MURRAY STATE REVIEW: Askia Booker had a career-high 23 points and Andre Roberson had 16 points and nine rebounds as CU won the Charleston Classic with an 81-74 victory over Murray State. The Buffaloes (4-0) used an 11-1 run midway through the second half to break open a tie game and finish off their perfect trip South. Booker closed that run a 3-pointer and Colorado was ahead for good, 63-53 with 5:05 to go. Murray State (3-1) was the last undefeated team in 2011-12, starting 23-0 on the way to a 31-2 record. The Racers got within five points several times down the stretch, including 79-74 on Isaiah Canaan's basket with 4 seconds left. Booker, who scored 58 points in the three games, was awarded the tournament's most valuable player. Spencer Dinwiddie finished with 14 points, going 11-of-12 at the foul line. Colorado made 27 of 36 from the stripe against Murray State, including all six in the final minute to keep out front.

BAYLOR RECAP: Revenge is sweet. Is pay-back sweeter? Doesn't matter. The Colorado Buffaloes got both Friday afternoon in the Charleston Classic, holding off No. 16 Baylor 60-58 to advance to the tournament's championship game. CU reeled in a rare signature win in November, with its last defeat of a ranked team in non-conference regular season play dating to 1973. Buffs coach Tad Boyle understood the magnitude of that as well as what it meant to defeat Baylor. CU's last win against a ranked opponent came last March in the NCAA Tournament, when the Buffs defeated No. 23 UNLV. In the next game in Albuquerque, N.M, Baylor ousted the Buffs 80-63. Askia Booker led the Buffs with a career-high 19 points - 16 in the first half. Spencer Dinwiddie (11) was the only other CU player in double figures. Baylor (3-1) was led by Cory Jefferson's 17, with Pierre Jackson adding 12. CU made only four of 18 free throw attempts, including missing five of six in the final 1:01. The four makes were the fewest in a Buffs win since the 1980 team sank only two against Oklahoma in a 60-59 win. Fortunately on Friday, Booker hit one of two with 11.6 seconds to play, giving CU its narrow margin.

DAYTON RECAP: Colorado's youthful Buffaloes used a 16-2 second-half run to take control Thursday against Dayton and breeze into the second round of the Charleston Classic with a 67-57 win. CU (2-0) got double-figure score from Askia Booker (16), Xavier Johnson (15), Josh Scott (13) and Spencer Dinwiddie (12). Andre Roberson collected a game-best 14 rebounds. Dayton (1-1) was led by Vee Sanford's 13 points. CU hit only 14 of 24 free throws for the afternoon, but Dinwiddie still sealed the win by making five of six in the final 37.1 seconds.

SEASON OPENER (WOFFORD): Freshman Josh Scott scored a team-high 14 points in his college debut with six rebounds as the Buffs defeated Wofford, 74-59. Sophomores Askia Booker and Spencer Dinwiddie each added 13 points each, and freshman forward Xavier Johnson came off the bench with eight boards with five points. All four of CU's freshmen scored • Sabatino Chen made his first career CU start and scored nine points • Booker tied a career-high minutes played (30) and field goals made (6).

HOME OPENER SELLOUT: For the first time at the Coors Events Center (since the 1979-80 season), CU sold out the home/season opener with 10,611 in attendance. It was also the largest non-conference home crowd (essentially in school history) to see a season/home opener. The 10,611 crowd was the third largest at CU of all non-conference home games.

GORDON & JENKINS TO REDSHIRT: Freshmen forward Wesley Gordon (Colorado Springs, Colo.) and Chris Jenkins (Detroit, Mich.) will be redshirted during the 2012-13 season. "In today's world of college basketball, I think it is pretty admirable that those guys made a decision like that. It looks well for our program down the road I promise you, because they are good players," said head coach Tad Boyle. "It is something we talked about it, but it was their decision. Wesley Gordon has the chance to be a first team All-Pac-12 player, I really believe that when it is all said and done here at Colorado."

WHAT WAS SAID ABOUT CU/COACH BOYLE

"I want to say the job that Tad Boyle has done at Colorado, and what Colorado represents to the future of the Pac-12, I can make the argument that there's been no greater gift to college basketball in the Pac-12 than adding Colorado. They are well-coached, play extremely hard, very good on defense. They have talented players now. I feel like they have some really talented players coming in. I wish them the very best in the NCAA Tournament. Whoever draws them is running into a hungry, well-coached, disciplined team." - Arizona Head Coach Sean Miller after the Pac-12 Championship game (March 10, 2012)

"I'm a believer in Tad Boyle. He is not only a terrific teacher of the game with great basketball knowledge, he keeps it simple and gives his players an understanding of what you need to do to win, but a firm understanding of how teams lose, too. Boyle has tremendous toughness in him. He is demanding without being demeaning, and he puts his players in position to achieve together without fear of failing. That's what truly outstanding coaches do, and Tad Boyle is a truly outstanding coach." - Jay Bilas, ESPN (August 8, 2012)

"Colorado had the most boisterous contingent at the Pit during the NCAA tournament. The black and gold fans in Albuquerque were loud, proud and committed to ensuring the Buffaloes were well represented. I was there. I heard it. It was obvious to anyone in the arena. The Buffaloes were rewarded with an NCAA tournament win over UNLV -- their first such victory in 15 years -- before losing to Baylor in the round of 32. This was Colorado, and the sport they were cheering was men's basketball. Now that's progress. The CU fan base had rarely been known as well traveled (or loud) during its days in the Big 12. Yet something has changed in Boulder -- for the better -- since Colorado's move to the Pac-12. Now the fan base has something to cheer about: a team that isn't going to shy away from its newfound success under Tad Boyle, who is entering this third season with the Buffs." - Andy Katz / ESPN.com (July 17, 2012)

"Tad Boyle, Colorado. The Buffaloes' prospects begin with the best-kept secret in college basketball: Andre Roberson, a 6-7 jumping jack who was the nation's third-leading rebounder last season (11.1 per game) while leading the Pac-12 in blocks (1.9). Roberson's improvement enabled the Buffaloes to win the Pac-12 tournament and reach the NCAA tournament for the first time in nine years. While Colorado lost three starters, it is bringing back its three most talented players in Roberson, 6-5 sophomore guard Spencer Dinwiddie and 6-1 sophomore guard Askia Booker. "We'll be more talented, but not as experienced," Boyle said. Six freshmen have also entered the program, most notably Josh Scott, a 6-10 forward from Colorado Springs who Boyle said "can really score it"; and Xavier Johnson, a 6-7 forward who played at Mater Dei High in southern California. Looking ahead, one of the main questions that needs to be answered is whether Roberson can provide leadership that is commensurate with his talent. "You always want your best player to do that," Boyle said. "In the past he has led by example, but he's not the most vocal person in the world. We've been talking to him this summer about doing that." If Roberson can find his voice, then the Buffaloes will be ready to make some noise in the much-improved Pac-12.

- Seth Davis, SI Inside College Basketball (July 30, 2012)

"This exciting process was all about both the young men we have currently and those in the future who will be joining our program, and is an investment in them and represents the competitive spirit, teamwork, passion and dedication they stand for. Tad Boyle represents everything that is right about college basketball. We look forward to his leadership, poise and competitive drive to unite all our collective Buff interests to support our team and this enterprise that has so much promise for the long term."

- Mike Bohn, University of Colorado Athletics Director on what made Tad Boyle stand out above the other candidates (Monday, April 19, 2010)

TAD BOYLE COACHING TREE

Below is a diagram of all the head coaches that Boyle played for or coached under at the college level, and all the mentors those coaches played for or coached under, etc. going all the way back to Dr. James Naismith. The shortest route tracing Boyle back to the game's inventor is only four generations (going either from Larry Brown to Dean Smith to Phog Allen to Naismith, or from Ted Owens to Dick Harp to Allen to Naismith). Boyle is a direct descendant of seven members of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame as well as a charter member of the College Football Hall of Fame. Notable "cousins" along the way are also mentioned:
