MIAMI REDHAWKS (1-2; 0-0 MAC EAST; 1-0 MAC) COLORADO BUFFALOES (1-2; 0-0 BIG 12)

THE COACHES

MIAMI HEAD COACH SHANE MONTGOMERY (North Carolina State, '90) is in his third season at the helm of the Miami program, owning a 10-15 record ... Montgomery led the RedHawks to a share of the MAC East Division title in his first season (2005) ... also serves at the offensive coordinator and has since 2001 ... since that time, Miami has consistently ranked among the top 30 in passing offense and has ranked among the top 45 nationally in total offense five times.

COLORADO HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS (UC-Davis, '84) is in his second season guiding the Colorado Buffaloes and owns a 3-14 record at the helm of the program ... Entering the year with a career record of 94-33-1 record (.738), he is the 11th winningest active head coach.

QUICK HITS

1. MIAMI'S YOUNG RECEIVING CORPS: The RedHawks began the season with only two of their wide receivers having caught a collegiate pass. Now, after the first three games of 2007, a total of eight different wide-outs have receiving statistics. ARMAND ROBINSON leads the way with 13 catches for 146 yards and two touchdowns.
2. Sophomore linebacker CALEB BOSTIC continues to rank as the Mid-American Conference's top-ranking tackler with 37 through three games. He had 10 tackles in Miami's loss to Cincinnati last week, including 1.5 tackles for loss.
3. The RedHawks' only previous appearance in the state of Colorado came in 2003 when they defeated Colorado State in Fort Collins, 41-21.
4. DANIEL RAUDABAUGH came off the RedHawks' bench for the second consecutive week, completing 24-of-45 passes for 240 yards vs. Cincinnati. His touchdown pass to redshirt freshman wide receiver ARMAND ROBINSON at the 12:17 mark of the third quarter was the first and only touchdown the UC defense has allowed in 2007.

MIAMI VS. COLORADO—SEPT. 22, 2007*SERIES NOTES

- Saturday's game is the first meeting between Miami and Colorado. Colorado is Miami's only first-time opponent this season.
- The RedHawks have faced just three other Big 12 teams and are 1-3 against the Big 12. In their last meeting with a Big 12 team, the RedHawks were defeated by Iowa State 17-13 in the 2004 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. Miami is 0-2 against Oklahoma State, falling to the Cowboys in 1985 and 1988. Miami's lone win against a current Big 12 school was in 1947 when the Red and White defeated Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl, 13-12.
- In Miami's last meeting with a Big 12 school—the 2004 Independence Bowl versus Iowa State—then-offensive coordinator Shane Montgomery was named Miami's 32nd head coach in a locker room announcement in front of a national television audience prior to the playing of the game.
- Miami Director of Athletics Brad Bates served as the head strength coach at Colorado from 1982-85.

The Independence Bowl, which marked Miami's ninth bowl game appearance, had the largest payout of any bowl game a Mid-American Conference team had ever played in ... the loss dropped Miami to 6-3 all-time in bowl games ... Miami, which led 13-10 entering the fourth quarter, lost for the first time in 23 games in which it had led entering the final quarter ... Miami was held under 20 points for just the fourth time in the team's past 49 games ... sophomore Ryne Robinson totaled his fourth career 100-yard receiving day, hauling in seven catches for 101 yards despite being hobbled by an ankle injury ... Robinson accounted for 139 all-purpose yards in the first-half alone, including two punt returns for 77 yards ... senior wide receiver Michael Larkin made two catches to extend his NCAA record to 50 straight games with a reception ... Josh Betts' 28-yard touchdown pass to Luke Clemens matched Miami's longest ever thrown in a bowl game ... Terry Hoepfner finished his Miami career with a 48-25 record, including 21 wins in his final two seasons.

NOTES FROM THE CRADLE

IF MIAMI WINS .... It would even Miami's 2007 season record at 2-2 ... MU would improve its 2007 road record to 2-1.

MIAMI VS. COLORADO & THE BIG 12: This will be Miami's first game in the series with Colorado and only the fifth contest against a current member of the Big 12 Conference. The RedHawks lost to Iowa State in the 2004 Independence Bowl, are 0-2 against Big 12 member Oklahoma State and are 1-0 against Texas Tech.

REDHAWKS IN THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN STATE: The RedHawks' only previous appearance in the state of Colorado came in 2003 when they defeated Colorado State in Fort Collins, 41-21.

BIG CROWD SEES HOME OPENER: The crowd of 22,421 that was in attendance Saturday for the Miami-Cincinnati game was the largest at Yager Stadium since Nov. 12, 2003, when 26,286 saw Miami host Marshall.

BEST OF THE MAC: Thanks to its season-opening victory versus Ball State, Miami is 1-0 in Mid-American Conference play. The school has won more MAC games than any other (254), and its all-time MAC winning percentage of .674 (254-120-11) is far and away the best. MU has won or shared 14 MAC titles, more than anyone else. Miami's next MAC game isn't until Oct. 6 when it plays at Kent State.

MIAMI AMONG COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S ELITE TEAMS: In college football history, Miami ranks 20th in terms of all-time victories with 642. Miami is the only non-BCS-affiliated school in this rarified air. Among all-time collegiate teams with the best winning percentage, Miami ranks 16th at .6323 (642-364-44). MU ranks 13th in winning percentage among schools that have played 100 or more seasons, trailing only Michigan, Notre Dame, Texas, Oklahoma, Penn State, Ohio State, Alabama, Nebraska, Southern California, Tennessee, Georgia and LSU.

REDHAWKS' INJURY REPORT: ANDRE BRATTON (injured knee vs. Cincinnati), out for Colorado game; will undergo MRI this week to determine his long-term status ... WENDELL BRUNSON (injured neck vs. Cincinnati), his status for Colorado game is questionable ... DUSTIN WOODS (slight concussion vs. Cincinnati), his status for Colorado game is probable ... BRANDON MURPHY (injured knee vs. Minnesota), out for Colorado game; will undergo surgery in next two weeks ... MATT McKEOWN (injured shoulder vs. Ball State), out for Colorado game; will undergo surgery this week.

IN TWO WEEKS: Miami entertains Syracuse at Yager Stadium at 3 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 29. It will be Family Weekend at Miami.

MIAMI'S OFFENSE

QUARTERBACK CHANGE: DANIEL RAUDABAUGH (So., Coppell, TX) came off the RedHawks' bench for the second consecutive week, completing 24-of-45 passes for 240 yards vs. Cincinnati. His touchdown pass to redshirt freshman wide receiver ARMAND ROBINSON (Reynoldsburg) at the 12:17 mark of the third quarter was the first and only touchdown the UC defense has allowed in 2007. Two weeks ago at Minnesota, Raudabaugh engineered a fabulous comeback effort. Miami ultimately lost the game in three overtimes. In two appearances, he is 37-of-69 (.536) for 467 yards. During that span, Raudabaugh has thrown three touchdowns and three interceptions. MU head coach SHANE MONTGOMERY has tabbed Raudabaugh as the likely starting quarterback this Saturday at Colorado.

QUARTERBACK DUO: As a pair, MIKE KOKAL (Sr., Warren) and DANIEL RAUDABAUGH have combined for 803 yards and four touchdown passes in 2007. Two weeks ago at Minnesota, they totaled 418 passing yards, the fourth-best all-time single-game mark in Miami history. The only three performances that exceeded that effort were all by former RedHawk great Ben Roethlisberger (525 yards vs. Northern Illinois in 2002, 452 yards vs. Hawaii in 2001, and 440 yards vs. Bowling Green in 2003). As either the head coach or the offensive coordinator, Miami's SHANE MONTGOMERY has had a direct hand in the school's top 13 single-game passing efforts.

MIAMI'S YOUNG RECEIVING CORPS: The RedHawks began the season with only two of their wide receivers having caught a collegiate pass. Now, after the first three games of 2007, a total of eight different wide-outs have receiving statistics. ARMAND ROBINSON (R-Fr., Reynoldsburg) leads the way with 13 catches for 146 yards and two touchdowns. His scoring grab vs. Cincinnati last Saturday was the first TD of any kind that the Bearcats have yielded this season. DUSTIN WOODS (So., Cincinnati) has 12 catches for 128 yards and one touchdown through three games. The only other RedHawk player with double-digit receptions is EUGENE HARRIS (Atlanta, GA) with 11 catches for 128 yards. True freshman CHRIS GIVENS (Chillicothe) leads the team in receiving yardage with 185 on nine catches.

GENO: Redshirt freshman EUGENE HARRIS had a career-best six catches (47 yards) last Saturday vs. Cincinnati. He has a total of nine grabs for 123 yards over the past two games. Harris only returned one punt (5 yards) against the Bearcats. He leads all Mid-American Conference players with five punt returns for 115 yards (23.0 ypr).

NOTES FROM THE CRADLE

13 FOR NO. 11: Redshirt freshman ARMAND ROBINSON had a career-high five pass receptions versus Cincinnati for a personal-best 59 yards. He had a touchdown grab against the Bearcats, his team-leading second of the season. He leads the team with 13 receptions.

NO. 1 IS NO. 2: Just one reception behind ARMAND ROBINSON for the team lead is sophomore DUSTIN WOODS. Woods, who suffered a slight concussion in the Cincinnati game, has 12 catches for 128 yards in his first three games. He is expected to play in Miami's game this Saturday at Colorado.

SPREADING IT AROUND: A total of 12 different Miami players had pass receptions in the Cincinnati game. Their 27 cumulative grabs totaled 267 yards. Six RedHawk receivers caught passes in the season opener vs. Ball State and 10 players had receptions vs. Minnesota.

THROWING TO CHRIS IS A GIVEN(S): CHRIS GIVENS caught four passes against Cincinnati's tough defense for a team-high 73 yards, including a 39-yard grab in the fourth quarter. He leads the team in yards per catch at 20.6. Two weeks ago against Minnesota, Givens became only the second true freshman receiver in Miami football history to crack the century mark for yardage (five catches for 112 yards). His 55-yard catch vs. Minnesota and his 39-yarder vs. the Bearcats rate as the RedHawks' two longest grabs in 2007.

CAREER-BEST FOR POTTER: Redshirt freshman DONOVAN POTTER (Trotwood) had a personal-best three catches for a career-high 26 yards vs. Cincinnati.

CRABTREE PRODUCES: Junior tight end TOM CRABTREE (Carroll) ranks fifth among Miami receivers with eight catches for 84 yards through three games. Over the last two games, he has seven grabs for 79 yards.

O'CONNELL & LaMONICA RECORD FIRSTS: JAKE O'CONNELL (Jr., Naples, FL) caught his first pass of 2007 (nine yards) vs. Cincinnati, while PAT LaMONICA (Sr., Dublin) grabbed the first reception of his career (five yards).

THE SYKESTER: Tailback AUSTIN SYKES (Sr., Coraopolis, PA) had the best game of his Miami career last Saturday against Cincinnati, rushing for a game-high 76 yards on 13 carries (5.8 ypr). He entered last week's game with only four rushes for seven yards. With both BRANDON MURPHY (Sr., Strongsville) and ANDRE BRATTON (So., Woodbridge, VA) expected to be sidelined, Sykes will make the second start of his career this Saturday against Colorado. Senior CORY JONES (Ocean Springs, MS) and either redshirt freshman JAMEL MILLER (Tallmadge) or true freshman THOMAS MERRIWEATHER (Florissant, MO) might play this Saturday at Colorado.

577-YARD PERFORMANCE SIXTH-BEST: Miami's 577 yards of total offense vs. Minnesota ranks sixth-best in the school's record book. The all-time record offensive explosion came in 2003 vs. Kent State when Miami piled up 648 yards. Five of the top six single-game total offensive efforts have come with SHANE MONTGOMERY as either the head coach or offensive coordinator. The 1,154 cumulative yards of total offense by Miami (577 yards) and Minnesota (577 yards) rank as the second-most in MU single-game history. It was just seven yards shy of the all-time mark of 1,161 yards piled up by Miami (616 yards) and Hawaii (545 yards) in 2001. The 1,154 total yards by Miami and Minnesota is sixth-best in the MAC record books. The all-time Mid-American Conference single-game record for total offense by two teams is 1,245 yards by Bowling Green (618) and Northwestern (624).

MURPHY'S LAW: Senior running back BRANDON MURPHY (Strongsville), who struggled with an ankle injury throughout the 2006 campaign, was sidelined during the Minnesota game with a knee injury. At the point that he was injured, Murphy had accumulated 78 yards on just 12 carries. For the season, Murphy is averaging 6.5 yards per carry (31 attempts). Murphy has yet to undergo surgery.

TWO-THIRDS PASSING, ONE-THIRD RUSHING: Of Miami's 1,196 total offensive yards, 803 yards (67.1%) have come via the passing game.

MIAMI'S DEFENSE:

CAUSTIC BOSTIC: Sophomore linebacker CALEB BOSTIC (Galloway) continues to rank as the Mid-American Conference's top-ranking tackler with 37 through three games. He had 10 tackles in Miami's loss to Cincinnati last week, including 1.5 tackles for loss. He led all RedHawk defenders with 17 tackles in the season opener at Ball State, his very first start.

MULLINS' EFFORT CONTINUES: Junior linebacker CLAYTON MULLINS (Fairborn) ranks second among all Mid-American Conference defensive players with 35 tackles. He had a game-high 11 stops against Cincinnati last Saturday. Mullins compiled a career-best 15 tackles against Ball State, including a game-best seven solo stops.

GAFFORD PACES REDHAWKS: Sophomore free safety JORDAN GAFFORD (Columbus) continued his impressive early season effort, totaling 10 tackles (eight solos) vs. Cincinnati. He led all Miami defenders with 13 tackles (including 10 solo tackles) vs. Minnesota two weeks ago. Gafford has 28 total tackles in three games, three times as many as he had all of last season as a freshman. He ranks ninth among all MAC tacklers with an average of 9.3 per game. His 20 solo tackles is tops among all MAC defensive players. Gafford celebrates his 20th birthday on Sept. 17.

MIRACULOUS RECOVERY: Junior middle linebacker and tri-captain JOEY HUDSON (Piqua), who suffered a knee injury at Minnesota and whose availability for the balance of the season was very much in question last week, played extensively against Cincinnati. He recorded five tackles and got credit for one-half of a tackle for loss.

MR. WILSON: Junior apache (strong safety) ROBBIE WILSON (Cincinnati) totaled a career-high 12 tackles (10 solos) against Minnesota. He has 24 total tackles through the first three games of 2007. Wilson is tied for 18th in tackles per game among all MAC defensive players.

SUPER-SUB SHULA: Junior middle linebacker CHRIS SHULA (Cooper City, FL) ranks fifth among Miami's defensive players in total tackles with 15. Two weeks ago at Minnesota, he came in for the injured JOEY HUDSON (Jr., Piqua) and racked up a career-best 11 tackles (10 solos). Shula, the grandson of NFL Hall of Fame coach Don Shula, had 21 total tackles for all of the 2006 season.

BRUNSON HAS MEMORABLE GAME: Not only will sophomore cornerback WENDELL BRUNSON (Fort Pierce, FL) remember the Cincinnati game for being carried off the field in an ambulance, he also will recall it as the game when he recorded a personal-best six tackles. Initially, it was thought that Brunson's injured neck may be serious, but he recovered very quickly upon arriving at the hospital for precautionary x-rays. He is listed as questionable for the Colorado game.

MIAMI'S SPECIAL TEAMS:

THE LATEST RETURNS: Miami punt returners rank second among all Mid-American Conference teams with an average run-back of 20.8 yards. EUGENE HARRIS (R-Fr., Atlanta, GA) leads all MAC players with an average of 23.0 yards per punt return (five for 115 yards).

REDHAWKS GET A BIG KICK OUT OF RICHARDSON: Junior punter JAKE RICHARDSON (Oxford) has averaged 43.3 yards per punt (15 for 650 yards) during the first three games of 2007. That's fifth-best among all Mid-American Conference punters.

ROGERS TAKES OVER AS KEY KICK RETURNER: True freshman JAMAL ROGERS (Fort Myers, FL) returned six kickoffs against Cincinnati for 100 yards. CHRIS GIVENS, another true freshman, may join Rogers in Miami's return tandem versus Colorado.

COOK A GROZA CANDIDATE: TREVOR COOK (So., Sioux Falls, SD) successfully converted his only field goal attempt against Cincinnati (a 21-yarder) and has made four of his eight field-goal attempts this season. He leads the RedHawks in scoring with 17 points.

QUOTING SHANE MONTGOMERY

(About the Cincinnati Game): We were really disappointed about the outcome of the game. We felt like we were prepared going into it. We knew it would be a challenge because they are a very good football team coming off a huge win against Oregon State. Even though we lost the Minnesota game, we felt like we had a lot of momentum at the end of that game and could build on that. We had a big stop early, turned it over on our first play and enabled them to go down and take a 7-0 lead. We struggled offensively in the first couple of series and then had a punt blocked to give them a 9-0 lead really early. Then, they were able to score on their next possession and go up 16-0.

Obviously, we dug ourselves into a big hole that we could never recover from. We tried right at the end of half to get back in the ball game. We put Daniel Raudabaugh into the game, and we had our first real drive on offense. I think a big series was right after we made the field goal they went the length of the field and got a field goal to go up 26-3 at half time. We came out and had a great scoring drive to open the second half, 26-10. We got a stop defensively, and after they pined us on the one-yard line, we got it out and had a chance. But they were able to score and make it 33-10, and they pulled away from there.

I think we self-destructed on both sides of the ball in the first half. Offensively, we had two big turnovers, four penalties and gave up three sacks early in the ball game which really disrupted what we were trying to do offensively. Defensively, we played well at times, considering we allowed them to get some good field position on special teams. We just self-destructed. That's a good football team, and when you play a team like that, you just can't put yourself in a hole that bad that early. We were just trying to fight an up-hill battle the rest of the game.

(About Miami's Running Backs): The running back situation took a big turn for the worse when Andre Bratton went down on the third play of the game. After losing Brandon Murphy last week, we lost our two home run threats on offense. I thought Austin Sykes came in and did a great job, rushing for over 70 yards. He did what he is capable of doing. He doesn't have a lot of breakaway threat, but he is a good runner inside the tackles, and he always gets that extra yardage and does a good job of taking care of the football. Obviously, we've got to find out who our next guys are. Cory Jones went in and got some plays. That's the first time he's gotten into a ball game as a fifth-year senior as he too has had a lot of injuries throughout his career. Jamel Miller played in his first game ever and touched the ball a couple times. With Andre Bratton out right now and not knowing what his status is, we're probably going to have to get true freshman Thomas Merriweather ready.

(About Miami's Quarterbacks): Going into the game, I felt good with Mike (Kokal). I felt like he was the guy to start that game. I knew Daniel (Raudabaugh) would come off the bench if we needed him to. We took Mike out early. He struggled. He ended up hurting his thumb on one of his last plays, which we were unaware of until later in the ball game. Daniel came in and I thought he did some really good things. In his first three series, which was the last series of the first half and the first two series of the second half, I thought he looked tremendous. He really got us into a groove offensively. He tried to force some things later in the second half, but the game was pretty much out of reach. We asked him to just drop back and throw every down and take some chances. He probably forced a couple balls, but overall I thought he played pretty well. As we go into this game (at Colorado), our plan right now is to probably start Daniel Raudabaugh and give him a chance to start and see what he can do. We'll take it day to day with Mike and see how his thumb is progressing as we go through this week. We'll also give Clay Belton some reps to keep him ready in case we need him.

(About Joey Hudson): Joe Hudson is a tremendous story. One week ago on Sunday, we felt like there was a chance he could be out for the year. We got some good news after the MRI, and we expected him to probably be out for a couple weeks. He started feeling better on Wednesday, practiced some on Thursday, went out and ran around on Friday and really begged us to put him in the game. The doctors cleared him because they felt like he was as good as he was going to be. Tremendous kudos to Joe for being in tremendous shape, which allowed him to come back from an injury like that. I know when he went into the ball game after being on the sidelines for a while, he gave us a lift. You could see him flying around out there. Even though he was hurt with a knee injury, he probably played the best game of the three games he's played this year. I'm really proud of him and what he brought to the table on Saturday.

(About Colorado): I watched some of their game against Florida State. They played pretty well and it was a close game throughout. They were really good on defense last year and struggled on offense. Early this year, they had a big win over Colorado State, outscoring them in overtime. They got off to a 14-0 lead on Arizona State two weeks ago and got beat 33-14, so they have given up some points this year.

They had struggled on offense the last two games and were getting ready to be shut out on Saturday for the first time in 224 games, but they scored late and were actually still in the ball game. They tried to go for two with about four minutes left and ended up losing 16-6. Obviously, they were very competitive against a very good Florida State team. We are going into a hostile environment, and it will be a tough road game for us especially with some injuries that we have. They are a much improved football team from a year ago, and they have played a very tough schedule so far and have some tough games ahead of them with their league schedule coming up behind us. It will be a challenging road game for us, and we are going to have to get better and more consistent on both sides of the ball.

They use a lot of formations offensively, which will challenge us. We're going to have to have a great week of practice because they do a lot of things out of a lot of different personnels that will challenge us defensively. Offensively, they use some schemes that we haven't seen a lot of this year. They do man-to-man coverage, so we've got to be ready for that. We'll see a physical front line on both sides of the ball, so that will challenge us up front on both sides.

2007 GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

MIAMI (1-0) 14 BALL STATE 13

August 30, 2007
Scheumann Stadium • Muncie, IN
Attendance: 15,488

Running back Brandon Murphy plowed across the goal line from six yards out with 17.7 seconds remaining in the game and place kicker Trevor Cook drilled the extra point to catapult Miami to a 14-13 come-from-behind win at Ball State. A 56-yard punt return by Eugene Harris set up the Miami touchdown, placing the RedHawks within striking distance on the Cardinals' 23-yard line with 1:54 to play. Murphy scored the first of his two touchdowns on a 21-yard carry at the 8:23 mark of the second quarter, giving Miami a 7-3 lead. The Cardinals would pull within one at 3:44 of the third quarter off a 22-yard Jake Hogue field goal and would re-gain the lead with 11:22 remaining in the game off a 23-yard touchdown pass to put the Cardinals up 13-7. Miami looked to strike late in the fourth quarter before BJ Hill intercepted a pass in the endzone with 4:16 remaining to thwart the RedHawk surge. A strong defensive effort, however, allowed the RedHawks a chance to get the ball back and claim the come-from-behind win.

MIAMI (1-1) 35 MINNESOTA 41 (3OT)

September 8, 2007
H.H.H. Metrodome • Minneapolis, MN
Attendance: 45,383

Miami scored 16 unanswered points over the final 6:31 of the game to knot the score and send it into overtime. The teams played three overtimes before Minnesota pulled out the win. It was just the fourth overtime game for the RedHawks and the second triple-overtime game in program history. Quarterback Daniel Raudabaugh orchestrated drives over the last eight minutes of regulation, throwing two touchdown passes and helping to set up Trevor Cook's game-tying 36-yard field goal. Running back Andre Bratton scored a four-yard rushing touchdown for the RedHawks in the first overtime. Minnesota retaliated with a touchdown to send the game to a second overtime where both teams missed field-goal attempts. Minnesota's Amir Pinnex scored on a two-yard rush in the third overtime to cinch the game for the Golden Gophers, 41-35.

2007 GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

CINCINNATI 47 MIAMI (1-2) 10

September 15, 2007
Yager Stadium • Oxford, OH
Attendance: 22,421

Cincinnati took a commanding 23-0 lead by the 9:59 mark of the second quarter and never looked back as the Bearcats rolled to a 47-10 win in the 112th playing of the Battle for the Victory Bell. Miami put its first points on the board with 2:37 left in the first half off a Trevor Cook 21-yard field goal, but Cincinnati struck before the end of the half, hitting a 27-yard field goal with one second remaining to give the Bearcats a 26-3 lead at the half. Daniel Raudabaugh threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Armand Robinson with 12:17 left in the third quarter and the Cook PAT put the RedHawks within 16 points, 26-10. Cincinnati, however, scored 21 unanswered points to close out the game with a 47-10 win. The attendance of 22,421 was Miami's largest since Nov. 12, 2003, when it had a crowd of 26,286 against Marshall.
