QUICKLY...The No. 19 University of Colorado women's soccer team (12-7-3) will travel to Los Angeles, Calif., for the first round of the 2005 NCAA Tournament. The Buffs will take on the UC Riverside Highlanders (11-4-5) on Friday, Nov. 11 at 8:30 p.m. MST at Drake Stadium at UCLA. Host and No. 1 seed UCLA will face Mississippi Valley State at 6 p.m. MST. The winners of those games will play at 2 p.m. MST on Sunday, Nov. 13. There will be no television. It is familiar territory for the Buffaloes as they played a tournament at UCLA earlier this season.

COLORADO'S NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY...It's a short one. Two years ago the Buffs received the program's first-ever NCAA Championship bid, one of just 10 teams to do so. But they were the only first-year participant that received one of 16 seeds, coming in as the 10th. Despite their seed and regular season Big 12 title (the league sent an NCAA record eight teams to the postseason), the Buffs were sent to Salt Lake City where they faced a veteran BYU squad that took full advantage of CU's lack of tournament experience, ending CU's season in the very first game of the '03 championship, 2-0. Then last year, the Buffs went to Portland, where they upended Utah 3-0 for their first ever NCAA Tournament win before falling to host team Portland 3-0.

QUICK LOOK AT THE BUFFALOES...Colorado is led by senior midfielder Fran Munnely, a Hermann Trophy candidate and four time First Team All-Big 12 selection who has eight goals and six assists for 22 points on the season thus far. Junior Katie Griffin has erupted down the stretch, scoring 12 goals (CU record) on the year with one assist for 25 points (a CU record), while senior Kat Grandinetti leads the way in the assists column with six this season to go with three goals. Goalkeeper Kirstin Radlinski is CU's netminder, with six starts and posting a record of 4-2-1 with three shutouts and a 0.79 goals against average in her role as CU's keeper. Colorado faced eight teams that made the NCAA Tournament this season, including two No. 1 seeds in UCLA and North Carolina. Others: Texas A&M, Nebraska, Iowa State, USC, Texas and Vanderbilt.

NOTING THE HIGHLANDERS...The Highlanders are led offensively by Renee Scachetti, who has 13 goals and five assists on the season for 31 points. Tawny Poggio has been the netminder for UCR this season, allowing 17 goals and grabbing 100 saves. UCR has faced two of this year's NCAA Championship participants, Gonzaga and Cal State Fullerton, going 1-1-1 against them. The Highlanders lost to Gonzaga 2-0 on September 18 in Spokane and beat CSUF 1-0 in Riverside on October 2. The third meeting was Sunday's Big West Tournament Final, won 4- by the Titans. UCR is one of 11 schools making its NCAA Tournament debut and is only the fourth school in the current Big West membership to earn a bid to the NCAA tournament for women's soccer. UCR is the first Big West team to earn an at-large bid, giving the conference multiple berths for the first time in its 10-year history. This will be the first time any Big West school will face a Big 12 opponent in the postseason. BWC teams are 11-10 all-time vs. the Big 12. No current BWC team has faced Colorado. UCR has never played a team from the Big 12. The Big West is 2-7 all-time in the NCAA Tournament as a conference and have lost in the first round 5 straight years.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING...Here are where the four teams stack up in some basic stat categories heading into this weekend.

Team	Rank	Record	Sh	G-A-Pts	Corners	Fouls	Saves	GA	GAA
COLORADO	19	12-7-3	340	37-29-103	79	243	86	23	1.00
UC Riverside	NR	11-4-5	202	28-24-80	65	228	103	17	0.81
UCLA	4	17-1-2	348	45-37-127	118	256	45	8	0.38
Miss. Valley St.	NR	9-7-2	307	47-29-123	93	166	87	26	1.33

LAST TIME OUT...Colorado suffered a loss at the hands (or feet) of No. 10 Texas A&M. The Buffaloes fell behind 1-0 before freshman Alex Cousins netted her first career goal off an assist from Laura Munnely in the 64th minute. A&M netted the gamewinner in double overtime to win 2-1 and take their second straight Big 12 Tournament title. Katie Griffin, Kat Grandinetti and Darci Smerchek earned All-Tournament honors.

MUNNELLY NAMED TO ALL-BIG 12 10th ANNIVERSARY TEAM...Fran Munnely has been named to the Big 12 Soccer 10th Anniversary Team. Munnely is only one of two current players selected by the league's head coaches in celebration of the Big 12's 10th anniversary season. It has been a big year for Munnely as she was also named to the preseason All-Big 12 Team, as well as to the Hermann Trophy Watch List, making her the first in school history to be a preseason national payer

PRENTUP FIELD...The Home of Colorado Soccer
To reach Prentup Field from campus, take Colorado Blvd. east through the intersections of 28th and 30th Streets. Take your first left (unmarked) on to 33rd Street. After several speed bumps and the University's Day Care Center, take a right into a dirt parking lot. Prentup Field is on the left. From Foothills Parkway, travel west on Colorado, take your third right on Innovation Drive and follow north into a dirt parking lot. The field is just past the track complex and ski building.

UNDERRATED...Three years in the Big 12, three times second team All-Big 12. Here's why that's not on: Katie Griffin was the 2003 Big 12 Freshman of the Year, and in the three years since she has become CU's second all-time leading scorer with 27 goals. She has 12 this season, a new CU record, and her 25 points is also a new CU all time mark. She was the leading scorer in the Big 12 Tournament with three goals and one assist.

FIVE BUFFS EARN ALL-BIG 12 HONORS...Five members of the CU women's soccer team earned honors from the Big 12 Conference. Senior Fran Munnelly was named First Team All-Big 12 for the fourth consecutive year, the first player in any sport in CU history to be named First Team All-Big 12 four times and one of five players ever to earn . She was one of just two unanimous selections to the first team joining KU defender Holly Gault. CU had three women on the second team in juniors Katie Griffin and Laura Munnelly and sophomore Allison Kidd. Freshman Nikki Keller was named to the Big 12 All-Newcomer team.

THE FRANCHISE...Is Fran Munnelly. The owner of 30 career goals, she boasts 81 career points, making her the first player in CU history to score over 80 points. She's one of just five players in Big 12 history to be a four time first team All-Big 12 pick, and has led Colorado to four straight winning seasons.

FEELING THE LOVE...Colorado has appeared in the NSCAA poll for the fourth different time this season on Nov. 8, now posting a season high No. 19 ranking. Colorado has the most losses of any team in the top 25, but there's a reason why they are ranked anyways. It's called strength of schedule. Colorado faced two of the top four seeds in the NCAA tournament (North Carolina and UCLA) and squared off with No. 9 Texas A&M on two occasions, as well as playing No. 24 USC.

WHERE'S THE LOVE?...The Buffaloes were not feeling love in the preseason, when the Big 12 coaches picked the Buffaloes to finish fifth in the conference despite returning 10 starters and all of their top scorers.. CU had other plans. The Buffs were two points shy of claiming their second regular season title, and finished second in the conference. CU has finished first, third and second in the last three years in the Big 12.

HEMPEN GETS 50TH WIN AT CU...With CU's 3-0 victory at Northern Colorado, CU head coach Bill Hemen earned his 50th win at Colorado. Just the second coach in women's soccer history at Colorado, Hemen is also the winningest. He surpassed his predecessor Austin Daniels' 36 wins last year. Coach

Hempen has also guided the program back to a .500 all time record, as CU sits at 91-88-15. When Hempen took over, the Buffaloes were 36-53-5, with a .404 winning percentage. Since then, CU is 55-35-10, a .598 winning percentage, and have earned a Big 12 title and two trips to the NCAA Tournament.

COLORADO IN BIG 12 STATS...Katie Griffin is eighth in scoring in the Big 12, while Fran Munnely is the 10th leading scorer in the Big 12 Conference. The Buffs lead the league in shutouts with 10. In Big 12 games, Katie Griffin finished the season as the fourth leading scorer with six goals in Big 12 play. Kat Grandinetti is fourth in Big 12 assists with five, while Fran Munnely trails her with four in fifth. Colorado is leading the way with just eight goals allowed for tops in the conference, along with goals against average (0.78) and shutouts (six). Kirstin Radlinski lead the conference in goals against average with 0.47 GAA and a save percentage of .917.

YOU LOCK IT UP!...Colorado is tops in the conference in defense this season, leading the league in league play in goals allowed (eight) and goals against average (0.78). That's not just due to the goalkeeping of Jessie Keller and Kirstin Radlinski, that's thanks to CU's ironwomen defense. The back four of Laura Munnely, Tricia Regan, Darci Smerchek and Michelle Wenino have been nothing short of stellar this season, limiting the opposition to just 11.3 shots per game, only 4.7 of those on goal in all games. Translation...you can't score if you don't shoot, and CU has allowed just eight goals in Big 12 play, a 0.78 goals against average, as well as six shutouts...all Big 12 bests.

THE SENIOR CLASS...When now-seniors Fran Munnely, Tricia Regan, Ashlie Mihalcin and Darci Smerchek signed on to be Buffs, one needs to remember that they did so following a 3-11-2 mark during the 2001 season. Jessica Keller and Kathryn Grandinetti did so a year later, transferring from Miami and Kentucky, respectively, after Hempen and the Buffs concluded a 10-8-2 2002 campaign. The class of 2005 is on track to go down as the first CU class to string together four winning seasons as they were 10-8-2 as freshmen, 15-4-1 as sophomores and 15-6-2 as juniors. With a 52-25-8 overall mark, they are the winningest class in CU history. The six have also done the same in conference play with a 24-11-5 record (66.6 win percentage), including the 2003 regular season title.

IRONWOMAN...Laura Munnely has gone two of the past three seasons without coming out of a game. At all. She never left the pitch as a freshman in 2003, playing all 1,609 minutes for Colorado as a first year player. Last season, she was taken down from behind in the game against OSU and despite her protests, had to be taken off with seven minutes to play. Those are the ONLY seven minutes she hasn't played in her entire career. Adding it up, that means the junior has played 6,006 minutes in her career out of a possible 6,013.

GAME WINNER GRIFFIN...Junior Katie Griffin is tops on the CU gamewinning goals chart with 11 in her career, one ahead of teammate Fran Munnely. She has a team high three gamewinning goals this season, two of them coming in Big 12 play (OSU, Texas Tech).

WE'RE GOIN STREAKIN!...Senior classmates Fran Munnely and Ashlie Mihalcin had an impressive starting streak (and games played streak) running at 68 consecutive games played and started in their careers. After Mihalcin suffered an injury against UCLA her streak came to an end. Now Fran is the all-time leading games started and games played leader at CU with her 85 of each under her belt.

SHOWER RINSE REPEAT...Historically, Colorado has just 12 players that have recorded multiple goal games. Three current Buffs, Katie Griffin, Nikki Keller and Fran Munnely can lay claim to that accomplishment. Griffin has done it six times in her career, the most ever for a Buffalo, while Fran has now done it three times thanks to her double dips against Detroit and Northern Colorado. Freshman Nikki Keller became the latest Buffalo to join that club, scoring back-to-back goals in a three minute span against Iowa State.

JESSICA KELLER BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK...Senior goalkeeper Jessie Keller was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week for her efforts against Texas and Northern Colorado last weekend. Keller registered two shutouts last weekend, giving her six for the season, with wins over Texas and Northern Colorado. The Buffs' win over Texas was only their second in program history. Keller had four saves in the two matches and picked off several crosses in the penalty area.

WHAT WOULD WE DO WITHOUT US...Three of Colorado's seniors, Kat Grandinetti, Fran Munnely and Darci Smerchek have played together, in one way or another, for 10 years. The three started together on the Lakewood Fury U12 squad, which had an eight year streak of state cup championships and five Far West Regional final appearances. They capped their U18 season when they won the Far West and went on to win the USYSA U18 National Championship. After Grandinetti took a brief detour to Kentucky, she reunited with Smerchek and Munnely for their sophomore year at Colorado. They went on to help lead CU to it's first Big 12 soccer championship and first NCAA appearance in 2003.

FRESH STARTS...Colorado has a youthful roster this season with nine freshmen on the squad. Four of them have found their way into the starting lineup, as Nikki Keller, Michelle Wenino and Alex Cousins have started 18, 21 and 11 games, respectively, and Kirstin Radlinski got her sixth start vs Texas A&M. Frosh have accounted for three of CU's 12 game winning goals this season. First year Megan Manthey scored the gamewinner against Vanderbilt in the season opener, while classmate Keller notched hers to beat Pitt on Sept. 16 and Iowa State on Sept. 25. They were the first career goals for both. In all, seven of the frosh have seen time; Keller, Kris Kauftheil Manthey, Wenino, Cousins, Caitlin Marquis and Radlinski. The Hoilands are injured thus far and haven't seen time.

HIT ME WITH YOUR BEST SHOT...Colorado has outshot its opponents this season 340-249, which translates to 15.5 shots a game against 11.3 for the opposition. Of those 340 shots, 45-percent have been on goal (156), with Katie Griffin leading the way with 40 of those.

SMARTY PANTS...Senior Jessie Keller was named a CoSIDA Academic All-District second team selection on Nov. 3. Add that to four Academic All-Big 12 picks as well in first team selections Kat Grandinetti, Ashlie Mihalcin and Keller. Fran Munnely was a second team pick. To qualify for the Big 12 Academic Team student-athletes must maintain a 3.0 grade point average or higher either cumulative or the two previous semesters and must have participated in 60 percent of her or his team's scheduled contests. Freshmen and transfers are not eligible in their first year of academic residence. Senior student-athletes who have participated for a minimum of two years and meet all the criteria except percent of participation are eligible.

SISTER ACT...CU boasts two sets of sisters on the roster this season. The first is the wonder non-twins, senior Fran and junior Laura Munnely. The freshmen twins of Krista and Shannon Hoiland are both likely going to redshirt this season, as they both freakishly suffered ACL tears before coming on campus. Nikki Keller and CU's Jessie Keller are not sisters, though DU's Jessi Keller is Nikki Keller's twin sister.

HOMEGROWN...14 of the 22 players on the Colorado roster are from the Centennial State, with nine of them gracing the starting lineup of late.

KELLER KEEPING CLEAN...Prior to her collegiate career ending injury on Oct. 16, senior goalkeeper Jessica Keller made a name for herself all over the CU goalkeeping record books. She is tops among all CU keepers all time in goals against average with 0.83, wins with 37 and shutouts with 25. The only category of real statistical significance she does not lead is saves, but she can probably thank the CU defense for that since she hasn't had to face a great many shots.

KELLER BLOG...Even in convalescence senior Jessica Keller has joined the masses and is continuing to write a blog which is featured on the Daily Camera website. It can be found at <http://bouldernews.net/bdc/blogs/cusoccer/>

THE 10th SEASON...The 2005 season marks the 10th of the Colorado Soccer program as well as almost all in the Big 12 Conference. To date, the Buffs are 91-89-15 overall, 43-46-10 in Big 12 play with the 2003 Big 12 regular season title, player, rookie and coach of the year honors that season. In the classroom, the Buffs have made 76 Academic All-Big 12 appearances.

HOW THE BUFFS WERE BUILT: Here is how the 10th team in Colorado soccer history was compiled:

Freshman Recruits

2002 ..... Fran Munnely
..... Tricia Regan
2003 ..... Katie Griffin
..... Laura Munnely
2004 ..... Brittany Dornseif
..... Allison Kidd
2005 ..... Alexis Cousins
..... Nikki Keller
..... Megan Manthey
..... Caitlin Marquis

(Recruited) Walkons

2002 ..... Ashlie Mihalcin, Darci Smerchek
2003 ..... None
2004 ..... Maura Gentile
2005 ..... Kirstin Radlinski
..... Michelle Wenino
..... Krista Hoiland
..... Shannon Hoiland
..... Kris Kauftheil

Four Year Transfers

2003 ..... Jessica Keller (Miami)
..... Kathryn Grandinetti (Kentucky)
2004 ..... Allie True (UCLA)
2005 ..... Lindsey Ralph (Evansville)

FIVE YEARS AT THE FOOT OF THE FLATIRONS...This season is Bill Hempen's fifth at the helm of the Buffaloes. In that span, he's led the team to two NCAA Tournament appearances and a Big 12 Championship in addition to 50 wins in that time. Hempen is the 21st winningest active coach in the NCAA Division I ranks by wins with 205 wins entering the 2005 season.

FRAN MUNNELLY NAMED TO HERMANN TROPHY WATCH LIST...For the first time in school history, the Buffaloes have a preseason national player of the year candidate. Fran Munnely is one of 25 players named to the Missouri Athletic Club's Hermann Trophy Watch list.

MUNNELLYS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-BIG 12...Fran and Laura Munnely have been named to the preseason All-Big 12 Team as voted by the league coaches, the conference announced August 18.

HOME SWEET PRENTUP...A home is defined as a place of residence and the highlight of CU's 10th season will be calling CU's East Campus home. For the first time in the program's history the Buffs have a field to call their own as Prentup Field went from a baseball-only field as recent as three years ago to a soccer-only practice facility in 2004 to the Buffs' exclusive home field a year later. Colorado played the first nine seasons at Pleasant View Soccer Complex in North Boulder.

THE SCHEDULE...For two straight seasons, the Buffs have faced the toughest schedule in program history. But the 2003 and '04 teams won't hold a candle to the 2005 slate that Hempen has arranged. Seven teams that advanced to last year's NCAA Championships, including national runner up UCLA and 17-time champion North Carolina will be two of the Buffs' first six regular season opponents. Both Nebraska and Texas advanced to the round of 16 while Detroit, Kansas and Texas A&M bowed out in their respective second rounds. Thirteen teams with better than .500 records, including five in Big 12 play, will play CU. Colorado's 20 opponents combined for 217 wins against 162 losses and 28 ties for a .568 win percentage. The challenge with a schedule such as 2005's will be not to let this team get awestruck and convince a squad of balanced newcomers and veterans that they deserve, and can compete against this schedule.

THE QUICKEST GOALS IN PROGRAM HISTORY: The quickest goal in school history was netted this season, with three of the top 15 coming this season:

AND THE LATEST GOALS SCORED IN HISTORY (In Regulation): Tricia Regan's first career goal with eight seconds left in regulation to force overtime against Missouri in the Big 12 Tournament last season made us research the opposite:

GAME 3 - COLORADO 2, DENVER 2

Buff's Tie Pioneers 2-2, Advance to Final

DENVER - In the second game of the 2005 Denver Soccer Classic, the University of Colorado women's soccer team battled for 110 minutes to a 2-2 tie with instate rival, the University of Denver. The Buffaloes scored on goals by Katie Griffin and Ashlie Mihalcin and Denver scored on goals by Taryn Hemmings and Rachael Fry.

CU got goals from Katie Griffin and Ashlie Mihalcin in the first 17 minutes of play. Because of the tournament format, the game went into penalty kicks in an unofficial shootout to determine who would play in Sunday's championship game. Colorado won the shootout 6-5 after senior Jessica Keller saved DU's seventh shot and Ashlie Mihalcin buried her shot to win the shootout.
