BUFFALOES IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT...It's a short history that is quickly developing into a Buffalo tradition. Four years ago the Buffs received the program's first-ever NCAA Championship bid, one of just 10 teams to do so. But they were the only first-year participant that received one of 16 seeds, coming in as the 10th. Despite their seed and regular season Big 12 title (the league sent an NCAA record eight teams to the postseason), the Buffs were sent to Salt Lake City where they faced a veteran BYU squad that took full advantage of CU's lack of tournament experience, ending CU's season in the very first game of the '03 championship, 2-0. In 2004, the Buffs went to Portland, where they upended Utah 3-0 for their first ever NCAA Tournament win before falling to host team Portland 3-0. Two years ago the Buffs were sent to UCLA to take on UC Riverside, who they tied 0-0 and then advanced on penalty kicks. CU then lost 3-0 to No. 1 seed UCLA on Sunday. Last year, Colorado earned their fourth-straight appearance, and a No. 4 seed, and were selected as one of 16 hosts for the first and second rounds. Colorado played to a 2-1 comeback win over Colorado College in the first round and advanced to the Sweet 16 after a thrilling 2-1 victory over Denver in the second round. Colorado fell in the third round to No. 1 seed Notre dame in South Bend, Ind. 3-0 to close out their finest season yet. The Buffs are 4-4-1 in NCAA Tournament Play.

LAST TIME OUT... The Buffaloes faced the University of Hawaii on Friday in the first of the NCAA Tournament and recorded their ninth shutout of the season in the 2-0 win. Freshman Michaela DeJesus assisted both of the Buffalo goals by Gianna DeSaverio and Mel Hicks. DeSaverio's goal was the first goal the Rainbow Wahine had allowed in six matches.

LINDER RANKS... Colorado goalkeeper, sophomore Kara Linder, with a 0.27 GAA average this season, is gradually making her way to the top of the all-time goalkeeper statistics. She currently sits in the No. 1 slot for career goals against average with 0.70. Linder has seen action in 11 games this season and has only allowed two goals. She also owns 4.5 shutouts with an overall record of 5-2-1 when she is CU's netminder. With those stats, Linder holds down the No. 1 spot for save percent (0.913) and goals against average (0.27) in a single season.

PERFECT 10...With the 2-0 win over Hawaii, Colorado recorded their 10th win of the season. Under head coach Bill Hempen, the Buffs have gone six-straight seasons with at least 10 wins.

HONORABLE...The Big 12 announced it's postseason honors on Nov. 5 and five Buffaloes were selected. Sophomore Nikki Marshall and junior Michelle Wenino were named First Team All-Big 12. While this is Marshall's second time, Wenino is just the fourth Buff to earn that distinction joining Fran and Laura Munnely as sometime First Team picks. Junior Nikki Keller earned Second Team All-Big 12 honors, the second time she's been named to an All-Conference Team. Freshmen Michaela DeJesus and Kym Lowry were named to the Big 12 All-Newcomer team, the 12th and 13th Buff to be so honored.

NOW THAT'S JUST OFFENSIVE... Colorado put 11 shots on goal against Texas in the first round of the Big 12 Tournament last week. The Buffs' offensive effort against the Longhorns was the second-most shots on goal in a single game all season, with the most (14) coming against Fairfield in just the second game of the year.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN... For just the second time in school history, the Buffs won two road games in one weekend against Oklahoma and Oklahoma State on Oct. 26-28, giving them a total of five wins on the road so far this season. The only other time Colorado has won two away games in one weekend was in 2003 when they played at Texas Tech and Baylor. The five road wins this season also mark the second-most wins on the road as they won six during the 2003 campaign.

FAST RECORDS... Sophomore forward Nikki Marshall's goal against Oklahoma on Sunday, Oct. 28, just 27 seconds into overtime, was the quickest overtime goal in program history, besting the previous mark of 91:06, set by former Buff Melissa Cartmell in 1998, by 39 seconds. Freshman Michaela DeJesus' goal in the Utah game on Sept. 6 came just 52 seconds into the match, going down as the quickest goal in the 11 year history of the program, shattering the previous record of 1:33 set by Jen Almquist vs. Hawai'i in 1996 by 41 seconds. The goal came off a Natalie Weeks corner kick that found the foot of DeJesus and she volleyed the ball over the keeper's head and into the back of the net.

SHUTTING THEM OUT... The Buffs have shutout their opponents on nine different occasions this season with 0-0 ties against BYU, New Mexico, and Texas, and shutout wins against Denver, Drake, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa State and Hawaii. This marks the fourth time in the history of the program that the Buffs have recorded nine or more shutouts in a single season.

PACKING THEM IN... Colorado played No. 1 ranked Stanford on Friday, Sept. 21 and the Buffs welcomed a school record 3,128 fans. Head football coach Dan Hawkins and the football team were also in attendance. The record-breaking crowd topped the previous record at Prentup Field by 1,239 people, set last year in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Colorado College. The all-time record, before the Stanford game, was set in 1998 when the Buffs played No. 1 North Carolina in front of an even 3,000 fans at Pleasant View Soccer Complex.

MARSHA(LL), MARSHA(LL), MARSHA(LL)... The 2006 Big 12 Rookie of the Year Nikki Marshall is within four points of Melissa Cartmell (61) at No. 3 on Colorado's career points list. With her goal against Oklahoma, Marshall is now tied for third with Cartmell on the all-time career goals list with 26. Marshall now owns 11 career gamewinning goals, good for second on the CU all-time gamewinning goal list and is only two away from the No. 1 spot. Her nine goals and 20 points on the year are team highs.

HONOR ROLL... Junior Alex Cousins was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week for games played from Oct. 22-28. This is the first weekly accolade for Cousins in her career. Cousins was also named to the Soccer Buzz Elite Team of the Week for the second time in her career.

CLASS REPRESENTATION... The four-goal combination in the Utah game marked just the second time in program history that at least one freshman, sophomore, junior and senior each scored a goal in a single match, but the first time in history that it has happened in just one half of play. The goals came from freshman Michaela DeJesus, Sophomore Nikki Marshall, Junior Gianna DeSaverio and Senior Allison Kidd. The previous four-class production came in 2005 when the Buffs beat Texas Tech 5-0. Responsible for those were freshman Michelle Wenino, sophomore Allison Kidd, junior Katie Griffin (two goals) and senior Kathryn Grandinetti.

YOUNG GUNS... The Buffs have two seniors, seven juniors, eight sophomores and 14 freshmen on the 2007 squad. At any time on the field, there can be up to eight underclassmen racking up minutes for the Buffs.

HEAD COACH BILL HEMPEN... Hemen is in his seventh season as Colorado's head coach and since his arrival the Buffs have gone 74-50-19 (.597) overall and 35-27-8 (.565) in Big 12 Conference play. Included in five straight top-five league finishes is the 2003 Big 12 Championship and that season's player, rookie and coach of the year in addition to 22 player appearances on All-Big 12 teams. Hemen is among the all-time winningest coaches in NCAA Division I women's soccer history, with 239 career wins, good for 19th on the active list.

LARGEST FRESHMAN CLASS IN HISTORY... With 14 freshmen (more than an entire team) signing letters of intent or walking on for this season, the freshman class is the largest in the program's now 12 year history, surpassing last years team that had 13 on the roster.

PRESEASON PICKS... The Buffs kicked off the season ranked No. 14 in the nation according to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America preseason poll and are picked to finish third in Big 12 action. Colorado, coming off a 14-6-4 season in 2006, also appeared in the Soccer Buzz preseason poll at No. 21 and in the Soccer America Preseason Women's Top 25 poll at No. 10.

MARSHALL RANKS... Sophomore forward Nikki Marshall, coming off a summer as a member of the United States U-20 National Team, was named to the Soccer America Preseason Women's All-American Team as well as to the Preseason All-Big 12 Soccer Team, both for the first time in her career. Marshall is the first Buffalo in program history to be named to the Soccer American Preseason All-American team and this marks the fifth year in a row that a Buffalo has been named to the preseason All-Big 12 team, as Marshall joins three-time selection Fran Munnely, as well as former teammates Katie Griffin and Laura Munnely as the only Buffs to earn that distinction.

WHAT RETURNS IN '07... Colorado returns 13 letterwinners from a year ago and eight starters from the first CU team to make the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament. There will be an experienced player in every level of the lineup for Bill Hemen, with all of his minutes at goalkeeper returning and seven other starters back in Boulder. The majority of offense returns as 78.5 percent of the goals scored (33-42) 64.7 percent of its assists (22-34) and 72.8 percent of its shot takers

(86-118) will resume competition this fall. Individually, the Big 12's leading scorer, CU's single season record holder and U.S. U-20 national team player Nikki Marshall will be back (37 points) along with Alex Cousins (17 points), Nikki Keller (nine points) and four other Buffs with goals a year ago. Those three were starters either at forward or in the midfield in all but one of CU's 24 games in 2006. Also returning from regular appearances in the starting lineup a year ago are Michelle Wenino, Jess Quador, Allison Kidd, Brittany Dornseif and the two-header monster in goal of Kirstin Radlinski and Kara Linder. Dornseif started every game in 2006, while the other three started at least half. Radlinski and Linder saw action in 20 and 12 games, respectively.

ON MY SUMMER VACATION... Most of the Buffs have been in action, but none so much as rising sophomore Nikki Marshall, who spent the month of July with the U20 National Team at the Pan American games in Rio de Janeiro. She played every minute for the U.S. team that advanced to the finals where they fell to Brazil, 5-0. Marshall wore No. 6 for Team USA. She is the second Buff in two summers to see major U.S. Team duty, joining Katie Griffin, who spent approximately two months with the U-21 National Team, culminating in the 2006 Nordic Cup, where the United States took second. Griffin's appointment was the first appearance by a Buffalo on any national team in school history. She netted her first international goal in the Nordic Cup opener for the U.S., scoring the third goal in a 3-0 win over Denmark.

CENTURY CLUB... Colorado now boasts a record of 112-103-23 (.521) all-time, having won the program's 100th game in the victory over Texas Tech last year. Colorado surpassed the .500 winning percentage mark against Mississippi and have managed to stay beyond it since.

HOMEGROWN TALENT... Fourteen of the 30 players on the Colorado roster hail from the Centennial State this year: senior Brittany Dornseif (Littleton), juniors Alex Cousins (Ft. Collins), Nikki Keller (Arvada) and Michelle Wenino (Aurora), sophomores Ally Goodman (Cherry Hills), Nikki Marshall (Mead), Jess Quador (Littleton), Kelly Ross (Superior), and Mary White (Highlands Ranch), and freshmen Amanda Foulk (Broomfield), Kaylee Boryla (Centennial), Julia Burnett (Edwards), Brooke Hickerson (Evergreen), and Amanda Raley (Louisville).

MAPQUEST... The 2007 roster marks the second team in the history of the program to represent nine different states, the first time coming last year. However, freshmen Taryn Vitacca, Courtney Charlesworth are the first Colorado Buffs ever to hail from the states of Utah and Georgia, respectively.

THE MARSHALL PLAN... Following the 2006 season, freshman standout Nikki Marshall earned rankings on the final NCAA Women's Soccer National Ranking Summary. Marshall landed at No. 35 (out of 50 ranked) in average points per game (1.54) and No. 17 out of 50 in goals per game (0.71). Thanks to her game-high four goal effort against Clemson, Marshall tied at No. 7 of 12 in points in a single game high with eight and tied at No. 2 of nine in goals in a single game with four.
