- The Buffaloes are in the semifinals of a postseason tournament for the first time in school history. CU has reached three NCAA Elite Eights and this season's WNIT quarterfinals.
- Colorado's win over Gonzaga was its first postseason victory since defeating North Carolina in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament, 86-67, in Boulder.
- Colorado is in postseason play for the 18th time in team history with an overall record of 26-17. The Buffs played in four AIAW Tournaments from 1979-82 (5-4) and have made 12 NCAA Tournament appearances (17-12).
- This is Colorado's second trip to the postseason WNIT. The Buffs also participated in the 1999 WNIT defeating BYU 70-53 in the first round before falling to Drake 82-66 in the second. Both games were played in Boulder.
- This is Colorado's first postseason appearance of any kind since the 2003-04 team played in the NCAA Tournament.
- CU is 18-4 all-time a home in postseason (12-3 NCAA, 4-1 WNIT, 2-0 AIAW) and has won its last six.
- CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller is 3-2 in postseason play, picking up all three career wins in this tournament. McConnell-Miller led Tulsa to back-to-back WNIT appearances in 2004-05.
- Senior guard Susie Powers is the only player on CU's roster with any postseason playing experience. Powers played in two games for Notre Dame during the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

THE BUFFALOES: Colorado is 19-14 overall and finished ninth in final regular season Big 12 standings at 5-11. The Buffaloes, who fell to Iowa State in the first round of the 2008 Big 12 Championship 76-50, earned the league's automatic bid into the WNIT by virtue of being the highest ranked team in the conference that did not qualify for the NCAA Tournament. Assured of its first winning record since 2003-04 (22-8), Colorado will be vying for the 18th 20-win season in program history. The road traveled by the Buffaloes has been an up and down one this year. Currently on a three-game win streak, Colorado owns an 11-game win streak and a six-game losing streak this season, marking the first time in school history the Buffaloes have endured streaks of six games in both directions during the same season. The Buffaloes surely would like to take advantage of playing on their home court. CU is 15-5 at home in 2007-08 and has won six straight. The Buffaloes will be looking for their 16th home win of the season a feat that has been achieved just two other times in school history. CU was 16-0 in 1981-83 and 16-1 in 2001-02. Colorado's 21st game at home this season is a school record. The Buffs had a 17-game home schedule in 1995-96 (13-4) and 2001-02.

Senior All-America candidate Jackie McFarland leads the Buffaloes at 18.4 points and 8.2 rebounds per game while shooting 57 percent from the field (197-of-348). Doing everything she can to extend her illustrious career, she has upped those numbers to 27.7 points and 9.7 rebounds over the three WNIT games. She recorded her 46th career double-double by scoring 32 points and grabbing 12 rebounds in the WNIT third round win over Villanova. She is the first player in school history to score 500 points in three different seasons and her 620 points in 2007-08 are the second-most on CU's single-season chart. The second-leading scorer in school history, McFarland eclipsed the 1,900 point barrier against Villanova and joins Lisa Van Goor as the only Buffs to record 1,900 points and 1,000 rebounds. The two-time first team All-Big 12 forward once again can be found among the leaders in most league statistical categories ranking first in field-goal percentage, second in minutes and scoring, third in free-throw percentage, fifth in rebounding and 10th in blocks.

Freshman Brittany Spears is making a name for herself as well. She was selected to the Big 12 Conference All-Rookie team and earned league Rookie of the Week honors four times this season, including back-to-back citations March 3 & 7. She recorded her seventh double-double, and third in five games, with a game-high 22 points and 10 rebounds in the WNIT second round against Gonzaga. She is just the fourth different player in school history to reach 450 points and grab 250 rebounds in a season (McFarland has reached those numbers for the third time in her career) and just the 10th to even reach 400/200. An all-around performer, she is the first player in school history to record 50 blocks, 50 assists and 50 steals in one season (and only the second to record 40 in each category). Spears ranks second in scoring (456), is tied with Erin Scholz (1993-94) for second in blocks (52), third in rebounds (253) and fifth in steals (54) on CU's all-time freshman charts. Her scoring (13.8 ppg), rebounding (7.7 rpg) and blocks (1.6 bpg) top all freshmen in the Big 12 while she is second in steals (1.7 spg), third in free-throw percentage (.833) and fourth in assists (1.9 apg).

In the backcourt, senior guard Susie Powers averages a team-best 3.2 assists per game. Her 107 assists this season are the most by a Buffs player since Mandy Nightingale had 161 (4.7 apg) during the 2001-02 season. Powers, who had a career-high 10 assists in the win over Pepperdine, is second in the Big 12 with a 1.8 assist-to-turnover ratio (107 assists-58 turnovers) and also ranks 11th in the Big 12 in assists.

Sophomore Bianca Smith, who had a career high six assists against Gonzaga, ranks third on the team in scoring at just a tad under 10 points per game. She leads the team in 3-pointers with 77, which is second on CU's single-season list and two away from Kate Fagan's school single-season mark of 79 set in 2003-04. Her 109 3-pointers, tied for seventh on CU's career-list, are the second most by a CU player in her first two seasons trailing only the 128 Shelley Sheetz made from 1991-93. Smith was named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10 after averaging 19.0 points and hitting 57 percent from the field in games against No. 22 (AP)/21 (WBCA) Wyoming and No. 20/17 Vanderbilt.

Colorado has several front-court options starting with 6-4 junior center Kara Richards. After coming off the bench the majority of the season, Richards has played strong down the stretch. She averaged 5.4 points and five rebounds over her last seven appearances prior to the Villanova game which she saw limited minutes due to match up issues with the Wildcats. Sophomore Aija Putnina, has stepped it up off the bench during the WNIT averaging 12.7 points on 52 percent shooting. Putnina registered her fifth double-double of the season with a career-high 22 points and 10 rebounds against TCU. Her 43 blocks on the season are the third most by a sophomore in team history.

Junior Hannah Skildum, who started 16 games earlier in the season, provides a strong defensive presence to Colorado's back court and averages 3.11 points and 1.8 rebounds per game. Whitney Houston has seen extended minutes in the Colorado backcourt. Houston's minutes have increased over the past 13 games and is coming off a season-best 13-point performance against TCU where she hit 5-of-9 from the field, including a key long-range 3-pointer down the stretch.

Coming off its highest scoring game of the season, Colorado is averaging 80.7 points over its three WNIT games while shooting 44 percent overall from the field and 38 percent from 3-point range. The Buffs have been outrebounded by an average of 4.3 per game by their opponents, but lead in blocked shots by a 20-8 margin and also have six fewer turnovers than their opponents, reversing a season long trend of a -2.1 per game turnover margin. Overall on the season Colorado is averaging 67 points per game while holding opponents to 62.3 per contest. The Buffs are shooting 42 percent from the field and are the Big 12's top free-throw shooting team at 75.2 percent. CU is outrebounding teams by three boards per game and ranks second in 3-point field goals (6.8 3mpg) and third in blocked shots (5.4 bpg) on the Big 12 charts.

ABOUT THE GOLDEN EAGLES: Marquette is 19-14 overall and finished the Big East Conference regular season at 8-8 which tied with DePaul for eighth place. The Golden Eagles were the Big East's automatic bid into the WNIT as they, like Colorado, were the highest ranked team in their conference not to be invited to the NCAA Tournament. This will be Marquette's second road game of the WNIT as they knocked off Kentucky 69-64 in a quarterfinal game in Lexington. The Golden Eagles are 5-9 on the road. MU averages just under 70 points per game (69.5) while giving up 67.2 per contest. Marquette is shooting nearly 40 percent from the field (825-of-2075) and makes 29.5 percent of its 3-point attempts (140-of-475).

Marquette is led by two-time All-Big East first team guard Krystal Ellis who averages 19.3 points and 3.1 assists per game. She carried the Golden Eagles on her back in the quarterfinal win over Kentucky by scoring a career-high 40 points. Ellis is complimented in the back court by All-Big East freshman team selection Angel Robinson, who leads the team in assists at 3.9 per game and is second in scoring at 11.1. Senior forward Svetlana Kovalenko is Marquette's top rebounder at seven per game while scoring 7.9 an outing.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be the second meeting between Colorado and Marquette with the Buffs claiming a 77-74 win on March 16, 1994 in Boulder. That game was also a postseason affair, occurring in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Kathy McConnell-Miller has never faced Marquette as a head coach.

COMMON OPPONENTS: Colorado and Marquette had four common opponents in 2007-08 -- Dartmouth, Gonzaga, Kansas and Villanova. CU defeated Dartmouth at home in December while claiming wins over Gonzaga and Villanova in WNIT games. The Buffaloes split with Kansas during the Big 12 regular season with each winning at home. Marquette played all four teams on the road defeating Dartmouth and Villanova while losing at Kansas and Gonzaga.

60 IN 2: Jackie McFarland scored 32 points in the win over Villanova and followed up that performance with 30 against TCU. It's the first time a CU player has registered 30 in back-to-back games and just the sixth time a Buffalo has scored 60 or more in two games. McFarland is the only one to have done it twice:

63 - Tera Bjorklund, 2002-03, 34 vs. North Carolina, 29 vs. Villanova
63 - Tracy Tripp, 1986-87, 25 vs. Kansas, 38 at Oklahoma State
62 - Jackie McFarland, 2007-08, 32 vs. Villanova, 30 vs. TCU
62 - Jackie McFarland, 2005-06, 34 vs. CS-Fullerton, 28 vs. Wyoming
60 - Bridget Turner, 1987-88, 33 vs. Missouri, 27 at Oklahoma
60 - Erin Carson, 1985-86, 36 vs. BYU, 24 vs. Oklahoma

LEADING WHEN IT MATTERS: Colorado has won their last two WNIT games and has led for less than 10 minutes combined. Villanova led for 36:45 in the third round game (CU for 1:22) and against TCU the Horned Frogs led for 35:39 with CU ahead for 7:39. All totaled, CU has two wins leading for 9:01, while the last two opponents were ahead for 72:24 and left without victory.

COMING FROM BEHIND: Colorado won its second straight game when trailing at halftime by defeating TCU 96-90 in overtime after trailing 44-38 after the first 20 minutes. The Buffs had snapped an 18-game losing streak when trailing at the half by defeating Villanova 64-58 on March 27. The Wildcats held a 35-28 lead at halftime and actually led by 11 (55-44) with 6:01 remaining in the game before the Buffaloes closed the game on a 20-3 run. The Buffs had been 0-13 this season trailing at the half and hadn't won since coming back from a 34-32 deficit to defeat Texas Tech 70-67 in Boulder on Feb. 3, 2007.

PROTECTING THE ROCK: Colorado set a school record for fewest turnovers in a game by committing just three against Villanova.

CU had no turnovers in the first half and didn't suffer its first until the 16:47 mark of the second period. In the first 31 games of the season, Colorado had committed at least three turnovers in every single half, first and second. The previous game low was four, done twice (vs. Kansas State in 2003 and Utah in 1989).

A FINE LINE: Colorado senior Jackie McFarland has claimed just about every major free throw record at Colorado, game, single-season and career. McFarland is CU's all-time leader in free throws made (577) and attempted (748) and has set single-season marks with 194 free throws made on 247 attempts. She actually holds the top two single-season performances for free throws made as she held the previous record of 161 set as a junior in 2006-07. In the WNIT she has made 31-of-37 (.838) from the line and 28-of-30 (.933) in the last two games. Against Villanova she took sole possession of the single game mark by sinking 15 free throws. She had a share of the previous record of 14, done three times and last by the All-Big 12 forward against Texas Tech during the 2007 Big 12 Championship. McFarland made her 15 free throws on just 16 attempts, also setting a school mark for free throws made with only one miss (.938). She nearly repeated that effort against TCU making 13-of-14 from the charity stripe.

LONG BREAK, NO PROBLEM: Colorado shrugged off any rust from a 13-day break to defeat Gonzaga 82-68 in the first round of the WNIT on March 24. The 13-day layoff tied for the ninth-longest in team history as CU also had 13 day breaks in 1981-82 and 1988-89. CU has endured breaks of 10 days or more 26 times, with most occurring during the holiday break in December. The Buffaloes are 16-10 in those games in which the team returns from a layoff of 10 or more days. It was the seventh time that CU's long break has come during this time of year -- from the end of the regular season to the start of postseason play and the Buffs are 4-3 in their first postseason contest following the break. The 13 days tied for the longest break in team history between the end of the regular season and start of the post season. CU also had 13 days inbetween the 1981-82 regular season finale and the first round of the AIAW Regional playoffs, a 70-61 win over Colorado State.

McFARLAND, SPEARS EARN BIG 12 POSTSEASON HONORS: Senior forward Jackie McFarland was named to the 2008 All-Big 12 Conference first team for the second-straight season while freshman forward Brittany Spears was named to the All-Rookie team and received honorable mention to the All-Big 12 squad by a vote of league coaches.

McFarland gives Colorado its fourth All-Big 12 first team selection, and ironically both are repeat performers. She joins Tera Bjorklund who received back-to-back honors in 2003 and 2004. A 2005-06 All-Big 12 second team pick, she is just the second Buffalo to be cited three different seasons by the current league joining guard Jenny Roulier who was a three-time third team selection (2000-02). Former CU All-American Shelley Sheetz was a three-time All-Big Eight first team pick.

Spears is the first Colorado player to be named to the Big 12 All-Rookie team in the three-year existence of the award. She is the 10th Buffalo to be given All-Big 12 honorable mention and just the second CU freshman to earn any kind of Big 12 postseason honor joining Linda Lappe who was also an honorable mention pick in 1999.

SMITH, SPEARS EARN BIG 12 WEEKLY HONORS: Colorado has been recognized with Big 12 weekly honors five times this season, a school record for the Buffs in the 12 years of the league.

Freshman forward Brittany Spears was named Big 12 Rookie of the week four times, including the final two weeks of the season March 3 & 7. Spears, who also earned honors on Jan. 7 and Feb. 11, is the first CU player to earn four separate Big 12 weekly awards in the same season and the previous best was two. Sophomore guard Bianca Smith was named the Big 12 Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Dec. 10.

In her most recent honor, she had 10 points, five rebounds, three assists, one block and one steal to help CU to a 63-47 win over Missouri in the regular season finale. The week before, Spears averaged 15 points, 12.5 rebounds and two steals against Baylor and Nebraska. She scored 16 points and had a career-high 14 rebounds against the Lady Bears and added 14 points, 11 rebounds and four steals against the Huskers.

The week of Feb. 5-11, she averaged 19 points, 6.5 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 blocks while hitting 48 percent from the field in games against Nebraska and No. 10 (AP & WBCA) Oklahoma. Her other honor came right before the beginning of the Big 12 season as she helped Colorado register its 10th straight win by scoring 16 points and grabbing seven rebounds in a 65-53 decision over Pepperdine on Jan. 4.

Smith averaged 19 points, two assists and two rebounds off the bench while leading Colorado to wins over No. 22/21 Wyoming and at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt. Against Wyoming, Smith scored 16 points on 5-of-8 from the floor with three assists as Colorado broke a three-game losing streak against the Cowgirls. Smith had a then-career high 22 points on 7-of-14 from the field with three rebounds, one steal and one assist as the Buffs handed the Commodores just their second loss in 23 home games.

SMITH'S RECORD NIGHT FROM '3': Sophomore Bianca Smith tied three different school 3-point field goal records during CU's 67-52 win over Texas on Feb. 16. Smith tied school marks for 3-pointers made in one game with seven, and also 3-pointers made and attempted in one half by hitting 5-of-9 in the first 20 minutes. It's the fifth time a CU player has had seven 3-pointers in one game, done by four players (Kate Fagan did it twice). Veronica Johns-Richardson was the last to do it, against Northern Colorado on Dec. 29, 2004. Smith's five first half 3-pointers matched efforts by Shelley Sheetz at Tennessee on Dec. 20, 1993 and Fagan at Syracuse on Dec. 31, 2002. Her nine first half 3-point attempts matched Sheetz's nine at Tennessee.

Smith, who finished with a career-high 26 points on that night and followed that performance up with five more 3-pointers in the win over Kansas State, continues to move up the ladder on CU's single season and career 3-point charts. Her 77 3-pointers this season are second on CU's single-season list and leaves her two shy of Kate Fagan's single-season school record of 79 set in 2003-04. She has 109 career 3-pointers which ties her with Alexis Felts (1994-98) for seventh on CU's all-time list. Smith's 211 3-point attempts this season are the most in team history and her 303 career attempts rank seventh. Her 109 3-pointers are the second most by a Buff in her first two seasons, trailing only Sheetz who had 128 from 1991-93.

AWARDS PILING UP FOR McFARLAND: Jackie McFarland was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team for the third straight year, this time as a first team member, announced by the College Sports Information Directors of America on Feb. 26.

McFarland earned second team honors in 2006 and 2007. She is Colorado's third three-time Academic All-American joining Jim Hansen (Football, 1990-92) and Kelly Smith (Cross Country/Track & Field, 1996-98).

Sporting a 3.86 GPA, McFarland is working on a concurrent degree program which will allow her to earn her MBA while completing her undergraduate degree in accounting. McFarland won CU's Scholar-Athlete Award in the spring of 2007 for having the highest GPA in her class. McFarland is a three-year team captain and is actively involved in CU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

SAAC is the governing body for student-athletes at CU which assists in the development and implementation of programs that motivate student-athletes to strive for and be recognized for academic excellence and community involvement.

McFarland is currently one of 10 finalists for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. She was one of 30 original nominees for the Senior CLASS Award that was pared down to 10 finalists by a national media committee.

The award – presented annually to the NCAA Division I Student-Athlete of the Year in eight sports – focuses on the “Four C's” of classroom, character, community and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the award was launched during the 2001-02 season to honor the attributes of college basketball seniors who remain committed to their university and pursue the many rewards that a senior season and complete college education brings.

McFarland was a 2008 Naismith Award semifinalist and was tabbed as a preseason first team All-Big 12 selection and one of the top five power forwards in the country by ESPN.com.

Fan balloting will be combined with votes from coaches, media and sponsors to determine the recipient of the award. Winners will be announced during the NCAA Men's and Women's Final Four.

BLOCK PARTY: Colorado has blocked a school single-season record 181 shots this year, adding to the total with eight against TCU. The previous record was 162 set in 2000-01. The Buffaloes rank third in the Big 12 and 13th in the nation (through games of March 25) at 5.4 blocks per game. Freshman Brittany Spears leads the way with 52 blocks which are the most by a CU player since Britt Hartshorn had 69 in 2000-01. Sophomore Aija Putnina is second with 43 and senior Jackie McFarland, who is fourth in all-time blocks at CU, is third with 38. It's the first time in team history that the Buffaloes have three players with 30 or more blocks in one season.

CU's high for a game this season was 13 against Dartmouth, the second highest single-game total in team history, trailing only the school record 16 set against Sam Houston in a 99-60 win on Dec. 14, 2000. CU followed up that performance with 12 against Iowa State on Jan. 13. The Buffaloes have three games this season with 10 or more blocks.

3-POINTERS FALLING: Colorado is second in the Big 12 Conference and ranks 21st in the nation (through games of March 25) at 6.9 3-point field goals per game. The Buffaloes have established new single-season team marks for 3-point shooting. CU has 227 3-point field goals made breaking the old mark of 196 set in 2001-02. The Buffs have blown away the old 3-point attempts mark. CU has 709 attempts, shattering the old school record of 501 originally achieved in 2001-02.

The Buffaloes have a school single-season record nine games with 10 or more 3-point field goals as the Buffs added to the total with 10 against Gonzaga. The previous season high was five in the 34-game 2001-02 season. CU had a season-high 14 against Colorado State, its second best single-game total (CU had 16 against record of 37 set against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004.

Individually, it hasn't been one player doing the damage. For the first time in school history, CU has seven different players with 10 or more 3-pointers. Sophomore Bianca Smith leads the team and is closing in on the school season record with 77, Brittany Spears is second with 53 followed by Susie Powers (25), Jackie McFarland (16), Aija Putnina (16), Hannah Skildum (13) and Whitney Houston (13).

NUMBERS FOR McFARLAND: Jackie McFarland notched her ninth double-double of the season, tied for the second most in the Big 12, by scoring 32 points and grabbing 12 rebounds against Villanova. She is second on CU's career list for double-doubles with 46, a number that ranks fifth all-time in the Big 12, and is also second in double-digit rebounding games with 48. McFarland is second on CU's all-time list with 101 double figure scoring games and has reached double-digits in 93 of her last 99 games.

McFarland is second on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,940 points, passing the 1,900 plateau against Villanova. She is third in career rebounds with 1,040 and is one of only two players -- joining Lisa Van Goor -- to have 1,900 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career.

McFarland is CU's all-time leader in free-throws made (577) and attempted (748) and she ranks third in field goals made (667) and fourth in blocked shots (138) and minutes (3,890).

In terms of career averages, she is on pace to rank second in scoring (16.2 ppg), fifth in rebounding (8.7) and eighth in field-goal percentage (.538).

DEFENSE WINS: Colorado has enjoyed some impressive defensive numbers at times this season.

The Buffaloes have held seven opponents under 50 points in 2007-08; 29-vs. Texas Southern, 38-vs. Southern Utah, 41-vs. Kansas, 43-vs. Dartmouth, 47-at Colorado State, 47-vs. Missouri and 48-at San Francisco. CU had held their opponent under 50 points just three times total in the previous three seasons. It's also the first time the Buffs have held two Big 12 opponents under 50 points in the same season since 2002-03.

CU yielded less than 50 points in three-straight games -- Texas Southern, Dartmouth and Southern Utah -- the first such streak since 2003-04. The Buffs' six sub-50 point defensive performances are the most in one season since the 2002-03 squad registered nine.

Colorado had a historic performance from a defensive perspective against Texas Southern. The Buffaloes held the Lady Tigers to just 29 points, which ties for the fourth-lowest total in team history (equals a 79-29 win over Iowa State on Feb. 19, 1993). It was just the fifth time in CU history the Buffs have held an opponent under 30 points (the ISU game in 1993 being the last). CU allowed just 13 second-half points, tying for the second-lowest second-half total in team history (also done in the ISU game and against Utah State on Jan. 28, 1981). The Buffaloes forced Texas Southern into 32 turnovers, the most since forcing 35 against Detroit Mercy on Nov. 24, 2002.

CAPTAINS EARN ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12: Team captains lead not just on the court, but in the classroom too. Colorado's three team captains -- Caley Dow, Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers -- each earned spots on the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team the league office announced on Mar. 5. Dow and McFarland were first team honorees, while Powers was selected to the second team.

Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004). That came during a string of netting 10 or more 3-pointers in four straight games for the first time. The Buffs had 10 3-pointers against Wyoming and Northern Colorado and 13 against Rice. Against UNC, the Buffs set a school record for 3-point field goal attempts in one half with 21 in the first stanza and finished the game with 36 attempts, just one shy of the school

Dow, a 6-2 forward, earned her second-straight first team honor. She is averaging 2.5 rebounds and just under two points for the Buffaloes while hitting 46 percent from the field. Dow is a Spanish for the Professions major and active in the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Powers, who has started 60 of 62 career games in a CU uniform, is recognized by the Big 12 for the second-straight season. A Spanish and education major, she was a first team Academic All-Big 12 pick in 2007.

McFarland picks up her third Academic All-Big 12 award. She is a three-time Academic All-American.

PLAYING WELL AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: Colorado is 3-4 this season against ranked opponents. The three wins are the most by the Buffaloes since sporting a 3-7 mark against the nation's Top 25 in 2003-04.

Colorado's 73-68 win over No. 15 Kansas State marked the highest ranked team the Buffaloes have beaten since defeating No. 15 Notre Dame, 67-63 on Nov. 15, 2003. It's the highest ranked team the Buffs have beaten as an unranked team since knocking off No. 12 North Carolina 86-67 in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament in Boulder.

Colorado had its biggest week in early December in several years in terms of success against ranked teams.

Colorado's 69-55 win over No. 21/22 Wyoming on Dec. 5 snapped a 23-game Buffs' losing streak to ranked teams. The Buffaloes last win over a ranked opponent had been a 69-59 decision at No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004 where CU was ranked No. 14 at the time. The win was Colorado's first against a ranked team while being unranked since the NCAA Tournament win over UNC.

The Buffaloes kept the momentum going four days later with a 62-51 win at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt. The win gave CU's its first two-game win streak against ranked teams since knocking off No. 23 Washington and No. 24 Baylor in 2003-04. It was the first pair of wins over two ranked teams in back-to-back games since the 2002 NCAA Tournament when the Buffs defeated No. 22/24 LSU in the second round and No. 5 Stanford in the Sweet 16. It was Colorado's first win on the road over a ranked opponent since the Baylor game in 2004. It was CU's first win over a ranked opponent as an unranked team since defeating No. 12 Texas in Austin, 60-56, on Feb. 26, 1997.

Colorado's losses against the Top 25 this year have been competitive, if not downright close calls. No. 10/10 Oklahoma used a strong second half to pull away 82-66 on Feb. 9 in Norman as did No. 21/18 Oklahoma State in an 81-72 decision on Feb. 2 in Boulder and No. 8/8 Baylor in a 76-62 decision in Waco on Feb. 27. CU led No. 19/16 Texas A&M for most the game before a late comeback allowed the Aggies to leave Boulder with a 72-68 decision on Jan. 16.

RANKING OF OUR OWN: Colorado did not receive votes in either the AP or WBCA Top 25 polls released this week. CU had at least received votes for six-straight weeks from Dec. 10 through Jan. 22. The Buffaloes were ranked in four straight AP polls, peaking at No. 23 on Jan. 1 and Jan. 8. The Buffaloes debuted in the 2007 AP poll at No. 25 on Dec. 24 for their first national ranking since finishing No. 17 (AP)/No. 24 (WBCA) in the final 2003-04 polls. Colorado has a rich tradition in the AP poll, making 158 appearances since 1980. The Buffs were ranked in 75 straight polls from Mar. 15, 1992 to Dec. 9, 1996 and 30 straight from Jan. 22, 2001 to Mar. 22, 2002.

With Colorado's early-season AP ranking, Buffs head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to play for and coach an AP ranked team. McConnell-Miller was a four-year letterwinner at Virginia (1986-90) where she played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight.

DEFENSE IN THE KANSAS GAME: Colorado's 59-41 win over Kansas was won, in large part thanks to its defense. The 41 points allowed to the Jayhawks tied for the third lowest against a Big 12 opponent during the regular season. Three of the four lowest totals have come against the Jayhawks:

- 35 -- Colorado 70, at Kansas 35, Jan. 16, 2002
- 40 -- Colorado 69, at Texas A&M 40, Feb. 8, 1997
- 41 -- at Colorado 59, Kansas 41, Jan. 22, 2008
- 41 -- at Colorado 80, Kansas 41, Jan. 29, 2002

The 18-point margin of victory was also the highest by a Kathy McConnell-Miller led team in a Big 12 game, beating the previous margin of 14 against Iowa State on Jan. 10, 2007 (81-67).

YOUTH SERVED: Colorado's freshman class was key in the Buffaloes win over Kansas combining for 31 points, the most by a freshman class since the trio of Whitney Houston (25), Candace Rucker (6) and Aija Putnina (3) combined for 34 in a 70-68 overtime loss at Kansas last season. Brittany Spears led the way with 14 points while Courtney Dunn pitched in a career-high nine points and Britney Blythe had eight off the bench.

DOUBLE OT: Colorado went double-overtime for just the fifth time in school history and the first time at the Coors Events Center with its 84-77 loss to Iowa State on Jan. 13. It was the first double-overtime for CU since the Buffaloes defeated the Cyclones 68-66 at Iowa State on Jan. 18, 1997, and the Buffs fell to 16-20 all-time in overtime and 2-3 in double-overtime. Seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers each played 48 minutes in the game, tying a school record initially set by Tracy Tripp against Oklahoma State on March 6, 1989.

BIG 12 OPENERS: Colorado evened its record in Big 12 Conference openers at 6-6 by defeating Missouri 70-58 on Jan. 9. It was Colorado's first season-opening Big 12 win on the road since the Buffs beat Baylor to begin the 2004 league slate. The 12-point margin was also the Buffs highest in a conference road opener since a 67-53 win at Missouri to open the 1993 Big Eight schedule. Colorado, now 20-14 in all-time conference openers, are 16-9 in home league openers since 1983 and 6-5 in the Big 12 era.

OPENING NIGHT STAR: Colorado freshman Brittany Spears joined some elite company in her Big 12 debut. Her 24 points were the second-most in team history for a freshman in her first league game. Only CU Athletic Hall of Fame member and 1995 All-American Shelley Sheetz had more points in a conference debut as she scored 25 during a 75-69 loss at Nebraska on Jan. 15, 1992. Her seven rebounds tie current teammate Jackie McFarland for the most by a freshman in a road opener since 1994. McFarland had seven in an 84-62 setback at Nebraska on Jan. 5, 2005.

NUMBERS ON 11 STRAIGHT: Colorado saw its 11-game win streak end against Iowa State, but the run was the seventh longest in team history and the most consecutive victories since the 1994-95 team matched a CU All-Sports record 25 straight wins (shared with the 1939-41 baseball team). Here are the Buffs' all-time best win streaks:

Wins	Season	Record	Noteable
1. 25	1994-95	30-3	NCAA Elite Eight, 14-0 in Big Eight
2. 20	1988-89	27-4	NCAA 1st Round, 14-0 in Big Eight
3. 15	1992-93	27-4	NCAA Elite Eight, 15-0 season start
4. 14	1991-92	22-9	NCAA 1st Rd, Big Eight Tourney Champs
5. 12	1981-82	28-8	AIAW National 1st Round
12	1980-81	28-5	First of two 9-plus winning streaks in '81
7. 11	2007-08	??	First 11-plus streak since 1994-95
8. 9	2003-04	22-8	NCAA 1st Round
9	1993-94	27-5	NCAA Sweet 16
9	1992-93	27-4	NCAA Elite Eight, Big Eight Champs
9	1980-81	28-5	First AIAW National Appearance
9	1978-79	22-9	3rd place in AIAW Regional

PERFECT DECEMBER: Colorado registered a perfect 7-0 record for the month of December for the first time since 2003-04, and for just the sixth time in team history. The Buffaloes matched the 1980-81 and 1981-82 teams which were both 7-0 in December. The 1992-93 team had a program best December mark of 9-0, while the 2002-03 squad was 6-0 and 5-0 in 2003-04. CU is 118-54 (.686) all-time in the month of December.

CAPTAINS NAMED: Seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers and junior Caley Dow will serve as team captains for the 2007-08 season. McFarland is a captain for a third straight season, Powers is in her second year as captain and Dow is a captain for the first time. CU team captains are voted on by players prior to the first regular season contest each year.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 322-97 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.768). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 20 of the previous 30 years including this season, after notching win No. 10 against Texas on Feb. 16. The Buffaloes have enjoyed five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94) at the CECC.

ON THE ROAD: Colorado is 4-8 on the road this season and had won three straight for the first time since 2003-04 before falling at Kansas State on Jan. 19. The four wins doubles the team road win total from the previous two seasons combined (1-10 in 2006-07 and 1-9 in 2004-05). CU's 82-47 win over Colorado State was significant on several fronts. The 35-point margin was the Buffs' highest on the road since a 70-35 win over Kansas on Jan. 16, 2002 and it was also their largest win over Colorado State (regardless of venue) since a 112-48 win on Nov. 16, 1979. The 82 points were the most CU has scored on an opponents home court since the Buffs' last trip to Moby Arena, an 86-83 loss to the Rams on Nov. 30, 2005. Colorado broke Vanderbilt's 10-game home winning streak and handed the Commodores just their second loss in 23 home games, the other coming last season against eventual national champion Tennessee.

Kathy McConnell-Miller
 Head Coach
 Third Season

When Kathy McConnell-Miller took over the University of Colorado program just over two years ago, there's no question the Buffaloes were rebuilding and the team was a work in progress.

In two seasons at Colorado, progress is certainly a valid term for McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes.

McConnell-Miller, 40, sports a 22-38 record in her two seasons at Colorado and is 113-126 overall in eight seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach.

She led Colorado to a 13-17 mark in 2006-07, the team's best record since the 2003-04 Buffaloes went 22-8 and advanced to the program's last NCAA Tournament. Colorado also enjoyed its best Big 12 Conference showing in three years, tying Texas and Texas Tech for seventh in the league standings at 6-10. The Buffaloes' six conference wins in 2006-07 were more than the previous two years combined (3-13 in 2005-06 and 2-14 in 2004-05).

McConnell-Miller, who officially became the sixth head coach in the history of CU women's basketball on April 27, 2005, has overseen the development of Jackie McFarland, who has emerged as one of the top players in the Big 12. McFarland has earned All-Big 12 honors in both her seasons under McConnell-Miller including first team acclaim this past season. All-league selections are nothing new to McConnell-Miller as she has had at least one first or second team all-conference performer in each of her eight seasons as a collegiate head coach.

The Buffaloes have also had academic success in the McConnell-Miller era. In her two seasons, McConnell-Miller has coached seven Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team members and has helped guide McFarland two a pair of Academic All-America second team honors.

She has done well with the players inherited from legendary CU head coach Ceal Barry, but she has also excelled in bringing in her own players.

McConnell-Miller, who from day one has established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in her players, and her staff have landed back-to-back Top 40 recruiting classes, including the No. 29 class in 2006 according to the All-Star Girls Report. What was remarkable about the class of 2006 is McConnell-Miller and her staff didn't even have the chance to start on the recruiting trail until April when they arrived in Boulder. Despite that late start, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players, including Whitney Houston and Aija Putnina who made significant contributions as first-year players.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an Associated Press honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Grentz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Grentz for a total of six years as she went with Grentz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Three McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, two at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (7), Mackenzie (5) and Macie (3).

At Colorado: 41-52 (.441), 3rd Season

This Season:

- Her 77 3-pointers this season are second on CU's single-season list and is just two shy of Kate Fagan's school record of 79 set in 2003-04.
- Set a career high with six assists against Gonzaga and actually matched her previous personal best of four in the first 3:55 of the contest.
- Tied a school record for 3-pointers made in one game with seven and also tied marks for 3-pointers made and attempted in one half by hitting 5-of-9 in the win over Texas on Feb. 16. It's the fifth time a CU player has hit seven 3-pointers in one game, done by four different players (Kate Fagan did it twice). She finished with a career-high 26 points against Texas.
- Has 15 games with three or more 3-point field goals in 2007-08
- Her 211 3-point attempts this season are a school single-season record passing Mandy Nightingale's old mark of 191 in 2001-02.
- Named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10 after averaging 19.0 points on 57 percent shooting in wins over #22/21 Wyoming and #20/17 Vanderbilt.

- Fourth in the Big 12 in 3-point field goals made (2.3 mpg) and in 3-point percentage (.365).
 - After hitting just 4 of the first 11 free-throw attempts of her career (.364) she has hit 47 of her last 54 (.870) dating back to last season.
 - Tied with Alexis Felts (1994-98) for seventh on CU's all-time list for 3-point field goals with 109. Her 109 3-pointers are the second most by a Buff in her first two seasons, trailing only Shelley Sheetz who had 128 from 1991-93.
- Career:
- Had the sixth most 3-point field goals among freshmen in the Big 12 last season with 32 and ranked 14th on the Big 12 charts in 3-point field-goal percentage (.348).
 - Her 32 3-point field goals were the most by a CU freshman since Emily Waner had 51 in 2003-04.
 - Sat out the 2005-06 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program.
 - A 2005 graduate of Bellaire High School where she was a four-year letter winner as a guard/forward. She earned District MVP and first team all-district honors as a senior, leading Bellaire to a 36-5 record and averaging 18.5 points and 15.3 rebounds per game.
 - She won an AAU national championship with the Houston Elite club program. Smith's high school honors include being named a Houston Girls Athlete of the Week.
 - Her step-father Johnnie played football for the University of Houston and the San Francisco 49ers for five years, helping the 49ers to a NFL title in Super Bowl XXIV.

#3 Whitney Houston
5-5, Sophomore, Guard
Memphis, Tenn. (Hillcrest)

Career:

- Won the team's Most Improved Player Award after the 2006-07 season.
- Led CU in assists with 64 in 2006-07, the first freshman to do so since Linda Lappe did it in 1998-99.
- Ranked fifth in assists (2.2) and eighth in scoring (7.9 ppg) among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference.
- A 2006 graduate of Hillcrest High School in Memphis where she led the Lady Vikings to the Tennessee Class AA state title as a senior. She was the state tournament MVP as Hillcrest finished with a 35-3 record and delivered the Memphis area its first girls Division 1 basketball state title in 21 years.
- A Miss Basketball finalist in Tennessee, averaging 19 points, six assists and three rebounds per game as a senior. She was a Class AA All-State first team selection and also earned Class AA All-Metro and District MVP honors.
- A four-time member of the Memphis Commercial Appeal's Best of the Preps/All-Metro Class A-AA team and was one of five finalists for the overall girls basketball Best of the Preps award as a junior and senior.
- She is the fifth of seven children joining Pamela (28), Keithra Patton (24), Elbony (23), Larry (21), Christopher (17) and Josh (21).
- She lists the biggest moments of her career as being inducted into the Honor Society and winning the state championship.

This Season

- Scored a season-high 13 points against TCU. She banked in a 24-foot 3-point shot as the shot clock expired to give CU a 72-74 lead with 1:45 left in regulation and hit a short jumper with 4.8 second left that gave CU a 76-74 lead before TCU sent it to overtime.
- Averaging 6.3 points and 1.9 assists over the last 14 games.
- Hitting 43 percent from the field (20-of-46) over the last eight contests.
- Had a season high four rebounds against Villanova.
- She has 13 3-pointers this season after going just 1-of-17 in 29 games as a freshman.
- Sang the national anthem prior to the Gonzaga and TCU games. CU is 3-0 when Houston sings the national anthem (the first time was against Nevada on Nov. 24, 2006) and in those games she is averaging 11.3 points and hitting 68 percent from the field (15-of-22).

Career:

- Named Colorado's Defensive Player of the Year in 2006-07.
- Started 28 of 30 games during the 2006-07 season, rotating back-and-forth between the point and shooting guard positions.
- Transferred to CU from Notre Dame for the 2005-06 season, sitting the year out as a redshirt.
- A two-year letterwinner at Notre Dame, playing in 41 games over two seasons and averaging 6.5 minutes per game. Notre Dame was 48-17 with Powers on the roster advancing to a pair of NCAA Tournaments, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2004.
- Part of three Colorado Class 5A state championship teams at Highlands Ranch High School (2000-02) and was the starting point guard when the Falcons were ranked No. 1 in the nation in 2002. Was a teammate of current CU Director of Operations and WNBA veteran Ann Strother.
- She averaged 13.6 points and 6.8 assists per game over her prep career including a personal-best 15.7 per game as a senior.
- A two-time Street & Smith's honorable mention All-American and a Parade honorable mention All-American in 2003.
- While at Notre Dame, she was a two-time member of the Big East Academic All-Star Team.
- She hopes to one day teach Spanish in high school and coach girls basketball. She spent a portion of the summer of 2006 volunteering at a pastoral center in San Bartolo, Peru, teaching English and basketball to children.

This Season:

- Broke a four-game scoreless streak with five points against TCU including her first free throws since the Big 12 opener at Missouri on Jan. 9.
- Had a career-high 10 assists against Pepperdine. It's the most assists in one game for the Buffaloes since Whitney Law had her school-record 15 against Cal State Fullerton on Nov. 18, 2005.
- Tied a school record, along with teammate Jackie McFarland, by playing 48 minutes against Iowa State. Tracy Tripp set the initial mark with 48 against Oklahoma State in a double-overtime game on March 6, 1989.
- Ranks second in the Big 12 in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.8 and 11th the Big 12 at 3.2 assists per game. Her 106 assists are the most by a CU player since Mandy Nightingale had 161 in 2001-02.
- Tied with Erin Carson (1984-88) for 17th on CU's all-time list for 3-point field goals with 49.
- Named to the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball second team. Was a first team pick in 2007.

This Season:

- Named to the All-Big 12 Rookie team and received honorable mention to the all-conference team.
- Named Big 12 Rookie of the Week for the fourth time this season on March 7 after recording 10 points, five rebounds, three assists in the regular season finale against Missouri. She's the first CU player to earn four Big 12 weekly honors in the same season as she was also honored on Jan. 7, Feb. 11 and Mar. 3.
- Had a game-high 22 points and 10 rebounds against Gonzaga for her seventh career double-double and third in a five-game span. Averaging 9.2 rebounds over the last 10 contests.
- The fourth different player, and second freshman, in team history to accomplish 450 points and 250 rebounds.
- The first player in team history to record 50 assists, 50 blocks and 50 steals in the same season and just the second to reach 40 in all three categories. Raegan Scott did it twice, as a junior in 1995-96 and senior in 1996-97.
- Second in scoring (456), tied with Erin Scholz (1993-94) for second in blocks (52), third in rebounds (253) and fifth in steals (54) on CU's all-time freshman charts. Her 52 blocks are tied for seventh overall on CU's single-season chart.
- Ranks first among freshmen in the Big 12 in scoring (13.8 ppg), rebounding (7.7 rpg) and blocked shots (1.6 bpg). She is also second in steals (1.7 spg) third in free-throw percentage (.840) and fourth in assists (1.9 apg).

- Overall in the Big 12 she is third in defensive rebounds (5.8 rpg), seventh in blocks, eighth in overall rebounding, 10th in 3-point percentage (.312), 11th in 3-point field goals (1.6 3mpg), 12th in field-goal percentage (.423), 13th in steals and 14th in scoring.

- Her 54 steals are the most by a CU player since Veronica Johns-Richardson had 59 in 2004-05. She has five steals in a game twice this season, most recently against Texas Southern.

- Scored a career-high 24 points in her Big 12 debut against Missouri. It's the second-best output by a Buff in her conference opener, trailing only the 25 scored by CU Athletic Hall of Famer Shelley Sheetz at Nebraska in 1992. Her seven rebounds against MU matched current teammate Jackie McFarland's initial output in 2005, tying for the best mark since Erin Scholz had nine rebounds at K-State in 1994.

- Started her collegiate career off with a bang, scoring 15 points to go with seven rebounds and five steals against San Francisco. All 15 of her points and four of her five steals came in the first half.

Career:

- A 2006 graduate of Pasadena High School who spent the 2006-07 academic year at Notre Dame Prep School in Fitchburg, Mass.
- Two-time Pacific League and Pasadena Star-News Player of the Year for Pasadena High School
- Averaged 23 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists as a senior guiding Pasadena to its first league title since 1991.
- An open option major, interested in sociology.
- A sport she'd like to try other than basketball would be field hockey.
- Her best talent not related to basketball is helping with other people's relationships.

#33 Aija Putnina
6-3, Sophomore, Forward
Riga, Latvia (Regis HS, Colo.)

compiling separate streaks of five and six games during her maiden season in 1980-81.

- Recorded back-to-back double-doubles at the 2006 Coors Classic, earning All-Tournament honors. She was the first freshman to achieve back-to-back double-doubles since Sabrina Scott did it at the end of the 1999-2000 season and it's only the fourth time since 1993-94 when Erin Scholz did it twice.

- Averaged 16.6 points, 11 rebounds and 1.5 blocks per game in helping the Latvia National team to a 12th place finish at the 2007 U20 European Championship for Women. Led the tournament field with five double-doubles in eight games.

- Her Latvia National team experience also includes the 2006 U18 European Championships where her 16.9 points and 10 rebounds per game helped Latvia to a fourth place finish. Also played in the 2005 U18 and 2004 U16 European Championships.

- A 2006 graduate of Regis Jesuit High School in Aurora, Colo. An exchange student from Riga, Latvia, she could play only one season of varsity high school basketball in Colorado. As a senior she averaged 12 points, seven rebounds and two blocks per game helping the Raiders to a 24-4 overall record and a second place finish in the Colorado State Class 4A Tournament.

- Earned All-Continental Conference first team recognition and received honorable mention to the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 4A All-State teams.

- She aspires to own her own business and to become a basketball coach.

- She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as going to the state championship game.

- Her best talent not related to basketball is taking pictures.

This Season:

- Registered her fifth double-double of the season, the seventh of her career, by scoring a career-high 22 points and grabbing 10 rebounds against TCU. Also tied career highs with four 3-pointers and four blocked shots.

- Has made 8-of-13 3-point attempts over the last four games after going 0-of-13 from downtown during the league's regular season.

- Was 4-of-4 from 3-point range against Jacksonville State. Only Jenny Roulier who hit 5-of-5 from downtown against Missouri on Feb. 13, 2002, had more 3-pointers in a game without a miss. She had just four 3-pointers in 37 career games prior to the JSU game.

- On the Big 12 charts is ninth in blocks and 17th in rebounding.

- Her 43 blocks this season are the third most by a sophomore in team history.

Career:

- Tied with Patty Slighter (1981-85) for 10th on CU's all-time list for blocked shots with 62.

- Ranked fifth in rebounds among freshmen in the Big 12 in 2006-07.

- Early in her freshman season she had four straight-double-digit rebounding games, including back-to-back career-high 14-board outputs against Colorado State and USC. Putnina is the first freshman to record four-straight games with 10 or more rebounds since Erin Scholz had four in a row in 1993-94. Only all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor had more in a row as a freshman,

- Scored a career-high 15 points against Oregon and was a perfect 10-of-10 from the free-throw line. She is just the seventh CU player to go 10-of-10 or better from the foul line in a single game and only the second freshman. CU All-American Shelly Sheetz was 11-for-11 as a first-year player against Kansas in 1992. The mark also ties for the second best in the Big 12 this season.

- A 2005 graduate of Arapahoe High School where she averaged 17.3 points and 9.3 rebounds as a senior.

- She was selected All-Colorado by both the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News and was named to the Class 5A All-State first team by both publications.

- Was the state's leading rebounder in 2004 and a first team All-Continental League pick, helping the Warriors to a 12-8 record as a junior.

- She has two brothers, Nate and Eric. Eric played basketball at the University of Denver and professionally in Europe.

- Her favorite reality show is Mythbusters, "Have you seen the cool stuff they do?!"

- If she could be on the cover of any magazine it would be National Geographic.

- Her favorite quote is "Serenity Now!" - George Costanza from Seinfeld.

This Season:

- Hitting 50 percent from the field over the last 11 games (11-of-22).

- Had season-highs with eight points and seven rebounds in 30 minutes against Nebraska. Also tied a career high with three assists.

- Named a team captain along with seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers in a vote by players during the preseason.

- Had seven rebounds against Colorado State, her most since pulling down seven against Cal State Fullerton last December.

Career:

- A two-time Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball first team selection.

- As a freshman, Dow ranked 19th in the Big 12 in rebounding in league only contests at 5.9 rpg.

- Reverted back to sophomore standing in terms of eligibility as she was granted a medical hardship by the Big 12 Conference on Dec. 2, 2006.
- Suffered a Jones fracture – a fracture to the fifth meta-tarsal – in her left foot on Nov. 15, 2005, just three days before CU's season opening win over Cal State University-Fullerton, missing the entire season
- Named to the Waco Tribune-Herald's Big 12 Conference All-Freshman team in 2004-05, averaging nine points, 5.3 rebounds, and one block per game for the Buffaloes.
- Ranked third in scoring, and fourth in rebounding and blocked shots among Big 12 freshmen in 2004-05.
- Ranked 10th overall on the Big 12 charts in blocks with 28, the 20th best total in team history and fifth-best by a Buffs freshman.
- Earned Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week honors after her first weekend as a collegian, averaging a team-best 13.5 points at the Nevada Nugget Classic.
- Started the 2004-05 season opener becoming the first true freshman to start in the season opener since Linda Lappe against Denver on Nov. 14, 1998.
- Earned a pair of All-State honors after her junior and senior seasons at Graham High School.
- A Texas Association of Basketball Coaches All-State selection, she was a four-time All-District player at Graham, was named the District Most Valuable Player for District 5-3A as a junior, and was also selected to the 2A- 3A Texas Women's Magazine All-State team.
- "Must See" TV for her is Dog the Bounty Hunter and cartoons.
- Her heroes are her parents and grandparents.

This Season:

- Averaged 5.4 points and five rebounds over her last seven appearances prior to the Villanova game.
- Started in the Gonzaga game, her fourth start of the season and first since the Siena game on Nov. 23.
- Recorded 11 rebounds against Missouri, a season high, and her most since notching 13 against the Tigers on Jan. 3, 2007
- Had a Big 12 high nine points against Baylor on 4-of-5 shooting.
- Had a season-high 11 points on 5-of-5 from the field and seven rebounds in the win over Dartmouth. It was her first double-digit scoring effort since the Kansas game on Feb. 24, 2007.

Career:

- Led the Big 12 in field-goal percentage in conference only games (.600) as a sophomore and ranked second on the overall league leaderboard (.583), trailing only teammate Jackie McFarland.
- Ranks 13th on CU's career list for blocked shots with 55.
- Missed seven games as a sophomore with a fracture to the fourth metatarsal of her left foot. The fracture was on the same foot, but a different bone than the injury that forced her to miss the 2005-06 campaign.

#45 Jackie McFarland

6-3, Senior, Forward

her 15 free throws on just 16 attempts, also setting a school mark for free throws made with only one miss (.938).

- Hit 12-of-12 from the line against Missouri, tying for the second best performance in team history.
- On pace to rank second in career scoring average (16.2 ppg), fifth in rebounding average (8.7 rpg) and eighth in field-goal percentage (.538).
- Has nine double-doubles this season, tied for second in the Big 12, and has reached 20 or more points 13 times. Nearly had the CU's first triple double by scoring 21 points, grabbing a season-high 16 rebounds and dishing out a personal-best eight assists against Oklahoma State.
- Second on CU's career list with 46 double-doubles, 48 double-digit rebounding games and 101 double-figure scoring games. Has scored in double-digits in 93 of her last 99 games.
- Tied a school record, along with teammate Susie Powers, by playing 48 minutes against Iowa State. Tracy Tripp set the initial mark with 48 against Oklahoma State in a double-overtime game on March 6, 1989.
- Her 1,181 minutes played in 2007-08 is tied with Diane Hiemstra (1981-82) for the most in one season in school history.
- Named to the Coors Classic All-Tournament team for the third straight season as she paced the Buffaloes by averaging 18 points, 11 rebounds and 6.5 assists over the two games.
- On the Big 12 charts ranks first in field-goal percentage, second in minutes and scoring, third in free-throw percentage, fifth in rebounding and 10th in blocks.
- Named one of 10 nation-wide finalists for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. Also one of 31 mid-season candidates for the 2008 Naismith Award.
- 2008 ESPN The Magazine first team Academic All-American. It's her third Academic All-America award as she was a second team member in 2006 and 2007.

This Season:

- Averaging 27.7 points and 9.7 rebounds during WNIT play.
- The first player in team history to score 30 in back-to-back games as she had 32 against Villanova and 30 against TCU. It's just the sixth time a CU player has scored 60 or more in two games. McFarland also did it at the beginning of the 2005-06 season netting a career-high 34 against Cal State Fullerton and then 28 against Wyoming.
- 2008 All-Big 12 Conference first team pick. Joins Tera Bjorklund (2003-04) as the only CU players to earn back-to-back first team honors.
- Second on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,940 and third in rebounding with 1,040.
- Joins Lisa Van Goor as the only players in CU history to record 1,900 points and 1,000 rebounds.
- The only player in CU history to score 500 points in three different seasons. Her 620 points are second on CU's single-season list.
- Her 38 blocks are the third most by a senior in team history and her 270 rebounds rank fourth.
- CU's all-time leader in free-throws made (577) and attempted (748) and this year has established single-season marks for free-throws made (194) and attempted (247). She holds the top two single-season marks for free throws made, sinking 161 as a junior in 2006-07.
- Took sole possession of the single-game free-throw mark by sinking 15 against Villanova. She had a share of the previous record of 14, done three times and last by the All-Big 12 forward against Texas Tech during the 2007 Big 12 Championship. Made

SAN FRANCISCO — Freshman Brittany Spears had 15 points — all in the first half — to spark Colorado to a season-opening 66-48 win at San Francisco Friday night at War Memorial Gymnasium.

Spears, who also tallied seven rebounds and five steals, scored 15 of CU's first 23 points as the Buffaloes erased an early 13-6 deficit and closed the first half with a 30-12 run to take control of the game. Spears was 7-of-11 from the floor and had four of her steals by halftime equaling CU's top individual theft performance from any game all of last season. Her scoring output tied for the 10th best Buff debut in team history.

"I felt comfortable because we were prepared," Spears said. "We worked all week on (San Francisco's) plays, all the screens; flare screens. (The coaching staff) told us what they were going to do. I felt prepared mentally and physically for this game."

With Spears' strong start the game opened up for CU's all-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland who had a game-high 22 points including 15 in the second half.

"The ball movement was great," McFarland said. "Before (opponents) have been able to double-down on me the entire game and tonight after a couple plays in the first half when we were getting good shots (outside), it opened up the post a lot and allowed me to move around."

Freshman guard Britney Blythe made her collegiate debut in her own back yard scoring 11 points with two steals and two assists. The San Mateo, Calif., native led a Colorado bench effort that outscored the USF bench 26-6. Sophomore Aija Putnina corralled nine rebounds and had six points, including her first career 3-point field goal.

"We have several options for players coming off the bench and tonight we wanted players on the floor that could score and I thought that was the difference," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We had five players that could shoot the ball and USF had a difficult job of figuring out who to guard. In the past we've had just one (who could score) and now we have more offensive weapons."

"We wanted to improve our performance on the road this year and I was very pleased with the mental toughness of this team and the decision making on the floor. This team was prepared for what we were going to do and our staff had a confidence level going into the game tonight the way the players have worked in the off season and preseason."

The Buffaloes, which have won just one road game each of the last two years, enjoyed their widest margin of victory on the road since a 71-50 win over Kansas on Jan. 18, 2003. It's also the fewest points CU's allowed on the road since a 45-42 win over Pacific on Dec. 18, 2004.

Colorado's defense shut down San Francisco as the Dons were held to just 37 percent shooting for the game and just 32 in the second half (9-of-28). The Buffaloes had 11 steals — nine in the first half — and overall forced 18 USF turnovers. Lisa Olden led USF with 14 points and seven rebounds while Necolia Simmons had 11 points and seven rebounds.

LOS ANGELES — Southern California took advantage of hot perimeter shooting, nailing 11 3-point field goals to claim a 70-57 decision over Colorado Sunday afternoon at the Galen Center on the USC campus.

USC (1-1) hit a scorching 50 percent from the 3-point arc (11-of-22) and hit timely shots each time the Buffaloes made a run. Brynn Cameron was 4-of-6 from downtown and led USC with 16 points. Simone Jelks, who had just seven 3-pointers all of last season, was 3-of-3 for the afternoon scoring 10 total.

Freshman Brittany Spears led Colorado with 19 points, 14 of which came in the second half. Sophomores Aija Putnina and Bianca Smith each had nine points off the bench.

Colorado's had a first half to forget netting just 16 points while committing 15 turnovers. The Buffaloes made just 5-of-21 from the field (23.8 percent) and had trouble getting All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland involved in the game. McFarland was held to just one free throw for the first 20 minutes with two rebounds.

McFarland finished with seven points and seven rebounds.

Southern California began the game on a 21-7 run, forcing seven Buffaloes turnovers in the first nine minutes and holding CU to just 17 percent from the field (2-of-12). Camille LeNoir, playing in her first game of the season, had seven of her nine points in the opening minutes of the game.

Colorado closed the gap with a 7-0 run on a Spears free throw, and back-to-back 3-point field goals by Spears and Putnina, but Cameron scored five straight to ignite a 16-2 USC run to end the half. The guard combo of Cameron and LeNoir combined for 17 first half points on 7-of-11 shooting, including three 3-point field goals.

McFarland was able to get back on track early in the second half with six points in the opening moments, but each time USC had an answer on the other end. McFarland and junior center Kara Richards combined for six straight to knock the score down to 39-22, but Allison Jaskowiak, and Cameron answered with 3-pointers as the Trojans pushed the lead back to 47-24.

Spears then hit a 3-pointer and followed it up with back-to-back scores as the Buffs went on a 11-2 run to narrow the margin to 49-35 with 12:13 left. However, once again Cameron and Jelks hit back-to-back from downtown to push the USC lead back to 20 (55-35).

Overall Colorado committed 26 turnovers and shot just 38 percent for the game (21-of-55).

BOULDER — Senior Jackie McFarland and sophomore Aija Putnina each tallied double-doubles as Colorado defeated Rice, 72-55, in the consolation game of the 21st Annual Coors Class Saturday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Clemson won the Coors Classic with a 77-67 win over Siena in the championship game.

Putnina, making her first start since a game at Cal State Fullerton on Dec. 7, 2006, led the Buffaloes with a career-high 15 points to go along with 12 rebounds. It's her third career double-double, all three of which have come when she's in the starting lineup. Putnina also added three steals and two blocked shots.

She has a way to go to catch McFarland's numbers, as the All-Big 12 forward registered career double-double No. 39 and her second-straight as she earned All-Tournament honors for the third time. McFarland had 12 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high seven assists. She's actually been closer to a triple-double than she has a school-record eight blocks to go along with a traditional points-rebound double-double in 2005 against South Dakota State.

Colorado shot an overall season-high 47 percent from the field and spread the wealth around as four players scored in double-digits and two others had seven or more. Senior Susie Powers, held scoreless for the first three games of the season, had 11 while freshman Brittney Spears had 10 points to go with seven rebounds and six assists.

Junior Hannah Skildum had eight points and four rebounds off the bench and Kara Richards pitched in seven on a perfect 3-of-3 from the field.

"Last night our look was a result of our shots not going down, and we were also struggling on the defensive end," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "But they were excited about this game and the tournament, and they went into this game with good energy. We knew that things were going to change and I thought they responded well from a very tough loss last night."

Colorado found itself down 13-4 right out of the gate. The Buffaloes, which shot just under 40 percent last night against Siena, made just 2-of-10 to start the game.

Colorado finally found its rhythm by embarking on a 13-0 run capped off by back-to-back 3-point field goals by McFarland and Spears to take a 17-13 lead with 9:18.

The good fortunes continued for the Buffaloes after their initial struggle. Colorado made 11-of-16 to close the half (69 percent) and at one point outscored the Owls 21-2 and led by as many 10 in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado pulled away quickly, beginning the second half on an 8-2 run to take a 47-33 lead and never let the advantage dip below 11.

Rice was led by guard Kadie Riverin who had 14 points, four rebounds and three assists en route to All-Tournament team honors.

BOULDER — When Colorado needed a shot in the arm to get going against Northern Colorado, the Buffs looked to their seniors to step it up, and they answered.

Forward Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 26 points and point guard Susie Powers had 12 points, eight assists and seven rebounds to lead Colorado to a 69-60 win over Northern Colorado Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado improves to 3-2 overall while the Bears fall to 3-3.

McFarland, who became the ninth player in team history to reach 1,400 career points (1,424), sparked a 23-4 first-half run to overcome a slow start by the Buffaloes. UNC hit its first four 3-point field goal attempts and built a 19-11 lead in the first 8:56 of the game.

Coming out of a media timeout with 10:56 remaining in the first half, McFarland took over. The All-Big 12 Conference performer scored 10 straight points capped off by a 3-pointer to give CU a 21-19 lead. After Kate Kevorken tied the game at 21, CU sophomore guard Bianca Smith kept the momentum by in the home team's favor by hitting three 3-pointers in a span of 2:17. Caley Dow and Whitney Houston finished off the run with back-to-back buckets to give the Buffs a 34-23 advantage.

Powers had six of her career-high eight assists in the first 20 minutes, two of which went to McFarland during her 10-0 run. Powers, whose 16 assists against only three turnovers this season leads the Big 12, scored nine of her career-best tying 12 points in the second half.

CU built its lead to 55-41 early in the second half as McFarland and Powers each hit a pair of 3-pointers during the run. UNC answered with six straight to cut CU's lead to eight, but Powers' third 3-pointer of the half sparked a 7-0 run to give the Buffs their largest lead of the game at 62-47.

The 3-pointer was a big weapon for the Buffs against UNC. CU made 13 from downtown, its most since a similar baker's dozen against Iowa State on Jan. 10, 2007. Colorado was 8-of-21 in the first half alone, with the 21 attempts breaking the school record of 20 attempts in one half set against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004. Colorado ended up at 13-of-36, with the 36 attempts just one short of the school record for a game which is 37 against Buffalo. CU, which had 10 3-pointers against Rice on Saturday, has hit double-digits in 3-pointers in back-to-back games for the first time in school history.

Sophomore Aija Putnina had a career-high 15 rebounds and tied a personal best with four blocked shots for Colorado, which held UNC to just 34 percent from the field. McFarland finished with eight rebounds and three blocks while shooting 8-of-11 from the field.

Whitley Cox led Northern Colorado with 21 points and five assists. Courtney Stoermer had 13 points and nine rebounds while Danielle Hagen had a team-high 12 rebounds.

BOULDER — Jackie McFarland scored 21 points, Brittany Spears matched her career high with 19 and Colorado upset No. 21 Wyoming 69-55 on Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado (5-2) snapped a 23-game losing streak against ranked opponents and ended a three-game series skid against the Cowgirls. CU's last win against a ranked opponent was a 69-59 win over then-No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004. The Buffaloes were ranked 14th at the time. In ending that streak, the Buffs prevented Wyoming (6-1) from its first 7-0 start in nearly 30 years. Overall, CU has won four straight for the first time since winning five in a row in December of 2004.

Wyoming built a 14-7 lead as the Buffaloes made just three of their first 19 shots from the field. The Buffaloes then heated up as a pair of Bianca Smith 3-pointers and one by Spears capped off an 11-2 run to knot the game at 18-18. CU eventually held a 27-26 lead at the break.

Colorado opened it up early in the second half as Spears had eight points in a 10-0 run that gave CU a 50-38 lead with 10:54 remaining. Spears, who had 14 second-half points, capped the streak by hitting all three free throws after being fouled by Megan McGuffey on a 3-point attempt.

Wyoming responded to that surge with a 14-3 run that cut the Colorado lead to one at 53-52 with 5:11 left in the game. Smith answered for the Buffaloes with two consecutive 3-pointers that led to a 12-0 run, allowing CU to pull away.

McFarland had 15 points in the second half, including eight in the final 4 minutes. Smith ended with a season-high 16 points and also dished out three assists.

"I thought tonight's game came at a very pivotal time for us," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I thought that we were coming off our best performance of the year (against CSU). To host a nationally ranked Wyoming team with such experience, was very pivotal. With this game we could have gone either way and I thought the timing of the game was good. Wyoming is a great team."

Susie Powers had another solid game for Colorado finishing with a career high nine assists and tying a personal best seven rebounds. The Buffaloes, who had averaged more than 20 turnovers in their first six games, committed a season-low 13. The Buffaloes had 21 assists on their 23 baskets and have 20-plus assists in three straight games for the first time since the 2001-02 season.

"This was a huge game for us for a lot of different reasons," McFarland said. "Wyoming is just as much as an in-state rival as Colorado State is. To play them for three years and have not (defeated) them, this is definitely the best win of my career. How this team plays when we have a ranked team in here, and to get a win is a sign that we are definitely moving up."

Colorado shot 61 percent in the second half and outscored Wyoming 42-29 in the final 20 minutes. Justyna Podziemska led the Cowgirls with 19 points, and Hanna Zavec scored 16.

McFarland had 15 points in the second half, including eight in the final 4 minutes.

Wyoming was off to its best start since going 8-0 to open the 1978-79 season. Colorado also handed the Cowgirls their first loss that season, too, 81-66.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Sophomore guard Bianca Smith scored a career-high 22 points off the bench, and Colorado held off No. 20 (AP)/17 (WBCA) Vanderbilt for a 62-51 win Sunday.

Colorado (6-2) has won five straight for the first time since the 2004-05 season and has wins over ranked teams in back-to-back games for the first time since the 2002 NCAA Tournament. CU defeated No. 22/21 Wyoming at home on Wednesday 69-55. Smith had 16 points off the bench in the win over the Cowgirls.

"(This week) has been a great confidence booster for me and the the whole team heading into the rest of the preseason," Smith said. "It's also motivating for us to continue to work hard, being able to see what we can do (against a ranked team)."

Much like the Wyoming game, Colorado built a sizeable second half lead, had it almost vanish, but recover and pull away at the end. The Buffaloes led 52-32 with 7:07 to play before the Commodores went on a 17-0 run to cut the lead to 52-49 with 3:01 remaining. But Colorado made 10 consecutive free throws in the final 1:47 to secure the victory.

"We are playing with a lot of confidence right now and that shows in our execution and the way in which we have prepared," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Most importantly we've got five players on the floor that can make plays."

Jackie McFarland scored 12 points in a 27-5 run in the second half that helped the Buffaloes build a 20-point lead.

McFarland had 16 points for Colorado. Liz Sherwood led Vanderbilt (8-3) with 22 points. Redshirt freshman center Courtney Dunn, whose 6-4 size provided a key defensive match up against Sherwood, had five points and five rebounds.

Brittany Spears had eight points, a team-high seven rebounds and three steals.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half, with Vanderbilt shooting 40.9 percent from the floor and Colorado 38.9, and the Buffaloes couldn't have imagined a worse start committing eight turnovers and missing two field goals on their first 10 possessions. Despite the turnovers, Vanderbilt could only build an 8-0 lead before the Buffaloes fought back.

Smith gave CU its first points with a long two with 13:54 remaining in the half and just kept on going. Smith scored 13 of CU's first 17 points on 5-of-7 shooting and her 3-pointer at the 7:57 mark gave the Buffaloes their first lead at 17-14.

Colorado struggled with turnovers early, but so did the Commodores. The Buffaloes had 15 in the first half, but Vandy nearly countered with 14. The Commodores were held scoreless for nearly nine minutes before Sherwood and Jennifer Risper scored consecutive baskets as Vanderbilt retook the lead at 18-17.

The Buffaloes were able to get to the free-throw line in the final minutes of the half as McFarland and Hannah Skildum hit four straight to give CU a 21-18 halftime lead. Later in the half, Vanderbilt went 8-34 without scoring. Colorado took advantage, as Smith scored 13 of the team's first 17 points, capped by back-to-back 3-pointers, to give the Buffaloes a 17-14 advantage.

BOULDER - Three players scored in double-digits and a solid defensive effort propelled Colorado to its seventh-straight win with a 57-43 decision over Dartmouth Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado (8-2) has its best record to begin a season and longest winning streak since its 2003-04 NCAA Tournament team won nine-straight during a 12-2 start.

Freshman Brittany Spears had a career-high 13 points and senior Jackie McFarland recorded her 41st career double-double by netting 12 points and 11 rebounds. Junior Kara Richards had season-highs with 11 points and seven rebounds while hitting a perfect 5-of-5 from the field.

The Buffaloes won their second-straight game with defense. Colorado shot just 39 percent and equaled its lowest offensive output of the season, but the Buffs defense held its own holding the Big Green 23 percent shooting. Colorado blocked 13 Dartmouth shots, the second-highest single-game total in team history trailing only a 16-block effort against Sam Houston on Dec. 14, 2000. Spears and McFarland led the way with four blocks apiece.

CU, which gave up just 29 points against Texas Southern in its last game, held an opponent under 50 points for the fourth time this season.

Dartmouth started off on the right foot as Koren Schram's third 3-point field goal of the first half gave the Big Green a 20-15 with 10 minutes left in the period.

Colorado started to come alive immediately after thanks to its bench. Sophomore Bianca Smith answered Schram just under a minute later with a 3-pointer of her own to begin a 20-4 Buffs run over the final 9:15 of the half. Richards had four of her seven first-half points during the run, but more importantly countered Dartmouth's ability to crash the boards.

After Dartmouth held a 14-8 rebounding edge early, seven of which came on the offensive end, Richards 6-4 size allowed the Buffaloes to even out the rebounding total by halftime and would eventually claim a 43-40 edge for the game.

Spears narrowly missed a double-double by corraling nine rebounds. Freshman Courtney Dunn had five.

Dartmouth scored the first five points of the second half to narrow the gap to six at 35-29, but Smith once again answered a Big Green run hitting a 3-point field goal. CU never allowed the lead to dip below seven after that, but cold shooting on both sides prevented either team from making any type of move. Colorado was 30 percent from the field in the second half while Dartmouth shot just 23 percent.

Schram and Kristen Craft each had 11 points to lead the Big Green.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland scored 22 points and Brittany Spears added 17, guiding No. 25 Colorado to an 81-38 win over Southern Utah on Friday night.

The Buffaloes (9-2) have won eight straight games. The streak has helped vault the team into the top 25 for the first time in three years.

Southern Utah (2-9) lost its 30th straight road contest, including seven straight this season. The Thunderbirds haven't won on the road since a win over St. Mary's on Dec. 10, 2005.

With her 22-point outing, McFarland moved into eighth place on the Buffaloes' all-time scoring list. She now has 1,510 career points.

Bianca Smith came off the bench to score 12, including three 3-pointers. Aija Putnina had six points and Susie Powers dished out seven assists.

Spears entered the game as the leading scorer among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference, averaging 13.3 points. She also had five rebounds and two steals.

Kaila Goff led Southern Utah in scoring with seven points. Anne Westwood, the Thunderbirds' leading scorer, finished with six points, and didn't score her first basket until early in the second half. She also had eight rebounds.

The Buffaloes closed the first half on a 13-0 run to take a 44-20 lead into the break. It's the third straight game the Buffaloes have closed the opening half on a big spurt, going on a 20-4 run in a win over Dartmouth and a 15-0 burst against Texas Southern.

Colorado started the second half where it left off, going on a 12-0 run to up the lead to 36 points. The Buffaloes led by as many as 43 points. The Thunderbirds finished with 21 turnovers, which is one below their season average.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland had 19 points and eight rebounds to help No. 23 Colorado win its 10th straight, 65-53 over Pepperdine on Friday night at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Bianca Smith added 18 points and Brittany Spears had 16 for Colorado (11-2) which is off to its best start since beginning the 2003-04 season 12-1. The Buffaloes begin their Big 12 Conference season on Wednesday at Missouri.

"I think right now we've come in and played strong," McFarland said on CU's 11-2 start. "I couldn't be happier. This is what I came to Colorado for; the tradition of winning. I can't keep a smile off of my face." Daphanie Kennedy led Pepperdine (5-8) with 15 points. The Waves have lost six in a row, all on the road. The Waves open West Coast Conference play Jan. 10 at Gonzaga.

Trailing by 15 at the break, Kennedy hit a short jumper to get Pepperdine within 38-33 with 18:08 to play and then McFarland took over for Colorado.

McFarland muscled in four layups and Smith added a 3-pointer in a three-minute span for a 49-32 lead. Two free throws by Kennedy with 1:50 left got Pepperdine to within 61-53 with 1:50 left, before Smith's basket and two free throws put the game away for Colorado.

"All I can say is that this team has the characteristics of a top 25 team," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "They show up everyday, practice hard and the seniors are leading this team. It's nice to have the recognition and I think they have earned that. This team isn't worried about getting higher in the rankings, they just keep the same mentality they've had all season."

Pepperdine led only once when Kennedy buried a 3-pointer 39 seconds into the game. The Waves then promptly missed their next 14 shots.

While the Waves struggled, Colorado went on a 19-1 run. McFarland scored seven of the points to put the Buffaloes ahead 19-4.

Miranda Ayim's basket with 7:53 remaining capped an 11-0 run, but Smith came off the bench to hit three 3-pointers in the last seven minutes as Colorado pulled away to a 36-22 halftime lead.

Susie Powers had a career high 10 assists for Colorado, the most by a Buff since Whitney Law's school record 15 on Nov. 18, 2005 against Cal State Fullerton.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Reigning Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week Brittany Spears had a career-high 24 points to help No. 23 Colorado open the league season in style with a 70-58 decision over Missouri Wednesday evening at Mizzou Arena.

Colorado, which claimed its first win in a Big 12 road opener since winning at Baylor in 2004, registered its 11th straight win and improves to 12-2 overall. Missouri drops to 7-7, 0-1.

Spears' 24 points are the second-most by a Buffs' freshman in her conference debut, trailing only CU Athletic Hall of Famer and All-American Shelley Sheetz who had 25 against Nebraska in 1992.

Spears was 9-of-13 from the floor and added seven rebounds and two assists. She teamed with Bianca Smith for six second-half 3-pointers to allow the Buffaloes to build a lead as large as 21 late in the second half before the Tigers closed the gap late.

Colorado led by as much as nine late in the first half, but Missouri went on a 13-0 run to take a 32-28 lead with 18:17 remaining in the contest. But Smith and Spears hit five 3-pointers over the next eight minutes to spark a 27-6 CU run.

Smith finished with 14 points which included four 3-point field goals as she moved into 11th place on CU's all-time list for 3-pointers with 68.

Aija Putnina registered a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Senior Jackie McFarland had 17 points and five rebounds.

Alyssa Hollins led Missouri with 22 points, hitting 6-of-10 from the 3-point arc. Shakara Jones had 12 points and six rebounds off the bench.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland had 24 points and Brittany Spears had a double-double but it wasn't enough as No. 19 Texas A&M defeated No. 25 Colorado Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Danielle Gant scored 24 points and Tasia Starks added 18 for the Aggies (13-4, 1-2), who avoided their first 0-3 Big 12 start since the 2003-04 season.

McFarland, who became the fifth player in CU history to register 1,600 career points (she now has 1,614), hit 8-of-13 from the field and made 8-of-12 from the free-throw line while also grabbing nine rebounds and blocking two shots. Spears had 11 points and a personal-best 12 rebounds for her third career double-double.

Colorado (12-4, 1-2) led for most of the game before Morenike Atunrase's only basket of the night gave Texas A&M the lead for good, 66-64, with 1:35 left. A'Quonesia Franklin hit six free throws in the final 30 seconds to seal the win for the Aggies.

Starks hit a 3-pointer with 4:22 left to give Texas A&M a 58-57 advantage, their first lead since hitting the first basket of the game. Starks extended the lead to three with another basket, but Colorado took the lead back on two free throws each from McFarland and Spears.

Colorado led 50-41 midway through the second half when the Aggies rallied. Starks hit two buckets, Sydney Colson had a steal and a layup and Gant had four points to pull the Aggies within 55-54 with 6:16 left.

Earlier in the half, Texas A&M had cut Colorado's lead to 36-34 with 16:51 left, and the Buffaloes responded. Sophomore Bianca Smith hit two 3-pointers and McFarland and Aija Putnina hit two free throws each to stretch the advantage to 46-37 with 14:43 left.

The Aggies stayed within striking distance in the first half despite poor shooting and a 15-2 disadvantage in free-throw attempts. Texas A&M, which came into the game shooting 40 percent from the field, shot just 33 percent in the first 20 minutes, and leading scorer Tasia Starks was 2-for-9 from the field.

The Buffaloes weren't much better from the field, hitting just 37.9 percent of their shots and were 1-for-13 from behind the 3-point line. They held a 32-28 lead at the break thanks to an advantage from the line. Colorado was in the bonus with 13:32 left in the half and outscored the Aggies 9-1 from the stripe.

Colorado held a 36-18 advantage in free-throw attempts for the game.

Putnina narrowly missed a double-double of her own with 10 points and nine rebounds. Susie Powers had seven assists, three rebounds and two steals.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Jackie McFarland recorded her 42nd career double-double, in her home state, but Kansas State wasn't interested in the homecoming as the Wildcats remained perfect in the Big 12 with a 67-60 win Saturday night at Bramlage Coliseum.

Colorado dropped its third straight moving to 12-5 overall, 1-3 in league play. Kansas State wins its seventh straight overall improving to 12-5, 4-0.

McFarland scored 20 points to move into fourth place on CU's all-time scoring list (1,634) and grabbed 11 rebounds to become the third player in team history to reach 900 boards (908).

Kimberly Dietz led four Kansas State double-digit scorers with 18 points, hitting three 3-pointers. The Wildcats were sharp from the outside hitting 7-of-15 3-pointers in the game, and 4-of-6 in the second half.

Brittany Spears had 16 points and hit 2-of-6 from 3-point range. Overall the Buffs struggled from downtown hitting just 4-of-16 3-point attempts.

Spears hit three of her first four shots of the second half, including two straight 3-pointers as the Buffaloes led 43-41 at the 14:40 mark. Kansas State then took over hitting three straight 3-pointers, including two from Dietz, as the Wildcats embarked on a 21-4 run to pull away.

Aija Putnina had 12 points and seven rebounds. Courtney Dunn had six points and five rebounds off the bench. Shalee Lehning had 11 points, 11 rebounds and eight assists for Kansas State.

Colorado held an early 12-6 lead, but Kansas State went on an 11-0 run to put the Wildcats up 17-12 with 10:16 left in the first half.

The Buffaloes battled back behind 13 first-half points from McFarland and her first two 3-pointers in the game tied the score at 25 with 4:55 remaining. CU briefly took the lead back at 29-28 when Dunn scored on a put back. Kansas State responded and closed the half with a 3-pointer from Dietz to take a 35-31 halftime lead.

CU struggled from the outside early making just 1-of-11 from 3-point range in the first half. The Buffaloes were able to recover by dominating in the paint. Colorado held a 23-14 rebounding edge and had 10 second-chance points to just two for Kansas State.

LUBBOCK, Texas – Senior Jackie McFarland tied a season-high 28 points, but cold shooting doomed Colorado as Texas Tech claimed a 62-44 decision in a Big 12 Conference game Saturday afternoon at the United Spirit Arena

Colorado falls to 13-6 overall, 2-4 in league play as the Buffs haven't won at a Big 12 Southern Division school in their last 12 tries dating back to a win at Baylor in 2004. Texas Tech improves to 14-6, 2-4.

The Buffaloes suffered their lowest point output of the season due to shooting just 24 percent from field. McFarland hit 57 percent, making 8-of-14, but the rest of the team hit just 13 percent (5-of-40) as the Buffs had their lowest team total since making just 13-of-56 (.232) against Texas in 2005.

McFarland was the only CU player to hit a field goal in the final 28 minutes of the contest and had 28 of CU's final 31 points. She hit 10-of-11 free throws leaving her just two shy of Bridget Turner's school record of 494 set from 1985-89.

Despite a heavily taped shooting hand, Aija Putnina scored Colorado's first eight points, hitting her first three field goal attempts and the Buffs had it knotted up at 10 early.

Texas Tech's Dominic Seals, who led the Lady Raiders with 21 points and nine rebounds, then began to take over. She scored four straight points and a Raquel Christian 3-pointer gave Tech a 17-10 lead. Colorado answered with the next five, thanks to a Bianca Smith put back and three free throws from Putnina and McFarland, but the Lady Raiders one-upped the CU run scoring nine straight, six coming from Seals, to give Texas Tech a 26-15 lead.

McFarland brought CU back scoring the next seven points, including a 3-pointer, which halted Tech's 11-0 run, but Seals scored the next four points and Christian hit another 3-pointer to give Tech a 35-26 halftime lead.

Texas Tech then put the game away by opening the second half on a 12-0 run. The Buffaloes missed their first 10 shots of the period and didn't score until a McFarland layup with 11:05 remaining in the game. Free throws from Brittany Spears and Britney Blythe accounted for Colorado's lone scoring other than McFarland in the second half.

Putnina finished with nine points and six rebounds. Spears had six rebounds but made only 1-of-11 from the field scoring four points, the low of her young career.

AMES, Iowa – Colorado struggled offensively for the second-straight outing as Iowa State claimed a 65-45 win over the Buffaloes in Big 12 Conference action Wednesday night at Hilton Coliseum.

Colorado drops its third straight on the road after beginning the season 4-1 away from Boulder, falling to 13-7 overall and 2-5 in the Big 12. Iowa State breaks its own three-game skid improving to 13-6, 2-4.

The Buffaloes shot just 31 percent from the field (15-of-49) and were held under 50 points for the second-straight game. The last time CU endured back-to-back sub-50 point games was during the 1983-84 season in losses to Colorado State (48-63) and UNLV (41-67).

Senior Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 18 points as she was the Buffs' only double-digit scorer for the second-straight game. McFarland made 7-of-13 from the floor as she has now shot 50 percent or better in 17 of 20 games this season, but the rest of the Buffs' roster was just 8-of-36 (.222) on the evening.

McFarland became CU's all-time leader in free-throws made by making 3-of-3 from the line to move her career total to 495. She passes Bridget Turner who made 494 from 1985-89.

Sophomore guard Whitney Houston scored nine points off the bench hitting three of CU's five 3-point field goals. For Houston, it was her highest point total since scoring 11 in a home loss to Siena on Nov. 23.

Colorado opened with an early 12-9 lead before Iowa State heated up from the field. Heather Ezell hit a 3-pointer with 10:58 remaining in the first half to tie the game and spark a 21-6 Cyclones' run. Iowa State hit four of its six first-half 3-point shots during that run and held a 21-13 advantage on the boards.

The Buffaloes were able to cut the lead to 10 at halftime after Houston hit her first 3-point field goal since November and Hannah Skildum hit a pair of free throws as ISU took a 35-25 lead into the lockerroom.

Iowa State put the game away with an 18-4 run to open the second half. The Cyclones hit 10 of their first 19 3-point attempts before missing their last four to finish the game at 43 percent.

Amanda Nisleit led ISU's balanced attack with 16 points. Alison Lacey and Kelsey Bole each had 15.

Iowa State dominated on the boards, outrebounding Colorado 43-27. Bole led the way with eight while Nisleit had seven.

BOULDER — In a game of runs, Nebraska had a couple more than Colorado and at the right time as well.

Brittany Spears and Bianca Smith each had 19 points but a 19-7 Nebraska run to end the game gave the Huskers an 80-71 Big 12 Conference win Wednesday evening at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Colorado (13-8, 2-7 Big 12) trailed by two at the half (36-35), but Spears scored six points during a 12-5 run to open the second period, giving the Buffaloes a 47-41 lead. Nebraska (16-6, 6-3) answered with six straight points to tie the game, five of which were scored by Kelsey Griffin who led all players with 25 points.

The Buffaloes struggled on the inside as All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland was held to just one free throw and just 0-of-2 from the field. For McFarland, who entered the game averaging 18.9 points per game, it was her lowest output since being held scoreless in her first ever Big 12 game at Nebraska on Jan. 5, 2005. McFarland did have 10 rebounds for the 45th double-digit rebounding performance of her career.

Although McFarland was held in check, other Buffs made sure it was a competitive game all the way to the end. Spears was 6-of-14 from the field and also had eight rebounds, six assists and two blocks. Smith, making her second start of the season, tied a career high with five 3-point field goals and was 7-of-15 from the floor overall.

CU's bench also provided a big spark. With McFarland being double-teamed the whole night, junior forward Caley Dow had her best Big 12 game of 2008 registering season-highs with eight points and seven rebounds in 30 minutes. Sophomore guard Whitney Houston had 10 points, her most since she had 11 against Siena on Nov. 23, with two assists and one steal.

Colorado held a 64-61 lead with 3:51 left after Smith layup, but it quickly vanished when Yvonne Turner hit her third 3-pointer of the night to tie the game. Danielle Page gave Nebraska the lead on a turn-around jumper and on the next possession, Turner stole the ball from Houston and took it all the way in to give the Huskers a 68-64 advantage. Griffin scored the next time down the floor for Nebraska and the Huskers put the game away with free throws hitting 10-of-12 in the final 1:37.

After falling behind 11-4 to open the game, Colorado staged back with a 15-0 run. Smith hit three consecutive 3-point attempts on the run and good ball movement allowed for easy layups by Houston, Dow and Spears. Nebraska trimmed the lead to four at 19-15 before an 8-0 run gave CU its largest lead of the game at 27-15.

However the lead didn't last as Nebraska hit five 3-pointers in the final 5:21 of the first half during a 21-8 run to take a one-point lead at halftime.

NORMAN, Okla. - Oklahoma's Courtney and Ashley Paris combined for 48 points and 20 rebounds to lead No. 10 Oklahoma to an 82-66 win over Colorado in Big 12 Conference action Saturday night at the Lloyd Noble Center.

Jackie McFarland and Brittany Spears each had 19 points to pace the Buffaloes (13-10, 2-8 Big 12) who have dropped five straight and eight of their last nine. Oklahoma improves to 17-4, 7-2 in league play.

Courtney Paris had a game-high 30 points and 14 rebounds for the 87th double-double of her career. Sister Ashley had 18 points and six rebounds. The twins made 22-of-35 shots (.629) as Oklahoma outscored CU 50-22 in the paint. As a team, the Sooners shot 53 percent from the floor.

The Buffaloes kept the game close in the first half. After withstanding a 10-2 OU run to open the game, Colorado responded with a Spears bucket, a Bianca Smith 3-pointer and a Caley Dow putback to close the gap to three at 12-9. Oklahoma pushed its lead back to seven at 18-11 on one of Courtney Paris' 14 field goals, but CU went on a 10-4 run with 3-pointers from Spears and Courtney Dunn as the Sooners led just 22-21 with 8:03 remaining in the half.

Oklahoma built its lead back up to nine at 35-26 with just 2:25 remaining, but CU wouldn't quit. McFarland made back-to-back shots along with a free throw as the Sooners took a 37-31 lead at the break.

Oklahoma scored the first six points of the second half on two Courtney Paris layups and another by Ashley. The Buffaloes made one last good run as Smith hit 3-pointers on back-to-back possessions to bring CU to within six at 45-39 with 16:56 remaining.

The Sooners scored seven straight, capped off by a Nyeshia Stevenson 3-pointer, to take a 52-39 advantage and never let the lead dip back below double-digits.

Spears had five rebounds and two blocks to go along with her 19 points, equalling her scoring output from the Nebraska game on Feb. 6. Her 307 points on the season are the most by a CU freshman since Erin Scholz had 343 in 1993-94.

McFarland had seven rebounds and was 8-of-14 from the floor as she became the eighth player in team history to reach 600 field goals (601). Smith finished with 15 points, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range as she moved into ninth place on CU's all-time list for 3-pointers with 86.

The Buffaloes received a scoring boost off the bench from Dow and Dunn. Dow had seven points and tied a season high with seven rebounds while Dunn had six points and five boards.

Stevenson finished with 16 points for the Sooners while Danielle Robinson had 11.

BOULDER — Sophomore Bianca Smith scored a career-high 26 points and tied several long-ball records as Colorado broke a six-game losing streak by defeating Texas 67-52 in Big 12 Conference action Saturday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado, which snapped an eight-game skid against Texas, moves to 14-11 overall and 3-9 in Big 12 play. Texas drops to 16-9, 4-7 in the Big 12.

Smith connected on a school-record tying seven 3-pointers and hit all five of her free-throw attempts as she passed her previous career high of 22 set earlier this year against Vanderbilt. She also tied school marks for 3-pointers made and attempted in one half hitting 5-of-9 in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado led 38-31 early in the second half, but Texas responded with an 8-0 run. Ashley Lindsey scored a layup in transition and Carla Cortijo converted a 3-point play to give the Longhorns their only lead of the game at 39-38 with 13:22 remaining.

Sophomore Aija Putnina gave the lead back to the Buffs at 40-39 on a jumper from the foul-line area, and then on the next possession Smith hit her sixth 3-pointer of the night, was fouled by Crystal Boyd, and completed the 4-point play to put CU up 44-39.

Erneisha Bailey scored for Texas on the other end, but Kara Richards answered for CU on a put-back and Smith then hit her record-tying 3-pointer to give the Buffs a 49-41 advantage.

From that point on, Colorado survived on rebounds and free throws. Both teams were cold in the second half shooting an identical 7-of-29 from the field (24 percent). The Buffaloes nearly doubled up the Longhorns on the boards in the second half (32-17) and made 17-of-19 foul shots including their last 13 in the final three minutes.

Colorado hit 22-of-29 free throws overall and held a 50-29 advantage on the boards led by three Buffs in double-digits. Putnina led the way with a career-high tying 15 rebounds, six on the offensive end, to go along with 14 points. Senior Jackie McFarland notched her 44th career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds. Freshman Brittany Spears pulled down 12 rebounds for the second-straight game.

Texas pressured the Buffaloes enough to cause 10 first-half turnovers and allow the Longhorns to respond to several CU runs. Smith hit two early 3-pointers and junior Caley Dow put back a Smith miss as the Buffaloes took a 14-8 lead at the 10:44 mark of the first half. But Texas responded with a 10-4 run to tie the game at 18.

Smith had three 3-pointers in the final six minutes of the half to give the Buffaloes a 34-29 lead at the break.

Brittainey Raven led the Longhorns with 16 points. Cortijo had 12 and Lindsey pitched in 11.

BOULDER - Bianca Smith hit one of the biggest 3-pointers of her young career. Too bad the Colorado sophomore can't remember it. Smith's long jumper from the corner broke a tie game and lifted the Colorado Buffaloes to a 73-68 win over No. 15 Kansas State on Saturday night.

Yet she couldn't recall one detail of it. The shot remained a blur. "I think there was so much adrenaline, I forgot those last few minutes," said Smith, who finished with 17 points, hitting five 3-pointers. "It felt great to come back and hit the big shots late in the game."

That's what Colorado needed to beat its third ranked team this season. Colorado (15-11, 4-9 Big 12) has now won two straight after dropping six in a row.

"It's nice to get our swagger back," said Jackie McFarland, who scored 17 of her 19 points in the second half.

The Wildcats (18-8, 10-3) have lost two in a row, and had their seven-game road winning streak halted. Kansas State also tumbled out of a tie with Baylor for the conference lead.

Kansas State coach Deb Patterson had a simple explanation for the loss — defense. She wasn't pleased with the fact Colorado shot nearly 47 percent from the field. She also blamed the Wildcats' woes on foul trouble. Marlies Gipson, the team's second-leading scorer, played just 17 minutes due to foul trouble, and eventually fouled out with 5:49 remaining. She scored just six points, all in the first half.

Ashley Sweat was in a similar predicament and fouled out late in the game after scoring 15 points.

The Wildcats were led in scoring by Shalee Lehning, who finished with 19 points. Kimberly Dietz had 16, hitting four 3-pointers.

Part of the Wildcats' problem was trying to guard McFarland. The Buffaloes senior made a decision to drive more to the hoop after having more assists (5) than points (2) in the opening 20 minutes.

With Kansas State keeping a close watch on McFarland, Brittany Spears and Smith were the beneficiaries. Spears finished with a team-high 20 points, hitting four 3-pointers.

"They're in the gym all the time and they can shoot the 3," Colorado coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I thought they showed a lot of mental toughness down the stretch."

Spears' 3-pointer with 1:44 remaining momentarily gave the Buffaloes a 66-64 lead, but then Lehning tied it up with two free throws.

Smith hit a 3-pointer with just under a minute remaining to give the Buffaloes a 69-66 lead.

After Lehning glided in for a layup with 44 seconds left, the Buffaloes worked the shot clock down and Whitney Houston launched a 3-pointer that bounded off the back of the rim.

McFarland grabbed the rebound, went back up and was fouled as she made the shot, completing a three-point play with 16.1 seconds left to seal a win for Colorado. With the three-point play, she passed former CU All-American Shelley Sheetz for third place on the Buffs' all-time scoring list. McFarland now has 1,778 points in 113 career games.

LINCOLN, Neb. -- Kelsey Griffin had a game-high 26 points to lead Nebraska to a 63-55 win over Colorado in Big 12 action Sunday afternoon.

Colorado (15-13, 4-11 Big 12) had 14 points and 11 rebounds from freshman Brittany Spears and senior Jackie McFarland scored 13 points while grabbing four rebounds and dishing out two assists.

Griffin, who also had 10 rebounds, did most of her damage down low and on the line. The junior forward had eight field goals and was 10-of-15 from the line as the Huskers took advantage of constant CU foul trouble, translating into 17 free throws compared to just five for Colorado.

Danielle Page, who had 13 points and six rebounds, joined Griffin to cause problems for the Buffaloes' front line. McFarland had two early fouls and added a third late in the first half, but had a strong second period scoring nine points on 4-of-6 shooting. Kara Richards provided a strong effort off the bench with six points and two rebounds, but also was hampered with foul trouble, fouling out with under 11 minutes left.

Nebraska (19-10, 8-7) started the game on a 7-2 run, but the Buffaloes battled back. Spears stole the ball and went coast-to-coast for the layup and CU followed with back-to-back jumpers from Aija Putnina and Susie Powers to close the lead to 9-8.

Shortly after, foul problems began to hinder the Buffaloes. McFarland picked up her second foul at the 14:25 mark of the first half and the Huskers held a 13-8 lead. A long Bianca Smith 3-pointer at 12:28 put CU within three points at 15-12, but 11 seconds later Richards picked up her second foul.

Nebraska took advantage, embarking on a 14-5 run. Kala Kuhlmann came off the bench and hit a pair of 3-pointers for the Huskers, and Griffin hit 5-of-6 from the line as Nebraska built its largest lead at 29-17 with 5:56 remaining.

The Buffaloes closed the gap by holding Nebraska scoreless over the final 3:07 of the period. CU outscored the Huskers 8-3 in the final 5:44 as Nebraska led 32-25 at halftime.

Nebraska built its lead back up to double-digits by starting the second half on a 7-3 run as the Huskers led 39-28. The Buffaloes were able to crawl back with help from its bench. Whitney Houston scored consecutive baskets off turnovers and scored on a layup and two free throws as CU cut the lead to six at 43-37.

Richards then picked up her fifth foul which led to another Nebraska run. Griffin and Page hit consecutive baskets on a 5-0 run that put Nebraska up 48-37.

Colorado battled back late in the second half. Houston, who scored all eight of her points off the bench in the second half, scored consecutive baskets again to cut the Nebraska lead to five at 56-51 with 2:40 remaining. However the Buffs couldn't get any closer. Griffin answered Houston's run with a field goal and the Huskers hit five free throws in the closing minutes to seal the win.

BOULDER -- Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 25 points and grabbed 14 rebounds to lead Colorado to a 63-47 Big 12 Conference win over Missouri on Senior Night at the Coors Events Center.

With the win Colorado improves to 16-13 overall and finishes ninth in the regular season Big 12 standings at 5-11. The Buffaloes will play No. 8 Iowa State, which lost to Nebraska 55-45 Wednesday night, in the first round of the 2008 Big 12 Championship on Tuesday, March 11, at 11 a.m. MST at the Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City.

McFarland carried the load for the Buffaloes on an off night offensively for both teams. She was 6-of-11 from the field and made all 12 free throw attempts. As a team the Buffs shot just 34.5 percent overall (19-of-55), but Missouri had an even harder time, making just 25 percent from the floor (15-of-59).

Colorado led by eight at halftime (29-21), but saw the lead dwindle to just two as the Buffaloes could only muster two field goals -- both by McFarland -- and two free throws in the first 10:57 of the second half. McFarland scored on a put-back of a Bianca Smith miss with 9:02 remaining in the game that jump started a 21-6 CU run that allowed the Buffaloes to pull away.

Playing in her final regular season home game, McFarland became the first player in team history to record 500 points in three different seasons. She notched her 45th career double-double and in the process became the third player in team history to reach 1,000 career rebounds.

CU's inside presence was crucial, because the outside game struggled the entire night. The Buffs hit just 2-of-16 from 3-point range, tying a season low for 3-pointers made in a game. McFarland's performance was complimented well by junior Kara Richards who had eight points and a season-high 11 rebounds. Freshman Brittany Spears added 10 points, five rebounds and three assists.

"I'm not sure why the (offensive) execution wasn't there tonight," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Maybe the substitutions didn't allow us to get into a flow, but we had some good individual performances tonight. Kara and Jackie both did a good job and our interior game was good tonight."

Colorado dominated the boards holding a 51-37 edge over the Tigers who finish last in the Big 12 standings at 2-14, 9-20 overall.

"We rebounded the ball well, but when you miss as many shots as we did, you should get some rebounds," McConnell-Miller said. "It was a pretty poor offensive night from our execution to our finishes. I give credit to Missouri, they played good defense and got inside Bianca (Smith), they banged Spears, but they didn't double-team Jackie and she got some good looks and took advantage."

Missouri was led by Jessra Johnson who had 24 points and 11 rebounds. MU's leading scorer Alyssa Hollins pitched in 16.

BOULDER—Brittany Spears had a double-double and Jackie McFarland scored 21 points to lead Colorado to an 82-68 win over Gonzaga in the second round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) Monday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center. Colorado, which wins its first season game since the 2003 NCAA Tournament, improves to 17-14 and will host Villanova University in a third round game on Thursday, March 27, at 7 p.m. Gonzaga's season ends at 25-9.

Spears had 22 points and 10 rebounds, notching her seventh double-double of the season and third in her last five games. McFarland nearly had a double-double of her own grabbing nine rebounds, but on a larger scale, she passed Tera Bjorklund for second place on CU's all-time scoring list. McFarland, now with 1,878 career points, also had four assists, two blocks and one steal.

Any signs of rust after CU's 13-day layoff since the Big 12 Championship were quickly whisked away as the Buffaloes made 11 of their first 15 shots and stormed out to leads of 16-6 and 27-13. Colorado moved the ball well in the opening half led by sophomore Bianca Smith who had matched her career high in assists (four) in the first four minutes of the game and eventually ended with a personal best six. Smith also came up big on the offensive end nailing 4-of-6 from downtown for 12 points.

Like all good teams, the reigning West Coast Conference champion Bulldogs fought their way back into the game. CU's shooting cooled enough for Gonzaga to embark on a 16-6 run that cut the CU lead to 35-31 with 2:51 left in the first half. The Buffaloes answered with a pair of jumpers by McFarland and a long 3-pointer by Dina Piterniece — just her second field goal of the season — as CU led 42-35 at the half.

The Buffaloes put themselves in good position to close out the game early in the second half. Gonzaga cut the lead to 48-43 with 15:04 remaining, Spears scored five straight points and Aija Putnina nailed a 3-point lead as the Buffs built their lead back up to double-digits at 56-43. CU's lead remained above eight points for the remainder of the contest.

Colorado played well defensively, limiting the Bulldogs to just 37 percent from the field. Offensively, the Buffs shot 51 percent (33-of-65), their best mark since hitting 52 percent at Missouri on Jan. 9.

Colorado moved around its lineup for the first time since the Oklahoma State game on Feb. 2 with Kara Richards joining McFarland, Spears, Smith and point guard Susie Powers. Richards responded with six points, nine rebounds, two blocks and did not commit a turnover in 19 minutes. Putnina, who had started the last 27 games, contributed seven points and five rebounds off the bench.

The Buffs bench also was sparked by sophomore point guard Whitney Houston who had nine points and four assists while hitting 4-of-6 from the field...and she sang the national anthem before the game.

BOULDER—Senior forward Jackie McFarland played perhaps the best game of her career—and made sure it wasn't her last—in carrying the University of Colorado women's basketball team to a thrilling 64-58 come-from-behind victory over the Villanova Wildcats Thursday night, putting the Buffaloes in the Elite Eight of the 2008 Women's NIT.

McFarland scored a season-high 32 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, keeping the Buffs afloat during a game when CU fell behind early, and head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller may have found a closer in freshman forward Brittany Spears, who scored 11 of her 13 points in the last 3:16 of the game to put away the Wildcats.

"I think for the rest of the night and tomorrow people are going to ask me, 'how did that happen?' McConnell-Miller said. "The only thing that I can say is that Brittany Spears decided to play for the last three minutes."

Behind 55-44 late in the game, Colorado outscored Villanova 20-3 over the last 5:42, sparked by three straight field goals—two of them three-pointers—by Spears.

"The last three minutes I played better [overall] and played better defensively," Spears said. "I made some big shots and that was the difference. It hit me when we were losing and the conditioning kicked in." The Wildcats, who had made an impressive 22-of-41 field goals (53.7 percent) through most of the game, missed their last nine shots of the contest.

The Buffs came out of the gates cold in the first half, missing their first eight shots of the game before McFarland converted on a lay up 4:44 into the game. Villanova forward Stacie Witman provided all of the early scoring for the Wildcats, converting her first four field goals, including three behind the arc, to put her team up 11-2 in the early stages. Witman would end up scoring 13 of Villanova's first 15 points and finished with a team-high 20 points in the game.

McFarland basically carried the Buffs by herself for much of the game as Colorado persevered through a poor shooting performance, especially in the first half when CU made just 10-of-32 field goals. McFarland, who surpassed 1,900 career points in her career (1,910; second all-time), scored 10 of the Buffs' first 12 points in each half to keep them within striking distance. She also set a school record for free throws made in a game, converting on 15-of-16 on the night.

"Everyone was so determined; our motto was 'You have to find a way,'" McFarland said. "They were taking away our outside shots, so we had to go with what worked. Once Brittany started hitting those shots it made it easier on us."

Timely baskets by Colorado prevented Villanova to make any significant runs after the 11-2 setback to start the game. The Buffs also didn't turn the ball over in the first half, and for only the third time all season they did not put their opponent on the free throw line in the first half.

Villanova played a conservative game during much of the second half, milking much of the play clock each possession; but it was the Buffs who found themselves running the clock down in the final minute.
