NEXT UP: The NCAA Mountain Regions are on Nov. 12 in Provo, Utah. The race will be held at the East Bay Golf Course and is hosted by Brigham Young University.

THE SCHEDULE: The Men's 10k race is at 11 a.m. (MT) with the women to follow at 12 p.m. An awards ceremony will follow at approximately 1 p.m.

WHAT HAPPENED LAST YEAR: Colorado swept the men's and women's races. Renee Metivier was the top female finisher for CU for the second straight year. Metivier took home the individual crown while Brent Vaughn took fifth overall to pace the CU men.

BUFFALO DOMINANCE: The Colorado men have only given up two NCAA Mountain Region titles in the last nine years. Last year was the first time a CU runner did not place first on the men's side. Sophomore Brent Vaughn finished fifth overall as the top runner and the men took top honors. The women have won three region titles and have taken six runner-up finishes. Renee Metivier led the pack last year as she took the individual crown and was the top CU female runner for the second consecutive year at the event.

All-BIG 12 PERFORMERS: Colorado placed eight (four men and four women) on the All-Big 12 Team. The team consists of the top 15 runners in the men's and women's races. Senior Christine Bolf was the top women's racer in the 6k loop and earned her second straight All-Big 12 honor. Bolf finished in 20 minutes and 24 seconds. Freshman Jenny Barringer was the runner-up and was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year as the top first-year runner. She finished 10 second behind Bolf and became the fourth CU women's runner to receive the honor. Liza Pasciuto placed sixth and Kalin Toedebusch finished 11th as each earned her second All-Big 12 honor.

Sophomore Stephen Pifer earned his first All-Big 12 honor as CU's top finisher in the men's race. He finished the 8k loop in 23:56 and placed fifth overall. Seniors Bret Schoolmeester and Billy Nelson were sixth and ninth, respectively and recorded their third time on the team. Sophomore James Strang was eighth to earn his first appearance on the team.

BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR: The University of Colorado Head Cross Country Coach Mark Wetmore has been named the 2005 Big 12 Conference Men's and Women's Cross Country Coach of the Year, the league's offices announced today. This is the ninth time he has been named the coach of the year on the men's side and the eighth time on the women's side. The award is voted on by the league's coaches.

Wetmore's squads swept the 2005 Big 12 Cross Country team titles for the seventh straight year. The women notched 38 points to defeat runner-up Oklahoma State (58) and the men recorded 44 points as they bested Texas (52). It was the 10th consecutive Big 12 title for the men and the ninth overall for the women.

10 Great Years: Mark Wetmore just celebrated his 10th full year of coaching the CU Cross Country teams on Nov. 6. Wetmore has led the men to 10 Big 12 Titles and the women to nine. The men and women's teams have each earned two NCAA Championships under his leadership.

THROWING A 1-2 PUNCH: The Colorado women have a dynamic duo in senior Christine Bolf and freshman Jenny Barringer. Bolf has finished first in every one of her races this year, while Barringer has finished second for CU in every race and has two runner-up finishes for the 1-2 punch.

BIG 12 RUNNERS OF THE WEEK (Oct. 17): Seniors Bret Schoolmeester and Christine Bolf were named the Big 12 Runners of the Week for their performances on Oct. 15. It is the first time either has been named the Big 12 Runner of the Week. Schoolmeester, a Sedalia, Colo., native, paced Colorado to a first-place finish in the "White" race at the NCAA Pre-Nationals in Terre Haute, Ind., as he finished the 8k loop in 23 minutes and 44 seconds to finish third overall. The time was the best finish he has had at pre-nationals as he improved by 13 seconds from last season. Bolf, a Los Angeles, Calif., native, took top honors in the women's "White" race, completing the 6k loop in 20 minutes and 39 seconds. She helped the Buffs finish fourth out of 34 teams in the race. This was her second straight first-place finish of the season. Bolf also took top honors at the Rocky Mountain Shootout on Oct. 1.

ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12

The University of Colorado cross country program placed 13 on the Academic All-Big 12 teams, the conference office announced Tuesday.

Senior harrier Austin Baillie is making his third appearance on the Academic All-Big 12 First Team. Baillie, a mechanical engineering major, was a member in 2003 and 2004.

He is joined by eight teammates on the first team who have a grade point average of 3.20 or better. Those named to the second team have a 3.0-3.19 grade point average. Christine Bolf (accounting), Payton Batliner (music), Will Campbell (history), Kristen Hoogheem (biological science) and Daniel Kenney (business) were named to the first team for the second time in their careers. Bret Schoolmeester (Spanish) is making his first appearance on the first team after being a second team selection last season. Seniors Erik Heinonen (news editorial) and Kalin Toedebusch (sociology) earned their first Academic All-Big 12 selection.

Greg Castro (advertising), Anthony Chiulli (management), Peter Janson (biology) and Shanna Sparks (sociology) were named to the second team.

CU PLACES 5 ON BIG 12 CROSS COUNTRY 10TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

The University of Colorado cross country program placed five of its former athletes on the Big 12 10th Anniversary Team. Jorge Torres, Adam Goucher and Dathan Ritzenhein made up the men's team and Sara (Gorton) Slattery and Kara Grgas-Wheeler were selected to the women's team.

The teams of three were selected by the league's head coaches. In order to be eligible for consideration, former athletes must have had a top three finish at Big 12 Championships at least once in their careers. The Big 12 Conference formed in 1996. Amy Mortimer, Kansas State, was the third woman named to the team.

Torres, currently a volunteer assistant coach for CU, won the Big 12 individual crown three times (2000-02). Torres was the 2002 NCAA Champion as he finished the season undefeated. The three-time All-American was the NCAA runner-up in 2001 and placed third in 2000.

Goucher took top honors in the Big 12 on two occasions (1997-98) and won the NCAA crown in 1998. With the win, he set the Rim Rock Course record at 29:26.9. Goucher, a four-time All-American, was the national runner-up in 1994, took sixth in 96 and earned a third-place finish in 97. He was also the Big Eight Champion in 1995 before the Big 12 was formed.

Ritzenhein won the Big 12 and NCAA Championships in 2003. A two-time All-American, he was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year in 2001 and was the highest finishing freshman in a national championship race since Adam Goucher's second-place finish in 1994.

Slattery was a three-time All-American (2000, 02, 04). She finished fifth at the 2002 NCAA's and led the Buffs to a fifth-place finish. At the 2000 NCAA Championships she was the highest finishing Colorado freshman in the program's history with an eighth-place effort. With the finish, she also became the Buffs first female freshman All-American.

Grgas-Wheeler, won two Big 12 title (1999, 2000) and was the 2000 Champion as she led the CU women to their first national championship. In that same season, she went undefeated and became the first individual national champion since 1994 to be on the national championship team. Grgas-Wheeler was a two-time All-American.

The Buffs are in Waco, Texas, to participate at the Big 12 Championships at the Bear Run Cross Country Course on Friday, Oct. 28. The men will race at 10 a.m. (CT) and the women will follow at 11. CU has swept the last six conference titles. The men and women have each taken eight of the nine conference individual crowns.
