201 rush/73 pass) in a game that had just one turnover and 11 total penalties.

THE LAST TIME

NEBRASKA 31, COLORADO 22

(November 28, 2003)

BOULDER — Cory Ross rushed for 103 yards and a touchdown with Jammal Lord accounting for two scores as No. 25 Nebraska ended Colorado's bid for postseason play with a 31-22 victory.

NU got on the board first, as tight end Matt Herian slipped behind the coverage for a 58-yard catch and run from Lord for a score. But the Buffs knotted the score on the next possession, with Joel Klatt hitting D.J. Hackett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. It was the first of nine receptions on the day for Hackett, who went on to set a CU single-season record with 78 for the year.

CU took the lead early in the second quarter, as Mason Crosby connected on a 44-yard field goal to cap a 13-play drive to give the Buffs a 10-7 edge. But on the ensuing kickoff, NU's Josh Davis returned Crosby's kickoff 64 yards to the CU 35, where Crosby made the tackle himself but got the facemask in the process to tack on 15 yards. From there, it took just three plays for Lord to score on a 5-yard keeper and put the Huskers back on top, 14-10. After stopping CU cold on the next drive, Nebraska got the ball back and marched 63 yards in 12 plays, capped by a 2-yard TD run by Ross for a 21-10 lead.

After the teams traded scoreless possessions, Hackett would come up big on two different ends. He blocked a Kyle Larson punt that set the Buffs up at the NU 8, and on third-and-goal, Klatt found him for a 6-yard touchdown play that brought the Buffs to within five (21-16) with 49 seconds left in the half. The Buffs went for two, but Klatt's pass to Hackett fell incomplete and the score stood at halftime. CU came out strong in the third quarter, forcing Nebraska into three plays and out, taking over at its own 42. Seven plays later, Klatt hit a streaking Derek McCoy with a 31-yard touchdown pass. The play put the Buffs back up, 22-21, and also tied McCoy for CU's all-time career touchdown reception with 20. The Buffs went for two again, but were intercepted.

NU took the lead for good at 24-22 with 8:30 remaining, as David Dyches made a 19-yard field goal after the CU defense stiffened inside its 5. Klatt was intercepted on the third play of the next drive by T.J. Hollowell, who returned the ball to the CU 6. The Buff defense was again tough, but Judd Davies went over from the 1 on fourth-and-goal to give the Huskers a two-score lead.

CU's comeback bid ended on its next drive, as after the Buffs drove to the NU 5, a Klatt pass intended for Hackett was picked off in the end zone by Pat Ricketts. With just 1:58 remaining, the Huskers were able to run out the clock as the Buffs were out of timeouts. Nebraska amassed 369 yards of total offense to Colorado's 333, as the Huskers played turnover-free ball to counter CU's success on third downs (11-of-20).

QUICK STRIKES Nebraska has had some uncanny luck scoring right out of the gate against the Buffaloes dating back to 1989; often it seems the first two digits on the scoreboard clock read either 14: or 13: after its does so. Since 1989, Nebraska has jumped ahead of the Buffaloes 7-0 in a variety of ways:

Season	Player	Scoring Play	Score	Time	Notes
2003	Matt Herian	58 pass from Jammal Lord	0- 7	10:15 1Q	NU's second drive, seventh play overall is fourth 50+ yard opening TD

1989	Bryan Carpenter	51 pass from Gerry Gdowski	0- 7	13:30 1Q	NU's first offensive play of the game

STRONG FINISHES Colorado usually finishes fairly strong against the Huskers since the Big 12 Conference was formed in 1996. In the eight games between the two, the Buffs have outscored Nebraska, 83-32 in the fourth quarter, though the Huskers got the better of the Buffs last year by 10-0. In the four games in Boulder, thanks to CU running a hurry-up offense on two occasions, the Buffs own a 58-16 edge in the fourth; in the four games in Lincoln, CU's up by 25-16.

CU-NU THANKSGIVING TRADITION The annual meeting between the two shifted to the Friday after Thanksgiving in 1996 in the first year of the Big 12 Conference, and so far, there's nary been a stinker in the first eight games, though Nebraska holds a 6-2 edge. The Huskers six wins have been by a combined 24 points (the first five between 1996-2000 by a total of 15 points), with CU's two by a total of 41. However, CU's wins were not without excitement: in 2001, NU came in ranked No. 2 in both polls but No. 1 in the BCS Standings; CU zoomed to a 35-3 lead early in the second quarter, only to see the Huskers battle back behind Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch to cut the lead to 42-30 early in the third. But CU's Chris Brown's six touchdowns on the day paved the way for CU's 62-36 win. In 2002, CU left Lincoln with a 28-13 win, its first in Nebraska's capital city since 1990, but it was a 14-13 contest entering the fourth quarter.

IN BUFF HISTORY: NOVEMBER 26 Colorado owns an all-time mark of 7-6 in games played on November 26, but most the games were played in 1960 or before; CU is 6-3 on the road on the day. The only game involving the Buffs on the date since came in 1999, when Nebraska dealt the Buffs the first of two back-to-back heartbreaking defeats. This one was 33-30 in overtime, as CU rallied fro 27-3 down in the fourth quarter to tie the game, and had a chance to win it but Jeremy Aldrich's 33-yard field goal was ruled no good and the Huskers won in overtime. The Buffs have lost four in a row on the date, last winning in 1942 at Denver by 31-6.

ROAD-SWEET-ROAD The Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 17 seasons. CU has been victorious 55 of the last 83 times in enemy stadiums and is 63-33-1 dating back to the 1985 season (a 65.5 winning clip). During this time frame, CU won a school record 10 straight road games (between 1994 and 1996), before the streak ended in the '96 regular season finale at Nebraska (it bested the old mark of eight straight set between 1922 and 1924). Over the last 17 seasons, Colorado is 54-27-1 away from home (a 66.5 winning percentage), which stands eighth nationally and second among Big 12 Conference teams in this span. The Buffaloes own a 43-20-1 mark in their last 64 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—five losses at Nebraska, two at Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor, OSU, Texas and Texas A&M; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 18-17 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (1-2 in 2004). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games, despite some being anything but (i.e., Colorado vs. Texas at Irving for the '01 Big 12 title.)

CHART WATCH Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts 10 games into the 2004 season (note Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history):

- ⇒ FS J.J. BILLINGSLEY is tied for 78th in total tackles (170), and is tied for 36th in solo tackles (123).
- ⇒ PK MASON CROSBY is tied for sixth in field goals made (21) and is tied for 28th in scoring and is ninth in kick scoring (120 points).
- ⇒ QB ERIK GREENBERG is for 31st in passing yards (737), and is tied for 24th in touchdown passes (6).
- ⇒ WR EVAN JUDGE is tied for 67th in career receptions (28).
- ⇒ TE JOE KLOPFENSTEIN is tied for 37th in career receptions (46), is 60th in career receiving yards (452) and is tied for 15th in receiving TDs (8); those same numbers rank him 8th, 12th and 4th among tight ends.
- ⇒ QB JOEL KLATT is fifth in passing yards (4,405), is second in completions (399), is third in attempts (640), is first in completion percentage (62.3), is fifth in touchdown passes (29) and is seventh in total offense (4,279).
- ⇒ DE MATT MCCHESENEY is tied for 26th in quarterback sacks (10.0).
- ⇒ WR RON MONTEILH is 25th in career receptions (55), and is 44th in career receiving yards (546).
- ⇒ TB BOBBY PURIFY is fourth in rushing yards (2,879), is tied for 31st in receptions (49), is 53rd in receiving yards (501), is fifth in all-purpose yards (3,380), is tied for 28th in scoring (120 points) and is tied for 17th in rushing touchdowns (19).
- ⇒ P JOHN TORP is fifth in career punting average (44.78), is fourth in punts inside-the-20 (38) and is 12th in total punts (118).
- ⇒ VB LAWRENCE VICKERS is tied for 42nd in career receptions (42) and is 74th in career receiving yards (402).
- ⇒ HC GARY BARNETT is sixth in games coached (72), sixth in wins (40) and is sixth in conference wins (28).

NINTH BEST SINCE '89 Colorado has the nation's ninth best record over the last 15-plus seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 131-57-4 record (and over the last 20 seasons, CU's 159-76-4 mark is 14th nationally, from the time coach Bill McCartney reversed CU's fortunes by switching to the wishbone on offense. 57 TWO-DEEP GAMES LOST A total of 51 games by players in the two-deep have been lost due to injury this season. TB Brandon Caesar (10), CB Vance Washington (10), ILB Chris Hollis (9), FS J.J. Billingsley (8) and TE Quinn Sypniewski (7) account for the bulk of the games. Other prominent players include PK Kevin Eberhart (3), WR/KR Bernard Jackson (3), ILB Walter Boye-Doe (2), WR Dusty Sprague (2), ILB Jason Ackermann (1), WR Ron Monteilh (1) and TE Jesse Wallace (1). This count doesn't include freshman WR Patrick Williams, who has missed eight games with a pair of broken hands; he likely would have cracked CU's receiver rotation.

HANGING ON Colorado has suffered only 16 fumbles, with seven lost, in its first 10 games. In school history, there have been only four seasons where the Buffs haven't had at least 20: 1948 (18 in 9 games), 1960 (17 in 10 games), 1961 (19 in 10 games) and 1993 (18 in 11 games). CU's lost at least 10 in all but five seasons, with the low of 5 occurring in 1956 (despite 23 fumbles), with 6 in '93 and 7 in 1989.

HONOR CANDIDATES There are a few Colorado players worthy of consideration for national and conference honors as the season is now past the midway point. Those of you who participate in such ballots, please take a look at the below Colorado Buffaloes who we feel are worthy of consideration at this time:

PK MASON CROSBY All-America, All-Big 12 Conference Candidate (Lou Groza Semifinalist)

See a full page on Crosby's craft elsewhere in these notes (page 10)... He is first in the nation in field goals made from 50 yards and out with five, including the longest in the NCAA in 2004 (60 yards vs. Iowa State)... CU's leading scorer with 68 points, he is 14-of-18 on field goals and 26-of-28 in PAT kicks.

OG BRIAN DANIELS All Big 12 Conference Candidate

Grading out at 81.3 percent on the season (a +/- percentage system), tops among the O-linemen... He has allowed ½ a sack in playing 648 snaps from scrimmage (346 pass plays), with 24 knockdown and 6 TD blocks on the year... Has also allowed a team low 4 pressures among the starters and has just 2 penalties.

OLB BRIAN IWUH All Big 12 Conference Candidate

He is the team leader in tackles with 78 (59 solo), with 10 tackles for loss; he had a monster 13 tackle game at Kansas (with 12 solo)... Also has 9 third down stops, a fumble recovery, a caused INT and a TD save. He had his first career interception against CSU, returning it for a TD in what proved to be the winning points.

TE JOE KLOPFENSTEIN All Big 12 Conference Candidate

The prototype tight end, as he's equally good catching the ball as well as blocking for others... He has 26 catches for 262 yards and four touchdowns this season, in a conference where most of the tight ends have similar statistics... Had two key grabs in CU's late touchdown march to take the lead at Texas A&M.

DT MATT McCHESNEY All Big 12 Conference Candidate

He's having a fine senior year, as he's played through several ankle sprains to post 54 tackles (39 solo)... He also has five quarterback sacks and eight pressures, nine third down stops and a fumble recovery in the final seconds to seal CU's win at Washington State.

TB BOBBY PURIFY All Big 12 Conference Candidate (Doak Walker Award List)

Despite battling assorted injuries, mainly to his shoulders, Purify leads the Buffaloes and is seventh in the conference in rushing (880 yards/88.0 ypg), despite missing the better part of 10 quarters this season... Had 24 rushes for 155 yards and 2 TDs versus Kansas State... He has 13 receptions for 158 yards and 8 TDs as well.

P JOHN TORP All-America, All-Big 12 Conference Candidate (Ray Guy Award List)

See a full page on Torp elsewhere in these notes (page 11)... The nation's second leading punter (47.2 for 52 kicks), he is equally as dangerous at home as on the road, and owns a 51.5 average on 13 punts inside the CU 25... He has seven kicks 60 yards and longer (17 of 50+), but also owns 19 inside-the-20.

OT SAM WILDER All Big 12 Conference Candidate

He is grading out second among all the linemen on the year (81.1 percent), as he's played 646 snaps from scrimmage and has developed into one of the finer tackles in the league after converting to the position just 15 months ago... He has 13 knockdown blocks on the year and has started a team best 33 straight games.

FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN / ALL-LEAGUE CONSIDERATION

ILB JORDON DIZON	Has started eight games, including the opener, only the sixth true frosh to do so in CU history; he led the team in tackles from the first to the eighth game and is still second with 72, a CU true frosh record and the top number by a freshman in the Big 12.
WR DUSTY SPRAGUE	Was getting increased playing time until injured against Texas... he did post only the second 100-yard receiving day by a freshman in CU history (8-101 at Texas A&M). He had 21 catches for 272 yards (1 TD) on the year and could return for a bowl.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

DE ALEX LIGON	(Defensive; September 11 at Washington State: 7 tackles, 6 solo, 4 TFL's, 3 sacks, 1 FF)
PK MASON CROSBY	(Special Teams; October 16 vs. Iowa State: 4-4 FG, including a school record 60-yarder; 5 KO's, all for touchbacks)
CB STEPHONE ROBINSON	(Special Teams; November 6 at Kansas: 98 return yards, including a 48-yard punt return for a TD that put CU ahead for good)

COLORADO CHAPTER NFF/COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

QB JOEL KLATT	(September 18 vs. North Texas: 26-of-33 for 371 yards and 3 TDs passing, 0 INT; including 13 straight completions)
PK MASON CROSBY	(October 16 vs. Iowa State: 4-4 FG, including a school record 60-yarder; 5 KO's, all for touchbacks).

LOU GROZA THREE STARS OF THE WEEK AWARD WINNER

PK MASON CROSBY	(October 16 vs. Iowa State: 4-4 FG, including a school record 60-yarder; 5 KO's, all for touchbacks).
------------------------	---

ESPN/PONTIAC GAME CHANGING PLAY OF THE WEEK FINALISTS

OLB JOE SANDERS	(September 11 at Washington State: 51 yards interception return for a touchdown to give CU the lead for good)
------------------------	---

PLAYERS FOR NATIONAL AWARDS

Lou Groza Award (top placekicker): Mason Crosby (one of 20 semifinalists)
Ray Guy Award (top punter): John Torp (one of 36 candidates on official watch list)
Davey O'Brien Award (top quarterback): Joel Klatt (one of 42 candidates on official watch list)
Doak Walker Award (top running back): Bobby Purify (one of 42 candidates on official watch list)

CROSBY MAKES HISTORY AND LOU GROZA AWARD PUSH Sophomore PK Mason Crosby, with at least one game yet to play, has put an assault on the school's field goal records. The crown jewel to date is a school and Folsom Field record 60-yard field goal he made in the second quarter against Iowa State in Boulder. The kick had plenty of distance, but did hit the left upright and caromed through. One of four field goals in the game, he earned notice from the Lou Groza Award committee, which selected him as one of its three "Stars of the Week." On November 9, he was officially selected as one of 20 semifinalists for the 2004 Lou Groza Award.

His 55-yard field goal in the fourth quarter against Colorado State proved to be the winning points and got him off to a good start after scoring a freshman record 52 points in 2003, so no sophomore slump from the get-go. It was the first 50-plus yard field goal made by a Buffalo in 11 seasons (since September 25, 1993, when Mitch Berger made a 54-yard kick against Miami, Fla., in Boulder). Then, against Washington State in Seattle, at about as close to sea level as a stadium can be, he nailed a 52-yarder, the third longest ever by a Buffalo away from home (and the sixth longest at or just above sea level in the NCAA in 2004). Other Crosby crafts:

- ➔ He's already set three school records (see page 15), to go with his record for points by a freshman (52) he established in 2003.
- ➔ The 60-yarder against Iowa State is the longest in the NCAA this season (see chart below) and is the longest in the NCAA since 1999. It was just the 10th field goal of 60 yards or more in the NCAA since 1988, when tees were no longer allowed; no kicker has made two.
- ➔ He has five field goals of 50 yards or longer this year, which is not only a CU single season record (several had two), it's already a career mark. Dave DeLine and Jim Harper had three career kicks of 50 yards or longer, now topped by Crosby's four. The five are tied for the most in the nation with Ohio State's Mike Nugent (the NCAA record is eight).
- ➔ He is 21-of-27 in field goals in his career (77.8%), and is already tied for sixth in career field goals made and is eight in kick scoring (120 points). The 21 field goals is already a school best for a sophomore, topping the 16 Jeremy Aldrich made his frosh (4) and soph (12) seasons; he is also 12-of-12 during his career from 40 yards and in.
- ➔ The average field position for the opponent after his kickoffs is the 20; he's kicked off 51 times, with 37 going for touchbacks; five of the kicks he has had returned haven't been advanced beyond the 20; and only one has been taken further than the 30 (to the 31).
- ➔ Perhaps his best kick in the Iowa State game was an 87-yard kickoff for a touchback after he had to boot it from the 20-yard line following a penalty. "I didn't even expect that. I was just trying to get it up in the air to give the coverage team time to get down there," Crosby said of the monster kick.
- ➔ He was one of the Lou Groza Award Top Three Stars of the Week for October 10-16 for his performance against Iowa State.
- ➔ The four field goals he made against ISU are a career-high; the CU single game record is five by Jeremy Aldrich vs. Kansas in 1999; it was the ninth time a Buff has made four in a game. The four field goals added to 185 yards (28, 60, 54, 33), topping the old 4-made in a game best of 162 by Mark Zetterberg against Nebraska in 1976 (50,46,37,29). Aldrich's five added to 220 yards.

TORP MAKING ALL-AMERICA RUN

Junior punter John Torp, out of the hunt for the Ray Guy Award (see below), is still very much a contender for All-America honors. He is first in the Big 12 and second in the NCAA with a 47.2 average, but looking inside his numbers, he is averaging 51.5 on 13 kicks inside the Buff 25, as well as 48.1 yards per punt on CU's side of the field. He has 19 punts inside-the-20 (just two off the school record), or 37 percent of his 52 kicks. Some other Torp "torpedoes"...

- ➔ His punting has paved the way for Colorado to lead the nation in net punting with a 42.50 average.
- ➔ On the road, he owns a healthy 43.9 average (23-for-1009), a figure by itself would rank 12th in the NCAA, and is tops in the Big 12.
- ➔ Fourth Quarter Punting. Torp owns an average of 44.3 on nine fourth quarter punts (4 In20, 2 In10); inside-the-CU25, he has three fourth quarter kicks for 169 yards, or 56.3 per (and is averaging 49.0 on six punts adjusted from the 50 back).
- ➔ No Easy Way Out. Torp has 52 punts on the year, but only two have gone for touchbacks. Seven have been downed, leaving 43 to either be returned (34) or fair caught (9). Opponents are averaging just 7.2 yards per return against him.
- ➔ Perhaps lost late in CU's 27-24 victory over CSU was the 61-yard punt that Torp launched to get the Buffs out of a hole at their own 16 yardline with 4:30 remaining.
- ➔ Torp currently owns the highest career average among active punters in the NCAA at 44.78. USC's Tom Malone holds down the No. 2 spot at 44.57, Wake Forest's Ryan Plackemeier is third (44.46) and Baylor's Daniel Sepulveda fourth (44.30); he and Torp are the only Big 12 punters in the active top 10.
- ➔ Torp also owns two of the top 20 net punting games in CU history, both this year: his 48.8 net average for five punts against Oklahoma State (Oct. 9) is the 12th best effort, while his 46.7 for three kicks against Colorado State in the season opener (Sept. 4) is ranked 19th.
- ➔ NOTE: Torp was not selected as one of 10 semifinalists for the Ray Guy Award as he was deemed to have too many punts returned(!).

PURIFY MAKING HISTORY Senior TB Bobby Purify keeps on moving up the career rushing list at Colorado, as he is No. 4 all-time (he is also the 17th active-leading rusher in the NCAA). He now has 2,879 career yards, as he his sights are now set on trying to reach 3,000 and join the 3,000/500 club (rushing/receiving). That's not too shabby for a player who had never led the team in rushing prior to this season. He is now one of just six players to gain 2,500 career rushing yards and is bidding to be third to gain 3,000 or more career yards at Colorado. Throw in his career receiving, and he has 3,380 all-purpose yards (he has no return yards), one of nine just to accomplish reaching the 3,000-yard plateau. He is now fifth in this department as well.

- ➔ Heading into the Nebraska game, he is 80 yards shy of passing Charlie Davis (2,958) into third, and would need 179 yards to catapult past Rashaan Salaam (3,057) into second. He needs 120 yards to reach 1,000 for the season (there have been 12 in Colorado history), and 121 yards to reach 3,000 for his career (only two have done that).
- ➔ Purify is the first player in Colorado history to have over 2,500 yards rushing (2,879) and 500 yards receiving (501). He became the 122nd player in NCAA Division I-history to do it (the 14th from a Big 12 school), and is trying to become the 86th to join the 3,000/500 club (10 from the conference have previously done it, including two other active players, Texas 'Cedric Benson and KSU's Darren Sproles).
- ➔ He also set a record for the most yards from scrimmage (rushing and receiving) with a minimum of 500 of each; his 3,380 total tops the old mark of 3,212 by Herchell Troutman between 1994-97.
- ➔ Purify has also taken care of the ball in his CU career: he has 610 touches (561 rushes, 49 receptions) and has just nine fumbles, or one for every 67.8 touches.
- ➔ He was slowed for a six-game span due to not one but two shoulder injuries (65-for-290 after suffering it against Missouri), but he bounced back with the 155-yard effort against Kansas State. He still has 66 carries for five or more yards on the season (25 for 10 or more), with his long run of the season a 41-yard jaunt at Texas A&M.
- ➔ Against Washington State, Purify had a 65-yard touchdown run called back because of a holding penalty well away from the play; in 2001, he had a 78-yard touchdown run wiped out because of a similar situation. Against Kansas State, he lost 32 yards to yet another hold, and 55 yards when he was accidentally tripped up by teammate Mike Duren on a breakaway run. Those four plays alone would give him 230 additional rushing yards for his career.
- ➔ Due to being granted a medical redshirt for 2003, but still seeing enough plays to letter, Purify's senior year letter will make him just the eighth player in CU history to earn five letters, the first since Clare Coffin did so in 1908.

PURIFY-BROWN: MIRROR IMAGES Former Colorado tailback Chris Brown is enjoying a breakout season in the NFL, as the first-time starter for the Tennessee Titans made NFL history in becoming only the second running back since 1970 to rush for at least 100 yards in his first three starts. But let's flashback to 2001 and 2002, when Brown and current CU senior Bobby Purify were one of the top two rushing duos in the nation.

In 2001, the pair combined for 1,862 yards and 21 touchdowns during the regular season (Brown 946/16, Purify 916/5); but in 2002, they really made their mark as they led the nation in rushing yards gained by a duo with 2,483 (also a CU record for a twosome). Brown finished third in the nation that year with 1,744 yards (and 18 TDs), while Purify still had time to gallop for 739 and three scores.

Despite competing for the starting role, the two were and remain good friends and talk often, at least a couple of times a week. The irony is that Purify was a recruit who came to CU sort of under the radar, while Brown transferred to Colorado from Northwestern via Fort Scott Community College after the Northwestern coaching staff wanted to move him to wide receiver.

Here's a comparison of Brown and Purify to date; Purify passed Brown into fourth place all-time at Colorado in rushing yards, as Purify has 2,879 to Brown's 2,690. Purify and Brown are just the second pair to have played together for two seasons and be among CU's top five rushers at any point in Colorado history; the only other time involved the trio of Carroll Hardy, Frank Bernardi and Emerson Wilson in the mid-1950s. After three games, they were separated by just one carry and one yard; Purify's shoulder injury and Brown's big Monday night against Green Bay created some separation, though Bobby said he'd catch him... which he did after 10 games. The duo have mirrored each other all season; after seven games the two were separated by only nine carries and three yards, while after CU's 10th game, Brown had 11 more carries and Purify eight more yards. A game-by-game look:

THE SENIOR FINALE... OR IS IT?

As the season winds down, 12 Buffalo seniors could be playing in their last regular season game today, though a bowl game lies ahead; they took the field for the final time behind Ralphie at Folsom Field against Kansas State on November 13. Of course, if it works out that CU wins the Big 12 North, they'd have the league title game as well as the bowl. Eleven are fifth-year seniors, including three who transferred to CU from other institutions; eight others were members of the 2000 recruiting class, and the ninth is DT McKenzie Tilmon, who is the lone player with a year of eligibility remaining at this time (TE Quinn Sypniewski could decide to appeal for a sixth year if he can't return this season). The 2004 Colorado senior class:

2004 FANTASTIC FINISHES

Colorado has been involved in seven games decided by nine points or less this season (going 5-2), five of which featured the outcome still up for grabs as the game entered the final minute.

COLORADO 27, COLORADO STATE 24

Colorado led from start to finish, though CSU came back to briefly tie the game at 17 after falling behind 17-0 in the second quarter. But the Buffs worked back to a 27-17 lead with 6:25 remaining, with CSU cutting it to 27-24 with 4:35 to play.

THE FANTASTIC FINISH: CSU got the ball back and drove as deep as one could into CU territory, netting a first-and-goal at the CU 1 with 30 seconds to play. After spiking the ball to stop the clock, freshman linebacker Jordon Dizon stuffed Marcus Houston for no gain on second down, and on third down with time running out, CSU went for the win instead of the tie. But J.J. Billingsley stayed with the running back and brought Tristan Walker down for a 2-yard loss as the clock expired.

COLORADO 20, WASHINGTON STATE 12

This one wasn't pretty; in fact, CU won a game with its second fewest yards (125) ever on offense in a victory. But two defensive scores broke open a 3-3 game in the third quarter, and CU led by 20-12 as Washington State took over with 1:13 left and drove to the Buff 4-yard line in just eight plays.

THE FANTASTIC FINISH: This one ended eerily in similar fashion as the Colorado State game the previous week. WSU quarterback Alex Brink spiked the ball to stop the clock, and then on second down, dropped back but then darted forward to try to sneak into the end zone. But Jordon Dizon was there to smack him, forcing a fumble that Matt McChesney recovered with two seconds left to cement the CU victory.

TEXAS A & M 29, COLORADO 26 (OT)

Colorado, a three touchdown underdog coming in, led most of the way, including by a 19-7 margin after opening the third quarter with a long drive for a score. But the game had five lead changes, three after the 11:16 mark of the fourth quarter.

THE FANTASTIC FINISH: There were two, one in regulation and the second in overtime. The Buffs took a 26-23 lead on Bobby Purify's 1-yard run with 1:05 remaining. But A&M mounted a furious rally, with Reggie McNeal driving the Aggies to the CU 9, where the Buffs stiffened and forced a game tying field goal. In the OT, the Buffs did the same after A&M had another first-and-goal, giving the offense a chance to win it. However, Purify had the ball knocked free after a what would have been a first down run on third down, but A&M recovered and thus won it in thrilling fashion.

COLORADO 30, KANSAS 21

The Buffs spotted Kansas a 14-0 lead in the first four minutes, and the game had the initial appearance of looking like anything but something that could go down to the wire. But Colorado battled back, and took the lead for good on a Stephone Robinson 48-yard punt return for a score late in the third quarter. And with 4:34 left, Lawrence Vickers scored on a 4-yard run, but the extra point sailed wide, leaving CU ahead by nine, 30-21.

THE FANTASTIC FINISH: The least dramatic of the five, Kansas was marching to try to close the gap, and surely would have tried an on-side kick. But with Kansas facing a 2nd-and-5 at the CU 18, Terrence Wheatley picked off a John Nielson pass in the end zone with 57 seconds remaining to end any last-minute miracle hope by the Jayhawks.

COLORADO 38, KANSAS STATE 31

In a game that could have been an instant classic for ESPN, it wasn't because it wasn't televised. Those are the breaks, but this was a good one. Kansas State battled back three different times to tie the game, as it came back from 10-0, 24-10 and 31-24 deficits, tying the game at 31 with 36 seconds left. The game seemed headed for overtime.

THE FANTASTIC FINISH: It was only fitting that in the 10-year anniversary of "The Catch," Colorado's miracle win at Michigan, that a pass play covering the exact same distance in the game's final seconds produced a dramatic win for the Buffaloes. The Buffs took over at their 23 with 30 seconds remaining, but Joel Klatt opened with a pair of incompletions. Faced with a 3rd-&-10, Lawrence Vickers dashed up the middle for 13 yards on a draw play, netting CU a first down at its 36. From there, and with 0:16 showing on the clock, four receivers took off to get the Buffs into field goal range. Klatt threw a laser beam to Ron Monteilh at the KSU 23, where he eluded two defenders and sprinted into the end zone with the winning score with five seconds left.

DAWN'S ENTHUSIASM, VERSATILITY SECOND TO NONE*By SID Student Assistant Erich Schubert (November 14, 2004)*

Akarika Dawn may not be a candidate for Bartlett's quotations, and well, who really is, but the junior linebacker brings voluble play to the Buffs' defense every Saturday.

"There's no doubt he gets excited out there on the football field," said Colorado linebackers coach Brian Cabral. "He loves the game and every bit of his time out there."

Dawn's playmaking ability is the primary reason he is able to incite resonating enthusiasm throughout the home crowd and his teammates.

If the crowd makes a sudden and deafening roar following a stagnant hum, it's probably because Dawn is jumping and waving his hands in the air or chasing down the opposing quarterback.

"I always have the ability to make a big, game-changing play," Dawn said. "I'm just a guy who runs around and makes stuff happen."

Dawn is listed as a linebacker, but he has shuffled between his current position and the secondary (safety) in each of his three seasons for the Buffs, making it difficult for him to settle in.

"I think it's been a tough season for him," Cabral said. "We've asked him to play a couple of positions earlier in the year and that's been hard. He's the only guy we had that was able to do it. I think his progress has been hampered a bit by asking him to do too much, but his attitude has been great."

Not only has his attitude been impressive, but also his leadership and feel for the game has landed him defensive calling duties dating back to last season. This is an important role, as the Buffs make a lot of adjustments throughout the course of a game, forcing Dawn to often learn on the run.

"I still have a lot of learning to do, but my leadership role is part of my job being a linebacker," Dawn said. "I have to make sure everything is set up straight and everyone is where they should be on the field."

Dawn admires a couple of NFL linebackers for the way they influence him as a person and player. If it were possible to combine the toughness of Baltimore linebacker Ray Lewis and the character of Tampa Bay linebacker Derrick Brooks, then the result would be the prototype Akarika in his eyes.

"Playing linebacker I look up to Ray Lewis because he has the ability to lead his team and take over a game," Dawn said. "And then there are guys like Brooks that are great men. He not only walks the walk, but he's a great person off the field. He's the type of guy you would learn how to raise a family from."

The knock on Dawn has been his lack of toughness, where his coaches see as an opportunity for improvement.

"He's a very athletic and instinctive player, but not necessarily a physical player," Cabral said. "To be an inside linebacker I think he needs to keep working on his physical play."

Dawn said he's not out on the football field to hurt anybody, shrugging off the notion that he lacks toughness and saying that he just looks for the best possible way to get someone down.

Whichever way he chooses to play, Dawn's electrifying play promises instill confidence and energy into his team.

"I always try to be near the ball and in position to make a play," he said. "I bring excitement and a high level of energy all the time. I just want to be remembered at Colorado as a player who was fun to watch."

RECORD WATCH

Here is a listing of records that have already been set during 2004, as well as some of those within reach. The first entry of the year was Mason Crosby matching the season best for the most 50-yard field goals made when he kicked his second of the year at Washington State. NOTE: CU has not adopted the NCAA policy of counting bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers; these will be final either after the regular season.

TRUE FROSH Colorado has played six true freshmen, tied for the 25th most in the nation according to research by the Colorado State sports information office. The list of schools that have played the most true frosh to date:

Idaho 17, Duke 13, North Carolina 13, LSU 12, Tulane 12, Arkansas 11, Georgia Tech 11, New Mexico State 11, UCF 10, East Carolina 10, Michigan State 10, Arizona 9, Kentucky 9, Utah State 9, Florida 8, Michigan 8, Ohio State 8, Virginia Tech 8, Connecticut 7, Florida State 7, Illinois 7, Nebraska 7, N.C. State 7, Wisconsin 7, Ball State 6, Cincinnati 6, Central Michigan 6, Colorado 6, Georgia 6, Maryland 6, North Texas 6, Purdue 6, Boston College 5, Buffalo 5, CSU 5, Northern Illinois 5, Penn State 5.

DIZON MAKING NAME AS A TRUE FROSH ILB Jordon Dizon, a 6-0, 220-pounder from Kauai, Hawaii, became just the sixth true freshman to start a season opener in Colorado history when he was out there from the get-go against Colorado State. He was the first true frosh inside linebacker to start a season opener, and just the third defender overall. The last player to start the season lid-lifter was OG Clint Moore in 1991 (against Wyoming); others include TB Billy Waddy (1973 at LSU), CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison (both 1980 at UCLA) and HB Eric Bieniemy (1987 vs. Oregon). How did Dizon fare? He tied for the team lead in tackles with eight, led the Buffs in solo stops with six, caused an interception, racked up a touchdown save when he stuffed CSU's Marcus Houston for no gain on second-and-goal from the CU 1 with 30 seconds left in the game; and added a pass deflection, a third down stop and a quarterback pressure. Was he a one-game wonder? Hardly—in game two against Washington State, he came back with 13 tackles, the third most by a true freshman in Colorado history, and had another touchdown save inside the final minute, this time sticking WSU quarterback Alex Brink, forcing a fumble that teammate Matt McChesney recovered to preserve the 20-12 win.

- ➔ Through 10 games, Dizon is second on the team in tackles with 72; a true freshman record (the previous record of 67 was set just two seasons ago by J.J. Billingsley). Billingsley finished seventh overall on the team in tackles, as did Jashon Sykes as a true frosh in 1998, the highest true freshmen have ever finished in tackles on the team. Dizon was the team leader after games one through eight.
- ➔ Dizon has made eight starts; that's tied for the sixth most in school history by a true frosh (if he starts at Nebraska, he'll tie current sophomore OG Brian Daniels and DT Laval Short for the fourth most with nine). The eight is a record by a true frosh ILB; Ted Johnson held the old mark of seven (set in 1991).

SPRAGUE MADE NOISE TOO WR Dusty Sprague accomplished something of note in the overtime loss at Texas A&M. He caught eight passes for 101 yards, becoming only the second freshman (true or redshirt) to have a 100-yard receiving game in Colorado history. The only other, also done in the seventh game of his career as was the case with Sprague, was by Phil Savoy in 1994, when he caught six passes for 113 yards against Oklahoma State.

- ➔ Through eight games, Sprague had 272 receiving yards; the freshman record is 337 set by Chris McLemore on 39 receptions in 1982; however, Sprague's season was cut short when he suffered a fractured clavicle against Texas.

JUDGE & FLURRY Junior WR Evan Judge, a former walk-on, is currently leading the team in receiving with 28 catches for 326 yards and 3 TDs, as he's become a favorite and reliable target for the quarterbacks. However, his progress and accomplishments are no surprise to those inside the CU program, who for the last couple of years have watched Judge be quite elusive in practice and scrimmages to post some nice numbers. The most notable former walk-on who played wide receiver in Colorado history is Jeff Campbell, who caught 28 passes for 802 yards between 1986 and 1989; he was placed on scholarship the second day he was in camp but his 802 yards is easily the record for any player who walked on the Colorado program. Judge is the only other walk-on to have recorded over 200 yards receiving, so he has made a little history himself. The last and only walk-on (or former walk-on) to lead the team in receiving was Campbell in 1988.

60, 61*, 61* No, not Ruth and Maris, but Crosby and Torp, as in CU's kicker duo of PK Mason Crosby and P John Torp. Crosby kicked a CU record 60-yard field goal in the 19-14 win over Iowa State, while Torp had a pair of 61 yard punts from inside the CU 25 late in the game to help keep Iowa State at bay. He punted six times on the day for a gaudy 51.2 average, a week after he averaged 52.2 on five kicks against Oklahoma State. In addition, all five of Crosby's kickoffs went for touchbacks, including one after a penalty from the CU20 he booted about 87 yards (37 of 51 this year have done so). It all added up to some of the best kicking play CU has ever had in a single game.

KLATT-TASTIC Junior QB Joel Klatt returned to form in the win over North Texas, so-to-speak, after a couple nothing out of the ordinary outings to open the 2004 campaign. After opening with two incomplete passes, he rifled off the third longest string of completions in school history, 13, en route to a 26-of-33 for 371 yards (and 3 TDs) performance. His 78.8 completion percentage set school marks for games with a minimum of 20, 25 and 30 passes and in the process, he became the ninth player in CU history to eclipse the 3,000-yard mark in career passing yards (he currently stands fifth all-time), as well as topping the 3,000-yard mark in total offense (he's seventh on that list).

- ➔ After starting slow at Texas A&M (2-of-8, 17 yards in the first quarter), he came on to throw for 329 yards in the last three quarters, with two touchdowns, on 23-of-34 accuracy.
- ➔ Klatt's career completion percentage of 62.6 is currently the 10th best among active NCAA quarterbacks, while his 209.8 yards per game is 16th and his efficiency rating of 128.5 is 24th.
- ➔ He has eight career 200-yard passing games, four of which have exceeded 300 yards (Koy Detmer holds the school record of six).
- ➔ Klatt's former minor league baseball teammate, Jake Peavy, claimed the 2004 earned run average title in major league baseball. A pitcher with the San Diego Padres, he finished with a 15-6 record and 2.27 ERA—well ahead of Arizona's Randy Johnson (2.60) and Minnesota's Johan Santana (2.61). Klatt and Peavy spent two spring trainings together in the Padres organization (2000, 2001) and were teammates in A-ball at one juncture.

COACH GARY BARNETT

Gary Barnett is in his sixth season as head coach of the Colorado program, and his 15th year as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 40-32 record at Colorado, along with a 75-77-1 record in 13 seasons in the Division I-A ranks (the first seven at Northwestern), and has an overall career mark of 83-88-2 including two years at NAIA Fort Lewis (Durango, Colo.). This is his second stint at Colorado, as he was an assistant in Boulder under Bill McCartney for eight years between 1984 and 1991. During that span, CU was 59-34-2 in 95 games, including a 30-5-2 mark the last three years, when CU won three Big Eight titles and the 1990 national championship. Northwestern hired Barnett as head coach on December 18, 1991 to replace Francis Peay, and he would take just four years to turn a dismal program into one of the nation's top teams. Barnett led Northwestern to back-to-back Big Ten championships in 1995 and 1996, earning berths in the Rose and Citrus bowls; he was the national coach of the year for '95 as selected by 18 different organizations. He was the third McCartney assistant to land a head coaching position, following Gerry DiNardo (Vanderbilt) and Lou Tepper (Illinois), both of whom started their careers in 1991. In 2001, he was selected as the Associated Press Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year when he became just the fourth man to ever coach two different teams to the NCAA Most Improved Team title. "Barney's" boxscore.

♦ Barnett is no stranger to lining up across the sideline from ranked teams. In his 81 games at Northwestern, the Wildcats faced 30 ranked opponents (posting a 9-20-1 record). In his eight years as an assistant at Colorado, the Buffaloes played 34 ranked teams in 95 contests. As CU head coach, he's seen 29 in 72 games (going 11-18); so in his 21 years as Division I-A head or assistant coach, he's coached against 93 ranked opponents in 248 games, better than one in every three (38%).

♦ In an October 2000 Bloomberg Information Service poll of Division I-A head coaches, Gary Barnett ranked sixth in a listing of the best coaches in college football. Eighty-eight (or roughly 72%) of the 114 head coaches responded in the poll, which ranked Penn State's Joe Paterno first (20½ votes) and Florida State's Bobby Bowden second (19). The rest of the top 10 at the time: 3. Bill Snyder, Kansas State (12); 4. Frank Beamer, Virginia Tech (10½); 5. Steve Spurrier, Florida (5½); 6 (tie). Gary Barnett, Colorado, and Barry Alvarez, Wisconsin (3); 8. LaVell Edwards, BYU (2½); 9 (tie). Dennis Erickson, Oregon State, and Lloyd Carr, Michigan (2).

♦ Barnett first got to Colorado in a very matter-of-fact manner. He "road-tripped" from Missouri in the winter of 1971 with a friend, as both were hunting for teaching jobs. He didn't hear anything back from the interviews, and started his coaching career by helping out on Dan Devine's staff at Missouri, his alma mater. He had been selling insurance in Columbia while his wife, Mary, was finishing up her degree. He was soon offered a teaching and assistant coaching position at Air Academy High School in Colorado Springs (at $8,500 a year). He accepted, and he and Mary headed west to begin their love affair with the state of Colorado.

♦ Barnett grew up in the small town of Mexico, Missouri (where his mother returned to live after the family moved to St. Louis when he was in the ninth grade; she still resides there). He used to chase down softballs at the adults' fast-pitch softball games, as every ball turned in was worth a nickel, and three would net him a Coke (at 15 cents), the going rate in the mid-1950s.

♦ Barnett did something extremely rare after he accepted the CU job on January 20, 1999. He made it a goal to meet the parents and families of all players on the CU roster. He pretty much pulled it off, visiting with all but three families of the returning players (all in obscure, hard to reach locations) by the end of the '99 season. He did it to find out more about the players on his team and to talk with the parents about promises that were kept or not met by the previous coaching staff. He says if you get a beat on what kind of environment each player grew up in, which gives a good indication on how you have to deal with each individually.

♦ Barnett figured he would never get a crack at the Colorado job. After Rick Neuheisel emerged as the internal hire following Bill McCartney's surprising retirement in November 1994, Barnett thought that with Rick being so young, the CU job would never even be an option. He was linked to many a job opening, but the only one he ever interviewed for was the Notre Dame position; not the Detroit Lions, Texas Longhorns, Oklahoma Sooners or UCLA Bruins as rumors had led many to believe.

♦ Barnett enjoyed many happy as well as sad moments in his first stop in Boulder between 1984 and 1991. Emotions ran the gamut from winning the national championship (1990) and three Big Eight Conference titles (1989-90-91), along with coaching a Heisman Trophy candidate (Darian Hagan) and a Rhodes Scholarship finalist (Eric McCarty) to dealing with the life-threatening injury to tight end Ed Reinhardt (1984), the death of quarterback Sal Aunese (1989, from stomach cancer) to his own son Clay being seriously injured when he was on the CU sidelines during a game. Another high included Charles S. Johnson being named the MVP of the 1991 Orange Bowl, supplanting the low that he had to replace an injured Hagan in that game. And in his final year at Colorado in 1991, he tutored a young true freshman by the name of Kordell Stewart, who went on to become the Big Eight's all-time total offense leader.

♦ Barnett's top six goals for the CU program each year are listed as: 6) Winning the Big 12 Conference championship; 5) Winning the Big 12 Conference North Division; 4) Winning a bowl game; 3) Have a winning season; 2) To be a relentless team; and 1) Attitude and Chemistry. They are displayed prominently on the wall in the team's main meeting room (which was renamed for Tom McMahon in 2003).

♦ Barnett's first game at Northwestern was against Notre Dame at Chicago's Soldier Field—deemed a neutral site. His first game at CU was against Colorado State at Denver's Mile High Stadium, also a neutral site. How many coaches had their first games with two different schools classified in this manner? Barnett was probably the first—the research would be most time consuming!

♦ Barnett replaced Francis Peay at Northwestern, and other finalists included Earle Bruce (at Colorado State at the time), Paul Schudel and Gary Darnell. The president who hired Barnett at Northwestern, Arnold Weber, was the president of CU when it hired Bill McCartney in 1982. The parallels between McCartney and Barnett number many, right down to the record in their first three years as head coaches: Mac was 7-25-1 at Colorado (1982-84), Barnett 8-24-1 at Northwestern (1992-94), with exactly 10 years separating each, both their first career head coaching jobs.

- ♦ Barnett's active off the field with several charities, most notably the Lupus Foundation and the Colorado ALS Association. Every October, he participates in Boulder's "Walk to d'feet ALS," a fundraiser to combat ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease.
- ♦ Barnett has been a head coach for 153 Division I-A games (75-77-1); he coached his 150th on October 23 at Texas A&M. His 13 seasons as a D I-A head coach rank 27th among active coaches, as are his 153 games coached.
- ♦ Barnett is again one of the 61 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2004 (the sixth straight year he is a voter and the 18th straight year CU's head coach has participated).

THE CLASS OF '99 In 1999, 19 programs hired new coaches, including Colorado; 13 remain with those programs. Here's a look at the entire class and their records through games of November 20 (includes bowls; *—denotes first college head coaching job):

COACH "RETRO" Defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz has been given the nickname of "Coach Retro" by the players, as he is now in his second stint at CU. During his first tour between 1985 and 1994, he spent the last seven seasons as CU's defensive coordinator and directed some of the best defenses in school history. Upon his return, he didn't exactly return the Buffs to the 3-4 he succeeded with during those years, but there are enough similarities to merit the throwback term.

EXPERIENCE Including 2004, the 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 164 seasons in Division I-A (includes 14 head coach seasons, 13 by Gary Barnett and one by Mike Hankwitz), as the 10 have combined to coach in 1,950 games through November 13. Barnett is the elder statesman at 58, followed by Hankwitz (56) Craig Bray (52) and then Brian Cabral (48); it's believed to be the first time that three 50-plus year olds have been on the Colorado staff. In fact, Barnett's the oldest head football coach in CU history by some four years (Bill McCartney was 54 when he retired in 1994; Dallas Ward's the only other to pilot the Buffs after his 50th birthday as he was 52 when he was not retained after the 1958 season).

EXPERIENCE II Initial research by the University of Maryland SID office and then CU's indicates that the staff trifecta of head coach Gary Barnett, offensive coordinator Shawn Watson and defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz are the 14th most experienced "politburo" in Division I-A (the fourth in the Big 12), when adding up the combined years full-time in the coaching profession. Here's a closer look at those with 70-plus years experience (count includes all seasons as a full-time assistant and/or head coach in the college or pro ranks only):

(*—worked one year, 1991, as a graduate assistant at Colorado; #—average of co-coordinators)

GAME DAY The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. For 2004, in the box will be offensive coordinator Shawn Watson, tight ends coach John Wristen, secondary coach Craig Bray, defensive line coach Chris Wilson, and graduate assistants Tim Ridder and Hunter Hughes. Head coach Gary Barnett wears a headset on the sideline (he's on with the coordinators), along with defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz, inside linebackers coach Brian Cabral, offensive line coach Dave Borbely, receivers coach Ted Gilmore and running backs coach Shawn Simms. The receivers or running backs shuttle in plays, as sideline signals are an option Barnett won't utilize often.

Watson concentrates on the offensive play calling, while Hankwitz makes the defensive call from the sidelines. Barnett does what he calls, "managing the game," determining if what's called is the best for the long run. He might make the play call in a critical situation (third-and-long, red zone strategizing, etc.).

TOPS In Shawn Watson's first game as offensive coordinator in 2000, CU gained 532 yards against Colorado State, the most ever by a Buff team in its first game with a new offensive pilot. The old record was 530 in 1993 (vs. Texas, Elliot Uzelac's first game). The all-time opponent low in the first game with a new CU defensive coordinator were the 177 yards gained by Fresno State in 1988—Mike Hankwitz' first game as DC (also the third fewest yards ever allowed overall by CU in any season opener).

OLD-TIMER Assistant head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. He is now tied for third all-time in years coached as a full-time member of the staff, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both who assisted for 18 years each, and has pulled even with one his mentors in life, the late Dan Stavely, who coached 15 seasons in two stints. A closer look:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 3. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76) and Brian Cabral 15 (1990-current); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 7. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58); 8. Ray Jenkins 10 (1948-57), Mike Hankwitz 10 (1985-94) and Jon Embree 10 (1993-2002).

FIVE BUFFS UP FOR ORANGE BOWL LEGEND Five Colorado greats are among more than 50 other legendary names from the Orange Bowl's storied past that have been nominated for the honor of "Orange Bowl Championship Legend." Buffalo fans have the chance to vote for these top players: Eric Bieniemy, Chad Brown, Deon Figures, Joel Steed and Alfred Williams. Players nominated for the team have played in one of the 17 Orange Bowl games that have crowned a consensus National Champion, with players from both the winners and runners-up among the nominees. Fans can have their say on the team by voting for their top-10 favorites at www.orangebowl.org. The team will be made of 13 players and two coaches, with the coaches being selected independently by the Orange Bowl Committee. Other former collegiate All-Americans and NFL All-Pros have also been nominated such as Joe Namath of Alabama, Ozzie Newsome of Alabama, William "The Refrigerator" Perry of Clemson, and Michael Irvin of Miami. Selected Legends will be honored on January 4 during pre-game ceremonies at the FedEx Orange Bowl 2005 National Championship game. Voting is already underway and will end December 5.

COACH'S CORNER/WITH GARY BARNETT Comments from Colorado head coach Gary Barnett after Colorado's thrilling 38-31 win over Kansas State in the Folsom Field season finale:

General: "After finding a way to win it, and then not win it, and not win it, and win it...we won it. What a great play by (Joel) Klatt and (Ron) Monteilh. It was great character by our team and by Kansas State; Kansas State coming back from being down the way they were. For (Dylan) Meier to come in and engineer those drives, that was something. Our guys just never quit believing. Everyone says that when they win it, but we never quit believing. This team hasn't all year. That was a great play; there were a lot of great plays in the game. The last one won it and I'm happy we won it. There are a lot of guys who made big plays in the game. I can't wait to watch it and to talk about it. Just great, great, great heart from the Buffaloes."

On This Particular Victory: "This is right up there for me. I don't remember winning one like this or being a part of a team that won one like this. It ranks right up there with the Nebraska game from a couple years ago (2001)."

On The Game Winning Touchdown: "It started off by design, and then that's what happens, so many times. Things break down and then guys have to make a play. Joel scrambled and then Ron kept running his route and Joel found him and Ron did a great job running after the catch. We had two plays like that. We had another one designed that went to (Blake) Mackey, but he wasn't supposed to run around, right, left, then over the middle, but it ended up being a great play by Bernard Jackson and Mackey. We made some plays out there today, especially on offense and that's the difference in the game."

"We had four guys trying to get to field goal range and Ron just ran his route and stuck with it and Joel scrambled and they had to break coverage. It was sort of designed to be there, but when Joel scrambles, everybody has to stick with their routes."

On Last Drive Scoring Options: "I would have kicked a 70-yarder there, I might have kicked it further than that. How far out we got, that's how far we were going to try and kick it. I've said all along, we'd have no reservations sending Mason Crosby out from that distance."

On Vickers' First Down Run On Next To Last Play: "We knew we had a good run called, that they were playing prevent and soft. If we couldn't get the first down, we would just punt the ball. We felt like we had a good play called to get a first down. We had 16 seconds left so we thought we had time for at least two more plays, and we had one time out left. Obviously Lawrence (Vickers) run and our blocking on that play gave our offense reason to go ahead on our next play. No question in my mind that that was a big first down."

On His Team's Attitude: "I would say it was a sense of seriousness. Everybody really took this game seriously. We talked to them all week and we're so young, that we have to talk through a lot of things and these guys really responded to everything we asked of them. It still comes down to one big play like that and you work hard on the plays you draw and the one that goes for a touchdown is one that was drawn in the dirt. But you have to get to that point and it's all the other plays that get you there. I thought our guys did a great job. Our coaches did a good job."

On Bobby Purify: "Bobby Purify, from my standpoint, he's finally healthy and healthier than he's been. That's the Bobby Purify that we know. Our offensive line, other than that spell in the first quarter where we couldn't protect ourselves, I feel like we were really able to take over the line of scrimmage and move the ball a lot."

On The CU Offense: "We got away from it in the second quarter and we talked at halftime and went back to the stuff we'd worked on all week, and playing with a fullback and tight end. We had some things that we felt were wide open in the second quarter, and that's why we were trying to throw the ball. We also had some big opportunities but we had trouble with our protection. Our halftime adjustment was just to get back to what we worked on all week and to make sure we ran our special plays."

On Chances Of Winning The Big 12 North: "We know we have to do, and it's no different than it was heading into November, and that's win. We forfeited our controlling our own destiny in October, and needed a lot of things to fall into place. But here we sit, three weeks later, and it's down to our having to win a third time in a row, and just one other thing (Missouri winning at Iowa State). So we'll try to do what we have control over and see how it plays out from there. But regardless, this game means a lot because it's Nebraska, anyway. And it means a lot because it's a chance to win seven games."

PLAYER QUOTES Some comments from select players following the win over Kansas State:S DOMINIQUE BROOKS

GENERAL: "This feels good because we are bowl eligible now. I didn't want to be sitting at home having people ask me when we were going to play, but we are going to a bowl."

ON MONTEILH'S TOUCHDOWN: "I was just thinking please catch it and please score. For (Ron) Monteilh to catch that ball in his last game (at home) and for him to get his first touchdown, as he did, and for Bobby (Purify) to have that kind of game – it was just great to see them go out like that."

DT BRANDON DABDOUB

ON SENIORS WINNING FINAL FOLSOM GAME: "It definitely feels great. We seniors have been through a lot since we have been here and this feels awesome especially since it is against Kansas State. They tried to run up the score on us last year, and this year, we saw a real nasty piece written by one of their Internet guys (story in Powercat Illustrated) that showed no respect to our coach. We still have a lot to accomplish and to work for because the Big 12 Championship is still in reach."

WR MIKE DUREN

ON ACCIDENTALLY TRIPPING PURIFY: "When his (Purify's) leg hit me I was just hoping that he wouldn't go down, but I guess we won so it isn't that big of a deal. Bobby just laughed; I told him I would take him out to dinner or something, but that is just how he is."

S TOM HUBBARD

ON STARTING: "It is great to get in there on defense, trying to be consistent and making plays."

ON HIS FIRST QUARTER INTERCEPTION: "We kind of switched up the coverage, and he threw it right to me. I tried to return it down the sidelines but it didn't work out how I wanted it to, but it is still nice to get the interception."

ON KANSAS STATE QB ALLEN WEBB: "He is a heck of an athlete and a lot like a lot of other quarterbacks in the Big 12. We had to contain him and not give up the big play, and I think that we were able to do that."

QB JOEL KLATT

ON GAME WINNING TD PASS: "Ron (Monteilh) does a good job of trying to find the open zone, and he did that three times today. He always is trying to find the open spot so we can complete the pass. When we first got on the field on that last drive I was thinking that if we could just get it up to the 45 we are in good shape to let Mason (Crosby) get his foot on it, and give us a good chance to win. LV (Lawrence Vickers) made the big play on third-and-10, giving us the first down, and then there was a break down on Kansas State's part when Ron made the play. On that play they were trying to isolate Blake Mackey but he had double coverage. Fortunately, Tyler Littlehales ran a great route over the middle and Ron was able to create an opening for a big play."

ON BOBBY PURIFY'S FINAL GAME AT FOLSEM FIELD: "He ran tough; it was absolutely vintage Purify. He was hitting the holes with his head down, and when he would get hit he would just keep going. Once he got going he would throw is head back and run hard, just like we've seen him do so many times at Folsom. He did a fantastic job today, and it was good for him to go out like this because he has done more for this program than anyone else since I have been here."

ON BOBBY PURIFY WINNING THE HEART AWARD: "I don't think that anyone else deserves it more. It is just too bad that they don't have a tattoo award for Matt McChesney."

ON POTENTIAL POST SEASON PLAY: "We've had a tradition the past three or four years winning games in the Big 12 North, and if things go our way and we play well, hopefully we'll be playing on December 4 in the Big 12 Championship. And if not, we are at least still able to reward our seniors by going to a bowl game."

WR BLAKE MACKEY

ON TRICK PLAY RECEPTION: "Bernard (Jackson) did a great job getting the ball because it didn't end up happening like we had it drawn up. Bernard just made a really nice play."

PLAYER QUOTES continued...DT MATT McCHESNEY

ON THE FINAL OFFENSIVE PLAY: "I can believe it happened the way it did. That's way we call (Ron Monteilh) 'Big Play Monteilh.' This was a great accomplishment for all of us. We have a chance to get our seventh win and play for a Big 12 Championship. This felt great. I had tears in my eyes and I couldn't breathe. This was great for Ron and a great ending overall at Folsom Field."

GENERAL: "This team can get better. We want to be chanting our fight song in Lincoln; we are going there to win. That is the bottom line."

ON BOBBY PURIFY: "He is a practice (jersey) blue man. In practice we can't touch him, but he always comes to work on game days. He puts the team first, and he is a great player."

WR RON MONTEILH

ON HIS GAME-WINNING TOUCHDOWN: "I saw Joel (Klatt) scrambling out and I just tried to get to the sideline because no one was there. At first I was just looking back thinking that he had already thrown the ball, but he was looking at me so I kept running to get open. When we first got the ball on the drive I was thinking that we didn't have to get too far to let Mason (Crosby) have a shot. When I caught the ball I was thinking to get out of bounds to give (Crosby) a chance, but they had a break down so I kept running. Joel does a good job when he is scrambling outside the pocket, and he did a good job on that play."

GENERAL: "Hopefully we will have three more games left. We want to have a shot at the Big 12 Championship and that is what we will keep working to do."

TB BOBBY PURIFY

ON KNEE INJURY: "I'm all right, I'm just a little sore but everyone is always a little sore after a game. My shoulder is a little more sore than the rest of my body, but I guess I am just getting old."

ON THE CROWD CHANTING HIS NAME: "I really didn't hear it during the game, but I heard it after. You never really expect it, but it was so exciting to hear the crowd chant my name."

ON MIKE DUREN'S TRIP UP ON HIS LONG RUN: "I didn't even know it was my own man until I saw it on the Jumbotron (BuffVision), but he was going to get a block for me downfield so it was all good. Yeah, we just knocked (our feet) around a little bit, but we can laugh about it now. If we had lost then it might have been a big deal but it is all right."

ON BEING AN ALL-AROUND BACK: "Blocking is up there for me. I pride myself on being an all around back, not just a first and second down back. I want to be there on third down, either blocking or going out for a pass. Accomplishing that (the first Buff to record 2,500 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving) is important to me because I feel that it shows that I can and want to do more than just run the ball."

ON THE BUFFALO HEART AWARD: "I didn't even know that they did stuff like that. I really appreciate the support that they give me and that they have given to me over the past few years. It really is an absolute honor."

ON TEAM CONFIDENCE: "We have always had confidence, but we have always been killing ourselves doing the little things wrong. But we have always had the confidence."

ON THE LAST PLAY: "Honestly I wasn't even watching it, I didn't know what everyone was screaming about. I was getting my legs loose, preparing for over time. Then, I heard everyone screaming and I turned to see (Ron) Monteilh in the end zone and I just dropped to my knees happy."

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION A running list of major notes and/or accomplishments the Buffaloes have had in 2004:Colorado State

- ◆ ATTENDANCE. The 54,954 in attendance established a Folsom Field record, as the sellout crowd bested the previous mark of 54,215 set against Oklahoma on October 25 of last year.
- ◆ BACK IN BLACK: Colorado wore all black uniforms for the 25th time, improving to 14-10-1 in the outfit (snapping a string of three straight losses). CU last donned all black against both Oklahoma and Nebraska last season (complete list later in these notes). It marked the first time that CU wore all black in a season opener, and only second time in a non-conference game (the other was the 38-6 win over Oregon in the Cotton Bowl).
- ◆ TB Bobby Purify. He became the 15th player in Colorado history to run for 2,000 career yards (he entered the season with 1,999, tied for 15th place with the great Carroll Hardy). Purify rushed a career high 26 times for 189 yards, second only to 191 yards he had against the Rams in 2001. The 189 yards were the second most rushing yards in a season opener in CU history; Mike Pritchard's 217 vs. Tennessee is the standard.
- ◆ First Score. Colorado last scored on the opening possession of a game just two games earlier, in game 11 of the 2003 season at Iowa State. The last time CU scored on its first possession of the year came in 1998, when Jeremy Aldrich kicked a 34-yard field goal against CSU in Denver to start a 42-14 CU victory. And the last time the Buffs opened the season with a touchdown drive on their first possession was against CSU in 1997, when Herchell Troutman scored from a yard out in CU's 31-21 win, ironically the last time these two teams met on campus (in Boulder).
- ◆ CSU did not earn a rushing first down, only the fifth time in CU history the opponent had zero and just the second time in the last 43 seasons. The only other time since 1961 came against Oklahoma in Boulder in 1999 when CU held the Sooners to none.
- ◆ Other Colorado Firsts: WR Evan Judge (Jr.) had his first career reception (20 yards on and 3rd-and-8 from Joel Klatt); WR Blake Mackey (Soph.) had his first career reception (16 yards on from Joel Klatt); OLB Brian Iwuh (Jr.) had his first career interception, returning it 37 yards for a touchdown; he was the 10th Buffalo in the last 13 seasons to return his first career pick for a touchdown.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION continued...Washington State

- ◆ CU held just two teams to one score or less in the first half a year ago: UCLA scored one TD in its 16-14 loss to the Buffs, and Iowa State was shutout in its eventual 44-10 defeat to Colorado. That was matched after two games, as CSU and WSU had just one first half score apiece.
- ◆ Colorado is now 17-3 in the second game of the season since 1985 and is 2-0 for the second straight season and for the 52nd time in its history.
- ◆ Hanging On. Washington State ran 25 plays in plus territory (the 50 on in) for a net nine yards in the first half, and had 40 in the game for 57 yards (with 47 on its last six in plus territory).
- ◆ DE Alex Ligon. He is the first Buffalo to have three sacks in a game since Drew Wahlroos had three against Missouri in Columbia on Nov. 4, 2000. The eight sacks by the Buffaloes (for 60 yards) were the most since that same game, when the Buffs set a Big 12 record with 14 against the Tigers.
- ◆ VB Lawrence Vickers. His recovery of a blocked punt for a touchdown was the first since John Minardi had one four years ago—against Missouri in Columbia on Nov. 4, 200.
- ◆ OLB Joe Sanders. Subbing for the injured Brian Iwuh, he had his first extensive action of his career (he played three snaps in the opener), and in the process became the 11th Colorado player since 1992 to return his first career interception for a touchdown (51 yards). Ironically, Iwuh had become the 10th the previous week versus CSU.
- ◆ FS Tyrone Henderson. He became the first player in Colorado history to record two blocked kicks in the same game, as he got a hand on one punt cutting the distance to 30 yards and blocked a second that led to a touchdown.
- ◆ CU vs. WSU in the State of Washington. The Buffaloes are now 2-0 against the Cougars in their home state, however, the Buffs do not have an offensive touchdown against them. In 1982, Tom Field made four field goals for a 12-0 Colorado win in Spokane (Bill McCartney's first), and this time around, CU scored one special teams touchdown and one defensive score in addition to two Mason Crosby field goals.
- ◆ PK Mason Crosby. He is the first Buff since 2002 to make two 50-plus yard field goals in the same season (Pat Blottiaux made two that year). It's now been done on six occasions in school history, but no player has had as many as three 50-yarders in a single season at Colorado.

North Texas

- ◆ Half A Hun. This marks the fourth straight year Colorado has scored 50 or more points in a game (52-21); 50-47 over Kansas in OT in 2003; 53-29 at Kansas in 2002; and 51-15 vs. San Jose St. and 62-36 over Nebraska in 2001).
- ◆ Colorado had 586 yards of total offense, its most since 598 against Kansas last year (in overtime; the most in regulation since setting the school record with 767 against San Jose State in 1999).
- ◆ Uniforms. It was the "debut" of an original look, as the Buffaloes wore black jerseys with white pants for the first time in their history.
- ◆ Oh By The Way. In a roundabout way, North Texas was the replacement opponent for San Diego State, which asked out of the second half of a home-and-home with the Buffs after the 2002 game (won by CU, 34-14). That cleared the way for the cancelled 2001 Washington State game (due to 9/11) to be played on the road, WSU's request for the 2003 game in Boulder to remain. Thus, CU officials had to fill the vacancy on short notice with a home game. (CU-SDSU were originally scheduled to play Sept. 11 in San Diego).
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt. Klatt completed 26-of-33 passes for 371 yards, which tied for the 11th most passing yards in CU history. It raised his career total to 3,180, as he became the ninth player in school history to record 3,000-plus yards passing. By halftime, he completed 20-of-25 passes for 286 yards, including a 14-of-17 for 196 yards in the second quarter; the 196 yards were the most in a quarter in school history.
- ◆ Consecutive Completions. After opening with two incompletions, Klatt reeled off 13 completions in a row, the third most in school history. Mike Moschetti had 15 straight vs. San Jose State and Kansas in 1999, and Koy Detmer had 14 vs. Colorado State at Fort Collins in 1996.
- ◆ TB Bobby Purify (15-112, 3 TDs rushing) had his seventh career 100-yard rushing game and the second multiple TD game of his career; the other came in the 2003 season opener when he scored twice against CSU.
- ◆ In the game, 15 different players earned first downs for the Buffaloes, with 11 different ones catching passes.
- ◆ UNT's Jamarío Thomas rushed 32 times for 247 yards; the most against CU since Kansas' David Winbush set the opponent record with 268 in 1998; it was the third most rushing yards against Colorado in history; the other top mark is 258 by Oklahoma's David Overstreet in 1980.

Missouri

- ◆ Conference Openers. Colorado has lost back-to-back conference openers for the first time since 1988, when the Buffs dropped a second straight Big Eight opener to Oklahoma State. CU falls to 5-4 in Big 12 openers, 1-2 on the road (CU lost 42-30 at Baylor last year). Against Oklahoma State next week, Colorado will be out to stop its first 0-2 start in league since 1997.
- ◆ With Missouri scoring 17 points, it did mark the sixth time in nine Big 12 openers the foe failed to score 20 points against the Buff defense.
- ◆ Scoring Streak. CU added to its school record consecutive games scoring streak, as the Buffs have now scored in 188 straight games dating back to a 7-0 loss at Nebraska in 1988. That streak is the eighth longest in the nation (Texas is tops with 282).
- ◆ The 26 combined points by these two teams marked the fewest between the two since a 21-0 win by Colorado, in hellacious winds in Boulder, in 1995. Missouri's 17 is the fewest by the winner since a 6-0 win by the Buffs here in Columbia in 1992.
- ◆ Colorado had scored 20 or more points in 11 straight games, the most since a 17-game span over three seasons (1994-96). Only one other streak was longer than the one that just ended, one of 12 straight (the first 12 of the 1990 season). The Buffs had scored 20+ in every game since a 47-7 defeat at Florida State last Sept. 20, the last time they scored fewer than the 9 points today.
- ◆ Colorado's troubles on offense could be traced to Missouri's defensive job on first down; CU ran 23 first down plays for a net 43 yards (1.9 per play), gaining 10 or more yards just once (on the first play of the game) and five or more yards just three times.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION continued...Oklahoma State

- ◆ Oklahoma State's 42-14 win was the most decisive in the series since CU's 28-0 win in Boulder in 1992; it was the largest margin of victory by the Cowboys against the Buffaloes since a 42-7 win in Stillwater in 1980.
- ◆ Long Play. The 40-yard pass from Joel Klatt to Blake Mackey on the second play of the game was the longest play from scrimmage by the Buffs this season.
- ◆ Oklahoma State became the third team in a row to score a touchdown on the opening drive of the game against the Buffs; North Texas did it in two plays, Missouri in 12 plays and Oklahoma State in three.
- ◆ OSU led 21-0 at the half, and ran all of 1 play in Colorado territory for the half. The last time CU did not score in the first half was in the 2002 Big 12 Championship game, when the Buffs trailed Oklahoma, 13-0.
- ◆ Oklahoma State. The Cowboys may just have amassed their total offensive yardage (429) in one or the more unusual ways in recent memory. First, OSU ran just 9 plays all game in CU territory (for 52 yards); the also Cowboys ran 23 first down plays for 90 yards (just 3.9 per). But second and third down were OSU's gravy: 19 second plays gained 158 yards (8.3) and 12 third down tries netted 181 (15.1, including OSU's three long plays of the game, the pair of 58-yard touchdowns and the 38-yard completion on 3rd-and-13).
- ◆ Buff On First Down. Last week, CU struggled on first down, gaining just 43 yards on 23 plays (1.9 per); this week, CU turned that around, gaining 196 on 33 first down plays, or 5.9 per.
- ◆ UNIFORMS. The OSU game marked the first time CU has worn its traditional black jersey with gold pant at home; earlier in the week, the shipment a gold cordura pant arrived and the players had the choice to select a gold for the first time this year. Equipment manager Mike Smith had been trying to find a gold that came close to matching the metallic gold pant CU has worn the past several years, and finally found one late last month.
- ◆ Firsts. QB James Cox saw his first extensive action, and threw his first career TD pass; WR Dusty Sprague had his first career TD reception. WR Blake Mackey had his first multiple catch game (6-129), the first 100-plus yard game this season by a Buffalo (he came into today with one career catch for 16 yards, in the opener against CSU).

Iowa State

- ◆ Opponents had scored on their opening drive in three straight games; CU shut out Iowa State 10-0 in the first quarter, the first time the opponent was held scoreless in the opening stanza since CU led 3-0 after one against Washington State.
- ◆ PK Mason Crosby. His 60-yard field goal in the second quarter was a school record, wiping out the 23-year old mark of 58 yards set by Jerry Hamilton, also against Iowa State, in Ames on October 24, 1981. It is also a Folsom Field record, eclipsing the 59-yard kick by Kansas' Johnny Beck on Sept. 22, 2001. It is the third longest field goal in Big 12 history, topped only by Kansas State's Martin Gramatica (65 vs. Northern Illinois in 1998) and Texas A&M's Terrance Kitchens (62 vs. Southern Miss in 1999).
--The four field goals he made was a career-high and improved to 10-of-13 on the year; the CU single game record is five by Jeremy Aldrich vs. Kansas in 1999; this was the ninth time a Buff has made four in a game. The four field goals added to 185 yards (28, 60, 54, 33), topping the old 4-made in a game best of 162 by Mark Zetterberg against Nebraska in 1976 (50,46,37,29). Aldrich's five added to 220 yards.
- ◆ P John Torp. The Ray Guy Award candidate punted six times for 307 yards, or a 51.2 average, on the heels of a 5-52.2 effort against OSU. It was the 18th best gross punting day in Colorado history, of which Torp owns three, all this season (three or more punts). He had two kicks inside-the-CU 25, both going 61 yards.
- ◆ Weird Stat of the Day. Because of the two Iowa State fumbles on punts and the Cyclones' interception return for a touchdown, Colorado had 9 possessions in the first half to just 5 for ISU (and it was 15 to 11 for the game).
- ◆ Iowa State was 0-of-5 when penetrating the CU 20 (or the red zone); CU allowed just seven scores and five touchdowns the first 19 times the opponent cracked the Buff 20.
- ◆ Colorado has now won 20 of the last 21 games with Iowa State, the first time the Buffs own that many wins in that span against any team; the closest is a 20-1-1 mark CU had in a 22-game span against Wyoming.
- ◆ Colorado had scored 20 or more points in 12 straight games, but now has scored sub-20 in the last three. The last time Buffs failed to score 20 in three consecutive games was a four-game streak in 1998.

Texas A & M

- ◆ This was just the seventh meeting between the two, with Colorado now owning a 4-2 edge in the series, including a 2-1 mark in College Station; all of the games have been fairly well contested, with the final margins being 3, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 14 points (or a combined 51 points).
- ◆ The team with the most rushing yards has now won all six games in the series (A&M had 238, CU 146).
- ◆ Firsts. QB Joel Klatt caught his first pass of his career, on the same play that WR/QB Bernard Jackson threw his first pass of his career (18 yards on a 3rd-&-4).
- ◆ Texas A&M did not score a touchdown via a pass, the first time in 24 games that the Buffs did not allow a scoring pass.
- ◆ WR Dusty Sprague. Sprague had the biggest game of his young career, with eight catches for 101 yards; it was the second 100-yard game by a CU receiver in 2004 (Mackey had the other vs. OSU)
- ◆ For just the 24th time in CU history, the Buffaloes had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game, as TB Bobby Purify (20-130 rushing) and WR Dusty Sprague (8-101) became the first duo to it since Purify and Chris Brown both ran for over 100 and Daniel Graham had 112 receiving in the 62-36 win over Nebraska in 2001. With QB Joel Klatt passing for 346 yards, it marked just the fourth time it's happened with a 300-yard passer (Mike Moschetti did it twice and Koy Detmer once).
- ◆ In Texas. Colorado is now 12-15 in the state of Texas, dropping five straight, which dates back to December 2002 losses in the state in the Big 12 Championship game to Oklahoma and three weeks later to Wisconsin in the Alamo Bowl.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION continued...Texas

- ◆ Name-less Jerseys. Colorado voted as a team the Wednesday prior to the game not to have nametags on the back of the jerseys this week, and to play for the one name on the front—Colorado. CU first donned player last names on its jerseys for the 1984 season.
- ◆ First Career Start. WR Tyler Littlehales started in place on Ron Monteilh, as he didn't have as much motion as hoped in his shoulder.
- ◆ First Half. In the first half, Texas had 14 first downs to CU's 1; the Longhorns ran 20 first down plays for 113 yards, or 5.7 per play; CU ran six for minus-7, or -1.2 per play. Twenty-one of UT's 46 plays were run on CU's side of the 50. For the game, UT wound up with 34 first down plays for 197 (5.8), while CU finished 24-for-71 (3.0).
- ◆ The last two visits to Boulder, the Longhorns have shut down CU offensively. While outscoring CU 59-21, two of CU's three touchdowns have been defensive scores; in 2000, in a 28-14 win, Colorado ran 72 plays for 133 yards, and today ran 55 plays for 221. Thus, in the last two games against Texas, CU has struggled to 354 yards on 127 plays (2.7).
- ◆ Colorado Rushing. The Buffs had 18 rushes for 3 yards (16 for 23 not including sacks); the 3 yards are the seventh lowest in school history, the fewest since Alabama held CU to minus-11 in the 1991 Blockbuster Bowl.
- ◆ P John Torp. For the fourth time this season, he punted for a 50+ average in a game with at least three punts (three times with five or more). He averaged 50.8 on six punts, the 20th best gross punting day in school history, with a net 46.0 average.
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt. Klatt became the fifth quarterback in Colorado history to top the 4,000-yard mark in career passing, as his 142 gave him 4,068 in 22 career games. Only Kordell Stewart and Mike Moschetti reached the plateau in fewer games.
- ◆ Texas' 397 yards on offense was the low by a Colorado opponent in 2004; Iowa State had 403 and Washington State 402. CU's 221 was the second lowest total, after 125 against Washington State.

Kansas

- ◆ Colorado committed a season low penalties (3 for 17 yards)... Kansas' 342 yards of total offense was also an opponent season low... Second half field position was the key: CU's seven drives started on average at its 33; Kansas' seven at its 15.
- ◆ Comebacks. Colorado rallied from 14-0, tying its sixth largest comeback in school history; the last time CU rallied from a similar or greater deficit was against Washington in the 1996 Holiday Bowl, when the Buffs came back from 14-0 down to win 33-21. Four of CU's top 17 comebacks have been against the Jayhawks; CU's previous biggest comeback in Big 12 play was a 28-24 win over Texas after trailing 17-7, also in 1996.
- ◆ Return Scores. Dominique Brooks' 41-yard fumble return and Stephone Robinson's 48-yard punt return, their first career scores, were the fifth and sixth touchdowns scored via return by Colorado this season; that's tied for the most in the nation this year with Miami, Fla. Colorado now has 34 since the start of the 1999 season, the fifth most in the nation in this span (Miami leads with 48).
- ◆ Robinson's punt return was the first for a touchdown by a Buffalo since Jeremy Bloom raced 80 yards for a third quarter score against Oklahoma in the 2002 Big 12 Championship game in Houston.
- ◆ Colorado scored for just the second time on its first drive of the second half this season (TD; Joel Klatt was 6-for-6 for 62 yards on the drive); the other score was a TD two weeks ago at Texas A&M.
- ◆ Kansas was the fourth team to score a touchdown both on the opponents' opening drive of the game as well as the second half against CU this year. In the second half today, however, CU came back to hold KU to five consecutive three downs-and-out.
- ◆ TB Bobby Purify, with 52 rushing yards to give him 2,724 in his career, passed former teammate and good friend Chris Brown (2,690) into fourth place. He also moved into fifth in all-purpose yards (3,213) as he skipped past Charlie Davis (3,164); Purify is the only player in the top nine without a single return yard.

Kansas State

- ◆ Buffalo Heart Award. It was presented postgame on the CU sideline to TB Bobby Purify; the award is presented by the "Fans Behind The Bench" to the player the fans observe to have the most heart (coordinated by season ticket holder and Boulder Buff Club member Patrick Grimes). This was the seventh annual award by the group.
- ◆ With the victory, Colorado became bowl eligible at 6-4. It was also Gary Barnett's 40th career win at Colorado (40-32).
- ◆ For the second straight season, CU and KSU combined for 69 points; last year, KSU won 49-20, this year, CU 38-31. It's the fourth time in the last five meetings the two combined for 65 or more points. The 38 points by CU was its most against KSU since a 54-7 win in Boulder in 1992.
- ◆ WR Ron Monteilh (4-106, 1 TD). What a home finale for the senior; he had his first career 100-yard game, and the 64-yard touchdown reception from Joel Klatt for the winning points with five seconds remaining was his first career touchdown. It was also the longest play from scrimmage for Colorado this season. It was the third 100-yard receiving game by a Buffalo this year; Blake Mackey (vs. OSU) and Dusty Sprague (at Texas A&M) had the other two.
- ◆ Other famous 64-yard passes at the end of the game to win it for Colorado? There is one for sure—10 years ago on Sept. 24, 1994, the pass from Kordell Stewart to Michael Westbrook, via Blake Anderson tip, also covered 64 yards to give CU a 27-26 win at Michigan.
- ◆ TB Bobby Purify (24-155, 2 TD rush/1-12 receiving). Assorted accomplishments in his Folsom Field finale:
--He became the first player at CU to record 2,500 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving (he's one of just five at CU in the 2,000/500 club);
--He had the fourth 100-yard game of the season (ninth of his career);
- ◆ First Career Starts. WR Mike Duren started his first career game in his home finale, as CU opened in a three-wide receiver set. DE Abraham Wright also made his first career start, while DT Brandon Dabdoub started for the first time this season in his senior home finale.
- ◆ FS Tom Hubbard. Hubbard, who also started for the third time in his career, made his first collegiate interception near the end of the first quarter.
- ◆ Field Position. Colorado's average field position for 14 drives was its 31; Kansas State's for its 12 drives its 23; the Wildcats started nine of their 12 drives at or inside their 20.

GAME #1—COLORADO 27, COLORADO STATE 24

(September 4; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — Coming in, it seemed impossible to top what happened last year between these two in-state rivals in their 75th meeting, won by Colorado is a classic college football shootout 42-35. CU went ahead with 40 seconds left and CSU's final drive stalled at midfield; this time around, the Buffs held off CSU again, but this time after the Rams had a first and goal at the CU 1 with under a minute remaining en route to a thrilling 27-24 win.

Though Colorado led for 50 minutes and 27 seconds of he game, it certainly appeared that the Rams were going to steal it away with a TD in the final seconds and take their only lead of the night when it counted most. Justin Holland connected with receiver David Anderson for the ninth time in the game on an 11-yard pass that set CSU up with a first down at the CU 1 with time ticking down to the 30 second mark, which is where it stood after Holland spiked the ball to stop the clock.

On second-and-goal, one-time Buffalo Marcus Houston was stuffed for no gain by CU freshman inside linebacker Jordon Dizon. With the Rams out of time outs, CSU head coach Sonny Lubick decided to go for all the marbles, and with the clock running and under 10 seconds to go, a pitch to back Tristan Walker was sniffed out by CU safety J.J. Billingsley, who stopped him at the CU 3 with corner Lorenzo Sims finishing the tackle as time ran out on the Rams.

The Buffs snapped a 17-17 tie with 6:43 remaining, as Mason Crosby drilled a 55-yard field goal right down the middle, with at least 10 yards to spare, to put the Buffs up 20-17. It was the first 50-plus yard field goal by a Colorado player in 11 years, and it served to also fire up the CU defense. On the first play of CSU's next possession, Brian Iwuh picked off a Holland pass and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown and built the Buff lead back up to 27-17.

Colorado raced to a 17-0 lead with 4:44 left in the first half on the strength of first quarter 1-yard touchdown runs by Bobby Purify and Joel Klatt and a 31-yard field goal by Crosby. The Rams got on the board with 23 seconds left before the half on a 1-yard pass from Holland to tight end Matt Bartz, and would finally catch the Buffs with 11:42 left in the fourth quarter after a 1-yard scoring run by Houston and a 26-yard field goal by Jeff Babcock.

The Buffs held the Rams to just 44 yards rushing, though Holland did pierce the CU defense for 403 through the air. CU countered with 255 rushing yards, its most since late in the 2002 season.

GAME #2—COLORADO 20, WASHINGTON STATE 12

(September 11; Seattle, Wash.)

SEATTLE — Two games does not a season make, but 120 minutes into 2004, Colorado benefited from two goal-line stands in the final seconds, this time recovering a fumble at its own 2 to preserve a 20-12 victory over host Washington State at Seattle's Qwest Field.

Holding Colorado State at bay in eerily similar fashion a week earlier, the Cougars were frantically trying to come from 11 down to send the game into overtime, driving 54 yards in eight plays to the CU 4. After quarterback Alex Brink spiked the ball to stop the clock, he tried to score up the middle after being flushed from the pocket. But Jordon Dizon was there to greet him, hitting him square on to force a fumble that Matt McChesney recovered to end the threat and help Colorado to a 2-0 start for the second straight season.

In a game where defense dominated, only one offensive touchdown was recorded, but the Buffaloes gladly took two scores produced by their defense and special teams. The first came with just under seven minutes to play in the third quarter with the teams deadlocked in a 3-3 tie. Faced with a 4th-and-6 from its own 32, Kyle Basler had a second punt blocked by CU free safety Tyrone Henderson; while the first still managed to travel 30 yards, this one went in the other direction, where the Buffs' Lawrence Vickers recovered it in the end zone for the game's first touchdown. In the process, Henderson became the first player in CU history to have two blocks of any kind in the same game.

After WSU regrouped and marched for a field goal to cut the lead to 10-6 and then forced CU to punt early in the fourth quarter, the Cougars drove from their own 12 to midfield. But Joe Sanders, subbing for the injured Brian Iwuh at the "Buff" outside linebacker spot, read Brink's eyes perfectly to steal a pass, racing 51 yards for a touchdown and a 17-6 CU lead.

Not to be thwarted, Brink hit Jason Hill with a 60-yard touchdown pass four plays later to cut the margin back down to 17-12, but that's where it remained when a two-point pass fell incomplete. Special teams then shined again for Colorado, as Terrence Wheatley returned the ensuing kickoff 59 yards, leading to a 41-yard field goal by Mason Crosby that accounted for what would be the day's final points with 4:42 remaining.

Crosby opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 52-yard field goal, which tied for the third longest on the road in school history. The Cougars tied it on a 44-yard boot by Loren Langley three minutes into the second stanza.

The Buffs had just 125 yards of offense, its second lowest total ever in winning a game. Even though WSU had 402, it took 92 plays to amass it, with 234 of the yards coming on just five plays as the teams combined had 77 plays for zero or minus yardage.

GAME #3—COLORADO 52, NORTH TEXAS 21

(September 18; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — After a sluggish start, Colorado scored 38 consecutive points in a 35-minute span as the Buffaloes opened a season 3-0 for the first time since 1998 with a 52-21 win over North Texas.

The Mean Green opened solid on defense, holding the Buffs to three plays and out on their first possession, and then countered on offense with freshman Jamario Thomas breaking free for a 57-yard touchdown run on UNT's second play to take a 7-0 lead. CU then got its wake-up call after the Green recovered an onside kick, as the Buffs held on a fourth down play to take over on its own 38. It would signal the start of an offensive explosion for the Buffs that would last into the fourth quarter.

Colorado would score on eight of its next nine possessions, starting with Bobby Purify, who sandwiched 11- and 24-yard touchdown runs around another Thomas run of 25 yards that put UNT up 14-7 with 6:02 left in the first quarter. But it was after Purify's second score where the complexion of the game changed.

UNT fought right back and drove from its own 7 to the CU 8. But on the 14th play of the drive, Lorenzo Sims forced a recovered a fumble by Andy Blount after a 4-yard reception, giving the ball back to the Buffs. Quarterback Joel Klatt then engineered a 7-play, 95-yard drive, completed all five of his passes including a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight Joe Klopfenstein and the offensive fireworks were on in concert with the CU defense tightening.

After UNT was held to three-and-out, Purify scored for a third time with an 11-yard run, the culmination of a 5-play, 65 yard drive in just 1:15. UNT managed one first down on its next series, and pinned CU at its 8 with solid punt coverage, but CU answered with a 13-play, 92 yards drive, topped off by a 21-yard TD strike from Klatt to Evan Judge to put CU up 35-14 at halftime.

It was extended to 38-14 midway in the third on a 49-yard field goal by Mason Crosby, and the final points of the CU run came when Klatt and Klopfenstein hooked up again, this time covering 17 yards, to make it 45-14 at the 1:39 mark of the third. UNT broke the string with a touchdown on its next drive, with CU immediately answering that to close the night's scoring.

Colorado amassed 586 yards overall, including 383 through the air, while North Texas logged 507 of its own as both schools topped the 200-yard mark both rushing and passing. UNT fell to 0-3 with the loss, while the Buffaloes gave head coach Gary Barnett his first 3-0 start in his 15th year as a college head coach.

GAME #4—MISSOURI 17, COLORADO 9

(October 2, Columbia, Mo.)

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Brad Smith did what he does best, mixing up the run and the pass, as the junior quarterback helped Missouri snap a five-game losing streak to Colorado as the Tigers defeated the Buffaloes, 17-9, in the Big 12 Conference opener for both teams.

Smith passed for 189 yards and a touchdown, rushed for another 76 yards for 265 yards overall on offense, as he engineered long scoring drives to open each half. In a game where defense and mistakes were aplenty, perhaps the effects of both teams coming off a bye week taking a small toll.

The Tigers took a 7-0 lead with an impressive 12-play, 80-yard march to open the game, with Damien Nash scoring on a 3-yard run to cap the drive. On CU's first possession, quarterback Joel Klatt was intercepted by Marcus King, who made a diving stab at the Colorado 49 to set the Tigers up in primo shape. But the Buff defense held, a sign of things to come for the rest of the afternoon, and the Buffs got the ball back at its 27 following a punt.

The Buffaloes drove 69 yards in 15 plays to the Missouri 4 before the series stalled, but Mason Crosby got the Buffs on the board with a 24-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3. MU then countered with a field goal to go back up by seven, with CU responding with its most dominant possession of the game. Klatt directed a 5-play, 80-yard drive, completing passes to Evan Judge and Dusty Sprague with Bobby Purify rushing three times, including a 32-yard gallop and a 4-yard burst over the left side for a TD. But Crosby's PAT kick was blocked, leaving the score at 10-9.

Colorado could not get untracked in the third quarter, earning just one first down and gaining all of 24 yards, while doing its best to keep Missouri at bay. The Tigers scored on their first drive, with Sean Coffey eluding several tacklers on a 51-yard reception from Smith to up the score to 17-9. MU then drove inside the Buff 25 on its next two possessions, only to miss field goals both times.

The Missouri defense pinned its collective ears back in the fourth quarter, as Colorado twice drove into Tiger territory, the first time ending at the MU 40 with a punt and the second with an interception in the end zone, the latter with 6:44 remaining. Klatt connected with Evan Judge on the classic corner fade pass for an apparent touchdown, but Missouri's Shirdonya Mitchell wrestled the ball away as Judge fell to the ground and the officials ruled it an interception, though it appeared both players had possession. The Buffs got the ball back more time after that, but could not advance it beyond its 36 and Missouri was able to run out the clock to secure the win.

Colorado ran just 56 plays, amassing 251 yards of total offense, while Mizzou controlled the clock with 34:25 of possession time in running 80 plays for 417 yards.

GAME #5—OKLAHOMA STATE 42, COLORADO 14

(October 9; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — The good news was that Oklahoma State ran just nine plays in plus territory all afternoon against Colorado, but the bad news was that they didn't really need to as the No. 21 Cowboys ruined the Buffaloes' annual homecoming with a 42-14 victory.

Three of OSU's touchdowns were over 50 yards in length, with a fourth scored on a late interception return. Otherwise, the Cowboys sustained just one drive in the game that produced a touchdown, while the other set up on a muffed punt return by the Buffs. But it was more than enough for OSU to improve to 5-0 on the season while CU dropped to 3-2 overall.

The tone for the game came down to three plays: on OSU's third play from scrimmage, tailback Vernand Morency broke around the left side and raced 58 yards for a touchdown just 3:35 into the game. A defensive struggle started to ensue, but Hugh Charles collided with Stephone Robinson as the latter tried to reel in an OSU punt, with the Cowboys recovering on the CU 11. After a penalty, Morency ran it in from six yards out for a 14-0 Cowboy lead with just over six minutes left in the half.

But perhaps the back breaker came on the last play of the half. OSU seemingly was satisfied with the two touchdown lead going into the lockerroom, running three rushing plays after it got the ball back with 1:20 left. But with nine seconds left, OSU quarterback Donovan Woods drifted back and launched what would be a 58-yard touchdown pass to Prentiss Elliott as time ran out and the lead grew to 21-0.

The Buffaloes didn't throw in the towel, holding the Cowboys to three-and-out on their first second half possession, but what followed basically sealed CU's fate. James Cox replaced an injured Joel Klatt at quarterback, and drove the Buffs from their own 28 deep into OSU territory. In fact, the Buffs were apparently on the board with a 29-yard catch and run by Lawrence Vickers, but it was negated by a holding call. Still, CU came back to face a 3rd-and-3 from the OSU 10, but Paul Duren intercepted a Cox pass at the 5 to end the threat.

OSU then countered with a 95-yard drive in 13 plays, capped by a 20-yard touchdown pass from Woods to Luke Frazier, to take a 28-0 edge late in the quarter. Vickers finally did get the zero off the Buff side of the scoreboard with a 6-yard run in the fourth, and Cox also found Dusty Sprague for a 21-yard touchdown pass, the first by both in their collegiate careers, but the game was already in the bank for the Cowboys.

GAME #6—COLORADO 19, IOWA STATE 14

(October 16; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — If you like exciting special teams play, then Folsom Field was the place to be on this Saturday, as Mason Crosby kicked four field goals, including a school record 60-yarder, to lead the Colorado Buffaloes to a 19-14 win over the Iowa State Cyclones.

The Buffs moved to an early, and easy, 10-0 lead in the first 10 minutes of the game, perhaps being lulled into believing they would have their way with the Cyclones. On the games first possession, CU drove to midfield before stalling, only to have Todd Miller fumble a John Torp punt with Colorado's Lawrence Vickers recovering at the ISU 11. Three plays later, James Cox, making his first career start at quarterback, drilled a 3-yard touchdown pass to Jesse Wallace, with Crosby's PAT kick putting the Buffs up 7-0. But that would be CU's only touchdown on the day.

After Iowa State went three plays and out, Crosby kicked his first field goal, a chip shot from 28 yards after CU drove to just outside the Iowa State 1-yard line on the strength of a 17-yard pass from Cox to Bobby Purify, followed by a 35-yard run by Purify to the ISU 3 and a personal foul call. But a false start, a slip by Cox and an incomplete left the Buffs settling for three and a 10-0 lead.

From that point on, the game turned into a dogfight. ISU drove into CU territory on its next two possessions, only to turn the ball over the first time and then miss a 22-yard field goal. The latter set the stage for Crosby's record-setting kick, as he had plenty of distance but needed a friendly bounce off the upright to extend the lead to 13-0. Iowa State finally got on the board 82 second before halftime when Ellis Hobbs picked a Cox pass and raced 34 yards for a touchdown.

At that point, Joel Klatt came in at quarterback for the Buffs, but the ISU defense stifled his first possession, forcing a punt. This time, Terrance Highsmith bobbled the ball with Stephone Robinson right there to recover for the Buffs at the Cyclone 18. Two plays later, CU was at the ISU 6, but a touchdown pass from Klatt to Wallace with eight second left was wiped out on an interference call on the CU tight end. That drew a 15-yard penalty, and an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Buffs set CU back to the ISU 36. Crosby trotted in and nailed a 54-yarder at the halftime gun, becoming the first CU player to ever hit two from over 50 yards in the same game.

Crosby 'a fourth and final kick was from 33 yards out with 8:28 to play, as it came after Iowa State failed to score after driving three times in a row inside the Buff 20. The Cyclones turned it over on downs at the CU 7, missed a 25-yard field goal, and then fumbled it back to the Buffs at the CU 18. After the field goal, ISU again marched to the CU 12, only to misfire on four straight plays and turned the ball back over on downs. A 43-yard touchdown pass from Bret Meyer to Todd Blythe, on a 3rd-and-20 play, netted Iowa State's its only offensive points with 2:38 left. But CU earned two first downs, both on Vickers runs, to seal the victory.

GAME #7—TEXAS A & M 29, COLORADO 26 (OT)

(October 23; College Station, Texas)

COLLEGE STATION, Texas — Todd Pegram's fifth field goal of the game, a 19-yard chip-shot in overtime, proved to be the winning points for Texas A&M after Colorado countered with a turnover on its extra period possession as the No. 17 Aggies rallied to defeat the Buffaloes, 29-26.

The overtime session was perhaps a fitting end to wild and hotly contested game, as the seesaw affair had five lead changes and the only tie at the end of regulation. Colorado led most of the way, including by 19-7 after scoring on its first possession of the second half, and still owned a 19-10 edge entering the fourth quarter. However, the host Aggies stormed back to go ahead 20-19 on a Courtney Lewis 2-yard run and Pegram PAT kick early in the fourth quarter, and tacked on three more on a Pegram 34-yard field goal to go up 23-19 with just 4:09 remaining.

CU responded with its most authoritative drive to date of the season, marching 82 yards in 13 plays as Bobby Purify's 1-yard run and Mason Crosby PAT vaulted the Buffs back ahead 26-23. Joel Klatt completed five passes on the drive, with two players making spectacular catches: tight end Joe Klopfenstein made a one-handed snare for 11 yards to the A&M 46, followed by Dusty Sprague hauling in a 34-yard tightrope job on the east sideline and Klopfenstein again for 11, scooping up a hard throw from Klatt at the 1 that set up Purify's go-ahead score with 1:05 left.

A&M was up for the challenge, as quarterback Reggie McNeal drove the Aggies 78 yards in eight plays, with Pegram making a 20-yarder as time expired to knot the game at 26. CU won the overtime coin toss and elected to play defense, and eventually stifled A&M on a first-and-goal from the CU 1 and forced a field goal try. After Pegram's kick made it 29-26, CU came back with a 6-yard pass from Klatt to Sprague and then a Hugh Charles 3-yard run to the A&M 16. Purify had the first down with a 5-yard gain, but Lee Foliaki forced a fumble that he also recovered, ending the game and CU's upset bid.

Klatt threw two touchdown passes to Evan Judge, one from 15 yards out that gave CU a 13-7 halftime lead, and the other covering 24 yards to open the second half. Crosby earlier had connected on a pair of short field goals that put CU up 6-0 before having a streak of six straight made end after he missed a 50-yarder into the wind.

Both teams surpassed 500 yards in total offense (A&M 532, CU 510); in fact, at the end of regulation, the Aggies had 499 to CU's 496, another indicator of how close these two teams mirrored each other on the afternoon.

GAME #8—TEXAS 31, COLORADO 7

(October 30; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — Heisman Trophy candidate Cedric Benson rushed for 141 yards and two touchdowns with quarterback Vince Young adding 68 yards and two scores himself as No. 8 Texas slowly but surely pulled away in defeating Colorado, 31-7.

Things looked bright for the Buffaloes for the first quarter and a half of the game, as Terrence Wheatley picked off a Young pass at the Longhorn 37 and returned it for a touchdown to give Colorado a 7-0 lead. That score, with 8:50 left in the first quarter, turned out to be the only points of the day for CU, but the Buffs did hold that lead deep into the second quarter.

After Texas took over on its own 9, Benson would carry six times for 51 yards including runs of 18 and 14 yards, with Young scoring from a yard out to polish off a 12-play, 91-yard drive that tied the game with 5:32 left in the half.

UT's stifling defense held the Buffs in three plays and gave the ball back to its offense at the 4:27 mark. The 'Horns took the lead for good after a 10-play, 58-yard drive with Benson scoring on a 2-yard run with just 52 seconds left before halftime. Young hit tight end David Thomas for a 20-yard gain on the drive, as well as picking up 18 yards himself on a draw play to the CU 7 to set up Benson's score.

Texas pulled away in the first six minutes of the second half, turning two CU turnovers into touchdowns. Young scored on a 9-yard scamper following a fumble by Colorado quarterback Joel Klatt, and Benson added his second score after Michael Griffin snared a deflected Klatt pass. Both drives were short and totaled 37 yards combined. Dusty Mangum added a 33-yard field goal later in the quarter to complete the day's scoring.

Meanwhile, the Texas defense wouldn't budge against the Buffs, holding CU to just 88 yards through three periods while keeping CU from crossing midfield until two minutes into the fourth quarter. Two late CU drives that reached the Texas 23 and the 9 were also thwarted, one by an interception and another on downs.

GAME #9—COLORADO 30, KANSAS 21

(November 6; Lawrence, Kan.)

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Stephone Robinson's punt return for a touchdown near the end of the third quarter gave Colorado the lead for good as the Buffaloes remained in the hunt for the Big 12 North Division title with a 30-21 win over the Kansas Jayhawks.

It wasn't easy, as CU spotted Kansas a 14-0 lead in the game's first four minutes. John Randle scored on a pair of short runs, the first capping an 80-yard drive to open the game and the second a short possession after Rodney Harris intercepted a Joel Klatt pass and returned it to the CU 28.

The Buffs methodically battled back, led by its defense. On KU's next possession, John Nielsen replaced an injured Jason Swanson at quarterback, and on a 3rd-and-10, he hit Randle on a short gainer. But Vaka Manupuna was there for the Buffaloes to jar the ball loose, with Dominique Brooks picking it up and racing 41 yards for a touchdown to cut the Kansas lead in half.

The Buffs worked the ball down to the KU 2 early in the second quarter but had to settle for a 19-yard field goal from Mason Crosby, further eating into KU's lead. However, those were the last points of the half and it remained 14-10 at intermission.

Colorado came out in the second half with one of its most impressive drives of the season, marching 70 yards in eight plays to take a 17-14 lead. Klatt completed 6-of-6 passes for 62 yards, with his final throw a 4-yard touchdown toss to tight end Joe Klopfenstein. But Kansas immediately countered with its own impressive drive, as Nielsen hit Brandon Rideau on a 19-yard touchdown pass to cap a 12-play, 80-yard possession that put the Jayhawks back up, 21-17.

Those were KU's last points on the day, as the CU defense stifled the Jayhawks from that point on. KU went three downs-and-out on its next five possessions and had just 93 yards down the stretch.

CU added some insurance with 3:37 remaining on a 4-yard touchdown run by Lawrence Vickers. It was the fifth straight possession CU had started between its 41 and 49 yardline, but the only one that yielded points as the combination of a tough Buffalo defense and pinpoint punting from John Torp kept the Jayhawks at an arm's length. Kansas' attempt at a comeback was thwarted after it reached the CU 18, but Terrence Wheatley intercepted Nielsen in the end zone to seal the win.

GAME #10—COLORADO 38, KANSAS STATE 31

(November 13; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — Ten years earlier, a 64-yard touchdown pass as time expired lifted Colorado to an improbable win at Michigan as time expired. The Buffaloes likely took the all-time lead in 64-yard TD passes to win games in the final seconds as Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh worked the magic this time around to lead Colorado to a 38-31 win over Kansas State.

CU coaches wanted to win in regulation, despite taking over at its 23 with just 30 seconds left. After two incomplete passes, Lawrence Vickers picked up a first down with a 13-yard gain on a draw up the middle, setting the stage for Klatt and Monteilh's magic. With 16 seconds on the clock, the hope for CU was to get into field goal range and four receivers took off downfield; Klatt found Monteilh by himself at the KSU 23, and after eluding two would be tacklers, he ran around the left side and sprinted into the end zone with just five seconds showing on Folsom Field's clocks.

The score completed a fourth quarter flurry by both schools, as Kansas State rallied twice to tie the game as the teams combined for 35 points and 339 yards of offense. What had been a fairly defensive game with CU leading 24-10 with 12:03 remaining turned into a classic track meet.

Bobby Purify's 3-yard touchdown run, one of 24 carries for 155 yards in the game, and a 5-yard touchdown pass from Klatt to Joe Klopfenstein had CU sitting pretty with a 14-point lead entering the fourth quarter. In fact, the lead likely would have grown to three scores had Purify not been accidentally tripped up by one of his own players after a 25-yard gain. But KSU held the Buffs on their first possession of the final stanza, and things got crazy from there.

Alan Webb scored on an 11-yard run to cap an 86-yard drive to pull K-State to within 24-17 at the 9:12 mark, and exactly a minute later, Ted Sims returned an intercepted Klatt pass 37 yards to knot the game. CU came back with an 8-play, 62-yard march that ended with a Purify 2-yard TD, reclaiming a 31-24 edge with 3:58 on the clock; Klatt had key completions to Monteilh for 22 yards and to Vickers for 24. However, K-State didn't fold, answering with an impressive 14-play, 80-yard effort in which it converted three times on third down, including the game-tying score on a 17-yard pass to Jermaine Moreira from Dylan Meier, who replaced an injured Webb earlier in the quarter. Now tied at 31, the stage was set for Colorado's last second heroics.

The Buffs took a 10-0 lead just one minute into the second quarter, but the Wildcats came back with 10 points before halftime to tie things up.

TRENDS Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 159-76-4, the 14th best record nationally in this span). In these 239 games, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

♦ with 400-plus yards total offense	96-16-2	♦ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	76- 6-1
♦ with 500-plus yards total offense	49- 5-0	♦ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	78-11-1
♦ when leading in time of possession	103-20-3	♦ when leading after three quarters ( 131-10-3 in last 144 )	135-12-3
♦ when making 20-plus first downs	99-26-1	♦ when leading at halftime ( 114-12-2 in last 128 )	130-14-2
♦ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	62- 7-1	♦ when scoring 24 or more points	128-17-2

♦ with two or fewer turnovers ( 27-6-2 with zero )	113-33-2	♦ when passing for more yards than rushing	63-49-2
♦ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	96-15-1	♦ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	87-13-2

TRENDS II Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings, Colorado has posted the nation's ninth best overall record at 131-57-4. Here's are some trends during this time frame (192 games, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	73-21-3	➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	112-18-2
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense ( 43-5 with 500-plus )	82-16-2	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	71- 4-1
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	85- 5-1	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	50- 1-1
➤ when leading in possession time ( 49-39-1 when not )	82-18-3	➤ when rushing for 300-plus yards	30- 0-1
➤ when making 20-plus first downs	86-23-1	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	30- 2-0
➤ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	48- 6-1	➤ when passing for 200-plus yards	66-31-2
➤ when scoring first ( 67-11-1 the last 79 times )	78-14-1	➤ when passing for 300-plus yards ( 9-0-1 400-plus )	23-11-1

➤ when average field position is CU 30+ ( 23-2 40+ )	93-23-2	➤ when owning the edge in return yards	101-21-2

TRENDS III Gary Barnett took over the reins of the CU program in 1999. CU has a 40-32 overall record with him as mentor, and here are some trends during his tenure (72 games, including bowls):

➤ when scoring 30 or more points	28-3	➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	34-10
➤ when taking a lead after trailing ( 17-5 last 22 )	22-11	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	19-2
➤ when leading in possession time ( 15-19 when not )	25-13	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	16-0
➤ with two or fewer turnovers ( 4-3 with zero )	14-8	➤ when rushing for 300-plus yards	8-0
➤ when turnover margin for CU is plus or even	34-12	➤ when rushing for more yards than passing	18-5
last 28 games when plus or even	25-3	➤ with a 100-yard rusher ( 20-4 last 24 )	23-9
➤ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	11-4	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	8-1
➤ when scoring first ( 11-25 when not )	29-7	➤ with 400-plus yards total offense	23-11
➤ when leading at halftime	30-6	➤ with 500-plus yards total offense	15-3
➤ when trailing at halftime ( 3-2 when tied )	7-24	➤ when out-rushing the opponent	31-3

➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	18-5	➤ when owning the edge in return yards	29-12
➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	10-2	➤ with 75 or more return yards in a game	13-7

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS CU started all upperclassmen in almost every game in 2002, as for the season, juniors and seniors started 93% of the time. But in 2003, the number dropped to 58.3%, and through 10 games in '04, it stands at 61.5%. Going into 2004, 56 players had seen previous game experience in their careers, as 32 made at least one start (21 made at least three). It's a cyclical pattern, and that shows up when looking at the breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class:

- 2004 starters (10 games): Seniors (55), Juniors (81), Sophomores (76), Freshmen (8: redshirts 0, true 8).
- 2003 starters (12 games): Seniors (105), Juniors (49), Sophomores (78), Freshmen (32: redshirts 14, true 18).
- 2002 starters (14 games): Seniors (155), Juniors (130), Sophomores (14), Freshmen (9: redshirts 0, true 9).
- 2001 starters (13 games): Seniors (102), Juniors (95), Sophomores (83), Freshmen (7: redshirts 7, true 0).

UNDERCLASSMEN ROLE In 2002, when CU finished 9-5 in the school's only ever 14-game season, underclassmen started a total of 23 games (14 sophomore/9 freshmen). Fast-forward to 2003, and that total was surpassed after just four games (25), with the underclassmen start count for the year at 110 (78 sophomore/32 freshmen). In CU's Big 12 championship year in 2001, 90 underclassmen made starts, with the 71 starting in 2000 and 107 in 1999 during the Barnett era. Including the two kicking spots (P, PK), the 2002 numbers remained 23 out of a possible 336 starts (6.5%) by underclassmen; the 2003 numbers jumped to 134 (90 soph/44 frosh) out of 288, or 46.5%. To date in 2004, 84 of the 220 starters have been underclassmen (38%; 94 of 244 including kickers, or 39%).

USUALLY IN 'EM Colorado's usually been in those few games it has lost over the last 16 seasons. Of the 57 losses, 32 have been by eight points or less (including 15 of the 32 losses in the Barnett Era). Teams that have defeated CU by more than eight are Nebraska, Oklahoma, Kansas State and Texas (three times), Kansas and Missouri (twice), Baylor, and Colorado State, Florida State, Michigan, Notre Dame, Oklahoma State, Oregon, Texas Tech, USC and Washington State. CU has really been dominated from the start only four times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU (though CU led in total yardage over 75 percent of the game) and 2002 vs. USC, while K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03) and Oklahoma State ('04) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

40 RANK 6TH CU's 40 wins over Associated Press ranked team since the start of the 1989 season are tied for the sixth most in the nation in this span. Florida State has the most with 61, followed by Michigan (52), Florida (50), Tennessee (43), Miami, Fla. (43), Ohio State (41) and Colorado (40). As for the Big 12, after CU, the next schools on this list are Nebraska (32), Texas (27), Texas A&M (26) and Oklahoma (26). (The AP poll is used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

BUFFS TOP BIG 12 NORTH MARKS The six Big 12 North Division teams' struggles recently with their counterparts from the South have been well-documented; in fact, the six were 3-15 this year (all wins versus Baylor) and Colorado has dropped eight straight to South schools. But the Buffaloes own the best mark, 16-3, against Big 12 North opposition since the 2001 season; other records in the same span: Kansas State 14-6, Nebraska 11-8, Iowa State 8-11, Missouri 5-14 and Kansas 4-16 (two games remain this year, CU-NU and ISU-MU).

CAPITAL RETURNS CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001 and 2002 seasons. The Buffs had an 854-417 edge in 2001 and an 803-607 lead in 2002 in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. In 2003, the opponent held a 599-453 edge, but this year, CU is ahead by a 499-372 edge after nine games. Return yards are a staple of the Barnett Era at Colorado, as CU now has 3,955 in the 72 games he has coached, 978 more than the opponent. And the Buffs have 34 return touchdowns over the last six seasons (30 regular season, four bowl game), the sixth most in the nation for this span. A closer look, through games of November 20:

THE BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-04 Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	11-45-2	7-13-1	5 wins by Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	24-79-3	13-24-2	8 wins by Eddie Crowder/Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	36-95-3	19-28-2	10 wins by Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	66-121-3	40-40-2	20 wins by Bill McCartney

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the nine-year old league owns a 21-52 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own eight of those wins. CU is 8-7 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 7-4, Texas 2-5, Kansas State 2-3, Baylor 1-3, Oklahoma 1-0, Kansas 0-2, Oklahoma State 0-3, Missouri 0-5, Iowa State 0-6, Texas Tech 0-6 and Texas A&M 0-8.

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 32-5, Kansas State 30-5, Oklahoma State 24-6, Oklahoma 25-8, Texas 25-9, Texas A&M 24-10, Missouri 21-10, Iowa State 20-10, Kansas 19-10, Texas Tech 23-12, Colorado 20-13 and Baylor 17-12 (remember that traditionally, CU has played one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

WALK-ON RETURNS Colorado started two different quarterbacks in 2003, both with walk-on roots. Joel Klatt started the first three games before being sidelined with a shoulder sprain, and Erik Greenberg replaced him in the role for Florida State. Both joined the programs as walk-ons; Greenberg earned a scholarship prior to leaving for his Mormon Mission in 2001, while Klatt had walk-on status through 2003 but received a scholarship last January when he was first able to. The previous total of walk-on QBs who had started in school history, at least since 1973, prior to last season had been just one—Scott Kingdom, who made his first start at Iowa State in 1980. In 2003, Klatt and Greenberg teamed for some impressive numbers: 282-of-450 for 3,351 yards and 27 touchdowns (with 13 interceptions). That total was the highest in Colorado history for a single season, as the pair of former walk-ons toppled the old record of 3,338 set in 1996.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below is the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2004 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on this year's opening roster collectively had played in 761 games, with 182 starts, entering the year that made it the most inexperienced team Gary Barnett began a season with in his six years in Boulder. The 2001 team was the most experienced, as it entered the year with 924 games played with 326 starts; similar numbers were 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). LAST TRUE FRESHMEN TO START: ILB Jordon Dizon (2004); ILB Walter Boye-Doe, CB Terrence Wheatley, S Dominique Brooks, OG Brian Daniels, DB Lorenzo Sims (2003);

J.J. Billingsley, TB Brian Calhoun, DB Brian Iwuh (2002); G Marwan Hage, DE Marques Harris, TB Marcus Houston, TB Bobby Purify, TE Quinn Synniewski, ILB Sean Tufts (2000).

LAST TRUE FRESHMEN TO START AT QUARTERBACK: Craig Ochs (2000), Koy Detmer (1992). IN A SEASON OPENER: Has not occurred.

LAST TRUE FRESHMEN TO START AT RUNNING BACK: Brian Calhoun (2002), Marcus Houston (2000). IN A SEASON OPENER: Kent Kahl (1991).

LAST REDSHIRT FRESHMEN TO START: CB Sammy Joseph, DE Alex Ligon, LB Thaddeus Washington (2003).

LAST PLAYERS TO START FOR THE FIRST TIME AS A SENIOR: WR Mike Duren, OG Terrance Barreau (2004); WR D.J. Hackett (2003); DE Dylan Bird, WR Jason Burianek, OT Josh Foster, QB Robert Hodge, DB Lovell Houston, OT Rawle King (2002), WR Matt Brunson (2001), DE Anawn Jones (2000).

OUT THERE FROM THE GET-GO

OT Sam Wilder currently owns the longest starting streak on the team at 33 (with the first 11 of those coming at DT). OG Brian Daniels is next with 19, followed by DE James Garee (18). Wilder's 33 total also leads the team in career starts, followed by DT Matt McChesney (22), Daniels (19), QB Joel Klatt (19), FS J.J. Billingsley (18) and DT Brandon Dabdoub (18); Dabdoub (46) and TB Bobby Purify (45) have appeared in the most games.

TWENTY-SIX "SEASONED" TO DATE 2004

Through 10 games, 26 players have been on the field for the very first time as a Colorado Buffalo, 19 of which took the field for the first time in the opener. In 2003, 24 players had their first taste of action in a CU football uniform, including two scholarship kickers making CU likely the first team in the nation in a very long time that had two freshmen scholarship kickers play in the first game of the year. The list (*—mainly special teams duty to date only):

TRUE FRESHMEN (6): DE Alonzo Barrett, *TB Hugh Charles, ILB Jordon Dizon, TB Byron Ellis, WR Reggie Joseph, *WR Patrick Williams.

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (10): TB Isaiah Crawford, SS Lionel Harris, OL Edwin Harrison, *QB/WR Bernard Jackson, OL Tyler Polumbus, *CB/KR Stephane Robinson, *CB Chris Russell, OLB Joe Sanders, WR Dusty Sprague, QB Brian White.

SOPHOMORES (5): CB Gerett Burl, OLB Ben Carpenter, FS Tyrone Henderson, *WR Nick Holz, DE Abraham Wright.

JUNIORS (4): WR Marcus Gonzales, DT John Guydon, *SN Matt Hammond, *FB Brendan Schaub.

SENIORS (1): OG Terrance Barreau.

ELEVEN FIRST STARTS

In 2003, the fourth most players, 20, since 1984 made their first career starts in a CU uniform in 2003; in 2004, the number has dropped to nine. Six started for the first time in the opener against Colorado State: OG Terrance Barreau, CB Gerett Burl, ILB Jordon Dizon, C Mark Fenton, FS Tyrone Henderson and WR Evan Judge. Two others did so against Iowa State, QB James Cox and SS Tom Hubbard, while WR Tyler Littlehales started for the first time against Texas. In the home finale against Kansas State, senior WR Mike Duren made his first start, as did DE Abraham Wright. In 2002, 16 players made their first career starts, and the most first starts in recent memory came in 1998, when there were 27 first-time starters for the Buffaloes, 17 on offense and 10 on defense. It was the most since 1984, when 29 made their first starts (15 on offense). The annual number of first-time starters since 1984:

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20) and 2004 (11).

SCOUT WATCH

CU's senior class numbers just 12 this season (and one is out for the season with an injury), but 41 scouts representing 21 NFL teams have scouted CU games: Atlanta, Buffalo, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Houston, Indianapolis, Kansas City, New England, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Oakland, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Seattle, Tampa Bay and Washington. The Colorado Crush of Arena Football was also at the season opener.

STARTING SHUFFLE In 1998, Colorado had a plethora of injuries, and it meant different starting lineups on a weekly basis; it was the start of an incredibly unique streak. That year, CU started 12 different lineups on offense and 11 on defense, or 23 different starting lineups combined, the most in CU history until 1999 and 2000, when CU did not start the same lineup two weeks in succession the entire year. The previous high since 1971 (the start of 11-game seasons) was in 1991, when CU used 13 (seven on offense and six on defense). A closer look:

- ⇒ In 1999, CU started 20 different lineups (12 offense, 8 defense), due to personnel and formations in about half of the instances and to injuries for the rest. The 20 were the second most in team history to the 1998 count. In 2000 and 2001, the numbers continued to grow.
- ⇒ CU had started different lineups on offense for 41 consecutive games, starting in mid-1997 until the start of 2001. On defense, the Buffs started a different 11 for 30 straight contests until having the same starting lineup in there for games two and three in 2001 (CSU, San Jose State).
- ⇒ CU used 21 different lineups (11 offense, 10 defense) in 2002 and 21 different lineups in 12 games in 2003 (CU started the same 11 on both offense and defense just twice in '03).
- ⇒ In 2004, CU obviously opened with two new 11s, but started the same 22 overall in game two for the first time since 1993, and started the same 11 on offense for the first three since 1995 (also the last time it went unchanged for the first four). CU has now utilized 135 different starting lineups in its last 85 games, or just 35 under the maximum.

DINOSAURS Through 10 games in 2004, senior associate AD Jon Burianek has worked 416 CU football games, including a current run of 399 in a row (222 of which are at home; he's seen 436 all told). The radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 391 games in his career, including 131 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts). SID Dave Plati has worked 293, including the last 251 in a row, while facilities man John Krueger has worked 251 in all (101 straight). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 192 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 238 CU games. Gary Barnett has coached in 167 Buffalo games (95 as an assistant), while Mike Hankwitz, in his second tour as a CU assistant, has notched 130. Equipment man Mike Smith has now worked 119 straight, 168 overall including his time as a student manager, grounds crew member and Ralphie runner. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

THEFTS & SCORES HIT 12 CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 12 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Three have now done it this season: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat in 2004 when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: sophomore Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while junior Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie a little over a minute into the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. The only Buff in that time frame whose first career interception didn't go for a score was Damen Wheeler—and it appeared did score against K-State in 1996, but he was called for stepping out of bounds. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

LINER NOTES Here's the place to look for that one or two sentence quick note on a CU two-deep regular:

1 Stephone Robinson	Midway through fall camp he was switched to cornerback from wide receiver; he's seen his first extensive playing time on special teams first, as he replaced Jeremy Bloom on kick returns (he scored his first return TD at Kansas).
3 Tyrone Henderson	He was in the mix for a lot of playing time before he became a starter with the knee injury to J.J. Billingsley, as he figured to be the first man in off the bench for the nickel defense. With two blocked punts against Washington State, he became the first Buff ever to block two kicks of any kind in a single game.
4 Ron Montellh	He was the only receiver on the roster (out of 13) who had a collegiate reception coming into the year, and is just one of two seniors at the spot but is the perfect leader. He is very involved in community service off the field, having worked as a volunteer bereavement counselor and with at-risk teens.
5 J.J. Billingsley	Entered the 2004 season having started the most games (18) and played the most snaps (1,271) of any returning player on defense. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on August 19 to clean up a knee injury and returned to practice just six days later; but swelling persisted, and a second operation (Oct. 12) ended his season.
8 Daniel Jolly	The short-yardage go-to guy last year (he earned nine first downs on 15 third or fourth down attempts), as well as scoring five TDs in his first 18 carries as a collegian. He has close to tailback speed and will bowl people over.
9 Blake Mackey	He's overcome some injuries (a lower leg one hampered him most of 2003), but he had a breakout game in the loss to Oklahoma State. He caught six passes for 129 yards, easily both career highs.
10 James Cox	He was in the mix for the starting job a year ago, but with Klatt entrenched at starter, he worked hard to ascend into the No. 2 spot and made his first start vs. ISU. He is considered the most pure passer of all the quarterbacks.
12 Akarika Dawn	He can bounce between the will and mike positions, as he's practiced extensively at both, and played earlier in his career as a strong safety. He speaks fluent Spanish (his fiancé is Colombian).
13 Erik Greenberg	Tabbed by The Sporting News as one of the top five backup quarterbacks in America... He was slowed during camp after suffering a torn tendon in the pinkie of his throwing hand... He will get married early next year.
14 Joel Klatt	He played two-plus seasons in the San Diego Padres organization (A-ball: 2000, 2001 some of 2002). Some of his teammates back then are approaching stardom, topped by Padres ace Jack Peavy ( 16-6 with an MLB best 2.27 ERA in 2004 ). Others include Justin Germano (September call-up by SD), Tagg Bozied (Portland, AAA/Padres) and Josh Barfield (AA/Padres). Klatt is only the fourth junior elected captain since 1964 (end of the platoon era).
16 Mason Crosby	He has one of the strongest legs in college football, and he proved it out of the gate with a 55-yard field goal in the opener (it split the uprights and cleared with 10 yards to spare), and then made a 52-yarder at sea level in Seattle against WSU (and of course has a 60-yarder). The coaches feel CU can be in field goal range 65 yards on in. As with most kickers, he has a ritual: he'll sometimes hit 40-60 golf balls at the range two days before games.
17 Lawrence Vickers	The most versatile player on the team, and likely one of the most versatile in all of college football. An all-around weapon, he has good speed, is a solid blocker and has good hands; thus, he's a threat at tailback, fullback and receiver (and so was born the new CU depth chart moniker: V-Back.)
18 Dominique Brooks	"DB the DB," he's the first letterman to play in the secondary where his initials match the position... The coaches call him "The Voice of Reason," because as Shawn Watson puts it, "He usually has the answers, he calls it like he sees it, and he'll be a natural for television." Only the third player to have a two INT game as a true frosh at CU.
23 Tyler Littlehales	Has worked his way into CU's rotation at wide receiver, but the coaches also love his strong leg which has him second on the depth chart at punter. He punted in high school but only this fall has started to get more reps in.
26 Terrence Wheatley	One of the fastest players on the team with legit 4.3 speed, he became the first true freshman to start at the cornerback position in seven seasons. Had his spring cut short due to a dislocated wrist.
27 Brian Iwuh	He was moved to the new position in CU's new defensive scheme—Buff (outside) linebacker—and has adjusted very well. He's constantly the tackles leader in scrimmages, and the 4-3 defense should allow him to prosper. He had a rough 2003, as he lost his stepfather (Oct. 4) and older brother (Oct. 8) both to cancer.
29 John Torp	He had the tough job of replacing '02 Ray Guy Award winner Mark Mariscal last year, and now, he's a candidate himself for the award. He averaged 42.5 per punt in 2003, and is having a CU top-five all-time season in 2004.
31 Gerett Burl	He returned to CU after a one-semester hiatus, and his return was welcomed. A natural cornerback, he's got the "lock-down" trait desired by coaches; recently had his eyes checked and now wears glasses and lens.

42 Bobby Purify	He's the sixth player at CU to reach 2,500 career rushing yards, and became the ninth to top 3,000 in all-purpose yards... He is quite skilled in sign language, learning it in high school. Uncles' James and Bobby Purify were a big Motown recording duo in the 1960s, including the top 10 Hit, "I'm Your Puppet."
44 Jordon Dizon	He became the first true freshman since 1991 and just the sixth-ever to start a season opener at CU (the first ILB). He lived up to his nod, racking up 8 tackles, to go with a caused interception, one PBU, a TD save and a third down stop against CSU. His given Hawaiian name, Kainalu ( pronounced kye-ah-na-loo ) means "ocean wave."
45 Quinn Sypniewski	A nagging turf toe suffered in 2002 eventually required surgery last year, ending his true senior year; but with a redshirt year available, he opted to gear toward this season. Bad luck then hit him again with the lower leg injury.
51 Alex Ligon	Seasoned and bigger (up 15 pounds from '03), he has come into his own; he leads CU in TFLs (9.5); he had three sacks at Washington State, the first Buff to have that many since 2000, and claimed Big12 Defensive POW honors.
52 Derek Stemrich	He's missed the last two spring practices due to knee surgeries, and he still is hampered by soreness at times. He can play guard and center, but has played sparingly as wear and tear on the knee limits his snaps.
58 Mark Fenton	He got the attention of the coaching staff during CU's 2002 Alamo Bowl practices, as that's when he first got an extensive look at the position. CU's had a long line of all-conference centers, and he's just a sophomore.
59 Greg Pace	He approached long snapping like a financial analyst plots strategies; he started attending special team camps as a prep, and through hard work and dedication, was awarded a scholarship this fall. He plays no other position.
60 Matt McChesney	He plays both tackle and (rush) end, something he's done most of his CU career. He and fellow D-lineman James Garee lead the team in unique tattoos; their arms are worthy of being classified Picassos... A big music "buff."
66 Brian Daniels	He started the most games—9—as a true freshman at CU since Eric Bieniemy started 11 at halfback in 1987; that number also tied for the fourth most starts by a true frosh and most by any true frosh OL in school history.
73 Clint O'Neal	His weight is hovering around 300, his peak as a Buffalo as he's found it difficult to gain and keep it on. He has been as low as 270 pounds during his CU career, but now that he's bulked up, he's a starter on the O-line.
74 Sam Wilder	He had an outstanding year at DT in 2002, but was shifted to offense a week into '03 fall camp. Though he won a starting tackle job just 10 days after making the transition, he still suffered the expected growing pains over the course of the year. But now, a year later, he's an anchor of the O-line who should contend for honors.
78 Terrance Barreau	Arrived at CU from Aurora, via the Air Force and then Afghanistan. He transferred to CU from the U.S. Air Force Academy where he played for Fisher DeBerry; he alluded at a banquet to Barnett that CU got a good one.
79 Gary Moore	Has played both guard and tackle during his CU career and thus could see time at both. His physique has been completely overhauled, as he's down between 315-320 pounds, some 50-60 pounds lighter than his true freshman year. An accomplished singer, he sang God Bless America the first home game following 9/11.
82 James Garee	Garee weighed 205 when he signed with Colorado in the winter of 2001, and he's progressively bulked up to 265. He was named a starter for the '03 Big 12 opener and has a lock on the spot, as he is an all-Big 12 candidate.
82 Evan Judge	He had a tremendous spring, and always seems to have a big play every scrimmage. Originally a walk-on, he was rewarded with a scholarship a year ago and worked hard to crack the starting rotation.
83 Dusty Sprague	He has steadily improved as the season has progressed, and had his first career 100-yard receiving game at Texas A&M (8-for-101). His season has been cut short, as he's out until a bowl after fracturing his clavicle vs. Texas.
86 Jesse Wallace	He played a lot as a junior after blooming a bit as a sophomore, is now a regular in the rotation. He has both the confidence of the quarterbacks as well as being an accomplished blocker.
89 Joe Klopfenstein	"Klop" enjoyed a fine breakout season in '03, and returns as one of the top tight ends in the Big 12 Conference. He runs well, has solid blocking skills and has great hands, as he is a favorite target of the quarterbacks.
93 Vaka Manupuna	Take your pick: blossomed, developed, matured, ripened, come of age. A spot player as a sophomore while coping with his mother's death back in Hawaii, he's won a starting spot as a junior after promising his late sister, Mele (she passed last spring) that he would never quit and work hard to become a defensive starter.
98 Brandon Dabdoub	He didn't get a chance to defend his team bench press title (442 pounds in 2003), as he suffered a torn pec muscle in winter conditioning. A second-team freshman Sporting News All-American in 2001, he is interested in Broadcast journalism off the field: he interned this past summer at Fox Sports Net Rocky Mountain in Denver.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 105 times in 159 tries, including 17 game winning or tying scores, that the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 66 percent of the time), including 3-for-4 in 2004 (a first half touchdown vs. North Texas; a second half go-ahead score at Texas A&M, and the game winning score versus Kansas State). CU opened strong in this area in 2003, as the Buffs scored twice in as many tries in the season opener against Colorado State, registering a TD at the end of the first half and the game-winning score at the end of the game—CU's first in the two-minute drill since 1999. Lo and behold, the Buffs did it again in the offense the following week, putting the game winning score on the board with 2:15 left against UCLA. CU also had a game-tying field goal to send the Kansas game into overtime and overall, was 5-of-8 for 2003. The Buffs were just 1-of-4 in 2002, scoring a TD in the first half against Texas Tech, and were 5-of-9 in 2001 and 6-for-10 in the drill in 2000, when it posted a 3-8 record. One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 278-10-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 201-3 with 35-plus points and 186-2 with 36-plus, 162-1 with 38-plus and 106-0 with 43 or more tallies. The three losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980) and Stanford (41-37 in 1993). Colorado has played 1,072 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 7-12-1 in its last 20 games against top five teams (dating back to 1989) and is 13-25-2 against top 10 schools and 40-40-2 against all ranked teams in the same time frame.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 91 of its last 192 games, posting an 85-5-1 record. The losses were at Stanford, 41-37 in 1993, to Missouri in Boulder in 1997, 41-31, and twice to Nebraska (in Boulder in 1999, 33-30, in overtime; and 34-32 at Lincoln in 2000) and at Baylor in 2003 (42-30). The tie was a 31-31 affair with Tennessee in the 1990 Disneyland Pigskin Classic. The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 139 of these 192 games, dating to the start of 1989, going 112-25-2 (CU is 19-32-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed only 308 touchdowns in the last 614 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 (dating back to 1988; the other 306 times have yielded 156 field goals as well as 150 non-scores). In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 25% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 50% of the time, which are astonishing numbers.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 62 touchdowns in 156 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 85 scores overall, meaning 71 non-scores). In 2003, the opponent had 18 scores (14 TDs, 4 FG) out of 32 drives started in plus territory, similar to 2002, when opponents had just 18 scores (14 TD, 4 FG) on 33 drives started inside CU territory, and had 11 TDs in 24 instances in 2001. In '04, opponents are 6-of-13 to date.
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards total offense per game figure in 41 of its last 90 contests (three times in 2004, four times in 2003, five times in 2002), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 143 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 78 times (54 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 40 of the 143 games since the '93 season opener (28%)... and remember CU has played 63 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ The Buffs are truly a bend-but-not-break defense to date in 2004, as once the enemy has reached the 50, yards have been tough to come by: 325 plays have netted 1363 yards, or a 4.2 average. Another way of looking at it is the opponent has had 65 drives with plays in the plus zone, or just an average of 21 yards once they cross the 50. The opponent has started 13 drives in plus territory and CU has allowed just six scores (4 TD/2 FG) in that situation, and of the 35 times the opponent have cracked the 20 (or red zone), CU's allowed 25 scores which include just 17 touchdowns.
- ➔ Colorado had seven touchdowns by returns in 2001 (4 interception, 2 punt, 1 fumble), a school record; but guess what? The 2002 team matched it (3 fumble, 2 interception, 2 punt). In 2004, the Buffs have six and counting; dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, and including the eight total in 2002 (one came in the bowl), and one in '03, the Buffs have 34 scores by return in their last 68 games. And since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 55 scores by return in 119 games (48 regular season, seven bowl), or one almost every two games.
- ➔ CU allowed a touchdown pass in 24 straight games, but the streak came to an end when Texas A&M didn't throw one; CU had one in 12 straight itself until coming to an end in the opener vs. CSU.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado topped 200 yards rushing and passing against North Texas, the first time since the 2002 Missouri game. The Buffs have accomplished the 200 "double-double" nine times in the last 71 games, and have recorded the feat 30 times in their last 142 games (dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 30-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only eight times in its previous 140 games.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 48-32-1 in its last 81 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (45-25 in the last 70, including a 22-12 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 87-27-3 in its last 117 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 54-20-3 in conference games. CU was 0-2 on artificial surfaces in 2003 but is 2-1 so far in 2004.
- ➔ Colorado has allowed 317 quarterback sacks since the start of the 1993 season (including bowls), with the offensive line responsible for 188 of those (the others were allowed by tight ends/receivers/backs or were coverage sacks). That's 317 sacks allowed for 4,689 pass plays called, or one for every 14.8 pass attempts. And combined with this sack statistic is that fact that CU quarterbacks have thrown just 142 interceptions in 4,372 attempts in the same span, or an interception rate of just 3.24 percent (one every 30.8 passes).
- ➔ The Buffs were an enigma on third down defensively in 2003, and remain so this year. Last season, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents are 76-of-173 (43.9%), but have gained 1,111 yards on the 76 conversions (14.6 per) and have just 143 yards on 97 misses (1.5). (For comparison, CU has 603 yards on 53 conversions, 11.4 per, and 189 on 88 misses for 2.1.)
- ➔ Quick Strike. Colorado has made a habit of scoring quickly the past three seasons. Dating back to the start of 2002, 37 of 107 touchdown drives have taken under 2:00. In 2004, 7 of 23 have used less than 2:00; 13 of 43 did so in 2003 and 17 of 41 in 2002. The Buffs have also sustained several drives this season, with 12 lasting 3:00 or longer through week 10.
- ➔ Colorado is 84-34-3 in its last 121 league games, and has the 10th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder on Sept. 25, 1993, opponents are just 3-of-62 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 last Sept. 6 (WSU converted on a 3rd-&-23 and ISU on a 3rd-&-20 this season, however). The CU offense has converted 4-of-46 times when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ CU has scored in 29 of 40 quarters in 2004 after scoring in 33 of 48 quarters in 2003 (and the one OT period), and scored in 39 of 56 quarters in '02 (and in one of two overtime sessions). In the Barnett Era, the Buffs have scored in 203 of 288 quarters (70 percent), as well as in four of six overtime periods. All tolled, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 429 of its last 562 quarters (76%).

SAFELY AHEAD The Buffaloes have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 29 seasons. Going back to start of the 1976 season (339 games), Colorado has blown a two-or-more score lead only 13 times, losing 10 and tying three. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 16 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss came at Texas A&M, where the Buffs led 19-10 entering the quarter and regained the lead 26-23 after falling behind 23-19. In conference play, only Kansas (1984), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001), Oklahoma State (1997) and Texas A&M (2004) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 27 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came last year against UCLA and Kansas.
- Colorado has won 80 of its last 85 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead (current streak is 2; it had been 6 in a row before the loss at A&M); a 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 19-game winning streak in such situations (and one of 26 straight on the road), and two games later, Texas Tech mustered a similar comeback. A streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).

DOMINATION Colorado has only 17 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon: to BYU (1988 Freedom Bowl), Stanford (1991), Missouri (1997), Kansas (1998), CSU, Washington and Texas Tech (1999), CSU, Texas A&M and Kansas (2000), Fresno State (2001), CSU and Wisconsin (2002), Washington State, Baylor and Kansas State (2003) and Missouri this year. BYU reappeared in the '88 final rankings; Stanford went 7-1 after CU to crack the top 20; in '97, MU almost beat Nebraska the following week and made its way into polls for the first time in 14 seasons; CSU appeared at No. 24 after defeating CU in '99; in '01, Fresno toppled No. 10 Oregon State the next week and zoomed into the rankings; in '02, CSU climbed as high as No. 13; and WSU cracked the polls after its win in Boulder in 2003. The Buffs are 73-15-2 in their last 90 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 104-17-2 in the last 123. The Buffs are 142-58-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (7-7 in bowls); 98-42-3 in Big 8/12 games (including two league title games) and 44-16-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 25 occasions (and is 19-6 in games when this occurs). It's happened eight times over the last four seasons, including twice this year: at Texas A&M this year (TB Bobby Purify/WR Dusty Sprague) and versus Kansas State (Purify/WR Ron Monteilh). In happened three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TBs Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A game-by-game look at this unique accomplishment can be found on page 171 of the 2004 CU football media guide.

SPECIAL TEAMS INVITE How important does the coaching staff view special teams? Barnett started this tradition while at Northwestern, and has continued it at CU: the coaches of the four major special team units (punt, punt return, kickoff and kickoff return) personally hand out invitations to the players to attend the inaugural meetings of those units during camp. While some starters appear on all units, all feature traditional role players who have found a home with dedication to special teams work.

IN-SEASON BIRTHDAYS Here's the list of those coaches and players who have birthdays to celebrate during the 2004 season, including camp (*—denotes on a game day):

PLAYING ON SUNDAY

There are 27 Colorado Buffaloes on 2004 National Football League team rosters (as of November 22); that's tied for the second most in the Big 12 Conference behind Texas A&M (31). Nationally, CU is tied for the 12th most players produced with Nebraska; Miami, Fla., leads with 43, followed by Florida State (39) and Notre Dame (38). CU tied for 13th in 2003 with 29, and was 10th in 2002, also with 29). The Buffs had 31 report to camps this past summer, down from 42 in 2003 (which had led the Big 12 Conference). CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was third in 2000 and 2001 and second in 2002 and 2003. Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). The 2004 list (2R—denotes second-year rookie, #—denotes starter/first-team; +—denotes on injured reserve; *—denotes on practice squad):

BY TEAM (18 of 32)—New England 4, Seattle 3, Denver 3, Green Bay 2, Jacksonville 2, Philadelphia 2, Baltimore 1, Buffalo 1, Carolina 1, Dallas 1, Detroit 1, Indianapolis 1, Kansas City 1, Miami 1, New Orleans 1, N.Y. Giants 1, Oakland 1, Tennessee 1.

AND IN CANADA? P Mark Mariscal is a member of the Montreal Alouettes, joining the team in mid-September, while OG Marwan Hage is on the inactive roster with the Hamilton Tiger-cats.

DECADE NUMBERS: Colorado had 46 players drafted between 1993 and 2002, the seventh most in the nation and second most in the Big 12. Tennessee led the way with 60, followed by Florida State (58), Nebraska (53), Ohio State (52), Florida (48), Miami, Fla. (47) and then Colorado.

NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Fauria, Irwin, Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 10 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

OL PIPELINE

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 17 of 23 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

SCORING STREAKS The Buffs have scored in a school record 194 consecutive games (dating back to 1988, now the longest streak in the Big 12), last being shutout on Nov. 12, 1988 at Nebraska (7-0). CU has scored in 106 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986 in a game where the Sooners did not attempt a single pass). The Buffs have scored in 77 consecutive road games (98 including neutral sites). The Buffs have scored in 123 straight league games (all 73 in Big 12 play, including the 2001 and 2002 title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska). CU has scored in 111 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at home over the course of the last 244 games (all the way back to 1963). CU has been shutout just seven times in its last 426 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only four schools have done it: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan. Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through games of November 20): Colorado 194, Nebraska 112, Kansas State 104, Texas Tech 90, Oklahoma 79, Oklahoma State 47, Kansas 26, Missouri 23, Iowa State 13, Texas A&M 12, Texas 5, Baylor 0. CU was the last team to shutout Kansas State (12-0 in 1996).

SCORING STREAKS II The school record 194 consecutive games in which Colorado has scored is the sixth longest active streak in the nation. The list of the nine Division I-A schools that have scored in every game since at least the start of the 1993 season, through games of November 20 (the two schools entering 2004 with the longest streaks, Texas and Washington, both suffered shutouts to end their runs):

NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULES

Research by the University of Houston SID office shows that Oregon State has the toughest non-conference schedule in the nation (opponent winning percentage last year was .829, as LSU, Boise State and New Mexico combined to go 34-7). The Buffs rank eighth on the list, as CSU, Washington State and North Texas were a combined 27-12 (.692) last fall. The top 16 (*—includes one I-AA opponent):

.829 Oregon State (34-7)	.730 *Georgia Tech (27-10)	.680 BYU (34-16)	.650 Oklahoma (26-14)
.789 *Iowa State (30-8)	.718 Houston (28-11)	.679 Arizona (36-17)	.649 Army (24-13)
.769 Cincinnati (30-9)	.718 SMU (28-11)	.667 *Colorado State (34-17)	.647 Louisiana Tech (33-18)
.755 Arkansas State (40-13)	.692 Colorado (27-12)	.652 Idaho (43-23)	.641 Ball State (25-14)
			.641 Rice (25-14)

OLYMPIANS

The University of Colorado was well represented at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens. One-time CU skier Tyler Hamilton won a gold medal in the individual road time trial, the first U.S. gold in cycling since 1984, as he covered the 29.8 mile course in 57:31.4 in winning by almost 19 seconds. Former CU student Deirdre Demet-Barry also fared well in cycling, as she won a silver medal in the women's individual time trial. Assistant track coach Casey Malone (CU's throws coach and a CSU letterman) placed sixth in the discus. Alan Culpepper finished 12th in the marathon, one of the final events in Athens on August 29. Two other Buffs competed, Shayne Wille-Culpepper (women's 5,000-meter run) and Dathan Ritzenhein (10,000-meter run; he did not finish as he was nursing an injured foot).

'04 ANNIVERSARIES

The 2004 season marks several anniversaries. Folsom Field celebrates its 80th anniversary season, as it was christened on October 11, 1924 when Colorado defeated Regis, 39-0. It's the 10th anniversary of Colorado's first and only Heisman Trophy, as TB Rashaan Salaam rushed his way to the award by leading the nation in rushing (2,055 yards) and scoring (144 points); CB Chris Hudson won the Thorpe Award that season, QB Kordell Stewart set the Big Eight total offense record, and Bill McCartney resigned after 13 seasons as head coach. It's also the 10th anniversary of "The Catch," Stewart's 64-yard touchdown pass to Michael Westbrook via Blake Anderson tip to give CU a 27-26 win at Michigan. One hundred years ago, on October 8, 1904, CU defeated Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0, deemed the school's biggest win at the time as it was one of the first played against a team from outside the state's borders. 2004 also will mark 30 years since CU and Air Force met on the football field (CU won 28-27 at the USAFA), and 70 years since CU's first-ever national statistical champion, as Kayo Lam led the nation in rushing in 1934 with 906 yards. On a sadder note, 2004 marks two tragic anniversaries. It's the 20th of the injury to TE Ed Reinhardt, as a blood clot on his brain burst late in a September 15 game at Oregon. He had surgery that afternoon, was in a coma for a month and endured years of rehabilitation; he lives in Littleton with his parents. And in 1989, quarterback Sal Aunese passed away on September 23 after a six-month battle with stomach cancer; CU dedicated the season to him and went undefeated during the regular season.

HESSLER SERVES AS HOMECOMING MARSHAL

Former University of Colorado quarterback John Hessler was CU's honorary homecoming parade marshal on October 8. It was just 11 days shy of one year when a hit-and-run accident on Denver's Interstate 76 placed him in a life-threatening situation and a 33-day coma; not unlike the comeback he engineering against Texas A&M in 1995, doctors initially had little hope that Hessler would survive, and since he awoke, he's continued to make great strides in his attempt to resume a normal life. He has one more operation ahead of him (on his hip), and then the hope is that he soon will be able to walk on his own.

STUDENT SEASON TICKETS

Colorado sold out of its 12,000 student season ticket allotment on August 23, the first time since 1992 that the number allocated completely sold out before being broken apart to sell as individual game tickets. Last year, students purchased 11,321 tickets; the all-time high is 14,442 in 1972 (after a 10-2 season with a No. 3 final ranking), with the low of 4,091 coming in 1981 (following a 1-10 year). CU dedicates the third most student season tickets in the Big 12 and is tied for the 17th most in the NCAA. Here's a look at the 2004 student ticket allotments in the Big 12 Conference and from around the nation (% indicates percent of capacity dedicated to students in the conference):

V-BACK What's a V-Back, you ask? In short, it stands for "versatile" back, which applies to the two players CU lists at VB on the roster, junior Lawrence Vickers and sophomore Daniel Jolly (who has been practicing more at fullback around midseason). The two were asked to come up with a name for what they felt they brought to their position, as they had previously been listed No. 1 and 2 at fullback and that sort of "pigeonholed" what they can really do. Since they not only block like fullbacks, run like tailbacks and can play like receivers, "V-Back" fits them perfectly. "We pride ourselves on having a multitude of people who can do numerous things as far as running, catching and blocking," Jolly said. "What's asked of the position is that the players have to be very versatile and fill a number of roles, and we want to excel at each and every one of those," Vickers said. Gary Barnett joked that Vickers liked it because it can also stand for "Vickers-Back."

MISSED IT BY THAT MUCH Colorado had at least one touchdown pass in 12 consecutive games (every game last year), which was just one away from tying the school record. But alas, CU scored its touchdowns via rushing and return against Colorado State and missed tying the mark of 13 was set between October 28, 1995 and November 9, 1996.

SCHOLLY ADDS Five walk-ons now have walk-on status no more, as OL Terrance Barreau, PK J.T. Eberly and SN Greg Pace were placed on full scholarship before or during fall camp, and are now on full scholarship. Joining them on September 1 were ILB Kyle Griffith and FS Tom Hubbard. Eberly suffered a torn Achilles tendon the first day of camp, had surgery on August 19 and is out for the year; a fifth-year senior, he will have to petition the NCAA for a sixth-year if he's so interested.

BLOOM DONE An independent appeals committee upheld an NCAA staff ruling of August 16 that denied a request for reinstatement for CU junior Jeremy Bloom, thus ending his collegiate football career. A two-time letterman at wide receiver and kick returner, Bloom also is a member of the U.S. Olympic ski team and competes in freestyle moguls. Bloom, the reigning World Cup moguls champion started accepting endorsement money last winter to be able to fund his skiing career, as there are no salaries in the sport, but that action is an NCAA violation and the organization would not make an exception for him. Bloom practiced the first five days with the team (Aug. 9-13), and then joined his U.S. ski teammates for a three-week training camp just outside of Santiago, Chile. He returned to Colorado to watch his former football teammates open the season against CSU, and was recognized between the third and fourth quarters in a final tribute. He is currently living in Colorado Springs and is training at the U.S. Olympic Training Center.

JK-TO-JK The combination of Joel Klatt to Joe Klopfenstein was good for three touchdowns in 2003. Believe it or not, it was the first time two players with the same initials hooked up on a touchdown pass in CU history (how's that for research?!). They've connected four times so far in 2004.

ANOTHER SLASH IN THE WORKS? Redshirt freshman QB Bernard Jackson has proved that he makes things happen in practice, and the coaches wanted to find a way to get him on the field. On September 6, they experimented with him at wide receiver, and the trial worked. Though practicing exclusively at receiver to get familiar with the role, he will also remain listed as a quarterback, thus, a QB/WR tag under his position listing. Sound familiar? Former CU signal caller Kordell Stewart became known as slash as a rookie with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1995; he's played both quarterback and receiver in the pros, though he never had a collegiate reception as he played every snap as a quarterback. But just when Jackson started to see some playing time, he suffered a dislocated elbow on a punt return against North Texas and missed three games. Healthy again, he's figured twice into trick plays where he has thrown a pass off a reverse.

TURNAROUND What a difference a year makes, as OT Sam Wilder was thrown to the wolves as a junior, switching to offense two weeks before the season opener. He played admirably, but did surrender team highs of seven quarterback sacks and 27 pressures, really expected of a first-year linemen playing in a conference like the Big 12 for a team that was heavy into passing. Fast-forward to the 2004 season opener against Colorado State, and you find that Wilder did not allow a sack or a pressure, had a touchdown block, performed extremely well in mimicking the line techniques made famous by the just-down-the-road Denver Broncos (including cut blocks), and graded out to 88.4 percent for the game. That was the fifth-highest single game grade awarded in three seasons by offensive line coach Dave Borbely, and was the best OL grade in a season opener in at least a decade. He is currently grading out the second highest of the O-linemen.

ROSTER CHANGES There are a few changes from the final spring roster. Six players left the program with the intent of transferring (for assorted reasons): TB Brian Calhoun, DE Chadd Evans, DE Marques Harris, CB Sammy Joseph, OL Del Scales and OL Fredrick Staugh. Three walk-ons also did not return: S Justin Fallhowe, WR Jarrad Jackson and FB James Owens.

Added to the list of incoming recruits was CB Terry Wilson (Chino, Calif.); he was added in the late spring and was recruited by Shawn Simms (his bio does appear in the 2004 media guide). Two others did not qualify academically, S Reggie Foster (Long Beach, Calif.) and DL Chris Todd (Tulsa, Okla.). A third recruit, DE Josh Hunt (Jackson, Mich.) reported but returned home after 10 days in camp for family reasons; he was initially set to return in the spring, but was homesick and decided to transfer to Eastern Michigan.

Four transfers have been added to the team: DB Charlie Aweida (6-0, 180) did not play as a true freshman last year Adams State and played his prep ball at Boulder Fairview; WR Chase McBride, a Broomfield High product who redshirted last fall at Wyoming; ATH Lenny Miles, who prepped at Adams City High School and was on the basketball team as a true freshman at New Mexico last year; and OL Carl Zoellner attended Wisconsin-Milwaukee last year and did not participate in athletics, but played high school ball in Georgetown, Texas with CU sophomore PK Mason Crosby. Zoellner could play this season as UWGB does not sponsor football.

POSITION CHANGES Only one major change, as redshirt frosh Stephone Robinson moved from wide receiver to cornerback to help create some depth at the position. Junior John Guydon returned to defense from the offensive line, where he was listed both at split guard (second) and center (third) following spring. Though practicing solely with the defense, he could be called on in a pinch to play some OL; he had moved to offense for the spring, as he practiced exclusively at defensive tackle last fall. Since defensive depth in the middle was in bad need of some bolstering, switching Guydon back (or sharing him) made sense since he had previous career game experience at the position.

SECOND CHANCE AT BEING A SENIOR Two players were injured as fourth-year seniors in 2003 and received medical hardships for the season and return with a second chance at being seniors in 2004. TB Bobby Purify (high ankle sprain) and TE Quinn Sypniewski (turf toe) played less than the NCAA maximum for appealing for a medical redshirt; a third player, DE Marques Harris, would also have been back but will transfer to a yet-to-be decided Division I-AA school. Purify and Sypniewski are believed to be the second and third players in CU history (and definitely since 1978) to be injured as fourth-year seniors and received hardships; in 2001, ILB Jashon Sykes received a special ruling and would have had a second chance at a senior season in 2002 had he not opted for the NFL draft; also in 2001, WR John Minardi played in one game too many and was denied. Three others redshirted their fourth-year senior seasons: ILB Don DeLuzio (suffered torn knee ligaments in August camp in 1987), ILB Alan Chrite (suspension, 1983) and WB Melvin Johnson (academics, 1976).

➤ DID YOU KNOW: Previously, only three players in modern CU history have posted statistics in five different seasons? ILB Barry Remington (1982-86), WR/KR Jo Jo Collins (1984-88) and TB Marlon Barnes (1994-98) all played as true freshmen and suffered in-season ending injuries either their sophomore or junior seasons. Both Purify and Sypniewski have joined this select group this fall.

GOAL LINE STANDS AT THE GUN The Buff defense holding off CSU at the goal line as time expired is fairly rare but not unique in CU history. In 1985, Oregon faced a fourth-and-goal at the CU3 with nine seconds left, but the threat ended when Mickey Pruitt sacked Duck QB Chris Miller as time expired, preserving a 21-17 Colorado win. Throw in the Washington State goal-line defense, and it marks the first time in known CU history that back-to-back games ended in this fashion. Then, against A&M, CU held the Aggies to a game-tying field goal.

CU-CSU SETS FSN ROCKY RECORD The CU-Colorado State game on September 4, televised to most of the nation via Fox Sports Net, set an all-time record as the highest rated college sporting event for FSN Rocky Mountain. The game drew an 11.3 rating, translating to more than 158,200 homes in the Denver area, easily topping the previous two bests (8.9, CSU-UCLA in 2002 and 8.4, CU-CSU in 1999). It was also easily the highest rated program on the air in Denver metro between 6 p.m. and Midnight.

THE SCHEDULE Colorado again played one of the nation's toughest schedules in 2003, as according to the NCAA formula, the Buffs' slate ranked 13th among the 117 Division I-A schools. It's shaping up to be no different in 2004, as CU's schedule has been rated the nation's second-toughest going into the season by The Sporting News.

THREE AND COUNTING? CU has not only played but has also hosted at Folsom Field the last three Heisman Trophy winners (all quarterbacks): Eric Crouch (Nebraska, 2001), Carson Palmer (USC, 2002) and Jason White (Oklahoma, 2003). Texas' Cedric Benson passed through town this time around, and he is a top candidate, though not the favorite at this point in time.

CAPTAINS The team selected its captains after the last camp scrimmage on August 27, with the four for the 2004 season being seniors DT Matt McChesney, TB Bobby Purify and OT Sam Wilder and junior QB Joel Klatt. Purify was originally selected as a captain last year, but his year was cut short with a season-ending injury against Washington State the third game of the season; he makes a little history, as he becomes only the fourth player to serve as a Colorado team captain in multiple seasons. The last was linebacker Barry Remington, who was selected by his teammates in both 1985 and 1986; the other two were in the 1890s, as Pat Carney was team captain for the 1891, 1892 and 1893 seasons and Harry Gamble the choice in 1894 and 1896. Klatt is technically the first junior since 2002, when QB Craig Ochs was selected, but he is not officially recognized since he quit the team two games into the season; the last juniors to serve the full season were Ben Kelly in 1999 and Remington in '85. Wilder makes it six straight seasons that an offensive lineman has been selected.

WRISTEN ADDS RECRUITING COORDINATOR TITLE TO DUTIES Tight ends coach John Wristen is now officially CU's recruiting coordinator, moving into the role to serve as the main contact for prospect identification and inquiries. The last CU coach to hold the title was Gregg Brandon in 2000; only coaches are permitted to make phone calls and contacts, whereas administrators are not. David Hansburg, the director of football operations, will continue to handle the administrative side of recruiting, including budget and staffing.

THIS-N-THAT Colorado did not play in a bowl game in 2003, only the fourth time over the last 19 seasons that the Buffs did not go bowling; in fact since 1985, CU is tied for eighth nationally in the most appearances with 15, trailing only Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska (all with 19), Tennessee (18), Miami, Fla. (17) and Ohio State and Penn State (16). Washington is tied with the Buffs at 15.

➤ Since 1978, CU is one of just nine Division I-A schools to play all of its games in its division (no I-AA or II opponents; '78 is when the current setup came into vogue); joining CU are California, Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, USC, UCLA and Washington.

➤ Colorado played 10 bowl teams in 2003, tied for the most in the nation (with Illinois and Texas A&M). Of the 11 teams on its 2004 schedule, nine participated in bowl contests last year: all three of CU's non-Big 12 foes were in the postseason (CSU, Washington State and North Texas), as are six league foes on the slate: Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma State and Texas.

➤ CU played five ranked teams in 2003, marking the fourth straight year (and ninth in the last 11) that it played at least that many.

THE AVERAGE BUFF The 104 players on the 2004 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of Aug. 29) were 7,646 inches in height and weighed 23,205 pounds, or an average of 6-1½, 223 pounds per player (very similar to last four averages: 6-2¼, 226 in 2003, 6-2¼, 227 in 2002 and 6-2, 227 in both 2000 and 2001). The 7,646 inches translate roughly into 637 feet or 212 yards (or a pro's 8-iron at The International at Castle Pines), while the weight of 23,205 pounds is about the equivalent of 2,774 gallons of water (at room temperature), just a little more than is required to produce four brand new tires (say what?). Here's a look at position-by-position averages; the biggest changes over a year ago are that the fullbacks are eight pounds heavier and two inches taller on average, while the cornerbacks are two inches shorter and seven pounds lighter (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Cornerbacks	10	3	5-10	177	Quarterbacks	6	2	6-3	198
Defensive Ends	5	2	6-4	246	Safeties	8	2	6-1	196
Defensive Tackles	7	4	6-2½	287	Special Teams Snappers	2	1	6-1	225
Fullbacks	2	1	6-4½	243	Tailbacks	7	1	5-11	199
Inside Linebackers	12	5	6-1½	227	Tight Ends	6	3	6-4	239
Kickers/Punters	6	3	6-1	193	V-Backs (Versatile)	2	2	6-1	238
Offensive Linemen	13	6	6-4	293	Wide Receivers	14	2	6-1	195
Outside Linebackers	4	1	6-1½	215	Team	104	38	6-1½	223

The most popular letter to begin surnames are the letters C (12 each), followed by W (10), H (9) and then G and S (8); three last names are similar, but none are brothers (Jones, Sanders, Washington). The most popular first names are DANIEL (Goettsch, Goetz, Jolly, Sanders) and JOHN (Guydon, Martin, Torp). The more unique ones include Akarika, Dusty, McKenzie, Thaddaeus and Vaka.

AROUND THE NATION Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (76 percent of the entire roster—79 of 104 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 39, California 21, Texas 19, Hawai'i 4, Iowa 3, Louisiana 3, Illinois 2, Michigan 2, Tennessee 2, Alabama 1, Arizona 1, Kansas 1, Minnesota 1, Missouri 1, Nebraska 1, Oklahoma 1 and Oregon 1. That's 17 states plus Canada (one player) that produced the make-up of this year's team.

2004 TEAM MAKEUP The 104 players listed on the opening roster as of August 29 breaks down into 12 seniors, 25 juniors, 30 sophomores and 37 freshmen (including 13 redshirt frosh). An expanded breakdown:

Lettermen Returning: 38 (17 offense, 17 defense, 4 specialists)
Scholarship Players: 77

Lettermen Lost: 22 (11 offense, 10 defense, 1 specialist)
Walk-On Players: 27

Starters Returning (11)—Offense 6 (OG Brian Daniels, QB Joel Klatt, TE Joe Kloppenstein, OG Derek Stemrich, FB Lawrence Vickers, OT Sam Wilder); Defense 5 (WS J.J. Billingsley, DT Brandon Dabdoub, ILB Akarika Dawn, DE James Garee, DL Matt McChesney. (Calculated by those who had six or more starts in 2003 OR were starting at the end of the year.))

Others Returning With Significant Starting Experience (7; three or more career starts)—ILB Walter Boye-Doe, S Dominique Brooks, S Brian Iwuh, OT Clint O'Neal, TB Bobby Purify, TE Quinn Sypniewski, TE Jesse Wallace).

Others Returning With Significant Scrimmage Experience (7; two or fewer career starts)—QB Erik Greenberg, DE Chris Hollis, DE Alex Ligon, DT Vaka Manupuna, WR Ron Monteilh, ILB Thaddaeus Washington, CB Terrence Wheatley).

Starters Lost (11)—Offense 5 (OT Karl Allis, TB Brian Calhoun, WR D.J. Hackett, C Marwan Hage, WR Derek McCoy); Defense 6 (CB Phil Jackson, CB Sammy Joseph, FS Medford Mooror, DE Gabe Nyenhuis, S Clyde Surrell, ILB Sean Tufts).

Others Lost With Significant Starting Or Special Teams Experience (3)—WR/KR Jeremy Bloom, WR John Donahoe, DT DeAndre Fluellen.

Specialists Returning (4)—PK Mason Crosby, PK Kevin Eberhart, SN Greg Pace, P John Torp.

Specialists Lost (1)—SN Jake Jones.

SENIOR ANALYSIS Colorado has 12 seniors on its roster, with all but two in the two-deep or in the regular rotation as in the case at WR and TE on the depth chart: OG Terrance Barreau, DT Brandon Dabdoub, WR Mike Duren, DT Matt McChesney, WR Ron Monteilh, TB Bobby Purify, OG Derek Stemrich, TE Quinn Sypniewski, TE Jesse Wallace and OT Sam Wilder. DT McKenzie Tilmon is listed third at nose tackle, and the 12th senior, PK J.T. Eberly, is out for the season with a torn Achilles tendon.

GRADUATION STAT(U)S There are 12 seniors on the Colorado roster, one of whom graduated last Friday (August 7): TE Quinn Sypniewski (journalism/news-editorial). Six others are on the course for this December: DT Brandon Dabdoub (communication), WR Mike Duren (communication), PK J.T. Eberly (business/double major in finance and marketing), TB Bobby Purify (sociology), OL Derek Stemrich (architecture) and OT Sam Wilder (economics). Four others are set to march next May: OL Terrance Barreau (business/finance), WR Ron Monteilh (economics), DT Matt McChesney (history) and TE Jesse Wallace (double major in communication and political science). The 12th, DT McKenzie Tilmon (ethnic studies), will likely be done in December '05.

► NOTE: Over the last two years, Colorado has had 51 of its 56 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to a 91.1 percent rate (with three of the five non-grads still in school and looking to all graduate by next May). The 2002 and 2003 rates won't be calculated by the NCAA for a couple of years yet, but don't look for the same numbers; the NCAA doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate (i.e., Wayne Lucier in '02), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. Take for example the most recent figure released, for the '96 freshmen class: CU's figure was 53 percent (10 of 19; four transferred, while four others pursued professional football starting their last semesters. Six of the nine left in good academic standing, meaning they were on course to graduate; and six transfers into the program, five of which graduated, do not count at all. Simply allowing for transfers to count both ways, CU's rate rises to 76 percent).

OPPONENTS IN 2004 Colorado has nine bowl teams on its 2004 schedule, the third straight year CU has that many on the slate. This year's 11 foes combined for an 87-56 record in 2003, a winning percentage of 60.8; five teams won 10 or more games (Washington State, North Texas, Texas, Kansas State and Nebraska), while only three did not have a winning record (Iowa State, Texas A&M and Kansas). CU's been a mainstay near the top of the toughest schedule standings this century, as the Buffs played the nation's 13th toughest schedule last year, after playing the 12th hardest in 2002, the fourth in 2001 and second in 2000. The roll call of 2004 opponents and their 2003 records: Colorado State (7-6), Washington State (10-3), North Texas (10-3), Missouri (8-5), Oklahoma State (9-4), Iowa State (2-10), Texas A&M (4-8), Texas (10-3), Kansas (6-7), Kansas State (11-4) and Nebraska (10-3).

'03 BOWL TEAMS Research by the Oklahoma SID office shows that the Buffaloes and Sooners have the most 2003 bowl teams on their '04 schedules with nine. Nine other schools will play eight, including Kansas and Texas Tech from the Big 12, along with Arizona, Arizona State, Miami-Fla., North Carolina, Northwestern, Notre Dame and Penn State.

NO CREAMPUFFS HERE Colorado has the ninth best record in college football since the start of 1989 season (131-57-4). Of these 190 games, Colorado has played 82 ranked teams (43%), the fourth most in the nation during this time frame, with another 25 games against teams receiving significant (10 or more) votes. CU is 40-40-2 against ranked teams during this period (including a 13-16 record on the road); CU is also 91-17-2 against unranked teams. The schedule is also consistent: CU has played the fourth most games against ranked teams the last 11-plus years (62 of its last 142 contests), going 3-3 in 1993, 5-1 in 1994, 5-2 in 1995, 2-2 in 1996, 1-5 in 1997, 3-3 in 1998, 2-2 in 1999, 0-5 in 2000, 5-2 in 2001, 2-3 in 2002, 2-3 in 2003 and 0-3 so far in 2004. NOTE: In 1990, CU became only the second team in NCAA history to win the national championship after playing the nation's toughest schedule (opponents won 63% of their games; Penn State was the first to accomplish the feat, in 1982). CU also played the nation's toughest in 1997: opponents won 67% of their games as the Buffs played both co-national champions, Michigan and Nebraska.

SCHEDULE HISTORY CU's 2003 schedule included 10 bowl teams, meaning the Buffs have played 42 bowl teams over the last five seasons. The formula to calculate schedule strength by the NCAA calls for combined record of all opponents, minus wins against non-Division I teams and the results (wins & losses) against the school the research is figured for. Colorado's 12 opponents in 2003 under this formula posted an 84-57 log, a .596 winning percentage, making it the seventh toughest schedule in school history. In fact, CU's last four schedules all rank in the top nine in CU annals, with the 2004 slate more than likely to join them. The 1997 schedule holds down the No. 1 slot (.669), with the 1971 slate second at a .641 percentage. That schedule included national champion Nebraska (13-0), No. 2 Oklahoma (11-1), No. 11 Louisiana State (9-3) and Iowa State (8-4). The 1990 Buffaloes remain one of just two teams (with Penn State in '82) to have won national championships while playing the nation's toughest schedule; opponents that season were 72-43-3 (.623), Colorado's fifth toughest all-time. The 1997 team played eight games against teams with winning records, with all eight having won at least seven games (five with nine-plus wins and four won 10 or more), and seven went to bowls, including the eventual co-national champions, Nebraska (13-0) and Michigan (12-0). CU also faced seven bowl teams in both 2000 and 2001, when it played the NCAA's fourth and second toughest schedules.

CU'S TOUGHEST SCHEDULES

Year (Wins)	W	L	T	Pct.
1997 (5)	81	40	-	.669
1971 (10)	79	44	1	.641

2004 (6)	56	47	-	.544

STREAKING Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 14 major schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—Iowa State, Kansas, San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Colorado State, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, UCLA and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by LSU (4) and Michigan State and Oklahoma (3 each).

OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 66-24 in its last 90 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 65-12 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 57-16-1 in its last 74 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 17-9 since 1986 against teams ranked between Nos. 20 and 25 in the AP poll (8-3 in the last 11);
- ❑ Colorado is 64-10-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (16-3 last 19; 69-45-2 with 50,000-plus);
- ❑ Colorado is 66-28-2 in games where the starting quarterback had the letter "K" in his first or last name (dating to 1992: Kordell Stewart, Duke Tobin, Koy Detmer, Mike Moschetti, Joel Klatt, Erik Greenberg).

TOP CONDITIONED BUFFS The top Buffaloes from spring and summer testing; the only test prior to camp was the 300-yard shuttle, as the other results are from the spring (true freshmen won't be tested until next spring):

300-Yard Shuttle: J.J. Billingsley 44.16, Blake Mackey 44.54, Stephone Robinson 44.71, Marcus Gonzales 44.75, Tom Hubbard 44.89.

Bench Press: Brandon Dabdoub 428, Jack Tipton 420, Derek Stemrich 411, Joe Klopfenstein 409, Sam Wilder 399.

40-Yard Dash: Terrence Wheatley 4.38, Blake Mackey 4.39, Vance Washington 4.47 (Jeremy Bloom is a sub 4.4 as well, but did not test).

Power Clean: James Garee 335, Akarika Dawn 330, Joe Klopfenstein 325, five tied at 315.

Vertical Jump: Vance Washington 41- $\frac{1}{4}$ , Blake Mackey 39-0, Terrence Wheatley 38, Joe Klopfenstein 36- $\frac{1}{2}$ .

Champions: Vance Washington (Speed/RB-DB-WR-K/P-QB); Joe Klopfenstein (Explosion/TE-FB-LB-DS); James Garee (Power/OL-DL).

HISTORICALLY Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 115th season of competition with an all-time record of 641-395-36 in 1,072 games. CU currently stands 15th on the all-time win list and is 21st in all-time winning percentage (.615). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 275-131-10 in 81 seasons on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 237-202-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB CU is 46-16-1 in its last 63 November games (and is 42-8 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 4-8-1 against NU in turkey month). The Buffs are 41-15 in its last 56 games played in September, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays, and is 2-2-1 in the only August games in its history. Colorado is 42-20-2 in its last 64 October games, dating back to 1989, and is 5-3 in December games since 1993.

OVERTIME Colorado is 3-3 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime:

Date	Opponent	Score	Regulation	Coin Toss	Choice	---Total Yards---		Notes
						Offense	Defense
10-09-99	MISSOURI	W 46-39	39-39	Missouri	Defense	25	13	Ends with Kelly INT
11-26-99	NEBRASKA	L 30-33	27-27	Nebraska	Defense	9	25	CU trailed 27-3 early in 4th

10-23-04	at Texas A & M	L 26-29	26-26	Colorado	Defense	14	33	First CU turnover in OT ends it

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM Nine ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas State in 2002, which came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A&M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No.3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last the 14 seasons, which is the seventh most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Miami (9), Nebraska (8) and Oklahoma (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu, Ray Guy, Rimington and Hendricks awards. The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2003 (players only):

CRADLE OF COACHES There are five current head coaches in Division I college football who have had assistant coaching stints at the University of Colorado. The most obvious is Gary Barnett, who was an assistant at CU from 1984-91 and was head coach at Northwestern from 1992-98. Others include: Gerry DiNardo, Vanderbilt/LSU and now of Indiana (at Colorado from 1982-89); Les Miles, Oklahoma State (1982-86), Gregg Brandon, Bowling Green (1999-2000) and Karl Dorrell, UCLA (1992-93, 1995-97). In 2003, Mike Hankwitz, served as Arizona's interim head coach for the last two months of the season; he was at CU for 10 years (1985-94). Lou Tepper (1983-87) was head coach at Illinois for five years and is now the head man at Edinboro (Pa.) State. All were assistants under Bill McCartney, CU's all-time winningest head coach (93-55-5 between 1982-94). And former Buff OG Peter Shinnick, is a sixth-year head coach at a small college in Minnesota. Five others who assisted under McCartney have also worked as head coaches: Jim Caldwell, Wake Forest (at CU from 1982-84), Steve Logan, East Carolina (1985-86), Rick Neuheisel, at CU and Washington (1994), Bob Simmons, Oklahoma State (1988-94) and Ron Vanderlinden, Maryland (1983-91). Tom Cable (1998-99) was head coach for four seasons at Idaho, as he coached under Rick Neuheisel and Barnett. Dorrell is the only one above to coach as an assistant under both McCartney and Neuheisel.

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 15 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing two of the times, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in 2003). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 10 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 16 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2004: Florida State 16, Michigan 16, Ohio State 16, Miami, Fla. 15, Tennessee 15, Nebraska 14, Notre Dame 13, Penn State 13, Colorado 12, Alabama 12.

CUMULATIVE RANKINGS

In the 1990s, the Buffaloes were the Associated Press' consensus No. 10 team, with only Nebraska ranked higher (No. 3) from the Big 12 Conference.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll

MOST TOP 5 FINISHES (1989-2003): Florida State 12, Miami 8, Nebraska 5, COLORADO 4, Tennessee 4, Alabama 3, Florida 3, Notre Dame 3, Ohio State 3.

MOST TOP 10 FINISHES (1989-2003): Florida State 12, Florida 10, Miami 9, Michigan 8, Nebraska 8, Tennessee 8, COLORADO 6, Kansas State 6, Ohio State 6, Alabama 5.

AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period ('97-98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

15 OUT OF 16

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, the second longest active streak in the nation behind Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with a vengeance as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). CU has defeated at least two in nine of the last 11 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons). The Buffs are 0-3 against ranked opponents in 2004 (losses to Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas A&M).

TV LAND

Colorado has now had 117 of its last 180 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (65 percent). That includes six games this year, seven games in 2003, 12 in 2002, 10 games in 2001, plus 7 in 2000, 9 in both 1998 and 1999, 10 in 1996 and 1997. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, 80 of CU's 107 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, an impressive 75 percent. Nationally, CU is likely in the top 15 in national/regional appearances in this time frame, but official records are not tracked.

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the conference some revenue. Here are the counts (and records) of Big 12 schools since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 24 (13-10-1), Texas 20 (6-12-2), Nebraska 12 (8-4), Oklahoma 12 (6-6), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 11 (0-11), Baylor 9 (2-7), Missouri 9 (1-8), Iowa State 7 (0-7), Kansas 6 (0-6), Oklahoma State 5 (0-5) and Kansas State 2 (1-1).

FOLSOM FIELD ACCOLADE

The Sports Turf Management Association named Folsom Field as its 2002 "Football Field of the Year," the first time CU has ever earned this prestigious award. Jason DePaepe, CU's athletic turf manager, officially accepted the award in San Antonio. Those who judge the competition were impressed with DePaepe and his staff's aggressive maintenance program, as the field is easily one of the best in college football, if not all sports.

BUFF BLEMISHES Colorado has inflicted a few blemishes on some of the teams who had the best home records in the 1990s. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s (wins in 1991 and 1995 and a tie in 1993). The Buffs added to their mystique by returning to A & M in 2000 and snapping the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started later in the 1996 season (after losses to CU then Texas Tech). And in 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29 game span.

17/20 The Buffs now have 17 winning (regular) seasons in the last 20 years, including 2004, matched only by a handful of schools across the nation. The exceptions came in 1997, 2000 and 2003; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 15 of the previous 19 years, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000 and last year.

OFFENSE/DEFENSE Through the years, there are always a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball, and DT/OL John Guydon could do both this year. The last to try this was DT Sam Wilder, who caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play (at Missouri in 2000). CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (though a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). In the last 12 years, several Buffs have played on both sides of the ball; in 1998 OG Brad Bedell played some goal-line defense. That's happened often at CU, having one of the O-linemen come over to defense for goal line or short yardage defense—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole and OT Melvin Thomas all did the same in the mid-90s. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was WR Michael Westbrook, who played four snaps at strong safety against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU, NOT UC A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," says CU historian Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four listed above—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO" As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

QUARTERBACK HISTORY LESSON The competition for the starting quarterback job in 2003 was only the fourth real battle in just over a decade at Colorado. The last was in 2000, when the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter on Aug. 27; four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and never relinquished the role. There was no battle for starting quarterback in 1999, as senior Mike Moschetti was entrenched as the starter. However, the battle for the starting job in 1998 was the first in some six years; Moschetti, junior Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won on Aug. 24, when then-head coach Rick Neuheisel named him as the starter (Weisinger subsequently asked for and received a release from his scholarship and transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety). Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that has become a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knappe on occasion after Knappe wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best example of this came just last year in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over for an injured Craig Ochs for the second half of the season, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

CHART-MANIA The below charts offer a look at what Colorado has accomplished over the last 19 football seasons, through games of 2003 (includes bowls; those schools who have been members of Division I-A all 19 years; 2004 totals will be added after the season):
