2012-13 TEAM NOTES

Juyette Steur: team's overall most improved player and most improved in fitness; Winde Janssens: team's clutch player and most valuable player; Erin Sanders: Pac-12 clutch player award; ???????: academic most valuable player (highest GPA for the year)

• Junior Winde Janssens led CU with 13 wins in dual play and four victories in the Pac-12. She defeated two ranked players, No. 111 Desirae Krawczyk (Arizona State) and No. 86 Pamela Montez (UCLA).

• Sophomore Juyette Steur won three consecutive Pac-12 matches, including victories over No. 102 Nicole Long (Oregon); Washington State's all-time singles winner, Liudmila Vasilieva; and Andjela Nemcevic (Washington). Steur had 11 wins in dual play.

• The Buffs spent two matches ranked No. 75, breaking into the ITA College Tennis Rankings for the first time in the regular season since April 2010, when the then-ranked No. 68 Buffs concluded the regular season against No. 19 Texas.

• The team earned its first ever Pac-12 win on March 10 with a 4-2 win over Arizona, breaking a 26-match regular season conference losing streak dating back to April 11, 2010.

• CU beat No. 62 Stephen F. Austin 6-1 on February 2, marking the team's first win over a ranked opponent since the then-ranked No. 55 Buffs defeated No. 71 Denver on February 1, 2010.

• After facing a tough stretch versus ranked Pac-12 teams, the Buffs upset No. 59 Oregon on March 29. The 5-2 victory over the Ducks marks the highest ranked opponent the Buffs have defeated since beating then-ranked No. 46 New Mexico on February 7, 2009.

• All 12 of CU's final opponents were either ranked, had at least one ranked player/doubles team or both (as was the case for eight of the teams).

• The duo of Winde Janssens and Carla Manzi Tenorio began the spring season with a perfect 8-0 start. They led the Buffs with 11 wins, including two regular season conference wins and one in the Round of 16 in the Pac-12 Tournament Invitational Draw.

• Dhany Quevedo is the first CU freshman to win more than one Pac-12 match in her first season. She picked up eight wins in the spring.
