2013 NCAA WEST PRELIMINARY CHAMPIONSHIPS MIKE A MYERS TRACK STADIUM AUSTIN, TEXAS

Let's Review...The University of Colorado is sending a group of 24 athletes to compete at the NCAA West Preliminary Championships, the first round of the NCAA Championships. The men have 11 individuals competing and the women have nine individuals participating. Both the men's and women's 4x400-meter relay teams will also be making the trip.

The Schedule...The NCAA West Preliminary Championships will take place May 23-25 in Austin, Texas. Several Buffs will be competing each day at the meet. A complete schedule is on the following pages.

Results...www.texassports.com and <http://www.ncaa.com/liveschedule>.

Live Results...The University of Texas will provide a live stream of the meet. Follow the links at www.texassports.com.

2013 Pac-12 Recap...The Buffs won a pair of individual titles at the 2013 Pac-12 Championships and the men placed sixth, while the women took 10th. Emma Coburn and Aric Van Halen won the individual titles in the 3,000-meter steeplechase.

Two Is Better Than One...Winning one title in the 3,000-meter steeplechase is good, but CU's athletes brought home a pair of titles when Emma Coburn and Aric Van Halen each won the steeplechase at the Pac-12 Championships on May 11.

Coburn won her race in 9:55.67 and Van Halen ran 9:41.73.

22 Pick-Up...Aric Van Halen recorded 10 points for the Buffs team score when he won the steeplechase at the Pac-12 Championships, but he wasn't the only Buff to score. Four CU runners crossed the finish in the top eight to total 22 points for the team. Blake Theroux finished third (8:49.99) and Hugh Dowdy was fourth (8:50.75). Jonny Stevens rounded out the team score with an eighth-place finish (9:01.85).

First Since 2007...For the first time since 2007, CU won both the men's and women's steeplechase titles. The last time this happened, Jenny Barringer (now Simpson) and Billy Nelson combined for the sweep at the Big 12 Championships. Both went on to compete at the Olympics in the steeplechase in 2008 and both are currently running professionally.

Pac-12 Multis...The Pac-12 Championships got off to a great start for the Buffs as all four athletes competing placed in the top eight to score for CU.

The women scored 12 points. Redshirt freshman Abrianna Torres led the way for the Buffs with a bronze finish and a PR of 5,357 points. Senior Brianne Beemer was fourth with 5,238 points and junior Genny Mayden placed seventh (5,161).

On the men's side, junior Brock Emory earned an eighth-place finish with 6,927 points.

Oxy High Performance...While most NCAA athletes took last weekend off from competition, Emma Coburn competed at the Oxy High Performance Meet on May 17 at Occidental College in L.A. Coburn raced in the 1,500 and set a huge personal best at 4:06.87. The time ranks second in CU history, but was also the sixth fastest in NCAA history. The time put her fifth on the NCAA all-time performers list and is the fastest run since 2009 when her former teammate, Jenny (Barringer) Simpson, set the collegiate record at 3:59.90.

Record Breaking Year...2013 has been the year of falling records at Colorado. CU had two records fall during the indoor season when Joe Morris ran 6.57 in the 60-meter dash and Bri Beemer recorded 4,059 points in the pentathlon.

The momentum has kept going and this spring has been no different. At the Mt. SAC Relays, Eileen Gehring picked up a pair for herself in the 200 and 400-meter dashes. Gehring ran 23.80 in the 200 and 53.23 in the 400. Emily Hunsucker also set the record in the hammer throw of 203-9 at the Cowpoke Open. Which record will fall next? Only time will tell.

Closing In...There are several Buffs who are just shy of breaking records and could reach those milestones at any given point. Joe Morris is just fractions of a second from setting the 100 and 200-meter dashes. Jake Hurysz is also extremely close in the 1,500 as he is less than one second from the record.

On the women's side, Abrianna Torres is just six inches from CU's long jump record.

NCAA Record In The Making...Emma Coburn's personal best in the steeplechase is about 11 seconds off of CU's record (9:12.50), which is also the American record, but the NCAA record is just 9:25.54, which she could easily take down since she ran faster than that twice last season while redshirting.

Steeplechase U...The University of Colorado might as well be called Steeplechase U since the event has been dominated collegiately and nationally by Colorado since 2006. The Buffs have won five NCAA titles in the last seven years. Jenny Barringer (now Simpson) won the event as a freshman in 2006 and again in 2008 and 2009. Emma Coburn won her first title in 2011 after earning runner-up honors in 2010. Shalaya Kipp became the third Buff to win a steeplechase crown when she won the NCAA title in 2012.

The Buffs win at the USA Track & Field Championships as well. Simpson won in 2007 and 2009 and Emma Coburn won the title in 2011 and 2012.

Double-Up...Not many collegiate athletes would race in two different meets in two different time zones over 1,800 miles apart in the same weekend, but that is exactly what Emma Coburn did April 26-28. She started off by racing the 1,500 at the 104th Drake Relays in Des Moines, Iowa. Coburn was the only collegiate athlete in the field and finished eighth in 4:11.36.

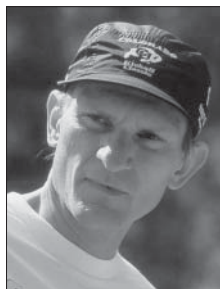

Two days later, on April 28, she hit the track again. This time at the Payton Jordan Cardinal Invite in Stanford, Calif. It was her season debut in the steeplechase and she didn't disappoint as she finished first in 9:28.26, the fastest time in the world at this point in the season.

Coburn was named the CU and Pac-12 Athlete of the Week for her performances and also regained recognition on The Bowerman Watch List.

How Fast Can He Go...Joe Morris has been CU's top sprinter since he arrived, and every day he keeps getting better and better. At the Jack Christiansen Invite (4/27) he clocked a time of 10.09 in the 100 and 20.45 in the 200 to rank second at CU in both.

Heptathlon Records...Abrianna Torres is just a redshirt freshman for the Buffs, but she is competing like a very mature athlete and has moved to the front of the pack in the heptathlon shot put. Torres set the record in the shot put in her first heptathlon in a CU uniform, throwing 42-7. In her second heptathlon, she recorded the second-best mark at 41-11.25.

Torres is a good javelin thrower and she recorded the third best mark at 132-11. She has also done well in the long jump and jumped the 10th best mark at 19-4. Torres became the fifth best performer at CU at the Pac-12 Combined Events Championships when she recorded 5,357 points, which currently ranks 22nd in the nation.

The Man...The Myth..The Reality...is that Mark Wetmore is a proven success in collegiate track & field coaching when it comes to his distance runners. Wetmore has guided 10 athletes to 17 NCAA titles, including Olympians Adam Goucher (cross 1998, indoor 3k in 1997 and 1998, outdoor 5k in 1998) and Alan Culpepper (outdoor in 1996), Kara Grgas-Wheeler (2000 outdoor 3k, 5k and NCAA cross), Jodie Hughes (indoor 5k 2001), Sara (Gorton) Slattery (indoor 5k 2005, outdoor 10k 2005), Renee Metivier (indoor 3k 2005) and Jorge Torres in men's cross country in 2002, followed by Dathan Ritzenhein in 2003. Jenny Barringer, who won the 3,000-meter steeplechase and became CU's first true freshman to win an individual national championship. She also won as a junior and senior. Emma Coburn became Wetmore's 10th athlete to win an NCAA title, doing so in 2011 in the steeplechase and Shalaya Kipp won the following year (2012).

CUSPYs...The CU Track & Field team ran away with numerous awards at the 2013 CU Sports Performers of the Year banquet on April 30. Redshirt freshman Pierce Murphy was awarded the CU Freshman Male Athlete of the Year and senior Emma Coburn was named the CU Female Athlete of the Year. Coburn and senior Joe Morris were both honored with the CU Career Achievement Award.

Back-To-Back...Emma Coburn won back-to-back USATF steeplechase crowns in 2011 and 2012. She competed at the IAAF World Championships in 2011 and placed ninth at the 2012 Olympics. Coburn currently owns the fastest time in the world this season (9:28.26).

Up Next...The NCAA Outdoor Championships will be contested June 5-8 in Eugene, Ore.
