Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller (2nd Year at CU, 13-23/8th Year Overall, 104-111)
Assistant Coaches: Tom McConnell, Bethann Shapiro Ord, Aisha Veasley
Director of Operations: Carla Morrow

THE GAME: The University of Colorado will host Colorado State University on Wednesday, Nov. 29, at 7 p.m. at the Coors Events Conference Center.

BROADCAST: All Colorado women's basketball regular and post season games are broadcast live on KKZN AM 760, Boulder's Progressive Talk station. Mike Rice will handle play by play duties and is joined by USA Basketball's Carol Callan with the color commentary. The CU Journalism school is planning to televise the game live on campus cable. Live video streaming of Wednesday's battle will be available to Stampede Online subscribers at CUBuffs.com.

ABOUT THE BUFFALOES: Colorado is 4-2 and off to its best start since 2003-04 when the Buffaloes started 5-1 through six games. The 2003-04 season also marks CU's last appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Colorado won both of its Coors Classic Tournament games last weekend defeating the University of Nevada, 80-60, and the University of Charlotte, 78-65. It's the first time the Buffaloes have won back-to-back games since the 2004-05 season, when CU put together five-straight wins to close out nonconference play. A win against Colorado State on Wednesday would put CU more than half way to its 2005-06 season total of nine (9-21).

Junior forward Jackie McFarland has had a fantastic start to the season. She is averaging 21.5 points and 11.2 rebounds per game -- both marks rank second in the Big 12 Conference -- while shooting a league-best 69 percent from the field (45-of-65). She was named Big 12 Player of the Week for the season's opening weekend (Nov. 13) and named to the Coors Classic All-Tournament Team. She opened the season with three-straight double-doubles and has a league-best five through six games. It is only the third time in CU history that a player has began the season with three-straight double-doubles, and McFarland is two of those instances (2005-06). The only other player to start a season with three straight is CU's all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor who did it in 1982-83.

Senior guard/forward Jasmina Ilic is second on the team in scoring at 12.5 points per game and has a team-best 10 3-point field goals. She is coming off consecutive 14-point performances at the Coors Classic and had one of her best rebounding weekends as a Buff, averaging 4.5 boards for the two games. Senior guard Susie Powers has dished out 13 assists and is averaging 3.3 points over the first six games.

Four freshman Buffs are contributing significant minutes, just a handful of games into their collegiate careers. Redshirt freshman guard Bianca Smith has made four starts and is averaging 6.5 points per game, including five 3-point field goals. Freshman Whitney Houston started both of the Coors Classic games and responded by averaging 11.5 points on 73 percent shooting (8-of-11) and four assists. She tied a team season-high with six assists against Charlotte and ranks third among freshmen in the Big 12 with 3.0 assists per game. Fellow Memphis, Tenn., native Candace Rucker has been one of the first players off the bench for Colorado and is averaging 5.2 points, 3.5 rebounds and 1.2 steals per game.

Forward Aija Putnina has moved into the starting lineup with the foot injury to Kara Richards (see note below) and had a memorable weekend at the Coors Classic. She recorded double-doubles in both games, becoming the first freshman to achieve that feat in back-to-back games since Sabrina Scott did it at the end of the 1999-2000 season and only the fourth time overall since 1993-94 when Erin Scholz did it twice. Putnina had 12 points and a game-high 13 rebounds against Nevada and 14 points and 10 rebounds against Charlotte, earning Coors Classic All-Tournament team honors.

RICHARDS OUT 4-TO-6 WEEKS WITH FOOT FRACTURE: Center Kara Richards will miss the next 4-to-6 weeks after being diagnosed with a fracture to the fourth metatarsal of her left foot on Nov. 23. The fracture is on the same foot, but a different bone than the injury that forced her to miss the 2005-06 campaign. Richards suffered a Jones Fracture -- an injury to the fifth metatarsal -- three days before the 2005-06 season opener. Unlike last season, her injury will not require surgery or even a cast. Richards ranked third on the team in scoring at 8.8 points per contest through three games and was shooting 56.5 percent from the field (13-of-23).

McFARLAND BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Jackie McFarland was named the Phillips 66 Big 12 Women's Basketball Player of the Week by a media voting panel on Nov. 13 for the opening weekend of games.

This is McFarland's third career weekly honor from the Big 12 as she was twice named the league's Rookie of the Week during the 2004-05 season.

McFarland averaged 22 points, 12 rebounds and two steals while shooting 71 percent from the field (17-of-24) in games against San Francisco and No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt over the weekend.

McFarland had 17 points on 7-of-10 shooting and 12 rebounds in the season-opening 62-56 win over San Francisco. She scored a game-high 27 points and pulled down 12 rebounds along with two assists and three steals against No. 16/15 Vanderbilt. McFarland recorded double-doubles in both games for the 20th and 21st of her career. She had nine points -- a 3-pointer and two conventional 3-point plays -- in the final minute against VU as Colorado nearly erased a 17-point second half deficit.

THE COACH: Kathy McConnell-Miller is in her second season as Colorado's head coach and in her eighth season at the helm of an FAMILIAR FACES: Colorado State's colors are green and gold, but the coaching staff has a black and gold history. CSU head coach Jen (Tubergen) Warden played for the Buffaloes on their 1989 Big Eight Championship team and was a CU assistant under Ceal Barry from 1992-02. Warden also has two assistant coaches on her staff with recent CU ties. Second-year assistant Randie Wirt was a four-year letterwinner for the Buffs from 2001-04 and first-year assistant Linda Lappe was also a four-year letterwinner from 1999-03.

CU's Kathy McConnell-Miller coached against Warden as Western Athletic Conference rivals while McConnell-Miller was at Tulsa and Warden was at Boise State. McConnell-Miller held a 4-2 edge in meetings between those two teams.

CU sophomore Hannah Skildum will also meet up with some former AAU rivals from the land of 10,000 Lakes. Skildum, a native of North Oaks, Minn., played with the North Tartan AAU club matching up against CSU's Minneapolis area natives, Kelly Jo Mullaney, Emily Neal and Kelly Finley, who all played for the Minnesota Metro Stars.

ON THIS DATE: Colorado is 10-1 all time in games played on Nov. 29, including a 7-0 mark at home. CU's last Nov. 29 game was a 74-63 win over California in the championship game of the 2003 Coors Classic. CU's only loss on Nov. 29 came against at Texas Tech -- then of the old Southwest Conference -- 69-58, in 1985.

MILESTONE WIN ARRIVED, ONE TO COME: With its 78-65 win over Charlotte in the Coors Classic, Colorado won its 300th game at the Coors Events Conference Center, improving to 300-88 (.773) all-time at the facility.

One more win will give the Buffaloes 600 in this the 33rd year of varsity women's basketball at Colorado. The Buffs enter Wednesday's game at 599-355 (.628) all-time.

CLIMBING THE 3-POINT LADDER: Jasmina Ilic hit three 3-point fields goals at the Coors Classic to move her career total to 104 which is seventh on CU's all-time list. She needs five more to reach Alexis Felts (1994-98) who is in sixth with 109.

Anna Nedovic needs three 3-point field goals to reach 50. She has a shot at reaching the career top 10, needing 27 3-pointers which would be a career season high.

CLOSING IN ON 1,000 POINTS: Jasmina Ilic and Jackie McFarland are both well on pace to reach the 1,000 point mark this season and would become the 19th and 20th Buffs to reach that milestone. They would be the first pair of teammates to hit the mark in the same season since Britt Hartshorn, Jenny Roulier and Mandy Nightingale hit 1,000 within two weeks of each other in November 2001. McFarland needs 84 points as she is 25th on CU's all-time scoring list with 916 points. Using her season average of 21.5 ppg, she would reach the mark in about four games (Dec. 9, vs. Oregon). Ilic needs 205 points, which by using her season average of 12.5 ppg, she would reach around the game at the University of Kansas on Feb. 6.

MORE NUMBERS FOR MCFARLAND: McFarland began the sea-

NCAA Division I program. She is 13-23 with the Buffaloes and has an overall head coaching record of 104-111.

ABOUT THE RAMS: Colorado State is 2-3 overall, coming off a runner-up finish in its own Coors Rocky Mountain Invitational. The Rams defeated the University of Idaho, 88-68, on Nov. 24 before falling to Western Carolina University, 64-60, on Nov. 25. One of CSU's losses came at the University of San Francisco, 62-51, on Nov. 17, a team the Buffaloes defeated in their season opener, 62-56 on Nov. 10. The Rams are 0-2 away from Fort Collins this season and have lost six straight on the road dating back to a 68-55 win at San Diego State on Feb. 4, 2006.

CSU's back court play has been solid early on as their starting three-guard set has combined for 51 points per game or 73.4 percent of the Rams' offense. Freshman guard Kelly Jo Mullaney leads the Rams in scoring at 19.4 points per game and is complemented by senior Molly Nohr at 16.4 points per game and junior Sara Hunter at 15.2 per contest. Nohr is second on the team in rebounds (7.2 rpg) and leads CSU in assists (23) and steals (10). Senior center Marilyn Moulton leads the Rams in rebounds with 10.2 per game.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be the 38th meeting between Colorado and Colorado State, the second-most played non-conference series for the Buffaloes in team history (Wyoming-41). CU holds a 27-10 series lead over the Rams and is 18-2 all-time against CSU in Boulder. CSU won last season's meeting in Fort Collins, 86-83, but the Buffaloes have won the last two in Boulder including a 83-77 decision on Dec. 8, 2004. CSU has a slight 4-3 edge since the two teams resumed their yearly rivalry in 1999.

son with three-straight double-doubles, equalling her output from the 2005-06 season. The only other player in CU history to record three-straight double-doubles to open a season is CU's all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor, who did it in 1982-83. She now has double-doubles in five of six games, which leads the Big 12 Conference.

McFarland's 24 career double-doubles are third on the CU charts and her 24 double-digit rebounding games rank fifth on CU's all-time list.

McFarland became the 17th player in CU history to reach 500 rebounds, surpassing the mark during the win over Nevada on Nov. 24. She has 512 in her career and needs 135 to move into CU's Top 10 list. She is ninth on CU's career list for blocked shots with 69. McFarland needs 31 to reach 100 and would be just the sixth Buff to reach the century mark.

COME FROM BEHIND WIN BREAKS LONG DROUGHT: CU's 62-56 win over San Francisco broke a 26-game losing streak when the Buffaloes trailed at halftime dating back to a 56-51 win at Missouri on Jan. 18, 2005. USF led 30-26 at the break, but the Buffs outscored the Dons 36-26 in the second half.

STILL IN NEED OF A WIN OVER A RANKED TEAM: After its competitive 81-76 loss to No. 16/15 Vanderbilt, Colorado is still searching for its first win over a ranked team in 17 tries dating back to January of 2004. The Buffaloes last win over a ranked opponent was a 69-59 decision at No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004. CU was ranked No. 14 at the time. The last time CU was unranked and defeated a ranked opponent was in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament when the Buffaloes knocked off No. 12 North Carolina 86-67.

BUFFS IN OPENERS: Colorado is 28-5 (.844) all-time in season openers and a whopping 32-1 (.970) all-time in home openers. The Buffs' lone loss in a season-opening home game was a 77-63 setback to Michigan on Nov. 21, 1999. CU has won seven straight season debuts and 20 of its last 21 with the lone loss in that span coming at Denver on Nov. 19, 1999.

NOVEMBER SUCCESS: Fast starts in November are common for Colorado. The Buffaloes are 94-27 (.777) all-time in the month of November and a stunning 77-12 (.865) at the Coors Events Center. CU is 20-5 at home in November since 2000.

EARLY START: The Nov. 10 start against USF was the third earliest start for the Buffs and the second earliest home game in their 33-year history. CU's earliest start came in season No. 2 as the Buffs dropped an 81-80 decision at Nebraska on Nov. 6, 1976. CU's earliest start at the Coors Events Center is much more recent as the Buffs hosted Oral Roberts in a preseason WNIT game on Nov. 9, 2001, a 78-49 CU win.

BUFFS PICKED 11TH: CU was picked to finish 11th in the annual Big 12 Coaches Preseason Poll. The Buffaloes received 26 points, an improvement from the 14 points received a year ago when the CU was picked to finish last. CU was 9-21 overall in 2005-06 and finished 11th in the Big 12 race with a 3-13 mark.

Defending league champion Oklahoma was picked to repeat its title receiving all 11 possible first place votes for a total of 121 points. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team. Big 12 Southern Division teams dominated the upper half of the poll, taking the top four spots. Texas A&M was picked second with 107 points, followed by Texas (101) and Baylor (94).

Iowa State came in fifth with 68 points, just edging out Nebraska which was picked sixth with 66. Kansas State and Texas Tech tied for seventh with 57 points followed by Missouri (43), Kansas (36), CU (26) and Oklahoma State (16).

TOUGH SCHEDULE: Colorado once again faces a tough schedule with no less than 17 games against 2006 NCAA or WNIT tournament teams. The Buffaloes will host perennial NCAA women's powers Southern California and Vanderbilt during the non-conference season as well as region rival Colorado State. Baylor, Texas Tech and Oklahoma come to Boulder this year out of the Big 12 South along with the Buffs' usual Big 12 North opponents.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 300-88 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.773). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 18 of the previous 28 years including five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94). The Buffaloes, 4-1 at home this season, have only three seasons of sub-.500 play in the 28 years of the Coors Events Center.

BUFFS ON TV: Colorado's schedule features nine games that will be televised either regionally or nationally by Fox Sports Net. Two games are part of the Big 12's national package with FSN: Sunday, Jan. 28, at Missouri and Saturday, Feb. 10, at home against Nebraska. FSN Rocky Mountain will televise six CU home games beginning with the regular season opener against San Francisco on Friday, Nov. 10. FSN Midwest will televise CU's game at Kansas State on Wed., Feb. 14, which could potentially be picked up by FSN Rocky Mountain as well.

UP NEXT: Colorado hosts Southern California on Saturday, Dec. 2, at 2 p.m. at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

KATHY MCCONNELL-MILLER
HEAD COACH
SECOND SEASON

Kathy McConnell-Miller and her staff experienced a rollercoaster type season in 2005-06. There were record setting wins in the inaugural McConnell-Miller campaign, and there were tough losses as the Buffaloes ended the season at 9-21 and in 11th place in the Big 12 Conference.

But there is plenty of reason to believe that the rollercoaster is on its way back up, and plenty of reason to believe it's not coming back down for some time.

McConnell-Miller, 39, heads into season No. 2 in Boulder with a full calendar year under her belt and a full compliment of players for the first time in three seasons, bolstered by a recruiting class that ranks in the Top 30 in the nation.

A new era at one of the nation's most prestigious women's basketball schools began on April 27, 2005, as McConnell-Miller officially became the sixth head coach in the history of the program, replacing legendary coach Ceal Barry.

Excitement at the base of the Flatirons was felt from day one as McConnell-Miller led the Buffaloes to a 100-71 win over Cal-State Fullerton in her CU coaching debut. The game featured two CU players — Jackie McFarland and Jasmina Ilic — each hitting the 30 point mark and guard Whitney Law breaking a school record with 15 assists. It also marked the most points scored in a coaching debut by active Big 12 coaches — by nearly 20 points.

However, injuries and the overall youth of the Buffaloes — only three upperclassmen saw extensive playing time — would catch up with CU during a tough non-conference campaign, including two losses in overtime, and the always tough Big 12 season.

Despite finishing with 20-plus losses for the second straight season, McConnell-Miller established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in her players. She has continued to groom McFarland and Ilic into two of the top players at their position in the Big 12. McFarland earned All-Big 12 second team honors last season and was also named to the prestigious Academic All-America team. Ilic flourished under the McConnell-Miller system averaging 14.8 points per game including a career and Big 12 season-high 36 points against Nebraska.

McConnell-Miller, who picked up career win No. 100 against Oklahoma State in the 2005-06 home finale on Feb. 26, will look to McFarland and Ilic to improve on last year's efforts, but will have a lot more ammo to work with this season. She will get a chance to see Kara Richards on the court, CU's starting center from 2004-05 who broke a bone in her foot days before the 2005-06 opener and she will also have guards Susie Powers and Bianca Smith, CU redshirts last season.

And then there is the recruiting class. Despite a late start in the recruiting season, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players and claimed an overall No. 29 recruiting class ranking by the All-Star Girls Report. The Buffs claimed one of the top recruits in Colorado — a priority for the McConnell-Miller staff — in Aija Putnina who helped Regis to the Class 4A championship game. CU also grabbed two highly-regarded recruits from Tennessee in Whitney Houston and Candace Rucker, and Courtney Dunn from California.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an Associated Press honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Grentz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Grentz for a total of six years as she went with Grentz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Three McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, two at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (6), Mackenzie (4) and Macie (2).

BOULDER - Kara Richards made the most of her return to the hard court.

The 6-foot-4 center, playing in her first official game since March 8, 2005, scored 22 points and grabbed six rebounds to help Colorado to a season-opening 62-56 win over San Francisco Friday night at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Richards, just two points off her career high, hit 8-of-10 from the floor and also had four assists. She was complimented by forward Jackie McFarland who had 17 points and 12 rebounds for her 20th career double-double. Richards missed the 2005-06 after breaking a bone in her foot three days before the season opener. The Buffs (1-0) trailed 30-26 at intermission but rallied to break a 26-game losing streak when trailing at halftime and their first such win since beating Missouri 56-51 on Jan. 18, 2005. The Buffs trailed the Tigers 28-20 in that game. CU shot 71.4 percent in the second stanza (15-of-21) while holding USF to 39.3 percent in the same time frame (11-of-28).

Leading 51-49 with 5:10 remaining in the game, Colorado went on a 9-0 run to pull away. Freshman point guard Whitney Houston started the rally with a lay up and dished out assists on a 3-pointer from junior Susie Powers - her first points in a CU uniform - and a lay up by fellow Memphis native Candace Rucker. Richards finished off the run with her final field goal of the night on a pass from Rucker.

The Rucker-Houston duo combined for 10 points, five assists and three steals off the bench. The freshman played a large portion of the second half with starters Richards, McFarland and Powers.

"I was very pleased with the chemistry between the five of them, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "There was a mutual respect on the floor among all of them. They moved the ball, they made the extra pass, and when they made the mistake, they pumped each other up, and it was exciting to see them."

Friday's game marked the return of Tanya Haave who spent four years as an assistant coach with the Buffaloes under Ceal Barry. Haave is in her first year as head coach of the Dons.

Vanderbilt	42	39	81
Colorado	34	42	76

BOULDER - Colorado junior Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 27 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, but No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt held on for an 81-76 decision Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Conference Center.

McFarland, who hit 10-of-14 from the floor, secured her second-straight and 21st career double-double as Colorado (1-1) nearly erased a 17-point second half deficit. She scored 15 of her 27 points in the final 10:35, including her fourth career 3-point field goal followed by two conventional 3-point plays in the last minute.

Vanderbilt (1-0) was led by Carla Thomas who scored 26 points and grabbed seven rebounds and nearly single-handedly built Vanderbilt's 17-point lead in the second half. The Commodores took an eight point lead into the locker room after guard Merideth Marsh hit a half-court shot at the buzzer, for her only points of the game. Thomas then came out and hit her first four shots of the second half as Vanderbilt started the period on a 13-4 run.

The Buffaloes closed to 65-69 with 1:57 to go after a free throw from Whitney Houston. But Caroline Williams calmly hit the last of her four 3-pointers 15 seconds later and Dee Davis buried two free throws to give Vanderbilt breathing room at 74-65.

McFarland's two, conventional three-point plays closed the game to 76-74 with 23 seconds left. Williams and Davis sank two free throws apiece to preserve the win.

"That was probably one of the best things about this afternoon's game," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Down 17, they could've packed it up and they could've folded. It could've gone to a 30-point game."

Senior Jasmina Ilic had eight of her 14 points in the second half and dished out three assists to help the Buffaloes second-half run. Colorado shot 47.5 percent from the field (28-of-59) while the Commodores hit 50 percent (28-of-56). Nearly every category was even between Vanderbilt and CU, with the exception of free throws. Colorado, which made just 10-of-22, two nights earlier against San Francisco, made just 14-of-23 for 61 percent.

Houston had nine points and three assists off the bench. Senior Anna Nedovic and freshman Bianca Smith each pitched in six points.

Colorado game out of the gate on fire hitting five of its first seven shots, building a 13-5 lead. Smith and Ilic each hit a pair of 3-pointers and guard Susie Powers added one of her own. Colorado led for most of the first 13 minutes of play, before Vanderbilt closed the period on a 17-8 run.

Williams finished with 21 points for Vanderbilt while Christina Wirth added 14.

LARAMIE, Wyo. — Justyna Posziemska and Jodi Bolerjack each scored 18 points and Wyoming forced 24 Colorado turnovers as the Cowgirls defeated the Buffaloes 68-49 Tuesday night at the Arena Auditorium in Laramie.

Wyoming moves to 3-1 overall, claiming its third straight win over Colorado which falls to 2-2.

Posziemska and Bolerjack led a 3-point barrage by the Cowgirls who made 11-of-25 (44 percent) from beyond the arc. The duo each had four from downtown while Hanna Zavec had a pair.

Junior Jackie McFarland led Colorado with 22 points and seven rebounds, seeing her consecutive double-double streak stop at three to begin the season. McFarland hit 8-of-11 from the floor and all six free throw attempts.

The Buffaloes shot 52.9 percent from the field in the first half, but only on 17 attempts (9-of-17), a school record low for attempts in one half. Turnovers were the main culprit as the Buffs gave the ball away 15 times in the first 20 minutes as Wyoming built a 31-22 lead.

The Cowgirls outscored CU 22-6 off turnovers.

Colorado closed the lead to five at 39-34 with 14:49 remaining in the game, but the Cowgirls embarked on a 14-3 run over the next five minutes to put the game away.

Jasmina Ilic had 12 points, all in the second half, including a pair of 3-pointers, giving her 101 for her career, the seventh Buff to hit the century mark.

BOULDER — Colorado freshmen Aija Putnina and Whitney Houston each scored 12 points and Jackie McFarland notched her fourth double-double of the season as the Buffaloes defeated Nevada 80-60, Friday at the Coors Events/Conference Center, in the first day of the 20th Annual Coors Classic.

Houston and Putnina made their first career starts Friday night, the first time two freshmen have started in the same game for the Buffs since Kara Richards and Yari Escalera started the final game of the 2004-05 season. Putnina recorded a double-double, registering career highs with 12 points and 13 rebounds. Houston scored 12 points on 5-of-7 from the field to go along with three steals.

McFarland had a game-high 18 points and grabbed 12 rebounds for her fourth double-double in five games this season, and the 23rd of her career, giving her sole possession of third place on CU's all-time list. Jasmina Ilic rounds out CU's double-digit scorers as she pitched in 14 points with five rebounds and three steals.

Nevada made just four of its first 20 shots and ended the half shooting 26.3 percent from the field (10-of-38). The Wolfpack had substantially more field goal attempts than the Buffaloes (38 to 22) because for the second straight game Colorado had problems with turnovers, committing 20 in the first 20 minutes.

Trailing by one at 15-14, Colorado finally got its offense into gear. The Buffaloes scored nine straight to take a 23-15 lead with 4:15 left in the half. Nevada inched back to within four at 27-23, but Susie Powers hit a 3-pointer with just three seconds remaining in the half to give CU a 30-23 lead into the locker room.

Colorado (3-2) opened up a 20-point lead mid-way through the second half thanks to hot shooting and a dominating performance on the boards. The Buffaloes hit 17-of-30 in the second half (56.7 percent) while holding Nevada to just 34.4 percent (11-of-32). Colorado out-rebounded the Wolfpack 31-9 in the second half and its 56 rebounds are the most since the Buffs had 56 against Cal State Fullerton in the 2005-06 season opener.

McFarland was solid in the second half, recording 14 of her points and seven of her rebounds in the final 20 minutes. The top field-goal shooter in the Big 12 so far this year, McFarland hit 6-of-8 from the field and 6-of-9 from the charity stripe.

Colorado was without starting center Kara Richards Friday night and will be for the next 4-to-6 weeks as it was diagnosed late Thursday night that she has a fracture to the fourth metatarsal in her left foot. The injury is to the same foot, but not the same bone that forced her to miss the entire 2005-06 season. Her injury last season was a Jones Fracture, a fracture of the fifth metatarsal.
