Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller (3rd Year at CU, 38-52/9th Year Overall, 129-140)

Assistant Coaches: Patrick Harrington, Tom McConnell, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Ann Strother

THE GAME: The University of Colorado will host Gonzaga University in a Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) second round game on Monday, March 24, at 7 p.m. at the Coors Events/Conference Center. The Buffaloes received a first round bye while Gonzaga knocked off UC Davis 81-60 in a first round game in Spokane, Wash., on March 20. The winner of Monday's game will face either the University of Wisconsin or Villanova University. Date, time and site of that third round game has yet to be determined.

BROADCAST: All Colorado women's basketball postseason games will be broadcast on KKZN AM 760. Mike Rice, in his second season, will have the play-by-play with Carol Callan of USA Basketball providing the color commentary. Live internet audio can be accessed through Yahoo! Sports. Monday's game will be streamed live and free to the public through BuffsTV on CUBuffs.com.

POSTSEASON FACTS: Some facts about Colorado and the postseason:

- Colorado reaches postseason play for the 18th time in team history with an overall record of 23-17. The Buffs played in four AIAW Tournaments from 1979-82 (5-4) and have made 12 NCAA Tournament appearances (17-12).

- This is Colorado's second trip to the postseason WNIT. The Buffs also participated in the 1999 WNIT defeating BYU 70-53 in the first round before falling to Drake 82-66 in the second. Both games were played in Boulder.
- This is Colorado's first postseason appearance of any kind since the 2003-04 team played in the NCAA Tournament.
- CU is 15-4 all-time a home in postseason (12-3 NCAA, 1-1 WNIT, 2-0 AIAW) and has won its last four.
- CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller will be taking her third team to postseason play. Miller led Tulsa to back-to-back WNIT appearances in 2004-05.
- Senior guard Susie Powers is the only player on CU's roster with any postseason playing experience. Powers played in two games for Notre Dame during the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

THE BUFFALOES: Colorado is 16-14 overall and finished ninth in final regular season Big 12 standings at 5-11. The Buffaloes, who fell to Iowa State in the first round of the 2008 Big 12 Championship 76-50 on March 11, earned the league's automatic bid into the WNIT by virtue of being the highest ranked team in the conference that did not qualify for the NCAA Tournament. Colorado is assured of its first winning record since the 2003-04 team went 22-8 and advanced to the program's last postseason appearance. The road traveled by the Buffaloes has been an up and down one this year. Colorado owns an 11-game win streak and a six-game losing streak this season, marking the first time in school history the Buffaloes have endured streaks of six games in both directions during the same season.

Senior All-America candidate Jackie McFarland leads the Buffaloes at 17.9 points and eight rebounds per game while shooting 56 percent from the field (180-of-319). Her numbers remained solid, if not stronger, during league play averaging 18.2 points and 8.1 rebounds while shooting 55 percent (95-of-172). She is second on the team in assists (2.6 apg) and third in free-throw percentage (.776) and blocks (1.1 bpg). She is the first player in school history to score 500 points in three different seasons and joins Lisa Van Goor as the only Buffs to record 1,800 points and 1,000 rebounds. McFarland, with 1,857 career points, is just one point behind Tera Bjorklund (2000-04) for second place on CU's all-time scoring list. She reached the 1,000 rebound plateau against Missouri, becoming the third CU player to reach that mark. The two-time first team All-Big 12 forward once again can be found among the leaders in most league statistical categories ranking first in field-goal percentage, second in minutes, third in scoring and free-throw percentage, sixth in rebounding and 11th in blocks.

Freshman Brittany Spears is making a name for herself as well. She was selected to the Big 12 Conference All-Rookie team and earned league Rookie of the Week honors four times this season, including back-to-back citations March 3 & 7. Her 406 points are the fourth most by a CU freshman. Her 13.5 points per game average is on pace to be the best by a CU freshman since All-American Shelley Sheetz averaged 14.1 in 1991-92 and the best by any first-year player since Isabelle Fijalkowski averaged 16.1 in 1994-95, her lone season in Boulder. An all-around performer, she is only the second player in team history to record 40 blocks, 40 assists and 40 steals in the same season (Raegan Scott did it as a junior in 1995-96 and as a senior in 1996-97). Spears ranks third in blocks (46), fourth in rebounds (228) and fifth in steals on CU's all-time freshman charts. Her scoring (13.5 ppg), rebounding (7.6 rpg) and blocks (1.5 bpg) top all freshmen in the Big 12 while she is second in steals (1.7 spg) and free-throw percentage (.857) and fourth in assists (1.8 apg).

In the backcourt, senior guard Susie Powers averages a team-best 3.5 assists per game. Her 106 assists this season are the most by a Buffs player since Mandy Nightingale had 161 (4.7 apg) during the 2001-02 season. Powers, who had a career-high 10 assists in the win over Pepperdine, is second in the Big 12 with a two-to-one assist-to-turnover ratio (106 assists-54 turnovers) and also ranks ninth in the Big 12 in assists.

Sophomore Aija Putnina, who has started the last 27 contests, is averaging 7.4 points, 6.8 rebounds and 1.3 blocks per game. Putnina, who registered her fourth double-double of the season with 14 points and 15 rebounds against Texas, is ninth in blocks and 17th in rebounding on the Big 12 charts. She owns two of CU's top three single-game rebounding performances this season, also nabbing 15 against Northern Colorado on Nov. 28. Her 38 blocks on the season are the fourth most by a sophomore in team history.

Sophomore Bianca Smith, who entered the starting lineup for the first time this season against Oklahoma State, ranks third on the team in scoring at 10 points per game. She leads the team in 3-pointers with 71, which is tied with Shelley Sheetz (1992-93) and Jenny Roulier (2001-02) for second on CU's single-season list. Smith was named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10 after averaging 19.0 points and hitting 57 percent from the field in games against No. 22 (AP)/21 (WBCA) Wyoming and No. 20/17 Vanderbilt.

Junior Hannah Skildum, who started 16 games earlier in the season, provides a strong defensive presence to Colorado's back court and averages 3.2 points and 1.8 rebounds per game and is averaging six points over the last two games. Whitney Houston and Britney Blythe have also seen extended minutes in the Colorado backcourt. Houston's minutes have increased over the past 11 games and is averaging 5.5 points per contest during that span. Blythe, played key minutes off the bench in Colorado's win over Kansas, scoring eight points and grabbing three rebounds but has missed seven of the last 11 games.

Colorado has several front-court options off the bench. After seeing limited minutes for a good portion of the season, 6-4 junior center Kara Richards has played strong down the stretch. She averaged 6.4 points and 5.2 rebounds over her last five appearances prior to the Big 12 Championship and had a season-high 11 rebounds against Missouri. Junior Caley Dow has been crashing the boards lately pulling down six in two of the last three contests. Freshman Courtney Dunn had six points and five rebounds off the bench against No. 10 Oklahoma and has five or more rebounds in six games.

Colorado is averaging 65.6 points per game while holding opponents to 61.4 per contest. Overall CU is shooting 42 percent from the field and is the Big 12's top free-throw shooting team at 75 percent. CU is outrebounding teams by 3.7 boards per game and ranks second in 3-point field goals (6.8 3mpg) and third in blocked shots (5.4 bpg) on the Big 12 charts.

ABOUT THE BULLDOGS: Gonzaga is 25-8 overall and won its fourth-straight regular season West Coast Conference championship with a 13-1 record. The Bulldogs were upset by the University of San Diego, 70-66, in the WCC Tournament championship game. Despite the loss, Gonzaga has won nine of its last 10 and 17 of its last 19. The Bulldogs rank sixth in the NCAA in scoring at 77.4 points per game, but they also give up 66.3 points a contest which ranks in the lower third of NCAA Division I. Gonzaga distributes the ball well averaging 16.6 assists per game, a number that ranks 14th in the NCAA. The Bulldogs average 6.3 more rebounds per game than their opponents and are also solid from the floor making 45 percent of their shots. Gonzaga is making its fifth appearance in the WNIT and third in the last five seasons.

Gonzaga is led by sophomore forward Heather Bowman, the WCC Player of the Year. She leads the WCC in scoring at 20.3 points per game and also ranks fourth in rebounding at 8.4 per contest. WCC Newcomer of the Year Courtney Vandersloot is Gonzaga's only other double-digit scorer at 10.7 points per game. The freshman point guard was second in the WCC in assists per game at 6.7 on her way to all-conference and league all-freshman honors. Five other Bulldogs average between six and 10 points per game. Junior guard Jami Bjorklund, the 2008 WCC Defensive Player of the Year, averages 9.4 points and 4.5 rebounds per game. Senior guard Michelle Elliott leads the Bulldogs in 3-point field goals with 55 and is hitting a robust 41 percent from long range (55-of-135).

SERIES RECORDS: This will be the third meeting between Colorado and Gonzaga with the Buffaloes winning the previous two contests. CU defeated Gonzaga 58-41 in Spokane on Dec. 10, 1989 and then took care of business against the Bulldogs 87-59 during the first round of the 1990 Coors Classic in Boulder. Kathy McConnell-Miller has never faced Gonzaga as a head coach.

COMMON OPPONENTS: Colorado played two of Gonzaga's West Coast Conference rivals during the 2007-08 non-league schedule defeating the University of San Francisco 66-48 in the season opener and claiming a 65-53 decision over Pepperdine University on Jan. 4 in Boulder. Gonzaga won all five games against those two teams this season, sweeping the home-and-home series with both teams and then ousting Pepperdine 77-67 in the first round of the WCC Tournament.

LONG BREAK: Colorado last played on March 11, falling to Iowa State in the first round of the Big 12 Championship. The Buffaloes will have had 13 days in between games which ties for the ninth-longest span in team history. CU also had 13 game breaks in 1981-82 and 1988-89. CU has endured breaks of 10 days or more 25 times, with most occurring during the holiday break in December. The Buffaloes are 15-10 in those games in which the team returns from a layoff of 10 or more days. This will be the seventh time that CU's long break has come during this time of year -- from the end of the regular season to the start of postseason play and the Buffs are 3-3 in their first postseason contest following the break. The most recent instance was a 10-day break between the 2004 Big 12 Championship and NCAA Tournament. This will tie for the longest break in team history between the end of the regular season and start of the post season. CU also had 13 days inbetween the 1981-82 regular season finale and the first round of the AIAW Regional playoffs, a 70-61 win over Colorado State.

McFARLAND, SPEARS EARN BIG 12 POSTSEASON HONORS: Senior forward Jackie McFarland was named to the 2008 All-Big 12 Conference first team for the second-straight season while freshman forward Brittany Spears was named to the All-Rookie team and received honorable mention to the All-Big 12 squad by a vote of league coaches.

McFarland gives Colorado its fourth All-Big 12 first team selection, and ironically both are repeat performers. She joins Tera Bjorklund who received back-to-back honors in 2003 and 2004. A 2005-06 All-Big 12 second team pick, she is just the second Buffalo to be cited three different seasons by the current league joining guard Jenny Roulier who was a three-time third team selection (2000-02). Former CU All-American Shelley Sheetz was a three-time All-Big Eight first team pick.

Spears is the first Colorado player to be named to the Big 12 All-Rookie team in the three-year existence of the award. She is the 10th Buffalo to be given All-Big 12 honorable mention and just the second CU freshman to earn any kind of Big 12 postseason honor joining Linda Lappe who was also an honorable mention pick in 1999.

SMITH, SPEARS EARN BIG 12 WEEKLY HONORS: Colorado has been recognized with Big 12 weekly honors five times this season, a school record for the Buffs in the 12 years of the league.

Freshman forward Brittany Spears has been named Big 12 Rookie of the week four times, including the final two weeks of the season March 3 & 7. Spears, who also earned honors on Jan. 7 and Feb. 11, is the first CU player to earn four separate Big 12 weekly awards in the same season and the previous best was two. Sophomore guard Bianca Smith was named the Big 12 Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Dec. 10.

In her most recent honor, she had 10 points, five rebounds, three assists, one block and one steal to help CU to a 63-47 win over Missouri in the regular season finale. The week before, Spears averaged 15 points, 12.5 rebounds and two steals against Baylor and Nebraska. She scored 16 points and had a career-high 14 rebounds against the Lady Bears and added 14 points, 11 rebounds and four steals against the Huskers.

The week of Feb. 5-11, she averaged 19 points, 6.5 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 blocks while hitting 48 percent from the field in games against Nebraska and No. 10 (AP & WBCA) Oklahoma. Her other honor came right before the beginning of the Big 12 season as she helped Colorado register its 10th straight win by scoring 16 points and grabbing seven rebounds in a 65-53 decision over Pepperdine on Jan. 4.

Smith averaged 19 points, two assists and two rebounds off the bench while leading Colorado to wins over No. 22/21 Wyoming and at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt. Against Wyoming, Smith scored 16 points on 5-of-8 from the floor with three assists as Colorado broke a three-game losing streak against the Cowgirls. Smith had a then-career high 22 points on 7-of-14 from the field with three rebounds, one steal and one assist as the Buffs handed the Commodores just their second loss in 23 home games.

SMITH'S RECORD NIGHT FROM '3': Sophomore Bianca Smith tied three different school 3-point field goal records during CU's 67-52 win over Texas on Feb. 16. Smith tied school marks for 3-pointers made in one game with seven, and also 3-pointers made and attempted in one half by hitting 5-of-9 in the first 20 minutes. It's the fifth time a CU player has had seven 3-pointers in one game, done by four players (Kate Fagan did it twice). Veronica Johns-Richardson was the last to do it, against Northern Colorado on Dec. 29, 2004. Smith's five first half 3-pointers matched efforts by Shelley Sheetz at Tennessee on Dec. 20, 1993 and Fagan at Syracuse on Dec. 31, 2002. Her nine first half 3-point attempts matched Sheetz's nine at Tennessee.

Smith, who finished with a career-high 26 points on that night and followed that performance up with five more 3-pointers in the win over Kansas State, continues to move up the ladder on CU's single season and career 3-point charts. Her 71 3-pointers this season tie Shelley Sheetz (1992-93) and Jenny Roulier (2001-02) for second on CU's single-season list and leaves her eight shy of Kate Fagan's single-season school record of 79 set in 2003-04. She has 103 career 3-pointers ranking eighth on CU's all-time list and needs seven to pass Alexis Felts (1994-98) for seventh. Smith's 196 3-point attempts this season are the most in team history and her 288 career attempts rank eighth. Her 103 3-pointers are the second most by a Buff in her first two seasons, trailing only Sheetz who had 128 from 1991-93.

AWARDS PILING UP FOR MCFARLAND: Jackie McFarland was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team for the third straight year, this time as a first team member, announced by the College Sports Information Directors of America on Feb. 26.

McFarland earned second team honors in 2006 and 2007. She is Colorado's third three-time Academic All-American joining Jim Hansen (Football, 1990-92) and Kelly Smith (Cross Country/Track & Field, 1996-98).

Sporting a 3.86 GPA, McFarland is working on a concurrent degree program which will allow her to earn her MBA while completing her undergraduate degree in accounting. McFarland won CU's Scholar-Athlete Award in the spring of 2007 for having the highest GPA in her class. McFarland is a three-year team captain and is actively involved in CU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

SAAC is the governing body for student-athletes at CU which assists in the development and implementation of programs that motivate student-athletes to strive for and be recognized for academic excellence and community involvement.

McFarland is currently one of 10 finalists for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. She was one of 30 original nominees for the Senior CLASS Award that was pared down to 10 finalists by a national media committee.

The award – presented annually to the NCAA Division I Student-Athlete of the Year in eight sports – focuses on the “Four C’s” of classroom, character, community and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the award was launched during the 2001-02 season to honor the attributes of college basketball seniors who remain committed to their university and pursue the many rewards that a senior season and complete college education brings.

McFarland is a 2008 Naismith Award semifinalist and she was tabbed as a preseason first team All-Big 12 selection and one of the top five power forwards in the country by ESPN.com.

Fans nationwide can vote on the Senior CLASS Award finalists from now through March 23. Fan balloting, available on the award's official website www.seniorclassaward.com, will be combined with votes from coaches, media and sponsors to determine the recipient of the award. Winners will be announced during the NCAA Men's and Women's Final Four.

BLOCK PARTY: Colorado is blocking shots at a near-record pace. The Buffaloes rank third in the Big 12 at 5.4 blocks per game. CU's 161 blocks are tied for second with the 1980-81 squad on the team's single-season list and sits just one shy of the school record 162 set in 2000-01. Freshman Brittany Spears leads the way with 46 blocks while sophomore Aija Putnina is second with 38 and senior Jackie McFarland, who is fourth in all-time blocks at CU, is third this season with 34. It's the first time in team history that the Buffaloes have three players with 30 or more blocks in one season.

CU's high for a game this season was 13 against Dartmouth, the second highest single-game total in team history, trailing only the school record 16 set against Sam Houston in a 99-60 win on Dec. 14, 2000. CU followed up that performance with 12 against Iowa State on Jan. 13. The Buffaloes, who have three games this season with 10 or more blocks, rank 13th in the NCAA in blocked shots through games of Mar. 16.

3-POINTERS FALLING: Colorado is second in the Big 12 Conference and ranks 24th in the nation (through games of March 16) at 6.8 3-point field goals per game. The Buffaloes have established new single-season team marks for 3-point shooting. CU has 203 3-point field goals made breaking the old mark of 196 set in 2001-02. The Buffs have blown away the old 3-point attempts mark. CU has 645 attempts, shattering the old school record of 501 originally achieved in 2001-02.

The Buffaloes have a school single-season record eight games with 10 or more 3-point field goals. The previous season high was five in the 34-game 2001-02 season. CU had a season-high 14 against Colorado State, its second best single-game total (CU had 16 against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004). That came during a string of netting 10 or more 3-pointers in four straight games for the first time. The Buffs had 10 3-pointers against Wyoming and Northern Colorado and 13 against Rice. Against UNC, the Buffs set a school record for 3-point field goal attempts in one half with 21 in the first stanza and finished the game with 36 attempts, just one shy of the school record of 37 set against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004.

Individually, it hasn't been one player doing the damage. For the first time in school history, CU has seven different players with 10 or more 3-pointers. Sophomore Bianca Smith leads the team with 71, Brittany Spears is second with 46 followed by Susie Powers (24), Jackie McFarland (14), Hannah Skildum (13), Whitney Houston (12) and Aija Putnina (10).

NUMBERS FOR McFARLAND: Jackie McFarland notched her eighth double-double of the season by scoring 25 points and grabbing 14 rebounds on Senior Night against Missouri. Her eight doubles tie for second in the Big 12 this season and her 14 rebounds allowed her to move past Erin Scholz (1993-97) for second place on CU's career list for double-digit rebounding games with 47. She is second on CU's career list for double-doubles with 45, a number that ranks fifth all-time in the Big 12. McFarland is second on CU's all-time list with 98 double figure scoring games and has reached double-digits in 90 of her last 96 games.

McFarland is third on CU's all-time scoring and rebounding lists sporting 1,857 points and 1,011 rebounds. She is one point away from catching Tera Bjorklund (2000-04) for second place and became the third player in team history to reach 1,000 rebounds during the Missouri game. She is one of only two players -- joining Lisa Van Goor -- to have 1,800 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career.

McFarland is CU's all-time leader in free-throws made with 546, and ranks second in free-throw attempts (711). She needs six free-throw attempts to catch Bridget Turner's career record of 717 set from 1985-89. McFarland is fourth in blocked shots (134) and field-goals made (642) and sixth in minutes (3,769).

She is the only player in team history to score 500 points in three different seasons. McFarland made 5-of-6 from the line against Iowa State and in the process broke her own school record for free-throws made in one season with 163. She had 161 in 2006-07. She was 12-of-12 from the line against Missouri which ties for the second-best single game performance in team history.

In terms of career averages, she is on pace to rank third in scoring (15.8 ppg), fifth in rebounding (8.7) and eighth in field-goal percentage (.536).

DEFENSE WINS: Colorado has enjoyed some impressive defensive numbers at times this season.

The Buffaloes have held seven opponents under 50 points in 2007-08; 29-vs. Texas Southern, 38-vs. Southern Utah, 41-vs. Kansas, 43-vs. Dartmouth, 47-at Colorado State, 47-vs. Missouri and 48-at San Francisco. CU had held their opponent under 50 points just three times total in the previous three seasons. It's also the first time the Buffs have held two Big 12 opponents under 50 points in the same season since 2002-03.

CU yielded less than 50 points in three-straight games -- Texas Southern, Dartmouth and Southern Utah -- the first such streak since 2003-04. The Buffs' six sub-50 point defensive performances are the most in one season since the 2002-03 squad registered nine.

Colorado had a historic performance from a defensive perspective against Texas Southern. The Buffaloes held the Lady Tigers to just 29 points, which ties for the fourth-lowest total in team history (equals a 79-29 win over Iowa State on Feb. 19, 1993). It was just the fifth time in CU history the Buffs have held an opponent under 30 points (the ISU game in 1993 being the last). CU allowed just 13 second-half points, tying for the second-lowest second-half total in team history (also done in the ISU game and against Utah State on Jan. 28, 1981). The Buffaloes forced Texas Southern into 32 turnovers, the most since forcing 35 against Detroit Mercy on Nov. 24, 2002.

Colorado's season-long defensive efforts are on pace to rank among some of the best in team history. The Buffs have allowed opponents just 38.1 percent shooting from the field, which would rank third in the CU record book behind the 1980-81 (.358) and 1981-82 (.375) teams. CU has allowed just 61.4 points per contest which would rank ninth on the single-season charts and their +3.7 rebounding margin would tie for eighth.

CAPTAINS EARN ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12: Team captains lead not just on the court, but in the classroom too. Colorado's three team captains -- Caley Dow, Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers -- each earned spots on the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team the league office announced on Mar. 5. Dow and McFarland were first team honorees, while Powers was selected to the second team.

Dow, a 6-2 forward, earned her second-straight first team honor. She is averaging 2.6 rebounds and just under two points for the Buffaloes while hitting 46 percent from the field. Dow is a Spanish for the Professions major and active in the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Powers, who has started 58 of 60 career games in a CU uniform, is recognized by the Big 12 for the second-straight season. A Spanish and education major, she was a first team Academic All-Big 12 pick in 2007.

McFarland picks up her third Academic All-Big 12 award. She is a three-time Academic All-American.

PLAYING WELL AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: Colorado is 3-4 this season against ranked opponents. The three wins are the most by the Buffaloes since sporting a 3-7 mark against the nation's Top 25 in 2003-04.

Colorado's 73-68 win over No. 15 Kansas State marked the highest ranked team the Buffaloes have beaten since defeating No. 15 Notre Dame, 67-63 on Nov. 15, 2003. It's the highest ranked team the Buffs have beaten as an unranked team since knocking off No. 12 North Carolina 86-67 in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament in Boulder.

Colorado had its biggest week in early December in several years in terms of success against ranked teams.

Colorado's 69-55 win over No. 21/22 Wyoming on Dec. 5 snapped a 23-game Buffs' losing streak to ranked teams. The Buffaloes last win over a ranked opponent had been a 69-59 decision at No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004 where CU was ranked No. 14 at the time. The win was Colorado's first against a ranked team while being unranked since the NCAA Tournament win over UNC.

The Buffaloes kept the momentum going four days later with a 62-51 win at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt. The win gave CU's its first two-game win streak against ranked teams since knocking off No. 23 Washington and No. 24 Baylor in 2003-04. It was the first pair of wins over two ranked teams in back-to-back games since the 2002 NCAA Tournament when the Buffs defeated No. 22/24 LSU in the second round and No. 5 Stanford in the Sweet 16. It was Colorado's first win on the road over a ranked opponent since the Baylor game in 2004. It was CU's first win over a ranked opponent as an unranked team since defeating No. 12 Texas in Austin, 60-56, on Feb. 26, 1997.

Colorado's losses against the Top 25 this year have been competitive, if not downright close calls. No. 10/10 Oklahoma used a strong second half to pull away 82-66 on Feb. 9 in Norman as did

No. 21/18 Oklahoma State in an 81-72 decision on Feb. 2 in Boulder and No. 8/8 Baylor in a 76-62 decision in Waco on Feb. 27. CU led No. 19/16 Texas A&M for most the game before a late comeback allowed the Aggies to leave Boulder with a 72-68 decision on Jan. 16.

RANKING OF OUR OWN: Colorado did not receive votes in either the AP or WBCA Top 25 polls released this week. CU had at least received votes for six-straight weeks from Dec. 10 through Jan. 22. The Buffaloes were ranked in four straight AP polls, peaking at No. 23 on Jan. 1 and Jan. 8. The Buffaloes debuted in the 2007 AP poll at No. 25 on Dec. 24 for their first national ranking since finishing No. 17 (AP)/No. 24 (WBCA) in the final 2003-04 polls. Colorado has a rich tradition in the AP poll, making 158 appearances since 1980. The Buffs were ranked in 75 straight polls from Mar. 15, 1992 to Dec. 9, 1996 and 30 straight from Jan. 22, 2001 to Mar. 22, 2002.

With Colorado's early-season AP ranking, Buffs head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to play for and coach an AP ranked team. McConnell-Miller was a four-year letterwinner at Virginia (1986-90) where she played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight.

DEFENSE IN THE KANSAS GAME: Colorado's 59-41 win over Kansas was won, in large part thanks to its defense. The 41 points allowed to the Jayhawks tied for the third lowest against a Big 12 opponent during the regular season. Three of the four lowest totals have come against the Jayhawks:

35 -- Colorado 70, at Kansas 35, Jan. 16, 2002
40 -- Colorado 69, at Texas A&M 40, Feb. 8, 1997
41 -- at Colorado 59, Kansas 41, Jan. 22, 2008
41 -- at Colorado 80, Kansas 41, Jan. 29, 2002

The 18-point margin of victory was also the highest by a Kathy McConnell-Miller led team in a Big 12 game, beating the previous margin of 14 against Iowa State on Jan. 10, 2007 (81-67).

YOUTH SERVED: Colorado's freshman class was key in the Buffaloes win over Kansas combining for 31 points, the most by a freshman class since the trio of Whitney Houston (25), Candace Rucker (6) and Aija Putnina (3) combined for 34 in a 70-68 overtime loss at Kansas last season. Brittany Spears led the way with 14 points while Courtney Dunn pitched in a career-high nine points and Britney Blythe had eight off the bench.

DOUBLE OT: Colorado went double-overtime for just the fifth time in school history and the first time at the Coors Events Center with its 84-77 loss to Iowa State on Jan. 13. It was the first double-overtime for CU since the Buffaloes defeated the Cyclones 68-66 at Iowa State on Jan. 18, 1997, and the Buffs fell to 16-20 all-time in overtime and 2-3 in double-overtime. Seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers each played 48 minutes in the game, tying a school record initially set by Tracy Tripp against Oklahoma State on March 6, 1989.

BIG 12 OPENERS: Colorado evened its record in Big 12 Conference openers at 6-6 by defeating Missouri 70-58 on Jan. 9. It was Colorado's first season-opening Big 12 win on the road since the Buffs beat Baylor to begin the 2004 league slate. The 12-point margin was also the Buffs highest in a conference road opener since a 67-53 win at Missouri to open the 1993 Big Eight schedule. Colorado, now 20-14 in all-time conference openers, are 16-9 in home league openers since 1983 and 6-5 in the Big 12 era.

OPENING NIGHT STAR: Colorado freshman Brittany Spears joined some elite company in her Big 12 debut. Her 24 points were the second-most in team history for a freshman in her first league game. Only CU Athletic Hall of Fame member and 1995 All-American Shelley Sheetz had more points in a conference debut as she scored 25 during a 75-69 loss at Nebraska on Jan. 15, 1992. Her seven rebounds tie current teammate Jackie McFarland for the most by a freshman in a road opener since 1994. McFarland had seven in an 84-62 setback at Nebraska on Jan. 5, 2005.

NUMBERS ON 11 STRAIGHT: Colorado saw its 11-game win streak end against Iowa State, but the run was the seventh longest in team history and the most consecutive victories since the 1994-95 team matched a CU All-Sports record 25 straight wins (shared with the 1939-41 baseball team). Here are the Buffs' all-time best win streaks:

Wins	Season	Record	Noteable
1. 25	1994-95	30-3	NCAA Elite Eight, 14-0 in Big Eight
2. 20	1988-89	27-4	NCAA 1st Round, 14-0 in Big Eight
3. 15	1992-93	27-4	NCAA Elite Eight, 15-0 season start
4. 14	1991-92	22-9	NCAA 1st Rd, Big Eight Tourney Champs
5. 12	1981-82	28-8	IAIAW National 1st Round
12	1980-81	28-5	First of two 9-plus winning streaks in '81
7. 11	2007-08	??	First 11-plus streak since 1994-95
8. 9	2003-04	22-8	NCAA 1st Round
9	1993-94	27-5	NCAA Sweet 16
9	1992-93	27-4	NCAA Elite Eight, Big Eight Champs
9	1980-81	28-5	First IAIAW National Appearance
9	1978-79	22-9	3rd place in IAIAW Regional

PERFECT DECEMBER: Colorado registered a perfect 7-0 record for the month of December for the first time since 2003-04, and for just the sixth time in team history. The Buffaloes matched the 1980-81 and 1981-82 teams which were both 7-0 in December. The 1992-93 team had a program best December mark of 9-0, while the 2002-03 squad was 6-0 and 5-0 in 2003-04. CU is 118-54 (.686) all-time in the month of December.

CAPTAINS NAMED: Seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers and junior Caley Dow will serve as team captains for the 2007-08 season. McFarland is a captain for a third straight season, Powers is in her second year as captain and Dow is a captain for the first time. CU team captains are voted on by players prior to the first regular season contest each year.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 319-97 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.767). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 20 of the previous 30 years including this season, after notching win No. 10 against Texas on Feb. 16. The Buffaloes have enjoyed five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94) at the CECC.

ON THE ROAD: Colorado is 4-8 on the road this season and had won three straight for the first time since 2003-04 before falling at Kansas State on Jan. 19. The four wins doubles the team road win total from the previous two seasons combined (1-10 in 2006-07 and 1-9 in 2004-05). CU's 82-47 win over Colorado State was significant on several fronts. The 35-point margin was the Buffs' highest on the road since a 70-35 win over Kansas on Jan. 16, 2002 and it was also their largest win over Colorado State (regardless of venue) since a 112-48 win on Nov. 16, 1979. The 82 points were the most CU has scored on an opponents home court since the Buffs' last trip to Moby Arena, an 86-83 loss to the Rams on Nov. 30, 2005. Colorado broke Vanderbilt's 10-game home winning streak and handed the Commodores just their second loss in 23 home games, the other coming last season against eventual national champion Tennessee.

Kathy McConnell-Miller
Head Coach
Third Season

When Kathy McConnell-Miller took over the University of Colorado program just over two years ago, there's no question the Buffaloes were rebuilding and the team was a work in progress.

In two seasons at Colorado, progress is certainly a valid term for McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes.

McConnell-Miller, 40, sports a 22-38 record in her two seasons at Colorado and is 113-126 overall in eight seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach.

She led Colorado to a 13-17 mark in 2006-07, the team's best record since the 2003-04 Buffaloes went 22-8 and advanced to the program's last NCAA Tournament. Colorado also enjoyed its best Big 12 Conference showing in three years, tying Texas and Texas Tech for seventh in the league standings at 6-10. The Buffaloes' six conference wins in 2006-07 were more than the previous two years combined (3-13 in 2005-06 and 2-14 in 2004-05).

McConnell-Miller, who officially became the sixth head coach in the history of CU women's basketball on April 27, 2005, has overseen the development of Jackie McFarland, who has emerged as one of the top players in the Big 12. McFarland has earned All-Big 12 honors in both her seasons under McConnell-Miller including first team acclaim this past season. All-league selections are nothing new to McConnell-Miller as she has had at least one first or second team all-conference performer in each of her eight seasons as a collegiate head coach.

The Buffaloes have also had academic success in the McConnell-Miller era. In her two seasons, McConnell-Miller has coached seven Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team members and has helped guide McFarland to a pair of Academic All-America second team honors.

She has done well with the players inherited from legendary CU head coach Ceal Barry, but she has also excelled in bringing in her own players.

McConnell-Miller, who from day one has established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in her players, and her staff have landed back-to-back Top 40 recruiting classes, including the No. 29 class in 2006 according to the All-Star Girls Report. What was remarkable about the class of 2006 is McConnell-Miller and her staff didn't even have the chance to start on the recruiting trail until April when they arrived in Boulder. Despite that late start, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players, including Whitney Houston and Aija Putnina who made significant contributions as first-year players.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an Associated Press honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Greutz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Greutz for a total of six years as she went with Greutz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Three McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, two at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (7), Mackenzie (5) and Macie (3).

#2 Bianca Smith

5-9, Sophomore, Guard

Missouri City, Texas

This Season:

- Tied a school record for 3-pointers made in one game with seven and also tied marks for 3-pointers made and attempted in one half by hitting 5-of-9 in the win over Texas on Feb. 16. It's the fifth time a CU player has hit seven 3-pointers in one game, done by four different players (Kate Fagan did it twice). She finished with a career-high 26 points against Texas.
- Her 71 3-pointers this season are tied with Shelley Sheetz (1992-93) and Jenny Roulier (2001-02) for second on CU's single-season list and leaves her just eight shy of Fagan's school single-season record of 79 set in 2003-04.
- Her 196 3-point attempts this season are a school single-season record passing Mandy Nightingale's old mark of 191 in 2001-02.
- Named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10 after averaging 19.0 points on 57 percent shooting in wins over #22/21 Wyoming and #20/17 Vanderbilt.
- Fourth in the Big 12 in 3-point field goals made (2.4 mpg) while also sixth on the league charts in 3-point percentage (.362).

• After hitting just 4 of the first 11 free-throw attempts of her career (.364) she has hit 44 of her last 50 (.888) dating back to last season.

• Ranks eighth on CU's all-time list for 3-point field goals with 103. Her 103 3-pointers are the second most by a Buff in her first two seasons, trailing only Shelley Sheetz who had 128 from 1991-93.

Career:

- Had the sixth most 3-point field goals among freshmen in the Big 12 last season with 32 and ranked 14th on the Big 12 charts in 3-point field-goal percentage (.348).
- Her 32 3-point field goals were the most by a CU freshman since Emily Waner had 51 in 2003-04.
- Sat out the 2005-06 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program.
- A 2005 graduate of Bellaire High School where she was a four-year letter winner as a guard/forward. She earned District MVP and first team all-district honors as a senior, leading Bellaire to a 36-5 record and averaging 18.5 points and 15.3 rebounds per game.
- She won an AAU national championship with the Houston Elite club program. Smith's high school honors include being named a Houston Girls Athlete of the Week.
- Her step-father Johnnie played football for the University of Houston and the San Francisco 49ers for five years, helping the 49ers to a NFL title in Super Bowl XXIV.

#3 Whitney Houston 5-5, Sophomore, Guard Memphis, Tenn. (Hillcrest)

This Season

- Averaging 5.5 points and 1.8 assists over the last 11 games.
- Played a season-high 33 minutes at Kansas scoring eight points, dishing out three assists and tied a career high with three steals.
- She is 12-for-38 from the 3-point line this season after going just 1-of-17 in 29 games as a freshman.
- Hit 2-of-3 from 3-point range in the win over No. 15 Kansas State.
- Came off the bench for the first time this season in the win over Northern Colorado and tallied a season-best four assists.

Career:

- Won the team's Most Improved Player Award after the 2006-7 season.
- Led CU in assists with 64 in 2006-07, the first freshman to do so since Linda Lappe did it in 1998-99.

- Ranked fifth in assists (2.2) and eighth in scoring (7.9 ppg) among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference.

- A 2006 graduate of Hillcrest High School in Memphis where she led the Lady Vikings to the Tennessee Class AA state title as a senior. She was the state tournament MVP as Hillcrest finished with a 35-3 record and delivered the Memphis area its first girls Division 1 basketball state title in 21 years.

- A Miss Basketball finalist in Tennessee, averaging 19 points, six assists and three rebounds per game as a senior. She was a Class AA All-State first team selection and also earned Class AA All-Metro and District MVP honors.

- A four-time member of the Memphis Commercial Appeal's Best of the Preps/All-Metro Class A-AA team and was one of five finalists for the overall girls basketball Best of the Preps award as a junior and senior.

- She is the fifth of seven children joining Pamela (28), Keithra Patton (24), Elbony (23), Larry (21), Christopher (17) and Josh (21).

- She lists the biggest moments of her career as being inducted into the Honor Society and winning the state championship.

- Can play the drums, and she can sing.

#4 Britney Blythe 5-9, Freshman, Guard San Mateo, Calif. (St. Ignatius Prep)

• Scored 11 points and had two assists and two steals in her collegiate debut against San Francisco. USF is located about five miles from where she played in high school for St. Ignatius Prep in San Francisco.

Career:

• A two-time Street & Smith All-American and a two-time All-West Catholic Athletic League second team selection.

• Her father Donovan Blythe played basketball at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside

• Blythe is an open option major at Colorado and aspires to be a business woman or possibly a doctor.

• Her favorite things about Boulder are the mountains, the Glacier Ice Cream Shop and the Women's Basketball team.

• If she could be anyone for one day, she would be Beyonce.

• Her hobbies include reading, doing arts & crafts, sleeping and having a good time with friends & family.

This Season

• Had a pair of rebounds in the Big 12 Championship contest against Iowa State, her most since grabbing three in the win over Kansas on Jan. 22.

• Saw her first action in four games playing seven minutes and sinking a free-throw against Missouri.

• Played five minutes at Oklahoma and at Kansas after missing the previous three games due to a concussion suffered in practice on Jan. 28.

• Came off the bench to score eight points and grab a season-high tying three rebounds and two assists against Kansas

• Played 21 minutes against the Jayhawks and also set a personal mark with three field goals made on six attempts.

• Broke a two-game scoreless streak with three points against Colorado State in addition to a personal-best three rebounds and two assists.

#11 Hannah Skildum 6-0, Junior Guard/Forward North Oaks, Minn. (Mounds View)

This Season:

- Averaging six points and 4.5 rebounds over the last two games.
- Grabbed a season-best five rebounds in the Big 12 Championship game against Iowa State.
- Scored seven points and grabbed four rebounds against Missouri, her most since an eight-point, four-rebound effort against Texas A&M on Jan. 16. Tied a career high with two blocks against the Tigers.
- Averaged 9.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and hit 60 percent from the floor (6-of-10) during the two-game Coors Classic. Hit all three 3-point shot attempts against Siena.
- Has 13 3-pointers this season after making just five in her first two seasons combined.

- Had 11 points against Rice to reach double-digits in scoring for the 6th time in her career.

Career:

- Scored a career-high 16 points in the final game of the 2006-07 regular season at Nebraska while hitting a personal-best 7-of-10 from the floor. She hit two of her five career 3-pointers in that game.
- Averaged 3.6 points, 2.9 rebounds and 1.1 assists per game as a first-year player in 2005-06
- Miss Minnesota Basketball nominee and two-time All-Suburban East Conference first team pick for Mounds View High School
- She was named as one of Minnesota's Fabulous 40 Seniors by Minnesota Sports Preview prior to her senior season.
- Won a Minnesota state championship in the high jump
- Her uncle is Flip Saunders, current head coach of the NBA Detroit Pistons
- Her best talent not related to basketball is her singing, "I'm pretty good!". Her favorite food is Panda Express and her favorite campus spot is a "shady tree to take a nap by between classes."

#12 Susie Powers 5-10, Senior, Guard Centennial, Colo. (Highlands Ranch/Notre Dame)

This Season:

- Had a career-high 10 assists against Pepperdine. It's the most assists in one game for the Buffaloes since Whitney Law had her school-record 15 against Cal State Fullerton on Nov. 18, 2005.
- Tied a school record, along with teammate Jackie McFarland, by playing 48 minutes against Iowa State. Tracy Tripp set the initial mark with 48 against Oklahoma State in a double-overtime game on March 6, 1989.
- Ranks second in the Big 12 in assist-to-turnover ratio at 2.0 and ninth the Big 12 at 3.5 assists per game. Her 106 assists are the most by a CU player since Mandy Nightingale had 161 in 2001-02.
- Listed as 17th on CU's all-time list for 3-point field goals with 48.
- Named to the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball second team. Was a first team pick in 2007.

Career:

- Named Colorado's Defensive Player of the Year in 2006-07.
- Started 28 of 30 games during the 2006-07 season, rotating back-and-forth between the point and shooting guard positions.

- Transferred to CU from Notre Dame for the 2005-06 season, sitting the year out as a redshirt.

- A two-year letterwinner at Notre Dame, playing in 41 games over two seasons and averaging 6.5 minutes per game. Notre Dame was 48-17 with Powers on the roster advancing to a pair of NCAA Tournaments, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2004.

- Part of three Colorado Class 5A state championship teams at Highlands Ranch High School (2000-02) and was the starting point guard when the Falcons were ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2002. Was a teammate of current CU Director of Operations and WNBA veteran Ann Strother.

- She averaged 13.6 points and 6.8 assists per game over her prep career including a personal-best 15.7 per game as a senior.

- A two-time Street & Smith's honorable mention All-American and a Parade honorable mention All-American in 2003.

- While at Notre Dame, she was a two-time member of the Big East Academic All-Star Team.

- She hopes to one day teach Spanish in high school and coach girls basketball. She spent a portion of the summer of 2006 volunteering at a pastoral center in San Bartolo, Peru, teaching English and basketball to children.

#21 Chelsea Dale
6-1, Freshman, Guard/Forward
Palos Verdes Estates, Calif.
(Palos Verdes)

- She was an All-Bay League first team selection as a senior and the Pioneer League MVP and leading scorer as a junior.

- A two-time All-CIF Southern Section first team selection and a two-time Dyal Breeze All-Area first team member.

- In high school, was a member of the National Society of High School Scholars and a two-time member of the CIF Southern Section All-Academic Team.

- An open option major at Colorado and is interested in communications.

- Her favorite musician is Garth Brooks and her "Must See" TV is Grey's Anatomy.

This Season:

- Scored on a layup in the closing minutes of the Iowa State game for her first points since the Jacksonville State game on Dec. 30.

- Played the final minute of the Missouri game, grabbing her first collegiate rebound.

- Made her Big 12 debut by playing the closing minutes of each half against Kansas.

- Has made both 3-point attempts of her career, one each against Texas Southern and Southern Utah.

- Made her collegiate debut in the closing minute of CU's season-opening win at San Francisco. Saw action in the final minutes of the game at USC, in front of dozens of friends and family members from the Los Angeles area.

Career:

- Palos Verdes High School all-time leader in points and 3-pointers.

This Season:

- Named to the All-Big 12 Rookie team and received honorable mention to the all-conference team.
- Named Big 12 Rookie of the Week for the fourth time this season on March 7 after recording 10 points, five rebounds, three assists in the regular season finale against Missouri. She's the first CU player to earn four Big 12 weekly honors in the same season as she was also honored on Jan. 7, Feb. 11 and Mar. 3.
- Had 14 points and 11 rebounds at Nebraska for her sixth career double-double and third in a five-game span. Averaging 9.6 rebounds over the last seven contests.
- Her 406 points are the fourth most by a freshman in team history. Her 13.8 points per game average is on pace to be the most since Shelley Sheetz averaged 14.1 in 1991-92 and the best by any first-year player since 1994-95 when senior Isabelle Fijalkowski averaged 16.1.
- Scored a career-high 24 points in her Big 12 debut against Missouri. It's the second-best output by a Buff in her conference opener, trailing only the 25 scored by CU Athletic Hall of Famer Shelley Sheetz at Nebraska in 1992. Her seven rebounds against MU matched current teammate Jackie McFarland's initial output in 2005, tying for the best mark since Erin Scholz had nine rebounds at K-State in 1994.
- Just the second player in team history to record 40 assists, 40 blocks and 40 steals in the same season. Raegan Scott did it twice for the Buffs, as a junior in 1995-96 and senior in 1996-97.

- Ranks first among freshmen in the Big 12 in scoring (13.5 ppg), rebounding (7.6 rpg) and blocked shots (1.5 bpg). She is also second in free-throw percentage (.857) and steals (1.7 spg) and fourth in assists (1.8 apg).

- Overall in the Big 12 she is third in defensive rebounds (5.7 rpg), seventh in blocks, ninth in 3-point percentage (.313), 10th in overall rebounding, 11th in steals and 3-point field goals (1.5 3mpg) and 14th in field-goal percentage (.423) and 15th in scoring.

- Ranks third in blocks (46), fourth in rebounds (228) and fifth in steals (52) on CU's all-time freshman charts. Her steals are the most by a CU player since Veronica Johns-Richardson had 59 in 2004-05. She has five steals in a game twice this season, most recently against Texas Southern.

- Started her collegiate career off with a bang, scoring 15 points to go with seven rebounds and five steals against San Francisco. All 15 of her points and four of her five steals came in the first half.

Career:

- A 2006 graduate of Pasadena High School who spent the 2006-07 academic year at Notre Dame Prep School in Fitchburg, Mass.

- Two-time Pacific League and Pasadena Star-News Player of the Year for Pasadena High School

- Averaged 23 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists as a senior guiding Pasadena to its first league title since 1991.

- An open option major, interested in sociology.

- A sport she'd like to try other than basketball would be field hockey.

- Her best talent not related to basketball is helping with other people's relationships.

#23 Dina Piteriece 6-2, Junior, Guard/Forward Riga, Latvia (Odessa College)

- Averaged 12.8 points and six rebounds per game as a sophomore, helping the Wranglers to a 32-2 record, the Western Junior College Athletic Conference crown and the 2007 JUCO national championship.

- Had 200 3-pointers in her two seasons at Odessa and was ranked the 12th best overall junior college sophomore by All Star Girls Report

- A veteran of several European Women's Championships, she played for Latvia's U20 team in 2005 and 2006, the U18 squad in 2004 and the U16 team in 2001. Her U20 team won a bronze medal at the 2005 European Championships

- A sport she would like to try other than basketball would be volleyball.

- Her favorite foods are chicken and salad.

- In a movie about Dina, she would be played by Jennifer Aniston with Angelina Jolie playing the part of Aija Putnina.

This Season:

- Played the final minute of the Missouri game, her first action in nine contests.
- Made her Big 12 Conference debut by playing two minutes at Iowa State.
- Scored her first points in a CU uniform with a 3-pointer against Southern Utah.
- Made her long-awaited CU debut against Texas Southern, grabbing four rebounds and dishing out one assist in four minutes.
- She missed the first eight games due to a broken toe suffered during practice on Oct. 19. The injury was to the third metatarsal on her left foot.

Career:

- Transferred to CU after a two-year career at Odessa where her teams went 66-3, winning the 2007 junior college national championship and a second place finish in 2006.

#33 Aija Putnina 6-3, Sophomore, Forward Riga, Latvia (Regis HS, Colo.)

This Season:

- Made both of her 3-point attempts against Iowa State in the Big 12 Championship after going 0-of-13 from downtown during the league's regular season.
- Registered her fourth double-double of the season, the sixth of her career, by scoring 14 points and tying a personal best with 15 rebounds in the win over Texas. She has two of the top three single-game rebounding performances on the team this season. Tied career highs with three steals and three assists against Texas.
- Scored a career-high 20 points on 8-of-9 from the field against Jacksonville State.
- Was 4-of-4 from 3-point range against JSU. Only Jenny Roulrier who hit 5-of-5 from downtown against Missouri on Feb. 13, 2002, had more 3-pointers in a game without a miss. She had just four 3-pointers in 37 career games prior to the JSU game.
- On the Big 12 charts is ninth in blocks and 17th in rebounding.
- Her 38 blocks this season are the fourth most by a sophomore in team history.

Career:

- Already 12th on CU's all-time list for blocked shots with 57.
- Ranked fifth in rebounds among freshmen in the Big 12 in 2006-07.

• Early in her freshman season she had four straight-double-digit rebounding games, including back-to-back career-high 14-board outputs against Colorado State and USC. Putnina is the first freshman to record four-straight games with 10 or more rebounds since Erin Scholz had four in a row in 1993-94. Only all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor had more in a row as a freshman, compiling separate streaks of five and six games during her maiden season in 1980-81.

• Recorded back-to-back double-doubles at the 2006 Coors Classic, earning All-Tournament honors. She was the first freshman to achieve back-to-back double-doubles since Sabrina Scott did it at the end of the 1999-2000 season and it's only the fourth time since 1993-94 when Erin Scholz did it twice.

• Averaged 16.6 points, 11 rebounds and 1.5 blocks per game in helping the Latvia National team to a 12th place finish at the 2007 U20 European Championship for Women. Led the tournament field with five double-doubles in eight games.

• Her Latvia National team experience also includes the 2006 U18 European Championships where her 16.9 points and 10 rebounds per game helped Latvia to a fourth place finish. Also played in the 2005 U18 and 2004 U16 European Championships.

• A 2006 graduate of Regis Jesuit High School in Aurora, Colo. An exchange student from Riga, Latvia, she could play only one season of varsity high school basketball in Colorado. As a senior she averaged 12 points, seven rebounds and two blocks per game helping the Raiders to a 24-4 overall record and a second place finish in the Colorado State Class 4A Tournament.

• Earned All-Continental Conference first team recognition and received honorable mention to the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 4A All-State teams.

• She aspires to own her own business and to become a basketball coach.

• She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as going to the state championship game.

• Her best talent not related to basketball is taking pictures.

#40 Caley Dow 6-2, Junior, Forward Littleton, Colo. (Arapahoe)

This Season:

- Hitting 50 percent from the field over the last 10 games (11-of-22). Has six rebounds in two of the last three games.
- Had season-highs with eight points and seven rebounds in 30 minutes against Nebraska. Also tied a career high with three assists.
- Named a team captain along with seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers in a vote by players during the preseason.
- Had seven rebounds against Colorado State, her most since pulling down seven against Cal State Fullerton last December.

Career:

- A two-time Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball first team selection.
- As a freshman, Dow ranked 19th in the Big 12 in rebounding in league only contests at 5.9 rpg.

• Scored a career-high 15 points against Oregon and was a perfect 10-of-10 from the free-throw line. She is just the seventh CU player to go 10-of-10 or better from the foul line in a single game and only the second freshman. CU All-American Shelly Sheetz was 11-for-11 as a first-year player against Kansas in 1992. The mark also ties for the second best in the Big 12 this season.

• A 2005 graduate of Arapahoe High School where she averaged 17.3 points and 9.3 rebounds as a senior.

• She was selected All-Colorado by both the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News and was named to the Class 5A All-State first team by both publications.

• Was the state's leading rebounder in 2004 and a first team All-Continental League pick, helping the Warriors to a 12-8 record as a junior.

• She has two brothers, Nate and Eric. Eric played basketball at the University of Denver and professionally in Europe.

• Her favorite reality show is Mythbusters, "Have you seen the cool stuff they do?!"

• If she could be on the cover of any magazine it would be National Geographic.

• Her favorite quote is "Serenity Now!" - George Costanza from Seinfeld.

#44 Kara Richards 6-4, Junior, Center Graham, Texas (Graham)

This Season:

- Averaged 6.4 points and 5.2 rebounds over her last five appearances prior to the Big 12 tourney. while hitting 55 percent from the field (12-of-22).
- Recorded 11 rebounds against Missouri, a season high, and her most since notching 13 against the Tigers on Jan. 3, 2007
- Had a Big 12 high nine points against Baylor on 4-of-5 shooting.
- Had a season-high 11 points on 5-of-5 from the field and seven rebounds in the win over Dartmouth. It was her first double-digit scoring effort since the Kansas game on Feb. 24, 2007.
- Saw a streak of 30 straight starts come to an end (relative to games she's been healthy) but responded off the bench against Rice for seven points on a perfect 3-of-3 from the floor.

Career:

- Led the Big 12 in field-goal percentage in conference only games (.600) as a sophomore and ranked second on the overall league leaderboard (.583), trailing only teammate Jackie McFarland.
- Ranks 13th on CU's career list for blocked shots with 53.
- Missed seven games as a sophomore with a fracture to the fourth metatarsal of her left foot. The fracture was on the same foot, but a different bone than the injury that forced her to miss the 2005-06 campaign.

• Reverted back to sophomore standing in terms of eligibility as she was granted a medical hardship by the Big 12 Conference on Dec. 2, 2006.

• Suffered a Jones fracture – a fracture to the fifth meta-tarsal – in her left foot on Nov. 15, 2005, just three day's before CU's season opening win over Cal State University-Fullerton, missing the entire season

• Named to the Waco Tribune-Herald's Big 12 Conference All-Freshman team in 2004-05, averaging nine points, 5.3 rebounds, and one block per game for the Buffaloes.

• Ranked third in scoring, and fourth in rebounding and blocked shots among Big 12 freshmen in 2004-05.

• Ranked 10th overall on the Big 12 charts in blocks with 28, the 20th best total in team history and fifth-best by a Buffs freshman.

• Earned Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week honors after her first weekend as a collegian, averaging a team-best 13.5 points at the Nevada Nugget Classic.

• Started the 2004-05 season opener becoming the first true freshman to start in the season opener since Linda Lappe against Denver on Nov. 14, 1998.

• Earned a pair of All-State honors after her junior and senior seasons at Graham High School.

• A Texas Association of Basketball Coaches All-State selection, she was a four-time All-District player at Graham, was named the District Most Valuable Player for District 5-3A as a junior, and was also selected to the 2A- 3A Texas Women's Magazine All-State team.

• "Must See" TV for her is Dog the Bounty Hunter and cartoons.

• Her heros are her parents and grandparents.

#45 Jackie McFarland 6-3, Senior, Forward Derby, Kan. (Derby)

This Season:

- 2008 All-Big 12 Conference first team pick. Joins Tera Bjorklund (2003-04) as the only CU players to earn back-to-back first team honors.
- Third on CU's all-time scoring and rebounding charts with 1,857 points and 1,011 rebounds. Needs just two points to pass Bjorklund for second place on CU's all-time scoring list.
- Joins Lisa Van Goor as the only players in CU history to record 1,800 points and 1,000 rebounds.
- The only player in CU history to score 500 points in three different seasons.
- Made 12-of-12 from the line against Missouri, tying for the second best performance in team history.
- CU's all-time leader in free-throws made (546) and ranks second on the all-time list for free-throw attempts (711). She needs six free throw attempts to catch Bridget Turner's career record of 717 set from 1985-89.
- Has eclipsed her own single-season school record for free throws made in one season with 163, breaking her old mark of 161 set in 2006-07.
- On pace to rank third in career scoring average (15.9 ppg), fifth in rebounding average (8.6 rpg) and eighth in field-goal percentage (.536).
- Has eight double-doubles this season, tied for second in the Big 12, and has reached 20 or more points 10 times. Nearly had the CU's first triple double by scoring 21 points, grabbing a season-high 16 rebounds and dishing out a personal-best eight assists against Oklahoma State.

- Second on CU's career list with 45 double-doubles, 47 double-digit rebounding games and 98 double-figure scoring games. Has scored in double-digits in 90 of her last 96 games.

- Tied a school record, along with teammate Susie Powers, by playing 48 minutes against Iowa State. Tracy Tripp set the initial mark with 48 against Oklahoma State in a double-overtime game on March 6, 1989.

- Named to the Coors Classic All-Tournament team for the third straight season as she paced the Buffaloes by averaging 18 points, 11 rebounds and 6.5 assists over the two games.

- On the Big 12 charts ranks first in field-goal percentage, second in minutes, third in scoring and free-throw percentage, sixth in rebounding and 11th in blocks.

- Named one of 10 nation-wide finalists for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. Also one of 31 mid-season candidates for the 2008 Naismith Award.

- 2008 ESPN The Magazine first team Academic All-American. It's her third Academic All-America award as she was a second team member in 2006 and 2007.

- A 2007 preseason All-Big 12 first team selection and named one of the top 5 power forwards in the nation by ESPN.com.

- On the Big 12 career charts ranks third in free-throw attempts (711), fifth in double-doubles (45) and free-throws made (546) and eighth in rebounds (1,011).

Career:

- 2007 Associated Press honorable mention All-American and All-Big 12.

SAN FRANCISCO — Freshman Brittany Spears had 15 points — all in the first half — to spark Colorado to a season-opening 66-48 win at San Francisco Friday night at War Memorial Gymnasium.

Spears, who also tallied seven rebounds and five steals, scored 15 of CU's first 23 points as the Buffaloes erased an early 13-6 deficit and closed the first half with a 30-12 run to take control of the game. Spears was 7-of-11 from the floor and had four of her steals by halftime equaling CU's top individual theft performance from any game all of last season. Her scoring output tied for the 10th best Buff debut in team history.

"I felt comfortable because we were prepared," Spears said. "We worked all week on (San Francisco's) plays, all the screens; flare screens. (The coaching staff) told us what they were going to do. I felt prepared mentally and physically for this game."

With Spears' strong start the game opened up for CU's all-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland who had a game-high 22 points including 15 in the second half.

"The ball movement was great," McFarland said. "Before (opponents) have been able to double-down on me the entire game and tonight after a couple plays in the first half when we were getting good shots (outside), it opened up the post a lot and allowed me to move around."

Freshman guard Britney Blythe made her collegiate debut in her own back yard scoring 11 points with two steals and two assists. The San Mateo, Calif., native led a Colorado bench effort that outscored the USF bench 26-6. Sophomore Aija Putnina corralled nine rebounds and had six points, including her first career 3-point field goal.

"We have several options for players coming off the bench and tonight we wanted players on the floor that could score and I thought that was the difference," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We had five players that could shoot the ball and USF had a difficult job of figuring out who to guard. In the past we've had just one (who could score) and now we have more offensive weapons."

"We wanted to improve our performance on the road this year and I was very pleased with the mental toughness of this team and the decision making on the floor. This team was prepared for what we were going to do and our staff had a confidence level going into the game tonight the way the players have worked in the off season and preseason."

The Buffaloes, which have won just one road game each of the last two years, enjoyed their widest margin of victory on the road since a 71-50 win over Kansas on Jan. 18, 2003. It's also the fewest points CU's allowed on the road since a 45-42 win over Pacific on Dec. 18, 2004.

Colorado's defense shut down San Francisco as the Dons were held to just 37 percent shooting for the game and just 32 in the second half (9-of-28). The Buffaloes had 11 steals — nine in the first half — and overall forced 18 USF turnovers. Lisa Olden led USF with 14 points and seven rebounds while Necolia Simmons had 11 points and seven rebounds.

LOS ANGELES — Southern California took advantage of hot perimeter shooting, nailing 11 3-point field goals to claim a 70-57 decision over Colorado Sunday afternoon at the Galen Center on the USC campus.

USC (1-1) hit a scorching 50 percent from the 3-point arc (11-of-22) and hit timely shots each time the Buffaloes made a run. Brynn Cameron was 4-of-6 from downtown and led USC with 16 points. Simone Jelks, who had just seven 3-pointers all of last season, was 3-of-3 for the afternoon scoring 10 total.

Freshman Brittany Spears led Colorado with 19 points, 14 of which came in the second half. Sophomores Aija Putnina and Bianca Smith each had nine points off the bench.

Colorado's had a first half to forget netting just 16 points while committing 15 turnovers. The Buffaloes made just 5-of-21 from the field (23.8 percent) and had trouble getting All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland involved in the game. McFarland was held to just one free throw for the first 20 minutes with two rebounds.

McFarland finished with seven points and seven rebounds.

Southern California began the game on a 21-7 run, forcing seven Buffaloes turnovers in the first nine minutes and holding CU to just 17 percent from the field (2-of-12). Camille LeNoir, playing in her first game of the season, had seven of her nine points in the opening minutes of the game.

Colorado closed the gap with a 7-0 run on a Spears free throw, and back-to-back 3-point field goals by Spears and Putnina, but Cameron scored five straight to ignite a 16-2 USC run to end the half. The guard combo of Cameron and LeNoir combined for 17 first half points on 7-of-11 shooting, including three 3-point field goals.

McFarland was able to get back on track early in the second half with six points in the opening moments, but each time USC had an answer on the other end. McFarland and junior center Kara Richards combined for six straight to knock the score down to 39-22, but Allison Jaskowiak, and Cameron answered with 3-pointers as the Trojans pushed the lead back to 47-24.

Spears then hit a 3-pointer and followed it up with back-to-back scores as the Buffs went on a 11-2 run to narrow the margin to 49-35 with 12:13 left. However, once again Cameron and Jelks hit back-to-back from downtown to push the USC lead back to 20 (55-35).

Overall Colorado committed 26 turnovers and shot just 38 percent for the game (21-of-55).

BOULDER — Jackie McFarland scored 21 points, Brittany Spears matched her career high with 19 and Colorado upset No. 21 Wyoming 69-55 on Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado (5-2) snapped a 23-game losing streak against ranked opponents and ended a three-game series skid against the Cowgirls. CU's last win against a ranked opponent was a 69-59 win over then-No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004. The Buffaloes were ranked 14th at the time. In ending that streak, the Buffs prevented Wyoming (6-1) from its first 7-0 start in nearly 30 years. Overall, CU has won four straight for the first time since winning five in a row in December of 2004.

Wyoming built a 14-7 lead as the Buffaloes made just three of their first 19 shots from the field. The Buffaloes then heated up as a pair of Bianca Smith 3-pointers and one by Spears capped off an 11-2 run to knot the game at 18-18. CU eventually held a 27-26 lead at the break.

Colorado opened it up early in the second half as Spears had eight points in a 10-0 run that gave CU a 50-38 lead with 10:54 remaining. Spears, who had 14 second-half points, capped the streak by hitting all three free throws after being fouled by Megan McGuffey on a 3-point attempt.

Wyoming responded to that surge with a 14-3 run that cut the Colorado lead to one at 53-52 with 5:11 left in the game. Smith answered for the Buffaloes with two consecutive 3-pointers that led to a 12-0 run, allowing CU to pull away.

McFarland had 15 points in the second half, including eight in the final 4 minutes. Smith ended with a season-high 16 points and also dished out three assists.

"I thought tonight's game came at a very pivotal time for us," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I thought that we were coming off our best performance of the year (against CSU). To host a nationally ranked Wyoming team with such experience, was very pivotal. With this game we could have gone either way and I thought the timing of the game was good. Wyoming is a great team."

Susie Powers had another solid game for Colorado finishing with a career high nine assists and tying a personal best seven rebounds. The Buffaloes, who had averaged more than 20 turnovers in their first six games, committed a season-low 13. The Buffaloes had 21 assists on their 23 baskets and have 20-plus assists in three straight games for the first time since the 2001-02 season.

"This was a huge game for us for a lot of different reasons," McFarland said. "Wyoming is just as much as an instate rival as Colorado State is. To play them for three years and have not (defeated) them, is definitely the best win of my career. How this team plays when we have a ranked team in here, and to get a win is a sign that we are definitely moving up."

Colorado shot 61 percent in the second half and outscored Wyoming 42-29 in the final 20 minutes. Justyna Podziemska led the Cowgirls with 19 points, and Hanna Zavec scored 16.

McFarland had 15 points in the second half, including eight in the final 4 minutes.

Wyoming was off to its best start since going 8-0 to open the 1978-79 season. Colorado also handed the Cowgirls their first loss that season, too, 81-66.

Vanderbilt	18	33	51

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Sophomore guard Bianca Smith scored a career-high 22 points off the bench, and Colorado held off No. 20 (AP)/17 (WBCA) Vanderbilt for a 62-51 win Sunday.

Colorado (6-2) has won five straight for the first time since the 2004-05 season and has wins over ranked teams in back-to-back games for the first time since the 2002 NCAA Tournament. CU defeated No. 22/21 Wyoming at home on Wednesday 69-55. Smith had 16 points off the bench in the win over the Cowgirls.

"(This week) has been a great confidence booster for me and the the whole team heading into the rest of the preseason," Smith said. "It's also motivating for us to continue to work hard, being able to see what we can do (against a ranked team)."

Much like the Wyoming game, Colorado built a sizeable second half lead, had it almost vanish, but recover and pull away at the end. The Buffaloes led 52-32 with 7:07 to play before the Commodores went on a 17-0 run to cut the lead to 52-49 with 3:01 remaining. But Colorado made 10 consecutive free throws in the final 1:47 to secure the victory.

"We are playing with a lot of confidence right now and that shows in our execution and the way in which we have prepared," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Most importantly we've got five players on the floor that can make plays."

Jackie McFarland scored 12 points in a 27-5 run in the second half that helped the Buffaloes build a 20-point lead.

McFarland had 16 points for Colorado. Liz Sherwood led Vanderbilt (8-3) with 22 points. Redshirt freshman center Courtney Dunn, whose 6-4 size provided a key defensive match up against Sherwood, had five points and five rebounds.

Brittany Spears had eight points, a team-high seven rebounds and three steals.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half, with Vanderbilt shooting 40.9 percent from the floor and Colorado 38.9, and the Buffaloes couldn't have imagined a worse start committing eight turnovers and missing two field goals on their first 10 possessions. Despite the turnovers, Vanderbilt could only build an 8-0 lead before the Buffaloes fought back.

Smith gave CU its first points with a long two with 13:54 remaining in the half and just kept on going. Smith scored 13 of CU's first 17 points on 5-of-7 shooting and her 3-pointer at the 7:57 mark gave the Buffaloes their first lead at 17-14.

Colorado struggled with turnovers early, but so did the Commodores. The Buffaloes had 15 in the first half, but Vandy nearly countered with 14. The Commodores were held scoreless for nearly nine minutes before Sherwood and Jennifer Risper scored consecutive baskets as Vanderbilt retook the lead at 18-17.

The Buffaloes were able to get to the free-throw line in the final minutes of the half as McFarland and Hannah Skildum hit four straight to give CU a 21-18 halftime lead. Later in the half, Vanderbilt went 8-34 without scoring. Colorado took advantage, as Smith scored 13 of the team's first 17 points, capped by back-to-back 3-pointers, to give the Buffaloes a 17-14 advantage.

BOULDER - Three players scored in double-digits and a solid defensive effort propelled Colorado to its seventh-straight win with a 57-43 decision over Dartmouth Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado (8-2) has its best record to begin a season and longest winning streak since its 2003-04 NCAA Tournament team won nine-straight during a 12-2 start.

Freshman Brittany Spears had a game-high 13 points and senior Jackie McFarland recorded her 41st career double-double by netting 12 points and 11 rebounds. Junior Kara Richards had season-highs with 11 points and seven rebounds while hitting a perfect 5-of-5 from the field.

The Buffaloes won their second-straight game with defense. Colorado shot just 39 percent and equaled its lowest offensive output of the season, but the Buffs defense held its own holding the Big Green 23 percent shooting. Colorado blocked 13 Dartmouth shots, the second-highest single-game total in team history trailing only a 16-block effort against Sam Houston on Dec. 14, 2000. Spears and McFarland led the way with four blocks apiece.

CU, which gave up just 29 points against Texas Southern in its last game, held an opponent under 50 points for the fourth time this season.

Dartmouth started off on the right foot as Koren Schram's third 3-point field goal of the first half gave the Big Green a 20-15 with 10 minutes left in the period.

Colorado started to come alive immediately after thanks to its bench. Sophomore Bianca Smith answered Schram just under a minute later with a 3-pointer of her own to begin a 20-4 Buffs run over the final 9:15 of the half. Richards had four of her seven first-half points during the run, but more importantly countered Dartmouth's ability to crash the boards.

After Dartmouth held a 14-8 rebounding edge early, seven of which came on the offensive end, Richards 6-4 size allowed the Buffaloes to even out the rebounding total by halftime and would eventually claim a 43-40 edge for the game.

Spears narrowly missed a double-double by corraling nine rebounds. Freshman Courtney Dunn had five.

Dartmouth scored the first five points of the second half to narrow the gap to six at 35-29, but Smith once again answered a Big Green run hitting a 3-point field goal. CU never allowed the lead to dip below seven after that, but cold shooting on both sides prevented either team from making any type of move. Colorado was 30 percent from the field in the second half while Dartmouth shot just 23 percent.

Schram and Kristen Craft each had 11 points to lead the Big Green.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland scored 22 points and Brittany Spears added 17, guiding No. 25 Colorado to an 81-38 win over Southern Utah on Friday night.

The Buffaloes (9-2) have won eight straight games. The streak has helped vault the team into the top 25 for the first time in three years.

Southern Utah (2-9) lost its 30th straight road contest, including seven straight this season. The Thunderbirds haven't won on the road since a win over St. Mary's on Dec. 10, 2005.

With her 22-point outing, McFarland moved into eighth place on the Buffaloes' all-time scoring list. She now has 1,510 career points.

Bianca Smith came off the bench to score 12, including three 3-pointers. Ajla Putnina had six points and Susie Powers dished out seven assists.

Spears entered the game as the leading scorer among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference, averaging 13.3 points. She also had five rebounds and two steals.

Kaila Goff led Southern Utah in scoring with seven points. Anne Westwood, the Thunderbirds' leading scorer, finished with six points, and didn't score her first basket until early in the second half. She also had eight rebounds.

The Buffaloes closed the first half on a 13-0 run to take a 44-20 lead into the break. It's the third straight game the Buffaloes have closed the opening half on a big spurt, going on a 20-4 run in a win over Dartmouth and a 15-0 burst against Texas Southern.

Colorado started the second half where it left off, going on a 12-0 run to up the lead to 36 points. The Buffaloes led by as many as 43 points. The Thunderbirds finished with 21 turnovers, which is one below their season average.

BOULDER - Ajla Putnina scored a career-high 20 points and Jackie McFarland had 16 points and nine rebounds to lead No. 25 Colorado to a 91-64 victory over Jacksonville State on Sunday at the Coors Events Center.

In all four players scored in double-digits as the Buffaloes, 10-2 overall, had their best offensive production of the season in securing their ninth-straight win. The 91 points are the most since the Buffs defeated Northern Colorado 92-65 on Feb. 13, 2006. CU's win streak is its best since a similar 9-game

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland had 19 points and eight rebounds to help No. 23 Colorado win its 10th straight, 65-53 over Pepperdine on Friday night at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Bianca Smith added 18 points and Brittany Spears had 16 for Colorado (11-2) which is off to its best start since beginning the 2003-04 season 12-1. The Buffaloes begin their Big 12 Conference season on Wednesday at Missouri.

"I think right now we've come in and played strong," McFarland said on CU's 11-2 start. "I couldn't be happier. This is what I came to Colorado for; the tradition of winning. I can't keep a smile off of my face." Daphanie Kennedy led Pepperdine (5-8) with 15 points. The Waves have lost six in a row, all on the road. The Waves open West Coast Conference play Jan. 10 at Gonzaga.

Trailing by 15 at the break, Kennedy hit a short jumper to get Pepperdine within 38-33 with 18:08 to play and then McFarland took over for Colorado.

McFarland muscled in four layups and Smith added a 3-pointer in a three-minute span for a 49-32 lead. Two free throws by Kennedy with 1:50 left got Pepperdine to within 61-53 with 1:50 left, before Smith's basket and two free throws put the game away for Colorado.

"All I can say is that this team has the characteristics of a top 25 team," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "They show up everyday, practice hard and the seniors are leading this team. It's nice to have the recognition and I think they have earned that. This team isn't worried about getting higher in the rankings, they just keep the same mentality they've had all season."

Pepperdine led only once when Kennedy buried a 3-pointer 39 seconds into the game. The Waves then promptly missed their next 14 shots.

While the Waves struggled, Colorado went on a 19-1 run. McFarland scored seven of the points to put the Buffaloes ahead 19-4.

Miranda Ayim's basket with 7:53 remaining capped an 11-0 run, but Smith came off the bench to hit three 3-pointers in the last seven minutes as Colorado pulled away to a 36-22 halftime lead.

Susie Powers had a career high 10 assists for Colorado, the most by a Buff since Whitney Law's school record 15 on Nov. 18, 2005 against Cal State Fullerton.

COLUMBIA, Mo. – Reigning Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week Brittany Spears had a career-high 24 points to help No. 23 Colorado open the league season in style with a 70-58 decision over Missouri Wednesday evening at Mizzou Arena.

Colorado, which claimed its first win in a Big 12 road opener since winning at Baylor in 2004, registered its 11th straight win and improves to 12-2 overall. Missouri drops to 7-7, 0-1.

Spears' 24 points are the second-most by a Buffs' freshman in her conference debut, trailing only CU Athletic Hall of Famer and All-American Shelley Sheetz who had 25 against Nebraska in 1992.

Spears was 9-of-13 from the floor and added seven rebounds and two assists. She teamed with Bianca Smith for six second-half 3-pointers to allow the Buffaloes to build a lead as large as 21 late in the second half before the Tigers closed the gap late.

Colorado led by as much as nine late in the first half, but Missouri went on a 13-0 run to take a 32-28 lead with 18:17 remaining in the contest. But Smith and Spears hit five 3-pointers over the next eight minutes to spark a 27-6 CU run.

Smith finished with 14 points which included four 3-point field goals as she moved into 11th place on CU's all-time list for 3-pointers with 68.

Aija Putnina registered a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Senior Jackie McFarland had 17 points and five rebounds.

Alyssa Hollins led Missouri with 22 points, hitting 6-of-10 from the 3-point arc. Shakara Jones had 12 points and six rebounds off the bench.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland had 24 points and Brittany Spears had a double-double but it wasn't enough as No. 19 Texas A&M defeated No. 25 Colorado Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Danielle Gant scored 24 points and Takia Starks added 18 for the Aggies (13-4, 1-2), who avoided their first 0-3 Big 12 start since the 2003-04 season.

McFarland, who became the fifth player in CU history to register 1,600 career points (she now has 1,614), hit 8-of-13 from the field and made 8-of-12 from the free-throw line while also grabbing nine rebounds and blocking two shots. Spears had 11 points and a personal-best 12 rebounds for her third career double-double.

Colorado (12-4, 1-2) led for most of the game before Morenike Atunrase's only basket of the night gave Texas A&M the lead for good, 66-64, with 1:35 left. A'Quonesia Franklin hit six free throws in the final 30 seconds to seal the win for the Aggies.

Starks hit a 3-pointer with 4:22 left to give Texas A&M a 58-57 advantage, their first lead since hitting the first basket of the game. Starks extended the lead to three with another basket, but Colorado took the lead back on two free throws each from McFarland and Spears.

Colorado led 50-41 midway through the second half when the Aggies rallied. Starks hit two buckets, Sydney Colson had a steal and a layup and Gant had four points to pull the Aggies within 55-54 with 6:16 left.

Earlier in the half, Texas A&M had cut Colorado's lead to 36-34 with 16:51 left, and the Buffaloes responded. Sophomore Bianca Smith hit two 3-pointers and McFarland and Aija Putnina hit two free throws each to stretch the advantage to 46-37 with 14:43 left.

The Aggies stayed within striking distance in the first half despite poor shooting and a 15-2 disadvantage in free-throw attempts. Texas A&M, which came into the game shooting 40 percent from the field, shot just 33 percent in the first 20 minutes, and leading scorer Takia Starks was 2-for-9 from the field.

The Buffaloes weren't much better from the field, hitting just 37.9 percent of their shots and were 1-for-13 from behind the 3-point line. They held a 32-28 lead at the break thanks to an advantage from the line. Colorado was in the bonus with 13:32 left in the half and outscored the Aggies 9-1 from the stripe.

Colorado held a 36-18 advantage in free-throw attempts for the game. Putnina narrowly missed a double-double of her own with 10 points and nine rebounds. Susie Powers had seven assists, three rebounds and two steals.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Jackie McFarland recorded her 42nd career double-double, in her home state, but Kansas State wasn't interested in the homecoming as the Wildcats remained perfect in the Big 12 with a 67-60 win Saturday night at Bramlage Coliseum.

Colorado dropped its third straight moving to 12-5 overall, 1-3 in league play. Kansas State wins its seventh straight overall improving to 12-5, 4-0.

McFarland scored 20 points to move into fourth place on CU's all-time scoring list (1,634) and grabbed 11 rebounds to become the third player in team history to reach 900 boards (908).

Kimberley Dietz led four Kansas State double-digit scorers with 18 points, hitting three 3-pointers. The Wildcats were sharp from the outside hitting 7-of-15 3-pointers in the game, and 4-of-6 in the second half.

Brittany Spears had 16 points and hit 2-of-6 from 3-point range. Overall the Buffs struggled from downtown hitting just 4-of-16 3-point attempts.

Spears hit three of her first four shots of the second half, including two straight 3-pointers as the Buffaloes led 43-41 at the 14:40 mark. Kansas State then took over hitting three straight 3-pointers, including two from Dietz, as the Wildcats embarked on a 21-4 run to pull away.

Aija Putnina had 12 points and seven rebounds. Courtney Dunn had six points and five rebounds off the bench. Shalee Lehning had 11 points, 11 rebounds and eight assists for Kansas State.

Colorado held an early 12-6 lead, but Kansas State went on an 11-0 run to put the Wildcats up 17-12 with 10:16 left in the first half.

The Buffaloes battled back behind 13 first-half points from McFarland and her first of two 3-pointers in the game tied the score at 25 with 4:55 remaining. CU briefly took the lead back at 29-28 when Dunn scored on a put back. Kansas State responded and closed the half with a 3-pointer from Dietz to take a 35-31 halftime lead.

CU struggled from the outside early making just 1-of-11 from 3-point range in the first half. The Buffaloes were able to recover by dominating in the paint. Colorado held a 23-14 rebounding edge and had 10 second-chance points to just two for Kansas State.

LUBBOCK, Texas – Senior Jackie McFarland tied a season-high 28 points, but cold shooting doomed Colorado as Texas Tech claimed a 62-44 decision in a Big 12 Conference game Saturday afternoon at the United Spirit Arena

Colorado falls to 13-6 overall, 2-4 in league play as the Buffs haven't won at a Big 12 Southern Division school in their last 12 tries dating back to a win at Baylor in 2004. Texas Tech improves to 14-6, 2-4.

The Buffaloes suffered their lowest point output of the season due to shooting just 24 percent from field. McFarland hit 57 percent, making 8-of-14, but the rest of the team hit just 13 percent (5-of-40) as the Buffs had their lowest team total since making just 13-of-56 (.232) against Texas in 2005.

McFarland was the only CU player to hit a field goal in the final 28 minutes of the contest and had 28 of CU's final 31 points. She hit 10-of-11 free throws leaving her just two shy of Bridget Turner's school record of 494 set from 1985-89.

Despite a heavily taped shooting hand, Aija Putnina scored Colorado's first eight points, hitting her first three field goal attempts and the Buffs had it knotted up at 10 early.

Texas Tech's Dominic Seals, who led the Lady Raiders with 21 points and nine rebounds, then began to take over. She scored four straight points and a Raquel Christian 3-pointer gave Tech a 17-10 lead. Colorado answered with the next five, thanks to a Bianca Smith put back and three free throws from Putnina and McFarland, but the Lady Raiders one-upped the CU run scoring nine straight, six coming from Seals, to give Texas Tech a 26-15 lead.

McFarland brought CU back scoring the next seven points, including a 3-pointer, which halted Tech's 11-0 run, but Seals scored the next four points and Christian hit another 3-pointer to give Tech a 35-26 halftime lead.

Texas Tech then put the game away by opening the second half on a 12-0 run. The Buffaloes missed their first 10 shots of the period and didn't score until a McFarland layup with 11:05 remaining in the game. Free throws from Brittany Spears and Britney Blythe accounted for Colorado's lone scoring other than McFarland in the second half.

Putnina finished with nine points and six rebounds. Spears had six rebounds but made only 1-of-11 from the field scoring four points, the low of her young career.

AMES, Iowa – Colorado struggled offensively for the second-straight outing as Iowa State claimed a 65-45 win over the Buffaloes in Big 12 Conference action Wednesday night at Hilton Coliseum.

Colorado drops its third straight on the road after beginning the season 4-1 away from Boulder, falling to 13-7 overall and 2-5 in the Big 12. Iowa State breaks its own three-game skid improving to 13-6, 2-4.

The Buffaloes shot just 31 percent from the field (15-of-49) and were held under 50 points for the second-straight game. The last time CU endured back-to-back sub-50 point games was during the 1983-84 season in losses to Colorado State (48-63) and UNLV (41-67).

Senior Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 18 points as she was the Buffs' only double-digit scorer for the second-straight game. McFarland made 7-of-13 from the floor as she has now shot 50 percent or better in 17 of 20 games this season, but the rest of the Buffs' roster was just 8-of-36 (.222) on the evening.

McFarland became CU's all-time leader in free-throws made by making 3-of-3 from the line to move her career total to 495. She passes Bridget Turner who made 494 from 1985-89.

Sophomore guard Whitney Houston scored nine points off the bench hitting three of CU's five 3-point field goals. For Houston, it was her highest point total since scoring 11 in a home loss to Siena on Nov. 23.

Colorado opened with an early 12-9 lead before Iowa State heated up from the field. Heather Ezell hit a 3-pointer with 10:58 remaining in the first half to tie the game and spark a 21-6 Cyclones' run. Iowa State hit four of its six first-half 3-point shots during that run and held a 21-13 advantage on the boards.

The Buffaloes were able to cut the lead to 10 at halftime after Houston hit her first 3-point field goal since November and Hannah Skildum hit a pair of free throws as ISU took a 35-25 lead into the lockerroom.

Iowa State put the game away with an 18-4 run to open the second half. The Cyclones hit 10 of their first 19 3-point attempts before missing their last four to finish the game at 43 percent.

Amanda Nisleit led ISU's balanced attack with 16 points. Alison Lacey and Kelsey Bolte each had 15.

Iowa State dominated on the boards, outrebounding Colorado 43-27. Bolte led the way with eight while Nisleit had seven.

BOULDER — In a game of runs, Nebraska had a couple more than Colorado and at the right time as well.

Brittany Spears and Bianca Smith each had 19 points but a 19-7 Nebraska run to end the game gave the Huskers an 80-71 Big 12 Conference win Wednesday evening at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Colorado (13-8, 2-7 Big 12) trailed by two at the half (36-35), but Spears scored six points during a 12-5 run to open the second period, giving the Buffaloes a 47-41 lead. Nebraska (16-6, 6-3) answered with six straight points to tie the game, five of which were scored by Kelsey Griffin who led all players with 25 points.

The Buffaloes struggled on the inside as All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland was held to just one free throw and just 0-of-2 from the field. For McFarland, who entered the game averaging 18.9 points per game, it was her lowest output since being held scoreless in her first ever Big 12 game at Nebraska on Jan. 5, 2005. McFarland did have 10 rebounds for the 45th double-digit rebounding performance of her career.

Although McFarland was held in check, other Buffs made sure it was a competitive game all the way to the end. Spears was 6-of-14 from the field and also had eight rebounds, six assists and two blocks. Smith, making her second start of the season, tied a career high with five 3-point field goals and was 7-of-15 from the floor overall.

CU's bench also provided a big spark. With McFarland being double-teamed the whole night, junior forward Caley Dow had her best Big 12 game of 2008 registering season-highs with eight points and seven rebounds in 30 minutes. Sophomore guard Whitney Houston had 10 points, her most since she had 11 against Siena on Nov. 23, with two assists and one steal.

Colorado held a 64-61 lead with 3:51 left after Smith layup, but it quickly vanished when Yvonne Turner hit her third 3-pointer of the night to tie the game. Danielle Page gave Nebraska the lead on a turn-around jumper and on the next possession, Turner stole the ball from Houston and took it all the way in to give the Huskers a 68-64 advantage. Griffin scored the next time down the floor for Nebraska and the Huskers put the game away with free throws hitting 10-of-12 in the final 1:37.

After falling behind 11-4 to open the game, Colorado stormed back with a 15-0 run. Smith hit three consecutive 3-point attempts on the run and good ball movement allowed for easy layups by Houston, Dow and Spears. Nebraska trimmed the lead to four at 19-15 before an 8-0 run gave CU its largest lead of the game at 27-15.

However the lead didn't last as Nebraska hit five 3-pointers in the final 5:21 of the first half during a 21-8 run to take a one-point lead at halftime.

NORMAN, Okla. - Oklahoma's Courtney and Ashley Paris combined for 48 points and 20 rebounds to lead No. 10 Oklahoma to an 82-66 win over Colorado in Big 12 Conference action Saturday night at the Lloyd Noble Center.

Jackie McFarland and Brittany Spears each had 19 points to pace the Buffaloes (13-10, 2-8 Big 12) who have dropped five straight and eight of their last nine. Oklahoma improves to 17-4, 7-2 in league play.

Courtney Paris had a game-high 30 points and 14 rebounds for the 87th double-double of her career. Sister Ashley had 18 points and six rebounds. The twins made 22-of-35 shots (.629) as Oklahoma outscored CU 50-22 in the paint. As a team, the Sooners shot 53 percent from the floor.

The Buffaloes kept the game close in the first half. After withstanding a 10-2 OU run to open the game, Colorado responded with a Spears bucket, a Bianca Smith 3-pointer and a Caley Dow putback to close the gap to three at 12-9. Oklahoma pushed its lead back to seven at 18-11 on one of Courtney Paris' 14 field goals, but CU went on a 10-4 run with 3-pointers from Spears and Courtney Dunn as the Sooners led just 22-21 with 8:03 remaining in the half.

Oklahoma built its lead back up to nine at 35-26 with just 2:25 remaining, but CU wouldn't quit. McFarland made back-to-back shots along with a free throw as the Sooners took a 37-31 lead at the break.

Oklahoma scored the first six points of the second half on two Courtney Paris layups and another by Ashley. The Buffaloes made one last good run as Smith hit 3-pointers on back-to-back possessions to bring CU to within six at 45-39 with 16:56 remaining.

The Sooners scored seven straight, capped off by a Nyeshia Stevenson 3-pointer, to take a 52-39 advantage and never let the lead dip back below double-digits.

Spears had five rebounds and two blocks to go along with her 19 points, equalling her scoring output from the Nebraska game on Feb. 6. Her 307 points on the season are the most by a CU freshman since Erin Scholz had 343 in 1993-94.

McFarland had seven rebounds and was 8-of-14 from the floor as she became the eighth player in team history to reach 600 field goals (601). Smith finished with 15 points, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range as she moved into ninth place on CU's all-time list for 3-pointers with 86.

The Buffaloes received a scoring boost off the bench from Dow and Dunn. Dow had seven points and tied a season high with seven rebounds while Dunn had six points and five boards.

Stevenson finished with 16 points for the Sooners while Danielle Robinson had 11.

LINCOLN, Neb. -- Kelsey Griffin had a game-high 26 points to lead Nebraska to a 63-55 win over Colorado in Big 12 action Sunday afternoon.

Colorado (15-13, 4-11 Big 12) had 14 points and 11 rebounds from freshman Brittany Spears and senior Jackie McFarland scored 23 points while grabbing four rebounds and dishing out two assists.

Griffin, who also had 10 rebounds, did most of her damage down low and on the line. The junior forward had eight field goals and was 10-of-15 from the line as the Huskers took advantage of constant CU foul trouble, translating into 17 free throws compared to just five for Colorado.

Danielle Page, who had 13 points and six rebounds, joined Griffin to cause problems for the Buffaloes' front line. McFarland had two early fouls and added a third late in the first half, but had a strong second period scoring nine points on 4-of-6 shooting. Kara Richards provided a strong effort off the bench with six points and two rebounds, but also was hampered with foul trouble, fouling out with under 11 minutes left.

Nebraska (19-10, 8-7) started the game on a 7-2 run, but the Buffaloes battled back. Spears stole the ball and went coast-to-coast for the layup and CU followed with back-to-back jumpers from Aija Putnina and Susie Powers to close the lead to 9-8.

Shortly after, foul problems began to hinder the Buffaloes. McFarland picked up her second foul at the 14:25 mark of the first half and the Huskers held a 13-8 lead. A long Bianca Smith 3-pointer at 12:28 put CU within three points at 15-12, but 11 seconds later Richards picked up her second foul.

Nebraska took advantage, embarking on a 14-5 run. Kala Kuhlmann came off the bench and hit a pair of 3-pointers for the Huskers, and Griffin hit 5-of-6 from the line as Nebraska built its largest lead at 29-17 with 5:56 remaining.

The Buffaloes closed the gap by holding Nebraska scoreless over the final 3:07 of the period. CU outscored the Huskers 8-3 in the final 5:44 as Nebraska led 32-25 at halftime.

Nebraska built its lead back up to double-digits by starting the second half on a 7-3 run as the Huskers led 39-28. The Buffaloes were able to crawl back with help from its bench. Whitney Houston scored consecutive baskets off turnovers and scored on a layup and two free throws as CU cut the lead to six at 43-37.

Richards then picked up her fifth foul which led to another Nebraska run. Griffin and Page hit consecutive baskets on a 5-0 run that put Nebraska up 48-37.

Colorado battled back late in the second half. Houston, who scored all eight of her points off the bench in the second half, scored consecutive baskets again to cut the Nebraska lead to five at 56-51 with 2:40 remaining. However the Buffs couldn't get any closer. Griffin answered Houston's run with a field goal and the Huskers hit five free throws in the closing minutes to seal the win.

BOULDER -- Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 25 points and grabbed 14 rebounds to lead Colorado to a 63-47 Big 12 Conference win over Missouri on Senior Night at the Coors Events Center.

With the win Colorado improves to 16-13 overall and finishes ninth in the regular season Big 12 standings at 5-11. The Buffaloes will play No. 8 Iowa State, which lost to Nebraska 55-45 Wednesday night, in the first round of the 2008 Big 12 Championship on Tuesday, March 11, at 11 a.m. MST at the Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City.

McFarland carried the load for the Buffaloes on an off night offensively for both teams. She was 6-of-11 from the field and made all 12 free throw attempts. As a team the Buffs shot just 34.5 percent overall (19-of-55), but Missouri had an even harder time, making just 25 percent from the floor (15-of-59).

Colorado led by eight at halftime (29-21), but saw the lead dwindle to just two as the Buffaloes could only muster two field goals -- both by McFarland -- and two free throws in the first 10:57 of the second half. McFarland scored on a put-back of a Bianca Smith miss with 9:02 remaining in the game that jump started a 21-6 CU run that allowed the Buffaloes to pull away.

Playing in her final regular season home game, McFarland became the first player in team history to record 500 points in three different seasons. She notched her 45th career double-double and in the process became the third player in team history to reach 1,000 career rebounds.

CU's inside presence was crucial, because the outside game struggled the entire night. The Buffs hit just 2-of-16 from 3-point range, tying a season low for 3-pointers made in a game. McFarland's performance was complimented well by junior Kara Richards who had eight points and a season-high 11 rebounds. Freshman Brittany Spears added 10 points, five rebounds and three assists.

"I'm not sure why the (offensive) execution wasn't there tonight," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Maybe the substitutions didn't allow us to get into a flow, but we had some good individual performances tonight. Kara and Jackie both did a good job and our interior game was good tonight."

Colorado dominated the boards holding a 51-37 edge over the Tigers who finish last in the Big 12 standings at 2-14, 9-20 overall.

"We rebounded the ball well, but when you miss as many shots as we did, you should get some rebounds," McConnell-Miller said. "It was a pretty poor offensive night from our execution to our finishes. I give credit to Missouri, they played good defense and got inside Bianca (Smith), they banged Spears, but they didn't double-team Jackie and she got some good looks and took advantage."

Missouri was led by Jessra Johnson who had 24 points and 11 rebounds. MU's leading scorer Alyssa Hollins pitched in 16.
