THINK PINK AGAINST TEXAS

Colorado will host "Think Pink" night on Saturday, Feb. 16, at 7 p.m. as the Buffaloes host the University of Texas at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

The Buffaloes are proud to support the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) "Think Pink" initiative which is a global, unified effort for the organization's nation of coaches to assist in raising breast cancer awareness on the court, across campuses, in communities and beyond. Over 900 schools nationwide have joined the fight against breast cancer with Think Pink activities, Feb. 8-17.

Colorado's women's basketball team will be wearing pink Nike shooting shirts, shoelaces and hair bands during its game with the Longhorns. Additionally, head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller invites all cancer survivors out to the floor to build a tunnel for the team introductions prior to tip-off.

CU Athletics encourages all fans to wear pink and the first 500 fans will receive a free pair of pink Crocs.

The Herd, the student arm of the Alumni Association, will be taking donations to benefit the Susan G. Komen for the Cure foundation to fight breast cancer at the Northwest Entrance of the Events Center.

For more information on the Think Pink initiative, visit www.wbca.org/thinkpink.asp.

place in the Big 12 Conference at 2-9, one-half game behind Texas Tech which is 2-8. The Buffaloes have lost a season-high six straight -- their most since 2004-05 -- and nine of their last 10 games since winning 11 in a row earlier in the season. It's the first time in school history the Buffaloes have endured a six game winning streak and a six game losing streak in the same season. CU has equalled its win total from the 2006-07 season (13-17) and has its best record since 2003-04 when the Buffs last made the NCAA Tournament. CU will be looking for its first win since defeating Kansas, 59-41, on Jan. 22 and to do so will have to beat a Texas team that has won eight straight in the series.

Senior All-America candidate Jackie McFarland leads the Buffaloes at 17.9 points and 8.0 rebounds per game while shooting 57 percent from the field (144-of-252). Her numbers have remained solid during league play averaging 18.5 points and 7.9 rebounds while shooting 56 percent (67-of-120). She is second on the team in assists (2.7 apg) and third in blocks (1.2 bpg). McFarland is the fourth player in team history to reach 1,700 points and is one of only two players -- joining Lisa Van Goor -- to have 1,700 points and 900 rebounds. The All-Big 12 forward once again can be found among the Top 10 in most league statistical categories ranking second in field-goal percentage, scoring and minutes, fifth in rebounding and free-throw percentage and 10th in blocked shots.

Freshman Brittany Spears is making a name for herself as well. Named the Big 12 Rookie of the Week for the second time this season on Feb. 11, her 338 points are the most by a freshman since 1993-94 when Erin Scholz scored 343. Her 14.1 points per game average is on pace to be the best by a CU freshman since Shelley Sheetz averaged 14.1 in 1991-92 and the best by any first-year player since Isabelle Fijalkowski averaged 16.1 in 1994-95, her lone season in Boulder. An all-around performer, she is only the second player in team history to record 40 blocks, 40 assists and 40 steals in the same season (Raegan Scott did it as a junior in 1995-96 and as a senior in 1996-97). Spears' numbers for rebounds (7.2 rpg), steals (1.9 spg) and blocks (1.7 bpg) are also on pace to be among the Top 5 performances by a CU freshman in team history, in fact her 40 blocks are already third on the Buffs' freshman list. She leads CU in free-throw percentage (.871, 54-of-62) and tops the Big 12 at 92 percent (33-of-36) during league only games. Her scoring, rebounding, free-throw percentage and blocks per game top all freshmen in the Big 12 while she is also second in steals, and fourth in assists (1.8 apg).

In the backcourt, senior guard Susie Powers averages a team-best 3.9 assists per game. She's on pace to have the most assists by Buffs player since Mandy Nightingale had 161 (4.7 apg) during the 2001-02 season. Powers, who had a career-high 10 assists in the win over Pepperdine, is 14th in the nation (through games of Sophomore Bianca Smith, who entered the starting lineup for the first time this season against Oklahoma State, ranks third on the team in scoring at 9.8 points per game and leads the team in 3-pointers with 55. A formidable "Sixth-Woman" candidate in the Big 12 this season, Smith was named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10 after averaging 19.0 points and hitting 57 percent from the field in games against No. 22 (AP)/21 (WBCA) Wyoming and No. 20/17 Vanderbilt.

Junior Hannah Skildum, who has started 16 of the 24 games this season, provides a strong defensive presence to Colorado's back court and averages 3.4 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.0 assists on the season. Whitney Houston and Britney Blythe have also seen extended minutes in the Colorado backcourt. Houston's minutes have increased over the past five games including a season-high 33 minutes at Kansas where she scored eight points with three steals and three assists. Blythe, played key minutes off the bench in Colorado's win over Kansas, scoring eight points and grabbing three rebounds.

Colorado has several front-court options off the bench. Junior Caley Dow is averaging 5.0 points, 4.7 rebounds and 2.3 assists over the last three games and is hitting 56 percent from the field (9-of-16) over the last five. Freshman Courtney Dunn had six points and five rebounds off the bench against No. 10 Oklahoma and has played double-digit minutes in four of her last six appearances. Junior Kara Richards has made 58 percent of her shots on the season (23-of-40) and is coming off her best Big 12 performance of the year scoring five points and grabbing five rebounds with a pair of blocked shots at Kansas.

Colorado is averaging 66.6 points per game while holding opponents to 60.8 per contest, but the Buffaloes have given up 78.5 points over the last four games. Overall CU is shooting 43 percent from the field and out rebounding opponents by three boards per game. In Big 12 play, Colorado is scoring 62.7 points per game and shooting 40 percent from the field while opponents hold a 2.9 per game rebounding edge. Colorado has made just 28 percent from 3-point range during the league slate while opponents have connected on 39 percent from downtown.

ABOUT THE LONGHORNS: Texas is 16-8 overall and tied with Iowa State for seventh place in the Big 12 at 4-6. The Longhorns are coming off a 61-51 upset of No. 8 (AP & WBCA) Baylor in Austin on Feb. 13. The win snapped a three-game losing streak for the Longhorns and they will be looking for their first Big 12 road win of the season (0-4, 3-5 overall). Texas has been a solid defensive team this season, allowing just under 60 points per game. The Colorado's last win over Texas was a 79-75 decision at the Coors Events Center on Feb. 19, 2000. The win is also CU's lone win over UT in Boulder as the Longhorns hold a 5-1 edge at the Coors Events Center.

Dec. 10 and freshman forward Brittany Spears was named Rookie of the Week on Jan. 7 and again Feb. 11.

In her most recent honor, Spears averaged 19 points, 6.5 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 blocks while hitting 48 percent from the field in games against Nebraska and No. 10 (AP & WBCA) Oklahoma. Her other honor came right before the beginning of the Big 12 season as she helped Colorado register its 10th straight win by scoring 16 points and grabbing seven rebounds in a 65-53 decision over Pepperdine on Jan. 4.

Smith averaged 19 points, two assists and two rebounds off the bench while leading Colorado to wins over No. 22 (AP)/21 (WBCA) Wyoming and at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt. Colorado broke a 23-game losing streak against ranked teams with its 69-55 win over Wyoming on Dec. 5. The Buffaloes then made it wins in back-to-back games over ranked teams for the first time since the 2002 NCAA Tournament with a 62-51 triumph at Vanderbilt on Dec. 9.

Against Wyoming, Smith scored 16 points on 5-of-8 from the floor with three assists as Colorado broke a three-game losing streak against the Cowgirls. Smith had an even bigger game against Vanderbilt. She had a career-high 22 points on 7-of-14 from the field with three rebounds, one steal and one assist as the Buffs handed the Commodores just their second loss in 23 home games.

BLOCK PARTY: Colorado is blocking shots at a record pace. The Buffaloes rank third in the Big 12 at 5.7 blocks per game and second during conference only games at six per contest. CU's 5.7 average puts them on pace to break the school single-season record of 162 set in 2000-01. CU's 136 blocks on the season already ranks fourth on the team's single-season list. Freshman Brittany Spears leads the way with 40 blocks while sophomore Aija Putnina is second with 34. It's the first time since the 2001-02 season the Buffaloes have two players with 30 or more blocks in one year. Britt Hartshorn led the 2001-02 team with 46 while Tera Bjorklund had 37. Of course we can't forget about senior Jackie McFarland who happens to rank fourth on CU's all-time blocks list with 129. She has 29 this season which means one more block would give the Buffaloes three players with 30 or more blocks for the first time in team history.

CU's high for a game this season was 13 against Dartmouth, the second highest single-game total in team history, trailing only the school record 16 set against Sam Houston in a 99-60 win on Dec. 14, 2000. CU followed up that performance with 12 against Iowa State on Jan. 13. The Buffaloes, who have three games this season with 10 or more blocks, ranked 11th in the NCAA in blocked shots through games of Feb. 10.

3-POINTERS FALLING: Colorado's 3-point shooting has cooled off during the Big 12 schedule as the Buffs have made just 28 percent and average 5.4 made per game. However, the Buffaloes are still on pace to have their most prolific season from 3-point range in team history. Colorado's 168 3-point field goals rank third on the team single-season list and the Buffs are just 29 away from breaking the 2001-02 team record of 196. CU's 533 3-point field goal attempts are a school record, breaking the old mark of 501 set in 2001-02.

Colorado is second in the Big 12 Conference and ranks 16th in the nation in 3-point field goals per game. The Buffaloes have a school single-season record seven games with 10 or more 3-point field goals. The previous season high was five in the 34-game 2001-02 season. CU had a season-high 14 against Colorado State, its second best single-game total (CU had 16 against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004). That came during a string of netting 10 or more 3-pointers in four straight games for the first time. The Buffs had 10 3-pointers against Wyoming and Northern Colorado and 13 against Rice. Against UNC, the Buffs set a school record for 3-point field goal attempts in one half with 21 in the first stanza and finished the game with 36 attempts, just one shy of the school record of 37 set against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004.

completing her undergraduate degree in accounting. McFarland won CU's Scholar-Athlete Award in the spring of 2007 for having the highest GPA in her class. McFarland is a three-year team captain and is actively involved in CU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. SAAC is the governing body for student-athletes at CU which assists in the development and implementation of programs that motivate student-athletes to strive for and be recognized for academic excellence and community involvement.

McFarland is a 2008 Naismith Award semifinalist and she was tabbed as a preseason first team All-Big 12 selection and one of the top five power forwards in the country by ESPN.com.

Fans nationwide can vote on the Senior CLASS Award finalists from now through March 21. Fan balloting, available on the award's official website www.seniorclassaward.com, will be combined with votes from coaches, media and sponsors to determine the recipient of the award. Winners will be announced during the NCAA Men's and Women's Final Four.

McFarland will also move onto the national ballot for the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team voted on by the College Sports Information Director's of America (CoSIDA). McFarland earned second team Academic All-America status in 2006 and 2007. The 2008 Academic All-America team will be announced on Tuesday, Feb. 26. She will be looking to become Colorado's third three-time Academic All-American joining Jim Hansen (Football, 1990-92) and Kelly Smith (Cross Country/Track & Field (1996-98).

Individually, it hasn't been one player doing the damage. Ten different players on the CU roster have at least two 3-point field goals and nine have attempted at least 10. Sophomore Bianca Smith leads the team with 55, Brittany Spears is second with 38 and Susie Powers has 21.

NUMBERS FOR McFARLAND: Jackie McFarland has had six double-doubles this season which is fourth in the Big 12. She ranks second in CU history in career double-doubles with 43 and her 45 career double-digit rebounding games are third on the CU career charts. She needs just one more double-digit rebounding game to tie Erin Scholz (1993-97) for second.

McFarland became the fourth player in school history to reach 1,700 points against Oklahoma State and joins all-time scoring leader Lisa Van Goor as the only two players to record 1,700 points and 900 rebounds in a career. She is just 38 rebounds away from becoming the third player in team history to reach 1,000.

McFarland is CU's all-time leader in free-throws made with 511, and ranks second in free-throw attempts (667), fourth in blocked shots (129), sixth in minutes (3,560) and tied for seventh in field goals made (606).

1,000th GAME: Colorado's 80-71 loss to Nebraska on Feb. 6 marked the 1,000th game in team history. In their 34th season, the Buffaloes sport an all-time record of 621-381 heading into Saturday's game. CU's 621 wins rank fifth among Big 12 teams -- with Kansas and Kansas State having played six more seasons than the Buffs -- and its .620 winning percentage ranks fourth trailing only Texas, Texas Tech and Kansas State.

DEFENSE IN THE KANSAS GAME: Colorado's 59-41 win over Kansas was won, in large part thanks to its defense. The 41 points allowed to the Jayhawks tied for the third lowest against a Big 12 opponent during the regular season. Three of the four lowest totals have come against the Jayhawks:

35 -- Colorado 70, at Kansas 35, Jan. 16, 2002

40 -- Colorado 69, at Texas A&M 40, Feb. 8, 1997

41 -- at Colorado 59, Kansas 41, Jan. 22, 2008

41 -- at Colorado 80, Kansas 41, Jan. 29, 2002

The 18-point margin of victory was also the highest by a Kathy McConnell-Miller led team in a Big 12 game, beating the previous margin of 14 against Iowa State on Jan. 10, 2007 (81-67).

YOUTH SERVED: Colorado's freshman class was key in the Buffaloes win over Kansas combining for 31 points, the most by a freshman class since the trio of Whitney Houston (25), Candace Rucker (6) and Aija Putnina (3) combined for 34 in a 70-68 overtime loss at Kansas last season. Brittany Spears led the way with 14 points while Courtney Dunn pitched in a career-high nine points and Britney Blythe had eight off the bench.

DOUBLE OT: Colorado went double-overtime for just the fifth time in school history and the first time at the Coors Events Center with its 84-77 loss to Iowa State on Jan. 13. It was the first double-overtime for CU since the Buffaloes defeated the Cyclones 68-66 at Iowa State on Jan. 18, 1997, and the Buffs fell to 16-20 all-time in overtime and 2-3 in double-overtime. Seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers each played 48 minutes in the game, tying a school record initially set by Tracy Tripp against Oklahoma State on March 6, 1989.

BIG 12 OPENERS: Colorado evened its record in Big 12 Conference openers at 6-6 by defeating Missouri 70-58 on Jan. 9. It was Colorado's first season-opening Big 12 win on the road since the Buffs beat Baylor to begin the 2004 league slate. The 12-point margin was also the Buffs highest in a conference road opener since a 67-53 win at Missouri to open the 1993 Big Eight schedule. Colorado, now 20-14 in all-time conference openers, are 16-9 in home league openers since 1983 and 6-5 in the Big 12 era.

OPENING NIGHT STAR: Colorado freshman Brittany Spears joined some elite company in her Big 12 debut. Her 24 points were the second-most in team history for a freshman in her first league game. Only CU Athletic Hall of Fame member and 1995 All-American Shelley Sheetz had more points in a conference debut as she scored 25 during a 75-69 loss at Nebraska on Jan. 15, 1992. Her seven rebounds tie current teammate Jackie McFarland for the most by a freshman in a road opener since 1994. McFarland had seven in an 84-62 setback at Nebraska on Jan. 5, 2005.

NUMBERS ON 11 STRAIGHT: Colorado saw its 11-game win streak end against Iowa State, but the run was the seventh longest in team history and the most consecutive victories since the 1994-95 team matched a CU All-Sports record 25 straight wins (shared with the 1939-41 baseball team). Here are the Buffs' all-time best win streaks:

PERFECT DECEMBER: Colorado registered a perfect 7-0 record for the month of December for the first time since 2003-04, and for just the sixth time in team history. The Buffaloes matched the 1980-81 and 1981-82 teams which were both 7-0 in December. The 1992-93 team had a program best December mark of 9-0, while the 2002-03 squad was 6-0 and 5-0 in 2003-04. CU is 118-54 (.686) all-time in the month of December.

DEFENSE WINS: Colorado has enjoyed some impressive defensive numbers at times this season.

The Buffaloes have held six opponents under 50 points in 2007; 29-vs. Texas Southern, 38-vs. Southern Utah, 41-vs. Kansas, 43-vs. Dartmouth, 47-at Colorado State and 48-at San Francisco. CU had held their opponent under 50 points just three times total in the previous three seasons.

CU yielded less than 50 points in three-straight games -- Texas Southern, Dartmouth and Southern Utah -- the first such streak since 2003-04. The Buffs' six sub-50 point defensive performances are the most in one season since the 2002-03 squad registered nine.

Colorado had a historic performance from a defensive perspective against Texas Southern. The Buffaloes held the Lady Tigers to just 29 points, which ties for the fourth-lowest total in team history (equals a 79-29 win over Iowa State on Feb. 19, 1993). It was just the fifth time in CU history the Buffs have held an opponent under 30 points (the ISU game in 1993 being the last). CU allowed just 13 second-half points, tying for the second-lowest second-half total in team history (also done in the ISU game and against Utah State on Jan. 28, 1981). The Buffaloes forced Texas Southern into 32 turnovers, the most since forcing 35 against Detroit Mercy on Nov. 24, 2002.

RANK STREAK IS OVER: Colorado had its biggest week in early December in several years in terms of success against ranked teams.

Colorado's 69-55 win over No. 21/22 Wyoming snapped a 23-game Buffs' losing streak to ranked teams. The Buffaloes last win over a ranked opponent had been a 69-59 decision at No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004 where CU was ranked No. 14 at the time. The win was Colorado's first against a ranked team while being unranked since knocking off No. 12 North Carolina 86-67 in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament.

The Buffaloes kept the momentum going four days later with a 62-51 win at No. 20/17 Vanderbilt. The win gave CU's its first two-game win streak against ranked teams since knocking off No. 23 Washington and No. 24 Baylor in 2003-04. It's the first pair of wins over two ranked teams in back-to-back games since the 2002 NCAA Tournament when the Buffs defeated No. 22/24 LSU in the second round and No. 5 Stanford in the Sweet 16. It was Colorado's first win on the road over a ranked opponent since defeating No. 24 Baylor 69-59 in Waco, Texas, on Jan. 7, 2004. It was CU's first win over a ranked opponent as an unranked team since defeating No. 12 Texas in Austin, 60-56, on Feb. 26, 1997.

RANKING OF OUR OWN: With its recent slide, Colorado did not receive votes in either the AP or WBCA Top 25 polls released this week. CU had at least received votes for six-straight weeks from Dec. 10 through Jan. 22. The Buffaloes were ranked in four straight AP polls, peaking at No. 23 on Jan. 1 and Jan. 8. The Buffaloes debuted in the 2007 AP poll at No. 25 on Dec. 24 for their first national ranking since finishing No. 17 (AP)/No. 24 (WBCA) in the final 2003-04 polls. Colorado has a rich tradition in the AP poll, making 158 appearances since 1980. The Buffs were ranked in 75 straight polls from Mar. 15, 1992 to Dec. 9, 1996 and 30 straight from Jan. 22, 2001 to Mar. 22, 2002.

With Colorado's early-season AP ranking, Buffs head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to play for and coach an AP ranked team. McConnell-Miller was a four-year letterwinner at Virginia (1986-90) where she played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight.

ON THE ROAD: Colorado is 4-6 on the road this season and had won three straight for the first time since 2003-04 before falling at Kansas State on Jan. 19. The four wins doubles the team road win total from the previous two seasons combined (1-10 in 2006-07 and 1-9 in 2004-05) and one more would match CU's win total from the previous three seasons (5-28). CU's 82-47 win over Colorado State was significant on several fronts. The 35-point margin was the Buffs' highest on the road since a 70-35 win over Kansas on Jan. 16, 2002 and it was also their largest win over Colorado State (regardless of venue) since a 112-48 win on Nov. 16, 1979. The 82 points were the most CU has scored on an opponents home court since the Buffs' last trip to Moby Arena, an 86-83 loss to the Rams on Nov. 30, 2005. Colorado broke Vanderbilt's 10-game home winning streak and handed the Commodores just their second loss in 23 home games, the other coming last season against eventual national champion Tennessee.

CAPTAINS NAMED: Seniors Jackie McFarland and Susie Powers and junior Caley Dow will serve as team captains for the 2007-08 season. McFarland is a captain for a third straight season, Powers is in her second year as captain and Dow is a captain for the first time. CU team captains are voted on by players prior to the first regular season contest each year.

McFARLAND PRESEASON ALL-BIG 12; BUFFS PICKED 11TH: Senior forward Jackie McFarland has been named to the 2007-08 Preseason All-Big 12 Conference Women's Basketball team by a vote of league coaches.

McFarland is CU's second preseason All-Big 12 honoree as former Buffaloes standout Erin Scholz was named to the 1996-97 squad. She joins Nebraska forward Kelsey Griffin, Oklahoma center Courtney Paris and Texas A&M guards A'Quonesia Franklin and Takia Starks on the five-member preseason team. All five players were first team All-Big 12 picks last winter.

McFarland topped the Big 12 and ranked third in the nation in field-goal accuracy in 2006-07 at 61 percent. She was second in the Big 12 in scoring (17.8 ppg) and rebounding (10.8 rpg) and led the league in minutes at 36.4 per game.

Despite returning eight players from a team that finished tied for seventh last season, the Buffaloes were picked to finish 11th in the Big 12 in 2007-08 in annual preseason coaches poll.

Defending co-champion Texas A&M was picked to win the 2008 title with seven first place votes and 117 points overall, just edging out the league's other co-champion, Oklahoma who had the other five first place votes and 115 points. The Big South held down the top five spots in the poll as Baylor was third with 97 points followed by Texas (86) and Oklahoma State (66). Iowa State was the top North school (64) followed by Nebraska (56), Kansas State and Texas Tech (54 each), Kansas (43), Colorado (29) and Missouri (11).

Kathy McConnell-Miller
Head Coach
Third Season

When Kathy McConnell-Miller took over the University of Colorado program just over two years ago, there's no question the Buffaloes were rebuilding and the team was a work in progress.

In two seasons at Colorado, progress is certainly a valid term for McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes.

McConnell-Miller, 40, sports a 22-38 record in her two seasons at Colorado and is 113-126 overall in eight seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach.

She led Colorado to a 13-17 mark in 2006-07, the team's best record since the 2003-04 Buffaloes went 22-8 and advanced to the program's last NCAA Tournament. Colorado also enjoyed its best Big 12 Conference showing in three years, tying Texas and Texas Tech for seventh in the league standings at 6-10. The Buffaloes' six conference wins in 2006-07 were more than the previous two years combined (3-13 in 2005-06 and 2-14 in 2004-05).

McConnell-Miller, who officially became the sixth head coach in the history of CU women's basketball on April 27, 2005, has overseen the development of Jackie McFarland, who has emerged as one of the top players in the Big 12. McFarland has earned All-Big 12 honors in both her seasons under McConnell-Miller including first team acclaim this past season. All-league selections are nothing new to McConnell-Miller as she has had at least one first or second team all-conference performer in each of her eight seasons as a collegiate head coach.

The Buffaloes have also had academic success in the McConnell-Miller era. In her two seasons, McConnell-Miller has coached seven Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team members and has helped guide McFarland to a pair of Academic All-America second team honors.

She has done well with the players inherited from legendary CU head coach Ceal Barry, but she has also excelled in bringing in her own players.

McConnell-Miller, who from day one has established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in her players, and her staff have landed back-to-back Top 40 recruiting classes, including the No. 29 class in 2006 according to the All-Star Girls Report. What was remarkable about the class of 2006 is McConnell-Miller and her staff didn't even have the chance to start on the recruiting trail until April when they arrived in Boulder. Despite that late start, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players, including Whitney Houston and Aija Putnina who made significant contributions as first-year players.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an Associated Press honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Greutz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Greutz for a total of six years as she went with Greutz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Three McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, two at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (7), Mackenzie (5) and Macie (3).

This Season:

- Named Big 12 Rookie of the Week for the second time this season on Feb. 11 after averaging 19 points, 6.5 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 blocks while hitting 48 percent from the field in games against Nebraska and Oklahoma. Also earned Rookie of the Week honors on Jan. 7.
- The 11th leading scorer among freshmen in the nation through games of Feb. 15.
- Her 14.1 points per game average is on pace to be the most since Shelley Sheetz averaged 14.1 in 1991-92 and the best by any first-year player since 1994-95 when senior Isabelle Fijalkowski averaged 16.1. Her 338 points are the most by a freshman since Erin Scholz scored 343 in 1993-94 and she needs 55 points to enter CU's top five freshman scoring outputs.
- Scored a career-high 24 points in her Big 12 debut against Missouri. It's the second-best output by a Buff in her conference opener, trailing only the 25 scored by CU Athletic Hall of Famer Shelley Sheetz at Nebraska in 1992. Her seven rebounds against MU matched current teammate Jackie McFarland's initial output in 2005, tying for the best mark since Erin Scholz had nine rebounds at K-State in 1994.
- Just the second player in team history to record 40 assists, 40 blocks and 40 steals in the same season. Raegan Scott did it twice for the Buffs, as a junior in 1995-96 and senior in 1996-97.

• Ranks first among freshmen in the Big 12 in scoring (14.1 ppg), rebounding (7.2 rpg), free-throw percentage (.871) and blocked shots (1.7 bpg). She is also second in steals (1.9 spg) and fourth in assists (1.8 apg).

• Overall in the Big 12 she is seventh in blocks, 10th in 3-point field-goal percentage, 11th in steals and 3-point field goals made, 12th in field-goal percentage and scoring and 13th in rebounding.

• Leads the Big 12 in free-throw percentage during conference games at 91.7 percent (33-of-36).

• Her 40 blocks are the third-most by a freshman in team history and her 45 steals are the most by a CU player since Veronica Johns-Richardson had 59 in 2004-05. She has five steals in a game twice this season, most recently against Texas Southern.

• Recorded her fourth career double-double, and second in the Big 12, with 21 points and a career-high tying 12 rebounds at Kansas.

• Started her collegiate career off with a bang, scoring 15 points to go with seven rebounds and five steals against San Francisco. All 15 of her points and four of her five steals came in the first half.

Career:

• A 2006 graduate of Pasadena High School who spent the 2006-07 academic year at Notre Dame Prep School in Fitchburg, Mass.

• Two-time Pacific League and Pasadena Star-News Player of the Year for Pasadena High School

• Averaged 23 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists as a senior guiding Pasadena to its first league title since 1991.

• An open option major, interested in sociology.

• A sport she'd like to try other than basketball would be field hockey.

• Her best talent not related to basketball is helping with other people's relationships.

SAN FRANCISCO — Freshman Brittany Spears had 15 points — all in the first half — to spark Colorado to a season-opening 66-48 win at San Francisco Friday night at War Memorial Gymnasium.

Spears, who also tallied seven rebounds and five steals, scored 15 of CU's first 23 points as the Buffaloes erased an early 13-6 deficit and closed the first half with a 30-12 run to take control of the game. Spears was 7-of-11 from the floor and had four of her steals by halftime equaling CU's top individual theft performance from any game all of last season. Her scoring output tied for the 10th best Buff debut in team history.

"I felt comfortable because we were prepared," Spears said. "We worked all week on (San Francisco's) plays, all the screens; flare screens. (The coaching staff) told us what they were going to do. I felt prepared mentally and physically for this game."

With Spears' strong start the game opened up for CU's all-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland who had a game-high 22 points including 15 in the second half.

"The ball movement was great," McFarland said. "Before (opponents) have been able to double-down on me the entire game and tonight after a couple plays in the first half when we were getting good shots (outside), it opened up the post a lot and allowed me to move around."

Freshman guard Britney Blythe made her collegiate debut in her own back yard scoring 11 points with two steals and two assists. The San Mateo, Calif., native led a Colorado bench effort that outscored the USF bench 26-6. Sophomore Aija Putnina corralled nine rebounds and had six points, including her first career 3-point field goal.

"We have several options for players coming off the bench and tonight we wanted players on the floor that could score and I thought that was the difference," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We had five players that could shoot the ball and USF had a difficult job of figuring out who to guard. In the past we've had just one (who could score) and now we have more offensive weapons."

"We wanted to improve our performance on the road this year and I was very pleased with the mental toughness of this team and the decision making on the floor. This team was prepared for what we were going to do and our staff had a confidence level going into the game tonight the way the players have worked in the off season and preseason."

The Buffaloes, which have won just one road game each of the last two years, enjoyed their widest margin of victory on the road since a 71-50 win over Kansas on Jan. 18, 2003. It's also the fewest points CU's allowed on the road since a 45-42 win over Pacific on Dec. 18, 2004.

Colorado's defense shut down San Francisco as the Dons were held to just 37 percent shooting for the game and just 32 in the second half (9-of-28). The Buffaloes had 11 steals — nine in the first half — and overall forced 18 USF turnovers. Lisa Olden led USF with 14 points and seven rebounds while Necolia Simmons had 11 points and seven rebounds.

LOS ANGELES — Southern California took advantage of hot perimeter shooting, rallying 11 3-point field goals to claim a 70-57 decision over Colorado Sunday afternoon at the Galen Center on the USC campus.

USC (1-1) hit a scorching 50 percent from the 3-point arc (11-of-22) and hit timely shots each time the Buffaloes made a run. Brynn Cameron was 4-of-6 from downtown and led USC with 16 points. Simone Jelks, who had just seven 3-pointers all of last season, was 3-of-3 for the afternoon scoring 10 total.

Freshman Brittany Spears led Colorado with 19 points, 14 of which came in the second half. Sophomores Aija Putnina and Bianca Smith each had nine points off the bench.

Colorado's had a first half to forget netting just 16 points while committing 15 turnovers. The Buffaloes made just 5-of-21 from the field (23.8 percent) and had trouble getting All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland involved in the game. McFarland was held to just one free throw for the first 20 minutes with two rebounds.

McFarland finished with seven points and seven rebounds.

Southern California began the game on a 21-7 run, forcing seven Buffaloes turnovers in the first nine minutes and holding CU to just 17 percent from the field (2-of-12). Camille LeNoir, playing in her first game of the season, had seven of her nine points in the opening minutes of the game.

Colorado closed the gap with a 7-0 run on a Spears free throw, and back-to-back 3-point field goals by Spears and Putnina, but Cameron scored five straight to ignite a 16-2 USC run to end the half. The guard combo of Cameron and LeNoir combined for 17 first half points on 7-of-11 shooting, including three 3-point field goals.

McFarland was able to get back on track early in the second half with six points in the opening moments, but each time USC had an answer on the other end. McFarland and junior center Kara Richards combined for six straight to knock the score down to 39-22, but Allison Jaskowiak, and Cameron answered with 3-pointers as the Trojans pushed the lead back to 47-24.

Spears then hit a 3-pointer and followed it up with back-to-back scores as the Buffs went on a 11-2 run to narrow the margin to 49-35 with 12:13 left. However, once again Cameron and Jelks hit back-to-back from downtown to push the USC lead back to 20 (55-35).

Overall Colorado committed 26 turnovers and shot just 38 percent for the game (21-of-55).

BOULDER — Senior Jackie McFarland and sophomore Aija Putnina each tallied double-doubles as Colorado defeated Rice, 72-55, in the consolation game of the 21st Annual Coors Class Saturday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Clemson won the Coors Classic with a 77-67 win over Siena in the championship game.

Putnina, making her first start since a game at Cal State Fullerton on Dec. 7, 2006, led the Buffaloes with a career-high 15 points to go along with 12 rebounds. It's her third career double-double, all three of which have come when she's in the starting lineup. Putnina also added three steals and two blocked shots.

She has a way to go to catch McFarland's numbers, as the All-Big 12 forward registered career double-double No. 39 and her second-straight as she earned All-Tournament honors for the third time. McFarland had 12 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high seven assists. She's actually been closer to a triple-double has she had a school-record eight blocks to go along with a traditional points-rebound double-double in 2005 against South Dakota State.

Colorado shot an overall season-high 47 percent from the field and spread the wealth around as four players scored in double-digits and two others had seven or more. Senior Susie Powers, held scoreless for the first three games of the season, had 11 while freshman Brittany Spears had 10 points to go with seven rebounds and six assists.

Junior Hannah Skildum had eight points and four rebounds off the bench and Kara Richards pitched in seven on a perfect 3-of-3 from the field.

"Last night our look was a result of our shots not going down, and we were also struggling on the defensive end," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "But they were excited about this game and the tournament, and they went into this game with good energy. We knew that things were going to change and I thought they responded well from a very tough loss last night."

Colorado found itself down 13-4 right out of the gate. The Buffaloes, which shot just under 40 percent last night against Siena, made just 2-of-10 to start the game.

Colorado finally found its rhythm by embarking on a 13-0 run capped off by back-to-back 3-point field goals by McFarland and Spears to take a 17-13 lead with 9:18.

The good fortunes continued for the Buffaloes after their initial struggle. Colorado made 11-of-16 to close the half (69 percent) and at one point outscored the Owls 21-2 and led by as many 10 in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado pulled away quickly, beginning the second half on an 8-2 run to take a 47-33 lead and never let the advantage dip below 11.

Rice was led by guard Kadie Riverin who had 14 points, four rebounds and three assists en route to All-Tournament team honors.

BOULDER — When Colorado needed a shot in the arm to get going against Northern Colorado, the Buffs looked to their seniors to step it up, and they answered.

Forward Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 26 points and point guard Susie Powers had 12 points, eight assists and seven rebounds to lead Colorado to a 69-60 win over Northern Colorado Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado improves to 3-2 overall while the Bears fall to 3-3.

McFarland, who became the ninth player in team history to reach 1,400 career points (1,424), sparked a 23-4 first-half run to overcome a slow start by the Buffaloes. UNC hit its first four 3-point field goal attempts and built a 19-11 lead in the first 8:56 of the game.

Coming out of a media timeout with 10:56 remaining in the first half, McFarland took over. The All-Big 12 Conference performer scored 10 straight points capped off by a 3-pointer to give CU a 21-19 lead. After Kate Kevorken tied the game at 21, CU sophomore guard Bianca Smith kept the momentum by in the home team's favor by hitting three 3-pointers in a span of 2:17. Caley Dow and Whitney Houston finished off the run with back-to-back buckets to give the Buffs a 34-23 advantage.

Powers had six of her career-high eight assists in the first 20 minutes, two of which went to McFarland during her 10-0 run. Powers, whose 16 assists against only three turnovers this season leads the Big 12, scored nine of her career-best tying 12 points in the second half.

CU built its lead to 55-41 early in the second half as McFarland and Powers each hit a pair of 3-pointers during the run. UNC answered with six straight to cut CU's lead to eight, but Powers' third 3-pointer of the half sparked a 7-0 run to give the Buffs their largest lead of the game at 62-47.

The 3-pointer was a big weapon for the Buffs against UNC. CU made 13 from downtown, its most since a similar baker's dozen against Iowa State on Jan. 10, 2007. Colorado was 8-of-21 in the first half alone, with the 21 attempts breaking the school record of 20 attempts in one half set against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004. Colorado ended up at 13-of-36, with the 36 attempts just one short of the school record for a game which is 37 against Buffalo. CU, which had 10 3-pointers against Rice on Saturday, has hit double-digits in 3-pointers in back-to-back games for the first time in school history.

Sophomore Aija Putnina had a career-high 15 rebounds and tied a personal best with four blocked shots for Colorado, which held UNC to just 34 percent from the field. McFarland finished with eight rebounds and three blocks while shooting 8-of-11 from the field.

Whitley Cox led Northern Colorado with 21 points and five assists. Courtney Stoermer had 13 points and nine rebounds while Danielle Hagen had a team-high 12 rebounds.

BOULDER — Jackie McFarland scored 21 points, Brittany Spears matched her career high with 19 and Colorado upset No. 21 Wyoming 69-55 on Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Colorado (5-2) snapped a 23-game losing streak against ranked opponents and ended a three-game series skid against the Cowgirls. CU's last win against a ranked opponent was a 69-59 win over then-No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004. The Buffaloes were ranked 14th at the time. In ending that streak, the Buffs prevented Wyoming (6-1) from its first 7-0 start in nearly 30 years. Overall, CU has won four straight for the first time since winning five in a row in December of 2004.

Wyoming built a 14-7 lead as the Buffaloes made just three of their first 19 shots from the field. The Buffaloes then heated up as a pair of Bianca Smith 3-pointers and one by Spears capped off an 11-2 run to knot the game at 18-18. CU eventually held a 27-26 lead at the break.

Colorado opened it up early in the second half as Spears had eight points in a 10-0 run that gave CU a 50-38 lead with 10:54 remaining. Spears, who had 14 second-half points, capped the streak by hitting all three free throws after being fouled by Megan McGuffey on a 3-point attempt.

Wyoming responded to that surge with a 14-3 run that cut the Colorado lead to one at 53-52 with 5:11 left in the game. Smith answered for the Buffaloes with two consecutive 3-pointers that led to a 12-0 run, allowing CU to pull away.

McFarland had 15 points in the second half, including eight in the final 4 minutes. Smith ended with a season-high 16 points and also dished out three assists.

"I thought tonight's game came at a very pivotal time for us," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I thought that we were coming off our best performance of the year (against CSU). To host a nationally ranked Wyoming team with such experience, was very pivotal. With this game we could have gone either way and I thought the timing of the game was good. Wyoming is a great team."

Susie Powers had another solid game for Colorado finishing with a career high nine assists and tying a personal best seven rebounds. The Buffaloes, who had averaged more than 20 turnovers in their first six games, committed a season-low 13. The Buffaloes had 21 assists on their 23 baskets and have 20-plus assists in three straight games for the first time since the 2001-02 season.

"This was a huge game for us for a lot of different reasons," McFarland said. "Wyoming is just as much as an instate rival as Colorado State is. To play them for three years and have not (defeated) them, is definitely the best win of my career. How this team plays when we have a ranked team in here, and to get a win is a sign that we are definitely moving up."

Colorado shot 61 percent in the second half and outscored Wyoming 42-29 in the final 20 minutes. Justyna Podziemska led the Cowgirls with 19 points, and Hanna Zavec scored 16.

McFarland had 15 points in the second half, including eight in the final 4 minutes.

Wyoming was off to its best start since going 8-0 to open the 1978-79 season. Colorado also handed the Cowgirls their first loss that season, too, 81-66.

Vanderbilt	18	33	51

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Sophomore guard Bianca Smith scored a career-high 22 points off the bench, and Colorado held off No. 20 (AP)/17 (WBCA) Vanderbilt for a 62-51 win Sunday.

Colorado (6-2) has won five straight for the first time since the 2004-05 season and has wins over ranked teams in back-to-back games for the first time since the 2002 NCAA Tournament. CU defeated No. 22/21 Wyoming at home on Wednesday 69-55. Smith had 16 points off the bench in the win over the Cowgirls.

"(This week) has been a great confidence booster for me and the the whole team heading into the rest of the preseason," Smith said. "It's also motivating for us to continue to work hard, being able to see what we can do (against a ranked team)."

Much like the Wyoming game, Colorado built a sizeable second half lead, had it almost vanish, but recover and pull away at the end. The Buffaloes led 52-32 with 7:07 to play before the Commodores went on a 17-0 run to cut the lead to 52-49 with 3:01 remaining. But Colorado made 10 consecutive free throws in the final 1:47 to secure the victory.

"We are playing with a lot of confidence right now and that shows in our execution and the way in which we have prepared," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Most importantly we've got five players on the floor that can make plays."

Jackie McFarland scored 12 points in a 27-5 run in the second half that helped the Buffaloes build a 20-point lead.

McFarland had 16 points for Colorado. Liz Sherwood led Vanderbilt (8-3) with 22 points. Redshirt freshman center Courtney Dunn, whose 6-4 size provided a key defensive match up against Sherwood, had five points and five rebounds.

Brittany Spears had eight points, a team-high seven rebounds and three steals.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half, with Vanderbilt shooting 40.9 percent from the floor and Colorado 38.9, and the Buffaloes couldn't have imagined a worse start committing eight turnovers and missing two field goals on their first 10 possessions. Despite the turnovers, Vanderbilt could only build an 8-0 lead before the Buffaloes fought back.

Smith gave CU its first points with a long two with 13:54 remaining in the half and just kept on going. Smith scored 13 of CU's first 17 points on 5-of-7 shooting and her 3-pointer at the 7:57 mark gave the Buffaloes their first lead at 17-14.

Colorado struggled with turnovers early, but so did the Commodores. The Buffaloes had 15 in the first half, but Vandy nearly countered with 14. The Commodores were held scoreless for nearly nine minutes before Sherwood and Jennifer Risper scored consecutive baskets as Vanderbilt retook the lead at 18-17.

The Buffaloes were able to get to the free-throw line in the final minutes of the half as McFarland and Hannah Skildum hit four straight to give CU a 21-18 halftime lead. Later in the half, Vanderbilt went 8-34 without scoring. Colorado took advantage, as Smith scored 13 of the team's first 17 points, capped by back-to-back 3-pointers, to give the Buffaloes a 17-14 advantage.

BOULDER - Three players scored in double-digits and a solid defensive effort propelled Colorado to its seventh-straight win with a 57-43 decision over Dartmouth Friday night at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado (8-2) has its best record to begin a season and longest winning streak since its 2003-04 NCAA Tournament team won nine-straight during a 12-2 start.

Freshman Brittany Spears had a game-high 13 points and senior Jackie McFarland recorded her 41st career double-double by netting 12 points and 11 rebounds. Junior Kara Richards had season-highs with 11 points and seven rebounds while hitting a perfect 5-of-5 from the field.

The Buffaloes won their second-straight game with defense. Colorado shot just 39 percent and equaled its lowest offensive output of the season, but the Buffs defense held its own holding the Big Green 23 percent shooting. Colorado blocked 13 Dartmouth shots, the second-highest single-game total in team history trailing only a 16-block effort against Sam Houston on Dec. 14, 2000. Spears and McFarland led the way with four blocks apiece.

CU, which gave up just 29 points against Texas Southern in its last game, held an opponent under 50 points for the fourth time this season.

Dartmouth started off on the right foot as Koren Schram's third 3-point field goal of the first half gave the Big Green a 20-15 with 10 minutes left in the period.

Colorado started to come alive immediately after thanks to its bench. Sophomore Bianca Smith answered Schram just under a minute later with a 3-pointer of her own to begin a 20-4 Buffs run over the final 9:15 of the half. Richards had four of her seven first-half points during the run, but more importantly countered Dartmouth's ability to crash the boards.

After Dartmouth held a 14-8 rebounding edge early, seven of which came on the offensive end, Richards 6-4 size allowed the Buffaloes to even out the rebounding total by halftime and would eventually claim a 43-40 edge for the game.

Spears narrowly missed a double-double by corraling nine rebounds. Freshman Courtney Dunn had five.

Dartmouth scored the first five points of the second half to narrow the gap to six at 35-29, but Smith once again answered a Big Green run hitting a 3-point field goal. CU never allowed the lead to dip below seven after that, but cold shooting on both sides prevented either team from making any type of move. Colorado was 30 percent from the field in the second half while Dartmouth shot just 23 percent.

Schram and Kristen Craft each had 11 points to lead the Big Green.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland scored 22 points and Brittany Spears added 17, guiding No. 25 Colorado to an 81-38 win over Southern Utah on Friday night.

The Buffaloes (9-2) have won eight straight games. The streak has helped vault the team into the top 25 for the first time in three years.

Southern Utah (2-9) lost its 30th straight road contest, including seven straight this season. The Thunderbirds haven't won on the road since a win over St. Mary's on Dec. 10, 2005.

With her 22-point outing, McFarland moved into eighth place on the Buffaloes' all-time scoring list. She now has 1,510 career points.

Bianca Smith came off the bench to score 12, including three 3-pointers. Ajla Putnina had six points and Susie Powers dished out seven assists.

Spears entered the game as the leading scorer among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference, averaging 13.3 points. She also had five rebounds and two steals.

Kaila Goff led Southern Utah in scoring with seven points. Anne Westwood, the Thunderbirds' leading scorer, finished with six points, and didn't score her first basket until early in the second half. She also had eight rebounds.

The Buffaloes closed the first half on a 13-0 run to take a 44-20 lead into the break. It's the third straight game the Buffaloes have closed the opening half on a big spurt, going on a 20-4 run in a win over Dartmouth and a 15-0 burst against Texas Southern.

Colorado started the second half where it left off, going on a 12-0 run to up the lead to 36 points. The Buffaloes led by as many as 43 points. The Thunderbirds finished with 21 turnovers, which is one below their season average.

BOULDER - Jackie McFarland had 19 points and eight rebounds to help No. 23 Colorado win its 10th straight, 65-53 over Pepperdine on Friday night at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Bianca Smith added 18 points and Brittany Spears had 16 for Colorado (11-2) which is off to its best start since beginning the 2003-04 season 12-1. The Buffaloes begin their Big 12 Conference season on Wednesday at Missouri.

"I think right now we've come in and played strong," McFarland said on CU's 11-2 start. "I couldn't be happier. This is what I came to Colorado for; the tradition of winning. I can't keep a smile off of my face." Daphanie Kennedy led Pepperdine (5-8) with 15 points. The Waves have lost six in a row, all on the road. The Waves open West Coast Conference play Jan. 10 at Gonzaga.

Trailing by 15 at the break, Kennedy hit a short jumper to get Pepperdine within 38-33 with 18:08 to play and then McFarland took over for Colorado.

McFarland muscled in four layups and Smith added a 3-pointer in a three-minute span for a 49-32 lead. Two free throws by Kennedy with 1:50 left got Pepperdine to within 61-53 with 1:50 left, before Smith's basket and two free throws put the game away for Colorado.

"All I can say is that this team has the characteristics of a top 25 team," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "They show up everyday, practice hard and the seniors are leading this team. It's nice to have the recognition and I think they have earned that. This team isn't worried about getting higher in the rankings, they just keep the same mentality they've had all season."

Pepperdine led only once when Kennedy buried a 3-pointer 39 seconds into the game. The Waves then promptly missed their next 14 shots.

While the Waves struggled, Colorado went on a 19-1 run. McFarland scored seven of the points to put the Buffaloes ahead 19-4.

Miranda Ayim's basket with 7:53 remaining capped an 11-0 run, but Smith came off the bench to hit three 3-pointers in the last seven minutes as Colorado pulled away to a 36-22 halftime lead.

Susie Powers had a career high 10 assists for Colorado, the most by a Buff since Whitney Law's school record 15 on Nov. 18, 2005 against Cal State Fullerton.

BOULDER – Jackie McFarland had 24 points and Brittany Spears had a double-double but it wasn't enough as No. 19 Texas A&M defeated No. 25 Colorado Wednesday night at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

Danielle Gant scored 24 points and Takia Starks added 18 for the Aggies (13-4, 1-2), who avoided their first 0-3 Big 12 start since the 2003-04 season.

McFarland, who became the fifth player in CU history to register 1,600 career points (she now has 1,614), hit 8-of-13 from the field and made 8-of-12 from the free-throw line while also grabbing nine rebounds and blocking two shots. Spears had 11 points and a personal-best 12 rebounds for her third career double-double.

Colorado (12-4, 1-2) led for most of the game before Morenike Atunrase's only basket of the night gave Texas A&M the lead for good, 66-64, with 1:35 left. A'Quonesia Franklin hit six free throws in the final 30 seconds to seal the win for the Aggies.

Starks hit a 3-pointer with 4:22 left to give Texas A&M a 58-57 advantage, their first lead since hitting the first basket of the game. Starks extended the lead to three with another basket, but Colorado took the lead back on two free throws each from McFarland and Spears.

Colorado led 50-41 midway through the second half when the Aggies rallied. Starks hit two buckets, Sydney Colson had a steal and a layup and Gant had four points to pull the Aggies within 55-54 with 6:16 left.

Earlier in the half, Texas A&M had cut Colorado's lead to 36-34 with 16:51 left, and the Buffaloes responded. Sophomore Bianca Smith hit two 3-pointers and McFarland and Aija Putnina hit two free throws each to stretch the advantage to 46-37 with 14:43 left.

The Aggies stayed within striking distance in the first half despite poor shooting and a 15-2 disadvantage in free-throw attempts. Texas A&M, which came into the game shooting 40 percent from the field, shot just 33 percent in the first 20 minutes, and leading scorer Takia Starks was 2-for-9 from the field.

The Buffaloes weren't much better from the field, hitting just 37.9 percent of their shots and were 1-for-13 from behind the 3-point line. They held a 32-28 lead at the break thanks to an advantage from the line. Colorado was in the bonus with 13:32 left in the half and outscored the Aggies 9-1 from the stripe.

Colorado held a 36-18 advantage in free-throw attempts for the game. Putnina narrowly missed a double-double of her own with 10 points and nine rebounds. Susie Powers had seven assists, three rebounds and two steals.

LUBBOCK, Texas – Senior Jackie McFarland tied a season-high 28 points, but cold shooting doomed Colorado as Texas Tech claimed a 62-44 decision in a Big 12 Conference game Saturday afternoon at the United Spirit Arena

Colorado falls to 13-6 overall, 2-4 in league play as the Buffs haven't won at a Big 12 Southern Division school in their last 12 tries dating back to a win at Baylor in 2004. Texas Tech improves to 14-6, 2-4.

The Buffaloes suffered their lowest point output of the season due to shooting just 24 percent from field. McFarland hit 57 percent, making 8-of-14, but the rest of the team hit just 13 percent (5-of-40) as the Buffs had their lowest team total since making just 13-of-56 (.232) against Texas in 2005.

McFarland was the only CU player to hit a field goal in the final 28 minutes of the contest and had 28 of CU's final 31 points. She hit 10-of-11 free throws leaving her just two shy of Bridget Turner's school record of 494 set from 1985-89.

Despite a heavily taped shooting hand, Aija Putnina scored Colorado's first eight points, hitting her first three field goal attempts and the Buffs had it knotted up at 10 early.

Texas Tech's Dominic Seals, who led the Lady Raiders with 21 points and nine rebounds, then began to take over. She scored four straight points and a Raquel Christian 3-pointer gave Tech a 17-10 lead. Colorado answered with the next five, thanks to a Bianca Smith put back and three free throws from Putnina and McFarland, but the Lady Raiders one-upped the CU run scoring nine straight, six coming from Seals, to give Texas Tech a 26-15 lead.

McFarland brought CU back scoring the next seven points, including a 3-pointer, which halted Tech's 11-0 run, but Seals scored the next four points and Christian hit another 3-pointer to give Tech a 35-26 halftime lead.

Texas Tech then put the game away by opening the second half on a 12-0 run. The Buffaloes missed their first 10 shots of the period and didn't score until a McFarland layup with 11:05 remaining in the game. Free throws from Brittany Spears and Britney Blythe accounted for Colorado's lone scoring other than McFarland in the second half.

Putnina finished with nine points and six rebounds. Spears had six rebounds but made only 1-of-11 from the field scoring four points, the low of her young career.

AMES, Iowa – Colorado struggled offensively for the second-straight outing as Iowa State claimed a 65-45 win over the Buffaloes in Big 12 Conference action Wednesday night at Hilton Coliseum.

Colorado drops its third straight on the road after beginning the season 4-1 away from Boulder, falling to 13-7 overall and 2-5 in the Big 12. Iowa State breaks its own three-game skid improving to 13-6, 2-4.

The Buffaloes shot just 31 percent from the field (15-of-49) and were held under 50 points for the second-straight game. The last time CU endured back-to-back sub-50 point games was during the 1983-84 season in losses to Colorado State (48-63) and UNLV (41-67).

Senior Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 18 points as she was the Buffs' only double-digit scorer for the second-straight game. McFarland made 7-of-13 from the floor as she has now shot 50 percent or better in 17 of 20 games this season, but the rest of the Buffs' roster was just 8-of-36 (.222) on the evening.

McFarland became CU's all-time leader in free-throws made by making 3-of-3 from the line to move her career total to 495. She passes Bridget Turner who made 494 from 1985-89.

Sophomore guard Whitney Houston scored nine points off the bench hitting three of CU's five 3-point field goals. For Houston, it was her highest point total since scoring 11 in a home loss to Siena on Nov. 23.

Colorado opened with an early 12-9 lead before Iowa State heated up from the field. Heather Ezell hit a 3-pointer with 10:58 remaining in the first half to tie the game and spark a 21-6 Cyclones' run. Iowa State hit four of its six first-half 3-point shots during that run and held a 21-13 advantage on the boards.

The Buffaloes were able to cut the lead to 10 at halftime after Houston hit her first 3-point field goal since November and Hannah Skildum hit a pair of free throws as ISU took a 35-25 lead into the lockerroom.

Iowa State put the game away with an 18-4 run to open the second half. The Cyclones hit 10 of their first 19 3-point attempts before missing their last four to finish the game at 43 percent.

Amanda Nisleit led ISU's balanced attack with 16 points. Alison Lacey and Kelsey Bolte each had 15.

Iowa State dominated on the boards, outrebounding Colorado 43-27. Bolte led the way with eight while Nisleit had seven.

BOULDER — In a game of runs, Nebraska had a couple more than Colorado and at the right time as well.

Brittany Spears and Bianca Smith each had 19 points but a 19-7 Nebraska run to end the game gave the Huskers an 80-71 Big 12 Conference win Wednesday evening at the Coors Events Conference Center.

Colorado (13-8, 2-7 Big 12) trailed by two at the half (36-35), but Spears scored six points during a 12-5 run to open the second period, giving the Buffaloes a 47-41 lead. Nebraska (16-6, 6-3) answered with six straight points to tie the game, five of which were scored by Kelsey Griffin who led all players with 25 points.

The Buffaloes struggled on the inside as All-Big 12 forward Jackie McFarland was held to just one free throw and just 0-of-2 from the field. For McFarland, who entered the game averaging 18.9 points per game, it was her lowest output since being held scoreless in her first ever Big 12 game at Nebraska on Jan. 5, 2005. McFarland did have 10 rebounds for the 45th double-digit rebounding performance of her career.

Although McFarland was held in check, other Buffs made sure it was a competitive game all the way to the end. Spears was 6-of-14 from the field and also had eight rebounds, six assists and two blocks. Smith, making her second start of the season, tied a career high with five 3-point field goals and was 7-of-15 from the floor overall.

CU's bench also provided a big spark. With McFarland being double-teamed the whole night, junior forward Caley Dow had her best Big 12 game of 2008 registering season-highs with eight points and seven rebounds in 30 minutes. Sophomore guard Whitney Houston had 10 points, her most since she had 11 against Siena on Nov. 23, with two assists and one steal.

Colorado held a 64-61 lead with 3:51 left after Smith layup, but it quickly vanished when Yvonne Turner hit her third 3-pointer of the night to tie the game. Danielle Page gave Nebraska the lead on a turn-around jumper and on the next possession, Turner stole the ball from Houston and took it all the way in to give the Huskers a 68-64 advantage. Griffin scored the next time down the floor for Nebraska and the Huskers put the game away with free throws hitting 10-of-12 in the final 1:37.

After falling behind 11-4 to open the game, Colorado stormed back with a 15-0 run. Smith hit three consecutive 3-point attempts on the run and good ball movement allowed for easy layups by Houston, Dow and Spears. Nebraska trimmed the lead to four at 19-15 before an 8-0 run gave CU its largest lead of the game at 27-15.

However the lead didn't last as Nebraska hit five 3-pointers in the final 5:21 of the first half during a 21-8 run to take a one-point lead at halftime.

NORMAN, Okla. - Oklahoma's Courtney and Ashley Paris combined for 48 points and 20 rebounds to lead No. 10 Oklahoma to an 82-66 win over Colorado in Big 12 Conference action Saturday night at the Lloyd Noble Center.

Jackie McFarland and Brittany Spears each had 19 points to pace the Buffaloes (13-10, 2-8 Big 12) who have dropped five straight and eight of their last nine. Oklahoma improves to 17-4, 7-2 in league play.

Courtney Paris had a game-high 30 points and 14 rebounds for the 87th double-double of her career. Sister Ashley had 18 points and six rebounds. The twins made 22-of-35 shots (.629) as Oklahoma outscored CU 50-22 in the paint. As a team, the Sooners shot 53 percent from the floor.

The Buffaloes kept the game close in the first half. After withstanding a 10-2 OU run to open the game, Colorado responded with a Spears bucket, a Bianca Smith 3-pointer and a Caley Dow putback to close the gap to three at 12-9. Oklahoma pushed its lead back to seven at 18-11 on one of Courtney Paris' 14 field goals, but CU went on a 10-4 run with 3-pointers from Spears and Courtney Dunn as the Sooners led just 22-21 with 8:03 remaining in the half.

Oklahoma built its lead back up to nine at 35-26 with just 2:25 remaining, but CU wouldn't quit. McFarland made back-to-back shots along with a free throw as the Sooners took a 37-31 lead at the break.

Oklahoma scored the first six points of the second half on two Courtney Paris layups and another by Ashley. The Buffaloes made one last good run as Smith hit 3-pointers on back-to-back possessions to bring CU to within six at 45-39 with 16:56 remaining.

The Sooners scored seven straight, capped off by a Nyeshia Stevenson 3-pointer, to take a 52-39 advantage and never let the lead dip back below double-digits.

Spears had five rebounds and two blocks to go along with her 19 points, equalling her scoring output from the Nebraska game on Feb. 6. Her 307 points on the season are the most by a CU freshman since Erin Scholz had 343 in 1993-94.

McFarland had seven rebounds and was 8-of-14 from the floor as she became the eighth player in team history to reach 600 field goals (601). Smith finished with 15 points, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range as she moved into ninth place on CU's all-time list for 3-pointers with 86.

The Buffaloes received a scoring boost off the bench from Dow and Dunn. Dow had seven points and tied a season high with seven rebounds while Dunn had six points and five boards.

Stevenson finished with 16 points for the Sooners while Danielle Robinson had 11.
