ABOUT COLORADO STATE: The Rams enter the game on a three-game losing streak falling to Nevada (74-66), North Dakota State (83-69) and Minnesota (91-74). Saturday is CSU's third home game of the season and will look to remain unbeaten at home. CSU has played a pair of common opponents falling at Stanford (73-53) and defeated Denver (44-40). Head coach Tim Miles is the seventh first-year head coach the Buffaloes are playing this season (Air Force, Colorado State, Denver, Florida A&M, New Mexico, New Orleans, Wyoming). Miles, who coached six seasons at North Dakota State, lost to the Bison back on Dec. 15, 83-69. He inherits a CSU team that went 17-13 a year ago with two letterwinners and one starter returning.

LAST YEAR AGAINST THE RAMS: CSU led throughout and almost squandered a 16-point lead defeating CU, 72-69 in Boulder. The Rams snapped a 13-game losing streak in Boulder dating back to Dec. 2, 1957 behind Jason Smith's (currently with the Philadelphia 76ers) 15 points and 16 rebounds. Richard Roby scored 20 points with four assists and three blocks, while Jermyl

New Mexico and Wyoming). Last year, the Buffs went 1-4 record against the Mountain West, defeating Utah.

TEAM LEADERS: CU's leading scorers are Richard Roby (14.8 ppg.) and Marcus Hall (13.6 ppg.); leader on the glass is Roby (6.0 rpg.) and Jermyl Jackson-Wilson (5.1 rpg.); Hall tops the team in assists (3.4 apg.), steals (1.8 spg.) and 3-pointers made 20.

COOL AT THE LINE: For the first in 12 seasons, the Buffaloes are shooting a respectable 72.6 percent from the free throw (that's third in the Big 12). With under two minutes to play in the game, Marcus Hall is a perfect 16-of-16 during that stretch, while the team is 28-of-34 (.824 percent).

ROAD WARRIORS: CU has been on the road more times than playing at home after 11 games played. This is the first time since the 1996-97 non-conference season (11 years) that road games out-number home games. CU is 2-2 so far on the road.

FOUR HOME, FOUR AWAY: Excluding the two neutral courts games, CU has played four games at home and four on the road with a different leading scorer. At home, Marcus Hall leads the team in scoring 14.5 ppg. (20-of-47, .426), while Richard Roby ranks second with 13.3 ppg. (18-of-47, .383). On the road, Roby leads the Buffs with 17 ppg. (26-of-47, .553), followed by Hall at 14.8 ppg. (18-of-44, .409)

IRON MAN: Marcus Hall did not play 40 minutes against New Orleans (37 minutes), ending his streak of 161 consecutive minutes played. He had played all 40 minutes at Air Force, Stanford and at Wyoming. During his last five games, the Houston, Texas native has logged an average of 39 minutes with 15.4 points, 3.8 rpg., 3.2 apg. and shooting 21-of-25 (.840) from the free throw line.

UP NEXT: After Colorado State, CU will have seven days during the Christmas holiday to prepare for the first of three straight non-conference home games starting with Grambling State (0-6) on Saturday, Dec. 29. CU has never played the Tigers, who represent the Southwestern Athletic Conference. On Jan. 4, 2008, the Buffs will play SMU (4-4) for the first time since the 1979-80 season (FSN RM) and on Jan. 7, play Tulsa (4-4) for the first time since the 1986-87 season.

BIG 12 OPENER: The Big 12 Conference season opener looms closer every day with a trip to College Station to take on the No. 14/12 nationally ranked Texas A&M Aggies, Saturday, Jan. 12 (ESPN Plus). Conference openers have not been kind to CU since the Big 12 inception registering a 1-10 record (0-4 on the road).

NATIONAL LEADERS: A stat not seen on the national radar is Colorado's scoring defense of 58.4 points per game (29th overall) in games updated through Dec. 9. Other stats making it nationally are fewest personal fouls per game (34th, 16.1) and Marcus Hall at the free throw line (62nd, 85.7).

ROBY WATCH: Senior guard Richard Roby scored a season-best 27 points against New Orleans inching his way up the school's all-time career scoring list. With 1,604 points (sixth overall), Roby is 77 points from Emmett Lewis (1,680, 1976-79). Roby is first in team scoring (14.8 ppg.).

20+: Richard Roby netted his third 20-point game of the season (33rd career) -- a team-high. He also recorded his sixth career double-double (1st this season) grabbing a season-best 14 boards against the Privateers.

3-POINT STREAK: Dating back to the 2001-02 season, CU has made a 3-pointer in 173 consecutive games. Last time they failed to make at least one trey was Jan. 16, 2002 against Iowa State in Boulder. The Buffs won 63-61.

FALL 2007 INELIGIBLE: Sophomore forward Jeremy Williams is academically ineligible for the fall semester. Williams averaged 7.7 points and 4.6 rpg. last season for the Buffs with 18 starts. Williams may return to the line up the first week in January when CU wraps up the nonconference schedule (Jan. 4 SMU; Jan. 7 Tulsa).

20-20: For the first time this season, Richard Roby fired up 20 shots making nine of them. Over his last four years when Roby has 20 attempts, the Buffalos win (CU is 5-3). Here's a breakdown from his freshmen year to the present.

10 GAME BREAKDOWN: Here's a look at CU at home, on the road and on the neutral court. Not much difference, except shooting at the free throw line and stealing the ball are the best on the road.

SIDWELL PASSES AWAY AT 90

One of the last links to Colorado's first postseason basketball team passed away on Monday, Dec. 10, as Donald Sidwell died in Centennial, a southern suburb of Denver. He was 90.

A letterman in both basketball and baseball, he was also a member of the United States Army and served overseas in China during World War II. Upon his return, he went to work in the oil business and worked as an independent oil man until his retirement.

He was on CU's first basketball team to ever play in a postseason tournament, as a member of the 1937-38 team that participated in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) at Madison Square Garden back in the day when it was more significant that the NCAA Championship. That team, under the late Frosty Cox, went 15-6 and defeated New York University in the semifinals of the NIT before losing to eventual champion Temple in the finals.

Colorado was 39-15 during Sidwell's sophomore through senior seasons, and was a member of two Mountain States Conference champion teams. He graduated from CU in the spring of 1939.

He was born July 18, 1917 in Winfield, Kan., he is survived by sons David and Steve, both of whom played football for CU, seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by wives Janet and June.

CU IN THE PRO WORLD: There is a number of CU basketball members with ties to the professional ranks. From head coach Jeff Bzdelik to the five student-athletes.

Coach Bzdelik: Head Coach of the Denver Nuggets (2002-05);

Casey Crawford: father, Steve played with the Boston Red Sox;

Cory Higgins: father, Rod played in the NBA from 1982-95, currently the general manager of the Charlotte Bobcats;

Richard Roby: half-brother of Kenyon Martin (Denver Nuggets);

Xavier Silas: father, James, played professionally for 10 years, eight years with the San Antonio Spurs;

Dwight Thorne II: cousin Acie Law IV played for the Texas A&M Aggies and great uncle, Ernie Banks played with the Chicago Cubs.

NEW PIECES TO THE PUZZLE: CU's freshmen are growing up fast in their initial season in Boulder. Levi Knutson (6.4 rpg., 12 3-pointers, 21.3 mins.) and Cory Higgins (7.1 ppg., 3.8 rpg., 29.1 mins., 10 starts) are helping the Buffaloes to five wins already this season (last year CU only won seven games and needed until Jan. 17 to win five games). Knutson was the state of Colorado's Mr. Basketball/Player of the Year.

FOUR STRAIGHT? - Richard Roby will be looking to become only the third player in school history to lead the team in scoring four consecutive seasons. From 2004-05 (16.0 ppg.), 2005-06 (17.0) through last year (17.3), Roby has made it three straight. Here are the others:

Donnie Boyce	1991-95	4-straight
Shawn Vandiver	*1988-91	3-straight
Emmett Lewis	1975-79	4-straight
Cliff Meely	*1968-71	3-straight
Pat Frink	^1964-65, '66-68
	(3 of 4 years)

* - Played only three years

^ - did not play 1965-66 season

BUFF BITS: CU grabbed a team-high 38 rebounds against New Orleans • Over the last two seasons Xavier Silas has the most with 52, followed by Richard Roby (48), Marcus Hall (20), Levi Knutson (12) and Dwight Thorne (8) • CU shot a season-high 33 3-pointers, their most since attempting 34 at Nebraska (Feb. 22, 2006) • Hall, Silas, Knutson are the only players with more assists than turnovers • CU won three straight games for the first time since 2005-06 when they won five straight • Senior Marcus King-Stockton did not play at Air Force marking the first time he did not play in a game since his freshman season (Mar. 2 at Nebraska), a string of 66 consecutive games • For the first time since the 1998-99 season, CU won back-to-back road games (at Denver, at Air Force) • The Buffaloes win at Air Force ending the Falcons' 38-game home winning streak against non-conference foes • DU's 44 points were the fewest allowed by a CU team since a 71-44 win over Tennessee State on Dec. 19, 2003 • Xavier Silas' 24 points are the first 20+ point game on the road since Richard Roby's 21 at Iowa State (Feb. 21, 2007).

CU DURING BIG 12 INCEPTION: After 10 games, CU is on pace for its best season at the free throw line.

FUN 'n SUN: For the next two seasons the Buffaloes will be making multiple trips to the Hawaiian Islands. Next season, CU will be making their first-ever trip to the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. In 2009-10, CU will play in the Maui Invitational. Hosted by Division II college Chaminade, and sponsored by EA Sports, the Buffaloes will be one of eight schools participating in the 26th edition of the tournament. Joining CU two years from now will be Arizona, Gonzaga, Louisville, Maryland, Vanderbilt, and Wisconsin.

ROSTER CHANGES: In the 2007-08 media guide, senior guard Richard Roby and freshman guard Cory Higgins are listed as #23 and #20, respectively. Both of those numbers are retired (#20 Cliff Meely, 1968-71; #22 by Burdette Haldorson, 1952-55). Roby now wears #23 (the # worn his freshman, sophomore, junior seasons); Higgins has selected #11.

NO NAME JERSEYS: For the first time in many years the 2007-08 Buffaloes will not have their last name on the back of their uniforms. It was an idea always discussed in recent years, but never followed through until head coach Jeff Bzdelik decided that the name on the front is more important than the one on the back.

MEDIA GUIDE CORRECTION: On page 59 of the 2007-08 CU media guide it states that Cory Higgins' father, Rod is the general manager of the Golden State Warriors. In fact, he's the GM with the Charlotte Bobcats.

NOT THE NEW GUY: When he was hired back on April 5, Coach Bzdelik at the time was the newest coach in the Big 12. Then K-State and Texas A&M suddenly needed to hire a head coach. Here's a look at the most tenured head coaches to the newest.

Coach	Date Named	Head Coach
Rick Barnes, Texas	April 12,	1998
Bob Knight, Texas Tech	March 23,	2001
Bill Self, Kansas	April 21,	2003
Scott Drew, Baylor	Aug. 22,	2003

Jeff Capel, Oklahoma	April 11,	2006
Sean Sutton, Oklahoma St.	May 19,	2006
Doc Sadler, Nebraska	August 6,	2006
Jeff Bzdelik, Colorado	April 5,	2007
Frank Martin, Kansas State	April 6,	2007
Mark Turgeon, Texas A&M	April 10,	2007

REDSHIRT SEASON: Of the 15 players on the 2007-08 roster, two of them are ineligible to suit up for the Buffaloes after transferring from other schools. Casey Crawford (6-9, Forward, 230) from Overland Park, Kan. (Blue Valley North HS/Wake Forest); the other is Kyle Wright (6-5, Guard, 195) from Hartford, Conn. (Brewster Academy [Wolfeboro, N.H.]/Stony Brook). Both are redshirt sophomores with three years of eligibility remaining.

FTs WHEN IT COUNTS: Last season, Richard Roby was the coolest under pressure at the charity stripe making 84 percent of his shots with 2-5 minutes to play, and 75 percent under two minutes remaining. Here's a look at everyone on the 2007-08 team and their history.

HEAD COACH JEFF BZDELIK

1st Season at Colorado/5th College Season Overall

Jeff Bzdelik, a man synonymous with success on both the professional and college levels in the state of Colorado, was named the 17th men's basketball head coach for the University of Colorado men's basketball program, athletic director Mike Bohn announced April 4, 2007.

Bzdelik (buzz-DEL-ik), 55, comes to Colorado from the United States Air Force Academy, where he guided the Falcons to a 50-16 record (a 75.8 winning percentage) in two seasons from 2005-07. During those two seasons he led the Falcons to a 2005-06 NCAA Tournament and a 2006-07 NIT Final Four appearance.

Bzdelik brings 29 years of coaching experience to the Boulder campus from the collegiate to the professional ranks. He returned to the college game in 2005-06 after 15 seasons as both a coach and scout in the NBA, including two-and-a-half seasons as head coach of the Denver Nuggets.

His two-year win total of 50 victories at the Academy was a school-best in any two-year span of the 51-year history of Air Force basketball, while his 26 victories in 2006-07 was also a school high. He's the only coach to have won at least 24 games in back-to-back seasons. Bzdelik guided the Falcons to a 31-1 home record, including a 15-0 mark in 2005-06 and 16-1 in 2006-07.

In 2005-06, Bzdelik led the Falcons to a 24-7 record and the school's fourth appearance ever in the NCAA Tournament. He also led the Falcons to a 12-4 record and second place finish in the Mountain West Conference. Air Force also capped the season leading the nation for the fourth consecutive season in scoring defense.

Prior to returning to the college ranks with the Air Force Academy, Bzdelik was the Denver Nuggets head coach for two-and-a-half seasons (2002-2005). He was named head coach in August of 2002 after spending one year as a scout for the Nuggets. Bzdelik engineered one of the biggest turnarounds in NBA history during his second season in 2003-04, leading the Nuggets to the playoffs for the first time since 1994-95 while posting a 43-39 record. The 26-game improvement over the previous year was the sixth-best in NBA history.

Bzdelik also became the first coach in league history (since the adoption of an 82-game schedule) to guide a team to the playoffs the year after winning less than 20 games. In his first season, Bzdelik earned NBA-wide praise for Denver's competitiveness, work ethic and never-give-up attitude. Despite having the youngest team in franchise history, Bzdelik's team shattered the franchise record for scoring defense by more than five points per game, giving up only 92.4 per outing. In addition, the Nuggets led the league in turnovers forced (17.1 per game) and had six of the top 12 marks for single-season scoring defense.

Surprisingly to many, he was let go by the Nuggets after just 28 games into the 2004-05 season, with the team off to a 13-15 start. But that decision would eventually become Air Force's and now Colorado's gain.

From 1995-2001, Bzdelik was an assistant coach under Pat Riley in Miami, holding the title of Assistant Coach/Director of Scouting during the final two years. With the Heat, he was responsible for the preparation of all game plans, video coordination and statistical data as well as player development.

In 2000, he was recognized by USA Today as one of the NBA's top five assistant coaches. In the 1998 Pro Basketball issue of Sports Illustrated, he was voted as the NBA's best advance scout by league general managers.

Prior to his tenure with the Heat, Bzdelik spent the 1994-95 season as the lead scout for Riley and the New York Knicks. He also served as an assistant coach with the Washington Bullets from 1988-94 and was Wes Unseld's first assistant in 1993-94. In addition, he coached the Bullets summer league team in 1988 and 1994.

The Illinois native began his coaching career in 1978 at Davidson (N.C.) College. In 1980, he was named an assistant coach at Northwestern University where he spent six seasons and was instrumental in the Wildcats' first NIT appearance in school history.

He then accepted his first head coaching position at the University of Maryland-Baltimore County, one he would handle for two years before moving on to the NBA.

During the 1986-87 season at UMBC, his squad was cited by The Sporting News as having "One of College's Biggest Turnarounds," in the school's inaugural season in Division I. After going just 11-44 the previous two seasons as a Divi-

Bzdelik is a 1976 graduate of the University of Illinois-Chicago, where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned four varsity letters in basketball at UIC and was named team MVP as a senior in 1975-76. He still holds the school record for the best free-throw percentage in one season, shooting 88.1 percent (59-for-67) from the line in 1975-76 and still ranks among UIC's all-time leading scorers.

Bzdelik also spent six years in the Army National Guard during the early to mid 1970s.

He was born December 1, 1952 and graduated from Prospect High School in Mount Prospect, Ill. He is married to the former Nina Bernardzik, who was a standout volleyball player at UIC between 1974-76 and is a member of the Flames' Athletic Hall of Fame. They are the parents of two children, Brett (18) and Courtney (16).

Lobos Hold On, Defeat Buffs, 54-57

BOULDER, Colo. (AP/CU Sports Info.) - J.R. Giddens 18-foot jumper in the corner with 33 seconds remaining helped New Mexico to a 54-47 victory over Colorado, Friday evening at the Coors Events Conference Center.

After Marcus Hall converted a driving layup with 1:04 remaining in the game, cutting the Lobos deficit to 50-47, the UNM countered with Giddens' jump shot as the visitors won their first season-opening road game since the 1979-1980 season.

Buffaloes senior guard Richard Roby, who averaged 17.3 points last season, was nearly shut out for the first time in his career. His only point came on a free throw with 1:16 remaining that pulled Colorado to 50-45.

The Buffs trailed by double digits most of the game but began its run on Xavier Silas' 3-pointer with 2:20 remaining that cut the Lobos' lead to 49-43.

Bzdelik, a former coach of the Denver Nuggets and the Air Force Academy, bolted for Boulder after leading the Falcons to a 50-16 mark in two seasons, including a trip to the NIT Final Four last season. He replaced Ricardo Patton, who was let go after 11 years and a 7-20 season.

It was the largest attended regular season opening game in 26 years of the Coors Events Center.

The Lobos, who beat the Buffs 106-65 last season in Albuquerque, jumped out to an early lead and took a 30-19 cushion into the locker room after closing the first half on a 9-2 run that featured a 3-pointer and two free throws by Wills.

Roby, who ranks seventh on Colorado's all-time scoring list, was one of two Buffaloes starters shut out in the first half. The other was Hall, who redshirted last season and underwent minor thumb surgery last month.

Hall scored all of Colorado's nine points over the first 10:18 of the second half, but his teammates went cold and New Mexico maintained a double-digit lead. Hall then committed charges on back-to-back possessions, one of them wiping off a basket for the Buffs.

Freshman Cory Higgins added 10 points, five rebounds and three steals for Colorado.

Bufs Rattle Florida A&M, 83-59

MADISON, Wis. (AP/CU Sports Info.) - Xavier Silas scored 24 points to lead Colorado to an 83-59 victory over Florida A&M, Thursday in the opening game of the America's Youth Classic.

The sophomore guard was 8-of-11 from the floor and scored 18 points in the first half as the Buffaloes (1-1) opened up a huge lead early and were never seriously threatened. Silas also had a career-best five assists.

Silas' jumper with 10:28 left in the first half gave Colorado a 25-7 lead.

The Rattlers (1-1), the defending Mid-Eastern Atlantic Conference tournament champions, could get no closer than eight points the rest of the way.

Jermyl Jackson-Wilson scored 11 points, while Cory Higgins, Richard Roby and Levi Knutson each added 10 for the Buffaloes.

Marcus Hall added nine points, four rebounds and his four assists, bring his career total to 303. He also collected three steals.

Akini Akini paced Florida A&M with 21 points. The 6-foot-10 senior forward scored eight points during a 20-10 Rattler spurt that cut Colorado's lead to 35-27 just before halftime.

The Buffaloes used an 8-0 run early in the second half to stretch their advantage to 50-33, and the lead remained in double digits.

CU's victory tonight is the first win on a neutral court outside the state of Colorado in the regular season since Dec. 29, 2002 against the University of Loyola-Chicago at the Pepsi Classic (Charlotte, N.C.).

It was the first-ever meeting between the two schools, who are both breaking in new coaches: Eugene Harris at Florida A&M, and former Denver Nuggets head coach Jeff Bzdelik at Colorado.

Badgers Strong At Home, Defeat CU

MADISON, Wis. (AP) - Trevor Hughes scored 18 points as Wisconsin beat Colorado 78-52 in the final game of the America's Youth Classic Saturday night.

The Badgers (4-0) limited backdoor cuts by the up-tempo version of the Princeton-style offense being installed by first-year Buffaloes coach Jeff Bzdelik.

They built an early lead on hot 3-point shooting by Hughes, a sophomore guard who led the Badgers in scoring in three of their first four games of the season. Brian Butch scored 17 points for Wisconsin, and Michael Flowers added 12.

Richard Roby scored 20 to lead Colorado (2-2), while Xavier Silas added 13. Roby was also named to the America's Youth Classic all-tournament team, averaging 15.7 points and 4.7 rebounds per game.

Hughes opened the game with an early 3-pointer from beyond NBA range, and was 3-for-6 from outside the arc in the first half. The Badgers built a double-digit lead in the first six minutes of the game and never were in danger of giving it up.

A 3-pointer by Colorado's Marcus Hall (eight points) cut the Wisconsin lead to 27-16 with 7:33 left in the first half. But the Badgers went on a 12-2 run that included two scores from freshman forward Jon Leuer to take a 39-18 lead with 3:24 left in the half.

Wisconsin was ahead 44-27 at halftime, shooting 56 percent from the floor and hitting 6-of-13 from 3-point range.

Overall, Colorado shot 49% from the field, making 20-of-41 field goals, including 6-of-14 from the three-point line.

Wisconsin was careful on offense, turning the ball over only nine times. Colorado had 19 turnovers.

Bufs Prevail At Home, 78-58

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - Marcus Hall scored 21 points and Richard Roby added 18, leading Colorado to a 78-58 victory over Colorado Christian.

Hall was 4-for-6 on 3-pointers. Roby scored 11 of his points in the second half when Colorado (3-2) blew open the game.

The Buffaloes played without Xavier Silas, who missed the game with a lower left leg contusion. Caleb Patterson and Levi Knutson made their first collegiate starts.

Rory Morgan and Brian Stamer led Colorado Christian (1-2), a Division II program in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, with 13 points. The Cougars have back-to-back road losses.

Colorado Christian made a game of it for about 13 minutes and held a 12-10 lead with 12:43 left in the first half after three straight baskets by Morgan. The game was tied at 22 after a free throw by Stamer with 6:55 left.

Colorado took control to close the first half with a 15-5 run. Knutson buried a 3-pointer with 6:21 left and Hall's layup off a steal put the Buffaloes ahead by five. Colorado scored the last six points of the half, four coming from Cory Higgins, to take a 37-27 lead into intermission.

The Buffaloes shot 56.4 percent from the field and made 31 field goals, their highest since making 59.6 percent of their shots at Texas Tech last season (also made 31 FGs).

CCU got as close as seven points twice in the second half, the last coming when Jordan Long's 3-pointer made it 41-34 with 16:10 left. Roby's trey seconds later increased Colorado's lead by 10 points and began a 13-2 run that included a 3-pointer by Hall to put the Buffaloes ahead 54-36.

Hall's fourth 3-pointer of the game with 4:31 remaining gave Colorado its biggest lead, 68-47. Colorado Christian never got closer than 16 points the rest of the game.

Dwight Thorne scored a pair of career-highs with 13 points and five assists.

CU Ends Falcons' Home Win Streak

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) - Jeff Bzdelik weathered the taunts and jeers, Richard Roby scored a season-high 21 points and Colorado escaped with a 60-50 victory over Air Force on Thursday night in the former coach's return to Clune Arena.

Marcus Hall had 18 points and Cory Higgins added seven as the Buffaloes (5-2) snapped the Falcons' 38-game home winning streak against nonconference foes.

Hall played a career-high 40 minutes, while freshman guard Cory Higgins recorded a season-best 5 assists.

"I told our players I've never seen a fan come out of the stands to block a shot or grab a rebound," Bzdelik said. "Embrace the atmosphere, be fearless, have poise and you all have to bond together in a greater way."

The Air Force cadets sat close to the Buffaloes bench and heckled Bzdelik all game. The students donned shirts with a picture of Bzdelik on the front and a giant red "x" through the photo. Bzdelik coached two seasons at Air Force before bolting for the Buffaloes last April.

Reserve Andrew Henke scored 18 points, hitting four 3-pointers, for Air Force and Evan Washington finished with 11. Keith Maren chipped in nine points and seven rebounds.

The Falcons (5-3) never led in the game in part to their struggles at the free throw line, where they finished 7-for-17.

Levi Knutson's two 3-pointers late in the game sealed the Buffaloes' third straight win.

Colorado went into the locker room with what the team thought was a 26-19 lead, but Hall's shot at the buzzer was eventually waved off after officials took a second look on the video monitor.

Cardinal Pulls Away in Second Half, 67-43

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) -Anthony Goods and Lawrence Hill each scored 15 points to lift the Stanford Cardinal to a 67-43 win over Colorado on Sunday as part of the Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series.

The Cardinal (8-1) have now won four straight since a 12-point loss at Siena on Nov. 17.

Colorado (5-3) had its three-game winning streak snapped. The team was led in scoring by Marcus Hall with 16. He also had four assists as he logged 40 minutes for the second straight game. Hall's four assists (322 career) put him ahead of Billy Law (years played 1990-1992) for eighth place on CU's assists list.

Cory Higgins tied a season-high with 10 points and Richard Roby, the Buffaloes' leading scorer, was held to just seven points.

Robin Lopez, the Cardinal's second-leading scorer, didn't score until the 18:48 mark of the second half. He finished with four points and six rebounds. Taj Finger provided a spark off the bench, scoring 11 points, and Hill grabbed a season-high 10 boards.

Colorado was down by three points, 25-22, after Levi Knutson hit a 3-pointer in the closing seconds of the first half.

However, the Cardinal went on a 16-4 run to start the second half to break open the contest.

The Buffaloes were coming off a 60-50 win at Air Force on Thursday night in coach Jeff Bzdelik's emotional return to the academy. Bzdelik bolted from Air Force to Colorado last April. The team had also won back-to-back road games for the first time since the 1998-99 season.

Stanford showed it was comfortable playing at the Buffaloes' slowed-down pace. The Cardinal scored 13 points under their season average.

The Cardinal won a school-record seven games during a busy November. The schedule slows down in December, though, as the Cardinal won't play again until Dec. 19 when they host Santa Clara.

It was the first meeting between the two schools since the Cardinal's 71-58 win on Nov. 30, 1991. Stanford now leads the all-time series 6-3.

Privateers Rally, Edge Buffs, 67-65

BOULDER (AP) - Shaun Reynolds hit a driving layup and free throw with 4.3 seconds left, and Bo McCalebb scored 24 points to lead New Orleans to a 67-65 victory over Colorado.

"We knew they'd be relentless in pursuit, they were 4-0 on the road," CU head coach Jeff Bzdelik said. "They are tough young men and that was evident by them going into NC State and came away with a win. We knew it had to be a wire-to-wire job and we didn't do that—we let up. This team (New Orleans) is too tough both physically and mentally to do what we did tonight and expect to win."

McCalebb hit 8-of-11 shots and scored 20 of his points in the second half. T.J. Worley added 11 points and Reynolds finished with six for New Orleans (6-1).

Richard Roby led Colorado (5-5) with a season-high 27 points and 14 rebounds. The Buffaloes had seven-point leads twice in the second half in losing their third straight.

Roby's put back of his own miss and layup put the Buffaloes ahead 47-40 only to have New Orleans get within 47-46 on McCalebb's jumper with 11:15 remaining. Colorado converted six straight free throws, four by Roby to lead 53-49. But the Privateers answered with a 3-pointer and two free throws by Worley to take a 54-53 edge with 6:11 left.

Baskets by James Parlow and McCalebb put New Orleans ahead 61-57 with 2:35 left. That lead disappeared on a layup by Roby and a 3-pointer by Cory Higgins to put Colorado up 62-61.

Higgins' second 3-pointer gave the Buffaloes their last lead, 65-64 with 39 seconds left. New Orleans quickly pushed the ball up the floor to set up Reynolds' layup and free throw.

Colorado turned the ball over before crossing midcourt after calling two timeouts. CU led 32-26 at intermission as both teams combined for 17 turnovers.

Marcus Hall had a 3-pointer and Roby turned a pass from Hall into a layup as Colorado outscored the Privateers 6-0 in the final 2:15 of the half.
