TONIGHT: CU travels to the Pepsi Center in Denver for their third game of the season against Saint Mary's of the West Coast Conference. The Buffaloes lead the all-time series 4-1 with tonight's game the first on a neutral floor. CU is 3-0 in Boulder and 1-1 in Moraga. Coach Patton teams are a perfect 3-0 against the Gaels having last played Jan. 2, 2002 in Boulder (W, 68-51). Meanwhile, CU is 15-17 on neutral court games since 1996-97.

COLORADO CLASSIC FOURSOME: CU/Saint Mary's are two of the four-teams at Pepsi Center today. The first game of the evening will be Denver/Colorado State at 6 p.m. Both games will be seen on FSN RM. The DU/CSU match up is the first in the all-time series played on a neutral court with the Rams holding an 85-68 advantage.

ABOUT THE GAELS: Saint Mary's brings a 1-0 record into tonight's game after defeating UC Santa Cruz, 93-41 back on Nov. 18. The Gaels return only one starter from last year's NCAA Tournament team (25-9), however it's 6'10" senior forward Daniel Kickert (16.6 ppg., 6.6 rpg.). Kickert, a two-time WCC first team selection, is also the WCC Player of the Year, and a 2005-06 All-America candidate.

LAST GAME: Martane Freeman came off the bench to score a career-high 17 points and Chris Copeland added 16 points in CU's 83-82 loss at Colorado State last Monday. Leading 74-66 with 7 1/2 minutes to play, the Rams chipped away at its deficit behind nine 3-pointers and 34 points from Sean Morris. It was CSU's first win over the Buffaloes since 1999. Box score and complete story on page 21.

UNCW WRAP: Chris Copeland's 20 points led CU past UNC Wilmington 73-54 back on Nov. 18. It was he Seahawks' first loss after three impressive wins in the Black Coaches Association Tournament. Buffs coach Ricardo Patton improved to 10-0 in season openers. Richard Roby added 14 points, Jayson Obazuaye had 12 and Andy Osborn finished with 10.

AGAINST OPPT. CONFERENCES: Tuesday's match up with Penn will be CU's first of two meetings with the Ivy League. The other school, Dartmouth (coached by former assistant coach Terry Dunn) visits Boulder Dec. 31 (1 p.m.). Of their 11 non-conference games, CU will play the Mountain West (CSU, Utah) and the Big West twice (Cal Poly, UC Irvine). The others, Colonial Athletic Association (UNCW), Trans America (Mercer), Western Athletic (TCU), West Coast (St. Mary's) and independent Savannah State.

COMING OFF THE BENCH: If you thought Martane Freeman's 17 points off the bench at Colorado State was pretty good, it doesn't come close in CU's top-10 best performances off the pine since the 1996-97 season:

BUFF TIDBITS, INDIVIDUAL: Against CSU, senior Martane Freeman posted career-highs in points (17), field goals (6), attempts (8), free throws (5), FT attempts (6), steals (3), minutes played (24) ... Marcus Hall tied a career-best in steals (4) and handed out seven assists, the most since having 10 against South Dakota State (Feb. 14) last year; Hall ranks 25th overall at CU in assists ... Chris Copeland earned his first CU Athlete of the Week (Nov. 14-20) honor scoring a game-high 20 points that included 8-of-9 from the free throw line helping CU win it's 2005-06 season opener, 73-54 over previously unbeaten UNC-Wilmington ... Richard Roby scored 480 points during his freshman season, the most of any frosh in its history, including Chauncey Billups (465) ... On page 4, a handful of CU players are moving upward on career school lists ... Seniors Chris Copeland, Glean Eddy, Antoine McGee, and Jayson Obazuaye close out their final year in 2005-06. It's also the first senior class under Head Coach Ricardo Patton that four players will have played their freshman, sophomore, junior and senior years at CU ... Four-year walk-on Billy Boidock (a mechanical engineering major with an influence in alternative energy and energy management) is taking 19 credit hours during the fall semester ... Patton enters his 10th season with the Buffaloes and ranks second all-time on the school's all-time victories list with 158. He is joined this year by third-year assistant coach Paul Graham (North Texas State '74) and first year coaches, John Anderson (Stillman College '80) and Mike Frink (Colorado '67) ... Frink, who played basketball at CU from 1963-65, is the only former player to be named as an assistant coach in the school's 104-year history ... Director of Basketball Operations Will Smith is in his second year with the Buffs, was Patton's first-ever recruit (1996-2000) ... Smith and former CU Buffs player Bob Bauers (1965-67) are tied at No. 52 on the school's all-time scoring list with 721 points. What makes this ironic, Bauers was Smith's scholarship donor when Smith played.

TEAM NOTES: CU's on the tube 16 times this season with seven of those games in Boulder (eight times on FSN, seven on ESPN Regional, once on ESPN2) ... In the win over UNC Wilmington, CU collected 17 steals, the second most in school history for a non-conference game, tying four other times ... Defeating UNCW helped Coach Patton remain unbeaten in season openers (10-0) ... With 10 seniors, eight senior scholarships, CU has the most nationally ... The CU men resemble what a box of Total cereal looks like, they return 100% of their scoring, 100% rebounding, 100% blocked shots, 100% of everything from a year ago with the exception of the Fall semester with Julius Ashby ineligible, he could return Dec. 31 (Dartmouth) or Jan. 3 (Savannah State)... The men look to break their 2004-05 school record of 223 3-pointers,

"LS" INITIALS: If you notice the "LS" initials on each of the CU player uniforms that's in memory of senior walk-on Scott Senger's mother, Linda died of cancer this past July. Scott played at nearby Monarch High School where set the school record for 3-pointers made in a season and most points scored.

TOUGH NON-CONFERENCE? Do you think CU has an easy non-conference schedule this year, or perhaps it's difficult? In fact, CU ranks smack dab in the middle based on their opponents record last season. Remember, Baylor is not playing a non-conference schedule this season due to NCAA infractions. Texas A&M has the easiest, followed by Nebraska and so on ...

Colorado 73
UNC Wilmington 54
Nov. 18, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - Chris Copeland's 20 points led Colorado past UNC Wilmington 73-54 Friday night, the Seahawks' first loss after three impressive wins in the Black Coaches Association Tournament.

Buff's coach Ricardo Patton, who has a .547 winning percentage and a .439 Big 12 mark in his decade in Boulder, improved to 10-0 in season openers.

Richard Roby, who led the Buffs with a 16-point average as a freshman last season, added 14 points, Jayson Obazuaye had 12 and Andy Osborn finished with 10. T.J. Carter's 12 points led the Seahawks (3-1).

With 6-9 post player Julius Ashby academically ineligible until the second semester, the Buffs turned to forwards Copeland, a junior, and Osborn, one of Colorado's nation-high 10 seniors on the roster, to control the paint and keep Wilmington from going 4-0 on its trip through the Rockies.

Copeland scored 10 first-half points - he had the only successful 3-pointer in nine tries by Colorado - and Osborn, who finished with eight boards, had eight points by halftime as the Buffs inched ahead 29-23.

The Seahawks, of the Colonial Athletic Association, have averaged better than 19 wins each of their three seasons under coach Brad Brownell. They were fresh off capturing the championship of the Black Coaches Association Tournament in Laramie, Wyo., with wins over Butler, Wyoming and Northwestern.

But instead of being in rhythm, they were tired. Both teams started out slowly with Wilmington shooting 39 percent (10-of-26) in the first half and Colorado 38 percent (11-of-29).

The Seahawks were within six at 38-32 when the Buffaloes, led by Copeland's five points, used an 18-2 run to take control. Antoine McGee's three-point play with 11:12 remaining made it 56-34.

Back-to-back baskets by Roby and Copeland's three-point play made it 68-44 with 3:46 left.

Game 2

Colorado 82
at Colorado State 83
Nov. 21, 2005 Moby Arena

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) - Sophomore Sean Morris scored a career-best 34 points and his older brother, senior Michael Morris, sank two critical free throws with 10 seconds left as Colorado State beat Colorado, 83-82 Monday night.

After the elder Morris' free throws made it 83-80, Chris Copeland inexplicably dished it inside to Martane Freeman, whose dunk made it 83-82.

Michael Harrison tipped Marcus Hall's inbounds pass to Smith, who dribbled out the clock, securing the Rams' 25th straight home opening victory and their first win over the Buffs since 1999, setting off a wild celebration at Moby Arena, where the students stormed the court.

Smith added 16 points for the Rams (2-0), who also got 10 points each from Harrison and Lewis. Hall added 12 points, seven assists and tied a career-best four steals.

Freeman's career-high 17 points off the bench and Copeland's 16 points led the Buffs (1-1), who saw a 74-66 lead with 7 1/2 minutes vanish when the Rams turned up their pressure defense.

Sean Morris tied it at 79 with 52 seconds left when he sank his school record-tying ninth 3-pointer.

Hall charged at the other end, then fouled Smith, whose two free throws with 26 seconds left gave the Rams the lead for good at 81-79.

Richard Roby (10 points) was fouled with 11 seconds left but missed one of two foul shots, leaving the Rams ahead by a point. After a timeout, Roby fouled Michael Morris, who calmly sank both free throws for an 83-80 lead.

The Buffs have long played a running style and they appeared set to extend their winning streak over the Rams to six for the first time since 1946-50 when they built an eight-point second half lead.

Andy Osborn (11 points) sank three 3-pointers in helping Colorado build a 43-40 halftime lead but he scored just two points in the second half.
