SCOUTING THE JAYHAWKS - Kansas is rolling along with its portion of the Big 12 Conference schedule winning all nine games by an average of 11.8 points. Since their lone loss of the season in Philadelphia to Villanova, KU has won five straight by an average of 15.8 points. Three players average 10 or more points led by All-American and Preseason Player of the Year candidate Wayne Simien with 18.3 points, 10.8 rebounds per game. With four starters from its 2003 Final Four team, KU looks to run the table and duplicate its 2001-02 team by finishing a perfect 16-0 in conference play.

CU vs. KANSAS - This is the second time around against the Jayhawks this season as the conference season begins its second half. For those familiar with the KU/CU series know the traditionally nationally ranked team has dominated the series holding a 108-39 advantage. KU's only blemish in recent memory is their 60-59 loss in Boulder back on Jan. 22, 2003. CU hasn't won in Lawrence since Feb. 10, 1983 (75-74), that's 21 straight.

LAST TIME vs. KU - Wayne Simien had 23 points and 17 rebounds and Keith Langford hit a handful of big shots to help No. 2 Kansas to a 76-61 victory over surprisingly persistent Colorado. The Buffaloes rallied from a 17-point deficit in the first half narrowing its margin to 45-44. Glean Eddy finished with five points and a career-high 12 boards, six on the offensive glass. Chris Copeland had 22 points and 11 rebounds for his then-fourth career double-double and Richard Roby scored 14 points for CU (Story and box on page 29).

Richard Roby was named Big 12 Rookie of the Week after scoring 20 points in back-to-back games with 29 at TTU and 22 at K-State. Roby has scored a team-best 20+ points in three straight games ... Andy Osborn netted his first career CU double-double (14 pts., 10 reb. vs. Texas). Osborn had five doubles at LMU ... At TTU, Roby become the 12th player at CU to make seven, 3-pointers in a game ... Roby is second among CU freshman in scoring (15.9 ppg.) and his 29 points at TTU ranks third all-time to Chauncey Billups' 31 and 30 points, respectively against Northwestern State and Oklahoma State in 1996-97 ... Marcus Hall has led CU in assists 14 times, including the last nine games in a row, including one shared (5.7 apg.) ... CU is 3-2 in its last five games: Roby (20.4 ppg.), Hall (15.6, 6.4 apg.) and Chris Copeland (13.6, 7.2 rpg.), Osborn (10.6 ppg., 6.6 rpg.) ... Copeland has a team high six double-doubles: latest 13 pts., 10 rebs. at K-State ... Glean Eddy stands six rebounds from 300 (294); while Copeland (246) are the only players with over 200 career rebounds ... Osborn made a career-best five 3-pointers against Oklahoma State ... Hall scored his fourth 20+ game with a Big 12 best 24 points at TTU ... Roby is 18-of-20 (.900) and Hall is 20-of-25 (.800) are the team's best FT shooters under 2 minutes to play ... TEAM LEADERS: Roby (15.9 ppg.), steals (1.7), 3-pointers made (43); Ashby and Copeland (6.4 rpg.); Copeland in FG percentage (.478), blocked shots (1.6); Hall in assists (4.3).

LAST TIME OUT - Richard Roby scored 22 points, Marcus Hall added 17 and Colorado withstood a big second-half run by No. 23 Texas to beat the short-handed Longhorns 88-79 on Tuesday night. CU committed a season Big 12 low five turnovers, it's lowest against a conference opponent since Feb. 22, 2003 against Mizzou. Andy Osborn had 14 points and some key rebounds in the second half for CU, which had five players in double figures and beat the Longhorns for just the second time in nine games. The Buffaloes also hounded freshman Daniel Gibson, Texas' leading scorer the previous six games, into 4-of-12 shooting and eight turnovers. (game story and box, page 33).

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK - Richard Roby was named Phillips 66 Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week for games of Jan. 31 - Feb. 6 in voting by a panel of media covering the conference. It's Roby's second rookie of the week honor after earning his first award back on Dec. 27.

Roby posted 25.5 points per game in two outings in CU's 1-1 week. He had a career-high 29 points at Texas Tech, hitting 11-of-20 shots from the field. In a win at Kansas State (70-60), he had a game-high 22 points on 7-of-11 shooting.

The San Bernardino, Calif. native was 18-of-31 (.581) from the field and 10-of-20 (.500) from 3-point range in two games, becoming the 12th player in CU history to make seven 3-pointers in a contest when he did so versus Tech. Roby also totaled six rebounds and five steals. He leads the team in scoring with 15.6 points per game.

Roby is just the second player in school history to be named Phillips 66 Big 12 Conference Rookie of the Week twice. D. J. Harrison earned a pair of honors during the 2000-01 season.

WHAT THE BIG 12 COACHES ARE SAYING ABOUT CU'S RICHARD ROBY:

Kansas Head Coach Bill Self

"I didn't think that we did a good job on containing him, I think that he just missed some of his shots. He is going to be a really terrific player and today he proved he can play with anyone and create his shot against anyone."

Nebraska Head Coach Barry Collier

"I said it before the game that he is one of the best freshmen in the league and I think he is one of the best freshmen in the country. I was very impressed with him tonight."

Oklahoma State Head Coach Eddie Sutton

"He is a very talented, young player, and is going to be an outstanding player in this league."

Texas Head Coach Rick Barnes

"He is a wonderful player, I like his demeanor on the court, he does not get rattled out there and plays a great game. He handles himself very well, and I think that he plays a great role. He plays the role that Ricardo (Patton) wants him to play, and he does a very good job at it."

3-POINT MACHINE - CU has made 49 3-pointers in its last four games (116 attempts) with an average of .422. From the rest of the field, CU is shooting 66-of-137 (.482). During the 3-point explosion, Richard Roby has made 17 treys, followed by Chris Copeland (12), Marcus Hall (9), and Andy Osborn (8).

3's IN THE BIG 12 ONLY - Richard Roby is the highest CU player ranked among the conference elite players. Roby ranks second overall in 3-pointers made (3.00), while Chris Copeland is eighth (2.1). In trey percentage, Roby is third (.395) and Copeland is eighth (.350). As a team, the Buffs lead Oklahoma State for treys made in conference-only games 83 (8.3) to 80 (8.0), respectively.

SEE THE 3, BE THE 3 - This season CU has launched the 3-point attempt 423 times. After 21 games, CU is averaging 20.1 attempts, while making just over seven a game (7.1). Here's where CU ranks all-time in school history, made and attempts. At this pace CU will attempt 574, good enough for second all-time in school history.

BUFF BITS (part II)

With 90 assists this season, Hall is sixth among CU sophomores ... Roby's 35 steals is three from cracking the CU single-season top-30 list; Copeland's 34 blocks is tied for 16th on the single-season list ... TEAM: CU had a season and Big 12 Conference low (third all-time) five turnovers against Texas ... After 21 games played, CU has shattered last year's total of 119 3-pointers, compared to this season's 150 ... CU is 8-0 this when leading at the half; 11-0 when leading with 5-and 2-minutes to play ... CU has 49 3-pointers in the last three games (12.3) with 116 attempts (.422) ... Twice this season, CU had two players with over 20+ plus each (at Texas Tech, Nebraska) ... CU scored 61 points in the second half at TTU. The last time CU tallied 60 in a half was against Stetson (Nov. 24, 2002) ... The bench has scored 88 points in each of the last five games (17.6 ppg.) ... CU is 8-18 over the last three seasons in conference road games ... CU recorded a school record 17 treys vs. the Cowboys breaking the mark set in 2001. OSU/CU combined what is believed a conference record for two teams (30) ... Against Texas, CU had five players with 10 or more points, that's five times this season ... CU has used TEN different starting lineups and leads the Big 12 in blocked shots (6.0).

CONFERENCE MARK TO FALL - CU's amazing 3-point assault after 21 games has the conference record for treys in sight, 114 set in 2003-04. As of today's game at Kansas, CU has 83 3-pointers. What's more amazing, CU has shattered last year's sum of treys at this point last year. Even with CU record-holder Blair Wilson on the team last year, CU totaled 119 3-pointers. This year, the 2004-05 Buffs have 150!!!

3-Pointers Made	3-Point Attempts

SINGLE-DIGIT TURNOVERS - In this week's NCAA statistics, Air Force leads the nation with an incredible 9.2 turnovers a game. In CU's last game, the Buffs tallied only five against Texas. Here's the top-four since 1982.

Lowest Turnovers In A Single-Game

4, at Colorado State, 12/18/82, W, 57-55

5, Texas, 2/8/05, W, 88-79

5, Missouri, 2/22/03, W, 89-68

5, Kansas State, 1/16/82, L, 68-78

65th BEST HOOPS PROGRAM - According to the latest edition of Street & Smith's, CU is the 65th greatest program of all time. Kentucky tops the list, followed by UCLA and North Carolina. Other Big 12 schools residing in the top-100 are: Kansas (4th), Oklahoma State (13th), Kansas State (22nd), Texas (23rd), Oklahoma (24th), Missouri (25th), Iowa State (84th).

ROBY LONG GREATNESS - Freshman guard Richard Roby is setting his mark among the all-time greats at CU. After his 10-to-10 performance against Texas Tech at Texas Tech, and Kansas State, Roby ranks 10th among the school's top freshmen scorers in his career.

1) Chauncey Billups	17.9	1995-96
2) Richard Roby	15.9	2004-05
3) Emmett Lewis	15.0	1975-76
4) Donnie Boyce	14.9	1991-92
5) David Harrison	13.9	2001-02
6) Matt Bullard	12.7	1985-86
7) Randy Downs	11.9	1982-83

HOW ABOUT THOSE FRESHMEN? - Richard Roby, one of the top freshmen in the Big 12 Conference, averaging 15.9 points per game as of tonight; that not only leads the Buffaloes, but ranked 10th overall in the league. That figure stands to be the second highest average ever by a frosh in Buff history, as only Chauncey Billups averaged more, doing so with a 17.9 mark in 1995-96, while David Harrison was the last Buff to lead the team in scoring (13.9 in '01-02). For the women, two freshmen, Kara Richards (9.8) and Jackie McFarland (9.7) are within 0.2 points of the team lead; only two freshmen have ever led the Buffs in scoring, Lisa VanGoor in 1980-81 (18.5) and Linda Lappe in 1998-99 (10.7). Freshmen have never led the Buffs in scoring for both the men's and women's team in the same season.

FORMER HOOPSTER HODGES A TV STAR

- On February 16, former Buff basketball Poncho Hodges will star as the "principle character" in that evening's episode of the long running NBC television series "Law and Order." The episode will be titled "The Sixth Man," and Poncho's character name is Silas Inwood, a professional basketball player accused of murdering an over zealous fan. After Poncho left the University of Colorado, he was in camp with the Los Angeles Lakers for the 1993-94 pre-season but one of the final plays he made was the "Sixth Man" professional basketball game. In several of the top ranking games in his career, Poncho fired off several baskets in the 20th and 21st minutes of the game, pursuing a career of clutch shooting. Since he has appeared in several independent documentaries, several sports magazines, and

Recently, Poncho wrapped production on a science fiction action adventure feature film "The Other Side", which is scheduled for release in 2005 (visit the official "The Other Side" website; <http://www.entertheotherside.com/>; Poncho's character name is "OZ"). Poncho is also expected to be in Colorado for the NBA All-Star game on February 20.

DOUBLE VISION - Chris Copeland this season is one of the Big 12's leaders in double-doubles. Copeland notched his team-high sixth double at Kansas State with 13 points and 10 rebounds. Earlier this season, Copeland and Richard Roby each recorded a double-double in the home win over Northwestern, while Julius Ashby and Andy Osborn (against Texas) recorded the others. The last time CU had a pair of double-doubles was Jan. 17, 2004 at home against Iowa State (CU, 88-70), David Harrison 16 pts., 10 reb., Lamar Harris 10 pts., 19 rebounds.

Double-Doubles this Season

CU IN 8th PLACE - In the final fall NACDA/United States Sports Academy Directors' Cup Standings, the Colorado is in eighth place as the gears switch into the winter sports competitions. Notre Dame leads a tight race with 337 points, followed by Michigan (333), Stanford (332) and Duke (327) as just 10 points separate the top four schools. The fifth through eighth schools are bunched together by just 22 points: UCLA (5th, 297), Maryland (6th, 280), Ohio State (7th, 286) and Colorado (8th, 275).

FROSH LEADER - Freshman Richard Roby is making huge strides during his initial season leading the Buffaloes in scoring at 15.9 ppg. He has scored in double figures in 19 of 21 games with 20 starts. Not since the 1995-96 season has a freshman led CU in scoring (Chauncey Billups, 17.9 ppg.). Roby also leads CU in steals (35), minutes played (30.2), field goals made (120), 3-pointers made (43) and ranks third in rebounds (4.7). Roby has also led the team in rebounding four and a half time.

NOW THERE WERE 14 - CU redshirt-freshman Keith Smith was released from the team last week after violating team rules according to Coach Patton. Smith played a mere 19 seconds at California for his only action this season.

NEWCOMERS vs. RETURNEES - There are six players each representing the returnees and newcomers (walk-ons don't count). The Buffs are broken down into their respective groups of production. The returnees have a slight advantage over the newcomers:

Eddy, Obazuaye, Senger, Copeland, Hall, McGee = 815 points (38.8), 391 rebounds (18.6), 194 assists (9.2)

Osborn, Freeman, Roby, Arrington, King-Stockton, Ashby = 647 points (30.8), 351 rebounds (16.7), 129 assists (6.1)

BENCH SCORING - CU matched its highest bench point total of the season with 38 points against Gardner-Webb. In Big 12 play, CU has only scored 193 points from its bench in nine games, an average 19.3 points.

LIFE WITHOUT ASHBY - In the seven games and 33 minutes that Julius Ashby was sidelined with a tendon tear, CU went 4-4 and 1-4 in its last five. Chris Copeland was the leading scorer (16.4), rebounder (6.4), shot blocker (15), and FGs made (46-of-96, .479).

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED - Congratulations are in order to former CU student assistant Jody Woodman who recently accepted a job with SI as the associate producer for the men's college basketball web site in NYC. Jody worked with the media relations staff for two years and graduated from CU last May. Not a bad gig after graduating from CU seven months ago!

2008-09 CLASS - CU signed its lone scholarship student-athlete for next season adding Calvin Williams (6'8, 200, Forward) from Hillcrest HS. The Memphis, Tenn. native signed a letter of intent during the early signing period in November. "Calvin is really a big-time athlete, a 6-8 guy who can run the floor and finish around the basket," said Patton.

5 PLAYERS = 10 OR MORE - For the fifth time this season, five players netted 10 or more points in a game. The five games are Texas (Feb. 8), Oklahoma State (Jan. 30), Gardner-Webb (Dec. 28), California (Dec. 7) and Oregon State (Dec. 4). Cal and Gardner-Webb were back-to-back with five player over 10 points.

STAR OF THE GAME - After each victory, the CU radio duo of Johnson & Johnson - no relation (just like the special agent Johnson's in the first Die Hard) will select their player of the game. Richard Roby was CU's first honoree against Charleston; Chris Copeland (Northwestern), Marcus Hall (at California), Julius Ashby (Colorado State), Roby (UMKC), Copeland (Radford), Osborn (Gardner-Webb), Copeland (Richmond), Osborn (at Iowa State), Roby (Missouri), Hall (at Kansas State), Roby (Texas). Star of the game tally: Roby (4), Copeland (3), Hall (2), Osborn (2), Ashby (1).

STREAKIN' AT HOME - In the past few years, CU has engineered a pair of 15-game home winning streaks that has carried over from one season to another. In 2002-03 through 2003-04, the Buffaloes won 15-straight (snapped by Utah), and again from 2003-04 through this season, another 15-game home streak (ended by Nebraska). Listed below are the non-conference and conference win streaks over the decades.

Home non-conference winning streak:

27 straight: Dec. 17, 1977 - Dec. 8, 1981 (Tennessee won 64-63)
18: Dec. 20, 1981 - Dec. 30, 1983 (Loyola-Chicago won 77-75)

PATTON AND CU - In basketball, Coach Patton

engineered a pair of 20-win seasons and three 18-win campaigns. In addition to a pair of NCAA Tournament and a trio of NIT berths. CU has seen only 10 seasons with 18 or more victories in any season, Patton's teams have garnered five of those.

10TH IN THE BIG 12 - The conference coach Redick finished 10th overall in his first season at full years, not only Coach Patton to finish 10th or lower. Since Patton's CU, CU has finished in second place (once), third (twice), fourth (three times), fifth (four times), sixth (three times), seventh (three times), eighth (three times), ninth (three times), and 10th (three times). Patton's CU - Coach Patton's CU has seen only 10 seasons with 18 or more victories at CU with the win over UMKC. Here's the top-2 at CU:

1. Sox Walseth 261
2. Ricardo Patton 155

BUFFS TV - CU is making 23 appearances this season on the tube - believed to be the most ever. A total of eight telecasts will be featured on FSN (4 home, 4 away); 12 appearances (five away, six home, one neutral) on ESPN Plus, one game on ABC and one on ESPN Classic.

CU IN THE EXTRA SESSION - Under coach Patton, CU teams are 9-6 in the extra session since 1996. Their only double-over-time game was over Texas Tech (Feb. 11, 1998).

ELITE COMPANY - With 19 points in his college debut, Richard Roby recorded the fourth best scoring game as a freshman in a CU uniform. Here are some of the other performances in addition to the other categories:

1) 31 points, Emmett Lewis vs. New Mexico, Nov. 29, 1975

2) 21, Donnie Boyce vs. Towson State, Nov. 25, 1991

t3) 19, Richard Roby vs. College of Charleston, Nov. 15, 2004

t3) 19, Randy Downs vs. Oregon Tech, Nov. 26, 1982

5) 15, Matt Bullard vs. Fort Lewis, Nov. 23, 1985

6) 14, David Harrison vs. Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Nov. 17, 2001

7) 14, Chauncey Billups vs. UC-Santa Barbara, Nov. 24, 1995

CU IN POST-SEASON PLAY - Under head coach Ricardo Patton, the Buffaloes are 4-8 in the Big 12 post-season. In 1998-99, 1999-2000, 2001-02, and 2002-03, CU advanced to the second round and finished 1-1. Last season was the highest a CU team is seeded since being No. 3 (11-5) back in 1996-97.

CU IN THE BIG DANCE - Colorado 2003-04 NCAA Tournament team was the first since the 1996-97 season to make the post season tourney. It was also the second appearance for head coach Ricardo Patton at CU. Back in 1968-69, CU garnered the NCAA post-season plateau, but haven't reached back-to-back tournaments since the late-Sox Walseth achieved the two-fer in 1961-62 and 1962-63 (42 years ago).

COLORADO IN THE POLLS - For colleges like Duke, Kansas, and North Carolina, being ranked among the nation's top-25 is an every week occurrence. Here's a look at the Buffs history of being a ranked team:

Associated Press	USA Today
1955 - #15	1997 - #25
1962 - #9
1963 - #10	UPI
1969 - #18	1955 - #11
1997 - #24	1962 - #8
1963 - #9
1969 - t#14

During the week of Jan. 20, 1997, CU was ranked No. 18 in the AP Poll and earned its first national ranking since Dec. 30, 1969.

CU IN SEASON OPENERS - With their impressive 72-57 win over the College of Charleston, head coach Ricardo Patton remains perfect in season openers improving his record to 9-0 (6-0 at home, 2-0 on the road, 1-0 neutral).

#10 Scott Senger

6-7 • 220 • Junior • Forward

Louisville, Colo.

Majoring in business ... 2003-04 All-Big 12
academic first ... Dean's List 2001

- Has played in eight games
- Originally a walk-on for his first two seasons
- Has earned a scholarship this year
- Two-year letterwinner
- One of six juniors returning who has played in the CU system from a year ago
- A pleasant surprise off the bench giving depth and strength in a reserve role
- Coach Patton says, "Scott has earned a scholarship after being a walk-on the previous two years. He played quite a few minutes last year and he's a young man that I've asked not to accept not playing. I want him to want to be one of the major contributors on this team."
- Has never fouled out in collegiate career; once finished with four fouls in a single game

#12 Martane Freeman

6-7 • 195 • Junior-Transfer • Forward

Kansas City, Mo.

Majoring in sociology

- Has seen action in 19 of 21 games
- Season-best seven points with four rebounds at Oklahoma
- Played a season-high 18 minutes (at Texas Tech, Kansas)
- Season-high 10 shots and five rebounds vs. KU
- Coach Patton says, "Martane is a very active high energy player who plays with extreme amount of energy and could possibly be the leading scorer on this team. He has the ability to score, rebound, block shots, and does a lot of different things from the small forward position."

#30 Lamont Arrington

6-11 • 215 • Junior-Transfer • Forward/Center
Detroit, Mich.

Intended college major is sociology

- Season-best eight points on four FGs in 28 minutes at Richmond
- Played 25 minutes in collegiate debut vs. the College of Charleston
- Helped CU block personal-best three shots vs. Nebraska (team had 10 overall)
- Scored six points and grabbed six rebounds vs. the Cougars
- Returned home to the Detroit area and started at Michigan
- Has started six times this season, including five in a row
- His 6-11 height is the eighth tallest in CU history (sixth student-athlete standing 6-11)
- Coach Patton says, "Lamont is tallest player we have in the program; very athletic, who runs, jumps, blocks shots well. The knock on him right now is his strength. We're trying to work overtime in the weight room and he spent the summer trying to change his body a little bit. He should be a major contributor in our program."

#32 Marcus King-Stockton

6-9 • 205 • Freshman • Forward

Denver, Colo.

Open option major in CU's College of Arts and Sciences

- First collegiate start vs. Radford: 21 minutes, 5 rebounds, 2 pts.
- Season-best 11 points, eight rebounds and 4-of-4 from the field vs. UMKC
- Big 12 best 22 minutes vs. Nebraska with season-high five offensive rebounds
- Five points, two rebounds vs. Colorado State
- Helped CU build first-half lead (nine points) against the Rams with three-point play on a dunk and free throw at 4:51
- Coach Patton says, "Marcus has a bright future; his progress will be based solely on his ability to learn to play at a higher level than he was accustomed to in single A high school basketball playing in the DPS (Denver Public School) System. That will be only question mark how quickly he will adjust playing at this intensity level."

Moreno Valley, Calif.

College major is economics ... Named an NCAA student-athlete leadership conference participant in Florida spring 2004

- Scored a key five points (his first points of the season) vs. Colorado State, including a 3-pointer in the first half
- His 3-pointer vs. CSU was his first trey since making only one last year at CSU (Dec. 10, 2003)
- Backup point-guard
- 30th all-time in assists (158)
- Has the most starts on the team (44), four this season
- Has never fouled out in a game; finished with four fouls, twice
- Coach Patton says, "Antoine is a steady player for us from day one. I think the fact he had to become a starter early in his career as a freshman will pay dividends now. He is a guy the others will look to for leadership."

CU OPENS SEASON WITH WIN

BOULDER – Freshman guard Richard Roby scored 12 of his game-high 19 points in the second half to lead three Colorado players in double figures as the Buffaloes defeated the College of Charleston, 72-57, to open the 2004-05 season in the first round of the Preseason NIT Monday night.

“It is a good win against a very quality opponent,” said CU head coach Ricardo Patton. “That team (C of C) is going to win a lot of games, especially in their league. I think they did a good job of running it down our throats, they kept the intensity up the whole game.”

With the win, the Buffs improve to 9-0 in season openers under Patton, who claimed his 100th career win at the Coors Events Center. The Cougars have dropped their second season opener in a row, after winning 12 straight before last year.

Colorado led throughout the first half with their biggest margin reaching nine points with 3:37 to go; however, the Cougars trimmed their deficit to two points to narrow the margin to 35-33. Sophomore guard Marcus Hall then hit a three-pointer to push their lead back to five for a 38-33 halftime lead.

In the second stanza the Buffs upped their lead to 13 points at the 12:11 mark after consecutive baskets (Andy Osborn 3-pointer) and a Lamont Arrington dunk for a 54-41 advantage. C of C again rallied to cut the deficit to seven with 6:20 remaining, however CU outscored the Cougars by a 13-5 margin to end the game.

Colorado had 12 blocks compared to the Cougars two and out-rebounded the College of Charleston 48-46. Julius Ashby scored 13 points and Jayson Obazuaye added 10. Roby finished the night hitting 7-of -11 from the floor and grabbed eight rebounds in his debut. The Cougars’ Josh Jackson had 12 points, while Robert Swain chipped in 10.

“Today we made some great steps as a team to get where we want to be,” said Obazuaye. “It excites me for the season and the games ahead especially the next one nationally televised (ESPN).”

BUFFS FALL AT MICHIGAN, 69-60 IN NIT 2ND ROUND

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - Dion Harris scored a career-high 24 points and Lester Abram added 12 to lead Michigan to a 69-60 win over Colorado Wednesday in the second round of the Preseason NIT.

Courtney Sims also had 10 points, 10 rebounds and 5 blocked shots for the Wolverines who advance to the semifinals of the tournament to play the winner of the Arizona-Wright State second-round game.

Richard Roby scored 18 points for Colorado with Marcus Hall adding 16. Julius Ashby had a game-high six blocked shots tying the CU school record for blocks in a road game.

Michigan, which is looking to become the first team to win the postseason NIT and preseason NIT the following season, led from start to finish.

“I was excited to see the team continue to get better,” said CU head coach Ricardo Patton. “By the time we realized we could play with Michigan we had dug too deep a hole. We cut the lead to seven but gave up a turnover and then a dunk and couldn’t get back into it. Our guys showed a lot of good things and we’ll have a lot of growth with this team.”

The Wolverines built their largest lead of the game, 61-42, with 5:24 left. But Colorado rallied with 11 straight points to cut Michigan’s lead to 61-53 with 2:44 remaining.

The Buffaloes tightened the score to 65-58 on Roby’s 3-pointer with 56 seconds left, but a basket by Sims and two free throws by Harris sealed the win.

COPELAND, ROBY TALLY DOUBLE-DOUBLES

BOULDER – The Colorado Buffaloes overcame a tight first half to best the visiting Northwestern Wildcats 66-57 Sunday afternoon at the Coors Events Center.

Freshman guard Richard Roby led the Buffs with his first career double-double, tallying 16 points and 13 rebounds, and three other Buffs scored in double figures as CU pulled away after a first half which included eight lead changes and eight ties.

Down by one in the first half, Roby and junior forward/center Julius Ashby had back-to-back highlight-reel dunks off steals to ignite the home crowd of 2,167 and put the Buffs on top 28-25 going into the halftime.

After Chris Copeland hit a 5-foot jumper 34 seconds into the second half, the Wildcats went on a 12-3 run in a span of 4:20 to take a 37-33 lead.

The Buffs would stage a comeback with the help of Copeland, who finished with a career-high 15 points and 10 rebounds. His 3-pointer with 8:33 left tied the game, and sixteen seconds later he made a lay up to put the Buffs on top 46-44, a lead that they would never relinquish.

“It’s a good win against a great quality opponent, they execute to perfection,” said CU Head Coach Ricardo Patton. “Late when we were down 44-37 it was a pretty scary time for us. But we managed to get the right guys on the floor and changing into zone defense helped us get the lead.

Jayson Obazuaye scored 14 points for his second best career scoring output, and Ashby added 10 points and 7 rebounds for the Buffs, who improved to 53-6 in non-conference home games under Head Coach Ricardo Patton.

Northwestern (1-3) was led by forward Vedran Vukusic, who finished with 25 points and nine rebounds. Sophomore forward Tim Doyle finished the game with 11 points, as he was the only other Wildcat in double figures.

The game was the second meeting between the two teams in as many years. CU opened the 2003-04 season with a 67-56 road win against the Wildcats. The victory improved the Buffs’ overall record in the series to 6-3, with the first seven meetings taking place from 1949-1968.

OREGON STATE OUTSCORES CU, 98-87

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Chris Stephens had a career-high 27 points and freshman Sasa Cuic added 22 to give Oregon State a 98-87 victory over Colorado on Saturday.

Marcus Hall had 22 of his 29 points in the first half for Colorado (2-2), single-handedly bringing the Buffaloes back from a 16-point deficit. Hall tied a school record for consecutive points made tying Donnie Boyce’s mark of 20 points at Oklahoma State, March 5, 1994. Hall’s offensive explosion also were career-highs in field goals made (12) and attempts (16).

Oregon State’s Jason Fontenet had 20 points, including four 3-pointers, for the Beavers (4-2), while J.S. Nash added 13 points and four steals. Oregon State shot 64 percent from the field in the first half and 59 percent for the game. Only one Beaver, reserve Derek Potter who was 0-for-2, shot worse than 50 percent.

Oregon State led 38-22 after Fontenet made two free throws. That’s when Hall took over, scoring the Buffaloes’ final 18 points of the first half.

The sophomore point guard outscored the Beavers 18-7 during the nearly five minute stretch and cut the score to 45-40 by halftime.

The Buffaloes came close early in the second half, taking a brief 70-68 lead on Jayson Obazuaye’s 3-pointer, but Stephens countered with his own 3-pointer and the Beavers went out on a 10-2 run. CU shot a season-best 58 percent (33-of-57) from the field.

Hall, who made 12 of his 16 shots, couldn’t maintain his first-half production, scoring only seven points in the second half.

All five Colorado starters scored in double-figures, including Obazuaye and Chris Copeland, who each had 15 points.

SECOND HALF RALLY KEYS CU WIN OVER CAL

BERKELEY, Calif. - Chris Copeland scored all 11 of his points after halftime and Colorado rallied with a big second half to win at California for the first time in eight meetings, 63-60 on Tuesday night.

Richard Roby scored four points in the final 2:47 and also had a late steal for Colorado, sending the Golden Bears to their second narrow defeat at home in a week after a 73-72 loss to UNLV last Tuesday. Marcus Hall (five assists) scored with 12.2 seconds left for the Buffaloes (3-2).

Rod Benson had career highs of 25 points and 10 rebounds for the Bears, who missed several important shots in the final minute. Richard Midgley's 3 at the buzzer wasn't enough for Cal (4-3). Midgley finished with 14 points.

It was the teams' second meeting in two seasons. The Buffaloes won 78-60 last season in Boulder, Colo., but Cal leads the series 9-7. Colorado last played in Haas Pavilion in 2000. Copeland played only three minutes in the first half, had two fouls and didn't score. He was one of several Colorado players to pick up their game in the second half.

The Buffaloes have five players averaging in double figures, and five scored more than 10 - Copeland, Roby (11), Hall (12), Jayson Obazuaye (12) and Julius Ashby (11). It's the second straight game all five CU players scored in double-digits.

Ashby grabbed a game-high 17 rebounds, the most by a CU player since Lamar Harris hauled down 19 against Iowa State last season.

The Buffaloes made three 3-pointers (Copeland - 2, Obazuaye) during an 11-2 spurt early in the second half to get back in the game after getting just nine field goals and shooting 37.5 percent in the first half.

Ashby's two free throws with 8:40 left gave Colorado a 47-44 lead, then DeVon Hardin answered with a three-point play on the other end to tie it. After Obazuaye made one of two free throws - he got another try on his second attempt after a Cal lane violation - freshman Eric Vierneisel made a 3 for a 50-48 Bears' lead. The Bears' poor 3-point shooting has plagued them all season, and they went 3-for-12 from long range Tuesday.

FREE THROWS HELP CU HOLD OFF RIVAL CSU

BOULDER (AP) - Marcus Hall scored 22 points and Colorado hit 11 of 12 free throws in the final minute to hold off Colorado State 89-83 Saturday night.

Richard Roby added 17 points and Chris Copeland had 12 points and 13 rebounds for Colorado (4-2), which won its fifth straight over Colorado State. Copeland's 13 rebounds were a career-high.

Matt Nelson had 26 points and Matt Williams added 16 for the Rams, who had trouble overcoming a shaky first half. Colorado State (5-4) had just three turnovers and shot 58 percent in the second half, but it still wasn't enough for its first win in Boulder since 1957.

Trailing by 11 at halftime, Colorado State tried to get back in it by pounding the ball inside in the second half.

The Rams went to Nelson and Jason Smith on just about every possession in the early going, with Nelson scoring 10 points in the first six minutes and Smith cutting Colorado's lead to 48-45 with 12 minutes left on a driving layup.

Colorado State tied it at 52 two minutes later on Michael Morris' long 3-pointer and kept it close until Colorado went on a 10-4 run to lead 75-69 with 1:29 left. Nelson hit two free throws at the other end, but the Buffaloes broke Colorado State's press and Julius Ashby scored on a dunk to make it 78-71.

CSU kept coming, including a four-point play by Jon Rakiecki, but Hall hit six free throws and Ashby sealed it with two more in the closing seconds to give CU its 13th straight home victory over its in-state rival.

Colorado State had a huge size advantage - four players at least 6-foot-10 to just one for Colorado.

The Buffaloes led by 11 at halftime and it could have been more had they been more patient offensively. Colorado shot just 13-of-34.

SECOND HALF SURGE HELPS CU DEFEAT UMKC

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby hit five 3-pointers and scored 17 of his 23 points in the second half, and Colorado rallied from a lackluster first half to beat Missouri-Kansas City 79-68 Tuesday night.

Jayson Obazuaye added 16 points and Colorado (5-2) shot 58 percent in the second half to win its eighth straight game against UMKC.

Quinton Day and Mike English had 17 points each for UMKC (0-6), which looked ragged in the second half after a steady first.

Colorado played it the opposite - the Buffaloes struggled in the first half and started find a rhythm in the second.

Pressuring the Kangaroos into mistakes and using crisp passes to get open looks, the Buffaloes went on a 21-6 run, capped by Obazuaye's three-point play that put Colorado up 59-50 with 7 minutes left.

The Buffaloes also did a good job of hitting the glass, grabbing 15 offensive rebounds -10 in the second half - that led to 17 points.

Roby found his stroke after going 2-of-5 in the first half, hitting a pair of 3-pointers during Colorado's big run and two more on consecutive possessions that put the Buffaloes up 67-57. He finished 8-for-15, hitting 5-of-9 from long range, and had six rebounds.

UMKC had some success kicking the ball out of the post for open shots in the first half, but Colorado closed down the passing lanes and was better at rotating out to the Kangaroos' shooters in the second. Not surprisingly, UMKC spent much of its time forcing shots and didn't make many, ending the half 10-for-30.

Both teams were aggressive defensively in the early going, making it difficult for either one to get into much of a flow.

Colorado was sloppy at times, throwing two balls into the backcourt and another into the stands for turnovers in the first 10 minutes. The Buffaloes were able to work the ball around the perimeter for some open shots and took a few bad ones, with few going in. Colorado shot 8-for-25 and was just 2-for-9 on 3-pointers.

UMKC had a little more success by working the ball through the post. The Kangaroos did a good job of getting the ball deep even though center Carlton Aaron played just four minutes because of foul trouble, and were even better at kicking out to the perimeter, where they hit 6-of-15 to take a 39-34 lead.

SECOND HALF SURGE HELPS CU DEFEAT UMKC

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby scored 18 points and Chris Copeland added 16, helping Colorado win its fourth consecutive game with a 74-58 victory over Radford Thursday night.

Colorado (6-2) is in the midst of a relatively easy week, coming off a victory over Missouri-Kansas City and a game against Gardner-Webb coming up, and the Buffaloes didn't have much trouble against Radford.

Playing its first game without forward Julius Ashby, who could be out up to two months with a torn foot tendon, Colorado used aggressive defense and a size advantage inside to go up big early.

The Buffaloes didn't do much to extend a 16-point halftime lead, letting Radford pull within 10 with nine minutes left, but never really gave the Highlanders much of a chance to get back in it.

Radford (5-4) won five of its first eight games, though the caliber of opponents was nothing like facing Colorado.

It showed.

After beating the likes of Ferrum, Lees-McRae and Carson-Newman, the Highlanders had a little more trouble in their first game against a Big 12 opponent.

Radford struggled getting into its offense against the bigger and more athletic Buffaloes and wasn't much better on defense, allowing Colorado plenty of layups and shots in the lane. The Buffaloes hit 15-of-26 shots in the second half and shot 50 percent overall.

Chris Oliver had 15 points and eight rebounds to lead the Highlanders, who shot 37 percent and had 20 turnovers in their first game in 13 days. Colorado gave Radford trouble from the start.

Colorado got sloppy for a stretch to allow Radford to cut the lead to 19-13, but the Buffaloes followed with a 10-0 run to take control. Pressuring the Highlanders into mistakes and bad shots, Colorado scored 18 points off 12 turnovers in the first half and held the Highlanders to 8-of-25 shooting to take a 37-21 lead.

BUFFS HOLD ON FOR NINE-POINT WIN

BOULDER (AP) - Marcus Hall scored 22 points and Chris Copeland added 17 as Colorado notched its fifth straight victory with a 97-88 win against Gardner-Webb Tuesday at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado (7-2) saw its 18-point second-half lead dwindle to six in the final 72 seconds before keeping its lead with free throws.

Simon Conn scored 26 and Brian Bender scored 22 points each for Gardner-Webb (5-4), an Atlantic Sun Conference team from Boiling Springs, N.C.

Colorado's 48-38 lead at the break was its biggest in a half that featured 12 lead changes and two ties. Copeland scored 11 of his 17 points in the first half.

At the start of the second half, Colorado used an 8-2 run to build a 16-point lead.

Colorado built an 18-point advantage but then struggled defensively and allowed the visitors to draw within 10, 85-75 with 4:07 remaining.

Bender's jumper, a 3-pointer by Bret Noonan and two free throws by Tim Jennings cut the lead to six, 90-84, with 1:12 to go.

COPELAND NETS 25 IN CU WIN OVER RICHMOND

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) - Chris Copeland made his homecoming one to remember, having a career night with about 50 family and friends watching.

Copeland scored a career-high 25 points in his return to the city where he played high school ball, including several key shots as Colorado withstood every run in the second half and beat Richmond 75-69.

Copeland, a product of Hermitage High School in the city’s suburbs, was nervous beforehand, but didn’t show it. He made 10 of 15 shots and four 3-pointers, including a leaning, fall-away heave with 3:53 left, all but cinching the win for Colorado (8-3) after Richmond got within four.

“We just banded together as a team,” he said. “Coach drew up some stuff to get us some easy baskets. ... We knew it was crunch time.”

The Spiders (5-6), whose rally to within one with 10:33 left was answered immediately by a 7-0 Colorado run, had closed to 60-56 with 4:49 left, but Richard Roby hit a 10-footer and Copeland beat the shot clock with his off-balance shot from the right wing to rebuild the lead.

Coming off an embarrassing 80-48 loss to Utah, Colorado won despite shooting just 14-for-30 from the free throw line. The Buffaloes also avenged a 75-52 loss to the Spiders in Boulder, Colo., last season.

“After Utah, a lot of people looked at us like this team isn’t going to be worth anything,” said Copeland, a junior whose previous high was 17. “We wanted to show people in this game that we are a good team.”

Roby added 18 points and Jayson Obazuaye 16 for the Buffaloes, who shot 56 percent from the field against the normally stingy Spiders.

Copeland’s improbable 3-pointer was the “final nail,” he said, and the Buffaloes’ 7-0 run after Richmond got within 46-45 also hurt a lot.

“We’re not real resilient right now,” Wainwright said. “It took a long time to blow up that balloon, but it deflated pretty quickly.”

The Buffaloes led 38-32 at halftime after shooting 63 percent and going on a Copeland-led 14-4 run midway through the half. Copeland started the burst with a basket and a 3-pointer and added two 12-footers later.

CU NO MATCH AT OU IN CONFERENCE OPENER

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) - Kevin Bookout scored a career-high 27 points and grabbed 11 rebounds to help Oklahoma open Big 12 Conference play with an 85-55 win over Colorado Saturday.

Oklahoma (11-2, 1-0) won its fifth consecutive game with a dominating inside performance against the Buffaloes (8-4, 0-1). The Sooners outrebounded Colorado 48-35 and shot 55 percent from the floor to win their ninth game in the last 10.

CU dropped its eighth straight conference opener in nine games with three of those losses coming against Oklahoma. Oklahoma opened the game on a 15-2 run with all but three points coming off lay ups.

Oklahoma dominated underneath the basket in the first half, scoring 24 of its 44 points from less than three feet away. Thirty of Oklahoma’s 44 first half points came from less than five feet from the goal.

The Sooners outrebounded the Buffaloes 19-15 and shot 55 percent from the floor in the first half.

Taj Gray gave the Sooners a 15-point lead going into halftime, hitting one of two free throws with less than a second remaining.

Oklahoma started the second half on an 11-0 run and extended its lead to as much as 31 with more than six minutes remaining.

Richard Roby led Colorado with 12 points. Jayson Obazuaye was next for the Buffaloes with nine.

The Sooners did have a scare late in the second half when senior Johnnie Gilbert went down away from the ball holding his left ankle. After the game it was announced that Gilbert suffered a partially torn tendon in the bottom of his foot. He will be re-examined Sunday and is day-to-day.

Four Oklahoma players scored in double figures, with Gray, Terrell Everett and Lawrence McKenzie chipping in 10 or more. Gray’s 11 rebound performance was the sixth time this season he has had at least 11 rebounds in a game for the Sooners.

BUFFS FALL IN BIG 12 HOME OPENER

BOULDER (AP) - Freshman Joe McCray scored 21 points, including a clutch 3-pointer late that helped Nebraska hold off a big Colorado comeback for a 68-61 victory Wednesday night.

McCray, a guard from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., scored his team's first 11 points - a layup and three 3-pointers - but his most important bucket came with 1:34 left after Colorado had trimmed a 17-point deficit to four. McCray spotted up at the top of the 3-point circle, elevated and swished the shot for a 61-54 lead, and the Cornhuskers (8-4, 2-0 Big 12) had more or less secured a win in this, their first conference road game of the season. McCray finished 5-for-8 from 3-point range.

Richard Roby (20 points), the half brother of Nuggets forward Kenyon Martin, scored nine straight points to help Colorado (8-5, 0-2) pull within five with 4 minutes left. But CU never got the game to within one possession, and now the Buffs must prepare for a home game Saturday against No. 2 Kansas.

That one could get ugly if CU plays anything like it did early against the Huskers.

Missing top rebounder Julius Ashby with a foot injury, Colorado's already thin front line got thinner.

Starting in Ashby's place, 6-foot-11 Lamont Arrington was no match for the Huskers. Arrington finished with no points and no rebounds while Nebraska center Aleks Maric, a 6-foot-11 freshman from Sydney, Australia, finished with eight points and 11 rebounds, five of those on the offensive glass.

Jason Dourisseau had 11 points and seven boards for Nebraska. The Huskers grabbed only five more rebounds than the Buffs, but they ran to their big lead by basically shutting down the middle on defense. CU scored just three baskets in the paint in the first half while running to a 37-22 lead.

The loss spoiled a 22-point, 14-rebound performance by CU's Chris Copeland, who shot 6-for-12 - the only Buff player to make half his shots on a night in which CU shot 34 percent.

BUFFS FALL IN BIG 12 HOME OPENER

BOULDER (AP/Staff) - Wayne Simien had 23 points and 17 rebounds and Keith Langford hit a handful of big shots Saturday to help No. 2 Kansas to a 76-61 victory over surprisingly persistent Colorado.

Playing with a soft cast on his broken left thumb, Simien was a force underneath, and his solid play helped the Jayhawks (13-0, 3-0 Big 12) to a 17-point lead in the first half.

Colorado (8-6, 0-3) rallied in the second, though, and it was Langford who came through big seemingly every time things got tight. He scored 11 points in a key 17-10 Kansas run midway through the second half after being held to just three prior to the span.

Kansas, off to its best start since opening 22-0 in 1996-97, defeated Colorado for the 31st time in the last 32 games of this series but as usual, had its hands full in Boulder.

Led by Glean Eddy's relentless work, the Buffs grabbed 22 offensive rebounds to stay competitive despite missing a variety of open shots, especially in the first half, when they went 8-for-34 from the field.

Kansas shot its second worst percentage from the floor this season, connecting on just 38.6 percent of its shots; the Jayhawks only worse effort came in the season opener against Vermont (38.2). It was the fourth time KU was held to under 40 percent shooting in 13 games this season, as Colorado's defense often outshined that of KU's and the smaller Buffs hung in there on the boards. KU held just a 48-44 edge, and CU hit the glass hard for 22 on the offensive end.

Eddy finished with five points and a career-high 12 boards, six on the offensive glass. Copeland had 22 points and 11 rebounds for his fourth career double-double and Richard Roby scored 14 points for Colorado.

Colorado twice got the game within a possession. Trailing 45-44, Copeland missed on a 15-footer from the baseline. The teams played evenly over the next five minutes, with Kansas owning a 60-56 lead with 6:44 remaining before going on a 9-0 run to establish some distance between the two that the Buffs couldn't make up.

BAYLOR HANDS CU ANOTHER BIG 12 LOSS

WACO, Texas (AP) - Aaron Bruce scored 14 points and Tommy Swanson added 13 points and 10 rebounds to lead Baylor to a 67-59 win over Colorado on Wednesday night.

Baylor (9-4, 1-2 Big 12) opened the second half with an 11-5 run and took a 45-34 lead over Colorado with just under 15 minutes remaining. Colorado (8-7, 0-4) pulled to within seven points twice, but the Bears sank 5-of-8 free throws in the final two minutes to clinch their first Big 12 win this season.

Colorado's Richard Roby led all scorers with 15 points, and Glean Eddy added 12 for the Buffaloes. The loss sends the Buffaloes to their first 0-4 start ever in the Big 12.

Baylor outscored Colorado 18-1 to open the game, holding the Buffaloes scoreless for almost nine minutes.

But by halftime, Colorado reduced Baylor's lead to 34-29 as Roby scored 13 first half points.

With the victory, Baylor surpassed last season's record of eight wins and gave Baylor its first conference triumph since February 25, 2004.

CU EDGE CYCLONES FOR FIST WIN IN BIG 12

AMES, Iowa (AP/Staff) - Andy Osborn hit a 3-pointer with 15.9 seconds left in overtime to give Colorado the lead and the Buffaloes held on through a frantic finish to beat Iowa State 54-52 Saturday night for their first Big 12 victory. The win was CU's first victory in Ames since Feb. 19, 1991, ending a streak of 13 consecutive losses.

Colorado (9-7, 1-4 Big 12) pulled it out despite going scoreless the final 4:46 of regulation, committing 20 turnovers and shooting just 33 percent. The Buffaloes offset those sordid numbers with a 54-35 rebounding advantage, including 22 offensive rebounds that led to a 21-11 edge in second-chance points.

Iowa State (8-7, 0-4) failed on chances to win it both at the end of regulation and overtime and lost for the fifth straight time. It was the Cyclones' 10th straight overtime loss in conference play since a victory over Nebraska in 1995 and its third loss at the Hilton Coliseum in 28 games over the last two seasons.

Glean Eddy led Colorado with 12 points and 11 rebounds for his first career double-double, while Chris Copeland scored 10 for the Buffaloes, who avoided their first 0-5 start in conference play since 1995-96 when they competed in the Big 8. Curtis Stinson led Iowa State with 15 points and Will Blalock scored 14.

Iowa State led 52-50 after Stinson made one of two free throws with 24.2 seconds remaining. Osborn, distinctive in his headband, goatee and knee-length black socks, then got free to the right of key and swished the 3-pointer to put the Buffs up 53-52.

Osborn got the rebound after Iowa State's Damion Staple missed inside and was fouled. He made the first free throw with 8.4 seconds remaining, missed the second and Eddy got the rebound. But he was called for traveling, giving the ball to Iowa State with 5.5 seconds to play.

Both teams then swatted the ball around after Iowa State inbounded and the buzzer sounded as it rolled out of bounds. The officials checked the TV monitor and put one-tenth of a second back on the clock, giving Iowa State one last chance. Blalock lobbed to Jared Homan, who could only bat at the ball. It fell well short and Colorado had the victory.

ROBY’S 3-POINTER LIFTS CU OVER MIZZOU

BOULDER (AP) - Freshman Richard Roby made the biggest shot of his young career Wednesday night, sinking a 3-pointer with 21 seconds left to lift Colorado to a 64-62 win over Missouri at the Coors Events Center Wednesday night.

Roby, the half-brother of Denver Nuggets forward Kenyon Martin, dribbled a couple times, took a step inside the 3-point line to create room between himself and the defender, then stepped back behind the line and swished the game-winner.

Seconds later, Jason Horton of Missouri (10-9, 2-4 Big 12) had a good look at a 3-pointer that would have given the Tigers the lead, but he missed and Mizzou remained winless (0-6) away from home this season. Marcus Hall of Colorado (10-7, 2-4) rebounded Horton’s miss and fed to Jayson Obazuaye, who was fouled and missed two free throws with 1.3 seconds left. But the Buffs rebounded the miss to seal their second straight conference win after four losses to begin the Big 12 season.

Roby led the Buffaloes with 15 points while Chris Copeland recorded his fifth double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Jason Conley led Mizzou with 16 points. Teammate Linas Kleiza had 14 points on 4-for-17 shooting from the floor, a far cry from his 8-for-12, 31-point effort last weekend in a win over Nebraska.

This game had all the trappings of a meeting between two struggling teams desperate to stay out of the cellar in the Big 12. Neither shot particularly well or got into any kind of rhythm and nobody took a lead of more than seven points.

But while the first 39 minutes were lackluster, the last 60 seconds made for good drama.

Leading 62-61 with about a minute left, Missouri’s Thomas Gardner missed a shot but hustled back on defense and made a steal to get the ball back for the Tigers. He fed to Jimmy McKinney, but McKinney shot an airball.

Colorado got the rebound to set the stage for Roby, a 6-foot-6 guard out of San Bernardino, Calif., who chose Colorado over UCLA and a number of other high-profile programs. He has shown flashes of how good he can be throughout this season, averaging 14 points and five rebounds a game.

RED RAIDERS HOLD ON AND DEFEAT BUFFS, 97-90

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Jarrius Jackson scored a career-high 25 points to lead Texas Tech to a 97-90 win over Colorado on Wednesday night.

Tech (13-5, 5-2 Big 12) took its largest lead at 63-38 when Jackson hit a free throw with 12:39 left, but Colorado put together a couple of runs to get back in the game and eventually cut the lead to four points with 32 seconds left.

After runs of 9-1 and 10-2 sandwiched around five unanswered points by Tech, Colorado (10-9, 2-6) trailed 75-64 with 5:30 left. A layup by Marcus Hall with 32 seconds left made it 91-87 but Colorado could get no closer.

The Buffaloes outscored Tech 61-48 in the second half.

Tech had five players in double figures, the second straight game they had least four in double figures.

Martin Zeno scored 19 points, Ronald Ross added 21 and Devonne Giles and Darryl Dora got 13 each for the Red Raiders. Giles didn't miss on any of his 11 free throws. Jackson hit on 12-of-15 from the line.

It was also the second straight game that Colorado ran into a hot-shooting team. In the Buffaloes' 104-86 loss to then-No. 13 Oklahoma State on Sunday, the Cowboys shot 60 percent. Colorado shot 52.5 percent.

The Buffaloes fared more poorly against Tech, hitting just 47 percent.

Tech, which was hitting 48 percent from the field coming into the game, shot 57 percent.

Richard Roby scored a career high 29 points, Hall added 24 and Chris Copeland got 10 for the Buffaloes.

Tech led 49-29 at halftime. Ross got seven points during a 20-5 Red Raider run midway through the half to lead 33-13. The Buffaloes shot poorly and went scoreless for a six-minute stretch. Colorado finished the half 11-of-29 from the field, or 38 percent.

ROBY, HALL LEAD CU OVER K-STATE ON THE ROAD

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) - Richard Roby scored 22 points and Marcus Hall had 17 to lead Colorado to a 70-60 win over Kansas State Saturday afternoon.

The Buffaloes led 58-49 with 4:07 to go, but Kansas State (13-6, 3-5 Big 12) clawed to within 61-56 on an inside bucket by Jeremiah Massey with 2:51 remaining.

That was all the closer Kansas State got, though, as the Wildcats' poor second-half shooting continued in the game's waning moments and Colorado took advantage at the free throw line.

Chris Copeland added 13 points and 10 rebounds for Colorado (11-9, 3-6), which has now won three of its last five games.

Lance Harris scored 13 of his 18 points in the first half to lead Kansas State, which shot just 25 percent (10-of-40) in the second half.

Massey added 17 points and eight rebounds for Kansas State. Fred Peete had 11 points and five assists.

Tyler Hughes scored nine early points to help Kansas State to a 17-9 lead midway through the first half, and a Harris 3-pointer gave the Wildcats their biggest lead at 24-14.

But the duo of Roby and Hall answered back, combining for 25 of Colorado's 34 first-half points. Hall's running jumpshot as time expired knotted the game at intermission, completing a 20-10 Buff run over the last seven minutes of the half. CU scored the first four points of the second half, forcing Kansas State to call a quick time out, but the Wildcats never came close to resuming control of the game, as the Buffs dictated the tempo and had several blocked shots at key junctures of the half to keep KSU at an arm's length.

CU also took advantage of Kansas State's anemic second-half offense, which included a scoreless drought of nearly six minutes that allowed Colorado to build a 55-46 lead with just under six minutes remaining.

Roby is now averaging 15.6 points per game, which would stand to be the second highest in school history by a freshman; Chauncey Billups owns the record of 17.9 which he set during the 1995-96 season.

CU KNOCKS OFF No. 23 TEXAS, 88-79

BOULDER (AP) - Richard Roby scored 22 points, Marcus Hall added 17 and Colorado withstood a big second-half run by No. 23 Texas to beat the short-handed Longhorns 88-79 on Tuesday night.

Andy Osborn had 14 points and some key rebounds in the second half for Colorado, which had five players in double figures and beat the Longhorns for just the second time in nine games. The Buffaloes also hounded freshman Daniel Gibson, Texas' leading scorer the previous six games, into 4-of-12 shooting and eight turnovers.

Brad Buckman had 27 points and 21 rebounds, and Jason Klotz added 16 points for Texas, which has lost four of five and will likely drop out of the polls after being ranked as high as No. 10 just a month ago.

Down to seven scholarship players - three freshmen - because of injuries and grades, the Longhorns were miserable in the first half and didn't get much better to start the second, falling behind 58-36 with 14 minutes left.

Texas tightened up at both ends to get back in it.

Working the ball inside to Buckman and Klotz, the Longhorns freed up their shooters on the perimeter, hitting four 3-pointers during a 21-3 run that cut Colorado's lead to 61-57 with seven minutes left.

Texas was just as good at the other end, forcing Colorado into tough shots and bad passes. The Buffaloes missed 11 of 12 shots during Texas' run and didn't seem like they'd be able to hold on.

But Colorado built its lead back up as quickly as it lost it. Hall hit a 3-pointer, Osborn dropped in a baseline jumper and Hall added two free throws to put the Buffaloes up 70-59 with 4:45 left. Texas trimmed the lead to 83-77 on Kenny Taylor's consecutive 3-pointers in the final minute, but Colorado went 5-of-6 from the free throw line to seal it.
