IN SEARCH OF: Jenny Barringer, Kenyon Neuman and Jeremy Dodson rank high on the conference lists and will be looking for their first indoor Big 12 titles. Barringer and Neuman have each won an outdoor crown and Dodson placed second at last year's outdoor meet.

1-2-3 FOR THE RECORD BOOK: The 2009 indoor season has been a record setting one for a pair of Buffs as three records have been set in the last month. Jeremy Dodson set the indoor 200-meter dash at 20.88 on Feb. 14. Jenny Barringer set the 3k (8:53.88) on Jan. 31 and the 5k (15:01.70) on Feb. 14.

DOUBLE-DUTY: Sophomore Ryan Miller, who is an offensive tackle for the CU football team, made his collegiate debut in the shot put on Saturday, Feb. 14 at the Air Force Invitational. Miller, who was a high school standout in the shot put and discus, recorded the best throw of the year for the Buffs with a toss of 46 feet, 7.25 inches. The throw is the second best throw in the last two years by a Buff.

The last Buff to try to balance spring football and track and field was Hugh Charles. He left marks in the CU recordbook in the long jump and the sprints.

NOT JUST THE STEEPLECHASE ANYMORE: Junior Jenny Barringer is proving to the world that she can do so much more than the 3,000-meter steeplechase. This indoor season she has recorded the top times in the NCAA Division I in the 3,000 and 5,000-meter runs. Both were also school records and NCAA automatic qualifying times.

She recorded a time of 8:53.88 in the 3k and became the first Buff to finish the race in under nine minutes. Two weeks later, Barringer followed it up by recording the second fastest time by an American woman in the 5k. She finished the race in 15:01.70 and broke the collegiate record in the process. Barringer didn't just break the CU record, she demolished it by over 37 seconds.

Barringer earned Big 12 and CU Athlete of the Week honors for her performances both weeks.

FASTER THAN A SPEEDING BULLET: Senior Jeremy Dodson set the CU record in the indoor 200-meter dash at the Air Force Invitational on Saturday. Dodson ran a mark of 20.88 and became the first Buff to finish the indoor 200 in under 20 seconds. He also owns the outdoor CU 200m record at 20.37.

SPORTSWOMEN OF COLORADO: Jenny Barringer will be inducted into the Sportswomen of Colorado Hall of Fame on March 8, 2009 for her accolades the past three years in cross country and track and field. A nominee is inducted when she has earned an award three times. Barringer has received an honor from the Sportswomen of Colorado the past three seasons.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: Jeremy Dodson has played a big part in the CU sprints program since transferring from Arkansas and now he has helped to add two younger brothers to the team. Quinton Dodson and A.J. Whitaker are joining him this season on the sprints team both look to be up to the task of breaking the elder Dodson's records sooner than later. Quinton has also shown he can help in the field events as he has been one of CU's top long jumpers this season.

BIG 12 PERFORMANCE LISTS: Jenny Barringer, Kenyon Neuman and Jeremy Dodson own the top times in the conference in their respective events.

Barringer has the top times in the 3k (8:53.88) and the 5k (15:01.70). Neuman ranks number in the men's 5k (13:41.66) and Dodson's school record of 20.88 is the top mark in the 200-meter dash.
