SINGLE-DIGIT GAMES: The 1951-52 season was the last time CU opened the season with nine single-digit games in the first 11. In fact, that team started the season with 10 of the first 12 games in single-digits (3-9 record). For the season, CU played in 15 single-digit games, going 5-10 in those contests.

CLOSE GAMES: The Buffaloes are 3-2 over their last five games and are averaging 63.0 ppg. compared to 61.8 by the opponent (+1.2). Excluding the 28-point home opener over Fort Lewis College, the Buffs average margin of wins/losses is even after 10 games. Average margin of six wins (not counting FLC) is 4.7 points (70.7-to-66.0); four losses is an average of seven points (68.8-to-61.8).

COUNTDOWN TO 1,000: Entering his final collegiate season, Carlon Brown has scored a team-high 138 points as a Buff (12.5 ppg.) giving him 992 career points. Brown scored 854 points in three years with Utah and in 109 career games played, he is averaging 9.1 ppg.

FRESHMAN SENSATION: Here's a look at freshman guard Spencer Dinwiddie. He set a season-best 18 points against Texas Southern; fourth time this season being the team leader in points scored; led team in points for the fourth time in the past six games; sixth straight game in which he picked up at least 13 points. Against TSU: set a career-high for 3-pointers made (5) and attempted (6). He went 4-of-5 from beyond the arc in the first half. It only took him 6:09 into the game to accomplish this feat. His five 3-pointers are the most 3-pointers made in a game by a CU player this season. Nate Tomlinson hit four 3-pointers at Air Force; Shot 71.4 percent (5-of-7) from the field and 83.3 percent (5-of-6) from 3-point range, both season highs.

NEW ORLEANS: The Privateers played at North Texas on Tuesday bringing a six-game winning streak into Denton. UNO was 1-4 against Division I teams (losses to New Mexico, Rice, San Diego, Tulane) by an average of 28.3 points. UNO defeated Alcorn State at home (63-56). Junior forward Lovell Cook leads the team in scoring (13.3 ppg.), while senior forward Antonio Wertz is second in scoring (12.5 ppg.) and first in rebounding (8.7 rpg.). According to the NCAA - UNO will count as both a Division I and Division II counter during the 2011-2012 school year. Though all of UNO athletic teams will count as a Division I counter, contests against the Privateers will not count towards the Division I Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) in the sports where RPI is factored (i.e. volleyball, M/W basketball and baseball).

PLAYER TRENDS: Andre Roberson has led CU in rebounding in seven straight games (one shared) • Spencer Dinwiddie has led in scoring four of the last six games • Nate Tomlinson has led in assists three of four games • Sabatino Chen has led in steals the last two games (one shared) • Roberson has led in blocks the last two games (5 total).

TEAM TRENDS: The Buffs are 7-0 when having a higher shooting percentage; 5-0 with fewer bench points than opponent; 4-0 in games in which a bench player does score 10-plus points, 4-0 when four players score 10 or more points; 5-1 when outrebounding opponent; 4-1 when leading at halftime.

CU MBB/SHARE-A-GIFT NON-PROFIT: The CU men's basketball team volunteered with the Share-A-Gift on Saturday, Dec. 17 (8 a.m.-12:30 p.m.), an organization that helps families of need get their children toys for the holidays. Share-A-Gift is a non-profit organization based in Boulder that has focused on holiday toy-giving and family assistance since 1972. The CU student-athletes assisted parents in picking out toys, re-stock shelves, transporting toys to cars, and spending time with children in the on-site day care facility. Over 600 families were present. All toys have been donated and are either new or gently used. The toy shop is located at 4601 Nautilus Court South, Boulder, 80301. For more information on Share-A-Gift, visit <http://shareagift.org>

AUTOGRAPH DAY: Saturday's matinee (Jan. 7, 2 p.m.) against Washington State will be everyone's chance to get autographs from the 2011-12 team. Immediately after the game, basketball fans will have the opportunity to meet and get autographs from the Buffs on the Events Center floor!

MAN ON THE BOARDS: After 11 games, sophomore Andre Roberson has amazing 127 rebounds (11.5 rpg.) and is fifth nationally. He's also averaging 11.6 ppg. looking to become CU's first double-double guy since Stephane Pelle in 2001-02 (12.8 ppg., 10.8 rpg). Roberson has 11 career doubles, six this year, which also ranks among the nation's top-10. For those wondering, the school record for most boards in a season is 346 by Burdette Halderson in 1954-55.

HOME COURT: With the loss Dec. 9 to Wyoming ending the home non-conference winning streak, CU remains stellar at home with a 23-3 mark (.885) over the last two years. This year's senior class is 44-15 (.746) overall.

CU CONSECUTIVE HOME WINNING STREAKS (NON-CONFERENCE PLAY)

35 games: Dec. 4, 1976 - Dec. 5, 1981
27 games: Dec. 10, 2008 - Dec. 7, 2011

SCORING: Of the school-record 38 games played last season, Alec Burks led the Buffs in scoring 26 times, while Cory Higgins led six times. This year, CU has had a variety of leading scorers through 11 games with Spencer Dinwiddie (four times); Andre Roberson (three times); Carlon Brown twice; Austin Dufault and Nate Tomlinson each with one.

NATE IN THE RECORD BOOKS: If Nate Tomlinson continues his three-point shooting, he will crack the top-5 all-time at CU. With 128, he's moved into eighth place. Levi Knutson (2007-11) and Donnie Boyce (1991-95) are tied for sixth (129).

NEXT YEAR: The University of Colorado men's basketball team will be one of eight schools invited to participate at the 2012 DIRECTV Charleston Classic presented by Foster Grant, Nov. 15, 16, 18 at TD Arena in Charleston, S.C. The Buffaloes join Baylor, Boston College, Charleston, Dayton, St. John's and Southern Illinois. This marks the fifth straight year CU will be participating in a mid-season tournament. Presently the Buffs are participating at the 2011 5-hour

ENERGY® Puerto Rico Tip-Off in San Juan. Last year they participated at the iBN Las Vegas Classic; in 2009-10 at the EA Sports Maui Invitational; and in 2008-09 at the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. The 2012 Charleston Classic will feature 12 games over the three days. Each team will compete in one game per day, advancing through a bracket-tournament format. The two teams that remain undefeated throughout will face off in a championship match Sunday, Nov. 18.

Men's Basketball Coach Tad Boyle's Take on the Pac-12: "I look at all the (former Pac-10) players who are in the NBA. It's a league that produces NBA-caliber talent – some years more than others. I think in any conference it's cyclical to some extent, but in the Pac-12 there's schools that have been traditionally good in basketball – UCLA, Arizona. But sometimes when you look at a conference you only look at schools in the top half; there are no bottom feeders. Arizona has lot of guys coming back and a lot good ones coming in. (Arizona) has recruited as well as anybody in the league. Ben Howland's record speaks for itself at UCLA. Lorenzo Romar's done an unbelievable job at Washington...I don't see any weak spots in the league. Like most leagues, some programs are rebuilding, and I'd put us in the rebuilding category. We're the new kids on the block; we're going to have to go through it for a year to see."

The Pac-10 Conference during the 2010-11 season sent seven schools to a trio of post-season tournaments. Led by conference regular season champion Arizona, who reached the Elite Eight and fell to eventual NCAA Champion Connecticut, the Pac-10 also earned NCAA berths with UCLA, Washington (conference tourney champion), and Southern California. National Invitation Tournament (NIT) appearances were made by California and Washington State, while Oregon captured the CBI crown to give the Pac-10 its second title in three seasons of the tournament.

PAC-12 PREVIEW: The conference schedule will officially tip-off at home against Utah on Saturday, Dec. 31. This date marks the first time in the 110-year history of the program the Buffs will begin conference play at the end of the calendar year • In 2011-12, CU will host and travel to destinations for the first time in decades. The Buffs will play Arizona State and Washington State for the first time since 1968 and 1969, respectively. The Buffs travel to Los Angeles and play USC for the first time since 1975, then to Westwood taking on UCLA for the first time in 35 years (1977). Washington is on the schedule for the first time in 16 years (1996), while the six other conference schools have made appearances on the slate over the last eight years (Oregon, 2004; Utah, 2006; Stanford, 2008; Arizona, 2009; Oregon State, 2010; California, 2011). Since 2000, the Buffs have played California, Oregon State and Utah more than anyone else with four games each.

PAC-12 NOTES: CU is fifth in average attendance in the conference (6,190) • CU is one of eight schools with at least seven wins.

GEORGE BOEDECKER JR. COURT NAMED

The University of Colorado celebrated donor George Boedecker, Jr. Friday, November 11, prior to the Buffs season opener against Fort Lewis at the Coors Events Center by naming the upper gym in its new practice facility the George Boedecker Jr. Court. Less than an hour later, ironically, Boedecker took his place on the visiting bench, as he is in his third season serving as the assistant coach for the visiting Skyhawks.

"Coach (Bob) Hofman and I have the duty to represent Fort Lewis in an hour in the gym," Boedecker said. "Everybody will be friends at the end, but we'd love to kick the Buffs' rump."

Based on a gift from Boedecker to help fund CU's new basketball and volleyball practice facility, along with his major gifts that built the football practice bubble and CU's new golf practice facility, there is also a wall located just outside the now renamed upper court in the practice facility saluting Boedecker.

"Again, 11/11/11 will always go down as a special day and we're proud to unveil this gym with his name on it," CU Athletic Director Mike Bohn said. "George and I grew up in Boulder as kids. He's a treasure to the community. He built the bubble and now he's helped build this facility for the Buffs and put his name in this gym."

Hofman, Fort Lewis' head coach, is a CU graduate, former player and assistant coach. He played for CU until 1974 and then in the late '70s, he coached in Balch Fieldhouse and the Coors Events Center for both CU and Fairview High School. He then became the coach at Fort Lewis and played against the Buffs in 1985. He interviewed for the CU head job in 1990 and this is his first trip back to coach in the Events Center since 1985.

Boedecker played for Hofman at Fairview High School from 1978-80 and is in third year as an assistant coach under Hofman. At that same time Boedecker was at Fairview, Bohn was enrolled at Boulder High School.

"Mike and I had a friendship and maybe some fisticuffs as young children," Boedecker said. "But we all came back and we're all Buffs. Coach Hofman and I are Buffs first and foremost. I'm wearing a watch he gave me from the last Big Eight Championship. In the Pac-12, we will win a lot of championships."

Tad Boyle, the day he was hired as the new CU men's basketball coach

"CU is getting a great person, a guy with great character and a value system, which is most important. He's a very well-rounded basketball coach and an excellent recruiter. He's a guy who will be very good with alumni and boosters. He's got great people skills and he develops relationships. Good coaches never stop trying to get better, and Tad does that. "This exciting process was all about both the young men we have currently and those in the future who will be joining our program, and is an investment in them and represents the competitive spirit, teamwork, passion and dedication they stand for. Tad Boyle represents everything that is right about college basketball. We look forward to his leadership, poise and competitive drive to unite all our collective Buff interests to support our team and this enterprise that has so much promise for the long term."

- Mike Bohn, University of Colorado Athletics

Director on what made Tad Boyle stand out above the other candidates

"It's an incredible opportunity for him, but a phenomenal hire for Colorado. He's worked hard to get to this point; he's got an amazing background. I'm thrilled to death for him. I've been around some great basketball minds - Bill Self (Kansas), John Calipari (Kentucky), Alvin Gentry (Phoenix Suns), Greg Popovich (San Antonio Spurs), to name a few. A lot of quality guys have helped me coach. Tad has the same qualities those guys have. His kids play hard and unselfishly. They guard and play smart. He had those qualities as a player and he values them as a coach. He'll also make that program part of the whole community, and that's important at a school. The football coach, the women's coaches . . . they'll all love him. I love college athletics; it's more of a we thing than (in the NBA). You support everything. Tad will do that. This is an incredible opportunity for him and just as an incredible opportunity for Colorado."

- Larry Brown, Charlotte Bobcats

Head Coach and former University of Kansas head coach (1983-1988)

"Tad's a heckuva coach and a lot better guy. I know that for a fact. I know you have to win at that level, and he'll win the right way. (The hiring of Boyle) "A very wise move on Colorado's part; the test of time will show that. I'm not saying that to kiss anybody's butt; I believe it."

- Don Meyer, former legendary coach, Northern State University, winner of 923 games

"I am happy for Tad and his family. Colorado made a great hire. He had a great season at Northern Colorado and he had that program moving in a positive direction. I believe he will have the same impact at CU."

- Former teammate and current

Kansas assistant coach Danny Manning

2011-12: Explosive guard who excels at driving to the hoop and finishing over bigger defenders • Strength and athleticism have helped him succeed at the high school level. “He’s a utility guard - not a guy you put in a category as far as a point-guard or a two-guard; he's just a good basketball player," coach Boyle said. "He can pass, he can dribble, he can shoot, he's athletic. He has a high-degree of character and comes from a great family, he's well-raised. He's a guy we're going to have to kick out of the gym. With this brand new practice facility, he's a guy who will be wearing it out because he loves to play and he's going to get better and better throughout the course of his career"

2011-12: Originally signed last November as one of the three NLLs (with Booker, Dinwiddie), however decided in September after meeting with Coach Boyle not to play college basketball and pursue a college degree instead.

Has reconsidered and returned to the team as a non-scholarship student-athlete • Has not played in a game, but did travel to Air Force.

SCOUTING REPORT: Skill level and size will produce matchup problems for opposing teams • Has a great pair of hands and great ability to pass the ball from the post • Very unselfish player and a tremendous feel for the game • “Damienne adds some size to our class, he’s 6-7, he can really play in the low-post, can score, he can also step-out - so he’s an inside-out type guy,” coach Boyle said. “He comes from the same AAU program (Compton Magic) that (current sophomore) Shannon Sharpe came from. Damienne gives us a low-post presence in terms of to score the basketball. You have to guard him on the block because he has a tremendous feel for the game.”

HARVARD WESTLAKE HS: One of seven Los Angeles high school players to earn the John R. Wooden High School Player of the Year Award as a senior (Division III) • Averaged a double-double during his senior year: 14.4 points and a team-best 10.9 rebounds • Also averaged a team-high 3.1 blocks with 2.7 assists and 1.0 steals per game • Shot 59 percent from the field and 70 percent at the free throw line • Selected as the Division III-A Player of the Year (senior and sophomore years) and named first-team all-area • In the final Rivals.com 150 rankings, Cain was ranked No. 134 nationally regardless of position, 25th best power forward prospect from Class of 2011 • Helped Harvard-Westlake to a 29-5 record and a state playoff quarterfinal appearance after winning the California Southern Section title • In his four seasons, helped the Wolverines win 103 games and was a starter since his freshman year • Made the final Rivals150 list for the Class of 2011 and ranked as the 25th best power forward prospect and 134th best recruit overall • As a junior, Rivals.com and ESPN.com rated him as a three-star recruit and among the best power forwards in California • Played AAU summer ball with the Compton Magic • Received 17 scholarship offers and took official visits to CU, Boston College and San Diego State • Averaged 13.3 points, 9.4 rebounds, 2.7 blocks and 1.9 assists his junior campaign.

Personal: Born March 26, 1992 • Son of Reggie Cain and Tracey Williams • Parents played basketball at Colorado Christian • Uncle, Marcus Slaughter played college basketball at San Diego State, pro basketball with Miami Heat and overseas • Selected CU because of the team/coaching staff, being in the Pac-12, the campus and away from home.

Academics: An Open Option major in Colorado’s College of Arts and Sciences.

BUFFS ROLL PAST OVERMATCHED SKYHAWKS

BOULDER (Nov. 11) - Tad Boyle wasn't facing a complete makeover with his 2011-12 Colorado basketball team, but it came close. He unveiled his retooled Buffs Friday night against Fort Lewis College, and while he was the first to acknowledge there's work to be done before the schedule toughens - and that happens quickly - he also found plenty to applaud in CU's 85-57 season-opening victory at the Coors Events Center.

"The good thing is you can win by this margin and still have room for improvement," Boyle said after watching his second CU team struggle at times to find its half-court offense and lapse occasionally on defense but still do enough right to rout an overmatched opponent.

"Defensively we played pretty well," Boyle continued. "I challenged our guys to guard for 40 minutes. We had a few lapses, but I thought overall we played well - especially with the number of new guys we had on the court."

Playing without Cory Higgins, Alec Burks, Levi Knutson and Marcus Relphorde - a foursome that accounted for about 75 percent of CU's scoring load last season - was "really weird," sophomore forward Andre Roberson said. "But it's time to move on."

And so the Buffs did - at least in their opener.

CU senior forward Austin Dufault, who led CU with 18 points and added 10 rebounds, called Fort Lewis "a good Division II team" and said the Buffs submitted a first night they can build on: "You always want to get off to a good start and our team did that ... we had a good team effort crashing the boards."

Boyle said Dufault and senior guard Nate Tomlinson, who had five points, four assists and three steals, "gave us great stability on the court ... I don't know if Austin can get 18 and 10 every night, but I won't be mad at him if he does."

The Buffs' board work was controlled by the 6-7 Roberson, who at 215 pounds weighs about 15 more than last season and, said Boyle, "is a beast ... he's a lot stronger, he's athletic and explosive." Roberson exhibited all of those things, collecting a game-best 15 of CU's 48 rebounds and scoring 13 points - all in the first half.

Fort Lewis coach Bob Hofman, a former CU point guard, liked what he saw from Roberson, calling him "a special

BUFFS FALL TO SHOCKERS IN PUERTO RICO OPENER

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 17) - Carlton Brown scored 15 points and added four rebounds but the Colorado Buffaloes fell to Wichita State, 67-58, in the first round of the Fifth Annual 5 Hour Energy Puerto Rico Shootout here Thursday.

The Buffs will now face Maryland Friday at 4:30 p.m. In an ironic twist, Maryland is now coached by Mark Turgeon, who was the head coach for the Shockers when Boyle was his assistant.

No other CU player hit double figures, but sophomore Andre Roberson did pull down 10 rebounds for the Buffaloes.

The two teams played even for the first 15 minutes of the first half when the game was tied at 24-24 before the Shockers went on a 7-0 run in less than two minutes to take a 31-24 lead with 3:15 left in the half.

Each team scored just once the remainder of the first half, 33-26.

The Shockers held the lead near double digits early in the second half, and the Buffs cut it to five points twice, first at 37-32 and then again at 40-35.

Colorado cut the Shocker lead to just three midway through the second half, 50-47, after Austin Dufault made a 3-pointer.

Askia Booker made a free throw with 2:13 left to bring CU to within five points at 62-57 and the Buffs didn't score again as the Shockers put the game away at the line with the final score, 67-58.

BUFFS TAKE DOWN BRONCOS 81-76

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 20) – Carlton Brown scored 23 points and Colorado defeated Western Michigan 81-76 in the seventh-place game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off tournament.

Brown was 8 for 14 from the field and 6 for 6 from the free-throw line for the Buffaloes (2-2). Austin Dufault had 16 points and eight rebounds for Colorado, while Nate Tomlinson scored 12 and Askia Booker added 11 points.

The Buffs' five-point margin at the end was their biggest lead of the game.

"This win gives us confidence and that's important in college basketball," said CU head coach Tad Boyle. "We're going to get mentally tougher for our upcoming games."

Western Michigan (0-4), which didn't lead in either of the first two games of the tournament, jumped in front 13-3 and led 35-31 at halftime.

Matt Stainbrook had 20 points and eight rebounds for the Broncos. Demetrius Ward scored 16 points and Flenard Whitfield had 11 points and eight boards.

BUFFS TOP FALCONS IN OT, 76-73

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP, Nov. 23) – Tad Boyle had one way to describe Andre Roberson.

"He is a madman," said the Colorado coach about the sophomore guard who now has 57 rebounds for the Buffaloes in five games this season. "I don't know where his head was in the first 30 minutes of the game," Boyle said. "But was there at the end when it mattered."

Askia Booker hit a 3-pointer and Roberson got a key block and layup in overtime to help CU to a 76-73 victory over Air Force.

"I do what I can to win," Roberson said. "I will get rebound when it is needed."

Nate Tomlinson led Colorado (3-2) with 19 points on 4-of-7 shooting from 3-point range. Carlton Brown added 16 points, and Roberson had 11 points and 13 rebounds.

Roberson went scoreless in the first half, missing his only shot. He did have eight rebounds in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado's win couldn't overshadow the brilliant game of Michael Lyons of the Falcons. Lyons made 10-of-19 shots and clutch free throws at the end of regulation to finish with a career-high 31 points for Air Force (3-1).

It was the most points by a Falcon player since Jarvis Croff scored 31 on March 9, 2000 against Utah.

The Falcons' scrambling defense forced 18 turnovers, turning the mistakes into 27 points.

Air Force was the better team taking care of the ball, committing a season-low six turnovers.

The Falcons led 72-69 in overtime after a layup by Taylor Stewart and Mike Fitzgerald's 3-pointer. The Buffaloes then got Roberson's layup off a rebound and went ahead 74-72 on Booker's 3-pointer with 15 seconds left.

After Todd Fletcher made a free throw for Air Force, Roberson sealed the game with a basket. Fletcher missed a 3-point attempt at the buzzer.

"Air Force is a tough team to defend," Boyle said. "You them get either get layups or threes against you."

CU almost won the game in regulation after Roberson tipped in his own miss with 13 seconds remaining to make it 67-65. But Fitzgerald sank two free throws with 3.7 seconds left to send the game into overtime.

BUFFS' LATE RALLY FALLS ONE POINT SHORT

FORT COLLINS (Nov. 30) – Of all the questions about his Colorado basketball team crowding Tad Boyle's mind, the one that puzzled him most was this: "Really, how were we ever in it?"

But somehow – despite committing 15 turnovers, missing 16 free throws and shooting 36.8 percent from the field – Wednesday night's game against Colorado State came down to the Buffaloes' final possession.

And when senior guard Nate Tomlinson's long jumper bounded off the rim at the buzzer, CSU had escaped with a 65-64 victory at raucous Moby Gym.

"I have no idea how we had a chance to win this game, but I think it's a testament to our team that we did. I told our guys in the lockerroom I do not fault your competitiveness, I don't fault your desire . . . your will to win, I don't fault any of that stuff. But what I fault is our execution," said Boyle, reflecting on how poorly his team executed for most of the previous 48 minutes then amazingly put itself in position to steal a win from its in-state rival.

The Buffs overcame an eight-point deficit in the final 1:25 and even went ahead 64-63 on a Tomlinson layup with just over 10 seconds to play. But a floater from the right baseline by CSU's Dorian Green returned what would be the final advantage to the Rams and set the stage for Tomlinson's miss.

"We just needed one extra stop and didn't get it," said CU senior Austin Dufault.

Tomlinson, one of three CU players in double figures (he had 11, Dufault 13 and freshman Spencer Dinwiddie 16), said he didn't get the final shot he wanted because CSU switched defenders. Boyle had called for a high ball screen involving Dufault and Tomlinson, with either of them taking the final shot. But a bigger player switched on Tomlinson as time was expiring and he took the only shot he could.

"I didn't get a very good look," Tomlinson said. "I didn't get a very good feel for the ball and it just didn't go down."

Boyle said he takes responsibility for the poor execution overall, but added, "This team's heart is there. And we're not going to lose that. We're going to be in a lot of close games like this – we already have been. We've won our fair share."

The Buffs had missed 15 free throws in Monday night's 70-68 home win against Georgia, and Tomlinson said missing one more than that two nights later indicated more of a mental issue than anything else. "The more we talk about it, the worse it gets," he said. "That's the game . . . we're a real young team, but we're a tough team and that's not going to change."

BUFFS REGAIN COMPOSURE, SQUEEZE BY BULLDOGS

BOULDER (Dec. 7) – A veteran basketball team with a 15-point halftime lead is pretty close to being a certain winner. A young team clutching the same advantage . . . no guarantees.

With his team up 38-23 at intermission on Wednesday night, Colorado men's coach Tad Boyle fervently tried to head off the onset of complacency, telling his young Buffaloes, "Don't play the scoreboard, play the possession on both sides of the ball . . . it wasn't something we didn't talk about, but sometimes all you can do as a coach is talk. (Players) have to take it out on the floor and do it."

It took awhile in the second half for Boyle's message to register, but in the end it did. CU righted itself against surprisingly unflappable Fresno State and its zone defense, finally pulling free of the Bulldogs for a 71-64 win at the Coors Events Center. If the Buffs' one-point loss a week earlier at Colorado State was directly traceable to the free throw line - 16 misses - this win plopped on the same thin stripe. CU shot 84.4 percent (27-of-32) Wednesday night from foul line, making 13-of-14 in the final 5:39 when Fresno State had closed to within three points and simply wouldn't vanish.

CU sophomore Andre Roberson, whose one made free throw in seven attempts accounted for his only point at CSU, recovered in a big way against Fresno State. He scored a career- and team-best 21 points on five-of-six shooting while making all nine of his free throw attempts. He also contributed a game-high 10 rebounds for his 10th career double-double, half of them this year.

"Andre was dialed in mentally . . . you could see it tonight," said Boyle, adding he hoped Roberson "getting his mojo going" doesn't require a pair of three-pointers every game. Roberson hit back-to-back treys in the first half when the Buffs appeared to be toying with the Bulldogs and building their 15-point halftime lead.

Tomlinson, who had a game-best six assists, and Dinwiddie occasionally alternated at the high post as the Buffs sought to distribute the ball against the Bulldogs' zone.

Roberson, who has reached double-digit rebounds in seven of eight games this season, said the Buffs can't relax after rolling to a halftime lead like Wednesday night's: "It's really important that we work on playing the full 40 minutes. We can't get comfortable with ourselves. We've got to work on that in practice."

BUFFS FINALLY PUT AWAY FEISTY ROADRUNNERS

BOULDER - Mark Monday night down as a “rust buster” for the Colorado Buffaloes. Of more importance, also mark it down as a ‘W.’

Overcoming their own sluggish start and withstanding their opponent’s frantic finish, the Buffs eventually put away California State University-Bakersfield 70-64 at the Coors Events Center.

“That was a good win for us,” said CU coach Tad Boyle. “I thought there were some really positive things that came out, but there’s also lots of room for improvement - and that excites me as a coach.”

He was noticeably more excited than he was 10 days previously, when Wyoming visited the Events Center and snapped CU’s 27-game non-conference home court winning streak. Boyle gave his players the next two days off, then practiced them for 10 consecutive days.

Not playing for that long and laboring through a week of semester finals, said Boyle, resulted in “a little rust and mental fatigue” that was evident in the Buffs struggling to find the basket and falling behind by as many as 11 points in the first half.

“We didn’t get out of the gate (Monday night) . . . and we’ve been a team that’s always gotten out fast,” said Boyle.

If the Buffs didn’t quite start or finish the night rust-free - they allowed the Roadrunners to cut a 12-point deficit to four in the final 31/2 minutes - they compensated nicely in the mid-section.

Senior Carlon Brown scored eight of his of 15 points when the Buffs were in first-half recovery, and reserve Sabatino Chen provided a huge shot of hustle that spanned the last 5 seconds of the first half and stayed with Boyle’s bunch well into the second.

“I thought Sabatino’s minutes in the first half energized the team,” said Boyle, adding that Brown, who had eight assists to go with his 15 points, “was terrific . . . he played within himself. Those two performances (by Chen and Brown) were terrific.”

Chen finished with six points, five rebounds, a pair of steals and a blocked first-half shot - which led to the game’s most disputed whistle but also revved up the Buffs and the crowd. Counting Brown, four Buffs reached double figures, topped by Andre Roberson’s 18. Spencer Dinwiddie added 13 and Austin Dufault 10.

BUFFS GET INTO GIVING, BUT HOLD ON TO WIN

BOULDER - Nothing against holiday spirit, but the Colorado Buffaloes went overboard with their giving Thursday night. They allowed Texas Southern back into what had all the early earmarks of a pre-Christmas stocking stuffer before escaping with a 56-51 win at the Coors Events Center.

A perplexed Tad Boyle knows what he wants under his tree - and any shopping mall St. Nick who has watched the Buffs this season already knows what tops the CU coach’s list.

“I’m asking Santa for a consistent team,” Boyle said. “Consistently good or consistently bad . . . then I’ll know what we have to work on. Right now, it’s a hard thing to manage, but I have to do a better job of it. It’s going to be on my mind for the next three days . . . we have to get better.”

Boyle’s frustration came from a festive first half that saw the Buffs handle the visitors’ 2-3 zone, shoot 50 percent from the field, hold the Tigers to 22.7 percent and lead by as many as 23 points (32-9).

Said Boyle: “The first half there were so many good things that happened . . . but what we talk about (at halftime) and what our team does sometimes are different things.”

Different, indeed . . . the second half was all switches and ashes for the Buffs as those shooting percentages nearly flipped (50 percent for Texas Southern, 28.6 for CU) and the home team’s nice habits turned naughty. Whatever the reason(s), the Buffs were a different - and in a bad way - bunch in the last 20 minutes. The Tigers, playing perfectly respectable Grinches, made seven of their dozen steals in the second half and forced the Buffs into 12 of their 20 turnovers.

“Once again, it was a tale of two halves,” said CU freshman guard Spencer Dinwiddie, who made four of five treys in the first half and finished five-for-six from beyond the arc. His 18 points were a team and career best. “We’re just very inconsistent and until we solve that, we won’t be a great team . . . you can’t play basketball with an on/off switch.”

Playing their eighth consecutive road game and searching for their first win in that stretch, the Tigers rallied behind a trapping defense that the Buffs had expected and the three-point shooting of guard Omar Strong (23 points). TSU closed to within three points (51-48) in the final half minute.

And although the visitors never led, they came close to making Christmas weekend very uncomfortable for the Buffs. CU (7-4) held off TSU (1-9) by making five of six free throws in the last 21.2 seconds - two of the foul shots by Dinwiddie and another pair by sophomore Andre Roberson, who added 11 points and 16 rebounds.
