*Will sit out 2007-08 season as a transfer

Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller (3rd Year at CU, 41-53/9th Year Overall, 132-141)

Assistant Coaches: Patrick Harrington, Tom McConnell, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Ann Strother

THE SEASON: Colorado enjoyed its best season in four years by finishing 19-15 overall and advancing to the semifinals of the 2008 Postseason Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT). CU's 19 wins was its most since the 2003-04 team went 22-8 and advanced to the program's last postseason appearance -- the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

The road traveled by the Buffaloes in 2007-08 was certainly an up and down one. After a 1-2 start, CU embarked on an 11-game win streak, the seventh longest in school history, that included wins over a pair of ranked teams and culminated with a No. 23 national ranking by the Associated Press.

CU's 69-55 win over No. 21(AP)/22(WBCA) ranked and previously undefeated Wyoming on Dec. 5 in Boulder turned heads as the Buffs snapped a 23-game losing streak against ranked teams that dated back to 2003-04. Even more heads turned later that week-end as Colorado upset No. 20/17 Vanderbilt 62-51 in Nashville. For the first time since the 2002 NCAA Tournament CU had wins over ranked teams in back-to-back games and its triumph over the SEC's Commodores was the Buffs first win as an unranked team on a ranked opponents' home floor in more than a decade.

Early season success earned the Buffaloes a four-week run in the AP Top 25 poll, their first appearance since the final balloting of the 2003-04 season. Colorado debuted in the national poll on Christmas Eve at No. 25 and peaked at No. 23 for the polls of Jan. 1 and Jan. 8. With CU's ranking, head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to play for (Virginia 1986-90) and coach an AP ranked team.

Colorado experienced some growing pains, bumps and bruises during the Big 12 schedule, finishing at 5-11 and ninth in the final league standings. The Buffaloes did have plenty of up moments during the league stretch including a home win over No. 15 and eventual regular season Big 12 champion Kansas State and a 67-52 win over Texas during alumni weekend.

And just how tough was the Big 12 in 2008? Leading the nation in attendance and RPI, 11 of the 12 league teams advanced to postseason play including a record eight to the NCAA's, and all 11 won at least one postseason contest. Other leagues had sent eight teams to the NCAA Tournament five times, but only the Big 12 this season saw all eight teams win their first round games.

With eight Big 12 teams advancing to the NCAA Tournament CU, as the ninth place team, gained the league's automatic bid to the Postseason WNIT. The WNIT awarded the Buffaloes a first round bye and four subsequent home games as an electric Coors Events Center crowd saw CU advance to the semifinals of a postseason event for the first time in team history.

The Buffaloes defeated West Coast Conference champion Gonzaga 82-68 in the second round before claiming dramatic comebacks in wins over Villanova and TCU in the third and quarterfinal rounds. CU trailed Villanova by 11 points (55-44) with under six minutes remaining before ending the game on a 20-3 run to claim a 64-58 decision. TCU led Colorado 20-4 in the quarterfinals and still by double-digits in the second half before the Buffs forced overtime and the eventual 96-90 win.

The Buffs magic ended in the semifinals and the first ever CU basketball game played in April as eventual WNIT champion Marquette won 86-72 in Boulder on April 2.

Senior Jackie McFarland a two-time AP honorable mention All-American and first team All-Big 12 selection, led the Buffaloes at 18.7 points and 8.2 rebounds per game while shooting a Big 12 best 57 percent from the field. McFarland was a Lowe's All-Senior All-American and was named to the WNIT All-Tournament team after averaging 25 points, 9.5 rebounds and hitting 60 percent from the field and 85 percent from the free throw line during her final four games. She was the first player in school history to score 500 points in three different seasons and her 637 points in 2007-08 are the second-most on CU's single-season chart. The second-leading scorer in school history, McFarland eclipsed the 1,900 point barrier against Villanova and joined Lisa Van Goor as the only Buffs to record 1,900 points and 1,000 rebounds. The two-time first team All-Big 12 forward once again could be found among the leaders in most league statistical categories ranking first in field-goal percentage, second in minutes and scoring, third in free-throw percentage, fifth in rebounding and 11th in blocks.

Freshman Brittany Spears had one of the finest rookie seasons in team history. She was selected to the Big 12 All-Rookie team and earned honorable mention to the all-conference squad. Spears earned league Rookie of the Week honors four times this season, the most ever gained by a CU player. She led all Big 12 freshman in scoring (13.9 ppg), rebounding (7.6 rpg) and blocks (1.5 bpg) while ranking second in steals (1.7), third in free-throw percentage (.817) and fourth in assists (1.9 apg). Spears is just the fourth different player in school history to reach 450 points and grab 250 rebounds in a season and the first player to record 50 blocks, 50 assists and 50 steals in one season. Spears ranked second in scoring (472), tied with Erin Scholz (1993-94) for second in blocks (52), third in rebounds (259) and fifth in steals (57) on CU's all-time freshman charts.

Senior guard Susie Powers, a two-year co-captain, ranked among the nation's leaders in assist-to-turnover ratio all season and finished second in the Big 12 with a mark of 1.80 (110 assists-61 turnovers). Her season assist-to-turnover ratio as a senior is eighth on CU's single-season list and her career ratio of 1.43 puts her eighth on the Buffs' career charts. Powers' 110 assists this season were the most by a CU player since 2002 and she ranked second in the Big 12 at 3.2 assists per game. Powers had 49 career 3-pointers which tied Erin Carson (1984-88) for 17th on CU's all-time list. A two-time Academic All-Big 12 selection, she is set to graduate in May with her degree in Spanish and Education.

Sophomore Bianca Smith ranked third on the team in scoring at just a tad under 10 points per game. She established new single-season school records by hitting 80 3-point field goals on 217 attempts. Her 80 3-pointers broke Kate Fagan's old record of 79 set in 2003-04. Smith's 112 3-pointers rank seventh on CU's career-list and are the second most by a CU player in her first two seasons trailing only the 128 Shelley Sheetz made from 1991-93. Smith was named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10 after averaging 19.0 points and hitting 57 percent from the field in games against No. 22 (AP)/21 (WBCA) Wyoming and No. 20/17 Vanderbilt.

Colorado took advantage of one of its deepest benches in several years with a host of players contributing in big ways throughout the season.

In the CU frontcourt, junior Kara Richards and sophomore Aija Putnina split time, with Putnina starting for the majority of the season. Putnina had five double-doubles in 2007-08 and her 44 blocked shots are the third most by a sophomore in team history. Richards averaged 3.2 points and 2.0 rebounds as a junior, but her numbers increased to 4.7 points and 3.8 rebounds over the final 11 games.

Junior Hannah Skildum, who started 16 games in the early portion of the schedule, provided a strong defensive presence to Colorado's back court and averaged 3.1 points and 1.8 rebounds per game. Whitney Houston was CU's leader in scoring and assists among those players who primarily came off the bench. Over the final 15 games of the season her numbers improved to 6.5 points and 1.9 assists per game while hitting 38 percent from the field and 80 percent from the free throw line. During CU's WNIT run, Houston played at least 24 minutes in each game and was on the floor when it counted most. She averaged 9.5 points and two assists over those four games and turned the ball over just five times, and only once in the final three games.

Colorado averaged 67 points per game while holding opponents to 63 per contest. The Buffs shot 42 percent from the field and were the Big 12's top free-throw shooting team at 75.4 percent. CU outrebounding teams by just under three boards per game and ranked second in 3-point field goals (6.9 3mpg) and third in blocked shots (5.4 bpg) on the Big 12 charts.

POSTSEASON FACTS: Some facts about Colorado and the postseason:

- Colorado played its first ever game in the month of April, in fact its 96-90 win over TCU on March 30 was the latest date the Buffs had ever played.
- The Buffaloes advanced to the semifinals of a postseason tournament for the first time in school history. CU has reached three NCAA Elite Eights and this season's WNIT quarterfinals.
- Colorado's win over Gonzaga was its first postseason victory since defeating North Carolina in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament, 86-67, in Boulder.
- Colorado was in postseason play for the 18th time in team history with an overall record of 26-18. The Buffs played in four AIAW Tournaments from 1979-82 (5-4) and have made 12 NCAA Tournament appearances (17-12).
- This was Colorado's second trip to the postseason WNIT. The Buffs also participated in the 1999 WNIT defeating BYU 70-53 in the first round before falling to Drake 82-66 in the second. Both games were played in Boulder.
- This was Colorado's first postseason appearance of any kind since the 2003-04 team played in the NCAA Tournament.
- CU is 18-5 all-time a home in postseason (12-3 NCAA, 4-2 WNIT, 2-0 AIAW) and had won six straight prior to the WNIT semifinal loss to Marquette.
- CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller is 3-3 in postseason play, picking up all three career wins in this year's WNIT. McConnell-Miller led Tulsa to back-to-back WNIT appearances in 2004-05.

A FINE LINE: Colorado senior Jackie McFarland has claimed just about every major free throw record at Colorado, game, single-season and career. McFarland is CU's all-time leader in free throws made (586) and attempted (758) and set single-season marks with 203 free throws made on 257 attempts. She actually holds the top two single-season performances for free throws made as she held the previous record of 161 set as a junior in 2006-07. In the WNIT she made 40-of-47 (.851) from the line and 37-of-40 (.925) in her final three games. Against Villanova she took sole possession of the single game mark by sinking 15 free throws. She had a share of the previous record of 14, done three times and last by the All-Big 12 forward against Texas Tech during the 2007 Big 12 Championship. McFarland made her 15 free throws on just 16 attempts, also setting a school mark for free throws made with only one miss (.938). She nearly repeated that effort against TCU making 13-of-14 from the charity stripe.

McFARLAND, SPEARS EARN BIG 12 POSTSEASON HONORS: Senior forward Jackie McFarland was named to the 2008 All-Big 12 Conference first team for the second-straight season while freshman forward Brittany Spears was named to the All-Rookie team and received honorable mention to the All-Big 12 squad by a vote of league coaches.

McFarland gives Colorado its fourth All-Big 12 first team selection, and ironically both are repeat performers. She joins Tera Bjorklund who received back-to-back honors in 2003 and 2004. A 2005-06 All-Big 12 second team pick, she is just the second Buffalo to be cited three different seasons by the current league joining guard Jenny Roulrier who was a three-time third team selection (2000-02). Former CU All-American Shelley Sheetz was a three-time All-Big Eight first team pick.

Spears is the first Colorado player to be named to the Big 12 All-Rookie team in the three-year existence of the award. She is the 10th Buffalo to be given All-Big 12 honorable mention and just the second CU freshman to earn any kind of Big 12 postseason honor joining Linda Lappe who was also an honorable mention pick in 1999.

SMITH, SPEARS EARN BIG 12 WEEKLY HONORS: Colorado was recognized with Big 12 weekly honors five times this season, a school record for the Buffs in the 12 years of the league.

Freshman forward Brittany Spears was named Big 12 Rookie of the week four times, including the final two weeks of the season March 3 & 7. Spears, who also earned honors on Jan. 7 and Feb. 11, is the first CU player to earn four separate Big 12 weekly awards in the same season and the previous best was two. Sophomore guard Bianca Smith was named the Big 12 Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Dec. 10.

In her most recent honor, she had 10 points, five rebounds, three assists, one block and one steal to help CU to a 63-47 win over Missouri in the regular season finale. The week before, Spears averaged 15 points, 12.5 rebounds and two steals against Baylor and Nebraska. She scored 16 points and had a career-high 14 rebounds against the Lady Bears and added 14 points, 11 rebounds and four steals against the Huskers.

The week of Feb. 5-11, she averaged 19 points, 6.5 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 blocks while hitting 48 percent from the field in games against Nebraska and No. 10 (AP & WBCA) Oklahoma. Her other honor came right before the beginning of the Big 12 season as she helped Colorado register its 10th straight win by scoring 16 points and grabbing seven rebounds in a 65-53 decision over Pepperdine on Jan. 4.

Smith averaged 19 points, two assists and two rebounds off the bench while leading Colorado to wins over No. 22/21 Wyoming and at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt. Against Wyoming, Smith scored 16 points on 5-of-8 from the floor with three assists as Colorado broke a three-game losing streak against the Cowgirls. Smith had a then-career high 22 points on 7-of-14 from the field with three rebounds, one steal and one assist as the Buffs handed the Commodores just their second loss in 23 home games.

SMITH SETS 3-POINT RECORDS: Sophomore Bianca Smith set school single-season records for 3-pointers made (80) and attempted (257). She notched her 80th 3-pointer in the WNIT semifinal against Marquette, passing Kate Fagan's previous single-season mark of 79 set in 2003-04. Her 257 attempts were well ahead of Mandy Nightingale's previous record of 191 set in 2001-02. Smith has 112 career 3-pointers which ranks seventh on CU's all-time list and is the second most by a Buff in her first two seasons, trailing only Shelley Sheetz who had 128 from 1991-93. Her 309 career attempts also rank seventh on CU's all-time list.

Smith tied three different school 3-point field goal records during CU's 67-52 win over Texas on Feb. 16. Smith tied school marks for 3-pointers made in one game with seven, and also 3-pointers made and attempted in one half by hitting 5-of-9 in the first 20 minutes. It's the fifth time a CU player has had seven 3-pointers in one game, done by four players (Fagan did it twice). Veronica Johns-Richardson was the last to do it, against Northern Colorado on Dec. 29, 2004. Smith's five first half 3-pointers matched efforts by Sheetz at Tennessee on Dec. 20, 1993 and Fagan at Syracuse on Dec. 31, 2002. Her nine first half 3-point attempts matched Sheetz's nine at Tennessee.

MORE AWARDS FOR McFARLAND: Jackie McFarland was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team for the third straight year, this time as a first team member, announced by the College Sports Information Directors of America on Feb. 26.

McFarland earned second team honors in 2006 and 2007. She is Colorado's third three-time Academic All-American joining Jim Hansen (Football, 1990-92) and Kelly Smith (Cross Country/Track & Field, 1996-98).

Sporting a 3.86 GPA, McFarland is working on a concurrent degree program which will allow her to earn her MBA while completing her undergraduate degree in accounting. McFarland won CU's Scholar-Athlete Award in the spring of 2007 for having the highest GPA in her class. McFarland is a three-year team captain and is actively involved in CU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

SAAC is the governing body for student-athletes at CU which assists in the development and implementation of programs that motivate student-athletes to strive for and be recognized for academic excellence and community involvement.

McFarland was one of 10 finalists for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. She was one of five named to the Lowe's All-Senior All-America first team.

The award – presented annually to the NCAA Division I Student-Athlete of the Year in eight sports – focuses on the "Four C's" of classroom, character, community and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the award was launched during the 2001-02 season to honor the attributes of college basketball seniors who remain committed to their university and pursue the many rewards that a senior season and complete college education brings.

A 2008 AP honorable mention All-American, McFarland was a Naismith Award semifinalist, tabbed as a preseason first team All-Big 12 selection and one of the top five power forwards in the country by ESPN.com.

BLOCK PARTY: Colorado blocked a school single-season record 185 shots this year. The previous record was 162 set in 2000-01. The Buffaloes ranked third in the Big 12 and 13th in the nation at 5.4 blocks per game. Brittany Spears led the way with 52 blocks which were the most by a CU player since Britt Hartshorn had 69 in 2000-01. Aija Putnina was second with 44 and Jackie McFarland, who is fourth in all-time blocks at CU, was third with 38. It was the first time in team history that the Buffaloes have three players with 30 or more blocks in one season.

CU's high for a game this season was 13 against Dartmouth, the second highest single-game total in team history, trailing only the school record 16 set against Sam Houston in a 99-60 win on Dec.

14, 2000. CU followed up that performance with 12 against Iowa State on Jan. 13. The Buffaloes had three games this season with 10 or more blocks.

3-POINTERS FALLING: Colorado finished second in the Big 12 Conference and ranked 19th in the nation at 6.9 3-point field goals per game. The Buffaloes established new single-season team marks for 3-point shooting. CU had 236 3-point field goals made breaking the old mark of 196 set in 2001-02. The Buffs blew away the old 3-point attempts mark. CU had 730 attempts, shattering the old school record of 501 originally achieved in 2001-02.

The Buffaloes had a school single-season record nine games with 10 or more 3-point field goals in 2007-08. The previous season high was five in the 34-game 2001-02 season. CU had a season-high 14 against Colorado State, its second best single-game total (CU had 16 against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004). That came during a string of netting 10 or more 3-pointers in four straight games for the first time. The Buffs had 10 3-pointers against Wyoming and Northern Colorado and 13 against Rice. Against UNC, the Buffs set a school record for 3-point field goal attempts in one half with 21 in the first stanza and finished the game with 36 attempts, just one shy of the school record of 37 set against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004.

Individually, it wasn't one player doing the damage. For the first time in school history, CU had seven different players with 10 or more 3-pointers. Sophomore Bianca Smith led the team with a school single-season record 80, Brittany Spears was second with 57 followed by Susie Powers (25), Jackie McFarland (16), Aija Putnina (16), Whitney Houston (15) and Hannah Skildum (13).

FINAL NUMBERS FOR McFARLAND: Jackie McFarland finished with 1,957 career points, second on CU's all-time scoring list trailing only Lisa Van Goor, who had 2,067 between 1981-85. She also finished her career at Colorado second in rebounds (1,049), third in field goals made (671), fourth in blocked shots (138), first in free throws made (586), first in free throws attempted (758), fourth in minutes played (3,928), second in double-doubles (46), second in double digit scoring games (102) and second in double digit rebounding games (48). For the 2007-08 season, she scored 637 points, the second most ever in a single year in CU history (only Van Goor had more, scoring 678 in 1981-82); it was just the fourth 600-point single season in school history. She set a school record for minutes played in a season with 1,219, topping the 1,181 by Diane Hiemstra in 1981-82, free throws made (203), besting her own record of 161 set last year. She scored in double figures 32 times this season, matching Van Goor's '80-81 total and trailing only the 34 Van Goor had in '81-82.

DEFENSE WINS: Colorado enjoyed some impressive defensive numbers at times this season.

The Buffaloes held seven opponents under 50 points in 2007-08; 29-vs. Texas Southern, 38-vs. Southern Utah, 41-vs. Kansas, 43-vs. Dartmouth, 47-at Colorado State, 47-vs. Missouri and 48-at San Francisco. CU had held their opponent under 50 points just three times total in the previous three seasons. It's also the first time the Buffs held two Big 12 opponents under 50 points in the same season since 2002-03.

CU yielded less than 50 points in three-straight games -- Texas Southern, Dartmouth and Southern Utah -- the first such streak since 2003-04. The Buffs' six sub-50 point defensive performances are the most in one season since the 2002-03 squad registered nine.

Colorado had a historic performance from a defensive perspective against Texas Southern. The Buffaloes held the Lady Tigers to just 29 points, which ties for the fourth-lowest total in team history (equals a 79-29 win over Iowa State on Feb. 19, 1993). It was just the fifth time in CU history the Buffs have held an opponent under 30 points (the ISU game in 1993 being the last). CU allowed just 13 second-half points, tying for the second-lowest second-half total in team history (also done in the ISU game and against Utah State on Jan. 28, 1981). The Buffaloes forced Texas Southern into 32 turnovers, the most since forcing 35 against Detroit Mercy on Nov. 24, 2002.

CAPTAINS EARN ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12: Team captains lead not just on the court, but in the classroom too. Colorado's three team captains -- Caley Dow, Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers -- each earned spots on the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team the league office announced on Mar. 5. Dow and McFarland were first team honorees, while Powers was selected to the second team.

Dow, a 6-2 forward, earned her second-straight first team honor. She averaged 2.4 rebounds and just under two points for the Buffaloes while hitting 46 percent from the field. Dow is a Spanish for the Professions major and active in the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Powers, who started 62 of 64 career games in a CU uniform, was recognized by the Big 12 for the second-straight season. A Spanish and education major, she was a first team Academic All-Big 12 pick in 2007.

McFarland picked up her third Academic All-Big 12 award. She is a three-time Academic All-American.

PLAYING WELL AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: Colorado was 3-4 this season against ranked opponents. The three wins are the most by the Buffaloes since sporting a 3-7 mark against the nation's Top 25 in 2003-04.

Colorado's 73-68 win over No. 15 Kansas State marked the highest ranked team the Buffaloes have beaten since defeating No. 15 Notre Dame, 67-63 on Nov. 15, 2003. It's the highest ranked team the Buffs have beaten as an unranked team since knocking off No. 12 North Carolina 86-67 in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament in Boulder.

Colorado had its biggest week in early December in several years in terms of success against ranked teams.

Colorado's 69-55 win over No. 21/22 Wyoming on Dec. 5 snapped a 23-game Buffs' losing streak to ranked teams. The Buffaloes last win over a ranked opponent had been a 69-59 decision at No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004 where CU was ranked No. 14 at the time. The win was Colorado's first against a ranked team while being unranked since the NCAA Tournament win over UNC.

The Buffaloes kept the momentum going four days later with a 62-51 win at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt. The win gave CU's its first two-game win streak against ranked teams since knocking off No. 23 Washington and No. 24 Baylor in 2003-04. It was the first pair of wins over two ranked teams in back-to-back games since the 2002 NCAA Tournament when the Buffs defeated No. 22/24 LSU in the second round and No. 5 Stanford in the Sweet 16. It was Colorado's first win on the road over a ranked opponent since the Baylor game in 2004. It was CU's first win over a ranked opponent as an unranked team since defeating No. 12 Texas in Austin, 60-56, on Feb. 26, 1997.

Colorado's losses against the Top 25 this year have been competitive, if not downright close calls. No. 10/10 Oklahoma used a strong second half to pull away 82-66 on Feb. 9 in Norman as did No. 21/18 Oklahoma State in an 81-72 decision on Feb. 2 in Boulder and No. 8/8 Baylor in a 76-62 decision in Waco on Feb. 27. CU led No. 19/16 Texas A&M for most the game before a late comeback allowed the Aggies to leave Boulder with a 72-68 decision on Jan. 16.

RANKING OF OUR OWN: Colorado did not receive votes in the final AP or WBCA Top 25 polls. CU had at least received votes for six-straight weeks from Dec. 10 through Jan. 22. The Buffaloes were ranked in four straight AP polls, peaking at No. 23 on Jan. 1 and Jan. 8. The Buffaloes debuted in the 2007 AP poll at No. 25 on Dec. 24 for their first national ranking since finishing No. 17 (AP)/No. 24 (WBCA) in the final 2003-04 polls. Colorado has a rich tradition in the AP poll, making 158 appearances since 1980. The Buffs were ranked in 75 straight polls from Mar. 15, 1992 to Dec. 9, 1996 and 30 straight from Jan. 22, 2001 to Mar. 22, 2002.

With Colorado's early-season AP ranking, Buffs head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to play for and coach an AP ranked team. McConnell-Miller was a four-year letterwinner at Virginia (1986-

90) where she played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight.

OPENING NIGHT STAR: Colorado freshman Brittany Spears joined some elite company in her Big 12 debut. Her 24 points against Missouri were the second-most in team history for a freshman in her first league game. Only CU Athletic Hall of Fame member and 1995 All-American Shelley Sheetz had more points in a conference debut as she scored 25 during a 75-69 loss at Nebraska on Jan. 15, 1992. Her seven rebounds tie current teammate Jackie McFarland for the most by a freshman in a road opener since 1994. McFarland had seven in an 84-62 setback at Nebraska on Jan. 5, 2005.

NUMBERS ON 11 STRAIGHT: Colorado's 11-game win streak early in 2007-08 was the seventh longest in team history and the most consecutive victories since the 1994-95 team matched a CU All-Sports record 25 straight wins (shared with the 1939-41 baseball team). Here are the Buffs' all-time best win streaks:

Wins	Season	Record	Noteable
1. 25	1994-95	30-3	NCAA Elite Eight, 14-0 in Big Eight

PERFECT DECEMBER: Colorado registered a perfect 7-0 record for the month of December for the first time since 2003-04, and for just the sixth time in team history. The Buffaloes matched the 1980-81 and 1981-82 teams which were both 7-0 in December. The 1992-93 team had a program best December mark of 9-0, while the 2002-03 squad was 6-0 and 5-0 in 2003-04. CU is 118-54 (.686) all-time in the month of December.

CAPTAINS NAMED: Seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers and junior Caley Dow served as team captains for the 2007-08 season. McFarland is a captain for a third straight season, Powers is in her second year as captain and Dow is a captain for the first time. CU team captains are voted on by players prior to the first regular season contest each year.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 322-98 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.767). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 20 of the previous 30 years including this season, after notching win No. 10 against Texas on Feb. 16. The Buffaloes have enjoyed five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94) at the CECC.

ON THE ROAD: Colorado was 4-8 on the road this season and had won three straight for the first time since 2003-04 before falling at Kansas State on Jan. 19. The four wins doubled the team road win total from the previous two seasons combined (1-10 in 2006-07 and 1-9 in 2004-05). CU's 82-47 win over Colorado State was significant on several fronts. The 35-point margin was the Buffs' highest on the road since a 70-35 win over Kansas on Jan. 16, 2002 and it was also their largest win over Colorado State (regardless of venue) since a 112-48 win on Nov. 16, 1979. The 82 points were the most CU has scored on an opponents home court since the Buffs' last trip to Moby Arena, an 86-83 loss to the Rams on Nov. 30, 2005. Colorado broke Vanderbilt's 10-game home winning streak and handed the Commodores just their second loss in 23 home games, the other coming last season against eventual national champion Tennessee.

This Season:

- Named CU's Most Improved Player for 2007-08.
- Set single-season school records for 3-point field goals made (80) and attempted (217).
- Tied a school record for 3-pointers made in one game with seven and also tied marks for 3-pointers made and attempted in one half by hitting 5-of-9 in the win over Texas on Feb. 16. It's the fifth time a CU player has hit seven 3-pointers in one game, done by four different players (Kate Fagan did it twice). She finished with a career-high 26 points against Texas.
- Set a career high with six assists against Gonzaga and actually matched her previous personal best of four in the first 3:55 of the contest.
- Has 16 games with three or more 3-point field goals in 2007-08
- Named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10 after averaging 19.0 points on 57 percent shooting in wins over #22/21 Wyoming and #20/17 Vanderbilt.
- Fourth in the Big 12 in 3-point field goals made (2.4 mpg) and in 3-point percentage (.369).

- After hitting just 4 of the first 11 free-throw attempts of her career (.364) she has hit 48 of her last 55 (.873) dating back to last season.

- Seventh on CU's all-time list for 3-point field goals with 112. Her 112 3-pointers are the second most by a Buff in her first two seasons, trailing only Shelley Sheetz who had 128 from 1991-93.

Career:

- Had the sixth most 3-point field goals among freshmen in the Big 12 last season with 32 and ranked 14th on the Big 12 charts in 3-point field-goal percentage (.348).
- Her 32 3-point field goals were the most by a CU freshman since Emily Waner had 51 in 2003-04.
- Sat out the 2005-06 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program.
- A 2005 graduate of Bellaire High School where she was a four-year letter winner as a guard/forward. She earned District MVP and first team all-district honors as a senior, leading Bellaire to a 36-5 record and averaging 18.5 points and 15.3 rebounds per game.
- She won an AAU national championship with the Houston Elite club program. Smith's high school honors include being named a Houston Girls Athlete of the Week.
- Her step-father Johnnie played football for the University of Houston and the San Francisco 49ers for five years, helping the 49ers to a NFL title in Super Bowl XXIV.

#3 Whitney Houston 5-5, Sophomore, Guard Memphis, Tenn. (Hillcrest)

Career:

- Won the team's Most Improved Player Award after the 2006-07 season.

- Led CU in assists with 64 in 2006-07, the first freshman to do so since Linda Lappe did it in 1998-99.

- Ranked fifth in assists (2.2) and eighth in scoring (7.9 ppg) among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference.

- A 2006 graduate of Hillcrest High School in Memphis where she led the Lady Vikings to the Tennessee Class AA state title as a senior. She was the state tournament MVP as Hillcrest finished with a 35-3 record and delivered the Memphis area its first girls Division 1 basketball state title in 21 years.

- A Miss Basketball finalist in Tennessee, averaging 19 points, six assists and three rebounds per game as a senior. She was a Class AA All-State first team selection and also earned Class AA All-Metro and District MVP honors.

- A four-time member of the Memphis Commerical Appeal's Best of the Preps/All-Metro Class A-AA team and was one of five finalists for the overall girls basketball Best of the Preps award as a junior and senior.

- She is the fifth of seven children joining Pamela (28), Keithra Patton (24), Elbony (23), Larry (21), Christopher (17) and Josh (21).

- She lists the biggest moments of her career as being inducted into the Honor Society and winning the state championship.

This Season

- Named CU's "Sixth Man" Award winner for 2007-08.
- CU's leader in scoring and assists among those players who primarily came off the bench.
- Scored a season-high 13 points against TCU. She banked in a 24-foot 3-point shot as the shot clock expired to give CU a 72-74 lead with 1:45 left in regulation and hit a short jumper with 4.8 seconds left that gave CU a 76-74 lead before TCU sent it to overtime.
- Averaged 6.5 points and 1.9 assists while shooting 38 percent from the field and 80 percent from the free throw line over the last 15 games.
- Averaged 9.5 points and two assists in the four WNIT games and turned the ball over just five times, and only once in the final three games.
- Had 15 3-pointers this season after going just 1-of-17 in 29 games as a freshman.
- Sang the national anthem prior to the Gonzaga and TCU games. CU is 3-0 when Houston sings the national anthem (the first time was against Nevada on Nov. 24, 2006) and in those games she is averaging 11.3 points and hitting 68 percent from the field (15-of-22).

#11 Hannah Skildum 6-0, Junior Guard/Forward North Oaks, Minn. (Mounds View)

This Season:

- Named CU's co-Practice Player of the Year Award winner with fellow classmate Kara Richards.
- Scored two points and grabbed two rebounds off the bench in each of CU's four WNIT games.
- Grabbed a season-best five rebounds in the Big 12 Championship game against Iowa State.
- Scored seven points and grabbed four rebounds against Missouri, her most since an eight-point, four-rebound effort against Texas A&M on Jan. 16. Tied a career high with two blocks against the Tigers.
- Averaged 9.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and hit 60 percent from the floor (6-of-10) during the two-game Coors Classic. Hit all three 3-point shot attempts against Siena.
- Has 13 3-pointers this season after making just five in her first two seasons combined.

- Had 11 points against Rice to reach double-digits in scoring for the 6th time in her career.

Career:

- Scored a career-high 16 points in the final game of the 2006-07 regular season at Nebraska while hitting a personal-best 7-of-10 from the floor. She hit two of her five career 3-pointers in that game.
- Averaged 3.6 points, 2.9 rebounds and 1.1 assists per game as a first-year player in 2005-06
- Miss Minnesota Basketball nominee and two-time All-Suburban East Conference first team pick for Mounds View High School
- She was named as one of Minnesota's Fabulous 40 Seniors by Minnesota Sports Preview prior to her senior season.
- Won a Minnesota state championship in the high jump
- Her uncle is Flip Saunders, current head coach of the NBA Detroit Pistons
- Her best talent not related to basketball is her singing, "I'm pretty good!". Her favorite food is Panda Express and her favorite campus spot is a "shady tree to take a nap by between classes."

Career:

- Named Colorado's Defensive Player of the Year in 2006-07.
- Started 28 of 30 games during the 2006-07 season, rotating back-and-forth between the point and shooting guard positions.
- Transferred to CU from Notre Dame for the 2005-06 season, sitting the year out as a redshirt.
- A two-year letterwinner at Notre Dame, playing in 41 games over two seasons and averaging 6.5 minutes per game. Notre Dame was 48-17 with Powers on the roster advancing to a pair of NCAA Tournaments, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2004.
- Part of three Colorado Class 5A state championship teams at Highlands Ranch High School (2000-02) and was the starting point guard when the Falcons were ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2002. Was a teammate of current CU Director of Operations and WNBA veteran Ann Strother.
- She averaged 13.6 points and 6.8 assists per game over her prep career including a personal-best 15.7 per game as a senior.
- A two-time Street & Smith's honorable mention All-American and a Parade honorable mention All-American in 2003.
- While at Notre Dame, she was a two-time member of the Big East Academic All-Star Team.
- She hopes to one day teach Spanish in high school and coach girls basketball. She spent a portion of the summer of 2006 volunteering at a pastoral center in San Bartolo, Peru, teaching English and basketball to children.

This Season:

- Named CU's Ultimate Team Award winner for 2007-08.
- Ranked second in the Big 12 in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.80 and 11th the Big 12 at 3.2 assists per game.
- Her 1.80 assist-to-turnover ratio ranks eighth on CU's single-season list and her career ratio of 1.43 is also eighth on CU's career charts.
- Her 110 assists are the most by a CU player since Mandy Nightingale had 161 in 2001-02.
- Had a career-high 10 assists against Pepperdine. It's the most assists in one game for the Buffaloes since Whitney Law had her school-record 15 against Cal State Fullerton on Nov. 18, 2005.
- Tied a school record, along with teammate Jackie McFarland, by playing 48 minutes against Iowa State. Tracy Tripp set the initial mark with 48 against Oklahoma State in a double-overtime game on March 6, 1989.
- Tied with Erin Carson (1984-88) for 17th on CU's all-time list for 3-point field goals with 49.
- Named to the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball second team. Was a first team pick in 2007.

This Season:

- Named CU's Rookie of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year.
- Named to the All-Big 12 Rookie team and received honorable mention to the all-conference team.
- Named Big 12 Rookie of the Week for the fourth time this season on March 7 after recording 10 points, five rebounds, three assists in the regular season finale against Missouri. She's the first CU player to earn four Big 12 weekly honors in the same season as she was also honored on Jan. 7, Feb. 11 and Mar. 3.
- Had a game-high 22 points and 10 rebounds against Gonzaga for her seventh career double-double and third in a five-game span. Averaged 16.5 points and 7.8 rebounds during WNIT play.
- The fourth different player, and second freshman, in team history to accomplish 450 points and 250 rebounds.
- The first player in team history to record 50 assists, 50 blocks and 50 steals in the same season and just the second to reach 40 in all three categories. Raegan Scott did it twice, as a junior in 1995-96 and senior in 1996-97.
- Second in scoring (472), tied with Erin Scholz (1993-94) for second in blocks (52), third in rebounds (259) and fifth in steals (57) on CU's all-time freshman charts. Her 52 blocks are tied for seventh overall on CU's single-season chart.

- Ranks first among freshmen in the Big 12 in scoring (13.9 ppg), rebounding (7.6 rpg) and blocked shots (1.5 bpg). She is also second in steals (1.7 spg) third in free-throw percentage (.817) and fourth in assists (1.9 apg).

- Overall in the Big 12 she is fourth in defensive rebounds (5.8 rpg), seventh in blocks, eighth in overall rebounding, ninth in 3-point percentage (.312), 11th in 3-point field goals (1.7 3mpg) and field-goal percentage (.425) and 13th in steals and scoring.

- Her 57 steals are the most by a CU player since Veronica Johns-Richardson had 59 in 2004-05. She had five steals in a game twice.

- Scored a career-high 24 points in her Big 12 debut against Missouri. It's the second-best output by a Buff in her conference opener, trailing only the 25 scored by CU Athletic Hall of Famer Shelley Sheetz at Nebraska in 1992. Her seven rebounds against MU matched current teammate Jackie McFarland's initial output in 2005, tying for the best mark since Erin Scholz had nine rebounds at K-State in 1994.

- Started her collegiate career off with a bang, scoring 15 points to go with seven rebounds and five steals against San Francisco. All 15 of her points and four of her five steals came in the first half.

Career:

- A 2006 graduate of Pasadena High School who spent the 2006-07 academic year at Notre Dame Prep School in Fitchburg, Mass.

- Two-time Pacific League and Pasadena Star-News Player of the Year for Pasadena High School

- Averaged 23 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists as a senior guiding Pasadena to its first league title since 1991.

- An open option major, interested in sociology.

- A sport she'd like to try other than basketball would be field hockey.

- Her best talent not related to basketball is helping with other people's relationships.

#23 Dina Piteriece 6-2, Junior, Guard/Forward Riga, Latvia (Odessa College)

Career:

- Transferred to CU after a two-year career at Odessa where her teams went 66-3, winning the 2007 junior college national championship and a second place finish in 2006.

- Averaged 12.8 points and six rebounds per game as a sophomore, helping the Wranglers to a 32-2 record, the Western Junior College Athletic Conference crown and the 2007 JUCO national championship.

- Had 200 3-pointers in her two seasons at Odessa and was ranked the 12th best overall junior college sophomore by All Star Girls Report

- A veteran of several European Women's Championships, she played for Latvia's U20 team in 2005 and 2006, the U18 squad in 2004 and the U16 team in 2001. Her U20 team won a bronze medal at the 2005 European Championships

- A sport she would like to try other than basketball would be volleyball.

- Her favorite foods are chicken and salad.

- In a movie about Dina, she would be played by Jennifer Aniston with Angelina Jolie playing the part of Aija Putnina.

This Season:

- Had a 3-pointer in the closing minute of the first half against Gonzaga in the WNIT for her first points since the Southern Utah game on Dec. 28.

- Played the final minute of the Missouri game, her first action in nine contests.

- Made her Big 12 Conference debut by playing two minutes at Iowa State.

- Scored her first points in a CU uniform with a 3-pointer against Southern Utah.

- Made her long-awaited CU debut against Texas Southern, grabbing four rebounds and dishing out one assist in four minutes.

- She missed the first eight games due to a broken toe suffered during practice on Oct. 19. The injury was to the third metatarsal on her left foot.

compiling separate streaks of five and six games during her maiden season in 1980-81.

- Recorded back-to-back double-doubles at the 2006 Coors Classic, earning All-Tournament honors. She was the first freshman to achieve back-to-back double-doubles since Sabrina Scott did it at the end of the 1999-2000 season and it's only the fourth time since 1993-94 when Erin Scholz did it twice.

- Averaged 16.6 points, 11 rebounds and 1.5 blocks per game in helping the Latvia National team to a 12th place finish at the 2007 U20 European Championship for Women. Led the tournament field with five double-doubles in eight games.

- Her Latvia National team experience also includes the 2006 U18 European Championships where her 16.9 points and 10 rebounds per game helped Latvia to a fourth place finish. Also played in the 2005 U18 and 2004 U16 European Championships.

- A 2006 graduate of Regis Jesuit High School in Aurora, Colo. An exchange student from Riga, Latvia, she could play only one season of varsity high school basketball in Colorado. As a senior she averaged 12 points, seven rebounds and two blocks per game helping the Raiders to a 24-4 overall record and a second place finish in the Colorado State Class 4A Tournament.

- Earned All-Continental Conference first team recognition and received honorable mention to the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 4A All-State teams.

- She aspires to own her own business and to become a basketball coach.

- She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as going to the state championship game.

- Her best talent not related to basketball is taking pictures.

This Season:

- Registered her fifth double-double of the season, the seventh of her career, by scoring a career-high 22 points and grabbing 10 rebounds against TCU. Also tied career highs with four 3-pointers and four blocked shots.

- Made 8-of-15 3-point attempts over the five Big 12 Championship and WNIT games after going 0-of-13 from downtown during the league's regular season.

- Was 4-of-4 from 3-point range against Jacksonville State. Only Jenny Roulter who hit 5-of-5 from downtown against Missouri on Feb. 13, 2002, had more 3-pointers in a game without a miss. She had just four 3-pointers in 37 career games prior to the JSU game.

- On the Big 12 charts is ninth in blocks and 18th in rebounding.

- Her 44 blocks this season are the third most by a sophomore in team history.

Career:

- Ranks 10th on CU's all-time list for blocked shots with 63.

- Ranked fifth in rebounds among freshmen in the Big 12 in 2006-07.

- Early in her freshman season she had four straight-double-digit rebounding games, including back-to-back career-high 14-board outputs against Colorado State and USC. Putnina is the first freshman to record four-straight games with 10 or more rebounds since Erin Scholz had four in a row in 1993-94. Only all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor had more in a row as a freshman,

#40 Caley Dow 6-2, Junior, Forward Littleton, Colo. (Arapahoe)

This Season:

- Named CU's Community Service Award Winner for the second-straight season.
- Hit 50 percent from the field over the last 12 games (12-of-24).
- Had season-highs with eight points and seven rebounds in 30 minutes against Nebraska. Also tied a career high with three assists.
- Named a team captain along with seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers in a vote by players during the preseason.
- Had seven rebounds against Colorado State, her most since pulling down seven against Cal State Fullerton last December.

Career:

- A two-time Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball first team selection.
- As a freshman, Dow ranked 19th in the Big 12 in rebounding in league only contests at 5.9 rpg.

- Scored a career-high 15 points against Oregon and was a perfect 10-of-10 from the free-throw line. She is just the seventh CU player to go 10-of-10 or better from the foul line in a single game and only the second freshman. CU All-American Shelly Sheetz was 11-for-11 as a first-year player against Kansas in 1992. The mark also ties for the second best in the Big 12 this season.

- A 2005 graduate of Arapahoe High School where she averaged 17.3 points and 9.3 rebounds as a senior.

- She was selected All-Colorado by both the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News and was named to the Class 5A All-State first team by both publications.

- Was the state's leading rebounder in 2004 and a first team All-Continental League pick, helping the Warriors to a 12-8 record as a junior.

- She has two brothers, Nate and Eric. Eric played basketball at the University of Denver and professionally in Europe.

- Her favorite reality show is Mythbusters, "Have you seen the cool stuff they do?!"

- If she could be on the cover of any magazine it would be National Geographic.

- Her favorite quote is "Serenity Now!" - George Costanza from Seinfeld.

#44 Kara Richards 6-4, Junior, Center Graham, Texas (Graham)

This Season:

- Named CU's co-Practice Player of the Year Award winner for 2007-08 along with classmate Hannah Skildum.
- Averaged 4.7 points and 3.8 rebounds over the final 11 games.
- Started in the Gonzaga game, her fourth start of the season and first since the Siena game on Nov. 23.
- Recorded 11 rebounds against Missouri, a season high, and her most since notching 13 against the Tigers on Jan. 3, 2007
- Had a Big 12 high nine points against Baylor on 4-of-5 shooting.
- Had a season-high 11 points on 5-of-5 from the field and seven rebounds in the win over Dartmouth. It was her first double-digit scoring effort since the Kansas game on Feb. 24, 2007.

Career:

- Led the Big 12 in field-goal percentage in conference only games (.600) as a sophomore and ranked second on the overall league leaderboard (.583), trailing only teammate Jackie McFarland.
- Ranks 13th on CU's career list for blocked shots with 55.

- Missed seven games as a sophomore with a fracture to the fourth metatarsal of her left foot. The fracture was on the same foot, but a different bone than the injury that forced her to miss the 2005-06 campaign.

- Reverted back to sophomore standing in terms of eligibility as she was granted a medical hardship by the Big 12 Conference on Dec. 2, 2006.

- Suffered a Jones fracture – a fracture to the fifth meta-tarsal – in her left foot on Nov. 15, 2005, just three day's before CU's season opening win over Cal State University-Fullerton, missing the entire season

- Named to the Waco Tribune-Herald's Big 12 Conference All-Freshman team in 2004-05, averaging nine points, 5.3 rebounds, and one block per game for the Buffaloes.

- Ranked third in scoring, and fourth in rebounding and blocked shots among Big 12 freshmen in 2004-05.

- Ranked 10th overall on the Big 12 charts in blocks with 28, the 20th best total in team history and fifth-best by a Buffs freshman.

- Earned Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week honors after her first weekend as a collegian, averaging a team-best 13.5 points at the Nevada Nugget Classic.

- Started the 2004-05 season opener becoming the first true freshman to start in the season opener since Linda Lappe against Denver on Nov. 14, 1998.

- Earned a pair of All-State honors after her junior and senior seasons at Graham High School.

- A Texas Association of Basketball Coaches All-State selection, she was a four-time All-District player at Graham, was named the District Most Valuable Player for District 5-3A as a junior, and was also selected to the 2A- 3A Texas Women's Magazine All-State team.

- "Must See" TV for her is Dog the Bounty Hunter and cartoons.

- Her heros are her parents and grandparents.

#45 Jackie McFarland 6-3, Senior, Forward Derby, Kan. (Derby)

This Season:

- CU's Offensive Player of the Year, Scholar of the Year and Rebounding Award winner for 2007-08.
- 2008 Lowe's All-Senior All-American.
- Two-time Associated Press honorable mention All-American (2007 & 2008)
- Two-time All-Big 12 Conference first team pick (2007 & 2008). Joins Tera Bjorklund (2003 & 2004) as the only CU players to earn back-to-back first team honors. 2006 All-Big 12 second team. Joins Jenny Roulier as the only CU players to make three All-Big 12 teams (Roulier was a three-year third team pick from 1999-02).
- On the Big 12 charts ranked first in field-goal percentage, second in minutes and scoring, third in free-throw percentage, fifth in rebounding and 11th in blocks.
- Named one of 10 nation-wide finalists for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. Also one of 31 mid-season candidates for the 2008 Naismith Award.
- 2008 ESPN The Magazine first team Academic All-American. It's her third Academic All-America award as she was a second team member in 2006 and 2007.
- Second on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,957 and third in rebounding with 1,049.
- Joins Lisa Van Goor as the only players in CU history to record 1,900 points and 1,000 rebounds.
- The only player in CU history to score 500 points in three different seasons. Her 637 points in 2007-08 rank second on CU's single-season list.

CU's all-time leader in free-throws made (586) and attempted (758) and this year established single-season marks for free-throws made (203) and attempted (257). She holds the top two single-season marks for free throws made, sinking 161 as a junior in 2006-07.

On the CU charts ranks second in career scoring average (16.2 ppg), third in field-goals made (671), fourth in blocks (138), minutes (3,828) and minutes average (32.5 mpg), fifth in rebounding average (8.7 rpg), eighth in field-goal percentage (.539), 10th in career starts (99), and 12th in 3-point field-goal percentage (.354).

On the Big 12 career charts ranks second in free-throws made (586), third in free-throw attempts (758), fifth in double-doubles (46), seventh in rebounds (1,049), eighth in scoring (1,957), and 10th in blocked shots (138).

Had nine double-doubles this season, tied for second in the Big 12, and has reached 20 or more points 13 times. Nearly had the CU's first triple double by scoring 21 points, grabbing a season-high 16 rebounds and dishing out a personal-best eight assists against Oklahoma State.

Second on CU's career list with 46 double-doubles, 48 double-digit rebounding games and 102 double-figure scoring games. Scored in double-digits in 94 of her last 100 games.

Took sole possession of the single-game free-throw mark by sinking 15 against Villanova. She had a share of the previous record of 14, done three times and last by the All-Big 12 forward against Texas Tech during the 2007 Big 12 Championship. Made her 15 free throws on just 16 attempts, also setting a school mark for free throws made with only one miss (.938).

Averaged 25 points and 9.5 rebounds while shooting 60 percent during Postseason WNIT play. Named to the 2008 WNIT All-Tournament team.

The first player in team history to score 30 in back-to-back games as she had 32 against Villanova and 30 against TCU. It's just the sixth time a CU player has scored 60 or more in two games. McFarland also did it at the beginning of the 2005-06 season netting a career-high 34 against Cal State Fullerton and then 28 against Wyoming.

Hit 12-of-12 from the line against Missouri, tying for the second best performance in team history.

BOULDER — Senior Jackie McFarland and sophomore Aija Putnina each tallied double-doubles as Colorado defeated Rice, 72-55, in the consolation game of the 21st Annual Coors Class Saturday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Clemson won the Coors Classic with a 77-67 win over Siena in the championship game.

Putnina, making her first start since a game at Cal State Fullerton on Dec. 7, 2006, led the Buffaloes with a career-high 15 points to go along with 12 rebounds. It's her third career double-double, all three of which have come when she's in the starting lineup. Putnina also added three steals and two blocked shots.

She has a way to go to catch McFarland's numbers, as the All-Big 12 forward registered career double-double No. 39 and her second-straight as she earned All-Tournament honors for the third time. McFarland had 12 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high seven assists. She's actually been closer to a triple-double has she had a school-record eight blocks to go along with a traditional points-rebound double-double in 2005 against South Dakota State.

Colorado shot an overall season-high 47 percent from the field and spread the wealth around as four players scored in double-digits and two others had seven or more. Senior Susie Powers, held scoreless for the first three games of the season, had 11 while freshman Brittany Spears had 10 points to go with seven rebounds and six assists.

Junior Hannah Skildum had eight points and four rebounds off the bench and Kara Richards pitched in seven on a perfect 3-of-3 from the field.

"Last night our look was a result of our shots not going down, and we were also struggling on the defensive end," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "But they were excited about this game and the tournament, and they went into this game with good energy. We knew that things were going to change and I thought they responded well from a very tough loss last night."

Colorado found itself down 13-4 right out of the gate. The Buffaloes, which shot just under 40 percent last night against Siena, made just 2-of-10 to start the game.

Colorado finally found its rhythm by embarking on a 13-0 run capped off by back-to-back 3-point field goals by McFarland and Spears to take a 17-13 lead with 9:18.

The good fortunes continued for the Buffaloes after their initial struggle. Colorado made 11-of-16 to close the half (69 percent) and at one point outscored the Owls 21-2 and led by as many 10 in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado pulled away quickly, beginning the second half on an 8-2 run to take a 47-33 lead and never let the advantage dip below 11.

Rice was led by guard Kadie Riverin who had 14 points, four rebounds and three assists en route to All-Tournament team honors.

BOULDER — When Colorado needed a shot in the arm to get going against Northern Colorado, the Buffs looked to their seniors to step it up, and they answered.

Forward Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 26 points and point guard Susie Powers had 12 points, eight assists and seven rebounds to lead Colorado to a 69-60 win over Northern Colorado Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado improves to 3-2 overall while the Bears fall to 3-3.

McFarland, who became the ninth player in team history to reach 1,400 career points (1,424), sparked a 23-4 first-half run to overcome a slow start by the Buffaloes. UNC hit its first four 3-point field goal attempts and built a 19-11 lead in the first 8:56 of the game.

Coming out of a media timeout with 10:56 remaining in the first half, McFarland took over. The All-Big 12 Conference performer scored 10 straight points capped off by a 3-pointer to give CU a 21-19 lead. After Kate Kevorken tied the game at 21, CU sophomore guard Bianca Smith kept the momentum by in the home team's favor by hitting three 3-pointers in a span of 2:17. Caley Dow and Whitney Houston finished off the run with back-to-back buckets to give the Buffs a 34-23 advantage.

Powers had six of her career-high eight assists in the first 20 minutes, two of which went to McFarland during her 10-0 run. Powers, whose 16 assists against only three turnovers this season leads the Big 12, scored nine of her career-best tying 12 points in the second half.

CU built its lead to 55-41 early in the second half as McFarland and Powers each hit a pair of 3-pointers during the run. UNC answered with six straight to cut CU's lead to eight, but Powers' third 3-pointer of the half sparked a 7-0 run to give the Buffs their largest lead of the game at 62-47.

The 3-pointer was a big weapon for the Buffs against UNC. CU made 13 from downtown, its most since a similar baker's dozen against Iowa State on Jan. 10, 2007. Colorado was 8-of-21 in the first half alone, with the 21 attempts breaking the school record of 20 attempts in one half set against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004. Colorado ended up at 13-of-36, with the 36 attempts just one short of the school record for a game which is 37 against Buffalo. CU, which had 10 3-pointers against Rice on Saturday, has hit double-digits in 3-pointers in back-to-back games for the first time in school history.

Sophomore Aija Putnina had a career-high 15 rebounds and tied a personal best with four blocked shots for Colorado, which held UNC to just 34 percent from the field. McFarland finished with eight rebounds and three blocks while shooting 8-of-11 from the field.

Whitley Cox led Northern Colorado with 21 points and five assists. Courtney Stoermer had 13 points and nine rebounds while Danielle Hagen had a team-high 12 rebounds.

BOULDER — Jackie McFarland scored 21 points, Brittany Spears matched her career high with 19 and Colorado upset No. 21 Wyoming 69-55 on Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado (5-2) snapped a 23-game losing streak against ranked opponents and ended a three-game series skid against the Cowgirls. CU's last win against a ranked opponent was a 69-59 win over then-No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004. The Buffaloes were ranked 14th at the time. In ending that streak, the Buffs prevented Wyoming (6-1) from its first 7-0 start in nearly 30 years. Overall, CU has won four straight for the first time since winning five in a row in December of 2004.

Wyoming built a 14-7 lead as the Buffaloes made just three of their first 19 shots from the field. The Buffaloes then heated up as a pair of Bianca Smith 3-pointers and one by Spears capped off an 11-2 run to knot the game at 18-18. CU eventually held a 27-26 lead at the break.

Colorado opened it up early in the second half as Spears had eight points in a 10-0 run that gave CU a 50-38 lead with 10:54 remaining. Spears, who had 14 second-half points, capped the streak by hitting all three free throws after being fouled by Megan McGuffey on a 3-point attempt.

Wyoming responded to that surge with a 14-3 run that cut the Colorado lead to one at 53-52 with 5:11 left in the game. Smith answered for the Buffaloes with two consecutive 3-pointers that led to a 12-0 run, allowing CU to pull away.

McFarland had 15 points in the second half, including eight in the final 4 minutes. Smith ended with a season-high 16 points and also dished out three assists.

"I thought tonight's game came at a very pivotal time for us," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I thought that we were coming off our best performance of the year (against CSU). To host a nationally ranked Wyoming team with such experience, was very pivotal. With this game we could have gone either way and I thought the timing of the game was good. Wyoming is a great team."

Susie Powers had another solid game for Colorado finishing with a career high nine assists and tying a personal best seven rebounds. The Buffaloes, who had averaged more than 20 turnovers in their first six games, committed a season-low 13. The Buffaloes had 21 assists on their 23 baskets and have 20-plus assists in three straight games for the first time since the 2001-02 season.

"This was a huge game for us for a lot of different reasons," McFarland said. "Wyoming is just as much as an instate rival as Colorado State is. To play them for three years and have not (defeated) them, is definitely the best win of my career. How this team plays when we have a ranked team in here, and to get a win is a sign that we are definitely moving up."

Colorado shot 61 percent in the second half and outscored Wyoming 42-29 in the final 20 minutes. Justyna Podziemska led the Cowgirls with 19 points, and Hanna Zavec scored 16.

McFarland had 15 points in the second half, including eight in the final 4 minutes.

Wyoming was off to its best start since going 8-0 to open the 1978-79 season. Colorado also handed the Cowgirls their first loss that season, too, 81-66.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Sophomore guard Bianca Smith scored a career-high 22 points off the bench, and Colorado held off No. 20 (AP)/17 (WBCA) Vanderbilt for a 62-51 win Sunday.

Colorado (6-2) has won five straight for the first time since the 2004-05 season and has wins over ranked teams in back-to-back games for the first time since the 2002 NCAA Tournament. CU defeated No. 22/21 Wyoming at home on Wednesday 69-55. Smith had 16 points off the bench in the win over the Cowgirls.

"(This week) has been a great confidence booster for me and the the whole team heading into the rest of the preseason," Smith said. "It's also motivating for us to continue to work hard, being able to see what we can do (against a ranked team)."

Much like the Wyoming game, Colorado built a sizeable second half lead, had it almost vanish, but recover and pull away at the end. The Buffaloes led 52-32 with 7:07 to play before the Commodores went on a 17-0 run to cut the lead to 52-49 with 3:01 remaining. But Colorado made 10 consecutive free throws in the final 1:47 to secure the victory.

"We are playing with a lot of confidence right now and that shows in our execution and the way in which we have prepared," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Most importantly we've got five players on the floor that can make plays."

Jackie McFarland scored 12 points in a 27-5 run in the second half that helped the Buffaloes build a 20-point lead.

McFarland had 16 points for Colorado. Liz Sherwood led Vanderbilt (8-3) with 22 points. Redshirt freshman center Courtney Dunn, whose 6-4 size provided a key defensive match up against Sherwood, had five points and five rebounds.

Brittany Spears had eight points, a team-high seven rebounds and three steals.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half, with Vanderbilt shooting 40.9 percent from the floor and Colorado 38.9, and the Buffaloes couldn't have imagined a worse start committing eight turnovers and missing two field goals on their first 10 possessions. Despite the turnovers, Vanderbilt could only build an 8-0 lead before the Buffaloes fought back.

Smith gave CU its first points with a long two with 13:54 remaining in the half and just kept on going. Smith scored 13 of CU's first 17 points on 5-of-7 shooting and her 3-pointer at the 7:57 mark gave the Buffaloes their first lead at 17-14.

Colorado struggled with turnovers early, but so did the Commodores. The Buffaloes had 15 in the first half, but Vandy nearly countered with 14. The Commodores were held scoreless for nearly nine minutes before Sherwood and Jennifer Risper scored consecutive baskets as Vanderbilt retook the lead at 18-17.

The Buffaloes were able to get to the free-throw line in the final minutes of the half as McFarland and Hannah Skildum hit four straight to give CU a 21-18 halftime lead. Later in the half, Vanderbilt went 8-34 without scoring. Colorado took advantage, as Smith scored 13 of the team's first 17 points, capped by back-to-back 3-pointers, to give the Buffaloes a 17-14 advantage.

BOULDER - Three players scored in double-digits and a solid defensive effort propelled Colorado to its seventh-straight win with a 57-43 decision over Dartmouth Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado (8-2) has its best record to begin a season and longest winning streak since its 2003-04 NCAA Tournament team won nine-straight during a 12-2 start.

Freshman Brittany Spears had a game-high 13 points and senior Jackie McFarland recorded her 41st career double-double by netting 12 points and 11 rebounds. Junior Kara Richards had season-highs with 11 points and seven rebounds while hitting a perfect 5-of-5 from the field.

The Buffaloes won their second-straight game with defense. Colorado shot just 39 percent and equaled its lowest offensive output of the season, but the Buffs defense held its own holding the Big Green 23 percent shooting. Colorado blocked 13 Dartmouth shots, the second-highest single-game total in team history trailing only a 16-block effort against Sam Houston on Dec. 14, 2000. Spears and McFarland led the way with four blocks apiece.

CU, which gave up just 29 points against Texas Southern in its last game, held an opponent under 50 points for the fourth time this season.

Dartmouth started off on the right foot as Koren Schram's third 3-point field goal of the first half gave the Big Green a 20-15 with 10 minutes left in the period.

Colorado started to come alive immediately after thanks to its bench. Sophomore Bianca Smith answered Schram just under a minute later with a 3-pointer of her own to begin a 20-4 Buffs run over the final 9:15 of the half. Richards had four of her seven first-half points during the run, but more importantly countered Dartmouth's ability to crash the boards.

After Dartmouth held a 14-8 rebounding edge early, seven of which came on the offensive end, Richards 6-4 size allowed the Buffaloes to even out the rebounding total by halftime and would eventually claim a 43-40 edge for the game.

Spears narrowly missed a double-double by corraling nine rebounds. Freshman Courtney Dunn had five.

Dartmouth scored the first five points of the second half to narrow the gap to six at 35-29, but Smith once again answered a Big Green run hitting a 3-point field goal. CU never allowed the lead to dip below seven after that, but cold shooting on both sides prevented either team from making any type of move. Colorado was 30 percent from the field in the second half while Dartmouth shot just 23 percent.

Schram and Kristen Craft each had 11 points to lead the Big Green.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland scored 22 points and Brittany Spears added 17, guiding No. 25 Colorado to an 81-38 win over Southern Utah on Friday night.

The Buffaloes (9-2) have won eight straight games. The streak has helped vault the team into the top 25 for the first time in three years.

Southern Utah (2-9) lost its 30th straight road contest, including seven straight this season. The Thunderbirds haven't won on the road since a win over St. Mary's on Dec. 10, 2005.

With her 22-point outing, McFarland moved into eighth place on the Buffaloes' all-time scoring list. She now has 1,510 career points.

Bianca Smith came off the bench to score 12, including three 3-pointers. Aija Putnina had six points and Susie Powers dished out seven assists.

Spears entered the game as the leading scorer among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference, averaging 13.3 points. She also had five rebounds and two steals.

Kaila Goff led Southern Utah in scoring with seven points. Anne Westwood, the Thunderbirds' leading scorer, finished with six points, and didn't score her first basket until early in the second half. She also had eight rebounds.

The Buffaloes closed the first half on a 13-0 run to take a 44-20 lead into the break. It's the third straight game the Buffaloes have closed the opening half on a big spurt, going on a 20-4 run in a win over Dartmouth and a 15-0 burst against Texas Southern.

Colorado started the second half where it left off, going on a 12-0 run to up the lead to 36 points. The Buffaloes led by as many as 43 points. The Thunderbirds finished with 21 turnovers, which is one below their season average.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland had 24 points and Brittany Spears had a double-double but it wasn't enough as No. 19 Texas A&M defeated No. 25 Colorado Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Danielle Gant scored 24 points and Takia Starks added 18 for the Aggies (13-4, 1-2), who avoided their first 0-3 Big 12 start since the 2003-04 season.

McFarland, who became the fifth player in CU history to register 1,600 career points (she now has 1,614), hit 8-of-13 from the field and made 8-of-12 from the free-throw line while also grabbing nine rebounds and blocking two shots. Spears had 11 points and a personal-best 12 rebounds for her third career double-double.

Colorado (12-4, 1-2) led for most of the game before Morenike Atunrase's only basket of the night gave Texas A&M the lead for good, 66-64, with 1:35 left. A'Quonesia Franklin hit six free throws in the final 30 seconds to seal the win for the Aggies.

Starks hit a 3-pointer with 4:22 left to give Texas A&M a 58-57 advantage, their first lead since hitting the first basket of the game. Starks extended the lead to three with another basket, but Colorado took the lead back on two free throws each from McFarland and Spears.

Colorado led 50-41 midway through the second half when the Aggies rallied. Starks hit two buckets, Sydney Colson had a steal and a layup and Gant had four points to pull the Aggies within 55-54 with 6:16 left.

Earlier in the half, Texas A&M had cut Colorado's lead to 36-34 with 16:51 left, and the Buffaloes responded. Sophomore Bianca Smith hit two 3-pointers and McFarland and Aija Putnina hit two free throws each to stretch the advantage to 46-37 with 14:43 left.

The Aggies stayed within striking distance in the first half despite poor shooting and a 15-2 disadvantage in free-throw attempts. Texas A&M, which came into the game shooting 40 percent from the field, shot just 33 percent in the first 20 minutes, and leading scorer Takia Starks was 2-for-9 from the field.

The Buffaloes weren't much better from the field, hitting just 37.9 percent of their shots and were 1-for-13 from behind the 3-point line. They held a 32-28 lead at the break thanks to an advantage from the line. Colorado was in the bonus with 13:32 left in the half and outscored the Aggies 9-1 from the stripe.

Colorado held a 36-18 advantage in free-throw attempts for the game. Putnina narrowly missed a double-double of her own with 10 points and nine rebounds. Susie Powers had seven assists, three rebounds and two steals.

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Jackie McFarland recorded her 42nd career double-double, in her home state, but Kansas State wasn't interested in the homecoming as the Wildcats remained perfect in the Big 12 with a 67-60 win Saturday night at Bramlage Coliseum.

Colorado dropped its third straight moving to 12-5 overall, 1-3 in league play. Kansas State wins its seventh straight overall improving to 12-5, 4-0.

McFarland scored 20 points to move into fourth place on CU's all-time scoring list (1,634) and grabbed 11 rebounds to become the third player in team history to reach 900 boards (908).

Kimberley Dietz led four Kansas State double-digit scorers with 18 points, hitting three 3-pointers. The Wildcats were sharp from the outside hitting 7-of-15 3-pointers in the game, and 4-of-6 in the second half.

Brittany Spears had 16 points and hit 2-of-6 from 3-point range. Overall the Buffs struggled from downtown hitting just 4-of-16 3-point attempts.

Spears hit three of her first four shots of the second half, including two straight 3-pointers as the Buffaloes led 43-41 at the 14:40 mark. Kansas State then took over hitting three straight 3-pointers, including two from Dietz, as the Wildcats embarked on a 21-4 run to pull away.

Aija Putnina had 12 points and seven rebounds. Courtney Dunn had six points and five rebounds off the bench. Shalee Lehning had 11 points, 11 rebounds and eight assists for Kansas State.

Colorado held an early 12-6 lead, but Kansas State went on an 11-0 run to put the Wildcats up 17-12 with 10:16 left in the first half.

The Buffaloes battled back behind 13 first-half points from McFarland and her first of two 3-pointers in the game tied the score at 25 with 4:55 remaining. CU briefly took the lead back at 29-28 when Dunn scored on a put back. Kansas State responded and closed the half with a 3-pointer from Dietz to take a 35-31 halftime lead.

CU struggled from the outside early making just 1-of-11 from 3-point range in the first half. The Buffaloes were able to recover by dominating in the paint. Colorado held a 23-14 rebounding edge and had 10 second-chance points to just two for Kansas State.

LUBBOCK, Texas – Senior Jackie McFarland tied a season-high 28 points, but cold shooting doomed Colorado as Texas Tech claimed a 62-44 decision in a Big 12 Conference game Saturday afternoon at the United Spirit Arena

Colorado falls to 13-6 overall, 2-4 in league play as the Buffs haven't won at a Big 12 Southern Division school in their last 12 tries dating back to a win at Baylor in 2004. Texas Tech improves to 14-6, 2-4.

The Buffaloes suffered their lowest point output of the season due to shooting just 24 percent from field. McFarland hit 57 percent, making 8-of-14, but the rest of the team hit just 13 percent (5-of-40) as the Buffs had their lowest team total since making just 13-of-56 (.232) against Texas in 2005.

McFarland was the only CU player to hit a field goal in the final 28 minutes of the contest and had 28 of CU's final 31 points. She hit 10-of-11 free throws leaving her just two shy of Bridget Turner's school record of 494 set from 1985-89.

Despite a heavily taped shooting hand, Aija Putnina scored Colorado's first eight points, hitting her first three field goal attempts and the Buffs had it knotted up at 10 early.

Texas Tech's Dominic Seals, who led the Lady Raiders with 21 points and nine rebounds, then began to take over. She scored four straight points and a Raquel Christian 3-pointer gave Tech a 17-10 lead. Colorado answered with the next five, thanks to a Bianca Smith put back and three free throws from Putnina and McFarland, but the Lady Raiders one-upped the CU run scoring nine straight, six coming from Seals, to give Texas Tech a 26-15 lead.

McFarland brought CU back scoring the next seven points, including a 3-pointer, which halted Tech's 11-0 run, but Seals scored the next four points and Christian hit another 3-pointer to give Tech a 35-26 halftime lead.

Texas Tech then put the game away by opening the second half on a 12-0 run. The Buffaloes missed their first 10 shots of the period and didn't score until a McFarland layup with 11:05 remaining in the game. Free throws from Brittany Spears and Britney Blythe accounted for Colorado's lone scoring other than McFarland in the second half.

Putnina finished with nine points and six rebounds. Spears had six rebounds but made only 1-of-11 from the field scoring four points, the low of her young career.

AMES, Iowa – Colorado struggled offensively for the second-straight outing as Iowa State claimed a 65-45 win over the Buffaloes in Big 12 Conference action Wednesday night at Hilton Coliseum.

Colorado drops its third straight on the road after beginning the season 4-1 away from Boulder, falling to 13-7 overall and 2-5 in the Big 12. Iowa State breaks its own three-game skid improving to 13-6, 2-4.

The Buffaloes shot just 31 percent from the field (15-of-49) and were held under 50 points for the second-straight game. The last time CU endured back-to-back sub-50 point games was during the 1983-84 season in losses to Colorado State (48-63) and UNLV (41-67).

Senior Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 18 points as she was the Buffs' only double-digit scorer for the second-straight game. McFarland made 7-of-13 from the floor as she has now shot 50 percent or better in 17 of 20 games this season, but the rest of the Buffs' roster was just 8-of-36 (.222) on the evening.

McFarland became CU's all-time leader in free-throws made by making 3-of-3 from the line to move her career total to 495. She passes Bridget Turner who made 494 from 1985-89.

Sophomore guard Whitney Houston scored nine points off the bench hitting three of CU's five 3-point field goals. For Houston, it was her highest point total since scoring 11 in a home loss to Siena on Nov. 23.

Colorado opened with an early 12-9 lead before Iowa State heated up from the field. Heather Ezell hit a 3-pointer with 10:58 remaining in the first half to tie the game and spark a 21-6 Cyclones' run. Iowa State hit four of its six first-half 3-point shots during that run and held a 21-13 advantage on the boards.

The Buffaloes were able to cut the lead to 10 at halftime after Houston hit her first 3-point field goal since November and Hannah Skildum hit a pair of free throws as ISU took a 35-25 lead into the lockerroom.

Iowa State put the game away with an 18-4 run to open the second half. The Cyclones hit 10 of their first 19 3-point attempts before missing their last four to finish the game at 43 percent.

Amanda Nisleit led ISU's balanced attack with 16 points. Alison Lacey and Kelsey Bolte each had 15.

Iowa State dominated on the boards, outrebounding Colorado 43-27. Bolte led the way with eight while Nisleit had seven.

BOULDER — In a game of runs, Nebraska had a couple more than Colorado and at the right time as well.

Brittany Spears and Bianca Smith each had 19 points but a 19-7 Nebraska run to end the game gave the Huskers an 80-71 Big 12 Conference win Wednesday evening at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Colorado (13-8, 2-7 Big 12) trailed by two at the half (36-35), but Spears scored six points during a 12-5 run to open the second period, giving the Buffaloes a 47-41 lead. Nebraska (16-6, 6-3) answered with six straight points to tie the game, five of which were scored by Kelsey Griffin who led all players with 25 points.

The Buffaloes struggled on the inside as All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland was held to just one free throw and just 0-of-2 from the field. For McFarland, who entered the game averaging 18.9 points per game, it was her lowest output since being held scoreless in her first ever Big 12 game at Nebraska on Jan. 5, 2005. McFarland did have 10 rebounds for the 45th double-digit rebounding performance of her career.

Although McFarland was held in check, other Buffs made sure it was a competitive game all the way to the end. Spears was 6-of-14 from the field and also had eight rebounds, six assists and two blocks. Smith, making her second start of the season, tied a career high with five 3-point field goals and was 7-of-15 from the floor overall.

CU's bench also provided a big spark. With McFarland being double-teamed the whole night, junior forward Caley Dow had her best Big 12 game of 2008 registering season-highs with eight points and seven rebounds in 30 minutes. Sophomore guard Whitney Houston had 10 points, her most since she had 11 against Siena on Nov. 23, with two assists and one steal.

Colorado held a 64-61 lead with 3:51 left after Smith layup, but it quickly vanished when Yvonne Turner hit her third 3-pointer of the night to tie the game. Danielle Page gave Nebraska the lead on a turn-around jumper and on the next possession, Turner stole the ball from Houston and took it all the way in to give the Huskers a 68-64 advantage. Griffin scored the next time down the floor for Nebraska and the Huskers put the game away with free throws hitting 10-of-12 in the final 1:37.

After falling behind 11-4 to open the game, Colorado stormed back with a 15-0 run. Smith hit three consecutive 3-point attempts on the run and good ball movement allowed for easy layups by Houston, Dow and Spears. Nebraska trimmed the lead to four at 19-15 before an 8-0 run gave CU its largest lead of the game at 27-15.

However the lead didn't last as Nebraska hit five 3-pointers in the final 5:21 of the first half during a 21-8 run to take a one-point lead at halftime.

NORMAN, Okla. - Oklahoma's Courtney and Ashley Paris combined for 48 points and 20 rebounds to lead No. 10 Oklahoma to an 82-66 win over Colorado in Big 12 Conference action Saturday night at the Lloyd Noble Center.

Jackie McFarland and Brittany Spears each had 19 points to pace the Buffaloes (13-10, 2-8 Big 12) who have dropped five straight and eight of their last nine. Oklahoma improves to 17-4, 7-2 in league play.

Courtney Paris had a game-high 30 points and 14 rebounds for the 87th double-double of her career. Sister Ashley had 18 points and six rebounds. The twins made 22-of-35 shots (.629) as Oklahoma outscored CU 50-22 in the paint. As a team, the Sooners shot 53 percent from the floor.

The Buffaloes kept the game close in the first half. After withstanding a 10-2 OU run to open the game, Colorado responded with a Spears bucket, a Bianca Smith 3-pointer and a Caley Dow putback to close the gap to three at 12-9. Oklahoma pushed its lead back to seven at 18-11 on one of Courtney Paris' 14 field goals, but CU went on a 10-4 run with 3-pointers from Spears and Courtney Dunn as the Sooners led just 22-21 with 8:03 remaining in the half.

Oklahoma built its lead back up to nine at 35-26 with just 2:25 remaining, but CU wouldn't quit. McFarland made back-to-back shots along with a free throw as the Sooners took a 37-31 lead at the break.

Oklahoma scored the first six points of the second half on two Courtney Paris layups and another by Ashley. The Buffaloes made one last good run as Smith hit 3-pointers on back-to-back possessions to bring CU to within six at 45-39 with 16:56 remaining.

The Sooners scored seven straight, capped off by a Nyeshia Stevenson 3-pointer, to take a 52-39 advantage and never let the lead dip back below double-digits.

Spears had five rebounds and two blocks to go along with her 19 points, equalling her scoring output from the Nebraska game on Feb. 6. Her 307 points on the season are the most by a CU freshman since Erin Scholz had 343 in 1993-94.

McFarland had seven rebounds and was 8-of-14 from the floor as she became the eighth player in team history to reach 600 field goals (601). Smith finished with 15 points, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range as she moved into ninth place on CU's all-time list for 3-pointers with 86.

The Buffaloes received a scoring boost off the bench from Dow and Dunn. Dow had seven points and tied a season high with seven rebounds while Dunn had six points and five boards.

Stevenson finished with 16 points for the Sooners while Danielle Robinson had 11.

BOULDER — Sophomore Bianca Smith scored a career-high 26 points and tied several long-ball records as Colorado broke a six-game losing streak by defeating Texas 67-52 in Big 12 Conference action Saturday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado, which snapped an eight-game skid against Texas, moves to 14-11 overall and 3-9 in Big 12 play. Texas drops to 16-9, 4-7 in the Big 12.

Smith connected on a school-record tying seven 3-pointers and hit all five of her free-throw attempts as she passed her previous career high of 22 set earlier this year against Vanderbilt. She also tied school marks for 3-pointers made and attempted in one half hitting 5-of-9 in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado led 38-31 early in the second half, but Texas responded with an 8-0 run. Ashley Lindsey scored a layup in transition and Carla Cortijo converted a 3-point play to give the Longhorns their only lead of the game at 39-38 with 13:22 remaining.

Sophomore Aija Putnina gave the lead back to the Buffs at 40-39 on a jumper from the foul-line area, and then on the next possession Smith hit her sixth 3-pointer of the night, was fouled by Crystal Boyd, and completed the 4-point play to put CU up 44-39.

Erneisha Bailey scored for Texas on the other end, but Kara Richards answered for CU on a put-back and Smith then hit her record-tying 3-pointer to give the Buffs a 49-41 advantage.

From that point on, Colorado survived on rebounds and free throws. Both teams were cold in the second half shooting an identical 7-of-29 from the field (24 percent). The Buffaloes nearly doubled up the Longhorns on the boards in the second half (32-17) and made 17-of-19 foul shots including their last 13 in the final three minutes.

Colorado hit 22-of-29 free throws overall and held a 50-29 advantage on the boards led by three Buffs in double-digits. Putnina led the way with a career-high tying 15 rebounds, six on the offensive end, to go along with 14 points. Senior Jackie McFarland notched her 44th career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds. Freshman Brittany Spears pulled down 12 rebounds for the second-straight game.

Texas pressured the Buffaloes enough to cause 10 first-half turnovers and allow the Longhorns to respond to several CU runs. Smith hit two early 3-pointers and junior Caley Dow put back a Smith miss as the Buffaloes took a 14-8 lead at the 10:44 mark of the first half. But Texas responded with a 10-4 run to tie the game at 18.

Smith had three 3-pointers in the final six minutes of the half to give the Buffaloes a 34-29 lead at the break.

Brittainey Raven led the Longhorns with 16 points. Cortijo had 12 and Lindsey pitched in 11.

BOULDER - Bianca Smith hit one of the biggest 3-pointers of her young career. Too bad the Colorado sophomore can't remember it. Smith's long jumper from the corner broke a tie game and lifted the Colorado Buffaloes to a 73-68 win over No. 15 Kansas State on Saturday night.

Yet she couldn't recall one detail of it. The shot remained a blur. "I think there was so much adrenaline, I forgot those last few minutes," said Smith, who finished with 17 points, hitting five 3-pointers. "It felt great to come back and hit the big shots late in the game."

That's what Colorado needed to beat its third ranked team this season. Colorado (15-11, 4-9 Big 12) has now won two straight after dropping six in a row.

"It's nice to get our swagger back," said Jackie McFarland, who scored 17 of her 19 points in the second half.

The Wildcats (18-8, 10-3) have lost two in a row, and had their seven-game road winning streak halted. Kansas State also tumbled out of a tie with Baylor for the conference lead.

Kansas State coach Deb Patterson had a simple explanation for the loss — defense. She wasn't pleased with the fact Colorado shot nearly 47 percent from the field. She also blamed the Wildcats' woes on foul trouble. Marlies Gipson, the team's second-leading scorer, played just 17 minutes due to foul trouble, and eventually fouled out with 5:49 remaining. She scored just six points, all in the first half.

Ashley Sweat was in a similar predicament and fouled out late in the game after scoring 15 points.

The Wildcats were led in scoring by Shalee Lehning, who finished with 19 points. Kimberly Dietz had 16, hitting four 3-pointers.

Part of the Wildcats' problem was trying to guard McFarland. The Buffaloes senior made a decision to drive more to the hoop after having more assists (5) than points (2) in the opening 20 minutes.

With Kansas State keeping a close watch on McFarland, Brittany Spears and Smith were the beneficiaries. Spears finished with a team-high 20 points, hitting four 3-pointers.

"They're in the gym all the time and they can shoot the 3," Colorado coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I thought they showed a lot of mental toughness down the stretch."

Spears' 3-pointer with 1:44 remaining momentarily gave the Buffaloes a 66-64 lead, but then Lehning tied it up with two free throws.

Smith hit a 3-pointer with just under a minute remaining to give the Buffaloes a

LINCOLN, Neb. -- Kelsey Griffin had a game-high 26 points to lead Nebraska to a 63-55 win over Colorado in Big 12 action Sunday afternoon.

Colorado (15-13, 4-11 Big 12) had 14 points and 11 rebounds from freshman Brittany Spears and senior Jackie McFarland scored 23 points while grabbing four rebounds and dishing out two assists.

Griffin, who also had 10 rebounds, did most of her damage down low and on the line. The junior forward had eight field goals and was 10-of-15 from the line as the Huskers took advantage of constant CU foul trouble, translating into 17 free throws compared to just five for Colorado.

Danielle Page, who had 13 points and six rebounds, joined Griffin to cause problems for the Buffaloes' front line. McFarland had two early fouls and added a third late in the first half, but had a strong second period scoring nine points on 4-of-6 shooting. Kara Richards provided a strong effort off the bench with six points and two rebounds, but also was hampered with foul trouble, fouling out with under 11 minutes left.

Nebraska (19-10, 8-7) started the game on a 7-2 run, but the Buffaloes battled back. Spears stole the ball and went coast-to-coast for the layup and CU followed with back-to-back jumpers from Aija Putnina and Susie Powers to close the lead to 9-8.

Shortly after, foul problems began to hinder the Buffaloes. McFarland picked up her second foul at the 14:25 mark of the first half and the Huskers held a 13-8 lead. A long Bianca Smith 3-pointer at 12:28 put CU within three points at 15-12, but 11 seconds later Richards picked up her second foul.

Nebraska took advantage, embarking on a 14-5 run. Kala Kuhlmann came off the bench and hit a pair of 3-pointers for the Huskers, and Griffin hit 5-of-6 from the line as Nebraska built its largest lead at 29-17 with 5:56 remaining.

The Buffaloes closed the gap by holding Nebraska scoreless over the final 3:07 of the period. CU outscored the Huskers 8-3 in the final 5:44 as Nebraska led 32-25 at halftime.

Nebraska built its lead back up to double-digits by starting the second half on a 7-3 run as the Huskers led 39-28. The Buffaloes were able to crawl back with help from its bench. Whitney Houston scored consecutive baskets off turnovers and scored on a layup and two free throws as CU cut the lead to six at 43-37.

Richards then picked up her fifth foul which led to another Nebraska run. Griffin and Page hit consecutive baskets on a 5-0 run that put Nebraska up 48-37.

Colorado battled back late in the second half. Houston, who scored all eight of her points off the bench in the second half, scored consecutive baskets again to cut the Nebraska lead to five at 56-51 with 2:40 remaining. However the Buffs couldn't get any closer. Griffin answered Houston's run with a field goal and the Huskers hit five free throws in the closing minutes to seal the win.

BOULDER -- Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 25 points and grabbed 14 rebounds to lead Colorado to a 63-47 Big 12 Conference win over Missouri on Senior Night at the Coors Events Center.

With the win Colorado improves to 16-13 overall and finishes ninth in the regular season Big 12 standings at 5-11. The Buffaloes will play No. 8 Iowa State, which lost to Nebraska 55-45 Wednesday night, in the first round of the 2008 Big 12 Championship on Tuesday, March 11, at 11 a.m. MST at the Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City.

McFarland carried the load for the Buffaloes on an off night offensively for both teams. She was 6-of-11 from the field and made all 12 free throw attempts. As a team the Buffs shot just 34.5 percent overall (19-of-55), but Missouri had an even harder time, making just 25 percent from the floor (15-of-59).

Colorado led by eight at halftime (29-21), but saw the lead dwindle to just two as the Buffaloes could only muster two field goals -- both by McFarland -- and two free throws in the first 10:57 of the second half. McFarland scored on a put-back of a Bianca Smith miss with 9:02 remaining in the game that jump started a 21-6 CU run that allowed the Buffaloes to pull away.

Playing in her final regular season home game, McFarland became the first player in team history to record 500 points in three different seasons. She notched her 45th career double-double and in the process became the third player in team history to reach 1,000 career rebounds.

CU's inside presence was crucial, because the outside game struggled the entire night. The Buffs hit just 2-of-16 from 3-point range, tying a season low for 3-pointers made in a game. McFarland's performance was complimented well by junior Kara Richards who had eight points and a season-high 11 rebounds. Freshman Brittany Spears added 10 points, five rebounds and three assists.

"I'm not sure why the (offensive) execution wasn't there tonight," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Maybe the substitutions didn't allow us to get into a flow, but we had some good individual performances tonight. Kara and Jackie both did a good job and our interior game was good tonight."

Colorado dominated the boards holding a 51-37 edge over the Tigers who finish last in the Big 12 standings at 2-14, 9-20 overall.

"We rebounded the ball well, but when you miss as many shots as we did, you should get some rebounds," McConnell-Miller said. "It was a pretty poor offensive night from our execution to our finishes. I give credit to Missouri, they played good defense and got inside Bianca (Smith), they banged Spears, but they didn't double-team Jackie and she got some good looks and took advantage."

Missouri was led by Jessra Johnson who had 24 points and 11 rebounds. MU's leading scorer Alyssa Hollins pitched in 16.

BOULDER — Brittany Spears had a double-double and Jackie McFarland scored 21 points to lead Colorado to an 82-68 win over Gonzaga in the second round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) Monday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center. Colorado, which wins its first post season game since the 2003 NCAA Tournament, improves to 17-14 and will host Villanova University in a third round game on Thursday, March 27, at 7 p.m. Gonzaga's season ends at 25-9.

Spears had 22 points and 10 rebounds, notching her seventh double-double of the season and third in her last five games. McFarland nearly had a double-double of her own grabbing nine rebounds, but on a larger scale, she passed Tera Bjorklund for second place on CU's all-time scoring list. McFarland, now with 1,878 career points, also had four assists, two blocks and one steal.

Any signs of rust after CU's 13-day layoff since the Big 12 Championship were quickly whisked away as the Buffaloes made 11 of their first 15 shots and stormed out to leads of 16-6 and 27-13. Colorado moved the ball well in the opening half led by sophomore Bianca Smith who had matched her career high in assists (four) in the first four minutes of the game and eventually ended with a personal best six. Smith also came up big on the offensive end nailing 4-of-6 from downtown for 12 points.

Like all good teams, the reigning West Coast Conference champion Bulldogs fought their way back into the game. CU's shooting cooled enough for Gonzaga to embark on a 16-6 run that cut the CU lead to 35-31 with 2:51 left in the first half. The Buffaloes answered with a pair of jumpers by McFarland and a long 3-pointer by Dina Piterniece — just her second field goal of the season — as CU led 42-35 at the half.

The Buffaloes put themselves in good position to close out the game early in the second half. Gonzaga cut the lead to 48-43 with 15:04 remaining, Spears scored five straight points and Aija Putnina nailed a 3-point lead as the Buffs built their lead back up to double-digits at 56-43. CU's lead remained above eight points for the remainder of the contest.

Colorado played well defensively, limiting the Bulldogs to just 37 percent from the field. Offensively, the Buffs shot 51 percent (33-of-65), their best mark since hitting 52 percent at Missouri on Jan. 9.

Colorado moved around its lineup for the first time since the Oklahoma State game on Feb. 2 with Kara Richards joining McFarland, Spears, Smith and point guard Susie Powers. Richards responded with six points, nine rebounds, two blocks and did not commit a turnover in 19 minutes. Putnina, who had started the last 27 games, contributed seven points and five rebounds off the bench.

The Buffs bench also was sparked by sophomore point guard Whitney Houston who had nine points and four assists while hitting 4-of-6 from the field...and she sang the national anthem before the game.

BOULDER—Senior forward Jackie McFarland played perhaps the best game of her career—and made sure it wasn't her last—in carrying the University of Colorado women's basketball team to a thrilling 64-58 come-from-behind victory over the Villanova Wildcats Thursday night, putting the Buffaloes in the Elite Eight of the 2008 Women's NIT.

McFarland scored a season-high 32 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, keeping the Buffs afloat during a game when CU fell behind early, and head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller may have found a closer in freshman forward Brittany Spears, who scored 11 of her 13 points in the last 3:16 of the game to put away the Wildcats.

"I think for the rest of the night and tomorrow people are going to ask me, "how did that happen?" McConnell-Miller said. "The only thing that I can say is that Brittany Spears decided to play for the last three minutes."

Behind 55-44 late in the game, Colorado outscored Villanova 20-3 over the last 5:42, sparked by three straight field goals—two of them three-pointers—by Spears.

"The last three minutes I played better [overall] and played better defensively," Spears said. "I made some big shots and that was the difference. It hit me when we were losing and the conditioning kicked in." The Wildcats, who had made an impressive 22-of-41 field goals (53.7 percent) through most of the game, missed their last nine shots of the contest.

The Buffs came out of the gates cold in the first half, missing their first eight shots of the game before McFarland converted on a lay up 4:44 into the game. Villanova forward Stacie Witman provided all of the early scoring for the Wildcats, converting her first four field goals, including three behind the arc, to put her team up 11-2 in the early stages. Witman would end up scoring 13 of Villanova's first 15 points and finished with a team-high 20 points in the game.

McFarland basically carried the Buffs by herself for much of the game as Colorado persevered through a poor shooting performance, especially in the first half when CU made just 10-of-32 field goals. McFarland, who surpassed 1,900 career points in her career (1,910; second all-time), scored 10 of the Buffs' first 12 points in each half to keep them within striking distance. She also set a school record for free throws made in a game, converting on 15-of-16 on the night.

"Everyone was so determined; our motto was "You have to find a way," McFarland said. "They were taking away our outside shots, so we had to go with what worked. Once Brittany started hitting those shots it made it easier on us."

Timely baskets by Colorado prevented Villanova to make any significant runs after the 11-2 setback to start the game. The Buffs also didn't turn the ball over in the first half, and for only the third time all season they did not put their opponent on the free throw line in the first half.

Villanova played a conservative game during much of the second half, milking much of the play clock each possession; but it was the Buffs who found themselves running the clock down in the final minute.

BOULDER—Aija Putnina scored a career-high 22 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, and senior forward Jackie McFarland added 30 of her own, as Colorado overcame a seemingly insurmountable deficit for the second straight game, beating the Texas Christian Horned Frogs 96-90 in overtime Sunday afternoon in Boulder.

The win sends the Buffs to the semifinals of the 2008 Women's National Invitation Tournament where they will face Marquette.

The game unfolded in dramatic fashion, much like CU's third round game against Villanova in which the Buffs overcame a double-digit deficit

BOULDER - The Coors Events Center crowd wildly cheered on the Buffs until the final seconds, but they weren't treated to a third-straight comeback victory in the Women's NIT as the Marquette opened a big first-half lead and handed Colorado an 86-72 loss Thursday night in Boulder.

Colorado fell behind early—again—as the Golden Eagles used runs of 13-0 and 9-0 in the first half to build a 45-20 lead with just under three minutes left. Marquette's three starting guards, Angel Robinson, Janelle Harris and Krystal Ellis combined for 57 points in the game, 20 points more than their cumulative season averages.

"I think it was a great run," head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said of her team. "I'm very proud of them, just their resilience and their ability to bounce back. I'm proud of the way they competed in the postseason."

CU was able to weather an early 11-2 setback against Villanova in the second round of the tournament and a 20-4 disadvantage against TCU in the quarterfinals, but the Buffs dug too deep of a hole this time against Marquette.

"We knew that Colorado started slowly, but we know that they're the 'Comeback Kids,'" said Marquette head coach Terri Mitchell said. "So we needed to push the tempo."

And push the tempo they did, as the Golden Eagles were able to cash in on 17 points off 14 Colorado turnovers and out-rebounded the Buffs 26-10, including 11-3 on the offensive glass—all in the first half. At the break, CU found itself down 45-25, giving up the most first-half points of the season.

The Buffs started the second half on a 19-11 run—with junior center Kara Richards contributing nine points on 4-of-5 shooting—and pulled within 56-44 after freshman forward Brittany Spears connected on a three-pointer. But that was the closest the Buffs would get as they would go nearly six minutes without another field goal while the Golden Eagles restored their advantage with a 14-2 run of their own.

The Buffs had another run in them with less than 10 minutes left, as sophomore guard Whitney Houston scored 10 points in a three-minute span to pull CU within 75-61.

Marquette capitalized on a number of easy baskets throughout the game, outscoring Colorado 40-20 in the paint. Ellis led the Golden Eagles with 27 points on 9-of-19 shooting, a night after scoring a career-high 40 points in a WNIT quarterfinal win over Kentucky.

McFarland led the Buffs with 17 points on the night, giving her 100 total points in CU's four WNIT games. She cemented herself in second place on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,957 career points, behind only Lisa VanGoor (2,067).

"I couldn't imagine a better way of going out other than cutting down the nets in the finals," McFarland said. "The last three games with the fan support and the community coming around—our team has been amazing. It's been awhile since I've had this much fun playing basketball."

Senior guard Susie Powers also played her last game for the Buffs, chipping in three assists and a steal in 16 minutes of play.

"Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers will be missed dearly," McConnell-Miller said. "They've brought so much to this program. The Coors Events Center door will always be open to them and this will always be their team."
