CU vs. KANSAS STATE: The Wildcats performed a rare feat last year winning (84-82) in Boulder for the first time since the 2000-01 season. Overall, Coach Patton teams are 7-2 against K-State in Boulder. Each team won on the road last year. Ironically, CU's Richard Roby netted his first collegiate 30-point game (personal-best seven 3-pointers) at home against the Wildcats.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS: K-State brings a three-game winning streak into tonight's game and sits in third place in the Big 12 standings with a 3-2 record. Junior forward Cartier Martin ranks first in free throw percentage (8.44) and second in scoring (19.1) all games played in the conference. Down low, senior forward Dramane Diarra is first in conference blocks (1.8). Head Coach Jim Wooldridge is in his sixth year at K-State with an 80-81 mark. He is 4-7 against the Buffaloes (2-3 in Boulder).

SCHOOL HOUSE ROCK...3 is a magic number...3,6,9,12,15: CU performed their favorite number once again with 10 more 3-pointers made in a game for the fourth straight time, a school record. CU is rolling along from the 3-point arc toward last year's school record of 223. Entering tonight, CU is 152-of-396; last year at this time they were 101-of-306!

BUFF TIDBITS: Richard Roby has led CU in scoring four straight games (27.8 ppg.) and now stands 42nd in CU scoring with 795 points. Chris Copeland has reached the CU's all-time top-10 in blocked shots (76)...The Sporting News has chosen Roby as their national player of the week for Jan. 16-22...Roby is second in Big-12 only scoring (23.3) .. Andy Osborn has made at least one 3-pointer in 14-straight games (2.2 a game)...Despite not starting the last four games, Marcus Hall leads the team in assists (4.0 apg.) AND the Big 12 in assist-turnover ratio in all games (2.52)...Roby and Copeland are the only two who have started all 17 games...Julius Ashby is averaging 7.5 ppg. and 6.0 rpg. in his last two...Dominique Coleman equaled a season-best seven assists vs. Nebraska (the other, Baylor). Coleman is sixth in assist-turnover ratio (2.22) Big 12-only games and is 14th in assists (3.33) ... For the first time during his four-year career (107 games), Glean Eddy did not play (against Nebraska)...TEAM: CU is first in conference (all games) scoring offense (82.8), blocks (6.24), assist-turnover ratio (1.27), and 3-point FGs made (8.94). BIG 12-only stats: first in 3-pt. percentage defense (.297), blocks (7.2), offensive rebounding (17.0), 3-pters made (61)...The Buffs last won five consecutive conference games during the 1996-97; the last time they won four-straight other than this year, was 2003-04.

IS THERE A TREND HERE? The last two times against Kansas State has played in Boulder the three-ball flies for one CU player. Last year, Richard Roby notched a career-best seven 3-pointers; the year before, Blair Wilson shot a career-best seven in an 82-81 overtime win (see 3-pt. record page 197 what Wilson actually did). With the way CU shoots the trey, who will turn the next seven tonight vs. KSU?

COURTESY OF PLATI'TUDES: Colorado has opened Big 12 men's play with four wins in its first six games. How many times have the Buffs won at least four of its first six league games since opening 5-1 in the 1973 Big Eight campaign? ANSWER: It would be the second time, all under Ricardo Patton's watch. The Buffs 6-0 in 1997 (finishing second with an 11-5 mark behind Chauncey Billups).

LAST GAME RECAP vs. Nebraska: Richard Roby, winner of consecutive Big 12 Player of the Week awards, continued his hot streak scoring 30 points in CU's 81-59 rout of Nebraska. CU missed its first nine shots, led by eight at the half and used a 13-0 run sparked by two 3-pointers from Roby to turn a five-point lead into a 44-26 advantage with 11:46 left. Martane Freeman scored seven points during a 13-4 Colorado run that included no points from Roby and pushed Colorado's lead to 62-40 before Nebraska made one final push, cutting the Buffs' lead to 69-59 with two minutes left.

The deficit was too great because of Roby, a sophomore guard who is in the midst of the best four-game stretch of his career. He's averaged 28 points in those games. Tonight is the second time this season that he has score 30 points in a game (third career). Dominique Coleman added 11 points for Colorado.

GAME RECAP vs. OSU: (see pg. 18 for box and story): Richard Roby scored 27 points, including the decisive basket in overtime, as Colorado beat Oklahoma State 80-78, last Saturday. It was the Buffaloes' second Big 12 Conference road win of the season. CU hadn't won at Gallagher-Iba Arena since Jan. 12, 1980, a stretch of 20 games. The Buffs also hadn't won at Missouri since the 1996-97 season before they did so on Jan. 14. Roby left the game Saturday with an injured ankle with 6:33 left in regulation, but the sophomore guard returned three minutes later and played most of the rest of the way. With the score tied 78-78, Roby scored on a put-back with 45.3 seconds left, following a miss by Marcus Hall.

ROBY CLIMBING: Sophomore Richard Roby is making his way toward the top of the Big 12 scoring list in conference games. Through five games, Roby is second in the conference, averaging 23.3 ppg in Big 12 play, just behind Missouri's Thomas Gardner (23.7 ppg).

COLEMAN KEEPS SHINING: Lost in the limelight of Roby's 30-point effort against Nebraska was junior Dominique Coleman's stellar performance. In only 25 minutes, Coleman posted 11 points, six rebounds and seven assists. If you adjust his numbers into a full 40 minutes, his line looks quite impressive: 17.6 points, 9.6 rebounds and 11.2 assists. Not go get ahead of ourselves, but in case you are wondering, only three Buffs have ever finished a game with a triple-double. Chauncey Billups had 24 points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists against George Mason in just his fourth career game. David Harrison recorded 20 points, 10 assists and 11 blocks versus Nebraska and registered 31 points, 17 rebounds and 10 blocks against Stetson. Only four players in the history of the Big 12 have ever recorded a triple-double in a conference game: Kasib Powell (Texas Tech, 1997); David Harrison (Colorado, 2003); Jamaal Tinsley (Iowa State, 2000).

REBOUNDING BY COMMITTEE: Six Buffs are averaging at least four rebounds per game in conference play: Roby (5.5), Julius Ashby (5.2), Calvin Williams (4.5), Chris Copeland (4.0), Andy Osborn (4.0) and Martane Freeman (4.0). Although Williams has only played in two conference games (Texas, and one minute vs. Kansas), Marcus King-Stockton is on the cusp of the mark, averaging 3.8 rebounds per game in conference play.

FREE THROW WOES: CU ranks last in the Big 12 in free throw percentage in conference play (.579). No CU player is ranked among the top 15 individuals in the conference. The Buffs are led by Copeland (5-6 .833) and Marcus Hall (5-6 .833). Of the six Buffs who have attempted at least 10 free throws in Big 12 play, only Roby (17-28 .607) and Ashby (6-10 .600) crack the 60 percent barrier.

LONG DISTANCE RELATIONS: The Buffs are second in the conference in three-point field

ROBY AND BILLUPS: For those wondering where Richard Roby and former CU great Chauncey stack up against one another statiscially after 47 games.

As a guage, a 16.04 PER for Roby would likely rank him among the top 50 in the NBA goal percentage (.389), but rank only 10th in overall field goal percentage. Amazingly, factoring out their three-point makes and attempts, the Buffs would not move up in the conference field goal percentage standings based only their two-point field goals (.424).

Billups' 2004-05 PER with the detroit Pistons was 17.66

RAINING THREE'S: After topping the 40 percent mark for three-pointers only once in non-conference play (.533 at Penn), the Buffs have shot over the mark in four of their six conference games. After making just 6-of-25 treys against Texas, the Buffs have connected on 55-of-132 shots behind the arc in their last five games for a combined .417 percentage...CU has reached double-digit totals in three-point field goals made in their last four games, a CU first since the introduction of the three-point line in the 1986-87 season.

ROBY—RHYMES WITH KOBE: Co-Big 12 Player-of-the-Week Richard Roby is coming off the best three-game stretch of his career. His 81 points (27.0 ppg) over the last three games is easily his best scoring output of his career over a three-game span. Just for kicks, here's how Roby's numbers over the last three games stack up against Kobe Bryant's historic 81-point effort against the Toronto Raptors on Sunday.

|------|-----|-------|-------|-----|----|---|---|---|
| Kobe | 42  | 28-46 | 7-13  | 81  | 6  | 2 | 3 | 1 |
| Roby | 99  | 31-62 | 11-23 | 81  | 17 | 6 | 8 | 5 |

HALL BALL: Junior Marcus Hall had perhaps his best game of the season against Oklahoma State. His 16 points marked his second-highest total of the season (17 at TCU). He dished out six assists for the fourth time this season and moved into 14th place on CU's all-time assist list. After shooting a relatively low .360 from the three-point line, Hall busted out with four treys in just five attempts against the Cowboys.

THE STEAL CURTAIN: With 10 steals against the Cornhuskers, CU's season total stands at 170. The single-season record is 285 by the 1994-95 Buffs, led by Keith Higgins (72) and Donnie Boyce (66). This season, the Buffs are on pace for 280, led by Roby (39) who has registered at least one steal in every game this season, capped by his six-steal performance against Oklahoma State. If he continues his 2.5 steals-per-game average, he will finish the season tied for seventh in single-season steals (66) and tied for fifth in steals per game.

REAPER BY THE DOZEN: Unlike in football, where teams who win the turnover battle usually come out on top, the Buffs have found that on the court, the pigskin theory does not necessarily hold true. CU has committed exactly 12 turnovers in every conference game this season. During the five-game stretch, only Baylor has committed fewer turnovers than the Buffs—yes, the same game where CU beat the Bears 81-48 for their largest margin of victory in Big 12 history. The Buffs are actually taking care of the ball more in conference play, as they are committing three less turnovers a game than in non-conference play.

“LS” INITIALS: If you notice the “LS” initials on each of the CU player uniforms that’s in memory of senior walk-on Scott Senger’s mother, Linda died of cancer this past July. Scott played at nearby Monarch High School where set the school record for 3-pointers made in a season and most points scored.

MAKING A RUN at TREY HISTORY: Most likely the CU men’s team will break the school record in treys made in a season. What about the Big 12 Conference record? Here’s a look at each year to see how far the Buffs need to go (i know it’s a little early to speculate):

|          |          |                     |
|----------|----------|---------------------|
| 2005-06: | Colorado | 152 (1st in Big 12) |
| 2004-05: | Texas    | 243                 |
| 2003-04: | Texas    | 227                 |
| 2002-03: | Baylor   | 254                 |
| 2001-02: | Nebraska | 267                 |
| 2000-01: | Missouri | 279                 |
| 1999-00: | Missouri | 291                 |
| 1998-99: | Oklahoma | 274                 |
| 1997-98: | Baylor   | 217                 |
| 1996-97: | Baylor   | 227                 |

TOP 25 RANKINGS...almost: As another week goes by and the wins increase, CU is still getting votes. In this week’s AP poll, CU is receiving 38 votes and in the ESPN/USA Today, the Buffs have 21 votes, one less vote than a week ago. The last time the Buffs were ranked in either poll came in 1997 at No. 24 (Associated Press). The others were 1969 (#18), 1963 (#10), 1962 (#9) and 1955 (#15).

AP VOTES: If you would have told me two months ago that CU would have more votes in the AP poll than Kansas, Kentucky, Arizona, Cincinnati and Nevada COMBINED, I would have said you are nuts... Others Receiving Votes: North Carolina 122, LSU 109, Northern Iowa 90, Xavier 90, Iowa 71, UAB 47, Michigan 45, Colorado 38, Bucknell 32, Creighton 16, Wichita St. 14, Southern Ill. 9, Vanderbilt 9, St. John’s 7, Air Force 4, Marquette 4, Akron 3, Arizona 3, Kentucky 3, Ohio 3, Cincinnati 1, Hofstra 1, Miami (FL) 1, Nevada 1, San Diego St. 1.

DOUBLE YOUR PLEASURE: Marcus King-Stockton (career-best 11) and Julius Ashby (season-high 10) performed a CU first this season and the first since last year at Iowa State (Jan. 22), two players with 10 or more rebounds. Against the Cyclones, Ashby grabbed 13 and Glean Eddy had 11 in CU’s 54-52 overtime win in Ames. A CU win in Ames since Feb. 19, 1991.

TURNOVER BATTLE: The Buffs have committed fewer turnovers than their opponent in five of six conference games this season, the exception was CU-12, Baylor-11. In 16 conference games last season—not including the tournament—the Buffs had fewer turnovers exactly half of the time. Surprisingly, CU was only 2-6 when turning the ball over less than the opponent.

MORE BUFF TIDBITS: Richard Roby has scored double figures in 20 of his 22 career conference games (the other two were nine points) ... Roby holds the top four of CU’s top scoring games this season (33, 30, 29, 27, 22) ... CU has played with a different starting line up four times (see page 8) ... Glean Eddy has 366 career rebounds, 42nd all-time at CU, while Chris Copeland has 354 (45th) ... Roby has led CU from the 3-point arc nine times this season ... The Buffaloes have made 10 or more treys in eight games this season, including the last four games in a row ... CU’s nine-game winning streak Nov. 26-Jan. 3) was the longest in school history since the 1961-62 season when the Buffaloes won 12-straight ... CU has made a 3-pointer in 123-straight games (last time CU they didn’t was Jan. 16, 2002, Iowa State, W, 63-61) ... CU won at Missouri for the first time since 1996-97 season and only the second time in Columbia since Jan. 15, 1973 (32 games)...CU’s win at Mizzou was the first time in four conference games they won after trailing at the half, CU also won the battle on the boards for the first time in three games...The Buffs are shooting a staggering .579 from the free throw line (last in the Big 12) ... Of the nine national categories kept by the NCAA located on page 6, Roby leads CU in seven of them. The only exceptions are blocked shots (Copeland) and assists (Hall) ... Against OSU, Roby tied a CU record with six steals in a half (1st); his six steals also tied a CU conference high, a first for a CU player in the Big 12; And his six steals, tied five others as a sophomore best ... Roby collected his third career double-double versus Utah (19 pts., 10 rebs.) ... Andy Osborn recorded his second career double-double at CU, 17 pts., 10 rebounds against Cal Poly (four at Loyola Marymount) ... Roby failed to make a 3-pointer against SSU, ending his streak of 30 games going back to last season ... On page 10, a handful of CU players are moving upward on career school lists ... Seniors Chris Copeland, Glean Eddy, Antoine McGee, and Jayson Obazuaye close out their final year in 2005-06. It’s also the first senior class under Head Coach Ricardo Patton that four players will have played their freshman, sophomore, junior and senior years at CU.

BUFFS PICKED 9TH: The Big 12 coaches are predicting the Buffs will be a ninth place team in 2005-06. Last season the conference coaches predicted a 10th place finish and were almost correct as CU finished 11th. In its conference history, CU has finished in second place (once), fourth (one), fifth (once), seventh (once), ninth (three times) and 10th (once). Below is the history of the Big 12 coaches’ predictions and the Buffs actual finish:

1996-97: No Poll done

(CU finished 2nd)

1997-98: 9th (CU finished 9th)

1998-99: 10th (CU finished 8th)

1999-00: 8th (CU finished 7th)

Patton enters his 10th season with the Buffaloes and ranks second all-time on the school's all-time victories list with 171. He is joined this year by third-year assistant coach Paul Graham (North Texas State '74) and first-year coaches, John Anderson (Stillman College '80) and Mike Frink (Colorado '67) ... Frink, who played basketball at CU from 1963-65, is the only former player to be named as an assistant coach in the school's 104-year history ... Director of Basketball Operations Will Smith is in his second year with the Buffs, was Patton's first-ever recruit (1996-2000) ... Smith and former CU Buffs player Bob Bauers (1965-67) are tied at No. 53 on the school's all-time scoring list with 721 points. What makes this ironic, Bauers was Smith's scholarship donor when Smith played.

Game 1

UNC Wilmington 54
Nov. 18, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - Chris Copeland's 20 points led Colorado past UNC Wilmington 73-54 Friday night, the Seahawks' first loss after three impressive wins in the Black Coaches Association Tournament.

Bufs coach Ricardo Patton, who has a .547 winning percentage and a .439 Big 12 mark in his decade in Boulder, improved to 10-0 in season openers.

Richard Roby, who led the Buffs with a 16-point average as a freshman last season, added 14 points, Jayson Obazuaye had 12 and Andy Osborn finished with 10. T.J. Carter's 12 points led the Seahawks (3-1).

With 6-9 post player Julius Ashby academically ineligible until the second semester, the Buffs turned to forwards Copeland, a junior, and Osborn, one of Colorado's nation-high 10 seniors on the roster, to control the paint and keep Wilmington from going 4-0 on its trip through the Rockies.

Copeland scored 10 first-half points - he had the only successful 3-pointer in nine tries by Colorado - and Osborn, who finished with eight boards, had eight points by halftime as the Buffs inched ahead 29-23.

The Seahawks, of the Colonial Athletic Association, have averaged better than 19 wins each of their three seasons under coach Brad Brownell. They were fresh off capturing the championship of the Black Coaches Association Tournament in Laramie, Wyo., with wins over Butler, Wyoming and North-western.

But instead of being in rhythm, they were tired. Both teams started out slowly with Wilmington shooting 39 percent (10-of-26) in the first half and Colorado 38 percent (11-of-29).

The Seahawks were within six at 38-32 when the Buffaloes, led by Copeland's five points, used an 18-2 run to take control. Antoine McGee's three-point play with 11:12 remaining made it 56-34.

Back-to-back baskets by Roby and Copeland's three-point play made it 68-44 with 3:46 left.

Game 2

Colorado 82
at Colorado State 83
Nov. 21, 2005 Moby Arena

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) - Sophomore Sean Morris scored a career-best 34 points and his older brother, senior Michael Morris, sank two critical free throws with 10 seconds left as Colorado State beat Colorado, 83-82 Monday night. After the elder Morris' free throws made it 83-80, Chris Copeland inexplicably dished it inside to Martane Freeman, whose dunk made it 83-82.

Michael Harrison tipped Marcus Hall's inbounds pass to Smith, who dribbled out the clock, securing the Rams' 25th straight home opening victory and their first win over the Buffs since 1999, setting off a wild celebration at Moby Arena, where the students stormed the court.

Smith added 16 points for the Rams (2-0), who also got 10 points each from Harrison and Lewis. Hall added 12 points, seven assists and tied a career-best four steals.

Freeman's career-high 17 points off the bench and Copeland's 16 points led the Buffs (1-1), who saw a 74-66 lead with 7 1/2 minutes vanish when the Rams turned up their pressure defense.

Sean Morris tied it at 79 with 52 seconds left when he sank his school record-tying ninth 3-pointer.

Hall charged at the other end, then fouled Smith, whose two free throws with 26 seconds left gave the Rams the lead for good at 81-79.

Richard Roby (10 points) was fouled with 11 seconds left but missed one of two foul shots, leaving the Rams ahead by a point. After a timeout, Roby fouled Michael Morris, who calmly sank both free throws for an 83-80 lead.

The Buffs have long played a running style and they appeared set to extend their winning streak over the Rams to six for the first time since 1946-50 when they built an eight-point second half lead.

Andy Osborn (11 points) sank three 3-pointers in helping Colorado built a 43-40 halftime lead but he scored just two points in the second half.

Game 3

Colorado 73
Saint Mary's 54
Nov. 26, 2005 Pepsi Center

DENVER, Colo. (AP) - Richard Roby scored 17 of his 29 points in the first half and Colorado cruised to a 73-54 win over Saint Mary's on Saturday night in the Colorado Classic.

Roby, who averaged 16 points as a freshman, had started the season in somewhat of a slump, averaging just 12 points in the Buffs' 1-1 start that included a last-second loss to archrival Colorado State.

So, Roby stayed in the gym after practice to work on his game and it paid off at the Pepsi Center.

He was 4-of-7 from beyond the arc and also grabbed six rebounds off the defensive glass and stole the ball three times.

Dominique Coleman added 10 points for the Buffs, who improved to 5-1 against the Gaels of the West Coast Conference. Marcus Hall added a season-best eight assists, while freshman Calvin Williams came off the bench to grab seven rebounds.

Daniel Kickert's 22 points led the Gaels (1-1), who had a height advantage but couldn't keep up with the Buffs' faced-paced tempo led by Roby and quickly fell behind.

The Buffaloes (2-1) jumped out to a 40-26 halftime lead thanks to Roby's 17 points, two steals and a blocked shot. He was also 3-for-3 from three-point range.

The Gaels cut the deficit to single digits on Brett Collin's basket that made it 49-40 with 11 minutes left, but the Buffs quickly put to rest any hope of a comeback when Coleman slammed back-to-back baskets.

Colorado rebuilt its cushion to 67-49 on consecutive fastbreak buckets by Marcus King-Stockton with 3 1/2 minutes remaining.

Collins had 16 points and 11 boards for Saint Mary's.

Game 4

Colorado 78
at Penn 60
Nov. 29, 2005 The Palestra

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. - Sophomore guard Richard Roby and senior forward Chris Copeland scored 22 and 20 points, respectively leading the University of Colorado Buffaloes to 78-60 victory over the University of Pennsylvania at The Palestra.

CU/Penn played the first 20 minutes of play all even and went to the intermission with a 37-37 tie. Unfortunately for the Quakers, they went ice cold during the second half, and the Buffaloes took advantage to earn the 18-point win.

After shooting nearly 44 percent from the field during the first stanza, Penn (2-1) went just 9-of-31 (29.0 percent) in the second half including 2-of-15 (13.3 percent) from three-point land. CU on the other hand was 15-of-33 (45.5 percent) and an impressive 8-of-10 (.800) from the free throw line.

CU (3-1) jumped all over Penn to start the game, scoring nine of the game's first 10 points. However, the Quakers responded with an 8-3 run to draw within three, then reeled off 11 unanswered points to lead 20-16.

Roby led a five-point Colorado run that gave the Buffs back the lead, but after the teams traded buckets Penn went on another 11-point streak that pushed its lead to 33-23. Roby was again on display, though, scoring 10 points as CU climbed back to tie the game at the break. At the half Roby had 17 points and had missed just one of his 11 shots from the field (4-of-5 field goals including 3-of-3 three-pointers, 6-of-6 free throws).

The Buffs scored seven of the first 10 points in the second half to take a 44-40 lead, then extended that advantage to 50-42 as the Quakers missed several opportunities. Penn was within nine points with seven minutes left (57-48), but Colorado dropped seven of the next eight points to make its lead 15 (64-49) and Penn never got inside double digits after that.

Senior guard Jayson Obazuaye led the CU dominance on the glass with a game-high and career-high nine rebounds helping CU to a 50-28 advantage. Copeland added seven rebounds along with sophomore Marcus King-Stockton tying a personal-best seven boards.

Dec. 3, 2005 Coors Events Center

BOULDER - The University of Colorado men's basketball team placed all five of its starters in double figures led with 17 points each by Andy Osborn and Richard Roby as the Buffaloes cruised to a 93-75 victory over Cal Poly at the Coors Events Center.

Other starters who reached double figures for the Buffs were Jayson Obazuaye (13 pts.), Chris Copeland (12 pts.) and Marcus Hall, who finished the game with 11 points and five assists.

"It was a good game, a good win," said CU head coach Ricardo Patton. "There was some good, but some bad. But, overall, I thought the guys played fairly well. In fact, we had only five turnovers."

The Buffaloes raced out to a 45-39 advantage at the intermission on 51.5 percent shooting (17-of-33), getting balanced scoring from all five of its starters, including Roby and Osborn with nine points apiece.

In the second half, CU continued to hold its advantage over the Mustangs, extending its lead to 22 points with five minutes remaining as Osborn hit his fourth three-pointer of the game and an 87-65 lead.

Osborn also recorded his second career double-double in a CU uniform, grabbing 10 rebounds to go with his 17 points. Osborn's 10 boards helped CU dominate the Mustangs under the basket with a 46-33 advantage.

BOULDER (AP) - Sophomore guard Richard Roby collected his third career double-double of 19 points and 10 rebounds leading Colorado to a 76-52 home win Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

Chris Copeland added 16 points as Colorado (5-1) extended it winning streak to four. Bryant Markson and Chris Jackson led Utah (4-2) with 13 and 12 points, respectively.

"That was a great win," said Colorado head coach Ricardo Patton. "Utah is a really good basketball team. We had a lot of different lineups and everybody contributed. Like always, we need to take a look at the tape and try to improve."

The Utes had won the last two meetings between the two teams, but struggled with 17 turnovers and were only 2-for-14 in 3-pointers as they scored a season-low 16 points in the first half.

Colorado started the second half making 2-of-7 shots, allowing Utah to cut a 17-point halftime deficit to 38-31 on a 3-pointer and a layup by Johnnie Bryant five minutes into the half.

Martane Freeman hit two straight shots after a driving layup by Marcus Hall to put the Buffaloes back up by 44-31.

Two free throws by Copeland capped a 6-0 run to give Colorado its biggest lead, 56-37, with 8:21 left. Utah got as close as 66-51 in the remaining three minutes on a layup by Ricky Johns.

Colorado started slowly, missing 14-of-15 shots to start the game and trailed 10-3 after a layup by Utah's Luke Nevill. But the Buffaloes began finding their range from beyond the 3-point arc, connecting on seven 3-pointers, three by Roby and outscored Utah, 30-6 over the last 11:57 of the first half to lead 33-16. Colorado was 12-for-37 on 3-pointers.

Copeland and Marcus Hall had two 3-pointers each in the first period. In contrast, the Utes were 0-for-4 on 3-pointers and shot 33 percent against a suffocating defense that also forced 11 turnovers.

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby scored 20 points and Martane Freeman added a career-high 17 as Colorado extended its winning streak to five games with a 96-80 victory over UC Irvine.

Marcus Hall contributed 14 points and five assists. Colorado (6-1) has won all seven meetings between the two teams. "It was a great win, especially under these circumstances," said CU head coach Ricardo Patton. "I know the guys have been pressed this week with exams and we haven't even practiced in our own gym. With all the distractions this week I am very proud that we continue to be a good basketball team. Any time you shoot that good there is a good chance of winning."

The win spoiled the homecoming of Denver native Ross Schraeder, who had 26 points to lead UC Irvine (4-4). The Anteaters, who had an impressive road win at Stanford, hadn't played since Dec. 3. The rustiness showed.

Colorado withstood several Anteater runs in the second half, the first when Nic Campbell scored seven straight points to reduce the lead to 56-51. Dominique Coleman's jumper capped a 6-0 run for the Buffaloes to help them pull away.

A conventional three-point play by Darren Fells made it a five-point game again, only to see Freeman respond with a 3-pointer. A layup from Coleman helped Colorado put its lead back to 69-59.

UC Irvine made its final run at Colorado when baskets by Mark Kelley and Campbell (18 points) got them within 77-71 with 6:25 left. Roby nailed a 3-pointer and Freeman converted two free throws, and the Buffaloes' lead was never under nine points over the final 5:36.

The Buffaloes were 20-of-24 from the free throw line, also made 10 3-pointers for the game and placed six players with 10 or more points. The CU bench recorded their most points of the season pouring in a season-best 34 points.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Richard Roby scored 15 of his 17 points in the first half to lead four Buffaloes in double figures as Colorado posted a 77-59 victory over TCU at the Daniel-Meyer Coliseum.

The Horned Frogs saw their two-game winning streak snapped as they fell for the first time since Dec. 7 versus Tulane.

Colorado improved to 7-1, equaling its best start since the 1989-90 campaign.

TCU senior forward Chudi Chinweze made his season debut and totaled six points and six rebounds in 18 minutes. Chinweze had been sidelined since Dec. 9, 2004 with a knee injury.

Led by Chinweze, the Frogs' bench outscored the Colorado reserves 26-10. Ten of the 11 Frogs who saw action broke into the scoring column.

The Buffaloes scored the game's opening six points, all from Roby, in taking a 9-2 lead to start the contest. Roby scored 11 of Colorado's opening 14 points.

The Buffaloes took their largest lead of the first half at 30-20 on a jumper by Jayson Obazuaye (13 points) with 3:23 to play. Colorado led 36-27 at the intermission.

The Buffaloes then opened the second half with an 11-2 spurt to extend their advantage to 47-29 on a Marcus Hall (17 points) layup. Chris Copeland added 14 points, all in the second half for CU.

Colorado shot 49.1 percent for the game, including 51.5 in the second half, while limiting TCU to a 30.5 mark.

The Frogs (3-7) had a 15-11 edge in offensive rebounding. Colorado held a 43-36 overall advantage on the boards. Judson Stubbs topped TCU with seven rebounds.

BOULDER (AP) - Jayson Obazuaye scored a career-high 19 points and Kyle Carder added 13 points as Colorado won its seventh straight by routing Mercer 117-74.

Sixteen players scored points for Colorado (8-1) which substituted freely and posted its first seven-game winning streak since the 1996-97 season. The Buffaloes shot a season-high 63 percent from the field as they extended their non-conference unbeaten streak to 15 games.

CU continued its hot 3-point shooting, connecting on 12-for-19 on 3-pointers, to boost its four game total to 41.

Andrew Brown led undermanned Mercer (1-5) with 14 points. Brian Pfohl and Will Emerson had 12 points each for the Bears, who suffered their fourth straight loss and their worst of the year. They were beaten by 36 points in their last game on Dec. 18 at Oklahoma State.

Colorado had 65 points by halftime, the most the Buffaloes had scored in a half since Dec. 7, 1990 when they recorded 75 points in the second half of a game against Central Connecticut.

Andy Osborn and Richard Roby hit 3-pointers in the first two minutes to get Colorado off to an early 24-6 lead. Emerson's layup and free throw with 12:18 left got Mercer as close as 26-11 in the first half.

The Bears didn't score again until Pfohl's layup with 9:15 remaining in the half. By then the Buffaloes lead was 37-13 and their starters had retired to the bench. Reserve Scott Senger accounted for six points the rest of the way as Colorado extended its lead to 65-29 by halftime. Things didn't get any better for Mercer in the second half. Turnovers then dunks by Obazuaye and Marcus Hall made it 73-33.

Colorado's reserves took over for good with 10:44 remaining after Glean Eddy's 3-pointer gave Colorado a 52-point bulge, 98-46.

BOULDER (AP) - Martane Freeman matched a career-best 17 points with a career-high nine rebounds as Colorado extended its winning streak to eight with an 83-65 victory over struggling Dartmouth.

Richard Roby added 13 points for Colorado (9-1), off to its best start since 1978-79 when it began 10-1. The eight-game winning streak is the school's longest since 1961-62 when the Buffaloes won 12 in a row.

Calvin Arnold and DeVon Mosley had 11 points each for Dartmouth (1-9), losers of eight in a row. The Big Green are off to their worst start since the 1993-94 team opened the year 1-12.

Colorado saw its 17-point halftime lead reduced to 11 after Leon Pattman's four-point play and a rebound basket nine minutes into the second half. Michael Giovacchini got Dartmouth even closer, 56-43, with 10:24 left, but Roby came right back with a 3-pointer for Colorado to start a 10-2 run and made it a 66-48 game.

Mike Lang's 3-pointer got the Big Green as close 70-57 with 6:20 remaining. Jumpers by Freeman and Marcus Hall got the lead to 81-57 with four minutes left.

Dartmouth stayed close for nearly 15 minutes of the first half as Mosley and Arnold contributed nine points each. Arnold's 3-pointer with 5:13 left made it 27-20 and the Big Green could have been closer had Jason Meyer and Chuck Flynn finished uncontested layups.

Colorado which had trouble at the free throw line, 4-for-11, did finish the half well. Freeman had seven points including a 3-pointer over the last five minutes of the half and the Buffaloes outscored Dartmouth 14-4 over that stretch to lead 41-24 at halftime.

BOULDER (AP) - Seldom used Glenn Eddy scored 17 points and seven players reached double figures as Colorado won its ninth straight by defeating undermanned Savannah State 116-52 Tuesday night.

Julius Ashby added 16 points for Colorado (10-1), off to its best start since 1941-42 when it began 14-0. The Buffaloes posted the most lopsided victory in school history and their longest winning streak since 1961-62 when they won 12 in a row.

Jayson Randolph led Savannah State (1-15) with 27 points. Michael Bennett had 10 points for the Tigers, losers of 30 of 31 games over two seasons.

Savannah State turned the ball over on its first three possessions, didn't attempt a shot until a minute and 20 seconds into the game and didn't connect on a shot until Antoine Bronner's rebound basket 20 seconds later. By then, Jayson Obazuaye had six of his 15 points and Colorado led 12-2.

The Tigers got consecutive baskets only once in the first half, both by Chris Linton to make it 22-6. Andy Osborn had nine points on three, 3-pointers and Colorado outscored the Tigers 45-10 over the remaining 14:26 of the half to take a 67-16 lead into intermission.

It didn't get any better in the second half. The Buffaloes lead reached 79-16 on a 3-pointer and layup by Obazuaye. Eddy's jumper and a 3-pointer by Dominique Coleman increased Colorado's lead to 99-28 with 9:35 remaining.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - P.J. Tucker scored 24 points and tied his career high with 15 rebounds as No. 15 Texas opened Big 12 play Saturday with an 89-64 win over Colorado.

Texas (12-2) has won four in a row since consecutive blowout losses to Duke and Tennessee last month and appears to be hitting its stride as it enters conference play.

Senior guard Kenton Paulino finished with a career-high 18 points and LaMarcus Aldridge added 19 points and nine boards for the Longhorns, who are 8-0 in league openers under coach Rick Barnes. Tucker has four double-doubles in the last five games.

Martane Freeman scored 20 to lead Colorado (10-2, 0-1) which had its nine-game winning streak snapped.

Colorado beat Texas twice last season when Tucker and Aldridge were out with academic problems and injuries, and knocked the Longhorns out of the Big 12 tournament. It was a much different game with those two back in the lineup.

Aldridge scored Texas' first six points on turnaround jumpers, Tucker had 10 points by halftime and the Longhorns bolted to a 43-24 halftime lead. Abrams hit two 3-pointers from the right corner and Paulino's second of the half made it 39-19.

Aldridge opened the second half with dunk off a sharp pass underneath from Brad Buckman, then converted a three-point play that made it 50-27. Daniel Gibson then hit consecutive 3-pointers.

The Buffaloes struggled against Texas' early mix of zone and man defenses. After scoring more than 100 points in two of its last three, Colorado shot just 28 percent in the first half and 31 percent for the game.

Game 13

Kansas 75
Colorado 63

Jan. 11, 2006 Coors Events Center

BOULDER (AP) - Freshmen Mario Chalmers and Brandon Rush took over the game in the second half to help young and supposedly struggling Kansas to its seventh straight victory, 75-63 over Colorado.

Chalmers, a star in last year's McDonald's All-American game, had two assists and a 3-pointer during a 13-5 run that gave Kansas breathing room in what had been a close game.

One of the assists was an underhanded alley-oop to sophomore C.J. Giles, who slammed it home. The other was a nifty, no-look pass to Rush on a 3-on-2 break.

Senior Christian Moody, the only upperclassman in coach Bill Self's starting lineup, led the Jayhawks (10-4, 1-0 Big 12) with 18 points. Rush scored all 17 of his points in the second half and Chalmers finished with 11 points and six assists as the Jayhawks won their conference opener for the 15th straight year.

Playing in front of a packed house that was, as always in this matchup, about half filled with Jayhawks fans, Kansas won for the 33rd time in the last 34 meetings against Colorado (10-3, 0-2). Buffs coach Ricardo Patton fell to 1-22 against Kansas.

Chris Copeland led Colorado with 22 points and Richard Roby had 15. The most telling stat, though - Kansas outrebounded Colorado 50-28 and no Buff player had more than five boards.

Trailing by 13, the Buffs made a brief rally when Martane Freeman followed a 3-pointer with a steal and layup for a three-point play. That cut the Kansas lead to 64-57, but the Jayhawks scored two straight buckets to ice the game.

Game 14

Colorado 74
at Missouri 71

Jan. 14, 2006 Mizzou Arena

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - Richard Roby scored a career-best 33 points and Chris Copeland hit the last of Colorado's season-best 13 3-pointers with two-tenths of a second to go, giving the Buffaloes a 74-71 victory at Missouri.

Copeland had 15 points for Colorado (11-3, 1-2 Big 12), which ended an eight-game losing streak at Missouri (9-5, 2-1). The Buffaloes, who were 13-for-29 from 3-point range, had lost 33 of their previous 34 at Missouri and this time ended the Tigers' eight-game overall home winning streak.

Thomas Gardner had 22 points for Missouri, and Jimmy McKinney also had 22. But a traveling call with 8.2 seconds left on Gardner after he took an inbound pass and then slipped gave CU the opening it needed.

Copeland got a nice look on the baseline in front of the Colorado bench before draining his third 3-pointer of the game on the winner.

Roby scored 21 of his points in the second half and was 6-for-11 from 3-point range to top his previous career best of 30 points. Roby had averaged 11 points in his previous five games, but he and the rest of the Colorado offense thrived against Missouri's zone most of the game. Roby, who was 11-for-24 overall, entered with a 15.7-point average.

Colorado leads the conference in 3-pointers, averaging eight per game. Copeland was 3-for-6 and Dominique Coleman and Andy Osborn each had a pair of 3-pointers.

Marshall Brown added 10 points for Missouri, which lost despite shooting 50 percent. The Tigers led by five with about 5 1-2 minutes to go before fading, failing to follow up on a 2-point victory at No. 22 Oklahoma on Tuesday.

Game 15

Colorado 81

Jan. 18, 2006 Coors Events Center

BOULDER (AP) - Ricardo Patton couldn't tell if Baylor's lack of a non-conference schedule was the difference in a lopsided win, but he saw improvement in his top two scorers, Richard Roby and Chris Copeland.

Richard Roby scored 21 points and Copeland added 17 on four 3-pointers as Colorado dealt Baylor its 17th consecutive loss by winning 81-48 Wednesday night.

The Bears have played only three games this season after NCAA violations forced the elimination of their non-conference schedule.

"I can't tell you if they showed signs of rustiness," Patton said. "I do know that without a non-conference schedule of games, it has to have some effect."

Andy Osborn also had 12 points for CU (12-3, 2-2 Big 12 Conference). The Buffaloes have beaten Baylor six straight times at home, last losing to the Bears here on Dec. 15, 1951.

"The one thing I've learned is you have to play hard no matter who you are playing," Roby said. "It doesn't matter what the color of the other uniform is."

Roby did most of his damage from the perimeter, with 8-for-17 shooting, two 3-pointers to go with seven rebounds. Although Copeland had four, 3-pointers, the remainder of his contribution came inside the paint.

Henry Dugat led Baylor (0-3, 0-3) with 10 points. The team's leading scorer, Aaron Bruce had nine points and didn't score until hitting a 3-pointer a little over a minute into the second half.

Baylor never appeared to be in sync in shooting 25 percent for the game and finishing 10-for-19 at the free throw line. They led only briefly and that was early on in the game.

Colorado led 36-18 at halftime after starting slowly, missing 5-of-6 six shots to start the game.

Roby had seven of Colorado's 23 points over the final 10:12 of the half while Baylor managed only two field goals and a pair of free throws over that span.

Colorado 80

Jan. 21, 2006 Gallagher-Iba Arena

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Richard Roby scored 27 points, including the decisive basket in overtime, as Colorado beat Oklahoma State 80-78, the Buffaloes' second Big 12 Conference road win of the season.

Colorado (13-3, 3-2 Big 12) hadn't won at Gallagher-Iba Arena since Jan. 12, 1980, a stretch of 20 games. The Buffs also hadn't won at Missouri since the 1996-97 season before they did so on Jan. 14.

With the score tied 78-78, Roby scored on a put-back with 45.3 seconds left, following a miss by Marcus Hall.

Oklahoma State (12-6, 2-2) had two chances to tie. First, Jamaal Brown missed a driving runner in the lane as the shot clock was winding down, and Mario Boggan missed a follow shot before Roby rebounded for Colorado.

Torre Johnson fouled Roby, who missed the front end of a one-and-one free-throw opportunity with 8.5 seconds left. Oklahoma State, out of timeouts, rushed the ball upcourt, but JamesOn Curry was held up briefly at midcourt by two defenders.

Curry broke free from the double-team and continued dribbling, but his pass to Terrel Harris sailed out of bounds as time expired.

Colorado led by as many as 11 points in the first half and was up 39-30 at halftime. The Buffs took control with a 14-3 run midway through the half, fueled by nine points by Roby.

Colorado led 45-34 with 18 minutes left but didn't score again for almost seven minutes. In the interim, the Cowboys scored 16 straight points to go ahead 50-45.

Roby scored on a driving runner with 33.7 seconds left in regulation to tie the game 71-71 and OSU then held the ball for the last shot. Curry missed a long 3-point attempt and CU's Marcus King-Stockton blocked a follow shot by Brown out of bounds with 2.2 seconds left.

After each team took a timeout, all the Cowboys could manage was an off-balance 10-footer by Johnson, which missed at the buzzer.

CU's 3-point shooting proved to be the difference - the Buffs went 12-of-29 from behind the arc, compared to 5 of 15 for the Cowboys.

Roby's point total was his third-highest of the season, and he also had seven rebounds and six steals, all in the first half. Marcus Hall added 16 points for the Buffs.

Johnson scored 20 points and added 10 rebounds, while Boggan and Curry had 16 points each for Oklahoma State.

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby, winner of consecutive Big 12 Player of the Week awards, continued his hot streak Wednesday night, scoring 30 points in Colorado's 81-59 rout of Nebraska.

The Buffaloes (14-3, 4-2) withstood a late surge to win their fourth straight Big 12 game and send the Cornhuskers (12-6, 2-3) to their third consecutive conference loss.

Colorado, which missed its first nine shots, led by eight at the half and used a 13-0 run sparked by two 3-pointers from Roby to turn a five-point lead into a 44-26 advantage with 11:46 left.

Martane Freeman scored seven points during a 13-4 Colorado run that included no points from Roby and pushed Colorado's lead to 62-40 before Nebraska made one final push, cutting the Buffs' lead to 69-59 with two minutes left.

The deficit was too great because of Roby, a sophomore guard who is in the midst of the best four-game stretch of his career. He's averaged 28 points in those games. Tonight is the second time this season that he has score 30 points in a game (third career).

Dominique Coleman added 11 points for Colorado.

Wes Wilkinson led the Huskers with 16 points but had none in the final five minutes he was on the court before fouling out with 2:27 left and Nebraska trailing 66-54, and Jason Dourisseau added 14 points.

Neither team shot well in the first half, which ended with the Buffaloes up 27-19 thanks to 17 points from Roby.

Colorado, coming off a win at Oklahoma State for the first time since 1980, was scoreless for the first 4:49 until Roby's steal and pull-up jumper ended the drought. But the Cornhuskers didn't exactly take advantage, scoring just four points themselves in the first five minutes.
