MORE UTAH: Utah's blocks leader senior center David Foster underwent foot surgery in November and is out indefinitely. Foster is Utah's career record holder in blocked shots with 219. He also holds the top two single-season marks with 115 in 2009-10 and 99 last season. Foster led the Mountain West Conference in blocks the last two years and finished among the top five in NCAA Div. I both years as well. He was the 2010 MWC Defensive Player of the Year and was also named to the MWC All-Defensive team in 2011.

ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOKS: Here's a closer look at CU's 92-34 win over New Orleans last Wednesday:

66 – 12/27/1909 at Leadville HS, 76-10
64 – 1/3/2006 vs. Savannah State, 116-52
60 – 3/4/1909 vs. Westminster, 71-11
59 – 12/28/1909 at Grand Junction YMCA, 71-12
58 – 12/28/2011 vs. New Orleans, 92-34

- It's the seventh win in CU history by 50-plus points.
- It's the second-highest margin of victory (Savannah State game) since the jump ball was banned after every made basket (basically in the past 10 decades).
- Since 1930, it's just the second win by 50-plus points and 20th by 40-plus points.
- Since the inception of the 3-point shot, it's the 14th win by 40-plus.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT: CU's rout of New Orleans, 92-34 last Wednesday made researching the 58-point blowout interesting. Here are some notes:

- 34 points allowed is the lowest since Jan. 17, 1949, a 42-30 win at Kansas.
- Wore black jerseys at home for the first time since Feb. 9, 2008 vs. Oklahoma ("Blackout" CU won 72-58). CU shot 60.6 percent from the field (20-of-33); 86.2 percent from the FT line (25-of-29) and made seven treys (11 attempts, 63.6 percent) in the win over OU. It was former head coach Jeff Bzdelik's first season (12-20 that year; 6-10 at home).

OTHER POST-GAME NOTES vs. UNO:

- CU has given up a combined 36 first half points in its last two games.
- Had a season-high 32 field goals made.
- Had a season-high 51 points in the first half. The previous high was 41 points on Nov. 11 vs. Fort Lewis. It was the most points scored in the first 20 minutes since Dec. 22, 2005 when they scored 65 vs. Mercer (117-74 win).
- Had a season-high 39 defensive rebounds and 53 total rebound.
- Had a season-high 18 assists
- Shot a season-high 88.5 percent from the free throw line (23-for-26)
- Had its best first half free throw shooting performance of the season (minimum five attempts), going 17-for-18 (94.4 percent). It was also the most free throws made and attempted in the first half all season

- First game that CU has won by more than seven points since the season opener against Fort Lewis College when CU won by 28 points
- 13 CU players scored for the first time this season. CU had 11 players register points in the season opener against Fort Lewis College. Every bench player scored tonight and the only CU player not to score any points was Nate Tomlinson.
- New Orleans' 14 second-half points are the fewest points scored in a half for a CU opponent this season.
- CU had five players score double-digit points for the second time this season. CU had five players register at least 10-points at Air Force on Nov. 23, 2011.

TODAY'S POSTER FEATURE: Is senior guard Carlon Brown. Brown played with the Runnin' Utes from 2007-10 averaging 8.7 points, 4.2 rebounds, and 2.4 assists per game. He scored 854 points at Utah, good enough for 36th all-time on Utes' scoring list. He played 98 games with 75 starts and netted double-digit points 43 times.

KOA: This afternoon's matchup is the second broadcast on KOA. Every Saturday for the rest of the season barring Broncos or Rockies, the Buffs will be on 850 KOA. Clear Channel Radio's 850 KOA and AM 760 (KKZN), in conjunction with Learfield Sports and Buffalo Sports Properties, are expanding coverage of CU Basketball. KOA coverage will include most Pac-12 weekend games, along with an expanded pregame show, Buffs Warm-Up, will begin one-hour prior to tip-off. This season selected CU Men's Basketball games will move to 850 KOA.

FORMER BUFFS: To former Buff Cory Higgins ('11), who made the roster of the Charlotte Bobcats. Along with Alec Burks ('11) on the Utah Jazz and of course Chauncey Billups ('97) on the Los Angeles Clippers, that's three Buffaloes on regular season NBA rosters for the first time since the 1992-93 season (Matt Bullard, Jay Humphries, Alex Stivrins).

AUTOGRAPH DAY: Saturday's matinee (Jan. 7, 2 p.m.) against Washington State will be everyone's chance to get autographs from the 2011-12 team. Immediately after the game, basketball fans will have the opportunity to meet and get autographs from the Buffs on the Events Center floor!

SINGLE-DIGIT GAMES: The 1951-52 season was the last time CU opened the season with nine single-digit games in the first 11 games. In fact, that team started the season with 10 of the first 12 games in single-digits (3-9 record). For the season, CU played in 15 single-digit games, going 5-10 in those contests.

FRESHMAN SENSATION: Freshman guard Spencer Dinwiddie set a season-best 18 points against Texas Southern, the fourth time this season leading the team in points; he has scored seven straight games with at least 12 points; he's one of two players to start every game (Carlon Brown); and is the lone CU player shooting 50 percent from the three-point arc and over 82 percent from the FT line (.827).

SCORING: CU has had a variety of leading scorers through 12 games with Spencer Dinwiddie leading the way with four times; Andre Roberson and Carlon Brown each with three times; Austin Dufault and Nate Tomlinson each with one.

PLAYER TRENDS: Andre Roberson has led CU in rebounding in eight straight games (one shared) • Spencer Dinwiddie has led in scoring four of the last seven games and led in assists against UNO with a season-best six • Nate Tomlinson has led in assists three of five games • Roberson has led in blocks the last three games (7 total).

TEAM TRENDS: The Buffs are 8-0 when having a higher shooting percentage; 5-0 with fewer bench points than opponent; 5-0 in games in which a bench player does score 10-plus points; 5-0 when four players score 10 or more points; 6-1 when outrebounding opponent; 5-1 when leading at halftime.

CLEANING GLASS: After 12 games, sophomore Andre Roberson has amazing 139 rebounds (11.7 rpg.) and averaging 11.7 ppg, looking to become CU's first double-double guy since Stephane Pelle in 2001-02 (12.8 ppg., 10.8 rpg). Roberson has 12 career doubles, eight this year, which also ranks among the nation's top-5. For those wondering, the school record for most boards in a season is 346 by Burdette Haldorson in 1954-55.

NATE IN THE RECORD BOOKS: If Nate Tomlinson continues his three-point shooting, he will crack the top-5 all-time at CU. With 128, he's moved into eighth place. Levi Knutson (2007-11) and Donnie Boyce (1991-95) are tied for sixth (129).

Men's Basketball Coach Tad Boyle's Take on the Pac-12: "I look at all the (former Pac-10) players who are in the NBA. It's a league that produces NBA-caliber talent – some years more than others. I think in any conference it's cyclical to some extent, but in the Pac-12 there's schools that have been traditionally good in basketball – UCLA, Arizona. But sometimes when you look at a conference you only look at schools in the top half; there are no bottom feeders. Arizona has lot of guys coming back and a lot good ones coming in. (Arizona) has recruited as well as anybody in the league. Ben Howland's record speaks for itself at UCLA. Lorenzo Romar's done an unbelievable job at Washington...I don't see any weak spots in the league. Like most leagues, some programs are rebuilding, and I'd put us in the rebuilding category. We're the new kids on the block; we're going to have to go through it for a year to see."

The Pac-10 Conference during the 2010-11 season sent seven schools to a trio of post-season tournaments. Led by conference regular season champion Arizona, who reached the Elite Eight and fell to eventual NCAA Champion Connecticut, the Pac-10 also earned NCAA berths with UCLA, Washington (conference tourney champion), and Southern California. National Invitation Tournament (NIT) appearances were made by California and Washington State, while Oregon captured the CBI crown to give the Pac-10 its second title in three seasons of the tournament.

PAC-12 PREVIEW: The conference schedule will officially tip-off at home against Utah on Saturday, Dec. 31. This date marks the first time in the 110-year history of the program the Buffs will begin conference play at the end of the calendar year. In 2011-12, CU will host and travel to destinations for the first time in decades. The Buffs will play Arizona State and Washington State for the first time since 1968 and 1969, respectively. The Buffs travel to Los Angeles and play USC for the first time since 1975, then to Westwood taking on UCLA for the first time in 35 years (1977). Washington is on the schedule for the first time in 16 years (1996), while the six other conference schools have made appearances on the slate over the last eight years (Oregon, 2004; Utah, 2006; Stanford, 2008; Arizona, 2009; Oregon State, 2010; California, 2011). Since 2000, the Buffs have played California, Oregon State and Utah more than anyone else with four games each.

GEORGE BOEDECKER JR. COURT NAMED

The University of Colorado celebrated donor George Boedecker, Jr. Friday, November 11, prior to the Buffs season opener against Fort Lewis at the Coors Events Center by naming the upper gym in its new practice facility the George Boedecker Jr. Court. Less than an hour later, ironically, Boedecker took his place on the visiting bench, as he is in his third season serving as the assistant coach for the visiting Skyhawks.

"Coach (Bob) Hofman and I have the duty to represent Fort Lewis in an hour in the gym," Boedecker said. "Everybody will be friends at the end, but we'd love to kick the Buffs' rump."

Based on a gift from Boedecker to help fund CU's new basketball and volleyball practice facility, along with his major gifts that built the football practice bubble and CU's new golf practice facility, there is also a wall located just outside the now renamed upper court in the practice facility saluting Boedecker.

"Again, 11/11/11 will always go down as a special day and we're proud to unveil this gym with his name on it," CU Athletic Director Mike Bohn said. "George and I grew up in Boulder as kids. He's a treasure to the community. He built the bubble and now he's helped build this facility for the Buffs and put his name in this gym."

Hofman, Fort Lewis' head coach, is a CU graduate, former player and assistant coach. He played for CU until 1974 and then in the late '70s, he coached in Balch Fieldhouse and the Coors Events Center for both CU and Fairview High School. He then became the coach at Fort Lewis and played against the Buffs in 1985. He interviewed for the CU head job in 1990 and this is his first trip back to coach in the Events Center since 1985.

Boedecker played for Hofman at Fairview High School from 1978-80 and is in third year as an assistant coach under Hofman. At that same time Boedecker was at Fairview, Bohn was enrolled at Boulder High School.

"Mike and I had a friendship and maybe some fisticuffs as young children," Boedecker said. "But we all came back and we're all Buffs. Coach Hofman and I are Buffs first and foremost. I'm wearing a watch he gave me from the last Big Eight Championship. In the Pac-12, we will win a lot of championships."

WHAT WAS SAID

"This is it (my dream job), there's no doubt. I remember talking with Mark Turgeon once when he asked me where I wanted to be in 10 years, and I said the head coach at the University of Colorado. This is a destination job. I'm humbled and honored."

- University of Colorado head coach

Tad Boyle, the day he was hired as the new CU men's basketball coach

"CU is getting a great person, a guy with great character and a value system, which is most important. He's a very well-rounded basketball coach and an excellent recruiter. He's a guy who will be very good with alumni and boosters. He's got great people skills and he develops relationships. Good coaches never stop trying to get better, and Tad does that. He was great as an assistant - extremely loyal, hard working and positive."

- Mark Turgeon, former

Texas A&M Head Basketball Coach now the Head Coach at the University of Maryland

"This exciting process was all about both the young men we have currently and those in the future who will be joining our program, and is an investment in them and represents the competitive spirit, teamwork, passion and dedication they stand for. Tad Boyle represents everything that is right about college basketball. We look forward to his leadership, poise and competitive drive to unite all our collective Buff interests to support our team and this enterprise that has so much promise for the long term."

- Mike Bohn, University of Colorado Athletics

Director on what made Tad Boyle stand out above the other candidates

"It's an incredible opportunity for him, but a phenomenal hire for Colorado. He's worked hard to get to this point; he's got an amazing background. I'm thrilled to death for him. I've been around some great basketball minds - Bill Self (Kansas), John Calipari (Kentucky), Alvin Gentry (Phoenix Suns), Greg Popovich (San Antonio Spurs), to name a few. A lot of quality guys have helped me coach. Tad has the same qualities those guys have. His kids play hard and unselfishly. They guard and play smart. He had those qualities as a player and he values them as a coach. He'll also make that program part of the whole community, and that's important at a school. The football coach, the women's coaches . . . they'll all love him. I love college athletics; it's more of a we thing than (in the NBA). You support everything. Tad will do that. This is an incredible opportunity for him and just as an incredible opportunity for Colorado."

- Larry Brown, Charlotte Bobcats

Head Coach and former University of Kansas head coach (1983-1988)

"Tad's a heckuva coach and a lot better guy. I know that for a fact. I know you have to win at that level, and he'll win the right way. (The hiring of Boyle) "A very wise move on Colorado's part; the test of time will show that. I'm not saying that to kiss anybody's butt; I believe it."

- Don Meyer, former legendary

coach, Northern State University, winner of 923 games

"I am happy for Tad and his family. Colorado made a great hire. He had a great season at Northern Colorado and he had that program moving in a positive direction. I believe he will have the same impact at CU."

- Former teammate and current

Kansas assistant coach Danny Manning

2011-12: Explosive guard who excels at driving to the hoop and finishing over bigger defenders • Strength and athleticism have helped him succeed at the high school level. “He’s a utility guard - not a guy you put in a category as far as a point-guard or a two-guard; he’s just a good basketball player,” coach Boyle said. “He can pass, he can dribble, he can shoot, he’s athletic. He has a high-degree of character and comes from a great family, he’s well-raised. He’s a guy we’re going to have to kick out of the gym. With this brand new practice facility, he’s a guy who will be wearing it out because he loves to play and he’s going to get better and better throughout the course of his career.”

BUFFS ROLL PAST OVERMATCHED SKYHAWKS

BOULDER (Nov. 11) - Tad Boyle wasn't facing a complete makeover with his 2011-12 Colorado basketball team, but it came close. He unveiled his retooled Buffs Friday night against Fort Lewis College, and while he was the first to acknowledge there's work to be done before the schedule toughens - and that happens quickly - he also found plenty to applaud in CU's 85-57 season-opening victory at the Coors Events Center.

"The good thing is you can win by this margin and still have room for improvement," Boyle said after watching his second CU team struggle at times to find its half-court offense and lapse occasionally on defense but still do enough right to rout an overmatched opponent.

"Defensively we played pretty well," Boyle continued. "I challenged our guys to guard for 40 minutes. We had a few lapses, but I thought overall we played well - especially with the number of new guys we had on the court."

Playing without Cory Higgins, Alec Burks, Levi Knutson and Marcus Relporhe - a foursome that accounted for about 75 percent of CU's scoring load last season - was "really weird," sophomore forward Andre Roberson said. "But it's time to move on."

And so the Buffs did - at least in their opener.

CU senior forward Austin Dufault, who led CU with 18 points and added 10 rebounds, called Fort Lewis "a good Division II team" and said the Buffs submitted a first night they can build on: "You always want to get off to a good start and our team did that . . . we had a good team effort crashing the boards."

Boyle said Dufault and senior guard Nate Tomlinson, who had five points, four assists and three steals, "gave us great stability on the court . . . I don't know if Austin can get 18 and 10 every night, but I won't be mad at him if he does."

The Buffs' board work was controlled by the 6-7 Roberson, who at 215 pounds weighs about 15 more than last season and, said Boyle, "is a beast . . . he's a lot stronger, he's athletic and explosive." Roberson exhibited all of those things, collecting a game-best 15 of CU's 48 rebounds and scoring 13 points - all in the first half.

Fort Lewis coach Bob Hofman, a former CU point guard, liked what he saw from Roberson, calling him "a special

BUFFS FALL TO SHOCKERS IN PUERTO RICO OPENER

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 17) - Carlton Brown scored 15 points and added four rebounds but the Colorado Buffaloes fell to Wichita State, 67-58, in the first round of the Fifth Annual 5 Hour Energy Puerto Rico Shootout here Thursday.

The Buffs will now face Maryland Friday at 4:30 p.m. In an ironic twist, Maryland is now coached by Mark Turgeon, who was the head coach for the Shockers when Boyle was his assistant.

No other CU player hit double figures, but sophomore Andre Roberson did pull down 10 rebounds for the Buffaloes.

The two teams played even for the first 15 minutes of the first half when the game was tied at 24-24 before the Shockers went on a 7-0 run in less than two minutes to take a 31-24 lead with 3:15 left in the half.

Each team scored just once the remainder of the first half, 33-26.

The Shockers held the lead near double digits early in the second half, and the Buffs cut it to five points twice, first at 37-32 and then again at 40-35.

Colorado cut the Shocker lead to just three midway through the second half, 50-47, after Austin Dufault made a 3-pointer.

Askia Booker made a free throw with 2:13 left to bring CU to within five points at 62-57 and the Buffs didn't score again as the Shockers put the game away at the line with the final score, 67-58.

BUFFS TAKE DOWN BRONCOS 81-76

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 20) - Carlton Brown scored 23 points and Colorado defeated Western Michigan 81-76 in the seventh-place game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off tournament.

Brown was 8 for 14 from the field and 6 for 6 from the free-throw line for the Buffaloes (2-2). Austin Dufault had 16 points and eight rebounds for Colorado, while Nate Tomlinson scored 12 and Askia Booker added 11 points.

The Buffs' five-point margin at the end was their biggest lead of the game.

"This win gives us confidence and that's important in college basketball," said CU head coach Tad Boyle. "We're going to get mentally tougher for our upcoming games."

Western Michigan (0-4), which didn't lead in either of the first two games of the tournament, jumped in front 13-3 and led 35-31 at halftime.

Matt Stainbrook had 20 points and eight rebounds for the Broncos. Demetrius Ward scored 16 points and Flenard Whitfield had 11 points and eight boards.

BUFFS TOP FALCONS IN OT, 76-73

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP, Nov. 23) - Tad Boyle had one way to describe Andre Roberson.

"He is a madman," said the Colorado coach about the sophomore guard who now has 57 rebounds for the Buffaloes in five games this season. "I don't know where his head was in the first 30 minutes of the game," Boyle said. "But was there at the end when it mattered."

Askia Booker hit a 3-pointer and Roberson got a key block and layup in overtime to help CU to a 76-73 victory over Air Force.

"I do what I can to win," Roberson said. "I will get rebound when it is needed."

Nate Tomlinson led Colorado (3-2) with 19 points on 4-of-7 shooting from 3-point range. Carlton Brown added 16 points, and Roberson had 11 points and 13 rebounds.

Roberson went scoreless in the first half, missing his only shot. He did have eight rebounds in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado's win couldn't overshadow the brilliant game of Michael Lyons of the Falcons. Lyons made 10-of-19 shots and clutch free throws at the end of regulation to finish with a career-high 31 points for Air Force (3-1).

It was the most points by a Falcon player since Jarvis Croff scored 31 on March 9, 2000 against Utah.

The Falcons' scrambling defense forced 18 turnovers, turning the mistakes into 27 points.

Air Force was the better team taking care of the ball, committing a season-low six turnovers.

The Falcons led 72-69 in overtime after a layup by Taylor Stewart and Mike Fitzgerald's 3-pointer. The Buffaloes then got Roberson's layup off a rebound and went ahead 74-72 on Booker's 3-pointer with 15 seconds left.

After Todd Fletcher made a free throw for Air Force, Roberson sealed the game with a basket. Fletcher missed a 3-point attempt at the buzzer.

"Air Force is a tough team to defend," Boyle said. "You them get either get layups or threes against you."

CU almost won the game in regulation after Roberson tipped in his own miss with 13 seconds remaining to make it 67-65. But Fitzgerald sank two free throws with 3.7 seconds left to send the game into overtime.

BUFFS' LATE RALLY FALLS ONE POINT SHORT

FORT COLLINS (Nov. 30) – Of all the questions about his Colorado basketball team crowding Tad Boyle's mind, the one that puzzled him most was this: "Really, how were we ever in it?"

But somehow – despite committing 15 turnovers, missing 16 free throws and shooting 36.8 percent from the field – Wednesday night's game against Colorado State came down to the Buffaloes' final possession.

And when senior guard Nate Tomlinson's long jumper bounded off the rim at the buzzer, CSU had escaped with a 65-64 victory at raucous Moby Gym.

"I have no idea how we had a chance to win this game, but I think it's a testament to our team that we did. I told our guys in the lockerroom I do not fault your competitiveness, I don't fault your desire . . . your will to win, I don't fault any of that stuff. But what I fault is our execution," said Boyle, reflecting on how poorly his team executed for most of the previous 48 minutes then amazingly put itself in position to steal a win from its in-state rival.

The Buffs overcame an eight-point deficit in the final 1:25 and even went ahead 64-63 on a Tomlinson layup with just over 10 seconds to play. But a floater from the right baseline by CSU's Dorian Green returned what would be the final advantage to the Rams and set the stage for Tomlinson's miss.

"We just needed one extra stop and didn't get it," said CU senior Austin Dufault.

Tomlinson, one of three CU players in double figures (he had 11, Dufault 13 and freshman Spencer Dinwiddie 16), said he didn't get the final shot he wanted because CSU switched defenders. Boyle had called for a high ball screen involving Dufault and Tomlinson, with either of them taking the final shot. But a bigger player switched on Tomlinson as time was expiring and he took the only shot he could.

"I didn't get a very good look," Tomlinson said. "I didn't get a very good feel for the ball and it just didn't go down."

Boyle said he takes responsibility for the poor execution overall, but added, "This team's heart is there. And we're not going to lose that. We're going to be in a lot of close games like this – we already have been. We've won our fair share."

The Buffs had missed 15 free throws in Monday night's 70-68 home win against Georgia, and Tomlinson said missing one more than that two nights later indicated more of a mental issue than anything else. "The more we talk about it the worse it gets," he said. "That's the game . . . we're a real young team, but we're a tough team and that's not going to change."

BUFFS REGAIN COMPOSURE, SQUEEZE BY BULLDOGS

BOULDER (Dec. 7) – A veteran basketball team with a 15-point halftime lead is pretty close to being a certain winner. A young team clutching the same advantage . . . no guarantees.

With his team up 38-23 at intermission on Wednesday night, Colorado men's coach Tad Boyle fervently tried to head off the onset of complacency, telling his young Buffaloes, "Don't play the scoreboard, play the possession on both sides of the ball . . . it wasn't something we didn't talk about, but sometimes all you can do as a coach is talk. (Players) have to take it out on the floor and do it."

It took awhile in the second half for Boyle's message to register, but in the end it did. CU righted itself against surprisingly unflappable Fresno State and its zone defense, finally pulling free of the Bulldogs for a 71-64 win at the Coors Events Center. If the Buffs' one-point loss a week earlier at Colorado State was directly traceable to the free throw line - 16 misses - this win plopped on the same thin stripe. CU shot 84.4 percent (27-of-32) Wednesday night from foul line, making 13-of-14 in the final 5:39 when Fresno State had closed to within three points and simply wouldn't vanish.

CU sophomore Andre Roberson, whose one made free throw in seven attempts accounted for his only point at CSU, recovered in a big way against Fresno State. He scored a career- and team-best 21 points on five-of-six shooting while making all nine of his free throw attempts. He also contributed a game-high 10 rebounds for his 10th career double-double, half of them this year.

"Andre was dialed in mentally . . . you could see it tonight," said Boyle, adding he hoped Roberson "getting his mojo going" doesn't require a pair of three-pointers every game. Roberson hit back-to-back treys in the first half when the Buffs appeared to be toying with the Bulldogs and building their 15-point halftime lead.

Tomlinson, who had a game-best six assists, and Dinwiddie occasionally alternated at the high post as the Buffs sought to distribute the ball against the Bulldogs' zone.

Roberson, who has reached double-digit rebounds in seven of eight games this season, said the Buffs can't relax after rolling to a halftime lead like Wednesday night's: "It's really important that we work on playing the full 40 minutes. We can't get comfortable with ourselves. We've got to work on that in practice."

BUFFS FINALLY PUT AWAY FEISTY ROADRUNNERS

BOULDER - Mark Monday night down as a "rust buster" for the Colorado Buffaloes. Of more importance, also mark it down as a 'W'.

Overcoming their own sluggish start and withstanding their opponent's frantic finish, the Buffs eventually put away California State University-Bakersfield 70-64 at the Coors Events Center.

"That was a good win for us," said CU coach Tad Boyle. "I thought there were some really positive things that came out, but there's also lots of room for improvement - and that excites me as a coach."

He was noticeably more excited than he was 10 days previously, when Wyoming visited the Events Center and snapped CU's 27-game non-conference home court winning streak. Boyle gave his players the next two days off, then practiced them for 10 consecutive days.

Not playing for that long and laboring through a week of semester finals, said Boyle, resulted in "a little rust and mental fatigue" that was evident in the Buffs struggling to find the basket and falling behind by as many as 11 points in the first half.

"We didn't get out of the gate (Monday night) . . . and we've been a team that's always gotten out fast," said Boyle.

If the Buffs didn't quite start or finish the night rust-free - they allowed the Roadrunners to cut a 12-point deficit to four in the final 31/2 minutes - they compensated nicely in the mid-section.

Senior Carlton Brown scored eight of his 15 points when the Buffs were in first-half recovery, and reserve Sabatino Chen provided a huge shot of hustle that spanned the last 5 seconds of the first half and stayed with Boyle's bunch well into the second.

"I thought Sabatino's minutes in the first half energized the team," said Boyle, adding that Brown, who had eight assists to go with his 15 points, "was terrific . . . he played within himself. Those two performances (by Chen and Brown) were terrific."

Chen finished with six points, five rebounds, a pair of steals and a blocked first-half shot - which led to the game's most disputed whistle but also revved up the Buffs and the crowd. Counting Brown, four Buffs reached double figures, topped by Andre Roberson's 18. Spencer Dinwiddie added 13 and Austin Dufault 10.

BUFFS GET INTO GIVING, BUT HOLD ON TO WIN

BOULDER - Nothing against holiday spirit, but the Colorado Buffaloes went overboard with their giving Thursday night. They allowed Texas Southern back into what had all the early earmarks of a pre-Christmas stocking stuffer before escaping with a 56-51 win at the Coors Events Center.

A perplexed Tad Boyle knows what he wants under his tree - and any shopping mall St. Nick who has watched the Buffs this season already knows what tops the CU coach's list.

"I'm asking Santa for a consistent team," Boyle said. "Consistently good or consistently bad . . . then I'll know what we have to work on. Right now, it's a hard thing to manage, but I have to do a better job of it. It's going to be on my mind for the next three days . . . we have to get better."

Boyle's frustration came from a festive first half that saw the Buffs handle the visitors' 2-3 zone, shoot 50 percent from the field, hold the Tigers to 22.7 percent and lead by as many as 23 points (32-9).

Said Boyle: "The first half there were so many good things that happened . . . but what we talk about (at halftime) and what our team does sometimes are different things."

Different, indeed . . . the second half was all switches and ashes for the Buffs as those shooting percentages nearly flipped (50 percent for Texas Southern, 28.6 for CU) and the home team's nice habits turned naughty. Whatever the reason(s), the Buffs were a different - and in a bad way - bunch in the last 20 minutes. The Tigers, playing perfectly respectable Grinches, made seven of their dozen steals in the second half and forced the Buffs into 12 of their 20 turnovers.

"Once again, it was a tale of two halves," said CU freshman guard Spencer Dinwiddie, who made four of five treys in the first half and finished five-for-six from beyond the arc. His 18 points were a team and career best. "We're just very inconsistent and until we solve that, we won't be a great team . . . you can't play basketball with an on/off switch."

Playing their eighth consecutive road game and searching for their first win in that stretch, the Tigers rallied behind a trapping defense that the Buffs had expected and the three-point shooting of guard Omar Strong (23 points). TSU closed to within three points (51-48) in the final half minute.

And although the visitors never led, they came close to making Christmas weekend very uncomfortable for the Buffs. CU (7-4) held off TSU (1-9) by making five of six free throws in the last 21.2 seconds - two of the foul shots by Dinwiddie and another pair by sophomore Andre Roberson, who added 11 points and 16 rebounds.
