Spencer Dinwiddie is one of the best defenders in the country, and Andre Roberson is the best defensive rebounder in the country. Look up "relentless" in the dictionary, and you'll see Roberson's picture.

SECOND NATIONALLY: Andre Roberson finished second nationally in rebounding (behind Siena's O.D. Anosike, 11.4), however was the first player from a major BCS school to finish at the top since 2008-09 and fourth since 1995-96.

CONFERENCE ROAD WARRIORS ... Colorado has won three straight conference games on the road, a first since 2000-01; while not the loftiest of achievements, it hasn't been common at CU. Tad Boyle's teams have won two straight Pac-12 road games twice, something the Buffaloes managed only four times in the 15 years as a member of the Big 12. And in the 49 seasons Colorado was in the Big 7/Big 8 (1948-96), it won two straight league road games a grand total of 13 times.

Three Straight: Colorado last won three straight conference road games (Feb. 7-27, 2013 (at Oregon, at Oregon State, at Stanford); and from Jan. 20-Feb. 10 2001 (at Texas Tech, Nebraska and Kansas State). The Buffs won three straight twice in the Big 12 and six times in the Big 7/Big 8.

Three of Four: CU has won three of its last four Pac-12 road games, the fourth time it has done that under Boyle. It did it twice in the Big 12.

Four Straight: Colorado last won four straight conference road games in 1996-97 (at Missouri, Texas Tech, Baylor and Kansas State). It won four straight twice in the Big 7/Big 8 (1961-62, the last time it won as many as five in a row, and in 1963-64).

Four of Five: CU has won as many as four of five league road games just four times: 1996-97, 1963-64, 1961-62 (five in a row with a loss on either end) and 1954-55.

Five of Six: CU has done this just twice: in 1954-55 and 1961-62.

PEFECT GAMES: Spencer Dinwiddie made CU history against Oregon State (Feb. 9); he recorded the top "perfect game" in Colorado basketball history when he scored the most points ever by a Buffalo without missing a shot. Norm Saunders set the mark, also on the road at Wichita State on Dec. 2, 1963; it was equaled some 24 years later by Dan Becker against Dayton in Boulder. He also took the most shots (14, six field goals, eight free throws) without missing, besting Becker's 12. CU's all-time perfect games:

THREE ROAD GAMES/ONE HOME: CU went 2-2 in a grueling slate that only six other schools among the six BCS Conferences have played this non-conference season. The Buffs played three of four true road games during the non-conference season. The others were Utah, Alabama, DePaul, LSU, Miami, Villanova). LSU is the only school playing three straight road non-conference games.

BUFFS IN THE NBA: For the first time ever, four former CU basketball players were on opening day NBA rosters in 2012. Chauncey Billups (Clippers), Alec Burks (Jazz), Cory Higgins (Bobcats) and Chris Copeland (Knicks). Copeland played at CU from 2002-06. Last year, Billups, Burks and Higgins were the first CU trio since the 1992-93 season when Matt Bullard, Jay Humphries, Alex Stivrins were on NBA rosters.

CU/EUROPEAN TRIP: For the second time in its history, the CU men's basketball team traveled to Europe and played a five-game exhibition tour (August 13-22) going 2-3. The Buffs played twice in Paris; twice in Belgium and once in Holland. The last time CU took an international trip was May 20-30, 1997 when then-CU head coach Ricardo Patton went 2-2 against teams from England and Germany. In September of 2006, Patton took his team to Vancouver, British Columbia for three games (3-0 record). Later that season, CU went 20-10 and lost in the first round of the NIT.

Pac-12 NCAA RPI: Of the 10 conference schools that finished among the final NCAA RPI, Colorado finished No. 43. Others were: Arizona (No. 16), UCLA (No. 32), Oregon (36), Cal (52), Stanford (74), Arizona State (94), Washington (96), USC (122), and Utah (158).

NATIONALLY RANKED: 2 WEEKS: The Buffs were ranked nationally for two weeks coming in at No. 23 in the Associated Press poll (Nov. 19-25) and No. 19 in both polls (Nov. 26-Dec. 2). The No. 23 ranking was the first time the program has been ranked in a major poll since earning back-to-back No. 25 rankings in the Coaches Poll during the 2005-06 season. In the AP poll, it is the first ranking since appearing at No. 24 in the final poll of the 1996-97 season, when Chauncey Billups led the Buffs to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

BUFFALO TIDBITS: MBB season ticket sales have increased to over 6,666 season tickets (as of Dec. 29), an increase of 69% over last season (previous record set last season was 3,941) • CU started this season 6-0 for the first time since 1989-90 (finished 12-18). The six wins were the most ever in the month of November • In his three years at CU, Boyle is 15-4 in December (13-1 at home; 1-1 on neutral courts; 1-2 on the road. In November, he is 13-6 and 8-0 at home).

CENTENNIAL STATE: There are six freshmen on the 2012-13 roster, three of them from the Centennial State. The class is believed to be the best men's basketball class ever formed at CU • ESPN has ranked the class No. 22 • The six freshmen are the third most on any CU roster at one time.

CALIFORNIA + CU = BUFFS: The CU men's basketball team have five student-athletes from the state of Colorado and four from California, the most ever on a CU men's basketball roster from those two states combined since 1982-83. The five Colorado players match the most on a roster at one time since the 1992-93 season.

2013-2014 COLORADO MBB NLIs (April 2013, ESPN 27th Class Nationally)

JARON HOPKINS

Position: Guard (multi-purpose) • Height: 6-5 Weight: 185 • Dobson HS (Mesa, Ariz.)

Senior year averaged 22.2 points, 4.5 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 2.1 steals per game • Dobson went 19-12; lost to Mesa in the second round of the Division I state playoffs • Second-team all-state (Division I) honoree • 2013 Rivals.com: Three-star: 30th ranked shooting guard; 119th ranked prospect overall.

Vital stats/storylines: Averaged 21.8 points, 7.0 rebounds, 6.0 blocks during his junior season • Hopkins can shoot, going 60 percent from the field as a junior, including 37 percent from beyond the arc and 57 percent from the free throw line • Scored 20 or more points 16 times last season and led his state's Section II in points, steals and assists in a 22-7 season that saw Basha advance to the second round of the AIA Division I playoffs • Rated a four-star prospect by Rivals.com, the 29th best shooting guard and the nation's 109th best prospect overall • Other western schools pursuing him included Washington State, Oregon State, Arizona State, New Mexico, Boise State, Colorado State, USC and UTEP • Played AAU ball last spring and summer for the Compton Magic.

CU scouting report: A multi-purpose guard who can play the point, the two spot and the wing • Passes, dribbles and shoots at a high level • Strong chance he will be Arizona's player-of-the-year this season as a high school senior.

Coach Boyle's take: "There's not a lot of things he can't do on the basketball court. He's an elite level athlete with a good frame who can run and jump. He's certainly one of the top players in the state if not the top player in the state, in our opinion. Arizona State was heavily after him as well as other Pac-12 schools."

Hopkins' take: "I feel like I fit in with the team and I love the campus • I just like the school in general."

TRE'SHAUN FLETCHER

Position: Wing • Height: 6-6 Weight: 195 • Lincoln HS (Tacoma, Wash.)

Senior year averaged 21 points, 10 rebounds and five assists per game • Helped lead Lincoln to a 23-4 record • 3A state player of the year, also first-team all-state, first-team all-league • 2013 Rivals.com three-star: No. 26 small forward and No. 143 overall • Scout.com: Ranked as a top-100 player (No. 91) nationally for 2013.

Vital stats/storylines: In his junior season, was named MVP of the Narrows League, as well as first team all-are and second-team all-state • Averaged 18 points, 11 rebounds and five assists in Lincoln's 18-8 season • Rivals.com rated him a three-star prospect • Scholarship offers came from Arizona State, Washington State, UCLA, Boise State, Cal Poly, Gonzaga, Oregon State and Santa Clara • Played AAU ball with the Northwest Panthers, whose coach, Gary Ward, called Fletcher "a legitimate 6-foot-6 with a 6-foot-9 wingspan • Multi-skilled, played some one, some two and some three (positions). Ward also described Fletcher as "crafty" and "sometimes a little too unselfish, he is a really good player."

CU scouting report: Lefthander with a great skill package • More of a true wing • Handles ball well and shoots well.

Coach Boyle's take: "He's really a good passer for his position. He's long, athletic, runs the floor well and is great in transition. We think he'll fit in very well with what we're looking to do here. Bottom line is, he can do a lot different things to help you win."

Fletcher's take: "I feel like Colorado is a good fit for me. I love the coaches, the players and the system. I feel like I am a very versatile player. I can guard positions one through three, I can shoot it, I can dribble it and I can pass it. I think colleges like my length, too. I can get in and bang with the fours and fives, too. I just need to put on a little bit more muscle and get my dribbling better and I will be set."

DUSTIN THOMAS

Position: Combo forward • Height: 6-7 Weight: 210 • Pleasant Grove HS (Texarkana, Texas)

Helped Pleasant Grove to 29-2 mark, including 3A Region II District 15 regular season title • Pleasant Grove lost to Argyle in regional semifinals • 2013 Rivals.com three-star: No. 28 small forward and No. 150 overall.

Vital stats/storylines: Pleasant Grove won 29 games last season, with Thomas a big reason for the success • He was 3A Region II District 15 MVP after averaging 20 points, 14 rebounds, five assists and five steals • Made an astounding 48 percent of his three-point attempts • Rivals.com ranks him as a three-star prospect • Schools offering him a scholarship included Oklahoma, Texas-Arlington and Lehigh, with interest being shown by Kansas State, Texas, SMU and Tulsa • Pleasant Grove coach Billy Brewer said Thomas is very comfortable shooting from behind the arc: "Three-point range is pretty easy for him. We run a motion offense and we are going to run until they get the ball in his hands • Dustin can also dribble penetrate and he can go in the post. He can do whatever he wants to do so we try to get the ball in his hands."

CU scouting report: At 6-7, probably not as explosive or as athletic as Andre Roberson, but shoots the ball extremely well from the perimeter and can put the ball on the floor • Can play inside and out • Plays with extraordinary energy and can rebound.

Coach Boyle's take: "The thing that makes Dustin special is his love for the game, his motor. And shooting, he can really stroke it. But what sets him apart is his love for the game. Every time I talk to him he's going to the gym or on his way back. There's not a day that goes by that he's not trying to get better as a basketball player. I think if anything we've got to kind of tone him down a little; he loves the game and his desire to be great is unquestionable."

Thomas' take: "Going up there (to visit Boulder), I didn't know what to expect. Everything about Colorado was perfect. It is like a big family out there. At first, I didn't even think Colorado would have been where I would choose to go. But once I got out there, it completely turned my impression about it. I loved everything about it. The players made me feel like family. The coaching staff was just real up front and I trust them • They won the Pac-12 last year and you can tell the fans really show them a lot of love. It is just real fun to be around it and I wanted to be a part of that."

WHAT WAS SAID ABOUT CU/COACH BOYLE

“Tad has done something few thought possible -- turn Colorado into a basketball school,” ESPN.com Senior College Basketball Writer Andy Katz said. “The Buffaloes have as much of an impact in their new conference as any other team transitioning to a new league and that is a credit to Tad and his staff.”

- Andy Katz / ESPN.com (May 2013)

“I’m a believer in Tad Boyle. He is not only a terrific teacher of the game with great basketball knowledge, he keeps it simple and gives his players an understanding of what you need to do to win, but a firm understanding of how teams lose, too. Boyle has tremendous toughness in him. He is demanding without being demeaning, and he puts his players in position to achieve together without fear of failing. That’s what truly outstanding coaches do, and Tad Boyle is a truly outstanding coach.” - Jay Bilas, ESPN (August 8, 2012)

“I want to say the job that Tad Boyle has done at Colorado, and what Colorado represents to the future of the Pac-12, I can make the argument that there’s been no greater gift to college basketball in the Pac-12 than adding Colorado. They are well-coached, play extremely hard, very good on defense. They have talented players now. I feel like they have some really talented players coming in. I wish them the very best in the NCAA Tournament. Whoever draws them is running into a hungry, well-coached, disciplined team.” - Arizona Head Coach Sean Miller after the Pac-12 Championship game (March 10, 2012)

“Tad Boyle, Colorado. The Buffaloes’ prospects begin with the best-kept secret in college basketball: Andre Roberson, a 6-7 jumping jack who was the nation’s third-leading rebounder last season (11.1 per game) while leading the Pac-12 in blocks (1.9). Roberson’s improvement enabled the Buffaloes to win the Pac-12 tournament and reach the NCAA tournament for the first time in nine years. While Colorado lost three starters, it is bringing back its three most talented players in Roberson, 6-5 sophomore guard Spencer Dinwiddie and 6-1 sophomore guard Askia Booker. “We’ll be more talented, but not as experienced,” Boyle said. Six freshmen have also entered the program, most notably Josh Scott, a 6-10 forward from Colorado Springs who Boyle said “can really score it”; and Xavier Johnson, a 6-7 forward who played at Mater Dei High in southern California. Looking ahead, one of the main questions that needs to be answered is whether Roberson can provide leadership that is commensurate with his talent. “You always want your best player to do that,” Boyle said. “In the past he has led by example, but he’s not the most vocal person in the world. We’ve been talking to him this summer about doing that.” If Roberson can find his voice, then the Buffaloes will be ready to make some noise in the much-improved Pac-12.

- Seth Davis, SI Inside College Basketball (July 30, 2012)

“This exciting process was all about both the young men we have currently and those in the future who will be joining our program, and is an investment in them and represents the competitive spirit, teamwork, passion and dedication they stand for. Tad Boyle represents everything that is right about college basketball. We look forward to his leadership, poise and competitive drive to unite all our collective Buff interests to support our team and this enterprise that has so much promise for the long term.”

- Mike Bohn, University of Colorado Athletics Director on

TAD BOYLE COACHING TREE

Below is a diagram of all the head coaches that Boyle played for or coached under at the college level, and all the mentors those coaches played for or coached under, etc. going all the way back to Dr. James Naismith. The shortest route tracing Boyle back to the game's inventor is only four generations (going either from Larry Brown to Dean Smith to Phog Allen to Naismith, or from Ted Owens to Dick Harp to Allen to Naismith). Boyle is a direct descendant of seven members of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame as well as a charter member of the College Football Hall of Fame. Notable "cousins" along the way are also mentioned:
