Head Coach: Kathy McConnell-Miller (2nd Year at CU, 10-22/8th Year Overall, 101-110)

Assistant Coaches: Tom McConnell, Bethann Shapiro Ord, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Carla Morrow

THE GAME: The University of Colorado will host Cal State University Northridge on Sunday, Nov. 19, at 1 p.m. at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

BROADCAST: All Colorado women's basketball regular and post season games are broadcast live on KKZN AM 760, Boulder's Progressive Talk station. Mark Johnson will handle play by play duties for Sunday's contest.

ABOUT THE BUFFALOES: For the third-straight year Colorado has a 1-1 mark to begin the season. The Buffaloes claimed their 32nd season opening win in 33 tries with a 62-56 win over the University of San Francisco on Nov. 10 at the Coors Events Center in the third-earliest (by date) game in CU women's basketball history. Colorado then dropped a hard-fought 81-76 decision to No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt on Nov. 12.

Colorado played pretty much statistically even with its opponents on opening weekend. Points, rebounds, turnovers, assists and steals were virtually identical. The Buffaloes shot well on the weekend, hitting nearly 50 percent of their shots (53x107, .495), thanks mostly to CU's low-post combo of Kara Richards and Jackie McFarland who combined to make 27-of-39 (.692) for the weekend.

Colorado's chief struggle came at the free-throw line, shooting just 53.3 percent (24-of-45). CU led the Big 12 in free-throw percentage in 2005-06 at 74 percent.

Two points of emphasis are beginning to show in the early season for Colorado: ball movement and defense. The Buffs dished out 33 assists over the weekend (16.5 apg) and they were fairly evenly distributed throughout the team. Guards Susie Powers and Whitney Houston and Richards each had six while Jasmina Ilic, Bianca Smith and Candace Rucker each had four.

On the defensive side, Colorado forced 41 turnovers over the weekend against 40 of their own to come out on the plus side of turnover margin. CU also had 16 steals -- four each from McFarland and Powers. CU averaged a program-low 5.5 steals per game in 2005-06.

McFARLAND BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Jackie McFarland was named the Phillips 66 Big 12 Women's Basketball Player of the Week by a media voting panel on Nov. 13 for the opening weekend of games.

This is McFarland's third career weekly honor from the Big 12 as she was twice named the league's Rookie of the Week during the 2004-05 season.

McFarland averaged 22 points, 12 rebounds and two steals while shooting 71 percent from the field (17-of-24) in games against San Francisco and No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt over the weekend.

McFarland had 17 points on 7-of-10 shooting and 12 rebounds in the season-opening 62-56 win over San Francisco. She scored a game-high 27 points and pulled down 12 rebounds along with two assists and three steals against No. 16/15 Vanderbilt. McFarland recorded double-doubles in both games for the 20th and 21st of her career. She had nine points — a 3-pointer and two conventional 3-point plays — in the final minute against VU as Colorado nearly erased a 17-point second half deficit.

THE COACH: Kathy McConnell-Miller is in her second season as Colorado's head coach. She was 9-21 in her first season with the Buffaloes and has an overall head coaching record of 101-110.

ABOUT THE MATADORS: Cal State Northridge is currently 1-1 on the season and will play at San Jose State on Friday, Nov. 17, before heading to Boulder for Sunday's contest. The Matadors opened the 2006-07 circuit by dropping a 95-77 decision to the University of San Diego at home on Nov. 10. Cal State Northridge rebounded with a 77-67 home win over Portland State on Nov. 12.

Cal State Northridge is led by senior forward Ofa Tulikihifo (pronounced: TOO-lick-ee-HE-HE-foh) who is coming off a triple-double performance against Portland State, registering 13 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists. She earned Big West Player of the Week honors last Monday as she averaged 16 points, nine rebounds and seven assists for the opening weekend. She enters the weekend needing 132 points to become the Matadors all-time leading scorer.

Cal State Northridge shot 50 percent during opening weekend (63-of-126) and averaged 77 points per game. Krisztina Fuleki averaged 15.5 points off the bench for the Matadors while Jamie McCaa averaged 11.5 points and six rebounds.

SERIES RECORDS: Sunday will mark the first ever meeting between Colorado and Cal State Northridge. The Buffaloes are 12-5 against teams from the Big West Conference, including wins against Pacific (84-57) and Cal State Fullerton (100-71) at home last season. Cal State Northridge is 0-3 lifetime against the Big 12, with single losses to Kansas, Nebraska and Texas A&M. The Matadors are also 0-4 in the state of Colorado.

Kathy McConnell-Miller has never faced Cal State Northridge in her head coaching career.

Anna Nedovic needs three 3-point field goals to reach 50. She has a shot at reaching the career top 10, needing 27 3-pointers which would be a career season high.

CLOSING IN ON 1,000 POINTS: Jasmina Ilic and Jackie McFarland are both well on pace to reach the 1,000 point mark this season and would become the 19th and 20th Buffs to reach that milestone. They would be the first pair of teammates to hit the mark in the same season since Britt Hartshorn, Jenny Roulrier and Mandy Nightingale hit 1,000 within two weeks of each other in November 2001. McFarland needs 169 points, which by using her season average of 22 ppg, she would approach the mark in about eight games (Dec. 9, vs. Oregon). Ilic needs 263 points, which by using her junior season average of 14.8 ppg, she would reach around game 19 (Jan. 28, at Missouri).

MORE NUMBERS FOR McFARLAND: Against Cal State Northridge, Jackie McFarland will be looking for her third-straight double-double to begin the season, which would tie a school record. McFarland started the 2005-06 season with three straight double-doubles as did CU's all-time leading scorer Lisa VanGoor, who did it in 1982-83.

McFarland's 21 career double-doubles rank fourth on the CU charts and needs just one more to tie Sandy Bean (1978-82) for third. Her 21 double-digit rebounding games ties Britt Hartshorn (1998-02) for sixth on CU's all-time list.

McFarland needs just 31 rebounds for 500 in her career and 178 rebounds would put her in the career top 10. She had 277 rebounds as a sophomore.

McFarland is already ninth on CU's career list for blocked shots with 67. She needs 33 to reach 100 and would be just the sixth Buff to reach the century mark.

COME FROM BEHIND WIN BREAKS LONG DROUGHT: CU's 62-56 win over San Francisco broke a 26-game losing streak when the Buffaloes trailed at halftime dating back to a 56-51 win at Missouri on Jan. 18, 2005. USF led 30-26 at the break, but the Buffs outscored the Dons 36-26 in the second half.

STILL IN NEED OF A WIN OVER A RANKED TEAM: After its competitive 81-76 loss to No. 16/15 Vanderbilt, Colorado is still searching for its first win over a ranked team in 17 tries dating back to January of 2004. The Buffaloes last win over a ranked opponent was a 69-59 decision at No. 24 Baylor on Jan. 7, 2004. CU was ranked No. 14 at the time. The last time CU was unranked and defeated a ranked opponent was in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament when the Buffaloes knocked off No. 12 North Carolina 86-67. CU will likely get its next shot at a ranked opponent at home on Dec. 2 against Southern California. The Trojans are currently ranked No. 19 in the Associated Press poll and No. 20 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll.

BUFFS IN OPENERS: Colorado is 28-5 (.844) all-time in season openers and a whopping 32-1 (.970) all-time in home openers. The Buffs' lone loss in a season-opening home game was a 77-63 setback to Michigan on Nov. 21, 1999. CU has won seven straight season debuts and 20 of its last 21 with the lone loss in that span coming at Denver on Nov. 19, 1999.

NOVEMBER SUCCESS: Fast starts in November are common for Colorado. The Buffaloes are 90-26 (.775) all-time in the month of November and a stunning 73-12 (.859) at the Coors Events Center. CU is 17-5 at home in November since 2000.

ON THIS DATE: Colorado is 5-1 all-time on Nov. 19 and 4-0 at home. The Buffs most recent game played on Nov. 19 was the 2004-05 season opener, as then-sophomore Anna Nedovic scored 23 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead CU past Loyola Marymount, 75-58, at the Nugget Classic in Reno, Nev. Also on this date, CU defeated Texas A&M 74-68 in the semifinals of the 1995 Preseason WNIT, which the Buffs would go on to win two days later with a 73-71 win at Arkansas. On Nov. 19, 1983, the Buffs upset No. 16 ranked Arizona State, 95-73, in Ceal Barry's second game as CU head coach.

MILESTONE WINS APPROACHING: Four wins will give Colorado 600 as a program (596-354) and three wins at the Coors Events Center will give the Buffs 300 in the facility (297-88).

CLIMBING THE 3-POINT LADDER: Jasmina Ilic needs three 3-point field goals to reach 100 in her career, which would make her the seventh Buff to hit the century mark. Against Vanderbilt she hit two 3-pointers to pass Annan Wilson (1986-90) for seventh on CU's all-time list and currently sits at 97. She needs 12 more to reach Alexis Felts (1994-98) who is in sixth with 109.

ule with no less than 17 games against 2006 NCAA or WNIT tournament teams. The Buffaloes will host perennial NCAA women's powers Southern California and Vanderbilt during the non-conference season as well as region rival Colorado State. Baylor, Texas Tech and Oklahoma come to Boulder this year out of the Big 12 South along with the Buffs' usual Big 12 North opponents.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 297-88 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.771). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 18 of the previous 28 years including five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94). At 7-9 in 2005-06, CU finished its home season with a below .500 mark for just the third time in the 28-year history of the CECC.

BUFFS ON TV: Colorado's schedule features nine games that will be televised either regionally or nationally by Fox Sports Net. Two games are part of the Big 12's national package with FSN: Sunday, Jan. 28, at Missouri and Saturday, Feb. 10, at home against Nebraska. FSN Rocky Mountain will televise six CU home games beginning with the regular season opener against San Francisco on Friday, Nov. 10. FSN Midwest will televise CU's game at Kansas State on Wed., Feb. 14, which could potentially be picked up by FSN Rocky Mountain as well.

UP NEXT: Colorado will venture to the road for the first time this season as the Buffaloes will take on the University of Wyoming on Tuesday, Nov. 21, at 7 p.m. in Laramie.

EARLY START: The Nov. 10 start against USF was the third earliest start for the Buffs and the second earliest home game in their 33-year history. CU's earliest start came in season No. 2 as the Buffs dropped an 81-80 decision at Nebraska on Nov. 6, 1976. CU's earliest start at the Coors Events Center is much more recent as the Buffs hosted Oral Roberts in a preseason WNIT game on Nov. 9, 2001, a 78-49 CU win.

BUFFS PICKED 11TH: CU was picked to finish 11th in the annual Big 12 Coaches Preseason Poll. The Buffaloes received 26 points, an improvement from the 14 points received a year ago when the CU was picked to finish last. CU was 9-21 overall in 2005-06 and finished 11th in the Big 12 race with a 3-13 mark.

Defending league champion Oklahoma was picked to repeat its title receiving all 11 possible first place votes for a total of 121 points. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team. Big 12 Southern Division teams dominated the upper half of the poll, taking the top four spots. Texas A&M was picked second with 107 points, followed by Texas (101) and Baylor (94).

Iowa State came in fifth with 68 points, just edging out Nebraska which was picked sixth with 66. Kansas State and Texas Tech tied for seventh with 57 points followed by Missouri (43), Kansas (36), CU (26) and Oklahoma State (16).

KATHY MCCONNELL-MILLER
HEAD COACH
SECOND SEASON

Kathy McConnell-Miller and her staff experienced a rollercoaster type season in 2005-06. There were record setting wins in the inaugural McConnell-Miller campaign, and there were tough losses as the Buffaloes ended the season at 9-21 and in 11th place in the Big 12 Conference.

But there is plenty of reason to believe that the rollercoaster is on its way back up, and plenty of reason to believe it's not coming back down for some time.

McConnell-Miller, 39, heads into season No. 2 in Boulder with a full calendar year under her belt and a full compliment of players for the first time in three seasons, bolstered by a recruiting class that ranks in the Top 30 in the nation.

A new era at one of the nation's most prestigious women's basketball schools began on April 27, 2005, as McConnell-Miller officially became the sixth head coach in the history of the program, replacing legendary coach Ceal Barry.

Excitement at the base of the Flatirons was felt from day one as McConnell-Miller led the Buffaloes to a 100-71 win over Cal-State Fullerton in her CU coaching debut. The game featured two CU players — Jackie McFarland and Jasmina Ilic — each hitting the 30 point mark and guard Whitney Law breaking a school record with 15 assists. It also marked the most points scored in a coaching debut by active Big 12 coaches — by nearly 20 points.

However, injuries and the overall youth of the Buffaloes — only three upperclassmen saw extensive playing time — would catch up with CU during a tough non-conference campaign, including two losses in overtime, and the always tough Big 12 season.

Despite finishing with 20-plus losses for the second straight season, McConnell-Miller established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in her players. She has continued to groom McFarland and Ilic into two of the top players at their position in the Big 12. McFarland earned All-Big 12 second team honors last season and was also named to the prestigious Academic All-America team. Ilic flourished under the McConnell-Miller system averaging 14.8 points per game including a career and Big 12 season-high 36 points against Nebraska.

McConnell-Miller, who picked up career win No. 100 against Oklahoma State in the 2005-06 home finale on Feb. 26, will look to McFarland and Ilic to improve on last year's efforts, but will have a lot more ammo to work with this season. She will get a chance to see Kara Richards on the court, CU's starting center from 2004-05 who broke a bone in her foot days before the 2005-06 opener and she will also have guards Susie Powers and Bianca Smith, CU redshirts last season.

And then there is the recruiting class. Despite a late start in the recruiting season, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players and claimed an overall No. 29 recruiting class ranking by the All-Star Girls Report. The Buffs claimed one of the top recruits in Colorado — a priority for the McConnell-Miller staff — in Aija Putnina who helped Regis to the Class 4A championship game. CU also grabbed two highly-regarded recruits from Tennessee in Whitney Houston and Candace Rucker, and Courtney Dunn from California.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an Associated Press honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Grentz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Grentz for a total of six years as she went with Grentz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Three McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, two at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (6), Mackenzie (4) and Macie (2).

- The first player in CU women's basketball history to average 20 points and 10 rebounds over the first seven games of a season.
- Had 14 double-doubles last season which ranked fourth in the Big 12, and is the fourth-best single-season mark in team history.
- Her 34 points against Cal State-Fullerton ties for the sixth-best single-mark in team history, along with teammate Jasmina Ilic who also put up 34 in that game.

Richards, just two points off her career high, hit 8-of-10 from the floor and also had four assists. She was complimented by forward Jackie McFarland who had 17 points and 12 rebounds for her 20th career double-double. Richards missed the 2005-06 after breaking a bone in her foot three days before the season opener. The Buffs (1-0) trailed 30-26 at intermission but rallied to break a 26-game losing streak when trailing at halftime and their first such win since beating Missouri 56-51 on Jan. 18, 2005. The Buffs trailed the Tigers 28-20 in that game. CU shot 71.4 percent in the second stanza (15-of-21) while holding USF to 39.3 percent in the same time frame (11-of-28).

Leading 51-49 with 5:10 remaining in the game, Colorado went on a 9-0 run to pull away. Freshman point guard Whitney Houston started the rally with a lay up and dished out assists on a 3-pointer from junior Susie Powers – her first points in a CU uniform – and a lay up by fellow Memphis native Candace Rucker. Richards finished off the run with her final field goal of the night on a pass from Rucker.

The Rucker-Houston duo combined for 10 points, five assists and three steals off the bench. The freshman played a large portion of the second half with starters Richards, McFarland and Powers. "I was very pleased with the chemistry between the five of them, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "There was a mutual respect on the floor among all of them. They moved the ball, they made the extra pass, and when they made the mistake, they pumped each other up, and it was exciting to see them."

Friday's game marked the return of Tanya Haave who spent four years as an assistant coach with the Buffaloes under Ceal Barry. Haave is in her first year as head coach of the Dons.

BOULDER - Colorado junior Jackie McFarland scored a game-high 27 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, but No. 16/15 ranked Vanderbilt held on for an 81-76 decision Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Conference Center.

McFarland, who hit 10-of-14 from the floor, secured her second-straight and 21st career double-double as Colorado (1-1) nearly erased a 17-point second half deficit. She scored 15 of her 27 points in the final 10:35, including her fourth career 3-point field goal followed by two conventional 3-point plays in the last minute.

Vanderbilt (1-0) was led by Carla Thomas who scored 26 points and grabbed seven rebounds and nearly single-handedly built Vanderbilt's 17-point lead in the second half. The Commodores took an eight point lead into the locker room after guard Merideth Marsh hit a half-court shot at the buzzer, for her only points of the game. Thomas then came out and hit her first four shots of the second half as Vanderbilt started the period on a 13-4 run.

The Buffaloes closed to 65-69 with 1:57 to go after a free throw from Whitney Houston. But Caroline Williams calmly hit the last of her four 3-pointers 15 seconds later and Dee Davis buried two free throws to give Vanderbilt breathing room at 74-65.

McFarland's two, conventional three-point plays closed the game to 76-74 with 23 seconds left. Williams and Davis sank two free throws apiece to preserve the win.

"That was probably one of the best things about this afternoon's game," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Down 17, they could've packed it up and they could've folded. It could've gone to a 30-point game."

Senior Jasmina Ilic had eight of her 14 points in the second half and dished out three assists to help the Buffaloes second-half run. Colorado shot 47.5 percent from the field (28-of-59) while the Commodores hit 50 percent (28-of-56). Nearly every category was even between Vanderbilt and CU, with the exception of free throws. Colorado, which made just 10-of-22 two nights earlier against San Francisco, made just 14-of-23 for 61 percent.

Houston had nine points and three assists off the bench. Senior Anna Nedovic and freshman Bianca Smith each pitched in six points.

Colorado game out of the gate on fire hitting five of its first seven shots, building a 13-5 lead. Smith and Ilic each hit a pair of 3-pointers and guard Susie Powers added one of her own. Colorado led for most of the first 13 minutes of play, before Vanderbilt closed the period on a 17-8 run.

Williams finished with 21 points for Vanderbilt while Christina Wirth added 14.
