

2011 COLORADO FOOTBALL / SPRING GAME NOTES

April 9, 2011 (Folsom Field, 6:05 p.m.)

Quickly Today marks the third and final major scrimmage of the spring, as CU has scrimmaged on March 17 and April 2 prior to today; combined stats from both attached ... The Buffs have also scrimmaged regularly at times during most of the practices, especially dealing with the red zone and situational scrimmages ... Spring practice was again split before and after spring break for the sixth time in seven years, with six practices prior to the March 21-25 break and nine, including tonight, after; drills started on Friday, March 11, the second earliest known start in school history (to March 6 in 2010) ... CU coach Jon Embree is wrapping up his inaugural spring practice session; he indicated that captains would not be selected until the fall ... There are about 150 football alumni in town rekindling friendships and taking part in the annual favorite events (Friday golf, evening reception, Saturday team lunch, etc.); included in the returning alums was Mason Crosby of the Super Bowl Champion Green Bay Packers ... Former coach Bill McCartney (1982-94) was the featured speaker at this afternoon's varsity-alumni luncheon; McCartney and Gary Barnett (1999-2005) coached the alumni in the rebirth of the alumni flag football game prior to the varsity game.

Format The format tonight will be the standard offense versus defense scrimmage, with anywhere from 15 to 23 players out due to injury. There will be no kickoffs/returns, the quarterbacks will not be live, there will be a 25/40 second play clock, and the ball will be spotted at the 20- or 30-yard line after the offense either scores or is stopped. Quarters will be timed (length TBA at press time), perhaps with a running clock in the second half; halftime will be 10-15 minutes.

Solder Honor Graduated OT Nate Solder, in line to be a first round pick in this year's NFL Draft, will become the latest to have his name and number displayed on the façade of the west side Fred Casotti Press Box. CU displays players who have had their jerseys officially honored by the school for meeting at least one of several criteria to earn the distinction. Solder earned it on two fronts, as he was a two-time unanimous first-team All-Big 12 performer, and was also the conference's offensive lineman of the year for 2010. He was also a finalist for the Outland Trophy and a consensus first-team All-American.

The Wounded The injury picture for the Buffaloes as of April 8 a.m.; 15 players are definitely out with eight others questionable to play, anywhere from zero to limited to full participation (#—denotes off-season surgery):

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

➤ Post-Spring Surgeries Knock on wood, as of now, there are none scheduled.

Looking Ahead Here are the football reporting dates for this fall; the below are tentative as Embree and his staff need to work out all details, but the listed item cannot occur prior to the date listed. The NCAA permits a maximum 29 on-field practice sessions. The tentative dates:

- August 3—Players report (p.m.)
- August 4—First practice
- August 6—Media Day (tentative)
- August 9—Practice In Full Gear
- August 22—First Day of Classes
- September 3—First Game: at Hawai'i

Hawai'i Game While the television and kickoff time arrangements are not yet confirmed, CU's game at Hawai'i is definitely set for Saturday, Sept. 3; it was on a list of games that possibly could have been moved ahead to either Thursday or Friday and since UH moved last year's opener with USC to a Thursday, rumors were out there that it could also occur this year, but will not.

Pac 12 Football Media Days Colorado will participate in its first Pac 12 Conference Football Media Days the last week of July; the tentative plan once again calls for the head coaches to do an East Coast media blitz on July 26-27, and then head west for media day on July 28 (Thursday) at the Rose Bowl.

Light Company This is one of just 10 spring games from around the nation today, as others wrapping up their springs include BYU, Clemson, Florida, LSU, Mississippi State, North Carolina, Purdue, South Carolina and Stanford.

Awards Here is this year's list of annual award winners for the spring; the new coaching staff reworked the awards, cutting from 11 to six, and likely moving the five others (some dating back to 1999) to the fall with new designations. The 2011 recipients:

Joe Romig Award	Top Senior-to-be	Tyler Hansen
Fred Casotti Award	Top Junior-to-be	Doug Rippy
Hale Irwin Award	Top Sophomore-to-be	Paul Richardson
Dan Stavely Award	Top Redshirt Freshman-to-be	Daniel Munyer
John Wooten Award	Most Improved Player	Conrad Obi
Iron Buffalo Award	Outstanding Strength & Conditioning	Ryan Miller

Head Coach Jon Embree Jon Embree is in his first season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, as he was named the 24th full-time head football coach (and 26th overall including two interim) on December 6, 2010, returning home to the state where he starred as a player in both high school and college as well as where he got his start in coaching.

A stalwart tight end for the Buffaloes in the mid-1980s after an outstanding prep career at Cherry Creek High School, Embree returned to his alma mater from the National Football League's Washington Redskins, where he was in the process of completing his first season as tight ends coach under former Denver Bronco coach Mike Shanahan.

Embree, 45, is the first African-American ever named to the position at Colorado. He signed a five-year contract through the 2015 season upon being offered the position one month after previous head coach, Dan Hawkins, was relieved of his duties. Embree concluded his tenure as tight ends coach with the Redskins the day before he was introduced by athletic director Mike Bohn as CU's new head coach.

Embree, in fact, is just Colorado's third head football coach and the first in nearly 50 years who also graduated from the school, earning his degree in Communication in 1988. The last was Bud Davis ('51), who coached for one season (1962) to steady the waters after the Sonny Grandelius era, with the only other, Harry Heller, also coaching just one year, leading Colorado to an 8-1 record in 1894; Heller was an 1885 CU graduate.

Embree will become just the fourth African-American head coach in Pacific-12 Conference football history when CU joins the league next July. Dennis Green was the first when he coached Stanford (1989-91), followed by Ty Willingham, also at Stanford (1995-2001), and then former Colorado assistant Karl Dorrell at UCLA (2003-07); Willingham also was the head coach at Washington (2004-08). Nationally, Embree is the fifth African-American head coach among the 66 BCS schools and the 15th minority overall at the 120 Football Bowl Subdivision programs.

After a stellar prep career at Cherry Creek High School in Englewood, Embree would become a four-year letterman for the Buffaloes, playing immediately as a true freshman in 1983 when he earned the school's Lee Willard Award as the school's most outstanding freshman. The following year, he earned first-team All-Big 8 honors in setting school single-season records for receptions (51) and receiving yards (680). When CU moved to the wishbone on offense for his junior year, his receiving numbers naturally went down but he established himself as one of the premier blocking tight ends in the game. He ended his career in the top five in both catches (80) and yards (1,116), numbers which still have him in the school's top 20 today.

A sixth round draft pick by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1987 NFL Draft, Embree played two seasons with the Rams before suffering a career-ending elbow injury in 1989 while a member of the Seattle Seahawks. He then soon turned his attention to coaching, and thus brings 18 years of coaching experience to the CU program, including 10 seasons (1993-2002) as an assistant on the Colorado staff under three different head coaches, Bill McCartney (1993-94), Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) and Gary Barnett (1999-2002).

He began his coaching career as a volunteer coach under McCartney in 1991. He then worked as an assistant coach at Douglas County (Colo.) High School the following year before returning CU for his first full-time position in the profession, coaching the tight ends for the last two years of McCartney's tenure. Under Neuheisel, he swapped sides of the football and tutored the defensive ends for those four seasons, before mentoring the tight ends once again in Barnett's first two years. He then switched to coaching the receivers and placekickers the next two years (2001-02), helping CU win its only Big 12 Conference title in '01, while both those squads claimed North Division titles in going 14-2 in league play over two seasons, one of the best two-year marks in the now-defunct 12-team conference's history.

Embree left Colorado to join Dorrell when he was named head coach at UCLA ahead of the 2003 season. Embree coached the receivers there his first season, and then was promoted to assistant head coach and passing game coordinator in addition to tight ends coach for the 2004 and 2005 seasons. He then made his move into the NFL, where he coached the tight ends for three seasons (2006-08) under Herm Edwards with the Kansas City Chiefs.

In his career, Embree coached four of the best tight ends to ever play the game, including John Mackey Award winners Daniel Graham at Colorado and Mercedes Lewis at UCLA as well as CU's Christian Fauria, a 12-year professional, and perennial All-Pro Tony Gonzalez while with the Chiefs.

Embree is married to the former Natalyn Grubb, and the couple still has one child at home, daughter Hannah (14). They have raised two football-playing sons, who, in keeping with the CU family theme, are playing for two former Buff coaches. The eldest, Taylor, is a senior wide receiver at UCLA, where Neuheisel is head coach (he has 117 career receptions for 1,548 yards and two touchdowns), while Connor redshirted as a freshman receiver at UNLV who has since transferred to Kansas. And many older Coloradoans will remember that Embree's father, John, played two seasons (1968-69) with the Denver Broncos.

2011 COLORADO FOOTBALL LETTERMAN ANALYSIS

Colorado has 53 lettermen returning for 2011 (48 from the 2010 team, with an additional five from either the 2008 or 2009 seasons); they break down into 22 on offense, 28 on defense and three specialists; the Buffs lose 20 lettermen off the 2010 squad (10 offense/8 defense/2 specialists). CU returns 16 starters from last season (9 offense/7 defense) and loses six (2 offense/4 defense); several positions had multiple personnel shuttle in and out, so the starter numbers aren't truly reflective of the experience returning. The 2010 starters are listed in bold, and (*) denotes letters earned primarily on special teams. The breakdown:

Spring Game Attendance Three of the school's largest 10 crowds for the annual spring game have occurred the last three seasons, including a challenge by former head coach Bill McCartney in 2008 to fill Folsom Field lead to the all-time high of 17,800. The third largest (11,700) was in 2009, when Mac issued another challenge, but CU competed that day with the third game of the Denver Nuggets-New Orleans Hornets playoff series as well as the first day of the NFL Draft. Since admittance to the game is free and there is no hard ticket, CU officials are never really sure what to expect. Below are the top 10 CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawkins and McCartney's challenge to fill Folsom

Reunions In 2011 Reunions are planned this fall for both the 1961 Big 8 champion and the 2001 Big 12 championship teams. At the California game on Sept. 10, Coach Gary Barnett's 2001 team will be celebrated; on Oct. 1 versus Washington State, the 1961 Buffaloes under the late Sonny Grandelius will be honored (along with the annual Living Legends weekend festivities, honoring all athletes who lettered for the first time 50 years ago).

OUT FOR EXTENDED TIME

*—denotes out for season.

Seniors (27): Listing with a (-5) indicates fifth-year senior (21); the others (6) are fourth-year seniors.

AND—indicates those listed both play & rotate (basically co-first/second/third team status);

OR—indicates first- or second-team status at that spot up for grabs.

ITALICS—Players listed in italics ended spring on the injured list and were placed in their probable spot prior to the spring game and post-spring evaluations.

*—denotes number of letters earned through 2010; Injured players listed in italics (status questionable or doubtful—not out for an extended time; probables listed as normal).

CAPTAINS: to be named

(N—denotes nickel back)

Wireless & Ethernet Info The Fred Casotti Press Box has its own wireless network. Media should select the wireless network PBNET and follow the instructions below. Returning media should disconnect from UCB WIRELESS and connect to PBNET. Additionally, there are several Ethernet connections along the first row, with a connection box complete with cords every three or four seats. There is one thing all should be aware of: you will be going through the CU system to access the Internet, so you will need to have the latest virus protection software and all windows updates should be installed to protect both our system and your laptops (otherwise, you may not attain access).

Instructions are provided below, at the locales, we also have ITS personnel on hand; the access codes for this season (2011-12) are:

Login—confatha / Password—NVgERcfS_1.

Until the computer is registered, the only network connection allowed will be to the registration web pages. More information can be found at <http://www.colorado.edu/its/networking/dhcpreg.html>.

Combined Spring Scrimmage Stats Here are the combined statistics from the two main spring scrimmages (March 17, April 2); most special teams work (placekicking, punting and returns) were emphasized in periods in other practices, and there are other scrums at other times during practices:
