Brown six times each • Austin Dufault is shooting a career-best 52.2 percent from the field • Roberson has 15 blocks over his last five games.

COACH BOYLE: It took 61 games for Head Coach Tad Boyle to win 40 games at CU, tying Frosty Cox for the fewest games to reach 40 wins as head coach • Boyle (41-22, .651) is the only CU coach to reach 40 wins in just his second season. Last year, he won 24 games, the most in school history • In their second season at the Coors Events Center, the Boyle coaching staff is 31-3 (.912). This season they are 13-1 and 7-0 in Pac-12 play this season. Last year, they set a school record with 18 wins at home.

20 WINS THIS SEASON?: We're getting ahead of ourselves, but 20 wins this season could happen. If it does, head coach Tad Boyle will become the first CU coach EVER to win 20 games in back-to-back seasons. That's 111 seasons of Buff Basketball. Already, Coach Boyle holds the school-record for wins in a season (24).

However, Roberson is averaging 14.6 rebounds per 40 minutes played which ranks best among all CU players since minutes began being recorded in 1978-79. The previous high is Stephane Pelle (1999-2003) at over a full rebound less per 40 minutes (13.4).

• Roberson ranks fifth nationally (through games of Feb. 13) with 15 double-doubles this season. CU is 10-5 in those contests.

• Carlon Brown is shooting 48.8 percent (83-of-170) from the field in CU's 17 wins this season, but is just 32-of-84 (38.1 percent) in eight losses. Additionally, CU is 9-1 this season in games in which Brown shoots 40 percent or better from beyond the three-point arc.

BUFFS IN THE NBA: For the first time since the 1992-93 season (Matt Bullard, Jay Humphries, Alex Stivrins), CU currently has three players on NBA rosters. Both Chauncey Billups and Alec Burks have recorded their season-highs in points playing back in Colorado at the Pepsi Center. Here is a look at how they are faring (through games of Feb. 12):

Chauncey Billups, Los Angeles Clippers
Billups was averaging 14.9 points and 4.0 assists per game in 20 outings for the Clippers before suffering a season-ending Achilles injury on Feb. 6 at Orlando. Billups scored a season-high 32 points in his return to Denver on Jan. 29, as he led L.A. to a 109-105 win over the Nuggets. On Jan. 22, he dished out 14 assists in the Clippers' win over Toronto; his highest total in a game since having 14 as a member of the Denver Nuggets on Dec. 2, 2008. On Jan. 18, "Mr. Big Shot" hit a three-pointer with 1.0 on the clock to give L.A. a 91-89 victory over Dallas.

Burks is averaging 5.3 points in 10.9 minutes per game and has played in 21 of Utah's 26 games. He has scored in double-digits four times (including three straight games from Jan. 15-Jan. 19) and set a career-high with 15 points (all coming in the fourth quarter) at Denver on Dec. 28.

Cory Higgins, Charlotte Bobcats
Higgins has played in 20 of the Bobcats' 27 games, including the last 17. He had a pair of 8-point performances in back-to-back games on Feb. 10 and 11. He scored a career-high 13 points at Washington on Jan. 25. Higgins notched consecutive double-digit scoring games on Jan. 21 and 22, scoring 10 points apiece against Chicago and New Jersey. Higgins is averaging 4.3 points and 12.8 minutes per game in his 20 appearances.

- CU is 7-0 at home in conference play for the sixth time in the postseason era (since the 1937-38 season, though CU has finished a perfect 6-0 at home in conference play six additional times), and just the second time since the 1968-69 season (the other time coming in the 2002-03 season). In four of the previous five times CU has started 7-0 at home in conference play, the Buffs have played in the NCAA tournament.

- CU's 3-0 start to conference play marked the 13th time they have done so in the postseason era (since the 1937-38 season). In nine of the previous 12 times they have done so, CU has played in either the NCAA tournament or the NIT. Here is a look at those starts:

*-Mountain States Conference

- CU ranks 36th nationally (through games of Feb. 12) in defensive field goal percentage by limiting opponents to 39.7 percent shooting from the field. The Buffs are first in Pac-12 games in the category, holding conference opponents to just 39.1 percent on field goals. In CU's 17 wins this season opponents are shooting just 36.5 percent, as opposed to 47.3 percent in the Buffs' eight losses.

- When posting a better shooting percentage than their opponent, CU is 17-0 this season. Additionally, the Buffs are 12-2 this season when outrebounding the opposition. CU ranks 41st nationally (through games of Feb. 12) with a rebounding margin of +5.0 boards per game.

- CU is 11-1 this season when a player scores 10-or-more points off the bench (10 times by Askia Booker, once by both Booker and Jeremy Adams, once by Sabatino Chen). In CU's 17 wins, they are averaging 19.7 bench points per game, opposed to just 13.8 bench points per game in their eight losses.

Andre Roberson, Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year?

- Roberson is averaging more defensive rebounds per game (7.9) than all but one player in the conference is averaging total rebounds per game (Solomon Hill of Arizona averaging 8.2 total).

- Roberson leads the conference in blocked shots per game with 1.9 per all games and 2.5 per conference games. His seven block performance against Oregon is the season-high for the conference and the most by a CU player since David Harrison had seven on Feb. 18, 2004 vs. Texas Tech.

- Last season Roberson became just the third CU player to lead the team in rebounds, blocks, and steals in the same season, and he is duplicating that feat this season. In addition to his 11.1 boards per game, Roberson leads the team with 48 blocks and 28 steals.

- Roberson ranks fifth nationally (through games of Feb. 13) in rebounds per game with 11.1. Roberson trails the national leader (Siena's O.D. Anosike) by 1.9 rebounds per game, as he seeks to become the first Buff since 1982-83 (Jay Humphries in steals and Rob Gonzalez in free throw percentage) to lead the NCAA in a category. The highest finish for a CU player in rebounding was Alex Stivrins who finished sixth in the nation with an 11.7 average in the 1984-85 season.

- Through 25 games this season, Roberson has 277 rebounds. Projecting his current per game average over six more games that CU is guaranteed to play this season, Roberson is on pace for 343 boards which would be near the CU record:

CU defeated Nebraska by 42 points (89-47) on Dec. 29, 1954, but that was part of the Big Seven Christmas Tournament in Kansas City • The back-to-back 40-point wins are the first since Dec. 3 and 6, 2000 when the Buffs defeated Texas Arlington by 44 (119-75) and then went to defeat St. Mary's (105-61) by 44 points.

SOX WALSETH COURT: The Coors Events

Center basketball floor was named after legendary Colorado basketball coach Sox Walseth in 1996. He is CU's all-time leader in men's basketball victories with 261, then added another 77 victories coaching the CU women from 1980-83, including an impressive 43-0 at home. Walseth is the first at CU and only a few to coach both the men's and women's basketball teams at the same school. With the men, CU won three Big Eight titles and coached 20 different CU teams from 1957-1976. He was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 1998 and the CU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.

Men's Basketball Coach Tad Boyle's Take on the Pac-12:

"I look at all the (former Pac-10) players who are in the NBA. It's a league that produces NBA-caliber talent – some years more than others. I think in any conference it's cyclical to some extent, but in the Pac-12 there's schools that have been traditionally good in basketball – UCLA, Arizona. But sometimes when you look at a conference you only look at schools in the top half; there are no bottom feeders. Arizona has lot of guys coming back and a lot good ones coming in. (Arizona) has recruited as well as anybody in the league. Ben Howland's record speaks for itself at UCLA. Lorenzo Romar's done an unbelievable job at Washington...I don't see any weak spots in the league. Like most leagues, some programs are rebuilding, and I'd put us in the rebuilding category. We're the new kids on the block; we're going to have to go through it for a year to see." The Pac-10 Conference during the 2010-11 season sent seven schools to a trio of post-season tournaments. Led by conference regular season champion Arizona, who reached the Elite Eight and fell to eventual NCAA Champion Connecticut, the Pac-10 also earned NCAA berths with UCLA, Washington (conference tourney champion), and Southern California. National Invitation Tournament (NIT) appearances were made by California and Washington State, while Oregon captured the CBI crown to give the Pac-10 its second title in three seasons of the tournament.

GEORGE BOEDECKER JR. COURT NAMED

The University of Colorado celebrated donor George Boedecker, Jr. Friday, November 11, prior to the Buffs season opener against Fort Lewis at the Coors Events Center by naming the upper gym in its new practice facility the George Boedecker Jr. Court. Less than an hour later, ironically, Boedecker took his place on the visiting bench, as he is in his third season serving as the assistant coach for the visiting Skyhawks.

"Coach (Bob) Hofman and I have the duty to represent Fort Lewis in an hour in the gym," Boedecker said. "Everybody will be friends at the end, but we'd love to kick the Buffs' rump."

Based on a gift from Boedecker to help fund CU's new basketball and volleyball practice facility, along with his major gifts that built the football practice bubble and CU's new golf practice facility, there is also a wall located just outside the now renamed upper court in the practice facility saluting Boedecker.

"Again, 11/11/11 will always go down as a special day and we're proud to unveil this gym with his name on it," CU Athletic Director Mike Bohn said. "George and I grew up in Boulder as kids. He's a treasure to the community. He built the bubble and now he's helped build this facility for the Buffs and put his name in this gym."

Hofman, Fort Lewis' head coach, is a CU graduate, former player and assistant coach. He played for CU until 1974 and then in the late '70s, he coached in Balch Fieldhouse and the Coors Events Center for both CU and Fairview High School. He then became the coach at Fort Lewis and played against the Buffs in 1985. He interviewed for the CU head job in 1990 and this is his first trip back to coach in the Events Center since 1985.

Boedecker played for Hofman at Fairview High School from 1978-80 and is in third year as an assistant coach under Hofman. At that same time Boedecker was at Fairview, Bohn was enrolled at Boulder High School.

"Mike and I had a friendship and maybe some fisticuffs as young children," Boedecker said. "But we all came back and we're all Buffs. Coach Hofman and I are Buffs first and foremost. I'm wearing a watch he gave me from the last Big Eight Championship. In the Pac-12, we will win a lot of champion-

WHAT WAS SAID

"This is it (my dream job), there's no doubt. I remember talking with Mark Turgeon once when he asked me where I wanted to be in 10 years, and I said the head coach at the University of Colorado. This is a destination job. I'm humbled and honored."

- University of Colorado head coach Tad Boyle, the day he was hired as the new CU men's basketball coach

"CU is getting a great person, a guy with great character and a value system, which is most important. He's a very well-rounded basketball coach and an excellent recruiter. He's a guy who will be very good with alumni and boosters. He's got great people skills and he develops relationships. Good coaches never stop trying to get better, and Tad does that. He was great as an assistant - extremely loyal, hard working and positive."

- Mark Turgeon, former Texas A&M Head Basketball Coach, now the Head Coach at the University of Maryland

"This exciting process was all about both the young men we have currently and those in the future who will be joining our program, and is an investment in them and represents the competitive spirit, teamwork, passion and dedication they stand for. Tad Boyle represents everything that is right about college basketball. We look forward to his leadership, poise and competitive drive to unite all our collective Buff interests to support our team and this enterprise that has so much promise for the long term."

- Mike Bohn, University of Colorado Athletics Director on what made Tad Boyle stand out above the other candidates

"It's an incredible opportunity for him, but a phenomenal hire for Colorado. He's worked hard to get to this point; he's got an amazing background. I'm thrilled to death for him. I've been around some great basketball minds - Bill Self (Kansas), John Calipari (Kentucky), Alvin Gentry (Phoenix Suns), Greg Popovich (San Antonio Spurs), to name a few. A lot of quality guys have helped me coach. Tad has the same qualities those guys have. His kids play hard and unselfishly. They guard and play smart. He had those qualities as a player and he values them as a coach. He'll also make that program part of the whole community, and that's important at a school. The football coach, the women's coaches . . . they'll all love him. I love college athletics; it's more of a we thing than (in the NBA). You support everything. Tad will do that. This is an incredible opportunity for him and just as an incredible opportunity for Colorado."

- Larry Brown, Charlotte Bobcats Head Coach and former University of Kansas head coach (1983-1988)

BUFFS ROLL PAST OVERMATCHED SKYHAWKS

BOULDER (Nov. 11) - Tad Boyle wasn't facing a complete makeover with his 2011-12 Colorado basketball team, but it came close. He unveiled his retooled Buffs Friday night against Fort Lewis College, and while he was the first to acknowledge there's work to be done before the schedule toughens - and that happens quickly - he also found plenty to applaud in CU's 85-57 season-opening victory at the Coors Events Center.

"The good thing is you can win by this margin and still have room for improvement," Boyle said after watching his second CU team struggle at times to find its half-court offense and lapse occasionally on defense but still do enough right to rout an overmatched opponent.

"Defensively we played pretty well," Boyle continued. "I challenged our guys to guard for 40 minutes. We had a few lapses, but I thought overall we played well - especially with the number of new guys we had on the court."

Playing without Cory Higgins, Alec Burks, Levi Knutson and Marcus Relphorhe - a foursome that accounted for about 75 percent of CU's scoring load last season - was "really weird," sophomore forward Andre Roberson said. "But it's time to move on."

And so the Buffs did - at least in their opener.

CU senior forward Austin Dufault, who led CU with 18 points and added 10 rebounds, called Fort Lewis "a good Division II team" and said the Buffs submitted a first night they can build on: "You always want to get off to a good start and our team did that . . . we had a good team effort crashing the boards."

Boyle said Dufault and senior guard Nate Tomlinson, who had five points, four assists and three steals, "gave us great stability on the court . . . I don't know if Austin can get 18 and 10 every night, but I won't be mad at him if he does."

The Buffs' board work was controlled by the 6-7 Roberson, who at 215 pounds weighs about 15 more than last season and, said Boyle, "is a beast . . . he's a lot stronger, he's athletic and explosive." Roberson exhibited all of those things, collecting a game-best 15 of CU's 48 rebounds and scoring 13 points - all in the first half.

Fort Lewis coach Bob Hofman, a former CU point guard, liked what he saw from Roberson, calling him "a special player."

BUFFS FALL TO SHOCKERS IN PUERTO RICO OPENER

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 17) - Carlton Brown scored 15 points and added four rebounds but the Colorado Buffaloes fell to Wichita State, 67-58, in the first round of the Fifth Annual 5 Hour Energy Puerto Rico Shootout here Thursday.

The Buffs will now face Maryland Friday at 4:30 p.m. In an ironic twist, Maryland is now coached by Mark Turgeon, who was the head coach for the Shockers when Boyle was his assistant.

No other CU player hit double figures, but sophomore Andre Roberson did pull down 10 rebounds for the Buffaloes.

The two teams played even for the first 15 minutes of the first half when the game was tied at 24-24 before the Shockers went on a 7-0 run in less than two minutes to take a 31-24 lead with 3:15 left in the half.

Each team scored just once the remainder of the first half, 33-26.

The Shockers held the lead near double digits early in the second half, and the Buffs cut it to five points twice, first at 37-32 and then again at 40-35.

Colorado cut the Shocker lead to just three midway through the second half, 50-47, after Austin Dufault made a 3-pointer.

Askia Booker made a free throw with 2:13 left to bring CU to within five points at 62-57 and the Buffs didn't score again as the Shockers put the game away at the line with the final score, 67-58.

BUFFS TAKE DOWN BRONCOS 81-76

SAN JUAN, P.R. (Nov. 20) - Carlton Brown scored 23 points and Colorado defeated Western Michigan 81-76 in the seventh-place game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off tournament.

Brown was 8 for 14 from the field and 6 for 6 from the free-throw line for the Buffaloes (2-2). Austin Dufault had 16 points and eight rebounds for Colorado, while Nate Tomlinson scored 12 and Askia Booker added 11 points.

The Buffs' five-point margin at the end was their biggest lead of the game.

"This win gives us confidence and that's important in college basketball," said CU head coach Tad Boyle. "We're going to get mentally tougher for our upcoming games."

Western Michigan (0-4), which didn't lead in either of the first two games of the tournament, jumped in front 13-3 and led 35-31 at halftime.

Matt Stainbrook had 20 points and eight rebounds for the Broncos. Demetrius Ward scored 16 points and Flenard Whitfield had 11 points and eight boards.

BUFFS TOP FALCONS IN OT, 76-73

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP, Nov. 23) - Tad Boyle had one way to describe Andre Roberson.

"He is a madman," said the Colorado coach about the sophomore guard who now has 57 rebounds for the Buffaloes in five games this season. "I don't know where his head was in the first 30 minutes of the game." Boyle said. "But was there at the end when it mattered."

Askia Booker hit a 3-pointer and Roberson got a key block and layup in overtime to help CU to a 76-73 victory over Air Force.

"I do what I can to win," Roberson said. "I will get rebound when it is needed."

Nate Tomlinson led Colorado (3-2) with 19 points on 4-of-7 shooting from 3-point range. Carlton Brown added 16 points, and Roberson had 11 points and 13 rebounds.

Roberson went scoreless in the first half, missing his only shot. He did have eight rebounds in the first 20 minutes.

Colorado's win couldn't overshadow the brilliant game of Michael Lyons of the Falcons. Lyons made 10-of-19 shots and clutch free throws at the end of regulation to finish with a career-high 31 points for Air Force (3-1).

It was the most points by a Falcon player since Jarvis Croff scored 31 on March 9, 2000 against Utah.

The Falcons' scrambling defense forced 18 turnovers, turning the mistakes into 27 points.

Air Force was the better team taking care of the ball, committing a season-low six turnovers.

The Falcons led 72-69 in overtime after a layup by Taylor Stewart and Mike Fitzgerald's 3-pointer. The Buffaloes then got Roberson's layup off a rebound and went ahead 74-72 on Booker's 3-pointer with 15 seconds left.

After Todd Fletcher made a free throw for Air Force, Roberson sealed the game with a basket. Fletcher missed a 3-point attempt at the buzzer.

"Air Force is a tough team to defend," Boyle said. "You them get either get layups or threes against you."

CU almost won the game in regulation after Roberson tipped in his own miss with 13 seconds remaining to make it 67-65. But Fitzgerald sank two free throws with 3.7 seconds left to send the game into overtime.

BUFFS' LATE RALLY FALLS ONE POINT SHORT

FORT COLLINS (Nov. 30) – Of all the questions about his Colorado basketball team crowding Tad Boyle's mind, the one that puzzled him most was this: "Really, how were we ever in it?"

But somehow – despite committing 15 turnovers, missing 16 free throws and shooting 36.8 percent from the field – Wednesday night's game against Colorado State came down to the Buffaloes' final possession.

And when senior guard Nate Tomlinson's long jumper bounded off the rim at the buzzer, CSU had escaped with a 65-64 victory at raucous Moby Gym.

"I have no idea how we had a chance to win this game, but I think it's a testament to our team that we did. I told our guys in the lockerroom I do not fault your competitiveness, I don't fault your desire . . . your will to win, I don't fault any of that stuff. But what I fault is our execution," said Boyle, reflecting on how poorly his team executed for most of the previous 48 minutes then amazingly put itself in position to steal a win from its in-state rival.

The Buffs overcame an eight-point deficit in the final 1:25 and even went ahead 64-63 on a Tomlinson layup with just over 10 seconds to play. But a floater from the right baseline by CSU's Dorian Green returned what would be the final advantage to the Rams and set the stage for Tomlinson's miss.

"We just needed one extra stop and didn't get it," said CU senior Austin Dufault.

Tomlinson, one of three CU players in double figures (he had 11, Dufault 13 and freshman Spencer Dinwiddie 16), said he didn't get the final shot he wanted because CSU switched defenders. Boyle had called for a high ball screen involving Dufault and Tomlinson, with either of them taking the final shot. But a bigger player switched on Tomlinson as time was expiring and he took the only shot he could.

"I didn't get a very good look," Tomlinson said. "I didn't get a very good feel for the ball and it just didn't go down."

Boyle said he takes responsibility for the poor execution overall, but added, "This team's heart is there. And we're not going to lose that. We're going to be in a lot of close games like this – we already have been. We've won our fair share."

The Buffs had missed 15 free throws in Monday night's 70-68 home win against Georgia, and Tomlinson said missing one more than that two nights later indicated more of a mental issue than anything else. "The more we talk about it, the worse it gets," he said. "That's the game . . . we're a real young team, but we're a tough team and that's not going to change."

BUFFS REGAIN COMPOSURE, SQUEEZE BY BULLDOGS

BOULDER (Dec. 7) – A veteran basketball team with a 15-point halftime lead is pretty close to being a certain winner. A young team clutching the same advantage . . . no guarantees.

With his team up 38-23 at intermission on Wednesday night, Colorado men's coach Tad Boyle fervently tried to head off the onset of complacency, telling his young Buffaloes, "Don't play the scoreboard, play the possession on both sides of the ball . . . it wasn't something we didn't talk about, but sometimes all you can do as a coach is talk. (Players) have to take it out on the floor and do it."

It took awhile in the second half for Boyle's message to register, but in the end it did. CU righted itself against surprisingly unflappable Fresno State and its zone defense, finally pulling free of the Bulldogs for a 71-64 win at the Coors Events Center. If the Buffs' one-point loss a week earlier at Colorado State was directly traceable to the free throw line - 16 misses - this win plopped on the same thin stripe. CU shot 84.4 percent (27-of-32) Wednesday night from foul line, making 13-of-14 in the final 5:39 when Fresno State had closed to within three points and simply wouldn't vanish.

CU sophomore Andre Roberson, whose one made free throw in seven attempts accounted for his only point at CSU, recovered in a big way against Fresno State. He scored a career- and team-best 21 points on five-of-six shooting while making all nine of his free throw attempts. He also contributed a game-high 10 rebounds for his 10th career double-double, half of them this year.

"Andre was dialed in mentally . . . you could see it tonight," said Boyle, adding he hoped Roberson "getting his mojo going" doesn't require a pair of three-pointers every game. Roberson hit back-to-back treys in the first half when the Buffs appeared to be toying with the Bulldogs and building their 15-point halftime lead.

Tomlinson, who had a game-best six assists, and Dinwiddie occasionally alternated at the high post as the Buffs sought to distribute the ball against the Bulldogs' zone.

Roberson, who has reached double-digit rebounds in seven of eight games this season, said the Buffs can't relax after rolling to a halftime lead like Wednesday night's: "It's really important that we work on playing the full 40 minutes. We can't get comfortable with ourselves. We've got to work on that in practice."

BUFFS FINALLY PUT AWAY FEISTY ROADRUNNERS

BOULDER (Dec. 19) - Mark Monday night down as a "rust buster" for the Colorado Buffaloes. Of more importance, also mark it down as a 'W'.

Overcoming their own sluggish start and withstanding their opponent's frantic finish, the Buffs eventually put away California State University-Bakersfield 70-64 at the Coors Events Center.

"That was a good win for us," said CU coach Tad Boyle. "I thought there were some really positive things that came out, but there's also lots of room for improvement - and that excites me as a coach."

He was noticeably more excited than he was 10 days previously, when Wyoming visited the Events Center and snapped CU's 27-game non-conference home court winning streak. Boyle gave his players the next two days off, then practiced them for 10 consecutive days.

Not playing for that long and laboring through a week of semester finals, said Boyle, resulted in "a little rust and mental fatigue" that was evident in the Buffs struggling to find the basket and falling behind by as many as 11 points in the first half.

"We didn't get out of the gate (Monday night) . . . and we've been a team that's always gotten out fast," said Boyle.

If the Buffs didn't quite start or finish the night rust-free - they allowed the Roadrunners to cut a 12-point deficit to four in the final 31/2 minutes - they compensated nicely in the mid-section.

Senior Carlon Brown scored eight of his 15 points when the Buffs were in first-half recovery, and reserve Sabatino Chen provided a huge shot of hustle that spanned the last 5 seconds of the first half and stayed with Boyle's bunch well into the second.

"I thought Sabatino's minutes in the first half energized the team," said Boyle, adding that Brown, who had eight assists to go with his 15 points, "was terrific . . . he played within himself. Those two performances (by Chen and Brown) were terrific."

Chen finished with six points, five rebounds, a pair of steals and a blocked first-half shot - which led to the game's most disputed whistle but also reved up the Buffs and the crowd. Counting Brown, four Buffs reached double figures, topped by Andre Roberson's 18. Spencer Dinwiddie added 13 and Austin Dufault 10.

BUFFS GET INTO GIVING, BUT HOLD ON TO WIN

BOULDER (Dec. 22) - Nothing against holiday spirit, but the Colorado Buffaloes went overboard with their giving Thursday night. They allowed Texas Southern back into what had all the early earmarks of a pre-Christmas stocking stuffer before escaping with a 56-51 win at the Coors Events Center.

A perplexed Tad Boyle knows what he wants under his tree - and any shopping mall St. Nick who has watched the Buffs this season already knows what tops the CU coach's list.

"I'm asking Santa for a consistent team," Boyle said. "Consistently good or consistently bad . . . then I'll know what we have to work on. Right now, it's a hard thing to manage, but I have to do a better job of it. It's going to be on my mind for the next three days . . . we have to get better."

Boyle's frustration came from a festive first half that saw the Buffs handle the visitors' 2-3 zone, shoot 50 percent from the field, hold the Tigers to 22.7 percent and lead by as many as 23 points (32-9).

Said Boyle: "The first half there were so many good things that happened . . . but what we talk about (at halftime) and what our team does sometimes are different things."

Different, indeed . . . the second half was all switches and ashes for the Buffs as those shooting percentages nearly flipped (50 percent for Texas Southern, 28.6 for CU) and the home team's nice habits turned naughty. Whatever the reason(s), the Buffs were a different - and in a bad way - bunch in the last 20 minutes. The Tigers, playing perfectly respectable Grinches, made seven of their dozen steals in the second half and forced the Buffs into 12 of their 20 turnovers.

"Once again, it was a tale of two halves," said CU freshman guard Spencer Dinwiddie, who made four of five treys in the first half and finished five-for-six from beyond the arc. His 18 points were a team and career best. "We're just very inconsistent and until we solve that, we won't be a great team . . . you can't play basketball with an on/off switch."

Playing their eighth consecutive road game and searching for their first win in that stretch, the Tigers rallied behind a trapping defense that the Buffs had expected and the three-point shooting of guard Omar Strong (23 points). TSU closed to within three points (51-48) in the final half minute.

And although the visitors never led, they came close to making Christmas weekend very uncomfortable for the Buffs. CU (7-4) held off TSU (1-9) by making five of six free throws in the last 21.2 seconds - two of the foul shots by Dinwiddie and another pair by sophomore Andre Roberson, who added 11 points and 16 rebounds.

BUFFS' SMOTHERING 'D' BRINGS FIRST PAC-12 WIN

BOULDER (Dec. 31) - Don't take Colorado's 40-point win on Saturday in its Pac-12 Conference men's basketball debut as an indicator of things to come. If you're into indicators, as is Buffaloes coach Tad Boyle, you'll join him in the Coors Events Center on Thursday night.

That's when Washington visits, and as Boyle prophesied early on New Year's Eve after CU had undressed Utah, 73-33, "We'll find out a lot about our team when Washington comes in . . . If we're talking about a win then, I'll say our program is headed in the right direction."

Still, there always has to be a first step in a new conference - and the Buffs took a respectable one against the hapless Utes. CU (9-4, 1-0) held its first-time Pac-12 visitor to the lowest point total ever by an opponent in the Events Center, which opened for the 1979-80 season, and the lowest overall since a 42-30 win at Kansas on Jan. 17, 1949.

Utah's total was its lowest since 1947. The Utes (3-10, 0-1) entered the conference opener averaging 58.8 points.

Coupled with the Buffs' previous rout of New Orleans - 92-34 four nights earlier - they've held their last two opponents to 67 points. Boyle's nightly, weekly, monthly, yearly areas of emphasis are defense and rebounding, and he's gotten consecutive nearly air-tight nights from his team on the defensive end.

But predictably, instead of gloating about holding a pair of struggling opponents under 40, Boyle prefers to focus on the Buffs' daily progress. "I'm concerned about how Colorado basketball is playing . . . I'm not going to talk about Utah or New Orleans," he said, noting that CU's harder-than-it-had-to-be 56-51 win against Texas Southern three days before Christmas, "as bittersweet as it was, maybe it was a good thing for our team."

"We had put a big emphasis on defense," CU freshman guard Askia Booker said. "At halftime (Boyle) gave us a lot of credit for our defense. . . . We didn't shoot well, but he told us our defense is why we had a 16-point lead."

Booker, tying his CU career high with 14 points, was one of four Buffs in double figures. Freshman Spencer Dinwiddie hit a career-best 19 points, while sophomore Andre Roberson had his ninth double-double of the season (17 points, career-high 17 rebounds). Senior Carlton Brown, who transferred from Utah two seasons ago, added 10 points.

BUFFS MEASURE UP (AND MORE) AGAINST HUSKIES

BOULDER (Jan. 5) - It came only two games into an 18-game Pac-12 Conference schedule, but it was a huge early test nonetheless - and the Colorado Buffaloes aced it.

CU overcame an erratic start Thursday night to dispose of Washington 87-69 at the Coors Events Center, winning for the fifth consecutive time and remaining unbeaten in the Pac-12.

"I thought that was a really good win for our program, for where we are right now . . . I have such respect for Lorenzo Romar and the Washington program and what they've done over the last 10 years . . . they've got good players," said Buffs coach Tad Boyle, who after his team's 40-point blowout of Utah last weekend in the conference opener had termed UW's upcoming visit a "measuring stick" for his program.

With that in mind, the Buffs measured up nicely, particularly in the areas of composing themselves after falling behind 7-0, overtaking the Huskies by halftime with determined defense, then never allowing their talented visitors back in the game.

Over the last several weeks, Boyle said, his message to the Buffs has centered on "pride and toughness . . . being proud of representing Colorado basketball, what we want it to represent, taking ownership in our program and playing with unbelievable toughness every night."

Did the Buffs do that Thursday? Ask the Huskies, who came to Boulder as the Pac-12's second-highest scoring team, averaging 80.6 points. The Buffs held them to their second-lowest total of the season.

"You've got to give credit to Colorado," Romar said. "They guarded us. We got out to a 14-5 lead and then they really clamped down defensively. They made shot after shot. They were very efficient offensively; they did a great job."

The Buffs (10-4, 2-0) got significant contributions from everyone who started or left the bench. Five CU players scored in double figures, topped by Carlton Brown's 18. Spencer Dinwiddie and Askia Booker added 13 and 12, respectively. Austin Dufault and Nate Tomlinson chipped in 13 and 11. And Andre Roberson got his conference-leading rebounding average (12) along with eight points.

But the Buffs' list of contributors kept going. Junior Sabatino Chen was instrumental in the first-half rally, hitting three twisting layups. Sophomore Jeremy Adams also had six points and five rebounds, playing what Boyle termed Adams' "best game as a Buff." Sophomore Shane Harris-Tunks didn't score, but made a pair of blocks and two steals against one of the Pac-12 most athletic teams. The Huskies (8-6, 2-1) were led by Tony Wroten's 21. C.J. Wilcox (19) and Terrence Ross (13) were the only other UW players in double figures.

BUFFS FALL TO CAL 57-50 IN PAC-12 ROAD OPENER

BERKELEY, Calif. (Jan. 12/AP) - Colorado led at halftime and hung tough with California, but the Golden Bears pulled away late to defeat the Buffs 57-50 at Haas Pavilion.

Austin Dufault hit a three-pointer to make it a one-point game at 51-50 with 1:05 left in the game, but Cal's Harper Kamp responded with a layup to put the Bears up three. Colorado (11-5, 3-1 Pac-12) turned it over on their next possession and after Justin Cobbs made his first free throw, Allen Crabbe got an offensive rebound on the missed second attempt. Crabbe made both his ensuing free throw attempts to push the Bears' lead to 56-50 with 35.3 seconds remaining. "Our guys battled," CU head coach Tad Boyle said following the loss. "They scratched and they fought, and like I told them in the locker room, I'll live with that kind of effort. Now we have to get better, certainly. Our offensive execution has to get better, especially in the second half, but I love the grit this team plays with."

Cal (14-4, 4-1 Pac-12) struggled to get over the hump, finally taking a lead at 39-37 with 10:08 left in the game on a David Kravish put-back. It was the Bears' first lead since being ahead 9-8 with 12:40 remaining in the first half.

Cal would take a five-point lead at 42-37, but CU fought back to retake the lead at 45-43 on a Dufault three. Cal then went on an 8-0 run, including four points from Richard Solomon, from 5:41 to 2:23 showing on the clock to take control of the game and go ahead 51-45.

Colorado led 29-22 at halftime as Dufault hit a jumper late in the period to extend the Buffs' lead to seven points. CU created the separation with a 7-0 run to break an 11-11 tie from 10:31 to 6:21 left on the clock in the first half. Dufault led all scorers with nine points at the break. Cal opened the second half on a 5-0 run to get back to within one possession.

Dufault led the Buffs with a game-high 19 points, and Andre Roberson added a double-double with 11 points and 14 boards. Kamp led Cal with 14 points with Cobbs also scoring in double-digits with 12.

Colorado won the rebounding battle 40-36, but was out-shot by the Bears 35.1 percent (20-of-57) to CU's 31.9 percent (15-of-47). The Buffs also turned the ball over 17 times, leading to 22 points by Cal. The Golden Bears only turned the ball over eight times, leading to just two points for the Buffs off turnovers.

"Seventeen turnovers to eight, on the road, you're putting yourself behind the eight-ball," Boyle said about the significant turnovers played in the game.

SECOND-HALF SURGE LEADS STANFORD PAST BUFFS

PALO ALTO, Calif. (Jan. 14/AP) - Stanford outscored Colorado 45-31 in the second half to defeat the Buffs 84-64 at Maples Pavilion on Saturday afternoon.

The Buffs (11-6, 3-2 Pac-12) opened the second half on a 9-3 run fueled by five points from Spencer Dinwiddie to tie the game at 42 with 17:01 remaining in the game. Stanford (15-3, 5-1 Pac-12) then took over, going on a 32-5 run to open up a 74-47 lead with 7:48 to play. "We tried to get a little aggressive defensively," Colorado head coach Tad Boyle said about the Cardinal's second-half streak.

"We started doubling their ball screens a little bit and they got a couple shooters loose. They went up five and then we got out of that and tried to get back to just guarding and the floodgates just kind of opened. Our defense wasn't good enough to keep us in the game tonight and our offense wasn't good either. I think you have to credit Stanford because they played a heck of a game."

Andre Roberson led CU with 15 points, while Austin Dufault (14), Carlton Brown (13), and Dinwiddie (11) all scored in double-digits as well.

Freshman Chasson Randle led the Cardinal with 18 points, including a 4-of-8 performance from beyond the three-point arc. Aaron Bright scored 14, Josh Huestis scored 13, and Josh Owens scored 10 points in addition to a game-high seven boards.

Stanford's 84 points were the most allowed by CU this season as the Cardinal shot 52.9 percent from the field (27-of-51), including 10-of-23 from long range (43.5 percent). The Buffs shot 42.1 percent (24-of-57) for the contest.

CU's last lead in the game came at 21-19 with 9:09 left in the first half before Stanford went on a 12-3 over the next 3:32 of game time to build their lead. The Cardinal led 39-33 at intermission.

Roberson had a game-high 13 points at halftime and Dufault also was in double-digits with 10 points at the break.

After starting 3-0 in conference play, CU has now dropped their first two road games in the Pac-12. The Buffs return to action on Thursday night as they host Arizona State at Coors Events Center. The game will tip at 6:30 p.m. and will be televised on ROOT Sports.

BUFFS STAY TOUGH IN CRUNCH, EDGE WILDCATS

BOULDER (Jan. 21) - The way the game had rocked back and forth for 39 minutes, Colorado coach Tad Boyle couldn't see it shifting toward the Buffaloes with a seamless offensive possession. Arizona had made it a deliver-a-blow, absorb-a-blow kind of Saturday, and the Wildcats - down one point with no timeouts - had a last chance to hush the season's first sellout crowd at the Coors Events Center.

It didn't happen - and that the Buffs outlasted the Wildcats 64-63 on what Boyle later called a "rock solid" final defensive stand simply made his afternoon.

"We work on time and score in practice a lot . . . up one and having to get a stop," he said. "All it takes is one break down; we made them take a contested three and they missed. I thought it was appropriate that we won the game that way."

The win, CU's fifth at home in Pac-12 Conference play (13-6 overall, 5-2 conference), finally unfolded like this:

After a Kevin Parrom layup gave UA a 63-61 lead, CU senior Carlton Brown drained a three-pointer to put CU ahead by a point with 1:18 showing. When Kyle Fogg missed the front end of a critical one-and-one with 1:01 left, Brown in turn misfired from just inside the top of the key with less than half a minute remaining.

The Wildcats controlled the rebound and had a final chance for the win, but they didn't have a timeout to set anything up. UA coach Sean Miller had sped through his second-half timeouts, using his last one with about 2:50 left.

As a result, the Wildcats sped down court and tried find a crack in the Buffs' defense. When none was found, the ball went to Parrom on the right perimeter. His try attempt at the buzzer was long - and the Buffs and their rowdy capacity crowd (11,056) exhaled. Victoriously.

As the crowd roared, most of CU's players joined in the celebration - all but senior Austin Dufault, who celebrated a little late. "I thought the game was tied," Dufault said sheepishly. "I saw Nate (Tomlinson) sprinting down the court, and thought, 'What's he doing? We're going into overtime.' Then I looked at the scoreboard, grabbed Carlton and said, 'We won.'"

Duh . . . shocking, but true. Dufault, though, was infinitely more in tune to what preceded the final frantic seconds. To go along with Brown's team-best 19 points - 12 in the second half, seven of those in the last 9:57 - Dufault contributed 12 points, six rebounds and pair of steals, continuing his steady play in his final season. CU's pair of freshman guards - Spencer Dinwiddie and Askia Booker - combined for 21 points (Dinwiddie 12, Booker nine). UA's Jesse Perry led all scorers with 20.

The contributions of Brown, Dufault, Dinwiddie and Booker were made all the more vital by what Boyle termed an off night for leading rebounder (11.3) and second-leading scorer (11.6) Andre Roberson, who collected seven boards but didn't score (0-for-8 from the field, 0-for-2 from the free throw line).

As proud as he was about the Buffs' defense in the final half minute, Boyle also pointed to his team's season-low six turnovers, which led to a dozen points. CU needed an advantage there, because UA won the board battle 44-35 - not a statistical duel Boyle likes to lose. And CU missed 10 free throws (16-of-26), hit just four three-pointers in 17 attempts and finished at 40.7 percent from the field (22-of-54).

But the Buffs, Boyle noted, "made one extra play" on defense. "That's what makes me the happiest and the most proud."

BUFFS STAMPEDE OVER USC 74-50 ON THE ROAD

LOS ANGELES (Jan. 26) - Andre Roberson had 13 points and 10 rebounds as Colorado beat Southern California 74-50 on Thursday night, sending the Trojans to their ninth straight loss.

CU's 24-point victory is their largest on the road in a conference game since the Cliff Meely-led Buffaloes won 80-56 in Norman against Oklahoma on Jan. 4, 1969 in a Big 8 game.

The Buffs led by 29 in the second half tonight, their largest lead in a conference road game since also taking a 29-point lead late in a 75-47 win at Nebraska on Jan. 7, 1963. By matching the lead from the Nebraska game in 1963, CU tied their largest lead in a road conference game since a 66-30 win at Denver on Jan. 9, 1946 in a Mountain States Conference game, a span of 66 years.

"Before we came out on the floor, we talked about this being a taking care of business type of game," head coach Tad Boyle said about CU's victory. "We knew if we did what we are supposed to do, the results would take care of themselves. Three things we talked about in practice this week were staying focused for 40 minutes, being mentally tough, and executing. I thought we did all three of those things tonight."

Carlton Brown scored 13 points with nine rebounds for the Buffaloes (14-6, 6-2), who used a 23-4 run spanning both halves in winning their first Pac-12 road game. Askia Booker scored 13, Austin Dufault 11 and Jeremy Adams 10.

Maurice Jones scored 13 points to lead the Trojans (5-16, 0-8), who shot 32 percent overall and went 5-of-25 on 3-pointers.

Roberson hit a layup and a free throw coming out of halftime to make the lead 40-26. After USC's James Blasczyk scored on a jumper with 17:33 left, the Trojans went scoreless for nearly six minutes.

BUFFS APPLY BRAKES TO HIGH-SCORING BEAVERS

BOULDER (Feb. 2) - The Pac-12 Conference's highest scoring team hurtled headlong into a defensive roadblock (or maybe it was a snow bank) on Thursday night.

Oregon State, averaging a league-best 82.4 points, found itself completely untracked by the University of Colorado, which ran, rocked and rolled to a convincing 82-60 victory at the Coors Events Center.

The Beavers' 60 points tied their lowest total of the season - a 74-60 home loss to Idaho in early December. They rode into Boulder on a three-game winning streak.

"I'm obviously pleased with the way our guys came out ready to go," CU coach Tad Boyle said. "If you hold them to 36 percent (from the field) at home, you should win. We got stops, we got into transition... the best way to beat a zone is to beat them down the court."

The Beavers, hoping their 1-3-1 zone would befuddle the Buffs, found themselves in early trouble and never found a way out. OSU's Jared Cunningham, the Pac-12's leading scorer (18.2), was held to 12 points on 5-of-12 shooting from the field.

Cunningham was mostly checked by Nate Tomlinson, whom Boyle called "one of the most underrated defenders in our league." And the Buffs did an equally decisive number on Cunningham's backcourt mate, Ahmad Starks, who was averaging 13.6 points. CU held him to three.

"Their backcourt is a big part of what they do... we tried to make them take tough, contested shots," said Tomlinson, who had a game-high six of his team's season-best 19 assists.

Five CU players reached double figures, topped by Andre Roberson's 16 and 15 rebounds. Askia Booker added 15, Austin Dufault 14, Carlton Brown 12 and Spencer Dinwiddie 10.

"When you play defense like we did, they can have a lot of guys have a great night - and that's what they did," said OSU coach Craig Robinson. "That's what good teams do, they take advantage of teams when they come into their place and play well. That's a credit to their coach and their preparation."

The Buffs entered the game as the Pac-12 leader in field goal percentage defense (39.8) - and the Beavers quickly discovered why. OSU, which also led the league in field goal percentage (48.5), was held 38.2 percent from the field in the first half as CU opened a 15-point advantage at intermission. OSU (14-8, 4-6) finished the game at 36.2 percent from the field (21-of-58).

CU led by as many as 24 on several occasions in the second half and was never threatened - and that's just the way Boyle wanted it. The Buffs were expecting a run from the Beavers to open the second half, but it didn't happen. In fact, the team that hit the gas early was CU.

Boyle had talked to his team in the locker room about "winning every 4 minute segment... we felt if we could extend that thing (a 15-point halftime lead), we could put them away. And we did. It's a sign of progress."

CU's 46 first-half points were a team first-half seasonal high in Pac-12 play.

TOMLINSON'S FT PUSHES BUFFS PAST DUCKS

BOULDER (Feb. 4) - Second chances to win basketball games usually don't occur within 16-second spans, but Nate Tomlinson glanced at the clock Saturday night, saw his second chance hanging there, then raced for it.

Tomlinson beat the clock and Oregon, sinking the first of two free throws with one second remaining to push Colorado to a 72-71 win at the sold-out, worn-out, but far from bummed out Coors Events Center. With four seconds to play, the Colorado senior guard dribbled the length of the court and was fouled - Oregon coach Dana Altman believed otherwise - as he launched himself for a layup.

"Of course," Tomlinson answered afterwards when asked if he was fouled by Oregon's E.J. Singler. But Altman's postgame pursuit of the officiating crew suggested the second-year top Duck disagreed. By then the call and one free throw had been made, never mind that Tomlinson - by his own admission - "bricked my second one."

More reserved than he was at game's end, Altman called the foul that sent Tomlinson to the free throw line for the final time "just part of the game... we didn't shoot free throws well (10-of-17, but CU was 23-of-30). They beat us there and that was a big difference."

The win kept the Buffs unbeaten at home (7-0) in Pac-12 Conference play and in a second-place tie (8-3 conference, 16-7 overall) with California. Washington leads the league at 9-2.

Coach Tad Boyle, who became the first CU coach to win his 40th game in his second season, called Tomlinson's sprint up-court and drawing the foul "a big-time play... a smart play by Nate. It was one you expect your senior point guard to make."

Tomlinson also expected it of himself - especially after he had missed one of two free throws with 17.4 seconds to play. His stat line wasn't spectacular: 7 points on 1-of-5 from the field (his only three-pointer in four attempts) and 4-of-7 free throws; 2 rebounds, 4 assists and a turnover. But he made Oregon's leading scorer, Devoe Joseph, work for most of his 18 points.

When Tomlinson made one-of-two free throw with 17.4 seconds to play, CU went up 71-69. But Oregon's Olu Ashaolu (17 points, 9 rebounds) tied the score with an inside basket and was fouled. He missed his free throw, the Buffs controlled the rebound and Tomlinson was off and dribbling.

Said Tomlinson: "I had a quick look up at the clock and saw that we had about four seconds left. So I made a play to put it in the refs' hands - and luckily I got the call."

Said Boyle: "You officiate the game from start to finish; if a kid gets fouled, it's a foul. I had no problem with most of those calls. I want the game officiated from start to finish just like coach Altman and any other coach does. I had no problem."

CU freshman Askia Booker, who led the Buffs with 17 points off the bench (13 in the first half), called Tomlinson's drive to the basket "a veteran move... he didn't settle for a jump shot, he went for a layup." After hitting only one of his two free throws 16 seconds earlier, Tomlinson said he "felt like I threw the game away... I wouldn't have been able to sleep until next week if I'd missed that (last) one."

Sleep will come easy now, but this was a restless night for the Buffs. The road-tough Ducks (16-7, 7-4) outrebounded them 37-32, converted 15 CU turnovers into 18 points and outscored the home team 32-30 in the paint. Oregon also was able to shoot 42.9 percent from the field (27-of-63).

BUFFS GET BIG ROAD WIN, TOP ARIZONA STATE 63-49

TEMPE, Ariz. (Feb. 11, AP & CU Staff RepORts) - Freshman Spencer Dinwiddie scored all 15 of his points in the second half as the Colorado Buffaloes outscored the Arizona State Sun Devils by exactly seven points in each half to finish with a 63-49 victory.

"You can tell your program has come a ways when you go on the road and expect to win," said CU head coach Tad Boyle. "We expected to win. There were some butterflies before the game because Arizona State has gotten better since we played them. I thought their match-up zone has gotten a lot better."

CU held a conference road opponent under 50 points for the first time in 45 years and the road win was much needed for the Buffaloes, who have had struggles away from home this season. CU improves to 17-8 overall and 9-4 in the Pac-12 while Arizona State falls to 8-17 and 4-9, respectively. It was February 2, 1967 when CU won at Oklahoma State, 49-42, the last time a CU league opponent scored less than 50.

The win became all that much more important with the fact that every team near the top of the Pac-12 standings also won. There are five teams within a game of each other as the Buffs 9-4 record keeps them tied for third as both Oregon (78-69 over Washington State) and Arizona (70-61 over Utah) also won to improve to 9-4 in the league standings.

"They've made some adjustments since we've last played them and (Trent) Lockett coming back is a difference maker. He's a good player and their big guys are getting better," Boyle added. "They're a physical basketball team and that's one thing we talked about before this game, we're going to have to match their physicality."

California topped UCLA, 73-63, to stay a game ahead of those three teams at 10-3, a feat Washington will attempt to accomplish Sunday with a match up at Oregon State. For at least a day, Cal takes a half-game lead over Washington, who then has a half-game lead over the Buffs, Wildcats and Ducks with most teams having five league games remaining.

Andre Roberson and Austin Dufault added 12 points apiece for the Buffaloes, who won their third straight game against the Sun Devils and have won three of four overall. CU is now 4-2 all-time against Arizona State and the Buffs have swept a Pac-12 opponent for the first time.

Jonathan Gilling scored 11 points and Lockett added 10 for Arizona State, which has lost three of four and eight of its last 11.

After the Sun Devils trimmed a football type score of 28-21 down to five points, the Buffs managed an 8-0 run as Dinwiddie and senior Nate Tomlinson got hit 3-pointers for the Buffs to take a 39-26 advantage five minutes into the second half.

The Buffs led by as many as 19 in the second half and with another football-esque score in the second half of 35-28 in favor of the Buffs, CU got its 14-point victory nine touchdowns to seven, 63-49.

The Buffaloes have now won two league road games by double figures for the first time since 1998-99. The Buffaloes won at USC, 74-50, on January 26.

For the Buffaloes, this team is comparable to their 1996-97 team that featured Chauncey Billups and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. CU at 17-8 has its best 25-game record since that season, when they were 18-7. Both teams were also 9-4 through 13 league games.
