2005 COLORADO FOOTBALL: GAME 4 — OKLAHOMA STATE

Saturday, October 1 at Stillwater, Okla. (12:05 p.m. MDT; no television)

RELEASE NUMBER 4 (September 26, 2005)

QUICKLY SPEAKING...

The Colorado Buffaloes (3-0, 0-0 Big 12) remain on the road for their Big 12 Conference opener, traveling to Stillwater to take on the Oklahoma State Cowboys (3-0, 0-0 Big 12) in a 12:05 p.m. kickoff at Boone Pickens Stadium... The game will not be televised (not selected by the Big 12 TV partners; there will also be no tape delayed broadcast)... It's the first time Colorado and Oklahoma State open Big 12 Conference play against each other in the 10-year history of the league; the Cowboys will be the sixth different opponent on Big 12 opening day for the Buffs (CU has faced Baylor, Kansas, Kansas State and Texas A&M twice and Missouri once)... The game starts a run of three straight games against Big 12 South Division teams, the first time CU's schedule is laid out in that fashion; the Buffs also bring a 9-game losing streak versus the division into the game (last win over a South team was on Oct. 26, 2002, a 37-13 verdict over Texas Tech)... Dominoes: SID David Plati works his 300th Colorado game this week at Oklahoma State (258th straight); the following week versus Texas A&M, assistant coach Brian Cabral will coach in his 200th (all consecutive), and then the following week at Texas, Larry Zimmer will be in the radio booth for his 400th CU game... CU's website, www.CUBuffs.com features game day updates and live stats for all games, home and road... CU returns home next week (October 8) against Texas A&M; it's the annual homecoming affair, and about 6,000 tickets remain for the 5:00 p.m. game, which will be televised nationally on Fox Sports Net.

IN THE POLLS

CU was unranked in both the Associated Press (media) and USA Today Coaches polls of Sept. 25, but still received votes at the tail end of both ballots. The Buffaloes were not ranked at any point in 2004, notching 31st in the coaches and 32 in the AP; Colorado was last ranked on September 7, 2003, having risen to No. 17 in both after opening 2-0. Dating back to the preseason 1989 polls, CU has been ranked in 182 of the last 268 polls (AP: 69%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (84), trailing Florida (91), Florida State (88) and Michigan (87).

STAT OF THE WEEK

Wide receivers Dusty Sprague and Alvin Barnett combined to make 16 receptions in the 23-3 loss at Miami, career bests for both players, as Sprague caught nine balls for 55 yards and Barnett seven for 59. That is the most by two players in almost two years to the day, when Derek McCoy (11) and D.J. Hackett (7) combined to make 18 in a 47-26 loss to Washington State. Sprague and Barnett have teamed for 25 receptions this season, over one-third of the team total (69); they are the only two players in double figures in catches through three games.

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

Colorado at times moved the ball with some ease against the heralded Miami defense, but when the Buffs crossed midfield, it was another story, as the Hurricanes gathered in their forces and buckled down. For the game, CU ran 21 plays for 66 yards from the 50-on-in; however, 38 of those yards came on one play (a Joel Klatt to Byron Ellis pass play). At one point, through three quarters, CU had run 11 plays in plus territory for a net 15 yards. Now, CU didn't fare too shabby itself in this department. Miami ran 34 plays for 140 yards, just 4.1 a crack, but Miami had just three plays gain over 10 yards (a combined 47 yards, and of the other 31 plays, gained three or fewer yards 23 times).

ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

1905 CU, then mainly known as the Silver & Gold, went 8-1 in outscoring its opponents 359-28 in a season where it played as an independent with no conference affiliation due to a dispute with the Colorado Football Association;

1920 It's the 85th anniversary of CU's 40-7 win over Oklahoma State in Stillwater, CU's first road win at any current Big 12 member school;

1955 The last time CU opened a season with back-to-back shutout victories: 14-0 over Arizona and 12-0 over Kansas, both in Boulder;

1965 The 40th anniversary of the last 0-0 game in the program's history, as the Buffs and Wisconsin went scoreless in Madison;

1970 Thirty-five years ago, CU's 41-13 thrashing of Penn State on national TV ended the Nittany Lions' 31-game unbeaten streak and landed the Buffaloes on the cover of Sports Illustrated for the first time in their history;

1975 The 30th anniversary of CU's closest call with a No. 1 team, as the Buffs fall 21-20 at Oklahoma, missing a PAT kick in the game's waning moments in an attempt to play for the tie;

1980 (Gulp) The 25th anniversary of the infamous 82-42 loss to Oklahoma, a game that saw 63 NCAA, Big Eight and school records set or tied. One of many lowlights in a 1-10 season that included trailing UCLA 56-0 at the half and a second straight loss to Drake.

1985 Many think he's nuts, but Bill McCartney's decision to switch to the wishbone on offense ends a six-year run of losing seasons as the Buffs return to a bowl game for the first time in nine seasons;

1990 Has it been 15 years since CU won its first national championship? CU reels off 10 straight wins after a 1-1-1 start and does just that;

1995 The 10th anniversary of a guy named John Hessler coming off the bench to lead CU to wins over No. 3 Texas A&M and No. 10 Oklahoma in back-to-back games, the latter with the infamous asterisk comment from OU's Howard Schnellenberger.

INJURY UPDATE

The Buffs were a bit bruised up at Miami, but nothing that appeared to be long term following the game. OG Brian Daniels (fractured rib/bruised kidney versus CSU) will be re-evaluated on Tuesday with his status upgraded to questionable to play at Oklahoma State. CU's injury picture as of Tuesday, September 27:

Injuries will be updated in-game, post-game, the Sunday or Monday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

CALL THE COPS

The Colorado defense still has 14 interceptions in its last six games, starting this solid run at Lincoln last November, though coming up empty at Miami. CU stole four balls in a 26-20 win over the Huskers, after having just eight interceptions in the first 10 games of the year prior to that point. CU then had two picks against Oklahoma in the Big 12 title game and added two more in the win over UTEP in the Houston Bowl, and has picked up on the thievery in 2005. The Buffaloes picked off four Colorado State passes in the opener (all in the final 13:20 of the game), it was second four-pick game in a span of four games, and CU followed it up with two more in game two against New Mexico State. Six different Buffaloes already have interceptions this fall, and nine different players have contributed to the 14 total.

- It was the most interceptions over a five-game span by Colorado in 35 years; you have to go back to the final three games of 1970 (seven interceptions) and the first pair of 1971 (seven more) to find a similar run by the Buffs.

36 SECONDS SEEMS TO BE ENOUGH FOR THE BUFFS

Let's examine what has happened at Folsom Field the last two times it has hosted games. In the 2004 finale, Kansas State rallies to tie the game at 31-31 with 36 seconds remaining. After the kickoff, the Buffs were faced with a 1st-and-10 from their 23 with 0:30 left; after two incomplete passes, VB Lawrence Vickers gains 13 on a draw, and on the next play, QB Joel Klatt and WR Ron Monteilh hook up on a 64-yard touchdown pass with just 0:05 showing to give CU a 38-31 victory.

Fast forward to the '05 season opener; Colorado State mounts a furious drive to catch CU at 28-28, with 36 seconds remaining. This time, the Buffs take over on their 40-yard line after CB Stephone Robinson returns a squib kickoff 30 yards. Klatt connects with WR Patrick Williams for 22 yards and again with WR Dusty Sprague for eight more setting CU up at the CSU 30, where PK Mason Crosby drills a 47-yard field goal with 0:04 remaining to lead CU to a 31-28 win.

At least the last two times out, give the Buffaloes 36 seconds, and it's been enough to conjure up victory.

CLOSE CALLS HAVE BEEN GOING CU'S WAY

Colorado is now 10-2 in its last 12 games where the final margin has been seven or fewer points, dating back to the start of 2003, including the season opening 31-28 victory over Colorado State. In head coach Gary Barnett's tenure, the Buffs are 17-12 in such games, but lost eight of the first 11 games decided by a touchdown or less, including the first three games of the 2000 season by a combined 10 points. But starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, CU is 14-4 in seven point contests.

DEFENSIVE COMEBACK?

Granted, we're only three games into 2005 and the Buffs are in game two of a nasty four-game stretch (three road games, with the four a combined 10-2 at present), but the Colorado defense has allowed its fewest yards after three games in seven years—956. Colorado State had "just" 386 yards in the opener, marking the first time the CU defense has not had an average yards allowed number under 400 since the close of the 2002 regular season — a span of 25 games. NMSU had 181, including just five net rushing yards, and Miami earned every one of its 389 yards against CU, as 91 of them came on two plays.

- Rushing D. For the second straight season, the Buffs have clamped down on the opponent rushing game out of the gate. CU has allowed 218 rushing yards in two games this season (CSU 95, NMSU 5, UM 118); last year, the total was just 59 after two starts (CSU 44, Washington State 15). This marked the sixth straight season the Buffs have held at least one of their first two opponents to double-digits in rushing yards (and for the 11th time the last 12 years).

SERIES HISTORY—COLORADO vs. OKLAHOMA STATE

Colorado leads the series by a 25-17-1 count, which includes an 11-10-1 edge in Stillwater. CU has won 10 of the last 12, including the last time out in Stillwater, a 22-19 verdict in 2001; by doing so, the Buffs reclaimed a sizable advantage overall, as the Cowboys owned an 8-2-1 edge in games played between 1978 and 1988 (CU leads by only 12-10-1 since '78). CU had won eight straight, the longest streak by either team in the series, until a 33-29 Oklahoma State win in Stillwater in 1997. The "weirdness" of this series has been well documented through the years, with many an abrupt lead change and plenty of late fourth quarter scoring, with each team dashing the others' hopes for some kind of title on more than one occasion. The winning team in the series has scored at least 30 points in 11 of the last 15 games; the only four shutouts in the 43-game history of between the two have been registered by Colorado, the last coming in Boulder in 1992 (28-0). Gary Barnett is 2-1 against Oklahoma State, while OSU's Mike Gundy is in his first year as coach of the Cowboys.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW — Both teams' own 11-10 victories in the series, needless to say a unique final score in football. The amazing thing is that the finishes in both are sort of similar: in 1966, Colorado took a 10-3 lead with 8:11 left in the game on a 1-yard touchdown run by John Farler. After swapping possessions, OSU drove 69 yards in 13 plays, scored a touchdown and earned two points on a conversion pass to take an 11-10 lead with 1:11 left. The Buffs then drove to the OSU 29 but a Bernie McCall pass was intercepted with 25 seconds left to end the comeback. In 1981, the Buffs, trailing 10-3, marched 94 yards in the final 1:08, scored the touchdown and added the two-point pass for the win (complete details on this drive on page 318 of the 2004 CU media guide, no room in 2005 thanks to, well, you know).

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 10th. In 1995, Colorado rolled into Stillwater and found itself in a shootout with former CU assistant coaches in their first season at the head of both programs. Rick Neuheisel took his No. 10 ranked team into Stillwater to face Bob Simmons' Cowboys, and thanks to a school record-tying five TD passes from John Hessler, left with a 45-32 victory. The Buffs, a 14-point favorite, couldn't shake the 'Pokes until the fourth quarter, when CU outscored OSU by 21-8. CU rushed for 209 yards and passed for 301, with the game-breaker a 77-yard throw for a score from Hessler to Rae Carruth with 8:20 left to put CU ahead, 38-24. Hessler already had a long one in the books, opening CU's scoring with a 52-yard TD pass to Matt Lepsis.

OKLAHOMA STATE NOTES

The Cowboys enter conference play at 3-0 for the second straight year, and for the third time since the Big 12 began play in 1996. Oklahoma State is coming off a bye week after opening with wins over I-AA Montana State (15-10), Florida Atlantic on the road (23-3) and Arkansas State (20-10), thus OSU has allowed all of 23 points in its first three games, the 7.7 per game average currently third in the NCAA. Oklahoma State is averaging 314.3 yards on offense (187.7 rush/126.7 pass), while allowing 259.0 (119.7 rush/139.3 pass).

- ➔ Mike Gundy, the legendary OSU quarterback, is in his first year as head coach of the Cowboys. He was 3-1 as a player against the Buffaloes, sharing the limelight with Thurman Thomas and then Barry Sanders. Gundy held the Big Eight total offense record (7,749 yards) until CU's Kordell Stewart passed him in the final game of his career in 1994.
- ➔ Oklahoma State is 3-6 in Big 12 openers, but is just 1-0 at home; the Cowboys open league play in their own backyard since the league's inaugural season when OSU topped Iowa State, 36-7.

THE SET-UP

Since 1971, with the advent of 11-game schedules meaning an extra non-conference game in most cases, Colorado is 5-6 is conference openers that follow a loss in the final non-league game of the season. That includes two straight losses—in 2003, when CU lost 42-30 at Baylor after suffering a 47-7 setback at Florida State; and in 2000, losing 44-21 to Kansas State after a 17-14 loss to Washington. Barnett has one victory in such circumstances, as in 1999, his Buffs toppled Missouri 46-39 in overtime after losing a heartbreaker at Washington, 31-24. The most significant one might have come in 1986—after Arizona rallied to defeat CU 24-21, the Buffs regrouped to win 17-12 at Missouri—starting a run that led to CU to a 6-1 finish in the old Big Eight.

COLORADO & CONFERENCE OPENERS

Colorado is 5-4 in Big 12 Conference openers, as the Buffaloes will start league play for the third straight season on the road. The Buffs' inaugural league game in 1996 was at Texas A&M, where they emerged with a 24-10 victory; the next six Big 12 lid-lifters were all in Boulder. CU has lost two straight, 42-30 at Baylor in 2003 and 17-9 at Missouri last year. In 57 conference openers in the Big Seven/Eight/12, the Buffs are 34-22-1 overall, including a 12-12 mark on the road. The Buffs won their last seven Big Eight openers, thus own a 12-4 record over the last 16 seasons in the first league match-up of the year. This is the first time the Buffaloes and Cowboys open Big 12 play against one another; they were paired up five times in Big Eight opening action with the 'Pokes winning three of those, including the last time out in 1988 (41-21).

THE LAST TIME: OKLAHOMA STATE 42, COLORADO 14OCTOBER 9, 2004 (BOULDER)

BOULDER — The good news was that Oklahoma State ran just nine plays in plus territory all afternoon against Colorado, but the bad news was that they didn't really need to as the No. 21 Cowboys ruined the Buffaloes' annual homecoming with a 42-14 victory.

Three of OSU's touchdowns were over 50 yards in length, with a fourth scored on a late interception return. Otherwise, the Cowboys sustained just one drive in the game that produced a touchdown, while the other set up on a muffed punt return by the Buffs. But it was more than enough for OSU to improve to 5-0 on the season while CU dropped to 3-2 overall.

The tone for the game came down to three plays: on OSU's third play from scrimmage, tailback Vernand Morency broke around the left side and raced 58 yards for a touchdown just 3:35 into the game. A defensive struggle started to ensue, but Hugh Charles collided with Stephone Robinson as the latter tried to reel in an OSU punt, with the Cowboys recovering on the CU 11. After a penalty, Morency ran it in from six yards out for a 14-0 Cowboy lead with just over six minutes left in the half.

But perhaps the back breaker came on the last play of the half. OSU seemingly was satisfied with the two touchdown lead going into the lockerroom, running three rushing plays after it got the ball back with 1:20 left. But with nine seconds left, OSU quarterback Donovan Woods drifted back and launched what would be a 58-yard touchdown pass to Prentiss Elliott as time ran out and the lead grew to 21-0.

The Buffaloes didn't throw in the towel, holding the Cowboys to three-and-out on their first second half possession, but what followed basically sealed CU's fate. James Cox replaced an injured Joel Klatt at quarterback, and drove the Buffs from their own 28 deep into OSU territory. In fact, the Buffs were apparently on the board with a 29-yard catch and run by Lawrence Vickers, but it was negated by a holding call. Still, CU came back to face a 3rd-and-3 from the OSU 10, but Paul Duren intercepted a Cox pass at the 5 to end the threat.

OSU then countered with a 95-yard drive in 13 plays, capped by a 20-yard touchdown pass from Woods to Luke Frazier, to take a 28-0 edge late in the quarter. Vickers finally did get the zero off the Buff side of the scoreboard with a 6-yard run in the fourth, and Cox also found Dusty Sprague for a 21-yard touchdown pass, the first by both in their collegiate careers, but the game was already in the bank for the Cowboys.

ROAD-SWEET-ROAD

The Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 17 seasons. CU has been victorious 55 of the last 84 times in enemy stadiums and is 63-34-1 dating back to the 1985 season (a 65.5 winning clip). During this time frame, CU won a school record 10 straight road games (between 1994 and 1996). Over the last 17 seasons, Colorado is 55-28-1 away from home (a 66.1 winning percentage), which stands eighth nationally and second among Big 12 Conference teams in this span. The Buffaloes own a 44-20-1 mark in their last 65 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—five losses at Nebraska, two at Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor, OSU, Texas and Texas A&M; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 19-17 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (2-2 in 2004). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games, despite some being anything but (i.e., Colorado vs. Texas at Irving for the '01 Big 12 title.)

EIGHTH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's eighth best record over the last 16-plus seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 135-59-4 record. Since opening 1-0 in '89, the Buffs have owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation for 239 consecutive weeks. THE BUFFALOES IN THE BIG 12

As the Big 12 Conference enters its 10th season, the Buffaloes are second only to Oklahoma in the number of division titles won. Just half of the schools in the conference have won a division title. A closer look:

- ➔ Big 12 Division Titles: Oklahoma 4, Colorado 3, Kansas State 3, Nebraska 3, Texas 3, Texas A&M 2.
- ➔ Big 12 Championship Game Records: Oklahoma 3-1, Nebraska 2-1, Colorado 1-2, Texas A&M 1-1, Kansas State 1-2, Texas 1-2.

The six Big 12 North Division teams' struggles recently with their counterparts from the South have been well documented; in fact, the six were 3-15 last year (all wins versus Baylor) and Colorado has dropped nine straight to South schools. But the Buffaloes own the best mark, 17-3, against Big 12 North opposition since the 2001 season; other records in the same span: Kansas State 14-6, Nebraska 11-9, Iowa State 8-12, Missouri 6-14 and Kansas 4-16.

RUMMY .500: Colorado has owned a .500 record or better for 16 consecutive weeks, fourth best in the Big 12 (and the longest of the six North Division teams). The roll call by school (through games of September 24): Texas 79, Texas Tech 41, Oklahoma State 27, Colorado 16, Iowa State 8, Baylor 3, Kansas 3, Kansas State 3, Missouri 3, Nebraska 3, Texas A & M 2, Oklahoma 0.

SENIOR QUARTERBACK KLATT MAKING HIS MARK

Senior QB Joel Klatt has a chance to exit his CU career with his name etched aside more records than any quarterback in Colorado history. He is now one of three players, along with Kordell Stewart and Koy Detmer, in school history to throw for more than 5,000 yards. He already owns 24 single-game, season or career records for the Buffaloes, and is putting a firm assault on five other major career passing and overall total offense marks (see below).

OTHER "KLATT-BITS" ...

- ➔ RED ZONE PASSING—Klatt has been about as effective as a quarterback can be in the red zone, as he owns an 18-to-1 career ratio of touchdowns to interceptions and he has never taken a sack. His lone pick came in the waning moments against Nebraska in 2003, and he's adept at throwing the ball away to avoid taking a loss (8 of his 27 incompletions). Stats: 2005: 7-of-14, 36 yards (2 TD/0 INT/0 sacks); 2004: 15-of-25, 105 yards (6 TD/1 INT/0 sacks); 2003: 20-of-33, 165 yards (10 TD/1 INT/0 sacks). Totals: 42-of-72, 306 yards (18 TD/1 INT/0 sacks).
- ➔ He is bidding to become just the sixth player in school history to lead the Buffaloes in passing for three straight seasons. Zack Jordan was the first, doing so in 1950-51-52; Gale Weidner followed a decade later (1959-60-61), and was almost immediately followed by Bernie McCall (1964-65-66). A quarter century passed before the next pair, Darian Hagan (1989-90-91) and Kordell Stewart (1992-93-94). Klatt also hopes to join Stewart as the only players with three 2,000-yard passing seasons in school history.
- ➔ He entered this season with 4,679 career passing yards, the most ever by a Buffalo entering his senior year; Kordell Stewart held the old mark of 4,410 going into his senior campaign in 1994 (they are the only two Buffs to have had over 4,000 by the end of their junior seasons).
- ➔ ACTIVE NCAA PASSING RANKINGS (includes his Houston Bowl stats, which CU does not include): Yards Per Game (14th/190.3); Completion Percentage (6th/62.6); Efficiency (19th/126.9); Completions (13th/514); Attempts (18th/827); Touchdowns (18th/34); Yards (16th/5,709).
- ➔ He has 11 career 200-yard passing games, four of which have exceeded 300 yards (Koy Detmer holds the school record of six).
- ➔ Klatt's former minor league baseball teammate, San Diego's Jake Peavy, claimed the 2004 major league ERA title (2.27, 15-6 record), and he's had another fine year in 2005. Klatt and Peavy spent two spring trainings together in the Padres organization (2000, 2001) and were teammates in A-ball at one juncture.

THE COMEBACK KING

Colorado is the place where the comeback stat was made famous by former Denver Bronco John Elway, who had 47 fourth quarter or overtime, game-tying or game-winning drives in his NFL career (1983-98), compiling a 46-0-1 record in those games. CU senior QB Joel Klatt now has more of these comebacks than any other player in school history, as he registered his eighth against Colorado State. The count is defined by rallying CU to a victory or to send the game into overtime after trailing at any point in the fourth quarter. Klatt and Clemson's Charlie Whitehurst have the most of any active quarterback in the nation; the irony there is that both played Miami, Fla., in back-to-back games (Whitehurst rallied the "other CU" from 10 down in the fourth before the Tigers succumbed in three OT's (chart below)).

In the "little did they know at the time" department, when Klatt helped escort John Hessler out for the coin toss at the Colorado State game, the two had 14 fourth quarter comebacks between them, as each were tied for CU's all-time lead with seven. Klatt rallied the Buffs from 11 down in the fourth quarter for a 31-28 win, making him CU's all-time leader in fourth quarter comebacks.

Roll Call of Fourth Quarter Comebacks (8)— 2003: Colorado State (tie to W); UCLA (trailed to W); Kansas (trailed, sent into and won in OT); 2004: Colorado State (tie to W); Texas A&M (trailed to send into OT); Kansas State (tie to W); UTEP (Houston Bowl; trailed to W); 2005: CSU (trailed to W). CROSBY POSITIONING HIMSELF AS ONE OF THE FRONT-RUNNERS FOR ALL-AMERICAN, GROZA HONORS

PK Mason Crosby put an assault on the school's field goal records in 2004, with the crown jewel a school and Folsom Field record 60-yard kick against Iowa State. The Lou Groza Award candidate then opened his junior season in grand style on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3), scoring 11 points (3-3 FG, 2-2 PAT) in the 31-28 win over Colorado State. Those included a 48-yard field goal to tie the score at 21-21 with 2:32 left, and a game-winning 47-yard boot with 0:04 on the clock.

He's already in the books in 2005, as he set a record for consecutive field goals, and tied the school mark for the longest field goal on the road with a 58-yard field goal at Miami. Crosby facts:

- ➔ He set four school records in 2004, to go with his record for points by a freshman (52) he established in 2003.
- ➔ He's already set a record this year, as he made 10 consecutive field goals (dating back to the final three games of 2004) before a 55-yard try went wide left on him in the New Mexico State game. The old mark had been nine (reminder: he was 4-of-6 in the Houston Bowl last year, but CU does not count bowl stats into its records as they are separated out).
- ➔ The 60-yarder against Iowa State was the longest in the NCAA last year as well as the longest in Division I-A since 1999. It was just the 10th field goal of 60 yards or more in the NCAA since 1988, when tees were no longer allowed; no kicker has made two.
- ➔ His 58-yard field goal at Miami not only preserved CU's scoring streak at 200 games, it is believed to be the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (see chart below);
- ➔ He had five field goals of 50 yards or longer in the 2004 regular season, which was not only a CU single season record (several had two), it already set a career mark as the old best had been three, by both Dave DeLine and Jim Harper. Including the Houston Bowl, when he had a 54-yarder, he had six 50-plus for the year which led the nation, topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza Award winner (the NCAA record is eight).
- ➔ He was 19-of-23 in 2004 in FGs, with the 19 makes covering 725 yards, an average of 38.2 yards per kick (his four misses: 46.3).
- ➔ He is 32-of-40 in field goals in his career (36-of-46 including bowls), 18-of-19 inside 40 yards and a most respectable 14-of-21 from 41 yards or longer in the regular season. He is third in career field goals made and tied for third in kick scoring (161 points).
- ➔ He has made four field goals in a game three times (Iowa State, Nebraska and UTEP in the Houston Bowl, all in 2004).
- ➔ He made four of the 10 longest field goals in the NCAA in 2004 (60, 55, 54, 54), including the only one longer than 50 yards in bowls; his 55-yard kick against CSU in the opener was CU's first from 50-plus yards in 11 seasons. A 52-yard kick the next week at WSU in Seattle was the eighth longest at sea level in the NCAA.
- ➔ The average field position for the opponent after his kickoffs is just shy of the 22, as 78 of his 113 kicks have gone for touchbacks; 10 of the 33 returned against him have not been brought back beyond the 20; only five have gone beyond the 30 and none beyond the 40.
- ➔ Perhaps his best kick ever was also in the 2004 Iowa State game--an 87-yard kickoff for a touchback after he had to boot it from the 20-yard line following a penalty. "I didn't even expect that. I was just trying to get it up in the air to give the coverage team time to get down there," Crosby said of the monster kick.
- ➔ He has been selected the Big 12 Conference's Special Teams Player-of-the-Week four times in his career (for CSU and Miami in 2005 and Iowa State and Nebraska in 2004), with him also named as one of three Lou Groza Award Committee "Stars of the Week" twice (Iowa State '04, CSU '05).
- ➔ ACTIVE NCAA KICKING RANKINGS (includes his Houston Bowl stats, which CU does not include): Field Goals Made (6th/36); FG Accuracy (5th/78.3).
- ➔ Late Game Heroics. Crosby has made a name for himself in the clutch, as he is 8-of-9 in the fourth quarter, including 7-of-7 in the final 8½ minutes with five kicks of 41 yards or longer. A closer look:

TAKE THIS ALTITUDE ARGUMENT AND SHOVE IT

To paraphrase the classic Johnny Paycheck song, that is... Crosby's 58-yard field goal at Miami on Sept. 24, elevation seven feet, is believed to be the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (all kicks after 1988 are without one), and tied for the third longest, tee or not, in college and tied for the fifth longest when including the National Football League. Seeing how he has now accomplished something most kickers who kick at lower altitudes historically never do, this should once and for all end the altitude arguments used against CU kickers and punters when it comes to All-America and trophy consideration. PUNTER TORP TO MAKE RUN AT ALL-AMERICA HONORS AND RAY GUY AWARD

Senior P John Torp arguably was the best punter in the nation in 2004, but once eliminated from the Ray Guy Award (for having too many punts returned through nine games) and losing out to Baylor senior Daniel Sepulveda (the eventual Guy winner) for first-team all-Big 12 honors, first-team All-America honors for Torp were pretty much out of the question. Some used the old altitude argument against him (though no opponent punter topped him in six games in Boulder), but his 43.7 road average would have ranked him 11th in the NCAA by itself. He was first in the Big 12 and second in the NCAA with a 46.4 average, but looking inside his numbers, he averaged 49.6 on 19 kicks inside the Buff 25, as well as 47.5 yards per punt on CU's side of the field. He had 22 punts inside-the-20 (a school record), or 32 percent of his 68 kicks. He's even better in 2005; some other Torp "torpedoes"...

- ➔ His punting paved the way for Colorado to lead the nation in net punting in 2004 with a 42.43 average, 1.29 yard ahead of runner-up BYU.
- ➔ Pressure. He owns an average of 52.0 in the fourth quarter when the margin is 10 points or less (1 punt, 1 In20) and a 48.0 average on punts inside-the-CU 25 (3).
- ➔ He has now won the punting battle against his opponent counterpart in 16 of the last 17 games (he was edged at Nebraska, 43.8 to 43.3 last November). That includes nine straight times at home and seven of the last eight times outside of Boulder. So tank any altitude arguments, please!
- ➔ He averaged 47.0 on seven punts at Miami, Fla. (elevation: 7 feet). His net was 38.4 for the game—his two touchbacks just missed being downed inside the 5.
- ➔ Torp owns the highest career average among active punters in the NCAA at 45.22 (includes bowls; Baylor's Daniel Sepulveda holds down No. 2 at 44.54).
- ➔ No Easy Way Out. Torp had 68 punts last year, but only five went for touchbacks. Nine were downed or were kicked out of bounds, leaving 54 to either be returned (40) or fair caught (14); opponents averaged just 6.7 yards per return. Four of 14 have gone for touchbacks in '05—but the net on those two kicks is 39.3.
- ➔ Torp owns seven of the top 25 gross punting and five of the top 23 net punting games in CU history (see below).
- ➔ He's off to a great start in 2005, owning a 49.6 average (41.2 net, including return yards and touchback yardage) after three games.

KLOPFENSTEIN ZOOMING UP TIGHT END CHARTS

Senior TE Joe Klopfenstein, a legitimate candidate for the John Mackey Award, is racing up the all-time receiving charts when it comes to numbers posted by a tight end. Adept at catching the ball as he is at blocking, he's the latest in a long line of successful tight ends at Colorado (three from the last decade own six Super Bowl rings among them: Christian Fauria, Matt Lepsis and Daniel Graham). A look at where Klopfenstein compares among CU tight ends all-time:

JK-TD-JK

The combination of Joel Klatt to Joe Klopfenstein has yielded seven touchdowns to date. Believe it or not, when the two first hooked up for a score in 2003, it was the first time two players with the same initials combined for a touchdown pass in CU history (how's that for research?!). The most TD passes between one quarterback and one receiver in CU history is 12 (Koy Detmer to Rae Carruth, 1992-96). Other "Klatt-to-Klop" factoids:

- ➔ The duo has hooked up on 50 pass plays in the regular season (54 including bowls) in their careers.
- ➔ They worked together for the longest reception in CU history by a tight end, when Klatt found Klop near midfield in the Houston Bowl against UTEP, with Klopfenstein outrunning two would be tacklers for a 78-yard touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter.

CHARLES RUNS FOR 101, JOINS IMPRESSIVE LIST

Sophomore TB Hugh Charles had quite an impressive debut in his first start at tailback for the Buffaloes against Colorado State. In rushing 15 times for 101 yards and two touchdowns, he became just the 14th player in school history to run for 100 or more yards in his first career start. He had runs of 31, 29 (for a TD), 23 (also for a TD) and 11 yards to pickup 94 of his yards on just four carries; what hurt his overall numbers was one 6-yard loss on a draw and a 16-yard loss he was credited with after he suffered a fumble. Still, he had eight carries of five or more yards, and perhaps just as impressive was the fact that 88 of his yards came post-contact. The list of players who gained 100 or more yards in their starting debuts for the Buffaloes:

Season	Player	Opponent	Att.	Yards	TD
1958	Chuck Weiss	at Arizona	15	159	2
1969	Ron Rieger	TULSA	23	100	1

1975	Tony Reed	MISSOURI	22	153	2
1987	Michael Simmons	OREGON	18	142	1

Season	Player	Opponent	Att.	Yards	TD
1993	Rashaan Salaam	NEBRASKA	25	165	2
1996	Lendon Henry	OKLAHOMA STATE	18	101	1
1998	Dwayne Cherrington	Colorado State (Denver)	25	100	1
1998	Marlon Barnes	at Oklahoma	26	135	0
2000	Marcus Houston	at Southern California	25	150	0
2002	Brian Calhoun	at Oklahoma	20	122	0
2005	Hugh Charles	COLORADO STATE	15	101	2

- In his second start, Charles went over the 100-yard mark for the second straight time with 105 against New Mexico State. The last player to open a season with a pair of 100-yard games back-to-back was Marcus Houston in 2000, who had 100 against Colorado State in Denver and 150 at Southern California. Think it's that common? The last time before that was in 1989, when Darian Hagan (now an offensive assistant coach), had 116 in the opener against Texas and then 103 versus Colorado State. He had 82 in game three at Miami; Eric Bieniemy is the last to open with three straight, doing so in 1988.

FIELD POSITION

Mainly due to the legs of P John Torp and PK Mason Crosby, Colorado's opponents last year began just over half of their drives either at or inside the 20 (80 of 159, 50.3%; 14 of those were been at or inside-the-10). Nebraska, for example, was stifled, as the Huskers started 12 of their 15 drives from their 20 or worse, while Kansas State did so on nine of 12 possessions. Going back to the second half of the Kansas game (6 of 7), in Colorado's three November wins, opponents started 27 of their last 34 drives at or inside the 20, with an average start position at its own 22, one of the main reasons CU rallied from a 1-4 mark to win the Big 12 North Division.

- ➔ 2005. The numbers are even more dramatic, as through three games, opponents have started 24 of 42 drives at or inside the 20. Colorado has a 5-yard edge in field position as a result, starting 38 drives on average at its 33, while the opponent is at the 28; take away five CU turnovers that led to starting positions in CU territory, and that number drops to the 22 for 37 drives.

HEAD COACH GARY BARNETT

Gary Barnett is in his seventh season as head coach of the Colorado program, and his 16th overall as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 44-34 record at Colorado, along with a 79-79-1 record in 13-plus seasons in the Division I-A ranks (the first seven at Northwestern), and an overall career mark of 87-90-2 including two years at NAIA Fort Lewis (Durango, Colo.). This is his second stint at Colorado, as he was an assistant in Boulder under Bill McCartney for eight years between 1984 and 1991. During that span, CU was 59-34-2 in 95 games, including a 30-5-2 mark the last three years, when CU won three Big Eight titles and the 1990 national championship. Northwestern hired Barnett as head coach on December 18, 1991 to replace Francis Peay, and he would take just four years to turn a dismal program into one of the nation's top teams. Barnett led Northwestern to back-to-back Big Ten championships in 1995 and 1996, earning berths in the Rose and Citrus bowls; he was the national coach of the year for '95 as selected by 18 different organizations. At the time, he was the third McCartney assistant to land a head coaching position, following Gerry DiNardo (Vanderbilt) and Lou Tepper (Illinois), both of whom started their careers in 1991. In both 2001 and 2004, he was selected as the Associated Press Big 12 Coach of the Year: in '01, he became just the fourth man to ever coach two different teams to the NCAA Most Improved Team title in leading CU to the Big 12 Championship, and in '04, he rallied the Buffs from a 1-4 start in league play to the North Division title.

- In 13 previous seasons in Division I-A, he's been recognized four times as a conference Coach of the Year (1995 and 1996 at Northwestern; 2001 and 2004 at Colorado). Barney's" Boxscore.

- ♦ Barnett is no stranger to lining up across the sideline from ranked teams. In his 81 games at Northwestern, the Wildcats faced 30 ranked opponents (posting a 9-20-1 record). In his eight years as an assistant at Colorado, the Buffaloes played 34 ranked teams in 95 contests. As CU head coach, he's seen 31 in 78 games (going 11-20); so in his 21-plus years as Division I-A head or assistant coach, he's coached against 95 ranked opponents in 254 games, better than one in every three (37%).
- ♦ Barnett has been a head coach for 159 Division I-A games (79-79-1); he coached his 150th last October 23 at Texas A&M. His 13 seasons as a D I-A head coach rank 27th among active coaches, as are his 159 games coached.
- ♦ In an October 2000 Bloomberg poll of Division I-A head coaches, Gary Barnett ranked sixth in a listing of the best coaches in college football. Eighty-eight head coaches responded in the poll, which ranked Penn State's Joe Paterno first (20½ votes) and Florida State's Bobby Bowden second (19). The rest of the top 10 at the time: 3. Bill Snyder, Kansas State (12); 4. Frank Beamer, Virginia Tech (10½); 5. Steve Spurrier (then at Florida, 5½); 6 (tie). Gary Barnett, Colorado, and Barry Alvarez, Wisconsin (3); 8. LaVell Edwards, (then at BYU, 2½); 9 (tie). Dennis Erickson, then at Oregon State, and Lloyd Carr, Michigan (2).
- ♦ Barnett first got to Colorado in a very matter-of-fact manner. He "road-tripped" from Missouri in the winter of 1971 with a friend, as both were hunting for teaching jobs. He didn't hear anything back from the interviews, and started his coaching career by helping out on Dan Devine's staff at Missouri, his alma mater. He had been selling insurance in Columbia while his wife, Mary, was finishing up her degree. He was soon offered a teaching and assistant coaching position at Air Academy High School in Colorado Springs (at $8,500 a year). They accepted, and headed west to begin their love affair with the state of Colorado.
- ♦ Barnett grew up in the small town of Mexico, Missouri (where his mother returned to live after the family moved to St. Louis when he was in the ninth grade; she still resides there). He used to chase down softballs at the adults' fast-pitch softball games, as every ball turned in was worth a nickel, and three would net him a Coke (at 15 cents), the going rate in the mid-1950s.
- ♦ Barnett did something extremely rare after he accepted the CU job on January 20, 1999. He made it a goal to meet the parents and families of all players on the CU roster. He pretty much pulled it off, visiting with all but three families of the returning players (all in obscure, hard to reach locations) by the end of the '99 season. He did it to find out more about the players on his team and to talk with the parents about promises that were kept or not met by the previous coaching staff. He says if you get a beat on what kind of environment each player grew up in, which gives a good indication on how you have to deal with each individually.
- ♦ Barnett figured he would never get a crack at the Colorado job. After Rick Neuheisel emerged as the internal hire following Bill McCartney's surprising retirement in November 1994, Barnett thought that with Rick being so young, the CU job would never even be an option. He was linked to many a job opening, but the only one he ever interviewed for was the Notre Dame position; not the Detroit Lions, Texas Longhorns, Oklahoma Sooners or UCLA Bruins as rumors had led many to believe.
- ♦ Barnett enjoyed many happy as well as sad moments in his first stop in Boulder between 1984 and 1991. Emotions ran the gamut from winning the national championship (1990) and three Big Eight Conference titles (1989-90-91), along with coaching a Heisman Trophy candidate (Darian Hagan) and a Rhodes Scholarship finalist (Eric McCarty) to dealing with the life-threatening injury to tight end Ed Reinhardt (1984), the death of quarterback Sal Aunese (1989, from stomach cancer) to his own son Clay being seriously injured when he was on the CU sidelines during a game. Another high included Charles S. Johnson being named the MVP of the 1991 Orange Bowl, supplanting the low that he had to replace an injured Hagan in that game. And in his final year at Colorado in 1991, he tutored a young true freshman by the name of Kordell Stewart, who went on to become the Big Eight's all-time total offense leader.
- ♦ Barnett's top six goals for the CU program each year are listed as: 6) Winning the Big 12 Conference championship; 5) Winning the Big 12 Conference North Division; 4) Winning a bowl game; 3) Have a winning season; 2) To be a relentless team; and 1) Attitude and Chemistry. They are displayed prominently on the wall in the team's main meeting room (which was renamed for Tom McMahon in 2003).
- ♦ Barnett's first game at Northwestern was against Notre Dame at Chicago's Soldier Field—deemed a neutral site. His first game at CU was against Colorado State at Denver's Mile High Stadium, also a neutral site. How many coaches had their first games with two different schools classified in this manner? Barnett was probably the first—the research would be most time consuming!
- ♦ Barnett's active off the field with several charities, most notably the Lupus Foundation and the Colorado ALS Association. Every October, he participates in Boulder's "Walk to d'feet ALS," a fundraiser to combat ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease.

- ♦ Barnett replaced Francis Peay at Northwestern, and other finalists included Earle Bruce (at Colorado State at the time), Paul Schudel and Gary Darnell. The president who hired Barnett at Northwestern, Arnold Weber, was the president of CU when it hired Bill McCartney in 1982. The parallels between McCartney and Barnett number many, right down to the record in their first three years as head coaches: Mac was 7-25-1 at Colorado (1982-84), Barnett 8-24-1 at Northwestern (1992-94), with exactly 10 years separating each, both their first career head coaching jobs.
- ♦ Barnett & Bye Weeks. Barnett is 8-9 in games following bye weeks (6-6 at Colorado, 2-3 at Northwestern). At Northwestern, he had his first win over a ranked team after an idle Saturday (22-21 over No. 22 Boston College in 1993); at CU, the 62-36 romp over Nebraska followed a bye (he is 3-3 against the Cornhuskers, all with that extra week to prepare). The game at Miami is his first game after a bye week at Colorado that is not against a Big 12 foe.
- ♦ Barnett is again one of the 61 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2005 (the seventh straight year he is a voter and the 19th straight year CU's head coach has participated).

GARY BARNETT FOUNDATION

Gary Barnett, and his wife, Mary announced last February the formation of the Gary Barnett Foundation, a tax-exempt, non-profit organization dedicated to the support of educational programs for economically disadvantaged and at-risk youth. "Mary and I have been discussing the possibility of creating a foundation for years," Gary Barnett said, "After the passing of Gabe Oderberg, we decided the time was now to make this happen."

Oderberg, who was on the football team between 1999-2002 and worked as an undergraduate intern after back injuries ended his career, committed suicide last summer. Former Buff and '91 Orange Bowl MVP Charles Johnson is involved in the organization, as is Boulder physician Dr. John Meyer and Boston TV anchor Paul Burton. THE CLASS OF '99

COACH RETRO

Defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz has been given the nickname of "Coach Retro" by the players, as he is now in his second stint at CU. During his first tour between 1985 and 1994, he spent the last seven seasons as CU's defensive coordinator and directed some of the best defenses in school history. Upon his return, he didn't exactly return the Buffs to the 3-4 he succeeded with during those years, but there are enough similarities to merit the throwback term.

EXPERIENCE

Including 2004, the 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 151 seasons in Division I-A (includes 14 head coach seasons, 13 by Gary Barnett and one by Mike Hankwitz), as the 10 have combined to coach in 1,887 games through September 10. Barnett is the elder statesman at 59, followed by Hankwitz (57) Craig Bray (53) and then Brian Cabral (49); it's believed to be the first time that three 50-plus year olds have been on the Colorado staff. In fact, Barnett's the oldest head football coach in CU history by some five years (Bill McCartney was 54 when he retired in 1994; Dallas Ward's the only other to pilot the Buffs after his 50th birthday as he was 52 when he was not retained after the 1958 season).

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. For 2005, in the box will be offensive coordinator Shawn Watson, tight ends coach John Wristen, secondary coach Craig Bray, defensive line coach William Inge and graduate assistants Hunter Hughes and Eric McCready. Head coach Gary Barnett wears a headset on the sideline (he's on with the coordinators), along with defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz, inside linebackers coach Brian Cabral, offensive line coach Dave Borbely, running backs coach Shawn Simms and offensive assistant coach Darian Hagan. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

- In Shawn Watson's first game as offensive coordinator in 2000, CU gained 532 yards against Colorado State, the most ever by a Buff team in its first game with a new offensive pilot. The old record was 530 in 1993 (vs. Texas, Elliot Uzelac's first game). The all-time opponent low in the first game with a new CU defensive coordinator were the 177 yards gained by Fresno State in 1988—Mike Hankwitz' first game as DC (also the third fewest yards ever allowed overall by CU in any season opener).

OLD-TIMER

Assistant head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. He is now third all-time in years coached as a full-time member of the staff, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both who assisted for 18 years each, and just passed one his mentors in life, the late Dan Stavely, who coached 15 seasons in two stints. A closer look:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 3. Brian Cabral 16 (1990-current); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 7. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58); 8. Ray Jenkins 10 (1948-57), Mike Hankwitz 10 (1985-94) and Jon Embree 10 (1993-2002).

COACHES CORNER / with GARY BARNETT

Comments from Colorado head coach Gary Barnett following his team's 23-3 setback at Miami, Fla.:

General: "I'm proud of the way our team handled some things. They (Miami) played well, and they had all the benefits from playing at home. We learned a lot from this game; it tells us a lot about who we are. We didn't play our best game in an environment and against a team that you have to play your best game, or come close to it. We made a million mistakes and shot ourselves in the foot too many times."

On Miami's Defensive Speed: "Every time we tried to run outside, we put ourselves in a bind. If we played them again, we'd think more about trying to run the ball inside more."

On Conference Play: "We have to put this behind us, because conference play starts next week. Teams of character learn from games like this, and I have no doubt that what we learned today will benefit us down the road."

PLAYER QUOTES

Some select player comments after the Buffs' 23-3 loss at Miami:

LB JORDON DIZON

GENERAL: "Our game plan and theirs were pretty much the same; it's just who worked out the details was going to win. It was all mental; they didn't outplay us, didn't out-physical us, and didn't out hit us. They just outsmarted us."

ON CONFERENCE OPENER: "You realize when you get older that in conference play everybody's got to pick it up; everything has to get better. I'm excited to see how we do, because we always pick it up then."

DE JAMES GAREE

GENERAL: "We didn't play the way we needed to play. We did a lot of things very well out there, but those get lost in a defeat like this where you make so many mistakes."

QB JOEL KLATT

GENERAL: "First of all I want to give a lot of credit to a disciplined Miami defense. They did a great job of stopping us, especially whenever we seemed to even get just a little momentum going. We seemed to move the ball okay and we had our opportunities and first downs. But they played really well on third down and got off the field especially when we crossed the 50. You just can't make mistakes versus Miami in the Orange Bowl."

ON THE BUFFS: "Even with the loss, we have something to build on. I think we played better in this big game than we played in last year's big games. We just have to continue to improve. We came in here and really thought we had a good chance to win, really confident about our team. They did a nice job in key situations, and it turned out to be the ballgame."

ON CONFERENCE PLAY: "You don't say this is when the real season starts, but it's what we're striving for - to try and win that Big 12 championship. Next week is the first step toward that. (Saturday) was a 'program' game; we need to learn from it."

GAME #1—COLORADO 31, COLORADO STATE 28

(September 3; Boulder, Colo.)

BOULDER — It is always said that things often come in threes, and that is certainly the case with the CU-Colorado State football series.

For the third straight year, the outcome wasn't known until the final play of the game, and for the Buffaloes, all three times have been charms as this time CU rallied from an 11-point fourth quarter deficit to topple the Rams, 31-28, before a record Folsom Field crowd of 54,972.

Mason Crosby, arguably America's best kicker, drilled a 47-yard field goal with four seconds remaining to provide the winning points; that kick came just 148 seconds after he made a 48-yard kick that tied the game at 21. In-between, there were plenty of fireworks that amounted to a classic shootout between in-state rivals.

After Crosby's tying kick, the Rams took over at their own 20. On second-and-10, Justin Holland was flushed to his left and pressured by Alex Ligon to throw on the run, where downfield Gerrett Burl picked off his pass at the CSU 37 and returned it 14 yards. On CU's very first offensive play, Hugh Charles put a couple of nifty moves on the Ram defense and went 23 yards for the go-ahead touchdown with just 1:30 left.

But Holland, being the competitor that he is, would not be denied, as he marched his team 80 yards in eight plays and in just 54 seconds to tie the game at 28. In completing six passes on the drive (for all 80 yards), he used throws of 23 and 22 yards to David Anderson to pick up real estate in chunks before finding Kory Sperry in the end zone with a 9-yard scoring toss with only 36 seconds remaining.

CSU opted to squib kick the ensuing kickoff, but the plan backfired to a degree thanks to Stephone Robinson's muffing the football. As he scooted over to pickup the ball, many on the coverage team were now out of position, enabling him to break free for a 30-yard return to the Buff 40. Joel Klatt hit Patrick Williams with a 22-yard pass on the first play from scrimmage, and after an incompletion, he found Dusty Sprague on the right side for eight more to set Crosby up for his winning kick from the Ram 30.

CSU had built its lead to 21-10 after Holland threw a 1-yard touchdown pass, via defender tip, to Matt Bartz with 5:04 left in the third quarter.

CSU got on the board first on a 1-yard touchdown run by Jimmy Green after the Rams recovered a Dusty Sprague fumble at the Buff 28. CU scored the next 10 points on a 32-yard Crosby field goal and a 1-yard run by Lawrence Vickers on a fourth-and-goal play to cap off an 11-play, 73-yard drive. CSU took a 14-10 halftime lead when Holland and Anderson hooked up on a 1-yard TD pass with 33 seconds left before intermission.

The Buffs held the Rams to just 95 yards rushing, the sixth time in the last 10 games CSU failed to reach 100 against CU. Colorado had a slight edge in total offense by 396-386, but saw 90 additional yards and a touchdown called back due to six offensive penalties.

GAME #2—COLORADO 39, NEW MEXICO STATE 0

BOULDER — Lawrence Vickers scored three touchdowns and the Colorado defense posted its first shutout since 2002 as the Buffaloes defeated New Mexico State, 39-0.

Joel Klatt passed for 186 yards and two touchdowns, joining Kordell Stewart and Koy Detmer as the only Colorado players with 5,000 career passing yards while also jumping past Stewart with the most career completions in a CU uniform.

New Mexico State's defense kept the Aggies in the contest, as the Buffs didn't put the game away until logging back-to-back touchdown drives to open the third quarter to add to their 22-0 halftime lead. The Buffs led 7-0 after the first quarter and were ahead by just 10-0 until putting 12 points on the board in the final 1:52 of the first half, taking control of the game in the process.

Mason Crosby started that spree, tacking on a 28-yard field goal that had followed up a 33-yard effort earlier in the quarter to put CU ahead, 13-0. The Buff defense forced three straight incomplete passes by Royal Gill, and then on fourth down, the center snap for the Aggie punt sailed over Brad Evan's head; he chased it down in the back of the end zone and kicked it toward the stands for a Buff safety. Taking over after the free kick at its own 37, it took just four plays to score, all completed passes by Klatt to Hugh Charles (eight yards), Dusty Sprague (24), Evan Judge (28), and the last to Vickers for three yards and the touchdown.

CU salted things away with the two TD drives to start the second half. The first was culminated with 11-yard pass from Klatt to Sypniewski, the sixth-year senior's first career touchdown reception. The second came at the end of an impressive 11-play, 89-yard march with Vickers bowling over several would-be tacklers with an 11-yard run. He had a 19-yard run and a 17-yard reception earlier in the drive as he accounted for 46 yards in four plays.

The Buffs held the Aggies to just 5 yards rushing, though an errant 20-yard center snap and 16 yards in quarterback sacks contributed to the low total. NMSU had just 181 yards overall, the fewest allowed by the Buffs since 2001 when they held Kansas State to 196 in Manhattan.

GAME #3—MIAMI 23, COLORADO 3*(September 24; Miami, Fla.)*

MIAMI, Fla. — Kyle Wright passed for one touchdown and rushed for another and the Miami defense stifled Colorado one time after another once it crossed midfield as the No. 12 Hurricanes slowly pulled away tin defeating the Buffaloes, 23-3.

Mason Crosby's 58-yard field goal just under four minutes into the fourth quarter, the longest without a tee at sea level in NCAA Division I-A history, were CU's lone points on the day. But the way the game started, it didn't appear head coach Gary Barnett would have to wait almost 50 minutes for his team to dent the scoreboard.

In perhaps what set the tone for the game, the Buffs moved from their own 46 to the Miami 7 in just two plays on their first possession. Hugh Charles picked up 29 yards on an outside scamper and Joel Klatt then hit Quinn Sypniewski with an 18-yard pass to get the Buffs deep into Hurricane territory. But Charles was thrown for a 4-yard loss on the next play, and after two straight incomplete passes, Crosby missed a 28-yard field goal wide left, the kick being affected by a bad snap.

Locked in a classic field position battle, Miami eventually broke through first with a 34-yard field goal from Jon Peattie to take a 3-0 lead with 6:07 left in the first quarter. He added a 20-yard boot with 11:12 remaining in the half to make it 6-0, the kick coming after the Buffs stopped the Hurricanes on a first-and-goal from the CU 4.

Penalties started to mount for the Buffaloes, who were called for 17 on the day. Two offside calls helped set UM up for the game's first touchdown, as on a first-and-5, Wright went deep and connected with Sinorice Moss for a 53-yard touchdown along the right sideline to get the Hurricanes some breathing room. Peattie's PAT kick made it 13-0 eight minutes before the half. CU would again be thwarted on its next possession, in part due to an illegal formation penalty after driving to the Miami 35.

The Buffs came out blazing again in the second half, even though starting at their own 10 after a short kickoff return. CU moved just past midfield, but a delay of game penalty and a three-yard loss by Charles helped stall the drive. Two series later, Miami turned a Brandon Meriweather interception of a Klatt pass into a third Peattie field goal, this one from 33 yards, to take a 16-0 lead.

Crosby's kick not only got CU on the board and put the Buffs back into it, albeit temporarily, it marked the 200th straight game Colorado had scored, becoming only the 12th school in history to score in that many consecutive games. The celebration was short-lived however, as any hopes for a fourth quarter comeback were dashed when Miami countered with a 9-play, 80-yard drive resulting in a 2-yard touchdown run by Wright. The play was aided by two CU penalties, as the Buffs were flagged 17 times in the game, the second most in their history.

Miami outgained Colorado by 389-331, with the statistics close to even in most categories. The Hurricanes had a decided edge in penalties (5-17), return yards (131-5) and tackles for loss (10-2). A telling stat was once the teams crossed the 50; the Buffs ran 21 plays for 66 yards, including 38 on one play late in the game, while Miami ran 34 for 140 yards.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION

A running list of major notes and/or accomplishments from the postgame notes of all games in 2005:

Colorado State

- ◆ ATTENDANCE. The 54,972 in attendance established a Folsom Field record, as the sellout crowd bested the previous mark by 18 bodies (54,954) set against CSU in 2004 (Sept. 4).
- ◆ This marked just the fourth time since 1967 that the Buffaloes won a season opener when the opponent scored first. CU is now 4-14-1 when the opponent has scored first in this span, with the wins coming in 1969 (a 35-14 win over Tulsa after falling behind 7-0), in 1995 (a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana after spotting NLU a 3-0 lead), in 2003 (the 42-35 conquest of CSU after the Rams jumped ahead 7-0) and this year. Colorado has won 20 straight openers when it has scored first (dating back to 1967 when it defeated Baylor 27-7). The last time the Buffs scored first and lost an opener was in 1966, scoring their only points of the game on a field goal before succumbing to Miami, Fla., 24-3.
- ◆ Colorado now leads the series with CSU by 57-18-2, including 31-8-2 in Boulder, where the Buffs have won six in a row. CU has won the last three, but by a combined 13 points (the last four have been decided by 18 points). No other 3- or 4-game span in the series has been decided by so few points.
- ◆ The temperature at kickoff—89 degrees—tied for the sixth warmest in CU history, and was the third warmest in Boulder (it was 91 against Washington in 2000 and 91 versus Fresno State in 2001); complete list on page 299 of the 2004 CU Media Guide (not included in 2005 version, among a lot of things, thanks to asinine NCAA page limit legislation).
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt. He finishes his career 3-0 against CSU as the starting quarterback, believed to be the first player in CU history to do so against the Rams.
- ◆ P John Torp. The Ray Guy candidate's first punt went for 72 yards after hitting at the 11 with the return man allowing it to roll into the end zone. It was the longest punt of his career, and the first 70-plus yard effort by a Buff since QB Mike Moschetti surprised Kansas State in Manhattan with a 70-yard bomb in Manhattan in 1999. Overall, it tied for the 14th longest in school history. Torp finished the day with four punts for a 52.0 average, with three inside-the-20.
- ◆ ILB Akarika Dawn. His interception to open the fourth quarter was the second pick of his career; the other came in his sophomore season (2003) at Iowa State.
- ◆ CB Gerett Burl. He had his first career interception at the most opportune time, setting up Hugh Charles 29-yard go-ahead touchdown run with 1:30 left in the fourth quarter.
- ◆ CU Tight Ends. CU's lanky/burly tight end duo had quite the day, as Joe Klopfenstein (4-76) and Quinn Sypniewski (2-44) combined for six receptions for 120 yards.
- ◆ TB Hugh Charles. The diminutive sophomore had the first 100-yard rushing game of his career, with 15 carries for 101 yards and two scores.

Season Note Progression, continued:

New Mexico State

- ◆ Game Time. The 8:10 p.m. kickoff was the latest in Folsom Field history, topping the 8:07 kickoff for the 1996 Colorado-Oklahoma State game. That game ended took 3:19 and ended at 11:26; the NMSU game took 3:17 and ended at 11:27, making it the latest ending game in stadium history.
- ◆ Gary Barnett went over .500 for the first time in his Division I-A coaching history; tonight's win improves him to 79-78-1 (44-33 at Colorado; he started 8-24-1 in his first three years at Northwestern and is 71-54 since).
- ◆ The Buffs recorded their first safety in almost five years. . . and in basically the same exact fashion against a team nicknamed the Aggies. At Texas A&M in 2000 (Oct. 7), the A&M center snapped the ball out of the end zone on a punt try; this time, the same thing happened but the ball didn't make it through the end zone on its own and the punter helped it out with a kick.
- ◆ The 39-0 shutout was the first recorded by Colorado since a 34-0 win over Baylor in Boulder on Oct. 19, 2002 (a span of 33 games).
- ◆ Colorado had 14 first downs in the third quarter, a school record for the most in a single quarter; the old best was 13 on two occasions: at Arizona on Oct. 11, 1958 (fourth quarter) at Kansas on Nov. 13, 1993 (third quarter).
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt. He joined Kordell Stewart (6,481) and Koy Detmer (5,390) as the only players in Colorado history to top the 5,000-yard mark in career passing yardage. He came into the game with 4,962 yards and hit the milestone with a 9-yard completion to Evan Judge late in the first quarter. In finishing with 186 yards for the game, he has 5,148 for his career.
--His 10th pass completion of the game, on a screen pass to Hugh Charles late in the second quarter, made him the all-time leader in pass completions at Colorado, as he came in with 447 and pass Kordell Stewart (456) into first place. He ended the game with 18 for 465 for his career.
- ◆ PK Mason Crosby. His school record string of 10 consecutive field goals came to an end in the first quarter with the miss (wide left) from 55 yards. However, with makes from 33 and 28 yards, he has now made at least one field goal in six consecutive games, just two off the school record of eight by Fred Lima (set between Oct. 7, 1972 and Sept. 15, 1973).
- ◆ TE Quinn Sypniewski. The sixth-year senior (CU's first in modern times) caught his first career touchdown pass with the 11-yard grab from Joel Klatt on the opening drive of the second quarter. Those were not his first career points, as he had a key 2-point conversion catch at Missouri in 2002 (it gave CU a 7-point edge late in the game; CU won in overtime).
- ◆ PK Kevin Eberhart. He made his first career field goal—23 yards—late in the game in his first action since 2003; he was 1-1 on PAT kicks and 0-2 on field goals that season.
- ◆ Other First Career Stuff—Interceptions: S Ben Burney, Lionel Harris. Reception: FB Brendan Schaub.
- ◆ The 5 rushing yards by New Mexico State tied for the seventh lowest by an opponent in Colorado history. The list of CU's top 10 defensive efforts against the run:

Miami, Fla.

- ◆ The temperature at kickoff (86 degrees) tied the 11th warmest at kickoff for the Buffaloes in their history; CU was prepared with 27 cases (648 total 20 oz. Bottles) of water and Gatorade.
- ◆ The Buffs fell to 4-5 all-time in Miami (well, Miami/Fort Lauderdale); in addition to a 2-1 mark against the Hurricanes (9-7 in 1961 and 23-10 in 1975 previously), CU is 2-3 in Orange bowls and 0-1 in the old Blockbuster Bowl.
- ◆ Penalties. The Buffs had the second most penalties in their history with 17 for 99 yards; the record is 18 (for 115) versus Kansas in 1950.
- ◆ PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG/58 yards) missed his first regular season field goal from inside 40 yards with the 28-yard wide left kick in the first quarter (caused by a bad snap). He had been 19-for-19 before that kick; however, he bounced back with his sixth career field goal of 50 yards or longer with the 58-yard kick in the fourth; that tied for the second longest field goal in CU history, tied for the longest on the road, tied for the longest in the NCAA this season and tied for the longest ever at the Orange Bowl. It was Crosby's sixth career field goal of 50 yards or longer in the regular season.
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt. He had the 11th 200-yard passing game of his career, tying him for fourth all-time with John Hessler.
- ◆ Field Position. Miami started seven of its 14 drives at or inside the 20, bring the opponent total on the year to 24 of 42.
- ◆ Long Play. The 38-yard pass from Joel Klatt to Byron Ellis in the fourth quarter was CU's longest play from scrimmage this season.
- ◆ Defense. Miami had 394 yards, marking the first three-game stretch Colorado has held the opponent under 400 since a four-game stretch in 2002.
- ◆ Against The Ranked. CU has now lost six straight games overall to ranked teams (0-4 in 2004), and has dropped seven straight to those ranked in the top 15. Colorado's last win over a ranked team was on Nov. 8, 2003, when it defeated No. 22 Missouri, 21-16; it's last win over a top 15 team was on Oct. 6, 2002, with a 35-31 win over No. 13 Kansas State.
- ◆ Instant Replay. CU had its first taste of "the play is under review." The play was overturned, as a ball was mis-spotted by some two yards on a Klatt run.

Stat Changes: There were several stat changes from the Miami game; Klatt had one more pass attempt; Colorado's team penalty count was 17 for 99; Tyrone Moss for Miami had one less rush and five fewer yards, lowering the count of plays and yard for Miami rushing and total offense (he was inadvertently credited with a 5-yard gain on a play where he lost a yard but CU was offsidies; Miami had one sack for 12 yards, credited on the intentional grounding call on Klatt—the correct way to score the play is to award a sack for the yardage lost and a penalty for zero yards; and CU was 1-of-3 on fourth downs, not 1-of-2.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 20 seniors on its roster this season, and history will show that most, if not all the NFL teams will pass through Boulder or a road site for a game in 2005. So far this year, 10 scouts from these nine teams have seen the Buffs in person: Atlanta, Buffalo, Carolina, Cleveland, Green Bay, Jacksonville, Minnesota, N.Y. Giants and Philadelphia. In last year, 49 scouts representing 23 NFL teams attended games, and this decade, all 32 teams have seen CU games in person (over 250 scouts in the five-year period).

SENIOR ANALYSIS

Colorado has 20 seniors on its 2005 roster, 14 of which are starters or practically co-starters in the rotation or on special teams: ILB Akarika Dawn, DE James Garee, S Tom Hubbard, OLB Brian Iwuh, WR Evan Judge, QB Joel Klatt, TE Joe Klopfenstein, NT Vaka Manupuna, OT Clint O'Neal, SN Greg Pace, FB Brendan Schaub, TE Quinn Sypniewski, P John Torp and VB Lawrence Vickers. Two others are in the regular rotation mix from scrimmage, OL Gary Moore and DT John Guydon. The remaining three seniors figure to see limited action at this time: DT Nick Clement, WR Marcus Gonzales and SN Matt Hammond (Hammond is on at least one special teams unit, however).

GRADUATION STAT(U)S

Two of the 20 seniors on the roster have already graduated, as OG John Guydon (journalism/broadcast production) and TE Quinn Sypniewski (journalism/news-editorial) have earned their degrees (Sypniewski is now seeking a second bachelor's in history). Six more are on schedule to graduate this December: DT Nick Clement (film studies), DT James Garee (economics/sociology), SN Matt Hammond (psychology), DT Vaka Manupuna (ethnic studies), OT Gary Moore (economics) and OT Clint O'Neal (history). Ten are set for graduation next May: ILB Akarika Dawn (Black & Ethnic studies), WR Marcus Gonzales (international affairs), ILB Kyle Griffith (business/finance), S Tom Hubbard (business/accounting & finance), WR Evan Judge (business management—he will study in Italy in the spring), QB Joel Klatt (economics), TE Joe Klopfenstein (sociology), SN Greg Pace (communication, with a minor in history), FB Brendan Schaub (sociology) and P John Torp (political science & economics). The remaining two, both fourth-year seniors, are on schedule for either next summer or December '06: OLB Brian Iwuh (economics) and VB Lawrence Vickers (sociology).

► NOTE: Over the last three years, Colorado has had 59 of its 67 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.1 percent (with two of the eight non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, i.e., Wayne Lucier in '02 or WR Mike Duren in '04), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. However, numbers that will be released this fall, for the incoming freshman in 1999, will be 79 percent for CU, one of its best numbers in years, but is still skewed lower because of transfers.

WHAT'S A V-BACK?

What's a V-Back, you ask? In short, it stands for "versatile" back, which most definitely applies to the one player Colorado lists at VB on the roster, senior Lawrence Vickers. The moniker dates back to last year, when Vickers and Daniel Jolly (who has since transferred to Texas State) were asked to come up with a name for what they felt they brought to their position. They had previously been listed No. 1 and 2 at fullback and that sort of "pigeonholed" what they can really do. Since they blocked like fullbacks, ran like tailbacks and played like receivers, "V-Back" fit them perfectly. "What's asked of the position is that the players have to be very versatile and fill a number of roles, and we want to excel at each and every one of those," Vickers said. "Running, catching and blocking are three of the biggest components for any football player to be successful, but doing those well as a V-back makes us multi-dimensional and we opponents never know for sure what we'll be doing when I'm in the game." Gary Barnett joked that Vickers liked it because it can also stand for "Vickers-Back."

TRENDS

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 163-78-4, the 15th best record nationally in this span). In these 245 games, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

TURNOVERS UNDER BARNETT

Gary Barnett drills home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football. The statistics back up his argument, as the below will show that it is definitely better to take than to give during the Barnett Era:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers
				PF	PA	+/-
44 WINS	66	108	+42	375	166	+209
34 LOSSES	93	60	-33	153	298	-145
7-SEASON TOTAL (78 Games)	159	168	+ 9	528	464	+ 64

The biggest disparity (20) was in 2001: CU was plus-9 in its 10 wins and minus-11 in the three losses (and outscored 44-0 on turnovers). In the 42 wins, CU has outscored the opponent 348-159 on points off turnovers, and it's really magnified in the four bowl seasons, 324-122 (1999, 2001, 2002, 2004).

40 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS SIXTH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 40 wins over Associated Press ranked team since the start of he 1989 season are tied for the sixth most in the nation in this span. Florida State has the most with 63, followed by Michigan (52), Florida (51), Miami, Fla. (47), Tennessee (45), Ohio State (42) and Colorado (40). As for the Big 12, after CU, the next schools on this list are Nebraska (32), Texas (30), Texas A&M (26) and Oklahoma (26). (The AP poll is used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) in Gary Barnett's six years as head coach, while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen. That showed the youth of the team, especially since underclassmen also had 41.7 percent of the starts in 2003. Fast-forward to 2005, and in the first three games, 80 percent of the starters were juniors (27) and seniors (26), with sophomores starting in all but one of the other nine slots. In 2002, the numbers were flopped as well: upperclassmen started 93 percent of the games. It's basically a cyclical pattern, and that shows up when looking at the breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class:

- 2005 starters (13 games): Seniors (26), Juniors (27), Sophomores (12), Freshmen (1; redshirts 1, true 0).
- 2004 starters (13 games): Seniors (72), Juniors (103), Sophomores (100), Freshmen (11; redshirts 0, true 11).
- 2003 starters (12 games): Seniors (105), Juniors (49), Sophomores (78), Freshmen (32; redshirts 14, true 18).
- 2002 starters (14 games): Seniors (155), Juniors (130), Sophomores (14), Freshmen (9; redshirts 0, true 9).
- 2001 starters (13 games): Seniors (102), Juniors (95), Sophomores (83), Freshmen (7; redshirts 7, true 0).
- 2000 starters (11 games): Seniors (55), Juniors (116), Sophomores (38), Freshmen (33; redshirts 15, true 18).
- 1999 starters (12 games): Seniors (115), Juniors (42), Sophomores (86), Freshmen (21; redshirts 20, true 1).

UNDERCLASSMEN ROLE

In 2002, when CU finished 9-5 in the school's only ever 14-game season, underclassmen started a total of 23 games (14 sophomore/9 freshmen). Jump to 2003, and that total was surpassed after just four games (25), with the underclassmen start count for the year at 110 (78 sophomore/32 freshmen). In CU's Big 12 championship year in 2001, 90 underclassmen made starts, with the 71 starting in 2000 and 107 in 1999 during the Barnett era. Including the two kicking spots (P, PK), the 2002 numbers remained 23 out of a possible 336 starts (6.5%) by underclassmen; the 2003 numbers jumped to 134 (90 soph/44 frosh) out of 288, or 46.5%. In 2004, 110 of the 286 starters were underclassmen (38%; 123 of 312 including kickers, or 39%), setting the table for 2005.

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001 and 2002 seasons. The Buffs had an 854-417 edge in 2001 and an 803-607 lead in 2002 in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. In 2003, the opponent held a 599-453 edge, but in 2004, CU finished ahead by 574-499. Return yards are a staple of the Barnett Era at Colorado, as including the postseason, CU now has 4,166 in the 78 games he has coached, 933 more than the opponent. And the Buffs have 34 return touchdowns over the last six-plus seasons (30 regular season, four bowl game), tied for the fifth most in the nation for this span. THE BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-05 Record	Gary Barnett Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	11-46-2	7-14-1	2-7	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	24-80-3	13-25-2	2-13	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	36-97-3	19-30-2	5-15	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	66-123-3	40-42-2	11-20	20 / Bill McCartney

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the nine-year old league owns a 25-56 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own eight of those wins. CU is 8-8 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 7-4, Texas 3-5, Kansas State 2-3, Oklahoma 1-1, Baylor 1-3, Iowa State 1-6, Kansas 0-2, Oklahoma State 0-4, Missouri 0-5, Texas Tech 1-6 and Texas A&M 0-9.

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 34-5, Kansas State 33-5, Oklahoma State 26-7, Texas 28-9, Oklahoma 26-10, Iowa State 24-10, Kansas 21-10, Texas Tech 26-12, Texas A&M 25-12, Missouri 22-11, Colorado 23-14 and Baylor 19-12 (remember traditionally CU plays one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

HOLLIDAY DENIED NCAA WAIVER APPEAL

Junior TB Mell Holliday, a walk-on from Omaha, Neb., via Wayne State University and the University of Nebraska, had an appeal filed on his behalf by school officials denied by the NCAA regarding the one year-in-residency rule. CU declared Holliday, who had an impressive camp and rose to third on the depth chart by mid-August, ineligible after a second review of his academic history prior to enrolling in Boulder. CU's compliance staff first interpreted him to be eligible, but upon the second review, decided to rule him ineligible until the NCAA ruled on the matter, which it did Sept. 16. Holliday played two years at Wayne State and then transferred to NU, where he had hoped to make the Husker team; he wound up attending school but was not a member of the football squad.

LINER NOTES

Here's the place to look for that one or two sentence quick note on a CU two-deep regular:

1 Stephone Robinson	Midway through fall camp in 2004 he switched to cornerback from wide receiver; he is CU's primary punt and kick returner. He was named second-tem All-Big 12 by conference coaches in 2004. He developed an M.O. quickly—most punts others would fair catch, he prides himself on catching and trying to gain even just a yard or two, preventing longer punts on bounces in the process.
2 Hugh Charles	He enjoys flying planes; he earned his solo license in a Cessna 172 as a sophomore in high school. He served in the Civil Air Patrol for two years. Charles was on CU's track and field team last season, participating in the long jump. He won his first competition in early February 2004 as a true freshman at the Air Force meet with only a week to prepare.
3 Tyrone Henderson	He was in the mix for a lot of playing time in 2004 before he became a starter due to a knee injury to J.J. Billingsley, as he figured to be the first man in off the bench for the nickel defense. He blocked two punts against Washington State to become the first Buff ever to block two kicks of any kind in a single game and quickly became a mainstay in the secondary.
4 Patrick Williams	Williams possesses a rare combination of speed and athletic ability, giving the Buffs a legitimate deep threat to stretch opposing defenses. He returns as a redshirt freshman after having the misfortune last season of breaking bones in both of his hands.
5 J.J. Billingsley	Billingsley was to be the veteran leader on defense, especially in the secondary, in 2004; however, he underwent arthroscopic surgery on August 19 to clean up a knee injury and returned to practice just six days later, but swelling persisted and a second operation (Oct. 12) ended his season. He is fully recovered and is one of the reasons for CU's improved secondary play in 2005.
6 Gardner McKay	McKay quickly climbed to No. 2 on the depth chart at cornerback behind junior Lorenzo Sims during fall camp. Although he has a small frame (5'11, 160 pounds), coaches have raved about his coverage skills. He has bulked up this fall in order to be a factor in defending the running game.
7 Dominique Brooks	"DB the DB," he's the first letterman to play in the secondary where his initials match the position... The coaches call him "The Voice of Reason," because as Shawn Watson puts it, "He usually has the answers, he calls it like he sees it, and he'll be a natural for television." Only the third player to have a two INT game as a true frosh at CU.
8 Alvin Barnett	He struggled to adapt to the fast pace of Division I football upon his arrival, but the coaches have been amazed with his progress since the spring, tabbing him as one of the team's most improved players. O-coordinator Shawn Watson: "He's made the biggest jump and is night and day compared to where he was in the spring. He's the biggest surprise out of the whole crew of receivers."
9 Tom Hubbard	He missed most of spring practices because of a knee injury but came back healthy for fall camp. Hubbard is one of 42 players on the 2005 Lott Trophy watch list: the award goes to the college defensive players of the year who has the biggest impact on and off the field. He got the attention of the Lott people by being named the defensive MVP in the Houston Bowl win over UTEP.
10 James Cox	He was in the mix for the starting job a year ago, but with Klatt entrenched at starter, he worked hard to ascend into the No. 2 spot and made his first start vs. ISU. He is considered the most pure passer of all the quarterbacks.
10 Terry Washington	He is one of the fastest players on the team with great instincts. Washington should see significant playing time this fall as he continues to learn the Buffs' defensive system after transferring from Garden State, Kan. Community College. The Buffs originally recruited him as a running back in 2003.
12 Akarika Dawn	Dawn can bounce between the will and mike positions, as he's practiced extensively at both, and played earlier in his career as a strong safety. He speaks fluent Spanish (his fiancé is Colombian). One of the more unsung players on the team, but offers consistent play at linebacker and can register a hit as fierce as anyone.
13 Joe Sanders	Former CU basketball center and current Indiana Pacer David Harrison helped persuade Sanders to become a Buff. Harrison, who also hails from Nashville and attended a nearby high school, has known Sanders since 1998. During high school, he traveled to South Africa to volunteer at an orphanage.
14 Joel Klatt	He played two-plus seasons in the San Diego Padres organization (A-ball: 2000, 2001 some of 2002). Some of his teammates back then are approaching stardom, topped by Padres ace Jack Peavy (16-6 with an MLB best 2.27 ERA in 2004). Others include Justin Germano (September call-up by SD), Tagg Bozied (Portland, AAA/Padres) and Josh Barfield (AA/Padres). Klatt was only the fourth junior elected captain since 1964 (end of the platoon era) and is just the fifth to serve in multiple seasons.
16 Mason Crosby	He has one of the strongest legs in college football, and he proved it out of the gate in 2004 with a 55-yard field goal in the opening win over Colorado State (it split the uprights and cleared with 10 yards to spare), and then made a 52-yarder at sea level in Seattle against Washington State (and of course has a 60-yarder). The coaches feel CU can be in field goal range 65 yards on in. As with most kickers, he has a ritual: he'll sometimes hit 40-60 golf balls at the range two days before games.
17 Lawrence Vickers	One of the most versatile players in all of college football as he has good speed, solid blocking ability and has good hands; thus, he's a threat at tailback, fullback and receiver (and so was born his position moniker: V-Back.). Used to wear No. 34, but switched to 17 as after several personal tragedies, he decided to "skim things down a bit; thus the number serves as a personal reminder.
22 Byron Ellis	Ellis plays with a different style than starter Hugh Charles, as he runs with more of a bruising style and likes to shoot the ball up the middle. He is majoring in integrative physiology at CU and was 4.0 student in high school.
22 Lorenzo Sims, Jr.	His cousin (Ricky Manning) was a defensive back at UCLA, while another (DeShawn Stevenson) plays guard for the Utah Jazz; second cousin (Bruce Bowen) is a forward for the San Antonio Spurs. Sims is CU's most physical corner, evident from his conversion from safety.
27 Brian Iwuh	He was moved to the new position in CU's new defensive scheme—Buff (outside) linebacker—and adjusted very well as he led the team in tackles in 2004. He had a rough 2003, as within four days, he lost his stepfather (Oct. 4) and older brother (Oct. 8) both to cancer. He had his knee scoped on Sept. 6 (hurt vs. CSU), but returned to practice Sept. 19 and started at Miami.
29 John Torp	He had the tough job of replacing '02 Ray Guy Award winner Mark Mariscal, and now, he's one of the leading candidates himself for the award. He averaged 42.5 per punt in 2003, and ratcheted that up to 46.3 last season (see full page of notes on Torp).

LINER NOTES

30 Paul Creighton	Creighton is listed as the No. 3 fullback on the depth chart, as well as the No. 3 tight end. His versatility essentially gives the coaches an extra player at both positions, as well as a valuable contributor on special teams.
31 Gerett Burl	He returned to CU in 2004 after a one-semester hiatus, and his return was welcomed. His grandfather, Alex "The Bullet" Burl, played tailback at Colorado State and then one year (1956) with the Chicago Cardinals. Another grandpa, Eddie Callaway, coached basketball (the first African-American to do so in Colorado) and was principal at Manual. Uncle, Eddie Callaway Jr., coached former CU basketball player and NBA Finals MVP Chauncey Billups at George Washington.
33 Walter Boye-Doe	He moved to defensive end from inside linebacker, a move that was delayed, as he did not participate in spring drills due to an ankle injury. An older brother, Howard, is a senior linebacker at Wisconsin.
43 Brendan Schaub	He entered his senior season having ascended to No. 2 at fullback. He had outstanding spring and fall practices that prompted Barnett to place Schaub on scholarship. He will likely see plenty of action in special teams duty as well.
44 Jordon Dizon	He became the first true freshman since 1991 and just the sixth-ever to start a season opener at CU in 2004 (the first ILB). He lived up to his nod, racking up 8 tackles, to go with a caused interception, one PBU, a TD save and a third down stop against CSU. His given Hawaiian name, Kainalu (pronounced kye-ah-na-loo) means "ocean wave."
45 Quinn Synlewski	A nagging turf toe suffered in 2002 eventually required surgery in 2003, ending his true senior year; but with a redshirt year available, he opted to gear toward last season. Bad luck then hit him again with the lower leg injury. As a result, he is the first six-year player in modern history, and he finally scored his first college TD in his 44th career game (against New Mexico State).
47 Alonzo Barrett	Barrett had a monster spring capped by the annual spring game in which he finished with six solo tackles, including five sacks for a losses of 22 yards, two third down stops and a forced fumble. Rotating into the lineup at present, he provides quality depth.
49 Thaddaeus Washington	If Iwuh is the hardest hitter on the team (Thaddaeus disagrees), then Washington is a close second. He boasts the team's second best squat (567 pounds during spring testing). Hails from the same high school that produced former CU QB Kordell Stewart.
51 Alex Ligon	Seasoned and bigger (up 15 pounds from '03), he came into his own last season; he had three quarterback sacks at Washington State, the first Buff to have that many since 2000, and claimed Big12 Defensive POW honors.
53 Abraham Wright	An explosive player with great speed, Wright has a knack for getting in the backfield. He finished the 2004 regular season second in QB pressures with six and tied with Ligon in sacks (4½).
58 Mark Fenton	He got the attention of the coaching staff during CU's 2002 Alamo Bowl practices, as that's when he first got an extensive look at the center position. CU's had a long line of all-conference centers, and he's just a sophomore.
59 Greg Pace	He approached long snapping like a financial analyst plots strategies; he started attending special team camps as a prep, and through hard work and dedication, was awarded a scholarship this fall. He is strictly a snapping specialist and plays no other spot.
62 John Guydon	Guydon, who has already graduated with a degree in broadcast production, is also interested in stand-up comedy. He has performed on occasion in front of small audiences and gets pretty good reviews. His second cousin, Damian Anderson, played tailback at Northwestern (under coach Gary Barnett) and is now with the Arizona Cardinals in the NFL.
66 Brian Daniels	In 2003, he started the most games—9—as a true freshman at CU since Eric Bieniemy started 11 at halfback in 1987; that number also tied for the fourth most starts at the time by a true frosh and most by any true frosh OL in school history.
73 Clint O'Neal	His weight is hovering around 300, his peak as a Buffalo as he's found it difficult to gain and keep it on. He has been as low as 270 pounds during his CU career, but now that he's bulked up, he enters his second consecutive season as a starter on the O-line. OL coach Dave Borbely said he had a great summer conditioning and took things to a new level, and it's paid dividends.
76 Edwin Harrison	For his efforts and strong play towards the end of last season, Harrison was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-Big 12 squad. His grandfather (Calvin Jones) won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior lineman as a senior at Iowa in 1955; Jones was the first two-time consensus All-American in Iowa history, and his No. 62 was retired by the Hawkeyes.
77 Tyler Polumbus	The tallest player on the Buffs at 6-8, Polumbus has bulked up to 280 pounds. Two members of his family played sports at CU: Father (Tad) lettered in both football and golf (1965-66), and an uncle (Gary Polumbus) lettered three years in golf and twice made it to the NCAA Championships.
79 Gary Moore	Has played both guard and tackle during his CU career and thus could see time at both. His physique has been Completely overhauled, as he's down between 315-320 pounds, some 50-60 pounds lighter than his true freshman year. An accomplished singer, he sang God Bless America the first home game following 9/11 and has a desire to one day be on "American Idol."
82 James Garee	Garee weighed 205 when he signed with Colorado in the winter of 2001, and he's progressively bulked up to 275. He moves to the interior on the defensive line to help replace graduated tackles Matt McChesney and Brandon Dabdoub. He was named a starter for the '03 Big 12 opener and has been a starter on the line ever since, and is a legitimate all-Big 12 candidate at his new position.
82 Evan Judge	He has the second-most career receiving yards by a walk-on (or former walk-on) in CU history, trailing only Jeff Campbell, perhaps the most famous Buffalo to ever join the team as a walk-on.
83 Dusty Sprague	He steadily improved last season, and had his first career 100-yard receiving game at Texas A&M (8-101). He fractured his clavicle vs. Texas, missed three games, but came back quick and played in the Big 12 Championship game.
89 Joe Klopfenstein	"Klop" runs well, has solid blocking skills and has great hands, and is a favorite target of the quarterbacks. A John Mackey Award candidate, he has a knack for the big play... which is aided by his 4.53 speed, making him the fifth fastest player on the team.
93 Vaka Manupuna	Take your pick: blossomed, developed, matured, ripened, came of age. A spot player as a sophomore while coping with his mother's death back in Hawaii, he won a starting spot as a junior after promising his late sister, Mele (she passed in the spring of 2004) that he would never quit and work hard to become a starter. He's been a mainstay in the starting lineup ever since.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below is the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2005 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on this year's opening roster collectively had played in 1,080 games, with 314 starts, making it the most experienced team entering a season under Gary Barnett. That's a complete turnaround from last year, when with 761 games and 182 starts, it was his least-experienced team. The 2001 team was the most experienced until the season, as it entered the year with 924 games played with 326 starts; similar numbers were 761/182 (2004), 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). OUT THERE FROM THE GET-GO

DE James Garee now owns the longest starting streak on the team at 23 games, with the next longest streaks all at 16: C Mark Fenton, OT Clint O'Neal and CB Lorenzo Sims. QB Joel Klatt and TE Joe Klopfenstein share the team lead with the most career starts with 25, followed by Garee with 24 and OG Brian Daniels with 23. TE Quinn Sypniewski has played in 45 games, including bowls (43 regular season); he is well within reach of the regular season school record of 48. Daniels had a team-best string of 23 consecutive starts snapped when he missed the New Mexico State game with a fractured rib.

THIRTEEN "SEASONED" TO DATE IN 2005

Through three games, 13 players have now had their first taste of action in a Colorado uniform. In the opener against Colorado State, eight players hit the field for the very first time as a Colorado Buffalo, including one true freshman (ILB Marcus Burton, who played eight snaps from scrimmage); five followed suit for their first game action in game two against New Mexico State. In 2004, 26 saw their first collegiate action for the Buffaloes, with 24 players doing so in 2003; the latter included two scholarship kickers making CU likely the first team in the nation in a very long time that had two freshmen scholarship kickers play in the first game of the year. The list (*—mainly special teams duty to date):

TRUE FRESHMEN (4): S Ben Burney, ILB Marcus Burton, DT George Hypolite, CB Gardner McKay.

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (4): *ILB Maurice Cantrell, OLB Brad Jones, OG Daniel Sanders, S Ryan Walters.

SOPHOMORES (1): *WR Chase McBride.

JUNIORS (4): WR Alvin Barnett, *OLB Chad Cusworth, OL Bryce MacMartin, *CB Terry Washington.

SENIORS (0).

SIX MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2005

Four players started for the first time in their CU careers in opener against Colorado State, all on the offensive side of the ball: TB Hugh Charles, OT Tyler Polumbus, WR Dusty Sprague and OG Jack Tipton. A week later, OG Daniel Sanders made his first start in place on of an injured Brian Daniels against New Mexico State. At Miami, OG Edwin Harrison started for the first time in a retooled line to combat several injuries. In 2004, 12 players made their first career starts in a CU uniform, with 10 of those returning this fall. In 2003, 20 players made their first career starts, the most first starts in since 1998, when there were 27 first-time starters for the Buffaloes, 17 on offense and 10 on defense. Those were the most since 1984, when 29 made their first starts (15 on offense). The annual number of first-time starters since 1984:

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12) and 2005 (6).

STARTING SHUFFLE

In 1998, Colorado had a plethora of injuries, and it meant different starting lineups on a weekly basis; it was the start of an incredibly unique streak. That year, CU started 12 different lineups on offense and 11 on defense, or 23 different starting lineups combined, the most in CU history until 1999 and 2000, when CU did not start the same lineup two weeks in succession the entire year. The previous high since 1971 (the start of 11-game seasons) was in 1991, when CU used 13 (seven on offense and six on defense). A closer look:

- ⇒ In 1999, CU started 20 different lineups (12 offense, 8 defense), due to personnel and formations in about half of the instances and to injuries for the rest. The 20 were the second most in team history to the 1998 count. In 2000 and 2001, the numbers continued to grow.
- ⇒ CU had started different lineups on offense for 41 consecutive games, starting in mid-1997 until the start of 2001. On defense, the Buffs started a different 11 for 30 straight contests until having the same starting lineup in there for games two and three in 2001 (CSU, San Jose State).
- ⇒ CU used 21 different lineups (11 offense, 10 defense) in 2002 and 21 different lineups in 12 games in 2003 (CU started the same 11 on both offense and defense just twice in '03). In 2004, even though the same five O-linemen started all 13 games, CU had 16 different lineups (6 offense, 10 defense).
- ⇒ New seasons bring new lineups, so the opening day ones in 2005 were both new, but so were they in game two with the offense another unique one in game three; thus, CU has now utilized 144 different starting lineups in its last 91 games, or just 38 under the maximum.

A DOZEN THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 12 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Three did it along in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat in 2004 when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. The only Buff in that time frame whose first career interception didn't go for a score was Damen Wheeler—and it appeared did score against K-State in 1996, but he was called for stepping out of bounds. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through September 24, senior associate AD Jon Burianek has worked 422 CU football games, including a current run of 405 in a row (225 of which are at home; he's seen 442 all told). The radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 397 games in his career, including 137 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts). SID Dave Plati has worked 299, including the last 257 in a row, while facilities man John Krueger has worked 257 in all (107 straight). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 198 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 244 CU games. Gary Barnett has coached in 173 Buffalo games (95 as an assistant), while Mike Hankwitz, in his second tour as a CU assistant, has notched 136. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 108 times in 164 tries, including 18 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 66 percent of the time). CU is 2-4 of in 2005: the Buffs were 1-for-2 against CSU, including the game winning field goal, 1-of-1 with a first half TD march against New Mexico State, and 0-of-1 at Miami. CU was 4-for-5 in 2004, including a second half go-ahead score at Texas A&M and the game winning touchdown versus Kansas State. In 2003, the Buffs scored twice in as many tries in the season opener against Colorado State, registering a TD at the end of the first half and the game-winning score at the end of the game—CU's first in the two-minute drill since 1999. Lo and behold, the Buffs did it again in the offense the following week, putting the game winning score on the board with 2:15 left against UCLA. In Gary Barnett's tenure, the Buffs are 29 of 53 in the drill (18 TD/11 FG). One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 281-10-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 202-3 with 35-plus points and 187-2 with 36-plus, 163-1 with 38-plus and 106-0 with 43 or more tallies. The three losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980) and Stanford (41-37 in 1993). Colorado has played 1,078 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 7-13-1 in its last 21 games against top five teams (dating back to 1989) and is 13-26-2 against top 10 schools and 40-42-2 against all ranked teams in the same time frame.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 94 of its last 198 games, posting an 88-5-1 record. The losses were at Stanford, 41-37 in 1993, to Missouri in Boulder in 1997, 41-31, and twice to Nebraska (in Boulder in 1999, 33-30, in overtime; and 34-32 at Lincoln in 2000) and at Baylor in 2003 (42-30). The tie was a 31-31 affair with Tennessee in the 1990 Disneyland Pigskin Classic. The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 143 of these 198 games, dating to the start of 1989, going 116-25-2 (CU is 19-34-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed only 323 touchdowns in the last 637 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 (dating back to 1988; the other 314 times have yielded 159 field goals as well as 155 non-scores). In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 25% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 49% of the time, which are astonishing numbers.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 66 touchdowns out of 166 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 91 scores overall, meaning 75 non-scores). In 2004, the opponent had nine scores (7 TDs, 2 FG) out of 18 drives started in plus territory (one score in two times in 2005); over the last four seasons, CU's allowed just 47 scores (37 TD/10 FG) in 87 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory.
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards total offense per game figure in 44 of its last 96 contests (once in 2005, five times in '04), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 149 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 81 times (54 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 40 of the 149 games since the '93 season opener (27%)... and remember CU has played 65 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ The Buffs were truly a bend-but-not-break defense in 2004, as once the enemy reached the 50, yards were tough to come by: 404 plays netted 1812 yards, or a 4.5 average, a full yard below its overall average. Another way of looking at it is the opponent had 82 drives with plays in the plus zone, or just an average of 22.1 yards once they cross the 50. The opponent started 18 drives in plus territory and CU allowed just nine scores (7 TD/2 FG) in that situation, and of the 45 times the opponent have cracked the 20 (or red zone), CU allowed 31 scores which included just 23 touchdowns.
- ➔ Colorado had seven touchdowns by returns in 2001 (4 interception, 2 punt, 1 fumble), a school record; but guess what? The 2002 team matched it (3 fumble, 2 interception, 2 punt). In 2004, the Buffs had six; dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, and including the eight total in 2002 (one came in the bowl), and one in '03, the Buffs have 34 scores by return in their last 74 games. And since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 55 scores by return in 125 games (48 regular season, seven bowl), or one almost every two games.
- ➔ The Torp/Crosby Factor. These guys control field position; opponents started over half their drives in 2004 either at (27) or inside (53) the 20, or 80 out of 159 (50.3%). By comparison, Colorado started 65 of 158 at or inside its 20, or 41.1%. And it's continued into '05: through three games, 24 of 28 opponent drives have started at or inside their own 20.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado topped 200 yards both rushing and passing against New Mexico State, as CU has accomplished the 200 "double-double" 10 times in the last 77 games (and 31 times in the last 149, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 31-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 51-34-1 in its last 86 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (48-27 in the last 75, including a 24-12 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 88-27-3 in its last 118 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 55-20-3 in conference games. CU is 3-1 on artificial surfaces in 2004.
- ➔ Colorado has allowed 329 quarterback sacks since the start of the 1993 season (including bowls), with the offensive line responsible for 196 of those (the others were allowed by tight ends/receivers/backs or were coverage sacks). That's 329 sacks allowed for 4,899 pass plays called, or one for every 14.9 pass attempts. And combined with this sack statistic is that fact that CU quarterbacks have thrown just 147 interceptions in 4,570 attempts in the same span, or an interception rate of just 3.22 percent (one every 31.1 passes).
- ➔ The Buffs were an enigma on third down defensively in 2003, and remained so in 2004. In 2003, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per) and had just 171 yards on 113 misses (1.5). (For comparison, CU had 660 yards on 59 conversions, 11.2 per, and 222 on 112 misses for 2.0.)
--Through three games in 2005, that number is down a bit to 11.9 on the 12 conversions (143 yards total; three plays with "excessive yards," 33, 24 and 21).
- ➔ Quick Strike. Colorado has made a habit of scoring quickly the past three seasons. Dating back to the start of 2002, 42 of 119 touchdown drives have taken under 2:00. In 2005, 3 of 7 have used less than 2:00; in 2004, 9 of 28 fit that mold; 13 of 43 did so in 2003 and 17 of 41 in 2002. The Buffs also sustained several drives in 2004, with 16 lasting 3:00 or longer.
- ➔ Colorado is 85-34-3 in its last 122 league games, and has the 10th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder on Sept. 25, 1993, opponents are just 3-of-63 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003 (WSU converted on a 3rd-&-23 and ISU on a 3rd-&-20 in 2004). The CU offense has converted 4-of-52 times when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ In the Barnett Era, the Buffs have scored in 218 of 312 quarters (70 percent), as well as in four of six overtime periods. All tolled, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 444 of its last 586 quarters (76%), including 7 of 12 in 2005.

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 29+ seasons. Since the start of 1976 (345 games), CU has blown a two-or-more score lead only 13 times, losing 10 and tying three. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 16 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss came at Texas A&M last year, where the Buffs led 19-10 entering the quarter and regained the lead 26-23 after falling behind 23-19. In conference play, only Kansas (1984), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001), Oklahoma State (1997) and Texas A&M (2004) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 29 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The two most recent wins of this variety came against Texas-El Paso in the 2004 Houston Bowl and in the season opener against CSU this season (rallying from 9 and 11 points down, respectively).
- Colorado has won 82 of its last 87 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead (current streak is 4 and 10 of the last 11); a 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 19-game winning streak in such situations (and one of 26 straight on the road), and two games later, Texas Tech mustered a similar comeback. A streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 17 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon: to BYU (1988 Freedom Bowl), Stanford (1991), Missouri (1997), Kansas (1998), CSU, Washington and Texas Tech (1999), CSU, Texas A&M and Kansas (2000), Fresno State (2001), CSU and Wisconsin (2002), Washington State, Baylor and Kansas State (2003) and Missouri this year. BYU reappeared in the '88 final rankings; Stanford went 7-1 after CU to crack the top 20; in '97, MU almost beat Nebraska the following week and made its way into polls for the first time in 14 seasons; CSU appeared at No. 24 after defeating CU in '99; in '01, Fresno toppled No. 10 Oregon State the next week and zoomed into the rankings; in '02, CSU climbed as high as No. 13; and WSU cracked the polls after its win in Boulder in 2003. The Buffs are 77-15-2 in their last 94 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 108-17-2 in the last 127. The Buffs are 145-60-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-7 in bowls); 99-43-3 in Big 8/12 games (including three league title games) and 46-17-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 26 occasions (and is 20-6 in games when this occurs). It's happened nine times over the last six-plus seasons, three times in 2004: at Texas A&M (TB Bobby Purify/WR Dusty Sprague), versus Kansas State (Purify/WR Ron Monteilh) and at Nebraska (Purify/WR Blake Mackey). It happened three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB's Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 171 of the 2004 CU football media guide (yes, last year's book; thanks again, NCAA).

SPECIAL TEAMS INVITE

How important does the coaching staff view special teams? Barnett started this tradition while at Northwestern, and has continued it at CU: the coaches of the four major special team units (punt, punt return, kickoff and kickoff return) personally hand out invitations to the players to attend the inaugural meetings of those units during camp. While some starters appear on all units, all feature traditional role players who have found a home with dedication to special teams work. Barnett also receives a personal invitation from each coach.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs have scored in a school record 200 consecutive games (dating back to 1988, the longest streak in the Big 12), last being shutout on November 12, 1988 at Nebraska (7-0). CU has scored in 108 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986 in a game where the Sooners did not attempt a single pass). The Buffs have scored in 79 consecutive road games (102 including neutral sites). The Buffs have scored in 125 straight league games (all 75 in Big 12 play, including the three title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska). CU has scored in 115 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at home over the course of the last 246 games (all the way back to 1963). CU has been shutout just seven times in its last 432 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only four schools have done it: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan. Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through September 24): Colorado 200, Nebraska 116, Kansas State 107, Texas Tech 95, Oklahoma 84, Oklahoma State 52, Kansas 29, Missouri 27, Iowa State 18, Texas A&M 17, Texas 10, Baylor 3. CU was the last team to shutout Kansas State (12-0 in 1996).

SCORING STREAKS II

The school record 200 consecutive games in which Colorado has scored is the sixth longest active streak in the nation. The list of the nine Division I-A schools that have scored in every game since at least the start of the 1993 season, through games of September 24:

200 AND COUNTING

It was a close call, but Mason Crosby's 58-yard field goal extended CU's scoring streak to 200 games in a 23-3 loss at Miami. The 200-game streak currently stands as the 12th longest in Division I-A college history:

School	Streak	Dates	Ended By	School	Streak	Dates	Ended By

The streak of 200 games started on November 19, 1988; here's a look at some of things in the news that day and week CU began its record scoring run:

- ◆ The media reported on President Ronald Reagan signing three executive orders the previous day in relation to FEMA and catastrophic nuclear accidents. Reagan was wrapping up his second term, as George H.W. Bush was elected into office 11 days earlier on November 8;
- ◆ In the NBA, the Doug Moe-coached Denver Nuggets crushed the L.A. Clippers, 134-107 (Alex English was the highest paid player on Denver, at $1.65 million);
- ◆ Robert Plant of Led Zeppelin fame was touring that night in Tulsa, Okla.;
- ◆ The Escape Club owned the nation's top single on that date with their hit, Wild, Wild West, taking the spot over from the Beach Boys' Kokomo;
- ◆ The Top 10 television shows at the time included: The Cosby Show, Roseanne, A Different World, Cheers, The Golden Girls, Who's The Boss, 60 Minutes, Murder She Wrote, Empty Nest and Anything But Love.
- ◆ L.A. Law's Corbin Bernson married actress Amanda Pays (who?);
- ◆ Christine Onassis, heir and stepdaughter of Jackie O., died of heart failure at the age of 37; and
- ◆ John Lithgow hosted that's evening's Saturday Night Live.

THIRD TIME THE CHARM?

For the first time in school history, a player was granted a sixth-year of eligibility as TE Quinn Sypniewski returned this fall after the NCAA allowed him another shot at a full senior season. Sypniewski originally received a medical redshirt for 2004 after battling a toe injury for the better part of two seasons, and received another after suffering a fractured lower leg in just his third game of the '05 campaign. So it's his third try as a senior. Sypniewski also became the first player to record statistics in six different seasons at CU.

➤ DID YOU KNOW: The only five players in modern CU history who have posted statistics in five different seasons are Sypniewski, ILB Barry Remington (1982-86), WR/KR Jo Jo Collins (1984-88), TB Marlon Barnes (1994-98) and TB Bobby Purify (2000-2004). The first three played as true freshmen and suffered in-season ending injuries either their sophomore or junior seasons; Purify was injured in his original true senior season.

OPPONENTS IN 2005

The 2005 schedule marks a first for the Buffaloes in Big 12 Conference play: CU will close its regular season schedule with its last five games against the other North Division teams (CU closed with four straight the first three years of the league's existence, in 1996-97-98). Colorado has five bowl teams on its 2005 schedule (Iowa State, Miami, Fla., Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M) with this year's 11 foes combining overall for a 68-58 record in 2004, a winning percentage of 54.0. Three teams just missed out on the postseason after recording 5-6 records (New Mexico State, Missouri, Nebraska), with the three remaining teams all posting 4-7 records, with all three playing schedules ranked in the top 31 in the nation last fall (Kansas No. 17, CSU No. 27, Kansas State No. 31). The roll call of 2005 opponents and their 2004 records: Colorado State (4-7), New Mexico State (5-6), Miami, Fla. (9-3), Oklahoma State (7-5), Texas A&M (7-5), Texas (11-1), Kansas (4-7), Kansas State (4-7), Missouri (5-6), Iowa State (7-5) and Nebraska (5-6).

- Colorado gets three schools this year one week after one of their most intense rivalries: On Sept. 10, the Buffs play New Mexico State a week after the Aggies square off against neighbor UTEP (and a week ahead of the NMSU-New Mexico clash); on Oct. 15, CU travels to Austin to face Texas a week after its Red River Shootout with Oklahoma; and on Nov. 5, the Buffs host Missouri seven days after the annual MU-Kansas battle.

USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those few games it has lost over the last 16 seasons. Of the 59 losses, 32 have been by eight points or less (including 15 of the 34 losses in the Barnett Era). Teams that have defeated CU by more than eight are Nebraska, Oklahoma, Kansas State and Texas (three times), Kansas and Missouri (twice), Baylor, and Colorado State, Florida State, Miami, Michigan, Notre Dame, Oklahoma State, Oregon, Texas Tech, USC and Washington State. CU has really been dominated from the start only five times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU (though CU led in total yardage over 75 percent of the game), 2002 vs. USC and in the 2004 Big 12 title game with Oklahoma. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04) and Miami ('05) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

'04 BOWL TEAMS

Colorado played six bowl teams in 2004 (not including UTEP in the Houston Bowl), tied for the 15th most in the nation, and including the 2003 slate, CU has seen 16 of its last 24 opponents earn bowl bids. Only one of CU's non-conference opponents advanced to bowl play (North Texas), the fewest in recent memory. In October, CU lined up against four consecutive bowl teams (Oklahoma State, Iowa State, Texas A&M and Texas), and then added Oklahoma to the list in the title game. MOST BOWL TEAMS PLAYED (2004): Texas A&M 9, Syracuse 8, Arkansas 7, Arizona 7, Arizona State 7, Iowa 7, Michigan 7, Louisiana Tech 7, Northwestern 7, Notre Dame 7, Ohio State 7, Oklahoma State 7, South Florida 7, USC 7, Colorado 6 (with 17 other schools).

NO CREAMPUFFS HERE

Colorado has the eighth best record in college football since the start of 1989 season (135-59-4). Of these 198 games, Colorado has played 84 ranked teams (42%), the fourth most in the nation during this time frame, with another 26 games against teams receiving significant (10 or more) votes. CU is 40-42-2 against ranked teams during this period (including a 13-17 record on the road); CU is also 95-17-2 against unranked teams. The schedule is also consistent: CU has played the fourth most games against ranked teams the last 12 years (64 of its last 146 contests), going 3-3 in 1993, 5-1 in 1994, 5-2 in 1995, 2-2 in 1996, 1-5 in 1997, 3-3 in 1998, 2-2 in 1999, 0-5 in 2000, 5-2 in 2001, 2-3 in 2002, 2-3 in 2003, 0-4 in 2004 and 0-1 in 2005. NOTE: In 1990, CU became only the second team in NCAA history to win the national championship after playing the nation's toughest schedule (opponents won 63% of their games; Penn State was the first to accomplish the feat, in 1982). CU also played the nation's toughest in 1997: opponents won 67% of their games as the Buffs played both co-national champions, Michigan and Nebraska.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Nine ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas State in 2002, which came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A&M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

CU-GEORGIA SIGN ON FOR HOME-AND-HOME SERIES, FUTURE SCHEDULES TAKING SHAPE

Colorado and Georgia jointly announced on May 31 an agreement to play each other on the football field for the first time in school history. Initiated by CU officials in anticipation of approval of a 12th game, the two schools moved quickly to schedule a home-and-home series beginning next year and concluding at the end of the decade. The Buffaloes will travel to Athens to face the Bulldogs at Sanford Stadium on September 23, 2006, with UGA to return the game at Folsom Field on October 2, 2010. The contract will call for CU to receive $750,000 for its trip to Georgia next year; allowing for inflation with four years to elapse between games, UGA will earn $825,000 for its trip to Boulder in 2010. It will be the largest payout CU has ever received for a regular season road game, topping the $600,000 it received for past games at Michigan and Florida State.

"This series with Georgia is significant for several reasons," CU athletic director Mike Bohn said. "Outside of the obvious in that we get to play in a great venue in Athens and in turn bring a quality opponent to Folsom Field, we have a large and active alumni base in the Atlanta area, and it was fortuitous to add a quality road game in 2006 when we already have six games in Boulder and a seventh in Denver in the Colorado State game." Bohn added that including television dollars, the game next year could result in anywhere from $1.1 to 1.3 million in revenue for the athletic department.

The Buffs have played just 10 games against Southeastern Conference schools, owning a 2-7-1 all-time record. The two wins were significant: a 47-33 win over Alabama in the '69 Liberty Bowl, and a 31-21 win at Louisiana State to open the '71 campaign, starting Eddie Crowder's Buffs on their way to a 10-2 season and No. 3 final ranking. In 1990, No. 5 CU opened the year with a 31-31 tie with No. 8 Tennessee in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic; the Buffs went on to finish 11-1-1 and claim the national championship. Six of the 10 games have been against LSU, and the Buffs last played an SEC team in 1991, when Alabama rallied for a 30-25 win in the Blockbuster Bowl.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 105 players on the 2005 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of August 29) were 7,934 inches in height and weighed 22,900 pounds, or an average of 6-3, 218 pounds per player (very similar to last four averages: 6-2, 223 in 2004; 6-2¼, 226 in 2003; 6-2¼, 227 in 2002; and 6-2, 227 in both 2000 and 2001). The 7,934 inches translate roughly into 661 feet or 220 yards (or a pro's 8-iron at The International at Castle Pines), while the weight of 22,900 pounds is about the equivalent of the fuel needed for a jetliner to make the coast-to-coast trip from New York to Los Angeles. Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Cornerbacks	10	5	5-10	182	Quarterbacks	6	2	6-3	212
Defensive Ends	10	4	6-3	245	Safeties	7	4	6-0	194
Defensive Tackles	6	3	6-3	280	Special Teams Snappers	2	2	6-1	225
Fullbacks	4	2	6-2	235	Tailbacks	6	2	5-9	198
Inside Linebackers	11	6	6-1	223	Tight Ends	7	2	6-4	235
Kickers/Punters	5	3	6-1	194	V-Backs (Versatile)	1	1	6-2	235

Outside Linebackers	4	1	6-1½	220	Team	105	49	6-3	218

The most popular letter to begin surnames are the letters B (12 each), followed by H and S (both 10), and then G and W (9); five last names are similar, but none are brothers (Adams, Brown, Jones, Sanders, Washington). There was no overly popular first name (there were three Maurice's), and the more unique ones include Akarika, Dusty, Taj, Thaddaeus and Vaka.

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (72 percent of the entire roster—76 of 105 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 35, California 25, Texas 16, Hawai'i 3, Iowa 3, Florida 2, Illinois 2, Kansas 2, Louisiana 2, Michigan 2, Minnesota 2, Nebraska 2, Oklahoma 2, Alabama 1, Arizona 1, Connecticut 1, Missouri 1, Oregon 1 and Tennessee 1. That's 19 states plus Canada (one player) that produced the make-up of this year's team.

2005 TEAM MAKE-UP

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 14 major schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—Iowa State, Kansas, San Jose State; 3—Colorado State, Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, UCLA and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by LSU and Oklahoma (4) and Michigan State (3 each).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 69-25 in its last 94 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 67-12 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 59-16-1 in its last 76 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 17-9 since 1986 against teams ranked between Nos. 20 and 25 in the AP poll (8-3 in the last 11);
- ❑ Colorado is 66-10-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (17-3 last 20; 71-47-2 with 50,000-plus);
- ❑ Colorado is 71-29-2 in games where the starting quarterback had the letter "K" in his first or last name (dating to 1992: Kordell Stewart, Duke Tobin, Koy Detmer, Mike Moschetti, Joel Klatt, Erik Greenberg).

SIX BUFFS PLAY IN SUPER BOWL XXXIX, FOUR WIN RINGS

CU had six players either on the New England Patriots or the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX last February 6 in Jacksonville, with the four on the Pats winning championship rings for the second straight year. The combined count of six was the most representing any school on both rosters in the game.

Offensive tackle Tom Ashworth (CU class of 2000) tight ends Christian Fauria ('94) and Daniel Graham ('01) and linebacker Ted Johnson ('94) all have won Super Bowl rings with New England the last two seasons. Ashworth and Johnson also earned rings three years ago when the Pats won their first Super Bowl over the St. Louis Rams. All-pro safety Michael Lewis ('01) and quarterback Koy Detmer ('96) were unfortunately on the losing end for the Eagles. Lewis has been a regular in the Philly secondary since his rookie season in 2002, and Detmer, the backup to Donovan McNabb, is the team's holder and one of its most popular players.

The six Buffaloes in this year's game also represented the most Colorado alumni ever on the overall rosters (active, inactive or injured reserve) for a Super Bowl game, topping the five on two previous occasions. That happened in 1980, when four played for the champion Oakland Raiders (Cliff Branch, Mike L. Davis, Odis McKinney and Greg Westbrook) and one for the Philadelphia Eagles (Charlie Johnson), and in 1998, when four were members of the champion Denver Broncos (Matt Lepsis, Viliani Maumau, Tom Rouen and Alfred Williams) with one on the Atlanta Falcons (Ronnie Bradford).

FOUR SENIORS NAMED CAPTAINS FOR 2005 SEASON

The Buffaloes elected seniors DT James Garee, OLB Brian Iwuh, QB Joel Klatt and VB Lawrence Vickers as the team's 2005 captains on August 26.

- Klatt, who was just the fourth player since 1985 to be named as a captain as a junior, becomes just the fifth player to serve as a Buffalo captain in multiple seasons. TB Bobby Purify did so in 2003 and 2004, though in part being awarded a second chance at a senior season after his fourth-year ended early due to an ankle injury. ILB Barry Remington was the last player selected by his teammates to serve as a captain both his natural junior and senior years (1985 and 1986). The other two players who held the honor twice were in CU's first decade of intercollegiate football, when Pat Carney served as team captain for the 1891, 1892 and 1893 seasons with Harry Gamble the choice in 1894 and 1896. He has a chance to take over almost all of the school's major passing records, as he entered his senior season at Colorado in the top five in the five major passing categories.
- Garee, a fifth-year senior from Colorado Springs (Mitchell High School), moves inside to tackle from end this year, has started 21 consecutive games, the second longest current streak on the team. He had 60 tackles last season and has 7.5 career quarterback sacks.
- Iwuh, who cracked the starting late in his true freshman year at weak safety in 2002, has 151 career tackles, including 109 solo stops. A second-team all-Big 12 Conference performer a year ago, he led the Buffs in tackles with 98 in 2004, which also included a team-best 14 for losses.
- Vickers, a fourth-year performer from Houston, is referred to by many as the best fullback in the Big 12, but who can also play tailback and had excellent hands as a receiver, thus the "V-back" tag for his versatility. He has 373 career rushing and 404 career receiving yards, and should easily join the short list in school history of players who have 500 or more of each.

CRADLE OF COACHES

There are four current head coaches in Division I college football who have had assistant coaching stints at the University of Colorado. The most obvious is Gary Barnett, who was an assistant at CU from 1984-91 and was head coach at Northwestern from 1992-98. Others include: Les Miles, Oklahoma State (1982-86), Gregg Brandon, Bowling Green (1999-2000) and Karl Dorrell, UCLA (1992-93, 1995-97). Gerry DiNardo was on that list last year, as the former head man at Vanderbilt and LSU coached at Indiana (he was at Colorado from 1982-89); In 2003, Mike Hankwitz, served as Arizona's interim head coach for the last two months of the season; he was at CU for 10 years (1985-94). Lou Tepper (1983-87) was head coach at Illinois for five years and is now the head man at Edinboro (Pa.) State. All were assistants under Bill McCartney, CU's all-time winningest head coach (93-55-5 between 1982-94). Five others who assisted under McCartney have also worked as head coaches: Jim Caldwell, Wake Forest (at CU from 1982-84), Steve Logan, East Carolina (1985-86), Rick Neuheisel, at CU and Washington (1994), Bob Simmons, Oklahoma State (1988-94) and Ron Vanderlinden, Maryland (1983-91). Tom Cable (1998-99) was head coach for four seasons at Idaho, as he coached under Rick Neuheisel and Barnett. Dorrell is the only one above to coach as an assistant under both McCartney and Neuheisel. In addition, former CU player Pete Shinnick ('88) is entering his seventh season as head coach at Azusa Pacific.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 21 Colorado Buffaloes on the 2005 National Football League rosters (as of September 18). CU had 32 at the start of camps in July, with the 21 that are currently on the rosters tied for fifth in the Big 12, trailing Nebraska (32), Texas A&M (27), Oklahoma (23) and Kansas State (22); Texas is tied with the Buffs. Nationally in 2004, CU was tied for the 12th most players produced; Miami, Fla., led with 43, followed by Florida State (39) and Notre Dame (38). CU tied for 13th in 2003 with 29, and was 10th in 2002, also with 29. The Buffs had 42 report to camps in 2003, which led the Big 12 Conference. CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was third in 2000 and 2001 and second in 2002 and 2003. Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). AND IN CANADA? Two former Buffs took their wares north to the Canadian Football League: C Marwan Hage played with the Hamilton Tigercats, while CB Ben Kelly is on the Calgary Stampeders.

DECADE NUMBERS: Colorado had 46 players drafted between 1993 and 2002, the seventh most in the nation and second most in the Big 12. Tennessee led the way with 60, followed by Florida State (58), Nebraska (53), Ohio State (52), Florida (48), Miami, Fla. (47) and then Colorado.

NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Fauria, Irwin, Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 10 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 18 of 24 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 116th season of competition with an all-time record of 645-397-36 in 1,078 games. CU currently stands 15th on the all-time win list and is 21st in all-time winning percentage (.616). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 277-131-10 in their 82nd season on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 239-202-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

The Buffs are 43-16 in their last 59 games played in September, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays, and are 2-2-1 in August games in its history. Dating back to 1989, Colorado is 42-20-2 in its last 64 October games, 47-16-1 in its last 64 November games (42-8 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 4-8-1 against NU in turkey month) and is 5-4 in December games since 1993.

OVERTIME

Colorado is 3-3 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime:

Date	Opponent	Score	Regulation	Coin Toss	Choice	---Total Yards---		Notes

NCAA CHANGES FORMULA FOR NET PUNTING

This season, the NCAA has begun to allow for touchbacks when computing net punting average. This isn't new stuff—the NFL has done it for years—so it really will be more reflective of what a player and team's net punting numbers are. To calculate, return yards and touchback yards (touchbacks x 20) are deducted from the gross yardage total with that number divided by the number of punts to attain the net average. As for CU, not much need to worry about it deflating John Torp's numbers; he had five touchbacks out of 68 punts all last season, which would have lowered his and the team's net by 1.47 yards to 41.22, still higher than No. 2 BYU's figure of 41.14 before accounting for any touchbacks by Cougar punters. For his career, Torp has just 13 touchbacks for 148 punts.

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 15 seasons, which is the seventh most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Miami (9), Oklahoma (9), Ohio State (8) and Nebraska (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu, Ray Guy, Rimington and Hendricks awards. The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2004 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus got ½ in the trophy count):

School	Players	Trophies	School	Players	Trophies	School	Players	Trophies

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 17 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of the times, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 10 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 17 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2005: Florida State 17, Michigan 17, Ohio State 17, Miami, Fla. 16, Tennessee 16, Nebraska 14, Notre Dame 13, Penn State 13, Colorado 12, Alabama 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll

MOST TOP 5 FINISHES (1989-2004): Florida St. 12, Miami 8, Nebraska 5, COLORADO 4, Oklahoma 4, Tennessee 4, Alabama 3, Florida 3, Notre Dame 3, Ohio St. 3, USC 3.

MOST TOP 10 FINISHES (1989-2004): Florida St. 12, Florida 10, Miami 9, Michigan 8, Nebraska 8, Tennessee 8, COLORADO 6, Kansas St. 6, Ohio State 6, Alabama 5, Oklahoma 5.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period ('97-98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

15 OUT OF 17

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, the second longest active streak in the nation behind Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with a vengeance as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended last year as the Buffs went 0-4. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). CU has defeated at least two in nine of the last 12 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons). 2005: CU is 0-1 against ranked foes.

TV LAND

Colorado has now had 123 of its last 186 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (66 percent). That includes three games this year, nine games in 2004, seven games in 2003, 12 in 2002, 10 games in 2001, plus 7 in 2000, 9 in both 1998 and 1999, 10 in 1996 and 1997. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, 86 of CU's 113 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, an impressive 76 percent. In addition, CU has had 18 of its last 21 non-conference games televised on a national or regional basis.

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 25 (13-11-1), Texas 21 (7-12-2), Nebraska 12 (8-4), Oklahoma 12 (6-6), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 11 (0-11), Baylor 9 (2-7), Missouri 9 (1-8), Iowa State 8 (1-7), Kansas 6 (0-6), Oklahoma State 5 (0-5) and Kansas State 2 (1-1).

FOLSOM FIELD ACCOLADE

The Sports Turf Management Association named Folsom Field as its 2002 "Football Field of the Year," the first time CU has ever earned this prestigious award. Jason DePaepe, CU's athletic turf manager, officially accepted the award in San Antonio. Those who judge the competition were impressed with DePaepe and his staff's aggressive maintenance program, as the field is easily one of the best in college football, if not all sports.

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has inflicted a few blemishes on some of the teams who had the best home records in the 1990s. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. And in 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29 game span.

17 OF 20

The Buffs now have 17 winning (regular) seasons in the last 20 years, including 2004, matched only by a handful of schools across the nation. The exceptions came in 1997, 2000 and 2003; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 15 of the previous 19 years, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000 and last year.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Through the years, there are always a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball, and DT/OL John Guydon could do both this year. The last to try this was DT Sam Wilder, who caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play (at Missouri in 2000). CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (though a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). In the last 12 years, several Buffs have played on both sides of the ball; in 1998 OG Brad Bedell played some goal-line defense. That's happened often at CU, having one of the O-linemen come over to defense for goal line or short yardage defense—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole and OT Melvin Thomas all did the same in the mid-90s. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was WR Michael Westbrook, who played four snaps at strong safety against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

QUARTERBACK HISTORY LESSON

The competition for the starting quarterback job in 2003 was only the fourth real battle in just over a decade at Colorado. The last was in 2000, when the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter on Aug. 27; four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and never relinquished the role. There was no battle for starting quarterback in 1999, as senior Mike Moschetti was entrenched as the starter. However, the battle for the starting job in 1998 was the first in some six years; Moschetti, junior Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won on Aug. 24, when then-head coach Rick Neuheisel named him as the starter (Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety). Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best example of this came in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.
