MANHATTAN, Kan. -- The No. 18 Kansas State Wildcats swept Colorado in a Big 12 volleyball match Saturday.

The Buffs fell 25-15, 25-16, 25-19 at Ahearn Fieldhouse.

Amber Sutherland led the Buffs with 10 kills and eight digs as CU fell to 7-4 overall and 1-1 in the Big 12. Kansas State improved to 11-2, 1-1.

Emilee Sisco added seven kills for the Buffs. Schylur Edelman hit a team-high .400. Alex Buth also tallied five kills and six digs in the effort.

Kansas State held Colorado to a .200 attack percentage. The Wildcats hit .387.

Lauren Schaefer returned to the CU lineup after missing the Kansas match Wednesday. Schaefer recorded three kills and hit .182.

The Buffs return home to host Texas A&M on Saturday at 6:30 p.m.
