right of the crease. In their first ever taste of overtime play, the Buffs got their fourth MPSF win and ended USC's four-game winning streak, giving the Women of Troy their first loss in conference play.

ANOTHER OVERTIME, ANOTHER WIN: Though the conditions couldn't have been more different, the finish was nearly the same, with Sarah Lautman netting an overtime game-winner to help the Buffs to victory. Lautman once again gave CU its late push, scoring the sudden victory goal to give CU a 7-6 win over San Diego State. With a reading of 34 degrees on the thermometer at opening draw, snowy and overcast conditions seemed to slow both teams' rhythms. SDSU went into the break up 4-2, but the Buffs, who managed just 11 shots in regulation, outscored the Aztecs four to two in the second half to send the game into extra minutes. The Aztecs took six shots in overtime play, while limiting the Buffs to two, but CU once again showed its late game strength. Four minutes ticked away as the teams both pushed for a sudden victory in the final minutes of overtime, and Lautman hammered one home to claim the win.

CU STUNS USC IN BUZZER BEATER: As the horn was sounding the end of the first overtime, Sarah Lautman hammered one into the net to give CU a 12-11 victory over USC. The Buffs and Women of Troy were tied eight times, with USC grabbing a three-goal lead on two separate occasions. Colorado scored four of the final five goals of regulation, and Cali Castagnola tied the game at 10-10 with 2:29 remaining. The tie would hold at the end of 60 minutes, sending the game into overtime. As the first three minutes of OT were winding down, Castagnola powered through once more, scoring off a Marie Moore assist 18 seconds before the teams switched sides. USC looked to force a sudden victory period after tying the game back up off a free-position shot in the final 42 seconds. With the last seconds ticking away, Castagnola shot from the left, forcing a diving save from USC goalie Liz Shaeffer. Despite coming up with the solid save, the low shot got back on the ground, and Lautman capitalized on the bounce. One second remained on the board as she forced the game-winner in from just

WHERE THE BUFFALO ROAM: The Buffs are 5-1 at home this season, with wins over Temple, St. Mary's, USC and SDSU at Kittredge Field and their inaugural home win over Regis happening at Folsom Field. Despite a late comeback, Brown handed CU its first, and only, home loss of the year, 11-8 on a snowy Kitt Field. Kitt stands as a proving ground for the Buffs to break records and have program firsts. Fan support is key to CU's home success, as the Buffs rank third in the conference in home attendance with an average of 310 fans at each game. Against USC, 416 Buff fans helped CU to victory.

KITTREDGE FIELD: Kitt Field, located on Kittredge Loop on the eastern edge of CU's Main Campus, is the official home of Colorado lacrosse. Kitt Field showcases Boulder's Flatiron Mountains and a pristine field courtesy of CU's turf management team. While there are bleachers for approximately 350, fans of CU lacrosse are welcome to bring lawn chairs and blankets to sit on in the open areas. Amenities for Colorado lacrosse fans include concessions, bathrooms and free game programs. Free parking is available in Lot 416 beginning an hour before first draw. For more information, including a parking map and directions, please visit <http://buffs.me/1fCNVuE>.

MPSF: With a win against Cal on Sunday, the Buffs will secure a bid to the MPSF tournament. Colorado is having one of the best inaugural seasons of any team in the MPSF. With eight wins under their belt, the Buffs match USC's inaugural win total from last season. Cal won 10 games in its inaugural season of 1999 and 10 in 2004 when the team joined the MPSF. Stanford does not have stats from its first two seasons, but went 12-11 in its third year, 1997. UC Davis posted a 19-1 record in its inaugural year of '97, though 15 of the teams the Aggies faced were club programs. In 2004, they went 12-5.

LOOK OUT ITS LAUT: Sarah Lautman scored two overtime game-winners in CU's conference battles against USC and San Diego State to claim her first MPSF Offensive Player of the Week honor. Lautman recorded her second hat trick of the season against USC, first tying things up at 3-3, then again at 9-9 after the Buffaloes had gotten down by three goals for the second time. As the final three seconds of the second overtime period ticked away, Lautman got a rebound to net the game-winner as the final horn sounded, giving CU a 12-11 victory. On Sunday, Lautman scored the sudden-victory winner against SDSU to give CU a 7-6 win. In that game, Lautman netted a career-high four goals and took six of CU's 13 goals. She gave the Buffs their first lead of the game at 6-5 with 3:37 left in regulation and scored the game-winner with 2:01 remaining in the final overtime period.

SUNNY ONE SO TRUE: Paige Soenksen earned her second consecutive Rookie of the Week title after anchoring the Buffs' defense against the Trojans and Aztecs. Against USC, Soenksen had 16 saves and a ground ball. With six seconds remaining in regulation, Soenksen got a save to keep the 10-10 tie intact and force overtime. In the first period of overtime, Soenksen grabbed back-to-back saves in the final five seconds before the side change. Soenksen had 12 more saves and a career-high four ground balls against SDSU. Five of her saves came in overtime play. In the first three minutes of the sudden victory period, she got two saves, including one off a direct attack from the 8-meter. In her freshman season, Soenksen has proven herself as one of the nation's best shot-blockers, ranking second in save percentage (.521) and saves per game (10.5) and third in total saves (147).

GOING BACK TO CALI: Cali Castagnola has one of the Buffs' most impressive resumes. On Friday against USC, she showed a flair for the dramatic, serving as an integral part of CU's final push for victory. With just over three minutes remaining, the Buffs were a man-down and in desperate need of finding the tying goal that could send the game into extra minutes. Castagnola got the equalizer with 2:29 on the clock to force overtime. In the opening period of overtime, CU won the key draw and took its time to wind down the clock and find the right shot. Castagnola was again strong on the attack, scoring 18 seconds before the side change. With just three seconds left in the second period of OT, Castagnola drove one at the net, setting the tone for Lautman's game-winner two seconds later. Castagnola leads the team with 32 goals, 10 from free-position shots. She has scored in all but three of the Buffs' games, having six games with three or more goals.

THE FUSCO, THE PROUD: Johnna Fusco was another key piece to CU's victory over USC. She led the team with five points off four goals and one assist, won three draw controls and was a perfect 2-for-2 from the 8-meter. Fusco has scored in 11 of her 13 games played, scoring four or more goals in three games. The two-time MPSF Rookie of the Week is truly a standout for CU. She leads the team with 43 points, 70 shots and 10 free-position goals and ranks second with 30 goals, 13 assists, 29 ground balls and 38 draw controls.

GIVE ME MOORE: Marie Moore has been an important part of CU's attack, recording four points in CU's overtime wins over USC and SDSU. Against USC, Moore assisted CU's first ever overtime goal, helping the Buffs grab an 11-10 lead with 3:18 remaining in the first overtime. Facing SDSU, Moore joined Lautman as the only Buffs to score. Moore recorded her sixth hat trick against the Aztecs, going 2-for-2 from the 8-meter fan, while winning six draw controls and scooping up four ground balls. Moore, who has scored in 11 of her 14 games played, has 25 goals and three assists this season. She leads the Buffs with 48 draw controls and 35 ground balls and ties a team-high with 12 caused turnovers.

DEFENDERS DOING WORK: The Buffs' defense has been an important part of CU's success. The Buffs have held their last eight opponents to five or fewer second half goals. Perri Baker, Maddie DeWinter and Molly Rovzar are all key parts of CU's defense. Baker proves strong on the draw, ranking third on the team with 22 draw controls. She also ties for second with 10 caused turnovers and has tracked down 18 ground balls. DeWinter ties a team-high in caused turnovers with 12. She also has 21 ground balls and eight draw controls. DeWinter is the only defensive field player to record points this season, netting her first collegiate goal and contributing an assist in CU's 19-5 thrashing of St. Mary's. Co-captain Rovzar also holds an impressive stat line with 14 ground balls, six draw controls and six caused turnovers.

NEXT UP: The Buffs conclude their inaugural regular season with a trip to Eugene, Ore. CU takes on Oregon on Sunday, April 27. First draw is at 11 a.m. MT.

MOUNTAIN PACIFIC SPORTS FEDERATION

COLORADO (8-6 Overall, 5-2 MPSF) won a pair of overtime decisions at home, edging USC, 12-11, and San Diego State, 7-6 in sudden-victory. Friday, Sarah Lautman handed the Trojans their first MPSF loss just as time was to expire in the second OT session, in a game which featured eight ties and 15 Paige Soenksen saves. Sunday, the moment again belonged to Lautman, knocking in the sudden-victory win four minutes into the period, the last of her seven goals for the week. In their inaugural season, the Buffs' are one conference win away or one Cal loss away from guaranteeing a postseason bid. The two teams meet Sunday in Boulder.

CALIFORNIA (3-9 Overall, 1-4 MPSF) Bella Huther put away an eight-goal week, four each in the win at Detroit and the OT loss at Michigan. The freshman leads the Bears with 38 points and is the MPSF leader in goals per game (3.17).
