

JUNIOR COLLEGEBRENT BURNETTE, QB 6-3, 210, Maryville, Tenn. (Maryville/Middle Tennessee/Western Arizona)

AT COLORADO; This Season (Jr.)—He enrolled at Colorado for the spring semester and will be available to participate in spring football. He has two years to play two in eligibility.

AT WESTERN ARIZONA (2010/Soph.)—He completed 79-of-140 passes for 1,219 yards with 11 touchdowns and six interceptions in seven games before being injured, compiling a 6-1 record for Western Arizona. The Matadors climbed to the top of the NJCAA rankings the third week of the season and after suffering a loss that week, didn't lose again in the regular season winning the Western States Football League championship and tying the school record for wins in the 10-2 season. Against Phoenix College in the second week of the season, he completed 15-of-25 passes for 236 yards and two touchdowns in a 47-17 victory setting up the Matadors for the nation's top ranking.

AT MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE (2008-09/Fr./R-Fr.)—He redshirted the 2008 season and in 2009, saw action in seven games as a redshirt freshman for Middle Tennessee State. As primarily the back-up quarterback, he saw action in seven games with one start and completed 13-of-25 passes for 160 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions as MTSU had up a 10-3 record and victory over Southern Miss in the New Orleans Bowl, where he completed 2-of-3 passes for 45 yards and a touchdown. He replaced the injured Dwight Dasher and completed one pass for 22 yards on 2nd-and-15 and then threw a 23 yard touchdown to put MTSU up 28-20 late in the third quarter as the Blue Raiders would hold on, 42-32. He was 3-of-3 for 47 yards and a touchdown against Western Kentucky and in his first collegiate start against Mississippi State, he completed 7-of-15 passes for 48 yards.

HIGH SCHOOL—Ranked the No. 44 quarterback in the country, the No. 19 player from Tennessee and No. 3 quarterback from Tennessee by ESPN. He was named to Scout.com's Tennessee Super 14 as one of five quarterbacks on that list. He earned the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Mr. Football Award and was the Player of the Year for Tennessee by the Tennessee Football Magazine, Sports Locker and Rebel Nation, the Offensive Player of the Year by the Knoxville News Sentinel and Maryville Daily Times and named to the All-Southern Player of the Year team by the Orlando Sentinel. He was the Region 3 most valuable player as a senior and named to both the Tennessee Sports Writers Association and Tennessee Athletic Coaches Association first-team All-State as both a junior and senior when he also earned All-Blount County and All-Region 3 honors. He finished his career with Maryville records of 6,408 passing yards and 67 touchdowns. He ranks fifth all-time for career passing yards in TSSAA history and No. 2 among players from eastern Tennessee. As a senior, he completed 228-of-325 (70.2 percent) of his passes for 3,521 yards with just seven interceptions. The 3,521 yards ranks third in TSSAA history and his 38 touchdowns ranks second and both marks are the best by a player from eastern Tennessee. He owns Maryville season records for completions, pass attempts, touchdowns and passing yards. He also owns the school record by throwing five touchdowns in a game, which he did in the 2007 State Playoffs against Red Bank. His junior year he completed 101-of-146 passes for 2,019 yards and 18 touchdowns. As a sophomore, he passed for 868 yards and 13 touchdowns. He was named the MVP of the state championship game as a senior when he completed 15-of-22 passes for 222 yards two touchdowns in the 28-13 win over Maplewood. He compiled a 30-0 record as a starter, 45-0 record in his three years primarily on varsity and a 60-0 mark in his four years of high school at Maryville under coach George Quarles, winning the State Championship each season. He also played third base on the baseball team at Maryville.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in psychology at Colorado and is also interested in attending medical school.

PERSONAL—He was born October 5, 1989 in Knoxville, Tenn. Hobbies include going to the lake, fishing, skiing, hanging out with friends, golf and playing the guitar. His father, Tommy, played football at Eastern Kentucky and his uncle, Jerry Burnette, played basketball at Loyola Marymount. His goals after college include working hard to play football at the next level but at the same time earn the grades necessary to get accepted into medical school. He played summer baseball for the same program that turned out Colorado Rockies All-Star and Gold Glove Winner Todd Helton. He traveled to Colorado with his baseball team when he was seven years old and took runner-up at the AABC World Series in Wheat Ridge, Colo.

HIGH SCHOOLPAULAY ASIATA, OL6-5, 295, Honolulu, Hawai'i. (St. Louis)*

HIGH SCHOOL—He earned All-American honors from PrepStar and SuperPrep, which ranked him the No. 24 offensive lineman in the country. On the SuperPrep All-Far West region squad, he was the No. 15 overall player, the No. 2 offensive lineman and the No. 1 player from Hawai'i on the list. He was named the top player from Hawai'i by Scout.com, which ranked him the No. 21 offensive tackle in the country, and Rivals.com listed him the No. 6 player from Hawai'i while ESPN has him as the No. 2 player in Hawai'i and the No. 58 offensive guard in the country. He was named to the prestigious Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100 list as one of 21 offensive linemen and the Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the West team as an honorable mention selection. The Honolulu Advertiser ranked him the No. 3 prospect from Hawai'i and first-team All-State as a junior and senior. He was named an ILH All-Star as a senior and first-team All-ILH his sophomore through senior seasons. As a senior, he anchored an offensive line that helped produce 411.4 yards of offense and 40.8 points per game. St. Louis averaged 246.4 yards rushing and 164.7 yards passing per game and scored 30 or more points in 11 of 12 games en route to an 11-1 record and the State Championship under coach John Hao. He transferred to St. Louis his senior season after his previous high school, Word of Life, was shut down. He played two seasons at Word of Life, unable to play before that season due to weight restrictions on players.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on a major at Colorado and is interested in a career in either communication or coaching.

PERSONAL—He was born June 22, 1993 in Auckland, New Zealand. His father moved him to Hawai'i with his two brothers when he was five years old after living in New Zealand and Samoa. A brother, Johan, just finished his rookie season as an offensive lineman with the Chicago Bears. His cousin, Matt Asiata, just finished his career at Utah as a running back. Hobbies include playing video games, drawing, hanging out with his friends and watching movies. He has completed numbers hours of community service through this church and high school working with troubled youth and with the Meals on Wheels program. He also volunteers at the local YMCA as a security guard though his Sunday School. Last name is pronounced AHH-SEE-AHH-ta.

JERMANE CLARK, ATH*6-2, 205, Winston-Salem, N.C. (Oak Ridge Military Academy)*

HIGH SCHOOL—Ranked the No. 93 player from North Carolina by ESPN where he is listed as the No. 10 outside linebacker in the state. He has played running back, linebacker, defensive end, safety, wide receiver and seen action as a kick returner and served on other special teams units throughout high school. He spent the 2010 season at Oak Ridge Military Academy after spending the previous two years at R.J. Reynolds High School in Winston-Salem, N.C. He spent his freshman season at E.C. Glass High School in Lynchburg, Va., and graduated from R.J. Reynolds by the end of his junior season before attending Oak Ridge Military Academy. He played running back, safety and outside linebacker helping Oak Ridge to a 10-0 record as an independent team. Because of ORMA's independent status, there were few opportunities to be named to any honors teams and few stats exist. As a junior at Reynolds, he was named to the first-team All-Central Piedmont 4A team as a defensive lineman.

His junior season, he totaled 1,243 all-purpose yards and 13 touchdowns on offense and racked up 110 tackles, including 22 for a loss and 12 sacks to go with eight forced fumbles on defense. His top high school game came his junior season when R.J. Reynolds met West Forsyth and both schools held matching 9-0 record entering the game. Reynolds won 14-9 and he had a sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery in front of the sold out crowd. Oak Ridge compiled a 10-0 record under coach Otis Yelverton. R.J. Reynolds compiled a 12-1 record his junior season and 9-4 mark his sophomore campaign, losing in the second round of the playoffs each season.

ACADEMICS—He is interested in majoring in business or early childhood education at Colorado.

PERSONAL—He was born July 13, 1991 in Lynchburg, Va. Hobbies include playing football and video games. He serves as a volunteer at a children's center for multi-capable kids with special needs.

MALCOLM CREER, RB*5-11, 200, Los Angeles, Calif. (Palisades)*

HIGH SCHOOL—Ranked the No. 121 running back in the country by Scout.com and he is the No. 8 running back from California on that list. ESPN ranks him the No. 18 running back from California. He was named first-team All-CIF as a running back his senior season and was named to the All-Western League team twice, earning first-team honors as a senior and second-team as a junior. Both seasons he was named Palisades' most valuable player. He finished his career there with 224 rushes for 1,958 yards and 24 touchdowns and 28 total touchdowns including two kick returns and two interception returns. As a senior, he rushed 120 times for 1,270 yards and 19 touchdowns and caught four passes for 93 yards on offense, tallying six 100-yard rushing games and four games with multiple rushing touchdowns (scoring three times in each of those games). On defense, he tallied 47 tackles and had three interceptions, five pass break-ups and forced one fumble. He scored 22 total touchdowns, 19 rushing, two on kick returns and one interception return. His junior campaign he rushed 98 times for 660 yards and four touchdowns while catching 18 passes for 239 yards. He returned an interception for a California state record of 108 yards for a touchdown. His sophomore season was his first season playing football and he scored his first touchdown totaling 28 yards on six carries with one score. His senior season, he had seven rushes for 94 yards (13.4 average) and a touchdown in a 41-0 win over Lynwood and also returned an interception for 99 yards and another score. Against Venice, he had one rushing touchdown and had two interceptions and a forced fumble on defense. Against Granada Hills in a 10-0 win, he had 14 carries for 127 yards (9.1 per rush). He had 108 yards and three touchdowns on just seven carries (15.4 per rush) against University in a 44-7 win and followed that game up with another three touchdown performance against Hamilton in a 66-36 win when he rushed 13 times for 118 yards. He had his third straight 100 yard game against Fairfax with 10 rushes for 123 yards and a touchdown in a 44-34 victory. He tallied back-to-back 100 yard games again later his senior season with eight carries for 146 yards (18.3 per rush) and three touchdowns in a 43-28 win over Lincoln and followed that up with eight carries for 162 yards (20.3 per rush) and three scores including one from 81 yards against Poly in a 50-40 win. As his junior year progressed, he got stronger as a running back, rushing for 338 of his 660 yards in the last three games of the season. He had his first 100-yard rushing game against University in a 20-15 win with 12 carries for 108 yards and followed up that performance with 14 carries for 170 yards (long of 53) and a touchdown the next week against Hamilton. He finished the season with seven rushes for 60 yards and a touchdown against Fairfax. Palisades improved from 1-9 his junior season to 7-6 as a senior when the team advanced to the City Second Division II semifinals under coach Perry Jones. He also played basketball for four years at Palisades including the final three years on varsity and he plans to run track for the first time this spring and will compete in the 100- and 200-meter dashes and the 4x100-meter relay.

ACADEMICS—He is interested in education as a major at Colorado. He was a member of his high school's dean's honor roll two years.

PERSONAL—He was born December 30, 1992 in Belleflower, Calif. Hobbies include working out and playing video games. He enjoys yoga and has taken classes to administer massages. He lived in the Crenshaw district of Los Angeles and commutes to Palisades because of the improved academic offerings. He also took evening classes at Santa Monica College to learn sign language.

BRADY DAIGH, LB*6-2, 235, Littleton, Colo. (Mullen)*

HIGH SCHOOL—The first player to commit to Colorado in this class, he was a PrepStar All-Region selection and SuperPrep All-Midlands selection, the latter ranking him as the No. 58 player in the region and he is the No. 6 linebacker and No. 8 player from Colorado on the list. He was named to the prestigious Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100 list and was one of 12 linebackers on the squad. Scout.com lists him as the No. 32 middle linebacker and Rivals.com ranks him as the No. 35 inside linebacker and he is the top inside linebacker from Colorado by both publications. ESPN ranks him as the No. 65 inside linebacker in the nation and the No. 13 player from Colorado and he is the third linebacker on that list. He earned first-team All-Colorado and All-State (5A) honors by the Denver Post as a senior and was named first-team All-Big 6 Conference, as well. He earned second-team All-Centennial League honors as a junior and made the honorable mention squad after his sophomore season as Mullen switched league affiliation prior to his senior season. His senior season, he tallied 141 tackles (37 solo) including six for a loss and five sacks to go along with two interceptions, one pass break-up and two fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a touchdown. As a junior, he totaled 127 tackles (27 solo) with one sack. Between his junior and senior seasons, he was a critical part of a defense that combined for 12 shut outs and 11 more games allowing seven or fewer points in 28 games during that span. Under former CU All-American Dave Logan, Mullen compiled a 40-2 record his three years and three Colorado State 5A Championships, including back-to-back 14-0 seasons and a 33-game win streak to end his career. He lists his top games as the State Championship game from each season. His senior season, he had nine tackles and a sack in a 37-6 win over Regis in the state final. He had 15 tackles in a 35-0 win over Columbine and had 11 tackles, one sack and two fumble recoveries, returning one for a touchdown against Cherry Creek in a 41-24 win. He had eight solo tackles and 13 overall in a 34-14 win over Bear Creek. Top games his junior season he had nine tackles in the state final, a 27-24 win over Pomona. He had 11 tackles and a sack against Arapahoe in a 40-0 victory and 13 tackles in a 37-15 win over Cherry Creek. He had 10 tackles and a fumble recovery in a 44-0 win over Boulder.

ACADEMICS—He intends to enroll in the business school at Colorado and is interested in being an entrepreneur. He earned second honors, an academic honor from Mullen, after his junior season.

PERSONAL—He was born November 13, 1992 in Littleton. Hobbies include playing basketball and video games. He volunteered through Mullen for a program called World Vision that collected and packed clothes and shoes and sent them abroad to those in need.

STEVIE JOE DORMAN, QB*6-4, 210, Somerset, Texas (Somerset)*

HIGH SCHOOL—Ranked the No. 77 quarterback in the country by Scout.com, as the No. 15 quarterback from Texas on that list. He is ranked the No. 108 quarterback by ESPN and is the No. 16 quarterback from Texas on that list. He earned 3A Region IV District 27 offensive most valuable player accolades both his junior and senior season and was the Newcomer of the Year for the district as a sophomore. He also earned second-team All-San Antonio Area as a senior. In his career, he set a San Antonio Area record for career passing with 9,253 yards, and he completed 597-of-1,017 passes with 94 touchdowns and 39 interceptions for a quarterback rating of 158.0. He had nine games with 300-plus yards, one game over 400 yards in his career and he had 21 games with three or more passing touchdowns. His senior year he completed 189-of-312 passes (60.6 percent) for 3,291 yards, 40 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a quarterback rating of 185.1. He had 143 yards rushing with five touchdowns. He had eight games with three or more touchdown passes and had five touchdown passes on four occasions. As a junior, he completed 190-of-318 passes (59.7 percent) for 2,827 yards with 28 touchdowns and 13 interceptions. He had seven games with three or more touchdown passes and four games with 300-plus yards. He had one rushing touchdown. As a sophomore, he was 174-of-303 passing (57.4 percent) for 2,507 yards and 23 touchdowns with 14 interceptions with a quarterback rating of 142.7. That season he had six games with three or more touchdowns and three games with 300-plus passing yards. His freshman season, he completed 44-of-84 passes (52.4 percent) for 628 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. Top games including a 25-24 win over Canyon Lake in the third round of the Texas state playoffs, advancing Somerset further than the school had ever been before. He completed 18-of-28 passes for a season-high 321 yards and four touchdowns in the game. Down 24-6 at half, Dorman led the second-half comeback with 210 yards and three touchdowns, including a 69-yard toss in the third quarter and a 41-yard toss that proved to be the game winner in the fourth quarter. In the round before against La Vernia, he threw for 228 yards and a score and ran for two more touchdowns. He had one other 300-yard passing game, against Holy Cross when he completed 18-of-25 passes for 305 yards and five touchdowns. He threw five touchdowns on two other occasions, in a 54-7 win over St. Anthony when he completed 8-of-9 passes for 222 yards and the following week against Lytle, when he completed 12-of-15 passes for 255 yards. Against Crystal City, in a 63-6 victory he completed 6-of-6 passes for 217 yards (36.2 yards per attempt) and four touchdowns for a quarterback rating of 623.8. Top games his junior season include hitting 35-of-46 passes for 432 yards, all career highs, against Luling in a 28-27 loss. He completed 19-of-28 passes for 318 yards and three scores in a 20-14 victory over Dille and in a 34-27 win over Navarro, he completed 16-of-28 passes for 293 yards and five touchdowns with no interceptions. Top games his sophomore season include his first 300-yard passing game against Navarro when he completed 27-of-42 passes for 314 yards and three touchdowns. He completed 9-of-19 passes for 215 yards and four touchdowns in a 28-21 win over Marion. Under legendary high school coach Sonny Detmer, his grandfather, Somerset compiled a 23-11 record his final three years, 10-3 as a senior, 6-4 as a junior, 7-4 as a sophomore, improving upon a 2-8 record his freshman season before Detmer's arrival as coach. His senior season, Somerset won the 3A Region IV District 27 Championship, the Bi-District Championship and the San Antonio Area Championship advancing two games short of the state championship. He also played golf and ran track for four years, played basketball for two and will compete in his third baseball season this spring for Somerset.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on a major at Colorado. He was named first-team Academic All-State as a senior by the Texas High School Coaches Association. That award is only given to seniors who maintain above a 92 grade point average.

PERSONAL—He was born May 8, 1992 in St. Charles, Mo. Hobbies include hunting and fishing. He is the nephew of former CU quarterback Koy Detmer, who was his quarterback coach at Somerset this past season, and former BYU quarterback Ty Detmer, his mother's brothers. Koy threw for 5,390 yards and 40 touchdowns at Colorado, including 3,156 and 22 his senior year when he was an honorable mention All-American and unanimous first-team All-Big 12 the first year of the league's existence in 1996. Ty won the 1990 Heisman Trophy at BYU and finished his career with 59 NCAA records and his 15,031 passing yards still ranks second most in NCAA history. His grandfather, Sonny Detmer, was his high school coach the last three seasons and played semi-pro football in the old Continental League. His step-father, Johan Dinkelmann, played football at Cincinnati and his step uncle, Frans Dinkelmann, played football at New Mexico. Another uncle, Frans Stein, played basketball at Oklahoma State and Southwest Baptist University before playing professionally in Syria, Lebanon, Puerto Rico, China and Holland. His high school teammate and childhood friend, Will Harlos, also signed with CU in this class.

WOODSON GREER, OLB*6-2, 225, Corona, Calif. (Junipero Serra)*

HIGH SCHOOL—A PrepStar All-Region and SuperPrep All-Far West team member, as the publication ranked him the No. 65 player in the region and he is the No. 10 linebacker on that list. Scout.com ranks him as the No. 48 outside linebacker in the nation and he's No. 7 on the list from California. He earned first-team All-CIF Southern Section Western Division honors as a senior when he was also named first-team All-Mission League and first-team All-South Bay Area. He was first team All-Western League and All-South Bay as a junior and second team All-Western League as a sophomore. In his career, he totaled 281 tackles (113 solo) and 12½ sacks. As a senior, he totaled 69 tackles (41 solo) and had one fumble recovery. His junior season, he racked up 140 tackles (41 solo) and had 11½ sacks totaling 76 yards in loss. He also had one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. As a sophomore, he had 72 tackles (31 solo), one sack and one interception. Under coach Scott Altenberg, Serra compiled a 42-2 record in his three years there and prior to losing in the state championship game, had won 29 straight games. His senior season, Serra was 14-1 and won the Mission League, Southern Section and lost in the state championship. As a junior, Serra was 15-0 winning the Mission League, the CIF Southern Section and California State Championship. As a sophomore, Serra was 13-1 and won the Mission League before falling in the CIF Southern Section championship game.

ACADEMICS—He plans on majoring in integrative physiology at Colorado and is interested in a career in physical therapy.

PERSONAL—He was born December 26, 1992 in Long Beach, Calif. Hobbies include playing the piano and other sports including basketball. He is very active in community service both through his school and church, the majority of which includes homeless outreach.

RASHAD HALL, RB*6-0, 200, Lynchburg, Va. (Oak Ridge Military Prep, N.C.)*

HIGH SCHOOL—Ranked the No. 67 running back in the country by ESPN, he is the No. 5 running back prospect from high school in North Carolina and the No. 1 ranked running back prospect listing his hometown in Virginia. He attended Oak Ridge Military Prep as a senior after playing two seasons at Jefferson Forest High School in Forest, Va. Oak Ridge competed as an independent school, leaving few opportunities for any honors. As a junior, he was named first-team All-Seminole District when he was named second-team All-Timesland by the Roanoke Times, which also named him one of three Sizzlin' Sophs at running back the previous season. In his career, he rushed for 3,376 yards and 42 touchdowns. As a senior at Oak Ridge, he rushed for 1,100 yards and 15 touchdowns. As a junior at Jefferson Forest, he compiled 1,437 rushing yards and 17 touchdowns and had 150 receiving yards. His sophomore season, he ran for 839 yards and 10 touchdowns. His most memorable game in high school came his junior season against Turner Ashby, Jefferson Forest's rival, when he ran 20 times for 218 yards and two touchdowns in a 14-6 victory. Oak Ridge compiled a 10-0 record his senior season while Jefferson Forest was 12-8 in his two seasons there, including a trip to the state semifinals his sophomore season after compiling a 7-3 record. He also ran track in high school, competing in the 100-, 200-, and 300-meter dashes and the 4x100-meter relay.

ACADEMICS—He intends to major in integrated physiology at Colorado and is interested in becoming a physical therapist.

PERSONAL—He was born December 5, 1991 in Lynchburg, Va. Hobbies include playing football, running track, lifting weights and handing out with his friends and playing video games.

WILL HARLOS, DB*6-4, 200, Somerset, Texas (Somerset)*

HIGH SCHOOL—Ranked as the No. 13 outside linebacker from Texas by ESPN and the No. 21 outside linebacker from Texas by Scout.com. He was the 3A Region IV District 27 defensive most valuable player as a senior and was named to first-team All-San Antonio Area. He earned mention on the Texas Sports Writers Association preseason first-team All-State team and was part of the Texas Super 50 team. He was named to the 3A Region IV District 27 first-team as a junior when he was also named second-team All-San Antonio Area. He was invited to the Under Armour All-America High School game but declined to concentrate on basketball. In his career, he compiled over 300 tackles, 23 sacks, 21 pass break-ups and 14 interceptions. As a senior, he totaled 164 tackles (12.6 per game), including 51 behind the line of scrimmage and 16 sacks. He also had eight pass break-ups, six fumble recoveries, five forced fumbles, four interceptions and one safety on defense and caught nine passes for 120 yards on offense. His junior year, he had 110 tackles (74 solo) with 41 behind the line of scrimmage and six sacks. He forced 14 fumbles as a free safety and had 13 pass break-ups and six interceptions. On offense, he caught five passes for 113 yards and three touchdowns and also had a 2-point conversion. His sophomore season he had 59 tackles (39 solo) with four interceptions and two sacks. Under legendary coach Sonny Detmer (father of former CU quarterback Koy Detmer), he helped Somerset record a 23-11 record, including a 10-3 mark his senior year when Somerset won the District 27 Championship, the Bi-District Championship and the San Antonio Area Championship advancing two games short of the state championship. He also played baseball and is a standout basketball player and track athlete at Somerset. He earned All-District honors on the hardwood and is the most valuable player the last two years on the track team, competing in the high jump, long jump, 100-meters, 400-meters and all of the relay teams where he was a regional qualifier. He ran a time of 10.47 seconds in the 100-meters recently earning the fastest time in the state. He was part of the 4x400-meter relay team that set a school record and he ran a 49 split.

ACADEMICS—He plans on majoring in business at Colorado. He was named to the Academic All-State team in high school where the minimum required grade point average in Texas was a 92.

PERSONAL—He was born June 3, 1992 in San Antonio, Texas. Hobbies include fishing and hunting. His mom, Lark, played basketball at Baylor and Texas State and his sister, Kasey, is playing basketball at St. Edwards University in Austin, Texas. His uncle, Jim Bob Taylor, was one of Sonny Detmer's first quarterback prospects and went on to play at Georgia Tech and then for the Baltimore Colts. His cousin, Cooper Taylor, plays football at Richmond. His aunt, Marsha Smith, played basketball at SMU. He is very active in his community through his church and was recently nominated at his church for a Methodist Leadership Award. His high school teammate and childhood friend, Stevie Joe Dorman, also signed with CU in this class.

SHERRARD HARRINGTON, CB*6-1, 175, Washington, D.C. (Howard D. Woodson)*

HIGH SCHOOL—A SuperPrep All-Midatlantic team member, as the publication ranked him as the No. 36 player in the region and the seventh best cornerback and 11th best overall player from Washington D.C. ESPN ranked him as the No. 40 cornerback and the No. 7 player from Washington D.C. and is the second cornerback on that list. As a senior, he was in on 55 tackles, including five for a loss and two sacks. He had three interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns, and 13 pass break-ups. He returned punts, including two for touchdowns with a long of 93 yards. As a junior, he had 30 tackles and 16 pass break-ups with four interceptions, three of which he returned for a touchdown. On offense as a wide receiver, he had 19 receptions for 305 yards and six touchdowns and he returned punts on special teams. His sophomore season playing primarily on offense, he had 22 receptions for 408 yards and two touchdowns. His top and most memorable game came his senior year in a 44-12 win over Dunbar for the City Championship. He totaled 10 tackles, two for a loss and one sack, and had two pass break-ups and three “monster hits.” In a 33-18 loss at Glen Mills in Pennsylvania, he had 12 tackles, one for a loss, and had two pass break-ups and had a 93 yard punt return for a touchdown. His best offensive game came his junior year against Roosevelt when he caught five passes for 120 yards and two touchdowns in a 39-7 victory. Under coach Greg Fuller, Howard D. Woodson compiled a 29-10 record his three years there (10-3 as a senior, 9-4 as a junior, 10-3 as a sophomore) and won the Washington D.C. City Championship all three years.

ACADEMICS—He plans on majoring in business management at Colorado and would like to earn a minor in film studies. He is a member of the National Honors Society maintains above a 3.5 grade point average.

PERSONAL—He was born June 11, 1992 in Washington, D.C. Hobbies include acting and modeling. He has auditioned for a few major productions including the HBO original show The Wire and he made a cameo appearance in a friend’s music video. He has modeled in a few shows for local photographers in the D.C., Maryland, Virginia area. He helped his mom move out into a better part of Washington, D.C., and helps pay rent, but he frequently visits his old neighborhood to encourage kids to make the right decisions. Great sources of inspiration to him are his best friend, who was killed last year, and his father, who he lost in July 2010, to prostate cancer. His dad didn’t tell him he was dying, just that he was sick, but in his final weeks and days taught him several invaluable life lessons.

GREG HENDERSON, DB*5-11, 185, Corona, Calif. (Norco)*

HIGH SCHOOL—He is ranked the No. 10 cornerback in California by ESPN and the No. 122 corner in the nation. He earned first-team All-CIF Southern Section and first-team All-Riverside County as a senior and first-team All-Big VIII honors both his junior and senior season. In his career, he totaled over 100 tackles and had 22 pass break-ups and nine interceptions, one of which he returned for a touchdown. He also returned three punts for touchdowns in his career and had one receiving touchdown. His senior year, he totaled 65 tackles (46 solo), 13 pass break-ups and seven interceptions to go along with two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. As a junior, he had 45 tackles (32 solo) and came up with a pair of interceptions and seven pass break-ups. He returned punts and had three touchdowns. In spot duty on offense, he caught a touchdown reception and ran five times for 22 yards. His sophomore season, he totaled 13 tackles in back-up duty. He lists his biggest game as against Crenshaw his senior year. In a 25-21 win, he had 13 tackles, three pass break-ups and an interception. Against Redlands that season in a 34-17 win, he had an interception and broke free for a 50 yard punt return. Against Poly in a 42-21 win he had six tackles (four solo), an interception he returned 60 yards and a forced fumble. Norco was 28-10 his three years on varsity and 20-5 his final two years as a starter on defense, winning the CIF Southern Section Big VIII League championship both seasons. He also ran track & field in high school, participating in the 100-meter dash and 4x100-meter relay both his junior and senior seasons. He was named first-team all-league in the 100-meters.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on a major at Colorado but is interested in business or engineering as possible fields of study. He exceeds a 3.5 grade point average in high school and has been on the principal’s honor roll every year.

PERSONAL—He was born December 27, 1992 in Los Angeles. Hobbies include playing the drums. He participated in a program through his church to help feed the homeless in the Los Angeles area.

ALEX KELLEY, C*6-3, 295, Oceanside, Calif. (Vista)*

HIGH SCHOOL—A SuperPrep All-Far West team member, as he is ranked No. 98 in that region and is the No. 15 offensive lineman and the first center on the list. Scout.com ranks him as the No. 122 player from California and No. 22 center in the country and he is the top center in California and the No. 2 center in the west. ESPN ranks him the No. 122 player from California, the No. 16 center in the country and the No. 2 center from California. He earned first-team All-CIF San Diego Section as a senior when Cal-Hi Sports named him second team All-State. He was first-team All-League twice, earned All-Avocado League selection as a senior after Vista switched from the Palomar League, where he was a first-team selection as a junior. He totaled 108 pancake blocks his senior year, anchoring an offensive line that helped Vista score 34.2 point per game while going over 30 points in eight games. The offense racked up 416.8 yard of offense per game and averaged 234.7 yards per game on the ground, totaling over 3,000 yards rushing on the season and featuring a 1,500-yard rusher. His junior season, he had 60 pancake blocks as Vista averaged 31.3 points per game and 343.0 yards per game on offense. Vista scored 30 or more points five times and three times went over 40 points and averaged 226.0 yards per game on the ground. He had 30 pancake blocks his sophomore season. His top game his senior year came when Vista defeated heavily favored Torrey Pines 24-21 in the CIF semifinals en route to the championship. His junior year, his favorite moment came when Vista defeated La Costa Canyon, 47-7, snapping a 23-game win streak in the CIF semifinal match-up. Vista was 29-9 in his three seasons there, including two championship seasons the last two years there. Vista was 12-1 his senior season, winning the Avocado League and CIF San Diego Section Championship, 10-3 his junior year winning the Palomar League and advancing to the CIF San Diego Section championship game. He is in the midst of his senior season wrestling for Vista. He was named first-team All-CIF San Diego Section as a junior and was first-team All-Palomar League as a heavyweight both his sophomore and junior seasons.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on a major at Colorado but is interested in sports medicine or coaching as a possible career after football. He was named to the 2010 All-Academic Team by the San Diego Union-Tribune for maintaining above a 3.0 grade point average.

PERSONAL—He was born December 1, 1992 in Madrid, Spain, where his parents were working as missionaries. Hobbies include hanging out with friends and going to the beach. He spent two weeks this past summer in Haiti passing out supplies to earthquake victims and helping build an orphanage.

MARC MUSTOE, OL*6-7, 280, Broomfield, Colo. (Arvada West)*

HIGH SCHOOL—A SuperPrep All-American and All-Midlands team member, as the publication ranked him as the No. 32 player in the region and he was the No. 3 offensive lineman and No. 2 player from Colorado on that list. PrepStar named him All-Region. He was named to the prestigious Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100 as one of 21 offensive linemen on the list. Scout.com had him as the No. 33 offensive tackle in the country, while Rivals.com ranked him as the No. 51 offensive lineman in the country and the No. 5 player from Colorado. ESPN ranked him the No. 45 offensive tackle and the No. 4 player from Colorado. He was an All-Colorado selection by the Denver Post as a senior, when he was also first-team All-State (5A) and All-Big 6 Conference. He earned second-team All-Big 8 honors as a junior. Playing offensive tackle as a senior, he helped Arvada West average 343.6 yards of total offense (202.5 yards passing and 141.1 yards rushing per game). As a junior, the team averaged 30.3 points and 291.2 yards of offense per game. He sat out his sophomore season due to state transfer rules because he began the fall camp at another school. His freshman season, he lettered on the offensive line at Broomfield High School. Under head coach Casey Coons, Arvada West went 17-7 his two seasons as a starter, including 11-2 his junior season when Arvada West won the Big 8 Conference Championship and advanced to the state semi-finals. His freshman season under coach Gary Davies, Broomfield compiled a 12-1 record, winning the 4A Northern League Championship and advancing to the state semifinals.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on a major at Colorado but is interested in integrated physiology and a possible career in sports medicine. He was twice named Academic All-Colorado for maintaining a grade point average above 3.8.

PERSONAL—He was born January 31, 1992 in Denver. Hobbies include anything where he can enjoy the mountains including hiking, camping, skiing and other outdoor activities. He also enjoys reading.

STEPHAN NEMBOT, DE*6-8, 280, Van Nuys, Calif. (Montclair Prep)*

HIGH SCHOOL—An All-Region selection by PrepStar and All-Far West team member by SuperPrep, as he was the publication's No. 74 player in the region, the No. 69 player from California and No. 11 defensive end in the region. ESPN ranks him as the No. 45 defensive tackle in the country, the No. 49 player from California and No. 6 defensive tackle from California. Rivals.com ranks him as the No. 51 defensive end in the country, the No. 80 player from California and No. 8 strong side defensive end from California. Scout.com ranks him the No. 70 offensive tackle in the country, the No. 97 player from California and No. 5 offensive tackle from California. The Alpha League most valuable lineman, he also earned first-team mention. Rivals.com tabbed him "the most intriguing prospect in the west." He earned second-team All-Alpha League as a junior, his first year playing football. As a senior, he totaled 61 tackles (44 solo) with 11 sacks, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and one pass break-up. He also kicked off 35 times and had three touchbacks and had one kick return for 10 yards. His junior season he had 36 tackles (27 solo) with one fumble recovery while he kicked off twice. Top games include a 30-6 win over St. Anthony when he had seven tackles and four sacks. Against Paradete, the team lost 42-8 but he had 12 tackles and three sacks. He also played basketball at Montclair Prep and was named the Alpha League's best defender. He also played soccer (defender) and volleyball (front row/middle blocker) there.

ACADEMICS—He is interested in majoring in international business at Colorado. He has been a member of the Montclair Prep honor roll every semester for maintaining better than a 3.5 grade point average.

PERSONAL—He was born December 7, 1991, in Douala, Cameroon. He enjoys watching movies and television sitcoms as well as football and basketball games. He participates in a program through Montclair Prep to help feed the homeless up to twice a week and says it is his dream to come to the United States and make enough money to go back to Africa and help the needy.

WILL OLIVER, PK/P*5-11, 185, Los Angeles, Calif. (Harvard-Westlake)*

HIGH SCHOOL—Ranked the No. 31 kicker in the nation by ESPN, the No. 5 kicker from California on the ranking. Kicking guru Chris Sailer ranks him as the No. 12 kicking prospect in the nation. He was named first-team All-Mission league as a kicker and first-team All-Area as a punter his senior season. His junior year he was named All-Del Ray League as the school switched league affiliation. In his career, he connected on 18-of-23 field goals and 50-of-50 PAT kicks. His senior year he hit 6-of-9 field goal attempts and 25-of-25 PAT kicks. Two of his field goals came from 40-plus yards and his kickoffs resulted in touchbacks 85 percent of the time. He punted for the first time as a senior and averaged 38.0 yards per punt, pinning nine inside the opponent 20 and booting a long of 59 yards. As a junior, he hit 6-of-8 field goals with four of the six from 43 yards or longer and two from 50-plus yards with a long of 51. He made good on 10-of-10 of his PAT kicks and 80 percent of his kickoffs resulted in touchbacks. As a sophomore, he connected on 6-of-6 field goals and 15-of-15 PAT kicks. He was the National Kicking Event Prep Camp Champion this last year and the year before was twice a finalist in the field goal kicking events at two separate Chris Sailer camps. He also participates on the lacrosse and soccer teams at Harvard-Westlake and is the only student in each of his sophomore, junior and senior seasons to be a three-sport varsity athlete. In lacrosse, as a junior he tallied 31 goals and one assist and was named the offensive most valuable player. As a sophomore, he injured his thumb after just three games but had already compiled nine goals. He also plays hockey for Venice High because there aren't enough kids to compose a hockey team at Harvard-Westlake. Prior to settling on those four sports, in middle school at Harvard-Westlake, he also played water polo, baseball, tennis and ran track & field.

ACADEMICS—He plans on majoring in business at Colorado and is interested in sports management or sports marketing as a career choice. He was a member of the Honor Roll in high school maintaining above a 3.2 grade point average at Harvard-Westlake, which in April 2010 was ranked the No. 12 prep school in the country by Forbes and was the top ranked prep school west of the Mississippi River.

PERSONAL—He was born November 23, 1992 in Santa Monica, Calif. Hobbies include playing the viola in his school's symphony orchestra and playing other sports. His family owned a house in Aspen until he was 10 years old and he learned to play hockey there and also lists skiing as a hobby from his time there. He worked for two years as an usher at the Hollywood Bowl, a famous amphitheater set against the backdrop of the Hollywood hills and the famous Hollywood sign. He also dedicates spare time to the Riviera Foundation and volunteers teaching kids how to play tennis.

JUDA PARKER, DE

6-2, 245, Aiea, Hawai'i (St. Louis)

HIGH SCHOOL—A SuperPrep All-Far West region selection, as he was the No. 51 player in that region, the No. 4 player from Hawai'i and the No. 5 defensive end on that list. Rivals.com ranked him the No. 28 defensive end in the country and No. 1 player from Hawai'i while Scout.com ranked him the No. 36 defensive end in the country and No. 2 player from Hawai'i. He earned mention on the prestigious Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100 team and was one of 19 defensive lineman on that list. He participated in the Army All-American Bowl and was a headliner in the game, recording six tackles, a fumble recovery and had two big special teams plays, blocking one field goal and tackling the kicker for a sack on a fake kick attempt. At the National Underclassmen Football Combine, the coaches placed him on the offensive line, where he has never played, and he came away with the OL Most Valuable Player award for the camp. The Honolulu Advertiser named him the state's Defensive Player of the Year and the No. 4 prospect from Hawai'i. He earned the ILH Defensive Player of the Year honors, as well, and was named first-team All-State and All-ILH. He earned second-team All-ILH honors his junior year. As a senior, he compiled 64½ tackles when he had 16 sacks and three forced fumbles, and "too many quarterback hurries to count." St. Louis' defense had one shut out and totaled seven games giving up 13 or fewer points with five of those games surrendering one score or less. St. Louis was 11-1 under coach John Hao and won the ILH and state championships.

He attended Word of Life School from the seventh grade until his junior season when the school shut down. Lists his top game his senior year against Iolani when he recorded 11 tackles, two sacks and had a forced fumble in an "all-around dominant performance."

ACADEMICS—He plans to major in psychology at Colorado and is interested in sports psychology. He has made mention on his school's honor roll every semester in high school and maintains above a 3.5 grade point average.

PERSONAL—He was born May 11, 1993 in Honolulu. Hobbies include lifting weights and hanging out with his friends. His uncle, Brian Norwood, played football at Hawai'i and is currently the associate head coach and defensive coordinator for the Baylor Bears. A cousin, Jordan Norwood, was on the practice squad for the Cleveland Browns as a wide receiver this past season and has also been on the Philadelphia Eagles roster after a career at Penn State. Another cousin, Levi Norwood, is a football player at Baylor and an older cousin, Gabriel Norwood, is a professional basketball player in the Philippines. He has completed numerous hours of community service through his church and high school spending time with children during Sunday School and helping feed the homeless during the holidays. He is part of an ambassador's program at St. Louis and serves as a host and tour guide to new students.

NELSON SPRUCE, WR

6-2, 190, Westlake Village, Calif. (Westlake)

HIGH SCHOOL—A PrepStar All-American as he was ranked the No. 60 player in the nation on the publication's Top 150 Dream Team. A SuperPrep All-Far West team member, ranked the No. 64 player in the region and was the No. 9 wide receiver on that list. Scout.com ranks him the No. 95 wide receiver in the nation and No. 10 from California. In a separate list, Scout.com ranks him as the No. 10 wide receiver in the west. He earned All-CIF Northern Division first-team honors as a wide receiver both his junior and senior seasons and was named All-State for Cal-Hi Sports as a wide receiver his junior season and second-team all-purpose his senior year. The Los Angeles Times named him to its first-team All-Star team as a wide receiver his junior season and defensive back his senior season. He was named to the Ventura County All-Decade team as a wide receiver and named first team All-Ventura County as a junior and was the defensive back of the year for Ventura County as a senior and named first-team as a wide receiver. He was named the Marmonte League Wide Receiver of the Year both his junior and senior seasons and was a second-team selection at defensive back his sophomore season. The Los Angeles Daily News named him first-team All-Area both his junior and senior seasons. He was the Westlake co-MVP both his junior and senior season and named the most improved player his sophomore season. In his career, he is the third wide receiver at his school to have back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons, compiling 149 receptions for 2,795 yards and 37 touchdowns. He had 12 different 100-yard receiving games in his career and caught at least three passes in 26 of 28 games his final two years and had at least seven receptions seven times. He also caught multiple touchdowns in 11 career games and had 23 punt returns for 462 yards and two touchdowns. On defense, he had 141 tackles (88 solo), eight interceptions, eight pass break-ups and one forced fumble. As a senior, he caught 73 passes for 1,292 yards and 18 touchdowns. He returned 15 punts for 236 yards (15.7 per return) and a touchdown. On defense in spot duty, he had 31 tackles (19 solo) with three pass break-ups and two interceptions. He played past halftime in just four of 14 games his senior season. As a junior, he had 65 receptions for 1,325 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. On special teams, he had eight punt returns for 226 yards (28.3 per return) with one touchdown and three returns over 50 yards. On defense, he had 54 tackles (32 solo) and two interceptions. His sophomore season, he played primarily on defense and had 56 tackles (37 solo), four interceptions, five pass break-ups and a forced fumble. On offense, he had 11 receptions for 178 yards and a touchdown and also ran one time for 15 yards. He lists his top games as against Oaks Christian his senior year, when he caught seven passes for 130 yards and two touchdowns in a 31-12 win. Against St. Bonaventure, he caught a career-high nine passes for 133 yards and two touchdowns and had an interception and seven tackles in a 32-31 loss, but rebounded to beat them in the playoffs when he caught seven passes for 132 yards and a touchdown. He had five receptions for 131 yards and three touchdowns against Palos Verdes in the playoffs in a 49-28 win. In his first game his junior season, his first starting at wide receiver, he caught five passes for a career-high 233 yards (46.6 per reception) with four touchdowns, including a 94 yarder. That season he had a career-high nine receptions for 196 yards (21.8 per reception) and two touchdowns in a 31-27 win over Newbury Park when he also had seven tackles on defense. Against Ventura as a junior, he had five receptions for 143 yards and two touchdowns, including a 71 yarder. In a playoff game against St. Bonaventure, he had a career-high eight tackles and two interceptions on defense while catching three passes for 40 yards in a 17-7 win. In the CIF championship game against Moorpark, he had seven receptions for 107 yards and a touchdown on offense and five tackles on defense in a 14-10 win. Under coach Jim Benkert, Westlake compiled a 33-7 record his time there, including a perfect 14-0 mark his junior season and 12-2 mark as a senior with a 22-game win streak between those two seasons. He also played baseball at Westlake, earning All-Marmonte League honors as a third baseman his sophomore season and at shortstop as a junior. He will turn his attention to track & field for the first time this spring and plans to run in the 100- and 200-meter dashes.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on a major at Colorado and is interested in integrated physiology. He was named to the All-Ventura League Academic Team as a senior for maintaining above a 3.8 grade point average.

PERSONAL—He was born December 5, 1992 in Venice Beach, Calif. His hobbies include playing the Xbox, lifting weights and working out. His baseball team in the past has served community service working with the local Little League.

K.T. TU'UMALO, LB*6-2, 200, Honolulu, Hawai'i (Punahou)*

HIGH SCHOOL—He is ranked the No. 5 player out of Hawai'i by Rivals.com (No. 2 linebacker) and he is the No. 13 player in Hawai'i by ESPN and is the top linebacker on that list. He earned third-team All-State by the Honolulu Advertiser and was named first-team All-ILH and was the defensive most valuable player for Punahou. He totaled 97 tackles, including 18 for a loss with 12 sacks as a senior. He had two interceptions, forced one fumble and recovered two others on defense. Offensively, in spot duty as a running back, he ran the ball 10 times for 107 yards and a touchdown. His junior season, he had 67 tackles with 10 for a loss and six sacks. He had one forced fumble and returned a blocked kick for a touchdown. Playing behind Manti Te'o as a sophomore, he saw action in spot duty on defense and had one interception returned for a touchdown. His sophomore and junior seasons, he saw action on every special teams unit and made a lot of his plays there. Under head coach Kale Ane, Punahou compiled a record of 23-9 during his three years there including a 12-1 record that culminated with an ILH and Hawaii State Championship his sophomore season. He lists his top game as his senior year against St. Louis when he sprained his MCL and stayed in the game and registered two sacks and shut down some key players on the opposite side of the ball. He also played basketball and ran track & field at Punahou. His basketball team took third place in state his junior season. On the track, he competed in the 200- and, 400-meter dashes and the 4x400-meter relay. His relay team won the state championship both his sophomore and junior seasons and he took second place in the 400-meter dash as a junior. He won all three events in the ILH championships on the junior varsity level as a sophomore.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on a major at Colorado and has a 3.0 cumulative grade point average and a 3.3 for the fall semester. He is the first person in his extended family to go to college.

PERSONAL—He was born April 29, 1992 in Honolulu. Hobbies include going to the beach, body surfing and hanging out with his friends. He loves music and likes to mix and edit songs and is interesting in learning how to be a DJ. In his free time last semester, he spent time tutoring kids at his former middle school. Last name is pronounced T00-00H-MA-low.

KYLE WASHINGTON, DB*6-1, 200, Pasadena, Calif. (Florence, Ariz.)*

HIGH SCHOOL—A SuperPrep All-Far West team member, he was ranked as the No. 21 player from the state of Arizona and the No. 4 athlete from Arizona on that list. He earned the Arizona High School Coaches Football Association All-State team at wide receiver, defensive back and as a returner and was named to the AHSFCA's All-Star team as a wide receiver. He was named All-Arizona by the Arizona Republic where he was also listed first-team All-State (3A-2A-1A) as an all-purpose player. He earned honorable mention All-State as a wide receiver by the Arizona Republic as a junior. He scored 43 total touchdowns in high school and added two 2-point conversions for a total of 262 points. He racked up over 3,000 yards of offense, rushing 207 times for 1,562 yards and 16 touchdowns while he caught 57 passes for 1,437 yards and 22 touchdowns in his career. He also had three punt returns for touchdowns, one kick return and one interception return. As a senior, he scored 25 touchdowns, compiling 150 points, and rushed for 11 while receiving 10 more and garnering four on returns, two punt, one kickoff and one interception return. He compiled 1,451 yards of offense, rushing 83 times for 788 yards and 11 touchdowns and catching 23 passes for 663 yards and 10 touchdowns. He also had eight punt returns for 296 yards and two touchdowns and six kickoff returns for 316 yards and a touchdown. He also completed 2-of-3 passes for 34 yards. He averaged an astonishing 52.3 yards per kickoff return, 37.0 yards per punt return, 28.8 per reception and 9.5 per rush, overall averaging 12.1 yards per touch on offense or special teams. He had two 100-yard rushing performances and three 100-yard receiving games. On defense, he had four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and intercepted three passes, one of which he returned for a touchdown. He also punted, averaging 36.4 yards per on five punts. As a junior, he compiled 1,160 yards and 17 touchdowns along with two 2-point conversions to score 106 points. He caught 35 passes for 763 yards and 12 touchdowns and had 48 rushes for 397 yards and four scores. He returned three punts for 69 yards and a score, as well. On defense, he racked up 76 tackles (25 solo) and had one fumble recovery. His sophomore season, he ran 76 times for 457 yards and a touchdown and had two receptions for 11 yards. Lists his top game his senior year against Round Valley in the playoffs, as Florence won 35-21 after suffering a 36-35 loss to them earlier in the season. He had seven rushes for 70 yards and a touchdown and on defense, he helped shut down the Round Valley receivers picking off two passes and allowing just two completions after being thrown to 14 times. Against Estrella Hills his senior season in a 24-12 win, he caught four passes for 120 yards and a touchdown and ran 10 times for 75 yards and a score while coming up with a fumble recovery on defense. Against Globe in a 55-0 win, he had four receptions for 149 yards and three touchdowns and ran one time for a 20 yard score. Against Safford in a 35-19 win, he had 13 rushes for 113 yards and a touchdown, caught two passes for 24 yards and had one punt return for 62 yards. He also completed a pass for 23 yards and had a forced fumble on defense. Against Fountain Hills in a 21-14 win, he had eight rushes for 73 yards and on defense he had two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Against Coolidge in a 55-0 win, he caught two passes for 135 yards and two touchdowns, had five rushes for 42 yards and one punt return for 76 yards. He was hurt in the first half of the state championship semifinals. His junior season against Wickenburg in a 40-13 win, he caught three passes for 96 yards and a touchdown and ran seven times for 89 yards and a score. Against South Pointe in a 40-6 win, he had six catches for 116 yards and two touchdowns and ran four times for 50 yards. Under coach George De La Torre, Florence compiled a 19-7 record his final two years there, including 11-2 his senior year when it won the 3A South Championship and advanced to the semifinals of the state championship.

ACADEMICS—He is interested in majoring in business finance at Colorado and would like to pursue a career in investments after his playing days are over. He was named the Florence Student of the Month in December 2010.

PERSONAL—He was born October 17, 1992 in Pasadena, Calif. His hobbies include fishing, going to the shooting range and watching movies.