OPENING TIP: Colorado is locked into the No. 11 seed for the upcoming Big 12 Championship in Kansas City. The Buffaloes will play a first round game at the Municipal Auditorium at 6:30 p.m. MST.

THE BUFFALOES: Colorado is 13-15 overall and in 11th place in the Big 12 Conference at 3-12. The Buffaloes have lost two straight, nine of 10 and 11 of 13 overall. Colorado's opponent, the No. 6 seed, for the upcoming tournament will come from the grouping of Baylor, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas A&M all of who are currently in a four-way tie for fourth place in the Big 12 standings at 9-6.

TEAM NUMBERS: Colorado is averaging 68 points per game and shooting 42 percent from the field, and enjoying a resurgence in offense the last few games. The Buffaloes have reached 70 points in four of the last five games after not scoring more than 64 in the first 10 conference games of the year. However, Colorado has also given up 70 or more points in 10 of the last 11 games. Colorado is averaging 7.7 3-pointers per game, ranking second in the Big 12 and 13th in NCAA Division I through games of Feb. 28 (7.8 3mpg). The Buffaloes are the top free throw shooting team in the Big 12, and 21st in the nation, at 75.9 percent (344-453). The Buffaloes also rank third in the Big 12 in steals (8.7 spg) and sixth in blocks (3.9 bpg).

SPEARS LEADS: Brittany Spears tops Colorado by averaging 17.8 points, 8.2 rebounds and 2.1 steals per game. She had a team season-high 34 points in the win over Missouri, two off her career high and the seventh best single-game performance in team history.

Spears is averaging 21.8 points on 49 percent from the field (48-of-98) over the last five games. Spears has hit 13-of-25 (.520) from 3-point range over the last four games and 17-of-33 over the last six (.515).

Spears has reached 20 points 11 times this season and has recorded double-digit scoring in 24 of 28 games, 55 of her last 61 games and 78 of 91 career outings. She added 10 rebounds against Missouri, recoring her 22nd career double-double, seventh of the season and third in Big 12 play.

On the league charts she ranks fourth in scoring, steals and defensive rebounds (5.9 drpg), fifth in overall rebounds and free-throw percentage (.837), 11th in 3-pointers made (1.9 3mpg), 12th in 3-point percentage (.364) and 12th in blocks (1.0 bpg) and 13th in offensive rebounds (2.4 orpg).

SPEARS JOINS ELITE COMPANY: Brittany Spears registered 10 rebounds at Missouri and in the process became the sixth player in team history to reach 1,400 points and 700 rebounds, which can now be referred to as the 1,500-700 club as she is currently ninth overall in rebounds (716) and scoring (1,501).

game while displaying her sharp-shooting abilities. Smith leads the Big 12 with 81 3-pointers and ranks 13th in 3-point accuracy at 36 percent (81-of-224).

Smith ranks 13th in overall scoring in the Big 12 and second among those players primarily coming off the bench (starting less than half of a team's games). Here are the current leaders:

Player, Team	PPG
Danielle Adams, Texas A&M	15.6
Bianca Smith, Colorado	13.6
Christine Flores, Missouri	9.2
Sydney Carter, Texas A&M	8.1
Cokie Reed, Texas	7.8

SMITH IS COLORADO'S ALL-TIME DEEP THREAT: Bianca Smith will complete her Colorado career as the program's top 3-point shooter.

By hitting four 3-pointers against Texas A&M, she became CU's all-time leader in 3-pointers made, passing All-American Shelley Sheetz who had 252 from 1991-95. Smith, who also has more attempts than any player in team history (698), broke the school mark on her second 3-pointer of the game, a shot from the right baseline with 7:38 left in the first half and now sits at 256.

Smith hit 1-of-7 from 3-point range against Kansas State, setting new season marks with 81 made and 224 attempted this season. She held both previous marks when she made 80-of-217 in 34 games in 2007-08, giving her the top two single season performances in both categories.

Smith also has a hand in CU's single-game 3-point marks. She holds a share of the record for 3-pointers made in one game (7), made in one half (5) and attempted in one half (9). Seven times, a player seven in one game, with Smith being three of those instances.

Her career percentage of 36.7 from 3-point range is on pace to be among the Top 10 in school history.

DUAL THREAT: Bianca Smith, who became the 23rd player in team history to reach 1,000 career points in the Kansas road game, cracked the Buffs' Top 20 list after a 26-point performance against Missouri. She currently resides in 18th place on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,135.

Smith gives CU two 1,000 point scorers on the same team as she joins Brittany Spears who reached 1,000 last year and currently resides in 10th on CU's all-time list with 1,501. Having multiple 1,000 point scorers on the same team has happened several times in CU's history, and on two different occasions in the last decade alone. Jackie McFarland and Jasmina Ilic were 1,000-point teammates in 2006-07 and the Buffaloes had a trio of 1,000-point scorers in 2001-02 featuring Jenny Roulier, Mandy Nightingale and Britt Hartshorn.

FRESHMEN THRIVING: Freshmen Chucky Jeffery and Meagan Malcolm-Peck have made major contributions in their first collegiate seasons.

Jeffery tops all Big 12 freshmen and ranks third overall in steals at 2.1 per game. She leads Colorado and ranks ninth in the Big 12 in assists (3.4 apg) and is second on the team in steals (by number with 56) and rebounds (5.0 rpg) and is third in scoring (9.6 ppg). She has scored in double-digits in eight of the last 16 games, and recorded her first career double-double with 14 points and a career-high 11 rebounds in the home game against Nebraska. Jeffery had one of the best stat lines of the season in the nonconference finale against

AMES, Iowa. – Senior Kara Richards had 21 points and 10 rebounds, but hot Iowa State shooting led to a 76-63 win for the No. 25 (AP)/24 (WBCA) ranked Cyclones over Colorado in Big 12 Conference action Wednesday night at Hilton Coliseum.

Colorado (11-14, 3-10) dropped its sixth straight against Iowa State (20-7, 8-5) who had been coming off a sub-par shooting performance, making just 27 percent from the field and only 3-of-16 from 3-point range in their last game, a 58-47 loss at Kansas on Sunday.

Wednesday the Cyclones were 10-of-20 from 3-point range, led by Kelsey Bolte who was 5-of-6 from downtown and finished with a game-high 23 points.

Iowa State also took full advantage of its trips to the foul line. The Cyclones hit 24 straight free-throw attempts before missing their last two. By contrast, the Buffaloes took just seven shots from the charity stripe, making five.

Kelly Jo Mullaney scored a career-high 20 points, 17 of which came in the first half, on 8-of-11 from the field. She hit all four 3-point attempts, also a career high.

Bolte hit her first three 3-point attempts to help the Cyclones build an early 14-8 lead. Mullaney then went on a tear. The sophomore guard hit her first seven attempts from the field, including three 3-pointers. She scored 13 in a row to lead the Buffaloes back and when Richards connected on a layup with 6:12 left, Colorado took its first lead of the game at 25-24.

Alison Lacey and Ashley Arlen answered with back-to-back 3-pointers and Iowa State went on an 8-0 run to take a 32-25 advantage. Richards brought the Buffs back to within five at halftime, 36-31, scoring CU's last eight points of the period.

Brittany Spears scored the first four points of the second half to cut the Iowa State lead to one (36-35), but Iowa State broke open the game with a 14-1 run over the next four minutes. Colorado got the lead back down to 10 at 52-42 after consecutive 3-pointers by Bianca Smith and Alyssa Fressle, but Lacey hit a 3-pointer to spark a 21-9 ISU run.

Fressle had eight points and tied a career-high and team season high with eight assists. The Cyclones held Spears, CU's leading scorer, to just eight points on 3-of-10 from the field.

Lacey had 20 points for the Cyclones, including 10-of-10 from the free-throw line. Nicky Wieben had 19 points and two blocks.

Yale recording 19 points on a perfect 7-of-7 from the field to go along with nine assists, seven rebounds, five steals and two blocks.

Malcolm-Peck leads CU and ranks eighth in the Big 12 in blocks (1.1 bpg). Her 31 blocks on the season are the fifth best by a freshman in team history. She is fourth on the team in rebounding (3.6 rpg) and sixth in scoring (5.3 ppg). Malcolm-Peck has delivered clutch performances in both of CU's road Big 12 wins. In the overtime win at Missouri, she coralled a key defensive rebound off a Missouri missed free throw which resulted in Brittany Spears' game-tying 3-pointer. Malcolm-Peck then scored the game-winner on a scooping layup with 55 seconds remaining in overtime. At Kansas State, she grabbed an offensive rebound off a free throw miss, was fouled and then drilled both attempts with 17 seconds remaining to give CU a four-point lead (61-57) en route to a 63-57 triumph.

FRESSLE HEATING UP: After a slow start, sophomore guard Alyssa Fressle is finding her freshman form that gained her a spot on the 2009 Big 12 All-Rookie team. Fressle has scored in double digits in six of the last seven games, and the one game during that span she didn't (Nebraska), she tied a personal best by dishing out eight assists. She is second on the team in assists (2.5 apg) while ranking third in steals (1.4 spg) and fourth in scoring (7.5 ppg). Her numbers have improved during the Big 12 schedule as she is averaging 9.1 points and 1.7 steals per outing. Her 26 steals during the conference schedule rank seventh best among league players.

GETTING 'ER DUNN: Senior center Courtney Dunn is has scored in double-digits in seven games this year and also has two double-doubles. She achieved her doubles, the first two of her career, during a four-game span. She had a career outing against Oklahoma State tying a career high (Denver) and setting a new Big 12 personal best 16 points while nabbing a career high and team single season high 14 rebounds. She also had a double-double at Texas Tech recording 10 points and a then personal-best 11 rebounds. She is averaging 6.7 points and 4.9 rebounds over the 15 league contests. Overall she has 165 points (6.1 ppg) and 121 rebounds (4.5 rpg) this season (27 games) after recording just 94 points and 85 rebounds combined in her first two seasons (48 games).

MULLANEY BOLSTERS BENCH: Junior guard Kelly Jo Mullaney continues to give Colorado key minutes and punch off the bench. She has provided double-digit minutes in 10 of the last 14 games and has made seven of her last 11 from 3-point range. Mullaney averages 3.9 points and 1.9 rebounds for the Buffaloes and has hit 18-of-32 from 3-point range on the season. She had made just nine 3-pointers in 28 games in 2008-09. Mullaney is 12-of-20 from 3-point range during the Big 12 schedule.

ABOUT THE CYCLONES: No. 13 (AP & WBCA) ranked Iowa State is 22-6 overall and tied with Oklahoma for second place in the Big 12 at 10-5. The Cyclones defeated OU earlier this season, so a win on Saturday would guarantee the No. 2 seed for the upcoming Big 12 Championship. Regardless of outcome, the Cyclones have clinched a top four seed and the ever important first round bye. Iowa State averages 67 points per game while shooting 44 percent from the field. ISU is the Big 12's top 3-point shooting team at 8.0 per game and also leads the league in 3-point percentage (.395) and scoring defense (53.3 ppg).

Senior guard Alison Lacey leads the Cyclones at 17.1 points and 6.5 assists per game, but is expected to miss a second straight game with an illness. Junior Kelsey Bolte is second in scoring at 12.4 points per contest. Chelsea Poppens leads the Cyclones in rebounds at SERIES RECORDS: This will be the 65th meeting between Colorado and Iowa State with the Buffaloes holding a 36-28 series edge. The Cyclones have held the upper hand in recent years, winning seven straight and 12 of the last 13 contests. Iowa State holds a 14-12 advantage in Ames and has won five straight. CU's last win at Hilton was a 62-51 decision on Jan. 25, 2004. Kathy McConnell-Miller is 1-9 against Iowa State, with all 10 games coming while at Colorado.

AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS: Colorado will be looking to end a 21-game losing streak against ranked teams and 18-game skid against teams ranked in both AP and WBCA Coaches polls (Iowa State was ranked only in the WBCA poll in the meeting earlier this season as was Kansas State in two meetings in 2008-09). CU's last win over a ranked opponent was a 73-68 decision over No. 15/15 Kansas State on Feb. 23, 2008.

ACADEMIC HONORS: Sophomores Alyssa Fressle and Julie Seabrook were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Conference Women's Basketball First Team, the league office announced on March 4. The league academic honor is the first for both players, in their first season of eligibility for this recognition.

Fressle, a native of Highlands Ranch, Colo., ranks second on the team in assists (2.5 apg), third in steals (1.4) and fourth in scoring (7.5 ppg). A member of the 2009 All-Big 12 Freshman team, Fressle has picked up her game of late, scoring double digits in six of her last seven games. Named to the Fall 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll, Fressle is majoring in business.

Seabrook, a native of North Vancouver, B.C., has appeared in 26 of 28 games this season averaging 6.5 minutes and just under two rebounds per game. She has hit 52 percent of her shots from the floor this season (11-of-21) and also has four assists, two steals in one block. Seabrook, who earned a spot on the Fall 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll, is majoring in business.

Nominated by each institution's director of student-athlete support services and media relations offices, the women's basketball academic all-league squad consisted of 34 first team members combined with 13 on the second team. First team members have recorded a 3.20 or better GPA, while the second team are those with a 3.00 to 3.19 GPA. To qualify student-athletes must maintain a 3.00 GPA or higher either cumulative or in the two previous semesters and have participated in 60 percent of her team's scheduled contests.

Since the formation of the Big 12 for the 1996-97 season, CU's women's basketball team has had 59 Academic All-Big 12 selections, including 40 first team honorees.

MORE 'O': Prior to the loss to Texas A&M, Colorado had found its offensive rhythm averaging 75 points per contest over a three game stretch. CU's string of three-straight 70-plus point games were its most in the Big 12 in the same season since it scored 70-plus in 11 straight in 2002.

In large part, the Buffaloes' success from 3-point range accounted for the surge in scoring. Colorado had 15 3-pointers at Nebraska and 14 more at Missouri. The 15 3's at Nebraska are the Buffaloes most ever on the road, and second best single-game total in team history.

The 29 3-pointers made over a two game span are the most in the CU annals. The Buffaloes had a string of 27 over two games against Northern Colorado (13) and Colorado State (14) in 2007.

BIG 12 HONORS BUFFS: Colorado has been cited by the Big 12 Conference for weekly honors three times this season. Junior Brittany Spears was named the Phillips 66 Big 12 Co-Player of the Week on Nov. 23, Meagan Malcolm-Peck was the Freshman of the Week on Dec. 28 and Chucky Jeffery was named top freshman on Jan. 11.

CU's three weekly recognitions are its most since 2007-08 when Spears was named Freshman of the Week four times and Bianca Smith was Player of the Week once. It is also the first time that two different CU newcomers have earned Freshman/Rookie of the Week honors in the same season since 2004-05 when Kara Richards and Jackie McFarland were both recognized.

Jeffery averaged 15.5 points, 7.5 rebounds, 6.5 assists and 5.0 steals in Colorado's wins over Yale and Missouri. She tied a career-best with 19 points, connecting on all seven of her field goals attempts against Yale. Displaying her all-around game, Jeffery also registered a personal and team season-best nine assists to go along with seven rebounds, five steals and two blocked shots. Jeffery made her Big 12 debut by scoring 12 points and equaling a career-best eight rebounds and five steals in the win over Missouri. She hit 5-of-10 from the floor and also dished out four assists.

Malcolm-Peck pulled down a team-high 10 rebounds with four points in Colorado's win over San Jose State - her second double-digit rebounding effort of the season. She also recorded personal bests with four steals and three assists while tying a career high with three blocked shots. Malcolm-Peck's four steals came in the first eight minutes of the game as the Buffaloes built a 46-13 lead in the first half. For Malcolm-Peck it is her first weekly honor.

Spears was named to the Minnesota Subway Classic All-Tournament team after averaging 23 points and 10 rebounds in two games. She scored 19 points and pulled down seven rebounds in 25 minutes in the 63-49 win over Illinois-Chicago. She then recorded her 17th career double-double and second of the season with a game-high 27 points and 13 rebounds against Minnesota in the tournament final. She reached a double-double before intermission with 16 points and 10 rebounds in the opening 20 minutes. Spears hit 10-of-20 shots from the field and added four assists and four steals.

For Spears it was her fifth career Big 12 weekly honor, and first as Player of the Week.

STEAL-Y EYED: Colorado has been picking up steals in bunches this season. CU, which ranks third in the Big 12 in steals at 8.7 per game, has double-digit steals in 12 of 28 games this season. CU had only five games with double-digit steals in 2008-09. The 12 games of double-digit steals are the most in a season since the Buffaloes had 12 in 2003-04.

INDIVIDUALLY SPEAKING: Junior Brittany Spears leads Colorado with 58 steals this season and her 2.1 per game average ranks fourth in the Big 12. Spears, who already ranks 11th on CU's all-time steals list with 170, is the first player since CU All-American Shelley Sheetz to record 50 steals in each of her first three seasons (1991-92 to 1993-94). Freshman Chucky Jeffery is right behind Spears in number with 56 steals, ranking third in the Big 12 on a per game basis (2.1 spg).

CLIMBING THE LADDERS: Junior Brittany Spears and Senior Bianca Smith continue to make their impressions on the CU record book.

Spears, who became just the second player in team history (Lisa Van Goor) to reach 1,000 points as a sophomore, is tied with Erin Carson (1984-88) for ninth in all-time scoring (1,501). She is also sixth in 3-pointers made (153) and attempted (453), seventh in blocked shots (114), ninth in rebounds (716), 11th in steals (170), 12th in field goals made (545) and 17th in free throws made (258).

Smith is CU's all-time leader in 3-pointers made (256) and attempted (698). She is the Big 12's active career leader in 3-pointers made and is ninth on the league's all-time 3-point list. Smith is 18th on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,135.

RECORD NIGHT FROM '3': Colorado was on fire at Nebraska, making 15 3-point field goals on just 27 attempts (.556). The 15 3-pointers made were the Buffaloes most ever on the road and the second-best total in team history, just one off the 16 made against Buffalo on Jan. 3, 2004. Additionally, the 15 3-pointers set a Bob Devaney Sports Center record as well as a Nebraska opponent mark.

Colorado ranks second in the Big 12 and 13th in the nation (through games of Feb. 28) at 7.8 3-pointers made per game. CU's 215 3-pointers rank second on CU's single-season list, trailing only the 2007-08 WNIT semifinalist squad which holds the current school record with 236.

SUCCESS FROM THE LINE: Colorado is having one of its best seasons in team history from the free throw line, currently leading the Big 12 at 75.9 percent (344-of-453). That current percentage would rank as the team's third-best single season mark trailing only the 2000-01 team that shot 77.4 percent and the 2001-02 squad that shot 76.4 percent. Colorado was ranked 21st in the nation at 75.3 percent through games of Feb. 28.

Bianca Smith leads CU and ranks second in the Big 12 at 88.7 percent (63-of-71). She has made her last 23 free throw attempts, dating back to the Oklahoma game. Smith had a string of 25 straight made free throws from Nov. 22 (Minnesota) to Jan. 16 (Iowa State). Smith's current mark would tie for the fifth-best in team history. Her 82.9 career percentage currently ranks sixth on CU's all-time list.

Brittany Spears leads Colorado in free throws made (103) and attempted (123) and is second on the team and fifth in the Big 12 percentage (.837). Chucky Jeffery has the 15th best percentage in the Big 12 at 74.2 (66-of-89).

HOUSTON TAKES LEAVE: Junior guard Whitney Houston has taken a leave of absence from the women's basketball team for personal reasons Kathy McConnell-Miller announced prior to CU's Big 12 opening win over Missouri. Houston, a native of Memphis, Tenn., had appeared in 12 of CU's 13 games prior to the announcement, logging two starts and averaging 4.2 points and 1.3 assists per game. No timetable has been set on her return.

SHUTTING DOWN OPPONENT'S 'O' EARLY: Colorado held San Jose State to 13 first-half points. Combined with the 11 allowed against Southern Utah in the previous game, the 24 points in back-to-back first halves are the lowest combined total in team history. The previous low total was 27 in 2001-02 in games against San Diego (36-18) and Bowling Green (53-9).

NUGGETS FROM THE SOUTHERN UTAH GAME: Colorado's 88-36 win over Southern Utah entered the Buffaloes' record book on several fronts:

Colorado's 42 point halftime lead (53-11) tied for the second largest in team history. The Buffaloes also held a 42 point lead against Colorado State on Nov. 16 1979 (63-21). The school record is a 44 point lead CU had against Bowling Green on Nov. 23, 2001 (53-9).

2009-10 Opponents in Bold

Southern Utah's 11 first half points tied for the fifth fewest by a CU opponent in any half. The school record is 8 set against Kansas State on March 7, 1992 (46-8).

Fewest Points In One Half By An Opponent

Date	Opponent	Points
3/7/92	vs. Kansas State	8
11/23/01	vs. Bowling Green	9
12/9/98	at Wyoming	10
12/31/91	vs. New Mexcio	10
12/19/09	vs. Southern Utah	11
3/17/95	vs. SW Missouri State	11

Colorado's final winning margin of 52 points are CU's most since a 96-44 win over Bowling Green on Nov. 23, 2001.

Southern Utah's 36 total points tied for the 10th fewest allowed in team history and the fewest since giving up 35 to Kansas on Jan. 16, 2002.

IMPRESSIVE POINT SWING: The 63 point swing from last year's 77-40 loss to Seton Hall to this year's 80-54 win is the second largest in a series in team history (games no longer than two seasons apart). The Buffaloes had a 67 point swing against Idaho State during the 1981-82 season. Here are the top point swings in team history.

Opponent	Margin	Date	Margin	Date	Difference
Idaho State	-6 (55-61)	1/22/82	+61 (116-55)	2/13/82	+67

FRESHMAN DEBUTS: A pair of true freshmen made their collegiate debuts and made significant contributions to the Buffaloes comeback win against UC Irvine. Forward Meagan Malcolm-Peck got the starting nod and responded with six points, 11 rebounds, three blocks and three steals. Guard Chucky Jeffery came off the bench and registered four points, seven rebounds, three assists and two steals. Malcolm-Peck's start marked the fourth straight year the Buffaloes have had a freshman in the initial season starting lineup. The three others: Bianca Smith in 2006, Brittany Spears in 2007 and Alyssa Fressle in 2008.

MEMORABLE COMEBACK: Colorado's comeback from a 14-point halftime deficit to win against UC Irvine ties for the third-largest margin achieved in team history. The Buffaloes trailed the Anteaters 33-19 at the break before outscoring them 42-23 in the final 20 minutes.

Colorado came back from 19 down against the University of Washington on Dec. 21, 1982, at the Guisti Tournament in Portland, Ore. CU trailed 35-16 at halftime before winning 67-65. Colorado came back from 15 points down against Kansas State on Jan. 31, 2007, that game included a 23-0 second half run.

CAPTAINS NAMED: Before the season opener head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller announced that Brittany Spears, Whitney Houston and Bianca Smith were named captains for the 2009-10 season. Smith is a captain for the second straight year while Houston and Spears are first time captains. CU captains are voted on by the players.

BUFFS IN OPENERS: Colorado is now 31-5 (.861) all-time in season openers and started the season with a home game for the 24th time in 36 seasons. Colorado is an outstanding 34-2 (.944) all-time in home openers. Colorado has never lost its overall season opener when played at home (24-0).

TOUGH SCHEDULE: Colorado once again faces a tough schedule with potentially 16 games -- or 55 percent of the regular season schedule -- against 2009 NCAA or WNIT tournament teams. Eight of CU's 2009-10 opponents are currently ranked in both the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Coaches and Associated Press polls.

HOME AT THE CECC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 340-114 all-time record at the Coors Events/Conference Center (.749). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CECC in 21 of the previous 32 years. The Buffaloes have enjoyed five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94) at the CECC.

BUFFS ON TV: Colorado's regular season schedule featured nine games televised either regionally or nationally, eight of which were at home. CU opened its first of eight FSN Rocky Mountain games on Dec. 2, against Denver. FSN Rocky Mountain also televised home games against Virginia (Jan. 2), Missouri (Jan. 9), Iowa State (Jan. 16), Oklahoma State (Jan. 24), Nebraska (Jan. 30), Texas (Feb. 10) and Kansas (Feb. 16). The games against Missouri and Oklahoma State were televised nationally on FSN as part of the network's Big 12 package. Colorado's game at Kansas State (Jan. 20) was produced by FSN Kansas City, but was also picked up by

FSN Rocky Mountain.

CU has appeared on 81 regional or national telecasts over the last nine seasons.

BUFFS SIGN THREE: Shae Kelley, Ashley Wilson and Brittany Wilson have signed National Letters of Intent to play basketball and continue their education at the University of Colorado in 2010-11, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller announced Nov. 12, during the NCAA early signing period. Kelley, a 6-foot forward from Denver, is a two-time All-State honorable mention and All-Denver Prep League pick out of East High School. Kelley will be the fifth Denver Public Schools player to suit up for the Buffaloes and the first since Montbello's Nikki Weddle (1997-99). Ashley and Brittany are identical twin 5-8 guards from Long Beach, Calif. Playing for one of the most storied programs in Southern California, the Wilson twins have won three consecutive CIF Division I state titles with nationally-ranked Long Beach Poly.

SMITH GAINS FULL SEASON: Senior guard Bianca Smith was formally released from the National Letter of Intent she originally signed at the University of Tulsa earlier this summer, allowing her to gain back the semester of eligibility she would have otherwise had to surrender this season. Smith is now eligible to play the entire 2009-10 season for the Buffaloes. Smith, a native of Missouri City, Texas, had signed an NLI in November 2004 with Tulsa, who at the time was coached by current CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller. When McConnell-Miller took over the Colorado program in April 2005, Smith decided to follow her to Boulder.

She never enrolled at Tulsa, but was faced with sitting out two full seasons, one for not honoring her NLI commitment to Tulsa and a second for transferring to another NCAA Division I school. Smith was able to use her redshirt year to fulfill the NCAA transfer obligation, sitting out the 2005-06 season. She successfully petitioned the NLI Appeals Committee in 2005 to gain one semester back, but was still faced with losing one semester under the NLI commitment.

In the spring of 2009 then-CU-Boulder Chancellor Bud Peterson contacted Tulsa President, Dr. Steadman Upham, on behalf of Smith and the University of Colorado to ask for Smith's full release. Thanks to cooperation from both universities and athletic departments, Smith was released and rewarded a full final season.

BUFFS PICKED 11TH...AGAIN: For the fourth straight season Colorado was picked to finish 11th in the annual Big 12 Conference Preseason Coaches Poll.

In one of the closest votes at the top in recent memory, Baylor was picked to win the 2010 title with five first place votes and 109 total points, edging out Texas and Kansas who tied for second with 106 points (3 first place votes each). Texas A&M was picked fourth with 87 votes and picked up the final first place vote. Defending champion Oklahoma was fifth (86), followed by Nebraska (80), Iowa State (59), Kansas State (44), Oklahoma State (41), Texas Tech (38), Colorado (22) and Missouri (15).

The Buffaloes have fared better than the Big 12 coaches preseason prediction three of four seasons under Kathy McConnell-Miller:

Season	Preseason	Actual
2009-10	11th	11th
2008-09	11th	12th
2007-08	11th	9th
2006-07	11th	t-7th
2005-06	12th	11th

Kathy McConnell-Miller
Head Coach
Fifth Season

When Kathy McConnell-Miller took over the University of Colorado program four years ago, there's no question the Buffaloes were rebuilding and the team was a work in progress.

In four seasons at Colorado, there is no question that McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes have made progress and the program is heading in the right direction.

McConnell-Miller, 41, sports a 65-86 record in her four-plus seasons at Colorado and is 156-174 overall in 10-plus seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach.

Injuries, graduation and playing in the nation's premier women's basketball conference, the Big 12, hampered the progress her teams had built her first three seasons in 2008-09 as the Buffaloes struggled to an 11-18 mark and a 12th place finish in league play. But returning nine contributing players and adding the 32nd best recruiting class in the nation has the Buffaloes pointing in the right direction once again.

The 2009-10 season will mark the first year in which the Buffaloes are comprised completely of players coach McConnell-Miller brought to campus. She fared well with the players inherited from legendary CU head coach Ceal Barry, but she has also excelled in bringing in her own players. McConnell-Miller, and her staff, who from day one have established a family type atmosphere in the lockerroom and a fighting spirit in their players, have been committed to keeping Colorado's best players home, and have certainly succeeded on that front.

For three straight seasons, Colorado has landed at least one of the state's premier prep stars, beginning in 2007 with Aija Putnina, who contributed two solid seasons for the Buffaloes, including the 2008 WNIT run, before returning to her native Latvia to pursue a professional career. In 2008, the Buffaloes landed the consensus Colorado Player of the Year Alyssa Fressle out of Highlands Ranch, who made an immediate contribution and was rewarded with a spot on the Big 12 All-Rookie Team.

CU hit the state jackpot in 2009 with three All-Colorado caliber players; twins Meagan and Brenna Malcolm-Peck, Boulder natives who played at Horizon High School, and Chucky Jeffery, one of the top Class 4A players in 2009 for Sierra High School in Colorado Springs. The regional additions of Kailah Bailey and Melissa MacFarlane, both of Omaha, Neb., have given the Buffaloes their third Top 40 class in the last four years.

In 2006, Colorado had the No. 29 ranked class according to the All-Star Girls Report. What was remarkable about the class of 2006 is McConnell-Miller and her staff didn't even have the chance to start on the recruiting trail until April when they arrived in Boulder. Despite that late start, McConnell-Miller and her staff managed to sign five top 150 players, including Whitney Houston and Putnina who made significant contributions in their first two seasons.

Her first three seasons at Colorado were marked by significant improvement each year. From a nine-win season her first year in Boulder, to a 13-17 mark in 2006-07, in 2007-08 she guided the Buffaloes to a 19-15 record and the team's first winning season and postseason berth since the 2003-04 campaign.

McConnell-Miller experienced quite a few firsts during CU's memorable 2007-08 season. She led Colorado to its first Associated Press national ranking in four seasons, peaking at No. 23, and in the process became the 22nd person in NCAA Division I women's history to coach and play for an AP ranked team.

McConnell-Miller's Buffaloes beat three ranked teams in 2007-08 - another first in four years - and finished ninth in the tough Big 12 Conference at 5-11. With a league-record eight Big 12 teams advancing to the NCAA Tournament, CU gained the conference's automatic bid into the WNIT where the Buffaloes proceeded to advance to the semifinals before falling to eventual tournament champion Marquette. It was CU's first ever appearance in the semifinals of a postseason event and for McConnell-Miller, she claimed the first three postseason wins of her head coaching career (3-3).

The signs of progress were also evident in her second season, 2006-07, when the Buffaloes finished tied for seventh in the Big 12 at 6-10. CU's six league wins in 2006-07 were more than the previous two years combined (3-13 in 2005-06 and 2-14 in 2004-05) and the Buffs won their first Big 12 Tournament game since 2003.

McConnell-Miller, who officially became the sixth head coach in the history of CU women's basketball on April 27, 2005, presided over the development of Jackie McFarland, one of the top players in the Big 12 from 2004-08. McFarland was a two-time AP honorable mention All-American and three-time All-Big 12 selection including back-to-back first team honors in 2007 and 2008. All-league selections are nothing new to McConnell-Miller as she has had at least one first or second team all-conference performer in each of her 10 seasons as a collegiate head coach. The latest in her run of all-star caliber players is junior Brittany Spears who last season became just the second player in team history to reach 1,000 points by the end of her sophomore year.

The Buffaloes have also had academic success in the McConnell-Miller era. In her three seasons, McConnell-Miller has coached 12 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball team members and helped guide McFarland to three ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors, including first team acclaim in 2007-08.

Before arriving at CU, McConnell-Miller spent six seasons as head coach at the University of Tulsa where she constructed an impressive turnaround of the Golden Hurricane program. Before her arrival in 1999-2000, Tulsa had just one winning season in its 14-year history, an overall record of 81-250 (.324), and was actually dropped as a varsity sport for nine years following the 1986-87 campaign. In her six seasons at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller recorded a program-best 91 wins (15.2 wins per year), winning seasons in three of the last four years and two postseason appearances.

She left as Tulsa's all-time leader for coaching victories with a record of 91-88 and owns the longest tenure in school history by a women's basketball coach. McConnell-Miller, who earned WAC Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season as a collegiate head coach in 1999-00, led Tulsa to 14 or more wins in five of her six campaigns.

Under the direction of McConnell-Miller, Tulsa placed at least one player on either the All-WAC first or second team, each of her six seasons. McConnell-Miller also had the Golden Hurricane excelling in the classroom sporting four ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first and second team performers. Tulsa players also earned 23 All-WAC Academic Team honors. One of McConnell-Miller's prize players was Allison Curtin who was an AP honorable mention All-American for the Golden Hurricane and was drafted by the Houston Comets in the first round of the 2003 WNBA Draft.

Prior to her appointment at Tulsa, McConnell-Miller spent four seasons on Theresa Grentz's staff at the University of Illinois (1995-99). She was an assistant coach for her first three years before being promoted to associate head coach for her final season. The Fighting Illini posted an overall record of 76-45 and advanced to three NCAA Tournaments with McConnell-Miller on the bench. Illinois won the Big Ten Conference Championship in 1997 and twice advanced to the Sweet 16. While at Illinois, McConnell-Miller was vital in the signing of a pair of recruiting classes that ranked among the top five in the nation.

McConnell-Miller coached with Grentz for a total of six years as she went with Grentz to Illinois from Rutgers University in 1995. McConnell-Miller was a Rutgers assistant for two seasons (1993-95), helping the Lady Knights post a pair of winning campaigns, the 1994 Atlantic 10 Championship and a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Her recruiting expertise was well documented at Rutgers as her last class was rated as the 14th-best nationally, giving McConnell-Miller back-to-back Top 15 classes.

Her first collegiate assistant coaching job came at her hometown school, the University of Pittsburgh. She joined the Panthers in 1991 and served as the recruiting coordinator. She was also an assistant coach for the 1993 Big East All-Star Team which played in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

She is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, and was inducted into the Seton LaSalle High School Hall of Fame in October of 2006.

McConnell-Miller enjoyed a four-year playing career at guard for the University of Virginia (1986-90). She played in four NCAA Tournaments with the Cavaliers including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and the 1988 Elite Eight. McConnell-Miller earned her bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications from Virginia in 1989.

One of eight children, she is one of six McConnell siblings who attended college on a basketball scholarship.

Four McConnell's are presently in the coaching ranks, three at the college level and one at the high school level. Her older sister, Suzie McConnell Serio is currently the head coach of Duquesne University and was the head coach of the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA for three seasons (2003-06).

Born on Sept. 24, 1967, McConnell-Miller and her husband, Brad Miller, have three children: Brice (9), Mackenzie (8) and Macie (4).

#2 Bianca Smith, 5-9, Senior, Guard, Missouri City, Texas (Bellaire)

This Season:

- CU's all-time leader in 3-pointers made (256) and attempted (698). She passed Shelley's Sheetz's (1991-95) previous record of 252 during the Texas A&M game.

- Averaging 20.7 points over the past three games, including tying a career high with 26 points at Missouri. Against the tigers she also set personal bests in field goals made and attempted (9-of-20), 3-point attempts (15) and minutes (42).

- The 23rd player in team history to reach 1,000, reaching that milestone at Kansas.

- Has at least three 3-pointers in 17 games and has made six on four occasions.

- Her 13.6 points per game ranks second best among players primarily coming off the bench in the Big 12 and 13th overall.

- Leads the Big 12 in 3-pointers made (2.9 3mpg), is second in free-throw percentage (.887) and is 13th in 3-point percentage (.362).

- Her 81 3-pointers made and 224 attempted are school season records.

- Has hit her last 23 free throws since the game at Oklahoma. Had a string of 25 straight free throws made from Nov. 22 (Minnesota) to Jan. 16 (Iowa State).

- Her current season free throw average of .887 would rank fifth on CU's single season list and her current career average of .829 would rank sixth on the career charts.

- Selected to the Omni Hotels Classic and Minnesota Subway Classic All-Tournament Teams

- Named one of three team captains for the 2009-10 season. She was also a tri-captain in 2008-09.

Career:

- Big 12 Conference active career leader in 3-pointers and ninth on the league's all-time list.

- As a junior, she tied school records for 3-pointers made in one game (7) and one half

(5) in twice in a three-game span (at Missouri & home vs. Nebraska)

- As a junior, ranked second in the Big 12 in 3-point accuracy (.382) and her 2.2 3-pointers per game ranked third among all league players.

- Her 143 3-pointers from 2007-09 is the second-best two-year span in team history.

- Made 112 3-pointers in her first two seasons, the second most by a CU player, trailing only Shelley Sheetz who had 128 from 1991-93.

- Set single-season school records for 3-point field goals made (80) and attempted (217) as a sophomore.

- Named CU's Most Improved Player for 2007-08.

- Named Big 12 Player of the Week on Dec. 10, 2007, after averaging 19.0 points on 57 percent shooting in wins over #22/21 Wyoming and #20/17 Vanderbilt.

- As a sophomore, ranked fourth in the Big 12 in 3-point field goals made (2.4 mpg) and in 3-point percentage (.369).

- Led Colorado in free-throw percentage as a sophomore (.857).

- Had the sixth most 3-point field goals among freshmen in the Big 12 in 2007 with 32 and ranked 14th on the Big 12 charts in 3-point field-goal percentage (.348).

- Sat out the 2005-06 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program.

- A 2005 graduate of Bellaire High School where she was a four-year letter winner as a guard/forward. She earned District MVP and first team all-district honors as a senior, leading Bellaire to a 36-5 record and averaging 18.5 points and 15.3 rebounds per game.

- She won an AAU national championship with the Houston Elite club program. Smith's high school honors include being named a Houston Girls Athlete of the Week.

- Her step-father Johnnie played football for the University of Houston and the San Francisco 49ers for five years, helping the 49ers to a NFL title in Super Bowl XXIV.

#3 Whitney Houston, 5-5, Junior, Guard, Memphis, Tenn. (Hillcrest)

This Season:

- Has taken a leave of absence from the team for personal reasons as of Jan. 9. No time table has been set for her return.

- Made her second start of the season against Grambling State, subbing for the injured Chucky Jeffery.

- Dished out a season-best five assists against Seton Hall.

- Played in her first game since April 2008, scoring 11 points on 5-of-10 shooting and two steals against UC Irvine.

- Missed the Illinois-Chicago game with a slight concussion sustained in the season opener, but returned against Minnesota scoring 10 points and dishing out three assists.

Career:

- Redshirted the 2008-09 season after suffering a season-ending knee injury in preseason workouts.

- Named CU's "Sixth Man" Award winner for 2007-08. She was CU's leader in scoring and assists among those players who primarily came off the bench.

- Averaged 9.5 points and two assists in four 2008 WNIT games and turned the ball over just five times, and only once in the final three games.

- Had 15 3-pointers in 2008-09 after going just 1-of-17 in 29 games as a freshman.

- Won the team's Most Improved Player Award after the 2006-07 season.

- Led CU in assists with 64 in 2006-07, the first freshman to do so since Linda Lappe did it in 1998-99.

- Ranked fifth in assists (2.2) and eighth in scoring (7.9 ppg) among freshmen in the Big 12 Conference.

- A 2006 graduate of Hillcrest High School in Memphis where she led the Lady Vikings to the Tennessee Class AA state title as a senior. She was the state tournament MVP as Hillcrest finished with a 35-3 record and delivered the Memphis area its first girls Division 1 basketball state title in 21 years.

- A Miss Basketball finalist in Tennessee, averaging 19 points, six assists and three rebounds per game as a senior. She was a Class AA All-State first team selection and also earned Class AA All-Metro and District MVP honors.

- A four-time member of the Memphis Commercial Appeal's Best of the Preps/ All-Metro Class A-AA team and was one of five finalists for the overall girls basketball Best of the Preps award as a junior and senior.

- She lists the biggest moments of her career as being inducted into the Honor Society and winning the state championship.

- She is a women's studies major at Colorado.

#4 Britney Blythe, 5-9, Junior, Guard, San Mateo, Calif., (St. Ignatius Prep)

This season:

- Dished out her first assist of the season against San Jose State.
- Recorded her first rebound of the season against Southern Utah.

- Scored 11 points and had two assists and two steals in her collegiate debut against San Francisco. USF is located about five miles from where she played in high school for St. Ignatius Prep in San Francisco.

- A two-time Street & Smith All-American and a two-time All-West Catholic Athletic League second team selection.

- Her father Donovan Blythe played basketball at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside

- Blythe is an international affairs major at Colorado and aspires to be a business woman or possibly a doctor.

- Her favorite things about Boulder are the mountains, the Glacier Ice Cream Shop and the Women's Basketball team.

- Her hobbies include reading, doing arts & crafts, sleeping and having a good time with friends & family.

- Made her season debut by playing in the final minute of the win against Georgia Southern.

Career:

- Set career highs in points (12), field-goals made (4) and field-goal attempts (6) in the Baylor game as a sophomore.

- Scored 36 of her 2008-09 season's 57 points during the Big 12 schedule.

- Made her first four 3-point field-goal attempts against the Lady Bears. Had only made 1-of-12 from downtown prior to the Baylor game and 5-of-33 in her career.

- Had an assist in 19 of 26 games this season.

- Played in 21 games as a freshman, averaging just under two points per game.

#14 Meagan Malcolm-Peck, 6-2, Freshman, Forward, Boulder, Colo. (Horizon)

This Season:

- Returned to the starting lineup against Kansas State after coming off the bench the previous four games.

- Hit the game-winning shot against Missouri in overtime, a layup with 55 seconds remaining.

- Scored a personal Big 12 best nine points in the home game against Nebraska.

- Ranks second in blocks among Big 12 freshman and eighth overall on the league charts.

- Her team leading 31 blocks ranks as the fifth best freshman season total in team history.

- Delivered one of the clutch performances of the season at Kansas State. After making just 7-of-16 free-throw attempts to begin her collegiate career, she sank two free-throws with 17 seconds remaining to give CU a four-point lead en route to the Buffs' 63-57 road win.

- Registered a career high 19 points against Yale for her fourth double-digit scoring performance of the season and second in three games.

- Was a perfect 4-of-4 from the 3-point line against Yale, just one off the school record for 3-pointers without a miss in one game (Jenny Roulier, 5-of-5 against Missouri on Feb. 13, 2002). Her four 3-pointers were a career high.

- Named Big 12 Freshman of the Week on Dec. 28 after recording 10 rebounds, four points, four steals, three assists and three blocks against San Jose State.

- Got the starting nod against UC Irvine, marking the fourth straight season the Buffaloes had a freshman in the season opening starting lineup.

- She had a memorable start, grabbing 11 rebounds against UC Irvine, six of which came on the offensive end. Her 11 boards are the third most in team history by a freshman in her CU debut and the most in 27 years.

Career:

- A 2009 Denver Post Colorado Class 5A All-State first team selection.

- Averaged 18.4 points and 8 rebounds as a senior guiding Horizon 25-2 record and a spot in the state semifinals.

- Horizon was ranked No. 1 in state most of the year and won the Front Range League title and the Black Division crown at the Nike Tournament of Champions where she was named MVP.

- Honorable mention all-state pick as a junior.

- In the summer of 2008 she played with the Blue Star Select Team, traveling to Reze, France, playing on the same team with her sister and current teammate Melissa MacFarlane.

- Was home schooled along with her twin sister and teammate, Brenna, while playing for Horizon which is located in Thornton, Colo.

- She is the younger of the Malcolm-Peck twins, born 27 minutes after Brenna on Oct. 8, 1990.

- She plans to major in business at Colorado and is interested in teaching and coaching kids.

#15 Julie Seabrook, 6-3, Sophomore, Forward, North Vancouver, B.C. (St. Mary's/NEDA)

This Season:

- Named to the 2010 Academic All-Big 12 Women's Basketball First Team.

- Scored a Big 12 personal best six points at Kansas, while grabbing four rebounds in 15 minutes.

- Has at least two rebounds in 10 of her last 18 games.

- Had a team-best seven rebounds against Southern Utah. The seven rebounds are the second-best, single-game total of her career.

- Scored her first points of the season with four against Denver.

- Made her first collegiate start in the season opener against UC Irvine.

Career:

- As a first year Buff, ranked fifth in field goal percentage and ninth in rebounding among freshmen in the Big 12.

- Logged her first career double-double with 12 points and 13 rebounds against Idaho State.

- Grabbed eight offensive rebounds against Idaho State, the most by a CU player since Jackie McFarland also had eight against Oklahoma on Jan. 20, 2007.

- Her 12 points off the bench against Idaho State were the most by a CU player in 2008-09.

- Helped the Canadian Junior National Team to a fourth place finish at the 2009 FIBA U19 World Championship for Women in Thailand, the country's best championship finish in that age group.

- Assisted in Canada qualifying for Worlds, with a second place finish in July 2008 at the FIBA Americas U18 Championship for Women in Argentina.

- Spent her "senior" year playing with Canada Basketball's National Elite Development Academy (NEDA), a national training program.

- Prior to joining the NEDA program, she played for Carson Graham Secondary School in North Vancouver where she was the Provincial MVP in 2006 and the Lower Mainlands MFP in 2007.

- Three-year member of the British Columbia Provincial team, winning a gold medal at the 2006 U17 National Championships.

#22 Brittany Spears, 6-1, Junior, Forward, Pasadena, Calif. (Pasadena/Notre Dame Prep)

This Season:

- Averaging 21.8 points over the last six games while shooting 49 percent from the field (48-of-98) and 52 percent from 3-point range (17-of-33).

- Recorded her 22nd career double-double, seventh of the season and third in Big 12 play with 34 points and 10 rebounds against Missouri. Her 22 double-doubles rank fifth on CU's all-time list.

- Has scored 20 or more points in 11 games.

- Has recorded double-digits in scoring in 55 of her last 61 games and 78 of 91 career outings.

- On the league charts she ranks fourth in scoring, steals and defensive rebounds (5.9 drpg), fifth in overall rebounds and free-throw percentage (.837), 11th in 3-pointers made (1.9 3mpg), 12th in 3-point percentage (.364) and 12th in blocks (1.0 bpg) and 13th in offensive rebounds (2.4 orgp).

- Named the Big 12 Women's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on Nov. 23. Her fifth career Big 12 weekly honor, and first as Player of the Week. She earned four Big 12 Rookie of the Week citations as a freshman in 2007-08.

- Named Omni Hotels Classic MVP, averaging 15.5 points and 9.0 rebounds over the two games.

- Named to the Minnesota Subway Classic All-Tournament team after averaging 23 points and 10 rebounds in two games.

Career:

- The sixth player in team history to record 1,500 points and 700 rebounds.

- 2009 All-Big 12 Conference second team selection.

- The second player in team history -- joining CU Athletic Hall of Famer Lisa Van Goor -- to reach 1,000 career points by the end of a sophomore season. Overall was the 22nd Buff to reach 1,000 and the second fastest.

- On CU's career charts ranks sixth in 3-pointers made (153) and attempted (453), seventh in blocks (114), ninth in scoring (1,501) and rebounds (716), 11th in steals (170), 12th in field goals made (545) and 17th in free throws made (258).

- As a sophomore on the Big 12 charts ranked second in minutes, third in scoring, fourth in defensive rebounds, seventh in overall rebounds, eighth in steals and 3-point percentage, ninth in blocks, 10th in field-goal percentage 12th in 3-pointers made and 14th in free-throw percentage.

- Her 18.3 point average as a sophomore stands as the sixth best single-season mark in team history and her 530 points rank ninth.

- The fifth player in team history with 400 points in each of her first two seasons, and the fourth to do it as a freshman-sophomore.

- Played all 40 minutes in a three-game stretch starting with the Missouri game. She is the first CU player to play 40 or more minutes in three straight games since Mandy Nightingale in 2000. In all played 172 consecutive minutes over five games (Oklahoma to Kansas).

- Named MVP of the Paradise Classic averaging 16 points, 7 rebounds and 3 blocks over the two game tournament. Averaged 26 points in the two games of the Coors Classic, earning All-Tournament honors.

- Scored a career high 36 points against UMass, a Classic record and tying for the third best total in team history (Jasmina Ilic scored 36 against Nebraska on Jan. 4, 2006). She also set Classic records for field goals in one game (12 vs. UMass) and field goal attempts over two games (40).

- Named to the All-Big 12 Rookie team and received honorable mention to the all-conference team.

- Named Big 12 Rookie of the Week four times in 2007-08, becoming the first CU player to earn four Big 12 weekly honors in the same season.

- The fourth different player, and second freshman, in team history to accomplish 450 points and 250 rebounds.

- The first player in team history to record 50 assists, 50 blocks and 50 steals in the same season and just the second to reach 40 in all three categories. Raegan Scott did it twice, as a junior in 1995-96 and senior in 1996-97.

- Second in scoring (472), tied with Erin Scholz (1993-94) for second in blocks (52), third in rebounds (259) and fifth in steals (57) on CU's all-time freshman charts.

This Season:

- Set a career high with three 3-pointers at Nebraska.
- Has two career double-doubles, both of which came in a four-game span earlier in the Big 12 schedule.
- Had a career night against Oklahoma State tying a career high (Denver) and setting a new Big 12 personal best 16 points while nabbing a career high and team single season high 14 rebounds.
- She also had a double-double at Texas Tech recording 10 points and a then personal-best 11 rebounds.
- Averaging 6.7 points and 4.9 rebounds over 15 league contests.
- Overall she has 165 points (6.1 ppg) and 121 rebounds (4.5 rpg) this season (26 games) after recording just 94 points and 85 rebounds combined in her first two seasons (48 games).
- Had a career night against Denver, logging personal bests with 16 points, 5-of-7 from the field and 4-of-4 from the line.
- Her 16 points equaled her total for the first five games of the season combined.
- Her previous career high was nine against Kansas (1/22/08), a mark she eclipsed in the first half alone (14).
- Made her first two collegiate starts at the Minnesota Subway Classic, averaging 5.0 points and 4.5 rebounds while shooting 50 percent in the two game set.
- A junior in eligibility, but a senior in school and is expecting to graduate with her class this spring.

Career:

- Appeared in 25 games in 2008-09, averaging just under 10 minutes per contest.
- Scored 40 points on the season with nine of her 13 field goals coming from beyond the 3-point arc.
- Played in 23 games as a redshirt freshman averaging 2.3 points and just under two rebounds per game.
- Sat out the 2006-07 season as a redshirt in the Colorado basketball program.
- A two-time All-Bay Shore League selection.
- Averaged 10 points and 12 rebounds in helping St. Mary's to a 21-13 record and a spot in the CIF Division IV North Coast Section finals and state quarterfinals.
- Won three straight regional championships with the East Bay Xplosion AAU program.
- She once lived in Africa for about two years and has done a lot of traveling.
- A psychology major at Colorado and is interested in pre-med (interactive physics).

BOULDER - Whitney Houston returned with a rush on Sunday. It almost made her year's absence worthwhile. Almost.

In her first game back after missing last season due to knee surgery, the junior point guard hit a layup and a three-pointer in crunch time to help push the Colorado women's basketball team past UC Irvine 61-56 in CU's season opener.

The Buffaloes trailed 33-19 at halftime. Rallying from that 14-point deficit at intermission ties for the third-largest comeback in school history.

Houston's layup gave the Buffaloes their first lead (54-52) of the game. Then she followed with her trey from the top of the key to allow CU breathing room it hadn't enjoyed for most of the afternoon.

"I guess I can say we needed it," Houston said of her late heroics. "It's my responsibility as a point guard . . . to give us that spark."

That she could provide it when necessary is a testament to her perseverance. "When you (miss) a year, nobody can duplicate that time off," Buffs coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "She's still finding her role and trying to figure it out."

Houston and teammate Bianca Smith finished with 11 points each, seven fewer than team high-scorer Brittany Spears, who opened her junior season with a double-double (18 points, 14 rebounds).

Attribute it to a case of opening afternoon jitters at the Coors Events Center, maybe the weekend snowstorm or perhaps something else outlandish, but it would have been difficult to imagine the Buffs starting more ineffectively. CU quickly found themselves behind 18-7 with 10 minutes to play in the half.

McConnell-Miller said her team's first half "was not up to expectations," adding UCI "came in with the mentality to win." While she was "proud of the way my team fought back to win," she said she doesn't want the Buffs to continue to put themselves in that position. "I don't like having to come back," she said.

How did the slow start happen? For starters, CU hit just four of its first 15 shots (26.7 percent) from the field and had trouble stopping UCI (0-2) in transition.

Rebounding was an early problem, too, with the Buffs finding themselves outboarded 16-7 with 7:48 left in the half. They managed to right themselves on the boards (CU outrebounded UCI 50-32 for the game), but their shooting stayed frigid through the opening half.

By halftime, CU was only 8-20 from the field (28.6 percent) and UCI was up 33-19, with Smith-Williams' dozen points - which included three-of-three from behind the arc - leading all scorers and keying a pair of 10-0 runs.

CU scored nine points to open the second half, pulling to within five (33-28) before UCI coach Molly Goodenbour called a timeout with 16:33 to play.

The five-point deficit was as close as the Buffs had been since trailing 22-17. But after an Anteaters turnover out of the timeout, Alyssa Fressle hit a short jumper in the lane and CU had trimmed the margin to 33-30.

A put-back by freshman Meagan Malcolm-Peck made it 33-32 and completed CU's 13-0 run to open the second half. With 14:15 to play, Smith-Williams' two free throws finally earned UCI its first second-half points.

But just as suddenly, the Anteaters were off and running again, outscoring the Buffs 12-2 over the next 4 minutes to reclaim a double-digit advantage (45-34) with just under 10 minutes remaining.

UCI matched its biggest lead of the afternoon - 14 points - on a layup by Kim Barnes that made the score 50-36.

But Houston and the Buffs weren't done. Smith's three-pointer and a three-point play by Spears helped bring them to 52-48 with 4:03 left.

A pair of free throws by Spears half a minute later pulled CU to 52-50. She tied the score at 52-52 on a short jumper, then watched her roommate, Houston, give the Buffs their first lead with 1:38 to play.

After Houston's clutch three-pointer, Kelly Jo Mullaney and Smith added two free throws each in the final 17.6 seconds to seal the win.

MINNEAPOLIS - Kelly Jo Mullaney was focused on returning home, and Kathy McConnell-Miller saw it on the floor.

In front of numerous family members and friends, Mullaney scored 11 of her 13 points in the second half to help propel Colorado to a 63-49 win over Illinois-Chicago in the opening game of the 2009 Subway Classic at Williams Arena on the campus of the University of Minnesota.

Mullaney, a Minneapoli native who won a state championship with The Breck School on this floor in 2004, hit 4-of-7 from the field, including two 3-pointers, and corralled seven rebounds to give the Buffaloes their second straight 2-0 season start.

"Kelly Jo's preparation this week was unlike anything I had seen from her in her past three years at Colorado," McConnell-Miller said. "She was focused, determined and had a confidence about her we hadn't seen before. She wanted to come back home and perform at her best. She played a great floor game tonight and we're just proud she was able to do that in Minnesota."

Junior Brittany Spears, who battled foul trouble and played an unusually long 25 minutes, still led Colorado in scoring with 19 points. She nabbed seven rebounds and was a perfect 6-of-6 from the line.

The Buffaloes (2-0) will face Minnesota on Sunday at 5 p.m. MST. UIC falls to 0-3 and will play the Gophers on Saturday.

Colorado led the entire way, but could not distance themselves from the Flames until late. Both teams were stoned cold in the first half. CU held Illinois-Chicago to just 21 percent shooting in the first 20 minutes, but didn't fare much better on its end making only 25 percent (7-of-28).

The Buffaloes looked to be on the brink of pulling away as they built a 14-6 lead with 8:38 remaining in the first half, but the Flames scored eight straight to tie the game at 14. Mullaney then scored her first points on a put back for a Chucky Jeffery miss to give CU the lead for good. Bianca Smith followed with a 3-pointer to widen the gap back to five before the Buffaloes settled for a 21-17 halftime lead.

UCI cut the lead to 28-25 early in the second half on a Jasmine Bailey 3-point play, but the Buffaloes had an answer for each Flames' run, and Mullaney was in the middle them all. After Bailey's free throw, Mullaney missed a field goal at the other end but got her own rebound and kicked it out to Smith for her second 3-pointer of the game that sparked a 16-8 run that included a Mullaney 3-pointer. The Flames crept back to within 44-40 when Taylor Foulks hit her second 3-pointer of the game with 6:34 left. Mullaney responded on the other end with a 3-pointer of her own, and after a stop, Spears hit one from deep to give CU its first double-digit lead. Mullaney followed that with a long two of her own to put CU in front 52-40 with 5:01 remaining.

"It was really exciting, I love being back home and having all my family and friends here," Mullaney said. "

Colorado was much improved shooting in the second half, making 46 percent (12-of-26). The Buffaloes cemented the game at the line. CU was 14-of-18 from the free throw line in the second half, 18-of-23 overall.

Smith ended with 10 points. Senior Courtney Dunn, making her first career start, responded with seven points and career highs with eight rebounds and three blocks. Melissa MacFarlane and Brenna Malcolm-Peck each made their collegiate debuts.

"We had some different combinations out there," McConnell-Miller said. "It was a good feeling to be able to go to our bench and get the minutes we did."

Colorado dominated the boards for a second straight game, outrebounding UIC 52-35. The Buffaloes had 17 second-chance points.

Bailey had 11 points and eight rebounds to lead UIC.

BOULDER - Colorado head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller was expecting her freshman class to have an impact this season, and so far that's exactly what is happening.

Freshmen Meagan Malcolm-Peck and Chucky Jeffery combined for 23 points, 13 rebounds and seven steals to help lift Colorado to a 62-50 win over Georgia Southern in the first round of the 2009 Omni Hotels Classic Friday at the Coors Events/Conference Center.

The Buffaloes, 3-1 overall for the first time since 2003-04, will play Harvard in the championship game on Saturday at 7 p.m. Earlier on Friday, Harvard held off New Orleans 60-57. Georgia Southern and New Orleans will play in the consolation game at 4:30 p.m.

CU junior Brittany Spears led all players with 20 points.

Malcolm-Peck had a career-high 12 points, on 5-of-8 shooting, with seven rebounds, three blocks and two steals.

"I think the goal is always to contribute however you can and just make an impact," Malcolm-Peck said. "So whether it's hustling and getting a rebound and kicking out to Bianca [Smith] to get a three or anyway you can help the team. I just focus on that and his fun."

Jeffery had 11 points, six rebounds and five steals in 19 minutes of playing time. Jeffery has started the last three games while Malcolm-Peck has started all four.

"When I start I feel like I have to do well so I can stay on the floor and get my team off to a good start," Jeffery said. "Like (coach) said I need to let the bad things go and move forward."

The Buffaloes jumped out to a 10-0 lead, hitting four of their first six shots including 3-pointers by Malcolm-Peck and Spears. Conversely, Georgia Southern made just one of its first 10.

But that start quickly faded as the Buffaloes went cold, and were bit by the turnover bug at the same time the Eagles started heating up.

Colorado missed 10 straight shots which allowed Georgia Southern to counter the Buffs' opening run, with a 14-0 run of their and led 17-14 with 6:13 left in the half. Turnovers didn't help the Buffaloes cause either. CU committed 22 in the game, 13 of which came in the first 20 minutes.

CU rebounded to take a 21-20 lead at halftime. Both freshmen starters keyed big second half runs to allow the Buffs to put the game away.

With the Buffaloes up 27-26, Malcolm-Peck hit a 3-pointer and followed that up with a steal and layup to ignite a 17-7 run that put CU up 44-33 with 10:20 left. Carolyn Whitney and Candice Ivy had consecutive buckets for the Eagles to cut the CU lead to seven.

Jeffery took care of the next CU run. The Colorado Springs native had five points, three offensive rebounds and two assists as the Buffaloes outscored the Eagles 13-3 over a six minute span. Colorado had its largest lead at 57-40 with 3:32 remaining in the game, before a late Eagles' run narrowed the gap.

"We came back in the second half and played with great intensity, which we were talking a great deal about at halftime," McConnell-Miller said. "There were some great moments tonight."

Whitney led Georgia Southern with 11 points and eight rebounds. The Eagles committed 25 turnovers and shot just 26 percent from the field.

BOULDER - Freshman guard Chucky Jeffery hit a driving layup with five seconds remaining to give Colorado the Omni Hotels Classic title with a 67-65 win over Harvard in the Championship game at the Coors Events Center.

After Harvard's Victoria Lippert sank two free throws to tie the game at 65-65 with 0:35 left, the Buffaloes put the ball in the hands of Jeffery for the final possession. Jeffery, who finished with 14 points, ran the clock down at the top and left of the 3-point arc and broke down the middle of the lane for the decisive score as the shot clock expired.

Harvard guard Brogan Berry raced down the court with the ball, but her 30-foot 3-pointer bounced off the front of the rim as Colorado improved to 4-1 overall for the first time since 2003-04.

"It's real exciting," Jeffery said. "Being a freshman and having the coaches trust me enough to put the ball in my hands to make the last shot feels real good. I'm so excited."

Jeffery's chance was born from a similar possession at the end of the first half. Leading 31-29, CU ran down the clock late in the first half where Jeffery was able to get into the paint to score to put CU up four with :07 left. However, she went too early, giving Harvard time to get set on the other end where Christine Matera connected on a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

Despite going too early, CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller knew Jeffery was an option at the end.

"Why put the ball in a freshman's hands? The determining factor at that point was how Chucky handled that possession at the end of the first half; we had set it up for a drive and she had gone a little too early, but with that said she made it."

It was also the Harvard defense. The Crimson were clamping down on CU's outside shot, which had generated nine 3-point buckets during the game. Jeffery had also been able to get to the rim on three possessions before the final drive.

"At the end of the game we basically ran a variation of the play and at that time really dictated the time she went to the rim and had our two shooters spotted up waiting on her. She executed it and I'm proud of her."

Her shooters on the wings were captains Brittany Spears and Bianca Smith, and even though they didn't get the call on the final play, there wouldn't have been a final play for Jeffery if it wasn't for their strong performances.

Smith had a season-high 22 points off the bench, hitting 6-of-11 3-point shots. Spears recorded her third double-double in five games with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Jeffery, Smith and Spears were each named to the All-Tournament team. Spears, who had 20 points in Friday's game against Georgia Southern, was the Tournament MVP.

Emma Markley led Harvard Saturday night with 24 points, on 10-of-15 shooting, and four blocks. Her 10 blocks over the two games, set a Classic record.

CU was fighting from behind all night. The Crimson led by as much as nine in both halves, while the Buffs' largest lead was four.

Harvard led 46-37 with 14:35 remaining, when the Buffaloes, led by Smith tightened the game for good. Smith hit two of her six 3's to cut the Harvard advantage to 48-43.

Jackie Alemayn made good on a long 3-pointer to put HU back up by six. Spears countered with a couple free throws and HU led 52-47.

The Buffaloes gobbled up that lead with a pair of 3-pointers. Freshman Meagan Malcolm-Peck hit the first one from the corner and Kelly Jo Mullaney hit one from the top of the key to give CU a 53-52 lead. The score stayed within four points for the rest of the way.

BOULDER - Pay-back is sweet, and the Colorado women's basketball team savored it Sunday afternoon.

Even sweeter, though, is progress - and that's what Buffaloes coach Kathy McConnell-Miller savored most during her team's 80-54 dismantling of Seton Hall at the Coors Events Center.

"Everyone's asked me what I'm most pleased about," McConnell-Miller said following the Buffs' atonement for last season's dismaying 37-point loss. "I'm most pleased about what's happened over a 12-month period - how our returning players have bought in, stayed focused, how they've embraced our younger players . . . I'm most pleased about our development and our progress."

Still, avenging that December debacle in South Orange, N.J., was important to McConnell-Miller's players.

"Last season was an embarrassment . . . it was important for us to come out today and get a 'W,'" said CU junior forward Brittany Spears, who responded with her 19th career double-double and fourth of the season. She scored 24 points and collected 12 rebounds, with her five three-pointers a career best.

CU freshman Chuckey Jeffery added a career-high 19 points and six assists, while sophomore Alyssa Fressle contributed a season-best 10 - all in an early second-half run that helped the Buffs ice the game. Senior Bianca Smith chipped in with 11, including three of CU's 11 three-pointers.

Winning their fourth consecutive game and fifth straight at the Events Center, the Buffs improved to 6-1, with that start the program's best since 2003-04 when former coach Ceal Barry's team opened 12-1.

The Buffs led by nine (39-30) at halftime, but were up by as many as 14 on two previous occasions. The best the Pirates (5-4) could do in the first 20 minutes was fashion a pair of early ties and pull to 21-19 before CU went on a 9-2 run.

Meagan Malcolm-Peck, a 6-foot-2 freshman, keyed that spurt, scoring seven of the Buffs points in the run and finishing with that total.

Spears was more than the Pirates could handle in the first 20 minutes, hitting seven of her eight field goal attempts - including four of five treys - for 18 points. (She averages 18.7.)

CU hit 31-of-58 field goal attempts (53.4 percent) and was 11-for-21 (52.4 percent) from behind the arc.

The Buffs had to survive themselves in the opening 6 minutes, when they suffered a turnover a minute. But that dirty half-dozen was all CU would commit for the remainder of the half, and their first-half assist total (12 on 16 field goals) doubled their errors. They finished with a season-best 21 assists.

It was a far better effort by the Buffs than in last season's meeting, when they managed but 13 first-half points on the Pirates' home court and trailed 43-13 in a blowout victory Seton Hall later would tout as "perhaps its finest performance of the season."

Fueled by 10 points from Fressle, the Buffs opened the second half with a 14-2 run and took their largest lead to that point - 53-32 - with 14:45 remaining.

Four minutes later, CU increased its advantage to 61-36 on a free throw by Jeffery and her layup on the next possession. But Seton Hall followed with a 15-2 run to make the final 6:42 more interesting than the Buffs had planned.

The Pirates closed to 63-51 before a pair of free throws by Spears and a trey by Jeffery righted the Buffs and sent the Pirates packing.

McConnell-Miller said even with the big leads, she never felt that relaxed or in control of the game. "I am never to the point where I feel like we can rest . . . I like to reinforce that we teach them to play every possession as if the score is tied. I hope at no point that I ever let up or think that it was in hand."

With the exception of a lapse here and there, her team played like it got the message. Seton Hall got it, too.

FORT COLLINS - Following the bad example set by their male counterparts 24 hours earlier, the Colorado women's basketball team played in spurts Friday night and paid for it with an ugly loss.

Colorado State, with only eight available players, overcame miserable early shooting and a 16-point first-half deficit to defeat CU 69-61 in Moby Arena. On the same court Thursday night, the CSU men outworked and overran the CU men, 77-62.

"I told them this was one that was going to stick with us all week," Buffaloes coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We need to learn how to put teams away. We need to learn how to be efficient down the stretch."

CU (6-2) was everything but efficient, losing its big first-half lead, its momentum and eventually unraveling to lose for the first time in five games.

Senior Bianca Smith led the Buffs with 19 points, while Brittany Spears added 15 and Meagan Malcolm-Peck 12. Four of the Rams' eight players finished in double figures, led by Chatilla Van Grinsven with 16.

CU led for the final time, 55-54, on a layup by Spears with 2:57 to play. But from that point, CSU (7-3) went on a 7-0 run to move ahead 61-55. The Buffs never got closer than four points for the remainder of the game, self-destructing with four of their 16 turnovers in the final 2:20.

Meanwhile, the Rams put the game away by making 11 of 12 free throws in the final 1:52. They finished the game 27-of-33 from the foul line while the Buffs hit 9-of-11.

CSU also outrebounded CU 45-43, including 15 offensive rebounds, and outscored the Buffs 20-13 in second-chance points.

At times, McConnell-Miller said, the Buffs "played extremely hard . . . they really wanted it. But at times, I thought whether it was a lack of communication on defense or a quick shot that led to a run by them, it wasn't a lack of preparation or effort."

"It was just a mindset of we settled . . . often and early in the shot clock."

Not much went right for the Rams in the early going, but taking advantage of the Buffs' proclivity for fouling was among them. CU committed 11 first-half fouls, reaching seven fouls (single bonus) with 10:49 left in the half and 10 fouls (double bonus) at 4:14 before intermission.

As a result, CSU hit 10-of-13 first-half free throws - and needed every one of them. A little over 13 minutes into the first half, the Rams had connected on only one of 14 field goal attempts (7.1 percent) and had fallen behind by 16 (27-11).

But what had all the earmarks of a possible blowout suddenly changed. Then, CSU found its range - relatively speaking. Over the final 5:03 of the half, the Rams outscored the Buffs 12-4 and went to the locker room trailing 31-23.

Of letting CSU back into the game before intermission, McConnell-Miller said, "Whether I let up, whether I went too deep in the bench - I'll take responsibility for that . . . they capitalized and we sent them into the half on a little momentum."

Still, CSU's first-half shooting was horrid and CU's wasn't much better. The Rams hit only five of their 28 (17.9 percent) field goal attempts, while the Buffs were 11-for-32 (34.4%).

Outscoring the visitors 11-2 over the first 4 minutes of the second half, CSU pulled to 33-32 on a pair of Van Grinsven free throws then took a 34-33 lead - the Rams' first since 3-2 - on a layup by Natalie van den Adel.

The Buffs answered with a 7-0 run - five of the points came courtesy of Spears - to reclaim a six-point lead (40-34). Just as quickly, though, CSU leading scorer Kim Mestdagh (19.4) scored seven consecutive points and Erin Cooke hit a layup - and the Rams went back ahead 43-42 with 11:51 left.

The next 4 minutes belonged to Smith and the Buffs. Relishing her off-the-bench role, the senior hit back-to-back treys to push CU in front 50-46.

Over the next 6 minutes, five of the game's 13 lead changes occurred. But in the final 1:30, the Rams went up six points and the Buffs fountered.

BOULDER - Explosive starts are beginning to become the norm for the Colorado women's basketball team. And with Big 12 Conference play rapidly approaching, that's a very good trend to be setting.

For the second consecutive game, the Buffaloes sprinted to a decisive half-time lead, then maintained most of their aggressiveness in the second half en route to an impressive victory.

On Tuesday night at the Coors Events Center, CU's strong opening act laid the groundwork for an 86-50 demolition of San Jose State in the second game of a men's/women's doubleheader.

"We had a great first half," CU coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We executed our game plan as to how we were going to defend their sets. . . we handled their sets."

Junior Brittany Spears and senior Bianca Smith handled the bulk of the Buffs scoring, riddling the Spartans for 28 and 25 points, respectively.

"I know I like a heck of a lot about this team," McConnell-Miller said. "I definitely like like I have one of the best players in the Big 12 and one of the best shooters."

Spears' 28 points were the most scored by a CU player this season, and Smith's 25 were her season-best.

Smith again came off the bench - a role she's finding increasingly productive. "My teammates are able to find me on the floor for open shots," she said, adding she believes she's able to capitalize on opponents being tired while she enters the game fresh.

Smith's 25 allowed CU's bench to outscore San Jose State's reserves 32-20. The Buffs' defense also did its part, accounting for double-digit steals (13) for the sixth time in 10 games. CU got 18 fast-break points to the visitors' four.

In their previous game - an 88-36 blowout of Southern Utah four nights earlier - the Buffs bolted to a 24-0 lead, then went up 40-4 and 49-5 before going to the locker room with a 53-11 halftime lead.

That big advantage at intermission must have been gratifying and worthy trying to duplicate, for the Buffs fashioned a 46-13 halftime bulge against the Spartans.

The 24 combined first-half points yielded to Southern Utah and San Jose State was the lowest ever for CU, coming in below the 27 allowed in back-to-back first halves in the 2001-02 season to San Diego State (18) and Bowling Green (9).

McConnell-Miller attributed her team's consecutive fast starts to her and her staff introducing more concepts to her players and giving them more rest on game day. Then, there's the built-in energy of playing at home, where the Buffs are 7-0 this season.

After CU scored the first four points Tuesday night, San Jose State coach Pam DeCosta called a timeout to settle her troops. The short time together didn't help.

Before the Spartans and DeCosta, a former student at Mesa State and Metro State, could digest what was transpiring, the Buffs had gone up 17-3 and were in control of the opening half behind the torrid Spears (20) and Smith (17).

Spears hit seven of her 10 first-half field goal attempts, five-of-six free throws and adding a pair of steals in only 14 minutes. Not to be outdone, Smith canned seven of her 11 shots from the field, including four of nine three-point attempts.

Defensively, the Buffs tormented the Spartans, recording 11 of their 13 steals in the first-half and adding two of their five blocked shots. The visitors shot just 20.8 percent from the field (5-of-24) in falling behind by 33 points at the break and finished at 32.8 percent (20-of-61) from the field.

Rather than back off after intermission, CU once again started at full speed and rolled to a 53-19 advantage in the second half's first 5 minutes. By the half-way point, CU had increased its advantage to 63-25, and San Jose State was zapped.

BOULDER - With January looming and the calendar about to flip, the Colorado women's basketball team finally can dispense with the appetizers and get to the meat of the schedule.

The Buffaloes believe they're hungry enough to proceed and succeed. They romped through a final tune up for Saturday's visit by nationally ranked Virginia by devouring Grambling State 92-43 on Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

Junior Brittany Spears led the Buffs with 20 points, and freshman Meagan Malcolm-Peck and juniors Kelly Jo Mullaney and Chelsea Dale added 11 each.

CU coach Kathy McConnell-Miller used 13 players, with 11 of them scoring. Only freshman point guard Chucky Jeffery, wearing a protective boot on her sprained right ankle, didn't see any court time but she's expected to play against UVA.

In Jeffery's absence, junior Whitney Houston made her second start of the season.

CU remained unbeaten (8-0) at home and improved to 9-2. But the schedule gets progressively tougher over the next week.

No. 23/21 Virginia is at the Events Center Saturday (3:30 p.m., FSN Rocky Mountain) and Big 12 Conference play opens a week later against Missouri (noon, FSN). In between is a Monday contest (7 p.m.) against Yale.

McConnell-Miller, a UVA alum and former point guard, called the Cavaliers "a quality team" that will offer the Buffs a chance to gauge their progress. But even in Wednesday night's rout, she claimed she saw her team advance in several areas.

"I was really pleased with our defense," she said. "We spent a lot of time preparing for Grambling's sets. . . and they couldn't run them in the first half. We just really took them out of what they wanted to run."

"On the offensive end, we didn't settle - we made the extra pass. . . I loved the way we executed. The way we finished the game with the players we had on the floor, I thought it was the first time we were that consistent for a 40-minute period."

"The players that came off the bench really picked up where the starters left off."

CU's bench outscored Grambling's 42-16.

The Lady Tigers, losing their fourth consecutive game and dropping to 3-6, didn't start a player over 5-foot-9 and had no player on the roster over 6-0.

Thus, the Buffs could have been expected to dominate the boards - and they did, 42-24. They also outscored the visitors 38-22 in the paint and got 32 points off of 28 turnovers (CU committed 26).

As they did in their two previous runaway wins, the Buffs bolted to a significant halftime lead against the Lady Tigers and coasted in the final 20 minutes.

Counting Wednesday night's 25-point halftime lead, CU's average margin at intermission since losing 69-61 at Colorado State on Dec. 11 has been 33 points.

The Buffs fashioned their 45-20 halftime advantage over the Lady Tigers by shooting 51.6 percent from the field (16-of-31) and forcing 16 Grambling turnovers that were converted into 19 points.

During one 4-minute stretch, CU hit four three-pointers in five possessions, opening an 18-point lead that wilted the visitors.

Then, the Buffs opened the second half with a 13-3 run, quickly building a 58-23 advantage and stretching it to 69-27 with 11:57 remaining. McConnell-Miller used the final 10 minutes to give her reserves court time.

Grambling never led, and CU led by 51 with 1:23 minutes to play. The Buffs' 92 points were their most since hitting 93 against CSU on Nov. 19, 2008.

BOULDER - Colorado freshman Meagan Malcolm-Peck had an immediate answer for her scoreless performance on Saturday in the Buffaloes' loss to nationally-ranked Virginia.

Atoneum game Monday night as Malcom-Peck scored a career-best 19 points to help the Buffs past the stubborn Yale Bulldogs, 78-71.

Fellow freshman Chuckey Jeffery tied a career high with 19, junior Brittany Spears added 15 and senior Bianca Smith came off the bench to contribute 10.

Jeffery also tied her career best in assists (nine of CU's 18) and steals (five of CU's 11) and collected seven rebounds.

"To tell you the truth, I didn't even think about (her scoreless Saturday)," Malcolm-Peck said. "In the game, I wasn't thinking, 'Oh, I've got to score,' or anything like that. I definitely have to focus on finishing around the basket and knocking down shots and tonight, rebounding. (But) going scoreless is always an extra push just to finish your shots."

CU finished the non-conference portion of its schedule with a 10-3 record, including a 9-1 mark at the Coors Events Center. Yale lost its fifth consecutive game and fell to 4-8.

The Buffs open Big 12 Conference play Saturday against Missouri (Events Center, noon, FSN), and maybe that was part of their early problem - Yale being sandwiched between Saturday's encounter with No. 23 Virginia (a 74-59 loss) and the league opener.

"It was a tough time to have this game - no question," noted CU coach Kathy McConnell-Miller, adding after the emotionally taxing loss to the Cavaliers she spoke to the Buffs about "what type of team we are, what we want to be and how we want to respond. We are very happy with this win."

Yet for whatever reason, CU was out-hustled, out-worked and most definitely out-rebounded in Monday's first half. At one point, the Bulldogs had out-boarded the Buffs 13-4. The first half ended with Yale holding a 28-14 advantage; the game ended with Yale on top 45-35.

One plausible reason for CU's early board problems: Courtney Dunn, the Buffs' 6-foot-4 center, picked up two fouls in the first two minutes and went to the bench for the remaining 18.

Mainly because of that major rebounding deficit, CU never led in the first 20 minutes and managed only two ties. The Bulldogs led by a point (34-33) at the break, and the Buffs might have felt fortunate to have been that close.

Yale head coach Chris Gobrecht substituted freely, taking a wholesale approach that usually featured subbing five players at a time. Still, the Buffs' bench was more productive, outscoring the Bulldogs 10-5 in the first half. But that turned after intermission and Yale's bench wound up with a 21-12 scoring advantage.

Spears, CU's top scorer (20.2 average), hit a tray for the Buffs' first points and didn't connect again before intermission. But she opened the second half with a layup that gave CU its first lead (35-34) of the night.

And the Buffs kept pushing, outscoring the Bulldogs 10-4 in the second half's first 2:49 to open a 43-36 advantage. Less than a minute later, they went up 46-38 - their largest margin of the night to that point - on a tray from the left wing by Malcolm-Peck.

By the 14:17 mark, when Malcolm-Peck drained another three and Jeffery converted a conventional three-point play, the Buffs had outscored the Bulldogs 20-7 for a 53-41 advantage.

CU pushed its lead to 15 three times in the final nine minutes before Yale closed to 74-67 with 57 seconds remaining. The Buffs closed it out with four free throws by Smith and Spears in the final 47.2 seconds.

BOULDER - An opening statement was in order Saturday, and the Colorado women's basketball team penned what was expected of it.

In its 64-48 win against Missouri, CU was eloquent early, sluggish at mid-sentence and profound at the finish.

The punctuation mark: A 17-4 run over the final 5:54 that blunted an inspired Mizzou comeback and allowed the Buffaloes to open Big 12 Conference play in the proper context.

"It's great to open at home and come out with a win," CU coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "I'm very proud of my team. . . . Overall, a good performance, and I'm happy to be sitting here 1-0 in the Big 12."

Down by 17 points at halftime, the Tigers pulled to within three before the Buffs regained their offensive composure, ratcheted up their defense by going to a zone, then finally pulled away.

The Buffs, improving to 11-3 overall (10-1 in the Coors Events Center), had four players in double figures, led by Brittany Spears' 16 points. Chuckey Jeffery and Courtney Dunn added 12 each and Alyssa Fressle contributed 11.

CU made only one of its 11 three-point attempts - a season low. That late tray was courtesy of the 6-foot-4 Dunn, whose basket allowed the Buffs to extend their streak of consecutive games with a three-pointer to 150.

McConnell-Miller said waning confidence from behind the arc caused her team to pass up "a lot of open looks" and encounter difficulty with the shot clock on several late second-half possessions.

Plus, Missouri (10-4, 0-1) turned up its backcourt pressure on CU's ball handlers. But the Buffs trumped that by switching to the 2-3 zone and, noted McConnell-Miller, "The good news is that we responded to their run."

After trailing 32-15 at halftime, the Tigers steadily cut into the Buffs' lead until they'd narrowed the margin to 47-44 on a steal and layup by RaeShara Brown.

That basket capped a 14-3 Mizzou run during which the Buffs lost their offensive rhythm. But following a timeout by McConnell-Miller, CU switched from its man-to-man defense to the zone featuring Spears and Jeffery on top.

That, said McConnell-Miller, "made us very long and created a lot of steals and scoring through our defense."

Also, Jeffery said she and her teammates realized losing their big lead and allowing the Tigers back into the game "was not acceptable. When coach Miller called that timeout, she told us to relax and calm down."

"When we came out of the timeout, we had more energy with our defense and that's what really got us back into it. We went to the zone, got some steals and that gave us energy."

After the timeout, CU scored on consecutive layups by Bianca Smith and Jeffery, then added a pair of free throws by Spears.

That 6-0 run put the Buffs up by nine (53-44), and the Tigers appeared spent. CU kept up the pressure and closed it out with a flourish.

Jeffery finished with five of the Buffs' 11 steals. She also collected eight rebounds (Spears had nine) and dished out four of her team's 10 assists.

The Buffs enjoyed a 34-24 scoring advantage in the paint, with Dunn's dozen points a career best against a league opponent and her eight rebounds matching an overall career high.

Trailing only once (2-0) before intermission, the Buffs ended the first half with an 11-0 run and posted a 32-15 halftime lead.

Mizzou's 15 first-half points were the fewest the Buffs have allowed since holding Kansas to 14 in 2003. Also, CU's 17-point halftime bulge was its largest since being up by 24 against Iowa State in 2007.

BOULDER - Colorado's players claimed a solid plan was in place for Iowa State. But apparently nowhere in it was an antidote for Alison Lacey.

After the Buffaloes rallied to take a three-point second-half lead Saturday in a critical Big 12 Conference game, the Cyclones senior scored 16 of her team's final 19 points in a 68-62 victory at the Coors Events Center.

"Bottom line: Lacey hit some big-time shots," a dejected CU coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "We guarded them and did what we needed to do, but with the shot clock winding down, the ball was in Lacey's hands and she made plays."

Lacey scored only six of her game-best 32 points in the first half, sitting a good portion of the first 20 minutes with two fouls.

"I was dying to get back in," she said. "We have some inexperienced players, so it is my job as a senior point guard to take over."

She did her job very well, hitting half of Iowa State's eight three-point field goals. But another of the Cyclones' numbers was equally frustrating for the Buffs, who lost for only the second time (10 wins) on their home court this season.

Iowa State outrebounded CU 43-26, with the Cyclones' 26 defensive boards matching the Buffs' total. Little wonder that the second-chance point category was tipped heavily in Iowa State's favor (13-1).

CU senior guard Bianca Smith called the loss, which dropped the Buffs to 11-5 overall and 1-2 in the conference, "pretty devastating. . . we had a good shooting report, but we didn't box out. We can't have lapses like that."

Freshman guard Chucky Jeffery, who led the Buffs with 17 points (15 in the second half), said the Cyclones' rebounding dominance "decided the game. We didn't box out. . . we try to out-jump people and it ain't working."

Smith added 13 points and teammate Brittany Spears produced her 20th career double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds). Spears, held to a season-low three points in CU's Tuesday loss at Texas Tech, scored 10 of her total after intermission while Smith managed only three of her 13 in the second half.

Iowa State improved to 13-3 overall and won its first conference game after back-to-back league losses to No. 11 Nebraska and No. 8 Texas A&M.

After a miserable start - they were down 7-0 and 12-4 - the Buffs rallied and took their own seven-point lead before the Cyclones rallied.

CU held a 26-24 lead at the break behind Smith's 10 first-half points. She was the only player from either team in double figures.

Neither team shot well in the first 20 minutes, the Cyclones hitting just 29.6 percent from the field (8-of-27), while the Buffs were at 28.6 percent (6-of-21).

Less than 6 minutes into the second half, Iowa State took a 37-31 lead and held off a CU run that closed the deficit to two (44-42) on a three-pointer by Smith 10:19 to play.

After falling behind by six points, the Buffs finally caught the Cyclones at 50-50 on a conventional three-point play by Spears, then took a 53-50 advantage on a trey by Jeffery with 6:32 remaining.

Lacey took over from there, scoring Iowa State's next 14 points and dropping CU behind 64-60 with just under 2 minutes to play.

The Buffs pulled to 64-61 on a free throw by Spears, then forced a turnover. Jeffery hit one of two free throws with 1:19 remaining to bring the Buffs to within 64-62.

At the other end, Anna Prins, a 6-foot-7 freshman from Broomfield, hit the first of two free throws, sending the Cyclones up 65-62.

Spears misfired on CU's next possession and Iowa State converted three more free throws - two by Lacey - in the final 32 seconds to seal the win.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Their arrival was a bit foggy, their departure clearly was better.

When the Colorado women's basketball team's charter flight couldn't land late Tuesday afternoon because of thick fog at the Manhattan airport, the airplane was diverted to Hutchinson, Kan., where the traveling party waited for over an hour to be bused to Manhattan.

Upon their arrival about 8 p.m., the Buffaloes had a short shoot-around at Bramlage Coliseum, returned to their hotel, ate dinner and called it a night.

A night later, there were no ill-effects - particularly not for freshman Meagan Malcolm-Peck and junior Brittany Spears.

They each hit a pair of late pressurized free throws Wednesday night as CU held off Kansas State 63-57, breaking an eight-game road losing streak and helping the Buffs surpass their 2008-09 win total (11-18, 3-13).

Leading by 14 points early in the second half, the Buffs (12-5, 2-2) appeared to have the game in hand until the Wildcats (10-8, 2-2) cut the margin to 55-54 with just over 3 minutes remaining.

But a three-pointer by Spears, who led CU with 15 points and nine rebounds, quelled that K-State push. The Buffs then hit five of seven free throws in the final 2:18 to preserve the Big 12 Conference victory.

Malcolm-Peck chased down a loose ball, was fouled and connected on both ends of a one-and-one with 14.6 seconds left to score her only two points of the game, giving CU a 61-57 lead.

Eight seconds later, Spears connected on another pair for the final margin. In addition to Spears, CU had three other players in double figures - Chucky Jeffery and Bianca Smith with 13 each, and Alyssa Fressle with 11.

But the Buffs' defense was just as instrumental as the offense, limiting the Big 12's top three-point shooting team to just four in 18 attempts and keeping the Wildcats out of synch for most of the game.

CU also held its own on the boards, battling to a 33-33 draw with K-State. The Buffs ramped up their defense to close the first half, holding the Wildcats without a field goal in the final 6 minutes, outscoring them 7-3 in the final 2:50 and going to their locker room with a 30-25 lead.

Entering the game as the Big 12's best three-point shooting team, K-State made just one of 10 first-half attempts. Meanwhile, CU hit four of its 14 tries, with Smith coming off the bench to account for two of them.

CU's halftime advantage at the break marked the Buffs' first in Big 12 road play since Jan. 9, 2008 at Missouri. The Buffs led 28-23, eventually winning in a blowout - 70-58. CU hadn't led at intermission at K-State since Feb. 14, 2007. That advantage was 28-26, and the Buffs also ended that game on top - 60-58.

So, a couple of precedents were set, leaving CU 20 more minutes to follow through - and the Buffs opened the second appearing intent on doing it.

They scored the second half's first seven points to take a 37-25 lead, forcing K-State coach Debbie Patterson to call a timeout with 17:19 remaining.

Talking it over didn't provide an immediate answer. Fressle quickly converted a steal into a layup to give the Buffs a 39-25 lead, capping a 20-4 Buffs run before the Wildcats finally got a three-pointer by Brittany Chambers at the 15:00 mark.

If the Wildcats were looking for a spark, the Buffs unwittingly provided it with 12:33 to play. After collecting a defensive rebound, Smith swung a forearm and cleared out a K-State defender. After being whistled for a foul, Smith protested and was assessed a technical. Kari Kincaid hit both free throws, pulling the Wildcats to within 10 (44-34).

The momentum had shifted to the Wildcats - but the Buffs didn't wilt, winning the game at the free throw line and leaving Manhattan under far better circumstances than their arrival.

LAWRENCE, Kan. -- Colorado and Kansas were both looking to rebound from recent losses. Unfortunately for the Buffaloes, Kansas won the battle of the rebounds, in a big way.

Kansas used a sizeable advantage on the boards and a first half offensive explosion to snap a two-game skid and claim a 75-64 win over Colorado in Big 12 Conference action Wednesday evening at Allen Fieldhouse.

Colorado drops its second straight, falling to 12-7 overall, 2-4 in Big 12 play while Kansas improves to an identical mark of 12-7 overall, 2-4 in league action.

The Jayhawks out-rebounded CU 27-7 in the first half and shot 51 percent (18-of-35) to build a 47-27 halftime lead. KU had 14 offensive boards in the first half alone which translated into a 13-1 advantage in second-chance points.

Kansas finished with a 49-29 advantage on the boards and an 18-6 edge in second-chance scoring.

CU struggled from the field for a second-straight outing, making just 38 percent (23-of-61) on the night. The Jayhawks led by as much as 23 points in the game before the Buffaloes regrouped over the final 20 minutes, outscoring Kansas 37-28 and cutting the final margin to 11.

Brittany Spears led Colorado with 21 points, seven rebounds and a career-best and team season high six blocked shots. Freshman Chucky Jeffery had 12 points, seven rebounds, three assists and three steals.

Senior guard Bianca Smith had 11 points as she became the 23rd player in school history to record 1,000 career points, doing so on a 3-pointer late in the first half.

Kansas was led by Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year Danielle McCray of Kansas who had 29 points and 16 rebounds. Carolyn Davis also registered a double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Colorado returns home to face No. 6 (AP)/4 (WBCA) Nebraska on Saturday, Jan. 30, at 3:30 p.m. at the Coors Events/Conference Center. The game will be televised live on FSN Rocky Mountain.

BOULDER - Nebraska is a Top 10 women's basketball program for a reason - several of them, in fact. Colorado was (mis)treated to most, if not all, Saturday afternoon.

The No. 6/4 Cornhuskers pulled away from the Buffaloes in the game's final 8 minutes en route to an 80-64 victory at the Coors Events Center.

"There's no doubt that Nebraska is one of the top teams in our conference and the country," CU coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "They've got a very, very solid starting five . . . I would match them up with any in the country."

That experienced five-man front, with senior forward Kelsey Griffin the centerpiece, has the Huskers living the good life. They are 19-0 and one of only two undefeated teams in women's basketball - the other being No. 1 Connecticut. Nebraska also is 6-0 for the first time ever in conference play.

CU, meanwhile, lost its third consecutive game and its fifth in six outings, dropping to 12-8 overall and 2-5 in the Big 12.

Saturday's game launched a four-game stretch against ranked opponents, but McConnell-Miller wants her players focused on only the next foe. It's one game at a time, she said: "We have to get back in the flow, and we have some time (this week) to look at where we are and where we need to be."

McConnell-Miller believed her players mostly "worked hard" defensively against the Huskers. "But we didn't limit Kelsey Griffin's inside touches at all."

As a result, the 6-foot-2 Griffin, an All-America candidate, was the game's high scorer with 24 points and was one of four Huskers in double figures.

CU freshman Chucky Jeffery led the Buffs with 14 points and 11 rebounds - her first career double-double. Bianca Smith added 14 points and Courtney Dunn and Brittany Spears 10 each.

"I wasn't aware that I had a double-double," Jeffery said. "It would have been way more sweet if we'd won."

Trailing by 14 points in the first half, the Buffs got their last 12 points before intermission on a conventional three-point play by Spears, then three consecutive treys - one by Dunn and a pair by Smith - to close to 37-29 at the break.

But once again, CU struggled early shooting, hitting only five of 15 field goal attempts (33.3 percent) halfway through the first 20 minutes. The Buffs led just once (7-6) in the opening half, and that proved to be their only advantage of the afternoon.

"We don't want to be this come back team," McConnell-Miller said. "That's no way to live, no way to exist in this game."

CU's shooting improved (46.2 percent in the second half, 44.2 for the game) and the Buffs won the boards battle, 36-27. But Nebraska, winning for only the sixth time in history in Boulder (25 losses), checked out at 54.9 percent from the field.

Also plaguing the Buffs were 20 turnovers to the Huskers' 12, and Nebraska added 10 steals with its pressure defense.

The Huskers held Spears to 8.1 points below her average, and Nebraska coach Connie Yori lauded her players for their work: "You have to know her tendencies, and Dominique (Kelley) did a good job defensively . . . I think she played a great game and was a factor on both ends."

Nebraska's depth and experience showed early on, with eight players scoring in the first half, led by Kelley (nine) and Griffin (eight). Kelley finished with 18, while Cory Montgomery and Yvonne Turner added 11 each.

CU closed to within 38-33 to start the second half, but Nebraska answered with a 12-4 run to go back up by 13 (50-37) with 14:09 to play.

The Buffs kept battling, cutting the Huskers' advantage to 50-44 on a Meagan Malcolm-Peck trey from the right corner with 12 minutes remaining.

CU got no closer than eight points the rest of the way and trailed by 19 twice in the final 3 minutes, with Nebraska clearly justifying its ranking and Griffin the accolades waiting to come her way.

BOULDER - Texas is on a roll, Colorado has become accustomed to getting rolled. Bad combination - and it produced a night of regrettable basketball for the CU women's team Wednesday at the Coors Events Center.

The Longhorns hammered the Buffaloes 74-50, winning their fourth consecutive game while dealing the home team its fifth straight loss and its first four-game losing streak at the Events Center since the 2005-06 season.

CU, which has lost its past three Big 12 Conference games by 16, 34 and 24 points and has now dropped 18 straight games to ranked opponents, trailed No. 14/19 Texas 14-0 before senior guard Bianca Smith finally hit a three-pointer with 14:56 to play in the first half.

"We got off to a disappointing start, and that's not the way we anticipated coming out . . . Texas out-hustled us. They were extremely physical and we didn't respond well to that," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said.

Freshman guard Chucky Jeffery scored a team-best 12 points and Alyssa Fressle added 11. Leading scorer Brittany Spears managed only five, Courtney Dunn just four and Smith three.

For most of her 32 minutes, Fressle was among the Buffs' few sources of energy. Spears played just 19 minutes and had one more turnover (six) than she did points.

While McConnell-Miller was lamenting the Buffs' overall "lack of energy and sense of urgency," Longhorns coach Gail Goetsenkos called her team "really focused . . . it was an opportunity for us to show that we are better than what we showed against Texas Tech as far as our focus and energy."

Hmmm . . . Texas won that game 81-51 Sunday in Austin. The Longhorns (17-6, 6-3) now have won six of their past seven games, while the Buffs (12-10, 2-7) have lost seven of their past eight.

Goetsenkos used 10 players and all of them scored, topped by Ashleigh Fontenette's 13 points and Cokie Reed's 12. Kathleen Nash and Brittainey Raven added 10 each.

But the Horns' defense, said Goetsenkos, doomed the Buffs: "I think we did a good job of getting up in the passing lane. We switched up some screens and gave them some different looks than maybe they'd seen. I thought we were really ready to play (and) our quickness caused them problems."

Added McConnell-Miller: "They got some deflections and got some good steals that led to layups - and I think it rattled our guards."

Texas had 14 steals and scored 39 points off of 22 CU turnovers - six each by Spears and Jeffery. The Longhorns also dominated in inside points (44-24 edge in the paint) and in bench points (34-18).

McConnell-Miller gave 6-foot-7 freshman Melissa MacFarlane more playing time (22 minutes) than in any previous game, and she responded with three rebounds and four points - both career highs.

The Buffs were held without a field for the opening 5:04, during which time the Horns rolled to their 14-0 advantage and showed no sign of easing back.

At the 15:45 mark, CU had zero points, only three field goal attempts and four turnovers. Smith finally got the Buffs into the score book, draining a three-pointer with 14:56 left before the break. Those were her only points.

CU finally showed a pulse over the next 8:22, cutting Texas' lead to 10 points (25-15) on a trey by Fressle. From there, though, the Buffs went comatose once again; the Longhorns outscored them 14-2 and fashioned a 39-17 lead - the largest of the first half - before going to the locker room up by 20 (41-21).

CU's best hope for the second half might have been in Texas losing interest - but that didn't happen. After Spears opened the scoring with a three-pointer, pulling the Buffs to 41-24, the Longhorns quickly reestablished leads of 20-plus points and held them for the remainder of the game.

NORMAN, Okla. - Brittany Spears broke out of a three-game scoring slump with a game-high 28 points, but turnovers and another slow start cost Colorado as No. 12 ranked Oklahoma claimed a 65-55 Big 12 Conference decision Saturday afternoon at the Lloyd Noble Center.

Colorado (12-11, 2-8 Big 12) committed 26 turnovers while Oklahoma (18-6, 8-3 Big 12) opened up the game with an 11-0 run, handing the Buffaloes their sixth straight loss and eighth in their last nine outings.

Oklahoma hit five of its first six shots and sprinted out to a 17-2 advantage.

"We've gotten off to a bad start the last three games; just very ineffective. OU came out and completely attacked, controlled the tempo," said CU Head Coach Kathy McConnell-Miller. "We just struggled out of the gate and started to lose confidence and went to the bench where I felt like we got a little more settled."

Colorado climbed back in as Spears, the Buffaloes' leading scorer who had scored just 14 points in the last two games combined, had 10 in the first half alone at one point scoring six straight, the final off a steal and layup which cut the OU lead to 23-18.

Oklahoma countered with an 11-0 run and following a 3-pointer by Bianca Smith, the Sooners answered with back-to-back 3-pointers by Lauren Willis to push OU's lead back up to 40-21.

Oklahoma led by as much as 25 in the second half, but Colorado never quit and made a valiant effort at a comeback ending the game on a 24-9 run.

Spears, whose 28 points tied her own team season high set against San Jose State, also had nine rebounds. Smith ended a slump of her own nailing three 3-pointers and finishing with 13 points. Alyssa Fressle pitched in 11 points, three assists and two steals.

Amanda Thompson led Oklahoma with 16 points while Nyeshia Stevenson had 10.

LINCOLN, Neb. - Colorado had one of its best outside shooting performances of the season, but No. 3 Nebraska's balance from both inside and out was the deciding factor.

Kelsey Griffin had 25 points and 11 rebounds to lead No. 3 Nebraska to an 89-73 win over Colorado in a Big 12 Conference game Saturday afternoon at the Bob Devaney Center.

Brittany Spears had 26 points, including a career-high six 3-pointers but it wasn't enough as the Buffaloes (12-13, 2-10 Big 12) lost their eighth straight and 10th in their last 11 outings.

Colorado hit a season-high 15 3-pointers, its most ever on the road and one off the single-game school record, and did it with efficiency, hitting at 55.6 percent (15-of-27).

But the Buffaloes didn't have the answer inside for the Huskers' front-court duo of Griffin and Cory Montgomery. Griffin scored 18 of her 25 points in the second half, many coming off second-chance opportunities. Nebraska had 24 second chance points and also dominated in the paint outscoring the Buffaloes 36-16.

Montgomery had 17 points and seven rebounds as the Huskers (25-0, 12-0 Big 12) shot 50 percent for the game.

Bianca Smith had 18 points and season-high seven rebounds. Courtney Dunn had 11 points, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range.

After Nebraska scored the first four points of the game, the Buffaloes came out firing. CU hit five of its first six from deep, including four from Spears, as the Buffaloes led 15-9 four minutes into the contest.

But Spears picked up three fouls, two on offensive charging calls, before the 10-minute mark. Soon after, Nebraska started clicking.

With CU up 17-15, Spears was called for a charge and headed to the bench with her second foul. Dunn gave the Buffs their sixth 3-pointer of the first half and a 20-17 lead.

Nebraska countered with two consecutive fast break buckets by Dominique Kelley to take a 21-20 lead. CU inserted Spears back into the game, but she quickly picked up her third foul on another charging call.

With Spears back on the bench, Nebraska started to find its stroke. After making just one of its first 10 3-point shots, Nebraska received three straight 3-pointers by Nicole Neals, Yvonne Turner and Lindsey Moore as the Huskers went on a 23-7 run; 19-7 once Spears picked up her third foul. Montgomery hit a 12-footer to cap the run giving the Huskers their largest lead at 40-27.

Smith scored seven points over the final 3:43 to cut the Huskers lead to 43-36 at the break.

Colorado was able to knock the Nebraska lead down to five on six different occasions in the second half, only to have the Huskers answer each time.

Spears pulled the Buffs to 70-65, but Griffin scored inside and Turner hit a 3. After Kelly Jo Mullaney knocked down a 3, the Huskers went on a 10-2 run to make it 85-70.

"I don't think the score is reflective of the passion and energy and the way my team battled tonight," Buffs coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "It's hard to go through a season like this in the Big 12. It's tough to look up at the scoreboard after a game and feel like you've given your blood, sweat and tears for the University of Colorado and not come out with a victory."

Nebraska shot 60 percent in the second half and 50 percent for the game. Griffin was a perfect 8-of-8 in the second half, finishing the game 10-of-14 from the field.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Call it 'Eight is Enough.'

Down by as much as 12 points in the second half, Colorado rallied to defeat Missouri 80-79 in overtime Tuesday evening at Mizzou Arena, putting an end to an eight-game losing streak.

Colorado pulls its overall record even at 13-13 and is 3-10 in Big 12 Conference play. Missouri drops its eighth straight, falling to 11-15, 1-12.

Junior Brittany Spears had a team season-high 34 points, including a 3-pointer at the top of the key with 30 seconds remaining in regulation that tied the score at 74 and sent the game to overtime. Spears also nabbed 10 rebounds, recording her 22nd career double-double.

In overtime, Missouri took a 79-76 lead on a Shakara Jones layup with 1:56 remaining, but Spears countered with a drive to the basket, was fouled by RaeShara Brown, and hit the subsequent free throws that pulled CU to 79-78 with 1:38 left.

After a Brown turnover, freshman Meagan Malcolm-Peck scored the game winner on a scooping layup in the paint with 55 seconds left. The teams swapped turnovers, giving the Tigers one last shot.

The Buffaloes defense held strong, as an 18-footer by Jones clanked off the rim with 2 seconds left. Alyssa Fressle grabbed the rebound and ran time out.

"Our chemistry is good and they are playing tough together," CU head coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "Every huddle, the team became more and more cohesive in what we needed to do. They believed, even down 12, that we could win this game."

Bianca Smith tied a career high with 26 points, including six 3-pointers. She is one 3-pointer from tying Shelley Sheetz's career mark of 252 set from 1991-95.

Fressle had 11 points and tied a career high with seven rebounds.

Colorado led for just 1:10 in this game, briefly at 6-5 early in the first half and then for the 55 seconds following Malcolm-Peck's go ahead basket.

Missouri led 61-49 with 10:55 left when the Buffaloes began their comeback. Malcolm-Peck and Fressle scored on back-to-back possessions to cut the Tiger lead to 61-53.

Amanda Hanneman drilled a 3-pointer to extend Missouri's lead back to double-digits at 66-55 with 7:38 remaining. But Smith answered with a 3-pointer of her own which sparked a 19-8 run that culminated with Spears' trey to send the game to overtime.

Colorado held Missouri to just one point for five minute span after the Hanneman 3-pointer, yet the Tigers maintained their lead at the free-throw line. Missouri sank 29-of-35 free throws, compared to just 8-of-9 for the Buffaloes, but missed a critical one at the end.

Missouri guard Toy Richbow hit five straight free throws down the stretch, but missed the second of a two-shot trip that would have put the Tigers up by four with under a minute left. Instead, the Buffs trailed by just three allowing Spears to hit her tying basket.

The Tigers made just one field goal over the final 7:38 of regulation. Missouri dominated the boards 20-11 in the first half taking advantage of second chance points to build a 37-22 lead. Jessra Johnson did the bulk of the damage with 10 points and had six rebounds in the first half alone.

Colorado stayed within reach by hitting 3-pointers at an impressive clip for the second straight game. Coming off a game in which the Buffaloes hit 15 3-pointers, CU added 14 against the Tigers, nine coming in the first half, and four of those from Spears whose fourth cut Missouri's lead to 43-36 at halftime.

BOULDER - Senior Night for a pair of Colorado upperclassmen was a downer. Kansas State, a team CU had beaten in January, visited the Coors Events Center on Wednesday night and spoiled the final regular-season home game for Buffaloes seniors Bianca Smith and Courtney Dunn.

Snapping a five-game losing streak, the Wildcats used a pair of decisive runs in each half to overtake the Buffs, then held them off in the final 90 seconds for a 72-70 Big 12 Conference victory.

CU had defeated K-State, 63-57, on Jan. 20 in Manhattan, Kan.

"It's no way we wanted to send our seniors out," CU coach Kathy McConnell-Miller said. "It was a rough night and it's not a game I feel particularly good about . . . We're at a point where our wins and losses are not reflecting the desire, commitment and work ethic of this team."

CU (13-15, 3-12) was outrebounded 36-22 and outscored in second-chance points 20-11, underscoring McConnell-Miller's season-long call for more effective inside play from her team.

Brittany Spears' 19 points led the Buffs, followed by Alyssa Fressle's season-high 17 and Smith with 14. Dunn finished with five.

"It's tough," Smith said. "Not only is it Senior Night, and I think any senior would want to go out with a win on their home floor, but also because we thought we could get this win . . . we were confident."

K-State (13-16, 5-10) used seven players - and five of them reached double figures, paced by Kari Kincaid's 15.

The pregame Senior Night introductions behind them, the Buffs raced to an 8-0 lead, with Spears accounting for six of those early points.

But after converting a traditional three-point play - it followed her trey to open the game - Spears suffered a blow to the head during a drive and left the game with 15:21 remaining in the half.

Spears wasn't alone in suffering a first-half injury. Smith took an apparent elbow or hand to the nose less than a minute after Spears went out. But Smith returned in just over 2 minutes, while Spears was sidelined for almost 8 minutes, holding an ice pack to her head for much of that time.

Initially, the Buffs didn't suffer, building their biggest lead (17-7) of the half. But the Wildcats must have sensed an opportunity for a revival; they immediately launched a 12-0 run and took their first lead of the game (19-17) on a basket by senior forward Ashley Sweat.

When Spears returned, she initially was ineffective, failing to score after her opening six points. Smith finished the half with only four points, but fortunately Fressle emerged to take up the slack.

Her 13 first-half points surpassed her seasonal high by one, and her put-back at the buzzer gave the Buffs a 32-31 halftime lead.

Spears opened the second half with a pair of free throws, giving CU a 34-31 edge. But KSU countered with a 13-0 run to take a 44-34 lead with 16:08 to play.

With the second half almost 5 minutes old, Smith finally got the Buffs' first field goal. The bleeding was stopped - but only temporarily.

By the 11:40 mark the Wildcats had pushed ahead 53-40, and the Buffs could have been watching their season and faint postseason hopes do a fast fade.

They apparently weren't ready for that; they pulled to 57-52 on a driving basket and free throw by Smith with 8:15 to play, then got to 67-62 on a three-point play by Spears with 2:06 left.

Spears followed with a layup to pull CU to 67-64 with 90 seconds remaining, and Fressle's layup made it 69-66 one possession later.

After Taelor Karr made one of two free throws with 11 seconds showing, Chucky Jeffery's layup pulled CU to within 70-68. McConnell-Miller called a timeout with 5.6 seconds left, then KSU's Brittany Chambers hit two free throws to doom CU.

Meagan Malcolm-Peck sank a 12-foot jumper at the buzzer, but a two-pointer was half of what the Buffs needed.
