CU vs. OKLAHOMA STATE: The Buffaloes success in Stillwater is few and far between. CU has not won there since Jan. 12, 1980 (20-straight games). Overall, OSU leads the all-time series, 57-45 (9-35 in Stillwater) and winners of three straight with one in Stillwater, Boulder and at last year's Big 12 quarterfinal in Kansas City. Coach Patton teams are 4-8 overall (all four wins in Boulder).

SCOUTING THE COWBOYS: At press time, Oklahoma State will have three freshmen and one sophomore in their starting lineup. OSU, winners of four of their last five, will be the youngest team CU has faced since Kansas (Jan. 11) when the Jayhawks started three sophomores and a freshman. Sophomore guard JamesOn Curry (12.8 ppg., 2.4 rpg.) is on the preseason watch list for the 2005-06 John R. Wooden Award and junior forward Mario Boggan leads the Big 12 in field goal percentage (91-of-140, .650).

SCHOOL HOUSE ROCK...3 is a magic number...3,6,9,12,15,18: CU performed their favorite number knocking down another double-digit performance against Baylor (11 made). On the season, the Buffaloes have made 10 or more treys in six games this season (season-high 13 at Missouri). They're also way ahead of last year's school record of 223. Entering today, CU is 130-of-340; last year at this time they were 88-of-272!

BUFF TIDBITS: Richard Roby is 50th on the CU's all-time scoring list (738 pts.)...Despite not starting at Mizzou and Baylor, Marcus Hall leads the Big 12 in assist-turnover ratio (2.67); In Big 12-only games, Dominique Coleman is second (4.33) in that same category...Roby has scored double figures in 18 of his 20 career conference games (the other two he scored nine)...Of the nine national categories kept by the NCAA located on page 5, Roby leads CU in seven of them. The only exceptions are blocked shots (Andy Osborn) and assists (Hall)...Hall is sixth in the conference (all games) in assists...Roby and Chris Copeland are the only two who have started all 15 games...Julius Ashby is 0-for-7 in four Big 12 games, however he's averaging 4.8 rebounds a game...Roby holds all three of CU's top scoring games this season (33, 29, 22)...Osborn has made at least one 3-pointer in 12-straight games (two a game)...Roby and Copeland have made 12 and 11 3-pointers, respectively in conference play, with Osborn having made nine...Glean Eddy has 365 career rebounds, 42nd all-time at CU, while Copeland has 348 (47th)...In four Big 12 games, Roby is averaging 20.8 ppg....Coleman has 13 assists (6.5) in his last two games...Copeland is averaging 18.0 over his last three. TEAM: CU is first in conference (all games) scoring offense (83.1), blocks (6.20), assist-turnover ratio (1.28), and 3-point FGs made (8.7).

NCAA STATS: As of Jan. 17, the Buffs are ranked among the best statistically in the 12 national team categories:

4th	Scoring Offense	83.2
10th	Steals	10.4
11th	Scoring Margin	15.9
15th	Assists	17.9
20th	Blocked Shots	5.9

49th	Field Goal %	.474

RICH FINDS HIS NICHE: Big 12 Player of the Week honoree Richard Roby had career highs in points (33) and field goals attempted (24) against Missouri. He also tied a career high with 11 field goals made (he also made 11 at Texas Tech last season en route to 29 points). Roby is the first CU standout to win Player of the Week accolades since David Harrison in 2003-04.

MAKING A RUN at TREY HISTORY: Most likely the CU men's team will break the school record in treys made in a season. What about the Big 12 Conference record? Here's a look at each year to see how far the Buffs need to go (i know it's a little early to speculate):

2005-06:	Colorado	130 (conf. leader)
2004-05:	Texas	243
2003-04:	Texas	227
2002-03:	Baylor	254
2001-02:	Nebraska	267
2000-01:	Missouri	279
1999-00:	Missouri	291
1998-99:	Oklahoma	274
1997-98:	Baylor	217
1996-97:	Baylor	227

DOUBLE YOUR PLEASURE: Marcus King-Stockton (career-best 11) and Julius Ashby (season-high 10) performed a CU first this season and the first since last season at Iowa State (Jan. 22), two players with 10 or more rebounds. Against the Cyclones, Ashby grabbed 13 and Glean Eddy had 11 in CU's 54-52 overtime win in Ames. A CU win in Ames since Feb. 19, 1991.

REBOUNDING BY COMMITTEE: No Buff pulled down over five rebounds against Missouri, yet CU still managed to out-rebound the Tigers 31-30. The last time CU out-rebounded an opponent without any single player registering more than five was at Texas Tech last season when the Buffs managed a 37-32 rebounding edge on the merits of five different players with exactly five rebounds. Eleven players recorded a rebound against Missouri (Glean Eddy, who played only one minute, is the only Buff not to pull down a board). This season, the Buffs have had at least 11 players record a rebound in 11 of their 14 contests....at least 10 players have recorded a rebound in 12 of their 14 contests.

SPREADING THE MINUTES: Head Coach Ricardo Patton hinted that he would shorten CU's bench against Missouri after the home loss to Kansas; however for the first time this season, 10 different players logged at least 10 minutes of playing time in the contest.

TURNOVER BATTLE: The Buffs have committed fewer turnovers than their opponent in three of four conference games this season (CU-12, Baylor-11). In 16 conference games last season—not including the tournament—the Buffs had fewer turnovers exactly half of the time. Surprisingly, CU was only 2-6 when turning the ball over less than the opponent.

MORE BUFF TIDBITS: Richard Roby's game-high 33 points was the first time he led CU in scoring since Dec. 20 ... CU played with its third different starting lineup at Missouri ... Antoine McGee started at the point for the first time this season at Mizzou and again at Baylor, as did Martane Freeman, who made his first career start at Mizzou; Julius Ashby also started against Mizzou and Baylor ... Roby has led CU from the 3-point arc eight times this season ... CU's nine-game winning streak was the longest in school history since the 1961-62 season when the Buffaloes won 12-straight ... CU has made a 3-pointer in 121-straight games (last time CU they didn't was Jan. 16, 2002, Iowa State, W, 63-61) ... CU won in Missouri for the first time since 1996-97 season and only the second time in Columbia since Jan. 15, 1973 (32 games)...CU's win at Mizzou was the first time in four conference games they won after trailing at the half, CU also won the battle on the boards for the first time in three games...The Buffs are shooting a staggering .592 from the free throw line (11th of 12 teams) ... Roby collected his third career double-double versus Utah (19 pts., 10 rebs.) ... Andy Osborn recorded his second career double-double at CU, 17 pts., 10 rebounds against Cal Poly (four at Loyola Marymount) ... Roby failed to make a 3-pointer against SSU, ending his streak of 30 games going back to last season ... On page 9, a handful of CU players are moving upward on career school lists ... Seniors Chris Copeland, Glean Eddy, Antoine McGee, and Jayson Obazuaye close out their final year in 2005-06. It's also the first senior class under Head Coach Ricardo Patton that four players will have played their freshman, sophomore, junior and senior years at CU.

BIG 12 OPENER: The Buffaloes saw the same 'ole thing in their conference opener at Texas, they lost. It was the ninth straight conference opener loss and kept CU winless on the road (0-4). Lone win was Nebraska in 1996-97.

BIG 12 10TH ANNIVERSARY VOTING

NOW OPEN: The Big 12 is celebrating its 10th anniversary this season and is selecting special teams to honor the top players in the first nine years of the conference.

Followers of the Big 12 can vote for the top five men's basketball players in league annals by visiting the conference web site at www.big12sports.com. Click on the "Vote Now" button on the left side of the home page. Users may also go directly to the following link for voting information:

www.big12sports.com/10th-anniversary/

Winners will be announced live on the ESPN Plus Studio 66 halftime show in early February.

TOP 25 RANKINGS....almost:

Hey, we're STILL getting votes, 22 in the latest ESPN/USA Today poll (week 11). That means we're the No. 29th ranked team nationally if the poll was 30 or more teams. The last time the Buffs were ranked in either poll came in 1997 at No. 24 (Associated Press). The others were 1969 (#18), 1963 (#10), 1962 (#9) and 1955 (#15).

BIG 12 TOURNAMENT REVIEW vs. OSU

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) - Joey Graham scored 24 points, including two clutch free throws with 7.8 seconds left, and No. 10 Oklahoma State held off Colorado 87-85 in the Big 12 quarterfinals. John Lucas had 18 points and Ivan McFarlin added 16 points and 15 rebounds for the third-seeded Cowboys (22-6).

Colorado's Andy Osborn hit a 3-pointer with 8.4 seconds to go, cutting OSU's lead to 85-84, but Graham answered with his two free throws to make it 87-84.

The Cowboys then committed a tactical foul, with Daniel Bobik grabbing Jayson Obazuaye before the Buffaloes could get down the floor for a 3-point attempt.

Obazuaye hit the first free throw with 5 seconds left, and deliberately missed the second. McFarlin and Graham then drew a traveling violation when both came down with the defensive rebound with 3 seconds to go. That gave the Buffaloes one more possession, but Hall's 3-point try bounced off at the buzzer.

CU (14-16), the first No. 11 seed to reach the quarterfinals in the tournament's nine-year history, struggled from the free-throw line, making just 15-of-26.

JamesOn Curry added 14 points and Bobik had 10 for Oklahoma State, which won despite hitting only one field goal after Lucas' 3-pointer with 4:50 left made it 80-71.

Richard Roby hit four 3-pointers and led Colorado with 21 points, but he wasn't available to take the last shot for the Buffaloes because he had fouled out seconds earlier.

Colorado's Julius Ashby added a career-high 19 points (conference tournament record 9-of-10 FGs) and Obazuaye chipped-in 18, career highs for both. Osborn hit three 3s and finished with 10 points.

OSU LAST YEAR IN BOULDER: John Lucas scored 26 points and Jameson Curry had 17 of his 22 in the second half to lead No. 9 Oklahoma State to a 104-86 victory over CU. It was Cowboys' first win in almost nine years in Boulder.

The Buffaloes (10-8, 2-5) made 11 of their school-record 17 3-pointers in the first half and trailed 52-50. Richard Roby (14 pts.) went 4-for-4 from behind the arc in the first half.

But Oklahoma State made some defensive switches, including putting the faster Curry on Roby instead of Daniel Bobik, and started making shots.

The Buffaloes stayed close until midway through the second half when Lucas took over. He made two 3-pointers and scored 12 points in a 16-6 run that gave the Cowboys a 94-77 run with 4:45 remaining. Curry added another 3-pointer in the run and finished 6-of-8 from behind the arc.

Ivan McFarlin added 17 points for the Cowboys, while Joey Graham added 14.

Andy Osborn and Chris Copeland each scored 19 points to lead the Buffaloes. Roby finished with 14 points.

The Cowboys were 13-of-21 on 3s, while Colorado was 17-of-29.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT: CU scored 64 and 63 points, respectively against Texas and Kansas to start conference play. Surprisingly, the last time the Buffs scored less than 65 points in back-to-back conference games they came out victorious in both—a 54-52 overtime thriller at Iowa State and a 64-62 win against Missouri last season.

TEXAS & SAVANNAH STATE: After beating Savannah State by 64 and losing to Texas by 25, the Buffs completed the largest margin point swing (89 pts.) in back-to-back games in school history. The only other time the Buffs were involved in a similarly large margin in back-to-back games was in the 2000-01 season when they beat Texas-Arlington and St. Mary's by a combined 88 points.

“LS” INITIALS: If you notice the “LS” initials on each of the CU player uniforms that's in memory of senior walk-on Scott Senger's mother, Linda died of cancer this past July. Scott played at nearby Monarch High School where set the school record for 3-pointers made in a season and most points scored.

LIFE BEFORE CUPCAKES: With all due respect to Mercer (Dec. 22), Dartmouth (Dec. 31), and Savannah State (Jan. 3), a trio of teams at the bottom of the competitive RPI barrel, CU sophomore Richard Roby has suffered the most in terms of statistical improvement. Before Mercer, Roby was averaging 18.5 points per game, today he's averaging 15.7 (he scored 14 at Texas and 15 vs. KU). In those three games, Roby averaged nine points and four rebounds per game.

BUFFS PICKED 9TH: The Big 12 coaches are predicting the Buffs will be a ninth place team in 2005-06. Last season the conference coaches predicted a 10th place finish and were almost correct as CU finished 11th. In its conference history, CU has finished in second place (once), fourth (one), fifth (once), seventh (once), ninth (three times) and 10th (once). Below is the history of the Big 12 coaches' predictions and the Buffs actual finish:

1996-97: No Poll done

(CU finished 2nd)

1997-98: 9th (CU finished 9th)

1998-99: 10th (CU finished 8th)

1999-00: 8th (CU finished 7th)

2000-01: 7th (CU finished 9th)

2001-02: 7th (CU finished 9th)

2002-03: 9th (CU finished 15th)

2003-04: 6th (CU finished 4th)

2004-05: 10th (CU was 11th)

2005-06: 9th (CU ??)

TOUGH NON-CONFERENCE? Do you think CU had an easy non-conference schedule this year, or perhaps it's difficult? In fact, CU ranks smack dab in the middle based on their opponents record last season. Remember, Baylor did not playing a non-conference schedule this season due to NCAA infractions. Texas A&M has the easiest, followed by Nebraska and so on ...

2006-07 National Letters of Intent: Back in November, Coach Patton announced the 2009-10 incoming class who signed National Letters of Intent. Six student-athletes will be playing their first seasons in Boulder, while another is sitting out the 2005-06 after transferring. He will be eligible next year.

Patton enters his 10th season with the Buffaloes and ranks second all-time on the school's all-time victories list with 169. He is joined this year by third-year assistant coach Paul Graham (North Texas State '74) and first-year coaches, John Anderson (Stillman College '80) and Mike Frink (Colorado '67) ... Frink, who played basketball at CU from 1963-65, is the only former player to be named as an assistant coach in the school's 104-year history ... Director of Basketball Operations Will Smith is in his second year with the Buffs, was Patton's first-ever recruit (1996-2000) ... Smith and former CU Buffs player Bob Bauers (1965-67) are tied at No. 53 on the school's all-time scoring list with 721 points. What makes this ironic, Bauers was Smith's scholarship donor when Smith played.

Colorado 73
UNC Wilmington 54
Nov. 18, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - Chris Copeland's 20 points led Colorado past UNC Wilmington 73-54 Friday night, the Seahawks' first loss after three impressive wins in the Black Coaches Association Tournament.

Bufs coach Ricardo Patton, who has a .547 winning percentage and a .439 Big 12 mark in his decade in Boulder, improved to 10-0 in season openers.

Richard Roby, who led the Buffs with a 16-point average as a freshman last season, added 14 points, Jayson Obazuaye had 12 and Andy Osborn finished with 10. T.J. Carter's 12 points led the Seahawks (3-1).

With 6-9 post player Julius Ashby academically ineligible until the second semester, the Buffs turned to forwards Copeland, a junior, and Osborn, one of Colorado's nation-high 10 seniors on the roster, to control the paint and keep Wilmington from going 4-0 on its trip through the Rockies.

Copeland scored 10 first-half points - he had the only successful 3-pointer in nine tries by Colorado - and Osborn, who finished with eight boards, had eight points by halftime as the Buffs inched ahead 29-23.

The Seahawks, of the Colonial Athletic Association, have averaged better than 19 wins each of their three seasons under coach Brad Brownell. They were fresh off capturing the championship of the Black Coaches Association Tournament in Laramie, Wyo., with wins over Butler, Wyoming and North-western.

But instead of being in rhythm, they were tired. Both teams started out slowly with Wilmington shooting 39 percent (10-of-26) in the first half and Colorado 38 percent (11-of-29).

The Seahawks were within six at 38-32 when the Buffaloes, led by Copeland's five points, used an 18-2 run to take control. Antoine McGee's three-point play with 11:12 remaining made it 56-34.

Back-to-back baskets by Roby and Copeland's three-point play made it 68-44 with 3:46 left.

Colorado 82
at Colorado State 83
Nov. 21, 2005 Moby Arena

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) - Sophomore Sean Morris scored a career-best 34 points and his older brother, senior Michael Morris, sank two critical free throws with 10 seconds left as Colorado State beat Colorado, 83-82 Monday night. After the elder Morris' free throws made it 83-80, Chris Copeland inexplicably dished it inside to Martane Freeman, whose dunk made it 83-82.

Michael Harrison tipped Marcus Hall's inbounds pass to Smith, who dribbled out the clock, securing the Rams' 25th straight home opening victory and their first win over the Buffs since 1999, setting off a wild celebration at Moby Arena, where the students stormed the court.

Smith added 16 points for the Rams (2-0), who also got 10 points each from Harrison and Lewis. Hall added 12 points, seven assists and tied a career-best four steals.

Freeman's career-high 17 points off the bench and Copeland's 16 points led the Buffs (1-1), who saw a 74-66 lead with 7 1/2 minutes vanish when the Rams turned up their pressure defense.

Sean Morris tied it at 79 with 52 seconds left when he sank his school record-tying ninth 3-pointer.

Hall charged at the other end, then fouled Smith, whose two free throws with 26 seconds left gave the Rams the lead for good at 81-79.

Richard Roby (10 points) was fouled with 11 seconds left but missed one of two foul shots, leaving the Rams ahead by a point. After a timeout, Roby fouled Michael Morris, who calmly sank both free throws for an 83-80 lead.

The Buffs have long played a running style and they appeared set to extend their winning streak over the Rams to six for the first time since 1946-50 when they built an eight-point second half lead.

Andy Osborn (11 points) sank three 3-pointers in helping Colorado built a 43-40 halftime lead but he scored just two points in the second half.

Game 3

Colorado 73
Saint Mary's 54
Nov. 26, 2005 Pepsi Center

DENVER, Colo. (AP) - Richard Roby scored 17 of his 29 points in the first half and Colorado cruised to a 73-54 win over Saint Mary's on Saturday night in the Colorado Classic.

Roby, who averaged 16 points as a freshman, had started the season in somewhat of a slump, averaging just 12 points in the Buffs' 1-1 start that included a last-second loss to archrival Colorado State.

So, Roby stayed in the gym after practice to work on his game and it paid off at the Pepsi Center.

He was 4-of-7 from beyond the arc and also grabbed six rebounds off the defensive glass and stole the ball three times.

Dominique Coleman added 10 points for the Buffs, who improved to 5-1 against the Gaels of the West Coast Conference. Marcus Hall added a season-best eight assists, while freshman Calvin Williams came off the bench to grab seven rebounds.

Daniel Kickert's 22 points led the Gaels (1-1), who had a height advantage but couldn't keep up with the Buffs' faced-paced tempo led by Roby and quickly fell behind.

The Buffaloes (2-1) jumped out to a 40-26 halftime lead thanks to Roby's 17 points, two steals and a blocked shot. He was also 3-for-3 from three-point range.

The Gaels cut the deficit to single digits on Brett Collin's basket that made it 49-40 with 11 minutes left, but the Buffs quickly put to rest any hope of a comeback when Coleman slammed back-to-back baskets.

Colorado rebuilt its cushion to 67-49 on consecutive fastbreak buckets by Marcus King-Stockton with 3 1/2 minutes remaining.

Collins had 16 points and 11 boards for Saint Mary's.

Game 4

Colorado 78
at Penn 60
Nov. 29, 2005 The Palestra

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. - Sophomore guard Richard Roby and senior forward Chris Copeland scored 22 and 20 points, respectively leading the University of Colorado Buffaloes to 78-60 victory over the University of Pennsylvania at The Palestra.

CU/Penn played the first 20 minutes of play all even and went to the intermission with a 37-37 tie. Unfortunately for the Quakers, they went ice cold during the second half, and the Buffaloes took advantage to earn the 18-point win.

After shooting nearly 44 percent from the field during the first stanza, Penn (2-1) went just 9-of-31 (29.0 percent) in the second half including 2-of-15 (13.3 percent) from three-point land. CU on the other hand was 15-of-33 (45.5 percent) and an impressive 8-of-10 (.800) from the free throw line.

CU (3-1) jumped all over Penn to start the game, scoring nine of the game's first 10 points. However, the Quakers responded with an 8-3 run to draw within three, then reeled off 11 unanswered points to lead 20-16.

Roby led a five-point Colorado run that gave the Buffs back the lead, but after the teams traded buckets Penn went on another 11-point streak that pushed its lead to 33-23. Roby was again on display, though, scoring 10 points as CU climbed back to tie the game at the break. At the half Roby had 17 points and had missed just one of his 11 shots from the field (4-of-5 field goals including 3-of-3 three-pointers, 6-of-6 free throws).

The Buffs scored seven of the first 10 points in the second half to take a 44-40 lead, then extended that advantage to 50-42 as the Quakers missed several opportunities. Penn was within nine points with seven minutes left (57-48), but Colorado dropped seven of the next eight points to make its lead 15 (64-49) and Penn never got inside double digits after that.

Senior guard Jayson Obazuaye led the CU dominance on the glass with a game-high and career-high nine rebounds helping CU to a 50-28 advantage. Copeland added seven rebounds along with sophomore Marcus King-Stockton tying a personal-best seven boards.

Game 5

Colorado 93
Cal Poly 75
Dec. 3, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER - The University of Colorado men's basketball team placed all five of its starters in double figures led with 17 points each by Andy Osborn and Richard Roby as the Buffaloes cruised to a 93-75 victory over Cal Poly at the Coors Events Center.

With the win, CU improves to 4-1, having won its last three in a row, while the Mustangs drop their fourth straight and fall to 1-4.

Other starters who reached double figures for the Buffs were Jayson Obazuaye (13 pts.), Chris Copeland (12 pts.) and Marcus Hall, who finished the game with 11 points and five assists.

"It was a good game, a good win," said CU head coach Ricardo Patton. "There was some good, but some bad. But, overall, I thought the guys played fairly well. In fact, we had only five turnovers."

The Buffaloes raced out to a 45-39 advantage at the intermission on 51.5 percent shooting (17-of-33), getting balanced scoring from all five of its starters, including Roby and Osborn with nine points apiece.

Midway through the first half, CU rallied from its biggest deficit of the game (four points) with a 9-0 run over the next two minutes, pushing its lead to eight points (31-23).

In the second half, CU continued to hold its advantage over the Mustangs, extending its lead to 22 points with five minutes remaining as Osborn hit his fourth three-pointer of the game and an 87-65 lead.

Osborn also recorded his second career double-double in a CU uniform, grabbing 10 rebounds to go with his 17 points. Osborn's 10 boards helped CU dominate the Mustangs under the basket with a 46-33 advantage.

Game 6

Colorado 76
Utah 52
Dec. 7, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER (AP) - Sophomore guard Richard Roby collected his third career double-double of 19 points and 10 rebounds leading Colorado to a 76-52 home win Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

Chris Copeland added 16 points as Colorado (5-1) extended it winning streak to four. Bryant Markson and Chris Jackson led Utah (4-2) with 13 and 12 points, respectively.

"That was a great win," said Colorado head coach Ricardo Patton. "Utah is a really good basketball team. We had a lot of different lineups and everybody contributed. Like always, we need to take a look at the tape and try to improve."

The Utes had won the last two meetings between the two teams, but struggled with 17 turnovers and were only 2-for-14 in 3-pointers as they scored a season-low 16 points in the first half.

Colorado started the second half making 2-of-7 shots, allowing Utah to cut a 17-point halftime deficit to 38-31 on a 3-pointer and a layup by Johnnie Bryant five minutes into the half.

Martane Freeman hit two straight shots after a driving layup by Marcus Hall to put the Buffaloes back up by 44-31.

Two free throws by Copeland capped a 6-0 run to give Colorado its biggest lead, 56-37, with 8:21 left. Utah got as close as 66-51 in the remaining three minutes on a layup by Ricky Johns.

Colorado started slowly, missing 14-of-15 shots to start the game and trailed 10-3 after a layup by Utah's Luke Nevill. But the Buffaloes began finding their range from beyond the 3-point arc, connecting on seven 3-pointers, three by Roby and outscored Utah, 30-6 over the last 11:57 of the first half to lead 33-16. Colorado was 12-for-37 on 3-pointers.

Copeland and Marcus Hall had two 3-pointers each in the first period. In contrast, the Utes were 0-for-4 on 3-pointers and shot 33 percent against a suffocating defense that also forced 11 turnovers.

Game 7
Colorado 96
UC Irvine 80
Dec. 18, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby scored 20 points and Martane Freeman added a career-high 17 as Colorado extended its winning streak to five games with a 96-80 victory over UC Irvine.

Marcus Hall contributed 14 points and five assists. Colorado (6-1) has won all seven meetings between the two teams. "It was a great win, especially under these circumstances," said CU head coach Ricardo Patton. "I know the guys have been pressed this week with exams and we haven't even practiced in our own gym. With all the distractions this week I am very proud that we continue to be a good basketball team. Any time you shoot that good there is a good chance of winning."

The win spoiled the homecoming of Denver native Ross Schraeder, who had 26 points to lead UC Irvine (4-4). The Anteaters, who had an impressive road win at Stanford, hadn't played since Dec. 3. The rustiness showed.

Colorado withstood several Anteater runs in the second half, the first when Nic Campbell scored seven straight points to reduce the lead to 56-51. Dominique Coleman's jumper capped a 6-0 run for the Buffaloes to help them pull away.

A conventional three-point play by Darren Fells made it a five-point game again, only to see Freeman respond with a 3-pointer. A layup from Coleman helped Colorado put its lead back to 69-59.

UC Irvine made its final run at Colorado when baskets by Mark Kelley and Campbell (18 points) got them within 77-71 with 6:25 left. Roby nailed a 3-pointer and Freeman converted two free throws, and the Buffaloes' lead was never under nine points over the final 5:36.

The Buffaloes were 20-of-24 from the free throw line, also made 10 3-pointers for the game and placed six players with 10 or more points. The CU bench recorded their most points of the season pouring in a season-best 34 points.

Game 8
Colorado 77
at TCU 59
Dec. 20, 2005 Daniel-Meyer Coliseum

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Richard Roby scored 15 of his 17 points in the first half to lead four Buffaloes in double figures as Colorado posted a 77-59 victory over TCU at the Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

The Horned Frogs saw their two-game winning streak snapped as they fell for the first time since Dec. 7 versus Tulane.

Colorado improved to 7-1, equaling its best start since the 1989-90 campaign.

TCU senior forward Chudi Chinweze made his season debut and totaled six points and six rebounds in 18 minutes. Chinweze had been sidelined since Dec. 9, 2004 with a knee injury.

Led by Chinweze, the Frogs' bench outscored the Colorado reserves 26-10. Ten of the 11 Frogs who saw action broke into the scoring column.

The Buffaloes scored the game's opening six points, all from Roby, in taking a 9-2 lead to start the contest. Roby scored 11 of Colorado's opening 14 points.

The Buffaloes took their largest lead of the first half at 30-20 on a jumper by Jayson Obazuaye (13 points) with 3:23 to play. Colorado led 36-27 at the intermission.

The Buffaloes then opened the second half with an 11-2 spurt to extend their advantage to 47-29 on a Marcus Hall (17 points) layup. Chris Copeland added 14 points, all in the second half for CU.

Colorado shot 49.1 percent for the game, including 51.5 in the second half, while limiting TCU to a 30.5 mark.

The Frogs (3-7) had a 15-11 edge in offensive rebounding. Colorado held a 43-36 overall advantage on the boards. Judson Stubbs topped TCU with seven rebounds.

Game 9
Colorado 117
Mercer 74
Dec. 22, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER (AP) - Jayson Obazuaye scored a career-high 19 points and Kyle Carder added 13 points as Colorado won its seventh straight by routing Mercer 117-74.

Sixteen players scored points for Colorado (8-1) which substituted freely and posted its first seven-game winning streak since the 1996-97 season. The Buffaloes shot a season-high 63 percent from the field as they extended their non-conference unbeaten streak to 15 games.

CU continued its hot 3-point shooting, connecting on 12-for-19 on 3-pointers, to boost its four game total to 41.

Andrew Brown led undermanned Mercer (1-5) with 14 points. Brian Pfohl and Will Emerson had 12 points each for the Bears, who suffered their fourth straight loss and their worst of the year. They were beaten by 36 points in their last game on Dec. 18 at Oklahoma State.

Colorado had 65 points by halftime, the most the Buffaloes had scored in a half since Dec. 7, 1990 when they recorded 75 points in the second half of a game against Central Connecticut.

Andy Osborn and Richard Roby hit 3-pointers in the first two minutes to get Colorado off to an early 24-6 lead. Emerson's layup and free throw with 12:18 left got Mercer as close as 26-11 in the first half.

The Bears didn't score again until Pfohl's layup with 9:15 remaining in the half. By then the Buffaloes lead was 37-13 and their starters had retired to the bench. Reserve Scott Senger accounted for six points the rest of the way as Colorado extended its lead to 65-29 by halftime. Things didn't get any better for Mercer in the second half. Turnovers then dunks by Obazuaye and Marcus Hall made it 73-33.

Colorado's reserves took over for good with 10:44 remaining after Glean Eddy's 3-pointer gave Colorado a 52-point bulge, 98-46.

Game 10
Colorado 85
Dartmouth 64
Dec. 31, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER (AP) - Martane Freeman matched a career-best 17 points with a career-high nine rebounds as Colorado extended its winning streak to eight with an 83-65 victory over struggling Dartmouth.

Richard Roby added 13 points for Colorado (9-1), off to its best start since 1978-79 when it began 10-1. The eight-game winning streak is the school's longest since 1961-62 when the Buffaloes won 12 in a row.

Calvin Arnold and DeVon Mosley had 11 points each for Dartmouth (1-9), losers of eight in a row. The Big Green are off to their worst start since the 1993-94 team opened the year 1-12.

Colorado saw its 17-point halftime lead reduced to 11 after Leon Pattman's four-point play and a rebound basket nine minutes into the second half. Michael Giovacchini got Dartmouth even closer, 56-43, with 10:24 left, but Roby came right back with a 3-pointer for Colorado to start a 10-2 run and made it a 66-48 game.

Mike Lang's 3-pointer got the Big Green as close 70-57 with 6:20 remaining. Jumpers by Freeman and Marcus Hall got the lead to 81-57 with four minutes left.

Dartmouth stayed close for nearly 15 minutes of the first half as Mosley and Arnold contributed nine points each. Arnold's 3-pointer with 5:13 left made it 27-20 and the Big Green could have been closer had Jason Meyer and Chuck Flynn finished uncontested layups.

Colorado which had trouble at the free throw line, 4-for-11, did finish the half well. Freeman had seven points including a 3-pointer over the last five minutes of the half and the Buffaloes outscored Dartmouth 14-4 over that stretch to lead 41-24 at halftime.

Game 11
Colorado 116
Savannah State 52
Jan. 3, 2006 Coors Events Center

BOULDER (AP) - Seldom used Glenn Eddy scored 17 points and seven players reached double figures as Colorado won its ninth straight by defeating undermanned Savannah State 116-52 Tuesday night.

Julius Ashby added 16 points for Colorado (10-1), off to its best start since 1941-42 when it began 14-0. The Buffaloes posted the most lopsided victory in school history and their longest winning streak since 1961-62 when they won 12 in a row.

Jayson Randolph led Savannah State (1-15) with 27 points. Michael Bennett had 10 points for the Tigers, losers of 30 of 31 games over two seasons.

Savannah State turned the ball over on its first three possessions, didn't attempt a shot until a minute and 20 seconds into the game and didn't connect on a shot until Antoine Bronner's rebound basket 20 seconds later. By then, Jayson Obazuaye had six of his 15 points and Colorado led 12-2.

The Tigers got consecutive baskets only once in the first half, both by Chris Linton to make it 22-6. Andy Osborn had nine points on three, 3-pointers and Colorado outscored the Tigers 45-10 over the remaining 14:26 of the half to take a 67-16 lead into intermission.

It didn't get any better in the second half. The Buffaloes lead reached 79-16 on a 3-pointer and layup by Obazuaye. Eddy's jumper and a 3-pointer by Dominique Coleman increased Colorado's lead to 99-28 with 9:35 remaining.

Game 12
Colorado 64
at Texas 89
Jan. 3, 2006 Erwin Center

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - P.J. Tucker scored 24 points and tied his career high with 15 rebounds as No. 15 Texas opened Big 12 play Saturday with an 89-64 win over Colorado.

Texas (12-2) has won four in a row since consecutive blowout losses to Duke and Tennessee last month and appears to be hitting its stride as it enters conference play.

Senior guard Kenton Paulino finished with a career-high 18 points and LaMarcus Aldridge added 19 points and nine boards for the Longhorns, who are 8-0 in league openers under coach Rick Barnes. Tucker has four double-doubles in the last five games.

Martane Freeman scored 20 to lead Colorado (10-2, 0-1) which had its nine-game winning streak snapped.

Colorado beat Texas twice last season when Tucker and Aldridge were out with academic problems and injuries, and knocked the Longhorns out of the Big 12 tournament. It was a much different game with those two back in the lineup.

Aldridge scored Texas' first six points on turnaround jumpers, Tucker had 10 points by halftime and the Longhorns bolted to a 43-24 halftime lead. Abrams hit two 3-pointers from the right corner and Paulino's second of the half made it 39-19.

Aldridge opened the second half with dunk off a sharp pass underneath from Brad Buckman, then converted a three-point play that made it 50-27. Daniel Gibson then hit consecutive 3-pointers.

The Buffaloes struggled against Texas' early mix of zone and man defenses. After scoring more than 100 points in two of its last three, Colorado shot just 28 percent in the first half and 31 percent for the game.

Game 13Kansas 75
Colorado 63Jan. 11, 2006 Coors Events Center

BOULDER (AP) - Freshmen Mario Chalmers and Brandon Rush took over the game in the second half to help young and supposedly struggling Kansas to its seventh straight victory, 75-63 over Colorado.

Chalmers, a star in last year's McDonald's All-American game, had two assists and a 3-pointer during a 13-5 run that gave Kansas breathing room in what had been a close game.

One of the assists was an underhanded alley-oop to sophomore C.J. Giles, who slammed it home. The other was a nifty, no-look pass to Rush on a 3-on-2 break.

Senior Christian Moody, the only upperclassman in coach Bill Self's starting lineup, led the Jayhawks (10-4, 1-0 Big 12) with 18 points. Rush scored all 17 of his points in the second half and Chalmers finished with 11 points and six assists as the Jayhawks won their conference opener for the 15th straight year.

Playing in front of a packed house that was, as always in this matchup, about half filled with Jayhawks fans, Kansas won for the 33rd time in the last 34 meetings against Colorado (10-3, 0-2). Buffs coach Ricardo Patton fell to 1-22 against Kansas.

Chris Copeland led Colorado with 22 points and Richard Roby had 15. The most telling stat, though - Kansas outrebounded Colorado 50-28 and no Buff player had more than five boards.

Trailing by 13, the Buffs made a brief rally when Martane Freeman followed a 3-pointer with a steal and layup for a three-point play. That cut the Kansas lead to 64-57, but the Jayhawks scored two straight buckets to ice the game.

Game 14Colorado 74
at Missouri 71Jan. 14, 2006 Mizzou Arena

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - Richard Roby scored a career-best 33 points and Chris Copeland hit the last of Colorado's season-best 13 3-pointers with two-tenths of a second to go, giving the Buffaloes a 74-71 victory at Missouri.

Copeland had 15 points for Colorado (11-3, 1-2 Big 12), which ended an eight-game losing streak at Missouri (9-5, 2-1). The Buffaloes, who were 13-for-29 from 3-point range, had lost 33 of their previous 34 at Missouri and this time ended the Tigers' eight-game overall home winning streak.

Thomas Gardner had 22 points for Missouri, and Jimmy McKinney also had 22. But a traveling call with 8.2 seconds left on Gardner after he took an inbound pass and then slipped gave CU the opening it needed.

Copeland got a nice look on the baseline in front of the Colorado bench before draining his third 3-pointer of the game on the winner.

Roby scored 21 of his points in the second half and was 6-for-11 from 3-point range to top his previous career best of 30 points. Roby had averaged 11 points in his previous five games, but he and the rest of the Colorado offense thrived against Missouri's zone most of the game. Roby, who was 11-for-24 overall, entered with a 15.7-point average.

Colorado leads the conference in 3-pointers, averaging eight per game. Copeland was 3-for-6 and Dominique Coleman and Andy Osborn each had a pair of 3-pointers.

Marshall Brown added 10 points for Missouri, which lost despite shooting 50 percent. The Tigers led by five with about 5 1-2 minutes to go before fading, failing to follow up on a 2-point victory at No. 22 Oklahoma on Tuesday.

Game 15Colorado 81
Baylor 48Jan. 18, 2006 Coors Events Center

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - Ricardo Patton couldn't tell if Baylor's lack of a non-conference schedule was the difference in a lopsided win, but he saw improvement in his top two scorers, Richard Roby and Chris Copeland.

Richard Roby scored 21 points and Copeland added 17 on four 3-pointers as Colorado dealt Baylor its 17th consecutive loss by winning 81-48 Wednesday night.

The Bears have played only three games this season after NCAA violations forced the elimination of their non-conference schedule.

"I can't tell you if they showed signs of rustiness," Patton said. "I do know that without a non-conference schedule of games, it has to have some effect."

Andy Osborn also had 12 points for CU (12-3, 2-2 Big 12 Conference). The Buffaloes have beaten Baylor six straight times at home, last losing to the Bears here on Dec. 15, 1951.

"The one thing I've learned is you have to play hard no matter who you are playing," Roby said. "It doesn't matter what the color of the other uniform is."

Roby did most of his damage from the perimeter, with 8-for-17 shooting, two 3-pointers to go with seven rebounds. Although Copeland had four, 3-pointers, the remainder of his contribution came inside the paint.

Henry Dugat led Baylor (0-3, 0-3) with 10 points. The team's leading scorer, Aaron Bruce had nine points and didn't score until hitting a 3-pointer a little over a minute into the second half.

Baylor never appeared to be in sync in shooting 25 percent for the game and finishing 10-for-19 at the free throw line. They led only briefly and that was early on in the game.

Colorado led 36-18 at halftime after starting slowly, missing 5-of-6 six shots to start the game.

Roby had seven of Colorado's 23 points over the final 10:12 of the half while Baylor managed only two field goals and a pair of free throws over that span.

2005-06 NOTES: Averaging 8.2 minutes a game with 3.0 points and 2.3 rebounds ... Best game this season came in a reserve role with a career-best 17 points and nine rebounds against Savannah State (Jan. 3), also netted a best three 3-pointers in 21 minutes ... Other highlights was a team-best seven rebounds at TCU (Dec. 20) ... Season-high 18 minutes off the bench four points, two assists, one steal against the Horned Frogs ... Has participated in every game during his career (105) and ranks first for consecutive games played without fouling out (second overall for most games played, Blair Wilson is first with 119 games) with 1,547 consecutive minutes ... Has over 300 career rebounds (371) and ranks 42nd in team history ... One of two players returning (Copeland) with over 300 career rebounds.

2005-06 PRESEASON NOTES: One of 10 seniors on this year's team ... One of four seniors who has played the previous three seasons in a Buffs uniform ... Has finished with four fouls, three times ... Has recorded 11 games in double-digits and three games with 10 or more rebounds in a game ... Eleven career starts averaging 7.5 points and 6.3 rebounds ... A consistent free throw shooter over his career (.716).

Coach Patton says, "We're looking for a lot of leadership from Glean. He has shown the ability to be a solid rebounder; and we're looking for him to become more of a consistent rebounder and making open shots."

2004-05: Tied for 15th in the Big 12 Conference only games in offensive rounding (2.19) ... Season-best and career-high 13 points and 33 minutes played at Missouri (Feb. 22) ... Also grabbed 10 rebounds against the Tigers ... In addition to his double-double at Mizzou recorded his first career double with 12-point, 11-rebound effort in overtime win at Iowa State (Jan. 22) ... The win over the Cyclones helped CU win in Ames for the first time since Feb. 19, 1991 ... Scored a team-high 12 points and tied a career-best five field goals at Iowa State.

#23 Richard Roby

6-6 • 195 • Sophomore • Guard

San Bernardino, Calif./Lawrence Acad. [Groton, Mass.]

Open option major in CU's College of Arts & Sciences

2005-06 NOTES: Picking up where he left from a year ago ... CU leader in a number of categories ... Led CU in scoring eight times and three times on the boards ... Netted four 20+ point games (12 career) ... Career-best 33 points at Mizzou (Jan. 14) ... Has led CU in scoring 24 of 45 career games ... Leads CU in scoring (17.2), steals (2.0), field goals made (89), free throw shooting (.733, 44-of-60), minutes played (27.5). He is also second in rebounding (5.0) ... Recorded first double-double of the season (third career) with 19 points, 10 rebounds versus Utah (Dec. 7) ... Has netted 10 or more points in 12 of 15 games (exception played only 11 minutes in CU's dismantling of Mercer, 117-74; AND only 15 minutes in romp of Savannah State, 116-52) ... Double-digits in 40 of 45 career games ... Named CU Athlete of the Week four consecutive weeks (Nov. 21-28, Nov. 29-Dec. 4, Dec. 5-12, Dec. 11-Jan. 14).

2005-06 PRESEASON: Returns as the team leader in points per game (16.0), points scored (480), field goals made (169) and attempts (380), games played/starts (30/30), and steals (48) ... Excellent range from anywhere on the floor; drives and defends well; very quick ... One of the up and coming Big 12 players ... One of CU's two sophomores. Coach Patton says, "Richard had a nice freshman season; his development will depend on his ability to stay focused, continue to work on getting better, and not to become complacent."

2004-05: Named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team ... All-Big 12 honorable mention ... Big 12 (all games) stats: seventh in 3-point field goal made (2.23), seventh in 3-point field goal percentage (.374), ninth in steals (1.60), 10th in scoring (16.0), 11th in field goal percentage (.445), 14th in free throw percentage (.728); Big 12 Conference only games: second in 3-point field goals made (2.81), fifth in 3-point field goal percentage (.391), ninth in scoring (16.6), 12th in field goal percentage (.425), 11th in steals (1.38) ... Scored the most points by a CU freshman (480) ... One of five players in the conference to make seven 3-pointers in a game and only player to make seven treys, twice ... One of four players at CU to make seven treys in a game, twice ... Two double-doubles: 17 points, 10 rebounds in Big 12 Tournament upset win over Texas (Mar. 10) and 16 points, 13 rebounds in home win over Northwestern (Nov. 28) ... Led CU in scoring 16 of 30 games; eight times on the boards (one shared) ... Team leader in points (16.0), 3-pointers made (67), steals (1.6 spg.), minutes played (30.8), field goals made (169), shot attempts (380); third in team in rebounding (4.8) ... Scored in double-digits 27 of 30 games ... Second best CU freshman all-time in points average with 16.0 ppg., second only behind former great Chauncey Billups (17.9 ppg.) in 1995-96.

#33 Julius Ashby

6-9 • 235 • Senior • Forward/Center

Trinidad & Tobago/Bates Memorial HS/

Marshalltown CC [Iowa]

Major is international affairs

2005-06 NOTES: Played a season-best 26 minutes in the against Savannah State on Jan. 3 scoring 16 points with nine rebounds ... Averaging 4.1 points, 5.4 rebounds Played only 13 minutes in conference opener at Texas, fouled out with 16 minutes left in the second half ... Has made 9-of-12 (.750) from the free throw line ...

Saw 11 minutes against Mercer (Dec. 22) in his first action of the season scoring six points with five rebounds ... His offense is coming along slowly, as he only has one point in four conference games; but his defense is up to speed, highlighted by his 10 rebounds and two blocked shots against Baylor ... Runs the floor well; crashes the boards and finishes around the glass; excellent shot-blocker.

2005-06 PRESEASON NOTES: Coming off two impressive showings at the Big 12 Tournament in 2004-05 ... Averaged 16.5 points, seven rebounds, 13-of-20 from the field (.650), including a tournament record from the field 9-of-10 shooting against the Cowboys.

2004-05: Played 22 games with 19 starts ... Averaged 7.5 points and 6.0 rebound a game ... Missed seven games with a torn tendon (Dec. 23-Jan. 15) ... Led CU in rebounding seven times, including a conference-best 13 in overtime victory at Iowa State (Jan. 22) helping the Buffs win at Ames for the first time since 1991 (13 games) ... Grabbed a team-best 17 rebounds in victory at California (Dec. 7) along with 11 points for his collegiate double-double at CU ... Tied the school road record with six blocked shots at Michigan (Nov. 17) ... Six games with at least three blocked shots ... Owned two of CU's top blocked shot games (at Michigan, 6; and at Iowa State, 4) ... Led team in rebounding seven times (twice shared) ... Scored in double-digits seven times ... Made at least five field goals in a game, four times ... Team leader in offensive rebounding (57) and second in blocked shots (33) despite missing eight games.

PERSONAL: Born Julius Euler Ashby on Sept. 16, 1982 in Trinidad and Tobago ... Son of Euclid Ashby and Bernadette Guiseppe of Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago.
