QUICKLY: Colorado plays eight home games in a row with five non-conference throughout December and three Pac-12 Conference games during the first week of January • CU has won 26-straight non-conference home games • CU's three losses have all been by single digits (5.7 ppg.). CU's four-year total of single-digit losses is now 30 (3.6 ppg.). • CU is shooting a 16-year best from the 3-point arc (39 percent) • Excluding the home opener, the Buffs average win margin of three victories is 3.3 points, three losses are 5.7 points.

NATIONAL LEADERS: Andre Roberson is third nationally in rebounding (12.0 rpg.) only behind sophomore Mike Moser (UNLV, 12.6) and junior Thomas Robinson (Kansas, 12.1). Roberson also ranks 13th nationally in double-doubles (4). Nate Tomlinson is 75th in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.2) and Carlton Brown is 173rd in FG% at 46.3 percent.

1940-41 REVISTED (71 years ago): That's the last season when CU played single-digit games in six of seven games at the start of the season. Frosty Cox' team went 4-3 with two of three losses by single-digits; all four wins by single-digits. That season Sox' team went 10-6 - with nine of the 10 victories coming in single-digits.

LOOKING FOR 20 POINTS: Last season the Buffs had at least one 20-point scorer in 29 of 38 games. CU's last three games they have not reached a 20-pointer scorer, matching a three-game span last year (K-State, KU, Texas Tech). The last time CU had four games in a row under 20 points occurred in 2006-07 during the conference slate (Texas A&M, ISU, NU, Mizz.).

- Dinwiddie also set a career high by pulling down eight rebounds.

ANDRE ROBERSON

- Roberson pulled down 12 rebounds, preserving his 12.0 per game average. His 12.0 per game average would tie Cliff Meely in 1968-69 for the fifth-highest in CU history.
- Roberson has notched double-digit rebounds in six of seven games this season, and 18 times in his career. The one game this season in which he didn't have double-digit boards, he was limited to 11 minutes due to foul trouble against Western Michigan.
- Through his first 45 games at CU, Roberson is averaging 14.5 boards per 40 minutes. This is the highest per 40 average in CU history, though minutes records only go back to 1978-79. The previous high was Stephane Pelle (1999-2003) at over a full rebound less per 40 with 13.4.
- CU is now 9-2 over the past two seasons when Roberson has 12+ boards, the other loss being earlier this season against Maryland.

AUSTIN DUFAULT

- Dufault scored 13 points, giving him double-digits for the fourth time in last five games. This marks only the fifth time in his career that he has scored 10+ at least four times over a five game stretch (twice last season and twice as a freshman).

ROOT SPORTS: Friday is the first time this season the CU men's basketball team will be featured live eight times on ROOT SPORTS™ during the 2011-12 season. The network's schedule also includes five Pac-12 matchups. All eight telecasts are at the Coors Events Center where CU set four attendance records a year ago during its 24-win campaign, the most victories in school history. Eighteen of the 24 wins under head coach Tad Boyle occurred at home, including five sellouts. Drew Goodman will handle play-by-play duties for all CU men's basketball broadcasts, along with former CU women's basketball coach Ceal Barry (analyst) and Alanna Rizzo (sideline reporter). All CU men's basketball events air throughout the Rocky Mountain territory and will be available nationally on DIRECTV and DISH Network.

SAN JUAN RECAP: The Buffs went 1-2 at the Fifth Annual 5-hour ENERGY® Puerto Rico Tip-off in San Juan. The same record they achieved back in November 1998. The Buffs lost to Kentucky (64-52) and Xavier (74-61), and defeated American-Puerto Rico (101-56). CU last won a mid-season tourney in 2003 when they won the Pepsi Classic in Charlotte defeating Louisiana-Lafayette (75-56), Charlotte (76-74) and Loyola-Chicago (76-72).

NEXT YEAR: The University of Colorado men's basketball team will be one of eight schools invited to participate at the 2012 DIRECTV Charleston Classic presented by Foster Grant, Nov. 15, 16 and 18 at TD Arena in Charleston, S.C. The tournament to be held Thursday, Friday and Sunday, features the Buffaloes, Baylor, Boston College, Charleston, Dayton, St. John's and Southern Illinois. This marks the fifth straight year CU will be participating in a mid-season tournament. Presently the Buffs are participating at the 2011 5-hour ENERGY® Puerto Rico Tip-Off in San Juan. Last year they participated at the iBN Las Vegas Classic; in 2009-10 at the EA Sports Maui Invitational; and in 2008-09 at the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. The 2012 Charleston Classic will feature 12 games over the three days. Each team will compete in one game per day, advancing through a bracket-tournament format. The two teams that remain undefeated throughout will face off in a championship match Sunday, Nov. 18.

CRASHING THE BOARDS: Andre Roberson made a name for himself in Boulder last year shattering the freshman record with 297 rebounds. By the way, he also set the freshman record for steals (51) and blocks (42) in his initial season becoming just the fourth Big 12 Conference player to lead all three categories for his team (others were: Michael Beasley, Kansas State; Antoine Wright, Texas A&M; Kevin Durant, Texas).

BLOCKS & BOARDS: Andre Roberson became the sixth CU freshman to lead the team in blocked shots (the others: Shane Harris-Tunks, David Harrison, Stephane Pelle, Carlton Carter, Matt Bullard). In addition, Roberson was 100th nationally in rebounding per game (7.8 rpg.) and tied for fifth nationally in freshman rebounding (only player with zero starts). Of the top six freshman rebounders, Roberson ranked second of the six per 40 minutes on the glass.

BOYLE SIGNS FIVE TO NATIONAL LETTERS OF INTENTS: University of Colorado basketball head coach Tad Boyle and his coaching staff announced Nov. 11 they signed five student-athletes to National Letters of Intent to continue their playing career at CU beginning next season (2012-13). The five incoming freshmen, three of them from the Centennial State, are believed to be the best men's basketball class ever formed at CU. The 2012-12 class was ranked #21 by ESPN.

On Josh Scott - "Josh improved more in one year than any other player I have ever recruited, which is very encouraging to see. We recruited him hard and early, and luckily we did because after he recovered from his surgery everyone else in the country quickly realized how talented this player was. He is highly skilled and is a terrific young man who comes from a terrific family. He has a bright future ahead of him, just like all of these recruits."

On Wesley Gordon - "Wesley has tremendous skill, size, and athleticism, and is another guy that demonstrates he has skills you can't coach which thrills us. You look for upside in recruits, and just like (Xavier Talton) Wesley is a tremendously talented young man with incredible upside and we are really looking forward to seeing him improve as a player."

On Chris Jenkins - "Chris is a guy with all the tools to become a great player for us. He has great size, athleticism, and skill which are essential. Chris has a chip on his shoulder, and I am not trying to compare him to Alec (Burks), but Alec was a kid that showed up every day, whether it was workouts, practice, or games with a chip on his shoulder and that is what made him so great. I see that in Chris, he has a fire in his belly, and that will serve him very well throughout his career here."

On Xavier Johnson - "Xavier comes from a great school (Mater Dei HS) that is excellent in not only athletics, but also academics. Xavier is another kid with all the tools to become as good as he wants to be. When we recruit, we are looking for players that have things we can't coach, and you see that in Xavier when you watch him play. This is a kid that can be a really special player for us one day, and we look forward to coaching him."

On Xavier Talton - "This is a guy who wants to be a Buff, the guys that want to be here can bring in a different attitude and it can be something really special. We try to simplify the recruiting process as best we can, so if a player can pass, dribble, and shoot we want to be recruiting that player, and Xavier is certainly a guy that can do all three of those things. Xavier is a young kid for his class, he is still only 17, and that's good for us because he has shown a lot of maturity and there is a ton of room

GEORGE BOEDECKER JR. COURT NAMED

The University of Colorado celebrated donor George Boedecker, Jr. Friday, November 11, prior to the Buffs season opener against Fort Lewis at the Coors Events Center by naming the upper gym in its new practice facility the George Boedecker Jr. Court. Less than an hour later, ironically, Boedecker took his place on the visiting bench, as he is in his third season serving as the assistant coach for the visiting Skyhawks.

"Coach (Bob) Hofman and I have the duty to represent Fort Lewis in an hour in the gym," Boedecker said. "Everybody will be friends at the end, but we'd love to kick the Buffs' rump."

Based on a gift from Boedecker to help fund CU's new basketball and volleyball practice facility, along with his major gifts that built the football practice bubble and CU's new golf practice facility, there is also a wall located just outside the now renamed upper court in the practice facility saluting Boedecker.

"Again, 11/11/11 will always go down as a special day and we're proud to unveil this gym with his name on it," CU Athletic Director Mike Bohn said. "George and I grew up in Boulder as kids. He's a treasure to the community. He built the bubble and now he's helped build this facility for the Buffs and put his name in this gym."

Hofman, Fort Lewis' head coach, is a CU graduate, former player and assistant coach. He played for CU until 1974 and then in the late '70s, he coached in Balch Fieldhouse and the Coors Events Center for both CU and Fairview High School. He then became the coach at Fort Lewis and played against the Buffs in 1985. He interviewed for the CU head job in 1990 and this is his first trip back to coach in the Events Center since 1985.

Boedecker played for Hofman at Fairview High School from 1978-80 and is in third year as an assistant coach under Hofman. At that same time Boedecker was at Fairview, Bohn was enrolled at Boulder High School.

"Mike and I had a friendship and maybe some fisticuffs as young children," Boedecker said. "But we all came back and we're all Buffs. Coach Hofman and I are Buffs first and foremost. I'm wearing a watch he gave me from the last Big Eight Championship. In the Pac-12, we will win a lot of championships."

for this kid to improve and we look forward to helping him do that."

WHAT WAS SAID

"This is it (my dream job), there's no doubt. I remember talking with Mark Turgeon once when he asked me where I wanted to be in 10 years, and I said the head coach at the University of Colorado. This is a destination job. I'm humbled and honored."

- University of Colorado head coach

Tad Boyle, the day he was hired as the new CU men's basketball coach

"CU is getting a great person, a guy with great character and a value system, which is most important. He's a very well-rounded basketball coach and an excellent recruiter. He's a guy who will be very good with alumni and boosters. He's got great people skills and he develops relationships. Good coaches never stop trying to get better, and Tad does that. He was great as an assistant - extremely loyal, hard working and positive."

- Mark Turgeon, former

Texas A&M Head Basketball Coach now the Head Coach at the University of Maryland

"This exciting process was all about both the young men we have currently and those in the future who will be joining our program, and is an investment in them and represents the competitive spirit, teamwork, passion and dedication they stand for. Tad Boyle represents everything that is right about college basketball. We look forward to his leadership, poise and competitive drive to unite all our collective Buff interests to support our team and this enterprise that has so much promise for the long term."

- Mike Bohn, University of Colorado Athletics

Director on what made Tad Boyle stand out above the other candidates

"It's an incredible opportunity for him, but a phenomenal hire for Colorado. He's worked hard to get to this point; he's got an amazing background. I'm thrilled to death for him. I've been around some great basketball minds - Bill Self (Kansas), John Calipari (Kentucky), Alvin Gentry (Phoenix Suns), Greg Popovich (San Antonio Spurs), to name a few. A lot of quality guys have helped me coach. Tad has the same qualities those guys have. His kids play hard and unselfishly. They guard and play smart. He had those qualities as a player and he values them as a coach. He'll also make that program part of the whole community, and that's important at a school. The football coach, the women's coaches . . . they'll all love him. I love college athletics; it's more of a we thing than (in the NBA). You support everything. Tad will do that. This is an incredible opportunity for him and just as an incredible opportunity for Colorado."

- Larry Brown, Charlotte Bobcats

Head Coach and former University of Kansas head coach (1983-1988)

"Tad's a heckuva coach and a lot better guy. I know that for a fact. I know you have to win at that level, and he'll win the right way. (The hiring of Boyle) "A very wise move on Colorado's part; the test of time will show that. I'm not saying that to kiss anybody's butt; I believe it."

- Don Meyer, former legendary

coach, Northern State University, winner of 923 games

"I am happy for Tad and his family. Colorado made a great hire. He had a great season at Northern Colorado and he had that program moving in a positive direction. I believe he will have the same impact at CU."

- Former teammate and current

Kansas assistant coach Danny Manning

BUFFS ROLL PAST OVERMATCHED SKYHAWKS

BOULDER (Nov. 11) - Tad Boyle wasn't facing a complete makeover with his 2011-12 Colorado basketball team, but it came close. He unveiled his retooled Buffs Friday night against Fort Lewis College, and while he was the first to acknowledge there's work to be done before the schedule toughens - and that happens quickly - he also found plenty to applaud in CU's 85-57 season-opening victory at the Coors Events Center.

"The good thing is you can win by this margin and still have room for improvement," Boyle said after watching his second CU team struggle at times to find its half-court offense and lapse occasionally on defense but still do enough right to rout an overmatched opponent.

"Defensively we played pretty well," Boyle continued. "I challenged our guys to guard for 40 minutes. We had a few lapses, but I thought overall we played well - especially with the number of new guys we had on the court."

Playing without Cory Higgins, Alec Burks, Levi Knutson and Marcus Relporhe - a foursome that accounted for about 75 percent of CU's scoring load last season - was "really weird," sophomore forward Andre Roberson said. "But it's time to move on."

And so the Buffs did - at least in their opener.

CU senior forward Austin Dufault, who led CU with 18 points and added 10 rebounds, called Fort Lewis "a good Division II team" and said the Buffs submitted a first night they can build on: "You always want to get off to a good start and our team did that . . . we had a good team effort crashing the boards."

Boyle said Dufault and senior guard Nate Tomlinson, who had five points, four assists and three steals, "gave us great stability on the court . . . I don't know if Austin can get 18 and 10 every night, but I won't be mad at him if he does."

The Buffs' board work was controlled by the 6-7 Roberson, who at 215 pounds weighs about 15 more than last season and, said Boyle, "is a beast . . . he's a lot stronger, he's athletic and explosive." Roberson exhibited all of those things, collecting a game-best 15 of CU's 48 rebounds and scoring 13 points - all in the first half.

Fort Lewis coach Bob Hofman, a former CU point guard, liked what he saw from Roberson, calling him "a special

BUFFS FALL TO SHOCKERS IN PUERTO RICO OPENER

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 17) - Carlton Brown scored 15 points and added four rebounds but the Colorado Buffaloes fell to Wichita State, 67-58, in the first round of the Fifth Annual 5 Hour Energy Puerto Rico Shootout here Thursday.

The Buffs will now face Maryland Friday at 4:30 p.m. In an ironic twist, Maryland is now coached by Mark Turgeon, who was the head coach for the Shockers when Boyle was his assistant.

No other CU player hit double figures, but sophomore Andre Roberson did pull down 10 rebounds for the Buffaloes.

The two teams played even for the first 15 minutes of the first half when the game was tied at 24-24 before the Shockers went on a 7-0 run in less than two minutes to take a 31-24 lead with 3:15 left in the half.

Each team scored just once the remainder of the first half, 33-26.

The Shockers held the lead near double digits early in the second half, and the Buffs cut it to five points twice, first at 37-32 and then again at 40-35.

Colorado cut the Shocker lead to just three midway through the second half, 50-47, after Austin Dufault made a 3-pointer.

Askia Booker made a free throw with 2:13 left to bring CU to within five points at 62-57 and the Buffs didn't score again as the Shockers put the game away at the line with the final score, 67-58.

BUFFS TAKE DOWN BRONCOS 81-76

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 20) - Carlton Brown scored 23 points and Colorado defeated Western Michigan 81-76 in the seventh-place game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off tournament.

Brown was 8 for 14 from the field and 6 for 6 from the free-throw line for the Buffaloes (2-2). Austin Dufault had 16 points and eight rebounds for Colorado, while Nate Tomlinson scored 12 and Askia Booker added 11 points.

The Buffs' five-point margin at the end was their biggest lead of the game.

"This win gives us confidence and that's important in college basketball," said CU head coach Tad Boyle. "We're going to get mentally tougher for our upcoming games."

Western Michigan (0-4), which didn't lead in either of the first two games of the tournament, jumped in front 13-3 and led 35-31 at halftime.

Matt Stainbrook had 20 points and eight rebounds for the Broncos. Demetrius Ward scored 16 points and Flenard Whitfield had 11 points and eight boards.

BUFFS TOP FALCONS IN OT, 76-73

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP, Nov. 23) - Tad Boyle had one way to describe Andre Roberson.

"He is a madman," said the Colorado coach about the sophomore guard who now has 57 rebounds for the Buffaloes in five games this season. "I don't know where his head was in the first 30 minutes of the game," Boyle said. "But was there at the end when it mattered."

Askia Booker hit a 3-pointer and Roberson got a key block and layup in overtime to help CU to a 76-73 victory over Air Force.

"I do what I can to win," Roberson said. "I will get rebound when it is needed."

Nate Tomlinson led Colorado (3-2) with 19 points on 4-of-7 shooting from 3-point range. Carlton Brown added 16 points, and Roberson had 11 points and 13 rebounds.

Roberson went scoreless in the first half, missing his only shot. He did have eight rebounds in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado's win couldn't overshadow the brilliant game of Michael Lyons of the Falcons. Lyons made 10-of-19 shots and clutch free throws at the end of regulation to finish with a career-high 31 points for Air Force (3-1).

It was the most points by a Falcon player since Jarvis Croff scored 31 on March 9, 2000 against Utah.

The Falcons' scrambling defense forced 18 turnovers, turning the mistakes into 27 points.

Air Force was the better team taking care of the ball, committing a season-low six turnovers.

The Falcons led 72-69 in overtime after a layup by Taylor Stewart and Mike Fitzgerald's 3-pointer. The Buffaloes then got Roberson's layup off a rebound and went ahead 74-72 on Booker's 3-pointer with 15 seconds left.

After Todd Fletcher made a free throw for Air Force, Roberson sealed the game with a basket. Fletcher missed a 3-point attempt at the buzzer.

"Air Force is a tough team to defend," Boyle said. "You them get either get layups or threes against you."

CU almost won the game in regulation after Roberson tipped in his own miss with 13 seconds remaining to make it 67-65. But Fitzgerald sank two free throws with 3.7 seconds left to send the game into overtime.

BUFFS' LATE RALLY FALLS ONE POINT SHORT

FORT COLLINS (Nov. 30) – Of all the questions about his Colorado basketball team crowding Tad Boyle's mind, the one that puzzled him most was this: "Really, how were we ever in it?"

But somehow – despite committing 15 turnovers, missing 16 free throws and shooting 36.8 percent from the field – Wednesday night's game against Colorado State came down to the Buffaloes' final possession.

And when senior guard Nate Tomlinson's long jumper bounded off the rim at the buzzer, CSU had escaped with a 65-64 victory at raucous Moby Gym.

"I have no idea how we had a chance to win this game, but I think it's a testament to our team that we did. I told our guys in the lockerroom I do not fault your competitiveness, I don't fault your desire . . . your will to win, I don't fault any of that stuff. But what I fault is our execution," said Boyle, reflecting on how poorly his team executed for most of the previous 48 minutes then amazingly put itself in position to steal a win from its in-state rival.

The Buffs overcame an eight-point deficit in the final 1:25 and even went ahead 64-63 on a Tomlinson layup with just over 10 seconds to play. But a floater from the right baseline by CSU's Dorian Green returned what would be the final advantage to the Rams and set the stage for Tomlinson's miss.

"We just needed one extra stop and didn't get it," said CU senior Austin Dufault.

Tomlinson, one of three CU players in double figures (he had 11, Dufault 13 and freshman Spencer Dinwiddie 16), said he didn't get the final shot he wanted because CSU switched defenders. Boyle had called for a high ball screen involving Dufault and Tomlinson, with either of them taking the final shot. But a bigger player switched on Tomlinson as time was expiring and he took the only shot he could.

"I didn't get a very good look," Tomlinson said. "I didn't get a very good feel for the ball and it just didn't go down."

Boyle said he takes responsibility for the poor execution overall, but added, "This team's heart is there. And we're not going to lose that. We're going to be in a lot of close games like this – we already have been. We've won our fair share."

The Buffs had missed 15 free throws in Monday night's 70-68 home win against Georgia, and Tomlinson said missing one more than that two nights later indicated more of a mental issue than anything else. "The more we talk about it, the worse it gets," he said. "That's the game . . . we're a real young team, but we're a tough team and that's not going to change."
