QUICKLY...The University of Colorado (9-18) will participate in the 2005 Big 12 Tournament March 8-10 & 12 at the Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo. The Buffaloes will be the tournament's 12th seed and begin play on Tuesday, March 8, against No. 5 seed Iowa State University (22-5), at 1:30 p.m. MST. The winner of that contest will play the fourth seed, Texas Tech University, on Wednesday, March 9, at 1:30 p.m. MST, in a quarterfinal game.

BUFFS ON THE AIR...Colorado women's basketball regular and post season games are broadcast live on KKZN AM 760, Boulder's Progressive Talk station. Tim Smile will handle play by play duties and is joined by USA Basketball's Carol Callan with the color commentary.

31ST SEASON...Colorado is in its 31st season of varsity women's basketball sporting an all-time record of 586-331 (.639). The Buffaloes have made 12 NCAA Tournament appearances, all since 1988, including six Sweet 16 appearances and three trips to the Elite Eight (1993, 1995 & 2002).

BUFFS ENTER BIG 12 TOURNAMENT ON UP NOTE...Colorado snapped an 11-game losing streak and gave head coach Ceal Barry a memorable last game at the Coors Events Center with a 78-76 win over Nebraska on March 2. Colorado's 11-game skid was the longest losing streak in team history, breaking the previous mark of nine set during the Buffs' first season of varsity women's basketball in 1975. The win also allowed Colorado to avoid setting a new mark for lowest league win total in one season. Ending the Big 12 slate at 2-14, the Buffaloes tied their lowest conference win total for one season which had happened on two previous occasions — 1975 (Intermountain Conference) and 1984-85 (Big Eight).

Colorado's balanced scoring attack is led by freshman Jackie McFarland, averaging 10.2 points per game. McFarland also leads the Buffaloes in rebounding (6.4 rpg), free-throws made (71) and is second in blocks (23) and field-goal percentage (.459). Sophomore forward Jasmina Ilic leads the Buffaloes in total points (275) but her per game average is slightly lower due to one more game played (McFarland missed the Nevada game with an ankle injury). Ilic tops the Buffaloes in 3-point field goals with 37, 28 of which came during the Big 12 schedule. Senior point guard Veronica Johns-Richardson is just behind McFarland and Ilic in scoring (10.0 ppg) and paces the Buffs in assists (82), steals (54) and 3-point field-goal percentage (.407, 35x86). Sophomore forward Anna Nedovic has started all but one game this season and ranks second in rebounding (6.4 rpg) and fifth in scoring (8.4 ppg). Freshman center Kara Richards is at nine points per game, is third in rebounding (5.3 rpg) and leads the Buffs in blocked shots with 28. Junior Whitney Law is sixth on the squad in the scoring column at 6.3 points per game and is second on the squad in assists (48) and steals (31).

- The previous low seed was Colorado was 10th in 2000 with the Buffaloes picking up an 83-68 first round win over No. 7 seed Missouri.
- Colorado is 2-1 in Big 12 Tournament first round games (seeded fifth or lower).
- The 12th seed has yet to win a game in the Big 12 Tournament (0-8) and has lost by an average of 15.4 points per game. The closest No. 5-No. 12 game was in 2002 with Texas escaping with a 63-61 win over Kansas.

COLORADO ENDS LOSING STREAK WITH WIN OVER NEBRASKA...Colorado earned its second conference win of the season, beating Nebraska 78-76, as head coach Ceal Barry said goodbye to the CU faithful in her last home game as a coach.

The youthful Buffs didn't waste any time honoring their veteran coach by playing their best single half of the season in front of a season-high crowd of 4,423. Their 44 first-half points were the most they posted in a Big 12 conference game this season.

The Huskers (16-12, 8-8 Big 12) cut the deficit to two points late in the game, but ultimately couldn't overcome the 12-point lead Colorado established going into the break. The game marks Colorado's 21st consecutive win over Nebraska in Boulder.

Senior Veronica Johns-Richardson finished with 18 points and five assists. The other senior playing her last home game, forward Sarah Lini, finished with five points.

Taking advantage of their height differential, CU had their way in the paint, outscoring Nebraska 36-24. Freshman center Kara Richards shot an efficient 8-for-12, finishing with 19 points, her highest output since a 19-point performance against Iowa State on Feb. 2. Forward Jasmina Ilic chipped in 16 points and six rebounds in 18 minutes of action.

ABOUT THE CYCLONES...No. 20/19 Iowa State finished the regular season at 22-5 and tied for fourth place in the Big 12 at 12-4. The Cyclones dropped to the tournament's fifth seed because Kansas State had a better divisional record (KSU: 9-1, ISU: 8-2). Iowa State has won three straight since enduring a tough four-game stretch that included road losses to Baylor, Texas Tech and Nebraska. The Cyclones sport the league's top scoring offense (77.4 ppg) and best overall field-goal percentage (.462). Iowa State makes a Big 12 best 8.93 3-point field goals per game and trails only Baylor in 3-point field-goal percentage (.391). Senior Anne O'Neil leads the Cyclones in scoring (16.6 ppg) while Katie Robinette tops ISU in rebounding (7.3 rpg).

COLORADO-IOWA STATE SERIES...This will be the 54th meeting between Iowa State and Colorado and the sixth in a postseason conference tournament setting. Colorado leads the all-time series 35-18, but the Cyclones swept the 2004-05 season series from the Buffaloes and have won 11 of the last 17 contests. The most recent postseason game played between the two squads was a 58-56 Iowa State win in the second round of the 2002 Big 12 Tournament. Colorado is 6-2 all-time against Iowa State in neutral site settings.

BUFFS WELL BALANCED...Talk about balance, CU's top five scoring leaders are averaging between 8.4 and 10.2 points per game. Jackie McFarland leads the squad at 10.2 points per game followed by Jasmina Ilic at 10.2, Veronica Johns-Richardson at 10.1, Kara Richards at 9.0 and Anna Nedovic at 8.4. Only 10 total points separate Ilic (275), Johns-Richardson (274) and McFarland (265). McFarland's average is slightly higher due to one less game played (injured ankle against Nevada). CU is on pace to have its lowest scoring average for a single-season leader since Michell Irving averaged exactly 10 points per game in 1975-76. On three occasions CU's scoring leader at the end of the season has been below 11 points, the last coming in 1998-99 when Linda Lappe averaged 10.7 per contest.

BALANCE EXTENDS TO 3-POINT SHOOTING...For the first time in school history, Colorado has four players who have hit 20 or more 3-point field goals in one season. Jasmina Ilic leads the Buffaloes with 37 followed by Veronica Johns-Richardson (35), Anna Nedovic (23) and Whitney Law (20). The Buffs had three players with 20 or more on three occasions, the last in 2001-02.

VJ FROM DOWNTOWN...Senior Veronica Johns-Richardson is in sole possession of 10th place on Colorado's career 3-point field-goals made list. She has a total of 65 treys in her four-year career, 35 of which have come this season. Johns-Richardson tied a school-record with seven 3-point field goals against Northern Colorado on Dec. 29. Johns-Richardson is currently seventh in the Big 12 in 3-point field goal percentage this season at .407.

ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12...Senior forward Sarah Lini and junior guard Whitney Law were named to the 2005 Women's Basketball Academic All-Big 12 first team while senior guard Veronica Johns-Richardson was selected to the second team. Lini, who has played every game for the Buffs this year, is a finance major who is scheduled to graduate this spring. Law, a kinesiology major, makes her first appearance on the academic team in her first year of eligibility after transferring from Georgia. Johns-Richardson earns her third straight mention to the Academic All-Big 12 team, her second, second team selection.

WORKING OVERTIME...Colorado's 76-70 overtime loss to Oklahoma State was its second extra session this season marking the ninth time the Buffaloes have played multiple games in overtime in any one season. Colorado has had three overtime games in one season on three different occasions, the last coming during the 1995-96 season which was also the last season CU had multiple overtime games. The loss also snapped Colorado's four-game winning streak in overtime games. Seven of CU's last eight overtime games have come on the road including a 76-74 win at Washington this past December. Overall the Buffaloes are 16-16 in overtime games.

2004-05 Opponents in Bold

A RARE DROUGHT FROM THREE...Colorado was 0-for-8 from the 3-point arc in its win over Missouri marking the first time in 76 games the Buffs have gone without a 3-point field goal. The last time CU was shut out from downtown was during its 94-60 loss to Oklahoma in the 2002 NCAA Elite Eight (Mar. 25, 2002). Colorado was near matching its school record streak of 78 games set from Jan. 22, 2000 to Mar. 23, 2002.

AGAINST THE NATION'S BEST...Colorado's loss against Baylor dropped the Buffaloes to 0-7 against ranked teams this season. Colorado has lost 13 straight against teams ranked in the two major polls dating back to the 2003-04 campaign. The Buffs' last win over a ranked team came in the 2003-04 league opener at Baylor where CU took care of the No. 24 Bears 69-59 on Jan. 7. CU is 47-92 all-time against ranked opponents and has a 27-26 mark in Boulder.

BUFFS CONTINUE SUCCESS IN PRESEASON...With a five-game winning streak in December, Colorado clinched its fifth straight season with a record of .500 or better during the nonconference regular season schedule. The Buffs have only finished below .500 twice during the nonconference schedule in the Ceal Barry era going 5-6 in 1999-2000 and 4-9 in 1984-85.

COLORADO WELL REPRESENTED WITH BIG 12 ROOKIES OF THE WEEK...Colorado has had players voted as the Big 12 Rookie of the Week three times in 2004-05.

Forward Jackie McFarland has received the honor twice - on Dec. 6 and Jan. 3. Center Kara Richards earned the award in the first week of the regular season, back on Nov. 22.

Most recently, McFarland was cited for her performance over the holiday break where she averaged 10.7 points, 7.3 rebounds, 3.0 assists and connected on 68.4 percent of her field goals (13-of-19). McFarland had 16 points on a career-best 8-of-13 shooting against Washington, which included the game-winning layup with under two seconds left in overtime. McFarland made all three of her shots from the field and had five rebounds against Northern Colorado. She then recorded her second career double-double by scoring 10 points and recording a career-high 11 rebounds against Manhattan while adding four assists, two blocks and two steals.

In her first effort, McFarland led Colorado and established career-highs with 23 points and eight rebounds in CU's five-point loss at Wyoming on Dec. 1. She hit 8-of-14 from the field (.571) and 7-of-8 from the line (.875) against the Cowgirls. She then registered her first career double-double with 19 points and a new career-best 10 rebounds against Creighton on Dec. 4. She hit 9-of-10 from the free-throw stripe and added two blocks, one steal and one assist. For the week McFarland averaged 21.0 ppg, 9.0 rpg and 1.0 bpg.

Richards averaged 13.5 points, three rebounds and 1.5 blocks in her first two collegiate games. The Graham, Texas, native scored 13 points and pulled down six rebounds in her first game, a Colorado win over Loyola Marymount. She was the first Buff freshman to start the season opener since Linda Lappe in 1998. Richards hit 7-of-10 from the floor for 14 points in CU's loss to Nevada.

FRESHMAN LEADERS IN THE BIG 12...Colorado's first-year trio of Kara Richards, Jackie McFarland and Yari Escalera are featured prominently in the Big 12's freshman statistics. McFarland is third in scoring (10.2 ppg) and Richards is fourth (9.0 ppg) among all league freshman. McFarland is first in rebounding (6.4 rpg) while Richards is just behind in third (5.3 rpg). Richards is also fourth in field-goal percentage at .453 (minimum of 50 attempts), fourth blocks (1.04 bpg) and fifth in assists (1.41 apg). McFarland is third in field-goal percentage (.459), sixth in blocked shots (0.88) and seventh in assists (1.27 apg). Escalera is second in free-throw percentage among those who have 20 or more attempts (.739). She is also third in assists (1.78 apg), fifth in steals (1.11 spg) and 10th in 3-point field-goal percentage (.289).

A BARRY GOOD MILESTONE...By coaching the Buffaloes against Loyola Marymount in the season opener, head coach Ceal Barry passed legendary track & field coach Frank Potts for the most events coaches in school history at 642. She already holds the CU record for wins in any sport (420) and has coached in more games (659) than any coach in school history.

HOWARD LEAVES THE BUFFALOES...Leslie Howard, a 5-10 sophomore forward from Salem, Mo., has left the CU basketball program for personal reasons. Howard played in the first four games of the season averaging 6.3 points and 3.5 rebounds per game including a career-high 14 points against Pennsylvania on Nov. 26. She played 24 games in a Colorado uniform averaging three points and just over one rebound per contest.

FOR OPENERS...Colorado improved to 26-5 all-time in season openers and has won 17 of its last 18. The Buffs are 19-3 under Ceal Barry in season-opening games and have won the last five. This season marked the first time since the 1999-2000 season the Buffs didn't open the season in Boulder (at Denver) and the first time since 1996-97 (at BYU) the Buffs didn't begin the season in the state of Colorado.

SECOND AT COORS...Colorado placed second at the 18th annual Coors Classic, Nov. 26-27, at the Coors Events Center. The Buffaloes took care of business with a 69-49 win over Pennsylvania in the first round, but fell to then No 2 ranked, and now top-ranked, LSU 75-44. Freshman Kara Richards was awarded All-Tournament team honors after achieving career-highs with 11 rebounds and six assists against Penn and 10 rebounds, three steals and two blocks against the Tigers. Leslie Howard scored a career-high 14 points against Penn while Anna Nedovic and Whitney Law each had 10. LSU held Colorado to a school record low 24 percent shooting in the championship game. Preseason Player of the Year candidate Seimone Augustus took home tournament MVP honors.

PRESEASON TOURNAMENTS...Colorado is 86-31 all-time in preseason tournaments, including a solid 30-6 mark in the Coors Classic. The Buffaloes have won 23 of their last 29 preseason tournament games and went 5-1 last season winning the WBCA Classic and Coors Classic Tournament championships.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, BUFFS...The Colorado Athletic Department and Fox Sports Rocky Mountain have agreed to televise seven Buffs' women's basketball games this season. Add that to the three national Fox Sports Network games scheduled through a combination of Big 12 and Pac 10 Conference pacts, CU women's basketball is scheduled for a school-record 10 regular season television games this winter.

TOUGH SCHEDULE...Colorado's schedule is once again a tough one, with the Buffs facing nine teams that played in the 2004 NCAA tournament. The Big 12 offers one of the toughest schedules in the nation, as seven members played in the NCAA's a season ago, with Texas and Baylor making the Sweet 16. Colorado's Coors Classic alone featured three teams who played in the NCAA Tournament last season, Penn, LSU and Maryland.

HEAD COACH CEAL BARRY...Ceal Barry is in her 22nd season at Colorado, and 26th overall as a collegiate head coach. Barry's overall coaching record is 510-283 with the win total ranking 20th among active NCAA Division I coaches. At Colorado Barry has led the Buffaloes to a 427-241 record, including 13 20-win seasons and 12 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

As a head coach Barry is 31-18 against Iowa State, 26-18 with Colorado.

NATIONAL POLLS...Six of CU's 2004-05 opponents are in the current top 25. LSU is in the top spot in both the AP and coaches polls while Baylor is ranked seventh in the AP poll and eighth by the coaches. In the coaches poll Texas is 12th, Texas Tech is 13th, Kansas State is 18th and Iowa State is 19th. In the AP poll, Texas is 11th, Texas Tech is 13th, Kansas State is 17th and Iowa State is 20th.

HOME SWEET HOME...The Buffs are 322-99 (.765) at home all-time, with an even more impressive record at the Coors Events/Conference Center, turning in a record of 289-78 (.787). Under head coach Ceal Barry the Buffs are 237-77 (.755) at the CECC. CU has turned in six undefeated seasons at home in 28 seasons, including three consecutive years from 1980-83. Most recently the Buffs were perfect at home in 1993-94 when they went 13-0 at the CECC, 27-5 overall. Colorado owns the seventh-longest home winning streak in NCAA history, going for 53-straight during the early 80s.

BUFFS PICKED SEVENTH, SIXTH IN BIG 12 POLLS...Colorado was picked to finish seventh in the annual Big 12 Coaches Preseason poll while the media said the Buffaloes would finish sixth in their preseason poll. Texas was the overwhelming favorite in both polls. The Longhorns received 11 of 12 first place votes in the coaches poll (coaches aren't allowed to vote for their own teams) and 12 of 14 first place votes in the media poll. Colorado was picked fifth in both the 2003-04 and 2002-03 preseason polls only to achieve a higher standing by the end of the season. CU enjoyed a third-place finish last season and a fourth-place showing in 2002-03. The Buffs have not finished lower than fourth in the Big 12 standings since the 1999-2000 season.

THE BUFFALO STAMPEDE...Coach Ceal Barry's television show airs on Fox Sports Rocky Mountain on Friday evenings at 7:30 p.m. The show incorporates all of CU's athletic department and is filmed on location in and around Boulder and is produced by BuffVision, the partnership that brings us the fantastic video boards at Folsom Field.

BARRY TO HANG UP THE WHISTLE, NAMED CU ASSISTANT AD — Long-time University of Colorado women's basketball coach Ceal Barry announced Feb. 24 that she is retiring after 22 seasons at the reins of the Buffalo program.

Barry, who will turn 50 this April 1, will coach the team through the remainder of this season and will retire having coached the most games, matches or tournaments (668 including Wednesday's game against Nebraska) and the sixth most seasons of any sport in Colorado athletic history. Her 427 victories are also the most by any coach at the school.

This year's team, with just two seniors and five freshmen or sophomores getting prominent playing time, has struggled to an 9-18 record, including a 2-14 mark in Big 12 Conference games with the Big 12 tournament remaining on the schedule.

That's the sad news; the good news is that she won't be moving very far, perhaps all of 500 feet. Interim athletic director Jack Lengyel has named Barry to fill the vacant assistant athletic director for student services position and her new office will be in the Dal Ward Athletic Center.

"First of all, to the University of Colorado, I was just this shy, untested, basketball-crazy coach from the Midwest, and (former athletic director) Eddie Crowder decided to take a chance on me," Barry said. "It turned out to be a match made in heaven.

"The expectations of the University of Colorado and the goals that I had set for myself, and the standards the University of Colorado has for student-athletes and athletics were right in line with what I thought they should be. I had no idea when I drove over that mesa in 1983 that I'd be able to last in such a tough, demanding profession for 22 years. And the only reason I've been able to last for 22 years in a profession that can be so up and down – and high and low – is because of the support I have received from countless numbers of people."

Barry took over a regionally successful program from one of her would-be mentors, the late Russell "Sox" Walseth, as former athletic director Eddie Crowder hired her as the fifth head coach in CU women's basketball history on April 12, 1983. But her charge was to lead the then-Lady Buffs into the Big Eight Conference, which officially started league play her rookie season as coach and was considered the next level from the old Intermountain Conference in which CU had competed in since the sport attained varsity status in 1974.

Barry's pedigree, a four-year letterwinner at Kentucky under coach Debbie Yow and an 83-42 record in four seasons as head coach at Cincinnati convinced Crowder that she was the right woman for the job. Twenty-two years and four U.S. presidents later, a 427-241 record, 12 NCAA tournament appearances, including six times in the Sweet 16 and three times in the Elite Eight, 13 20-win seasons, five conference championships and assorted coach of the year honors for five different seasons has proved she was more than just the right person, she is a legend.

"This was never all about me. We accomplished things as a team," she said. "(But) change will be good. We don't deserve to ever walk off the floor losing to Texas the way we lost last night (83-40 in Austin). It pains me to look in the eyes of my players and still see them uphold and stand with pride with 'Colorado' on their jerseys.

"I want them to win in the worst way," she continued. "I don't necessarily want to say 'step down;' I want to say 'step to the side.' I want to move the program forward. I am at peace. I am going to still be in the department. I promised our team that I am going to work very diligently with the new athletic director and new administrators in the department to help our cause, because the Big 12 is very tough and competitive."

She became just the 24th coach in women's NCAA history to reach 500 career wins—hitting the plateau in February 2004—and her all-time record of 510-283 and .643 winning percentage remain among the all-time best, ranking 20th among active coaches. Her teams have posted a 191-134 record in conference play, as 13 of her teams finished first, second or third in the league standings for the regular season. Off the court, Barry has graduated all but three four-year players (well over a 95% graduation rate) and has coached 85 Academic All-Conference student-athletes.

Prior to the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, Barry was the Big Eight Coach of the Year four times (1989, '93, '94, '95) and the District V Coach of the Year in 1993 and '95. The 1995 squad posted a school record 30 wins and came within a whisper of advancing to the Final Four. She led her teams to four regular season Big Eight titles and five postseason tournament titles, the last in the inaugural Big 12 Tournament in 1997.

When the 1997 tournament title placed Barry's name in the inaugural Big 12 record book it was a fitting transition for a coach whose name will forever be etched into the history of the Big Eight. In her 13 seasons she was 184-96 when leading the Buffs against Big Eight foes. Barry won more regular-season games (118), league titles (4), tournament titles (4), coach of the year honors (4) and coached more newcomers of the year (4) than any other league coach, while tying for the most NCAA tournament appearances with seven.

Barry's Buffs had three wins over then-defending national champions with the most shocking coming in 1993 in Colorado's first-ever Sweet 16 appearance, an 80-67 win over Stanford in the NCAA West Regional semifinal in Missoula, Mont.

Following her second consecutive Big Eight title in 1994, the United States Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Times Magazine named Barry National Coach of the Year. On the local level, she was inducted into the Colorado Sportswomen Hall of Fame the same year. Twice, Barry has had her name on the finalist list for the Naismith Award for Coaching, those honors coming in the last two seasons.

While those awards signified others taking note of her success, Barry's favorite accolade in her decorated career came in 1995 when she was presented with one of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's highest honors, the Carol Eckman Award. That honor is presented to a coach who exemplifies sportsmanship, commitment to the student-athlete, integrity, ethical behavior and dedication to the purpose. The award was made more special when presented to Barry by her friend and colleague, Carol Callan, also the color commentator on CU radio broadcasts.

Barry's impressive resume has also given her the chance to see the world, coaching the likes of the R. Williams Jones Cup Team, which toured Taiwan in 1988, to coaching the Big 12 All-Stars on a tour of Europe following the 2001 season. While her coaching travels have taken her abroad, the highlight was her stint as an assistant coach for the 1996 United States Olympic Basketball team that won the gold medal. The appointment was her seventh USA Basketball nod since 1987 as she worked with Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer in coaching the red, white and blue to victory.

She was head coach of the 2004 U.S. Junior World Championships Qualifying Team last summer, which went undefeated en route to the gold medal in August's qualifying tournament in Puerto Rico. She was scheduled to coach the team in the Junior World Championship this summer in Tunisia, but since only active coaches are allowed to do so, she has informed USA Basketball that she will not be able to complete that assignment.

Barry was second on the current CU coaching staff in terms of service, trailing only men's golf coach Mark Simpson, who is in his 29th season. Skiing coach Richard Rokos is next behind Barry's 22 years, as he in his 15th season. Along with Simpson, only Frank Potts (track, 41 seasons), Les Fowler (golf, 29), Frank Prentup (baseball, 24) and Dick Gray (tennis, 23) logged more seasons as a head coach than Barry at Colorado.

Lengyel said associate athletic director Karen Morrison will coordinate the search for Barry's replacement, with the goal to have a successor named prior to the Women's Final Four April 3-5. The assistant AD/student services position has been vacant since December 31, when Brian Winkelbauer left to enter private business.
