2005 COLORADO FOOTBALL: GAME 7 — KANSAS

Saturday, October 22 in Boulder (5:00 p.m. MDT; Big 12 Sports PPV)

RELEASE NUMBER 7 (October 17, 2005)

QUICKLY SPEAKING...

The Colorado Buffaloes (4-2, 2-1 Big 12) hosts the annual Family Weekend football game this Saturday, with the opposition being the Kansas Jayhawks (3-3, 0-3 Big 12) in a 5:00 p.m. kickoff at Folsom Field... The game will be televised on a pay-per-view basis through Big 12 Special Order Sports (Fox Sports Net's PPV division), with Tim Neverett (play-by-play), Jay Leeuwenburg (color analysis) and Dave Benz (sidelines) to call the action. Customers can order the game by calling their local provider (Comcast, DirecTV or DISH Network)... This will be Colorado's third straight home game played at night, done only one other time in school history (three straight in 1994)... CU's website, www.CUBuffs.com features game day updates and live stats for all games... There are roughly 5,700 tickets remaining for the Kansas game... Colorado's next game at Kansas State (October 29) is on the selection menu for TBS; if the network selects the game, it will kickoff at 5 p.m. mountain time and be televised nationally; if the network passes, the game will not be televised and will kickoff at 12:10 p.m. ABC will televise Oklahoma at Nebraska at 10 a.m. and will select from among Iowa State at Texas A&M, Texas at Oklahoma State or Texas Tech at Baylor for its 1:30 game; TBS will select from the two remaining from those three and the CU-KSU game for the 5 p.m. window, and FSN from the aforementioned three, but not CU-KSU, for the 10:30 a.m. game.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado was unranked in the Associated Press (media) and USA Today Coaches polls of October 16, though received enough points to stand 30th in the AP and 33rd in the coaches. CU had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9, as the Buffaloes were ranked No. 24 in both (actually all three including the new Harris poll). Dating back to the preseason 1989 polls, CU has been ranked in 183 of the last 271 polls (AP; 69%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (85), trailing Florida (93), Michigan (89) and Florida State (88).

AS THE POLLS TURN

A tale of two preseason unranked: Notre Dame has two losses (to No. 1 USC and an unranked Michigan State at the time), and it holds down the No. 9 spot in the polls. True, the Irish own three wins over previously ranked teams, all of which have fallen out of the top 25. But we're not arguing that they don't belong. But what about the Buffs? Colorado is 4-2 just like the Irish, with its two losses to current top 10 teams (Miami, Fla., and Texas), but is No. 30. Take those two out of the equation, and CU has been pretty dominant, outscoring the opponent 145-48 with a hefty edge in total offense (1,807 to 1,111).

STAT OF THE WEEK

Colorado has not had an opponent running back rush for 100 yards in six games this season. The last time CU went a full season without at least one opposing back gaining 100? That would be 1965, the only year it has occurred in CU history since stats are available to research beginning in 1946.

OBSCURER NOTE OF THE WEEK

If it seemed like Colorado and Texas usually got nothing on first down last week, that's because on 52 of the 56 first down plays in the game, that's pretty much what happened. Take out CU's biggest play, a 25-yard pass from QB Joel Klatt to TE Joe Klopfenstein, and CU ran 24 plays for 65 yards (2.7 per). As for the Longhorns, strike pass plays of 62, 25 and 17 yards, and they ran 28 plays for 72 yards, or 2.6 per.

INJURY UPDATE

The Buffs had just two injuries of note in the Texas game, only one of which (CB Lorenzo Sims) could cause missed game time. CU's injury picture as of Monday, October 17:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status: Kansas
ILB	Jason Ackermann	knee	tore three ligaments; had surgery last November 19	OUT/INDEFINITELY
DE	Alonzo Barrett	knee sprain	tore his PCL against Texas A&M, will rehab without surgery	OUT/5-6 WEEKS
WR	Cody Crawford	ankle	suffered a high sprain in practice (mid-August), return to practice this week	QUESTIONABLE
QLB	Brian Iwuh	foot	suffered a contusion at Texas, expected to be fine by game time	PROBABLE
OG	Daniel Sanders	hamstring	suffered a slight tear against Texas A&M, status upgraded on 10/16	QUESTIONABLE
CB	Lorenzo Sims	knee strain	suffered at Texas, underwent arthroscopic surgery on 10/16	OUT/2-4 WEEKS

OUT FOR SEASON: TB Brandon Caesar (knee, surgery July 29); WR Blake Mackey (knee, surgery Aug. 16); CB Terrence Wheatley (wrist, surgery Aug. 10).

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY or PROBABLE. Injuries will be updated in-game, post-game, the Sunday or Monday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

TWO-DEEP GAMES LOST

Colorado has been fortunate for the most part when it's come to injuries in 2005. Through six games, a total of 11 games have been missed due to injury or illness by players who figured into the two-deep. S Dominique Brooks (4) and OG Brian Daniels (2) are the only ones to have missed multiple games at this point; that does not include ILB Jason Ackermann, who has missed all six, but he would have had to battle in camp to crack the two-deep at linebacker. Other prominent players include DE Alonzo Barrett (1), S Ben Burney (1), OLB Brian Iwuh (1), OG Daniel Sanders (1) and OG Jack Tipton (1). In 2004, a total of 71 games in the two-deep were lost due to injury or illness, less by TB Brandon Caesar (12), CB Vance Washington (12), ILB Chris Hollis (11), FS J.J. Billingsley (10) and TE Quinn Sypniewski (9).

ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1905 CU, then mainly known as the Silver & Gold, went 8-1 in outscoring its opponents 359-28 in a season where it played as an independent with no conference affiliation due to a dispute with the Colorado Football Association;
- 1920 It's the 85th anniversary of CU's 40-7 win over Oklahoma State in Stillwater, CU's first road win at any current Big 12 member school;
- 1955 The last time CU opened a season with back-to-back shutout victories: 14-0 over Arizona and 12-0 over Kansas, both in Boulder;
- 1965 The 40th anniversary of the last 0-0 game in the program's history, as the Buffs and Wisconsin went scoreless in Madison;
- 1970 Thirty-five years ago, CU's 41-13 thrashing of Penn State on national TV ended the Nittany Lions' 31-game unbeaten streak and landed the Buffaloes on the cover of Sports Illustrated for the first time in their history;
- 1975 The 30th anniversary of CU's closest call with a No. 1 team, as the Buffs fall 21-20 at Oklahoma, missing a PAT kick in the game's waning moments in an attempt to play for the tie;
- 1980 (Gulp) The 25th anniversary of the infamous 82-42 loss to Oklahoma, a game that saw 63 NCAA, Big Eight and school records set or tied. One of many lowlights in a 1-10 season that included trailing UCLA 56-0 at the half and a second straight loss to Drake.
- 1985 Many think he's nuts, but Bill McCartney's decision to switch to the wishbone on offense ends a six-year run of losing seasons as the Buffs return to a bowl game for the first time in nine seasons;
- 1990 Has it been 15 years since CU won its first national championship? CU reels off 10 straight wins after a 1-1-1 start and does just that;
- 1995 The 10th anniversary of a guy named John Hessler coming off the bench to lead CU to wins over No. 3 Texas A&M and No. 10 Oklahoma in back-to-back games, the latter with the infamous asterisk comment from OU's Howard Schnellenberger.

CLOSE CALLS HAVE BEEN GOING CU'S WAY

Colorado is 10-2 in its last 12 games where the final margin has been seven or fewer points, dating back to the start of 2003, including the season opening 31-28 victory over Colorado State. In head coach Gary Barnett's tenure, the Buffs are 17-12 in such games, but lost eight of the first 11 games decided by a touchdown or less, including the first three games of the 2000 season by a combined 10 points. But starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, CU is 14-4 in seven point contests.

TOUGHEST SCHEDULES TO DATE

Colorado is currently playing the nation's 23rd toughest schedule (through games of Oct. 15), as all 11 opponents have combined for a 33-23 overall record (.589). Oklahoma occupies the top spot (41-14, .745), followed by Michigan, Stanford, Ohio State and Arkansas. Big 12 roll call: Oklahoma (1), Texas Tech (9), Kansas (t-14), Texas A&M (t-14), Missouri (22), Colorado (23), Oklahoma State (28), Nebraska (35), Baylor (t-39), Kansas State (t-39), Texas (43) and Iowa State (56). Games against Division I-A teams are not included.

SERIES HISTORY—COLORADO vs. KANSAS

Colorado leads the series by a 40-21-3 count, including a 22-8 edge in Boulder and by 17-13-3 in Lawrence; but CU leads by just 7-3 in the last 10 games. Prior to a KU win in Boulder in 1995, CU had reeled off 10 straight wins, the longest streak by either school in the series, which began back in 1903. Though CU has dominated in the win column over the last 22 meetings (18-4), 12 of the games have been decided by 13 points or less including last year's 30-21 come-from-behind win by the Buffs at Lawrence and an overtime thriller the previous year in Boulder. And dating back to 1965, CU owns a hefty 31-8-1 lead in the series, turning around a 13-9-3 KU advantage established in the first two-thirds of last century. Gary Barnett is 5-1 versus KU, while Mark Mangino is 0-3 against CU.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW — The second largest comeback in CU history was registered against the Jayhawks in 1961; Kansas led 19-0 with 13:18 left in the game. CU rallied for a 20-19 win and went on to win the Big Eight title and play LSU in the Orange Bowl. The Buffs also have rallied from 14 down twice, in 1991 (winning 30-24 after trailing 24-10) and in 2004 (30-21 after falling behind 14-0), and also came back from 13 down (winning 17-16 in 1974 after being behind 13-0). Thus, four of CU's 17 all-time greatest comebacks have come at the Jayhawks' expense.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 20th. In 1985, the two met in cold and rainy Lawrence with bowl ramifications on the line—the winner would remain in the picture for postseason. SS Mickey Pruitt returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the game to get Colorado off to a solid start; KU's Jeff Johnson made a 36-yard field goal in the second quarter, with that 7-3 score standing until midway through the fourth quarter. A Ron Brown 41-yard run set up a five-yard touchdown run by QB Mark Hatcher, paving the way for a 14-3 Colorado win and an eventual invitation to the Freedom Bowl.

THE SET-UP

Yards and points could be tough to come by, as this game matches two of the best defenses in the Big 12 Conference. Both are in the top seven nationally in rushing yards allowed per game (and the top 11 in average per opponent attempt), in the top 30 in total defense, in the top 18 in third down defense and in the top 25 in scoring defense. Throw in both are in the top four in net punting and the outlook might be for a low scoring affair. Kansas has seen just 84 points combined in its first three league games (61 by the opponent), an average of 28 per outing.

➡ Colorado has won three straight games the week following a loss to a top 10 team, with an 8-3 mark in such instances under Gary Barnett.

KANSAS NOTES

Kansas opened the year with three wins (Florida Atlantic, Appalachian State, Louisiana Tech) but has since dropped all three of its league games to date, to Texas Tech, Kansas State and Oklahoma. This is KU's third road game out of the chute in conference play, and with the Jayhawks playing Oklahoma at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, finally play a league foe at their own Memorial Stadium for the first time next week when Missouri rolls into town. Kansas has struggled a bit on offense, scoring no touchdowns in its last nine quarters, and have been held under 300 yards of total offense in each of its last four games. The Jayhawks counter their offensive troubles by sporting one of the nation's top defenses—only one opponent has scored more than 19 points on the KU defense—that being Texas Tech—and the Red Raiders scored 30, almost 24 points below what they are averaging on the season.

➡ The Jayhawks played host to Oklahoma at Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium last Saturday, dropping a defensive battle to the Sooners, 19-3. OU opened up the scoring with a D.J. Wolfe 65-yard interception return for a touchdown, and then added a field goal after another interception for a quick 10-0 lead. Scott Webb got KU on the board with a 32-yard field goal late in the quarter, and that would be the last of the scoring until Oklahoma got a security touchdown with 10:17 left in the game. Kansas struggled offensively, with just 97 yards on 52 plays, but did a solid job keeping OU in check most of the game, as the Sooners had just 167 yards through three quarters and finished with 306 (on 81 plays, less than four per try). KU was 1-of-12 on third down, had 11 rushing yards and had four turnovers (three picks). P Kyle Tucker was a bright spot for KU, averaging 48.3 yards for seven kicks with three inside-the-20. Brian Luke completed 11-of-30 passes for 86 yards; Clark Green had 26 yards rushing on five attempts, and Charles Gordon caught four passes for 18 yards while intercepting two passes on defense.

THE LAST TIME: COLORADO 30, KANSAS 21

NOVEMBER 6, 2004 (LAWRENCE, KAN.)

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Stephone Robinson's punt return for a touchdown near the end of the third quarter gave Colorado the lead for good as the Buffaloes remained in the hunt for the Big 12 North Division title with a 30-21 win over the Kansas Jayhawks.

It wasn't easy, as CU spotted Kansas a 14-0 lead in the game's first four minutes. John Randle scored on a pair of short runs, the first capping an 80-yard drive to open the game and the second a short possession after Rodney Harris intercepted a Joel Klatt pass and returned it to the CU 28.

The Buffs methodically battled back, led by its defense. On KU's next possession, John Nielsen replaced an injured Jason Swanson at quarterback, and on a 3rd-and-10, he hit Randle on a short gainer. But Vaka Manupuna was there for the Buffaloes to jar the ball loose, with Dominique Brooks picking it up and racing 41 yards for a touchdown to cut the Kansas lead in half.

The Buffs worked the ball down to the KU 2 early in the second quarter but had to settle for a 19-yard field goal from Mason Crosby, further eating into KU's lead. However, those were the last points of the half and it remained 14-10 at intermission.

Colorado came out in the second half with one of its most impressive drives of the season, marching 70 yards in eight plays to take a 17-14 lead. Klatt completed 6-of-6 passes for 62 yards, with his final throw a 4-yard touchdown toss to tight end Joe Klopfenstein. But Kansas immediately countered with its own impressive drive, as Nielsen hit Brandon Rideau on a 19-yard touchdown pass to cap a 12-play, 80-yard possession that put the Jayhawks back up, 21-17.

Those were KU's last points on the day, as the CU defense stifled the Jayhawks from that point on. KU went three downs-and-out on its next five possessions and had just 93 yards down the stretch.

CU added some insurance with 3:37 remaining on a 4-yard touchdown run by Lawrence Vickers. It was the fifth straight possession CU had started between its 41 and 49 yardline, but the only one that yielded points as the combination of a tough Buffalo defense and pinpoint punting from John Torp kept the Jayhawks at an arm's length. Kansas' attempt at a comeback was thwarted after it reached the CU 18, but Terrence Wheatley intercepted Nielsen in the end zone to seal the win.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: OCTOBER 22

The Buffaloes own an 8-10 record in games played on October 22, including a 5-3 mark at home. Significant games on this date: 1910—Colorado, then the Silver & Gold, defeat Wyoming 14-3 in Boulder, only the third-ever meeting between the schools in neighboring states; 1955—Colorado falls 56-21 at No. 3 Oklahoma, but the game is much closer than the final score indicated. The Buffs led 14-0 after a pair of 2-yard touchdown runs by John Bayuk and Emerson Wilson with 10:15 left in the first half, but the Sooners scored the next 35 points to take control of the game; 1960—A 19-6 win over Nebraska in Boulder improved the Buffs to 3-0 in the Big Eight and to 4-1 overall; 1983—The Buffs face No. 1 Nebraska in Lincoln and hang exceptionally tough for the first half, trailing by just 14-12 at intermission. But the Cornhuskers put on an NCAA-record blitz with 48 third quarter points behind Turner Gill and Mike Rozier en route to a 69-19 win; 1988—Oklahoma posts what would be its last win over Colorado for 14 years, escaping with a 17-14 win at Folsom Field. It is the first night game in the stadium's history, and featured the longest field goal attempt in CU history when Ken Culbertson tried to tie the game in the waning moments with a 62-yard attempt; 1994—Behind Kordell Stewart, the Buffs take care of business against Kansas State, winning 35-31 in Boulder and setting the stage the following week in Lincoln between undefeateds Colorado (7-0, No. 3) and Nebraska (7-0, No. 2).

OCTOBER 22 COLORADO MVP: QB Kordell Stewart, 1994. In a 35-21 win over Kansas State, he accounted for 263 yards total offense including a career-high 127 rushing and three touchdowns, including a 60-yard burst that snapped a 21-21 tie five minutes into the fourth quarter. During the course of the game, he became just the second player in Big Eight history to pass for 5,000 and rush for 1,000 in a career.

October 6—DB Dominique Brooks is reinstated and dresses for his first game of the year two days later.

ROAD-SWEET-ROAD

The Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 17 seasons. CU has been victorious 56 of the last 86 times in enemy stadiums and is 64-35-1 dating back to the 1985 season (a 64.5 winning clip). During this time frame, CU won a school record 10 straight road games (between 1994 and 1996). Over the last 17 seasons, Colorado is 56-29-1 away from home (a 65.7 winning percentage), which stands eighth nationally and second among Big 12 Conference teams in this span. The Buffaloes own a 45-21-1 mark in their last 67 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—five losses at Nebraska, two at Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor, OSU and Texas A&M; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 20-18 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (1-1 in 2005, 2-2 in 2004). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games, despite some being anything but (i.e., Colorado vs. Texas at Irving for the '01 Big 12 title.)

NINTH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's ninth best record over the last 17 seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 137-60-4 record. Since opening 1-0 in '89, the Buffs have owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation for 242 consecutive weeks. THE BUFFALOES IN THE BIG 12

The Big 12 Conference is in its 10th season, and the Buffaloes are second only to Oklahoma in the number of division titles won. Just half of the schools in the conference have won a division title. A closer look:

- ➔ Big 12 Division Titles: Oklahoma 4, Colorado 3, Kansas State 3, Nebraska 3, Texas 3, Texas A&M 2.
- ➔ Big 12 Championship Game Records: Oklahoma 3-1, Nebraska 2-1, Colorado 1-2, Texas A&M 1-1, Kansas State 1-2, Texas 1-2.

The six Big 12 North Division teams' struggles recently with their counterparts from the South have been well documented, and Colorado had dropped nine straight to South schools until opening 2-0 this year. But the Buffaloes own the best mark, 17-3, in intra-division competition against Big 12 North opposition since the 2001 season; other records in the same span: Kansas State 15-6, Nebraska 12-9, Iowa State 8-14, Missouri 7-14 and Kansas 4-17.

RUMMY .500: Colorado has owned a .500 record or better for 18 consecutive weeks, fourth best in the Big 12 (and the longest of the six North Division teams). The roll call by school (through games of October 15): Texas 82, Texas Tech 44, Oklahoma State 30, Colorado 19, Iowa State 11, Baylor 6, Kansas 6, Kansas State 6, Missouri 6, Nebraska 6, Texas A & M 5, Oklahoma 1.

SENIOR QUARTERBACK KLATT MAKING HIS MARK

Senior QB Joel Klatt has a chance to exit his CU career with his name etched aside more records than any quarterback in Colorado history, as he already owns 27 single-game, season or career records for the Buffaloes. He is putting a firm assault on all major career passing and total offense marks (see below).

"KLATT-BITS"

- ➔ RED ZONE PASSING—Klatt has been about as effective as a quarterback can be in the red zone, as he owns a 22-to-1 career ratio of touchdowns to interceptions and he has never taken a sack. His lone pick came in the waning moments against Nebraska in 2003, and he's adept at throwing the ball away to avoid taking a loss (14 of his 35 incompletions). Stats: 2005: 15-of-27, 81 yards (6 TD/0 INT/0 sacks); 2004: 15-of-25, 105 yards (6 TD/0 INT/0 sacks); 2003: 20-of-33, 165 yards (10 TD/1 INT/0 sacks). Totals: 50-of-85, 349 yards (22 TD/1 INT/0 sacks).
- ➔ He had a string of 93 consecutive passes without an interception end at Texas, as it was his personal best (he also had one of 90 that spanned 2002-03); the school record is 104.
- ➔ He should become just the sixth player in school history to lead the Buffaloes in passing for three straight seasons. Zack Jordan was the first, doing so in 1950-51-52; Gale Weidner followed a decade later (1959-60-61), and was almost immediately followed by Bernie McCall (1964-65-66). A quarter century passed before the next pair, Darian Hagan (1989-90-91) and Kordell Stewart (1992-93-94). Klatt also hopes to join Stewart as the only players with three 2,000-yard passing seasons in school history.
- ➔ He entered this season with 4,679 career passing yards, the most ever by a Buffalo entering his senior year; Kordell Stewart held the old mark of 4,410 going into his senior campaign in 1994 (they are the only two Buffs to have had over 4,000 by the end of their junior seasons).
- ➔ ACTIVE NCAA PASSING RANKINGS (includes his Houston Bowl stats, which CU does not include): Yards Per Game (14th/195.4); Completion Percentage (9th/61.8); Efficiency (21st/129.2); Completions (12th/575); Attempts (15th/930); Touchdowns (17th/40); Yards (15th/6,447).
- ➔ He has 12 career 200-yard passing games, five of which have exceeded 300 yards (Koy Detmer holds the school record of six).
- ➔ Klatt's former minor league baseball teammate, San Diego's Jake Peavy, claimed the 2004 major league ERA title (2.27, 15-6 record), and he's had another fine year in 2005. Klatt and Peavy spent two spring trainings together in the Padres organization (2000, 2001) and were teammates in A-ball at one juncture.

THE COMEBACK KING

Colorado is the place where the comeback stat was made famous by former Denver Bronco John Elway, who had 47 fourth quarter or overtime, game-tying or game-winning drives in his NFL career (1983-98), compiling a 46-0-1 record in those games. CU senior QB Joel Klatt now has more of these comebacks than any other player in school history, as he registered his eighth against Colorado State. The count is defined by rallying CU to a victory or to send the game into overtime after trailing at any point in the fourth quarter. Klatt and Clemson's Charlie Whitehurst have the most of any active quarterback in the nation; the irony there is that both played Miami, Fla., in back-to-back games (Whitehurst rallied the "other CU" from 10 down in the fourth before the Tigers succumbed in three OT's (chart below)).

In the "little did they know at the time" department, when Klatt helped escort John Hessler out for the coin toss at the Colorado State game, the two had 14 fourth quarter comebacks between them, as each were tied for CU's all-time lead with seven. Klatt rallied the Buffs from 11 down in the fourth quarter for a 31-28 win, making him CU's all-time leader in fourth quarter comebacks.

Roll Call of Fourth Quarter Comebacks (8)— 2003: Colorado State (tie to W); UCLA (trailed to W); Kansas (trailed, sent into and won in OT); 2004: Colorado State (tie to W); Texas A&M (trailed to send into OT); Kansas State (tie to W); UTEP (Houston Bowl; trailed to W); 2005: CSU (trailed to W). CROSBY POSITIONING HIMSELF AS ONE OF THE FRONT-RUNNERS FOR ALL-AMERICAN, GROZA HONORS

PK Mason Crosby put an assault on the school's field goal records in 2004, with the crown jewel a school and Folsom Field record 60-yard kick against Iowa State. The Lou Groza Award candidate then opened his junior season in grand style on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3), scoring 11 points (3-3 FG, 2-2 PAT) in the 31-28 win over Colorado State. Those included a 48-yard field goal to tie the score at 21-21 with 2:32 left, and a game-winning 47-yard boot with 0:04 on the clock.

He's already in the books in 2005, as he set a record for consecutive field goals, and tied the school mark for the longest field goal on the road with a 58-yard field goal at Miami, the longest kick without a tee at sea level in NCAA history. Crosby facts:

- ➔ He set four school records in 2004, to go with his record for points by a freshman (52) he established in 2003.
- ➔ He established the school consecutive field goal made streak with 10, as he made 10 in a row dating back to the final three games of 2004 before a 55-yard try went wide left on him in the New Mexico State game. The old mark had been nine (reminder: he was 4-of-6 in the Houston Bowl last year, but CU does not count bowl stats into its records as they are separated out).
- ➔ The 60-yarder against Iowa State last year was the longest in the NCAA last year as well as the longest in Division I-A since 1999. It was just the 10th field goal of 60 yards or more in the NCAA since 1988, when tees were no longer allowed; no kicker has made two.
- ➔ His 58-yard field goal at Miami not only preserved CU's scoring streak at 200 games, it is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (see chart on next page).
- ➔ He had five field goals of 50 yards or longer in the 2004 regular season, which was not only a CU single season record (several had two), it already set a career mark as the old best had been three, by both Dave DeLine and Jim Harper. Including the Houston Bowl, when he had a 54-yarder, he had six 50-plus for the year which led the nation, topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza Award winner (the NCAA record is eight).
- ➔ He was 19-of-23 in 2004 in FGs, with the 19 makes covering 725 yards, an average of 38.2 yards per kick (his four misses: 46.3).
- ➔ He is 37-of-46 in field goals in his career (41-of-52 including bowls), 20-of-21 inside 40 yards and a most respectable 17-of-25 from 41 yards or longer in the regular season. He is second in career field goals made and third in kick scoring (187 points).
- ➔ He has made four field goals in a game three times (Iowa State, Nebraska and UTEP in the Houston Bowl, all in 2004).
- ➔ He made four of the 10 longest field goals in the NCAA in 2004 (60, 55, 54, 54), including the only one longer than 50 yards in bowls; his 55-yard kick against CSU in the opener was CU's first from 50-plus yards in 11 seasons. A 52-yard kick the next week at WSU in Seattle was the eighth longest at sea level in the NCAA.
- ➔ The average field position for the opponent after his kickoffs is just ahead of the 21, as 90 of his 129 kicks have gone for touchbacks; 12 of the 39 returned against him have not been brought back beyond the 20; only five have gone beyond the 30 and none beyond the 40.
- ➔ Perhaps his best kick ever was also in the 2004 Iowa State game--an 87-yard kickoff for a touchback after he had to boot it from the 20-yard line following a penalty. "I didn't even expect that. I was just trying to get it up in the air to give the coverage team time to get down there," Crosby said of the monster kick.
- ➔ He has been selected the Big 12 Conference's Special Teams Player-of-the-Week four times in his career (for CSU and Miami in 2005 and Iowa State and Nebraska in 2004).
- ➔ The Lou Groza Award Committee has named him one of its three "Stars of the Week" on three occasions (Iowa State in '04; CSU and Miami in '05).
- ➔ ACTIVE NCAA KICKING RANKINGS (includes his Houston Bowl stats, which CU does not include): Field Goals Made (6th/41); FG Made/Game (7th/1.3); FG Accuracy (8th/78.9).
- ➔ Late Game Heroics. Crosby has made a name for himself in the clutch, as he is 9-of-10 in the fourth quarter, including 8-of-8 in the final 8½ minutes with six kicks of 41 yards or longer (six with the score within six points). A closer look:

TAKE THIS ALTITUDE ARGUMENT AND SHOVE IT

To paraphrase the classic Johnny Paycheck song, that is... Crosby's 58-yard field goal at Miami on Sept. 24, elevation seven feet, is believed to be the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (all kicks after 1988 are without one), and tied for the third longest, tee or not, in college and tied for the fifth longest when including the National Football League. Seeing how he has now accomplished something most kickers who kick at lower altitudes historically never do, this should once and for all end the altitude arguments used against CU kickers and punters when it comes to All-America and trophy consideration. QUOTE: "He is a great kicker. When he came out of high school, you could see he was a really good kicker. He has got that special work ethic; you never have to tell him to go work because he is always driven to get better on his own. When you have that work ethic, talent and desire like he does, then you will be able to succeed. He has got a leg. We'll see him in the NFL; he'll be good enough." — Ravens Pro Bowl placekicker Matt Stover, the third-most accurate kicker in NFL history, who coached Mason in high school during summers.

PUNTER TORP MAKING RUN AT ALL-AMERICA HONORS AND RAY GUY AWARD

Senior P John Torp arguably was the best punter in the nation in 2004, but once eliminated from the Ray Guy Award (for having too many punts returned through nine games) and losing out to Baylor senior Daniel Sepulveda (the eventual Guy winner) for first-team all-Big 12 honors, first-team All-America honors for Torp were pretty much out of the question. Some used the old altitude argument against him (though no opponent punter topped him in six games in Boulder), but his 43.7 road average would have ranked him 11th in the NCAA by itself. He was first in the Big 12 and second in the NCAA with a 46.4 average, but looking inside his numbers, he averaged 49.6 on 19 kicks inside the Buff 25, as well as 47.5 yards per punt on CU's side of the field. He had 22 punts inside-the-20 (a school record), or 32 percent of his 68 kicks. He's even better in 2005; some other Torp "torpedoes"...

- ➔ His punting paved the way for Colorado to lead the nation in net punting in 2004 with a 42.43 average, 1.29 yard ahead of runner-up BYU.
- ➔ Pressure. He owns an average of 52.0 in the fourth quarter when the margin is 10 points or less (1 punt, 1 In20) and a 49.7 average on 10 punts inside-the-CU 25.
- ➔ He has now won the punting battle against his opponent counterpart in 19 of the last 20 games (eight straight; he was edged at Nebraska, 43.8 to 43.3 last November). That includes 10 straight times at home and nine of the last 10 times outside of Boulder. So tank any altitude arguments, please!
- ➔ He averaged 47.0 on seven punts at Miami, Fla. (elevation: 7 feet). His net was 38.4 for the game—his two touchbacks just missed being downed inside the 5.
- ➔ Torp owns the highest career average among active punters in the NCAA at 45.04 (includes bowls; Wake Forest's Ryan Plackemeier holds down No. 2 at 44.66).
- ➔ No Easy Way Out. Torp had 68 punts last year, but only five went for touchbacks. Nine were downed or were kicked out of bounds, leaving 54 to either be returned (40) or fair caught (14); opponents averaged just 6.7 yards per return. Four of 32 have gone for touchbacks in '05—but the net on those four kicks is still 41.3.
- ➔ Torp owns seven of the top 25 gross punting and five of the top 23 net punting games in CU history (see below).
- ➔ He's at it again in 2005, owning a 46.2 average (and a 40.2 net, including return yards and touchback yardage) after six games.

KLOPFENSTEIN ZOOMING UP TIGHT END CHARTS

Senior TE Joe Klopfenstein, a legitimate candidate for the John Mackey Award, is racing up the all-time receiving charts when it comes to numbers posted by a tight end. Adept at catching the ball as he is at blocking, he's the latest in a long line of successful tight ends at Colorado (three from the last decade own six Super Bowl rings among them: Christian Fauria, Matt Lepsis and Daniel Graham). He had his best regular season game, statistics-wise, against Texas A&M with five catches for 99 yards, and came back with five more grabs for 60 yards and a TD at Texas. A look at where Klopfenstein compares among CU tight ends all-time:

JK-TO-JK

The combination of Joel Klatt to Joe Klopfenstein has yielded nine touchdowns to date. Believe it or not, when the two first hooked up for a score in 2003, it was the first time two players with the same initials combined for a touchdown pass in CU history (how's that for research?!). The most TD passes between one quarterback and one receiver in CU history is 12 (Koy Detmer to Rae Carruth, 1992-96). Other "Klatt-to-Klop" factoids:

- The duo has hooked up on 62 pass plays in the regular season (66 including bowls) in their careers.
- They worked together for the longest reception in CU history by a tight end, when Klatt found Klop near midfield in the Houston Bowl against UTEP, with Klopfenstein outrunning two would be tacklers for a 78-yard touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter.

CHARLES RUNS FOR 101, JOINS IMPRESSIVE LIST

Sophomore TB Hugh Charles had quite an impressive debut in his first start at tailback for the Buffaloes against Colorado State. In rushing 15 times for 101 yards and two touchdowns, he became just the 14th player in school history to run for 100 or more yards in his first career start. He had runs of 31, 29 (for a TD), 23 (also for a TD) and 11 yards to pickup 94 of his yards on just four carries; what hurt his overall numbers was one 6-yard loss on a draw and a 16-yard loss he was credited with after he suffered a fumble. Still, he had eight carries of five or more yards, and perhaps just as impressive was the fact that 88 of his yards came post-contact. The list of players who gained 100 or more yards in their starting debuts for the Buffaloes:

Season	Player	Opponent	Att.	Yards	TD
1958	Chuck Weiss	at Arizona	15	159	2
1969	Ron Rieger	TULSA	23	100	1
1969	Bobby Anderson	INDIANA	29	161	3

1973	Billy Waddy	at Wisconsin	24	202	2
1975	Tony Reed	MISSOURI	22	153	2
1987	Michael Simmons	OREGON	18	142	1

Season	Player	Opponent	Att.	Yards	TD
1993	Rashaan Salaam	NEBRASKA	25	165	2
1996	Lendon Henry	OKLAHOMA STATE	18	101	1
1998	Dwayne Cherrington	Colorado State (Denver)	25	100	1
1998	Marlon Barnes	at Oklahoma	26	135	0
2000	Marcus Houston	at Southern California	25	150	0
2002	Brian Calhoun	at Oklahoma	20	122	0
2005	Hugh Charles	COLORADO STATE	15	101	2

- In his second start, Charles went over the 100-yard mark for the second straight time with 105 against New Mexico State. The last player to open a season with a pair of 100-yard games back-to-back was Marcus Houston in 2000, who had 100 against Colorado State in Denver and 150 at Southern California. Think it's that common? The last time before that was in 1989, when Darian Hagan (now an offensive assistant coach), had 116 in the opener against Texas and then 103 versus Colorado State. He had 82 in game three at Miami; Eric Bieniemy is the last to open with three straight, doing so in 1988.
- In game number four, he not only had a career high 132 yards on 20 carries at Oklahoma State, he raced 74 yards untouched up the gut, thanks to a Lawrence Vickers monster block, the longest rush on a CU first possession since Darian Hagan went for 75 on the game's second play against Texas in 1989. Charles' score came just 18 seconds into the game, making it the second fastest from scrimmage in school history.

PROTECTING THE QUARTERBACK

Colorado's offensive line has surrendered just seven quarterback sacks in six games, including none the last two times out (Texas A&M, Texas). The last time the Buffs did not allow a sack in back-to-back games was 12 years ago, when Missouri and Oklahoma failed to register a sack against Kordell Stewart & Co. on October 9 & 16, 1993.

- Colorado last went three games without allowing its signal caller to be sacked in 1989, when Darian Hagan was at the controls and four straight opponents failed to sack him.

VICKERS SET TO JOIN EXCLUSIVE CLUB

VB Lawrence Vickers is often the team's unsung hero, as a lot of what he is asked to do is without the football in his possession. Sometimes you notice those things, like his earth-shattering block that cleared the way for Hugh Charles' 74-yard TD run on the first play of the game in CU's 34-0 win at Oklahoma State. But when he does get the ball, he's a threat, and he is now in position to become just the 10th player in Colorado history to accumulate 500 yards both rushing and receiving. If he does it in the same game, he would become the first to accomplish the feat in that manner. His average per touch (5.80) would rank fifth on the list; only Mike Pritchard averaged over seven yards per touch (a healthy 17.90). A look at Colorado's 500-500 Club:

90, 80, 80, 70 OR MORE

Okay, did anyone think of what I wanted you to? Snoopy versus The Red Baron, the Royal Guardsmen? Maybe not... against Texas A&M, four CU receivers had 70 or more yards receiving: TE Joe Klopfenstein (5-99), TB Hugh Charles (6-85), WR Evan Judge (7-82) and TE Quinn Sypniewski (3-70). It marked the first time in 10 seasons as many as four Buffs accomplished the feat: against NE Louisiana in 1995, with Koy Detmer at the controls, WR Rae Carruth (5-121), WR James Kidd (3-98), WR Chris Anderson (5-92) and WR Phil Savoy (5-89) did the trick.

CALL THE COPS

The Colorado defense has 16 interceptions in its last nine games, starting this solid run at Lincoln last November. CU stole four balls in a 26-20 win over the Huskers, after having just eight interceptions in the first 10 games of the year prior to that point. CU then had two picks against Oklahoma in the Big 12 title game and added two more in the win over UTEP in the Houston Bowl, and has picked up on the thievery in 2005. The Buffaloes picked off four Colorado State passes in the opener (all in the final 13:20 of the game), it was second four-pick game in a span of four games, and CU followed it up with two more in game two against New Mexico State and two at Oklahoma State. The Buffs did get shut out theft-wise at Miami and against Texas A&M.

- Eight different Buffaloes have interceptions this fall (all with one), and 11 different players have contributed to the 16 total.
- The eight interceptions in the first four games were the most at this point of the season since 1977, when the Buffs racked up nine in the first four.
- The 14 over five games was the most interceptions over a five-game span by Colorado in 35 years; you have to go back to the final three games of 1970 (seven interceptions) and the first pair of 1971 (seven more) to find a similar run by the Buffs.

FOCUS FROM THE START

In the first five games, the Buffs did not allow a first down on the opponents' first series of the game as all five went three plays (or less) and out. The five combined for 82 total yards on the first series, with 60 of it on a pass play in the A&M game that ended in a turnover to CU. Texas, however, changed all that with a 16-play, 90-yard march on its first possession. So, it remains to be seen if Texas solved the CU puzzle or if it was a matter of the No. 2 team in the country displaying its wares.

CU IN SELECT COMPANY

Colorado is one of just three teams to have recorded two shutouts to date in 2004. The Buffs own whitewashings of New Mexico State (39-0) and Oklahoma State (34-0); Connecticut owns a pair, over Buffalo (38-0) and Liberty (59-0), as does Virginia Tech, defeating Duke and Ohio (both 45-0).

- ➡ The Buff first-team defense has allowed just 10 touchdowns in six games this season.

BUFFS DOMINATE FIELD POSITION WARS

Special teams are the key to the Buffs winning the field position battle: opponents have started 47 of 81 drives at or inside its 20 on the season, or 58 percent of its possessions. But that's the raw number; nine of those drives started on CU's side of the field after turnovers, revising the above to 47 of 72, or an astonishing 65 percent. Chalk the bulk of it up to the legs of PK Mason Crosby, who has 23 touchbacks and four inside-the-20 on returns on 33 kickoffs, and P John Torp, with 14 boots inside-the-20, as the two have personally accounted for 41 of the 47 starts by the opponent deep in their territory.

- ➡ Average Field Position. CU owns a healthy four yard advantage in starting field position, starting on average at its own 31, and the opponent at its 27.
- ➡ Colorado has forced the opponent into three plays and out 33 times in 81 possessions this season, or 41 percent of the time. That's well over half the number of times CU did it last season—47 of 159, or 30 percent. In addition, opponents are averaging a touchdown every 29.1 snaps on offense, compared to 25.1 for the Buffs (and to 25.6 last season by the enemy). You have to go back to 1998 to find where the opponent averaged more than 26.2 snaps per offensive TD—that team surrendered one every 37.0 snaps. That's also the last team to force an opponent into three plays and out over one-third of the time for a season (62 of 166 times, or 37.3 percent).

DEFENSE SHAPING UP TO BE ONE OF BARNETT'S BEST

Colorado's defense has shown marked improvement this season, and though the year is half of the way through, it is definitely shaping up as one of the best defenses in the Barnett Era.

The Buffs are allowing only 88.8 rushing yards per game, the low in Barnett's seven years through six games, with the 330.3 per game average topped only by the 2001 Big 12 champion team at the 6-game point.

Here's a look at CU's defensive numbers through six games every season since 1999:

BUFF DEFENSE NOW A THIRD DOWN TERROR

Not too long ago, the Buffaloes struggled on third down, often giving up double-digit gains on third-and-6 or longer... but not any more, at least a half of the way into the 2005 season. CU was a wall in the first five games, as opponents converted just 18 of 75 times (24.0%), but Texas did convert 10-of-17 times to skew the numbers, at least temporarily. Still, Colorado ranks 18th in the nation in third down efficiency defense, as opponents are converting just 30.4 percent of the time. Some third down digits for study:

GLAMPING DOWN ON THE BIG PLAY

Some other indicators that CU's defense is improved are the dwindling numbers of big plays against the Buffs. Over the past three seasons, CU allowed an average of 16 scores a year of 20 yards or longer (49 total from 2002-04); that number is sitting at three right now. CU has also allowed just 21 plays of 20 yards or longer on the year, having surrendered 110 over the last two seasons (60 in 2004).

BUFFS STOPPING THE RUN

While it is too early to forecast, Colorado's defense against the run in on target to be one of the best in school history. The Buffs are allowing 88.8 yards per game through six contests (seventh nationally); the school record over the course of a season is 114.2, set in 1990 and matched in 1994. Only two other years have the Buffs allowed fewer than 125, when the opponent had 115.5 in both 1965 and 1989. The Buffs have been consistent to date, allowing just 2.71 per rush (11th in the NCAA), and they seem to get stronger as each half wears on as evidenced by the below chart, allowing just 17.7 rushing yards in the second quarter and 21.7 in the fourth. The Buffs last finished in the top 20 in rushing defense in 1994, when they were 15th, also the highest a Colorado defense has ever finished against the run.

RUSHING YARDS ALLOWED BY QUARTER

Quarter	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	Total
Yards	141	106	156	130	533
Avg./Game	23.5	17.7	26.0	21.7	88.8

- ➔ Colorado has held the opponent to under 100 yards in four games this season. The most times the opponent failed to reach 100 came in 1994 with six; five times has been achieved nine times, all over the last 20 seasons (1986, 1989, 1990, 1993, 1995, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2004).
- ➔ Opponent longs: CU has allowed just two rushing plays over 16 yards this year—a 38-yard run by Miami's Quadtrine Hill and a 17-yard run by Texas' Selvin Young. Otherwise, dissecting the opponents 150 rushes on the year, you find these play counts: 20-plus: 1. 10-plus: 12. 5-Plus: 48. 2-or-less: 101. Zero: 21. Minus: 35. Thus, just over half (101 of 197) of rushes against CU have gained two or fewer yards. And one of the 10-plus rushes was an 11-yard game by the Oklahoma State punter on a fake play.
- ➔ In Gary Barnett's tenure, CU is 24-5 when holding the opponent under 100 rushing yards (9-0 over the last two seasons); Colorado is 82-6-1 when doing so since the start of the 1985 season.

HEAD COACH GARY BARNETT

Gary Barnett is in his seventh season as head coach of the Colorado program, and his 16th overall as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 46-35 record at Colorado, along with an 81-80-1 record in 13-plus seasons in the Division I-A ranks (the first seven at Northwestern), and an overall career mark of 89-91-2 including two years at NAIA Fort Lewis (Durango, Colo.). This is his second stint at Colorado, as he was an assistant in Boulder under Bill McCartney for eight years between 1984 and 1991. During that span, CU was 59-34-2 in 95 games, including a 30-5-2 mark the last three years, when CU won three Big Eight titles and the 1990 national championship. Northwestern hired Barnett as head coach on December 18, 1991 to replace Francis Peay, and he would take just four years to turn a dismal program into one of the nation's top teams. Barnett led Northwestern to back-to-back Big Ten championships in 1995 and 1996, earning berths in the Rose and Citrus bowls; he was the national coach of the year for '95 as selected by 18 different organizations. At the time, he was the third McCartney assistant to land a head coaching position, following Gerry DiNardo (Vanderbilt) and Lou Tepper (Illinois), both of whom started their careers in 1991. In both 2001 and 2004, he was selected as the Associated Press Big 12 Coach of the Year: in '01, he became just the fourth man to ever coach two different teams to the NCAA Most Improved Team title in leading CU to the Big 12 Championship, and in '04, he rallied the Buffs from a 1-4 start in league play to the North Division title.

- ➔ In 13 previous seasons in Division I-A, he's been recognized four times as a conference Coach of the Year (1995 and 1996 at Northwestern; 2001 and 2004 at Colorado).
- ➔ COLORADO STREAKS: 2-game plus wins, 2-game plus losses: 13, 8. 3-game plus wins, 3-game plus losses: 6, 3. 4-game plus wins, 4-game plus losses: 3, 1. 5-game plus wins, 5-game plus losses: 3, 0. Long winning streak: 5, three times (last: 2002). Longest losing streak: 4, in 2000. Barney's™ Boxscore.

- ♦ Barnett is no stranger to lining up across the sideline from ranked teams. In his 81 games at Northwestern, the Wildcats faced 30 ranked opponents (posting a 9-20-1 record). In his eight years as an assistant at Colorado, the Buffaloes played 34 ranked teams in 95 contests. As CU head coach, he's seen 32 in 81 games (going 11-21); so in his 21-plus years as Division I-A head or assistant coach, he's coached against 96 ranked opponents in 257 games, better than one in every three (37%).
- ♦ Barnett has been a head coach for 162 Division I-A games (81-80-1); his 13-plus seasons as a D I-A head coach rank 27th among active coaches, as are his 161 games coached.
- ♦ In an October 2000 Bloomberg poll of Division I-A head coaches, Gary Barnett ranked sixth in a listing of the best coaches in college football. Eighty-eight head coaches responded in the poll, which ranked Penn State's Joe Paterno first (20½ votes) and Florida State's Bobby Bowden second (19). The rest of the top 10 at the time: 3. Bill Snyder, Kansas State (12); 4. Frank Beamer, Virginia Tech (10½); 5. Steve Spurrier (then at Florida, 5½); 6 (tie). Gary Barnett, Colorado, and Barry Alvarez, Wisconsin (3); 8. LaVell Edwards, (then at BYU, 2½); 9 (tie). Dennis Erickson, then at Oregon State, and Lloyd Carr, Michigan (2).
- ♦ Barnett first got to Colorado in a very matter-of-fact manner. He "road-tripped" from Missouri in the winter of 1971 with a friend, as both were hunting for teaching jobs. He didn't hear anything back from the interviews, and started his coaching career by helping out on Dan Devine's staff at Missouri, his alma mater. He had been selling insurance in Columbia while his wife, Mary, was finishing up her degree. He was soon offered a teaching and assistant coaching position at Air Academy High School in Colorado Springs (at $8,500 a year). They accepted, and headed west to begin their love affair with the state of Colorado.
- ♦ Barnett grew up in the small town of Mexico, Missouri (where his mother returned to live after the family moved to St. Louis when he was in the ninth grade; she still resides there). He used to chase down softballs at the adults' fast-pitch softball games, as every ball turned in was worth a nickel, and three would net him a Coke (at 15 cents), the going rate in the mid-1950s.
- ♦ Barnett did something extremely rare after he accepted the CU job on January 20, 1999. He made it a goal to meet the parents and families of all players on the CU roster. He pretty much pulled it off, visiting with all but three families of the returning players (all in obscure, hard to reach locations) by the end of the '99 season. He did it to find out more about the players on his team and to talk with the parents about promises that were kept or not met by the previous coaching staff. He says if you get a beat on what kind of environment each player grew up in, which gives a good indication on how you have to deal with each individually.
- ♦ Barnett figured he would never get a crack at the Colorado job. After Rick Neuheisel emerged as the internal hire following Bill McCartney's surprising retirement in November 1994, Barnett thought that with Rick being so young, the CU job would never even be an option. He was linked to many a job opening, but the only one he ever interviewed for was the Notre Dame position; not the Detroit Lions, Texas Longhorns, Oklahoma Sooners or UCLA Bruins as rumors had led many to believe.
- ♦ Barnett enjoyed many happy as well as sad moments in his first stop in Boulder between 1984 and 1991. Emotions ran the gamut from winning the national championship (1990) and three Big Eight Conference titles (1989-90-91), along with coaching a Heisman Trophy candidate (Darian Hagan) and a Rhodes Scholarship finalist (Eric McCarty) to dealing with the life-threatening injury to tight end Ed Reinhardt (1984), the death of quarterback Sal Aunese (1989, from stomach cancer) to his own son Clay being seriously injured when he was on the CU sidelines during a game. Another high included Charles S. Johnson being named the MVP of the 1991 Orange Bowl, supplanting the low that he had to replace an injured Hagan in that game. And in his final year at Colorado in 1991, he tutored a young true freshman by the name of Kordell Stewart, who went on to become the Big Eight's all-time total offense leader.
- ♦ Barnett's top six goals for the CU program each year are listed as: 6) Winning the Big 12 Conference championship; 5) Winning the Big 12 Conference North Division; 4) Winning a bowl game; 3) Have a winning season; 2) To be a relentless team; and 1) Attitude and Chemistry. They are displayed prominently on the wall in the team's main meeting room (which was renamed for Tom McMahon in 2003).
- ♦ Barnett's first game at Northwestern was against Notre Dame at Chicago's Soldier Field—deemed a neutral site. His first game at CU was against Colorado State at Denver's Mile High Stadium, also a neutral site. How many coaches had their first games with two different schools classified in this manner? Barnett was probably the first—the research would be most time consuming!
- ♦ Barnett's active off the field with several charities, most notably the Lupus Foundation and the Colorado ALS Association. Every October, he participates in Boulder's "Walk to d'feet ALS," a fundraiser to combat ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease.

- ♦ Barnett replaced Francis Peay at Northwestern, and other finalists included Earle Bruce (at Colorado State at the time), Paul Schudel and Gary Darnell. The president who hired Barnett at Northwestern, Arnold Weber, was the president of CU when it hired Bill McCartney in 1982. The parallels between McCartney and Barnett number many, right down to the record in their first three years as head coaches: Mac was 7-25-1 at Colorado (1982-84), Barnett 8-24-1 at Northwestern (1992-94), with exactly 10 years separating each, both their first career head coaching jobs.
- ♦ Barnett & Bye Weeks. Barnett is 8-10 in games following bye weeks (6-7 at Colorado, 2-3 at Northwestern). At Northwestern, he had his first win over a ranked team after an idle Saturday (22-21 over No. 22 Boston College in 1993); at CU, the 62-36 romp over Nebraska followed a bye (he is 3-3 against the Cornhuskers, all with that extra week to prepare). This year's game at Miami was his first after a bye week at Colorado that was not against a Big 12 foe.
- ♦ Barnett is again one of the 61 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2005 (the seventh straight year he is a voter and the 19th straight year CU's head coach has participated).

GARY BARNETT FOUNDATION

Gary Barnett, and his wife, Mary announced last February the formation of the Gary Barnett Foundation, a tax-exempt, non-profit organization dedicated to the support of educational programs for economically disadvantaged and at-risk youth. "Mary and I have been discussing the possibility of creating a foundation for years," Gary Barnett said, "After the passing of Gabe Oderberg, we decided the time was now to make this happen."

Oderberg, who was on the football team between 1999-2002 and worked as an undergraduate intern after back injuries ended his career, committed suicide last summer. Former Buff and '91 Orange Bowl MVP Charles Johnson is involved in the organization, as is Boulder physician Dr. John Meyer and Boston TV anchor Paul Burton. THE CLASS OF '99

In 1999, 19 programs hired new coaches, including Colorado; nine remain with those programs. Here's a look at the entire class and their records through games of October 15 (includes bowls; *—denotes first college head coaching job):

COACH RETRO

Defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz has been given the nickname of "Coach Retro" by the players, as he is now in his second stint at CU. During his first tour between 1985 and 1994, he spent the last seven seasons as CU's defensive coordinator and directed some of the best defenses in school history. Upon his return, he didn't exactly return the Buffs to the 3-4 he succeeded with during those years, but there are enough similarities to merit the throwback term.

EXPERIENCE

Including 2004, the 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 151 seasons in Division I-A (includes 14 head coach seasons, 13 by Gary Barnett and one by Mike Hankwitz), as the 10 have combined to coach in 1,927 games through October 15. Barnett is the elder statesman at 59, followed by Hankwitz (57) Craig Bray (53) and then Brian Cabral (49); it's believed to be the first time that three 50-plus year olds have been on the Colorado staff. In fact, Barnett's the oldest head football coach in CU history by some five years (Bill McCartney was 54 when he retired in 1994; Dallas Ward's the only other to pilot the Buffs after his 50th birthday as he was 52 when he was not retained after the 1958 season).

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. For 2005, in the box will be offensive coordinator Shawn Watson, tight ends coach John Wristen, secondary coach Craig Bray, defensive line coach William Inge and graduate assistants Hunter Hughes and Eric McCready. Head coach Gary Barnett wears a headset on the sideline (he's on with the coordinators), along with defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz, inside linebackers coach Brian Cabral, offensive line coach Dave Borbely, running backs coach Shawn Simms and offensive assistant coach Darian Hagan. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

- In Shawn Watson's first game as offensive coordinator in 2000, CU gained 532 yards against Colorado State, the most ever by a Buff team in its first game with a new offensive pilot. The old record was 530 in 1993 (vs. Texas, Elliot Uzelac's first game). The all-time opponent low in the first game with a new CU defensive coordinator were the 177 yards gained by Fresno State in 1988—Mike Hankwitz' first game as DC (also the third fewest yards ever allowed overall by CU in any season opener).

OLD-TIMER

Assistant head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. He is now third all-time in years coached as a full-time member of the staff, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both who assisted for 18 years each, and just passed one his mentors in life, the late Dan Stavely, who coached 15 seasons in two stints. A closer look:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 3. Brian Cabral 16 (1990-current); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 7. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58); 8. Ray Jenkins 10 (1948-57), Mike Hankwitz 10 (1985-94) and Jon Embree 10 (1993-2002).

COACHES CORNER / with GARY BARNETT

Comments from Colorado head coach Gary Barnett following his team's 42-17 loss at Texas:

General: "Texas out-played us today. When they threw the ball, we were short on coverage. We did not block them and they blocked us. They made great plays, and Vince (Young) made great throws. You have to play better than we did today, but even then, Texas will be a hard team to beat. This isn't to say that we didn't do some things well, but to beat a team of that caliber that we faced today, if you don't play perfect or near-perfect ball, you won't give yourself much a chance. And we didn't do that. Texas took us out of what we wanted to do early, and after falling behind, we had to throw the ball more. We script out a good portion of our first offensive scheme, and we barely were able to get into what we had planned to do."

"We got out-played and out-coached today. After seeing Texas up-close and in-person, we would have had to play almost perfect to have won this game."

On Texas Quarterback Vince Young: "Today, Vince Young was a heckuva football player. Everybody on our team has a great deal of respect for him. The whole Texas team did a great job up-and-down the line today. Their offensive line did a great job of protecting Vince. We did not have much of a pass rush, so he had plenty of time in the pocket. He's too dangerous to let him have that kind of time all day."

On The Rankings: "We shot ourselves in the foot a number of times and the Texas defense did a great job. It felt like Texas was a more dominant team than Miami was when we played them three weeks ago. I've been voting Texas number one all season. I saw what they had coming back from their Rose Bowl win over Michigan and thought they were the best team in the country. So I'm probably not going to change my vote, they are a great team."

On Where CU Goes From Here: "The way our schedule was laid out, we have all five of our intra-division games at the end of the season. Our goal is to take care of business and try to get back to the championship game. We got two wins against the South Division, including one on the road, and that for the time being has us in full control of our destiny."

PLAYER QUOTES

Some select player comments after the Buffs' 42-17 loss at Texas:

TB HUGH CHARLES

ON TEXAS: "We knew coming in they were going to be a pretty tough team. They played their hearts out. We tried to do the best we could, but they just flat out stopped us. They took us out of our game plan and that made for a long afternoon."

ON COLORADO'S DIFFICULTY MOVING THE BALL: "We made mistakes, a lot of them. That's why a lot of things on offense didn't go the way we planned. We just have to correct them. They were pretty fast and pretty tough up front. We just couldn't get the running game going, and I give them credit for being really physical up front. We knew they were going to come out the way they did, we just didn't execute."

ON THE EARLY DEFICIT: "It took a lot out of us. I'm not a person to get down; I'm always trying to stay positive throughout a game. We got a little momentum with the two scores at the end of the first half, and we were still optimistic at halftime. If we could have cut it to 35-17 or 35-20, maybe we could have made things interesting. But they didn't let up and didn't give us any real opportunity to get back into the game, and I give them credit for that, too. I know some of the guys are down, but we just have to recuperate."

ILB JORDON DIZON

ON THE TEXAS OFFENSE: "Vince Young adds a whole other dimension to their offense, and it killed us. Our defensive backs really did what they had to do, but our front seven couldn't get to them. We can't put it all on the guys up front, but we didn't get any sacks, and we didn't put any pressure on Vince Young. We gave him too much time to throw. We've got to contain and provide better pressure up front and the linebackers have to help cover. But the bottom line was even when the few times we put him in a situation where he could have made a mistake, he didn't. He made a lot of great throws, and we just got beat by a great team. Their offensive line did a great job."

QB JOEL KLATT

GENERAL: "I think if you're not a little bit shook by the events of today, then you're probably in the wrong sport. It's on the seniors to maintain the level of urgency. We are a team that needs a blue-collar work ethic. We've got to go out and practice hard. We've got to prepare every single week to play physical football for four quarters. It's disappointing because I know every guy in this locker room wants to get this program back on the echelon where we're beating Texas and those types of things. We've still got a long season to go, and we can become a better football team. We've shown that we're better than we played today."

VB LAWRENCE VICKERS

GENERAL: "We can't dwell on it, we have business to take care of. We have five games to go out and win and maybe we'll get another shot at Texas. Last year we learned a valuable lesson. We took those games in November one at a time, and we won them one at a time and went from being 1-4 and in next to last place to winning the division. So no looking ahead to what could be, Kansas is the only thing on our minds and then we'll worry about whoever is next."

CU & THE WONDERLIC

The Buffs, or former Buffs to be more precise, ranked 13th in a recent Wall Street Journal survey of NFL players and an intelligence test known as the Wonderlic. Similar to an IQ test with 50 questions, Stanford came in first with an average reported score of 28.8 for 21 former players. Colorado averaged 21.8 (29 players), second out of the six Big 12 Conference schools that had enough players meet the criteria for the survey. An average Wonderlic score is 21, according to company officials. DEFENSIVE RARITY

With the Colorado defense playing as well at times as it has for a long time, a rarity is holding an opponent to under both 100 yards rushing and passing in the same game. Colorado last did this in 1999, when it held Baylor to under 100 yards in both. The feat has been accomplished 16 times since the 1962 season (or over the last 435 games). Eddie Crowder teams did it six times, Bill McCartney defenses four times, Rick Neuheisel squads three times, Bill Mallory units twice and Gary Barnett D's once. Here's a look at them all, since the 1961 season (when Colorado had three that year alone):

GAME #1—COLORADO 31, COLORADO STATE 28

BOULDER — It is always said that things often come in threes, and that is certainly the case with the CU-Colorado State football series.

For the third straight year, the outcome wasn't known until the final play of the game, and for the Buffaloes, all three times have been charms as this time CU rallied from an 11-point fourth quarter deficit to topple the Rams, 31-28, before a record Folsom Field crowd of 54,972.

Mason Crosby, arguably America's best kicker, drilled a 47-yard field goal with four seconds remaining to provide the winning points; that kick came just 148 seconds after he made a 48-yard kick that tied the game at 21. In-between, there were plenty of fireworks that amounted to a classic shootout between in-state rivals.

After Crosby's tying kick, the Rams took over at their own 20. On second-and-10, Justin Holland was flushed to his left and pressured by Alex Ligon to throw on the run, where downfield Gerrett Burl picked off his pass at the CSU 37 and returned it 14 yards. On CU's very first offensive play, Hugh Charles put a couple of nifty moves on the Ram defense and went 23 yards for the go-ahead touchdown with just 1:30 left.

But Holland, being the competitor that he is, would not be denied, as he marched his team 80 yards in eight plays and in just 54 seconds to tie the game at 28. In completing six passes on the drive (for all 80 yards), he used throws of 23 and 22 yards to David Anderson to pick up real estate in chunks before finding Kory Sperry in the end zone with a 9-yard scoring toss with only 36 seconds remaining.

CSU opted to squib kick the ensuing kickoff, but the plan backfired to a degree thanks to Stephone Robinson's muffing the football. As he scooted over to pickup the ball, many on the coverage team were now out of position, enabling him to break free for a 30-yard return to the Buff 40. Joel Klatt hit Patrick Williams with a 22-yard pass on the first play from scrimmage, and after an incompletion, he found Dusty Sprague on the right side for eight more to set Crosby up for his winning kick from the Ram 30.

CSU had built its lead to 21-10 after Holland threw a 1-yard touchdown pass, via defender tip, to Matt Bartz with 5:04 left in the third quarter.

CSU got on the board first on a 1-yard touchdown run by Jimmy Green after the Rams recovered a Dusty Sprague fumble at the Buff 28. CU scored the next 10 points on a 32-yard Crosby field goal and a 1-yard run by Lawrence Vickers on a fourth-and-goal play to cap off an 11-play, 73-yard drive. CSU took a 14-10 halftime lead when Holland and Anderson hooked up on a 1-yard TD pass with 33 seconds left before intermission.

The Buffs held the Rams to just 95 yards rushing, the sixth time in the last 10 games CSU failed to reach 100 against CU. Colorado had a slight edge in total offense by 396-386, but saw 90 additional yards and a touchdown called back due to six offensive penalties.

GAME #2—COLORADO 39, NEW MEXICO STATE 0

BOULDER — Lawrence Vickers scored three touchdowns and the Colorado defense posted its first shutout since 2002 as the Buffaloes defeated New Mexico State, 39-0.

Joel Klatt passed for 186 yards and two touchdowns, joining Kordell Stewart and Koy Detmer as the only Colorado players with 5,000 career passing yards while also jumping past Stewart with the most career completions in a CU uniform.

New Mexico State's defense kept the Aggies in the contest, as the Buffs didn't put the game away until logging back-to-back touchdown drives to open the third quarter to add to their 22-0 halftime lead. The Buffs led 7-0 after the first quarter and were ahead by just 10-0 until putting 12 points on the board in the final 1:52 of the first half, taking control of the game in the process.

Mason Crosby started that spree, tacking on a 28-yard field goal that had followed up a 33-yard effort earlier in the quarter to put CU ahead, 13-0. The Buff defense forced three straight incomplete passes by Royal Gill, and then on fourth down, the center snap for the Aggie punt sailed over Brad Evan's head; he chased it down in the back of the end zone and kicked it toward the stands for a Buff safety. Taking over after the free kick at its own 37, it took just four plays to score, all completed passes by Klatt to Hugh Charles (eight yards), Dusty Sprague (24), Evan Judge (28), and the last to Vickers for three yards and the touchdown.

CU salted things away with the two TD drives to start the second half. The first was culminated with 11-yard pass from Klatt to Sypniewski, the sixth-year senior's first career touchdown reception. The second came at the end of an impressive 11-play, 89-yard march with Vickers bowling over several would-be tacklers with an 11-yard run. He had a 19-yard run and a 17-yard reception earlier in the drive as he accounted for 46 yards in four plays.

The Buffs held the Aggies to just 5 yards rushing, though an errant 20-yard center snap and 16 yards in quarterback sacks contributed to the low total. NMSU had just 181 yards overall, the fewest allowed by the Buffs since 2001 when they held Kansas State to 196 in Manhattan.

GAME #3—MIAMI 23, COLORADO 3

(September 24; Miami, Fla.)

MIAMI, Fla. — Kyle Wright passed for one touchdown and rushed for another and the Miami defense stifled Colorado one time after another once it crossed midfield as the No. 12 Hurricanes slowly pulled away tin defeating the Buffaloes, 23-3.

Mason Crosby's 58-yard field goal just under four minutes into the fourth quarter, the longest without a tee at sea level in NCAA Division I-A history, were CU's lone points on the day. But the way the game started, it didn't appear head coach Gary Barnett would have to wait almost 50 minutes for his team to dent the scoreboard.

In perhaps what set the tone for the game, the Buffs moved from their own 46 to the Miami 7 in just two plays on their first possession. Hugh Charles picked up 29 yards on an outside scamper and Joel Klatt then hit Quinn Sypniewski with an 18-yard pass to get the Buffs deep into Hurricane territory. But Charles was thrown for a 4-yard loss on the next play, and after two straight incomplete passes, Crosby missed a 28-yard field goal wide left, the kick being affected by a bad snap.

Locked in a classic field position battle, Miami eventually broke through first with a 34-yard field goal from Jon Beattie to take a 3-0 lead with 6:07 left in the first quarter. He added a 20-yard boot with 11:12 remaining in the half to make it 6-0, the kick coming after the Buffs stopped the Hurricanes on a first-and-goal from the CU 4.

Penalties started to mount for CU, who was called for 17 on the day. Two offside calls helped set UM up for the game's first touchdown, as on a first-and-5, Wright went deep and connected with Sinorice Moss for a 53-yard touchdown along the right sideline to get the Hurricanes some breathing room. Peattie's PAT kick made it 13-0 eight minutes before the half. CU would again be thwarted on its next possession, in part due to an illegal formation penalty after driving to the Miami 35.

The Buffs came out blazing again in the second half, even though starting at their own 10 after a short kickoff return. CU moved just past midfield, but a delay of game penalty and a three-yard loss by Charles helped stall the drive. Two series later, Miami turned a Brandon Meriweather interception of a Klatt pass into a third Peattie field goal, this one from 33 yards, to take a 16-0 lead.

Crosby's kick not only got CU on the board and put the Buffs back into it, albeit temporarily, it marked the 200th straight game Colorado had scored, becoming only the 12th school in history to score in that many consecutive games. The celebration was short-lived however, as any hopes for a fourth quarter comeback were dashed when Miami countered with a 9-play, 80-yard drive resulting in a 2-yard touchdown run by Wright. The play was aided by two CU penalties, as the Buffs were flagged 17 times in the game, the second most in their history.

Miami outgained Colorado by 389-331, with the statistics close to even in most categories. The Hurricanes had a decided edge in penalties (5-17), return yards (131-5) and tackles for loss (10-2). A telling stat was once the teams crossed the 50; the Buffs ran 21 plays for 66 yards, including 38 on one play late in the game, while Miami ran 34 for 140 yards.

GAME #4—COLORADO 34, OKLAHOMA STATE 0

(October 1; Stillwater, Okla.)

STILLWATER, Okla. — The first play for Colorado covered 74 yards and the last one 99 as the Buffaloes snapped a nine-game losing streak to Big 12 Conference South Division schools with a resounding 34-0 win over host and previously unbeaten Oklahoma State.

In the conference opener for both schools, the Buffs set the tone early as on the first play from scrimmage, Hugh Charles cut through the middle untouched and raced 74 yards for a touchdown just 18 seconds into the game. It was the second fastest score from scrimmage in CU history, topped only in 1996 when the Buffs scored 13 seconds into the game at Texas A&M.

That score would stand alone until two seconds before halftime, when Mason Crosby's 48-yard field goal extended the CU lead to 10-0. Though the Buffs had a 230-94 edge in total offense, they had two penetrations into Cowboy territory ended by a blocked field goal and a fumble. That, and OSU's defense sucked it up and did all it could to keep things close.

That changed in the opening moments of the second half, when Abraham Wright made his first career interception, setting the Buffs up for business at the OSU 29. Two plays later, Charles ran around the left end for 15 yards and a touchdown to provide the Buffs some breathing room at 17-0. CU sealed things on its next possession, marching 59 yards in just six plays to take a 24-0 lead. Joel Klatt hooked up with Evan Judge on a 27-yard pass play to the OSU 11, and then found Joe Klopfenstein in the end zone for the touchdown, with the play covering the final 11 yards.

Crosby added a 42-yard field goal with 2:07 remaining, but the Cowboys still did their best to avert being shutout. Bobby Reid hit D'Juan Woods along the right sideline for a 49-yard gain to the CU 31, with the 'Pokes driving to the CU 8 with 43 seconds remaining. On a third-and-five play, Reid was intercepted by CU freshman Marcus Burton, who raced 99 yards back down the right sideline for the closing touchdown. It was the longest play by a freshman in Colorado history in addition to preserving the shutout, CU's second this season. It marked the first time since 1992 the Buffs posted two in one year, and the first time in 40 years the Buffs had two in a three-game span.

Charles rushed for a career-high 132 yards, the third time in four games this year he topped the 100-yard mark, while Klatt moved into second place on CU's all-time passing yards list and into third on the total offense list. Wright had four tackles to go with his interception, also recording a sack, a forced fumble, a third down stop and a pass deflection in being one of several defensive stars for the Buffs on the afternoon.

CUnracked up 381 yards of total offense while limiting OSU to 208, including just 92 on the ground. This was just the fifth shutout ever posted in the series, all by Colorado and the first since 1992.

GAME #5—COLORADO 41, TEXAS A & M 20*(October 8; Boulder)*

BOULDER — On the popular College GameDay program on ESPN, when it came time for the crew to make their selections for possible game breakers of the week, long-time host and Colorado alum Chris Fowler selected CU quarterback Joel Klatt.

Klatt made Fowler look like both a prophet and a genius, as he completed 28-of-36 passes for 398 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Buffaloes to a 41-20 victory of Texas A&M, propelling Colorado back into the national rankings for the first time in 25 months.

CU stormed to a 21-0 first quarter lead, though A&M provided the first gasp for the crowd. On the game's second play, Reggie McNeal connected with a streaking DeQawn Mobley along the right sidelines for an apparent long gainer. Mobley caught it, but never secured the ball and eventually fumbled the ball, with CU's J.J. Billingsley recovering at the Buff 20. Klatt then went to work.

After four plays set CU up at its 49, on a third-and-six, Klatt hooked up with speedster Hugh Charles who ran away from the Aggie defense for a 51-yard catch and run touchdown, starting the onslaught of Buff points. CU held A&M to three-and-out on its next series, and after taking over on its 35, marched 65 yards with Klatt throwing for 51 yards, including a 27-yard completion to Lawrence Vickers to the A&M 17. Three plays later, Charles scooted around the end for a 4-yard score to put CU up 14-0.

Texas A&M earned three first downs on its next possession, but eventually had to punt the ball away. The Buffs responded with an 80-yard drive in seven plays, capped off by a 3-yard touchdown run by Vickers. But two passes from Klatt to Charles for 18 yards and then a big catch-and-run throw from Klatt to Joe Klopfenstein that covered 44 yards set CU up again in the A&M red zone. When the smoke cleared, CU was up 21-0 and Klatt set a school record for the most yards passing in a quarter with 211.

Four of the next five scores in the game were field goals, sandwiched around another 80-yard Colorado drive, this one in the mid-second quarter and polished off by a 1-yard pass from Klatt to Vickers. Klatt ended his day with a 36-yard pass to Quinn Sypniewski, who raced around the left side and leapt into the end zone for a 41-6 Colorado lead, with 6:59 remaining in the quarter.

A&M added two fourth quarter touchdowns against mostly second- and third-teamers on the CU defense; up until that point, the Buffs had dominated, holding A&M to just 186 yards through three quarters while rolling up 548 yards and 24 first down. Otherwise, CU limited Aggie Heisman candidate McNeal to just 132 yards of total offense—after he put 382 up in the 2004 game.

Four Colorado receivers had 70-plus yards in receiving, with Charles (152 yards rushing and receiving) and Vickers (84) combining for 236 and four touchdowns. When the polls were released the next day, CU checked in at No. 24, its first ranking since possessing the No. 17 spot two games into the 2003 season.

GAME #6—TEXAS 42, COLORADO 17*(October 15; Austin, Texas)*

AUSTIN, Texas — Vince Young accounted for 394 yards of total offense and five touchdowns as the Heisman Trophy candidate was as good as advertised, if not better, in leading his No. 2 Texas Longhorns to a 42-17 victory over the No. 24 Colorado Buffaloes.

Texas scored touchdowns on all five of its first half possessions, working to a 28-0 lead before the Buffs got on the scoreboard and never saw its lead fall under a three-score margin in making a statement to the nation. On this day, Colorado just happened to be a timely victim for a Longhorn team trying to surpass Southern California into No. 1 in the rankings.

The tone was set early; first, CU was held to three plays and out on their first possession. Texas then countered with a 16-play, 90-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead on a 1-yard plunge by Young. That drive used some seven minutes and 40 seconds off the clock, leaving the Buffs to try and answer it and give their defense some rest. However, UT's defense stifled the Buffs again, this time after five plays, and basically dictated the tempo for a good portion of the next two-and-a-half quarters.

Young capped Texas' next drive with a 16-yard run, with Selvin Young getting the call from five yards out the next time before the Texas quarterback scored his third touchdown of the half, this time on a nine-yard run up the middle, escaping the CU pass rush. The latter left the 'Horns up 28-0 with 6:04 left in the first half.

Colorado got on the board with a 48-yard field goal from its All-America kicker, Mason Crosby, only to see Texas come right back with Young throwing a 35-yard touchdown pass to Limas Sweed. A Joel Klatt 8-yard TD pass to Evan Judge with one second left before intermission got CU into the end zone for the first time and back to within 35-10, closing the books on the second quarter which saw the teams combine for 320 yards and 31 points.

Each team added a fourth quarter touchdown, as the Buffs couldn't eat away at any more of the Texas lead. Young and Sweed hooked up again for Texas early in the fourth, and two possessions later, CU answered it with a Klatt to Joe Klopfenstein pass that covered four yards.

Texas limited Colorado to 237 yards, including just 45 rushing, while amassing 482 on its own, 336 of it passing by Young.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION

A running list of major notes and/or accomplishments from the postgame notes of all games in 2005:

Colorado State

- ◆ ATTENDANCE. The 54,972 in attendance established a Folsom Field record, as the sellout crowd bested the previous mark by 18 bodies (54,954) set against CSU in 2004 (Sept. 4).
- ◆ This marked just the fourth time since 1967 that the Buffaloes won a season opener when the opponent scored first. CU is now 4-14-1 when the opponent has scored first in this span, with the wins coming in 1969 (a 35-14 win over Tulsa after falling behind 7-0), in 1995 (a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana after spotting NLU a 3-0 lead), in 2003 (the 42-35 conquest of CSU after the Rams jumped ahead 7-0) and this year. Colorado has won 20 straight openers when it has scored first (dating back to 1967 when it defeated Baylor 27-7). The last time the Buffs scored first and lost an opener was in 1966, scoring their only points of the game on a field goal before succumbing to Miami, Fla., 24-3.
- ◆ Colorado now leads the series with CSU by 57-18-2, including 31-8-2 in Boulder, where the Buffs have won six in a row. CU has won the last three, but by a combined 13 points (the last four have been decided by 18 points). No other 3- or 4-game span in the series has been decided by so few points.
- ◆ The temperature at kickoff—89 degrees—tied for the sixth warmest in CU history, and was the third warmest in Boulder (it was 91 against Washington in 2000 and 91 versus Fresno State in 2001); complete list on page 299 of the 2004 CU Media Guide (not included in 2005 version, among a lot of things, thanks to asinine NCAA page limit legislation).
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt. He finishes his career 3-0 against CSU as the starting quarterback, believed to be the first player in CU history to do so against the Rams.
- ◆ P John Torp. The Ray Guy candidate's first punt went for 72 yards after hitting at the 11 with the return man allowing it to roll into the end zone. It was the longest punt of his career, and the first 70-plus yard effort by a Buff since QB Mike Moschetti surprised Kansas State in Manhattan with a 70-yard bomb in Manhattan in 1999. Overall, it tied for the 14th longest in school history. Torp finished the day with four punts for a 52.0 average, with three inside-the-20.
- ◆ ILB Akarika Dawn. His interception to open the fourth quarter was the second pick of his career; the other came as a sophomore (2003) at Iowa State.
- ◆ CB Gerett Burl. He had his first career interception at the most opportune time, setting up Hugh Charles 29-yard go-ahead touchdown run with 1:30 left in the fourth quarter.
- ◆ CU Tight Ends. CU's lanky/burly tight end duo had quite the day, as Joe Klopfenstein (4-76) and Quinn Sypniewski (2-44) combined for six receptions for 120 yards.
- ◆ TB Hugh Charles. The diminutive sophomore had the first 100-yard rushing game of his career, with 15 carries for 101 yards and two scores.

New Mexico State

- ◆ Game Time. The 8:10 p.m. kickoff was the latest in Folsom Field history, topping the 8:07 kickoff for the 1996 Colorado-Oklahoma State game. That game ended took 3:19 and ended at 11:26; the NMSU game took 3:17 and ended at 11:27, making it the latest ending game in stadium history.
- ◆ Gary Barnett went over .500 for the first time in his Division I-A coaching history; tonight's win improves him to 79-78-1 (44-33 at Colorado; he started 8-24-1 in his first three years at Northwestern and is 71-54 since).
- ◆ The Buffs recorded their first safety in almost five years... and in basically the same exact fashion against a team nicknamed the Aggies. At Texas A&M in 2000 (Oct. 7), the A&M center snapped the ball out of the end zone on a punt try; this time, the same thing happened but the ball didn't make it through the end zone on its own and the punter helped it out with a kick.
- ◆ The 39-0 shutout was the first recorded by Colorado since a 34-0 win over Baylor in Boulder on Oct. 19, 2002 (a span of 33 games).
- ◆ Colorado had 14 first downs in the third quarter, a school record for the most in a single quarter; the old best was 13 on two occasions: at Arizona on Oct. 11, 1958 (fourth quarter) at Kansas on Nov. 13, 1993 (third quarter).
- ◆ Colorado is now 18-3 in the second game of the season since 1985 (2-0 for the second straight season and for the 53rd time in its history).
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt. He joined Kordell Stewart (6,481) and Koy Detmer (5,390) as the only players in Colorado history to top the 5,000-yard mark in career passing yardage. He came into the game with 4,962 yards and hit the milestone with a 9-yard completion to Evan Judge late in the first quarter. In finishing with 186 yards for the game, he has 5,148 for his career.
--His 10th pass completion of the game, on a screen pass to Hugh Charles late in the second quarter, made him the all-time leader in pass completions at Colorado, as he came in with 447 and pass Kordell Stewart (456) into first place. He ended the game with 18 for 465 for his career.
- ◆ PK Mason Crosby. His school record string of 10 consecutive field goals came to an end in the first quarter with the miss (wide left) from 55 yards. However, with makes from 33 and 28 yards, he has now made at least one field goal in six consecutive games, just two off the school record of eight by Fred Lima (set between Oct. 7, 1972 and Sept. 15, 1973).
- ◆ TE Quinn Sypniewski. The sixth-year senior (CU's first in modern times) caught his first career touchdown pass with the 11-yard grab from Joel Klatt on the opening drive of the second quarter. Those were not his first career points, as he had a key 2-point conversion catch at Missouri in 2002 (it gave CU a 7-point edge late in the game; CU won in overtime).
- ◆ PK Kevin Eberhart. He made his first career field goal—23 yards—late in the game in his first action since 2003; he was 1-1 on PAT kicks and 0-2 on field goals that season.
- ◆ Other First Career Stuff—Interceptions: S Ben Burney, Lionel Harris. Reception: FB Brendan Schaub.
- ◆ The 5 rushing yards by New Mexico State tied for the seventh lowest by an opponent in Colorado history. The list of CU's top 10 defensive efforts against the run:

Season Note Progression, continued:

Miami, Fla.

- ◆ The temperature at kickoff (86 degrees) tied the 11th warmest at kickoff for the Buffaloes in their history; CU was prepared with 27 cases (648 total 20 oz. Bottles) of water and Gatorade.
- ◆ The Buffs fell to 4-5 all-time in Miami (well, Miami/Fort Lauderdale); in addition to a 2-1 mark against the Hurricanes (9-7 in 1961 and 23-10 in 1975 previously), CU is 2-3 in Orange bowls and 0-1 in the old Blockbuster Bowl.
- ◆ Penalties. The Buffs had the second most penalties in their history with 17 for 99 yards; the record is 18 (for 115) versus Kansas in 1950.
- ◆ PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG/58 yards) missed his first regular season field goal from inside 40 yards with the 28-yard wide left kick in the first quarter (caused by a bad snap). He had been 19-for-19 before that kick; however, he bounced back with his sixth career field goal of 50 yards or longer with the 58-yard kick in the fourth; that tied for the second longest field goal in CU history, tied for the longest on the road, tied for the longest in the NCAA this season and tied for the longest ever at the Orange Bowl. It was Crosby's sixth career field goal of 50 yards or longer in the regular season.
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt. He had the 11th 200-yard passing game of his career, tying him for fourth all-time with John Hessler.
- ◆ Field Position. Miami started seven of its 14 drives at or inside the 20, bring the opponent total on the year to 24 of 42.
- ◆ Long Play. The 38-yard pass from Joel Klatt to Byron Ellis in the fourth quarter was CU's longest play from scrimmage this season.
- ◆ Defense. Miami had 394 yards, marking the first three-game stretch Colorado has held the opponent under 400 since a four-game stretch in 2002.
- ◆ Against The Ranked. This was CU's sixth straight loss overall to ranked teams (0-4 in 2004), and has dropped seven straight to those ranked in the top 15. Colorado's last win over a ranked team was on Nov. 8, 2003, when it defeated No. 22 Missouri, 21-16; it's last win over a top 15 team was on Oct. 6, 2002, with a 35-31 win over No. 13 Kansas State.
- ◆ Instant Replay. CU had its first taste of "the play is under review." The play was overturned, as a ball was spotted by some two yards off on a Klatt run.

Stat Changes: There were several stat changes from the Miami game; Klatt had one two pass attempts; Colorado's team penalty count was 17 for 111; Tyrone Moss for Miami had one less rush and five fewer yards, lowering the count of plays and yard for Miami rushing and total offense (he was inadvertently credited with a 5-yard gain on a play where he lost a yard but CU was offside); Miami had one sack for 10 yards, credited on the intentional grounding call on Klatt—the correct way to score the play is to award a sack for the yardage lost and a penalty for zero yards; and CU was 1-of-3 on fourth downs, not 1-of-2.

Oklahoma State

- ◆ Series Stuff. Colorado leads the OSU series 26-17-1; this was the fifth shutout in the series, all posted by Colorado; the last was in Boulder in 1992 when CU won 28-0. The only other shutout in Stillwater was a 6-0 verdict by CU in 1933.
- ◆ Shutouts II. The last time CU posted two shutouts in the same season was in 1992, with a 6-0 win at Missouri and a 28-0 win over Oklahoma State; those came over a 5-game stretch. The last time the CU defense posted two shutouts in a three-game span prior to this year (CU beat New Mexico State 39-0 on Sept. 10) was 40 years ago; in 1965, when the Buffs tied Wisconsin 0-0 in the opener at Madison and beat Kansas State in Manhattan 36-0 two weeks later.
- ◆ CU snapped two losing streaks with the win: the Buffs had lost two straight conference openers (at Baylor in 2003 and at Missouri in 2004) as well as nine straight games against Big 12 South Division teams. CU's last win against a South team before today came on Oct. 26, 2002 with a 37-13 win over Texas Tech, with its last conference road win also in Stillwater on Oct. 27, 2001 (22-19).
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt (26-14-0, 151, 1 TD passing). He moved into second all-time at Colorado in passing yards with 5,527, as he passed Koy Detmer (5,390) into second place. Kordell Stewart is the all-time leader with 6,481. He also passed Detmer (5,359) into third place all-time in total offense with 5,417 yards, trailing only Stewart (7,770) and Darian Hagan (5,808). He upped his ratio of touchdowns to interceptions in the red zone to 19-to-1, thanks to his eighth career TD pass to Joe Klopfenstein.
- ◆ TB Hugh Charles. His 74-yard run for a touchdown was the longest rushing play by a Buffalo since Chris Brown had a 78-yard run (also for a TD) at Kansas on Oct. 12, 2002. It tied for the 24th longest in school history, and is the longest on CU's first possession of a game since Darian Hagan's 75-yard run against Texas on Sept. 4, 1989 (it was the game's second play; he was tackled at the 1).
- ◆ Quick. Charles' 74-yard run was the second fastest score from scrimmage in a game in Colorado history, coming 18 seconds in; the fastest was at Texas A&M on Sept. 28, 1996, when Rae Carruth scored on a 28-yard reverse following a Ryan Sutter (yes, Mr. Bachelorette) fumble recovery on the opening kickoff.
- ◆ Marcus Burton. His 99-yard interception return for a touchdown tied for the fourth longest in school history; there are three 100-yard returns: Dick Kearns at Denver (Nov. 24, 1938); Johnny Ziegler vs. Colorado Mines (Sept. 6, 1942); and Steve Rosga vs. Oklahoma State (Oct. 12, 1996). Isaac Howard had the other 99-yard return, at Missouri in 1966. It was the longest play, scrimmage or returns, by a true freshman in Colorado history. It was also CU's 35th return touchdown since 1999 (tied for the sixth most in the NCAA with USC), and the 13th time since 1992 that a CU player returned his first career interception for a touchdown.
- ◆ Defense. Colorado held OSU to 208 yards of total offense, the ninth time in 10 games the opponent has not reached 400 yards, basically the new national average in this era of high-powered offenses. The only opponent to put more than 400 on the CU defense in the last nine games was Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship game.

Texas A&M

- ◆ The 2-0 start by Colorado in Big 12 is its first in league play since 2002 (opened 4-0) and is the sixth time in 10 years CU has opened with a pair of wins. The 41 points is the second most CU has scored against a Big 12 South team in league play, topped only by CU's 47-30 win at Texas on Oct. 25, 1997.
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt (12-15, 211 yards, First Quarter). Klatt set school records for both the most passing yards and for total offense in a single quarter. He held the old passing mark for a quarter with 196 against North Texas (second quarter, Sept. 18, 2004); also the previous total offense quarter best.
- ◆ Colorado has scored 24 or more points in six of the seven games in the Texas A&M series (exception: 16-10 loss in 1997).

Season Note Progression, continued:

Texas A&M

- ◆ Of the nine kickoff returns against PK Mason Crosby this year, four have not been brought out beyond the 20.
- ◆ TE Joe Klopfenstein (5-99, 0 TD). He set a regular season best with 99 receiving yards; he does have one 100-yard career game, coming in last December's Houston Bowl against UTEP (5-134, 1 TD).
- ◆ TE Quinn Sypniewski (3-70, 1 TD). He matched his career best with three catches, but the 70 yards was easily a single-game best for him (topping the 44 against Colorado State).
- ◆ TE's. Thus, note Colorado's two-headed tight end monster had eight catches for 169 yards and 1 TD.
- ◆ Colorado Offense. The Buffs amassed 559 yards this evening, ranking as the sixth most in a Big 12 Conference game in its history. The top five: 598 vs. Kansas in Boulder, Oct. 11, 2003 (OT, W 50-47); 591 vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Nov. 9, 1996 (W, 49-42); 581 vs. Nebraska in Boulder, Nov. 23, 2001 (W, 62-36); 575 vs. Missouri at Columbia, Nov. 9, 2002 (OT, W 42-35); 562 vs. Missouri at Columbia, Nov. 2, 1996 (W 41-13); 559 vs. Texas A&M in Boulder, Oct. 8, 2005 (W, 41-6).
- ◆ Colorado Defense. After both teams combined for 347 yards in the first quarter (CU 233, A&M 114), the Buffs held the Aggies to just 72 in the second and third quarters combined, while gaining 315 themselves. A&M's second team got the best of CU's second unit in the fourth by 150-11.
- ◆ P John Torp, with his first punt that pinned A&M at its two, set the school record for most career punts inside-the-20. He had entered the game tied with Stan Koleski (1973-76) with 51; he had two for 53 total.
- ◆ Crosby/Torp. They did it again, as A&M started 10 of its 13 drives at or inside the 20.
- ◆ Gary Barnett won his 31st in conference play, tying him for the fifth most league wins by a coach in CU history.

Texas

- ◆ CU came in with its first-team defense having allowed just two touchdowns in the last 16 quarters (six overall) but allowed six to the Longhorns.
- ◆ Third Down Defense. Colorado came in ranked fifth in the nation on third down defense, allowing opponents to convert just 24 percent of the time. However, the Longhorns went 7-of-8 in the first half and 10-for-17 for the game.
- ◆ This was Colorado's only game in Texas this regular season; the Buffs are 13-16 all-time in the state's border; prior to this game, its last six games in the state, including two bowls and a Big 12 title game, had been decided by a total of 30 points. Texas now leads the series 8-7.
- ◆ Texas' touchdown on its first possession ended a streak of five straight games in which CU had forced its opponent into three plays (or less) and out, as the opponent had four punts and a fumble lost in the first five contests this season to start the game.
- ◆ VB Lawrence Vickers. He topped the 500 yard career marking in receiving, as he had 24 to raise his total to 516; with minus-1 yard rushing, he needs 19 yards to reach 500 and become just the 10th player in CU history to accumulate at least 500 yards in both in a career (note: the release had said 10 previously had done it; the correct count is nine; Cliff Branch had a wrong rushing yard count listed).
- ◆ QB Joel Klatt (39-19-1, 189, 2 TD passing). He is the second player at Colorado to surpass the 6,000-yard career passing yardage mark, eclipsing the plateau today as he now has 6,114; that's 367 behind Kordell Stewart, the all-time leader with 6,481. He now has 38 career TD passes, second behind Koy Detmer (40), and improved his touchdown-to-interception ratio in the red zone to 22-to-1. His second quarter interception ended a string of 93 consecutive passes without an interception, topping his previous best of 90 as a sophomore.
- ◆ DT/OG John Guydon. In the second half, he saw action at both offensive guard and defensive tackle; several players have made "cameo" appearances through the years on the other side of the ball, but Guydon is the first to see significant extended action for a complete series for the first time since WR Michael Westbrook played an entire series at safety against Baylor in 1993.
- ◆ DE Maurice Lucas. He saw his first action of the year today, appearing in the fourth quarter, making him the fifth true freshman to play this season (joining S Ben Burney, ILB Marcus Burton, DT George Hypolite and CB Gardner McKay).
- ◆ CU radio announcer Larry Zimmer worked his 400th broadcast as a member of the Colorado Football Network, dating back to the 1971 season. The play-by-play voice of the Buffs from 1971-81, and then 1985-2003 before shifting to commentary and analysis last season, Zimmer also hit another incredible milestone at Texas. When taking into account 50 games for the University of Michigan, 34 for Colorado State University, and 516 as either the play-by-play man or analyst for the Denver Broncos, it all added up to CU-Texas being his 1,000th football broadcast.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 20 seniors on its roster this season, and history will show that most, if not all the NFL teams will pass through Boulder or a road site for a game in 2005. So far this year, 26 scouts from these 18 teams have seen the Buffs in person: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Green Bay, Houston, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Minnesota, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Philadelphia and Washington. In Last year, 49 scouts representing 23 NFL teams attended games, and this decade, all 32 teams have seen CU games in person (over 250 scouts in the five-year period).

SENIOR ANALYSIS

Colorado has 20 seniors on its 2005 roster, 14 of which are starters or practically co-starters in the rotation or on special teams: ILB Akarika Dawn, DE James Garee, S Tom Hubbard, OLB Brian Iwuh, WR Evan Judge, QB Joel Klatt, TE Joe Klopfenstein, NT Vaka Manupuna, OT Clint O'Neal, SN Greg Pace, FB Brendan Schaub, TE Quinn Sypniewski, P John Torp and VB Lawrence Vickers. Two others are in the regular rotation mix from scrimmage, OL Gary Moore and DT John Guydon. The remaining three seniors figure to see limited action at this time: DT Nick Clement, WR Marcus Gonzales and SN Matt Hammond (Hammond is on at least one special teams unit, however).

GRADUATION STAT(U)S

Two of the 20 seniors on the roster have already graduated, as OG John Guydon (journalism/broadcast production) and TE Quinn Sypniewski (journalism/news-editorial) have earned their degrees (Sypniewski is now seeking a second bachelor's in history). Six more are on schedule to graduate this December: DT Nick Clement (film studies), DT James Garee (economics/sociology), SN Matt Hammond (psychology), DT Vaka Manupuna (ethnic studies), OT Gary Moore (economics) and OT Clint O'Neal (history). Ten are set for graduation next May: ILB Akarika Dawn (Black & Ethnic studies), WR Marcus Gonzales (international affairs), ILB Kyle Griffith (business/finance), S Tom Hubbard (business/accounting & finance), WR Evan Judge (business management—he will study in Italy in the spring), QB Joel Klatt (economics), TE Joe Klopfenstein (sociology), SN Greg Pace (communication, with a minor in history), FB Brendan Schaub (sociology) and P John Torp (political science & economics). The remaining two, both fourth-year seniors, are on schedule for either next summer or December '06: OLB Brian Iwuh (economics) and VB Lawrence Vickers (sociology).

► NOTE: Over the last three years, Colorado has had 59 of its 67 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.1 percent (with two of the eight non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, i.e., Wayne Lucier in '02 or WR Mike Duren in '04), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado. However, numbers that will be released this fall, for the incoming freshman in 1999, will be 79 percent for CU, one of its best numbers in years, but is still skewed lower because of transfers.

WHAT'S A V-BACK?

What's a V-Back, you ask? In short, it stands for "versatile" back, which most definitely applies to the one player Colorado lists at VB on the roster, senior Lawrence Vickers. The moniker dates back to last year, when Vickers and Daniel Jolly (who has since transferred to Texas State) were asked to come up with a name for what they felt they brought to their position. They had previously been listed No. 1 and 2 at fullback and that sort of "pigeonholed" what they can really do. Since they blocked like fullbacks, ran like tailbacks and played like receivers, "V-Back" fit them perfectly. "What's asked of the position is that the players have to be very versatile and fill a number of roles, and we want to excel at each and every one of those," Vickers said. "Running, catching and blocking are three of the biggest components for any football player to be successful, but doing those well as a V-back makes us multi-dimensional and we opponents never know for sure what we'll be doing when I'm in the game." Gary Barnett joked that Vickers liked it because it can also stand for "Vickers-Back."

40 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS SIXTH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 40 wins over Associated Press ranked team since the start of the 1989 season are tied for the sixth most in the nation in this span. Florida State has the most with 63, followed by Michigan (54), Florida (51), Miami, Fla. (47), Tennessee (45), Ohio State (42) and Colorado (40). As for the Big 12, after CU, the next schools on this list are Nebraska (33), Texas (31), Texas A&M (26) and Oklahoma (26). (The AP poll is used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

36 SECONDS SEEMS TO BE ENOUGH FOR THE BUFFS

Let's examine what has happened at Folsom Field the last two times it has hosted games. In the 2004 finale, Kansas State rallies to tie the game at 31-31 with 36 seconds remaining. After the kickoff, the Buffs were faced with a 1st-and-10 from their 23 with 0:30 left; after two incomplete passes, VB Lawrence Vickers gains 13 on a draw, and on the next play, QB Joel Klatt and WR Ron Monteilh hook up on a 64-yard touchdown pass with just 0:05 showing to give CU a 38-31 victory.

Fast forward to the '05 season opener; CSU mounts a furious drive to catch CU at 28-28, with 36 seconds remaining. The Buffs take over on their 40-yard line after CB Stephone Robinson returns a squib kickoff 30 yards. Klatt connects with WR Patrick Williams for 22 yards and again with WR Dusty Sprague for eight more setting CU up at the CSU 30, where PK Mason Crosby drills a 47-yard field goal with 0:04 remaining to lead CU to a 31-28 win.

At least the last two times out, give the Buffaloes 36 seconds, and it's been enough to conjure up victory.

TRENDS

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 165-79-4, the 15th best record nationally in this span). In these 248 games, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

TRENDS II

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings, Colorado has posted the nation's ninth best overall record at 137-60-4. Here's are some trends during this time frame (201 games, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	77-22-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	73- 4-1

TRENDS III

Gary Barnett took over the reins of the CU program in 1999. CU has a 46-35 overall record with him as mentor, and here are some trends during his tenure (81 games, including bowls):

➤ when scoring 30 or more points	33- 3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	21- 2

➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	38-10

TURNOVERS UNDER BARNETT

Gary Barnett drills home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football. The statistics back up his argument, as the below will show that it is definitely better to take than to give during the Barnett Era:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	Scoring Off Turnovers PA	+/-
46 WINS	67	111	+44	396	166	+230
35 LOSSES	95	61	-34	160	305	-145
7-SEASON TOTAL (81 Games)	162	172	+10	556	471	+ 85

The biggest disparity (20) was in 2001: CU was plus-9 in its 10 wins and minus-11 in the three losses (and outscored 44-0 on turnovers). In the 42 wins, CU has outscored the opponent 348-159 on points off turnovers, and it's really magnified in the four bowl seasons, 324-122 (1999, 2001, 2002, 2004).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) in Gary Barnett's six years as head coach, while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen. That showed the youth of the team, especially since underclassmen also had 41.7 percent of the starts in 2003. Fast-forward to 2005, and in the first six games, 80 percent of the starters have been juniors (52) and seniors (53), with sophomores starting in all but one of the other 27 slots. In 2002, the numbers were flopped as well: upperclassmen started 93 percent of the games. It's basically a cyclical pattern, and that shows up when looking at the breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class:

➤ 2005 starters (6 games): Seniors (53), Juniors (52), Sophomores (26), Freshmen (1; redshirts 1, true 0).	Upperclassmen: 80%
➤ 2004 starters (13 games): Seniors (72), Juniors (103), Sophomores (100), Freshmen (11: redshirts 0, true 11).	Upperclassmen: 39%
➤ 2002 starters (14 games): Seniors (155), Juniors (130), Sophomores (14), Freshmen (9: redshirts 0, true 9).	Upperclassmen: 93%
➤ 2001 starters (13 games): Seniors (102), Juniors (95), Sophomores (83), Freshmen (7: redshirts 7, true 0).	Upperclassmen: 69%
➤ 2000 starters (11 games): Seniors (55), Juniors (116), Sophomores (38), Freshmen (33; redshirts 15, true 18).	Upperclassmen: 71%

UNDERCLASSMEN ROLE

In 2002, when CU finished 9-5 in the school's only ever 14-game season, underclassmen started a total of 23 games (14 sophomore/9 freshmen). Jump to 2003, and that total was surpassed after just four games (25), with the underclassmen start count for the year at 110 (78 sophomore/32 freshmen). In CU's Big 12 championship year in 2001, 90 underclassmen made starts, with the 71 starting in 2000 and 107 in 1999 during the Barnett era. Including the two kicking spots (P, PK), the 2002 numbers remained 23 out of a possible 336 starts (6.5%) by underclassmen; the 2003 numbers jumped to 134 (90 soph/44 frosh) out of 288, or 46.5%. In 2004, 110 of the 286 starters were underclassmen (38%; 123 of 312 including kickers, or 39%), setting the table for 2005.

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001 and 2002 seasons. The Buffs had an 854-417 edge in 2001 and an 803-607 lead in 2002 in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. In 2003, the opponent held a 599-453 edge, but in 2004, CU finished ahead by 574-499. Return yards are a staple of the Barnett Era at Colorado, as including the postseason, CU now has 4,307 in the 81 games he has coached, 971 more than the opponent. And the Buffs have 35 return touchdowns over the last seven seasons (31 regular season, four bowl game), tied for the sixth most in the nation for this span. THE BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-05 Record	Gary Barnett Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	11-47-2	7-15-1	2-8	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	24-81-3	13-26-2	2-14	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	36-98-3	19-31-2	5-16	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	66-124-3	40-43-2	11-21	20 / Bill McCartney

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the nine-year old league owns a 25-56 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own eight of those wins. CU is 8-8 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 7-4, Texas 3-5, Kansas State 2-3, Oklahoma 1-1, Baylor 1-3, Iowa State 1-6, Kansas 0-2, Oklahoma State 0-4, Missouri 0-5, Texas Tech 1-6 and Texas A&M 0-9.

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 34-5, Kansas State 33-5, Oklahoma State 26-7, Texas 28-9, Oklahoma 26-10, Iowa State 24-10, Kansas 21-10, Texas Tech 26-12, Texas A&M 25-12, Missouri 22-11, Colorado 23-14 and Baylor 19-12 (remember traditionally CU plays one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

HOLLIDAY DENIED NCAA WAIVER APPEAL

Junior TB Mell Holliday, a walk-on from Omaha, Neb., via Wayne State University and the University of Nebraska, had an appeal filed on his behalf by school officials denied by the NCAA regarding the one year-in-residency rule. CU declared Holliday, who had an impressive camp and rose to third on the depth chart by mid-August, ineligible after a second review of his academic history prior to enrolling in Boulder. CU's compliance staff first interpreted him to be eligible, but upon the second review, decided to rule him ineligible until the NCAA ruled on the matter, which it did Sept. 16. Holliday played two years at Wayne State and then transferred to NU, where he had hoped to make the Husker team; he wound up attending school but was not a member of the football squad.

LINER NOTES

Here's the place to look for that one or two sentence quick note on a CU two-deep regular:

1 Stephone Robinson	Midway through fall camp in 2004 he switched to cornerback from wide receiver; he is CU's primary punt and kick returner. He was named second-team All-Big 12 by conference coaches in 2004. He developed an M.O. quickly—most punts others would fair catch, he prides himself on catching and trying to gain even just a yard or two, preventing longer punts on bounces in the process.
2 Hugh Charles	He enjoys flying planes; he earned his solo license in a Cessna 172 as a sophomore in high school and then served in the Civil Air Patrol for two years. Charles was on CU's track and field team last season, participating in the long jump. He won his first competition in early February 2005 as a true freshman at the Air Force meet with only a week to prepare. Also an avid golfer.
3 Tyrone Henderson	He was in the mix for a lot of playing time in 2004 before he became a starter due to a knee injury to J.J. Billingsley, as he figured to be the first man in off the bench for the nickel defense. He blocked two punts against Washington State to become the first Buff ever to block two kicks of any kind in a single game and quickly became a mainstay in the secondary.
4 Patrick Williams	Williams possesses a rare combination of speed and athletic ability, giving the Buffs a legitimate deep threat to stretch opposing defenses. He returns as a redshirt freshman after having the misfortune last season of breaking bones in both of his hands.
5 J.J. Billingsley	Billingsley was to be the veteran leader on defense, especially in the secondary, in 2004; however, he underwent arthroscopic surgery on August 19 to clean up a knee injury and returned to practice just six days later, but swelling persisted and a second operation (Oct. 12) ended his season. He is fully recovered and is one of the reasons for CU's improved secondary play in 2005.
6 Gardner McKay	McKay quickly climbed to No. 2 on the depth chart at cornerback behind junior Lorenzo Sims during fall camp. Although he has a small frame (5'11, 160 pounds), coaches have raved about his coverage skills. He has bulked up this fall in order to be a factor in defending the running game.
7 Dominique Brooks	"DB the DB," he's the first letterman to play in the secondary where his initials match the position... The coaches call him "The Voice of Reason," because as Shawn Watson puts it, "He usually has the answers, he calls it like he sees it, and he'll be a natural for television." Only the third player to have a two INT game as a true frosh at CU.
8 Alvin Barnett	He struggled to adapt to the fast pace of Division I football upon his arrival, but the coaches have been amazed with his progress since the spring, tabbing him as one of the team's most improved players. O-coordinator Shawn Watson: "He's made the biggest jump and is night and day compared to where he was in the spring. He's the biggest surprise out of the whole crew of receivers."
9 Tom Hubbard	He missed most of spring practices because of a knee injury but came back healthy for fall camp. Hubbard is one of 42 players on the 2005 Lott Trophy watch list: the award goes to the college defensive players of the year who has the biggest impact on and off the field. He got the attention of the Lott people by being named the defensive MVP in the Houston Bowl win over UTEP.
10 James Cox	He was in the mix for the starting job a year ago, but with Klatt entrenched at starter, he worked hard to ascend into the No. 2 spot and made his first start vs. ISU. He is considered the most pure passer of all the quarterbacks.
10 Terry Washington	He is one of the fastest players on the team with great instincts. Washington should see significant playing time this fall as he continues to learn the Buffs' defensive system after transferring from Garden State, Kan. Community College. The Buffs originally recruited him as a running back in 2003.
12 Akarika Dawn	Dawn can bounce between the will and mike positions, as he's practiced extensively at both, and played earlier in his career as a strong safety. He speaks fluent Spanish (his fiancé is Colombian). One of the more unsung players on the team, but offers consistent play at linebacker and can register a hit as fierce as anyone.
13 Joe Sanders	Former CU basketball center and current Indiana Pacer David Harrison helped persuade Sanders to become a Buff. Harrison, who also hails from Nashville and attended a nearby high school, has known Sanders since 1998. During high school, he traveled to South Africa to volunteer at an orphanage.
14 Joel Klatt	He played two-plus seasons in the San Diego Padres organization (A-ball: 2000, 2001 some of 2002). Some of his teammates back then are approaching stardom, topped by Padres ace Jack Peavy (16-6 with an MLB best 2.27 ERA in 2004). Others include Justin Germano (September call-up by SD), Tagg Bozied (Portland, AAA/Padres) and Josh Barfield (AA/Padres). Klatt was only the fourth junior elected captain since 1964 (end of the platoon era) and is just the fifth to serve in multiple seasons.
16 Mason Crosby	He has one of the strongest legs in college football, proving it out of the gate in 2004 with a 55-yard field goal in the opening win over Colorado State (it split the uprights and cleared with 10 yards to spare). This year, his 58-yard field goal at Miami was the longest without a tee at sea level in NCAA history (and of course he has a 60-yarder). The coaches feel CU can be in field goal range 65 yards on in. As with most kickers, he has a ritual: he'll sometimes hit 40-60 golf balls at the range two days before games.
17 Lawrence Vickers	One of the most versatile players in all of college football as he has good speed, solid blocking ability and has good hands; thus, he's a threat at tailback, fullback and receiver (and so was born his position moniker: V-Back.). Used to wear No. 34, but switched to 17 as after several personal tragedies, he decided to "skim things down a bit; thus the number serves as a personal reminder.
22 Byron Ellis	Ellis plays with a different style than starter Hugh Charles, as he runs with more of a bruising style and likes to shoot the ball up the middle. He is majoring in integrative physiology at CU and was 4.0 student in high school.
22 Lorenzo Sims, Jr.	His cousin (Ricky Manning) was a defensive back at UCLA, while another (DeShawn Stevenson) plays guard for the Utah Jazz; second cousin (Bruce Bowen) is a forward for the San Antonio Spurs. Sims is CU's most physical corner, evident from his conversion from safety.
27 Brian Iwuh	In 2004, he was moved to the new position in CU's new defensive scheme—Buff (outside) linebacker—and adjusted very well as he led the team in tackles. He had a rough 2003, as within four days, he lost his stepfather (Oct. 4) and older brother (Oct. 8) both to cancer. He had his knee scoped on Sept. 6 (hurt vs. CSU), but returned to practice Sept. 19 and started at Miami.
29 John Torp	He had the tough job of replacing '02 Ray Guy Award winner Mark Mariscal, and now, he's one of the leading candidates himself for the award. He averaged 42.5 per punt in 2003, and ratcheted that up to 46.3 last season (see full page of notes on Torp).

LINER NOTES

30 Paul Creighton	Creighton is listed as the No. 3 fullback on the depth chart, as well as the No. 3 tight end. His versatility essentially gives the coaches an extra player at both positions, as well as a valuable contributor on special teams.
31 Gerett Burl	He returned to CU in 2004 after a one-semester hiatus, and his return was welcomed. His grandfather, Alex “The Bullet” Burl, played tailback at Colorado State and then one year (1956) with the Chicago Cardinals. Another grandpa, Eddie Callaway, coached basketball (the first African-American to do so in Colorado) and was principal at Manual. Uncle, Eddie Callaway Jr., coached former CU basketball player and NBA Finals MVP Chauncey Billups at George Washington.
33 Walter Boye-Doe	He moved to defensive end from inside linebacker, a move that was delayed, as he did not participate in spring drills due to an ankle injury. An older brother, Howard, is a senior linebacker at Wisconsin.
43 Brendan Schaub	He entered his senior season having ascended to No. 2 at fullback. He had outstanding spring and fall practices that prompted Barnett to place Schaub on scholarship. He will likely see plenty of action in special teams duty as well.
44 Jordon Dizon	He became the first true freshman since 1991 and just the sixth-ever to start a season opener at CU in 2004 (the first ILB). He lived up to his nod, racking up 8 tackles, to go with a caused interception, one PBU, a TD save and a third down stop against CSU. His given Hawaiian name, Kainalu (pronounced kye-ah-na-loo) means “ocean wave.”
45 Quinn Synlewski	A nagging turf toe suffered in 2002 eventually required surgery in 2003, ending his true senior year; but with a redshirt year available, he opted to gear toward last season. Bad luck then hit him again with the lower leg injury. As a result, he is the first six-year player in modern history, and he finally scored his first college TD in his 44th career game (against New Mexico State).
47 Alonzo Barrett	Barrett had a monster spring capped by the annual spring game in which he finished with six solo tackles, including five sacks for a losses of 22 yards, two third down stops and a forced fumble. He earned his first career start at Oklahoma State.
49 Thaddeus Washington	If Iwuh is the hardest hitter on the team (Thaddeus disagrees), then Washington is a close second. He boasts the team's second best squat (567 pounds during spring testing). Hails from the same high school that produced former CU QB Kordell Stewart.
51 Alex Ligon	Seasoned and bigger (up 15 pounds from '03), he came into his own last season; he had three quarterback sacks at Washington State, the first Buff to have that many since 2000, and claimed Big12 Defensive POW honors.
53 Abraham Wright	An explosive player with great speed, Wright has a knack for getting in the backfield. He finished the 2004 regular season second in QB pressures with six and tied with Ligon in sacks (4½).
58 Mark Fenton	He got the attention of the coaching staff during CU's 2002 Alamo Bowl practices, as that's when he first got an extensive look at the center position. CU's had a long line of all-conference centers, and he's just a sophomore.
59 Greg Pace	He approached long snapping like a financial analyst plots strategies; he started attending special team camps as a prep, and through hard work and dedication, was awarded a scholarship this fall. He is strictly a snapping specialist and plays no other spot.
62 John Guydon	Guydon, who has already graduated with a degree in broadcast production, is also interested in stand-up comedy. He has performed on occasion in front of small audiences and gets pretty good reviews. His second cousin, Damian Anderson, played tailback at Northwestern (under coach Gary Barnett) and is now with the Arizona Cardinals in the NFL.
66 Brian Daniels	In 2003, he started the most games—9—as a true freshman at CU since Eric Bieniemy started 11 at halfback in 1987; that number also tied for the fourth most starts at the time by a true frosh and most by any true frosh OL in school history.
73 Clint O'Neal	His weight is hovering around 300, his peak as a Buffalo as he's found it difficult to gain and keep it on. He has been as low as 270 pounds during his CU career, but now that he's bulked up, he enters his second consecutive season as a starter on the O-line. OL coach Dave Borbely said he had a great summer conditioning and took things to a new level, and it's paid dividends.
76 Edwin Harrison	For his efforts and strong play towards the end of last season, Harrison was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-Big 12 squad. His grandfather (Calvin Jones) won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior lineman as a senior at Iowa in 1955; Jones was the first two-time consensus All-American in Iowa history, and his No. 62 was retired by the Hawkeyes.
77 Tyler Polumbus	The tallest player on the Buffs at 6-8, Polumbus has bulked up to 280 pounds. Two members of his family played sports at CU: Father (Tad) lettered in both football and golf (1965-66), and an uncle (Gary Polumbus) lettered three years in golf and twice made it to the NCAA Championships.
79 Gary Moore	Has played both guard and tackle during his CU career and thus could see time at both. His physique has been Completely overhauled, as he's down between 315-320 pounds, some 50-60 pounds lighter than his true freshman year. An accomplished singer, he sang God Bless America the first home game following 9/11 and has a desire to one day be on “American Idol.”
82 James Garee	Garee weighed 205 when he signed with Colorado in the winter of 2001, and he's progressively bulked up to 275. He moves to the interior on the defensive line to help replace graduated tackles Matt McChesney and Brandon Dabdoub. He was named a starter for the '03 Big 12 opener and has been a starter on the line ever since, and is a legitimate all-Big 12 candidate at his new position.
82 Evan Judge	He has the second-most career receiving yards by a walk-on (or former walk-on) in CU history, trailing only Jeff Campbell, perhaps the most famous Buffalo to ever join the team as a walk-on.
83 Dusty Sprague	He steadily improved last season, and had his first career 100-yard receiving game at Texas A&M (8-101). He fractured his clavicle vs. Texas but returned after only three games. This year, he's emerged as the favorite go-to-guy for Joel Klatt.
89 Joe Klopfenstein	“Klop” runs well, has solid blocking skills and has great hands, and is a favorite target of the quarterbacks. A John Mackey Award candidate, he has a knack for the big play... which is aided by his 4.53 speed, making him the fifth fastest player on the team.
93 Vaka Manupuna	A spot player as a sophomore while coping with his mother's death back in Hawaii, he won a starting spot as a junior after promising his late sister, Mele (she passed in the spring of 2004) that he would never quit and work hard to become a starter. He's been a mainstay in the starting lineup ever since, and gets the attention of opposing coaches for his play at nose tackle.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below is the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2005 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on this year's opening roster collectively had played in 1,080 games, with 314 starts, making it the most experienced team entering a season under Gary Barnett. That's a complete turnaround from last year, when with 761 games and 182 starts, it was his least-experienced team. The 2001 team was the most experienced until the season, as it entered the year with 924 games played with 326 starts; similar numbers were 761/182 (2004), 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). Daniels had a team-best string of 23 consecutive starts snapped when he missed the New Mexico State game with a fractured rib.

FOURTEEN "SEASONED" TO DATE IN 2005

Through six games, 14 players have now had their first taste of action in a Colorado uniform. In the opener against Colorado State, eight players hit the field for the very first time as a Colorado Buffalo, including one true freshman (ILB Marcus Burton, who played eight snaps from scrimmage); five followed suit for their first game action in game two against New Mexico State. DE Maurice Lucas was the last to do so, in game six at Texas. In 2004, 26 saw their first collegiate action for the Buffaloes, with 24 players doing so in 2003; the latter included two scholarship kickers making CU likely the first team in the nation in a very long time that had two freshmen scholarship kickers play in the first game of the year. The list (*—mainly special teams duty to date):

TRUE FRESHMEN (5): S Ben Burney, ILB Marcus Burton, DT George Hypolite, DE Maurice Lucas, CB Gardner McKay.

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (4): *ILB Maurice Cantrell, OLB Brad Jones, OG Daniel Sanders, S Ryan Walters.

SOPHOMORES (1): *WR Chase McBride.

JUNIORS (4): WR Alvin Barnett, *OLB Chad Cusworth, OL Bryce MacMartin, *CB Terry Washington.

SENIORS (0).

EIGHT HAVE MADE FIRST CAREER STARTS IN 2005

Four players started for the first time in their CU careers in opener against Colorado State, all on the offensive side of the ball: TB Hugh Charles, OT Tyler Polumbus, WR Dusty Sprague and OG Jack Tipton. A week later, OG Daniel Sanders made his first start in place on of an injured Brian Daniels against New Mexico State. At Miami, OG Edwin Harrison started for the first time in a retooled line to combat several injuries. In the league opener at Oklahoma State, DE Alonzo Barrett was rewarded with his first career start. At Texas, WR Alvin Barnett was in for the first play, giving CU a potential threat to run a reverse. In 2004, 12 players made their first career starts in a CU uniform, with 10 of those returning this fall. In 2003, 20 players made their first career starts, the most first starts in since 1998, when there were 27 first-time starters for the Buffaloes, 17 on offense and 10 on defense. Those were the most since 1984, when 29 made their first starts (15 on offense). The annual number of first-time starters since 1984:

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12) and 2005 (7).

STARTING SHUFFLE

In 1998, Colorado had a plethora of injuries, and it meant different starting lineups on a weekly basis; it was the start of an incredibly unique streak. That year, CU started 12 different lineups on offense and 11 on defense, or 23 different starting lineups combined, the most in CU history until 1999 and 2000, when CU did not start the same lineup two weeks in succession the entire year. The previous high since 1971 (the start of 11-game seasons) was in 1991, when CU used 13 (seven on offense and six on defense). A closer look:

- ⇒ In 1999, CU started 20 different lineups (12 offense, 8 defense), due to personnel and formations in about half of the instances and to injuries for the rest. The 20 were the second most in team history to the 1998 count. In 2000 and 2001, the numbers continued to grow.
- ⇒ CU had started different lineups on offense for 41 consecutive games, starting in mid-1997 until the start of 2001. On defense, the Buffs started a different 11 for 30 straight contests until having the same starting lineup in there for games two and three in 2001 (CSU, San Jose State).
- ⇒ CU used 21 different lineups (11 offense, 10 defense) in 2002 and 21 different lineups in 12 games in 2003 (CU started the same 11 on both offense and defense just twice in '03). In 2004, even though the same five O-linemen started all 13 games, CU had 16 different lineups (6 offense, 10 defense).
- ⇒ In 2005, there have been six different offensive and three different defensive starting lineups in six games; thus, when the above is totaled, CU has utilized 148 different starting lineups in its last 94 games, or just 40 under the maximum.

A BAKER'S DOZEN OF THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 13 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was one of the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it along in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat in 2004 when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through October 15, senior associate AD Jon Burianek has worked 425 CU football games, including a current run of 408 in a row (226 of which are at home; he's seen 445 all told). The radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 400 games in his career, including 138 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. SID Dave Plati has worked 302, including the last 260 in a row, while facilities man John Krueger has worked 260 in all (110 straight). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 201 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 247 CU games. Gary Barnett has coached in 176 Buffalo games (95 as an assistant), while Mike Hankwitz, in his second tour as a CU assistant, has notched 139. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 110 times in 166 tries, including 18 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 66 percent of the time). CU is 4-of-6 in 2005: the Buffs were 1-for-2 against CSU, including the game winning field goal, 1-of-1 with a first half TD march against New Mexico State, 0-of-1 at Miami, 1-of-1 at OSU (first half field goal) and 1-of-1 at Texas (first half TD). CU was 4-for-5 in 2004, including a second half go-ahead score at Texas A&M and the game winning touchdown versus Kansas State. In 2003, the Buffs scored twice in as many tries in the season opener against Colorado State, registering a TD at the end of the first half and the game-winning score at the end of the game—CU's first in the two-minute drill since 1999. Lo and behold, the Buffs did it again in the offense the following week, putting the game winning score on the board with 2:15 left against UCLA. In Gary Barnett's tenure, the Buffs are 31 of 55 in the drill (19 TD/12 FG). One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 283-10-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 203-3 with 35-plus points and 188-2 with 36-plus, 164-1 with 38-plus and 106-0 with 43 or more tallies. The three losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980) and Stanford (41-37 in 1993). Colorado has played 1,081 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 7-14-1 in its last 22 games against top five teams (dating back to 1989) and is 13-27-2 against top 10 schools and 40-43-2 against all ranked teams in the same time frame.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 96 of its last 201 games, posting a 90-5-1 record. The losses were at Stanford, 41-37 in 1993, to Missouri in Boulder in 1997, 41-31, and twice to Nebraska (in Boulder in 1999, 33-30, in overtime; and 34-32 at Lincoln in 2000) and at Baylor in 2003 (42-30). The tie was a 31-31 affair with Tennessee in the 1990 Disneyland Pigskin Classic. The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 145 of these 201 games, dating to the start of 1989, going 118-25-2 (CU is 19-35-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed only 329 touchdowns in the last 648 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 (dating back to 1988; the other 318 times have yielded 160 field goals as well as 158 non-scores). In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 25% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 49% of the time, which are astonishing numbers.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 68 touchdowns out of 171 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 94 scores overall, meaning 77 non-scores). In 2004, the opponent had nine scores (7 TDs, 2 FG) out of 18 drives started in plus territory (six scores in 10 times in 2005, but only 3 TD); over the last four seasons, CU's allowed just 49 scores (39 TD/10 FG) in 91 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory.
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards total offense per game figure in 45 of its last 99 contests (once in 2005, five times in '04), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 152 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 82 times (54 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 41 of the 152 games since the '93 season opener (27%)... and remember CU has played 66 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong Colorado team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. Through five games in 2005, CU is averaging 6.24 yards on first down plays; the last time the Buffs did that for a season was 2001, their Big 12 Championship season. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
- ➔ Colorado is averaging a healthy 5.3 per rush and 7.6 per pass play on first down, and have topped the opponent in 20-plus yard gains (19-8), 10-plus (44-25) and 5-plus (93-64).
- ➔ Colorado had seven touchdowns by returns in 2001 (4 interception, 2 punt, 1 fumble), a school record; but guess what? The 2002 team matched it (3 fumble, 2 interception, 2 punt). In 2004, the Buffs had six; dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 35 scores by return in their last 77 games. And since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 56 scores by return in 128 games (49 regular season, seven bowl), or one almost every two games.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado topped 200 yards both rushing and passing against New Mexico State, as CU has accomplished the 200 "double-double" 10 times in the last 80 games (and 31 times in the last 152, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 31-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 52-35-1 in its last 88 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (49-28 in the last 77, including a 25-12 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 89-27-3 in its last 119 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 56-20-3 in conference games. CU is 1-0 this year on artificial surfaces (and was 3-1 in 2004).
- ➔ Colorado has allowed 330 quarterback sacks since the start of the 1993 season (including bowls), with the offensive line responsible for 196 of those (the others were allowed by tight ends/receivers/backs or were coverage sacks). That's 330 sacks allowed for 5,010 pass plays called, or one for every 15.2 pass attempts. And combined with this sack statistic is that fact that CU quarterbacks have thrown just 148 interceptions in 4,680 attempts in the same span, or an interception rate of just 3.16 percent (one every 31.6 passes).
- ➔ The Buffs were an enigma on third down defensively in 2003, and remained so in 2004. In 2003, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per) and had just 171 yards on 113 misses (1.5). (For comparison, CU had 660 yards on 59 conversions, 11.2 per, and 222 on 112 misses for 2.0.)
--Through six games in 2005, that number is down a bit to 11.3 on the 28 conversions (317 yards total; only five big plays: 40, 33, 24, 21 and 20). On the 64 failures by the opponent, CU has allowed just 116 yards, or 1.8 per try.
- ➔ The Torp/Crosby Factor. These guys control field position; opponents started over half their drives in 2004 either at (27) or inside (53) the 20, or 80 out of 159 (50.3%). By comparison, Colorado started 65 of 158 at or inside its 20, or 41.1%. And it's continued into '05: through six games, 47 of 81 opponent drives have started at or inside the 20 (58.0%).
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 11-0 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover. CU did neither in its 41-20 conquest of Texas A&M, the third time in seven seasons under Gary Barnett the Buff accomplished that rare double. CU did it twice in 2001, as it played turnover-free ball and allowed no sacks versus San Jose State (51-15) and Nebraska (62-36). In the 11 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 430-194, with only one game decided by less than 17 points (a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993).
- ➔ Colorado is 87-35-3 in its last 125 league games, and has the 10th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder on Sept. 25, 1993, opponents are just 3-of-66 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003 (WSU converted on a 3rd-&-23 and ISU on a 3rd-&-20 in 2004). The CU offense has converted 4-of-56 times when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ In the Barnett Era, the Buffs have scored in 227 of 324 quarters (70 percent), as well as in four of six overtime periods. All tolled, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 453 of its last 598 quarters (76%), including 16 of 24 in 2005.

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 29+ seasons. Since the start of 1976 (348 games), CU has blown a two-or-more score lead only 13 times, losing 10 and tying three. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 16 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss came at Texas A&M last year, where the Buffs led 19-10 entering the quarter and regained the lead 26-23 after falling behind 23-19. In conference play, only Kansas (1984), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001), Oklahoma State (1997) and Texas A&M (2004) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 29 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The two most recent wins of this variety came against Texas-El Paso in the 2004 Houston Bowl and in the season opener against CSU this season (rallying from 9 and 11 points down, respectively).
- Colorado has won 84 of its last 89 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead (current streak is 6 and 12 of the last 13); a 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 19-game winning streak in such situations (and one of 26 straight on the road), and two games later, Texas Tech mustered a similar comeback. A streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 17 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon: to BYU (1988 Freedom Bowl), Stanford (1991), Missouri (1997), Kansas (1998), CSU, Washington and Texas Tech (1999), CSU, Texas A&M and Kansas (2000), Fresno State (2001), CSU and Wisconsin (2002), Washington State, Baylor and Kansas State (2003) and Missouri this year. BYU reappeared in the '88 final rankings; Stanford went 7-1 after CU to crack the top 20; in '97, MU almost beat Nebraska the following week and made its way into polls for the first time in 14 seasons; CSU appeared at No. 24 after defeating CU in '99; in '01, Fresno toppled No. 10 Oregon State the next week and zoomed into the rankings; in '02, CSU climbed as high as No. 13; and WSU cracked the polls after its win in Boulder in 2003. The Buffs are 79-15-2 in their last 96 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 110-17-2 in the last 129. The Buffs are 147-61-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-7 in bowls); 101-44-3 in Big 8/12 games (including three league title games) and 46-17-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 26 occasions (and is 20-6 in games when this occurs). It's happened nine times over the last six-plus seasons, three times in 2004: at Texas A&M (TB Bobby Purify/WR Dusty Sprague), versus Kansas State (Purify/WR Ron Monteilh) and at Nebraska (Purify/WR Blake Mackey). In happened three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB's Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 171 of the 2004 CU football media guide (yes, last year's book; thanks again, NCAA).

SPECIAL TEAMS INVITE

How important does the coaching staff view special teams? Barnett started this tradition while at Northwestern, and has continued it at CU: the coaches of the four major special team units (punt, punt return, kickoff and kickoff return) personally hand out invitations to the players to attend the inaugural meetings of those units during camp. While some starters appear on all units, all feature traditional role players who have found a home with dedication to special teams work. Barnett also receives a personal invitation from each coach.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs have scored in a school record 203 consecutive games (dating back to 1988, the longest streak in the Big 12), last being shutout on November 12, 1988 at Nebraska (7-0). CU has scored in 109 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986 in a game where the Sooners did not attempt a single pass). The Buffs have scored in 81 consecutive road games (104 including neutral sites). The Buffs have scored in 128 straight league games (all 78 in Big 12 play, including the three title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska). CU has scored in 115 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at home over the course of the last 247 games (all the way back to 1963). CU has been shutout just seven times in its last 435 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only four schools have done it: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan. Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through October 15): Colorado 203, Nebraska 119, Kansas State 110, Texas Tech 98, Oklahoma 87, Kansas 32, Missouri 30, Iowa State 21, Texas A&M 20, Texas 13, Baylor 6, Oklahoma State 2. CU is the last team to shutout both Kansas State (12-0 in 1996) and Oklahoma State (34-0 this year).

SCORING STREAKS II

The school record 203 consecutive games in which Colorado has scored is the sixth longest active streak in the nation. The list of the nine Division I-A schools that have scored in every game since at least the start of the 1993 season, through games of October 15:

203 AND COUNTING

It was a close call, but Mason Crosby's 58-yard field goal extended CU's scoring streak to the 200-game plateau in a 23-3 loss at Miami. The 203-game streak currently stands as the 13th longest in Division I-A college history:

School	Streak	Dates	Ended By	School	Streak	Dates	Ended By

Oregon	239	10/05/1985 - present	Virginia	195	9/15/1984 - 10/28/2000	Georgia Tech

The streak of 203 games started on November 19, 1988; here's a look at some of things in the news that day and week CU began its record scoring run:

- ◆ The media reported on President Ronald Reagan signing three executive orders the previous day in relation to FEMA and catastrophic nuclear accidents. Reagan was wrapping up his second term, as George H.W. Bush was elected into office 11 days earlier on November 8;
- ◆ In the NBA, the Doug Moe-coached Denver Nuggets crushed the L.A. Clippers, 134-107 (Alex English was the highest paid player on Denver, at $1.65 million);
- ◆ Robert Plant of Led Zeppelin fame was touring that night in Tulsa, Okla.;
- ◆ The Escape Club owned the nation's top single on that date with their hit, Wild, Wild West, taking the spot over from the Beach Boys' Kokomo;
- ◆ The Top 10 television shows at the time included: The Cosby Show, Roseanne, A Different World, Cheers, The Golden Girls, Who's The Boss, 60 Minutes, Murder She Wrote, Empty Nest and Anything But Love.
- ◆ L.A. Law's Corbin Bernson married actress Amanda Pays (who?);
- ◆ Christine Onassis, heir and stepdaughter of Jackie O., died of heart failure at the age of 37; and
- ◆ John Lithgow hosted that's evening's Saturday Night Live.

THIRD TIME THE CHARM

For the first time in school history, a player was granted a sixth-year of eligibility as TE Quinn Sypniewski returned this fall after the NCAA allowed him another shot at a full senior season. Sypniewski originally received a medical redshirt for 2004 after battling a toe injury for the better part of two seasons, and received another after suffering a fractured lower leg in just his third game of the '05 campaign. So it's his third try as a senior. Sypniewski also became the first player to record statistics in six different seasons at CU. He is definitely making the most of it and has scored his first career touchdowns.

➤ DID YOU KNOW: The only players in modern CU history who have posted statistics in five different seasons include Sypniewski, ILB Barry Remington (1982-86), WR/KR Jo Jo Collins (1984-88), TB Marlon Barnes (1994-98) and TB Bobby Purify (2000-2004). The first three played as true freshmen and suffered in-season ending injuries either their sophomore or junior seasons; Purify was injured in his original true senior season.

OPPONENTS IN 2005

The 2005 schedule marks a first for the Buffaloes in Big 12 Conference play: CU will close its regular season schedule with its last five games against the other North Division teams (CU closed with four straight the first three years of the league's existence, in 1996-97-98). Colorado has five bowl teams on its 2005 schedule (Iowa State, Miami, Fla., Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M) with this year's 11 foes combining overall for a 68-58 record in 2004, a winning percentage of 54.0. Three teams just missed out on the postseason after recording 5-6 records (New Mexico State, Missouri, Nebraska), with the three remaining teams all posting 4-7 records, with all three playing schedules ranked in the top 31 in the nation last fall (Kansas No. 17, CSU No. 27, Kansas State No. 31). The roll call of 2005 opponents and their 2004 records: Colorado State (4-7), New Mexico State (5-6), Miami, Fla. (9-3), Oklahoma State (7-5), Texas A&M (7-5), Texas (11-1), Kansas (4-7), Kansas State (4-7), Missouri (5-6), Iowa State (7-5) and Nebraska (5-6).

- Colorado gets three schools this year one week after one of their most intense rivalries: On Sept. 10, the Buffs played New Mexico State a week after the Aggies squared off against neighbor UTEP (and a week ahead of the NMSU-New Mexico clash); on Oct. 15, CU traveled to Austin to face Texas a week after its Red River Shootout win over Oklahoma; and on Nov. 5, the Buffs host Missouri seven days after the annual MU-Kansas battle.

USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those few games it has lost over the last 17 seasons. Of the 60 losses, 32 have been by eight points or less (including 15 of the 35 losses in the Barnett Era). Teams that have defeated CU by more than eight are Texas (four times), Nebraska, Oklahoma and Kansas State (three times), Kansas and Missouri (twice), Baylor, and Colorado State, Florida State, Miami, Michigan, Notre Dame, Oklahoma State, Oregon, Texas Tech, USC and Washington State. CU has really been dominated from the start only five times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU (though CU led in total yardage over 75 percent of the game), 2002 vs. USC and in the 2004 Big 12 title game with Oklahoma. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04) and Miami ('05) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

'04 BOWL TEAMS

Colorado played six bowl teams in 2004 (not including UTEP in the Houston Bowl), tied for the 15th most in the nation, and including the 2003 slate, CU has seen 16 of its last 24 opponents earn bowl bids. Only one of CU's non-conference opponents advanced to bowl play (North Texas), the fewest in recent memory. In October, CU lined up against four consecutive bowl teams (Oklahoma State, Iowa State, Texas A&M and Texas), and then added Oklahoma to the list in the title game. MOST BOWL TEAMS PLAYED (2004): Texas A&M 9, Syracuse 8, Arkansas 7, Arizona 7, Arizona State 7, Iowa 7, Michigan 7, Louisiana Tech 7, Northwestern 7, Notre Dame 7, Ohio State 7, Oklahoma State 7, South Florida 7, USC 7, Colorado 6 (with 17 other schools).

NO CREAMPUFFS HERE

Colorado has the ninth best record in college football since the start of 1989 season (137-60-4). Of these 201 games, Colorado has played 85 ranked teams (42%), the fourth most in the nation during this time frame, with another 27 games against teams receiving significant (10 or more) votes. CU is 40-43-2 against ranked teams during this period (including a 13-18 record on the road); CU is also 97-17-2 against unranked teams. The schedule is also consistent: CU has played the fourth most games against ranked teams the last 12 years (65 of its last 148 contests), going 3-3 in 1993, 5-1 in 1994, 5-2 in 1995, 2-2 in 1996, 1-5 in 1997, 3-3 in 1998, 2-2 in 1999, 0-5 in 2000, 5-2 in 2001, 2-3 in 2002, 2-3 in 2003, 0-4 in 2004 and 0-2 in 2005. NOTE: In 1990, CU became only the second team in NCAA history to win the national championship after playing the nation's toughest schedule (opponents won 63% of their games; Penn State was the first to accomplish the feat, in 1982). CU also played the nation's toughest in 1997: opponents won 67% of their games as the Buffs played both co-national champions, Michigan and Nebraska.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Nine ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas State in 2002, which came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A&M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

CU-GEORGIA SIGN ON FOR HOME-AND-HOME SERIES, FUTURE SCHEDULES TAKING SHAPE

Colorado and Georgia jointly announced on May 31 an agreement to play each other on the football field for the first time in school history. Initiated by CU officials in anticipation of approval of a 12th game, the two schools moved quickly to schedule a home-and-home series beginning next year and concluding at the end of the decade. The Buffaloes will travel to Athens to face the Bulldogs at Sanford Stadium on September 23, 2006, with UGA to return the game at Folsom Field on October 2, 2010. The contract will call for CU to receive $750,000 for its trip to Georgia next year; allowing for inflation with four years to elapse between games, UGA will earn $825,000 for its trip to Boulder in 2010. It will be the largest payout CU has ever received for a regular season road game, topping the $600,000 it received for past games at Michigan and Florida State.

"This series with Georgia is significant for several reasons," CU athletic director Mike Bohn said. "Outside of the obvious in that we get to play in a great venue in Athens and in turn bring a quality opponent to Folsom Field, we have a large and active alumni base in the Atlanta area, and it was fortuitous to add a quality road game in 2006 when we already have six games in Boulder and a seventh in Denver in the Colorado State game." Bohn added that including television dollars, the game next year could result in anywhere from $1.1 to 1.3 million in revenue for the athletic department.

The Buffs have played just 10 games against Southeastern Conference schools, owning a 2-7-1 all-time record. The two wins were significant: a 47-33 win over Alabama in the '69 Liberty Bowl, and a 31-21 win at Louisiana State to open the '71 campaign, starting Eddie Crowder's Buffs on their way to a 10-2 season and No. 3 final ranking. In 1990, No. 5 CU opened the year with a 31-31 tie with No. 8 Tennessee in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic; the Buffs went on to finish 11-1-1 and claim the national championship. Six of the 10 games have been against LSU, and the Buffs last played an SEC team in 1991, when Alabama rallied for a 30-25 win in the Blockbuster Bowl.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 105 players on the 2005 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of August 29) were 7,934 inches in height and weighed 22,900 pounds, or an average of 6-3, 218 pounds per player (very similar to last four averages: 6-2, 223 in 2004; 6-2¼, 226 in 2003; 6-2¼, 227 in 2002; and 6-2, 227 in both 2000 and 2001). The 7,934 inches translate roughly into 661 feet or 220 yards (or a pro's 8-iron at The International at Castle Pines), while the weight of 22,900 pounds is about the equivalent of the fuel needed for a jetliner to make the coast-to-coast trip from New York to Los Angeles. Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Cornerbacks	10	5	5-10	182	Quarterbacks	6	2	6-3	212
Defensive Ends	10	4	6-3	245	Safeties	7	4	6-0	194
Defensive Tackles	6	3	6-3	280	Special Teams Snappers	2	2	6-1	225
Fullbacks	4	2	6-2	235	Tailbacks	6	2	5-9	198
Inside Linebackers	11	6	6-1	223	Tight Ends	7	2	6-4	235
Kickers/Punters	5	3	6-1	194	V-Backs (Versatile)	1	1	6-2	235

Outside Linebackers	4	1	6-1½	220	Team	105	49	6-3	218

The most popular letter to begin surnames are the letters B (12 each), followed by H and S (both 10), and then G and W (9); five last names are similar, but none are brothers (Adams, Brown, Jones, Sanders, Washington). There was no overly popular first name (there were three Maurice's), and the more unique ones include Akarika, Dusty, Taj, Thaddaeus and Vaka.

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (72 percent of the entire roster—76 of 105 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 35, California 25, Texas 16, Hawai'i 3, Iowa 3, Florida 2, Illinois 2, Kansas 2, Louisiana 2, Michigan 2, Minnesota 2, Nebraska 2, Oklahoma 2, Alabama 1, Arizona 1, Connecticut 1, Missouri 1, Oregon 1 and Tennessee 1. That's 19 states plus Canada (one player) that produced the make-up of this year's team.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 14 major schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—Iowa State, Kansas, San Jose State; 3—Colorado State, Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, UCLA and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by LSU and Oklahoma (4) and Michigan State (3 each).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 70-25 in its last 95 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 67-12 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 60-16-1 in its last 77 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 17-9 since 1986 against teams ranked between Nos. 20 and 25 in the AP poll (8-3 in the last 11);
- ❑ Colorado is 67-10-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (18-3 last 21; 72-48-2 with 50,000-plus);
- ❑ Colorado is 73-30-2 in games where the starting quarterback had the letter "K" in his first or last name (dating to 1992: Kordell Stewart, Duke Tobin, Koy Detmer, Mike Moschetti, Joel Klatt, Erik Greenberg).

SIX BUFFS PLAY IN SUPER BOWL XXXIX, FOUR WIN RINGS

CU had six players either on the New England Patriots or the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX last February 6 in Jacksonville, with the four on the Pats winning championship rings for the second straight year. The combined count of six was the most representing any school on both rosters in the game.

Offensive tackle Tom Ashworth (CU class of 2000) tight ends Christian Fauria ('94) and Daniel Graham ('01) and linebacker Ted Johnson ('94) all have won Super Bowl rings with New England the last two seasons. Ashworth and Johnson also earned rings three years ago when the Pats won their first Super Bowl over the St. Louis Rams. All-pro safety Michael Lewis ('01) and quarterback Koy Detmer ('96) were unfortunately on the losing end for the Eagles. Lewis has been a regular in the Philly secondary since his rookie season in 2002, and Detmer, the backup to Donovan McNabb, is the team's holder and one of its most popular players.

The six Buffaloes in this year's game also represented the most Colorado alumni ever on the overall rosters (active, inactive or injured reserve) for a Super Bowl game, topping the five on two previous occasions. That happened in 1980, when four played for the champion Oakland Raiders (Cliff Branch, Mike L. Davis, Odis McKinney and Greg Westbrook) and one for the Philadelphia Eagles (Charlie Johnson), and in 1998, when four were members of the champion Denver Broncos (Matt Lepsis, Viliani Maumau, Tom Rouen and Alfred Williams) with one on the Atlanta Falcons (Ronnie Bradford).

FOUR SENIORS NAMED CAPTAINS FOR 2005 SEASON

The Buffaloes elected seniors DT James Garee, OLB Brian Iwuh, QB Joel Klatt and VB Lawrence Vickers as the team's 2005 captains on August 26.

- Klatt, who was just the fourth player since 1985 to be named as a captain as a junior, becomes just the fifth player to serve as a Buffalo captain in multiple seasons. TB Bobby Purify did so in 2003 and 2004, though in part being awarded a second chance at a senior season after his fourth-year ended early due to an ankle injury. ILB Barry Remington was the last player selected by his teammates to serve as a captain both his natural junior and senior years (1985 and 1986). The other two players who held the honor twice were in CU's first decade of intercollegiate football, when Pat Carney served as team captain for the 1891, 1892 and 1893 seasons with Harry Gamble the choice in 1894 and 1896. He has a chance to take over almost all of the school's major passing records, as he entered his senior season at Colorado in the top five in the five major passing categories.
- Garee, a fifth-year senior from Colorado Springs (Mitchell High School), moves inside to tackle from end this year, has started 21 consecutive games, the second longest current streak on the team. He had 60 tackles last season and has 7.5 career quarterback sacks.
- Iwuh, who cracked the starting late in his true freshman year at weak safety in 2002, has 151 career tackles, including 109 solo stops. A second-team all-Big 12 Conference performer a year ago, he led the Buffs in tackles with 98 in 2004, which also included a team-best 14 for losses.
- Vickers, a fourth-year performer from Houston, is referred to by many as the best fullback in the Big 12, but who can also play tailback and had excellent hands as a receiver, thus the "V-back" tag for his versatility. He has 373 career rushing and 404 career receiving yards, and should easily join the short list in school history of players who have 500 or more of each.

CRADLE OF COACHES

There are four current head coaches in Division I college football who have had assistant coaching stints at the University of Colorado. The most obvious is Gary Barnett, who was an assistant at CU from 1984-91 and was head coach at Northwestern from 1992-98. Others include: Les Miles, Oklahoma State (1982-86), Gregg Brandon, Bowling Green (1999-2000) and Karl Dorrell, UCLA (1992-93, 1995-97). Gerry DiNardo was on that list last year, as the former head man at Vanderbilt and LSU coached at Indiana (he was at Colorado from 1982-89); In 2003, Mike Hankwitz, served as Arizona's interim head coach for the last two months of the season; he was at CU for 10 years (1985-94). Lou Tepper (1983-87) was head coach at Illinois for five years and is now the head man at Edinboro (Pa.) State. All were assistants under Bill McCartney, CU's all-time winningest head coach (93-55-5 between 1982-94). Five others who assisted under McCartney have also worked as head coaches: Jim Caldwell, Wake Forest (at CU from 1982-84), Steve Logan, East Carolina (1985-86), Rick Neuheisel, at CU and Washington (1994), Bob Simmons, Oklahoma State (1988-94) and Ron Vanderlinden, Maryland (1983-91). Tom Cable (1998-99) was head coach for four seasons at Idaho, as he coached under Rick Neuheisel and Barnett. Dorrell is the only one above to coach as an assistant under both McCartney and Neuheisel. In addition, former CU player Pete Shinnick ('88) is entering his seventh season as head coach at Azusa Pacific.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 22 Colorado Buffaloes on the 2005 National Football League rosters (as of October 17). CU had 32 at the start of camps in July, with the 22 that are currently on the rosters tied for fourth in the Big 12, trailing Nebraska (32) and Texas A&M (27) and Oklahoma (23); Kansas State also has 22 and Texas 21. Nationally in 2004, CU was tied for the 12th most players produced; Miami, Fla., led with 43, followed by Florida State (39) and Notre Dame (38). CU tied for 13th in 2003 with 29, and was 10th in 2002, also with 29. The Buffs had 42 report to camps in 2003, which led the Big 12 Conference. CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was third in 2000 and 2001 and second in 2002 and 2003. Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). The 2005 list (*--denotes on injured/reserve; p—denotes on the practice squad; #—denotes starter/first-team member; †—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; 2R—denotes second-year rookie):

AND IN CANADA? Two former Buffs took their wares north to the Canadian Football League: C Marwan Hage played with the Hamilton Tigercats, while CB Ben Kelly is on the Calgary Stampeders.

DECADE NUMBERS: Colorado had 46 players drafted between 1993 and 2002, the seventh most in the nation and second most in the Big 12. Tennessee led the way with 60, followed by Florida State (58), Nebraska (53), Ohio State (52), Florida (48), Miami, Fla. (47) and then Colorado.

NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Fauria, Irwin, Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 10 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 18 of 24 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 116th season of competition with an all-time record of 647-398-36 in 1,081 games. CU currently stands 15th on the all-time win list and is 21st in all-time winning percentage (.616). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 278-131-10 in their 82nd season on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 241-203-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

The Buffs are 44-21-2 in their last 67 October games, when conference play annually blooms. Dating back to 1989, Colorado is 43-16 in its last 59 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays, and is 2-2-1 in August games in its history. The Buffs are 47-16-1 in their last 64 November games (42-8 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 4-8-1 against NU in turkey month) and is 5-4 in December games since 1993.

OVERTIME

Colorado is 3-3 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime:

Date	Opponent	Score	Regulation	Coin Toss	Choice	---Total Yards---		Notes

NCAA CHANGES FORMULA FOR NET PUNTING

This season, the NCAA has begun to allow for touchbacks when computing net punting average. This isn't new stuff—the NFL has done it for years—so it really will be more reflective of what a player and team's net punting numbers are. To calculate, return yards and touchback yards (touchbacks x 20) are deducted from the gross yardage total with that number divided by the number of punts to attain the net average. As for CU, not much need to worry about it deflating John Torp's numbers; he had five touchbacks out of 68 punts all last season, which would have lowered his and the team's net by 1.47 yards to 41.22, still higher than No. 2 BYU's figure of 41.14 before accounting for any touchbacks by Cougar punters. For his career, Torp has just 13 touchbacks for 148 punts.

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 15 seasons, which is the seventh most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Miami (9), Oklahoma (9), Ohio State (8) and Nebraska (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason “hardware” includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Ullrich, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu, Ray Guy, Rimington and Hendricks awards. The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2004 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus got ½ in the trophy count):

School	Players	Trophies	School	Players	Trophies	School	Players	Trophies

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 17 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of the times, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 10 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 17 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2005: Florida State 17, Michigan 17, Ohio State 17, Miami, Fla. 16, Tennessee 16, Nebraska 14, Notre Dame 13, Penn State 13, Colorado 12, Alabama 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll

MOST TOP 5 FINISHES (1989-2004): Florida St. 12, Miami 8, Nebraska 5, COLORADO 4, Oklahoma 4, Tennessee 4, Alabama 3, Florida 3, Notre Dame 3, Ohio St. 3, USC 3.

MOST TOP 10 FINISHES (1989-2004): Florida St. 12, Florida 10, Miami 9, Michigan 8, Nebraska 8, Tennessee 8, COLORADO 6, Kansas St. 6, Ohio State 6, Alabama 5, Oklahoma 5.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period ('97-98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

15 OUT OF 17

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, the second longest active streak in the nation behind Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with a vengeance as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended last year as the Buffs went 0-4. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). CU has defeated at least two in nine of the last 12 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons). 2005: CU is 0-2 against ranked foes.

TV LAND

Colorado has now had 125 of its last 189 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (66 percent). That includes four games this year, nine games in 2004, seven games in 2003, 12 in 2002, 10 games in 2001, plus 7 in 2000, 9 in both 1998 and 1999, 10 in 1996 and 1997. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, 88 of CU's 116 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, an impressive 76 percent. In addition, CU has had 18 of its last 21 non-conference games televised on a national or regional basis.

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 25 (13-11-1), Texas 21 (7-12-2), Nebraska 12 (8-4), Oklahoma 12 (6-6), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 11 (0-11), Baylor 9 (2-7), Missouri 9 (1-8), Iowa State 8 (1-7), Kansas 6 (0-6), Oklahoma State 5 (0-5) and Kansas State 2 (1-1).

FOLSOM FIELD ACCOLADE The Sports Turf Management Association named Folsom Field as its 2002 "Football Field of the Year," the first time CU has ever earned this prestigious award. Jason DePaepe, CU's athletic turf manager, officially accepted the award in San Antonio. Those who judge the competition were impressed with DePaepe and his staff's aggressive maintenance program, as the field is easily one of the best in college football, if not all sports.

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has inflicted a few blemishes on some of the teams who had the best home records in the 1990s. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. And in 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29 game span.

17 OF 20

The Buffs now have 17 winning (regular) seasons in the last 20 years, including 2004, matched only by a handful of schools across the nation. The exceptions came in 1997, 2000 and 2003; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 15 of the previous 19 years, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000 and last year.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Through the years, there are always a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball. DT John Guydon is the latest to so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005. He's the first to do so for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situation since WR Michael Westbrook play a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense this year, as he caught a pass as an end at Miami. Previously, DT Sam Wilder had been the last, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play (at Missouri in 2000). CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (though a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). In the last 12 years, several Buffs have played on both sides of the ball; in 1998 OG Brad Bedell played some goal-line defense. That's happened often at CU, having one of the O-linemen come over to defense for goal line or short yardage defense—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole and OT Melvin Thomas all did the same in the mid-90s. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

QUARTERBACK HISTORY LESSON

The competition for the starting quarterback job in 2003 was only the fourth real battle in just over a decade at Colorado. The last was in 2000, when the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter on Aug. 27; four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and never relinquished the role. There was no battle for starting quarterback in 1999, as senior Mike Moschetti was entrenched as the starter. However, the battle for the starting job in 1998 was the first in some six years; Moschetti, junior Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won on Aug. 24, when then-head coach Rick Neuheisel named him as the starter (Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety). Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer duelled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best example of this came in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.
