- Webb enjoys rapping and wrote a song entitled “Colorado Swag,” produced by former defensive end Forrest West that was played during pregame warm-ups at Folsom Field.
- Has won two spelling bees in his lifetime; once in elementary school and another in middle school.
- Is active in the Distributive Educational Club of America, an international association of high school and college students studying marketing, management and entrepreneurship.
- He is active in the community, volunteering for Bridge Builders, a program that seeks to develop future leaders who lay aside individual, social, economic and cultural differences. He volunteered for the Special Olympics through Bridge Builders, serving as a basketball coach.
- Is a cousin of former San Francisco 49er great Roger Craig, who won three Super Bowls and was the NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 1988.
- He has two other family members who played in the NFL. Kenton Keith played collegiately at New Mexico and is a member of the Indianapolis Colts while his uncle, Joe Lowery played running back at Jacksonville State and was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in 1976.

Kenneth Crawley
 DEFENSIVE BACK
 6-1 * 170 * Freshman

- Is the starting left cornerback and is listed as the first punt returner. He may also participate on kickoff returns.
- He is tied for third on the team in tackles with 48.
- Has played in 488 snaps this season, leading all freshmen and third on the team behind Parker Orms (529) and Terrel Smith (506).
- Played in 73 of the 77 snaps in week 7 vs. ASU. He had five tackles, one going for a loss, and a third down stop.
- In 79 plays, he had eight tackles, including seven solo tackles, and a pass break up in week 5 vs. UCLA.
- Played all 82 snaps and tied a career-high with 10 tackles, nine of which were solo (also a career-high) in week 4 at WSU. Also had a career-high two pass break ups and was credited with saving a touchdown.
- Picked up eight tackles and participated in all 72 plays in week 2 vs. Sac State. Seven of the tackles were unassisted.
- Along with Yuri Wright, Crawley started the Sac State game at cornerback, making it just the sixth time that two freshmen started at the same position in the same time—the fifth time by two true freshmen—and the second time at cornerback.
- Also vs. Sac State, fellow freshman Marques Mosley started at nickelback, marking the first time three freshmen (true or redshirt) have started in any group (secondary, linebackers, the lines, receivers, backfield) in Colorado history.
- In his first collegiate game, week 1 vs. CSU, he finished tied for second on the team with 10 tackles (five solo), playing in all 65 defensive plays. He also returned three punts for 38 yards, including a long of 24 yards.
- In his first collegiate punt return, he gained 14 yards—matching CU’s longest punt return all of 2011 (by Rodney Stewart) and the longest by the Buffs since 2009.
- In week 1 vs. CSU, he and WR Gerald Thomas became the eighth and ninth true freshman ever to start a season opener.
- Crawley, along with Greg Henderson (2011) and Victor Scott (1980) are the only true freshmen to start a season opener at cornerback in CU history. Only five other players have even started one game at cornerback as true freshmen: Deon Figures (1988), Toray Elton Davis (1994), Damen Wheeler (1996), Terrence Wheatley (2003) and Cha’pelle Brown (2006).

High School

- The Washington Post selected him as the D.C. area Player of the Year as a senior in high school.

Crawley, cont.

- As a senior in high school, SuperPrep ranked him the No. 10 player in the Mid-Atlantic Region, the second defensive back, and also listed him as the No. 2 prospect out of Washington, D.C. ESPN.com slotted him as the No. 18 cornerback in the nation while Rivals.com ranked him the No. 22 corner; MaxPreps ranked him the No. 17 safety in the country. Most of the services also considered him to be the No. 2 prospect out of the District.
- Also ran track as a sophomore in high school with him participating on the 4x100 and 4x200 meter relay teams.

Human Interest

- Enjoys playing volleyball, going to the movies and hanging out with friends in his spare time.
- Back in Washington, D.C., he helps serve the community by assisting at a group home.
- He is from the same high school (H.D. Woodson) as fellow true freshmen John Walker and De'Jon Wilson and redshirt freshman Sherrard Harrington.

Doug Rippy
LINEBACKER
6-3 * 245 * Senior

- Rippy is listed first on the depth chart at the "Mike" inside linebacker spot.
- Named to the 2012 Butkus Award (best LB) watch list prior to the season
- Had five tackles, a tackle for zero, and a third down stop in 35 plays in week 9 at Oregon.
- In his first full game back (he played sparingly the previous week), Rippy finished tied for second on the team with seven tackles—six unassisted—in week 8 at USC.
- Rippy played his first game in week 7 vs. ASU after missing the previous three with a knee injury. He saw 18 plays of action, making two tackles.
- Missed three games (Fresno State, Washington State, UCLA) with a knee injury, suffered in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. He only saw six snaps in the game with the Hornets.
- Led the team with 62 tackles through the first seven weeks of 2011 before suffering a season ending injury at Washington. He had three games with 10 or more tackles and averaged 8.9 tackles per game – tied for the most on the team with Anthony Perkins.
- Had back-to-back double-digit tackle games at Stanford (12) and at Washington (10) during his junior season.
- Playing in his hometown of Columbus, Ohio, Rippy recorded eight tackles (five solo), including a seven-yard quarterback sack in week 4 of 2011 vs. Ohio State.
- Rippy had a breakout spring in 2011, winning the Fred Casotti Award – given to the top junior-to-be after leading the Buffs with 24 tackles (18 solo) in three main scrimmages.
- Made his impact felt on special teams during the 2010 season, ranking third on the team with 23 special teams points. He led the Buffs by being the first player downfield on a kickoff six times.
- In his second collegiate game, Rippy saw action on just over half (35-of-66) of the snaps at Toledo in 2009. He responded with three tackles and a quarterback hurry on defense. He also blocked two punts on special teams.

Doug Rippy Human Interest

- Can be credited with helping the CU coaching staff discover former standout TB Rodney Stewart, as he told then running backs coach Darian Hagan about Stewart, his friend and cousin over the last four to five years.
- Rippy and Stewart learned that they are in fact cousins just before arriving in Boulder (but after they had known each other for several years). They are, in fact, first cousins once removed, and they both showed up to a family barbeque without knowing they are related. The two roomed together when arriving on campus.
- Rippy has an extremely large family; his paternal grandparents have over 90 grandchildren and several of his cousins are playing or have played college football and basketball. He squared off against a first cousin, James Davis, who was a sophomore running back at Wyoming when the teams met in 2009. A cousin, Chris Wright, played basketball at Dayton where he was regarded as one of the nation's most explosive players. Another cousin, Greg Moore, played basketball at Cincinnati.
- Is an accomplished basketball player; he received interest to play basketball from both Toledo and Xavier.

Kyle Washington
LINEBACKER
6-1 * 220 * Sophomore

- Is listed third at the "Will" inside linebacker position.
- Washington is tied for second on the team in special teams points with 13 in 2012.
- Had a season-high four tackles week 1 vs. Colorado State.
- Moved from safety to inside linebacker during 2012 spring practice
- Played in eight games on defense in 2011, making 20 tackles (13 solo). He also returned six kickoffs during the season, averaging 14.8 yards per return
- Washington started on defense against USC in week 10 during his freshman year, but he left the game after landing awkwardly on a play where he broke up a pass intended for the Trojans' Randall Telfer. He returned two weeks later for the UCLA game.
- Filling in for an injured Ray Polk, Washington made his first career start against No. 9 Oregon and played in all 69 snaps, recording a team-high six tackles. He started the following week at Arizona State as well, filling in for the injured Anthony Perkins at strong safety.
- Washington saw his first action and had his first touches at CU against CSU last season in week 3, returning two kickoffs for 35 yards.

Human Interest

- Although Washington attended high school in Florence, Ariz., he lived in Pasadena, Calif., until his sophomore year of high school and calls the home of the Rose Bowl his hometown.
- Washington was an accomplished basketball point guard in high school, averaging 21.5 ppg, 6.0 rpg, and 4.0 apg as a senior.

- Webb is the starting quarterback in his junior season. He was named to the position on Aug. 15, just 10 days into training camp and just days ahead of the first major scrimmage of the fall.
- Career: Is 25th all-time in Colorado history with 1,382 passing yards.
- Running For The Marker: Webb is a perfect 9-of-9 when running for a first down on a third or fourth down this season.
- WR-to-QB Connection: Caught his first career pass, at 15-yarder from WR Nelson Spruce, in week 8 at USC (He did not have a reception at Kansas). The last non-quarterback completed pass was by TB Rodney Stewart to QB Tyler Hansen in 2011 vs. Arizona. The last completed pass by a Colorado receiver was in 2008 when WR Scott McKnight threw a 38-yard pass to TB Darrell Scott (Oct. 4 vs. Texas in Boulder).
- Went 18-of-35 passing for 210 yards and three interceptions at USC.
- He went 20-of-41 passing for 180 yards and one touchdown in week 7 vs. Arizona State. With his performance, he became the 30th player in school history to throw for 1,000 career yards.
- In week 5 vs. UCLA, Webb completed 65.6 percent of his passes (21-of-32) for 184 yards. He threw for one touchdown and one interception.
- Went 29-of-42 passing for 345 yards—all of which were season highs—and threw for two touchdowns and ran for two more in week 4 at WSU. He threw one interception in the game.
- In the fourth quarter vs. WSU, Webb connected with TE Nick Kasa for a 70 yard touchdown pass. It was the longest TD strike of Webb's career and it was the longest QB-to-TE touchdown connection in CU regular season history.
- Scored the game-tying touchdown on a QB draw with nine seconds left vs. WSU (PK Will Oliver won the game on the following PAT). It was a fourth-and-goal from the 4-yard line and he had the option of calling his own number or throwing a pass depending on how the defense set up. He decided to run after seeing a lack of defenders up the middle.
- With CU's win over Washington State, Webb ended a personal 13 game losing streak and that stretched back to his days at Kansas.
- Earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week for his performance week 4 at WSU.
- Also named the Colorado collegiate player of the week as selected by the state's chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame, and he was nominated for the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas Pac-12 Player of the Week Award for the WSU game.
- In his first game as a Buff—week 1 vs. CSU—Webb went 22-of-41 for 187 yards and two touchdowns.
- Became just the seventh CU quarterback to throw two touchdown passes in his debut for the Buffs (first since Cody Hawkins in 2007). His 187 yards were ninth most in a debut in school history.
- Is one of eight quarterbacks who started games at a Division I school (Kansas 2010-2011) and did so for another one in 2012 (Colorado).
- Became the first player since 1992 to take a snap at CU and who also played at another school (Duke Tobin, saw limited action at Illinois in 1990).
- Officially transferred to Colorado from Kansas on July 5, 2012.
- He has two years of eligibility remaining at Colorado.

- Hitting The Books: Webb graduated from Kansas in 3 ½ years, with him taking 28 credits from January to June of 2012 in order to graduate. He earned a bachelor's degree in Psychology and a minor in Public Policy from Kansas. He also graduated in 3 ½ years from high school.
- Getting to Boulder: Webb reached out to CU assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach Rip Scherer about possibly transferring to Colorado. He knew early on he wasn't figuring into KU's future plans after the coaching change from Turner Gill to Charlie Weis (last January as a matter of fact), so he took advantage of the NCAA rule that allows a player to transfer anywhere that offered a graduate degree program that KU didn't sponsor. At Colorado, he was interested in and selected Educational Equity and Cultural Diversity. After speaking with Scherer, Jon Embree "vetted" Webb a bit through his son, Connor, who had transferred to KU from UNLV for the 2011 season; the younger Embree gave his dad solid feedback on Webb, from his character to his being a gym rat.
- Has the most game experience among the quarterbacks on the team, as he played in 21 games over two seasons at Kansas. His final stat line at KU included completing 60.6 percent of his passes, throwing for 3,079 yards and 20 touchdowns.

At Kansas

- In 2011 as a sophomore, he started all 12 games, completing 179-of-281 passes for 1,884 yards (13 TD/12 INT), with three 200-plus yard games.
- His top game in 2011 came against Oklahoma State, when he was 25-of-36 for 316 yards and two touchdowns in a 70-28 loss. His other two 200-plus yard games came versus Northern Illinois (281 yards on 21-of-30 passing) and versus Texas Tech (239 yards on 16-of-22).
- He had three touchdowns on three occasions as a sophomore, versus McNeese State, NIU and Texas Tech.
- At Kansas, he never played Colorado as he didn't play in the 2009 and was injured during the 2010 contest.
- In 2010, he started seven games and played in nine overall under KU coach Turner Gill.
- In his first career start against No. 15 Georgia Tech in week 2 of 2010, Webb completed 18-of-29 passes for 179 yards and three touchdowns, leading the Jayhawks to the 28-25 upset win.
- He threw for over 200 yards twice in 2010: 249 versus New Mexico State and 228 against Kansas State.
- He redshirted at quarterback during the 2009 season at Kansas under coach Mark Mangino.

Human Interest

- Worked out with Lawrence High School (Kan.) coach Dirk Wedd and senior quarterback Brad Strauss in spring of 2012. Brad is the son of former CU student SID and former Oklahoma State and Kansas SID, Mike Strauss.
- Aspires to be a college football coach after his playing days.
- Is often called a Mark Wahlberg look-alike.

- Is the backup quarterback behind Jordan Webb.
- Completed 4-of-6 passes for 23 yards in week 8 at USC.
- In week 3 at Fresno State, Wood saw the most action of his collegiate career; going 5-of-15 passing for 47 yards and two interceptions.
- Saw his first collegiate action in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. He saw one snap and completed the pass on the play—on a third and 18 in the third quarter—a 28 yard connection to WR Gerald Thomas. Jordan Webb finished the drive at quarterback, which ended in a CU touchdown—giving the Buffs a 28-24 lead.
- Took the majority of the first-team reps during spring practice after Nick Hirschman went down with a foot injury (QB Jordan Webb hadn't transferred to Colorado at the time).

Wood, cont.

- During four 2012 spring scrimmages in Boulder, Wood went 31-of-55 passing (56 percent) for 509 yards and six touchdowns. He threw one interception in 24 total spring scrimmage drives.
- Wood engineered six drives during the 2012 Spring Game on April 14, completing 7-of-10 passes for 137 yards. He threw two touchdowns in the game, one of which was a 42 yarder that was caught by Jarrod Darden.
- He transferred to Colorado from the University of Texas during the first week of school in 2011, in time to start his Colorado "clock" so he would be eligible for the 2012 season.
- Wood led the scout team offense for the majority of the 2011 season.
- Redshirted at Texas during the 2010 campaign, his true freshman season. He was one of four players battling for the starting job during training camp of that season.
- Enrolled at Texas in January 2010 after graduating from high school early and after starting in the 2010 U.S. Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio (3-of-5, 56 yards, 1 TD).
- He was a two-time member of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll at Texas. In high school, he was on the honor roll his freshman through senior years.

High School

- As a senior at Second Baptist High School in Houston, he was ranked the third best quarterback in the state by Dave Campbell's Texas Football, while Rivals pegged him as he sixth best pro-style quarterback in the nation. ESPN ranked him the No. 14 overall QB nationally.
- Also lettered three times in basketball (forward, helping Second Baptist to a 76-29 record his frosh through junior seasons), two times in golf and twice in track for a total of 11 as a prep

Human Interest

- His father, Jeff, was a professional race car driver.
- His older brother, Jeff Wood II, played quarterback at Texas A&M from 2006-09.
- Wood thrives on performing community service, including volunteer work at the Star of Hope in Houston, a Christ-centered homeless shelter meeting the needs daily of over 1,000 men, women and children.
- Is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and leads team Bible studies.

Yuri Wright
DEFENSIVE BACK
6-2 * 175 * Freshman

- Is listed second on the depth chart at the right cornerback spot behind Greg Henderson.
- Saw the most action of his collegiate career in week 9 at Oregon, playing all 75 snaps and tying a career-high with four tackles. He also made a touchdown saving tackle.
- Missed the week 7 game vs. ASU and the week 8 game at USC with a concussion, suffered in practice on Oct. 2.
- Started three consecutive games, weeks 2-4 (Sac State, Fresno State, Wash State), filling in for the injured Henderson.
- In week 3 vs. Fresno State, Wright made his second consecutive start; seeing 33 plays and recording four tackles
- Made his first career start in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. He played all 72 snaps and finished with three tackles, one of which went for a loss
- With true freshman Kenneth Crawley also starting the Sac State game at cornerback, it marked just the sixth time that two freshmen started at the same position in the same time—the fifth time by two true freshmen—and the second time at cornerback.
- Also vs. Sac State, fellow freshman Marques Mosley started at nickelback, marking the first time three freshmen (true or redshirt) have started in any group (secondary, linebackers, the lines, receivers, backfield) in Colorado history.

- Became only the ninth player in CU history to start at least one game at cornerback as a true freshman: Victor Scott (1980), Deon Figures (1988), Toray Elton Davis (1994), Damen Wheeler (1996), Terrence Wheatley (2003), Cha'pelle Brown (2006), Greg Henderson (2011) and Kenneth Crawley (2012).
- Played his first collegiate game in week 1 vs. CSU. He finished with one tackle and saw an increase in playing time as the game went along as starting CB Greg Henderson missed large portions of the second half with an ankle injury.

High School

- He graduated from Ramsey (N.J.) High School, where he finished up his course work after transferring there from Don Bosco Prep (which is also in Ramsey) for his final semester. He played football at Don Bosco Prep during the 2011 season
- A PrepStar Dream Team member, the publication ranked him as the No. 2 cornerback in the country and the No. 52 player overall.
- As a senior, he played in the Army All-American Bowl Game as one of 90 participants in San Antonio, leading the East team in tackles with nine and had two pass break ups.
- Originally favored basketball and played three seasons at Don Bosco, helping the team to a 55-23 record on the varsity team.

Human Interest

- Born in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, an island in the southern portion of the Windward Islands at the southern end and eastern border of the Caribbean Sea
- He enjoys playing basketball, fishing and cricket, the latter of which he is very talented. He also plays the violin and the drums.

Paul Richardson
WIDE RECEIVER
6-1 * 170 * Junior

- Will redshirt the 2012 season after suffering a torn ACL in the final week of spring practices (April 9, surgery on April 16).
- He was planning on going through a five-week intense rehab regimen in an attempt to possibly return to the field this year, but on Aug. 29, he announced that he had decided to sit out the 2012 season and be fully recovered for the 2013 campaign.
- Career: Entering the 2012 season, Richardson ranked 21st in career receiving yards (1,069), 25th in career receptions (73) tied for ninth in touchdown receptions (11) at Colorado, and is 63rd in scoring with 80 points. His 11 touchdowns have covered 371 yards, or 33.7 per score. He has six career plays over 50 yards, all receptions and five for touchdowns (62t, 60t, 55, 50t in 2010; 78t, 66t in 2011).
- He played in nine games during the 2011 season, making 39 catches for 555 yards and five touchdowns.
- He was a 2011 All-American honorable mention (collegefootballnews.com) and was named to the Mid-Season All-Pac 12 third-team (Phil Steele's College Football).
- Richardson was added to the watch list (along with former Buff Rodney Stewart) for the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's best wide receiver during his sophomore season.
- In week 12 last year, Richardson caught two passes for 16 yards at UCLA, surpassing the 500-yard mark for the season. He became the third CU player during the season to reach that mark, a program first.
- Injured his knee in the Washington State game in week 5 last year, forcing him to miss the following four weeks of action. Prior to his injury, Richardson was 23rd in the nation in receiving yards (fourth in Pac-12 with 474) and tied for 13th in reception TDs (5).
- Richardson had likely the best performance by a CU wide receiver in program history against Cal in week 2 of 2011. His 11 receptions tied six other performances (including Richardson at Kansas in 2010), while his 284 receiving yards shattered the previous mark of 222 held by Rae Carruth and Walter Stanley. He scored two touchdowns (66 and 78 yards).

Richardson, cont.

- For his efforts against Cal, Richardson was named National Wide Receiver of the Week by Intersport Performance Awards and was Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week.
- Richardson's two touchdown receptions against Cal gave him his fourth career game with multiple touchdowns (also did so against Hawai'i in 2011 and against Kansas and Texas Tech in 2010).
- Opened the 2011 season with back-to-back games of two touchdown catches
- Wide receivers coach Bobby Kennedy calls Richardson, "A special talent."
- With 34 receptions for 514 yards and six touchdowns, Richardson had the most receiving yards and touchdowns for a freshman in CU history. Only former teammate Scotty McKnight (43 in 2007) and Chris McLemore (39 in 1982) had more receptions as freshmen.
- Had two 100-yard games in 2010 (Kansas and Iowa State in consecutive weeks) with those two representing two of just five such instances in CU history at the time and two of just three 100-yard receiving games by a true freshman in CU history. His 11 receptions at Kansas tied a CU record for most in a game by players of any class.
- Scored on a 50-yard pass from Cody Hawkins at Nebraska in 2010, giving him his sixth receiving touchdown of his freshman campaign. The six touchdowns are a freshman record, besting the previous high of five by redshirt freshman Michael Westbrook in 1991.
- His 50-yard touchdown at Nebraska was his fourth 50-plus yard play of the season, the most a CU player had since Chris Brown had six in 2002.
- Caught five passes for 121 yards against Iowa State in week 10 of 2010, his second consecutive 100-yard receiving game. He became the first freshman to record more than one 100-yard day in CU history.
- Richardson had a career day at Kansas in week 9 of 2010 with 11 receptions for 141 yards and two touchdowns. He had another apparent touchdown ruled incomplete with just two seconds left in the Kansas game. His 11 receptions tied a CU record and are a CU record for receptions by a freshman, true or redshirt, and he tied the mark he set for freshman touchdown receptions he set against Texas Tech. His 141 yards is a freshman record.
- Had a break-out game against Texas Tech in 2010, pulling down four receptions for 79 yards and two touchdowns. He became the first true freshman to record two receiving touchdowns in the same game and just the third freshman (true or redshirt) to do so.
- Richardson caught his first collegiate pass against Colorado State in 2010, an 11-yard strike from Tyler Hansen.

Human Interest

- Nickname is "P-Rich."
- He joined the team on the second day of fall camp on scholarship after originally signing with UCLA.
- Played at Serra High School, which has also produced past Buffs Deon Figures and Jashon Sykes.
- He has twin brothers who are 13 years old.

- Polk is CU's starting free safety.
- Is one of four captains on the team.
- He has started in 29 career games at CU; third most on the current roster. Polk has played in 37 games in his career, third most behind Will Pericak (45) and Ryan Dannewitz (42).
- Career: Is 5th in CU history in total tackles with 207 (134 unassisted).
- In his second game after coming back from an injury, Polk had five tackles (all unassisted), one tackle for a loss, and two touchdown saves in week 9 at Oregon. He did not play in the second half due to facial lacerations.
- His tackle for a loss vs. Oregon was his first since the 2009 season as a redshirt freshman.
- Played his second game of the season in week 8 at USC. He participated in 39 of the 48 plays and finished tied for second on the team with seven tackles. He also had a pass breakup.
- He missed five games before the USC contest with a high ankle sprain, suffered in week 1 vs. Colorado State.
- Had three tackles in 25 plays in week 1 vs. CSU. He missed the majority of the game after suffering a high ankle sprain in the second quarter.
- He was limited during spring drills as he suffered a severe wrist sprain in winter conditioning that the trainers wanted to let continue to heal.
- Switched to No. 7 from No. 26 prior to the start of 2012 fall camp.
- Was named to the Ronnie Lott Impact Trophy watch list prior to the 2012 season. The award is presented to the college football Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. IMPACT is an acronym for: Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community, and Tenacity.
- Is the only senior defensive back on the team for 2012.
- 2012 PRESEASON ALL-PAC 12 – third-team: Phil Steele's College Football, collegesportsmadness.com.
- Rated No. 14 among free safeties by Phil Steele's College Football in 2012.
- Played with a cracked sternum for the majority of the 2011 season. He cracked it in practice before the Ohio State game in week 4. He also played with a torn ligament in his wrist for much of the season.
- Finished with 80 tackles in 11 games during his junior season. Only LB Jon Major had more with 85 tackles, but Major played in all 13 games. Polk finished first on the team in unassisted tackles with 59.
- Started at free safety in all 11 games he played last season and finished third on defense in total snaps played with 675.
- Polk picked up six or more tackles in nine of the 11 games he played last year, including in each of his final seven games of the 2011 season.
- Had six tackles and a forced fumble in the season finale at Utah last year.
- Polk had seven tackles in 70 snaps against Arizona in week 10 last season.
- He had started in 17 consecutive games before missing week 8 vs. Oregon in 2011 with an injury. He returned the following week at Arizona State.
- Returning to his home area (Polk is a Phoenix native), he led CU with ten tackles (eight solo) in the loss at Arizona State in week 9 last season.
- During his junior season, he picked up a career-high 17 total tackles and 11 unassisted tackles in week 6 at Stanford – tying team single-game highs for the year in both categories.
- Recorded his first career interception in week 5 vs. Washington State in 2011, returning the first-quarter pick 52 yards, the longest return of any kind for CU during the season. Polk once again played in every defensive snap in the game and notched six tackles.
- Had eight tackles (all solo) and a pass-breakup against Cal in week 2 of his junior season.
- Polk played in all 65 defensive snaps at Hawai'i in week 1 of 2011, tying for the team lead with seven tackles.
- Played the second most (behind the NFL-departed Jalil Brown) number of plays on defense, a total of 787 out of 809 in the 2010 season. Polk also ranked second on the team in tackles with 72 (42 solo).
- In his first two games after being named the starter at strong safety in 2009, Polk compiled 24 tackles (14 solo) and one third down stop.
- Polk's 15 tackles at Kansas State in 2009 were the most by a CU player since Jeff Smart had 15 at Nebraska in 2008 and the most by a defensive back since Ryan Walters had 16 tackles against Iowa State in 2008.

Polk, cont.

- In his first game, his redshirt freshman year against Colorado State in 2009, Polk started at safety (for the injured Patrick Mahnke) and responded with six tackles (two solo, one for a loss).
- Moving Positions: Came to CU as the nation's No. 11 running back prospect, but moved to safety after redshirting his true freshman year in 2008. He missed 2009 spring practices with surgeries on both shoulders.

Human Interest

- Was teammates with former CU offensive lineman Blake Behrens in high school, as both attended Brophy Prep in the Phoenix area.
- He made the game-winning interception to secure a state championship in 2005 for Brophy Prep.
- Polk is often called "Ray Ray" by his teammates as his full name is Raymond Ray Polk.
- He logged 70 hours of community service at the Upward Foundation, where he helps mentally challenged children.
- He is the oldest of five boys
- His father, Raymond, played cornerback for Oklahoma State and was drafted by the Los Angeles Raiders in 1985.
- He chose CU over a number of other FBS schools, including Oklahoma State where his father's uncle (Curtis Luper) was the running backs coach. Luper is now the running backs coach at Auburn.

- Is listed third on the depth chart at quarterback.
- In week 9 at Oregon, Hirschman went 7-of-16 passing for 64 yards and one interception. The interception went through the hands of Vincent Hobbs and into that of a Duck defender. He also had a rush of 13 yard in the game.
- Threw his first career touchdown pass in week 5 vs. UCLA. It was a 31-yard pass to TE Nick Kasa in the fourth quarter. He finished the contest going 2-of-3 passing for 42 yards.
- Saw one snap in the week 4 contest at Washington State after QB Jordan Webb left the game after getting the wind knocked out of him. On the play, he handed the ball off to TB Tony Jones, who ran 84 yards for the touchdown, cutting CU's deficit to 31-28. The Buffs ended up winning the contest 35-34.
- Saw his first action of the 2012 season in week 3 at Fresno State. He went 1-of-3 passing for 41 yards. His 41-yard pass to Dustin Ebner was the longest of his career.
- Missed all of spring practice after suffering a broken metatarsal bone in his foot. He suffered the same injury to his other foot the previous summer. Overall, he had three surgeries between the two but was 100 percent come the beginning of August drills.
- He made his first career start against Arizona State in week 9 of 2011 after taking all of the reps in practice with the first team while Tyler Hansen recovered from an injury. Hirschman was pulled for Hansen, however, in the first half of the ASU game. He was 4-of-7 for 52 yards before being replaced.
- Hirschman saw his most significant action against Oregon in week 8 last year, completing 8-of-18 passes for 71 yards after Tyler Hansen left the game late in the first half.
- Saw second half action at Washington in week 7 of his freshman season, completing 4-of-8 passes for 52 yards.
- Hirschman got his first career action in the fourth quarter at Stanford in 2011. He completed his only pass attempt for two yards to than freshman Tyler McCulloch.
- Redshirted the 2010 season after enrolling early to participate in spring practices.

Nick Hirschman Human Interest

- Was at a camp at USC when he verbally committed to the Buffs. During lunch, Hirschman received an e-mail to call former offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau. Kiesau offered Hirschman, who immediately accepted.
- During high school, Hirschman worked with quarterback gurus Bob Johnson and his son, former USC and NFL quarterback Rob Johnson, to improve his fundamentals.
- Hirschman's older brother, Max, played football at Chapman University, while his sister, Ali Dotson, was on the track and field team at Yale.
- Coming out of high school Hirschman received recruiting interest from UCLA and Stanford, in addition to offers from Harvard and Yale.
- Attended Los Gatos High School in Los Gatos, Calif. Other alumni include Minnesota Vikings defensive end Jared Allen, former Stanford quarterback Trent Edwards, and former CU lettermen Bill Fairband and Darren Fisk.
- Hobbies include ceramics (wheel working).

- First name is pronounced (Darr-uh).
- O'Neill is CU's starting punter.
- O'Neill is fifth in the Pac-12 in punting with him averaging 43.8 yards per kick this season. He is 17th nationally in the statistic.
- Career: Is seventh all-time at CU in putting average at 43.1. He is sixth all time in punts inside-the-20 with 40.
- Record Breaker?: He has 19 punts inside-the-20 this season (40 for his career) and is on pace to break the record for the most punts inside-the-20 in a season (24, John Torp, 2005) and in a career (65, John Torp, 2002-05).
- He has seven punts inside-the-10 this season. The record for the most in a season in nine by Mark Mariscal in 2002.
- Averaged 44 yards on nine punts, while also dropping five kicks inside-the-20 in week 7 vs. ASU.
- In week 5 vs. UCLA, he averaged 44.5 yards on 10 punts. He also dropped four inside-the-20 and tied his career-high of 57 yards (done three times previously).
- In week 3 at Fresno State, he had 10 punts with an average of 42.8 yards. He had a long of 53 yards and dropped four balls inside-the-20.
- Averaged 47.3 yards on six punts in week 1 vs. CSU, with two over 50 yards (57 and 56). His 57 yard punt in the first quarter tied a career high.
- Was named to the watch list for the 2012 Ray Guy Award (top collegiate punter) prior to the season.
- 2012 PRESEASON ALL-PAC 12 – third-team: collegesportsmadness.com; fourth-team: Phil Steele's College Football.
- A former walk-on, he was placed on scholarship permanently beginning in the 2012 spring semester.
- Finished fifth in the Pac-12 (31st in the NCAA) in 2011 with an average punt of 42.6 yards.
- Was named to the Freshman All-American second-team by collegefootballnew.com and Phil Steele's College Football and named to the Mid-Season All-Pac 12 third-team by Phil Steele's College Football.
- He had 74 punts, averaging 42.6 yards per kick – second best among freshmen in college football in 2011 with only LSU's Brad Wing being better (44.4 on 59 punts). It was the second highest ever by a CU frosh, behind a 43.7 figure in 2006 by Matt DiLallo. The 74 punts were the second most for a single-season in school history, well over the previous most by a freshman, 47, also by DiLallo.
- Had 21 kicks inside-the-20 and 17 kicks over 50 yards in 2011.
- O'Neill had six punts, averaging 49.2 yards, and two inside-the-20 against Colorado State on Sept. 17, earning an Intersport Punter Performance of the Week Honorable Mention Award – an honor that he picked up two more times during the season (Oct. 22 vs. Oregon, Nov. 19 at UCLA). He was an Intersport Performances of the Year Nominee.

O'Neill, cont.

- On Oct. 22 vs. Oregon, O'Neill had six punts inside-the-20 and four punts inside-the-10, setting single-game school records in both categories.
- Also set records in his freshman year for the most punting yards in a season and highest net punting average by a freshman in a season.

Human Interest

- Aside from a three-game stint playing wide receiver during the eighth grade, when O'Neill saw action at Hawai'i in 2011 it was his first experience playing organized football. O'Neill performed well in that game, punting seven times with a 44.9 yard average, dropping four inside-the-20, and had a long of 56 yards.
- O'Neill had never punted in a game before week 1 at Hawai'i, but began working with his father and local kicking coach Matt Thompson in Jan. 2011. He earned a tryout with special teams coach J.D. Brookhart and earned the opportunity to walk-on in spring 2011. O'Neill also worked with Oakland Raiders punter Glenn Pakulak during the summer.
- Attended classes at CU in 2010, but was not on the football team until spring practices.
- Football may be the last sport O'Neill expected to play collegiately while at Boulder's Fairview High School. O'Neill was a star both on the soccer pitch and the basketball court, where he led the 2010 5A runner-up Fairview team with 25 points per game. He earned all-state honors in both sports.
- Either Foot: O'Neill, who has strong family ties to Gaelic football, is capable of punting with either foot.
- O'Neill was born in Cork, Ireland, where he lived until he moved to America when he was three years old, but all of his relatives are still in Ireland and his family visit there every summer.
- During his sophomore year of high school, O'Neill was diagnosed with a rare blood disease that initially confused doctors and caused him to slip into a coma for five days. He was read his last rites by a priest and his father was told he was in God's hands. Hundreds offered prayers and cards, including iconic Irish soccer player Roy Keane. O'Neill made a complete recovery.
- O'Neill's name means "oak tree."
- O'Neill's father, Colm, and an uncle, Maurice Fitzgerald, were both accomplished Gaelic footballers (a mix of soccer and rugby) back in Ireland.
- A younger brother, Shane, was a high school soccer All-American and signed with the Colorado Rapids organization in the summer of 2012.
- O'Neill's father, Colm, owns a traditional Irish pub in Boulder named Conor O'Neill's. Featured on the menu is black and white pudding, a traditional Irish dish with the key ingredient being fresh pig's blood. Darragh worked at the pub during his freshman year at CU.

- Is listed fifth on the depth chart at the tailback position.
- Had four rushes for 17 yards in week 1 vs. CSU.
- Missed all of spring practice while undergoing rehabilitation following knee surgery; the knee was still a bit sore at the start of August camp so his return to practice was delayed. In two games in 2011, Creer played in two games, running 15 times for a total of 43 yards. He also had two catches.
- Carried four times against Arizona State last year before getting knocked out for the season with a knee injury.
- Saw his first action against No. 9 Oregon in week 8 of his true freshman season after being burning his redshirt due to lack of depth following Rodney Stewart's injury. Creer ran 11 times for 37 yards in addition to returning two kickoffs for 38 yards against the Ducks.
- Creer's efforts on the Scout Team during the week leading up to the Washington game in week 7 allowed him to travel with the team, though the Buffs had no intent on using him.

Malcolm Creer High School

- Began playing football his sophomore year of high school, and as a junior, he set a California state record with a 108 yard interception return for a touchdown.
- Also lettered three times in basketball in high school, and led his league in charges taken as a senior, including four in one game.
- In high school, he lived in the Crenshaw district of Los Angeles but commuted to Palisades for the better academic offerings.

Human Interest

- Enjoys yoga and taking massage classes. He also took classes at Santa Monica College to learn sign language.
- Creer's nickname growing up, as given by his mother, was "Toppie."

- Canty is listed third at the "Z" wide receiver spot on the depth chart.
- He has two catches for 16 yards this season. Both were 8-yard receptions in week 3 at Fresno State and week 8 at Southern California.
- Numbers Game: Canty has worn five different numbers since coming to Colorado - 31, 84, 4, 18, and now 12. He was No. 31 as a true freshman, before switching to No. 4. He then switched to No. 84 because he and Kyle Washington were on the same kick return unit in 2011. In 2012, he began at No. 18 before switching to No. 12 during fall camp.
- New Orleans Love: Canty switched to No. 12 prior to the 2012 season in honor of the 12th Ward in New Orleans where he is from.
- Played in the final 12 games in 2011, making 14 catches for 161 yards as a redshirt freshman. Also had two rushes during the year (loss of seven yards).
- Had a career-long 39-yard reception to set up CU's first touchdown against Arizona in week 11 last year.
- Canty led the Buffs with three catches (for 28 yards) against No. 9 Oregon in week 8 of 2011.
- Recorded five catches for 45 yards - a career high - in just his second career start at Washington in 2011 (week 7).
- Canty recorded his first start at wide receiver at Stanford in week 6 of his redshirt freshman season and responded with three catches for 23 yards. His first catch came in the game's first play. He also had his first career start in the game.
- Saw his first action as a Buff against Cal in week 2 last season.
- Redshirted during his true freshman season in 2010.
- Canty also participated in track and field in high school, lettering four times and earning All-4A District 10 honors in the triple jump as a junior.
- Wide receivers coach Bobby Kennedy on Canty: "The thing I like about Keenan so far is when he comes off the ball he's going fast. He can stretch the field. He's a guy I'm hoping is in that mix."

Parker Orms
 DEFENSIVE BACK
 5-11 * 195 * Junior

- He can play multiple positions in the Colorado backfield, as he has played free safety, strong safety and nickelback this season.
- Orms started at free safety in five games this season, filling in for the injured Ray Polk.
- Has played 529 defensive snaps this season, the most on the team.
- Is tied for third on the team in total tackles with 48.
- Set a new single-season career-high this year with 529 snaps played, 48 tackles, three tackles for a loss, and six pass breakups.
- Orms had six tackles (five solo), including one going for a loss of three yards, in 60 plays in week 9 at Oregon. He missed the majority of the second half with a concussion.
- Had a fumble recovery (first of his career), three tackles, and a third down stop in 39 plays (out of 48) at USC in week 8.
- Played all 77 plays in week 7 vs. ASU, making six tackles and one third down stop.
- In week 5 vs. UCLA, he played all 84 snaps and recorded four tackles, had a career-high three third-down stops and tied a career-high with two pass deflections (last happened in week 2 vs. Sac State).
- In 81 (out of 82) plays in week 4 at WSU, Orms had 13 tackles, 12 of which were unassisted—both of which are career highs—one tackle for a loss and one pass break up. He is also credited with saving a touchdown.
- Played all 67 snaps in week 3 at Fresno State. He had five tackles (four solo) with one going for a loss.
- Picked up seven tackles (all solo), two pass break ups and played in all 72 snaps in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. He was also credited with saving a touchdown in the game. His pass deflections were a career-high.
- Suffered a severe hamstring strain in the third practice of the spring and sat out the remainder of the sessions. He began the 2012 season healthy.
- Played in six games in 2011 (starting in all of them), finishing fifth among defensive backs in total tackles with 39 (25 of which were unassisted).
- Missed six straight games (injury and suspension) in the middle of his sophomore season. Returned to action vs. Arizona in week 11, picking up six tackles on 51 snaps.
- Is credited with saving four touchdowns during his sophomore season – tied for second most on the team.
- Led the team with a then career-high 11 tackles (seven solo) in week 3 vs. Colorado State
- Had 10 tackles (five unassisted) and recorded his first career sack, a loss of eight yards, vs. California in 2011.
- Started his second straight season opener, playing in all 65 defensive snaps at Hawaii on Sept. 9. Finished tied for the team lead with seven tackles in the game vs. the Warriors.
- As a redshirt freshman, Orms injured his knee in his first collegiate game against Colorado State on CU's punt coverage unit in the first quarter. He missed the remainder of the season. Prior to the injury, Orms was listed second at free safety and was CU's starting nickel back.

High School

- Both Orms and his brother, Dylan, were named MVP of the Colorado state high school championship game for Wheat Ridge High School, Dylan in 2006 and Parker in 2008. Dylan was a quarterback at the University of Northern Colorado.
- In the 2008 state final at Sports Authority Field at Mile High Stadium, Parker Orms had one of the most memorable plays in Colorado high school football history. On 4th-and-2 and trailing Greeley West 31-28 with 19 seconds left, Orms took a draw 56 yards for his fifth touchdown of the game, securing the 35-31 victory. As a senior at Wheat Ridge, Orms rushed 274 times for 2,813 yards and scored 45 total touchdowns.
- Human Interest: His mother, Katherine, lettered in softball in the mid-1970s at Northern Colorado. Two uncles played college football, Bill Korosec at Eastern Illinois (running back, EIU's leading rusher in 1992) and Joe Korosec at Fort Lewis (linebacker, played for former CU head coach Gary Barnett in 1983-84).

- Henderson is the starting right cornerback.
- Trends: With a couple of young players in the secondary this season, Henderson hasn't seen a lot of passes thrown his way, but he still been able to wrap up opposing defenders when he has had to as he's post at least four tackles in five of the six games he has played this season, including in each of the last four.
- Made four tackles and played 39 of the 48 snaps in week 8 at USC.
- Played all 77 snaps and recorded four tackles in week 7 vs. ASU.
- In his second week back in the lineup, Henderson had five tackles and tied a career-high with two pass deflections—the season's first—in the week 5 game with UCLA. He participated in 79 of the 84 defensive plays.
- Returned to the lineup week 4 at WSU after missing the previous two weeks with an ankle injury. In Henderson's return, he made three tackles in 69 plays.
- He had made 12 consecutive starts before missing the week 2 contest vs. Sac State (He also missed week 3 at Fresno State). Prior to missing the game, he was third on the current roster in consecutive starts (behind Will Pericak and Jon Major).
- He missed week 2 vs. Sac State and week 3 vs. Fresno State with an ankle injury in which he suffered in the second half of the season opener vs. CSU. It was the first games that he had missed in college and high school.
- In week 1 vs. CSU, he had five tackles and a third down stop.
- Played in all 13 games in 2011, starting 12 of them from the right cornerback position.
- He played a freshman record and defensive high 823 snaps (of 868 on defense) from scrimmage last year, with only OG Ryan Miller (850 plays) having played more.
- Henderson finished with 58 tackles (44 solo) – third most by a defensive back in 2011 – and had three tackles for a loss.
- Broke up a team-high nine passes in 2011. He is the first freshman in school history to ever do so since numbers started being tracked in 1964.
- Is credited with saving four touchdowns in 2011 – tied for the second most on the team.
- Finished tied for second on the team with six third-and-fourth down stops last season.

- In week 7 vs. ASU, Thomas had two catches for 28 yards, including a reception that went for 21 yards
- Picked up three catches for 32 yards and had two runs for 20 yards in week 4 at WSU.
- In week 2 vs. Sacramento State, he had two catches for 45 yards (career-high) and one run for 18 yards.
- Picked up his first career start in his first career game in week 1 vs. Colorado State. He finished with three catches for 26 yards.
- His start vs. the Rams was the first start by a true freshman at wide receiver in a season opener since 1972 when true freshman again became eligible to play.

High School

- As a senior in high school, he was named the Texas 4A District 4 Special Teams Player of the Year, also earning second-team All-4A District 4 honors. He was also his school's Offensive Player of the Year, Receiver of the Year and Special Teams Player of the Year.
- Also lettered in track, competing in the 400-meter dash and the 4x100- and 4x400-meter relays. He won the district title in the 400-meter dash and tied for third at regionals (with a time of 47.9 seconds).

Human Interest

- Even though he was recruited out of Texas, he considers New Orleans his home.
- He grew up in New Orleans until his family was uprooted when Hurricane Katrina hit the city when he was 11 years old. His family, which numbered 13, stayed in a Dallas hotel for three months before moving to Plano for the next three months. All 13 people were in one hotel room with only two beds. After things settled down, Gerald and his parents stayed in Plano while the rest of his family returned to New Orleans. After spending sixth and seventh grade in Plano, his family moved to The Colony where he would attend high school.
- He is a distance cousin of current Pittsburgh Steelers wide receiver Mike Wallace.

- Oliver is listed atop the depth chart at placekicker. He may also participate on kickoffs.
- Career: As a sophomore, he is already 49th all-time at CU in scoring and 15th in kick scoring with 93 points.
- Oliver made both field goals in week 8 at USC, a 37-yarder and 27-yarder. It was the first time this season that he tried two field goal attempts in the same game.
- Made a 36-yarder as time expired in week 7 vs. ASU. It was his second made field goal in third attempt this season.
- Kicked the game-winning PAT in week 4 at WSU after QB Jordan Webb ran for the 4-yard touchdown with nine seconds left. CU won 35-34.
- His PAT winner vs. WSU was just the eighth time in CU history where a player scored the final point to win a game on a PAT.
- Made a 30 yard field goal in the fourth quarter in week 1 vs. CSU. At the time, it gave CU a 17-16 lead in the game.
- Missed the last portion of spring practice due to a chronic shoulder issue.
- Had kicking attempts in 12 games in 2011, going 11-of-16 on field goal attempts and 29-of-31 on extra point attempts.
- Set school records for most field goals made (11) and attempted (16) by a freshman, longest field goal by a freshman (52 yards) and most points scored by a freshman (62 points).
- Oliver set the school record for freshman scoring by making 6-of-7 extra points in winds gusting over 50 mph against Arizona in week 11 last season.
- He scored 62 points in 2011, breaking Mason Crosby's previous freshman record of 52 in 2002.
- Four of the five field goal misses as a freshman were blocked and the other was a 49-yard attempt as time ran out in the first half at Stanford.
- After missing his first field goal as a Buffs in the first quarter in week 5 last year vs. Washington State (a 29-yarder that was blocked), he rebounded to make two kicks from 48-yards later in the game.
- Only Jeremy Flores made more field goals without missing to start his CU career (seven) than the six straight that Oliver hit to begin his freshman season.
- Oliver was 4-of-4 on field goal attempts against Cal in week 2 of 2011, including a CU freshman record long of 52 yards. His 15 points in the game is the most by a freshman specialist in a game. Jeremy Aldrich is the only other Buff to go 4-of-4 as a freshman. The last CU kicker to go 4-of-4 in a game was Mason Crosby against UTEP in the 2004 Houston Bowl.
- Was named a Lou Groza Stars-Of-The-Week for his performance vs. Cal in 2011.

- Oliver was the only freshman and one of 18 players total to make a 50-plus yard field goal through the first three weeks of the 2011 season.
- In Oliver's first collegiate game in week 1 at Hawai'i, he made both extra points he attempted in addition to his only field goal attempt, a 34-yarder in the fourth quarter.
- Oliver earned the starting kicker nod after making ten consecutive field goals in a 2011 August practice, with Embree declaring him the starter after he made the tenth one.

High School

- In high school, Oliver was ranked the No. 5 kicker in California in ESPN and the No. 12 kicker in the country by kicking guru Chris Sailer. He made 18-of-23 career field goals and all 50 extra points.
- Also lettered in soccer, lacrosse and hockey.
- He lettered in hockey at Venice High School because there weren't enough kids to compose a hockey team at Harvard-Westlake.

Human Interest

- He requested a switch from No. 91 he wore as a freshman to No. 28 because he is a devout Los Angeles Kings fan; Luc Robitaille, former player and currently in the Kings' front office, introduced him to Adam Deadmarsh, the one-time Avalanche and former Kings player who wore... No. 28.
- He worked as an usher at the Hollywood Bowl, a famous amphitheater set against the backdrop of the Hollywood sign and hills.

- Is the third tailback on the Buffs' depth chart.
- In seven games this season, Ford has 25 rushing attempts for 122 yards.
- Coach Jon Embree announced that he had earned a scholarship (along with Scott Fernandez and Alex Wood) after the first practice (Aug. 6) of 2012 fall camp.
- Ford ran for 38 yards on seven rushes in week 7 vs. Arizona State.
- Had 61 yards and one touchdown (second of his career) on 10 rushes in week 3 at Fresno State (all of which came in the fourth quarter). It was the second most yards of his career—behind his 73 in week 11 of the 2011 season vs. Arizona.
- Moved from No. 42 to No. 29 prior to the week 2 game with Sac State.
- He played in 12 games in 2011, rushing 22 times for a net gain of 128 yards.
- Returned seven kickoffs – third most on the team – for 160 yards and averaged 22.9 yards per kickoff, second highest on the team.
- Ford had his first career touchdown against Arizona, exploding through the line for a 17-yard score in the second quarter. The run was the longest scoring run of the season by any Buff. He finished with 26 rushing yards vs. the Wildcats in the week 11 matchup last season.
- Ran for a career-high 73 yards during week 9 of his freshman season at Arizona State.
- Saw his first action on offense at Stanford in week 6 last year, rushing four times for 15 yards late in the game.
- Made his CU debut in week 1 in 2011 at Hawai'i, playing on special teams.

High School

- Played in high school at Colorado football power Mullen, though did not receive a Division I scholarship offer. He intended on walking-on at Kansas State, but after that fell through, he instead attended classes at Barton Community College during the 2009-10 school year but did not play football as Barton does not field a team. He then came to CU where he walked-on and redshirted the 2010 season.

Ford, cont.

- Despite rushing for 1,348 yards and 19 touchdowns with a 9.1 ypc average as a senior on Mullen's 2008 state championship team, Ford was largely overshadowed by his teammate Adonis Ameen-Moore, then a sophomore, who rushed for 1,396 yards and 20 touchdowns. Ameen-Moore enjoyed two more standout seasons at Mullen and is now a member of the Syracuse football team.

Human Interest

- One of his idols as a prep performer was LenDale White, the former USC and Chatfield High School star, who was also coached by the same coaches he later would have at Mullen.
- He is active in the community and was the recipient of the Colorado Youth of the Year Award for his leadership in the Boys & Girls Club as a senior in high school.
- Ford's uncle is Howard Ballage, who lettered for CU from 1976-78 and as a senior led the nation in kickoff returns with a 29.4 average.

- Was one of four team captains in 2011 and was the first junior captain since QB Joel Klatt (2004).
- Led the team in tackles with 85 in 2011, 56 of which were unassisted.
- Started all 13 games in 2011: the first seven at the "Sam" outside linebacker position and the final six at the "Mike" inside linebacker position after Rippy's season-ending injury.

- Finished with three sacks and finished tied for second on the team with four other tackles for a loss during his junior year. He also played the fifth most snaps overall and the second most on defense with 752.
- Was named a Pac-12 Conference Players-of-the-Week for his performance in week 13 at Utah (nine tackles, six solo, two tackles for a loss including a quarterback sack, three third down stops, one touchdown save).
- His three third down stops in the Utah game in week 13 last year is tied for the most by a CU player in a contest last season (tied with Patrick Mahnke, who did the feat twice in 2011).
- Led the team with 11 tackles, a season high, at UCLA in week 12 in 2011.
- Had his first double-digit tackle game of the season in week 11 last year as he had 10, including one for a two-yard loss and a pass break-up in the win over Arizona.
- Major tied for the team lead with eight tackles (all solo) in the USC game in week 10 last year.
- Against Washington State in week 5 of his junior season, Major finished second on CU with nine tackles, including a seven-yard quarterback sack; his second in three games.
- A week after his first career interception against Cal, Major recorded his first career sack (a 10-yard loss) against Colorado State in week 3 of his junior season.
- Made his first career interception against California in week 2 last season, in addition to notching eight total tackles.
- Played in 52 snaps at Hawai'i and compiled six tackles in the 2011 season opener.
- Major was leading the defense with 57 tackles on the season, an average of 8.1 per game, prior to his injury in 2010. He also had a team-leading 10 tackles either for no gain or a loss and seven third down stops, also most on the squad, prior to going down in the Texas Tech game.
- Prior to injuring his knee late in the Texas Tech game in week 7 (2010), Major recorded 12 tackles, one for no gain and one third down stop to add to his team lead in all three categories.
- Major led the Buffs for the second straight game with 13 tackles, a season high, at Missouri in week 5 of 2010, including nine solo, two for a loss and two others for no gain. The two tackles for loss were the first two of his career.
- Led the Buffs with eight tackles (four solo) against Georgia in week 4 in a 29-27 win. He also had an additional tackle for zero, one third down stop and the game-clinching fumble recovery after B.J. Beatty forced it. That happened with 1:55 left in the game and the Buffs were able to run out the clock after Georgia had marched to the CU 27 yard line.
- Major led the Buffs with 10 tackles to open the 2010 season against Colorado State. Two of his tackles were for no gain, two were third down stops and one was a touchdown saving tackle.
- Played just under half of the defensive snaps against Wyoming in 2009 in his first collegiate defensive action and responded with three tackles, a third down stop, a quarterback pressure and a quarterback chase down.
- Had worked his way into the second-team on the depth chart just a week into his true freshman fall camp before he went down with a torn ACL in a non-contact drill on August 13, 2008, forcing him to miss the entire season.

Human Interest

- Was considered by most as the top high school senior in the state of Colorado (over 50 scholarship offers from around the nation including Florida, Michigan, UCLA, Oklahoma, Oregon, Tennessee and Louisville) in 2007. He was a Parade All-American and Colorado's Gatorade Player of the Year.
- Despite what the recruiting rankings said, he was regarded as the nation's top prep linebacker by many college coaches with his combination of size and strength making him more attractive than those few prospects ranked ahead of him.
- His father (Ken) played football at Rice and was named an honorable mention All-American; he was also one of his school's assistant coaches.
- As a 13-year-old, he was one of the best youth hockey goalies in Colorado.

Woodson Greer
LINEBACKER
6-3 * 225 * Sophomore

- Is listed second on the depth chart at "Sam" outside linebacker behind Jon Major.
- Greer leads the team in special teams points with 19 this season.
- Had a career-high seven tackles, including a career best five unassisted in week 7 vs. ASU. He also finished with one QB sack, his first of his career, another tackle for a loss, and a third down stop.
- He played in 25 snaps vs. ASU. He had played a total of 24 snaps prior to the game.
- Played in five games in 2011 on defense and special teams. Played three games on defense, picking up three tackles – one of which was for a loss. Had two of his tackles vs. Stanford.
- Greer's redshirt was lifted against Stanford in week 6 as he played in 10 snaps, recording two tackles—one for zero and the other for a one yard loss.

High School

- As a senior in High School, he was named PrepStar All-Region and SuperPrep All-Far West team member, as the publication ranked him the No. 65 player in the region (the No. 10 linebacker on that list). Scout.com ranked him as the No. 48 outside linebacker in the nation, the seventh best from California.
- Greer attended Junipero Serra High School, the same high school as teammate David Bakhtiari.
- Junipero Serra was 42-2 in his final three years, winning a California state title in Greer's junior year.
- Human Interest: He plays the piano and has been able to do so since he was six years old.

Justin Castor
PLACEKICKER
6-4 * 200 * Junior

- Castor is the backup kickoff specialist and is listed second at placekicker.
- Played in 10 games in 2011 as the primary kickoff specialist.
- Castor scored his first career point with a fourth quarter PAT against USC in week 10 of 2011.
- Attempted one field goal in 2010; a 40-yarder against Missouri that was blocked. He also kicked off five times, twice resulting in the opponent being stopped inside the 20.

High School

- Had already been inducted into Arvada West High School's Hall of Fame, and was the Jefferson County 5A Athlete of the Year for all sports. He kicked, punted, and played wide receiver his senior season.
- In high school, he earned first-team Academic All-State four times in both football and basketball and twice in track & field.
- was H.S. teammates with redshirt freshman Marc Mustoe at Arvada West.

- First name pronounced (terr-rell).
- Smith is listed as the starting strong safety on the latest depth chart.
- He is first on the team in total tackles with 65. He has two fumble recoveries this season, which ties him for the lead in the Pac-12.
- Trends: Has had at least eight tackles in six contests this season, including in six of the last seven.
- Played in all the defensive snaps in four of the eight games this season. He is second on the team in defensive snaps played with 506.
- Has set new single-season career highs this year in plays (506), tackles (65), and pass breakups (three).
- Smith had 11 tackles (eight solo) in 44 plays in week 9 at Oregon; it was his second double-digit tackle performance of the season. He also had a third down stop and saved one touchdown vs. the Ducks.
- Playing in all 77 snaps, Smith had a season-high 12 tackles and also had a fumble recovery and pass break up in week 7 vs. Arizona State.
- Played in 79 of the 84 defensive snaps and had nine tackles (seven solo) in week 5 vs. UCLA.
- Played all 82 snaps and recorded a third-down stop, a touchdown save, and a fumble recovery week 4 at WSU. He returned the fumble (forced by LB Paul Vigo) 10 yards to the WSU 1-yard line. He originally scored on the recovery but after review it was determined that he had stepped out of bounds just short of the goal line. It was his first fumble recovery of his career.
- Picked up nine tackles (seven solo), a third down stop, and a pass break up in week 3 at Fresno State. He also played in all 67 snaps in the contest and is credited with saving a touchdown.
- Had eight tackles (six unassisted) and a pass break up in 71 snaps in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. He is also credited with saving a touchdown in the game.
- Played in all 65 defensive plays at strong safety in week 1 vs. CSU. He finished with six tackles (four unassisted) and is credited with saving one touchdown in the contest.
- Played in 11 games in 2011, totaling 36 tackles. He started six games at a wide range of defensive back positions: cornerback, nickel back, free safety and short safety.
- Finished with 25 special teams points, second most on the team in 2011.
- Started at free safety against USC in week 10 last season, playing in all 72 snaps and tying the team lead with eight tackles (seven solo) – a season high for Smith.
- Allowed CU to record their only points vs. Oregon in week 8 of his sophomore season by tackling Cliff Harris in the end zone on a punt return to notch a safety.
- Smith intercepted Andrew Luck at Stanford in Week 6. He was in on 35 plays and also had four solo tackles.
- Ranked fourth on the team with 60 tackles in 2010, including the two highest single-game outputs of the season for CU with 17 tackles at Nebraska, and 15 against Texas Tech. Smith averaged a team-high 10.0 tackles per game as a true freshman.
- Smith's career-high 17 tackles against Nebraska in 2010 set a CU record for most tackles in a game by a true freshman, which was previously held by J.J. Billingsley, who recorded 15 in his second career game against San Diego State in 2002. Also notched 15 tackles to tie the record against Texas Tech.

- His 17 tackles against Nebraska were also the most by a CU player since Jordan Dizon had 17 at Arizona State in 2007, and tied the overall freshman mark also held by Matt Russell at Oklahoma State in 1993.
- Had nine tackles and his first career interception at KU in week 9 of 2010.
- Smith tallied a game-high 15 tackles against Texas Tech in week 7 of 2010 in his first collegiate action (four solo) and also had one quarterback sack and one third down stop.
- Colorado was the only Division I school to offer Smith a scholarship out of high school.
- Former CU head coach Dan Hawkins compared Smith to the NFL's Bob Sanders: "He's not very tall or prototypical, but he can hit. He understands the game and puts himself in the right spot."

- Last name is pronounced (day).
- Daigh is the backup "Mike" inside linebacker.
- Started four games (weeks 3-7) at "Mike" inside linebacker, with him replacing the injured Doug Rippey in three of those contests (Rippey was healthy in week 7 vs. ASU but did not start).
- Is tied for second on the team in special teams points with 13.
- Did not play in week 8 at USC and week 9 at Oregon due to an injury.
- In week 7 vs. ASU, Daigh had six tackles (tying a career-high) and a fourth down stop. He suffered to what appeared to be a serious injury late in the fourth quarter of the contest. He was taken to Boulder Community Hospital for precautionary tests as he did exhibit movement while leaving the field on a stretcher. He was released from the hospital later that evening.
- Picked up five tackles (all solo) and two for a loss in week 3 at Fresno State.
- Had four tackles and a forced fumble in week 1 vs. CSU.
- Played nine games on defense (12 total when including time on special teams) as a true freshman, playing 82 snaps and picking up 18 tackles (13 solo).
- Had five tackles in 12 defensive plays vs. No. 9 Oregon in week 8 last year.
- Daigh recorded six tackles (a career-high) in only 15 snaps in week 7 last season at Washington.
- Played in seven snaps against Ohio State in week 4 of his freshman campaign, recording the first two tackles of his career.
- Saw first defensive snaps vs. Cal in week 2 in 2011, playing in three snaps.
- Made his collegiate debut in week 1 last season at Hawai'i, seeing action on special teams.
- Played three varsity seasons at football power Mullen. During his time on the team, the Mustangs went 40-2, winning three state titles under coaching legend Dave Logan. Logan was an All-American as a player at CU.
- Daigh was one-third of one of the nation's best linebacker corps at Mullen, as Leilon Willingham (Central Florida) and Connor Healy (Air Force) both received scholarships and the trio was key in Mullen's three-peat as 5A state champs.
- Daigh was the first player to commit to CU in the class of 2011, doing so in July of 2010.

Daigh, cont.

- Human Interest: He volunteered through Mullen for a program called World Vision that collected and packed clothes and shoes and sent them abroad to those in need.

- Last name pronounced (cah-suh; casa).
- Kasa is listed atop the depth chart at tight end after switching to the position from defensive lineman in the middle of the 2011 season.
- Was added to the John Mackey Award (top tight end) mid-season watch list on Oct. 15. He is one of 26 finalists for the award
- Trends: Has finished with at least 40 receiving yards in four of the last five games and in five of the last seven.
- He has caught at least one pass in six of the eight games this season, and in each of the last five games.
- Kasa has seven catches going for 20 yards or longer, the most on the team. He has three plays this season of over 30 yards (31, 40, 70).
- Three Games, Three TD's: Picked up a touchdown reception in three straight games (week 4 at WSU, week 5 vs. UCLA, Week 7 vs. ASU). He was the first tight end to do the feat since Tyson DeVree in 2007; and third all-time (also Ed Pudlik, 1948). Gary Knafelc holds the record for consecutive games with a touchdown reception by a tight end with him catching touchdown balls in four straight contests in 1953.
- He has played in 34 career games (mostly on defense), starting in nine (eight of which on offense).
- In week 8 at USC, Kasa had four catches for 41 yards.
- Had four catches for 71 yards and a touchdown (that went for 20 yards) in week 7 vs. ASU. Two plays prior, Kasa caught a 23-yarder on a fourth down in which he broke several tackles to get the first down and get down the field.
- Earned an honorable mention honor by the College Football Performance Awards for his play in week 7 at ASU.
- Picked up his second touchdown in as many games in the week 5 matchup vs. UCLA. It came in the fourth quarter on a 31-yard pass from QB Nick Hirschman (his first TD pass of his career).
- He scored his first career touchdown in week 4 at WSU. It was his fifth game that he had played tight end (he moved over from defensive end with five games remaining in 2011 but only played at the position in the season finale at Utah).
- His 70-yard touchdown catch (a career-high) from QB Jordan Webb was the second longest reception by a tight end in CU history, eclipsing a 68-yard TD pass from QB Cody Hawkins to TE Riar Greer at Nebraska in 2008 and a 68-yarder from QB Mark Hatcher to TE Jon Embree vs. Arizona in 1986. It was however the longest in the regular season as the record came in the 2004 Houston Bowl when QB Joel Klatt connected a 78-yard touchdown pass to TE Joe Klopfenstein.
- His biggest play in week 3 at WSU might have come with 43 seconds left when he recovered Christian Powell's fumble at the WSU 7-yard line to preserve the CU drive, which ended with the Buffs scoring the game-winning touchdown.
- For his performance at WSU, Kasa earned an honorable mention honor from the College Football Performance Awards.

- Made his second career catch in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. The catch went for 40 yards.
- Made his first career start on offense in week 1 vs. CSU (at tight end).
- He split the 2011 season on defense as a lineman and on offense as a tight end.
- Had his first catch in the 2011 season finale at Utah, a gain of eight yards.
- He moved to the offensive side of the ball on Oct. 26 last year, prior to the week 9 game at Arizona State. Changed numbers as well, from No. 44 to No. 90.
- He played 11 games overall last season and eight games on defense, making seven tackles in 132 plays. As a tight end, he made one catch for eight yards.
- Kasa had two tackles, both third down stops, against Oregon in week 8 last year.
- Recorded his first tackles of 2011 with two at Ohio State in week 4.
- Played in 21 snaps in the 2011 season opener at Hawai'i; 15 on the interior of the defensive line and six at defensive end.
- Had his first career sack against Iowa State in week 10 of 2010 and his first start against Texas Tech in week 7.
- Kasa suffered through a couple of injuries during the 2009 season. He missed the first three games of the season with a knee injury, returned to see action in four games in the middle of the season and then missed the last five weeks due to mononucleosis. Usually players that see action in four games or less due to injury can receive a medical hardship waiver, but because his four games came in the middle of the season, the NCAA denied the request.
- In his four games of action as a true freshman in 2009, Kasa played 47 snaps on defense and compiled two tackles (both solo), one of which was for a loss.
- Kasa earned All-American honors as a senior in high school and participated in the U.S. Army All-American all-star game in San Antonio. EA Sports selected him to its All-America second team.
- Originally committed to Florida, but after hearing of a potential switch from the defensive to offensive line, he withdrew his commitment from the Gators shortly after they won the 2008 BCS National Championship and committed to Colorado.
- Kasa was the third straight top-rated Colorado prospect to sign with the Buffaloes, following in the shoes of Ryan Miller in 2007 and Jon Major in 2008.
- Human Interest: Father (Larry) played tackle and linebacker at the University of New Haven.

- Is listed first at the tailback position and second at fullback.
- He began the 2012 season at fullback, sharing the top spot on the depth chart with Alex Wood during the first two weeks of the season.
- Coming into the season, it was known that he may see some action at tailback with him having dual talents at both positions.
- Through eight games, Powell leads the team in rushing with 471 yards.
- Is tied for second all-time for freshman 100-yard rushing games with two this season. TB Rodney Stewart holds the record with three in 2008.
- Had his second 100-yard rushing game of his career in week 9 at Oregon. Powell rushed 20 times for 121 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 23rd 100-yard game by a CU freshman, and 14th most yards.
- Powell is sixth all-time in freshman rushing with 471 yards. His position coach, Eric Bieniemy, is fifth with 508 yards.
- Returned to action in week 8 at USC where he had 56 yards rushing on 14 attempts and one catch for four yards. He missed the week 7 contest with ASU with a thigh injury, suffered vs. UCLA on Sept. 29.
- Missed the majority of the week 5 contest vs. UCLA with a hip/thigh injury, but he still managed 29 rushing yards on seven carries.
- Ran for 66 yards on 16 carries vs. WSU in week 4.
- He had 17 rushes for 49 yards in week 3 at Fresno State.
- Made his first career start in week 2 vs. Sacramento State.
- In the game vs. Sac State, Powell had 28 rushes for 154 yards (98 of which came in the first half) and three touchdowns. His three touchdowns tied the record for the most in a game by a freshmen (true or redshirt), matching TB Herchell Troutman at Texas on Oct. 1, 1994.
- On the third play of the week 2 game vs. Sac State, Powell ran for a 64 yard touchdown. It was the fourth longest touchdown run by a freshman in CU history.
- Became the first freshman to rush for 100-plus yards since TB Rodney Stewart did it vs. Kansas State in Boulder on Oct. 18, 2008 (21 runs for 141 yards and one touchdown).
- With his 147 yards rushing vs. Sac State, he became the first fullback to gain 100 or more yards in a game since Erich Kissick did it against Missouri in Boulder on Nov. 7, 1987
- His 147 yards rushing vs. Sac State were the eighth most ever by any running back in his starting debut in CU history. It was the most since TB Marcus Houston's 150 yards on 25 carries at USC on Sept. 9, 2000.
- His 28 carries vs. the Hornets was the second most in a debut, behind TB Bobby Anderson's 29 rushes on Oct. 4, 1969. Powell and Anderson are the only players to score three touchdowns in their starting debuts. His 28 carries were also the second most by a true freshman in CU annals, on the heels of Rodney Stewart's 29 carries vs. K-State in Boulder on Oct. 18, 2008 (Stewart gained 141 yards).

- Had one run for three yards in his first collegiate game—week 1 vs. CSU. He was one of nine true freshmen that saw action in the season opener.
- Running backs coach Eric Bieniemy compares him to another fullback he coached at CU last decade—Brandon Drumm ('02). Nicknamed the "Alaskan Assassin," Drumm is regarded as one of the best modern day fullbacks to ever wear a CU uniform. Bieniemy says Powell, "is the complete package, runs well, blocks well, makes the right reads and catches the ball well out of the backfield. He just needs game experience."

High School

- As a senior at Upland high school, he was one of the top-ranked fullbacks in the country; he was listed as the No. 3 prospect at the position by ESPN.com and No. 4 by Scout.com.
- He was high school teammates with fellow CU 2012 signees Donta Abbron and Marques Mosley.
- Also lettered in track (shot put) in high school and was the Baseline League champion as a junior.
- He was a member of the Honor Roll in high school.

- Trends: Has graded out at 80 percent or better in six of the eight games in 2012, including the last five.
- Has an average grade of 83.1 percent, 35 will-breaker blocks and five direct touchdown blocks this season.
- Had his best grade of the season—87.2 percent—in week 9 at Oregon.
- Started at center during the week 4 game at WSU and had his best grade of the season at the time, 86.3 percent. It was the first time that he had started at center this season after starting the previous three games at right guard.
- Graded out at 80 percent in week 1 vs. CSU.
- Was an honorable mention in the Pac-12 All-Academic Team with a 3.17 grade point average.
- Played 205 snaps in seven games in 2011, making five great effort blocks. He graded out at 76.1 percent.
- He started the first three games of the season at the center position, before suffering an injury vs. Colorado State in week 3.
- Returned to action against Oregon in week 8, playing in 24 snaps.
- Munyer missed the Ohio State, Washington State, and Stanford games with the ankle injury suffered against CSU in 2011.
- Played the first 48 snaps at center against CSU before being replaced by Gus Handler after going down with an ankle injury.
- Against Cal in week 2 of 2011, Munyer once again saw the bulk of the snaps at center while still splitting time with Handler. Munyer played in 63 of 82 snaps. He had his highest grade of the season vs. the Bears at 81 percent.
- Munyer made his CU debut by starting at center in the 2011 season opener at Hawai'i. He became just the third freshman to start at center, joining Andre Gurode in 1998 and Bryan Stoltenberg in 1992. He played in 44 of the 58 offensive snaps.
- Earned the Dan Staveland Award following spring practices as coaches recognized him as the top redshirt freshman-to-be on the team.
- Played guard at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks, Calif., and practiced at guard during 2010 while on the scout team. Munyer was new to center and notes the difference, "When you're at guard, you're off about a half yard. When you're center, the D-tackle is right in front of you. You've got to have a quick first step."
- While at Notre Dame High, Munyer's team traveled to play a game at the new Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.
- Munyer also considered UCLA and Washington before deciding on CU.

53

Ryan Dannewitz

Justin Solis
DEFENSIVE LINEMAN
6-3 * 305 * Freshman

- Last name pronounced (so-lease).
- Is listed second at nose tackle behind Josh Tupou, another true freshman.
- Solis had a career game in week 9 at Oregon. In only 31 plays (out of 75), he had five tackles, two of which went for a loss, and had a third down stop—all of which are career highs.
- Missed the week 7 game vs. ASU with a concussion, suffered against UCLA on Sept. 29.
- In week 4 at WSU, had two tackles but also caused an interception in the fourth quarter after tipping the ball into the hands of LB Jon Major on a fourth down.
- Had four tackles—two solo—in week 3 at Fresno State.
- Saw his first collegiate action in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. He made one assisted tackle in the contest.

High School

- Scout.com ranked him the No. 36 defensive tackle in the U.S. and the No. 2 defensive tackle out of California (Rivals.com ranked him No. 45 and second, respectively). ESPN.com ranked him as the No. 48 DT in the nation.
- He maintained above a 3.0 grade point average throughout high school.

Human Interest

- Solis grew up in Queens, N.Y., and moved to California with his grandmother, Barbara Owens, prior to the start of his freshman year of high school. His mother, Shannon, graduated from Westlake and the family thought it was in his best interests to attend high school on the other coast.

Solis, cont.

- He and his grandmother were featured in The New York Times for their traveling habits, which started when he was 5-years old and have taken the duo to 48 of the 50 states and countless places around the world including China, Egypt, Russia, Germany, Poland, England, France, Italy, Finland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark and many more.
- Spent the last three summers working with kids' sports camps at Westlake.

- Last name is pronounced (Bock-T-are-E.)
- Bakhtiari is the starting left tackle.
- Was named to watch lists for the Rotary Lombardi Award (best lineman or linebacker) and Outland Trophy (best interior lineman) prior to 2012 season.
- Is one of four team captains.
- Named to the Midseason All Pac-12 Conference first-team by Phil Steele's College Football.
- He has played in 30 career games, starting 29 of them (second most on current roster).
- Trends: Has graded out at 80 percent or better in the seven games he has played this season.
- Has an average season grade of 88.8 percent and has 24 will-breaker blocks in 2012.
- Did not play in week 9 at Oregon after tweaking a knee in practice earlier in the week. He tried to go but couldn't. At the time, he had started 17 consecutive games, the third most on the current roster.
- Had his best grade of the season—92.5 percent—week 4 at WSU.
- Called a team meeting immediately after CU's 69-14 loss to Fresno State in week 3, which helped the team get motivated to win the following week at Washington
- In week 1 vs. CSU, he graded out at 87.1 percent.
- 2012 PRESEASON ALL-PAC 12 – first-team: Athlon Sports, Blue Ribbon Yearbook, collegefootballnews.com, Lindy's College Football, Phil Steele's College Football, collegesportsmadness.com.
- Rated No. 29 overall in Phil Steele's College Football 2012 Top 100.
- Bakhtiari replaced departed All-American and first round pick Nate Solder at the left tackle position during his sophomore campaign.
- Played in 11 games (starting all at left tackle) and in 630 snaps in 2011 – fourth most among offensive linemen. He also tied for third on the team with 21 great effort blocks and graded out at 84.4 percent, second highest among O-linemen who played significant time (at least 600 plays).
- Was named to the Sophomore All-American second-team by collegefootballnews.com, was named to the All-Pac 12 Conference second-team by Phil Steele's College Football and collegesportsmadness.com and was named to the All-Colorado first-team by the Colorado Chapter of the NFF College Football Hall of Fame.
- After injuring himself in the first game of the 2011 season against Hawai'i (forcing him to miss the next two games), Bakhtiari returned to action at Ohio State in week 4. He played all 55 snaps vs. the Buckeyes, and he had his highest grade of the season against OSU, grading out at 90.4 percent.
- Bakhtiari started 11 games at right tackle in 2010 and played in all 12, grading out to 89.9 percent on the season, second highest on the team behind Nate Solder. He graded out above 80 percent in all 12 games, and over 90 percent in seven games.

Human Interest

- Is one of the quickest linemen on the team, boasting 5.0 speed in the 40.
- Added 60 pounds to his 6-4 frame after reporting at 235 lbs. as a freshman.
- If he could compare himself to a NFL lineman, it would be San Francisco's Joe Staley. Bakhtiari says, "He's not the tallest tackle, but quick on his feet."
- Favorite NFL team is the 49ers.

- Was a late bloomer, having not started a game until his senior season in high school. He was a better lacrosse prospect. He grew three inches between his junior and senior seasons.
- Knew Colorado was the right fit for him in a unique way. It was when he was being recruited by Washington and he couldn't get his mind off of CU.
- He enjoys lifting, basketball, swimming, water skiing and snow skiing.
- Bakhtiari's oldest brother, Eric, played collegiately at San Diego and is currently a linebacker on the San Francisco 49ers roster. Eric signed a two-year contract with the 49ers on Sept. 19, 2012.
- Another brother, Andrew, played three years at USD. His uncle, Dan Jackson, played quarterback at California.
- Has a proud Persian heritage and his paternal grandfather immigrated to the United States from Iran. His middle name is Afrisiab Asad, which translates to Alfred.
- He has picked up quickly on the intricacies of the game and credits his brother, Eric, emulating what he has taught him in practice and games.
- Wants to return to California after graduation to work and eventually take over his father's (Karl) real estate business.

- Is listed third at center on the latest depth chart.
- After missing the previous two games with turf toe, he returned to the field in week 7 vs. ASU. He saw eight plays and graded out at 75 percent.
- Missed week 4 at Washington State and week 5 vs. UCLA with turf toe, which he suffered in week 3 at Fresno State.
- Picked up his first career start (at center) in week 3 at Fresno State. He wasn't told that he was going to start the contest until pregame warm ups.
- Saw his first collegiate action in week 2 vs. Sacramento State.
- Redshirted in 2011. He practiced the entire fall on the offensive line but was ineligible to play after transferring to Colorado from College of the Canyons via Venture Community College. He signed his letter-of-intent in the summer and counted as a member of the 2011 recruiting class. He was the rare exception of his NCAA clock not starting because he attended junior college on a part-time basis, thus he had to sit out a year in residence but still would have four years of eligibility remaining.
- Cotner added some 40 pounds to his frame since his senior year in high school to the beginning of the 2011 season.
- Redshirted the 2010 season at Ventura Community College in California. He practiced on the offensive line but did not play in any games.
- Human Interest: His father, Steve, played college basketball at Cal-Lutheran.

- Is the backup snapper behind Ryan Iverson.
- Redshirted his true freshman season in 2011.
- He joined the team as an invited walk-on for fall camp in 2011.
- A local product from Boulder, he started all four years at Fairview High School and played every snap from scrimmage from his sophomore to his senior season. He also played four years of basketball at FHS as a PF.

Human Interest

- His father, Kevin, played football (offensive line) at Stanford and in the NFL with the Buffalo Bills (1987) and then briefly with the San Francisco 49ers.
- His father was on the field for perhaps the most famous play in college football—he was on the kickoff coverage unit for Stanford in the California game when the Bears scored as time ran out—through the Cardinal band.
- His older brother, Kyle, played football and lacrosse at CSU-Pueblo.

69

Ryan Iverson

SNAPPER

6-0 * 220 * Junior

70

Eric Richter

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

6-3 * 310 * Senior

- Is the starting snapper.
- He has forced five fair catches this season, giving him 15 for his career. He also has 10 tackles, which is three shy of the record by a long snapper, 13, set by Chris O'Donnell (1987-90).
- Has handled all 196 punt team snaps dating back to his freshman year, and has snapped all 72 balls for placement kicks the last two years. Of those 268 combined snaps, there has only been one bad snap.
- Is tied for seventh on the team in special teams points with 10 this season.
- Has played in 33 career games, tied for sixth most on the current roster.
- Was the starting snapper for the entire 2011 season.
- Played in all 13 games during his sophomore season; participating in all 48 field goal and PAT snaps and all 77 punt team snaps.
- Finished with 17 special teams points, fifth most on the team last season.
- Iverson led CU with six special teams points in the 2011 season opener at Hawai'i. Iverson recorded two solo tackles, including one inside the 20, and forced three fair catches.
- As a freshman in 2010, he played in all 12 games as the long snapper on the punt unit on special teams. He handled all 63 snaps, with only one of which was mishandled. He also picked up three tackles.
- Iverson handled every long snap in the 2010 season. Joe Silipo was the snapper on every field goal/PAT attempt in 2010.
- He joined the team as an invited walk-on for August 2010 drills and was one of seven true freshmen to play for the Buffs that season. However, he was the only one of the seven who was a walk-on.
- Was just the sixth walk-on to play as a true freshman at CU since 1986.
- Iverson is just the third long snapper since the 2001 season, as Iverson looks to continue in the trend of four-year starters there following in the footsteps of Greg Pace (2002-05) and Justin Drescher (2006-09, currently playing for the New Orleans Saints), who are the only three players to long snap since 2001.
- Iverson lettered three times at Newport Harbor High School (Newport Beach, Calif.) in football. He was the recipient of the Newport Harbor's Scholar-Athlete award as both a junior and senior.
- As an outside linebacker in high school, he was first-team all-Sunset League and Newport Harbor High School's Defensive Player of the Year.
- Former special teams coach Kent Riddle became aware of Iverson during snapping guru Chris Rubio's national long-snapping camps.

Human Interest

- He grows his hair long and then donates it to Locks for Love for wigs for cancer patients
- Hobbies include fishing, golfing, bodysurfing and snowboarding.

- Richter is listed third at right guard behind Daniel Munyer and Jack Harris.
- In 13 plays in week 8 at USC, Richter graded out at 76.9 percent.
- Saw his first snaps of the 2012 season in week 3 at Fresno State (11 plays).
- Moved back to the offensive line during 2012 fall training camp. During 2012 spring practice, Richter was on the defensive line. He practiced on the offensive line during the 2010 season, where he redshirted after transferring from Saddleback College.
- He played in one game in 2011 – his CU debut – in week 6 at Stanford, playing in seven snaps.
- Richter is likely the strongest Buff on the team, and was named by Bruce Feldman to be the fourth strongest player in college football prior to the 2011 season. Richter could do six-to-eight reps of 405 pounds in the bench press, as well as 41 reps at 225 and three reps at 500 pounds.
- In 2010, he redshirted at Colorado while practicing on the offensive line and also on the scout team.
- Richter transferred to CU after playing two years at Saddleback College (2008-09) in Mission Viejo, Calif., where both his sisters have also played volleyball.
- Human Interest: Richter's cousin is 2011 National League Cy Young candidate and Arizona Diamondbacks pitcher Ian Kennedy.

- Had his highest grade of the season in week 5 vs. UCLA at 90.4 percent.
- In week 4 at Washington State, he graded out at 86.3 percent.
- Graded out at 82.9 percent in week 1 vs. CSU.
- Played in 12 games in 2011 as a true freshman at both tight end and on the offensive line. He made three starts, one game at left tackle (week 1 vs. Colorado State) and two games at tight end (week 6 at Stanford, week 8 vs. Oregon).
- Saw 48 plays on the offensive line in a total of three games last season, with Lewis seeing his most snaps (38) and his highest grade (57.1 percent) in week 8 vs. Oregon. He finished the season grading out at 54.2 percent.
- During his freshman campaign, he wore No. 71 as a lineman and No. 98 when he was a tight end. He played 115 snaps at tight end in 2011.
- Saw his first action at tight end in week 3 at Ohio State in 2011 (three plays)
- Became the second true freshman in school history to start a game at offensive tackle against Colorado State in week 3 of last year, joining Ryan Miller who did so six times (at right tackle) in 2007.
- He made his CU debut vs. California in week 2 of 2011.
- Officially a member of CU's 2010 recruiting class, but he was grayshirted and thus delayed his enrollment.

Human Interest

- Lewis' father, Bill, played football at Nebraska and was drafted by the L.A. Raiders. He had a seven-year career in the NFL, playing with the Raiders, Cardinals, and Patriots.
- As a kid, he worked on his footwork at his mother's dance studio. He took dance classes for 10 years, from age 3 to 13, where he participated in Jazz, Tap, Ballet, Hip-Hop, and Acro dances at the studio.

Lewis, cont.

- Lewis was only 5-foot-10 tall as a high school sophomore before growing six inches between his sophomore and junior seasons. He grew another two inches between his junior and senior years.

- Is third on the depth chart at left tackle.
- In week 9 at Oregon, Mustoe saw the most action of his career, playing in 14 snaps.
- Saw his first collegiate action in the fourth quarter at Fresno State in week 3 (seven plays).
- Redshirted during his true freshman season in 2011.
- Twice named Academic All-Colorado in high school for maintaining a grade point average above 3.8.
- High School: Helped Arvada West High School (Colorado) to a 17-7 record in his junior and senior seasons. He played at Broomfield High School (Colorado) during his freshman season and sat out his sophomore season due to transfer rules.
- Human Interest: Hobbies include reading, hiking, camping, skiing and other outdoor activities.

- Harris is listed atop the depth chart at right tackle. He is also the backup right guard.
- Trends: Has graded out at 80 percent or better in five of the seven games he has played this season, including the last four.
- Has an average grade of 83.5 percent, 16 will-breaker blocks and four direct touchdown blocks this season.
- Did not make the trip to USC in week 8 due to concussion symptoms.
- Had his highest grade of the season, 85.7 percent, in week 1 vs. CSU.
- Started week 1 vs. CSU at right tackle after missing the majority of the 2011 season with a leg injury.
- Played in the first two games of the 2011 season – starting both at right tackle – before missing the rest of the season with a leg injury, suffered in the second half in week 2 vs. California. He played in 51 snaps vs. the Bears.
- Harris saw his first collegiate action at Hawai'i in week 1 last year, also making his first career start, playing in all 58 snaps. He graded out at 82.2 percent in the game.
- His final season grade in his two games played last season was 81.7 percent.
- Harris redshirted the 2009 season and did not see any action in 2010. Following spring practices in 2010, he was the co-recipient of the Joe Romig Award as coaches recognized him as the most improved offensive lineman in spring ball.
- Considered a four-star prospect by both Rivals and Scout, Harris was seen as the second best player in Colorado in the class of 2008 behind current CU teammate Nick Kasa.
- His college decision came down to CU and Oregon before he picked the Buffs.
- Human Interest: Harris has a cousin, M.J. Flaum, who was an offensive lineman at Nebraska and a grandfather, John Boice, who played tight end and defensive end for the Chicago Bears.

- In his true freshman season, he is the backup left guard behind Alex Lewis.
- Irwin had his highest grade of the season, 71.4 percent, in week 9 at Oregon.
- Saw his first collegiate action in week 3 at Fresno State. He played in 11 snaps in the fourth quarter.
- Changed numbers from No. 73 to No. 76 the week before to the start of the 2012 season.
- A three-year starter at left guard in high school, he only gave up only one sack in his entire prep career, and that came during his sophomore season.
- Irwin also lettered in track and field (shot put), advancing to regionals as a junior; his personal best throw was 51 feet, 0 inches. He played basketball early in high school but gave it up to concentrate on football.

Human Interest

- He is the youngest of a set of triplets, born moments after his brothers John and Sean; Sean also was a member of CU's 2012 recruiting class.
- A grandfather (Roby Irwin) played football at TCU, and an uncle (Jack McClelland) ran track at Texas.

- Name is pronounced (steff-on name-bot).
- Is second on the depth chart at right tackle with him sharing the spot with Ryan Dannewitz.
- Is averaging a grade of 74.1 percent this season.
- Has started four games this season at right tackle, including the last two: week 4 at WSU, week 5 vs. UCLA, week 8 at USC, week 9 at Oregon.
- Nembot has seen the most action of his collegiate career the past two weeks, playing in 61 snaps at USC and 46 at Oregon.
- Started week 8 at USC, replacing the injured Jack Harris, who did not make the trip because of a concussion.
- Had his highest grade of the season in week 5 vs. UCLA, 77.3 percent.
- Made his first career start in his second career game—at right tackle—in week 4 at Washington State.
- Saw his first collegiate action in week 3 at Fresno State (34 plays).
- Saw his first collegiate action, primarily on special teams, in week 1 vs. Colorado State.
- Redshirted during the 2011 season.
- Nembot began 2011 fall camp as a defensive end, but he switched positions at the end of August camp to offensive tackle. He also switched numbers from No. 90 to No. 77.

High School

- Other than football, he also lettered in basketball, soccer and volleyball at Montclair High School in Van Nuys, Calif.
- Was a member of his high school's Honor Roll all eight semesters as a prep, maintaining better than a 3.5 grade point average.

Human Interest

- Born in Douala, Cameroon on Dec. 7, 1991.
- New To The Game: Nembot has only been playing football for about three years now, as he started participating in the sport at the end of his junior year at Montclair Prep. In total, he played 15 games in high school.
- He participated in a program through Montclair Prep to help feed the homeless twice a week.
- He says it is his dream to come to the United States and make enough money to go back to Africa and help the needy.
- Nembot's hobbies include art, kickboxing, martial arts (Tai Chi), watching movies, television sitcoms, and football and basketball games.

- Is second on the latest depth chart at the "X" wide receiver spot.
- Is a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Nominee. He has a grade point average of 3.46 and is one of 147 semifinalists for the award.
- Has played in 21 career games, starting in two.
- Ebner has set new single-season career highs this season in receptions (eight), yards (97) and yards per catch (12.1).
- Had a career-high three catches in week 7 vs. ASU, going for a total of 17 yards.
- In week 5 vs. UCLA, Ebner had two catches for 28 yards and one touchdown. It was his first touchdown of his career—coming in the second quarter when QB Jordan Webb found him on a 17-yard post route, cutting the Bruins lead to 14-7 at the time.
- Had one catch for 41 yards in week 3 at Fresno State. It was his first catch of the 2012 season.
- Started week 2 vs. Sacramento State.
- Was placed on scholarship prior to his senior season in spring 2012.
- Played in the final five games of 2011.
- In 2010, he was in the regular rotation at the start of fall practice, but suffered a broken fibula in the first full scrimmage (Aug. 12) and wasn't able to resume running until the second half of the season. He finally dressed for the first time vs. Iowa State (10th game of the season), but did not see any game action the rest of the way.
- As a redshirt freshman in 2009, played in eight games, including making his first career start in the Texas A&M contest. Made three receptions for 15 yards.
- Ebner was one of the recipients of the team's Gold Group Commitment Award as selected by the coaches in 2009. The honor recognizes excellence with class in a variety of areas.
- During the 2009 season, earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors.
- Joined the team as a walk-on after the first day of classes as a true freshman in 2008. Redshirted the season.

Human Interest

- He graduated with a degree in EBIO (Ecology & Evolutionary Biology) from CU in December 2011.
- Has a younger brother, Drew, who was a member of CU football team during the 2011 season.
- An uncle, Skip Jeranko, and a cousin, Mark Jeranko, both played basketball at Fort Lewis College.
- He is interested in pursuing dentistry after college.
- Owns a black belt in Karate.

- Last name is pronounced (pre-check).
- Pericak is atop the depth chart at left defensive end but also can play in the interior at defensive tackle, where he has played the majority of his career.
- Made the switch to defensive end from defensive tackle in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. He has started the last five games at defensive end.
- Is one of four team captains.
- Career: Is 77th all-time at CU in total tackles with 186.
- CU's Iron Man: Has made 45 consecutive starts, the highest among active players on the CU roster. He has started in every game he has played and holds the school record for consecutive starts, passing C Bryan Stolenberg (1992-95) in week 9 at Oregon. He had already owned the most consecutive starts by a defensive player (old mark was 35 by OLB Alfred Williams, 1987-90).

- Record Watch: Is tied with ILB Jordan Dizon (2004-07) for the most starts by a defensive player in school history with 45. The record for the most starts overall is 47 by OL Ryan Miller, 2007-11.
- Named to the Midseason All Pac-12 Conference second-team by Phil Steele's College Football.
- He is sixth on the team in total tackles with 41. He leads the team with six third/fourth down stops and is first in QB pressures with five this season.
- Nose For The Ball: He has four forced fumbles this season, which is the most since 2000 when SS Michael Lewis also had four. It is the most forced fumbles by a defensive lineman since 1990 when NT Garry Howe had four.
- His four forced fumbles tie him for the lead in the Pac-12 and it ties him for third nationally in the category.
- Pericak has forced a fumble in each of the last three games: week 7 at ASU, week 8 at USC, week 9 at Oregon. He now has five career forced fumbles.
- In week 9 at Oregon, Pericak set a new career-high with two forced fumbles.
- Forced a fumble at the end of the first quarter in week 8 at USC. He finished the contest with five tackles (four solo), with one going for a loss of 10 yards. He also had a third down stop.
- Had eight tackles in only 44 plays in week 7 vs. ASU. He also had a third down stop and forced a fumble (his second of his career) in the contest.
- In week 4 at WSU, Pericak made his first QB sack of the season (a loss of 13 yards), had three tackles, a third down stop, pressured the QB three times and had a pass break up.
- In 63 plays, he had six tackles (five solo and one for a loss) and a third down stop in week 2 vs. Sacramento State.
- In week 1 vs. CSU, Pericak finished tied for second on the team with 10 tackles—tying a career high (vs. Ohio State, 2011). He also had a fourth-down stop, a fumble recovery and blocked a PAT after a Ram touchdown late in the second quarter.
- Now has three career blocked kicks (2010-CSU, 2011-Cal, 2012-CSU).
- 2012 PRESEASON ALL-PAC 12 – second-team: Phil Steele's College Football; third-team: CollegeSportsMadness.com.
- Started in all 13 games in 2011 as a junior, recording 64 tackles – fourth most on the team and 33 unassisted tackles. Had three tackles for a loss, caused one interception and pressured the quarterback eight times (most on the team).
- Rated No. 26 among defensive tackles by Phil Steele's College Football in 2012.
- As a junior, was an All-Pac 12 Conference honorable mention by Pac-12 coaches and was named to the first-team of the Pac-12 All-Academic Team. Was the co-recipient of the Dave Jones Award with OLB Josh Hartigan as the outstanding defensive player(s) on the team.
- Pericak had six tackles in 56 snaps at UCLA in week 12 last year, with a half-sack and a third own stop.
- Pericak notched his first career double-digit tackle game as a junior against Ohio State in week 4, bringing down Buckeyes 10 times, seven of which coming unassisted (both career highs). Pericak's ten tackles are the most by a CU interior defensive lineman since George Hypolite had 10 against Florida State in 2007.
- Had five tackles (four solo), including one for a loss against Colorado State in week 3 of his junior season, the alma mater of both of his parents.
- Pericak blocked an extra point against Cal in week two in 2011, the first time CU blocked an extra point since James Garee did so against Clemson in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl. The streak lasted 199 PAT kicks without a block.
- In 2010, he compiled 45 tackles, including 16 tackles at or behind the line of scrimmage, which is the highest among returning Buffs. He played in 621 plays in 2010, the second most among CU defensive linemen.
- Had one tackle for a loss and a quarterback hurry against Hawai'i in week 3 of 2010, both coming on third downs as he was credited with a pair of third-down stops.
- Despite the loss at Cal in 2010, he had a great game with seven tackles (six solo), including two for a loss and one sack. He had two additional tackles for zero yards and three third down stops (one of which came on fourth down). Four of his seven tackles were at or behind the line of scrimmage and he was credited with one touchdown saving tackle as well.

Pericak, cont.

- He earned third-team Freshman All-American honors from collegefootballnews.com and Phil Steele's College Football when he started all 12 games as a redshirt freshman in 2009, totaling three sacks and six total tackles for loss.
- Recorded his first career sack against Kansas in 2009 for a 10-yard loss, also forcing Todd Reesing to fumble. Pericak recovered the fumble inside the 5-yard line setting up a CU touchdown.
- Pericak became the first freshman, true or redshirt, to start a season opener at defensive tackle in CU history when the Buffs faced Colorado State in 2009.
- He added 35 lbs. to his frame between arriving on campus and the start of the 2009 season.
- Pericak attended local Boulder High School and played tight end and linebacker for the Panthers. He was recruited as a tight end and made the switch to defensive tackle early in his first fall camp.
- Human Interest: On New Year's Day 2008 while Pericak was verbally committed to the Buffs, he participated in the Polar Bear Plunge into the Boulder Reservoir. Temperatures that day were in the low 20s. He was inspired to do so after former CU head coach Dan Hawkins talked to him about getting out of his comfort zone.

DaVaughn Thornton
TIGHT END
6-4 * 230 * Junior

- Thornton is fourth on the depth chart at the tight end position.
- Had five catches for 60 yards in week 4 at Washington State, which almost matched what he had during the entire 2011 season (six catches for 69 yards).
- Was suspended for the first two games of the 2012 season for an off-campus incident prior to the start of training camp.
- After moving in the middle of the 2011 season to wide receiver, he returns to his original position, tight end, for the start of the 2012 campaign.
- Played in all 13 games in 2011, making six catches for 69 yards.
- Caught a 52-yard pass from Tyler Hansen in the season finale at Utah.
- Made one start as a sophomore, in week 9 at Arizona State.
- Was the back-up long and short snapper in 2011.
- After redshirting in 2009, Thornton saw action in 10 games, including two starts, in the 2010 season. He recorded one catch, a 12-yard touchdown catch from Cody Hawkins in week 10 at Kansas.

High School

- Thornton is one of two sophomores from Denver East High School on the team, along with P Zach Grossnickle. The duo played for former CU linebacker Ron Woolfork at East.
- Thornton and former CU tailback Quentin Hildreth helped Denver East win two state championships in basketball. Thornton averaged 17.5 points and nine rebounds per game as a senior.

Human Interest

- His father, David Thornton, played linebacker at Oklahoma State.
- Thornton has two brothers who played college basketball, Dazzmond at James Madison and Demetrius at Cochise Community College in Arizona.
- Thornton loves to cook and has aspirations of being a chef. His best dishes are enchiladas and burritos.

Tyler McCulloch
WIDE RECEIVER
6-5 * 210 * Sophomore

- Last name is pronounced (Muh-cull-ock).
- McCulloch is atop the depth chart at the "X" wide receiver spot.
- Is second on the team in receiving yards with 273.
- Career: Is tied for 77th all-time at CU with 32 receptions.
- Trends: Has caught at least one pass in seven of the eight games this season, including in each of the past six games.
- In week 5 vs. UCLA, he caught a career-high seven passes (for 69 yards), which gave him 19 receptions for his career, cracking CU's top 100 at the 84th position.
- Had five catches for 42 yards in week 4 at Washington State.
- Picked up a career high 73 yards and a touchdown on three catches in week 3 at Fresno State.
- Had four catches for 54 yards and a touchdown in the season opening game vs. CSU. He caught his touchdown pass with one-hand in the second quarter; at the time giving the Buffs a 14-3 lead. It was his second touchdown catch of his career.
- Played in all 13 games as a true freshman in 2011, making 10 catches for 96 yards and one touchdown.
- Caught two passes for 16 yards at Stanford in week 6 last year. He caught a 14-yarder from Tyler Hansen and a 2-yarder from Nick Hirschman in what was Hirschman's first collegiate pass attempt.
- Recorded his first career touchdown on his fifth career catch in the fourth quarter at Ohio State in week 4 last season. The touchdown came from 14 yards out.
- Made his first career start against Cal in week 2, becoming just the seventh player at CU since 1973 to start at wide receiver while a true freshman. He had two catches for 11 yards in the game. Made his second and last start of the season the following week vs. Colorado State.
- In McCulloch's first game in the 2011 season opener at Hawai'i, he caught two passes for 25 yards with a long of 19.
- Wide receivers coach Bobby Kennedy on McCulloch: "A pleasant surprise because for a young guy he's come in and picked up the offense really well. But the great thing about him is he's an effort guy."
- McCulloch was a late signee with CU, sending his letter of intent on Feb. 14, 2011, a week and a half after signing day. He chose CU after his hometown school, New Mexico, only offered an opportunity to walk-on. When CU offered, McCulloch couldn't pass up the opportunity to play for a big-time school.

Human Interest

- McCulloch was given the No. 87 by Jon Embree because his body frame and playing style reminded Embree of great Denver Broncos WR Ed McCaffrey.
- Like McCulloch, former NFL quarterback Jim Everett attended Albuquerque's Eldorado High School and, like McCulloch, Everett felt the hometown Lobos did not offer enough recruiting attention so Everett became a star at Purdue.
- His uncle is former Denver Nuggets media relations director and current Washington Wizards vice president of basketball operations Tommy Sheppard.

93

Samson Kafovalu

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN

6-3 * 250 * Freshman

- First name pronounced (slay-vinn).
- Slavin is listed as the backup tight end behind senior Nick Kasa.
- Tied career highs in receptions (three) and receiving yards (20) in week 7 vs. ASU.
- Picked up a career-high three catches for 20 yards in week 4 at WSU.
- Had one catch for nine yards and a touchdown in week 2 vs. Sacramento State. At the time, the touchdown grab tied the game at 21. The catch and TD were both firsts of his collegiate career.
- Played in seven games as a redshirt freshman in 2011. He made his CU debut and first career start, at tight end, vs. Washington State in week 5.
- Redshirted the 2010 season as a true freshman.
- Tight ends coach J.D. Brookhart on Slavin: "He's got a great understanding (of the position) but he's in that process. He's in that transition phase of becoming a real man. I think that's the biggest key for him, because he gets it, he likes it. It's just about physical maturity with him, that's how he's going to get to the next level."
- Human Interest: Slavin's family has been CU season ticket holders for 20 years and he has long been coming to Folsom Field. His parents and grandparents all attended CU, with his grandfather, Jack Anderson, playing baseball at CU and serving as a long-time member of the CU Board of Regents. As a regent, Anderson was largely responsible for CU's switch to sky blue uniforms in the early 80s.
