LOS ANGELES — Southern California took advantage of hot perimeter shooting, nailing 11 3-point field goals to claim a 70-57 decision over Colorado Sunday afternoon at the Galen Center on the USC campus.
USC (1-1) hit a scorching 50 percent from the 3-point arc (11-of-22) and hit timely shots each time the Buffaloes made a run. Brynn Cameron was 4-of-6 from downtown and led USC with 16 points. Simone Jelks, who had just seven 3-pointers all of last season, was 3-of-3 for the afternoon scoring 10 total.
Freshman Brittany Spears led Colorado with 19 points, 14 of which came in the second half. Sophomores Aija Putnina and Bianca Smith each had nine points off the bench.
Colorado's had a first half to forget netting just 16 points while committing 15 turnovers. The Buffaloes made just 5-of-21 from the field (23.8 percent) and had trouble getting All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland involved in the game. McFarland was held to just one free throw for the first 20 minutes with two rebounds.
McFarland finished with seven points and seven rebounds.
Southern California began the game on a 21-7 run, forcing seven Buffaloes turnovers in the first nine minutes and holding CU to just 17 percent from the field (2-of-12). Camille LeNoir, playing in her first game of the season, had seven of her nine points in the opening minutes of the game.
Colorado closed the gap with a 7-0 run on a Spears free throw, and back-to-back 3-point field goals by Spears and Putnina, but Cameron scored five straight to ignite a 16-2 USC run to end the half. The guard combo of Cameron and LeNoir combined for 17 first half points on 7-of-11 shooting, including three 3-point field goals.
McFarland was able to get back on track early in the second half with six points in the opening moments, but each time USC had an answer on the other end. McFarland and junior center Kara Richards combined for six straight to knock the score down to 39-22, but Allison Jaskowiak, and Cameron answered with 3-pointers as the Trojans pushed the lead back to 47-24.
Spears then hit a 3-pointer and followed it up with back-to-back scores as the Buffs went on a 11-2 run to narrow the margin to 49-35 with 12:13 left. However, once again Cameron and Jelks hit back-to-back from downtown to push the USC lead back to 20 (55-35).
Overall Colorado committed 26 turnovers and shot just 38 percent for the game (21-of-55).

far being away from home has served the Mountain West Conference team well as they are 3-1 in those games. SDSU averages 63.6 points per game while shooting 41 percent from the field and 66 percent from the free throw line.

Senior center Paris Johnson paces the Aztecs at 17.7 points and 9.7 rebounds per game. A 2010 second team All-MWC performer, she is hitting a team-best 58 percent from the field (48-of-83). Sophomore Courtney Clements, an Arizona transfer, is averaging 13.1 points and 4.1 rebounds in her first season for SDSU. Senior guard Coco Davis dishes out an impressive 6.7 assists per game while averaging 7.9 points per contest.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be the fifth meeting between future Pac-12 rivals Colorado and USC, with each team winning two of the previous matchups, all of which have come in the last eight years. The Buffaloes won the first two games, taking both ends of a home-and-home series in 2002 and 2003. USC claimed the two previous games, a 76-57 win in Boulder on Dec. 2, 2006 and a 70-57 decision at the Galen Center on Nov. 18, 2007. Colorado and Dayton have met just once, an 86-53 CU win in the old Coors Classic in Boulder in the 1988-89 season opener. The Buffaloes and San Diego State have met twice, each team winning on their respective home courts. The Aztecs defeated CU 71-55 in San Diego on Jan. 9, 1981. CU defeated SDSU 70-51 in the championship game of the 1994 Coors Classic in Boulder.

Colorado is 35-24 all-time against its future conference foes in the Pac-10, soon to be Pac-12. USC is the Buffaloes' most recent Pac-10 opponent and CU will be looking to snap a four-game skid against the league dating back to a 76-74 overtime win at Washington on Dec. 21, 2004. Colorado is 9-1 all-time against schools currently in Dayton's league, the Atlantic 10 with its lone loss against UMass in November 2008. The Buffaloes are 91-49 all-time against schools in the regionally friendly Mountain West Conference, by far the most games played for CU against a league other than the Big 12. More than half of those games (84) have come against Colorado State and Wyoming.

CONNECTIONS: Three of the four head coaches in this tournament have called CU home at one point during their careers and all four have professional ties to the state of Colorado. Dayton head coach Jim Jabir was a CU assistant under Ceal Barry during the 2002-03 season, which was also the senior year of current Buffs head coach Linda Lappe. San Diego State head coach Beth Burns was a CU assistant from 1983-88 and a member of Barry's first CU coaching staff. Burns recruited former All-Big Eight performer and current CU Director of Operations Tracy Tripp (1985-89) to Boulder. Tripp later served as an assistant coach to Burns at SDSU for the 1994-95 season. Not to be outdone, USC head coach Michael Cooper was assistant coach for the NBA's Denver Nuggets in 2004-05 and was actually the interim head coach for 14 games following former CU men's coach Jeff Bzdelik. Cooper played 12 years and won five NBA titles with the Los Angeles Lakers from 1979-90.

CU freshmen twins Ashley and Brittany Wilson will reunite with Long Beach Poly classmate and current USC freshman forward Thaddesia Southall, although Southall is redshirting this season due to an injury.

DALE ON VERGE OF RETURN: Senior guard Chelsea Dale could make her season debut this weekend, fittingly near her home town of Palos Verdes Estates. Dale missed this last semester due to academics, but with the fall session officially closing on Friday, she could be immediately eligible, although it may not be officially known until gameday on Saturday. Dale has participated fully in practices and other team events during this past semester.

DEFENSIVE FEAT A FIRST: Colorado allowed 34 points to Loyola Chicago and 35 points to Texas State, the first time in team history that the Buffaloes have held an opponent below 40 points in consecutive games. The 69 combined points also marks the lowest two-game total in team history, eclipsing the 72 allowed in wins over Texas Southern (64-29) and Dartmouth (57-43), Dec. 14 & 21, 2007.

The 34 points allowed to Loyola Chicago tied for the seventh lowest single-game mark in team history (Southwest Missouri State, March 17, 1995), while the 35 points to Texas State ties for the ninth lowest with three other games (most recently against Kansas on Jan. 16, 2002).

Fast starts in the first half have certainly helped. CU has held five of its nine opponents under 20 points in the first 20 minutes including its last outing, holding Colorado State to 16. The Buffaloes season low is 12 allowed to Texas State, tying for the sixth lowest first half total in team history.

JEFFERY'S TRIPLE-DOUBLE: Chucky Jeffery recorded the second triple-double in team history by totaling 10 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists in the Omni Hotels Classic Championship game against Loyola Chicago. The only other CU triple-double was by Sandy Bean vs. Utah State on Feb. 16, 1979. Bean had 19 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists.

It marked career highs in both rebounds and assists for Jeffery as well as team season highs in both categories. She's the first CU player with 10 assists in a game since Susie Powers dished out 10 against Pepperdine on Jan. 4, 2008. Jeffery was awarded as the Classic's Most Valuable Player.

Jeffery's triple-double was the 18th in Big 12 Conference history (Baylor's Britteny Griner notched No. 19 the next day, Nov. 28) and she becomes the 11th different Big 12 player to record a triple-double.

SCORING, REBOUND DEFENSE SHINES AGAINST LOYOLA: Chucky Jeffery's triple-double against Loyola Chicago stole the headlines in the Omni Classic Championship game, and deservedly so, but the Buffaloes also notched a couple defensive team milestones of note in that game.

Colorado gave up just 20 rebounds to Loyola, tying for the second fewest in team history. Northern Arizona had just 19 against the Buffaloes on Feb. 7, 1981. On two other occasions the Buffaloes have held an opponent to just 20 rebounds; Dec. 28, 1991 at Washington (a 58-53 loss) and Jan. 21, 1980 vs. Northern Arizona (a 129-47 win). The Buffaloes +22 rebound margin (44-20) was their most since a +23 margin against Arkansas-Pine Bluff (51-28) on Dec. 2, 2008.

On the scoreboard, CU gave up just 34 points to Loyola, tying for the seventh fewest points allowed in team history and the fewest since giving up just 29 to Texas Southern on Dec. 14, 2007.

LAPPE'S DEBUT: The Regis game marked the official CU debut of head coach Linda Lappe, who joined her six predecessors with a successful debut as CU's women's head coach. Lappe is now 6-2 as head coach of the Buffaloes and 56-38 overall in her fourth season as a collegiate head coach.

NOTABLE FROM THE OPENER: Colorado improved to 32-5 (.865) all-time in overall season openers and 35-2 (.946) in all-time home openers. The Buffs improved to 25-0 when their overall season opener is played at home.

Colorado's win snapped a four-game losing streak dating back to last season. Colorado's 38-point margin of victory was its most in a season opener since a 93-43 win over Albany to open the 2000-01 campaign.

SPEARS CLIMBING CAREER LADDERS: Brittany Spears needs 11 points to become the fifth player in team history to reach 1,700 career points. She is currently at 1,689, 86 behind Shelley Sheetz (1991-95) for fourth place. She also ranks fourth in 3-point field goals attempted (516), fifth in rebounds (786) and field goals made (619), sixth in 3-point field-goals made (174), seventh in blocked shots (122), eighth in steals (193) and 13th in free-throws made (277) on Spears needs 14 rebounds to become the fifth player in team history to reach 800. With 11 points and 14 rebounds, she would join only Lisa Van Goor (1980-85) and Jackie McFarland (2004-08) as players with 1,700 points and 800 career rebounds. She is currently one of five players in CU history with 1,600 points and 700 rebounds.

SPEARS ON NAISMITH WATCH LIST: Brittany Spears has been named to the 2010-11 Naismith Trophy preseason watch list, announced by the Atlanta Tipoff Club.

The watch list of the nation's top 50 women's players was compiled by the Atlanta Tipoff Club's Board of Selectors, which based its criteria on player performances from the previous year and expectations for the 2010-11 college basketball season. The Naismith Trophy presented by AT&T will be awarded on April 4, 2011 at the NCAA Women's Final Four in Indianapolis.

The active leading career scorer in the Big 12 Conference (1,689 points), Spears topped the Buffaloes in scoring (17.7 ppg), rebounding (7.8 rpg) and steals (2.1 spg) as a junior, earning honorable mention to the 2010 All-Big 12 team. On the 2010 league charts she ranked third in steals, fourth in scoring, fifth in rebounding, defensive rebounds (5.5 drpg) and free-throw percentage (.837), eighth in 3-point field-goal percentage (.357), 10th in 3-point field-goals made (1.8 3mpg), 12th in blocked shots (1.0 bpg) and 14th in offensive rebounds (2.3 orpg).

Her preseason recognition by the Naismith Trophy is CU's first since Jackie McFarland was a Naismith Trophy semifinalist in 2008. Former Buffaloes standout Tera Bjorklund was a finalist in 2004.

PAC-KING UP: The 2010-11 season will be Colorado's final one in the Big 12 Conference as the school will officially join the Pacific-10 Conference on July 1, 2011. Utah will also join at that time as league will then become the Pac-12 Conference.

The Pac-12 basketball schedule will comprise of 18 conference games for each institution. Every season's schedule will feature both a home and road game against each institution's traditional rival. Colorado's new rival in its new conference will be Utah. In addition to these games, each institution will play six other opponents both home and away (for two consecutive years), and four opponents on a single-game basis - two at home and two on the road. The single-play opponents will rotate every two years.

The women's schedule mirrors the men's schedule. For example, when Colorado's men's basketball team plays at USC the women's team will host the Trojans.

BOULDER - They needed maybe 5 extra minutes to get untracked, but once they did the Colorado Buffaloes produced a tantalizing tip-off to the Linda Lappe Era in women's basketball.
 CU overran Regis 76-38 Friday night at the Coors Events Center, giving Lappe a victorious debut on the same court where she starred for CU Hall of Fame inductee Ceal Barry before finishing her collegiate eligibility in 2003.
 "It's always great to get the first one," Lappe said. "We had some early-game jitters, but that's normal. We picked it up midway through the first half . . . and it started with our defense."

The Buffs' post and transition defense improved as the night went on, and once they settled down, their offense wasn't too shoddy either.
 Four Buffs players reached double figures, led by senior Brittany Spears with 20 points. Senior guard Britney Blythe scored a career-high 15 points, including a career-best five three-pointers. Sophomore Chucky Jeffery contributed a double-double - 13 points and 12 rebounds. She also had a game-high six assists and six steals, while sophomore Meagan Malcolm-Peck added 10 points.

Jeffery called her diverse role in the opening-night "real fun . . . it's not too much about scoring for me. I'm big on the assist game now . . . it's good to know I can pass to my teammates and they'll knock down the shot."
 Spears said the win "felt good. It always feels good with a win . . . we know we're playing for each other."
 That thought will have to stay in their minds as the season unfolds.
 Lappe's team opened the season with a sparsely populated bench. She knew academics would sideline senior guard/forward Chelsea Dale for the fall semester and that sophomore guard/forward Brenna Malcolm-Peck's hyper-extended left knee would keep her out of the lineup indefinitely.
 But on Friday, top recruit Shae Kelley, an athletic forward from Denver East, informed Lappe she was leaving the program for personal reasons. In the Buffs' 93-62 exhibition tour of Western State a week prior to the opener, Kelley came off the bench to score 22 points on 11-of-14 shooting from the field.

That turned out to be her lone appearance in a CU uniform in the Events Center. As a result, CU suited up eight players to face Regis in Lappe's debut.
 "It leaves us in a tough situation," she said. "But our players are great . . . with eight players, everybody has got to contribute. We just have to be in great shape . . . these guys played a lot of minutes. But we work hard all off-season for that. It leads to some great team chemistry; we'll use it as positive."
 Lappe said she "wishes Shae the best of luck, but we're focused on our team and getting better every day."

CU opened slowly and frigidly, hitting just one of its first six field goal attempts in the first 4:15 and falling behind 8-2. But after they caught the Rangers at 8-8, the Buffs began to take off.
 They went ahead 17-10, then allowed Regis to climb back as close as 17-16 before Blythe & Co. put the hammer down by hitting three consecutive three-pointers. Malcolm-Peck opened the onslaught with a three with 5:55 remaining before halftime, and Blythe followed with back-to-back treys.
 For Blythe, a 5-9 senior from Mateo, Calif., her three-pointer with 5:20 left in the half were her first official points since Feb. 14, 2009 at Texas A&M. (She scored nine in CU's exhibition win against Western State.)
 Blythe said she "felt good, but I'm not thinking about shooting - unless things are open."
 After their 8-8 tie, the Buffs outscored the Rangers 34-9, including a 25-1 run in the first half's final 5:55. The score at intermission: CU 42, Regis 17.
 And the Buffs weren't done. They scored the first 13 points of the second half, taking a 55-17 lead with 15:30 to play. The Rangers got their first points of the second half on a three-point play Salina Kuiper with 15:10 remaining, but by then it was 55-20 and CU was looking at a name-your-number opening night.
 The Buffs eventually led by 43 points before the final buzzer.

DENVER - University of Denver's Britney Rice scored nine of her team-high 19 points from the free-throw line, including six in the closing seconds as the Pioneers edged the University of Colorado 70-69 Tuesday night at Magness Arena.
Brittany Spears led Colorado (1-1) with 24 points and 10 rebounds, her 23rd career double-double. Meagan Malcolm-Peck had 14 points, five rebounds and three blocks.
 DU (1-1) and Colorado went back-and-forth, 10 ties, 15 lead changes and just six points - two possessions - was the largest margin for either team. But a few costly CU mistakes down the stretch and Denver's ability to capitalize was the difference.

Colorado made six of its first eight shots from the field and Spears' third 3-pointer in the first nine minutes gave Colorado a 17-12 lead.
 But turnovers hurt the Buffaloes. Denver pressed, giving CU's back court some problems which turned into easy buckets. The Pioneers scored 14 points of 14 first half CU turnovers and led 32-29 at the break.
 The Buffaloes continued to keep the Pioneers within reach early in the second half and momentum began to swing when CU amped up the defensive effort and began to return the favor.

"We pressured them," CU head coach Linda Lappe said. "We became the aggressors on defense, which is how we need to play the entire game, but it really spurred our run and we were able to get some easy baskets."
 After DU held its largest lead of the game at 52-46, CU's defense sparked a 9-0 run. Spears scored first on a put back and after a stop Malcolm-Peck drilled a 3-pointer to pull CU to within one at 52-51. Spears then recorded steals on back-to-back possessions, the first resulting in a coast-to-coast layup and the second ending in a Malcolm-Peck bucket as CU led 55-52 with 5:31 left.
 But shortly after, momentum took a swift shift back to Denver. The Buffaloes played 29 seconds of solid defense on the other end and had DU needing to get a shot on rim off an inbound play with just one second left on the shot clock. DU found its leading scorer Kaetlyn Murdoch, but she missed a shot from the elbow. Pioneer Brianna Culberson won a struggle for the rebound with Malcolm-Peck. The CU sophomore was called for a foul, but the setback was compounded by a technical foul call on Spears who batted the ball away in frustration.

Rice made one of two shots, and on the ensuing possession, Murdoch was fouled and made the subsequent free throws to tie the game up at 55 with 4:56 remaining.
 The Buffaloes fought to claim a 62-61 with just 2:13 remaining and had the ball but couldn't extend their lead despite having three chances on the same possession. Spears missed two short range jumpers and Malcolm-Peck couldn't quite stick the put back as Rice finally corralled the rebound and was fouled.
 She made both foul shots to give DU a 63-62 lead with 1:09 left. Colorado once again had three chances at regaining the lead, but couldn't connect. Rice, once again corralled the rebound, this time off a Malcolm-Peck 3-point attempt, was fouled and sank another pair of free throws with 39 seconds on the clock to put the Pioneers up 65-62.
 The Buffaloes were unable to get a quality shot off on the other end. Murdoch, who survived early foul trouble to score 17 points, followed Rice's lead with a pair of free throws to give DU a two-possession lead at 67-62.

"We fought hard," Lappe said. "We could have folded a few times in this game, down five a couple different times, and really fought back. I thought we had a lot of momentum down the stretch, then a couple possessions where things didn't quite go our way and we weren't quite able to bounce back from that."
 CU freshman Brittany Wilson made a pair of driving layups to extend the game, but it was not enough. Denver was clutch at the line making 22-of-25 free throws, including 9-of-10 in the final 1:09.
Chucky Jeffery had 10 points and four rebounds. Wilson had nine points and three rebounds.
 Colorado returns home to host Santa Clara on Friday, Nov. 19, at 7 p.m. at the Coors Events Center.

BOULDER - The best way to open a seven-game home stand? Start fast in Game 1 - and make certain there's a finish to match.
 The Colorado women's basketball team did exactly that Friday night, leading from start to finish in overrunning Santa Clara 71-57 at the Coors Events Center.
 Freshman Brittany Wilson and sophomore Chucky Jeffery led the Buffaloes with 18 points each, with Wilson's total a career best. Junior Julie Seabrook, increasingly establishing herself in the post, finished with a career-high 13 points and added 10 rebounds. Jeffery also had a double-double, adding 10 boards to go with her point total, and chipping in a game-high six assists.

It was the first time since Dec. 30, 2008 that the CU women's team had a pair of double-doubles. Brittany Spears had 14 points and 13 rebounds, and Seabrook added 12 points and 13 boards against Idaho State. Spears had 14 points and 7 rebounds Friday night.
 CU converted 19 SCU turnovers into 26 points and outrebounded the Broncos 41-35. SCU managed only 36.4 percent shooting (20-of-55) from the field.
 "It was good to get a win," CU coach Linda Lappe said. "We came out in the first half and played well to start the game . . . then we got kind of stagnant at end of the half. I was not happy with that."

But the night ended well for the Buffs, who were coming off a one-point loss on Tuesday night at the University of Denver. If there was a hangover from their first defeat, it showed only in a lapse that allowed SCU to make BOULDER - Five nights after submitting what Coach Linda Lappe called "our most complete game of the season," her Colorado women's basketball team found a suitable way to encore.

CU limited Texas State to 16.7 percent shooting from the field in the first half, 24 percent for the game, and cruised past the Southland Conference visitors, 67-35, Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

Lappe's calls for the Buffaloes to ratchet up their defense for 40 minutes haven't been ignored; they've allowed 34 and 35 points in their two most recent games. It was the first time in school history CU has kept an opponent under 40 points in consecutive games.

"It all started with our defense; we came out and did some really nice things. Our defense in the last two games has been good in spurts . . . but it was a little better (overall) on Saturday," said Lappe, whose team won its sixth consecutive home game (6-1 overall).

In Saturday night's championship game of the Omni Hotels Classic, CU played hard and smart from buzzer to buzzer and routed Loyola-Chicago, 65-34.

And by Wednesday, there had been no noticeable drop-off in the Buffs' intensity, or in sophomore point guard Chucky Jeffery's overall game. Fresh off the second triple-double in school history (10 points, 13 rebounds, 10 assists), Jeffery paced the Buffs Wednesday night with 23 points and 13 rebounds, her fourth double-double of the season and fifth of her career.

"As long as we get a win, I'm happy for everybody on team . . . everybody is contributing and I'm just going with the flow," Jeffery said.

Senior Brittany Spears (12) and freshman Ashley Wilson (10) were the only other CU players in double figures, but each of Lappe's players scored. Wilson, whose points were a career-high, also had five rebounds and two assists as she works her way back from a serious knee/leg injury suffered in her senior year of high school in Long Beach, Calif.

Wilson took a hard fall on a layup in the final minutes and drew an intentional foul. She tweaked her ankle, not her knee, in the collision, but said she felt fine afterwards.

"It's taken a long time to come back from the (high school) injury, but I'm making progress," she said. "I like playing with these guys."

The Bobcats (2-3) hadn't won a true road game since Dec. 10, 2006 at UT-Pan American, and the Buffs weren't interested in seeing that streak end in Boulder.

CU's defense was suffocating in the first 10 minutes, allowing Texas State only eight field goal attempts and four points (one field goal, two free throws). The visitors didn't score on consecutive possessions until the 8:30 mark of the first half - and by then the Buffs were up 20-8 and still hungry.

Jeffery said Lappe "never wants us to let up on defense. It sparks everything else, and we put a lot of emphasis on that. In the first half, our defense was good. But in the second half, we laid off a little. Overall, though, I think (the intensity) carried over, definitely."

The Bobcats regularly use a 15-player rotation, but coach Suzanne Fox kept it to 12 in the first half. Lappe, meanwhile, used all available personnel - The Crazy Eight? - and saw her team lead by as many as 23 (32-9) before intermission.

Jeffery's short jumper gave her 14 first-half points and CU its 34-12 halftime lead. After snatching nine rebounds in the opening half, Jeffery got No. 10 with just under 17 minutes remaining, then hit a layup and a converted a three-point play on consecutive possessions to give the Buffs a 41-14 lead - their largest of the night to that point - with 16:18 left.

CU led 45-22 at the second half's half-way point and was never threatened in the final 10 minutes. The Buffs outscored the Bobcats 42-18 in the paint, 10-0 on fast breaks, 13-4 on second-chance points and 20-12 in points off turnovers.

BOULDER - Linda Lappe wanted to see how her Colorado women's basketball team measured up against an opponent from another power conference in Saturday night's Big Ten/Big 12 Challenge.

In the effort and tenacity categories, Lappe liked what she saw - but on the scoreboard, not so much.

Her Buffaloes gamely rallied from an 11-point second-half deficit to take a two-point lead, but the Illini outscored them 8-2 in the final 3:11 and left the Coors Events Center with a 63-59 victory.

Lappe's returning players contended that coming back from a double-digit deficit last season might not have happened.

Although the Illini brought a losing record (3-5) to Boulder, they dealt the Buffs their first home loss of the season. CU (6-2) had three players in double figures, led by Chucky Jeffery's 17. Senior Brittany Spears and junior Julie Seabrook added 15.

The Buffs' already depleted roster shrunk to seven when freshman guard Ashley Wilson suffered a concussion late in Wednesday night's game against Texas State.

To add depth, Lappe looked to CU's volleyball team and found Nikki Lindow, a 6-foot-2 freshman from Centaurus High School. Lindow averaged 17.5 points a game for Centaurus, and when Lappe coached at Metro State, she thought enough of Lindow's ability to recruit her for hoops.

Lindow practiced once with the Buffs this week but did not leave the bench Saturday night. Lappe hopes Wilson can return for the next game, but she must be "symptom free" on Sunday.

After falling behind 6-1 in the first 3 minutes Saturday night, the Buffs rallied and took their largest lead (15-8) on a 7-0 run with baskets by Seabrook, a three-pointer by Meagan Malcolm-Peck and a pair of free throws by Jeffery.

CU held the lead until Lana Rukavina's layup tied the score at 21-21 with 5:50 left in the half. Thereafter, there were three lead changes, with the Buffs going up by as many as four points (28-24) until Lydia McCully's trey from the right corner cut the Illini's deficit to one.

McCully followed that with another three-pointer and Adrienne GodBold's follow at the buzzer pushed Illinois in front, 32-28.

The Illini's size and aggressiveness gave the Buffs problems early, with the visitors outscoring CU 20-8 in the paint in the first half and 32-24 for the game. The Buffs' lack of depth also took a toll; Illinois' bench outscored CU's 18-5. The Buffs were outscored 19-12 in the first half, but came back to hold a 34-33 board advantage at game's end.

McCully opened the second-half scoring with a layup, giving the Illini a six-point lead. They increased went ahead by seven (38-31) on a steal and layup by GodBold before Malcolm-Peck's trey pulled the Buffs to 38-34.

But Rukavina answered with a three-pointer and restored the seven-point Illini advantage. Less than 3 minutes later, it went to 10 (46-36) on a three-point play by Eboni Mitchell, then 11 (55-46).

The Buffs didn't go belly up. An 11-0 run tied the score at 55-55 with 4 minutes remaining, with Spears' basket completing a fast break and knotting the score.

Half a minute later, Seabrook's two free throws gave CU its first lead (57-55) since late in the first half (28-27). Rukavina matched Seabrook's free shots to tie the score, then Penn hit one of two with 1:48 remaining to put the Illini up 58-57, then banked in a running hook for a 60-57 advantage with 50 seconds left.

When Penn hit another pair from the foul line with 16.4 seconds left, Illinois went ahead 62-57. But Seabrook answered with two free throws with 6.8 seconds down, pulling the Buffs to 62-59. A free throw by McCully on the next possession gave Illinois its four-point win.

Penn, a 6-2 sophomore, finished with 17 points and a game-high eight rebounds.
