Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller (2nd Year at CU, 17-30/8th Year Overall, 108-118)

Assistant Coaches: Tom McConnell, Bethann Shapiro Ord, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Carla Morrow

THE GAME: The University of Colorado plays its third road game in four outings and its fourth-straight overall against a Big 12 Conference Southern Division opponent as the Buffaloes take on Oklahoma State University on Wednesday, Jan. 24, at 6 p.m. MST at Gallagher-Iba Arena in Stillwater.

BROADCAST: All Colorado women's basketball regular and post season games are broadcast live on KKZN AM 760, Boulder's Progressive Talk station. Mike Rice will handle play by play duties and is joined by USA Basketball's Carol Callan with the color commentary. Live internet audio can be accessed through Yahoo! Sports. Live video streaming of Wednesday's battle will be available to Stampede Online subscribers at CUBuffs.com.

ABOUT THE BUFFALOES: Colorado, 8-9 overall and 2-3 in Big 12 play, will be attempting to snap an overall three-game losing streak and an eight-game slide on the road dating back to a 77-71 win at Kansas on Feb. 1, 2006. All three of the Buffs' losses during their current skid have come against ranked teams, with the latest being a hard-fought 82-67 setback to No. 7/6 ranked University of Oklahoma on Jan. 20. CU has been a streaky team this season, compiling two separate three-game winning streaks while having a four-game losing streak and a current three-game slide. The Buffaloes need just one win to equal both their overall and Big 12 win totals from the 2005-06 season (9-21, 3-13 Big 12). Colorado is just 4-23 in road games since the beginning of the 2004-05 campaign.

Junior forward Jackie McFarland is living up to her All-Big 12 second team status in 2006, and then some. She is averaging 19.1 points and 10.9 rebounds per game, ranking third and second in the Big 12 respectively. McFarland ranks fourth in NCAA Division I in field-goal percentage at 64.9 percent (106-of-168). She has 10 games of shooting 70 percent or better this season.

McFarland is just the ninth player in school history to register 1,100 points and 600 career rebounds and she currently ranks in CU's career Top 10 in blocked shots and free-throws made. She was named Big 12 Player of the Week for the season's opening weekend (Nov. 13) and named to the Coors Classic All-Tournament Team.

McFarland has 11 double-doubles this season, ranking second in the Big 12, and 30 in her career which ranks third on CU's all-time list.

Senior guard/forward Jasmina Ilic is second on the team in scoring at 13.8 points per game after a team season-high 29 against Oklahoma. She also leads the Buffaloes with 29 3-point field goals, 22 steals and an 88.7 percent efficiency from the free-throw stripe. Her 22 steals are two more than she had in 30 games last season and her free-throw percentage ranks second in the Big 12 and 15th in the nation.

Sophomore center Kara Richards is third on the team in scoring (8.2 ppg) and rebounding (5.3 rpg) and second in field-goal percentage (.625). She leads the Big 12 in field-goal percentage during conference only games (.680) and would be second in the Big 12 overall, behind McFarland, but has not reached the minimum percentage of CU's games played to be ranked (75 percent). She missed seven games with a fracture in the fourth metatarsal of her left foot, but as returned strong as the Buffs are 3-3 since her return. Playing in her first game against Big 12 competition since the 2005 Big 12 Tournament, Richards recorded her first career double-double with 11 points and a personal-best 13 rebounds in the win over Missouri.

Junior guard Susie Powers had a breakout game against Iowa State and has continued on a hot streak ever since. She scored a career-high 12 points on 4-of-5 from 3-point range against the Cyclones, all of which were career highs. Powers has hit 8-of-11 from 3-point range during the Big 12 season, tops in league play. Her overall 48.6 percent efficiency from 3-point land ranks third in the Big 12 and her 42 assists are second on the team.

Colorado is receiving strong support from its freshman class. Redshirt freshman guard Bianca Smith has made 11 starts and is averaging 6.4 points per game including a career-high 18 points in the win over Iowa State. She has 25 3-point field goals and ranks seventh in the Big 12 in 3-point field goal percentage (.397).

Freshman Whitney Houston is averaging 6.9 points per game and leads the Buffaloes with 43 assists. She provided a spark off the bench in her first career Big 12 contest, scoring 11 points on 5-of-9 from the field against Missouri. Houston's 2.69 assists per game ranks fifth among freshmen in the Big 12 and 14th overall. Fellow Memphis, Tenn., native Candace Rucker started three games during the nonconference schedule and is averaging 3.5 points, 2.5 rebounds per game. She is third on the team in steals with 18 and her 1.1 per game average is eighth among freshmen in the Big 12. She tied a career high with seven points on 3-of-4 from the field in the loss at Texas A&M.

Forward Aija Putnina is averaging 5.8 rebounds per game, second on the team and second in the Big 12 among freshmen. She had a team-high nine rebounds, two blocks and two assists against Texas on Jan. 13.

RECORD HALF FROM "3": Colorado set a school record for 3-point field goals in one half by drilling 10 in the first stanza of the Buffs' 81-67 win over Iowa State on Jan. 10. Bianca Smith's long-range jumper -- her fourth of the half -- with 7 seconds remaining in the period gave CU the record, breaking the previous mark of nine set against the University of Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004. The 13 3-pointers CU had in the game was its most since a similar baker's dozen put up against the University of Northern Colorado on Dec. 29, 2004.

A SUCCESSFUL BEGINNING: Colorado began the Big 12 season 2-0 for the first time since 1996-97. The start also agave the Buffaloes their first two-game league win streak since defeating Oklahoma State and Kansas on Feb. 21 and 24, 2004. Colorado opened the Big 12 season with a 71-59 win over the University of Missouri on Jan. 3. The win was the first for CU in a Big 12 opener since defeating Baylor to begin the 2004 league schedule and the 12-point margin of victory was CU's highest in the league's 11-year history. Colorado is now 5-6 in Big 12 openers and 19-14 overall in conference openers.

HOUSTON GAME CANCELLED: CU's game against the University of Houston that was scheduled for Dec. 30, was cancelled when the Cougars opted not to travel to Boulder for the game due to the winter weather conditions that had spread across the Midwest that weekend. The game is not expected to be rescheduled this season.

LUBIN LEAVES BUFFALOES: Junior guard Lauren Lubin has decided to leave the CU women's basketball program, but will remain at the university as a student, head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller announced on Dec. 27.

Lubin, who earned a pair of letters with the Buffaloes, averaged 2.4 points and 2.4 rebounds over 49 career games. She played in five contests for the Buffaloes this winter, recording three steals and two rebounds. Lubin originally walked on in 2004-05 as a freshman, where she played in 16 games before missing the last half of the season with mononucleosis. Lubin earned a scholarship for the 2005-06 campaign, averaging 3.7 points and 3.6 rebounds per game as a sophomore, including a team-best 42.9 percent from 3-point range (12-of-28).

RICHARDS GRANTED MEDICAL HARDSHIP: Center Kara Richards received some good news on Dec. 2 as the Big 12 Conference office granted her a medical hardship for missing the 2005-06 season. Richards season was lost after suffering a Jones fracture – a fracture to the fifth metatarsal – in her left foot on Nov. 15, 2005, just three days before CU's season opening win over Cal State Fullerton. The medical hardship means she returns to sophomore standing for the 2006-07 season and will have two more years of eligibility remaining.

McFARLAND BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Jackie McFarland was named the Phillips 66 Big 12 Women's Basketball Player of the Week by a media voting panel on Nov. 13 for the opening weekend of games.

This is McFarland's third career weekly honor from the Big 12 as she was twice named the league's Rookie of the Week during the 2004-05 season.

McFarland averaged 22 points, 12 rebounds and two steals while shooting 71 percent from the field (17-of-24) in games against San Francisco and No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt over the weekend.

McFarland had 17 points on 7-of-10 shooting and 12 rebounds in the season-opening 62-56 win over San Francisco. She scored a game-high 27 points and pulled down 12 rebounds along with two assists and three steals against No. 16/15 Vanderbilt. McFarland recorded double-doubles in both games for the 20th and 21st of her career. She had nine points — a 3-pointer and two conventional 3-point plays — in the final minute against VU as Colorado nearly erased a 17-point second half deficit.

THE COACH: Kathy McConnell-Miller is in her second season as Colorado's head coach and in her eighth season at the helm of an NCAA Division I program. She is 17-30 with the Buffaloes and has an overall head coaching record of 108-118.

ABOUT THE COWGIRLS: Oklahoma State is 14-4 overall and 2-3 in the Big 12. The Cowgirls have received votes in one of the two major national polls for the last eight weeks. OSU is 10-2 at home, but has dropped its last two, including a nail-biting 63-61 decision to Texas Tech University on Jan. 20. Oklahoma State has enjoyed a wide scoring margin over its opponents this season. The Cowgirls have averaged 75.2 points per game while allowing just 53.8. The 21.4 points margin leads the Big 12. OSU has allowed opponents to shoot just 34.3 percent overall from the field and 28.1 percent from 3-point range. The Cowgirls have rebounded well, averaging 45.5 per game while holding opponents to just 33.8. Both marks trail only Oklahoma in the Big 12.

Oklahoma State has a balanced scoring attack led by junior center and part-time starter Maria Cordero who averages 13.2 points and 6.2 rebounds per game while shooting 53.3 percent from the floor. Senior forward Rashidat Sadiq is second on the team in scoring at 12.3 points per game and pulls down just under six rebounds per contest. Freshman guard Andrea Riley has a team best 89 assists and ranks third in the Big 12 at 5.24 per game. She averages 11.1 points per game and hits 77 percent from the free-throw line.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be the 47th meeting between Colorado and Oklahoma State, with the Buffaloes holding a 26-20 series lead. CU won last year's game in Boulder, 73-62, on Feb. 26, and the Cowgirls won the last game played at Gallagher-Iba Arena, 76-70 in overtime on Jan. 22, 2005. Colorado has won five of its last six against OSU and three of its last four in Stillwater. The Cowgirls hold a 10-8 all-time edge in Stillwater.

Kathy McConnell-Miller is 4-2 in her career against Oklahoma State and 1-0 at Colorado. She recorded career wins No. 1 and No. 100 against OSU.

AGAINST THE BIG 12 SOUTH: Colorado has won just one of its last 16 games against teams from the Big 12 South. The Buffs' lone win in that span game against Wednesday's opponent, a 73-62 win over Oklahoma State in the 2005-06 home finale on Feb. 26.

MILESTONE WINS: With a 56-51 win over Colorado State, CU won its 600th women's basketball game and now stands 603-362 in 32-plus seasons. CU's overall .625 winning percentage ranks fourth all-time among Big 12 Conference teams, trailing only Texas,

2006-07 Opponents in Bold

Texas Tech and Kansas State.

With its 78-65 win over Charlotte in the Coors Classic, Colorado won its 300th game at the Coors Events Conference Center, and now stands at 304-90 (.772) all-time at the facility.

CLIMBING THE 3-POINT LADDER: Jasmina Ilic hit three 3-point field goals against Oklahoma to increase her career total to 123, good for sixth place on CU's all-time list.

Anna Nedovic had a pair of 3-point field goals against Cal State Bakersfield after sinking just two in the previous 10 games. The pair of treys pushed her career total to 51, tying her with former teammate Emily Waner (2003-04) for 13th on CU's all-time chart.

McFARLAND REACHES 1,000, ILIC CLOSING IN: Jackie McFarland became the 20th player in CU history to reach 1,000 career points during the loss at South Dakota State on Dec. 13. McFarland hit the milestone on a second-half layup and now stands at 16th on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,111 points through 74 career games (15.0 ppg). McFarland is also just the ninth Buff to record 1,100 points and 600 rebounds.

Jasmina Ilic needs 46 points to reach 1,000, which by using her season average of 13.8 ppg, she would reach around the game against Texas Tech on Feb. 3.

Ilic and McFarland would be the first pair of teammates to hit the mark in the same season since Britt Hartshorn, Jenny Roulier and Mandy Nightingale hit 1,000 within two weeks of each other in November 2001.

MORE NUMBERS FOR McFARLAND: Jackie McFarland has 30 career double-doubles and 30 double-digit rebounding games, which both rank third on the CU charts. Her 11 double-doubles this season, second-most in the Big 12, are sixth on CU's single-season chart. McFarland had 14 double-doubles in 2004-05, a mark that is fourth all-time at CU. She began the season with three-straight double-doubles, equalling her output from the 2005-06 season. The only other player in CU history to record three-straight double-doubles to open a season is CU's all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor, who did it in 1982-83.

McFarland became the 12th player in CU history to reach 600 rebounds, surpassing the mark during the loss at Texas on Jan. 13. She is currently 11th on the career list with 630 and needs 17 to move into CU's Top 10. She is seventh on CU's career list for blocked shots with 80. McFarland needs 20 to reach 100 and would be just the sixth Buff to reach the century mark. She is 10th on CU's career list with 323 free-throws made.

STILL IN NEED OF A WIN OVER A RANKED TEAM: Colorado has dropped 20 straight games to ranked teams dating back to January of 2004. The Buffaloes last win over a ranked opponent was a 69-59 decision at No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004. CU was ranked No. 14 at the time. The last time CU was unranked and defeated a ranked opponent was in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament when the Buffaloes knocked off No. 12 North Carolina 86-67.

COME FROM BEHIND WIN BREAKS LONG DROUGHT: CU's 62-56 win over San Francisco broke a 26-game losing streak when the Buffaloes trailed at halftime dating back to a 56-51 win at Missouri on Jan. 18, 2005. USF led 30-26 at the break, but the Buffs outscored the Dons 36-26 in the second half.

BUFFS IN OPENERS: Colorado is 28-5 (.844) all-time in season openers and a whopping 32-1 (.970) all-time in home openers. The Buffs' lone loss in a season-opening home game was a 77-63 setback to Michigan on Nov. 21, 1999. CU has won seven straight season debuts and 20 of its last 21 with the lone loss in that span coming at Denver on Nov. 19, 1999.

EARLY START: The Nov. 10 start against USF was the third earliest start for the Buffs and the second earliest home game in their 33-year history. CU's earliest start came in season No. 2 as the Buffs dropped an 81-80 decision at Nebraska on Nov. 6, 1976. CU's earliest start at the Coors Events Center is much more recent as the Buffs hosted Oral Roberts in a preseason WNIT game on Nov. 9, 2001, a 78-49 CU win.

BUFFS PICKED 11TH: CU was picked to finish 11th in the annual Big 12 Coaches Preseason Poll. The Buffaloes received 26 points, an improvement from the 14 points received a year ago when the CU was picked to finish last. CU was 9-21 overall in 2005-06 and finished 11th in the Big 12 race with a 3-13 mark.

Defending league champion Oklahoma was picked to repeat its title receiving all 11 possible first place votes for a total of 121 points. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team. Big 12 Southern Division teams dominated the upper half of the poll, taking the top four spots. Texas A&M was picked second with 107 points, followed by Texas (101) and Baylor (94).

Iowa State came in fifth with 68 points, just edging out Nebraska which was picked sixth with 66. Kansas State and Texas Tech tied for seventh with 57 points followed by Missouri (43), Kansas (36), CU (26) and Oklahoma State (16).

TOUGH SCHEDULE: Colorado once again faces a tough schedule with no less than 17 games against 2006 NCAA or WNIT tournament teams. The Buffaloes will host perennial NCAA women's powers Southern California and Vanderbilt during the non-conference season as well as region rival Colorado State. Baylor, Texas Tech and Oklahoma come to Boulder this year out of the Big 12 South along with the Buffs' usual Big 12 North opponents.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 304-90 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.772). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 18 of the previous 28 years including five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94). The Buffaloes, 8-3 at home this season, have only three seasons of sub-.500 play in the 28 years of the Coors Events Center.

BUFFS ON TV: Colorado's schedule features nine games that will be televised either regionally or nationally by Fox Sports Net. Two games are part of the Big 12's national package with FSN: Sunday, Jan. 28, at Missouri and Saturday, Feb. 10, at home against Nebraska. FSN Rocky Mountain will televise six CU home games beginning with the regular season opener against San Francisco on Friday, Nov. 10. FSN Midwest will televise CU's game at Kansas State on Wed., Feb. 14, which could potentially be picked up by FSN Rocky Mountain as well.

UP NEXT: Colorado will face its first rematch of the season as the Buffaloes take on the University of Missouri on Sunday, Jan. 28, at 11 a.m. MST in Columbia. The game will be televised nationally on Fox Sports Net.

KATHY MCCONNELL-MILLER
HEAD COACH
SECOND SEASON

Kathy McConnell-Miller and her staff experienced a rollercoaster type season in 2005-06. There were record setting wins in the inaugural McConnell-Miller campaign, and there were tough losses as the Buffaloes ended the season at 9-21 and in 11th place in the Big 12 Conference.

But there is plenty of reason to believe that the rollercoaster is on its way back up, and plenty of reason to believe it's not coming back down for some time.

McConnell-Miller, 39, heads into season No. 2 in Boulder with a full calendar year under her belt and a full compliment of players for the first time in three seasons, bolstered by a recruiting class that ranks in the Top 30 in the nation.

A new era at one of the nation's most prestigious women's basketball schools began on April 27, 2005, as McConnell-Miller officially became the sixth head coach in the history of the program, replacing legendary coach Ceal Barry.

Excitement at the base of the Flatirons was felt from day one as McConnell-Miller led the Buffaloes to a 100-71 win over Cal-State Fullerton in her CU coaching debut. The game featured two CU players — Jackie McFarland and Jasmina Ilic — each hitting the 30 point mark and guard Whitney Law breaking a school record with 15 assists. It also marked the most points scored in a coaching debut by active Big 12 coaches — by nearly 20 points.

However, injuries and the overall youth of the Buffaloes — only three upperclassmen saw extensive playing time — would catch up with CU during a tough non-conference campaign, including two losses in overtime, and the always tough Big 12 season.

Despite finishing with 20-plus losses for the second straight season, McConnell-Miller established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in her players. She has continued to groom McFarland and Ilic into two of the top players at their position in the Big 12. McFarland earned All-Big 12 second team honors last season and was also named to the prestigious Academic All-America team. Ilic flourished under the McConnell-Miller system averaging 14.8 points per game including a career and Big 12 season-high 36 points against Nebraska.

McConnell-Miller, who picked up career win No. 100 against Oklahoma State in the 2005-06 home finale on Feb. 26, will look to McFarland and Ilic to improve on last year's efforts, but will have a lot more ammo to work with this season. She will get a chance to see Kara Richards on the court, CU's starting center from 2004-05 who broke a bone in her foot days before the 2005-06 opener and she will also have guards Susie Powers and Bianca Smith, CU redshirts last season.

And then there is the recruiting class. Despite a late start in the recruiting season, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players and claimed an overall No. 29 recruiting class ranking by the All-Star Girls Report. The Buffs claimed one of the top recruits in Colorado — a priority for the McConnell-Miller staff — in Aija Putnina who helped Regis to the Class 4A championship game. CU also grabbed two highly-regarded recruits from Tennessee in Whitney Houston and Candace Rucker, and Courtney Dunn from California.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an Associated Press honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Grentz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Grentz for a total of six years as she went with Grentz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Three McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, two at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (6), Mackenzie (4) and Macie (2).

#13 Courtney Wallace
5-10, Senior, Forward
Colorado Springs, Colo.
(Air Academy/UCCS)

- Played basketball, softball, soccer and ran track during her prep career at Air Academy.
- Was the team's leading rebounder and second leading scorer for the Cadets her senior season averaging 13 points and seven boards per game.
- As a senior, her .465 hitting percentage during the softball season, was the 10th best in the state.
- If she could be on the cover of any magazine it would be Time.
- If she could try any sport besides basketball it would be hockey.
- Lists her most memorable moment in sports as taking a charge during last year's game at Oklahoma.

This Season:

- Recorded her first career field goal on a reverse lay up in the closing seconds of CU's 80-60 win over Nevada.
- Recipient of the team's Practice Player Award last year and earned a scholarship for the 2006-07 academic year.

Career:

- Played in 15 of 30 games as a junior and recorded her first stats with a rebound, field goal attempt and two free-throw attempts against Northern Iowa.
- Transferred from CU-Colorado Springs in the fall of 2004 after playing two seasons with the Mountain Lions.

#21 Jasmina Ilic
6-1, Senior, Guard/Forward
Becej, Serbia (Laza Kostic)

This Season:

- Ranks 15th in the nation and second in the Big 12 in free-throw percentage (.887). Eighth in 3-pointers (1.71 3pg) and 10th in scoring (13.8 ppg) in the Big 12.
- Has a team season-high 29 points against Oklahoma. Hit 12-of-13 from the free throw line, both career highs.
- Has hit 33 of her last 36 free-throw attempts (.917).
- CU's active career leader in 3-point field goals with 123, ranking sixth on CU's all-time list. Needs 46 points to reach 1,000.
- Leads CU with 22 steals which is two more than her 30-game total from 2005-06.

Career:

- Ranked 10th in scoring (14.8 ppg), ninth in free-throw percentage (.792) and 3-pointers (1.9 3pg) in the Big 12 in 2005-06.
- Registered the third-highest point total in team history with 36 points against Nebraska on Jan. 4, 2006 -- the best output in the Big 12 for the season.

- She is the first player in team history to score 33 or more points twice in the same season (2005-06).
- Her 34 points against Cal State-Fullerton last season tied for the fifth-best single-mark in team history, along with teammate Jackie McFarland who also put up 34 in that game...
- ...which also marks the first time in team history that two players hit the 30-point mark in the same game
- Averaged a team-best 11.4 points and hit 41.2 percent from 3-point land (28x68) during the Big 12 schedule as a sophomore.
- Ranked ninth in 3-point field goals made per game (1.75) and eighth in 3-point field-goal percentage (.412) during league contests.
- A 2003 graduate of Laza Kostic High School in Novi Sad, Serbia, she holds the school record for points in a game with 68.
- Played with several junior national teams, helping the 1999 contingent to the European Championship in Bulgaria and a second place finish in 2000 in Budapest, Hungary. She was named best player at the 1999 championship in Bulgaria and was the youngest player to ever play for the Serbia senior national team in 2003.
- She is an only child and her parents were both professional athletes in Serbia. Dad Predrag played soccer and mom Verica played handball.
- Would like to have her own reality show one day.
- Her favorite non-basketball activity is sleeping, "I am very good at it!"

#23 Candace Rucker
5-10, Freshman, Guard
Memphis, Tenn. (Northside)

Career:

- A 2006 graduate of Northside High School in Memphis where she earned first team Class AAA All-State, district MVP, all-metro and all-city honors.
- Averaged 19.9 points, six rebounds and four assists per game as she led the Lady Cougars to a 33-3 record, the district title and a spot in the Tennessee Class AAA state quarterfinals.
- She was one of five finalists for the 2006 Memphis Commercial Appeal Player of the Year and is a two-time member of the Commercial Appeal's All-Metro Class AAA team.
- Rucker is an open option major at Colorado, but would like to be a veterinarian.
- She loves to dance and works well with kids and animals.
- She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as making it to the state tournament in 2006.
- Her favorite thing about Colorado basketball is the environment, "I really love the mountains."
- Her pregame rituals include listening to Yo Gotti (a Memphis rapper) and laying down thinking of a game plan.

This Season:

- Tied a career-high with seven points on 3-of-4 from the field against Texas A&M. All seven of her points came in the first half.
- Has at least one steal in nine of the last 12 games.
- After starting the season 7-of-22 from the free-throw line, she hit a perfect 4-of-4 in her Big 12 debut against Missouri, including a pair in the final minute of the game.
- Averaged six points and 4.5 rebounds during the two-game Coors Classic. Had a personal-best three steals against Charlotte.
- Ranks eighth among Big 12 Conference freshmen in steals with 1.11 per game.
- Scored six points on 3-of-3 from the field with two assists, two steals and two rebounds in her CU debut against San Francisco.

6-3, Freshman, Forward
Riga, Latvia (Regis HS, Colo.)

points, seven rebounds and two blocks per game helping the Raiders to a 24-4 overall record and a second place finish in the Colorado State Class 4A Tournament.

- Earned All-Continental Conference first team recognition and received honorable mention to the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post Class 4A All-State teams.

- Averaged 16.9 points and 10 rebounds per game to lead the Latvia U18 Junior National Team to a fourth place finish at the 2006 UMCOR U18 European Championship for Women – Division B, in Chieti, Italy. She was sixth in rebounding and seventh in scoring and blocking (1.0 bpg) at the championship.

- In August 2005 she led Latvia to a third place finish at the FIBA U18 European Championship averaging 11.3 points, 7.1 rebounds, 2.5 steals and 2.5 blocks in the eight-game tournament.

- Averaged 18 points and 11 rebounds per game for Latvia at the 2004 U16 European Championships and was the tournament's fourth-highest scorer.

- She aspires to own her own business and to become a basketball coach.

- She lists the biggest moment of her high school career as going to the state championship game.

- Her best talent not related to basketball is taking pictures.

This Season:

- Second among freshmen in the Big 12 in rebounding (5.8 rpg). Had a team-high nine against Texas, her best mark since returning from a foot injury.

- Returned to the lineup against Cal State Bakersfield after missing two games, and most of a third, due to a stress reaction on the third metatarsal of her left foot. The injury was not a fracture, rather a "hot spot" on the bone.

- Averaged 10.5 points, 13.0 rebounds, 1.5 blocks and shooting 44.8 percent (13-of-29) over her first four starts.

- Had four straight-double-digit rebounding games, including back-to-back career-high 14-board outputs against Colorado State and USC. Putnina is the first freshman to record four-straight games with 10 or more rebounds since Erin Scholz had four in a row in 1993-94. Only all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor had more in a row as a freshman, compiling separate streaks of five and six games during her maiden season in 1980-81.

- Recorded back-to-back double-doubles at the Coors Classic, earning All-Tournament honors. She is the first freshman to achieve back-to-back double-doubles since Sabrina Scott did it at the end of the 1999-2000 season and it's only the fourth time since 1993-94 when Erin Scholz did it twice.

Career:

- A 2006 graduate of Regis Jesuit High School in Aurora, Colo. An exchange student from Riga, Latvia, she could play only one season of varsity high school basketball in Colorado. As a senior she averaged 12

#40 Caley Dow
6-2, Sophomore, Forward
Littleton, Colo. (Arapahoe)

This Season:

- Averaging 3.5 rebounds over her last four games.
- Saw her most extended time of the season with 12 minutes against Cal State Fullerton. Scored her first points of the season against the Titans and grabbed a season-best seven rebounds.
- Scored seven points and had 12 rebounds in the two exhibition games. Led CU in rebounding against Colorado Mines with 10.

Career:

- Ranked 19th in the Big 12 in rebounding in league only contests at 5.9 rpg.
- Scored a career-high 15 points against Oregon and was a perfect 10-of-10 from the free-throw line. She is just the seventh CU player to go 10-of-10 or better from the foul line in a single game and only the second freshman. CU All-American Shelly Sheetz was 11-for-11 as a first-year player against Kansas in 1992. The mark also ties for the second best in the Big 12 this season.

- A 2005 graduate of Arapahoe High School where she averaged 17.3 points and 9.3 rebounds as a senior.
- She was selected All-Colorado by both the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News and was named to the Class 5A All-State first team by both publications.
- Was the state's leading rebounder in 2004 and a first team All-Continental League pick, helping the Warriors to a 12-8 record as a junior.
- She has two brothers, Nate and Eric. Eric played basketball at the University of Denver and professionally in Europe.
- Her favorite reality show is Mythbusters, "Have you seen the cool stuff they do?!"
- If she could be on the cover of any magazine it would be National Geographic.
- Her favorite quote is "Serenity Now!" - George Costanza from Seinfeld.

#44 Kara Richards
6-4, Sophomore, Center
Graham, Texas (Graham)

This Season:

- Leads the Big 12 in field-goal percentage during conference games (.680) and also ranks fifth in blocked shots (1.8 bpg) and 14th in rebounding (6.6 rpg) during the league schedule.
- Set a career-high with three blocked shots at Texas A&M. Has 12 this season and is 17th place on CU's career charts with 40.
- Playing in her first game against Big 12 competition since the 2005 Big 12 Tournament, she recorded her first career double-double by scoring 11 points and grabbing a personal-best 13 rebounds against Missouri. She hit all five shots from the field and had four assists and one block in 36 minutes.
- Returned to the CU lineup against Cal State Bakersfield after missing the previous seven games with a fracture to the fourth metatarsal of her left foot. The fracture was on the same foot, but a different bone than the injury that forced her to miss the 2005-06 campaign. Scored 10 points and had four rebounds and four assists against the Roadrunners.
- Has reverted back to sophomore standing in terms of eligibility as she was granted a medical hardship by the Big 12 Conference on Dec. 2.

Career:

- Suffered a Jones fracture – a fracture to the fifth meta-tarsal – in her left foot on Nov. 15, 2005, just three days before CU's season opening win over Cal State University-Fullerton, missing the entire season

- Named to the Waco Tribune-Herald's Big 12 Conference All-Freshman team in 2004-05, averaging nine points, 5.3 rebounds, and one block per game for the Buffaloes.
- Ranked third in scoring, and fourth in rebounding and blocked shots among Big 12 freshmen in 2004-05.
- Ranked 10th overall on the Big 12 charts in blocks with 28, the 20th best total in team history and fifth-best by a Buffs freshman.
- Earned Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week honors after her first weekend as a collegian, averaging a team-best 13.5 points at the Nevada Nugget Classic.
- Started the 2004-05 season opener becoming the first true freshman to start in the season opener since Linda Lappe against Denver on Nov. 14, 1998.
- Earned a pair of All-State honors after her junior and senior seasons at Graham High School.
- A Texas Association of Basketball Coaches All-State selection, she was a four-time All-District player at Graham, was named the District Most Valuable Player for District 5-3A as a junior, and was also selected to the 2A- 3A Texas Women's Magazine All-State team.
- "Must See" TV for her is Dog the Bounty Hunter and cartoons.
- Her heroes are her parents and grandparents.

#45 Jackie McFarland

6-3, Junior, Forward

Derby, Kan. (Derby)

This Season:

- The ninth player in CU history with 1,100 points and 600 rebounds. Currently ranks 16th on the CU career scoring charts at 1,111.
- Ranks fourth in the NCAA in field-goal percentage through games of Jan. 21. Also ranked 11th in rebounding and 27th in scoring on the national charts. Tops the Big 12 in field-goal percentage and ranks second rebounding and third in scoring.
- Has shot 70 percent or better in 10 of 16 games.
- Named Big 12 Player of the Week on Nov. 13, after averaging 22 points, 12 rebounds and shooting 71 percent from the field (17-of-24) during the opening weekend of games. Named to the Coors Classic All-Tournament Team.
- Has 11 double-doubles in 2006-07, second in the Big 12. The first player in CU history to register three straight double-doubles at the beginning of the season twice in her career as she also did it in 2005-06. Lisa VanGoor is the only other player in CU history to achieve the feat once, doing so in 1982-83.
- The first player in CU women's basketball history to average 20 points and 10 rebounds over the first nine games of a season.

Career:

- Surpassed 600 career rebounds in the loss to Texas, and ranks 11th on CU's all-time list with 630.
- Has 30 career double-doubles and 30 double-digit rebounding games, third on CU's all-time list.
- 2006 All-Big 12 Conference second team selection.
- As a sophomore, ranked fourth in rebounding (9.2 rpg), sixth in scoring (17.2 ppg), eighth in free-throw percentage (.799), ninth in blocks (1.4 bpg) and 10th in field-goal percentage (.514) in the Big 12 Conference.

- Tied with Isabelle Fijalkowski (1994-95) for seventh on CU's single-season scoring list with 516. Just the eighth player in team history with 500 points in a season and the second to record 500 points, 250 rebounds and 50 assists in one season. Recorded the 10th best single-season rebounding total in team history (277).
- Recorded the seventh best single-season scoring average (17.2 ppg) and ninth best rebounding average (9.2 rpg) in team history.
- Fifth on CU's single-season list for free-throws made with 144.
- Tied a school record with eight blocked shots against S. Dakota St., matching Britt Hartshorn who had eight against Nebraska on Jan. 23, 1999. Seventh on CU's career blocked shots list at 80.
- Had 14 double-doubles last season which ranked fourth in the Big 12, and is the fourth-best single-season mark in team history.
- Her 34 points against Cal State-Fullerton ties for the sixth-best single-mark in team history, along with teammate Jasmina Ilic who also put up 34 in that game.
- Named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America second team and All-District VII first team. Named to the Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball first team.
- A two-time Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week in 2004-05.
- Led CU in scoring average in 2004-05 (10.0 ppg), the first freshman to do so since Linda Lappe in 1998-99.
- Named to the Kansas City Star and Waco Tribune-Herald All-Big 12 Freshman teams.
- Earned first-team All-State, first-team Class 6A and Ark Valley League MVP honors after averaging 23.3 points, 10.7 rebounds and 2.1 blocks per game as a senior at Derby High School.
- Sports that she would like to try other than basketball would be volleyball and synchornized swimming.

BOULDER - Kara Richards made the most of her return to the hard court.

The 6-foot-4 center, playing in her first official game since March 8, 2005, scored 22 points and grabbed six rebounds to help Colorado to a season-opening 62-56 win over San Francisco Friday night at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Richards, just two points off her career high, hit 8-of-10 from the floor and also had four assists. She was complimented by forward Jackie McFarland who had 17 points and 12 rebounds for her 20th career double-double. Richards missed the 2005-06 after breaking a bone in her foot three days before the season opener. The Buffs (1-0) trailed 30-26 at intermission but rallied to break a 26-game losing streak when trailing at halftime and their first such win since beating Missouri 56-51 on Jan. 18, 2005. The Buffs trailed the Tigers 28-20 in that game. CU shot 71.4 percent in the second stanza (15-of-21) while holding USF to 39.3 percent in the same time frame (11-of-28).

Leading 51-49 with 5:10 remaining in the game, Colorado went on a 9-0 run to pull away. Freshman point guard Whitney Houston started the rally with a lay up and dished out assists on a 3-pointer from junior Susie Powers - her first points in a CU uniform - and a lay up by fellow Memphis native Candace Rucker. Richards finished off the run with her final field goal of the night on a pass from Rucker.

The Rucker-Houston duo combined for 10 points, five assists and three steals off the bench. The freshman played a large portion of the second half with starters Richards, McFarland and Powers.

"I was very pleased with the chemistry between the five of them, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "There was a mutual respect on the floor among all of them. They moved the ball, they made the extra pass, and when they made the mistake, they pumped each other up, and it was exciting to see them."

Friday's game marked the return of Tanya Haave who spent four years as an assistant coach with the Buffaloes under Ceal Barry. Haave is in her first year as head coach of the Dons.

BOULDER - Colorado junior Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 27 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, but No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt held on for an 81-76 decision Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Conference Center.

McFarland, who hit 10-of-14 from the floor, secured her second-straight and 21st career double-double as Colorado (1-1) nearly erased a 17-point second half deficit. She scored 15 of her 27 points in the final 10:35, including her fourth career 3-point field goal followed by two conventional 3-point plays in the last minute.

Vanderbilt (1-0) was led by Carla Thomas who scored 26 points and grabbed seven rebounds and nearly single-handedly built Vanderbilt's 17-point lead in the second half. The Commodores took an eight point lead into the locker room after guard Merideth Marsh hit a half-court shot at the buzzer, for her only points of the game. Thomas then came out and hit her first four shots of the second half as Vanderbilt started the period on a 13-4 run.

The Buffaloes closed to 65-69 with 1:57 to go after a free throw from Whitney Houston. But Caroline Williams calmly hit the last of her four 3-pointers 15 seconds later and Dee Davis buried two free throws to give Vanderbilt breathing room at 74-65.

McFarland's two, conventional three-point plays closed the game to 76-74 with 23 seconds left. Williams and Davis sank two free throws apiece to preserve the win.

"That was probably one of the best things about this afternoon's game," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Down 17, they could've packed it up and they could've folded. It could've gone to a 30-point game."

Senior Jasmina Ilic had eight of her 14 points in the second half and dished out three assists to help the Buffaloes second-half run. Colorado shot 47.5 percent from the field (28-of-59) while the Commodores hit 50 percent (28-of-56). Nearly every category was even between Vanderbilt and CU, with the exception of free throws. Colorado, which made just 10-of-22, two nights earlier against San Francisco, made just 14-of-23 for 61 percent.

Houston had nine points and three assists off the bench. Senior Anna Nedovic and freshman Bianca Smith each pitched in six points.

Colorado game out of the gate on fire hitting five of its first seven shots, building a 13-5 lead. Smith and Ilic each hit a pair of 3-pointers and guard Susie Powers added one of her own. Colorado led for most of the first 13 minutes of play, before Vanderbilt closed the period on a 17-8 run.

Williams finished with 21 points for Vanderbilt while Christina Wirth added 14.

LARAMIE, Wyo. — Justyna Posziemska and Jodi Bolerjack each scored 18 points and Wyoming forced 24 Colorado turnovers as the Cowgirls defeated the Buffaloes 68-49 Tuesday night at the Arena Auditorium in Laramie.

Wyoming moves to 3-1 overall, claiming its third straight win over Colorado which falls to 2-2.

Posziemska and Bolerjack led a 3-point barrage by the Cowgirls who made 11-of-25 (44 percent) from beyond the arc. The duo each had four from downtown while Hanna Zavec had a pair.

Junior Jackie McFarland led Colorado with 22 points and seven rebounds, seeing her consecutive double-double streak stop at three to begin the season. McFarland hit 8-of-11 from the floor and all six free throw attempts.

The Buffaloes shot 52.9 percent from the field in the first half, but only on 17 attempts (9-of-17), a school record low for attempts in one half. Turnovers were the main culprit as the Buffs gave the ball away 15 times in the first 20 minutes as Wyoming built a 31-22 lead.

The Cowgirls outscored CU 22-6 off turnovers.

Colorado closed the lead to five at 39-34 with 14:49 remaining in the game, but the Cowgirls embarked on a 14-3 run over the next five minutes to put the game away.

Jasmina Ilic had 12 points, all in the second half, including a pair of 3-pointers, giving her 101 for her career, the seventh Buff to hit the century mark.

BOULDER — Colorado freshmen Aija Putnina and Whitney Houston each scored 12 points and Jackie McFarland notched her fourth double-double of the season as the Buffaloes defeated Nevada 80-60, Friday at the Coors Events/Conference Center, in the first day of the 20th Annual Coors Classic.

Houston and Putnina made their first career starts Friday night, the first time two freshmen have started in the same game for the Buffs since Kara Richards and Yari Escalera started the final game of the 2004-05 season. Putnina recorded a double-double, registering career highs with 12 points and 13 rebounds. Houston scored 12 points on 5-of-7 from the field to go along with three steals.

McFarland had a game-high 18 points and grabbed 12 rebounds for her fourth double-double in five games this season, and the 23rd of her career, giving her sole possession of third place on CU's all-time list. Jasmina Ilic rounds out CU's double-digit scorers as she pitched in 14 points with five rebounds and three steals.

Nevada made just four of its first 20 shots and ended the half shooting 26.3 percent from the field (10-of-38). The Wolfpack had substantially more field goal attempts than the Buffaloes (38 to 22) because for the second straight game Colorado had problems with turnovers, committing 20 in the first 20 minutes.

Trailing by one at 15-14, Colorado finally got its offense into gear. The Buffaloes scored nine straight to take a 23-15 lead with 4:15 left in the half. Nevada inched back to within four at 27-23, but Susie Powers hit a 3-pointer with just three seconds remaining in the half to give CU a 30-23 lead into the locker room.

Colorado (3-2) opened up a 20-point lead mid-way through the second half thanks to hot shooting and a dominating performance on the boards. The Buffaloes hit 17-of-30 in the second half (56.7 percent) while holding Nevada to just 34.4 percent (11-of-32). Colorado out-rebounded the Wolfpack 31-9 in the second half and its 56 rebounds are the most since the Buffs had 56 against Cal State Fullerton in the 2005-06 season opener.

McFarland was solid in the second half, recording 14 of her points and seven of her rebounds in the final 20 minutes. The top field-goal shooter in the Big 12 so far this year, McFarland hit 6-of-8 from the field and 6-of-9 from the charity stripe.

Colorado was without starting center Kara Richards Friday night and will be for the next 4-to-6 weeks as it was diagnosed late Thursday night that she has a fracture to the fourth metatarsal in her left foot. The injury is to the same foot, but not the same bone that forced her to miss the entire 2005-06 season. Her injury last season was a Jones Fracture, a fracture of the fifth metatarsal.

BOULDER — Junior Jackie McFarland had 19 points and freshman Aija Putnina pulled in a career-high 14 rebounds as a solid defensive effort led the University of Colorado to its 600th win with a 56-51 triumph over Colorado State University Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado improves to 5-2 overall and is off to its best start since the 2003-04 team that started 6-1 and made the program's last NCAA Tournament appearance.

On a night when the Colorado offense was off, the defense picked up the slack. Colorado was limited to just 29.7 percent from the field (19-of-64) but forced 21 Colorado State turnovers and held its own turnovers down. The Buffs turned the ball over just eight times, their lowest single-game total since Jan. 21, 2006, when they had eight in a home loss to Iowa State. CU entered the game giving up 23 turnovers per game.

CU shot the game shooting 49 percent as a team and had actually shot better than 53 percent in its last two games. Wednesday's percentage is the Buffs' lowest in a win since the modern record keeping era began with the 1978-79 season.

The Buffaloes missed their first 10 shots of the game, but the Rams didn't fare much better hitting only 2-of-11 to open the game as CSU led just 4-0, four minutes in. After a timeout, freshman guard Bianca Smith came off the bench to put a spark in the CU offense. Smith hit a pair of 3-pointers over the next 3:25 to give the Buffs a 14-9 lead.

CU increased its edge to eight at halftime (30-22), but CSU fought back with an 11-3 run to open the second half and tie the score at 33-33. Colorado quickly built the lead back up to eight on a 3-pointer from Susie Powers, a driving layup by Whitney Houston and a McFarland bucket off a Houston pass.

Although the Buffaloes never trailed after that point, they could also not extend the lead beyond 10 points. CSU's leading scorer Kelly Jo Mullaney had 12 of her team-high 17 points in the second half and converted three free throws with just 17 seconds left that closed the CU lead to 54-51. Powers, who had fouled Mullaney to give her the three free throws, responded with two of her own that iced the game.

The freshmen tandem of Putnina, Houston and Candace Rucker helped the Buffaloes fend off CSU rallies at every twist and turn. Putnina registered double digit rebounds for the third-straight game and fell just two points shy of a third-straight double-double finishing with eight. Twelve of her 14 rebounds came on the defensive in and she also blocked a pair of shots.

Rucker had six points and two rebounds and was continuously in the hip pocket of the CSU backcourt. She had a big block on a CSU fast break and also came up with a steal in her 18 minutes. Houston added three steals to her five points and three assists.

BOULDER — University of Southern California senior Shay Murphy scored a career-high 33 points and the University of Colorado struggled from the field for the second straight game as the Trojans took a 76-57 decision from the Buffaloes Saturday afternoon at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Murphy was nearly automatic from the floor hitting her first five of the game and finishing 13-of-19 to go along with six steals, five rebounds and four assists.

USC stormed out to a 22-5 lead in the first 11 minutes of the game. While Colorado made only 2-of-19 out of the gate, the Trojans made 10-of-16 (625). Murphy and Morghan Medlock combined for 20 of the Trojans first 22 points, on a combined 8-of-8 from the field.

After hitting 49 percent from the floor in its first six games, Colorado has cooled off in the last two. The Buffaloes hit just 32.2 percent (12-of-59) on Saturday and have made just 31.1 percent (38-of-122) over the last two games.

"I think when you play more experienced teams like USC, it is a lot tougher to come back, but it's not impossible," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We continuously talked about that in the huddles, what we needed to do. I thought we got a little bit impatient with the fact we weren't hitting a lot of shots, and we were stuck on four for so long, and we probably took some shots that were out of character for us. We eventually came out of it for a little bit, but got back into it against a more experienced team; a team that capitalizes on mistakes."

Colorado fought back late in the first half, closing the on a 21-12 run. An Aija Putnina basket with 8:40 left in the first half stopped a streak of 16-straight missed shots over a 9:39 span. Senior Jasmina Ilic scored eight of her season-high 22 points down the stretch as CU cut the Trojans' lead to 34-26 at halftime. Ilic was 3-of-7 from 3-point range has she moved her career trey total to 107.

Despite the late first-period rally, it was more of the same from USC in the second half as the Trojans opened on a 14-4 run with the help of a pair of 3-point field goals by Jamie Hagiya.

"I think it was one of those where we were expecting a situation like Vanderbilt, where we came back from 17 down," Ilic said. "I thought we were going to continue that in the second half, however we didn't come out fully-focused in the first minute and a half and we went down by 15."

Putnina led all players with 14 rebounds, 11 of which came in the first half, giving her four-straight double-digit rebounding performances. It is the best streak by a freshman since Erin Scholz had four in a row in 1993-94.

Junior Jackie McFarland her sixth double-double of the year, and 25th of her career, with 16 points and 11 rebounds.

PORTLAND, Ore. — Eleanor Haring scored a game-high 18 points and the University of Oregon used big runs at the beginning of each half to hold off the University of Colorado 70-60 at the Rose Garden Arena in the 2006 Pape Jam.

Jackie McFarland led Colorado (5-5) with 14 points and 15 rebounds for her seventh double-double of the season, and the 26th of her career. McFarland's 15 rebounds were just one off a career high — she had 16 against Puerto Rico-Mayaguez last December — and her 26th career double-digit rebounding performance, tying former Buff Britt Hartshorn (1998-02) for fourth on CU's all time list.

Oregon (6-1) scored the first 14 points of the game, hitting 7-of-9 from the floor, and opened up a 16-2 lead at the 15:10 mark of the first half. Colorado fought back immediately from long range. Senior Jasmina Ilic scored CU's first seven points, including the 108th 3-pointer of her career, while Bianca Smith and Anna Nedovic also added treys as the Buffaloes answered with an 18-5 run of their own, closing the gap to 20-19 with 7:17 remaining.

The Ducks widened the gap back to nine at the end of the first half. Kaela Chapelaine, entering the game averaging less than four points per contest, had eight of her season-high 16 points in the first 20 minutes, five of which came during Oregon's 11-3 run to end the half.

"In the first half we consistently getting stops and making plays, but we started putting them on the line (in the second half) and we stopped doing what we did to get us back," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I just think it is a sign of youth, not really understanding the game as well as they need to. I am proud of the plays we made, but all of a sudden they started feeling a little good about themselves and stopped doing the things (that brought us back)."

Oregon opened up the second half on a 10-2 run to move its lead back up to 17 points at 41-24. Haring had 12 of her 18 points in the second half and at one point scored seven straight and nine of 11 for the Ducks.

CU fought back again, cutting the Ducks' lead to 60-51 with 3:08 remaining on a 3-point play by Whitney Houston. The freshman guard scored all of her career-high 13 points in the final 5:38 of the contest to spark the Buffs rally.

Oregon held off the last-gasp CU spurt at the free-throw line. The Ducks didn't attempt a foul shot in the first half, but connected on 17-of-20 in the final 20 minutes.

Ilic and Smith both finished with 11 points for the Buffaloes. Houston added four assists and a career-best five rebounds to her totals. Nedovic had five points and a season-high six rebounds.

BROOKINGS, S.D. -- University of Colorado junior Jackie McFarland reached 1,000 career points but a barrage of 3-point field goals by South Dakota State University lifted the Jackrabbits to an 80-58 decision over the Buffaloes Wednesday night at Frost Arena.

Colorado (5-6) dropped its fourth straight while SDSU improved to 8-2.

McFarland became the 20th Colorado player to reach 1,000 points doing so at the 12 minute, 19 second mark of the second half on a lay up. She was fouled by SDSU's Laura Nielsen on the play and sank the free throw for the conventional 3-point play. McFarland ended with 17 points, giving her 1,002 in 68 career games, and nine rebounds.

It was the other type of 3-point play though, that gave the Jackrabbits the edge. SDSU made nine of its first 11 shots from long range and finished 11-of-19 (.579) from beyond the arc. Sophomore Ashlea Muckenhirn, who entered the contest averaging just 5.3 points per game, had a career night hitting all four 3-point attempts and tying a career high with 18 points.

South Dakota State came out firing, hitting its first four 3-point field goals of the contest and 5-of-7 attempts overall to take a 16-12 lead at the 15:22 mark.

A Megan Vogel free throw gave the Jacks a 17-12 lead, but CU senior Jasmina Ilic answered with a 3-pointer, her second of four on the evening to cut the Jacks' lead to 17-15 with 14:46 remaining. Ilic, who finished with a game-high 20 points to go a long with six rebounds, moved into sixth place on CU's all-time 3-point list with 112.

Ilic's surge up the 3-point list was the last good news Colorado had for a while. The Buffaloes went scoreless over the next 8:27 as the Jacks ran off nine straight points for a 26-15 lead. South Dakota State built its lead from the free-throw line. The Jacks outscored the Buffs 15-5 from the charity stripe and led by as much as 20 before taking a 46-27 lead at halftime.

Muckenhirn single-handedly made sure there was no Buffs' comeback. She scored seven of SDSU's first 11 points of the second half as the Jacks opened up a 58-30 lead in the first four minutes of the period. Vogel ended with 11 points and six rebounds while Jennifer Warkentien added 12 points and nine rebounds.

Senior Anna Nedovic had seven points and five rebounds off the bench.

BOULDER — Sophomore center Kara Richards and junior forward Jackie McFarland each recorded double-doubles to pace the University of Colorado to a 71-59 win over the University of Missouri on Wednesday night at the Coors Events Conference Center in the Big 12 Conference opener for both teams.

Colorado improves to 7-6 overall, snapping a three-game losing skid against the Tigers, and in the process registering its largest margin of victory ever in a Big 12 opener. Missouri falls to 12-2.

Richards scored 11 points on a perfect 5-of-5 from the field, and grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds for her first collegiate double-double. McFarland had a game-high 18 points and 11 rebounds for her 27th career double-double and eighth on the season.

Missouri built a 25-15 lead with 8 minutes, 57 seconds remaining in the first half by making nine of its first 15 shot attempts (60 percent). However, the Tigers went ice cold from there making only 11 of their final 48 shots (23 percent).

Colorado took advantage by going on a 43-16 over next 23:05 of the game (the final 8:57 of the first half and the first 14:08 of the second period).

The Tigers held a 31-29 lead at halftime, but the Buffaloes came out strong in the opening minutes of the second period. Junior guard Susie Powers scored all of her career-high seven points in the first three minutes of the half, as CU claimed the lead for good.

Colorado shot 59.1 percent in the second half (13-of-22) while the Tigers made just 23.7 percent (9-of-38) which included 17-straight misses in an 11-minute span and a 1-for-23 streak.

Senior forward Jasmina Ilic scored 10 of her 15 points in the second half while freshman guard Whitney Houston provided a spark off the bench, scoring 11 points on 5-of-9 from the field.

CU led 58-41 with 5:52 remaining in the game, when the Tigers made one last charge. An 11-2 run put the Tigers within eight at 60-52 with 3:33 left, and Tiffany Brooks' foul shots with 1:47 remaining cut the margin down to six at 63-57. The Buffaloes responded by hitting 8-of-10 from the free-throw line in the final two minutes.

BOULDER — The University of Colorado dialed long distance Wednesday night, nailing a season-high 13 3-point field goals in a 81-67 Big 12 Conference victory over Iowa State University at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

The win gives the Buffaloes their first 2-0 start in league play since the inaugural season of the Big 12 in 1996-97 when they started 3-0. CU, 8-6 overall, also snaps a five-game slide against Iowa State (13-3, 1-2 Big 12), and has won two-straight in the Big 12 for the first time since the 2003-04 season.

Starting guards Bianca Smith and Susie Powers combined for 30 points and 9-of-15 from 3-point range. Smith had a personal-best 18 points and a team season-high five 3-pointers (on 10 attempts). Powers, whose career high in points entering the game was seven, hit her first four 3-pointers of the contest, ending at 4-of-5 and 12 points. Powers also added four assists and three steals.

Overall the Buffaloes hit nine of their first 13 attempts building a 25-11 lead in the first 8 minutes, 23 seconds of the contest. Iowa State fought back, closing the CU lead to six at 28-22, but the Buffaloes immediately responded ending the first half on a 20-2 run for a 48-24, their largest halftime lead of the season.

Colorado was 10-of-16 from long range in the first half (62.5 percent) and finished the game 13-of-23 (56.5 percent). Overall the Buffaloes shot 51 percent for the contest (26-of-51) while holding Iowa State to just 32 percent in the first half (8-of-25) and 40.4 percent for the entire game (21-of-52).

Junior Jackie McFarland recorded her 28th career double-double, ninth this season, with 22 points and 14 rebounds. She added a personal-best six assists and was 7-of-9 from the field, giving her nine games this season shooting 70 percent or better. McFarland is 27-of-34 (79.4 percent) in her last four games.

Sophomore center Kara Richards added 14 points, five rebounds and two blocked shots. Richards was 6-of-7 from the field and has made 16 of her last 20 shots since returning to the lineup after missing seven games with a foot injury.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas — Jackie McFarland had her 10th double-double of the season and Jasmina Ilic had 14 points but the No. 17 ranked Texas A&M University's defense was tough throughout the game as the Aggies claimed a 74-58 Big 12 Conference win over the Buffaloes Thursday night at Reed Arena.

Colorado falls to 8-8 overall and 2-2 in Big 12 action while the Aggies move to 13-3 overall, 3-1 in conference play.

McFarland had game highs with 15 points and 13 rebounds and hit 9-of-10 from the free-throw line, but was held to just 3-of-9 from the field, a season-low for the second-best field goal shooter in the nation. Ilic was 4-of-8 from 3-point range with one assist and one steal.

Texas A&M guard A'Quonesia Franklin was one of three Aggies with 13 points, and sparked a 20-8 run with nine points in the first nine minutes of the first half. La Toya Micheaux and Taktia Starks also had 13 points for the Aggies.

Colorado had 13 turnovers in the first half and set a school-record low with just 14 field-goal attempts, but despite the low numbers, the Buffaloes were efficient in the attempts they had, making eight for 57 percent.

Freshman Candace Rucker tied a career high with seven points on 3-of-4 from the field in the first 20 minutes, helping the Buffaloes stay close. Her two layups, along with a Ilic 3-pointer led a CU charge that cut the A&M lead to 26-20 with 4:49 remaining.

Thursday's game was originally scheduled for Wednesday (Jan. 17), but icy conditions that have been prominent in the area all week led Texas A&M officials to postpone the game until tonight.

BOULDER — University of Oklahoma All-American Courtney Paris had 26 points and 17 rebounds to rally the No. 7/6 ranked Sooners past the University of Colorado 82-67 in a Big 12 Conference game Saturday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Senior Jasmina Ilic had a season-high 29 points for the Buffaloes, who fall to 8-9 overall and 2-3 in the Big 12. Oklahoma won its 24th straight game against a Big 12 foe, moving to 15-1 overall, 5-0 in league action.

Oklahoma shot 53.6 percent in the first half (15-of-28) and opened the game on a 24-8 run. Colorado fought back behind Ilic's 13 first-half points, cutting the Sooners' lead to eight at halftime (36-28).

Ilic's hot shooting continued early in the second half. She hit two 3-pointers to spark a 14-2 run that gave Colorado a 48-46 lead with 13 minutes, 3 seconds remaining in the game.

The Paris twins took over from there accounting for OU's next 13 points as the Sooners built their lead back up to 10 at 64-54 with just under eight minutes remaining. Courtney, who entered the game hitting just 54 percent from the foul line, hit 9-of-11 attempts in the second half and finished 10-of-13 for the game. Ashley Paris had 12 points, 10 of which came in the second half, eight rebounds and a pair of blocked shots.

Jackie McFarland had 17 points and 14 rebounds for her 11th double-double of the season and the 30th of her career which ranks third on CU's all-time list. Her 11 double-doubles only trail Courtney Paris' 16 in the Big 12.

Junior guard Susie Powers had six points, five assists and a career-high seven rebounds. Freshman Whitney Houston added seven points off the bench.
