The Danville, Calif. native scored seven points in the final two minutes converting a driving layup into a dunk, then added a three-point play with 1:01 remaining in the game increasing CU's lead to eight points. He then added an assist pushing CU's advantage to 10 points. The 22 points was Higgins' third 20-point effort of the season (28th career) and the third time he has led the Buffaloes in scoring in 2010-11 (40th career). Higgins also collected a season-best four steals and was 9-for-9 at the free throw line against the Hoosiers.

In 2003-04, the Buffaloes entered the preseason with 12 votes fresh off their 2002-03 NCAA Tournament berth (their last appearance), instead they made the NIT.

WHAT'S BACK THIS SEASON: Senior Cory Higgins (18.9 ppg.) and sophomore Alec Burks (17.1 ppg.) form one of the best 1-2 guard combos in the nation • The duo ranks third nationally of top returning scoring tandems at 36.0 points per game (see page 2 for complete and updated list) • Last year, Higgins scored 587 points and Burks (512 pts.) becoming the first CU duo to score over 500 points in single season since 1990-91 (Shaun Vandiver, 699; and Stevie Wise, 655) • Burks was fourth nationally among all freshmen in points per game and field goal percentage, and became the first CU freshman to score over 500 points in a single-season (512).

BIG 12 COACHES: With nine returning letterwinners and all five starters returning, the Big 12 Coaches preseason poll predicts the Buffs to finish in ninth place. Last season, CU finished the regular season in eighth place. It was the first in three seasons not finishing 12th. During the 2005-06 season, CU ended up fifth in the conference standings.

Pac-10 vs. BIG 12 IN AIR MILES: From the David Plati (CU Associate AD/Sports Information Director) book of research, here's the difference in air miles between CU traveling to the 11 Big 12 sites and the soon-to-be 11 Pac-10 sites is only 1,982 more (or 180 miles per school, or only 30 additional minutes based on a conservative airspeed of 360 mph; 20 minutes at 450 mph). However, once pulled into the gate at the closest airport, whereas CU was, via car, van or bus, a collective 13 hours from the airport to the respective campuses in the Big 12, it will be just a shade over five hours (5:05) for the Pac-10 campus sites, with all less than an hour away (if making one connection on the way to Washington State, otherwise it's the only site with a drive time over an hour if you fly into Spokane; compared to six in the Big 12, four of which were two-hours plus). That also lowers the average distance to just 137 miles more per school. The numbers:

Pac-10	Denver to	Air Miles	Local Airport	Campus	Miles	Time
League Office	Oakland	946	Oakland International	Walnut Creek	28	0:40
Arizona	Tucson	640	Tucson International	Tucson	8	0:15

#—option 1: connecting flights through Salt Lake City (most options), Boise or Seattle; shorter drive time after landing.

#—option 2: direct flight into Spokane countered by 100-120 minute drive on a two-lane road over to Pullman.

WHAT WAS SAID

"This is it (my dream job), there's no doubt. I remember talking with Mark Turgeon once when he asked me where I wanted to be in 10 years, and I said the head coach at the University of Colorado. This is a destination job. I'm humbled and honored."

- University of Colorado head coach Tad Boyle, the day he was hired as the new CU men's basketball coach

"CU is getting a great person, a guy with great character and a value system, which is most important. He's a very well-rounded basketball coach and an excellent recruiter. He's a guy who will be very good with alumni and boosters. He's got great people skills and he develops relationships. Good coaches never stop trying to get better, and Tad does that. He was great as an assistant - extremely loyal, hard working and positive."

- Mark Turgeon, Texas A&M Head Basketball Coach

"This exciting process was all about both the young men we have currently and those in the future who will be joining our program, and is an investment in them and represents the competitive spirit, teamwork, passion and dedication they stand for. Tad Boyle represents everything that is right about college basketball. We look forward to his leadership, poise and competitive drive to unite all our collective Buff interests to support our team and this enterprise that has so much promise for the long term."

- Mike Bohn, University of Colorado Athletics Director on what made Tad Boyle stand out above the other candidates

"It's an incredible opportunity for him, but a phenomenal hire for Colorado. He's worked hard to get to this point; he's got an amazing background. I'm thrilled to death for him. I've been around some great basketball minds - Bill Self (Kansas), John Calipari (Kentucky), Alvin Gentry (Phoenix Suns), Greg Popovich (San Antonio Spurs), to name a few. A lot of quality guys have helped me coach. Tad has the same qualities those guys have. His kids play hard and unselfishly. They guard and play smart. He had those qualities as a player and he values them as a coach. He'll also make that program part of the whole community, and that's important at a school. The football coach, the women's coaches . . . they'll all love him. I love college athletics; it's more of a we thing than (in the NBA). You support everything. Tad will do that. This is an incredible opportunity for him and just as an incredible opportunity for Colorado."

- Larry Brown, Charlotte Bobcats Head Coach and former University of Kansas head coach (1983-1988)

"Tad's a heckuva coach and a lot better guy. I know that for a fact. I know you have to win at that level, and he'll win the right way. (The hiring of Boyle) "A very wise move on Colorado's part; the test of time will show that. I'm not saying that to kiss anybody's butt; I believe it."

- Don Meyer, former legendary coach, Northern State University, winner of 923 games

"I am happy for Tad and his family. Colorado made a great hire. Last year, he had a great season at Northern Colorado and he had that program moving in a positive direction. I believe he will have the same impact at CU."

- Former teammate and current Kansas assistant coach Danny Manning

BOULDER - Time to take it on the road . . . to Vegas, baby.

After a pair of sound victories against overmatched opponents to close out an impressive five-game home stand, the Colorado men's basketball team departs Tuesday for a two-night stand in the 10th Annual Las Vegas Classic.

If the Buffaloes can tap into the confidence gained from five consecutive victories - the program's longest win streak since 2005-06 (nine straight) - they stand a good chance of ending this season's road woes. All three of CU's losses have come away from the Coors Events Center.

Draw what you will from comparative scores, but two days after New Mexico steamrolled Longwood 91-54 in Albuquerque, CU flattened the visitors from Virginia, 104-59, at the Coors Events Center.

Balanced scoring and unselfish play again proved to be CU's dual recipe for success against the Lancers, who were on an seven-game losing streak and entered Sunday's contest allowing 87 points a game.

Six Buffs reached double figures, topped by Cory Higgins' 18 - 15 of his points after intermission. Levi Knutson added 17, Burks 15, Marcus Relphorde and Andre Roberson had 14 each and Austin Dufault 12. Roberson snared 13 rebounds, giving him a double-double in back-to-back games.

The last time CU had six players in double figures was Jan. 3, 2007 against Central Florida. Four Buffs hit double figures against The Citadel, and for the second consecutive game CU had 23 assists.

The matinee rout kept the Buffs unbeaten (7-0) this season at home and was their 19th consecutive home win against non-conference opposition - a streak that stretches to 2008-09.

The Lancers (3-10) kept it close for, oh, about 5 minutes, leading by a basket on their first three possessions but falling behind 8-6 on a tip-in by Burks. Ahead 16-12 about 13 minutes before halftime, the Buffs pulled away with a 16-0 run and went up 32-12 on a pair of Knutson free throws at the 8:07 mark.

Thereafter, CU increased its lead to as many as 24 points before intermission as Higgins converted a three-point play to send the Buffs up 47-23. Once again, Boyle used all 11 of his players, with 10 of them scoring (point guard Nate Tomlinson missed his only shot).

CU hit six of its eight first-half three-point attempts and shot 50 percent (17-of-34) from the field. For the game, the Buffs hit 38 of their 72 (52.8 percent) field goal attempts - both season highs - and matched the 10 treys they made against The Citadel. CU outrebounded Longwood 48-30 and outscored the visitor's bench 45-14.

LAS VEGAS - Colorado fought until the end, but could never get over the hump as New Mexico led the entire game in defeating the Buffs 89-76 in the semifinals of the Las Vegas Classic at the Orleans Arena.

The Buffs (7-4) got off to a slow start as New Mexico (10-1) jumped out to an 18-6 lead in the first six minutes of the game by making three of their first four three-point attempts. CU was stuck playing catch-up the rest of the way.

"We let them in for easy baskets and we weren't getting back," said CU head coach Tad Boyle on New Mexico's early run. "They were running and dunking and getting to the rim whenever they wanted. We put some pressure on our offense by giving them easy baskets."

The second half went back-and-forth as the Buffs could never get closer than six points but didn't trail by more than 12 until the final minute. UNM never scored more than four consecutive points after halftime.

CU last closed the deficit to six on two Marcus Relphorde free throws to make the score 59-53 with 9:25 remaining in the game. A pair of A.J. Hardeman layups put the Lobos ahead 63-53 with 8:33 left. Cory Higgins hit a jump shot, but after a Kendall Williams layup gave UNM another ten-point lead, Relphorde was called for a charge with 7:47 remaining and momentum shifted to the Lobos. Drew Gordon hit a layup for the Lobos and they took their first 12-point lead of the second half.

Trailing late in the game, CU had to resort to sending New Mexico to the free throw line, and the Lobos responded. UNM's last 14 points came from going 14-of-14 from the charity stripe. Dairese Gary and Williams each hit six free throws apiece over this stretch in the final 2:18.

Burks led the Buffs with a game-high 25 points (7-of-14 from the field, 11-of-13 from the free throw line). Relphorde added 13, Cory Higgins and Levi Knutson each scored 10 points apiece. Andre Roberson pulled down eight rebounds for the Buffs and is now averaging 7.6 per game for the season. He has led the team in rebounding eight times this season and coming into today ranked second among Big 12 freshmen in rebounds per game.

The Buffs shot 46.6 percent (27-of-58) from the field.

Gary and Williams led New Mexico with 18 points each, and Williams recorded a double-double by distributing 11 assists. Phillip McDonald added 14 and Alex Kirk pulled down ten rebounds.

The Lobos shot 61.2 percent (30-of-49) from the field for the game.

Burks led all scorers with 14 first-half points. McDonald led the Lobos with 10 points at the break and New Mexico shot 65.2 percent (15-of-23) from the field in the half.

LAS VEGAS - For the first time this season the Buffs are coming back to Boulder with a victory as Colorado defeated Indiana 78-69 in the third-place game of the Las Vegas Classic at the Orleans Arena.

Indiana (9-4) trailed by 19 with 11:50 remaining and was down 15 with 6:11 to play before going on a 14-2 run to cut the lead to three. The Hoosiers scored seven points off four CU turnovers during this stretch as the Buffs struggled with Indiana's pressure defense.

With the score at 67-64 and Colorado (8-4) having gone four minutes without a field goal, Cory Higgins put the Buffs on his back and threw down a driving, two-handed dunk to stop the Hoosiers' run with 2:09 to play.

"I actually did say, 'We're not going to lose this game,'" said Higgins on his game-changing dunk. "I just wanted to step up and make a big play, and fortunately it went my way."

After Verdell Jones III hit a jumper on IU's next possession to make the score 69-66, Higgins made a layup and was fouled by Maurice Creek on the play. Higgins hit the free throw to complete the three-point play and put the Buffs up 72-66 with 1:01 remaining.

Higgins would make two more free throws and assist Austin Dufault on a fast break layup before Levi Knutson hit two free throws to end the scoring at 78-69.

Marcus Relphorde scored the first four points of the second half as CU opened the half with a 16-3 run to take a 19-point lead at 55-36 with 11:50 left in the game. Much of this run came with Alec Burks on the Buffaloes' bench as he picked up his fourth foul of the game with 18:14 remaining and didn't return until the 4:37 mark.

Higgins led CU with a game-high 22 points and Relphorde added 14. Burks scored nine in only 18 minutes of action before fouling out with 2:18 remaining. It was Burks' first career foul-out and only the second game of his career in which he didn't score double-digit points (the previous time came on Jan. 30, 2010, at Iowa State when Burks played only two minutes before leaving with a knee injury).

Dufault pulled down seven rebounds and Nate Tomlinson had five assists. The Buffs shot 54.5 percent (24-of-44) from the field for the game. Indiana came into the game leading the Big Ten by holding opponents to 38 percent shooting.

The Buffs went into the break with their biggest lead of the half after two Levi Knutson free throws with 24 seconds left put the Buffs in front 39-33. CU went a perfect 12-of-12 from the free throw line before halftime.

Marcus Relphorde was named to the all-tournament team scoring 27 points combined in CU's two games.
