2006 COLORADO FOOTBALL: GAME 12 — NEBRASKA

Friday, November 24 at Lincoln (1:36 p.m. MST; ABC national broadcast)

RELEASE NUMBER 12 (November 19, 2006)

QUICKLY SPEAKING...

The Colorado Buffaloes (2-9, 2-5 Big 12) close out the 2006 season Friday, November 24, in the annual day-after-Thanksgiving match-up against North Division rival, the No. 23 (AP)/19 (Coaches) Nebraska Cornhuskers (8-3, 5-2 Big 12) in a 1:36 p.m. MST kickoff at Memorial Stadium... The game will be televised nationally by ABC, the 11th consecutive time for a CU-NU game (and the 16th of the last 18); Mark Jones (play-by-play), David Norrie (analyst) and Bonnie Bernstein (sidelines) will call the action... This will be the 1,100th game in Colorado football history... Colorado won't be going to a bowl for just the fifth time since 1984, and this is just school's fourth losing season in that time frame (1997, 2000, 2003 and 2006)... Nebraska has clinched the Big 12 North Division title, its first since 1999, ending a six-year run where Colorado and Kansas State shared the six between 2000 and 2005 (CU won four of those crowns)... NU is No. 22 in the Nov. 19 BCS Standings... CU over NU? Sure, check out this chain: CU beat Iowa State (33-16), who beat Missouri (21-16), who beat Kansas State (41-21), who beat Oklahoma State (31-27), who beat Nebraska (41-29)... CU is out to prevent just its third 10-loss season in 117 years of intercollegiate football (going 1-10 in 1980 and 1984) as well as to end a 13-game losing streak to ranked teams... Receivers coach Eric Kiesau will celebrate his 34th birthday on game day (Nov. 24)... Colorado's lost nine games by an average of 9.9 points, including four by five points or less, with its two wins by an average of 20.5 points... In 12 standard team statistical rankings in conference games only, CU holds the edge in seven of them, most notably total defense (2nd; NU is 9th); NU holds a similar edge in total offense, however (3rd to 10th for CU)... Colorado is coming off a 33-16 win over Iowa State, as the Buffs scored 23 unanswered points after each team scored a touchdown on their first possessions in building a 30-7 third quarter lead en route to the win... CU's website, www.CUBuffs.com features game day updates and live stats for all games. DEPTH CHART ON PAGE 60; ROSTER ON PAGES 61-62

STAT OF THE WEEK

Colorado is 29th in the nation in fewest penalties (55 in 11 games, or 5.0 per); that's dramatic improvement over 2005, when CU was 115th in the nation, flagged for 123 times (9.46 per 13 games) for an NCAA-high 1,084 yards. CU is 39th in fewest yards penalized at 44.1 per outing. The Buffaloes were penalized just 15 times over a five-game span (games 6-10), the lowest five-game count in school history (three different times CU had 17 over a 5-game run). CU was penalized a season-high 10 times in the Iowa State game, very uncharacteristic for this year's squad. They paid for it in conditioning...

OBSCURER NOTES OF THE WEEK

- Colorado has allowed just five plays from scrimmage of 40 yards or longer (three pass, two rush); that stands to be the fewest since the 1987 season, when the Buffs surrendered just four (two rush, two pass). Over the past 20 years, CU has limited the foe to six three other seasons (1991, 1994, 1995) and to seven 40-plus plays seven times, most recently last year. The 12 allowed over the last two seasons ties the second fewest over a two-year span, trailing the 11 over the 1987-88 seasons and matching the dozen in the '94 and '95 seasons. The seven allowed in '05 were reduced from 14 in 2003 and 15 in 2004, as opponents had piled up 70 plays of 40 yards or longer between 1999 and 2004 after allowing just 83 between 1987 and 1998.
- Neither CU nor the opponent has thrown an interception the last two games. That's the first time that's happened since... the first two games of this season. So what, you may ask? It's actually pretty rare; it's happened only three other times over the last 30 years involving Colorado (last two games of 1994, first two games of 1998 and the last two in 1999).
- Opponents are 19-of-31 on third downs in the red zone against Colorado, though are just 2-of-5 on fourth down inside-the-20. By comparison, CU is 7-of-24 on third down once it penetrates the enemy 20, and is 1-of-6 on fourth down.

MEDIA SERVICES

- Coach Dan Hawkins holds a Tuesday press luncheon in the Dal Ward Athletic Center, starting at 11:30 a.m. with lunch, followed by Hawkins beginning the interview session promptly at Noon. This year's dates: Sept. 5-12-19-26, Oct. 3-10-17-24-31, Nov. 7-20 (Monday)-28, Dec. TBA (bowl). NOTE that there are no organized press luncheons on Aug. 29 (prior to opener) and Nov. 14 (bye week). The press conference portion of the luncheon is streamed live on www.CUBuffs.com (in the Stampede Online area); all press conferences on CUBuffs.com are free and thus do not require access codes.
- Hawkins can be heard Mondays on the Big 12 Football Teleconference Call at 10:40 a.m. MT. All coaches participate; please call 706/679-2026 for access (media only—you must register). The teleconference replay is available after 2 p.m. MT the same day through www.Big12sports.com or for access, call 706/634-1618.
- Video highlights of CU football games are available Tuesdays on the Big 12 Conference's satellite highlights package, which can be found at Galaxy 3C, Transponder 21 (C-band), 4120 MHz vertical, standard audio 6.2-6.8 MHz between 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. MT from Aug. 29 through Dec. 5 (trouble number: 972/868-1862). Special requests can also be made through CU's BuffVision (Deric Swanson or Eric Pelloni: 303-735-3637).
- The Colorado lockerroom (home and road) is closed after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be made available (a list of players will be solicited immediately following the game; no cutoff to request players).
- Colorado's regular season football practices are closed to the general public (August 23 on; preseason practices prior are open) but are open to the media. The first 25 minutes of practices in-season are, however, open for photography (video) needs from the end zones and sidelines. Extensive parameters listed in CU media policies.
- This year's standard meeting/practice schedule (mountain time, pre-time change): Sunday (3:15-5:00, 5:15-6:15); Monday (off); Tuesday (2:30-3:40/4:00-6:15), Wednesday (2:30-3:40/4:00-6:15), Thursday (2:30-3:40/4:00-6:00), Friday (3:00-4:00, evening meetings).
- Interviews with Colorado players are allowed post-practice on Sundays, pre- and post-practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays and pre-practice Thursdays (the cutoff moves up to pre-Wednesday practice for Friday games). Phone interviews with out-of-town media are allowed all four days in all time slots. Interviews on Mondays are at the discretion of the player, as it being the standard player day off (no meetings/practice), CU can't arrange due to NCAA rules.
- Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Big 12 football. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each member school throughout the season. The conference office will distribute login information to accredited media, and media members can also apply for a password by e-mailing password@collegepressbox.com.
- CU On-Line Photo Database. The CU sports information service has an online photo database that allows registered members of the media instant access to print quality head shots of all CU coaches and student-athletes as well as action shots of key players. Registration is easy: for a login and password, simply log on to www.CUBuffs.com, select "Sports Information" from the "Athletic Department" menu located on the left navigation bar and follow the instructions.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE INTERNET

- Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Visit the official CU site at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes and press conference broadcasts (free). "Stampede Online" offers the opportunity to listen and/or watch live game action of several CU athletic teams. Breaking news with the program will be found here first every time and delivered in full without others editing out what they might deem unessential.
- Yahoo.com is now the official site for subscription service for audio-only broadcasts, as all football and men's and women's basketball games will be streamed through Yahoo! Just visit the Game Day Live area of the site or link through the Yahoo! Button on the left side navigation bars.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE AIRWAYS

- KOA-Radio in Denver (850 AM) originates the 14-station CU Football Network, with sports director Mark Johnson in his third year as the play-by-play voice of the Buffs. Larry Zimmer (analysis) is in his 33rd season broadcasting Colorado football (he handled play-by-play from 1971-81 and 1985-2003). Former CU quarterback Charles Johnson (pre- and postgame shows/sidelines) is in his second year filling in for former CU All-American Bobby Anderson (who did 29 years of broadcasts but is on sabbatical at present as he resides full-time in California tending to a new business venture).
- Wednesdays at 7 p.m., the Dan Hawkins Show originates from The Millennium Harvest House Hotel in Boulder, with Mark Johnson and Zimmer hosting the program.
- Satellite Radio: Sirius Satellite Radio is home to Big 12 broadcasts; the CU-Nebraska broadcast will air on channel 181 (CU/KOA radio network feed) and 143 (NU feed).
- FOX Sports Net Rocky Mountain is the television home of the Buffaloes, as "The Buffalo Stampede" will be seen in the six-state FSN area every Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. (adjusted when the Colorado Rockies are playing in September). Assistant AD and former CU QB Charles Johnson hosts the program; the show will air August 24 through the end of basketball season for the men and/or women. FSN's "CU All Access" takes a behind the scenes look at the overall CU football program with the weekly show always airing on Tuesdays (10:00 p.m. on Sept. 19 and 26, with replays set for the following Wednesday at 6:30 a.m.—all times mountain).

IN THE POLLS

Colorado was not ranked in the Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches polls of November 19, and was not in the preseason (the Buffs received one point in the coaches' ballot); CU was also not in the final 2005 rankings. Last year, the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the November 6 coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. Dating back to the 1989 preseason, CU has been ranked in 185 of the last 291 polls (AP; 64%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). CU has been ranked 292 times in its history, the 21st most all-time. Since 1989, CU has played the fourth most ranked teams in the nation (91), trailing Florida (98), Florida State (94) and Michigan (94).

Injuries will be updated in-game, post-game, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

2006 HONORS CANDIDATES

There are a few Colorado players worthy of consideration for national and conference honors as the second half of the season is now in full swing; more could be added to the below list. Those of you who participate in such ballots, please take a look at the below Colorado Buffaloes who we feel are worthy of consideration.

PK MASON CROSBY All-America, All-Big 12 Candidate (Lou Groza Award Semifinalist)

See more on Crosby elsewhere in these notes (pages 18-20)... The consensus first-team All-American in 2005 and two-time first-team All-Big 12 Conference performer is again leading CU in scoring with 74 points, making all 17 of his PAT kicks and 19-of-27 field goals; his average make has been from 40.6 yards while his average miss is 51.8; his miss attempts include 65, 63, 61, 57 and 56 yard attempts... He has the second longest field goal in NCAA Division I-A this fall (56 yards).

OG BRIAN DANIELS All-American Candidate (Outland Trophy Watch List)

He has missed just one snap on offense (660 of 661; he lost a shoe on the other)... His play improved the second half of the season... Has allowed just one QB sack (just 1½ over the last 3 seasons) and has been called for just three penalties... An NFF Scholar-Athlete and finalist for the Vincent Draddy Award with a 3.53 GPA in Finance.

C MARK FENTON All-American Candidate (Lombardi, Rimington Award List)

Still on the active Rimington list, his season was sidetracked as he missed six games after suffering a broken fibula in the Georgia game... Had seen action for CU's first 180 snaps of the season and had not allowed a sack or been flagged for a penalty... A finalist for the Rimington Award in 2005 (one of 6).

ILB JORDON DIZON All-Big 12 Conference Candidate (Dick Butkus Award List)

He is the team leader in tackles with 118 (71 solo), as he had a career-high 16 versus Texas Tech and came back with 15 at Oklahoma... Has 79 stops in Big 12 play... Has posted 10-plus tackles seven times... Owns a team-best 17 third down stops to go with four sacks, a forced fumble, two recoveries, a PBU and two TD saves.

ILB THADDAEUS WASHINGTON All-American Candidate (Lombardi, Dick Butkus Award Lists)

Second leading tackler on the team (96 stops, 53 unassisted)... Recorded a career high of 19 at Oklahoma, including four third down stops... Has five games with 10 or more tackles (also had 15 against Arizona State)... Has six tackles for loss, along with six third down stops, four passes broken up and a forced fumble and a TD save... suffered two cracked teeth early in the Kansas State game but would actually return to the game.

CB TERENCE WHEATLEY All-American Candidate, All-Big 12 Candidate

Second in the Big 12 in interceptions with five (and is 16th in the NCAA)... Has played the most snaps on defense (700, missing only 24, 23 of which came after suffering a concussion against Iowa State); he is seventh on the team in tackles with 51 (40 solo)... He has 10 pass deflections and nine third down stops to go with a pair of fumble recoveries and four touchdown saves.

DE ABRAHAM WRIGHT All-American Candidate (Ted Hendricks Award List)

He has racked up 55 tackles including 16 for losses and 11 ½ sacks (third in the nation); it had been 14 seasons since a Buff recorded 10 or more sacks in a season; his sights are now on the single season record of 14. He also has 16 quarterback hurries (and two caused interceptions), eight third down stops, three passes broken up, two touchdown saves and a forced fumble in playing 642 snaps—89 percent of CU's total plays (724) on defense.

FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN CONSIDERATIONP MATTHEW DILALLO

Currently ranked fourth in the Big 12 and 12th in the nation in punting with a 43.6 average, he the top freshman punter in the nation (the next frosh appears at 39th). He has placed 13 punts inside-the-20 (four inside-the-10), has seven longer than 50 yards with a best of 73, a CU freshman record, and has not recorded a touchback.

FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN CONSIDERATIONTE RIAN GEER

Bidding to become the first freshman, wide receiver or tight end, to ever lead CU in receiving, as he has 23 receptions for 247 yards and two touchdowns, with 14 earning first downs. He also has more catches and yards than any other freshman tight end in the Big 12 and the second most by any freshman in conference.

2006 HONORS TO DATE

The list of in-season honors claimed by Colorado players in 2006:

SERIES HISTORY—COLORADO vs. NEBRASKA

Nebraska leads the all-time series by a 45-17-2 count, which includes a 22-9-2 edge in Boulder and a 23-8 advantage in Lincoln (but where CU has won the last two). Colorado's 62-36 win in 2001 in Boulder knocked the Huskers out of the No. 1 spot in the BCS Standings; two years later at Folsom, Nebraska rallied for a 31-22 win and knocked the Buffs out of a postseason bowl. CU returned that favor with bigger implications in 2004, as a 26-20 win in Lincoln dropped NU to 5-6 on the year and ended the Huskers' run of 35 straight bowl game appearances.

➔ The two first met in 1898, making it the second oldest rivalry in CU's books (the Colorado State series began in 1893). The winner of the CU-Nebraska game, even though not at the end of the year, wound up deciding the Big Eight champion in the conference's last seven years of existence, with CU winning the league crown in 1989 and 1990. The two shared the title in 1991 and Nebraska captured the last four (1992-95). Thus, it was only fitting that the pair met to determine the Big 12's first North Division champ in 1996 (Nebraska won, 17-12 in Lincoln). CU has faced Nebraska 18 times when the Huskers were either undefeated or had just one loss (nine times each); CU's had zero or just one loss on eight occasions, and both schools were ranked in the top 25 in every meeting from 1988 through 1996, as they were again in 2001.

➔ This is the 24th time in the last 26 years that one or both teams are ranked, though neither was in 2004 or 2005; that includes 19 times when either CU or NU were in the Associated Press Top 10.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW — Over the last decade, Nebraska's last seven wins in the series have been by a combined 51 points, but 27 of those were in last year's 30-3 win in Boulder; the other six were by an average of four points per. Colorado's three in this frame have been by 47 points. Nine of the last 17 games in the series have been decided by six points or less, and the loser has scored 31 or more four of the last seven outings.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 5th. In 2001, Nebraska rose to No. 1 in the BCS Standings and were No. 2 in both polls, and the experts expected the Huskers to roll to an easy win over the Buffs in Boulder. But CU was no slouch, entering the game with an 8-2 including a 6-1 mark in league play, and needing a win to secure its first Big 12 North title and appearance in the league's title game. What transpired created college football history, as TB Chris Brown scored a school-record six touchdowns and rushed for 198 yards as Colorado built a 35-3 lead early in the second quarter en route to a 62-36 win. The Huskers didn't give in until the fourth quarter (when linebackers visibly were avoiding collisions with the powerful Brown), but did close to within 42-30 at one point in the third quarter. NU quarterback Eric Crouch had a monster game (360 yards of total offense, 182 on the ground), his effort cementing him as the winner of the Heisman Trophy. Colorado had 582 yards offense, including 380 rushing as TB Bobby Purify added 154, and that was without a 78-yard touchdown run called back due to a hold well away from the play.

BUFFS & CORNHUSKERS BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia or fun facts with Colorado and Nebraska:

- 8 The wind chill factor at kickoff of the November 2, 1991 game, which ended in a 19-19 tie.
- 0 The number of first downs CU allowed NU on November 18, 1961, an NCAA record, in the Buffs' 7-0 victory.
- 7 The number of times Nebraska has passed for 200 or more yards against CU in its history (1965, 1966, 1967, 1989, 1995, 2004, 2005, going 4-3).
- 7.3 The average margin of victory for Nebraska in its seven wins in the series in Big 12 play (1996-2000, 2003, 2005; outscoring CU, 193-142).
- 11 The combined distance of four Eric Bieniemy touchdown runs (all in the fourth quarter) in CU's 27-12 win at Lincoln in 1990.
- 16 The number of tackles CU's Butkus Award winning linebacker Matt Russell had in the '96 Nebraska game.
- 31 The total offense by Nebraska in the November 18, 1961 game in Boulder, won by CU, 7-0 (on 35 offensive plays).
- 31 The number of players on CU's roster for the 1994 Nebraska game who went on to play in the NFL.
- 45.9 The average game time temperature of the last 16 games in the series between CU and Nebraska (66 last year, 46 in Lincoln in 2004).
- 57 The length in yards of a field goal made by CU's Dave DeLine on October 25, 1986, the third longest field goal in school history.
- 70 The yards covered on the famous pitch from Darian Hagan to J.J. Flannigan that tied the 1989 game at 7-7 in the first quarter.
- 71 The combined distance of six Chris Brown touchdown runs (three in each half) in CU's 62-36 win in Boulder in 2001.
- 85 The yards Greg Biekert returned a blocked extra point in the 1991 game in Boulder, the only defensive PAT in CU history.
- 90 The number of plays run by Nebraska in the 2005 game, the most in the series since 1992, when the Huskers ran 91.
- 165 The rushing yards by Rashaan Salaam against Nebraska in 1993, the second most yards rushing by a Buff in the history of the series.
- 198 The rushing yards by Chris Brown against Nebraska in 2001, the most yards rushing by a Buff in the history of the series.
- 404 The number of rushing yards CU earned in the 1957 game, its most in the series.
- 582 The number of total yards CU earned in the 2001 game, its most in the series.

THE SET-UP

Going back over the last 22 years, when Colorado has entered a Nebraska game with a .500 or worse record, it's given the Cornhuskers all they could handle and then some. It's only happened five times, all five games are memorable for a variety of reasons, topped by the 1986 games, when a 2-4 Colorado stunned the college football world with a 20-10 win over the No. 3 Huskers; CU had opened 0-4 that season but would play Oklahoma for the Big Eight title a month later. A closer look:

Records Going In
Season	CU	NU	Result	(Half)	Notes
1984	1-5	5-1	L 7-24	(7-3)	First time CU led Nebraska after three quarters (7-3) since 1967 (No. 5 NU outgained CU 452-137, but had 3 turnovers to none for CU).
1986	2-4	6-0	W 20-10	(10-0)	Called "the turning point" in CU's eventual rise to the national championship, first CU win in series since '67. NU came in ranked No. 3.
1997	5-5	10-0	L 24-27	(3-10)	Down 27-10 to No. 2 NU. CU scores twice in 39 seconds in 4th quarter, but final rally ends with a 22-yard pickup to the 50 on 4th-&-25.
2000	3-7	8-2	L 32-34	(10-21)	CU cuts No. 9 NU lead to 31-30 with :47 left and makes 2-point play, but Huskers rally behind Eric Crouch and Josh Brown 29 FG at gun.
2003	5-5	8-3	L 22-31	(16-21)	No. 25 Huskers rally with 10 points in last 8:30 to bounce the Buffs from bowl eligibility, but NU coach Frank Solich fired the next day.
2006	2-9	8-3	?		CU out to avoid third 10-loss season in its history, Nebraska's final tune-up before Big 12 title game (its first since 1999)

THE LAST TIME... NEBRASKA 30, COLORADO 3

NOVEMBER 25, 2005 (IN BOULDER)

BOULDER — Colorado needed a win on senior day to advance to the Big 12 Championship game, but Zac Taylor and Nebraska had other ideas as the Cornhuskers unleashed one of their most potent offensive games of the season in defeating the Buffaloes, 30-3.

Taylor threw for 392 yards and two touchdowns in surviving being sacked five times to lead the Huskers to the win, the fourth in a row by the visiting team in the series. He had 167 yards and a TD pass in the decisive second quarter, in which Nebraska scored 17 points in breaking a 3-3 tie in building a 20-3 halftime lead.

Things started off well enough for the Buffs. The CU defense forced two incomplete passes with Brian Iwuh sacking Taylor on third down to end the Huskers' first series of the game. When the Buffs got the ball, Hugh Charles scampered 45 yards up the middle on CU's first play, and then caught an 8-yard pass from Joel Klatt on the next one set CU up at the Nebraska 16. But the drive stalled and Mason Crosby drilled a 33-yard field goal to get CU on the board in what turned out to be the Buffs' only lead—and points—of the day.

Nebraska countered immediately with a 10-play drive that produced a 26-yard field goal from Jordan Congdon to knot the game at 3-3, setting the stage for its offensive explosion in the second quarter. In putting 17 points into the books on a Taylor to Cory Ross 19-yard touchdown pass, an Aaron Glenn 1-yard run and another Congdon field goal, the Huskers rolled up 201 yards of offense in the quarter in taking control of the game.

Colorado never got much going in the second half, possessing the ball for all of 10:16 after intermission, including just 2:33 in the fourth quarter as the Huskers played ball control after taking a 24-point lead. That was attained midway in the third quarter on a 21-yard touchdown pass from Taylor to Nate Swift that capped a 76-yard drive with 6:30 left in the period.

Congdon added a 32-yard field goal with 2:02 left in the game to account for the final points of the day.

Nebraska amassed 497 yards on offense, the most against Colorado on the year, and one of only three times a team posted over 400. The Buffs finished with 212 yards, 111 of which came on their first and last possessions of the game. Charles had 78 yards to lead all ball carriers in the game, while Ross had a career day catching the ball, as the diminutive NU tailback caught nine passes for 129 yards.

Quarterback Sacks—Colorado: Wright 1-8, Iwuh 1-7, Th. Washington 1-7, Dawn 1-6, Garee 1-2. Nebraska: Ruud 1-8, Smith 1-4, Carricker ½-6, Cryer ½-6, Adams ½-5, Moore ½-4.

NEBRASKA NOTES

Nebraska is 8-3 overall, and with a 5-2 record in conference play, the Cornhuskers have clinched their first Big 12 North Division title since 1999 (Colorado—four—and Kansas State won the six between 2000 and 2005). Two of the Huskers' losses have come to teams when they were in the top five, USC and Texas, with the third loss against a rejuvenated Oklahoma State team, but that did come the week following a late, narrow loss to Texas. Nebraska has been ranked in the top 25 most of the season (mostly between 20th and 25th), only falling entirely out of all three major polls one time (after a 41-29 loss at Oklahoma State).

➔ Nebraska head coach Bill Callahan is in his third season at the reins of the Huskers, owning a 21-13 record. He was head coach of the NFL Oakland Raiders for two seasons (2002-03), going 15-17 in the regular season; his '02 team won the AFC West and the AFC Championship but lost to Tampa Bay in Super Bowl XXXVII. He was 2-2 against the Denver Broncos and Mike Shanahan.

➔ Nebraska is coming off a come-from-behind 28-27 win at Texas A&M, marching for the winning points after blocking an Aggie field goal try. NU raced to a 21-7 lead in the second quarter, only to see A&M score 20 straight points to take a 27-21 lead with 7:28 left in the game. Nebraska had the game's lone turnover, with A&M owning a slight edge in total offense (443-390) though containing a potent NU rushing attack to 123 yards on 38 tries (32 per).

➔ Husker junior WR Maurice Purify is actually an uncle of former Colorado TB Bobby Purify, despite the fact that he will turn 21 in January and Bobby will be 25 next month.

NEBRASKA HAS STRUCK QUICK

Nebraska has had some uncanny luck scoring right out of the gate against the Buffaloes. Dating back to 1989, the Huskers have taken a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game six different times, with quick scores on two other occasions. A closer look:

Season	Player	Scoring Play	Score	Time	Notes
2003	Matt Herian	58 pass from Jammal Lord	0- 7	10:15 1Q	NU's second drive, seventh play overall is fourth 50+ yard opening TD
2000	Carlos Polk	39 interception return	0- 7	14:11 1Q	Second play of the game
1999	Dan Alexander	50 run	0- 7	14:45 1Q	First play of the game, after CU on-side kick attempt
1998	Clint Finley	42 interception return	0- 7	11:09 1Q	First play on CU's second series (CU's fourth overall)
1995	Ahman Green	57 run	0- 7	13:13 1Q	NU's first offensive play of the game
1993	Calvin Jones	4 run	0- 7	13:17 1Q	NU's first offensive play of the game (after 68 punt return)
1992	Calvin Jones	3 run	0- 7	13:46 1Q	CU intercepted on first play, NU scores on its fourth
1989	Bryan Carpenter	51 pass from Gerry Gdowski	0- 7	13:30 1Q	NU's first offensive play of the game

CU-NEBRASKA THANKSGIVING TRADITION

The annual meeting between the two shifted to the Friday after Thanksgiving in 1996 in the first year of the Big 12 Conference, and so far, only last year's game has been a "stinker" in the first 10 games. Nebraska holds a 7-3 edge, though the Huskers' first six wins were by a combined 24 points (the first five between 1996-2000 by a total of 15 points), with CU's three by a total of 47. However, CU's wins were not without excitement: in 2001, NU came in ranked No. 2 in both polls but No. 1 in the BCS Standings; CU zoomed to a 35-3 lead early in the second quarter, only to see the Huskers battle back behind Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch to cut the lead to 42-30 early in the third. But CU's Chris Brown's six touchdowns on the day paved the way for CU's 62-36 win. In 2002, CU left Lincoln with a 28-13 win, its first in Nebraska's capital city since 1990, but it was a 14-13 contest entering the fourth quarter. And in 2004, the Buffs led 26-7 in the fourth, but NU rallied for two scores but never got the ball back with a chance to go ahead as CU ran out the clock.

➔ One team or the other seems to finish strong against the other since both joined the Big 12. Overall, in the 10 games, the Buffs have outscored Nebraska, 83-48 in the fourth quarter; however, in the first seven games that margin was 83-22, but in the last three, Nebraska has owned the fourth with a 26-0 edge. In the five games in Boulder, thanks to CU running a hurry-up offense on two occasions, the Buffs own a 58-19 edge in the fourth; in the five games in Lincoln, Nebraska has the advantage by 29-25.

WALL STREET JOURNAL RANKS CU-NEBRASKA RIVALRY SIXTH BEST

In a survey published in November 2005, the Wall Street Journal ranked the Colorado-Nebraska rivalry as the sixth best over the previous decade (limited to traditional year-end match-ups). The WSJ based its rankings on game quality (combination of two factors—halftime and final margins and the number and timing of scores and lead changes) and rivalry quality (records of each team heading into the game, the rivalry record over the previous nine years, and the number if significant upsets). In the game quality category, CU-NU was ranked No. 1, thanks to six games being decided by six points or less, with a No. 12 rank in the rivalry quality (Michigan-Ohio State was tops, followed by Florida-Florida State). The top 15 rivalries as ranked by the WSJ (game quality and rivalry quality in parenthesis):

1	Florida-Florida State (3,2)	T4	BYU-Utah (3,9)	T8	Washington-Washington State (2,16)	13	Pittsburgh-West Virginia (13,9)
2	Georgia-Georgia Tech (5,4)	6	Colorado-Nebraska (1,12)	10	Oklahoma-Oklahoma State (15,4)	14	Arkansas-LSU (18,8)
3	Alabama-Auburn (8,3)	7	Arizona-Arizona State (5,11)	11	Oregon-Oregon State (12,7)	15	California-Stanford (9,19)
T4	Michigan-Ohio State (11,1)	T8	Virginia-Virginia Tech (14,4)	12	USC-UCLA (5,15)

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 24

Colorado is 7-7 all-time on November 24, most of which have been played on the road, as CU is 3-1 at home but 4-6 on the road with six days left in the turkey month. The Buffs last played on this date in 2000, also at Lincoln in the only Nov. 24 match-up between the two schools. Nebraska led 14-10 at the half, but the second half would see six lead changes, including two in the final minute. NU took a 31-24 lead with 5:20 left on a 26-yard run by Eric Crouch, but Buff QB Craig Ochs led the Buffs right back on an 11-play, 68-yard drive and threw a 15-yard TD pass to John Minardi. The Buffs went for two and made it on an Ochs to Javon Green pass, going up 32-31 with 47 seconds left. But Crouch led the Huskers back on a seven-play, 47-yard march that ended with Josh Brown's 29-yard field goal as time expired, giving NU a 34-32 win. 1921—Nothing like the way the old Coloradoan yearbook summed up games back then, as this was its take on a 10-7 win over Colorado Mines to win the RMAC title: "With the conference championship at stake, a desperate aerial attack was launch and (Walt) Franklin consummated the winning score." Nice using of the English language, but in the very next graph, losing was spelled, "loosing." 1923—A 20-3 win at Wyoming was summed up in two sentences: "(Myron) Witham's second team went into the game against Wyoming and ran up 20 points to the Cowboys' 3 in the first half. The score remained that until the end." No word if that won a Pulitzer. 1932—The yearbook reports CU handily outplayed bitter rival Denver, but DU won 6-0. In the first documented trip into the red zone in CU annals, the then-Silver & Gold "hammered the powerful Denver line back to within the very shadow of its goal posts." A fourth-and-goal from the 1 was described as CU's "final, mighty thrust. The ball was given to (Al) Oviatt. He catapulted himself on top of the solid human wall which rose up to meet him. The gun barked the end of the half as the players were unpling. Oviatt will always swear he was across the line, but the officials did not see it that way." (Hey, I can't make this stuff up.) 1951—CU ends the regular season with a rare game outside the conference or region in traveling to East Lansing to play No. 2 Michigan State. It hasn't happened since, as the Spartans had 510 yards of offense, 380 on the ground, in dispatching the Buffaloes by 45-7. 1956—No. 20 Colorado tunes up for its first Orange Bowl appearance with a 38-7 win at Arizona; Bob Stransky had 100 yards and a touchdown rushing, with John Bayuk scoring three times. 1962—CU coach Bud Davis, who resigned 10 days before the season finale with Air Force but had it publicly announced five minutes before the end of the game, took a 1-8 team into the game against the Falcons, a three-TD favorite. A fired up Buffalo team routed the Academy 34-10 to send him out a winner. 1973—Kansas State tops CU in Boulder, 17-14, in what would be Eddie Crowder's last game as Colorado head coach. 1979—CU ends a 3-8 campaign with its second straight win, a 21-6 verdict over Kansas State in a cold, snowy Boulder. Bill Solomon threw for 166 yards and two touchdowns in the win, as Bill Roe had 24 tackles.

NOVEMBER 24 COLORADO MVP: TB Cortlen Johnson. The Buff junior rushed for 155 yards and three touchdowns in CU's 34-32 loss at Nebraska in 2000. He also caught three passes for 27 yards in helping CU top the Huskers in total yards (451-435) and first downs (28-23).

FIRST YEAR COACHING COMPARISON

Dan Hawkins isn't the only coach in Colorado history who has struggled in his first season. In fact, for whatever reason, it's more the norm, as going back to Dal Ward's inaugural year (1948, when CU became a member of the Big Seven Conference), only one coach had a winning record and one other a .500 mark out of the 10 who have piloted the Buffs over the last 59 seasons. The one winning coach, Rick Neuheisel, was the only one who was a member of the CU staff as an assistant the previous season (he's also the only one to win his opening game). All nine coaches before Hawkins suffered greater margins of defeat in their losses; CU has lost its nine games by an average of 9.9 points this season, Ward lost six games his first season by 11.2 points and Gary Barnett five games by 12.8 his first campaign. A closer look at the first seasons for CU's last 10 head coaches:

WALK-ON INFLUENCE

Six current or former walk-ons have made starts for Colorado in 2006, easily the most in recent memory and second to Kansas State in the Big 12 this season. The six, all offensive players, have combined to make 11 starts, but all have been regulars on offense as well as special teams: TE Dan Goettsch (4 starts), WR Cody Crawford (2), WR Nick Holz (2), TE Paul Creighton (1), TB Mell Holliday (1) and FB Samson Jagoras (1).

WASHINGTON SNARES BUFFALO HEART AWARD, GEARS FOR HUSKERS

The 9th annual Buffalo Heart Award, presented by the "Fans Behind The Bench" was awarded after Colorado's 33-16 win over Iowa State in an informal postgame presentation on the CU sideline to ILB Thaddaeus Washington. The award goes to the senior who the fans, from their own observations, believe has best exemplified heart, grit, determination and desire during their CU career. Washington is the first linebacker and the third defensive player to win the award.

➤ Perhaps it's fitting Washington won the award ahead of the Nebraska game, which history shows he gets into the mental frame of mind to play his best. As a freshman in 2003, he had two tackles and a third down stop in limited play, no precursor to what he has done the last two meetings. In 2004, he had 10 tackles, two interceptions, two other passes broken up, two third down stops and a tackle for loss in CU's 26-20 win in Lincoln. Last year in Boulder, the 30-3 loss, he had 14 tackles, three for losses including two sacks and a third down stop. So in three games against Nebraska, his career line reads: 26 tackles (13 solo), four for losses, two sacks, four third down stops, two passes broken up and two interceptions.

FORMER COACH BILL MCCARTNEY ON THE PASSING OF BO SCHEMBECHLER

Comments from former CU head coach Bill McCartney on the passing last Friday (Nov. 17) of his mentor, former Michigan coach Bo Schembechler. McCartney was an assistant coach at Michigan under Bo between 1974 and 1982 before taking over the CU program on June 9, 1982:

"To me, he was the consummate coach. When he got done coaching, he was still giving to the game. He only got out because of his health, and knew he couldn't put his body under that kind of constant pressure. But he stayed as close to the game as he could. Right on up until he died, he was a big part of the Michigan football program. I was told he spoke the team just the night before (he died). They named a Fieldhouse and a beautiful complex after him; he will be remembered forever.

"During the 20-year stretch he coached, he won more games than any other Division I coach. Fame can come in a moment, but greatness comes with longevity. You may be able to do it once, but can you do it again. He was great because he did it over two decades, and that is how you measure greatness. You measure the body of work, year-after-year.

"I was with him for eight-and-a-half years. He hired me out of the high school ranks, and I was the only high school coach he hired at Michigan. I can't begin to describe or put into words what that meant to me. He was tremendous student of the game, a taskmaster, a dynamic leader and the greatest motivator I've ever been around. He was a disciplinarian, but his players loved him. He was the kind of the guy who ran a tough, hard-nosed program. I am like everyone who ever played or coached for him, making arrangements to go back to the funeral, and I don't think there will be enough room wherever they hold it. Everyone will be there, that's what he meant to those who came in contact with him."

ON HOW HE FOUND OUT—"I was at the store, and when I came out, I had four messages on my cell phone, three from people in Michigan. Lyndi (his wife) heard it first and when she got the news, she just wept. We loved the guy; he meant so much to us and to our family. We feel a great loss along with everyone associated with the University of Michigan."

SCHEDULE STRENGTH

Through games of November 18, Colorado is playing the nation's 70th toughest schedule nationally (as calculated by the NCAA on cumulative opposition records for the season). Cincinnati leads the pack, as its opponents are combined 65-37 for a 63.7 winning percentage; Michigan (75-46, 62.0), South Carolina (65-40, 61.9), USC (72-45, 51.5) and Florida (66-41, 61.1) round out the top five. CU's opponents are 51-53 (49.0), 74th on the list overall. Texas tops the Big 12 list (8th, 65-44, 59.6), followed by Oklahoma State (9th), Texas Tech (37th), Nebraska (41st), Baylor (42nd), Texas A&M (44th), Missouri (45th), Oklahoma (61st), Kansas State (68th), CU, Iowa State (76th) and Kansas (99th). Texas' was helped by playing 12-0 Ohio State, and the southern schools aided by playing UT, OU & A&M (26-7).

SENIOR FINALE

The Nebraska game will be the career collegiate finale for 22 of CU's 24 seniors. Seventeen are fifth-year seniors, including 10 who were members of the 2002 recruiting class, along with five who walked on as true freshmen that same year. Four hail from the 2003 recruiting class who played as true frosh, with the other four players who transferred in from other institutions. One senior, CB Vance Washington, will petition for a sixth-year of eligibility due to injuries, and a 24th senior, S Dominique Brooks, is redshirting while complete rehab. The 22 seniors playing their last game (letters include those earned for 2006):

FANTASTIC "RED" FRESHMEN

Two Buff redshirt freshmen continue to have pretty good seasons.

➤ TE Riar Geer leads the team in receiving (23 catches for 247 yards; no other Buff has more than 19). No freshman, true or redshirt, has ever led the Buffs in receiving, and his 23 receptions are the most by a freshman tight end in school history, besting the 20 by Brody Heffner Liddiard in 1996. Liddiard also holds the yardage record at 288, still within striking range for Geer.

➤ P Matt DiLallo is fourth in the Big 12 behind Baylor's Daniel Sepulveda and 12th in the NCAA with a 43.6 average (he's 2.9 out of the league and NCAA lead, as Sepulveda is tops in both). He'll become just the third player to have led CU in punting as a freshman, joining Stan Koleski (38.2 in 1973) and Andy Mitchell (38.3 in 1994); neither went on to become one of the Buffs' six All-Americans at the position. DiLallo also rose to the occasion in the Baylor game and out-punted the defending Ray Guy Award winner Sepulveda in both gross (51.8 for four punts, to 49.8 for four) and in net (45.8 to 44.8). DiLallo had two inside-the-20 (one inside-the-10) with a long of 63 with an 11-man rush at the end of regulation. He struggled a bit in the gusting winds at Oklahoma, but still out-punted his Sooner counterpart, posting a 35.5 average on six punts, three of which were into the teeth of the wind, with a 35.7 net; OU's Michael Cohen had a 32.6 number on five boots (32.4 net). Mitchell's 38.3 average is the best ever posted by a CU freshman, which DiLallo should beat barring a disastrous season finale.

CROSBY NOW CU'S ALL-TIME LEADING SCORER

When he opted to return to CU for his senior year instead of turning professional early, CU's all-time scoring mark was one of the records PK Mason Crosby had his eyes on. Well, that record is now his: with 74 points on the season (19 FG, 17 PAT), Crosby passed TB Eric Bieniemy into first place on the list with 305 points; Bieniemy scored 254 between 1987 and 1990. Crosby will become just the third player to lead the Buffs in scoring three different years; he led the team in 2004 and 2005; Bieniemy did it thrice (1987, 1988, 1990) as did PK Jeremy Aldrich (1997, 1998 & 1999).

Crosby also set one of the more unique records in school history, as with 46 points against Iowa State, he now owns the CU career record for the most points scored against one opponent. The old record had been 42 points, held by Byron White against Utah, John Bayuk against Arizona and J.J. Flannigan versus Kansas State; the record would be less obscure if media guides could be more than 208 pages, but (insert choice word here) NCAA rules limit books to that size (except its own; it's 592 pages). Here's the list of most points scored against one opponent:

Player	Points	Opponent	Seasons	Breakdown
Mason Crosby	46	Iowa State	2003-06	12-13 FG, 10-11 PAT (1-1, 5-6 in 2003; 4-4, 1-1 in 2004; 3-3, 1-1 in 2005; 4-5, 3-3 in 2006)
Byron White	42	Utah	1935-37	6 TD, 3 PAT, 1 FG (0 TD, 0 PAT in 1935; 4 TD, 1 PAT in 1936; 2 TD, 2 PAT, 1 FG in 1937)
John Bayuk	42	Arizona	1954-56	7 TD (4 TD in 1954, 0 TD in 1955, 3 TD in 1956)
J.J. Flannigan	42	Kansas State	1987-89	7 TD (0 TD in 1987, 3 TD in 1988, 4 TD in 1989)
Eric Bieniemy	36	Kansas	1987-90	6 TD (1 TD in 1987; 2 TD in 1988, 0 TD in 1989/injured; 3 TD in 1990)
Chris Brown	36	Nebraska	2001-02	6 TD (6 TD in 2001, 0 TD in 2002/injured)
Byron White	35	Colorado Mines	1935-37	5 TD, 5 PAT (0 TD, 0 PAT in 1935; 1 TD, 2 PAT in 1936; 4 TD, 3 PAT in 1937)

Old kick-scoring mark:

Jeremy Aldrich	30	Kansas	1996-99	6-7 FG, 12-12 PAT (0-0, 0-0 in 1996; 0-0, 6-6 in 1997; 1-2, 2-2 in 1998; 5-5, 4-4 in 1999)

JACKSON QUIETLY MAKING HISTORY

Junior QB Bernard Jackson has quietly made some history in 2006; the often-traveled (in regards to position switches) “B-Jax” has finally settled in at his natural and preferred position and has shown marked improvement since being handed the keys to the Colorado offense in game two of this season. Always explosive in practices and scrimmages, once he had the chance to show he could do the same in game action, he’s displayed the same kind of numbers. He has 28 runs of 10 or more yards (three 30-plus, six 20-plus), and 64 of five or longer. It’s all added to 661 rushing yards for the season, the third most ever in a single-year by a CU quarterback. When deducting the number of times and yards sacked, Jackson’s true per carry average of 6.4 yards is bested by just one player, Kordell Stewart (7.1 in 1993 and 6.6 in 1994). A look at the top 10 single-season rushing performances by a quarterback in Colorado history:

Quarterback	Season	Att.	Yards	Avg.	TD	Sacked/Yds	True Rushing
							Att.	Yards	Avg.
Darian Hagan	1989	186	1,004	5.4	17	9/ 52	177	1,056	6.0

Kordell Stewart	1993	102	524	5.1	6	12/114	90	638	7.1

Other Jackson Jots:

- He has thrown 43 consecutive passes without an interception (just two in his last 89 attempts);
- His seven touchdowns have covered 76 yards; he has the one 62-yard burst (against Kansas State), but the other six have all been short jaunts;
- He did not throw his first touchdown pass until his 107th pass of the season; he has six in his last 90 throws. His quarterback ranking prior to his first TD pass was 85.0 (106-51-4, 561 yards); since, it is 123.1 (90-46-3, 607, 6 TDs). Many of Jackson’s throws (19) have been deliberate throws out of bounds to avoid taking a sack or on broken plays, or his completion percentage would be a bit better.

BILLINGSLEY MAKES HISTORY

Senior SS J.J. Billingsley has 208 unassisted tackles in his career, as when he had six solo stops at Missouri, he became just the 10th player in school history to record 200 solo tackles. Only two defensive backs had previously broached the plateau, Michael Lewis (225, 1998-2001) and Mickey Pruitt (201, 1984-87); both were also safeties. Lewis (336) and Pruitt (332) rank eighth and ninth all-time in tackles at Colorado, but are positioned 1-2 in tackles by a defensive back. Billingsley is currently 14th all-time with 301, which is the fourth DB; Steve Rosga, another safety, is in the third spot with 304 (181 solo). He unfortunately suffered a torn meniscus in practice the Tuesday (Oct. 3) following the Missouri game, underwent arthroscopic surgery, and subsequently missed five games (Baylor, Texas Tech, Oklahoma, Kansas, Kansas State) before returning to start in his Folsom Field finale against Iowa State. He went out with nine tackles, four solo.

DEFENSE SHAPING UP TO BE CU'S BEST SINCE 1998

Colorado’s defense showed marked improvement last season and was the best statistically since 1998. Well, guess what? This year’s appears to be even better, the Kansas State game aside. The Buffs’ rushing defense continues to be the strong suit, and there is improvement against the pass along with a sub-7 average per pass play figure. The 329.4 allowed per game stands to be the lowest since the Buffs surrendered 296.0 in 1998. Here’s a look at CU’s defensive numbers games every season since that year (final totals for all eight years—reminder, CU does NOT include bowl stats):

SUB-300 BECOMING THE NORM

That CU 1998 team held five opponents to fewer than 300 yards total offense, including a pair of top 15 teams. Between 1999 and 2002, 10 were held below that barrier, and in 2003-04, two didn’t reach 300 (in 2004, all gained at least 342, with eight earned 400-plus on the Buffalo “D”). But starting in 2005, the 300 figure has been anything but automatic for the opponent: Colorado has held 10 of its last 23 opponents to under 300 yards total offense, with just five teams picking up over 400 (no team has hit 500 since Texas A&M racked up 532 on Oct. 23, 2004). Five have not reached CCC (that’s 300 in roman numerals) this season, with just Arizona State (430) and Kansas State (439) topping the CD mark (or 400).

BUFFS SPORT NATION'S NO. 25 DEFENSE IN STOPPING THE RUN

Colorado's defense against the run in 2005 was the best in school history. The Buffs allowed 95.3 yards per game, ninth nationally in the regular season (CU finished 11th including the bowl game). The school record for a season had been 114.2, set in 1990 and matched in 1994. Only two other years have the Buffs allowed fewer than 125, when the opponent had 115.5 in both 1965 and 1989. That same defense against the run has carried into the 2006 season, as the Buffs are ranked 25th in the nation, allowing 105.4 yards per game, while allowing just 3.18 yards per rush (22nd in the NCAA). CU is allowing between 19 and 37 yards per quarter (allowing between 18 and 29 a year ago). It all adds up to consistency. Prior to 2005, the Buffs had last finished in the top 20 in rushing defense in 1994, when they were 15th, also the highest a Colorado defense had ever finished against the run until last season. It's another indicator that CU is better than its 2-9 record might show:

RUSHING YARDS ALLOWED BY QUARTER							RUSHING YARDS ALLOWED BY GAME
Quarter	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	OT	Total	Opp.	MSU	CSU	ASU	UGA	MU	BAY	TTU	OU	KU	KSU	ISU	NU

- ➔ CU has held 13 of its last 24 opponents under 100 yards rushing, dating back to the 2004 Houston Bowl (a 13th, Missouri, had exactly 100, while Iowa State had 102 and Baylor 110). Six of those times the opponent has failed to top 50, including three games this season, and just one time has a team put over 200 on the Buffs (Texas in the '05 Big 12 title game). Of the nine that have topped the century mark, no team has averaged over 4.9 yards per rush, and only six topped 4.0 per.
- ➔ Inside-the-20 Opponent Rushing: Opponents have 70 rushing attempts in the red zone against the Buffs for a net 124 yards (1.8 per try—and those are all true rushes). Ten have gone for losses, 13 for no gain and 13 others for a single yard. In addition, the opponent is 2-of-8 getting the ball into the end zone once it reaches the 1-yard line (one for six rushing, one of two passing).
- ➔ Allowing For Sacks. Deduct 24 sacks for 164 yards, which is applied to rushing in the NCAA, and the true running picture still isn't the greatest for the enemy: 1,323 yards or 120.3 per game.
- ➔ Opponent Longs. CU has allowed just eight running plays over 20 yards this year (two over 40; the long of 63 was on a broken play by Kansas' Todd Reesing). Through 11 games, 54 percent of opponent rushes (196 of 364) have gone for two yards or less. Dissecting the opponents 364 rushes on the year, you find these play counts: 20-plus: 8. 10-plus: 39. 5-Plus: 100. 2-or-less: 196. Zero: 46. Minus: 66 (includes 24 sacks per NCAA calculation). In 2005, just under 52 percent (218 of 422) of rushes against CU gained two or fewer yards.

100 RUSHING YARDS TOUGH TO GET AGAINST THE BUFFALOES

CU has allowed just one opponent an individual 100-yard rushing game in 2006; Oklahoma's Allen Patrick had 110 yards, but needed 35 carries to get them (3.1 per carry, with 23 rushes for three yards or less). The last two to do it prior to Patrick were Clemson's James Davis (150) in the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl, and OU's Adrian Peterson in the 2004 Big 12 Championship game. CU became the 105th school to allow a 100-yard rusher this season (only seven have not, see below); since 1950, there have only been three occasions where CU did not allow a 100-yard rusher over an entire season (1957, 1965, 1967).

- The Buffs have allowed two 100-yard rushers over the last 24 games (since the start of the 2005 season). In this time frame, only Kansas (one) has allowed fewer in the Big 12 Conference, while all other schools have allowed at least four.
- ZERO 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES ALLOWED IN 2006 (7): Boise State, Boston College, Florida, LSU, TCU, Utah, West Virginia.

SENIOR ANALYSIS

Colorado has 24 seniors on its 2006 roster, 15 of which are starters or practically co-starters in the rotation or on special teams: SS J.J. Billingsley, TE Paul Creighton, PK Mason Crosby, OG Brian Daniels, C Mark Fenton, TE Dan Goettsch, TB Mell Holliday, WR Nick Holz (holder), DE Alex Ligon, WR Blake Mackey, CB Lorenzo Sims, DE Walter Boye-Doe, CB Terry Washington, ILB Thaddeaus Washington and DE Abraham Wright. OG Jack Tipton served primarily in a back-up role until starting the Iowa State game and QB James Cox had his season cut short after suffering a broken thumb at Kansas. Most of the others have some kind of role, and the last, S Dominique Brooks, is recovering from knee surgery and will redshirt this fall.

GRADUATION STAT(U)S

Three of the 24 seniors on the roster have already graduated, having done so this August: OLB Ben Carpenter (business-finance; he is working on a second major in integrative physiology), WR Nick Holz (communication) and DT Marcus Jones (economics; he is working on a second major in sociology). Nine are in position to graduate this December: ILB Jason Ackermann (sociology), QB James Cox (communication), TE Paul Creighton (psychology), OLB Chad Cusworth (business-management), C Mark Fenton (political science), DE Alex Ligon (sociology), WR Blake Mackey (communication), OL Jack Tipton (architecture-planning) and DE Abraham Wright (sociology). Ten others are on target for next May: S J.J. Billingsley (sociology), DE Walter Boye-Doe (business-finance & marketing), PK Mason Crosby (communication), OG Brian Daniels (business-finance), TE Dan Goettsch (sociology), TB Mell Holliday (psychology), CB Lorenzo Sims (sociology), CB Terry Washington (ethnic studies), ILB Thaddeaus Washington (sociology) and CB Vance Washington (sociology). S Dominique Brooks (sociology) and OL Bryce MacMartin (chemical engineering) will likely graduate beyond next May, Brooks due to consideration of a possible redshirt and MacMartin because his major requires additional credit hours. In addition, two juniors, OT Tyler Polumbus (business-management) and WR Dusty Sprague (business-management) are in position to graduate next May.

- ▶ NOTE: Over the last four years (2002-05), CU has had 77 of its 87 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 88.5 percent (with two of the 10 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while three are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, i.e., Wayne Lucier in '02 or WR Mike Duren in '04), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially a tougher academic schools like Colorado.

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffs rank on some of CU's all-time statistical chart 11 games into the 2006 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history):

- ⇒ WR ALVIN BARNETT is tied for 57th in receptions (36) and 90th in receiving yards (353).
- ⇒ FS J.J. BILLINGSLEY is 14th in total tackles (301, fourth most by a defensive back), is ninth in solo tackles (206) and is tied for 22nd in tackles for loss (25).
- ⇒ TB HUGH CHARLES is 22nd in rushing yards (1,609) and 99th in receiving yards (319).
- ⇒ PK MASON CROSBY is first in scoring (305 points), first in field goals made (66) and attempts (87), and first in PAT kicks made (107) and attempts (115).
- ⇒ ILB JORDON DIZON is 22nd in total tackles (261), and is 19th in solo tackles (164).
- ⇒ QB BERNARD JACKSON is 23rd in passing yards (1,226) and is 69th in rushing yards (674).
- ⇒ KR STEPHONE ROBINSON is ninth in punt return yards (593), fifth in punt returns (75), sixth in kickoff return yards (857) and fourth in KO returns (48).
- ⇒ CB LORENZO SIMS is tied for 28th in interceptions (6) and is tied for fourth in pass deflections (33).
- ⇒ WR DUSTY SPRAGUE is 19th in receptions (76) and is 22nd in receiving yards (924).
- ⇒ ILB THADDAEUS WASHINGTON is 11th in total tackles (317), is 11th in solo tackles (190) and is tied for 22nd in tackles for loss (25).
- ⇒ CB TERRENCE WHEATLEY is tied for 12th in interceptions (9) and tied for 21st in pass deflections (17).
- ⇒ WR PATRICK WILLIAMS is tied for 41st in receptions (45) and 64th in receiving yards (470).
- ⇒ DE ABRAHAM WRIGHT is fifth in quarterback sacks (21) and is tied for 16th in tackles for loss (29).

100 TACKLE DOUBLE?

The monster game against Oklahoma posted by the inside linebacker duo of Thaddaeus Washington (19 tackles) and Jordon Dizon (15) set the duo up to be the Colorado's first pair of players to record 100-plus tackles in a season since 2002, and possibly the first pair of 'backers to do it since 1994. Dizon and Washington, both preseason candidates for the Butkus Award (neither advanced to the semifinalist stage, which was announced the Thursday prior to the OU game) rank 1-2 in tackles for the Buffaloes and hope to become the 19th tandem (one did it twice) to post triple digits in tackles the same season:

Dizon and Washington have now combined for 588 career tackles, approaching the most two players have simultaneously ever had while playing on the same team: 599 by Ted Johnson (409) and Matt Russell (190) at the end of the '94 season.

ROAD-SWEET-ROAD: BUFFS 10TH BEST IN ENEMY STADIUMS SINCE '88

The Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 19 seasons. CU has been victorious 57 of the last 90 times in enemy stadiums and is 57-34-1 overall away from home (a 62.5 winning percentage). That stands 10th nationally (eighth in raw wins) and third among Big 12 Conference teams in this span. Going back 21 seasons (to 1985), CU is 65-39-1, a 62.4 winning clip. During this time frame, CU won a school record 10 straight road games between 1994 and 1996. The Buffaloes own a 46-24-1 mark in their last 70 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—five losses at Nebraska, two at Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech; and one each at Baylor, Iowa State, Oklahoma State and Texas A&M; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 21-22 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (0-3 in 2006). The chart to the right does not include neutral site games, despite some being anything but (i.e., Colorado vs. Texas at Irving for the '01 Big 12 title.)

20TH BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's 20th best record over the last 18 seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 142-73-4 record. From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks); that was snapped with a loss to Nebraska late last year. The best Division I-A records from the start of 1989 through games of November 18:

THE BUFFALOES IN THE BIG 12

The Big 12 Conference is now in its 11th season, and the Buffaloes are tied with Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas in the number of division titles won with four. Just half of the schools in the conference have won a division title. A closer look:

- ➔ Big 12 Division Titles (including 2006): Colorado 4, Nebraska 4, Oklahoma 4, Texas 4, Kansas State 3, Texas A&M 2 (South yet to be determined in '06)
- ➔ Big 12 Championship Game Records: Oklahoma 3-1, Nebraska 2-1, Texas 2-2, Colorado 1-3, Texas A&M 1-1, Kansas State 1-2.

CU VS. THE BIG 12 NORTH: Colorado owns the best record in intra-division competition going back to the start of the 2001 season against Big 12 North Division rivals, as the Buffaloes are 21-8 in this time frame. Other records in the same span: Nebraska 18-11, Kansas State 18-12, Iowa State 11-19, Missouri 10-19 and Kansas 10-19. The Buffs are 12-3 at home in this stretch, the only losses to Nebraska (2003 & 2005) and Kansas State (this season).

RUSHING TRIFECTA

This is the 18th time in school history that at least three players have rushed for over 400 yards in a single season in Colorado history, and the first time since 2001. With the emergence of TB Mell Holliday over the last half of the season (363 yards the last six games), the Buffaloes have three threats in the backfield including TB Hugh Charles and QB Bernard Jackson. If Holliday rushes for 55 yards in the finale at Nebraska, the three would become just the 10th group to all have 500 or more yards (only two trios have attained 600 yards apiece, in the 1954 and 1970 seasons). Here's a look at all CU teams with a minimum three players with 400 or more rushing yards and what they've done as a trio (the top three in those seasons where there were more than three):

QUARTERBACK-TAILBACK RUSHING

The duos of QB Bernard Jackson and TB Hugh Charles and Jackson and TB Mell Holliday have emerged as potent 1-2 punches, as the trio has combined for 1,824 yards this season. When merging totals of the QB and the top TB, Jackson and either Charles or Holliday have posted seven of the top 33 yardage efforts by a quarterback and tailback. A closer look (minimum 50 yards by both the quarterback and tailback and 140 by the combo):

CHARLES IS COLORADO'S 48TH TO 1,000

TB Hugh Charles rushed for 109 yards on 20 carries in the loss to Arizona State, becoming the 48th player in Colorado history to have rushed for 1,000 or more yards in a career in the process. Research indicates that the Buffs are one of the all-time leaders in the number of players who have rushed for 1,000-plus yards for a career. Oklahoma currently tops the list with 64, followed by Nebraska and USC (both 54); still waiting to hear back from three prominent schools on their counts. Turns out CU is among the national leaders in the number of players who have reached the career 1K plateau:

HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS

Dan Hawkins is in his first season as head coach of the Colorado program, his sixth year as a Division I-A head coach, and his 11th season as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 2-9 record at Colorado, along with a 55-20 record in the Division I-A ranks (53-11 at Boise State) and an overall career mark of 94-32-1 including five years at NAIA Willamette (Ore.) College. In his final year at Willamette (1997), his team posted a 13-1 record, falling in the NAIA Championship game, before moving on to Boise State where he was assistant head coach, coaching the tight ends and special teams while coordinating recruiting. When Dirk Koetter left BSU for Arizona State after the 2000 season, Hawkins was promoted to head coach. He took the Broncos to four bowl games in five years, with his 2004 team compiling an 11-0 regular season mark and ascending to No. 10 in the national polls; in the most anticipated non-BCS bowl game to date, Boise dropped a thriller to No. 7 Louisville (44-40). In the modern history of Division I-A football, only three coaches won more games in their first five seasons than Hawkins (53: bested by Bob Pruett, Marshall; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma; and Pete Carroll, USC). Hawk's Handiwork:

	Overall	Home	Road	Neutral	Ranked	Unranked	Non-league	Big 12	Bowls

Career (NCAA I-A)	55-20	33- 6	21-12	1- 2	2- 9	53-11	16-12	3- 5	2- 2

- ◆ Hawkins has been a head coach for 127 games (94-32-1), with that record and 74.4 winning percentage seventh in the nation for active coaches with 100 or more games coached for their career.
- ◆ In 11 seasons as a head coach, Hawkins' teams have never been shutout, and had never dropped more than two games in a row in the same season (which happened just three times) until this year and had won at least eight games seven times (10-plus four times).
- ◆ A sample of what Hawkins tells his players: "You're in America, you're going to college, you live in Colorado. You have it better than 90 percent of the people in the world."
- ◆ Hawkins has used the term "conflama" when referring to some people's desire for conflict and drama (i.e., the reason someone like Jerry Springer and that lot is even on the air). He references the term when people on the outside of a program choose to look at the negative without choosing to understand why something may very well be the way it is.
- ◆ Hawk on depth charts: "To be honest, we really don't pay too much attention to depth charts, we run a lot of personnel in and out of there at several positions. For example, I view the defensive line like hockey; they're playing in shifts as we want them fresh." As a result, especially on offense at receiver, tight end and in the backfield, CU utilizes different "groupings" as opposed to following a depth chart.
- ◆ Hawk's response about potential for disaster after the 0-3 start: "There's always potential. When you get in your car and get out on the freeway, there's potential for disaster. I knew when I left Boise State there was potential for disaster. That doesn't scare me... there's also the potential for greatness. So you can hide behind the shadow if you want, but that's not living."
- ◆ TBS play-by-play man Ron Thulin on Hawkins' optimism: "His glass isn't half-full, it's overflowing. He's not going to change. He said they are going to keep fighting and doing the little things everyday. I think everyone on our crew was ready to put on a football helmet after talking to this man yesterday. He is excitable and he cares." Chimed in analyst Charles Davis: "I was looking to get taped and get out to practice that day. If you're around him long enough you can't help but be positive."
- ◆ As with many coaches, at the end of practice, the team will run for turnovers, mistakes, missed field goals, etc. One day after PK Mason Crosby missed a kick within his range, Hawk felt a little bad as he wondered to himself, "How many coaches are making their kids run for a missed 64-yard field goal?"
- ◆ Hawkins is one of the 63 Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll in 2006 (the sixth straight year he is a voter and the 20th straight year CU's head coach has participated).

HAWKINS AMONG THE BEST

Dan Hawkins has one of top records among all active Division I-A coaches; and despite CU's 2-9 mark to date in 2006, he has the 11th best mark and is listed among some of the top names in the profession. A closer look through games of November 18:

THE CLASS OF '06

For 2006, 10 programs hired new head coaches, including Colorado (does not include Northwestern since head coach Randy Walker passed away unexpectedly in July). Here's a look at what coaches make up the "class of 2006" through games of November 18 (*—denotes first college head coaching job):

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. Upstairs are offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich, defensive coordinator Ron Collins, running backs coach Darian Hagan, graduate assistants Andy Avalos and Joe Bever and technical assistants Mike Babcock and Donnell Leomiti. Head coach Dan Hawkins wears a headset on the sideline, along with linebackers coach Brian Cabral, assistant head coach/offensive line coach Chris Strausser, passing game coordinator/receivers coach Eric Kiesau, secondary coach Greg Brown, defensive line coach Romeo Bandison and special teams/tight ends coach Kent Riddle. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

EXPERIENCE

Colorado's 2006 coaching staff is youthful, yet experienced. The 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 86 seasons in Division I-A (including this season) and have combined to coach in 1,052 games through 11 games of the 2006 season (with a record of 633-415-4, .604). The aggregate age of the 10 is 400 years, thus making the average age 40.0, one of the younger staffs in the nation. Linebacker coach Brian Cabral is the elder statesman at 50, followed by secondary coach Greg Brown (48); five of the coaches are over 40, including head coach Dan Hawkins (45), with five under, with offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich the youngest (33). Helfrich is the fifth-youngest offensive coordinator in the Division I-A ranks; the only four younger are Major Applewhite, Rice (28), Brian Harsin, Boise State (30), Lane Kiffin, USC (31) and Ramon Flanigan, North Texas (32). OLD-TIMER

Assistant head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. In his 17th season, he is now third all-time in years coached as a full-time member of the staff, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both who assisted for 18 years each. A closer look:

TBS play-by-play man Ron Thulin had this to say about Cabral: "He's one of the great individuals. Besides being an outstanding football coach he has been the barometer for this football program for the last 17-plus years. He teaches a lot more than just football to these players and that's why Dan Hawkins has kept him on the staff. He's one of the best in the business."

THE SIMULATOR

Coors Field brought "The Humidor" into vogue; could CU be doing the same with "The Simulator?" A computer program from Gridiron Technologies that simulates every play, and aspect for that matter, of the offense tests quarterbacks on their assignments and reads. Coaches monitor the progress through printouts that summarize how the players did. While every offensive player has access to the simulator, offensive coordinator Mark Helfrich finds it particularly valuable for the quarterbacks. Helfrich brought the idea with him from Arizona State, where the program first developed and tested by an ASU alum. Helfrich calls the simulator a hybrid between the standard playbook and videotape.

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001, 2002 and 2004 seasons—when the Buffs won the Big 12 North. The Buffs had advantages of 854-417 (2001), 803-607 (2002) and 574-499 (2004) in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs (this season, the opponent currently has the upper hand at 390-265). And the Buffs have 38 return touchdowns over the last eight seasons (34 regular season, four bowl game), tied for the eighth most in the nation for this span. The overall list through November 18:

MASON CROSBY2005 CONSENSUS FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICAN; RUNNER-UP, LOU GROZA AWARD

PK Mason Crosby was the consensus All-American placekicker 2005, as the Associated Press, FWA, The Sporting News and Walter Camp afforded him the honor. He finished as the runner-up for the Lou Groza Award, losing out to Oregon State's Alexis Serna by just six points (out of 175-plus ballots). He made his debut as a freshman in 2003, but really burst on the scene in 2004 with an assault on the school's field goal records, the crown jewel being a school and Folsom Field record 60-yard kick against Iowa State. He then opened his junior season in grand style on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3), scoring 11 points (3-3 FG, 2-2 PAT) in the 31-28 win over Colorado State. Those included a 48-yard field goal to tie the score at 21-21 with 2:32 left, and a game-winning 47-yard boot with 0:04 on the clock. A first-team all-Big12 performer in both 2004 and 2005, he is CU's first-ever first-team All-American at placekicker as he has continued to rewrite the CU record book.

His first entry in the books in 2005 was when he set the record for consecutive field goals made, and tied the school mark for the longest field goal on the road with a 58-yard field goal at Miami, the longest kick without a tee at sea level in NCAA history. He's adding freely to the book in 2006. Proceed if you want to be impressed:

- ➔ He set four school records in 2004, to go with his record for points by a freshman (52) he established in 2003. He added four more in 2005, and has positioned himself nicely for many career marks, as he added three alone in the season opener against Montana State. He now owns or shares 19 total.
- ➔ He established the CU consecutive field goal made streak with 10 over five games between 2003-04 (ended on a 55-yard try that was wide vs. New Mexico State).
- ➔ The 60-yarder against Iowa State in 2004 was the longest in the NCAA as well as the longest in Division I-A since 1999. It was just the 10th field goal of 60 yards or more in the NCAA since 1988, when tees were no longer allowed; no kicker has made two.
- ➔ His 58-yard field goal at Miami not only preserved CU's scoring streak at 200 games, it is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (see chart on next page). That kick is also tied for the longest in the NCAA in 2005.
- ➔ He had five field goals of 50 yards or longer as a sophomore in 2004, which was not only a CU single season record (several had two), it set a career mark as the old best had been three, by both Dave DeLine and Jim Harper. Including the Houston Bowl, when he had a 54-yarder, he had six 50-plus for the year which led the nation, topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza Award winner (the NCAA single season record is eight).
- ➔ He had five 50-plus yard kicks again in 2005, again tops in the nation, with four coming on the road (58 at Miami; 52 and 50 at Kansas State; 57 at Iowa State).
- ➔ He was 19-of-23 in 2004 in FGs, with the 19 makes covering 725 yards, an average of 38.2 yards per kick (his four misses: 46.3).
- ➔ He was 21-of-28 in 2005 in FGs, with the 21 makes covering 865 yards, an average of 41.2 yards per kick (his seven misses: 44.1).
- ➔ He is 19-of-27 in 2006 in FGs, with the 19 makes covering 772 yards, an average of 40.6 yards per kick (his eight misses: 414 yards, or 51.8).
- ➔ He is 66-of-87 in field goals in his career (71-of-94 including bowls), 36-of-40 inside 40 yards (two of which were blocked) and a most respectable 30-of-47 from 41 yards or longer in the regular season. He is first at Colorado in career field goals made (66) and scoring (305 points).
- ➔ He has made four field goals in a game four times (Iowa State, Nebraska and UTEP in the Houston Bowl in 2004 and against Iowa State again in 2006).
- ➔ He made four of the 10 longest field goals in the NCAA in 2004 (60, 55, 54, 54), including the only one longer than 50 yards in bowls; his 55-yard kick against CSU in the opener was CU's first from 50-plus yards in 11 seasons. He had three of the six longest in the NCAA in 2005, and the second longest so far in 2006.
- ➔ The average field position for the opponent after his kickoffs the 22, as 137 of his 200 career kicks have gone for touchbacks; 19 of the 60 returned against him have not been brought back beyond the 20; only 11 have gone beyond the 30 and just three beyond the 40 (the first on his 156th career kickoff).
- ➔ Perhaps his best kick ever was also in the 2004 Iowa State game--an 87-yard kickoff for a touchback after he had to boot it from the 20-yard line following a penalty. "I didn't even expect that. I was just trying to get it up in the air to give the coverage team time to get down there," Crosby said.
- ➔ He has been selected the Big 12 Conference's Special Teams Player-of-the-Week nine times in his career (for the Texas Tech and Iowa State games this year; CSU, Miami, Kansas State and Missouri in 2005; Iowa State and Nebraska in '04; and KU in '03). The nine honors are the most ever bestowed on a single player, as he had been tied with three others with seven entering 2006: RB Ricky Williams (Texas, 1996-98), QB Eric Crouch (NU, 1998-2001) and QB Kliff Kingsbury (Texas Tech, 1999-02). Crosby ('05) and Kingsbury ('02) are the only players to be honored at least four times in a season.
- ➔ The Lou Groza Award Committee has named him one of its three "Stars of the Week" on five occasions (Iowa State in '04; CSU, Miami and K-State in '05, Texas Tech this season).
- ➔ ACTIVE NCAA KICKING RANKINGS (includes his Houston and Champs Sports bowl stats, which CU does not include): Field Goals Made (1st/71); FG Attempts (1st/94); FG Made/Game (9th/1.4); FG Accuracy (21st/75.9); Scoring (6th/324 points).
- ➔ Late Game Heroics. Crosby has made a name for himself in the clutch, as he is 14-of-18 in the 4th quarter, including 12-of-14 in the final 9½ minutes with nine kicks of 41 yards or longer and seven of them with the score of the game within six points; his only misses were a 63-yard try against Montana State as CU tried to rally in the waning minutes (2 yards short) and a 65-try in a bid to tie the NCAA record without a tee against Iowa State (27-inches short). TAKE THIS ALTITUDE ARGUMENT AND SHOVE IT

To paraphrase the classic Johnny Paycheck song, that is... Crosby's 58-yard field goal at Miami in 2005 (Sept. 24), elevation seven feet, is the longest field goal in NCAA history at sea level without the use of a kicking tee (all kicks after 1988 are without one). It tied for the third longest, tee or not, at altitude in college and for the fifth longest when including the National Football League. Seeing how he accomplished something most kickers who kick at lower altitudes historically never do, this should end once and for all the altitude arguments used against CU kickers and punters when it comes to All-America and trophy consideration. (In fact, four of his five 50-plus yard kicks in 2005 came on the road, including a 57-yard boot in horrific wind at Iowa State.) A closer look:

AYE, CAPTAIN. Mason is one of three CU captains, and one of just a handful of placekickers serving as yearlong captains in the NCAA (Syracuse's Brendan Carney and UTEP's Reagan Schneider are the others).

QUOTE: "He is a great kicker. When he came out of high school, you could see he was a really good kicker. He has got that special work ethic; you never have to tell him to go work because he is always driven to get better on his own. When you have that work ethic, talent and desire like he does, then you will be able to succeed. He has got a leg. We'll see him in the NFL; he'll be good enough." — Baltimore Ravens Pro Bowl placekicker Matt Stover, the third-most accurate kicker in NFL history, who coached Mason in high school during summers.

QUOTE II: "Mason Crosby is the best kicker in the history of college football." — Iowa State head coach Dan McCarney.

CROSBY REPEATS AS SEMIFINALIST FOR GROZA AWARDCANDIDATE COMPARISON

PK Mason Crosby, the runner-up for the 2005 Lou Groza Award despite having a dominant edge in comparative statistics, is right back in the hunt for the 2006 honor. On November 2, Crosby was named one of 20 semifinalists for the honor for the second straight year.

And once again, he's right up there in field goals made (19), average distance for those made (40.6, FIRST nationally) as well as for those missed (51.8, also first in the NCAA). With eight attempts from 50 yards and further out (the most in the NCAA), 30 percent of his kicks have come from that distance (six from 58 yards or longer and all eight from 51 or further). Three of his misses are from beyond 60 yards; he had made a 61-yard kick against Colorado State but the Rams were allowed a very late time out due to having 12 men on the field that was granted after he had kicked the ball unbeknownst to all on the field.

Crosby simply is asked to try, and often make, kicks that others would never be sent on the field to attempt.

The below does not including kickoffs, in which Crosby has 27 touchbacks in 43 attempts, with seven of those returned against him not being brought out to the 20. An up-close look at the 20 semifinalists in 2006 through games of November 18:

The way the three finalists shaped up a year ago (regular season); Crosby's average field goal make was some 41.2 yards; that was just under TEN yards longer than the other two finalists and five yards better than any of the other semifinalists. He was 13-of-18 from 40 yards and longer; in fact, 64 percent of Crosby's attempts and 62 percent of his makes were from 40 yards or longer; the other two finalists were under 35 and 25 percent, respectively. The length of Crosby's average miss is some 44.1 yards, the seventh highest of the 20, so on the rare occasion he has missed, they're not ones most expect kickers to make—except maybe him (F—denotes finalist; W—denotes winner):

FIVE QUESTIONS: J.J. BILLINGSLEY

A quick pick “Q&A” with freshman SS J.J. Billingsley:

If you could visit anywhere, where would you go? “I would go to Africa, because I think it different than how the media portrays it and I want to see it for myself.”

Is there an NFL player you model your game after? “I live Troy Polamalu (Pittsburgh) and Ed Reed (Baltimore). I just like to model my personal game after all of the game’s top safeties.”

What’s your favorite sport to watch other than football? “College basketball. I love March Madness.”

What is your favorite thing to do on a day off? “I like to sleep, chill and just relax.”

Why do you wear number 5? “That’s just the number they gave me when I came in as a freshman, and I wanted to switch to No. 22 for my sophomore year, but I wound up establishing myself as No. 5.

DIZON THE THIRD DOWN MAN

ILB Jordan Dizon is quietly sneaking up on another school record—through 11 games, he has 17 third down stops, just one shy of the school record first set by OLB Chad Brown in 1992 and then equaled last year by OLB Brian Iwuh. An under appreciated statistic, one that CU may be the only school to track (starting in 1991 in earnest), Dizon has 29 in his career. That’s well short of the career bests, but he could chase them down between the remaining games this year and 2007. ILB Greg Biekert holds the school record of 47, which he established between 1989 and 1992 (numbers were researched prior to it being tracked for all players); Brown (’89-92) and ILB Matt Russell are tied for second on the list with 45.

VERTICAL

Dan Hawkins has noted that the one thing missing from CU’s offense that has been prevalent of his past offenses at Boise State is the vertical passing game. “By the end of the season, we’d always be up in the 70s or 80s in the number of pass plays over 20 yards” he said on his radio show on Oct. 18. “I don’t want to tell you how many we have this season.” Except we have always publicized the count in our stat pages, and he is definitely on mark with his assessment. Through 11 games, CU has just 32 total, 15 rushing and 17 passing, as the Buffs are on schedule to have their fewest overall 20-yard plays since 2000 (38) as well as pass plays of 20 yards or more since 2002 (23, also the last time CU had a quarterback quit the team after the season began). Colorado does have 15 rushing plays of 20 yards or more, and while not an overly large number, is more in line with the numbers posted over the last decade (higher than eight of the totals in the 12 season snapshot). Here’s a look at CU’s 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass
1994	76	37	39	1998	40	11	29	2001	58	21	37	2004	48	13	35
1995	61	11	50	1999	57	12	45	2002	58	35	23	2005	54	16	38
1996	64	12	52	2000	38	8	30	2003	47	5	42	2006	32	15	17
1997	46	9	37

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2006

- 0 The number of Colorado turnovers in the last six quarters;
- 0 The number of opponent turnovers in the last eight quarters;
- 2 The number of players who have rushed for 100-plus yards against CU in the last 25 games—Clemson’s James Davis (150) in the Champs Sports Bowl and Oklahoma’s Allen Patrick (110... though he needed 35 carries to do it).
- 5 The number of Colorado turnovers in the first half this season;
- 5.3 The number of yards Matthew DiLallo is averaging over the previous best by any frosh punter in CU history (43.6; Andy Mitchell averaged 38.3 in 1994).
- 20 The number of records Mason Crosby has set in his career, many of them falling into place this season.
- 21-8 Colorado owns the best intra-division mark over the last five seasons against fellow Big 12 North teams at 21-8.
- 25.0 The conversion percentage for the opponent on 3rd-&-Goal from the Colorado 1 in 2006 (2-of-8).
- 37 The number of points CU has scored on its first possession in 2006.
- 42.1 Opponents are starting 42.1 percent of their drives (53 of 126) either inside or at the 20-yard line for the season; that number was 49.7 in 2005.
- 48 The number of second down plays the opponent has had with just 1 to 4 yards needed for a first down (out of 241).
- 12-52 The raw third down conversion number for opponents on 3rd-and-10 or longer in 2006 (CU is 9-of-49 in similar circumstances).
- 65 The length of a Mason Crosby field goal attempt in the fourth quarter against Iowa State, the fifth attempt of 60 yards or longer in school history (Crosby has three of the five, and the only make from that distance, 60 yards against Iowa State in 2004).
- 71.4 The length in centimeters that Crosby’s 65-yard try fell short (less than a yard, about 30 inches).
- 221 Colorado has scored in 221 consecutive games, now the fifth longest active streak in the nation (and the 11th longest of all-time).
- 504 The number of rushing yards CU had in its two-game “homestand” versus Baylor (276) and Texas Tech (228); the most in back-to-back games by the Buffs since the end of the 2002 season.
- 588 The combined number of career tackles from CU starting linebackers Thaddeaus Washington (324) and Jordon Dizon (249); the most two players simultaneously have had while playing on the same team were 599 by Ted Johnson (409) and Matt Russell (190) at the end of the ‘94 season.
- 618 The difference in the number of rushing yards gained (1,909) compared to passing (1,291) by Colorado in 2006, the first time since 2002 the Buffs will gain more on the ground than in the air (1,229 edge that season).
- 1600 The mileage in each direction Ralphie IV traveled to appear at the Georgia game, her first regular season appearance outside of Colorado since 1989.
- 92746 The third largest crowd CU has ever played before, coming at Georgia’s Sanford Stadium.

COACHES CORNER / WITH DAN HAWKINS

Comments from Colorado head coach Dan Hawkins following the 33-16 win over Iowa State:

General: "At the end, we were able to make a few plays. Unfortunately, I wanted to go the whole game without punting. I've had a few of those in my career, starting to feel that whole 'we can do what we want to do on offense' mentality. Couple glitches here and there; I love Mason (Crosby) and it's great for him to knock field goals, but we'd like to convert some of those into touchdowns and to be able to get to that next level, but overall, I was pretty happy with it."

On offensive rhythm: "In basketball, if you get one shot every three minutes, it's tough to get into a rhythm. It's hard for an offense and it's hard for an offensive coordinator too. What happens is you get constricted, thinking 'We can't waste a play,' 'We can't have a bad play,' and then you lose a little bit of your creativity and the guys don't play relaxed. Today, I thought Mark (Helfrich) was able to get in there and get in a rhythm and really dial it up and be fancy and make some adjustments and go 'Let's go here.' It was good for him as a play caller and it was good for our offense as well. They didn't get all hung up on every play being exactly right."

On QB Bernard Jackson: "He did a great job. He really did. There were a few instances there where coach (Mark) Helfrich had a few choice words for him. The nature of our program, and particularly quarterback, is you really seek perfection, and there were a couple of times I thought he didn't get some things, but overall I thought he did really well."

On TB Mell Holliday: "Tough runner. He really is. He's got good vision and he's a bulldog in there. But again I think some of that got started up front with our O-line. They did pretty good, too."

On C Mark Fenton: "Being a senior, for all he's done and gone through, it was great to see him battle back and get in there. (Chris) Strausser was able to roll him in there."

On PK Mason Crosby: "It's interesting as you go along in the growth of your program, you have great fans, and we talked about this earlier on here. When we send Mason out, everybody starts screaming and yelling, but I guess that's the nature of it. We would not like to have that, but Mason's used to it, so it's not tennis. It's probably a little different than what we normally have, but Mason's used to it."

On the seniors winning their last game at Folsom Field: "I was happy for the seniors to go out on a winning note at Folsom Field. That's big, and there's a lot of tradition here and I think that's awesome. I think it speaks to the fact that, despite all the adversity they've had, they've never given in, ever. They kept coming back and kept battling."

On the team's penalties: "We'll find out tomorrow when we hit the grass, what's going on with those penalties."

On going into the last game of the season against Nebraska: "You certainly want momentum and you want to come into that thing on a good note. Lord knows, we've had to strap it on every week and battle the big L. The guys have done a great job of that, and it certainly is a lot easier when you get a win."

On if players are guaranteed spots next year: "I'm one of those guys where it doesn't matter if you're 2-9 or 9-2, and I seriously mean this. Once the year is over, it's over, and there are no returning starters. We'll sit down and find out who wants to lift, who wants to go out and do extra things and throw and in spring ball and who can make plays. I just think the notion of grandfathering in or granting emeritus status to anybody is not a healthy way to grow a football team. Once the season's over, it's a full-blown race for every guy and every position to prove they want to play next year."

On the possibility of trying to get Mason Crosby another field goal late in the game: "At that point, we just wanted to get out of the game. I told him, 'Hey, if we get a chance.' He hit one from 65 in practice the other day and he just missed on a 68-yarder, so we were hoping he could bang it through."

On trying to catch balls that came to the sideline: "That's why I played fullback. I dropped two today, so I'm going to pay for that in film tomorrow. There's a reason why when the ball had to go to the fullback, I'd switch with the tailback."

PLAYER QUOTES

Some select player comments after the 33-16 win over the Cyclones:

QB BERNARD JACKSON

GENERAL—"It feels good to get out with a win like we did. Without our offensive line it wouldn't have been possible, but they came out and we got it done. I didn't make it look easy out there, the 'O' line made it look easy. That's exactly how our offense is supposed to work."

ON OFFENSIVE PERFORMANCE—"It started up front with the offensive line, they came out and set their dominance early and we just went from there. Like I said, it starts up front, the offensive line gave me protection all day and I was able to make my reads. After that it was just guys making plays, Patrick (Williams), Alvin (Barnett), but it all started up front."

ON PLAYING RIVAL NEBRASKA—"The rivalry with Nebraska was a big time reason why I came here. We have two weeks of hard preparation, and with good preparation the sky is the limit for what we can do offensively."

ON GETTING STARTED EARLY—"That was something that we have practiced all week. We had to get on top of them early and take it from there."

ON THE OFFENSIVE PERFORMANCE—"I give all the credit to the 'O' line. They had a lot to do with my success this afternoon. There were some plays that I was trying to call for myself, not to be selfish or anything, but just to have some extra fun. We did pretty much what we wanted to do and were successful at it."

ON WIDE RECEIVERS—"They did exceptional. They had maybe two drops. They did a fantastic job today."

ON LINCOLN—"That's a big deal around here. It'll be my first start in Lincoln so it's going to be exciting."

ON CARRYING MOMENTUM TO NEBRASKA—"This is a big push. If we play like we played today, it's hard for us to be denied. We just have to come out fast, finish fast and execute how we're supposed to execute and how we know we can execute and we'll be alright."

ON HIS PLAY—"I was more relaxed. I think last week I was trying to worry about doing too much and I told myself to just relax and play with the offense. Good studying and preparation worked out."

PLAYER QUOTES, CONTINUED

WR ALVIN BARNETT

ON TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION—"It felt really good, my first touchdown reception we worked on it all week in practice and when Bernard (Jackson) called the audible at the line it just opened up, we connected and then celebrated."

ON IOWA STATE DEFENSIVE BACKS—"We talked about that they bit hard on play action and double-move routes, so on that opening play when we ran a double route I got open after the first move and B-Jack threw the ball well, he threw it well all day for that matter."

ON WIN PROVIDING MOMENTUM GOING INTO NEBRASKA—"It should be real big with momentum and allowing us to send the seniors out on a good note. All week the coaches focused on perfection, we still have a few mistakes we need to be fix but we should be good."

SS J.J. BILLINGSLEY

ON GETTING BACK ON THE FIELD FOR FINAL HOME GAME—"It feels real good to play again, I made the decision to play around Tuesday because I has been practicing all week and my knee felt good all week. The first defensive possession I was a little rusty and trying to do too much but I calmed down. I felt good today and even better being able to leave with the win."

ON WIN PROVIDING MOMENTUM FOR NEBRASKA—"I think this win provides a huge push for Nebraska because after our first win against Texas Tech our confidence was up so high and now this will push into our rival game with Nebraska."

ON COACHING STAFF KNOWING WHAT TO EXPECT IN NEBRASKA—"I don't know if they know how big it is, but at the same time I think they know because they hear about it all the time from the people that have played and coached in games there."

PK MASON CROSBY

ON 65-YARD FIELD GOAL ATTEMPT—"I was a little disappointed about it, I hit it about as good as I thought I could I just got a little too much height. You usually don't complain about height, but I needed a little more drive and a little less height. Hopefully I'll get another chance next week."

ON SCHOOL RECORD FOR MOST POINTS AGAINST ONE OPPONENT—"I just heard about that record, and I know that the 65-yarder was the only missed kick I had against the Cyclones (Iowa State). I wish I would have hit the 65-yarder but I have the best record anyway, with the most points scored because that means you are putting points on the board."

ON KICKOFFS USUALLY GOING FOR A TOUCHBACK—"Yeah, I don't usually think about not kicking it for a touchback but I always try to get good height. So if it doesn't go for a touchback then at least it sets up our coverage team in good position to prevent a good return."

OG BRIAN DANIELS

ON OFFENSIVE PERFORMANCE—"We just played together and stuck with it all game. We threw the ball deep early and that opened it up for the rest of the game. We knew going in that we would be able to run on them."

ON OFFENSIVE LINE PERFORMANCE—"I think we just played together, and they didn't bring a lot of additional pressure. They usually just sent four or five guys on the rush and we they do that we should be able to provide protection and the time that Bernard (Jackson) needs."

TB MELL HOLLIDAY

ON HOME FINALE—"I think that all of us felt that because it was our last game at home for all the seniors we had a big push to go out and get the win and send the seniors out on a good note, myself included. I just went all out all day."

ON WIN PROVIDING MOMENTUM FOR NEBRASKA—"I think this week made us have more confidence, because we were playing for more than a win, we wanted to get a good thing going so we can get momentum going into our game with Nebraska. This week was like Texas Tech, everything was clicking offensively."

ON 100-YARD RUSHING PERFORMANCE—"This one feels a lot better than my last 100-yard rushing game, because it was on the division I level."

ON 52-YARD RUN—"I was hoping to score, but I took so long to get going. I had to break some tackles before I got open and the bad thing is that I out ran the safety only to be caught by the linebacker."

ON IOWA STATE DEFENSE—"Actually, we thought the aggressive play by their linebackers would open up the offense. They crowd the line a lot and that play action would work and it did. Their linebackers hit pretty hard, but oh well, I broke some of their tackles too."

ILB THADDAEUS WASHINGTON

ON THE BUFFALO HEART AWARD—"It's great, there are so many words going through my head right now I can't even say how great this makes me feel. Especially because it's chosen by the fans, and to think that the fans think of me in that way, and to contribute to the tradition of Colorado and the great players that have played here. It's very special, just for the fans to think about me like they do. To go out with a win and to get that award it's even bigger because we won today and I received that award. I appreciate it big time. It was a great feeling."

ON WINNING LAST GAME AT FOLSOM FIELD—"We had a hard time this year, frustrating at times and it was important to the seniors to go out on a winning note like that. It means a lot to me that the team came together to send us seniors out on a win. It showed a lot of character in my teammates. We asked them to come out for the seniors and have a great game and that's what they did. That showed that they care about the seniors a lot and we appreciate that. We have been down for a while, but we're up now."

ON DIFFERENCE BETWEEN WINS AND LOSSES—"It's been the same push the whole year. We just have to keep on working hard, but when it's time to make plays you have to make plays. That's what we did today on defense and offense."

ON NEBRASKA—"Nebraska always comes ready to play. We have to go to Lincoln and be ready to go in there and play and try to win a ballgame. It's going to be a great feeling, just being in Lincoln, with all the red all over, and it's just an awesome field. The last time I was in Lincoln, I came out with a great feeling. I had two interceptions and I gained a tackle, so it was great."

WR PATRICK WILLIAMS

ON TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION—"It feels good, I couldn't be more excited. B-Jack (Bernard Jackson) threw a great ball, the offensive line gave us great protection and we drew it up on the sideline and we connected on the field."

ON OFFENSIVE PERFORMANCE—"This is what it could have been all year, if we are clicking. The media has said that we have no deep threat, but today I think we proved that, that isn't necessarily the case. The coaching staff did a great job; I would put them up there with the best in the nation."

ON GAME AGAINST NEBRASKA—"It would be awesome to get a win against Nebraska and send the seniors out right. We enjoyed the (ISU) win for a night and flushed it. We gave to get back to work in the weight room, film room and send our seniors out with a two wins in a row, especially against one of our rivals Nebraska."

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION

A running list of major notes and/or accomplishments from the postgame notes of all games in 2006:

Montana State

- Quickly. The 19-10 loss snapped a 3-game winning streak in season openers for the Buffaloes... Colorado scored in its 211th consecutive game this afternoon, adding to the 13th longest streak of all-time (sixth longest active streak)... Tickets distributed for the game were 45,513, though CU officials estimated around 2,500-3,000 no shows, likely due to the weather... CU has opened 0-2 only two times in its history (117 seasons), last doing so in 2000 and 1986... the 216 yards of total offense were the fewest in a season opener since 1979, when the Buffs had 211 in Chuck Fairbanks' first game at Colorado... the 288 allowed by CU was the fewest since 2001 (Fresno State had 287), the 11th time the last 20 the opponent has failed to reach 300.
- Inaugural Jinx. For whatever reason, CU has now dropped the first game in a new coaches' tenure for the 12th time in the last 13 debuts (dating back to 1935). Small consolation is that two of the most revered coaches in CU history, Eddie Crowder and Bill McCartney, did the same (ironically with rain the day before and of the game, the only two instances of bad weather for a CU coaching debut prior to today).
- First Play of the Year. The 42-yard pass from James Cox to Patrick Williams was the longest first offensive play of the season in Colorado history. The old best was a 31-yard pass from Kordell Stewart to Erik Mitchell against Colorado State in Boulder in the 1992 opener. The 42 yards almost equaled the total of the 13 season opening plays since (50 yards total); the only other one over 20 yards came in 1984 (a Steve Vogel pass to Loy Alexander for 21 yards against Michigan State). —The play decimated the previous best first offensive play under a new head coach, the last eight of which totaled all of 13 yards, the longest being a 4-yard pass from Koy Detmer to Matt Lepsis at Wisconsin in Rick Neuheisel's first game in 1995; defensively, CU forced the third incompletion in the last four coach openers on that side of the ball.
- PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG: 24, 63s; 1-1 PAT; 4 points). He became CU's all-time leading kick scorer in today's game, as he entered the contest tied with Jeremy Aldrich with 231 points; with 235 points, he is now second all-time in overall scoring, trailing only Eric Bieniemy, who scored 254 points between 1987-90. He tied Aldrich for the most field goals in a CU career with 48; the 63-yard attempt in the fourth quarter was also a school record for the longest field goal attempt in school history, besting two previous 62-yard tries: Fred Lima vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater (Sept. 30, 1972) and Ken Culbertson vs. Oklahoma in Boulder, Oct. 22, 1988.

Colorado State

- Quickly... CU is 0-2 for only the 17th time in its history (117 seasons), last doing so in 2000 and 1986 before this year... Including the last four games of last year, CU has dropped six straight games, the longest losing streak since CU opened 0-7 in 1980... Mason Crosby's 61-yard field goal, wiped out by a late timeout allowed CSU, would have been a school record (he owns the mark with a 60-yard effort).
- Rushing Defense. Colorado's rushing defense has answered the bell in the first two games, as the opponent has just 65 yards on 69 attempts this season; take out sacks, computed as rushing in the NCAA, and the number is still 128 yards on 60 true rushing attempts, or 2.2 per. It is the third straight year that the Buffs have held their first two opponents under the century mark (and to 100 or less combined: 59 in 2004, 100 in 2005 and 65 this year).
- Series Stuff. Colorado State snapped a three-game losing streak in the series to make it 57-19-2 in favor of the Buffaloes; the last five games in the series have been decided by a total of 22 points, easily the most contested quintet of games in the 78 year old rivalry and the second closest five-game series run in school history to a 1996-2000 run where five games against Nebraska, all Husker wins, were decided by 15 points.
- Frosh Long. The 73-yard punt by redshirt freshman Matt DiLallo to open the second quarter was the longest-ever by a CU freshman (true or redshirt) and tied for the 12th longest in school history. It was the longest kick since Nick Pietsch launched a 76-yard effort at Kansas on Oct. 19, 1996.
- Firsts. TE Dan Goettsch, QB Bernard Jackson, FS Ryan Walters made their first career starts, while TB Kevin Moyd and ILB Jeff Smart saw their first action (both coming on special teams). WR Blake Mackey saw his first action since the 2004 Houston Bowl, as he missed all of last year with a knee injury; Jackson scored his first career TD and WR Nick Holz made his first career catch.
- Third Down Sacks. There were seven sacks combined on the 25 third down plays (four by CU, three by CSU). In fact, aside from the 32-yard completion from Caleb Haney to Johnny Walker late in the game, the teams gained 29 yards on 24 third down plays.
- DE Abraham Wright. He had three quarterback sacks, the first three-sack game by a Buffalo since DE Alex Ligon had three against Washington State in Seattle two years ago the same weekend (Sept. 11, 2004).

Arizona State

- Quickly... Arizona State wins the first-ever meeting between the schools; the rematch is set for next Sept. 8 in Tempe... The honorary captain for CU was Jenny Barringer, a sophomore on the cross country and track team who won the NCAA steeplechase title as a freshman last June... Arizona State had five quarterback sacks in the game, four coming on third down plays.
- Scoring Streak. Colorado scored in its 213th straight game, adding to the sixth longest active streak in the nation and the 13th longest all-time. Mason Crosby's 29-yard field goal got Colorado on the scoreboard, the 15th time in the streak CU's All-American kicker put the Buffs' first points on the board. The Buffs are one back of 12th on the list, as Arizona scored in 214 straight between 1972 and 1990.
- Lack of Scoring. In Colorado's three games this season, there have been a combined 77 points scored (23 by the Buffs, 54 by the opponent). The 23 by CU is its fewest three games into a year since 1964 (21 points), and the Buffs are still looking for their first second half points of the year.
- DE Abraham Wright. He had one quarterback sack to up his total to five on the season; he is well on his way to a double digit season in sacks, which if accomplished, would be the first Buff to have 10 or more sacks since Ron Woolfork had 13½ in 1992. He now has 14½ in his career, which is the 12th most in school history.
- TB Hugh Charles (20-109, 0 TD). He became the 48th player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a career, ending the game with 1,045 yards (44th on the all-time list). It was his fourth career 100-yard game, his first since he rushed for career high 132 yards on 20 carries at Oklahoma State last Oct. 1 (also the first by a Buffalo since that contest).
- SS J.J. Billingsley had his first interception of the season (the fifth of his career), his first pick since last year's Kansas game; CB Terrence Wheatley had his first interception of the season and the fifth of his career, his first since he snared one against Oklahoma in the 2004 Big 12 Championship game.
- Both ILB Thaddaeus Washington and S Ryan Walters posted career highs in tackles against Arizona State. Washington had 15 (8 solo) in eclipsing his previous best by one, while Walters had 11, topping his old high of seven.
- PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG: 29, 57wl; 0-0 PAT; 3 points). He had his 65th and 66th career field goal attempts for his career, taking over sole possession of that record (he came in tied with Jeremy Aldrich, who also had 64 between 1996-99). He now has 242 career points, trailing only TB Eric Bieniemy, who scored 254 points between 1987-90. He missed just his third field goal try for his career in the fourth quarter, as he is now 12-of-15; the three misses have come from 50, 63 and 57 yards.
- Red Zone Rushing Defense. Colorado did a decent job against the run inside its 20, as Arizona State had 10 rushes for 32 yards; the opponent season total for three games this year is now just 52 yards on 27 attempts once cracking the Buff 20.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION, CONTINUEDGeorgia

Quickly... Colorado led UGA for 48:00, while UGA led for only the final :46... Colorado gained 159 yards in the first quarter, while Georgia gained 156 in the fourth; the two combined for just 282 their other three quarters combined... CU last held an opponent scoreless through three quarters at Oklahoma State last Oct. 1 in a 34-0 Buffalo win... Mason Crosby's 36-yard field goal in the third quarter marked CU's first points in the second half this season.

- Slalom. Sophomore S Joel Adams, an alpine skier and member of CU's 2006 NCAA champion ski team, saw his first career action in the game, getting in the kickoff coverage unit on special teams.
- Offense. Colorado gained 159 yards in the first quarter, easily its best quarter since the Missouri game in 2005, and its 241 yards in the first half exceeded its total offense in any of its first three games this season. CU ran 38 plays for the 241 yards in the first half, including 18 in Georgia territory for 152 yards; UGA ran just three in Buff territory for 3 yards.
- Rushing Defense. Colorado's rushing defense is the real deal, as UGA had 27 attempts for just 54 yards, the third time in four games that the Buffaloes have held the opponent that total or less in four games. CU has allowed 301 in four games, or 75.3 per... in the red zone, Georgia had just four rushing attempts, three for losses and the Bulldogs a net minus-10 red zone rushing yards in the game; on the year, the opponent has 31 attempts for 42 yards running the ball once crossing the CU 20.
- QB Bernard Jackson. Jackson rushed for a career-high 85 yards, the most by a CU quarterback since Kordell Stewart ran for 143 (on seven carries with 2 TDs) against Notre Dame in the 1995 Fiesta Bowl. Jackson also posted career highs in passing yards (140) and total offense (225).
- DT George Hypolite. The sophomore had his first career sacks today (2-16), with one causing a fumble on UGA's first second half possession that led to a CU field goal.
- Third Downs. Colorado averaged just 4.5 yards to go on six first half third down tries, but between holding penalties and a stiffening UGA defense, the Buffs averaged 12.9 yards to go on seven second half attempts (converting on a 3rd-and-6, its only try in the half under 12 yards).

Missouri

- Quickly... This marked the first time in five games that Colorado never held the lead... CU's third quarter touchdown was its first six-pointer after intermission this season... CU is now 6-5 in Big 12 openers... The Buffs have dropped 12 in a row to ranked teams, the longest losing skein against ranked foes since dropping 23 straight between 1978 and 1986... The Buffaloes had a season-high 183 rushing yards in the game; Missouri had allowed 175 total on the season (four games) coming in... Former Buff tight end Joe Klopfenstein was on the sidelines; he is now a rookie with the St. Louis Rams and he made the drive over.
- Firsts: CB Cha'pelle Brown made his first career interception. WR Cody Crawford had his first career reception.
- S J.J. Billingsley, with six solo tackles, became just the 10th player in school history to record 200 career unassisted stops, finishing the game with 204. He is on the third defensive back to record 200-plus, joining Michael Lewis (225, 1998-2001) and Mickey Pruitt (201, 1984-87).
- WR Dusty Sprague (2-85, 0 TD). The junior had a 63-yard reception to open the second half, the longest play of his career—barely. He had a 62-yard touchdown reception last year against Kansas. He had just four catches for 35 yards coming into the game, but with 85 yards today he moved up three notches into 24th place all-time in receiving yards at Colorado (866).

Baylor

- Quickly... Colorado dropped to 3-4 in overtime games (six of the seven have been in Big 12 conference play), with a 2-2 mark at home; this one marked the first time of the seven any went longer than just a single extra session... CU is 0-6 for only the second time in its history (117 seasons), done previously in 1980 (when the team started 0-7)... The loss is CU's 10th overall, tying the school record done just one other time (1963-64, the last six of '63 and first four of '64)... The loss dropped CU to 17-14 all-time against the Big 12 South (2-10 since 2002)... It was just Baylor's second road win in 41 tries in Big 12 play... The 31 points was a CU season high and the most since Colorado's last win (the 41-12 verdict over Missouri)... CU's fourth quarter touchdown marked the first Buff points in the quarter on the season... The 276 rushing yards last week against Baylor were the 12th most in school history in a loss, but the most since 368 in a 32-30 loss at Oregon in 1986.
- Firsts: TB Mell Holliday scored his first career touchdown (his 32-yard yard run exceeded the total distance of CU's four touchdowns this season—all rushes for a total of 6 combined yards—and CU's last eight dating back to last year's Missouri game—23 yards total for the eight). TE Riar Geer caught his first career touchdown, the first for QB Bernard Jackson as well; it was CU's first in 2006. TB Byron Ellis scored his first career touchdown on the 123rd carry of his career (134th touch including receptions).
- First Quarter Offense: Colorado gained 117 yards in the first quarter, the third straight game the Buffs exceeded the century mark for the period; CU had 154 at Missouri the previous week after netting 156 Georgia on Sept. 23.
- Third Down Conversions. Colorado opened the game converting six of its first eight third down tries; the Buffs had gone 5-of-25 in their two previous games combined. CU finished a season best 8-of-17, but were 2-of-9 after halftime.
- PK Mason Crosby. He missed just his fourth career field goal inside of 41 yards (29-of-33) when he missed the 36-yard attempt in the third quarter; two of the four misses were blocked. It was the second shortest he'd ever missed that wasn't blocked.
- CB Terrence Wheatley. He had his first multiple in interception game (two) of his career, the first by a Buff since Thaddaeus Washington swiped two at Nebraska on Nov. 26, 2004. His eight career interceptions are now tied for 16th all-time.

Texas Tech

- Quickly... CU averted its longest losing streak in its 117-year history and earned its 23rd head coach, Dan Hawkins, his first win at the reins of the Buffaloes... The win evened the series with Texas Tech at four wins apiece; the home team has won all eight affairs... Though 1-6, CU has now been outscored by just 26 points this year; today's 24-point margin was the largest in a Colorado game in 2006... CU led 23-0 entering the fourth quarter, marking the first time Texas Tech had been shutout through three quarters since Sept. 29, 1999 in a 58-7 loss at Texas; in concert with that, the Red Raiders ran only three plays in CU territory the first quarters: two for losses (a 4-yard loss by Shannon Woods and Abe Wright's 10-yard sack of Graham Harrell) with the other being an interception by Ryan Walters near the end of third quarter... It was the second time Tech has been held under 10 points twice this season, the first time that's happened since '99... Tech had just 11 plays in the game (out of 60) for over 10 yards, and just three over 20 in length.
- Firsts: FB Maurice Cantrell had his first career offensive touch, a 20-yard reception for a first down on the opening drive that helped set up a touchdown. WR Jarrell Yates, playing in just his second game, had his first career touch of any kind go for a 29-yard touchdown reception. He is the first CU player to have his first career reception go for a TD since James Kidd did so against Baylor in 1993; Yates saw his first action last week against Baylor on kickoff coverage, assisting on a tackle inside the 20.
- CU wore all black for the first time this season, improving to 16-12-1 in the look, including 2-0 against Texas Tech (outscored TTU 67-19 in the get up).
- TB Hugh Charles (17-119, 0 TD). It was the fifth 100-yard game of his career, his second highest total behind the 132 yards he gained at Oklahoma State in 2005.
- Penalties, Or Lack Thereof: Colorado did not commit a single penalty for just the fourth time in its history, the first time since Sept. 21, 1985 against Ohio State in Boulder.

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION, CONTINUEDTexas Tech, continued

- PK Mason Crosby (3-3 FG, 56,26,53; 3-3 PAT, 12 points). His 56-yard field goal in the second quarter was the second longest in the NCAA this season, behind only an Alex Serna 58-yard kick for Oregon State versus California in Corvallis on Sept. 30. He now owns six of the eight longest field goals in school history. The first 50-plus yard makes this year, he now has 12 in his career. He tied his own school record for the most 50-plus yard field goals in a game (set against Iowa State in Boulder in 2004 and at Kansas State last year). In addition, five of his seven kickoffs went for touchbacks, and the other two were returned to the 17 and 12, respectively.
- DE Abraham Wright (1 QBS). He now has nine sacks on the season, giving him 18½ for his career; he's half sack behind three guys tied for seventh with 19: Bill Brundige, Curt Koch and Leonard Renfro.
- S Ryan Walters. He had the first two interceptions of his career this afternoon, marking the second straight game a Buff has picked off two passes; CB Terrence Wheatley did it last week against Baylor.

Oklahoma

- Quickly... CU is 1-7 for just the sixth time in its history (1962, 1964, 1979, 1980, 1984 and 2006; CU was also 1-6-1 in 1982, Bill McCartney's first season at Colorado)... CU had scored in the first quarter in every game this season, but OU became the first team to shut CU out in the first half since the Buffs trailed 13-0 at intermission last Sept. 24 (2005) at Miami, Fla. (Colorado has actually scored on its first possession in six of seven games until today, when it was held to its first 3-and-out on the first drive all year); Miami was also the last team to hold CU scoreless through three... Oklahoma ran 10 plays in CU territory on its first possession (a 12-play scoring drive); the previous week, Texas Tech ran five plays all game in plus territory (for a net minus-1 yard); OU gained 151 yards on 55 first/second down plays (2.8), but had 119 on 18 third down tries (6.6)... WR Patrick Williams caught his first pass in five games.
- Penalties, Or Lack Thereof II: CU's first penalty came with 7:13 left in the first quarter; CU's last penalty had been a pass interference call on the first overtime possession by Baylor, meaning CU went 67:47 between infractions. The seven penalties on Colorado over the course of the Baylor (4), Texas Tech (0) and OU (3) games tied for the fewest flagged on the Buffs in a three-game span since 1966.
- CU Versus Ranked Teams: CU dropped to 0-4 against ranked teams this season and has lost 13 straight games to Top 25 opponents (which started on Nov. 28, 2003 in Boulder with a 31-22 loss to Nebraska). CU last won on the road against a ranked foe on Sept. 21, 2002 at No. 20 UCLA (31-17), dropping nine in a row against Top 25 teams away from home.
- CU Versus The Big 12 South: CU finished 1-2 against the Big 12 South, dropping to 18-15 all-time against the division in the regular season; that trails Nebraska (19-12) and Missouri (18-14). CU opened 15-4 against the South in league play but a 3-11 stretch between 2002-06 has dropped CU behind the Huskers and Tigers. CU had posted 2-1 marks the first three times it had the three South counterparts served up in succession (2001, 2002, 2005).
- PK Mason Crosby (1-2 FG: 56w1, 39; 3 points). He is now 11-of-12 in field goals in the final 8½ minutes of games, and his six misses this year have been on the average of 49.8 yards as he remains the premier kicker in the conference and nation.
--Crosby has now personally extended CU's scoring streak six times, as he scored CU's first (and only points) against Oklahoma both in 2004 and tonight, against Miami, Nebraska and Texas in 2005, and against Arizona State earlier this season. The only other player to do it more than once was Jeremy Bloom, who did it with punt return against Oklahoma ('02 title game) and a reception against Florida State ('03).
- ILB Thaddeaus Washington had a career-high 19 tackles, giving him 311 for his career, the 13th player in school history to record 300 in a career (he stands 11th all-time). In the process, he passed his position coach, Brian Cabral, who posted 297 between 1974-77. Cabral, who is still tied for 14th place all-time, has now coached seven players ahead of him on CU's all-time charts: Matt Russell, 446; Greg Biekert, 441; Ted Johnson, 409; Chad Brown, 369; Michael Jones, 349; Jason Sykes, 330, and Washington (309).
- Oklahoma Defense. To say the Sooners have stymied the Buffaloes on offense the last two games would be an understatement. Including the 2004 Big 12 championship game, the Buffs had just eight first downs and 159 yards against OU over the eight quarters (running 44 plays in both games).

Kansas

- Quickly... CU is 1-8 for just the seventh time in its history (1962, 1964, 1979, 1980, 1984 and 2006; it won game 10 in '62, '64 and '66)... This was Colorado's 300th game played in its history on artificial surfaces, owning a 177-18-5 record (0-2) this year... CU remains winless on the road in 2006, dropping all four classified away games (CSU was at a neutral site); the Buffs have not gone winless on the road since going 0-5 in 1984 (and have won only one time just twice, in 1998 and 2003). The team has one road tilt remaining, Nov. 24 at Nebraska... Colorado has been outscored by 52 points on the season, with the average margin of defeat being 9.5 points, or 76 total points in the eight losses; 38 of those 76 points have been tallied by the opponent in the final three minutes of either half (14 in the first, 24 in the second)... Speaking of points, CU has 128 in nine games; the Buffs have scored less than 300 in a season just once since 1987 (252 in 2000) and have not put less than 200 points on the board in any year since tallying 172 in 1984... CU led 9-0 in the third quarter; this marked just the 15th time since 1976 that CU could not hold on to a two-score lead (out of 219 occasions)... Kansas' 251 yards in the second half were a season-high for a half against Colorado.
 - Firsts. OT Paul Backowski made his first career start (for Edwin Harrison, still not a full strength from an ankle sprain); WR Blake Mackey started for the first time this season; OLB Brad Jones made his first career interception.
 - Return TDs. Ryan Walters' 95-yard fumble return in the fourth quarter was the second longest fumble (as well as miscellaneous) return in CU history, second only to Ben Kelly's 96-yard fumble return, also against Kansas, in Boulder on Sept. 18, 1999. Colorado's last fumble return for a touchdown had been on KU's field, Dominique Brooks' returning one for a score on Nov. 6, 2004, in CU's 30-21 win. Only 23 other plays in CU history (all returns: 15 kickoff, 6 interception, 1 punt, 1 fumble) were longer than Walters' effort. It's also CU's first non-offensive touchdown this season, giving Colorado 38 since 1999, tied for the sixth most nationally in this time frame.
 - QB James Cox. He suffered a broken right thumb in the second quarter and is out for season. He was in for seven plays (CU gained 9 yards on those plays, as Cox was 1-for-5 passing for 12 yards, had a rush for 4 and was sacked once).
 - CB Terrence Wheatley. He had his fifth interception of the season, his ninth for his career, which ties him for 12th all-time at Colorado with Hale Irwin, Jeff Donaldson, Michael Lewis and Clyde Riggins.
 - DE Abraham Wright (1½ QBS). He now has 10½ on the season, the first Buff to record double figures in sacks since Ronnie Woolfork had 13½ in 1992. With 20 career sacks, he is now tied for fifth all-time at Colorado as he passed Bill Brundige, Curt Koch and Leonard Renfro (all with 19) in the game.
 - PK Mason Crosby (3-3 FG, 37, 26, 32, 3 points). He improved to 15-of-21 in field goals in 2006, and with 56 points, he has 287 for his career (already CU's all-time leader), he is approaching that rare 300-point barrier. He is 62-of-81 in field goals for his career (67-of-88 including bowls).
- NOTE: A scoring change occurred the Sunday after the game: a 61-yard pass play at the end of the game when QB Bernard Jackson was over the line of scrimmage was correctly changed to a 1-yard rush (accepting the penalty was never an option presented to KU, as time had run out and CU could not have run another play; had time remained, the play would have been wiped out).

SEASON NOTE PROGRESSION, CONTINUEDKansas State

Quickly... Coupled with the previous week's loss at Kansas, this marked just the third time in 19 times that CU dropped consecutive games to KU and Kansas State in back to back weeks... CU dropped to 1-9 for just the third time in its history (1980, 1984); the Buffs' only win those years came against its next opponent, Iowa State... TB Mell Holliday had posted Colorado's long rush of the season with his 40-yard third quarter scamper until QB Bernard Jackson scored on a 62-yard jaunt early in the fourth quarter (see below for more on that play)... WR Alvin Barnett had his career long receptions, 32 yards, in the first quarter (his old best was a 19-yard gain at Miami, Fla., in 2005)... ILB Jordan Dizon had one third down stop, giving him 16 on the season as he nears the school record of 18... CU had just 64 yards at halftime and 306 after the break... Kansas State gained a season-high 439 yards against the Buffalo defense; Arizona State had the previous high of 430, the only two 400-plus games against CU this season... KSU was 6-of-6 on third-and-five or less... CU's 370 yards on offense was its third most.

➤ CU In All Black. Colorado is now 16-13-1 donning all black uniforms, first wearing the look the day after Thanksgiving in 1987 in a 24-7 loss to Nebraska. This marked the sixth time the Buffs wore all black at home more than once during the same season, as CU did the same in its 30-6 win over Texas Tech on Oct. 14. CU is now 3-2 against K-State in the look.

➤ Firsts. TE Paul Creighton made his first career start (in the 45th game of his career)... Alex Ligon made his first start of the season, the 17th of his career but his first at defensive tackle (the other 16 were at end)... TE Tyson DeVree caught his first career touchdown pass in a CU uniform, but not his first collegiate one; he had six at Western Michigan (three each in 2003 and 2004).

➤ Scoring Streak. CU extended its consecutive game scoring streak to 220, though it marked the just the 20th time the Buffs had to wait until the second half to extend it. It now stands alone as the 11th longest in NCAA history (the sixth longest active streak). The next two schools on the list ahead of CU also have active streaks, Florida State (232) and Florida (225).

➤ Fourth Down. CU was 1-3 on fourth down, now 2-of-12 on the season; the failed try on the down in the third quarter (after CU used 15 plays to gain 84 yards in 7:31) dropped CU to 0-of-5 on fourth down at the time in the red zone. CU came back with a fourth quarter TD pass on fourth down to jump that number to 1-of-6.

➤ QB Bernard Jackson (17-105-2 TD rushing). Jackson enjoyed his first career 100-yard game in the loss. His 62-yard run for a touchdown in the fourth quarter was the longest run by a CU quarterback since Darian Hagan's 71-yard run for a touchdown against Colorado State in Boulder on Sept. 9, 1989 (Hagan also had a non-scoring run of 75 yards to the 1 against Texas five days earlier).

--Jackson & TB Hugh Charles (12-66) teamed for 171 yards, as the duo now own six of the top 33 efforts in school history for combined rushing yards by a quarterback and tailback. The 171 yards is 28th on the list, as all six entire by the pair are from this season.

➤ The win enabled K-State to become bowl-eligible for the first time since it won the Big 12 title in 2003, while the Buffs fell to 1-9 for just the third time in their history, having dropped 13 of their last 14 games.

Iowa State

➤ Quickly... The win guaranteed CU will not finish last or tied for last in the Big 12 North; CU has not finished last in conference play outright since 1915 or has shared it since 1984... The first quarter took 31 minutes to play (17 rushes, just two incomplete passes out of 11 tries); the first half took 1:12... The 314 yards in the first half was easily the most by Colorado in a half this season, and surpassed the total in six games... WR Chase McBride had CU's second longest punt return of the year (20 yards in the third quarter); the only other one in double figures was the team long, Stephone Robinson's 36-yard effort against Colorado State... CU scored on its first seven possessions and did not punt until 2:28 remained in the game... CU was a season best 6-of-12 on third downs today, including 3-of-3 in 3rd-and-1 situations.

➤ Long Drive: CU's 15-play, 95-yard drive that ate 7:51 off the clock in the second quarter were season highs in all three categories (plays, yards and time).

➤ Firsts. TB Mell Holliday made his first career start; he's the sixth walk-on or former walk-on to start a game for Colorado this season... OL Jack Tipton made his first start of the season, the fifth of his career but his first at tackle; his last start came at Kansas State in 2005... DE Maurice Lucas had his first career sack (third quarter)... WRs Alvin Barnett and Patrick Williams had their first career TD catches (Barnett, 26 yards in the first quarter; Williams 39 yards, third quarter).

➤ 200/200. Colorado reach 200 yards in both rushing (263) and passing (200), the first time the Buffs have recorded at least 200 in both since the second game of the 2005 season (versus New Mexico State). It's the 34th time CU has accomplished this feat dating back to 1989, and has a 32-2 record in such games. The 463 yards was a season best, topping the 380 against Texas Tech.

➤ WR Alvin Barnett (4-77, 1 TD). He had a career-high 77 yards, including 72 yards in the first quarter when he had his first career touchdown (in fact, he had 64 of the yards on CU's opening possession).

➤ TB Mell Holliday (18-126, 0 TD). Holliday had a career day in his first-ever start, posting his first career 100-yard rushing game, topping his previous best of 67 yards.

➤ QB Bernard Jackson (13-of-19, 200, 2 TD passing; 9-69, 1 TD rushing). Jackson enjoyed his first career 200-yard passing game, and went back-to-back games without an interception for the first time as a starter (he has thrown just two picks in his last 88 attempts). His passer rating for the game (191.6) is easily his career best.

BUFFS FAST OUT OF THE GATE

CU's live mascot Ralphie isn't the only one fast out of the gate, the Buffaloes have been as well in 2006. Colorado's been fairly dominant on the game's first possession, as the Buffs have outscored the opponent 37-21 on drive number one. In addition, the Buffs have out-gained the opponent 520-316 and has 23 first downs to the opponents' 17. CU has four TDs and three field goals on opening drives, its only non-scores coming at Georgia (where a Mason Crosby 26-yard field goal was blocked), at Oklahoma, at Kansas and versus Kansas State.

➤ CU has tied the school record for the most first possession scores in a season with seven, matching the feat first set in 1989 and also done in 1994, 2001 and 2002 (in the latter, CU scored an eighth time to open a game in the Alamo Bowl versus Wisconsin).

TURNOVER MARGIN

Colorado is currently +0.55 in turnover margin, having committed 16 on the year while forcing 22; that's tied for second in the Big 12 and 24th nationally. CU has been plus-6 several times, but if it grows to plus-7 or better, it would be the best since 1993, when the Buffs were a healthy plus-13 (fourth best in the NCAA). There have been only eight seasons in school history where the number was better than a plus-six: 1951 (+8), 1956 (+18), 1960 (+10), 1967 (+17), 1972 (+11), 1976 (+16), 1989 (+12) and 1993 (+13).

GAME #1—MONTANA STATE 19, COLORADO 10*(September 2; Boulder, Colo.)*

BOULDER — Jeff Hastings connected on four field goals, the last a 41-yard effort with just 2:58 remaining to basically end any Colorado rally, as Montana State defeated the Buffaloes 19-10 in the first game for new CU head coach Dan Hawkins.

Montana State, ranked No. 22 in the I-AA national poll, hung around in the first half by playing solid defense and then outscored CU 13-0 after halftime to leave town with the win, its first over a Division I team since 1984. It was Colorado's first-ever game against a non-Division I team since the divisional setup was created in 1978.

Mason Crosby's 24-yard field goal opened the scoring, as not only did he give CU a 3-0 lead, he became Colorado's all-time leading kick scorer in the process. Hastings came back with 35- and 44-yard efforts to give MSU a 6-3 edge a minute into the second quarter. At that point, it seemed to light a fire under the Buffaloes, who answered with a 12-play, 74-yard drive capped by a 1-yard touchdown plunge by quarterback James Cox. CU would take that 10-6 lead into the lockerroom.

It stood to reason that CU would pull away in the second half, but no one told Montana State, as the Bobcats did not allow another first down until 11 minutes remained in the game. In the meantime, Cory Carpenter led MSU on a 7-play, 58-yard drive that ended with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Michael Jefferson, and the Bobcats were ahead to stay at 13-10.

While CU struggled offensively, the defense hung in there with at two goal line stands, stopping MSU on a 4th-and-goal from the 1 the first time and the second time holding the Bobcats to a 19-yard Hastings field goal. That 3-pointer made the score 16-10 with 5:12 to go; on the ensuing kickoff, Stephone Robinson fumbled at the Buff 26 and MSU recovered, setting the stage for Hastings' fourth kick that sealed the upset.

CU managed just 12 first downs and 216 yards on offense, its fewest in a season opener since 1979. Montana State, which ran 70 plays, or 16 more than the Buffs, amassed 288, though just 50 came on the ground on 35 tries.

GAME #2—COLORADO 14, COLORADO 10*(September 9; Denver, Colo.)*

DENVER — Caleb Hanie ran for one touchdown and passed for another, and it was enough for Colorado State as defense ruled the day in the Rams 14-10 victory over Colorado in the Qwest Rocky Mountain Showdown presented by Dr Pepper.

CU saw its three-game winning streak in the series snapped, though early on it appeared that CSU might be in for a long afternoon after the Buffaloes marched 65 yards with the opening kickoff and took a 7-0 lead just five minutes into the game.

Bernard Jackson, making his first start at quarterback, picked up two first downs on the drive with runs of 10 and 14 yards, and scored the touchdown himself on a 3-yard third down run. Tailback Byron Ellis got Buffs started, as he carried the first two plays for 20 yards to drive the Buffs into CSU territory.

The Rams tied the score two possessions later, as Hanie matched Jackson with a 3-yard scoring run, that effort capping a 71-yard drive. Early in the second quarter, the Buffs converted the only turnover of the game into a Mason Crosby field goal, as his boot from 40 yards out also have CU its last lead of the day at 10-7.

No one knew at the time, but when Hanie hit Kory Sperry with a 5-yard pass in the back of the end zone with 3:48 on the clock, the day's scoring would come to an end. But the Rams made the lead stand in winning for just the 19th time in the 78-game series.

Hanie played the largest role in the win, as he completed his first 14 passes and finished 20-of-23 for 233 yards, with Johnny Walker hauling in 10 of those balls for 158 yards.

CU had it struggles on offense for the second straight game, especially in the second half, when the Buffs earned just two first downs and had 28 yards on offense. Though one score away from tying or taking the lead, Colorado did not cross its 41-yard line on any of its final three possessions and had just 146 yards for the game. CSU couldn't do a thing running the football, as the Rams had just 15 net rushing yards and had only 248 overall as well.

GAME #3—ARIZONA STATE 21, COLORADO 3*(September 16; Boulder, Colo.)*

BOULDER — Hugh Charles rushed for 109 yards but was the only real offensive highlight for Colorado as the Buffaloes slowly succumbed to No. 22 Arizona State, 21-3.

ASU quarterback Rudy Carpenter threw for 248 yards and two touchdowns as the Sun Devils overcame two early fumbles and a 3-0 deficit to win the first game ever played between the schools from neighboring states.

Mason Crosby scored the only points on the night for the Buffs after Arizona State turned the ball over on the third play of the game. George Hypolite recovered a Shaun DeWitty fumble at the Arizona State 17, and Crosby nailed a 29-yarder after CU moved the ball just five yards. It was one of four Arizona State turnovers in the game, and the only one Colorado would convert into points.

The Sun Devils bounced back and drove to the Buff 2, but lost possession when Carpenter fumbled the ball on the run and it hit the pylon on its way out of bounds. On their next drive though, the Sun Devils did get the ball into the end zone as Ryan Torain capped a 10-play, 71-yard drive that put ASU ahead for good at 7-3. Carpenter then hooked up with Chis McGaha on an 18-yard TD pass to extend the lead to 14-3 when ASU got the ball back after a CU punt, the score set up by a 48-yard return by Terry Richardson.

The schools then stopped each other on the next 15 possessions combined, including the very next drive when CU marched to the ASU 2 where quarterback Bernard Jackson fumbled as he made his way to the goal line with the Sun Devils' Josh Barrett recovering the ball. Carpenter threw his second TD pass, this one to Zach Miller, to close the scoring with 1:33 left after ASU recovered a fumbled punt return try by Cha'pelle Brown at the Buff 20.

CU could not get untracked for a third straight time on offense, and failed to score in the second half for the third game in a row. The Buff defense held its own, limiting the potent ASU passing attack to just 10 plays of 10 or more yards (and just three of 20 or longer). The Sun Devils had 294 yards at halftime but mustered just 136 after intermission.

GAME #4—GEORGIA 14, COLORADO 13*(September 23; Athens, Ga.)*

ATHENS, Ga. — Backup quarterback Joe Cox connected with tight end Martrez Milner on a 20-yard touchdown with just 46 seconds remaining to rally No. 9 Georgia to a 14-13 win over the upset-minded Colorado Buffaloes.

CU, in search of its first win for new head coach Dan Hawkins led the contest for exactly 48 minutes, building a 13-0 lead in silencing the 92,746 in attendance at UGA's Sanford Stadium for most of the afternoon. But once Cox entered the game, the Bulldogs came alive and were finally able to move the ball against a stout Colorado defense.

He took over late in the third quarter and directed UGA deep into CU territory, where the Buffs responded with the first of two fourth down stops inside the red zone. But on the next series, Cox threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to Brannan Southerland to get the Bulldogs on the board with 9:11 remaining.

The Buffs had a chance to put the game away on the next series, and seemed to be in business after Bernard Jackson completed a 14-yard pass on third down to Alvin Barnett to the CU 44. But on the next play, tailback Hugh Charles ran hard for nine yards but lost the ball, with Jeff Owens recovering for UGA near midfield.

UGA earned a first down at the CU 18 after just two plays, but the Colorado defense again rose to the challenge. Ryan Walters threw Gregg Lumpkin for a 3-yard loss on 3rd-and-one at the CU 9, followed by Abraham Wright knocking down Cox's pass on fourth down. But UGA forced CU into punting with 2:29 left, setting up the winning scoring drive.

CU had methodically built its lead, getting on the board with 3:14 left in the first quarter on a 26-yard Mason Crosby field goal. Then early in the second quarter, the Buffs put together its most explosive offensive drive of the season, marching 63 yards in just four plays. Jackson hit Dusty Sprague for 16 yards and followed it up with a 28-yard run to the UGA 19. He then completed an 18-yard pass to Hugh Charles who took it down to the 1, where Jackson took it over for a 10-0 lead.

Crosby added a 36-yard field goal early in the third quarter after George Hypolite sacked Georgia starting QB Matthew Stafford, forcing and recovering a fumble at the UGA 19.

Colorado posted season offensive bests in every major category, yards (313), rushing yards (173), passing yards (140), first downs (17) and time of possession (34:09). Defensively, the Buffs limited Georgia to only 54 yards on the ground, but the Bulldogs passed for 230, most in the fourth quarter when making their comeback.

GAME #5—MISSOURI 28, COLORADO 13*(September 30; Columbia, Mo.)*

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Chase Daniel threw four touchdown passes as he led Missouri to its first 5-0 start in 25 years as the Tigers kept the Colorado Buffaloes winless on the season with a 28-13 victory.

It was another case of coulda-shoulda-woulda for CU, as the Buffs turned in their finest offensive performance of the year, but struggles in the red zone put a damper on their point production. Colorado had just one touchdown on five trips inside the Missouri 20, and scored a total of six points on two field goals the other four times.

Missouri came into the game with the nation's No. 1 ranked defense, but CU shredded the Tigers for 154 yards in the first quarter alone. However, Mizzou rolled up 148 yards of its own in the first stanza as Daniel threw a pair of short touchdown passes to Chase Coffman that sandwiched a 32-yard Mason Crosby field goal for a 14-3 MU lead. Crosby added a 36-yard kick midway through the second quarter to pull CU to within 14-6. But two easy scoring chances deep in Mizzou territory came up empty, as one pass sailed high and another bounced off a facemask.

Late in the first half, CU punter Matt DiLallo couldn't handle a high snap and he was tackled at his own 14, where six plays later Daniel threw his third TD pass, this one to Martin Rucker just 11 seconds before intermission. Down 21-6, many in attendance had CU pegged for dead, but the Buffs went deep on the first play of the second half, as Bernard Jackson connected with Dusty Sprague on a 63-yard pass play to the Tiger 2. A facemask penalty cut that distance in half and Jackson scored himself from a yard out to cut the deficit to 21-13 just 47 seconds into the third quarter.

CU seemingly had thwarted an MU drive about eight minutes later, but the officials both on the field and in the replay booth ruled against an interception by Terrence Wheatley. Mizzou then mounted an 8-play, 52-yard drive capped by Daniel's last TD pass, a 9-yard toss to Jared Perry to close the day's scoring.

Colorado rushed for 183 yards on a Tiger defense that had allowed less than 43 the first four games of the year, and limited a potent MU rushing attack to just 100 yards on 40 tries. But Missouri came up with the big play when needed, usually on third down, as the Tigers converted 11-of-18 times to break the Buffs spirit.

GAME #6—BAYLOR 34, COLORADO 31 (3 OT)(October 7; Boulder)

BOULDER — Joe Pawelek's interception in the end zone in the third overtime ended Colorado's hopes for a rally, as well as for its first win of the season, as Baylor defeated the Buffaloes, 34-31. It was the 10th straight loss for CU dating back to 2005, tying the school record for consecutive defeats.

CU tied the game at 17-17 with 4:13 left in regulation on a 9-yard touchdown run by Byron Ellis, as the 12-play, 80-yard drive swung momentum back to the Buffaloes, who stopped the Bears cold on their next series. But Baylor did the same to the Buffs, as CU couldn't move the ball out beyond its 30 in the final two minutes in hopes of setting up a game winning field goal, thus the stage was set for overtime.

Colorado won the overtime toss and elected to play defense, and the Bears struck first, taking six plays to move 25 yards with Paul Mosley scoring his second touchdown of the day in putting BU ahead, 24-17. Colorado answered in four plays, as Bernard Jackson threw his first touchdown pass of the year (and his career), finding Riar Geer in the center of the end zone on the 10-yard play.

In the second extra session, lightning struck for the Buffaloes as Hugh Charles ripped through a big hole on the left side and ran 25 yards for a 31-24 CU lead right in front of the student section. Baylor earned a first down at the CU 13, and after a Mosley run set up a 2nd-and-7, Shawn Bell threw two straight incompletions leading to fourth down. Bell seemingly had forever to find a receiver, and eventually found Trent Shelton by himself for the touchdown to tie the game for the fourth time.

The Bears came back in the third OT and converted a 3rd-and-14 to get the 8-yard line, but the Buff defense stiffened, forcing a 22-yard field goal by Ryan Havens. On CU's first play, Charles was stopped at the line of scrimmage and then Jackson picked up four. Jackson then dropped back and tried to get the ball in the end zone to Tyson DeVree, but Pawelek read the play and picked off the ball, preserving the win for Baylor, just its second in 41 tries on the road in Big 12 play.

GAME #7—COLORADO 30, TEXAS TECH 6

(October 14; Boulder)

BOULDER — Bernard Jackson threw for two touchdowns and ran for a third with All-American Mason Crosby adding three field goals including a couple of long-range bombs as Colorado ended a 10-game losing streak with a dominant 30-6 victory over Texas Tech.

The Buffaloes had a decisive edge in all three phases of the game — offense, defense and special teams — but excelled particularly on defense in shutting down the Red Raiders explosive passing attack. CU limited Tech to 245 yards through the air, 105 below its season average, and a 104.2 rating, over 40 points shy of its number coming in. The Buffaloes pitched a shutout until 9:04 remained in the game, when the Red Raiders got on the board largely due to a 54-yard pass play where CU missed two tackles. Colorado also did not commit a penalty for the fourth time in its history, the first time since Sept. 21, 1985.

CU scored on its first possession for the sixth time in seven games, but this time never looked back. Jackson piloted a five-play, 65-yard drive, capped with a 28-yard TD pass to tight end Riar Geer. The lead grew to 14-0 on the first possession of the second quarter, as Jackson hit a streaking Jarrell Yates in the corner of the end zone from 29 yards out; Jackson had a 35-yard run earlier in the drive. Crosby then added field goals of 56 and 26 yards, the former the second longest in the nation in 2006 and the latter with just five seconds left before the half to bump the lead up to 20-0.

Crosby connected from 53 yards in the third quarter, set up by a Hugh Charles 35 yard run, and then Jackson closed the scoring on a 1-yard run following a failed Tech inside kick attempt after its score.

Charles finished with 119 yards on the ground, as the Buffs topped 200 yards rushing in consecutive games for the first time since late 2002, with Jackson accounting for 205 yards total offense. Defensively, many players shined for the Buffaloes. Ryan Walters made the first two interceptions of his career, linebacker Jordan Dizon recorded a career-high 16 tackles (11 solo), with end Abraham Wright making a key fourth down sack in the first half when Tech was bidding to slice CU's two-TD lead in half.

Tech had just 276 yards overall, and only 31 rushing on 15 attempts. CU allowed TTU just five plays in plus territory all game, including two for losses one being Wright's sack, and an interception.

GAME #8—OKLAHOMA 24, COLORADO 3

(October 24; Norman, Okla.)

NORMAN — Allen Patrick rushed for 110 yards and a touchdown subbing for injured Heisman candidate Adrian Peterson to lead No. 20 Oklahoma to a 24-3 win over Colorado.

Allen, only the second player to gain 100 yards against the Buffaloes in 21 games, needed 35 carries to get the yards, as CU's linebackers made him earn every one. With the temperature in the 40s all game with stiff winds in the 20-25 mile an hour range all evening, whichever team could establish the run when it was with the wind on offense would have the advantage, and it went to the Sooners.

The Buffaloes were handcuffed from the start on offense; going against the wind in the first quarter, CU had just one first down 26 yards of offense while the Sooners built a 10-0 lead. Paul Thompson and Manuel Johnson hooked up on a three-yard touchdown pass to cap a 12-play, 61-yard effort the first time OU had the ball. OU also used good clock management at the end of the quarter, using two timeouts to assure a field goal attempt with the wind; Garret Hartley connected from 46 yards out with just four seconds left in the stanza and the Sooners had a two-score edge.

That would cap the scoring for the next two quarters. CU had the ball in Sooner territory twice, with Bernard Jackson intercepted by Zach Latimer to end one drive. The other ended with aide of the wind, which blew a Mason Crosby 56-yard field goal attempt wide left. OU had just one real scoring threat in the span, but its first possession of the second half against the wind died on an incomplete fourth down pass at the CU 29.

CU's defense forced OU to punt from its own 20 late in the third quarter, and seemingly would get the ball in great field position to mount a last run at the Sooners. But Stephone Robinson fumbled the punt and the Sooners recovered at their own 46 and proceeded to go 54 yards in 12 plays for the clinching touchdown. The Buffs did get on the board with a 39-yard field goal from Crosby to pull back to within 17-3 with 6:13 left, but OU recovered the onside kick try to squelch the comeback. The Sooners added a cosmetic touchdown with 17 seconds remaining to inflate the final score.

CU had just 113 total yards, running 44 plays to 75 by the Sooners as OU controlled the clock. Thaddeus Washington recorded a career-high 19 tackles with Jordan Dizon matching his career best with 15 as CU's linebacker play shined in the contest. Washington also added four third down stops.

GAME #9—KANSAS 20, COLORADO 15*(October 28; Lawrence, Kan.)*

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Trailing 9-0 at halftime, the Kansas coaches decided to pull the redshirt off quarterback Todd Reesing, and the decision proved to be a good one as the Jayhawks utilized the true freshman's talents in rallying for a 20-15 win over the Colorado Buffaloes.

Three Mason Crosby field goals, from 37, 26 and 32 yards, enabled CU to build a 9-0 lead at halftime. The Jayhawk defense stiffened each time the Buffs approached their goal line, and the turning point may have come on CU's first second half possession. Lionel Harris intercepted Reesing at the Kansas 40 to set CU up with a short field, but KU stopped Bernard Jackson cold on a 4th-and-1 try from its 14 to take over on downs, ending the threat.

Two series later, Kansas got on the board thanks to a pair of big plays. Reesing hit Jake Sharp with a 42-yard pass to the Colorado 34, and after a pass interference penalty on Harris set the 'Hawks up with a first down at the CU 22, Reesing hit Jon Cornish in the flat for what turned into a 22-yard touchdown. With the lead down to 9-7, the Buffs appeared poised to answer, marching to the KU 25. But on third down Jackson was intercepted by Aqib Talib, who returned to pick 59 yards to the CU 24. Four plays later, Reesing took it in from three yards out to give KU the lead it would not relinquish.

Reesing engineered another TD drive on KU's next possession, connecting with Derek Fine on a 5-yard scoring pass producing a 20-9 Jayhawk lead (Kansas inexplicably went for and missed a two-point try). The Buffs moved to their 44 but were intercepted on a halfback pass play, and all KU literally had to do was run out the clock. Driving to the Buff 7, Reesing was hit hard by Brandon Nicolas, with the resulting fumble scooped up by Ryan Walters, who returned it 95 yards for a touchdown. CU's two-point try went in and out of the hands of Alvin Barnett and the KU lead remained at five.

An onside kick try by the Buffs failed, but the defense did hold KU to three plays and out. The Buffs had just 59 seconds and no timeouts to work with and could not earn a first down. A 61-yard pass play at the end of the game was even wiped out as Jackson was over the line of scrimmage, mirroring the way the second half had gone for Colorado.

CU forced four turnovers, but could muster just 256 yards on offense in losing to Kansas for the first time since 2000.

GAME #10—KANSAS STATE 34, COLORADO 21*(November 4; Boulder)*

BOULDER — Josh Freeman completed 22-of-26 passes for 251 yards and two touchdowns, earning Big 12 Offensive player of the week honors in the process, to lead Kansas State to a 34-21 win over Colorado.

After a scoreless first quarter, Kansas State posted 17 unanswered points in the second to force Colorado to play from behind the remainder of the game. KSU had worked to the three-score lead on the strength of a 10-play, 66-yard touchdown drive, capped by a 15-yard run by Leon Patton, and two significantly shorter drives. The Wildcats moved to a 14-0 lead three plays after recovering a Stephone Robinson fumble at the CU 16, as Yamon Figurs caught a 9-yard TD pass from Freeman. K-State added a Jeff Snodgrass 46-yard field goal with just one second left in the half.

Despite just 64 yards in the first half, CU still put up a fight and had its best offensive half of the season, scoring 21 points while gaining 306 yards after halftime, but it wouldn't be enough. CU couldn't punch it into the end zone on its first possession of the second half, driving from its 14 to a first-and-goal at the KSU 3, where eventually a fourth down run by quarterback Bernard Jackson came up short at the KSU 1.

The next time CU had the ball, the Buffs did crack the scoreboard, marching 64 yards in six plays, highlighted by a 40-yard run by Mell Holliday and a 3-yard touchdown run by Jackson. Snodgrass nailed a 27-yard field goal after a couple of big plays by the Wildcats to run the KSU lead back up to 20-7, and Jackson personally answered right back with a 62-yard run for a score to cut it to 20-14, the closest the Buffs would come. Just 91 seconds later, Jordy Nelson took a Freeman pass and scored on a 74-yard play, 73 of the yards coming after the catch as he eluded no less than three would-be tacklers.

Jackson connected with tight end Tyson DeVree on a fourth down, 1-yard TD pass to close the scoring for the Buffs, but it followed the last KSU score, a Figurs 30-yard run on a reverse that put the Wildcats up by 20. Those plays capped a wild fourth quarter, which saw the teams combine for 31 points and 332 yards.

GAME #11—COLORADO 33, IOWA STATE 16

(November 11; Boulder)

BOULDER — Bernard Jackson threw two touchdown passes and ran for a third as Colorado concluded its home schedule and sent 23 seniors out with a 33-16 win over Iowa State.

Jackson completed 13-of-19 passes for 200 yards and the two scores, the first a 26-yard laser to Alvin Barnett starting a run of seven consecutive drives the Buffs scored on. It was by far Colorado's best offensive game of the year, as CU rolled up a season-high 463 yards on offense.

Mell Holliday rushed for 126 yards, setting up four of the Buff scores in logging a team season-high in single game yards. Two of those were Mason Crosby field goals, as the senior All-American kicked four in the game, the fourth time in his career and the second time against the Cyclones.

With CU jumping to a 30-7 lead after scoring 23 consecutive points one Iowa State tied the score at 7-7, one of the most exciting moments of the game came when Crosby attempted a 65-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, but the try came up less than a yard short.

But there was plenty of excitement en route to that moment, as Crosby made kicks of 47, 38, 41 and 42 yards sandwiched around two other CU touchdowns. Jackson scored on a 5-yard run midway through the second quarter to cap a 15-play, 95-yard drive that put the Buffs ahead 17-7. Jackson then threw his second scoring pass, this one to Patrick Williams from 39 yards out after the Buffs took possession on a punt, with that score building the Buffalo lead to 30-7 with 5:06 left in the third quarter.

ISU played the game just three days after learning head coach Dan McCarney was forced to step down at the end of the season. The Cyclones matched CU's first score on their first possession, marching 86 yards in 10 plays with Bret Meyer and Jon Davis hooking up on a 21-yard TD pass. Other than a field goal as the third quarter expired, the only other ISU score came following Crosby's long field goal miss.

OUCH... THERE'S NO OTHER WORD FOR IT

Colorado may have opened 0-4, but there's plenty of misery around the Big 12 Conference when it came to facing ranked opponents in 2006. In non-league play, the league went a combined 0-9 against top 25 teams. Colorado, as is its standard fare, was the only school to play as many as two, while four faced none. The eight schools that ventured to play ranked foes were outscored 209-99; Colorado had two of the most respectable outings, losing 21-3 to Arizona State (ASU scored a cosmetic touchdown in the final two minutes), and perhaps had the best showing against any ranked team with the 14-13 loss at Georgia. Of course, the latter has to allow for the botched instant replay mess by the Pac-10 that cost Oklahoma a win at Oregon, as the Sooners' 34-33 "loss" is the only other contest besides CU-UGA decided by one score (eight points) or less.

THROW THE RULE OUT ALREADY, PEOPLE WANT TO SEE ACTION

The NCAA Rules Committee change that has quickened college football games has not been popular. By starting the clock faster on possession changes (and on kickoffs when foot meets ball), people figured each team might lose 8-10 plays per game. Hmmm... well, in week one, Colorado (54) and Montana State (70) combined for just 124 plays, only the 11th time in CU's last 234 games that fewer than 125 plays were run. Fast-forward to week two, and CU (48) and Colorado State (57) ran all of 105 plays, the fourth fewest combined in a Colorado game since 1946. 1946?! And two of the three lower than that total occurred in 1946: CU (45) and Wyoming (43) combined for 88 on Oct. 28, and CU (49) and Texas (54) for 103 on Sept. 28; on Oct. 2, 1954, CU (63) and Kansas (41) had 104. Rounding out the top/low five is Nov. 7, 1961, when CU (71) and Nebraska (35) had 106 in a fierce snowstorm in Lincoln (NU didn't have a first down that day). There were 136 total plays in the Arizona State game, still six below the average for CU and its opponent in 2005 (CU averaged 69 plays per game, the opponent 73 for a norm of 142). The number dipped to 122 in the Georgia game, with the 56 plays by the Bulldogs tied for the second fewest by an opponent in a win over CU since 1981 (Oklahoma State ran 54 in a 42-17 win in 2004).

- Because Missouri ran a no huddle offense, the opportunity for plays existed. While a season-high for combined plays not including the overtime game with Baylor (140, 77 by Mizzou and 63 for Colorado), 140 for a game where one team ran the hurry-up offense 95 percent of the game is extremely low.
- Through 11 games in 2005, CU and its opponent had run 1,564 plays; fast-forward to 2006, and the combined total is 1,385, or 16.3 plays per game fewer. The national average is claimed to be just SIX plays fewer per game. Hmmm... something doesn't add up there.
- The average game time of a CU game in 2005 took 3 hours and 29 minutes; in 2006, the average is 3 hours and 3 minutes. The CU-CSU contest lasted all of 2:48, tied for the third shortest since 1990.
- Colorado is averaging 60.1 plays per game, on pace to be the fewest run by the Buffaloes since 1963, when they averaged 57.6 plays per game in Eddie Crowder's first season (10-game season; the fewest in an 11-game campaign was 63.2 in 1967).
- Through 11 games, CU and its opponent have run 125 or fewer plays SEVEN times; that's only three fewer than the total in the previous 233 games heading into the season.

LINER NOTES

Here's the place to look for that one or two sentence quick note on a CU two-deep regular:

1 Stephone Robinson	He has had fumble troubles in 2006, uncharacteristic for him as he developed an M.O. quickly—most punts others fair catch, he prides himself on catching and trying to gain even just a yard, to prevent longer punts on bounces. He thus would often get hit a “nano-second” after making a catch, but always held on to the ball, until this year. He briefly switched to CB during his career but returned to offense.
2 Hugh Charles	He enjoys flying planes; he earned his solo license in a Cessna 172 as a sophomore in high school and then served in the Civil Air Patrol for two years. Charles is also on CU's track and field team in the spring, as has recorded the second best numbers in the long jump in school history behind Kingsley Adams who lettered in the 1970s.
4 Patrick Williams	Williams possesses a rare combination of speed and athletic ability, and is CU's top legitimate deep threat to stretch opposing defenses. As a true freshman in 2004, he had the misfortune of breaking bones in both of his hands.
5 J.J. Billingsley	He has had more than his fair share of surgeries in his career, the latest this past on Oct. 5 after he suffered a torn meniscus two days earlier in a Tuesday practice. He missed the next five games, a rock in the middle of the road in what was otherwise turning out to be a solid senior season following plenty of adversity in his CU career.
6 Gardner McKay	McKay was in the hunt for starting honors until briefly sidetracked by an ankle injury late in camp. He has solid coverage skills, and he is definitely a front-runner to be one of CU's starting corners in the future.
7 Bernard Jackson	Jackson is in the mold of the kind of quarterback who has flourished at Colorado in the past, going back to the days when CU ran the wishbone and I-bone where the QB was an equal threat as a runner and passer. His passing skills were raw prior to this season, but have dramatically improved with the most attention he's received since he first arrived at CU in 2003. He had brief trials at running back, wide receiver and punt returner, always moved in-season instead of the spring, and then usually switched back before he could develop. It was a way the old coaching staff did try to get him on the field so his talent could be utilized.
10 James Cox	He was named the starter after CU's second fall scrimmage, but struggled in the opening loss to Montana State. Then football was shoved aside, as his father passed away on Sept. 20 after fighting major health problems the previous five years. He rejoined his teammates the following week but has seen just brief action since (late in the first half versus Texas Tech when Jackson had the wind knocked out of him).
10 Terry Washington	He is one of the fastest players on the team with great instincts. He has seen increased playing time as the season has progressed, and worked his way into the starting lineup on a permanent basis the seventh game (second half) of the season. He had substantial playing time as a junior after transferring from Garden City (Kan.) Community College, when Lorenzo Sims went down with an injury. The Buffs originally recruited him as a running back in 2003. Also leads the team in special teams points, as he excels on many units.
13 Joe Sanders	Former CU basketball center and current Indiana Pacer David Harrison helped persuade Sanders to become a Buff. Harrison, also from Nashville, has known Sanders since 1998... During high school, he traveled to South Africa to volunteer at an orphanage.
14 Matt DiLallo	He was able to study under Ray Guy Award finalist John Torp while redshirting as a true freshman in 2005, and it's paid dividends. While still raw in a few areas, he will be just the third freshman, true or redshirt, to ever lead the Buffs in punting. His average—43.6—is over five years better than that of any previous frosh punter in school annals.
15 Ryan Walters	Has a great pedigree as his father, Marc, played quarterback for CU in the late 1980s until a knee injury ended his career; the elder Walters still owns CU's all-time best single-game passing rating (353.3 vs. Kansas State in 1989). The younger Walters excelled as a QB in high school as well, but has adapted to playing free safety in college, is a fierce hitter, and acknowledges that playing quarterback helps him to know what the offense is thinking.
16 Mason Crosby	He has one of the strongest legs in college football, as evidenced by his 58-yard field goal at Miami in 2005, the longest without a tee at sea level in NCAA history (to go nicely with a 60-yarder in Boulder in 2004). The coaches feel CU can be in field goal range 65 yards on in. As with most kickers, he has a ritual: he'll sometimes hit 40-60 golf balls at the range two days before games and regularly breaks 80 when he plays 18.
17 Alvin Barnett	He struggled to adapt to the fast pace of Division I football upon his arrival in 2005, and had some moderate success after adapting as a sophomore. But he recently has broken out as a junior, and has become one of the quarterbacks' favorite targets, with eight catches the last three games after nabbing 11 in the first eight.
19 Ben Carpenter	Special teams coach Kent Riddle just loves Carpenter. A heady player (3.9 grade point average while earning a double major), he's always in the right place at the right time on coverage units.
22 Lorenzo Sims, Jr.	His cousin (Ricky Manning) was a defensive back at UCLA, while another (DeShawn Stevenson) plays guard for the Utah Jazz; second cousin (Bruce Bowen) is a forward for the San Antonio Spurs. Sims is CU's most physical corner, which makes sense since he is basically a converted safety.
26 Terrence Wheatley	He has had to endure three wrist surgeries in his CU career and will have a fourth after the 2006 season, but he has managed to become one of the premier secondary players in the Big 12. In man coverage, he is rarely thrown at by opposing quarterbacks as he has a knack for the ball, with five interceptions. A sixth at Missouri was disallowed even upon replay, though it sure looked like he did have it.
27 Byron Ellis	Ellis runs with more of a bruising style and likes to shoot the ball up the middle. He is majoring in integrative physiology at CU and was 4.0 student in high school; that makes him the perfect back to predict what the defense will do and he's often in the game for his cerebral knowledge of things.
29 Cha'pelle Brown	The nickel back in CU's package in obvious passing situations. Impressed the coaches right away in camp and they wanted him on the field in some capacity, as he has also seen time as a return man on punts and kickoffs.
30 Paul Creighton	Creighton can play both fullback and tight end, and is a regular on special team units (punt return, kickoff, FG/PAT). Was sidelined early in the season as he was weakened from a nerve injury in his leg/thigh area and didn't fully recover until a month into the season.

- 30 Joel Adams Granted he sees action only on the kickoff and punt coverage teams, but he is CU's only two sport athlete outside of the traditional football-track combo; he's an alpine skier on CU's national championship ski team.
- 32 Maurice Cantrell Switched from the logjam at inside linebacker to fullback this fall (midway in camp) and has blossomed at his new position, working his way to first-team status by the start of the conference season. In the win over Texas Tech, he was one CU's "secret weapons," catching two passes for 38 yards, both plays setting up CU scores.
- 33 Walter Boye-Doe He moved to defensive end from inside linebacker as a junior and has really come into his own this season, rallying from a scary moment in CU's second scrimmage to start every game (he landed on his head/neck on a play and was hospitalized overnight). A fierce hitter, his initials WBD could stand for "Weapon of Ball-carrier Destruction."
- 37 Mell Holliday A most interesting story as the young man's journey brought him from Omaha's Benson High School to Wayne State (Neb.), where he lettered twice at fullback. He then transferred to Nebraska where he did not make the team as a walk-on (wasn't allowed to try out) and then came west to CU where he made the team and subsequently earned a scholarship. The father of five, including four daughters, he worked this past summer as a welder to help support his family.
- 40 Brad Jones He has had the chore of replacing three-year starter Brian Iwuh at outside linebacker, and has stepped in admirably. Though not having the knack, at least yet, of making the spectacular, stand-out kind of play Iwuh was famous for, Jones rather quietly goes about his job and is third on the team in tackles. He had a career-high 10 tackles in the 33-16 win over Iowa State (and had a INT at Kansas).
- 42 Benjamin Burney He started the season opener, as he came out of camp essentially tied for the top spot on the depth chart at free safety with Ryan Walters (and also started against Baylor when Walters was injured). His father, Jacob Burney, is in his fifth year as defensive line coach for the NFL Denver Broncos.
- 43 Samson Jagoras A transfer from Western New Mexico (he was a scholarship player there for two years), he prides himself on going "100 miles an hour" every practice. "It's good if (the other team) think you're a little crazy because it makes them a little intimidated of you." He ended fall camp No. 1 at fullback, and though since supplanted on the depth chart, he still lives by his creed and still sees action special teams.
- 44 Jordon Dizon Ascending up CU's all-time tackles list, he has a nose for where to be on third down; his 17 third down stops in 2006 are one shy of the school record. He became the first true freshman since 1991 and just the sixth-ever to start a season opener at CU in 2004 (the first ILB). He lived up to his nod, racking up 8 tackles, to go with a caused interception, one PBU, a TD save and a third down stop against CSU. His given Hawaiian name, Kainalu (pronounced kye-ah-na-loo) means "ocean wave."
- 46 Dan Goettsch An invited walk-on for the fall of 2002, he patiently waited his turn, earning a scholarship last spring. The coaches wish he was just a freshman or sophomore as they feel he has the potential to be an NFL-caliber tight end, he just needs time. He is a perfectionist, as he is his own worst critic when he doesn't make a play in practice he knows he should have made.
- 47 Alonzo Barrett He has seen spot action in 2006, as he's battled through a couple of injuries, but he's back at full speed for the finale at Nebraska. With three seniors on the defensive front, he has a bright future and will likely compete for starting honors in 2007.
- 48 Cody Crawford A walk-on who has worked hard and as a result has seen his playing time increase to the point where is in the regular receiver rotation. He's also tough, perhaps due to his ancestry; he is a distant relative of Buffalo Bill Cody, and perhaps his genes drew on that as he played the bulk of 2006 with a cracked rib. Once he got on the field, he wasn't going to let something like a little 'ol cracked rib keep him off.
- 49 Thaddaeus Washington How tough is Thaddaeus? He suffered two cracked front teeth early in the Kansas State game and still came back to play; he had a root canal the following Tuesday to help alleviate the pain. He was able to start in his home finale against Iowa State the following Saturday. Hails from the same high school that produced former CU QB Kordell Stewart.
- 51 Alex Ligon He has a hard luck start to his senior year, sidelined for the bulk of it with knee problems. He returned to action in late October and started the final two home games of his career, though inside at tackle as all his previous starts came at end (with most of his action prior to 2006 also at DE). He had three sacks at Washington State in 2004 and claimed Big 12 Defensive POW honors for his efforts.
- 53 Abraham Wright An explosive player with great speed, Wright has a knack for getting in the backfield. He's the first player since Ron Woolfork (14 in 1993) to have recorded double figures in quarterback sacks at Colorado. He has been in the top three all season in the NCAA in sacks, as well as in the top 20 in tackles for loss.
- 54 Marcus Burton He has seen most of his action on special teams, though he did start the Missouri game. He got into the record book as a true freshman in 2005, as he returned an interception 99 yards for a touchdown at Oklahoma St., the second longest play in a school history by a frosh.
- 57 Bryce MacMartin He took over in the Georgia game when Mark Fenton went down with an injury, and to his credit, the Buffs didn't miss a beat, as he was prepared. Though he plays a different style, he also brought to the table the mind of a chemical engineer—his major.
- 58 Mark Fenton His senior year got sidetracked when he suffered a cracked fibula against Georgia; he missed the next six games and ended his hopes to repeat as a Rimington finalist. He first got the attention of the coaching staff during 2002 Alamo Bowl practices, when he had his first extensive look at the center position. All-Big 12 in 2005, he is the latest in CU's long line of all-conference centers.
- 66 Brian Daniels He applied for the Rhodes Scholarship last spring, but he did not advance in the process, one of the toughest things to accomplish. However, he was one of 17 NFF Scholar-Athletes (winning an $18K postgraduate scholarship) and is a finalist for the Academic Heisman, the Draddy Award. In 2003, he started the most games (9) as a true freshman at CU since Eric Bieniemy started 11 at halfback in 1987.
- 70 Justin Drescher He is following in the footsteps on Greg Pace, who lettered four years as CU's snapper on special teams; in fact, Pace is a student coach who has helped tutor Drescher on the finer points of snapping. He was recruited specifically for the role and stepped right into it as a true freshman, and has done quite well.
- 72 Devin Head The best of CU's non-starting linemen, he is considered the "swing" guy, as he is capable of playing all four slots at the guard and tackle positions.
- 75 Daniel Sanders He really developed over the course of his redshirt freshman year, and showed he was pretty tough, too. He missed two games in the middle of the 2005 season due to a partially torn hamstring, but came back strong to start the last three games. He has started all but one game as a sophomore, missing the opener with an injury.

76 Edwin Harrison	Harrison was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-Big 12 squad in 2004, and he's been a regular in the starting lineup since. His grandfather (Calvin Jones) won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior lineman as a senior at Iowa in 1955; Jones was the first two-time consensus All-American in Iowa history, and his No. 62 was retired by the Hawkeyes.
77 Tyler Polumbus	One of the two tallest players on the Buffs at 6-8 (the other is frosh TE Nate Solder), Polumbus is entrenched at tackle and has bulked up some 25 pounds since arriving at CU in 2003. Two members of his family played sports at CU: Father (Tad) lettered in both football and golf (1965-66), and an uncle (Gary Polumbus) lettered three years in golf and twice made it to the NCAA Championships.
78 Jason Brace	Has seen a decent amount of action as a true freshman (one of four to play in 2006), though he suffered a concussion against Kansas State and is expected to miss the remainder of the year. But he figures big into CU's future plans up front.
83 Dusty Sprague	A favorite go-to-guy for Joel Klatt in 2004 and 2005, he hasn't had the kind of productivity he experienced those two seasons as his climb on CU's all-time charts has slowed a bit (it's not been his fault). But he is a leader and has still made the big play on occasion in '06.
84 Tyson DeVree	He played with current Denver Bronco Tony Scheffler at Western Michigan; DeVree transferred to CU in 2005 and was expected to help fill the roles vacated by Joe Klopfenstein and Quinn Sypniewski. He's done that for the most part, especially in the blocking department.
85 Nick Holz	He has seen plenty of action at wide receiver, as he was awarded a scholarship in the spring, but "Pony" (his nickname) has made his bones so-to-speak at the four-year holder for All-American placekicker Mason Crosby. They're pretty close, and their parents often go to dinner together after games.
86 George Hypollite	Quietly goes about his business, but if you look at his stats, lo and behold, he's second on the team in tackles for loss and has done an effective job in stopping the run. He's also a popular interview, as he speaks his mind but not in a flashy way; he's well just well versed.
87 Rlar Geer	He has already set the school record for most catches by a freshman tight end in history and is also close to the yardage record as well. He never played tight end until he got to college, but when recruited, he had the frame that made coaches thing "future tight end."
90 Isaac Garden	He won the starting job coming out of camp, but struggled a bit in the opener and was replaced by Matthew DiLallo. DiLallo, in turn, had some troubles and Garden punted first against Kansas State. A walk-on, his real future might be competing to replace All-American placekicker Mason Crosby; he's shown he has a pretty strong leg.
91 Maurice Lucas	Was ticketed to redshirt in 2005, but injuries decimated the DE position in mid-October and the coaches asked if he would give up the redshirt. He played for the first time against Texas in game six, and wound up starting CU's last seven games of the year.
94 Brandon Nicolas	He transferred to Colorado from Notre Dame the first week of school in September 2005; he has said he has no regrets leaving the Irish program which obviously has had a good run under Charlie Weis. He had played very well in the middle and is one of the big reasons CU has played so well against the run this season.
98 Michael SipIII	One of just four true freshman to play in 2006, the coaches are really excited about his future. He's seen some spot duty subbing for Jordon Dizon and Thaddaeus Washington (in addition to special teams duties), but with Washington being a senior and Dizon a junior, look for him to roll right into one of those two spots and occupy it for a long time to come.

INSTANT REPLAY SUMMARY

In the first year of the implementation in 2005, Colorado had 12 plays reviewed (in six total games), with just two being overturned; this year, 13 have been looked at with four outcomes changed. Here's the roll call of instant replay situations (where play was stopped for further review) for Colorado games in 2006 (*—denotes coach's challenge):

Date	Opponent	Team	Play Reviewed	Result	Length	Notes
Sept. 2	Montana State	MSU	Rolovich 9 pass to Jefferson, Wright 23 fumble return	Overturned	2:12	Ruled an incomplete pass, no possession
Sept. 2	Montana State	*MSU	Carpenter pass to Groves, stopped short of TD	Upheld	0:41	Player broke plane of end zone, ball did not
Sept. 9	Colorado State	*CSU	Jackson fumble and CU recovery	Upheld	2:43	Involved fumble pile, replay couldn't change
Sept. 16	Arizona State	ASU	ASU's Carpenter fumbles out of bounds inside the CU 1	Overturned	1:47	Fumble hit pylon, ruled TB/possession to CU
Sept. 16	Arizona State	CU	Jackson fumble into end zone, ASU recovery and return	Upheld	2:15	Seeing if he had broken the plane first
Sept. 23	Georgia	CU	CU possession after punt (ruled did not touch CU player)	Upheld	1:20	Two CU players avoided touching ball

Sept. 30	Missouri	*CU	Wheatley apparent interception ruled incomplete	Upheld	3:30	Appeared to have control and be in bounds
Oct. 7	Baylor	BU	Corey Ford interception	Upheld	0:45	CU's Sprague pulled ball away after tackle
Oct. 14	Texas Tech	TTU	Holliday 12 touchdown run late in game	Overturned	1:30	Ball re-spotted at the 1-yard line
Oct. 28	Kansas	CU	Jackson fumble (pulled ball back down) and CU recovery	Upheld	0:45	Checked to see if it was an incomplete pass
Nov. 4	Kansas State	CU	Sprague 13 pass from Jackson ruled incomplete (OB)	Overturned	2:26	Sprague in fact was inbounds, ruled a catch
Nov. 11	Iowa State	*ISU	Jackson incomplete pass, ball hit ground before ISU interception	Upheld	1:15	Pass intended for Williams, near pick

40 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS SEVENTH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 40 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season is tied for the seventh most in the nation in this time frame. Florida State has the most with 65, followed by Michigan (57), Florida (54), Ohio State (50), Miami, Fla. (49), Tennessee (48), Colorado (40) and Notre Dame (40). Penn State (38), Nebraska (35) and Alabama and Texas (34 each) round out the top 10. As for the Big 12, after CU, NU and UT, the next schools on this list are Oklahoma (30), Texas A&M (19) and Texas Tech (17). All-time, Colorado's 63 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado has dropped 13 straight games against ranked opponents, and has one last shot in 2006 against Nebraska. CU's last win against a ranked team came in 2003, when the Buffs toppled No. 22 Missouri in Boulder, 21-16. CU has lost three straight home games to ranked teams, seven straight in enemy stadiums to the ranked (the last win was at UCLA 31-17 in 2002) and three on neutral ground. CU has not gone winless against a ranked team for three straight years since doing so over seven seasons between 1979 and 1985.

RECORD WATCH

The list of records that have been set in 2006; PK Mason Crosby had the first official entry when he became the school's all-time leading kick scorer in the season opener. NOTE: A reminder that when it comes to records, CU did not adopt the NCAA 2002 policy of adding bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers.

THE BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-06 Record	Dan Hawkins Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	11-48-2	7-16-1	0-0	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	24-83-3	13-28-2	0-1	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	36-100-3	19-33-2	0-1	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	66-130-3	40-49-2	0-4	20 / Bill McCartney

CU and Nebraska have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the 11-year old league owns a 27-67 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own eight of those wins. CU is 8-11 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 8-5, Texas 4-6, Kansas State 2-4, Oklahoma 2-2, Baylor 1-3, Iowa State 1-8, Texas Tech 1-8, Kansas 0-2, Oklahoma State 0-4, Missouri 0-5 and Texas A&M 0-9. CU has played 17 of the 87 games, with Nebraska next with 12 (no one else has played10).

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 38-6, Kansas State 36-6, Oklahoma State 29-8, Texas 32-10, Oklahoma 30-11, Missouri 27-11, Texas A&M 29-12, Kansas 25-11, Iowa State 27-12, Texas Tech 29-14, Baylor 20-15 and Colorado 23-19 (remember traditionally CU plays one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

TRENDS

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years, Colorado is 170-92-4, the 20th best record nationally in this span). In these 266 games, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

♦ with 400-plus yards total offense	101-16-2	♦ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	83-16-1
♦ with 500-plus yards total offense	50- 5-0	♦ when leading at halftime (123-15-2 in last 140)	139-17-2
♦ when leading in time of possession	111-24-3	♦ when leading after three quarters (139-12-3 in last 154)	143-14-3
♦ when making 20-plus first downs	104-28-1	♦ when scoring 24 or more points	138-18-2
♦ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	66- 7-1	♦ when scoring 14 or more points	167-52-4
♦ when punting three or fewer times	62-13-1	♦ when held to 13 points or less	3-39-0
♦ when scoring first	110-27-1	♦ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	12- 0-0
♦ with two or fewer turnovers (31-9-2 with zero)	123-44-2	♦ when passing for more yards than rushing	70-58-2
♦ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	102-17-1	♦ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	93-17-2
♦ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	86-10-1

TRENDS II

Since 1989, when the Buffs became a regular in the national rankings, Colorado has posted the nation's 20th best overall record at 142-73-4. Here are some trends during this time frame (219 games, including bowls):

➤ when running more plays than the opponent	78-26-3	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	75- 5-1
➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (45-5 with 500-plus)	87-16-2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards	51- 2-1
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	94- 6-1	➤ when rushing for 300-plus yards	30- 0-1
➤ when leading in possession time (52-50-1 when not)	90-22-3	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	32- 2-0
➤ when making 20-plus first downs	91-25-1	➤ when passing for 200-plus yards	75-33-2
➤ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	52- 6-1	➤ when passing for 300-plus yards (10-0-1 400-plus)	25-11-1
➤ when scoring first (77-18-1 the last 96 times)	88-21-1	➤ when passing for more yards than rushing	70-58-2
➤ with two or fewer turnovers (25-9-2 with zero)	105-38-2	➤ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	75-16-2
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	78-10-1	➤ when holding edge in field position	113-19-1
➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	70-10-1	➤ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	11- 0-0
➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	62-11-1	➤ when out-rushing the opponent	115-13-3
➤ when average field position is CU 30+ (23-2 40+)	102-30-2	➤ when owning the edge in return yards	107-27-2
➤ when play selection is 50 percent rushing calls	119-27-2

TRENDS III

Some trends of new Colorado coach Dan Hawkins both overall and at his former school, Boise State; totals are for 75 games including bowls (55-20; the Broncos were 53-11 under his guidance in five seasons):

Category	At CU	Overall	Category	At CU	Overall
➤ when scoring 20 or more points (0-12 when not)	2- 2	55- 8	➤ when leading after three (6-15 trailing ,2-1 tied)	2- 2	47- 3
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	2- 1	49- 3	➤ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	1- 3	33- 5
➤ when scoring 40 or more points	0- 0	35- 2	➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards offense	1- 4	25- 4
➤ when scoring 50 or more points	0- 0	19- 0	➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	2- 1	34- 1
➤ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	2- 2	31- 2	➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards (6-0 300-plus)	1- 1	23- 1
➤ in games decided by 7 points or less	0- 4	10- 9	➤ when rushing for more yards than passing	2- 5	20- 6
➤ with two or fewer turnovers (8-1 with zero)	2- 7	40-15	➤ with a 100-yard rusher	1- 2	28- 2
➤ when turnover margin was plus or even	2- 6	41-13	➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	1- 0	26- 0
➤ when scoring first (17-11 when not)	2- 6	38- 9	➤ with 400-plus yards total offense (41-0 last 40)	1- 0	45- 2
➤ when leading at halftime	2- 3	45- 6	➤ with 500-plus yards total offense (5-0 with 600-plus)	0- 0	23- 1
➤ when trailing at halftime (4-0 when tied)	0- 5	6-13

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Dan Hawkins falls in line with most, if not all, head coaches when it comes to turnovers, and that they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. He has penalties and rewards daily in the practice dependent on the number of turnovers committed or forced. Gary Barnett drilled home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football, which he learned from the legendary Bill McCartney. Statistics back up the argument, as the below will show that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 18 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 20th best overall record:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers
				PF	PA	+/-
142 WINS	237	362	+125	1,201	462	+739
HAWKINS ERA (2 WINS)	2	5	+ 3	3	6	- 3
73 LOSSES (& 4 TIES)	191	128	- 63	230	623	-343
HAWKINS ERA (9 LOSSES)	14	17	+ 3	18	41	- 23
18-SEASON TOTAL (219 Games)	428	490	+62	1,481	1,085	+396
HAWKINS ERA (11 Games)	16	22	+ 6	21	47	- 26

ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1936 (Nov. 6) Byron White scores 25 points against Utah in Boulder in a 31-7 CU victory; White scored four touchdowns and kicked a PAT to establish a Buff record.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado defeats Nebraska, 36-14, in the first-ever television appearance for the Buffaloes (NBC).
- 1956 The 50th anniversary of CU's first bowl champion team, as the '56 Buffaloes were 7-2-1 in the regular season and defeated Clemson 27-21 in the Orange Bowl.
- 1961 Colorado wins its first Big Eight Conference title, going 7-0 in league play and 9-1 overall before losing to LSU in the Orange Bowl (25-7). Along the way, CU posted key wins over Kansas (20-19, after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), Missouri (7-6) and Nebraska (holding the Cornhuskers to 31 yards of total offense and no first downs).
- 1966 Hale Irwin earns All-Big 8 honors for a second straight year at defensive back and leads CU to a second place finish in the Big 8.
- 1981 The 25th anniversary of the most dramatic comeback in CU history, as the Buffs defeat Oklahoma State 11-10 after trailing 10-3 with a minute left and facing a second-and-14 from its own 4. Steve Vogel connects with Brad Parker for a 9-yard touchdown and then hits Derek Singleton for the 2-point conversion for the win; it was the last time Singleton ever touched the ball, as he fell ill with spinal meningitis the next week and died New Year's Day 1982.
- 1971 Thirty-five years ago, a sophomore-laden CU team opened up with a couple of huge upsets on the road at Louisiana State and Ohio State and went on to finish 10-2 and ranked No. 3 in the nation—the only time one conference has produced the top three schools in a final poll, as Nebraska was ranked No. 1 and Oklahoma No. 2 (the only teams to defeat CU in '71);
- 1976 A 35-28 win at Kansas State creates a three-way tie for the Big 12 title, but CU gets the nod over Oklahoma and Oklahoma State thanks to wins over both; CU goes on to the Orange Bowl where it falls 27-10 to Ohio State.
- 1986 In a game commonly referred to as "The Turning Point," CU's 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska has the nation take notice of the rising Buffalo program; the Buffs rebound from an 0-4 start and play for the Big Eight title (losing to Oklahoma), but earn a berth in the Bluebonnet Bowl;
- 1991 CU claims a third straight Big Eight title, though this one is shared with Nebraska as both are 6-0-1 in league play; the 19-19 tie between the two in Boulder on Nov. 2 is the coldest game in CU history (12 degrees, but the wind chill is minus-8).
- 1996 Matt Russell wins the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, highlighting a 10-2 season in which Koy Detmer became the first (and only) player in school history to pass for over 3,000 yards in a season.
- 2001 CU wins its first Big 12 Conference title, as the Buffs ascend to No. 2 in the final regular season polls but miss out on appearing in the BCS National Championship game by a mere fraction of a point despite ending the year with a 62-36 win over Nebraska and a 39-37 verdict over Texas in the league title game. The Buffs drop a 38-16 decision to No. 3 Oregon in the Fiesta Bowl.

REUNIONS

Three weekends served as reunions for various former CU athletes in 2006:

- September 15-16: the 30-year reunion of CU's 1976 Big Eight champion football team (six coaches, including head coach Bill Mallory, and 40 players returned);
- October 6-7 (Living Legends): the annual gathering of those alumni who lettered 50 years ago;
- October 12-14: Hall of Fame Weekend, featuring the induction of this year's class: Bobby Anderson, the late Fred Casotti, Adam Goucher, Bill Marolt, Bill McCartney and CU's first national champion, the 1959 ski team. Anderson will also be honored as the fourth CU player to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The 1966 football seniors held its own 40th class reunion the same weekend.

2006 NCAA RULES CHANGES

The NCAA Football Rules Committee approved several changes this past February; here's a list of the most significant:

- Instant Replay. The committee approved one procedure for all institutions and conferences that choose to use instant replay: that is for the replay official in the press box to review all plays on the field and stop the game if a play is on the list of all reviewable plays and has a direct, competitive impact on the game. Each team will also now have one challenge during the game (as the Mountain West has had). If the challenge overturns a call on the field, the coach retains the right to challenge later in the game and is not charged a timeout; if the call is not reversed, the team is charged a timeout and the coach does not have the ability to challenge again in the game. The coach may not challenge a ruling if his team is out of timeouts in either half.
- Game Clock. To help reduce the length of games, the clock will now start when the foot touches the ball on kickoffs and free kicks (instead of when the return man touches the ball). The clock will also now be started on the ready to play signal on a new possession, instead on the snap of the ball, much as it is now when a team earns a first down.
- Kicking Tee. The kicking tee has been reduced from two inches to one inch as a method of reducing the number of touchbacks.
- Procedural Fouls on Punts & Kickoffs. The receiving team will now have the option of accepting the penalty after the return or forcing the kicking team to kick again five yards from the original line of scrimmage (should eliminate some re-kicks).

THIS-N-THAT

- 300. Colorado is 177-118-5 all-time record in games played on artificial surfaces (0-1 to date in 2006), as the Buffaloes played their 300th game all-time at Kansas on October 28.
- 400. Colorado entered 2006 with 395 combined wins in the seven different conferences it has lined up to play football in. Thus, CU is four victories away from 400 all-time wins in conference play, dating back to the Colorado Football Association in the 1890s, but must wait until 2007 to broach the mark.
- 1100. The Nov. 24 game at Nebraska will be the 1,100th in school history; the Huskers were also CU's opponent for the school's 100th game in football annals, as CU defeated NU 6-0 back in 1904, deemed one of the school's biggest wins ever at the time.
- TSN Players Poll. The first-ever Players Top 25 is being conducted this fall with the monthly results released nationwide. Unlike the other polls, the players will not be identified and will be known only to the schools. Colorado agreed to be one of the schools to participate in the experimental balloting; the selected player(s) won't be identified until after the season has concluded.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below is the career games played/started, including bowls, for the players on the 2006 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on this year's opening roster collectively had played in 1,053 games, with 273 starts. Recent past numbers entering the year: 1,080/314 (2005), 761/182 (2004), 845/239 (2003), 883/278 (2002), 694/223 (2000) and 790/229 (1999). The list (includes bowls):

STARTING STREAKS

OG Brian Daniels owns the longest starting streak on the team at 21 games, with then next longest streak the 12 that OT Tyler Polumbus has started and then 11 by DE Walter Boye-Doe and CB Terrence Wheatley. C Mark Fenton had owned the longest streak at 30 games, dating back to the first game of his sophomore season in 2004, but that streak ended due to the cracked fibula he suffered at Georgia, while DE Abraham Wright had started 22 in a row until sitting out the first series against Kansas State. Daniels owns the most career starts with 43 (he was sidelined for a game with broken ribs early in 2005 or his streak would be continuous), followed by Billingsley (37), ILB Jordon Dizon (33), CB Lorenzo Sims (31) and ILB Thaddeus Washington (31).

NINETEEN HAVE SEEN FIRST CU ACTION TO DATE IN 2006

Through eight games, 19 players have seen their first action as a Colorado Buffalo in 2006. In the season opener against Montana State, 14 players stepped onto the field for the first time in a Colorado uniform, including the only four true freshmen who have played to date: DT Jason Brace, CB Cha'pelle Brown, LS Justin Drescher and ILB Michael Sipili. Last year, 16 saw their first action while 24 did so in both 2004 and 2003. The list of Buffs to hit the field for the first time in 2006 (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (4): DT Jason Brace, *CB Cha'pelle Brown, *LS Justin Drescher, *ILB Michael Sipili

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (6): *OT Paul Backowski, P Matt DiLallo, TE Riar Geer, OL Devin Head, DT Taj Kaynor, *TB Kevin Moyd, ILB Jeff Smart

SOPHOMORES (5): *S Joel Adams, *TE Justin Adams, WR Cody Crawford, *P Isaac Garden, S Terry Wilson

JUNIORS (2): TE Tyson DeVree, FB Samson Jagoras

SENIORS (1): TB Mell Holliday

(The four true frosh who have played for CU is not on the radar nationally; Temple has played 19 and Illinois 16 as 17 schools have played nine or more. Actually, the four CU has played is tied for the 15th fewest nationally; CSU and Wake Forest top that list with none seeing action.)

TWENTY-FOUR MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS TO DATE IN 2006

Twenty-four players have made their first career starts in 2006, the third-most over the last 23 seasons (15 offense, nine defense). Eight did so in the season opener against Montana State: S Benjamin Burney, TE Riar Geer, OG Devin Head, DT George Hypolite, FB Samson Jagoras, OLB Brad Jones, DT Brandon Nicolas and WR Patrick Williams. Three more followed in the CSU game in Denver: TE Dan Goettsch, QB Bernard Jackson and FS Ryan Walters; two more versus Arizona State: TE Tyson DeVree and WR Stephone Robinson; and one at Georgia: WR Cody Crawford. In the Big 12 opener at Missouri, CB Cha'pelle Brown, ILB Marcus Burton, C Bryce MacMartin and ILB Michael Sipili trotted on to the field first. Six players started for the first time as conference play continued: FB Maurice Cantrell, S Lionel Harris and WR Nick Holz (versus Baylor); OT Paul Backowski (at Kansas); TE Paul Creighton (against Kansas State) and TB Mell Holliday (Iowa State). In 2005, 11 players made their first career starts in a CU uniform, with all returning this fall. The 24 first-time starters are the most since 1998, when there were 27 first-time starters for the Buffaloes, 17 on offense and 10 on defense. The high came in 1984, when 29 made their first starts (15 on offense). The annual number of first-time starters since 1984:

ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11) and 2006 (24).

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

Upperclassmen have started about two-thirds of CU's games in 2006, though seniors account for just over 34 percent of the starts, the third lowest figure the last eight seasons. In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen. That showed the youth of the team, especially since underclassmen also had 41.7 percent of the starts in 2003. Fast-forward to 2005 and 2006, and those underclassmen have accounted for 199 starts the last two seasons. It's historically a cyclical pattern, and that shows up when looking at the breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class since 1999:

- 2006 starters (11 games): Seniors (83), Juniors (77), Sophomores (66), Freshmen (16; redshirts 11, true 5).
- 2005 starters (13 games): Seniors (116), Juniors (112), Sophomores (48), Freshmen (10; redshirts 4, true 5).
- 2004 starters (13 games): Seniors (72), Juniors (103), Sophomores (100), Freshmen (11; redshirts 0, true 11).
- 2003 starters (12 games): Seniors (105), Juniors (49), Sophomores (78), Freshmen (32; redshirts 14, true 18).
- 2002 starters (14 games): Seniors (155), Juniors (130), Sophomores (14), Freshmen (9; redshirts 0, true 9).
- 2001 starters (13 games): Seniors (102), Juniors (95), Sophomores (83), Freshmen (7; redshirts 7, true 0).
- 2000 starters (11 games): Seniors (55), Juniors (116), Sophomores (38), Freshmen (33; redshirts 15, true 18).
- 1999 starters (12 games): Seniors (115), Juniors (42), Sophomores (86), Freshmen (21; redshirts 20, true 1)

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 24 seniors on its roster this season, and history will show that most, if not all NFL teams pass through Boulder or a road site for CU game every season. So far this year, 50 scouts from 26 teams have seen the Buffs in person on game day. The 2006 NFL roll call of teams that have seen the Buffs: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Miami, Minnesota, New England, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Oakland, San Francisco, St. Louis, Seattle, Tampa Bay and Tennessee. It's the norm, as in last year, 55 scouts representing 25 NFL teams attended games (49 from 23 did so in 2004), and this decade, all 32 teams have seen CU games in person (287 scouts in the six-year period). Reps from the Colorado Crush (Arena Football League) also routinely attend games in Boulder.

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 75-32 in its last 107 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 71-18 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 62-21-1 in its last 84 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 71-17-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (73-52-2 with 50,000-plus);
- ❑ Colorado is 513-237-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

A BAKER'S DOZEN OF THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 13 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was one of the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Through 11 games in 2006, the radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 418 games in his career, including 155 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. SID Dave Plati has worked 320, including the last 278 in a row, while facilities man John Krueger has worked 278 in all (128 straight). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 219 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 265 CU games. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired this past June, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's seen 453 all told). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 112 times in 175 tries, including 18 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 64 percent of the time). CU is 2-of-6 in 2006: 1-of-1 against Texas Tech (field goal), 0-of-2 versus Montana State, 0-of-1 versus Colorado State, 0-1 at Georgia and 1-of-1 versus Iowa State (field goal). In 2005, CU was 4-of-9: the Buffs were 1-for-2 against CSU, including the game winning field goal, 1-of-1 with a first half TD march against New Mexico State, 0-of-1 at Miami, 1-of-1 at OSU (first half field goal), 1-of-1 at Texas (first half TD) and 0-of-1 at Iowa State, versus Nebraska and against Clemson in the bowl. CU was 4-for-5 in 2004, including a second half go-ahead score at Texas A&M and the game winning touchdown versus Kansas State. In 2003, the Buffs scored twice in as many tries in the season opener against Colorado State, registering a TD at the end of the first half and the game-winning score at the end of the game—CU's first in the two-minute drill since 1999. Lo and behold, the Buffs did it again in the offense the following week, putting the game winning score on the board with 2:15 left against UCLA. One of the most prolific years in the drill came in 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU's scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 30 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 205 of 220 times, losing 12 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 19 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses are this season (Kansas, Baylor in three overtimes—CU scored first in OT—and at Georgia, when the Buffs led 13-0 entering the quarter and lost with just 46 seconds remaining as UGA won, 14-13. In conference play, only Kansas (1984, 2006), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001), Oklahoma State (1997), Texas A&M (2004) and Baylor (2006) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 89 of its last 96 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—and 16 of the last 19). A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).
- In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 29 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The two most recent wins of this variety came against Texas-El Paso in the 2004 Houston Bowl and in the season opener against CSU this season (rallying from 9 and 11 points down, respectively).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 24 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon: to BYU (1988 Freedom Bowl), Stanford (1991), Missouri (1997), Kansas (1998), CSU, Washington and Texas Tech (1999), CSU, Texas A&M and Kansas (2000), Fresno State (2001), CSU and Wisconsin (2002), Washington State, Baylor and Kansas State (2003), Missouri (2004), Iowa State and Nebraska (2005) and five games this year. On several occasions, teams used the win over the Buffs to gain national notoriety and/or move into the rankings following the win. The Buffs are 84-22-2 in their last 108 games against unranked teams (AP), along with a record of 115-24-2 in the last 141. The Buffs are 152-73-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-8 in bowls); 106-52-3 in Big 8/12 games (including four league title games) and 46-21-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 26 occasions (and is 20-6 in games when this occurs). It's happened nine times over the last six-plus seasons, three times in 2004: at Texas A&M (TB Bobby Purify/WR Dusty Sprague), versus Kansas State (Purify/WR Ron Monteilh) and at Nebraska (Purify/WR Blake Mackey). It happened three games in a row late in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game (TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State: 172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB's Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 171 of the 2004 CU football media guide (yes, last year's book; thanks again, NCAA).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 287-11-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 205-3 with 35-plus points and 190-2 with 36-plus, 167-1 with 38-plus and 107-0 with 43 or more tallies. The three losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980) and Stanford (41-37 in 1993). Colorado has played 1,099 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 7-15-1 in its last 23 games against top five teams (dating back to 1989) and is 13-29-2 against top 10 schools and 40-49-2 against all ranked teams in the same time frame.
- ➔ Colorado is 14-5 (in-season) following a loss to a top 10 team since the middle of 1993. That includes one game this year (CU lost 28-13 at Missouri after losing 14-13 at No. 9 Georgia) and two games in 2005 (when CU bested Kansas, 44-13, after falling at No. 2 Texas in October, and the losses at the end to No. 2 Texas in the Big 12 title game and to Clemson in the bowl).
- ➔ Colorado is 92-42-3 in its last 137 league games, and has the 10th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 101 of its last 219 games, posting a 94-6-1 record. The losses were at Stanford, 41-37 in 1993, to Missouri in Boulder in 1997, 41-31, and twice to Nebraska (in Boulder in 1999, 33-30, in overtime; and 34-32 at Lincoln in 2000) and to Baylor (42-30 in 2003 and 34-31 in 3 OT this year); the tie was a 31-31 affair with Tennessee in the 1990 Disneyland Pigskin Classic. The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 152 of these 219 games, dating to the start of 1989, going 122-28-2 (CU is 20-45-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed 367 touchdowns in the last 712 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 (dating back to 1988; the other 345 times have yielded 174 field goals as well as 171 non-scores). In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 24% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 49% of the time, which are astonishing numbers. In Dan Hawkins' first year, the opponent has penetrated the CU red zone 36 times, with 23 touchdowns, 5 field goals and 8 non-scores.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 83 touchdowns out of 199 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 115 scores overall, meaning 84 non-scores). In 2006, the opponent has 15 scores (9 TD, 6 FG) out of 19 drives started in CU territory; over the last four seasons, CU's allowed just 74 scores (56 TD/18 FG) in 122 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory.
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards of total offense in 46 of its last 116 contests (once this year, twice in 2005, five times in '04), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 170 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 83 times (49 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 41 of the 170 games since the '93 season opener (24%)... and remember CU has played 71 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong Colorado team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. In 2005, CU averaged well over six yards nine games into the year, finishing at 5.7 yards on first down plays; the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Colorado is averaging 5.4 per first down play in 2006, though over half (165 of 281) of the plays have netted five or less yards. CU and the opponent have the same number of 10- (50) and 20-plus (16) gains on the down, but CU has fewer plays with two or less yards (147-131) and of zero gain (71-58).
- ➔ Colorado had seven touchdowns by returns in 2001 (4 interception, 2 punt, 1 fumble), a school record that the 2002 team matched (3 fumble, 2 interception, 2 punt). In 2004, the Buffs had six; dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 38 scores by return in their last 95 games. And since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 59 scores by return in 146 games (52 regular season, seven bowl), or two every five games.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado reached 200 yards both rushing and passing against Iowa State as CU has accomplished the 200 "double-double" 11 times in the last 97 games (and 32 times in the last 170, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 32-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 56-46-1 in its last 103 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (53-39 in the last 92, including a 29-17 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 90-29-3 in its last 122 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 57-22-3 in conference games. CU is 0-2 this year and was 2-0 in 2005 and 3-1 in 2004 on artificial surfaces.
- ➔ CU quarterbacks have traditionally taken care of the football, as Buff slingers thrown just 160 interceptions in 5,145 attempts since the start of the 1993 season, an interception rate of just 3.11 percent (or one every 32.2 passes).
- ➔ The Buffs have been an enigma on third down defensively the last four seasons. In 2003, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per) and had just 171 yards on 113 misses (1.5). (For comparison, CU had 660 yards on 59 conversions, 11.2 per; and 222 on 112 misses for 2.0.)
 - In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions (748 yards total; eight big plays: 40, 38, 37, 33, 24, 22, 21 and 20). On the 124 failures by the opponent, CU has allowed just 180 yards, or 1.5 per try.
 - In 2006, through 11 games, CU has allowed 921 yards on the 77 conversions, or 12.0 per; KSU (8 makes, 144 yards) and Baylor (9, 149) did the most damage.
- ➔ Second Down "Conversions." The Colorado defense has shown pretty good wares to date in 2006, and it's obvious in an interesting category. Opponents are just 63-of-241 earning first downs on second down plays (26.1%); that includes a not-so-impressive 21-of-48 on 2nd-and-4 or less (43.8%); by comparison, CU is 69-of-221 overall (31.2%) and 31-of-56 (55.3%).
- ➔ Third Down & 36 Inches. Colorado is 12-of-13 on 3rd-&-1 plays in 2006, but is just 36-of-133 from all other distances (27.1%).
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 12-0 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover. In 2005, CU did neither in its 41-20 conquest of Texas A&M, and came back two weeks later and did the same in the 44-13 win over Kansas. CU had last done it in 2001, as it played turnover-free ball twice in allowing no sacks versus San Jose State (51-15) and Nebraska (62-36). In these 12 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 474-207, with only one game decided by less than 17 points (a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 3-of-77 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003 (WSU converted on a 3rd-&-23 and ISU on a 3rd-&-20 in 2004). The CU offense is 5-of-66 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the Buffs have scored in 28 of 44 quarters (64 percent) and 2 of 3 overtime periods. All told, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 497 of its last 660 quarters (75%). Those numbers included 32 of 48 in 2005.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs have scored in a school record 221 consecutive games (dating back to 1988, the longest streak in the Big 12), last being shutout on November 12, 1988 at Nebraska (7-0). CU has scored in 118 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986 in a game where the Sooners did not attempt a single pass). The Buffs have scored in 87 consecutive road games (113 including neutral sites). The Buffs have scored in 141 straight league games (all 91 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska). CU has scored in 120 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 256 games (all the way back to 1963). CU has been shutout just seven times in its last 453 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only four schools have done it: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State and Michigan. Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through Nov. 18): Colorado 221, Nebraska 136, Kansas State 127, Texas Tech 116, Oklahoma 104, Kansas 49, Missouri 47, Iowa State 39, Texas A&M 36, Texas 31, Oklahoma State 18, Baylor 14. CU is the last team to shutout both Kansas State (12-0 in 1996) and Oklahoma State (34-0 in 2005).

SCORING STREAKS II

The school record 221 consecutive games in which Colorado has scored is now the fifth longest active streak in the nation; Wake Forest's 30-0 shutout of Florida State ended the Seminoles streak at 232, the ninth longest all-time (see next chart). The list of the nine Division I-A schools that have scored in every game since at least the start of the 1993 season, through games of November 18:

The streak of 221 games started on November 19, 1988; here's a look at some of things in the news that day and week CU began its record scoring run:

- ◆ The media reported on President Ronald Reagan signing three executive orders the previous day in relation to FEMA and catastrophic nuclear accidents. Reagan was wrapping up his second term, as George H.W. Bush was elected into office 11 days earlier on November 8;
- ◆ In the NBA, the Doug Moe-coached Denver Nuggets crushed the L.A. Clippers, 134-107 (Alex English was the highest paid player on Denver, at $1.65 million);
- ◆ Robert Plant of Led Zeppelin fame was touring that night in Tulsa, Okla.;
- ◆ The Escape Club owned the nation's top single on that date with their hit, Wild, Wild West, taking the spot over from the Beach Boys' Kokomo;
- ◆ The Top 10 television shows at the time included: The Cosby Show, Roseanne, A Different World, Cheers, The Golden Girls, Who's The Boss, 60 Minutes, Murder She Wrote, Empty Nest and Anything But Love.
- ◆ L.A. Law's Corbin Bernson married actress Amanda Pays (who?);
- ◆ Christine Onassis, heir and stepdaughter of Jackie O., died of heart failure at the age of 37; and
- ◆ John Lithgow hosted that's evening's Saturday Night Live.

ANATOMY OF THE SCORING STREAK

Colorado has more often than not extended its scoring streak rather quickly. In the 221-game run, CU has scored on its first possession 89 times, plus another two occasions where it scored on returns on its first touch of the game. The Buffs have scored in the first quarter 154 times during the streak, and had it extended by halftime 201 times. A closer look (*—includes score on a kickoff return to start the 1998 Aloha Bowl and an interception return prior to the first offensive position in the 2002 Alamo Bowl):

Colorado has a 144-73-4 record during the scoring streak, averaging 35.5 points in the wins and 16.2 points in the losses (and 23.5 the four tied games). The Buffs have had only eight occasions where it extended the streak in the fourth quarter. Here's a look at those occasions (*—denotes in Denver):

Oct. 21, 2006	218	at Oklahoma	Mason Crosby 39 FG	6:13	L 3-24

There have been 15 occasions where Colorado scored just once to continue the streak. PK Mason Crosby by far has played the biggest individual role, personally extending the streak six times, or four more than the only other player do it even twice, WR/KR Jeremy Bloom. A look at these 15 times with one score (*—denotes Orange Bowl; #—denotes Big 12 Championship):

DUELING

Colorado has scored in 221 straight games dating back to 1988; down the road, the NFL Denver Broncos have scored in 222 consecutive contests (as of Nov. 12), dating to 1992. Their fiercest rivals inflicted the last shutouts of each: Nebraska and the Raiders (then in L.A.). Combined, the pair has scored in 443 straight games. Many traits are eerily similar; the Broncos have extended it on their first possession 89 times, in the first quarter 148 times and by halftime on 212 occasions, although have had to wait to extend it in the fourth quarter just once.

BIG 12 BOWL TIE-INS ALTERED BEGINNING IN 2006

The Big 12 Conference signed new agreements with the Gator, Sun and Insight bowls, beginning this fall, and ended previous arrangements with the Champs Sports and Fort Worth bowls. The new agreements run through 2009, and the league also re-upped for that same period of time with the bowls it retained relationships with: Fiesta, Cotton, Holiday, Alamo, Independence and Houston. The new Big 12 bowl lineup:

BCS/Tostitos Fiesta (vs. BCS)

AT&T Cotton (vs. SEC)

Pacific Life Holiday (vs. Pacific 10)

MasterCard Alamo (vs. Big 10)

*Toyota Gator (vs. ACC)

*Vitalis Sun (vs. Pacific 10)

Insight (vs. Big 10)

Independence (vs. SEC)

Ev1.net Houston (vs. Big East)

*—For the Gator and Sun bowls, the Big 12 is guaranteed a spot each season in one of the bowls, with no more than two appearances in either game over the four years of the contract.

OPPONENTS IN 2006

The 2006 Colorado schedule figured to be one of the toughest in the nation, as for the ninth time in 11 seasons, it boasted the toughest non-conference slate in the Big 12 Conference. Though the Buffs opened with Montana State, their first-ever I-AA opponent, the next three, in order, were comprised of Colorado State in one of the nation's most underrated rivalries, followed by two opponents, both ranked in the preseason, that CU had never played before in Arizona State and Georgia. The Buffs then opened league play on the road for the fourth straight year. Colorado had nine '05 bowl teams on its 2006 schedule (Arizona State, Colorado State, Georgia, Iowa State, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas Tech) with this year's 12 foes combining overall for a 76-56 record in 2005, a winning percentage of 57.6. Two others just missed out on the postseason after recording 5-6 marks (Baylor, Kansas State), with Montana State a co-champion of the Big Sky Conference in I-AA play. The roll call of 2006 opponents and their 2005 records: Montana State (7-4), Colorado State (6-6), Arizona State (7-5), Georgia (10-3), Missouri (7-5), Baylor (5-6), Texas Tech (9-3), Oklahoma (8-4), Kansas (7-5), Kansas State (5-6), Iowa State (7-5) and Nebraska (8-4).

➤ Twos Are Wild. Colorado had two consecutive home games and two in a row on the road twice in 2006; that hadn't happened on a CU docket since 1974, when the Buffs opened at LSU and Michigan, closed at Oklahoma State and Kansas State, and along the way had back-to-back home games with Iowa State and Oklahoma and then Nebraska and Kansas.

➤ Two In A Row. For the second straight year, CU finished up non-league play on the road and then opened Big 12 action the very next week also away from home. It also happened in 2003, though there was an open week between playing at Florida State and then at Baylor. It hasn't occurred that frequently in CU history, just eight times since 11-game schedules came into vogue in 1971: 1972, 1979, 1981, 1987, 1994, 2003, 2005 and this year (though in 1975 it happened in reverse, with the first conference game at Oklahoma a week ahead of the last non-league game at Miami, Fla.).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 27 former Colorado Buffaloes on the 2006 National Football League rosters as of November 19. That's tied for second in the Big 12 with Oklahoma, behind Nebraska (36); Texas has 25, Kansas State 20, Oklahoma State 11, Iowa State 9, Texas Tech 9, Baylor 8, Missouri 7, and Kansas 6. Nationally in 2005, CU was tied for the 17th most players produced—Florida State led with 42, followed by Tennessee (37), Georgia and Ohio State (35); CU was 12th in 2004 with 27, tied for 13th in 2003 with 29, and was 10th in 2002, also with 29. CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was second in 2002 and 2003, and was third in 2000, 2001, 2004 and 2005. Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). AND IN CANADA? Another former Buff is making his living north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage played with the Hamilton Tigercats for the second straight year.

A DECADE WORTH OF NUMBERS: Colorado had 46 players drafted between 1993 and 2002, the seventh most in the nation and second most in the Big 12. Tennessee led the way with 60, followed by Florida State (58), Nebraska (53), Ohio State (52), Florida (48), Miami, Fla. (47) and then Colorado.

NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 19 of 25 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

SKED AHEAD

In a quirk that is really just happenstance, Colorado only had one game in 2006 where its opponent played on the road the previous week (Kansas; the Jayhawks were at Baylor before hosting the Buffs on Oct. 28; however, CU was also on the road at Oklahoma). Otherwise, with the exception of the Montana State and Nebraska games (both open the previous week), the other nine opponents played at home before lining up against CU, including the second through fifth opponents who play non-BCS schools (CSU: Weber State; ASU: Nevada; UGA: UAB; MU: Ohio). CU will have back-to-back road games twice in '06, joined by Baylor, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas Tech; Kansas State has none, Oklahoma State actually has three in a row (with an open week after the first one), with the other five schools having back-to-backers away from the confines of home once.

A SCHEDULE FIRST... CU WAS ONE OF THE LAST

When Colorado opened the 2006 season against Montana State (the two last met in 1927 as members of the old Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference) it marked its first game against a non-Division I-A opponent since the current divisional setup was created in 1978. Through 2005, CU had been one of just eight Division I-A schools to play all of its games in its division (no I-AA or II opponents). So the number has dropped by one to seven, with the schools remaining yet to do include Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, USC, UCLA and Washington. There is no non-IA opponent on any future CU schedule at this time.

- 73 of 119 Division I-A teams play a game outside of Division I-A in 2006 (New Mexico State will play two); 26 of the games were season openers. Northwestern (La.) State (Baylor, Kansas, Mississippi) and SE Louisiana (New Mexico State, Southern Miss, Texas Tech) play the most I-A teams; several are playing two.
- 11 Big 12 Conference schools had contests against I-AA opponents, regionalized in several instances (i.e., CU-Montana State; ISU-Northern Iowa; Texas-Sam Houston State). Oklahoma was the lone Big 12 team in 2006 not to have a game outside I-A.

USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those games it's lost over the last 18 seasons, as of the 73 losses, 36 have been by eight points or less. Texas (five times), Nebraska and Oklahoma (four) and Kansas State and Missouri (three) are the only ones who have handled the Buffs by nine or more points more than twice since 1989. CU has really been dominated from the start only seven times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU (though CU led in total yardage over 75 percent of the game), 2002 vs. USC, 2004 in the Big 12 title game with Oklahoma, and twice in 2005, both against Texas. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04), Miami and Nebraska ('05) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

CLOSE CALLS USUALLY GOING CU'S WAY

Though 0-4 in close calls in 2006, Colorado is still 11-6 where the final margin has been seven or fewer points, dating back to the start of 2003. That includes the four setbacks this year (CSU, Georgia, Baylor, Kansas), and two games in 2005, the season opening 31-28 victory over Colorado State and a 23-20 win at Kansas State, both thanks to the foot of PK Mason Crosby. And starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, CU is 15-8 in seven point decisions.

NO CREAMPUFFS HERE

Colorado has the 20th best record in college football since the start of 1989 season (142-73-4). Of these 219 games, Colorado has played 91 ranked teams (42%), the fourth most in the nation during this time frame, with another 33 games against teams receiving significant (10 or more) votes. CU is 40-49-2 against ranked teams during this period (including a 13-21 record on the road); CU is also 102-24-2 against unranked teams. The schedule is also consistent: CU has played the fourth most games against ranked teams the last 12 years (69 of its last 164 contests), going 3-3 in 1993, 5-1 in 1994, 5-2 in 1995, 2-2 in 1996, 1-5 in 1997, 3-3 in 1998, 2-2 in 1999, 0-5 in 2000, 5-2 in 2001, 2-3 in 2002, 2-3 in 2003, 0-4 in 2004, 0-4 in 2005 and 0-3 to date in 2006. NOTE: In 1990, CU became only the second team in NCAA history to win the national championship after playing the nation's toughest schedule (opponents won 63% of their games; Penn State was the first to accomplish the feat, in 1982). CU also played the nation's toughest in 1997: opponents won 67% of their games as the Buffs played both co-national champions, Michigan and Nebraska.

WHAT CAME BACK: 82-3-44

Of the 1,417 rushing yards by the Buffs in 2005, 1,159 were put in the books by players back this fall, or 82 percent; however, returning players accounted for only 93 passing yards (3 percent, all by James Cox). There were 1,218 receiving yards provided by those back in the fold, or 44 percent.

2006 NEW FACES

Almost all the entire football staff was new due to the head coaching change; those who returned this fall from the 2005 staff were long-time linebackers coach Brian Cabral, running backs coach Darian Hagan, the technical assistants, Mike Babcock (offense) and Donnell Leomiti (defense), and the operations director, David Hansburg. Changes since the end of spring included Jeff Pitman replacing Greg Finnegan as strength and conditioning coach, along with Miguel Rueda named as head trainer after Steve Willard left the program to enter private business. Biographies on all the new coaches can be found in the 2006 CU football media guide between pages 38-49.

AND ONE "OLD" FACE AS WELL—ILB Jashon Sykes (1998-2001) has returned to CU as a part-time administrative assistant in the football office, mainly helping with recruiting. Sykes, who is 10th all-time at Colorado with 330 tackles, played two seasons with the Denver Broncos and had signed with the Washington Redskins late last fall before being cut this May. In a side note, WR Jeremy Bloom had planned on returning this fall for what would have been his senior year, but his well-documented dream of skiing for the U.S. Olympic Team and playing college football was cut short for good in September 2004 with a final NCAA ruling on the subject.

CU ADDS FIVE HOME-AND-HOME SERIES OVER NEXT 12 SEASONS; 2007, 2009, 2012 & 2013 SCHEDULES COMPLETE

Colorado is working to fill its football schedules over the next decade, and since mid-summer, the Buffaloes have agreed to five home-and-home series with a school from each time zone. The additions have completely filled four of CU's next seven schedules, with one open date left three other years.

In July, Colorado and Miami, Ohio agreed to a home-and-home series that enabled the Buffaloes to complete their 2007 and 2009 schedules. The RedHawks will come to Boulder on September 22, 2007, with the Buffs set to return the game on September 12, 2009 (in Oxford, about 30 miles north of Cincinnati). ESPN has already guaranteed the schools that it will televise the second game. A CU connection with the RedHawks is their athletic director Brad Bates, who was CU's strength and conditioning coach between 1982-84, coming to Boulder with Bill McCartney. It will be the first time the schools will play in football, and just the second game for CU against current Mid-America Conference opponents; the Buffs own a 42-0 win over Kent State in 1977.

On September 16, CU announced home-and-home arrangements with three other schools, all opponents CU has a previous history with in Louisiana State University, the University of Oregon and the University of Utah. Colorado has played the trio a combined 78 times in its history, but there have been no regular season games with any of the three since 1987. Each series has its own special moments and place in school annals.

The CU-LSU series is first up, as the Buffs will travel to Baton Rouge on Sept. 24, 2011, with the Tigers returning the game to Boulder on Sept. 15, 2012. The Buffs and Utes will resume play after a 50-year layoff in their series, as Utah will come to Boulder on Sept. 22, 2012 with Salt Lake City to play host on Sept. 21, 2013. The Oregon series is a bit further out, with Eugene to be the site in 2014 (Sept. 13), with the Ducks' return trip to Boulder set for 2017 (Sept. 16). A closer look:

Colorado-Louisiana State. While LSU leads the all-time series by a 5-1 count, CU's lone victory in the series was most significant. In the 1971 season opener, the unranked and sophomore-laden Buffs traveled to Baton Rouge and upset the No. 9 Tigers, 31-21. That win propelled CU to No. 12 in the polls the following Monday and coach Eddie Crowder's Buffaloes went on to finish 10-2 and No. 3 in the nation. The two first met in the 1962 Orange Bowl, a 25-7 LSU victory, and last played in 1980, when LSU edged the Buffs with a field goal in the final minute to escape with a 23-20 verdict.

Colorado-Utah. Other than the 78 games played against in-state rival Colorado State, the 57 games the Buffs have played against the Utes are the second most against any other non-conference school, as CU leads the series, 30-24-3. But the two schools, just 512 miles apart, have not met since 1962 after meeting every year from 1910 through 1958 (and twice in 1943 during World War II). The two first met on Oct. 3, 1903 in Boulder (a 22-0 Colorado win), as Utah was just the third school from outside the state to make a trip to Boulder; CU returned the game the following year, just the second time in Colorado's history that the then Silver & Gold had ever left the state to play a game.

Old-timers will tell you that Utah was CU's first real rival, and after the Utes reeled off nine straight wins between 1925 and 1933 to take a 16-11-1 edge in the series, Utah clearly had staked its claim as the dominant program in the old Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. But behind Kayo Lam and the school's first All-American, Byron White, the newly named Buffaloes won the next four. The Buffs won eight straight from 1951 to 1958 to go up by eight on the Utes, and after a two-year hiatus, the series resumed in 1961 when Utah inflicted a painful 21-12 setback on CU—its only regular season loss in a 9-1 campaign. The last game in the series was on Sept. 22, 1962, a 37-21 Utah win in Salt Lake City; thus the series will resume 50 years to the day of the last meeting. The two schools are fierce ski rivals and have won 14 of the last 24 NCAA titles between them since the sport went coed in 1983.

Colorado-Oregon. The Buffs lead the most-entertaining 15-game series by an 8-7 count, as the two last met in the regular season in 1987 but have squared off in bowl games three times since then. The first meeting was in 1949, a 42-14 Oregon win, signaling the start of five home-and-home agreements between the two, including a four-game set between 1984 and 1987. The 1979 game, a 33-19 Duck win, was the first for CU coach Chuck Fairbanks and also the first game televised by a then-fledgling television network called ESPN. The 1984 game in Eugene yielded one of the sadder moments in school history, when tight end Ed Reinhardt suffered a near-fatal brain injury and had his life forever changed, but it also stabled a bond between the two schools that remains to this day. In 1985, after the Buffs opened with a win over CSU to match their entire win total the previous season, one of the first early key moments in the success of the Bill McCartney Era occurred. The Buffs owned a 21-17 lead but UO drove inside the CU 10 in the final minute of the game; on a 4th-and-goal from the CU 3, Mickey Pruitt sacked Duck quarterback Chris Miller as time ran out to preserve the win, and the Buffs went on to finish 7-4 and earn a Freedom Bowl berth. The schools met in the 1996 Cotton Bowl (a 38-6 CU win to cap a 10-2 year under first-year coach Rick Neuheisel), in the 1998 Aloha Bowl (Neuheisel's last game as CU coach as the Buffs won a shootout, 51-43), and in the 2002 Fiesta Bowl; in the latter, it was just the sixth postseason match-up of No. 2 (Colorado) versus No. 3 (Oregon) and the Pac-10 champion Ducks got the best in this one, winning 38-16.

Then on November 7, CU and Arizona State jointly announced extending their series after the two met for the first time ever this past September (a 21-3 ASU win in Boulder). The Sun Devils will visit Boulder in 2013, and CU returns that one in 2018, the furthest confirmed game out currently on any CU football schedule. CU returns the game in the current series next September in Tempe. Colorado's immediate future football schedules:

Crowder coached the Buffaloes from 1963-73, and after stepping down, continued on as athletic director through the summer of 1984. In 1982, he hired McCartney, who had built an impressive resume as the defensive coordinator at the University of Michigan.

Byron "Whizzer" White is often, and correctly, credited with putting CU football on the map in the 1930s. Coach Dal Ward led the Buffalo athletic program in its next step to prominence, into the Big Seven Conference in 1948, where his teams often gave national powerhouse Oklahoma fits during its supreme reign in the 1950s.

One of the Sooners' quarterbacks was Crowder, an All-American in 1952. Little did he know at the time that 11 years later at the age of 32 he would be the man called upon to right Colorado's football ship. Not only did he restore respectability and national respect to the program, he took the Buffaloes to new heights, as his 1971 team finished No. 3 in the nation—behind Big Eight rivals Nebraska and Oklahoma, to this day still the only occasion one conference has boasted the top three teams in the final rankings.

Crowder, who also assumed the AD duties in 1965, retired from coaching two years later and saw his program to continue to achieve decent success under Bill Mallory between 1974-78. He then hired Chuck Fairbanks as head coach following the '78 season, but Fairbanks couldn't muster the same kind of success that he enjoyed in his six years as Oklahoma's coach (1967-72) before moving on to the NFL. After three seasons, he left Boulder for the fledgling USFL.

McCartney wasn't on many people's radar back in 1982, but Crowder knew of his pedigree. A surprise hire to some as he was an unknown outside of Big Ten circles, Coach "Mac" laid out a plan upon his hiring of what it would take for Colorado to return to national prominence.

- "I promise you a program based on integrity and honesty, with the top priority graduating students. That's how we're going to measure success."
- "I see Colorado as being a lot like Michigan in being able to attract the superior student-athlete. Our standards here are better than most, but that has to be looked at as an advantage."
- "You achieve what you emphasize. Until you set specific goals, you're liable to miss opportunities that come up along the way. We will know what our goals are from the start."
- "I can only predict how Colorado will play: with enthusiasm, togetherness and tenacity. Every single squad that I coach here will be team-oriented."
- "We need to enhance our reputation here (in Colorado). You make your living at home first. We want the high school players and coaches to develop loyalties to us, not out-of-state schools. We need to reach out to the communities in the state, then we'll work on other areas of the country."
- My family and I want to sink roots in this place. We took a vote on coming here, and I told them where I stood but that everybody's vote counted the same. It was 6-0. We plan on being here as long as you want us."

Those were seven of his statements made in the first few days of his tenure, and all seven came true. In fact, the above list was included in a book written about CU's national championship season (now out of print). McCartney became CU's winningest all-time coach (93-55-5), surpassing stadium namesake Fred Folsom (77-23-2) and Crowder, the man who hired him (67-49-2).

Among his many top players, Crowder landed Boulder's Anderson brothers, Dick and Bobby, now both members of the College Football Hall of Fame with Bobby's coming induction this December. McCartney recruited the most eventual All-Americans to CU, as well as the most future NFL stars. And not among those was perhaps the best player in CU history, or number 1A if White is considered one, was Darian Hagan, the quarterback who made CU's option offensive attack downright explosive. White put the Buffs on the map; Hagan and Co. took the school to the pinnacle with three straight Big Eight titles and the national crown in 1990.

Hawkins is a humble guy, and while the trio posed in a variety of formations, he has insisted that the photo that makes the cover be in proper chronological order: Crowder, McCartney and then himself. "They are THE guys," he said. "I haven't done anything yet. It's a privilege to be in the same photo with Coach Ed and Coach Mac." It was actually Hawkins' idea to share the spotlight with the men before him.

Crowder appeared on CU's media cover just once—his first season in 1963; McCartney also appeared his first year (1982), and subsequently graced the cover in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

CRADLE OF COACHES

There are three current head coaches in Division I college football who have had assistant coaching stints at the University of Colorado, and all three have enjoyed great success. Les Miles had a good run at Oklahoma State and is running the show at LSU (at Colorado between 1982-86); Gregg Brandon is the head man at Bowling Green (1999-2000) while Karl Dorrell has the reins at UCLA (two CU stints: 1992-93, 1995-97). Since Bill McCartney took over the program in 1982, CU has sent many an assistant coach into the head coaching ranks; Gerry DiNardo was the first, as after his CU stint between 1982-89 he went on to coach Vanderbilt, LSU and Indiana. Lou Tepper (CU: 1983-87), head coach at Illinois for five years and is now the head man at Edinboro (Pa.) State; Gary Barnett, who was an assistant at CU from 1984-91 was head coach at Northwestern from 1992-98 and then at CU from 1999 through 2005; Jim Caldwell, Wake Forest (at CU from 1982-84), Steve Logan, East Carolina (1985-86), Rick Neuheisel, at CU and Washington (1994), Bob Simmons, Oklahoma State (1988-94) and Ron Vanderlinden, Maryland (1983-91). All were assistants under McCartney, CU's all-time winningest head coach (93-55-5 between 1982-94). In 2003, Mike Hankwitz, served as Arizona's interim head coach for the last two months of the season; he was at CU for 10 years (1985-94). Tom Cable (1998-99) was head coach for four seasons at Idaho, as he coached under Neuheisel and Barnett. Dorrell is the only one above to coach as an assistant under both McCartney and Neuheisel. In addition, former CU player Pete Shinnick ('88) served seven seasons as head coach at Azusa Pacific and took a new position for 2006 as the head man at North Carolina-Pembroke.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 117th season of competition with an all-time record of 652-411-36 in 1,099 games. CU currently stands 15th on the all-time win list and is 22nd in all-time winning percentage (.610; 20th for those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 282-136-10 in their 83rd season on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 245-211-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are 49-19-1 in their last 69 November games (44-10 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 4-9-1 against NU in turkey month. Colorado is 43-21 in its last 64 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays, and is 47-24-2 in the last 73 October games, when conference play annually comes into full bloom. CU is 5-6 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 2-2-1 in August games in its history.

OVERTIME

Colorado is 3-4 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime:

Date	Opponent	Score	Regulation	Coin Toss	Choice	---Total Yards---		Notes

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Nine ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas State in 2002, which came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A&M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State; 2—California, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, UCLA and Wyoming. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal (5), followed by LSU and Oklahoma (both 4) and Michigan State and Texas (3 each).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 15 seasons, which is the ninth most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Miami (9), Ohio State (9), Oklahoma (9) and Nebraska (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu, Ray Guy, Rimington, Hendricks and ARA Sportsmanship awards (on-field player awards only—if the Draddy Award was included, the Buffs would have one more on each list). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2005 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus got ½ in the trophy count):

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 18 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of the times, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 10 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 17 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2006: Florida State 18, Michigan 18, Ohio State 18, Miami, Fla. 17, Tennessee 17, Nebraska 15, Notre Dame 14, Penn State 14, Colorado 12, Alabama 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

Associated Press Poll

MOST TOP 5 FINISHES (1989-2005): Florida St. 12, Miami 8, Nebraska 5, COLORADO 4, Ohio St. 4, Oklahoma 4, USC 4, Tennessee 4, Alabama 3, Florida 3, Notre Dame 3.

MOST TOP 10 FINISHES (1989-2005): Florida St. 12, Florida 10, Miami 9, Michigan 8, Nebraska 8, Tennessee 8, Ohio State 7, COLORADO 6, Alabama 6, Kansas St. 6, Oklahoma 5.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-'98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

15 OUT OF 18

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, the second longest active streak in the nation behind Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005 and are 0-4 thus far in 2006. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). CU has defeated at least two in nine of the last 12 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 136 of its last 207 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (66 percent). That includes six games this year, 10 games in 2005, nine games in 2004, seven games in 2003, 12 in 2002, 10 games in 2001, plus 7 in 2000, 9 in both 1998 and 1999, 10 in 1996 and 1997. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, 99 of CU's 134 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, an impressive 74 percent (the second most in the Big 12 Conference in that time frame). In addition, CU has had 21 of its last 25 non-conference games televised on a national or regional basis.

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 27 (13-13-1), Texas 22 (7-13-2), Nebraska 13 (8-5), Oklahoma 13 (6-7), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 12 (0-12), Baylor 9 (2-7), Missouri 9 (1-8), Iowa State 9 (1-8), Kansas 6 (0-6), Oklahoma State 5 (0-5) and Kansas State 3 (1-2).

FOLSOM FIELD AGCOLADE The Sports Turf Management Association named Folsom Field as its 2002 "Football Field of the Year," the first time CU has ever earned this prestigious award. Jason DePaepe, CU's athletic turf manager, officially accepted the award in San Antonio. Those who judge the competition were impressed with DePaepe and his staff's aggressive maintenance program, as the field is easily one of the best in college football, if not all sports.

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. And in 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29 game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

18 OF 22

The Buffs have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 22 years, including 2006, matched only by a handful of schools across the nation. The exceptions came in 1997, 2000, 2003 and this season; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 17 of the previous 21 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000 and 2003.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Through the years, there are always a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball. DT John Guydon was the latest to so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA. In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

QUARTERBACK HISTORY LESSON

The three-way competition for the starting quarterback job this year was only the fifth real battle in the last 15 years at Colorado. The last time had been in 2003, when walk-on Joel Klatt earned the nod; in 2000, the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter but four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and did not relinquish the role the remainder of the season. In 1998, the first real battle in six years, juniors Mike Moschetti and Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won the job and Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety. Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best example of this came in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 102 players on the 2006 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of September 2) totaled 7,472 inches in height and weighed 23,220 collective pounds, or an average of 6-1¼, 228 pounds per player, slightly smaller but heavier than the 2005 average of 6-3, 218, though in line with other figures this decade: 6-2, 223 in 2004; 6-2¼, 226 in 2003; 6-2¼, 227 in 2002; and 6-2, 227 in both 2000 and 2001). The 7,472 inches translate roughly into 623 feet or 208 yards, the distance of the par-three No. 3 hole at Royal St. George's in England, while the weight of 23,220 pounds slightly exceeds (by 220) pounds the amount allowed to be trucked on most roads in the northeastern United States. Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Cornerbacks	10	5	5-11	186	Quarterbacks	4	2	6-2	208
Defensive Ends	5	4	6-3	241	Safeties	7	5	6-0	194
Defensive Tackles	7	2	6-3	276	Special Teams Snappers	1	0	6-1	235
Fullbacks	3	0	5-11	233	Tailbacks	6	2	5-10	202
Inside Linebackers	10	4	6-1	235	Tight Ends	9	1	6-5	241
Kickers/Punters	5	2	6-0	193	Wide Receivers	14	7	6-0	186
Offensive Linemen	16	7	6-3	293	Team	102	45	6-1¼	228
Outside Linebackers	5	4	6-2	220

The most popular letter to begin surnames is the letter B (15), followed by S (13) and H (10); five last names are similar, but none are brothers (Adams, Brown, Jones, Sanders, Washington). There is no "popular" first name (there are three Daniel's); unique ones include Cha'pelle, Dusty, Jalil, Samson, Taj and Thaddaeus.

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (75 percent of the entire roster—76 of 102 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 31, California 30, Texas 14, Hawai'i 4, Florida 2, Iowa 2, Louisiana 2, Michigan 2, Minnesota 2, Nebraska 2, Oklahoma 2, Alabama 1, Arizona 1, Idaho 1, Illinois 1, Kentucky 1, Missouri 1, New York 1, Tennessee 1 and Washington 1. That's 20 states total that produced the make-up of this year's team.

ORIGINAL 2006 TEAM MAKE-UP

The 102 players listed on the opening week roster on September 2 broke down into 24 seniors, 23 juniors, 18 sophomores and 37 freshmen (including 16 redshirt frosh). An expanded breakdown:

Lettermen Returning: 45 (19 offense, 24 defense, 2 specialists)

Scholarship Players: 83

Lettermen Lost: 22 (9 offense, 10 defense, 3 specialists)

Walk-On Players: 20

Starters Returning (11)—Offense 5: TB Hugh Charles (12/12), OG Brian Daniels (33/11), C Mark Fenton (26/13), OG Edwin Harrison (7/7), WR Dusty Sprague (11/11). Defense 6: S J.J. Billingsley (31/13), ILB Jordon Dizon (23/12), DE Maurice Lucas (6/6), CB Lorenzo Sims (25/11), ILB Thaddaeus Washington (23/12), DE Abraham Wright (16/13). (Career/2005 starts in parenthesis; calculated by those with six or more starts OR were starters at the end of the year.)

Others Returning With Significant Starting Experience (7; min. 3 career starts)— ILB Walter Boye-Doe (3/0), S Dominique Brooks (13/0), DE Alex Ligon (17/6), OT Tyler Polumbus (3/3); OG Daniel Sanders (4/4); OG Jack Tipton (4/4); CB Terrence Wheatley (7/0).

Others Returning With Significant Position Game Experience (13; two or fewer career starts)—WR Alvin Barnett, DE Alonzo Barrett, QB James Cox, FB Paul Creighton, TB Byron Ellis, DT George Hypolite, OLB Brad Jones, WR Blake Mackey, WR Stephone Robinson, ILB Joe Sanders, CB Terry Washington, QB Brian White, WR Patrick Williams.

Starters Lost (11)—Offense 6: WR Evan Judge (24/13), QB Joel Klatt (34/12), TE Joe Klopfenstein (34/13), OT Gary Moore (12/11), OT Clint O'Neal (29/12), VB Lawrence Vickers (20/7). Defense 5: CB Gerett Burl (22/13), DE James Garee (34/13), S Tyrone Henderson (22/12), OLB Brian Iwuh (31/12), DT Vaka Manupuna (27/13).

Others Lost With Significant Starting Experience (3)— ILB Akarika Dawn (12/2), S Tom Hubbard (7/2), TE Quinn Sypniewski (20/9).

THREE SENIORS NAMED 2006 CAPTAINS

Dan Hawkins announced at the conclusion of fall camp that three seniors would serve as team captains for the 2006 season: PK Mason Crosby, OG Brian Daniels and ILB Thaddaeus Washington. "They are obviously very good players and they have the respect of the team," Hawkins said. "They lead by example in the classroom, on the field and in the weight room. The coach can set the tone, but those guys have to carry things out in the trenches."

➤ CROSBY is the first placekicker and just the second solely special teams performer to be named a CU team captain, preceded only by another special teams All-American, punter Barry Helton in 1987. Crosby, a two-time All-Big 12 performer and a consensus All-American in 2005, opted to stay at CU for his senior year instead of declaring for the NFL draft and is in position to exit with almost every major scoring record in school history. The '05 Lou Groza Award runner-up also could see his name join the others on the façade at Folsom Field's press box if he earns a third all-conference accolade.

➤ DANIELS, a fourth-year senior from Evergreen (Mullen High School), set a school record in 2003 when he made nine starts, the most-ever by a true freshman offensive lineman in CU history. He is bidding to become just the fourth offensive lineman in school annals to start for four seasons; he would join OT Pat Ryan (1984-87), OG Joe Garten (1987-90) and OT Justin Bates (1999-2002).

➤ WASHINGTON, a fifth-year senior from Marrero, La., entered the year with 231 career tackles, and like six before him who learned under the guidance of another former CU captain, linebacker coach Brian Cabral, he would surpass his coach's tackle total (Cabral had 297 between 1975-78; Washington passed him in game eight, when he had a career-high 19 at Oklahoma). He is bidding to become the first LB to lead CU in tackles in back-to-back year since 1993-94, when Butkus Award runner-up Ted Johnson accomplished the feat.

CAREER SINGLE GAME BESTS

DEPTH CHART

A note about CU's depth: in-season, depth charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries; also, the coaches use "groupings" at certain positions (i.e. receiver-tight end-tailback-fullback), and often a group enters the game to run a play that does not match the depth.
