Assistant Coaches: Patrick Harrington, Tom McConnell, Aisha Veasley

Director of Operations: Tracy Tripp

THE GAME: The University of Colorado will host the University of Denver on Wednesday, Dec. 2, at 7 p.m. at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

BROADCAST: Wednesday's game will be televised by FSN Rocky Mountain. Tom Helmer will have the call with legendary CU head coach Ceal Barry providing the color commentary and Alanna Rizzo reporting from the sidelines. All Colorado women's basketball games can be heard live on KKZN AM 760. Mike Rice will handle play-by-play duties with USA Basketball's Carol Callan providing the color commentary. Live internet audio of all CU basketball games is available on BufsRadio, a subscription service through CUBuffs.com. Please note the BufsRadio audio and BufsTV video are separate subscriptions.

OPENING TIP: Colorado is off to a 4-1 start, its best since 2003-04 when the Buffaloes started out 12-1 and eventually advanced to the program's last NCAA Tournament appearance.

THE BUFFALOES: Colorado will be looking for its third straight win overall and fourth straight at home to start the season. The Buffaloes will be looking to take advantage of an early season schedule that sees them play eight of their next nine at home. The lone exception is a road game at Colorado State on Friday, Dec. 11.

Colorado won its home tournament, the Omni Hotels Classic, this last weekend defeating Georgia Southern 62-50 in the first round and then Harvard 67-65 in the championship game. Brittany Spears was named tournament MVP averaging 15.5 points and nine rebounds per game while Bianca Smith and Chucky Jeffery were named to the All-Tournament team.

Spears leads the Buffaloes in scoring (19.0 ppg) and rebounding (10.4 rpg). Smith leads Colorado in 3-point shooting (15-of-36) and is second in scoring at 12.6 per contest. Colorado's depth is starting to show with six players averaging at least six points per game and six averaging at least three rebounds per contest.

ABOUT THE PIONEERS: Denver is 1-3 overall having lost two straight since registering its lone win on the season, a 68-55 home triumph over Colorado State. The Pioneers will be playing their third straight road contest and are in the middle of a six-game overall road trip. Denver is shooting fairly well as a team, hitting 47 percent from the floor, but has been losing the battle with rebounds and turnovers. The Pioneers average nearly 20 turnovers per game, giving up six more than it opponents, and is being outrebounded by 1.7 per contest.

Junior guard Britteni Rice leads Denver by averaging 15.8 points per game, hitting 46 percent from the field. Sophomore forward Kaetlyn Murdoch tops the Pioneers in rebounding at 7.3 per contest and is the team's second leading scorer at 13.3 points per game. She is also hitting 60 percent from the field over her first four games. Junior forward Brianna Culberson is averaging 11.7 points and 7.0 rebounds per game.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be just the fifth meeting between the two schools that reside only 33 miles apart from one another, and the first in 10 years. Colorado leads the series 3-1, with Denver winning the last meeting, 71-67 in Denver on Nov. 19, 1999. The Buffaloes have won both meetings played in Boulder, a 70-58 win on Nov. 14, 1998 and a 85-50 triumph on Dec. 13, 1978.

Kathy McConnell-Miller has never faced Denver as a head coach.

CONNECTIONS: The Buffaloes welcome back former All-American and CU Athletic Hall of Fame member Shelley Sheetz to the Coors Events Center on Wednesday. Sheetz, in her second year as a DU assistant coach, is CU's all-time leader in 3-point field goals (252) and ranks second in career assists (514) and fourth in scoring (1,775). The 1995 Big Eight Conference Player of the Year, Sheetz will actually be making her second appearance on the opponent bench at the Coors Event Center. Prior to joining DU in 2008, she was an assistant at Pepperdine when the Buffaloes hosted the Waves in January 2008.

Current CU Director of Basketball of Operations Tracy Tripp and Assistant Athletic Trainer Nicole Makris both have ties to DU. Tripp, who played for Colorado from 1985-89, spent 13 seasons as a Pioneer assistant coach (1995-08) before coming back to Boulder. Makris was as an Athletic Trainer at DU from 2000-04.

SPEARS EARNS BIG 12 HONOR: Junior Brittany Spears was named the Phillips 66 Big 12 Women's Basketball Co-Player of the Week by a media voting panel for games from Nov. 16-22, the league office announced on Nov. 23.

Spears was named to the Minnesota Subway Classic All-Tournament team after averaging 23 points and 10 rebounds in two games. She scored 19 points and pulled down seven rebounds in a season-low 25 minutes in the 63-49 win over Illinois-Chicago. She then recorded her 17th career double-double and second of the season with a game-high 27 points and 13 rebounds against Minnesota in the tournament final. She reached a double-double before intermission with 16 points and 10 rebounds in the opening 20 minutes. Spears hit 10-of-20 shots from the field and added four assists and four steals.

Spears earns her fifth career Big 12 weekly honor, and first as Player of the Week. She earned four Big 12 Rookie of the Week citations as a freshman in 2007-08. It's also the first Big 12 weekly honor for the Buffaloes since Alyssa Fressle gained Rookie of the Week honors in the final week of the 2008-09 season.

SPEARS' HOT START: Brittany Spears is off to a great start. Her 10.4 rebounds per game lead the Big 12 Conference and her 19 points per game rank fourth. She has double-doubles in three of five games, tying for the league lead. Spears also ranks second in both offensive (3.8) and defensive (6.6) rebounding, sixth in minutes (34.4) and eighth in blocks (1.6 bpg) and steals (2.2 spg) on the Big 12 charts.

SMITH OFF THE BENCH, SAME RESULTS: After starting the entire 2008-09 season, senior guard Bianca Smith has come off the bench for the first three games of 2009 without missing a beat. She is averaging 12.6 points, 3.0 rebounds and 1.6 steals per game and is still displaying her sharp-shooting abilities. Smith leads CU and is third in the Big 12 with 15 3-pointers in her first five games and hitting 41.7 percent from downtown. She is also CU and the Big 12's top free-throw shooter making 12 of her first 13 attempts on the season (.923).

Through Nov. 30, Smith ranks third in the Big 12 in scoring for those players primarily coming off the bench (starting less than half of a team's games). Here are the current leaders:

Player, Team	PPG
Danielle Adams, Texas A&M	20.3
Brittainey Raven, Texas	13.8
Bianca Smith, Colorado	12.6
Brittany Chambers, Kansas State	11.4
Sydney Carter, Texas A&M	9.0

JEFFERY'S BIG TOURNEY: Freshman Chucky Jeffery was named to the 2009 Omni Hotels Classic All-Tournament Team. Over the two games she averaged 12.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 2.5 steals and shot 61 percent (11-of-16). She had 11 points, six rebounds and a team season-high five steals in the first round win over Georgia Southern. Shot 5-of-8 from the field against the Eagles. Scored a career high 14 points against Harvard, including the decisive basket on a driving layup with five seconds remaining in the game as the Buffaloes won 67-65. Hit 6-of-9 from the field (67 percent) and recorded five rebounds, four assists and one block.

MULLANEY'S HOME COOKING: No one was looking more forward to CU's trip to Minnesota than Minneapolis native Kelly Jo Mullaney, and she responded in a big way. Against Illinois-Chicago, Mullaney came off the bench to score 13 points and record a career-high seven rebounds in the win. She also played well in the classic final against Minnesota with nine points on 3-of-4 from the field.

Mullaney has come out looking for her shot this year, especially from 3-point range. She already has nearly one-half of her total 3-point field goals from last year, making 4-of-6 (9-of-20 in 28 games in 2008-09), and overall she is shooting 52 percent while ranking fourth on the team in scoring with 7.6 points per outing.

HOUSTON WE HAVE A RETURN, DESPITE BUMPS: Junior Whitney Houston made her much anticipated return to the CU lineup against UC Irvine. Houston redshirted last year after a preseason knee injury forced her to miss the 2008-09 campaign. She finished with 11 points on 5-of-10 shooting with two steals in 26 minutes. Houston hit a couple of big buckets down the stretch, including a layup which gave the Buffaloes their first lead at 54-52 with just 1:37 left in the game.

She sat out the Illinois-Chicago game due to a slight concussion sustained in the UC Irvine game, but returned against Minnesota two days later and put up nearly identical numbers, scoring 10 points on 5-of-10 shooting while dishing out three assists.

GETTING 'ER DUNN: Senior center Courtney Dunn made her first two collegiate starts at the Minnesota Subway Classic, averaging 5.0 points and 4.5 rebounds while shooting 50 percent in the two game set. Dunn scored seven points and had career bests with eight rebounds and three blocks in 34 minutes against Illinois-Chicago.

FRESHMAN DEBUTS: A pair of true freshmen made their collegiate debuts and made significant contributions to the Buffaloes comeback win against UC Irvine. Forward Meagan Malcolm-Peck got the starting nod and responded with six points, 11 rebounds, three blocks and three steals. Guard Chucky Jeffery came off the bench and registered four points, seven rebounds, three assists and two steals.

Malcolm-Peck's start marked the fourth straight year the Buffaloes have had a freshman in the initial season starting lineup. The three others: Bianca Smith in 2006, Brittany Spears in 2007 and Alyssa Fressle in 2008.

2009-10 Opponents in Bold

Two additional players from CU's heralded freshman class saw court action for the first time in Minnesota. Brenna Malcolm-Peck and Melissa MacFarlane saw spot duty in the win over Illinois-Chicago, each playing five minutes. The 6-foot-7 MacFarlane was fouled literally one second into her collegiate debut, off an inbounds pass, and hit 1-of-2 from the line. MacFarlane also had three rebounds and a block against the Flames. Brenna Malcolm-Peck recorded one defensive rebound in her debut.

REBOUNDING WOWS: Colorado has enjoyed early success on the boards. The Buffaloes began the season with back-to-back 50-plus rebounding efforts, coralling 50 against UC Irvine in the season opener and improving on that mark with 52 against Illinois-Chicago.

Colorado had just one game all of 2008-09 with 50 or more rebounds, notching 51 against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 2. CU's 52 rebounds against Illinois-Chicago were its most since recording 58 at Colorado State on Dec. 1, 2007.

The Buffaloes back-to-back 50-rebound effort was the teams first since stringing together three straight from Nov. 20-24, 2001 (50 vs. San Diego, 59 vs. Bowling Green, 50 vs. Houston). CU wasn't able to get a third 50-rebound game this time, grabbing just 24 against Minnesota, but it should be noted that both teams shot right at 50 percent from the field in that game, leaving rebounds at a premium (UM won the rebounding battle 32-24).

Against UC Irvine, Brittany Spears led the way with 14 while Meagan Malcolm-Peck grabbed 11 in her CU debut. It marked the first time the Buffs had two players reach double-digits in rebounds since Brittany Spears and Julie Seabrook each had 13 against Idaho State on Dec. 30, 2008. In the Illinois-Chicago game, the rebounds were well distributed. No one had double digits, but six players had four or more rebounds and all 10 that played had at least one.

Back to UC Irvine, Malcom-Peck's 11 rebounds, six of which came on the offensive end, put her in some exclusive CU company. Her 11 boards are the third most in team history by a freshman in her CU debut and the most in 27 years:

No.	Player	Opponent
16	Monica Kosenski	vs. Northern Arizona, 11/28/86
13	Kim Jackson	vs. UTEP, 11/19/82
11	Meagan Malcolm-Peck	vs. UC Irvine 11/17/09
10	Randie Wirt	vs. Albany, 11/17/00
10	Lisa Van Goor	vs. Colorado Women's, 11/18/80
9	Crystal Ford	vs. Adams State, 11/23/85
8	Jamillah Lang	vs. Gonzaga, 11/23/90

Chucky Jeffery had seven rebounds in her debut. She is one of eight different players, a list that includes Brittany Spears (at San Francisco, 11/16/07), to reach that number in her first collegiate game.

MEMORABLE COMEBACK: Colorado's comeback from a 14-point halftime deficit to win against UC Irvine ties for the third-largest margin achieved in team history. The Buffaloes trailed the Anteaters 33-19 at the break before outscoring them 42-23 in the final 20 minutes.

Colorado came back from 19 down against the University of Washington on Dec. 21, 1982, at the Guisti Tournament in Portland, Ore. CU trailed 35-16 at halftime before winning 67-65. Colorado came back from 15 points down against Kansas State on Jan. 31, 2007, that game included a 23-0 second half run.

CLIMBING THE LADDERS: Junior Brittany Spears and Senior Bianca Smith continue to make their impressions on the CU record book.

Spears, who became just the second player in team history (Lisa Van Goor) to reach 1,000 points as a sophomore, is 19th on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,097 and will move into 18th place past De Celle Thomas (1992-96) with her next two points. She is 17th in rebounds with 538, needing five to move into 16th past Mindy Henry (1989-93). Spears is also seventh in blocked shots (93) and eighth in 3-pointers made (110) and attempted (344).

Smith is fifth in career 3-point field goals made (190) and third in attempts (510). She needs eight 3-pointers to move into fourth place on CU's all-time list. Smith would need 77 total 3-pointers this year to break Shelley Sheetz's career mark of 252, but it's possible.

Smith holds CU's single-season mark hitting 80 from downtown in 2007-08.

CAPTAINS NAMED: Before the season opener head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller announced that Brittany Spears, Whitney Houston and Bianca Smith were named captains for the 2009-10 season. Smith is a captain for the second straight year while Houston and Spears are first time captains. CU captains are voted on by the players.

BUFFS IN OPENERS: Colorado is now 31-5 (.861) all-time in season openers and started the season with a home game for the 24th time in 36 seasons. Colorado is an outstanding 34-2 (.944) all-time in home openers. Colorado has never lost its overall season opener when played at home (24-0).

TOUGH SCHEDULE: Colorado once again faces a tough schedule with potentially 16 games -- or 55 percent of the regular season schedule -- against 2009 NCAA or WNIT tournament teams. Six of CU's opponents are ranked in the current 2009-10 ESPN/USA Today/WBCA Coaches Preseason poll: Baylor, Oklahoma, Texas, Texas A&M, Virginia and Iowa State. Six are ranked in the Associated Press poll: Baylor, Texas, Texas A&M, Oklahoma, Virginia and Kansas. A host of others are receiving votes in the initial preseason polls including Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma State, Texas Tech and Minnesota.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 333-106 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.759). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 20 of the previous 31 years. The Buffaloes have enjoyed five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94) at the CECC.

BUFFS ON TV: Colorado's regular season schedule features nine games that will be televised either regionally or nationally, eight of which are at home. CU opens its first of eight FSN Rocky Mountain games on Wednesday, Dec. 2, as the Buffaloes host Denver University. FSN Rocky Mountain will also televise home games against Virginia (Jan. 2), Missouri (Jan. 9), Iowa State (Jan. 16), Oklahoma State (Jan. 24), Nebraska (Jan. 30), Texas (Feb. 10) and Kansas (Feb. 16). The games against Missouri and Oklahoma State will be televised nationally on FSN as part of the network's Big 12 package. Colorado's game at Kansas State (Jan. 20) is set to air on FSN Kansas City.

Colorado was 2-5 in televised games during the 2008-09 regular season. CU has appeared on 72 regional or national telecasts over the previous eight seasons.

BUFFS SIGN THREE: Shae Kelley, Ashley Wilson and Brittany Wilson have signed National Letters of Intent to play basketball and continue their education at the University of Colorado in 2010-11, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller announced Nov. 12, during the NCAA early signing period. Kelley, a 6-foot forward from Denver, is a two-time All-State honorable mention and All-Denver Prep League pick out of East High School. Kelley will be the fifth Denver Public Schools player to suit up for the Buffaloes and the first since Montbello's Nikki Weddle (1997-99). Ashley and Brittany are identical twin 5-8 guards from Long Beach, Calif. Playing for one of the most storied programs in Southern California, the Wilson twins have won three consecutive CIF Division I state titles with nationally-ranked Long Beach Poly.

SMITH GAINS FULL SEASON: Senior guard Bianca Smith was formally released from the National Letter of Intent she originally signed at the University of Tulsa earlier this summer, allowing her to gain back the semester of eligibility she would have otherwise had to surrender this season. Smith is now eligible to play the entire 2009-10 season for the Buffaloes. Smith, a native of Missouri City, Texas, had signed an NLI in November 2004 with Tulsa, who at the time was coached by current CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller. When McConnell-Miller took over the Colorado program in April 2005, Smith decided to follow her to Boulder.

She never enrolled at Tulsa, but was faced with sitting out two full seasons, one for not honoring her NLI commitment to Tulsa and a second for transferring to another NCAA Division I school. Smith was able to use her redshirt year to fulfill the NCAA transfer obligation, sitting out the 2005-06 season. She successfully petitioned the NLI Appeals Committee in 2005 to gain one semester back, but was still faced with losing one semester under the NLI commitment.

In the spring of 2009 then-CU-Boulder Chancellor Bud Peterson contacted Tulsa President, Dr. Steadman Upham, on behalf of Smith and the University of Colorado to ask for Smith's full release. Thanks to cooperation from both universities and athletic departments, Smith was released and rewarded a full final season.

BUFFS PICKED 11TH...AGAIN: For the fourth straight season Colorado was picked to finish 11th in the annual Big 12 Conference Preseason Coaches Poll.

In one of the closest votes at the top in recent memory, Baylor was picked to win the 2010 title with five first place votes and 109 total points, edging out Texas and Kansas who tied for second with 106 points (3 first place votes each). Texas A&M was picked fourth with 87 votes and picked up the final first place vote. Defending champion Oklahoma was fifth (86), followed by Nebraska (80), Iowa State (59), Kansas State (44), Oklahoma State (41), Texas Tech (38), Colorado (22) and Missouri (15).

The Buffaloes have fared better than the Big 12 coaches preseason prediction three of four seasons under Kathy McConnell-Miller:

Season	Preseason	Actual
2009-10	11th	??
2008-09	11th	12th
2007-08	11th	9th
2006-07	11th	t-7th
2005-06	12th	11th

Kathy McConnell-Miller
Head Coach
Fifth Season

When Kathy McConnell-Miller took over the University of Colorado program four years ago, there's no question the Buffaloes were rebuilding and the team was a work in progress.

In four seasons at Colorado, there is no question that McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes have made progress and the program is heading in the right direction.

McConnell-Miller, 41, sports a 55-72 record in her four seasons at Colorado and is 146-160 overall in 10 seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach.

Injuries, graduation and playing in the nation's premier women's basketball conference, the Big 12, hampered the progress her teams had built her first three seasons in 2008-09 as the Buffaloes struggled to an 11-18 mark and a 12th place finish in league play. But returning nine contributing players and adding the 32nd best recruiting class in the nation has the Buffaloes pointing in the right direction once again.

The 2009-10 season will mark the first year in which the Buffaloes are comprised completely of players coach McConnell-Miller brought to campus. She fared well with the players inherited from legendary CU head coach Ceal Barry, but she has also excelled in bringing in her own players. McConnell-Miller, and her staff, who from day one have established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in their players, have been committed to keeping Colorado's best players home, and have certainly succeeded on that front.

For three straight seasons, Colorado has landed at least one of the state's premier prep stars, beginning in 2007 with Aija Putnina, who contributed two solid seasons for the Buffaloes, including the 2008 WNIT run, before returning to her native Latvia to pursue a professional career. In 2008, the Buffaloes landed the consensus Colorado Player of the Year Alyssa Fressle out of Highlands Ranch, who made an immediate contribution and was rewarded with a spot on the Big 12 All-Rookie Team.

CU hit the state jackpot in 2009 with three All-Colorado caliber players; twins Meagan and Brenna Malcolm-Peck, Boulder natives who played at Horizon High School, and Chucky Jeffery, one of the top Class 4A players in 2009 for Sierra High School in Colorado Springs. The regional additions of Kailah Bailey and Melissa MacFarlane, both of Omaha, Neb., have given the Buffaloes their third Top 40 class in the last four years.

In 2006, Colorado had the No. 29 ranked class according to the All-Star Girls Report. What was remarkable about the class of 2006 is McConnell-Miller and her staff didn't even have the chance to start on the recruiting trail until April when they arrived in Boulder. Despite that late start, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players, including Whitney Houston and Putnina who made significant contributions in their first two seasons.

Her first three seasons at Colorado were marked by significant improvement each year. From a nine-win season her first year in Boulder, to a 13-17 mark in 2006-07, in 2007-08 she guided the Buffaloes to a 19-15 record and the team's first winning season and postseason berth since the 2003-04 campaign.

McConnell-Miller experienced quite a few firsts during CU's memorable 2007-08 season. She led Colorado to its first Associated Press national ranking in four seasons, peaking at No. 23, and in the process became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to coach and play for an AP ranked team.

McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes beat three ranked teams in 2007-08 - another first in four years - and finished ninth in the tough Big 12 Conference at 5-11. With a league-record eight Big 12 teams advancing to the NCAA Tournament, CU gained the conference's automatic bid into the WNIT where the Buffaloes proceeded to advance to the semifinals before falling to eventual tournament champion Marquette. It was CU's first ever appearance in the semifinals of a postseason event and for McConnell-Miller, she claimed the first three postseason wins of her head coaching career (3-3).

The signs of progress were also evident in her second season, 2006-07, when the Buffaloes finished tied for seventh in the Big 12 at 6-10. CU's six league wins in 2006-07 were more than the previous two years combined (3-13 in 2005-06 and 2-14 in 2004-05) and the Buffs won their first Big 12 Tournament game since 2003.

McConnell-Miller, who officially became the sixth head coach in the history of CU women's basketball on April 27, 2005, presided over the development of Jackie McFarland, one of the top players in the Big 12 from 2004-08. McFarland was a two-time AP honorable mention All-American and three-time All-Big 12 selection including back-to-back first team honors in 2007 and 2008. All-league selections are nothing new to McConnell-Miller as she has had at least one first or second team all-conference performer in each of her 10 seasons as a collegiate head coach. The latest in her run of all-star caliber players is junior Brittany Spears who last season became just the second player in team history to reach 1,000 points by the end of her sophomore year.

The Buffaloes have also had academic success in the McConnell-Miller era. In her three seasons, McConnell-Miller has coached 12 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team members and helped guide McFarland to three ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors, including first team acclaim in 2007-08.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an AP honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Grentz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Grentz for a total of six years as she went with Grentz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Four McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, three at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio is currently the head coach of Duquesne University and was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (9), Mackenzie (8) and Macie (4).

#2 Bianca Smith, 5-9, Senior, Guard, Missouri City, Texas (Bellaire)

This Season:

- CU's second leading scorer, coming off the bench the first five games of the season.

-- Leads the Buffaloes in 3-pointers and free-throw shooting. Tied a personal best with six free throws against Minnesota.

-- Selected to the Omni Hotels Classic and Minnesota Subway Classic All-Tournament Teams

- Named one of three team captains for the 2009-10 season. She was also a tri-captain in 2008-09.

Career:

- Fifth on CU's all-time list for 3-point field goals made (190) and third in attempts (510).

- As a junior, she tied school records for 3-pointers made in one game (7) and one half (5) in twice in a three-game span (at Missouri & home vs. Nebraska)

- As a junior, ranked second in the Big 12 in 3-point accuracy (.382) and her 2.2 3-pointers per game ranked third among all league players.

- Her 143 3-pointers from 2007-09 is the second-best two-year span in team history.

- Made 112 3-pointers in her first two seasons, the second most by a CU player, trailing only Shelley Sheetz who had 128 from 1991-93.

- Set single-season school records for 3-point field goals made (80) and attempted (217) as a sophomore.

- Named CU's Most Improved Player for 2007-08.

- Named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10, 2007, after averaging 19.0 points on 57 percent shooting in wins over #22/21 Wyoming and #20/17 Vanderbilt.

- As a sophomore, ranked fourth in the Big 12 in 3-point field goals made (2.4 mpg) and in 3-point percentage (.369).

- Led Colorado in free-throw percentage as a sophomore (.857).

- Had the sixth most 3-point field goals among freshmen in the Big 12 in 2007 with 32 and ranked 14th on the Big 12 charts in 3-point field-goal percentage (.348).

- Sat out the 2005-06 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program.

- A 2005 graduate of Bellaire High School where she was a four-year letter winner as a guard/forward. She earned District MVP and first team all-district honors as a senior, leading Bellaire to a 36-5 record and averaging 18.5 points and 15.3 rebounds per game.

- She won an AAU national championship with the Houston Elite club program. Smith's high school honors include being named a Houston Girls Athlete of the Week.

- Her step-father Johnnie played football for the University of Houston and the San Francisco 49ers for five years, helping the 49ers to a NFL title in Super Bowl XXIV.

#3 Whitney Houston, 5-5, Junior, Guard, Memphis, Tenn. (Hillcrest)

This Season:

- Played in her first game since April 2008, scoring 11 points on 5-of-10 shooting and two steals against UC Irvine.

- Missed the Illinois-Chicago game with a slight concussion sustained in the season opener, but returned against Minnesota scoring 10 points and dishing out three assists.

- A 2006 graduate of Hillcrest High School in Memphis where she led the Lady Vikings to the Tennessee Class AA state title as a senior. She was the state tournament MVP as Hillcrest finished with a 35-3 record and delivered the Memphis area its first girls Division 1 basketball state title in 21 years.

- A Miss Basketball finalist in Tennessee, averaging 19 points, six assists and three rebounds per game as a senior. She was a Class AA All-State first team selection and also earned Class AA All-Metro and District MVP honors.

- A four-time member of the Memphis Commercial Appeal's Best of the Preps/All-Metro Class A-AA team and was one of five finalists for the overall girls basketball Best of the Preps award as a junior and senior.

- She lists the biggest moments of her career as being inducted into the Honor Society and winning the state championship.

Career:

- Redshirted the 2008-09 season after suffering a season-ending knee injury in preseason workouts.

- Named CU's "Sixth Man" Award winner for 2007-08. She was CU's leader in scoring and assists among those players who primarily came off the bench.

- Averaged 9.5 points and two assists in four 2008 WNIT games and turned the ball over just five times, and only once in the final three games.

- Had 15 3-pointers in 2008-09 after going just 1-of-17 in 29 games as a freshman.

- Won the team's Most Improved Player Award after the 2006-07 season.

- Led CU in assists with 64 in 2006-07, the first freshman to do so since Linda Lappe did it in 1998-99.

- Ranked fifth in assists (2.2) and eighth in scoring (7.9 ppg) among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference.

#14 Meagan Malcolm-Peck, 6-2, Freshman, Forward, Boulder, Colo. (Horizon)

This Season:

- Leads Colorado with nine blocked shots and is second in rebounding at 5.8 through three games.
- Got the starting nod against UC Irvine, marking the fourth straight season the Buffaloes had a freshman in the season opening starting lineup.
- She had a memorable start, grabbing 11 rebounds against UC Irvine, six of which came on the offensive end. Her 11 boards are the third most in team history by a freshman in her CU debut and the most in 27 years

- In the summer of 2008 she played with the Blue Star Select Team, traveling to Reze, France, playing on the same team with her sister and current teammate Melissa MacFarlane.

- Was home schooled along with her twin sister and teammate, Brenna, while playing for Horizon which is located in Thornton, Colo.

- She is the younger of the Malcolm-Peck twins, born 27 minutes after Brenna on Oct. 8, 1990.

Career:

- A 2009 Denver Post Colorado Class 5A All-State first team selection.
- Averaged 18.4 points and 8 rebounds as a senior guiding Horizon 25-2 record and a spot in the state semifinals.
- Horizon was ranked No. 1 in state most of the year and won the Front Range League title and the Black Division crown at the Nike Tournament of Champions where she was named MVP.
- Honorable mention all-state pick as a junior.

#15 Julie Seabrook, 6-3, Sophomore, Forward, North Vancouver, B.C. (St. Mary's/NEDA)

This Season:

- Made her first collegiate start in the season opener against UC Irvine.
- Came off the bench in the two Subway Classic games, grabbing five rebounds, four of which came in the Illinois-Chicago game.

- Assisted in Canada qualifying for Worlds, with a second place finish in July 2008 at the FIBA Americas U18 Championship for Women in Argentina.

- Spent her "senior" year playing with Canada Basketball's National Elite Development Academy (NEDA), a national training program.

- Prior to joining the NEDA program, she played for Carson Graham Secondary School in North Vancouver where she was the Provincial MVP in 2006 and the Lower Mainlands MFP in 2007.

- Three-year member of the British Columbia Provincial team, winning a gold medal at the 2006 U17 National Championships.

Career:

- As a first year Buff, ranked fifth in field goal percentage and ninth in rebounding among freshmen in the Big 12.

- Logged her first career double-double with 12 points and 13 rebounds against Idaho State.

- Grabbed eight offensive rebounds against Idaho State, the most by a CU player since Jackie McFarland also had eight against Oklahoma on Jan. 20, 2007.

- Her 12 points off the bench against Idaho State were the most by a CU player in 2008-09.

- Helped the Canadian Junior National Team to a fourth place finish at the 2009 FIBA U19 World Championship for Women in Thailand, the country's best championship finish in that age group.

#22 Brittany Spears, 6-1, Junior, Forward, Pasadena, Calif. (Pasadena/Notre Dame Prep)

This Season:

- Named the Big 12 Women's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on Nov. 23. Her fifth career Big 12 weekly honor, and first as Player of the Week. She earned four Big 12 Rookie of the Week citations as a freshman in 2007-08.
- As a sophomore on the Big 12 charts ranked second in minutes, third in scoring, fourth in defensive rebounds, seventh in overall rebounds, eighth in steals and 3-point percentage, ninth in blocks, 10th in field-goal percentage 12th in 3-pointers made and 14th in free-throw percentage.
- Named Omni Hotels Classic MVP, averaging 15.5 points and 9.0 rebounds over the two games.
- Her 18.3 point average as a sophomore stands as the sixth best single-season mark in team history and her 530 points rank ninth.
- Named to the Minnesota Subway Classic All-Tournament team after averaging 23 points and 10 rebounds in two games.
- The fifth player in team history with 400 points in each of her first two seasons, and the fourth to do it as a freshman-sophomore.
- Recorded her 18th career double-double and third of the season with 11 points and 11 rebounds against Harvard.
- Played all 40 minutes in a three-game stretch starting with the Missouri game. She is the first CU player to play 40 or more minutes in three straight games since Mandy Nightingale in 2000. In all played 172 consecutive minutes over five games (Oklahoma to Kansas).
- Her 10.4 rebounds per game lead the Big 12 and her 19 points per game rank fourth. She has double-doubles in three of five games, tying for the league lead. Spears also ranks second in both offensive (3.8) and defensive (6.6) rebounding, sixth in minutes (34.4) and eighth in blocks (1.6 bpg) and steals (2.2 spg) on the Big 12 charts.
- Named MVP of the Paradise Classic averaging 16 points, 7 rebounds and 3 blocks over the two game tournament. Averaged 26 points in the two games of the Coors Classic, earning All-Tournament honors.
- Career:
- Scored a career high 36 points against UMass, a Classic record and tying for the third best total in team history (Jasmina Ilic scored 36 against Nebraska on Jan. 4, 2006). She also set Classic records for field goals in one game (12 vs. UMass) and field goal attempts over two games (40).
- 2009 All-Big 12 Conference second team selection.
- Named to the All-Big 12 Rookie team and received honorable mention to the all-conference team.
- The second player in team history -- joining CU Athletic Hall of Famer Lisa Van Goor -- to reach 1,000 career points by the end of a sophomore season. Overall was the 22nd Buff to reach 1,000 and the second fastest.
- Named Big 12 Rookie of the Week four times in 2007-08, becoming the first CU player to earn four Big 12 weekly honors in the same season.
- On CU's career charts ranks seventh in blocked shots (93), eighth in 3-pointers made (110) and attempted (344), 17th in rebounding (538) and 19th in scoring (1,097).

- The fourth different player, and second freshman, in team history to accomplish 450 points and 250 rebounds.

- The first player in team history to record 50 assists, 50 blocks and 50 steals in the same season and just the second to reach 40 in all three categories. Raegan Scott did it twice, as a junior in 1995-96 and senior in 1996-97.

- Second in scoring (472), tied with Erin Scholz (1993-94) for second in blocks (52), third in rebounds (259) and fifth in steals (57) on CU's all-time freshman charts.

- Ranked first among freshmen in the Big 12 in scoring (13.9 ppg), rebounding (7.6 rpg) and blocked shots (1.5 bpg) and was also second in steals (1.7 spg) third in free-throw percentage (.817) and fourth in assists (1.9 apg).

-- Overall in the Big 12 was fourth in defensive rebounds (5.8 rpg), seventh in blocks, eighth in overall rebounding, ninth in 3-point percentage (.312), 11th in 3-point field goals (1.7 3mpg) and field-goal percentage (.425) and 13th in steals and scoring.

- Her career high of 24 points came in her Big 12 debut against Missouri. It was the second-best output by a Buff in her conference opener, trailing only the 25 scored by CU Athletic Hall of Famer Shelley Sheetz at Nebraska in 1992.

BOULDER - Whitney Houston returned with a rush on Sunday. It almost made her year's absence worthwhile. Almost.

In her first game back after missing last season due to knee surgery, the junior point guard hit a layup and a three-pointer in crunch time to help push the Colorado women's basketball team past UC Irvine 61-56 in CU's season opener.

The Buffaloes trailed 33-19 at halftime. Rallying from that 14-point deficit at intermission ties for the third-largest comeback in school history.

Houston's layup gave the Buffaloes their first lead (54-52) of the game. Then she followed with her trey from the top of the key to allow CU breathing room it hadn't enjoyed for most of the afternoon.

"I guess I can say we needed it," Houston said of her late heroics. "It's my responsibility as a point guard . . . to give us that spark."

That she could provide it when necessary is a testament to her perseverance. "When you (miss) a year, nobody can duplicate that time off," Buffs coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "She's still finding her role and trying to figure it out."

Houston and teammate Bianca Smith finished with 11 points each, seven fewer than team high-scorer Brittany Spears, who opened her junior season with a double-double (18 points, 14 rebounds).

Attribute it to a case of opening afternoon jitters at the Coors Events Center, maybe the weekend snowstorm or perhaps something else outlandish, but it would have been difficult to imagine the Buffs starting more ineffectively. CU quickly found themselves behind 18-7 with 10 minutes to play in the half.

McConnell-Miller said her team's first half "was not up to expectations," adding UCI "came in with the mentality to win." While she was "proud of the way my team fought back to win," she said she doesn't want the Buffs to continue to put themselves in that position. "I don't like having to come back," she said.

How did the slow start happen? For starters, CU hit just four of its first 15 shots (26.7 percent) from the field and had trouble stopping UCI (0-2) in transition.

Rebounding was an early problem, too, with the Buffs finding themselves outboarded 16-7 with 7:48 left in the half. They managed to right themselves on the boards (CU outrebounded UCI 50-32 for the game), but their shooting stayed frigid through the opening half.

By halftime, CU was only 8-20 from the field (28.6 percent) and UCI was up 33-19, with Smith-Williams' dozen points - which included three-of-three from behind the arc - leading all scorers and keying a pair of 10-0 runs.

CU scored nine points to open the second half, pulling to within five (33-28) before UCI coach Molly Goodenough called a timeout with 16:33 to play.

The five-point deficit was as close as the Buffs had been since trailing 22-17. But after an Anteaters turnover out of the timeout, Alyssa Fressle hit a short jumper in the lane and CU had trimmed the margin to 33-30.

A put-back by freshman Meagan Malcolm-Peck made it 33-32 and completed CU's 13-0 run to open the second half. With 14:15 to play, Smith-Williams' two free throws finally earned UCI its first second-half points.

But just as suddenly, the Anteaters were off and running again, outscoring the Buffs 12-2 over the next 4 minutes to reclaim a double-digit advantage (45-34) with just under 10 minutes remaining.

UCI matched its biggest lead of the afternoon - 14 points - on a layup by Kim Barnes that made the score 50-36.

But Houston and the Buffs weren't done. Smith's three-pointer and a three-point play by Spears helped bring them to 52-48 with 4:03 left.

A pair of free throws by Spears half a minute later pulled CU to 52-50. She tied the score at 52-52 on a short jumper, then watched her roommate, Houston, give the Buffs their first lead with 1:38 to play.

After Houston's clutch three-pointer, Kelly Jo Mullaney and Smith added two free throws each in the final 17.6 seconds to seal the win.

MINNEAPOLIS - Kelly Jo Mullaney was focused on returning home, and Kathy McConnell-Miller saw it on the floor.

In front of numerous family members and friends, Mullaney scored 11 of her 13 points in the second half to help propel Colorado to a 63-49 win over Illinois-Chicago in the opening game of the 2009 Subway Classic at Williams Arena on the campus of the University of Minnesota.

Mullaney, a Minneapoli native who won a state championship with The Breck School on this floor in 2004, hit 4-of-7 from the field, including two 3-pointers, and corralled seven rebounds to give the Buffaloes their second straight 2-0 season start.

"Kelly Jo's preparation this week was unlike anything I had seen from her in her past three years at Colorado," McConnell-Miller said. "She was focused, determined and had a confidence about her we hadn't seen before. She wanted to come back home and perform at her best. She played a great floor game tonight and we're just proud she was able to do that in Minnesota."

Junior Brittany Spears, who battled foul trouble and played an unusually long 25 minutes, still led Colorado in scoring with 19 points. She nabbed seven rebounds and was a perfect 6-of-6 from the line.

The Buffaloes (2-0) will face Minnesota on Sunday at 5 p.m. MST. UIC falls to 0-3 and will play the Gophers on Saturday.

Colorado led the entire way, but could not distance themselves from the Flames until late. Both teams were stoned cold in the first half. CU held Illinois-Chicago to just 21 percent shooting in the first 20 minutes, but didn't fare much better on its end making only 25 percent (7-of-28).

The Buffaloes looked to be on the brink of pulling away as they built a 14-6 lead with 8:38 remaining in the first half, but the Flames scored eight straight to tie the game at 14. Mullaney then scored her first points on a put back by a Chucky Jeffery miss to give CU the lead for good. Bianca Smith followed with a 3-pointer to widen the gap back to five before the Buffaloes settled for a 21-17 halftime lead.

UCI cut the lead to 28-25 early in the second half on a Jasmine Bailey 3-point play, but the Buffaloes had an answer for each Flames' run, and Mullaney was in the middle them all. After Bailey's free throw, Mullaney missed a field goal at the other end but got her own rebound and kicked it out to Smith for her second 3-pointer of the game that sparked a 16-8 run that included a Mullaney 3-pointer.

The Flames crept back to within 44-40 when Taylor Foulks hit her second 3-pointer of the game with 6:34 left. Mullaney responded on the other end with a 3-pointer of her own, and after a stop, Spears hit one from deep to give CU its first double-digit lead. Mullaney followed that with a long two of her own to put CU in front 52-40 with 5:01 remaining.

"It was really exciting, I love being back home and having all my family and friends here," Mullaney said. "

Colorado was much improved shooting in the second half, making 46 percent (12-of-26). The Buffaloes cemented the game at the line. CU was 14-of-18 from the free throw line in the second half, 18-of-23 overall.

Smith ended with 10 points. Senior Courtney Dunn, making her first career start, responded with seven points and career highs with eight rebounds and three blocks. Melissa MacFarlane and Brenna Malcolm-Peck each made their collegiate debuts.

"We had some different combinations out there," McConnell-Miller said. "It was a good feeling to be able to go to our bench and get the minutes we did."

Colorado dominated the boards for a second straight game, outrebounding IUC 52-35. The Buffaloes had 17 second-chance points.

Bailey had 11 points and eight rebounds to lead IUC.

BOULDER - Colorado head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller was expecting her freshman class to have an impact this season, and so far that's exactly what is happening.

Freshmen Meagan Malcolm-Peck and Chucky Jeffery combined for 23 points, 13 rebounds and seven steals to help lift Colorado to a 62-50 win over Georgia Southern in the first round of the 2009 Omni Hotels Classic Friday at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

The Buffaloes, 3-1 overall for the first time since 2003-04, will play Harvard in the championship game on Saturday at 7 p.m. Earlier on Friday, Harvard held off New Orleans 60-57. Georgia Southern and New Orleans will play in the consolation game at 4:30 p.m.

CU junior Brittany Spears led all players with 20 points.

Malcolm-Peck had a career-high 12 points, on 5-of-8 shooting, with seven rebounds, three blocks and two steals.

"I think the goal is always to contribute however you can and just make an impact," Malcolm-Peck said. "So whether it's hustling and getting a rebound and kicking out to Bianca [Smith] to get a three or anyway you can help the team. I just focus on that and its fun."

Jeffery had 11 points, six rebounds and five steals in 19 minutes of playing time. Jeffery has started the last three games while Malcolm-Peck has started all four.

"When I start I feel like I have to do well so I can stay on the floor and get my team off to a good start," Jeffery said. "Like (coach) said I need to let the bad things go and move forward."

The Buffaloes jumped out to a 10-0 lead, hitting four of their first six shots including 3-pointers by Malcolm-Peck and Spears. Conversely, Georgia Southern made just one of its first 10.

But that start quickly faded as the Buffaloes went cold, and were bit by the turnover bug at the same time the Eagles started heating up.

Colorado missed 10 straight shots which allowed Georgia Southern to counter the Buffs' opening run, with a 14-0 run of their and led 17-14 with 6:13 left in the half. Turnovers didn't help the Buffaloes cause either. CU committed 22 in the game, 13 of which came in the first 20 minutes.

CU rebounded to take a 21-20 lead at halftime. Both freshmen starters keyed big second half runs to allow the Buffs to put the game away.

With the Buffaloes up 27-26, Malcolm-Peck hit a 3-pointer and followed that up with a steal and layup to ignite a 17-7 run that put CU up 44-33 with 10:20 left. Carolyn Whitney and Candice Ivy had consecutive buckets for the Eagles to cut the CU lead to seven.

Jeffery took care of the next CU run. The Colorado Springs native had five points, three offensive rebounds and two assists as the Buffaloes outscored the Eagles 13-3 over a six minute span. Colorado had its largest lead at 57-40 with 3:32 remaining in the game, before a late Eagles' run narrowed the gap.

"We came back in the second half and played with great intensity, which we were talking a great deal about at halftime," McConnell-Miller said. "There were some great moments tonight."

Whitney led Georgia Southern with 11 points and eight rebounds. The Eagles committed 25 turnovers and shot just 26 percent from the field.

BOULDER - Freshman guard Chucky Jeffery hit a driving layup with five seconds remaining to give Colorado the Omni Hotels Classic title with a 67-65 win over Harvard in the Championship game at the Coors Events Center.

After Harvard's Victoria Lippert sank two free throws to tie the game at 65-65 with 0:35 left, the Buffaloes put the ball in the hands of Jeffery for the final possession. Jeffery, who finished with 14 points, ran the clock down at the top and left of the 3-point arc and broke down the middle of the lane for the decisive score as the shot clock expired.

Harvard guard Brogan Berry raced down the court with the ball, but her 30-foot 3-pointer bounced off the front of the rim as Colorado improved to 4-1 overall for the first time since 2003-04.

"It's real exciting," Jeffery said. "Being a freshman and having the coaches trust me enough to put the ball in my hands to make the last shot feels real good. I'm so excited."

Jeffery's chance was born from a similar possession at the end of the first half. Leading 31-29, CU ran down the clock late in the first half where Jeffery was able to get into the paint to score to put CU up four with :07 left. However, she went too early, giving Harvard time to get set on the other end where Christine Matera connected on a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

Despite going too early, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller knew Jeffery was an option at the end.

"Why put the ball in a freshman's hands? The determining factor at that point was how Chucky handled that possession at the end of the first half; we had set it up for a drive and she had gone a little too early, but with that said she made it."

It was also the Harvard defense. The Crimson were clamping down on CU's outside shot, which had generated nine 3-point buckets during the game. Jeffery had also been able to get to the rim on three possessions before the final drive.

"At the end of the game we basically ran a variation of the play and at that time really dictated the time she went to the rim and had our two shooters spotted up waiting on her. She executed it and I'm proud of her."

Her shooters on the wings were captains Brittany Spears and Bianca Smith, and even though they didn't get the call on the final play, there wouldn't have been a final play for Jeffery if it wasn't for their strong performances.

Smith had a season-high 22 points off the bench, hitting 6-of-11 3-point shots. Spears recorded her third double-double in five games with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Jeffery, Smith and Spears were each named to the All-Tournament team. Spears, who had 20 points in Friday's game against Georgia Southern, was the Tournament MVP.

Emma Markleyed Harvard Saturday night with 24 points, on 10-of-15 shooting, and four blocks. Her 10 blocks over the two games, set a Classic record.

CU was fighting from behind all night. The Crimson led by as much as nine in both halves, while the Buffs' largest lead was four.

Harvard led 46-37 with 14:35 remaining, when the Buffaloes, led by Smith tightened the game for good. Smith hit two of her six 3's to cut the Harvard advantage to 48-43.

Jackie Alemany made good on a long 3-pointer to put HU back up by six. Spears countered with a couple free throws and HU led 52-47.

The Buffaloes gobbled up that lead with a pair of 3-pointers. Freshman Meagan Malcolm-Peck hit the first one from the corner and Kelly Jo Mullaney hit one from the top of the key to give CU a 53-52 lead. The score stayed within four points for the rest of the way.
